Job 8:11 'Can papyrus flourish except in marshes? Without water can the rushes grow?

Job 8:12 Even when green and before being cut, fastest of all plants they wither.

Job 8:13 Such is the fate of all who forget God; so perishes the hope of the godless.

Job 8:14 His hope is nothing but gossamer, his confidence a spider's web.

Job 8:15 Let him lean on his house, it will not stand firm; cling to it, it will not hold.

Job 8:16 Like some lush plant in the sunlight, he sent his young shoots sprouting over the garden;

Job 8:17 but his roots were twined in a heap of stones, he drew his life among the rocks.

Job 8:18 Snatch him from his bed, and it denies it ever saw him.

Job 8:19 Now he rots on the roadside, and others are springing up in the soil.

Job 8:20 Believe me, God neither spurns anyone of integrity, nor lends his aid to the evil.

Job 8:21 Once again laughter may fill your mouth and cries of joy break from your lips.

Job 8:22 Your enemies will be covered with shame and the tent of the wicked will vanish!’

Job 9:1 Job spoke next. He said:

Job 9:2 Indeed, I know it is as you say: how could anyone claim to be upright before God?

Job 9:3 Anyone trying to argue matters with him, could not give him one answer in a thousand.

Job 9:4 Among the wisest and the hardiest, who then can successfully defy him?

Job 9:5 He moves the mountains, though they do not know it; he throws them down when he is angry.

Job 9:6 He shakes the earth, and moves it from its place, making all its pillars tremble.

Job 9:7 The sun, at his command, forbears to rise, and on the stars he sets a seal.

Job 9:8 He and no other has stretched out the heavens and trampled on the back of the Sea.

Job 9:9 He has made the Bear and Orion, the Pleiades and the Mansions of the South.

Job 9:10 The works he does are great and unfathomable, and his marvels cannot be counted.

Job 9:11 If he passes me, I do not see him; he slips by, imperceptible to me.

Job 9:12 If he snatches his prey, who is going to stop him or dare to ask, ‘What are you doing?’

Job 9:13 God does not renounce his anger: beneath him, Rahab’s minions still lie prostrate.

Job 9:14 And here am I, proposing to defend myself and select my arguments against him!

Job 9:15 Even if I am upright, what point is there in answering him? I can only plead for mercy with my judge!

Job 9:16 And if he deigned to answer my citation, I cannot believe he would listen to what I said,

Job 9:17 he who crushes me for one hair, who, for no reason, wounds and wounds again,

Job 9:18 not even letting me regain my breath, with so much bitterness he fills me!

Job 9:19 Shall I try force? Look how strong he is! Or go to court? But who will summon him?

Job 9:20 If I prove myself upright, his mouth may condemn me, even if I am innocent, he may pronounce me perverse.

Job 9:21 But am I innocent? I am no longer sure, and life itself I despise!

Job 9:22 It is all one, and hence I boldly say: he destroys innocent and guilty alike.

Job 9:23 When a sudden deadly scourge descends, he laughs at the plight of the innocent.

Job 9:24 When a country falls into the power of the wicked, he veils the faces of its judges. Or if not he, who else?

Job 9:25 My days pass: more swiftly than a runner they flee away with never a glimpse of happiness,

Job 9:26 they skim past like a reed canoe, like an eagle swooping on its prey.

Job 9:27 If I decide to stifle my complaining, change countenance, and wear a smiling face,

Job 9:28 fear seizes me at the thought of all my woes, for I know you do not regard me as innocent.

Job 9:29 And if I have done wrong, why should I put myself to useless trouble?

Job 9:30 If I wash myself in melted snow, clean my hands with soda,

Job 9:31 you will only plunge me into the dung, till my clothes themselves recoil from me!

Job 9:32 For he is not human like me: impossible for me to answer him or appear alongside him in court.

Job 9:33 There is no arbiter between us, to lay his hand on both,

Job 9:34 to stay his rod from me, or keep away his daunting terrors.

Job 9:35 Nonetheless, unafraid of him, I shall speak: since I do not see myself like that at all!

Job 10:1 Since I have lost all taste for life, I shall give free rein to my complaining; I shall let my embittered soul speak out.

Job 10:2 I shall say to God, 'Do not condemn me, tell me what your case is against me.

Job 10:3 Is it right for you to attack me, in contempt for what you yourself have made, thus abetting the schemes of the wicked?

Job 10:4 Are your eyes mere human eyes, do you see as human beings see?

Job 10:5 Are you mortal like human beings? do your years pass as human days pass?

Job 10:6 You, who enquire into my faults and investigate my sins,

Job 10:7 you know very well that I am innocent, and that no one can rescue me from your grasp.

Job 10:8 Your hands having shaped and created me, now you change your mind and mean to destroy me!

Job 10:9 Having made me, remember, as though of clay, now you mean to turn me back into dust!

Job 10:10 Did you not pour me out like milk, and then let me thicken like curds,

Job 10:11 clothe me with skin and flesh, and weave me of bone and sinew?

Job 10:12 In your love you gave me life, and in your care watched over my every breath.

Job 10:13 Yet, all the while, you had a secret plan: I know that you were biding your time

Job 10:14 to see if I should sin and then not acquit me of my faults.

Job 10:15 Woe to me, if I am guilty; even if I am upright, I dare not lift my head, so overwhelmed with shame and drunk with pain am I!

Job 10:16 Proud as a lion, you hunt me down, multiplying your exploits at my expense,

Job 10:17 attacking me again and again, your fury against me ever increasing, your troops assailing me, wave after wave.

Job 10:18 Why did you bring me out of the womb? I should have perished then, unseen by any eye,

Job 10:19 a being that had never been, to be carried from womb to grave.

Job 10:20 The days of my life are few enough: turn your eyes away, leave me a little joy,

Job 10:21 before I go to the place of no return, to the land of darkness and shadow dark as death,

Job 10:22 where dimness and disorder hold sway, and light itself is like dead of night.

Job 11:1 Zophar of Naamath spoke next. He said:

Job 11:2 Is babbling to go without an answer? Is wordiness a proof of uprightness?

Job 11:3 Do you think your talking strikes people dumb, will you jeer with no one to refute you?

Job 11:4 These were your words, ‘My conduct is pure, in your eyes I am free of blame!’

Job 11:5 Will no one let God speak, open his lips and give you answer,

Job 11:6 show you the secrets of wisdom which put all cleverness to shame? Then you would realise that God is calling you to account for your sin.

Job 11:7 Can you claim to fathom the depth of God, can you reach the limit of Shaddai?

Job 11:8 It is higher than the heavens: what can you do? It is deeper than Sheol: what can you know?

Job 11:9 It would be longer to measure than the earth and broader than the sea.

Job 11:10 If he intervenes to close or convoke the assembly, who is to prevent him?

Job 11:11 He knows how deceptive human beings are, and he sees their misdeeds too, and marks them well.

Job 11:12 Hence empty-headed people would do well to study sense and people who behave like wild donkeys to let themselves be tamed.

Job 11:13 Come, reconsider your attitude, stretch out your hands towards him!

Job 11:14 If you repudiate the sin which you have doubtless committed and do not allow wickedness to live on in your tents,

Job 11:15 you will be able to raise an unsullied face, unwavering and free from fear,

Job 11:16 for you will forget about your misery, thinking of it only as a flood that passed long ago.

Job 11:17 Then begins an existence more radiant than noon, and the very darkness will be bright as morning.

Job 11:18 Confident because there is hope; after your troubles, you will sleep secure.

Job 11:19 When you lie down to rest, no one will trouble you, and many will seek your favour.

Job 11:20 But as for the wicked, their eyes are weary, there is no refuge for them; their only hope is to breathe their last.

Job 12:1 Job spoke next. He said:

Job 12:2 Doubtless, you are the voice of the people, and when you die, wisdom will die with you!

Job 12:3 But I have a brain, as well as you, I am in no way inferior to you, and who, in any case, does not know all that?

Job 12:4 Anyone becomes a laughing-stock to his friends if he cries to God and expects an answer. People laugh at anyone who has integrity and is upright.

Job 12:5 ‘Add insult to injury,’ think the prosperous, ‘strike the fellow now that he is staggering!’

Job 12:6 And yet the tents of brigands are left in peace: those who provoke God dwell secure and so does anyone who makes a god of his fist!

Job 12:7 You have only to ask the cattle, for them to instruct you, and the birds of the sky, for them to inform you.

Job 12:8 The creeping things of earth will give you lessons, and the fish of the sea provide you an explanation:

Job 12:9 there is not one such creature but will know that the hand of God has arranged things like this!

Job 12:10 In his hand is the soul of every living thing and the breath of every human being!

Job 12:11 Can the ear not distinguish the value of what is said, just as the palate can tell one food from another?

Job 12:12 Wisdom is found in the old, and discretion comes with great age.

Job 12:13 But in him there is wisdom, and power too, and good counsel no less than discretion.

Job 12:14 What he destroys, no one can rebuild; whom he imprisons, no one can release.

Job 12:15 Is there a drought? He has withheld the waters. Do they play havoc on earth? He has let them loose.

Job 12:16 In him is strength, in him resourcefulness, beguiler and beguiled alike are his.

Job 12:17 He robs a country’s counsellors of their wits, turns judges into fools.

Job 12:18 He undoes the belts of kings and knots a rope round their waists.

Job 12:19 He makes priests walk barefoot, and overthrows the powers that are established.

Job 12:20 He strikes the most assured of speakers dumb and robs old people of their discretion.

Job 12:21 He pours contempt on the nobly born, and unbuckles the belt of the strong.

Job 12:22 He unveils the depths of darkness, brings shadow dark as death to the light.

Job 12:23 He builds nations up, then ruins them, he makes peoples expand, then suppresses them.

Job 12:24 He strips a country's leaders of their judgement, and leaves them to wander in a trackless waste,

Job 12:25 to grope about in unlit darkness, lurching to and fro as though drunk.

Job 13:1 I have seen all this with my own eyes, heard with my own ears and understood.

Job 13:2 Whatever you know, I know too; I am in no way inferior to you.

Job 13:3 But my words are intended for Shaddai; I mean to remonstrate with God.

Job 13:4 As for you, you are only charlatans, all worthless as doctors!

Job 13:5 Will no one teach you to be quiet—the only wisdom that becomes you!

Job 13:6 Kindly listen to my accusation and give your attention to the way I shall plead.

Job 13:7 Do you mean to defend God by prevarication and by dishonest argument,

Job 13:8 and, taking his side like this, appoint yourselves as his advocates?

Job 13:9 How would you fare, if he were to scrutinise you? Can he be duped as mortals are duped?

Job 13:10 He would inflict a harsh rebuke on you for your covert partiality.

Job 13:11 Does his majesty not affright you? Does his terror not overcome you?

Job 13:12 Your received ideas are maxims of ash, your retorts, retorts of clay.

Job 13:13 Be quiet! Kindly let me do the talking, happen to me what may.

Job 13:14 I am putting my flesh between my teeth, I am taking my life in my hands;

Job 13:15 let him kill me if he will; I have no other hope than to justify my conduct in his eyes.

Job 13:16 And this is what will save me, for the wicked would not dare to appear before him.

Job 13:17 Listen carefully to my words, and pay attention to what I am going to say.

Job 13:18 You see, I shall proceed by form of law, knowing that I am upright.

Job 13:19 Who wants to contest my case? In advance, I agree to be silenced and to die!

Job 13:20 Only grant me two concessions, and then I shall not hide away from your face:

Job 13:21 remove your hand, which lies so heavy on me, no longer make me cower from your terror.

Job 13:22 Then call me forward and I shall answer, or rather, I shall speak and you will answer.

Job 13:23 How many faults and crimes have I committed? Tell me what my misdeed has been, what my sin?

Job 13:24 Why do you hide your face and look on me as your enemy?

Job 13:25 Do you want to intimidate a wind-blown leaf, do you want to pursue a dry straw?

Job 13:26 You who lay bitter allegations against me and tax me with the faults of my youth

Job 13:27 and have put my feet in the stocks; you examine my every step and measure my footprints one by one!

Job 13:28 For his part, he crumbles away like rotten wood, or like a moth-eaten garment,

Job 14:1 a human being, born of woman, whose life is short but full of trouble.

Job 14:2 Like a flower, such a one blossoms and withers, fleeting as a shadow, transient.

Job 14:3 And this is the creature on whom you fix your gaze, and bring to judgement before you!

Job 14:4 But will anyone produce the pure from what is impure? No one can!

Job 14:5 Since his days are measured out, since his tale of months depends on you, since you assign him bounds he cannot pass,

Job 14:6 turn your eyes from him, leave him alone, like a hired labourer, to finish his day in peace.

Job 14:7 There is always hope for a tree: when felled, it can start its life again; its shoots continue to sprout.

Job 14:8 Its roots may have grown old in the earth, its stump rotting in the ground,

Job 14:9 but let it scent the water, and it buds, and puts out branches like a plant newly set.

Job 14:10 But a human being? He dies, and dead he remains, breathes his last, and then where is he?

Job 14:11 The waters of the sea will vanish, the rivers stop flowing and run dry:

Job 14:12 a human being, once laid to rest, will never rise again, the heavens will wear out before he wakes up, or before he is roused from his sleep.

Job 14:13 Will no one hide me in Sheol, and shelter me there till your anger is past, fixing a certain day for calling me to mind-

Job 14:14 can the dead come back to life? - day after day of my service, I should be waiting for my relief to come.

Job 14:15 Then you would call, and I should answer, you would want to see once more what you have made.

Job 14:16 Whereas now you count every step I take, you would then stop spying on my sin;

Job 14:17 you would seal up my crime in a bag, and put a cover over my fault.

Job 14:18 Alas! Just as, eventually, the mountain falls down, the rock moves from its place,

Job 14:19 water wears away the stones, the cloudburst erodes the soil; so you destroy whatever hope a person has.

Job 14:20 You crush him once for all, and he is gone; first you disfigure him, then you dismiss him.

Job 14:21 His children may rise to honours—he does not know it; they may come down in the world—he does not care.

Job 14:22 He feels no pangs, except for his own body, makes no lament, except for his own self.

Job 15:1 Eliphaz of Teman spoke next. He said:

Job 15:2 Does anyone wise respond with windy arguments, or feed on an east wind?

Job 15:3 Or make a defence with ineffectual words and speeches good for nothing?

Job 15:4 You do worse: you suppress reverence, you discredit discussion before God.

Job 15:5 Your very fault incites you to speak like this, hence you adopt this language of cunning.

Job 15:6 Your own mouth condemns you, and not I; your own lips bear witness against you.

Job 15:7 Are you the first-born of the human race, brought into the world before the hills?

Job 15:8 Have you been a listener at God's council, or established a monopoly of wisdom?

Job 15:9 What knowledge do you have that we have not, what understanding that is not ours too?

Job 15:10 One of us is an old, grey-headed man loaded with more years than your father!

Job 15:11 Can you ignore these divine consolations and the moderate tone of our words?

Job 15:12 How passion carries you away! And how you roll your eyes,

Job 15:13 when you vent your anger on God and speeches come tripping off your tongue!

Job 15:14 How can anyone be pure, anyone born of woman be upright?

Job 15:15 God cannot rely even on his holy ones, to him, even the heavens seem impure.

Job 15:16 How much more, this hateful, corrupt thing, humanity, which soaks up wickedness like water!

Job 15:17 Listen to me, I have a lesson for you: I am going to impart my own experience

Job 15:18 and the tradition of the sages who have remained faithful to their ancestors,

Job 15:19 to whom alone the land was given—no foreigner included among them.

Job 15:20 The life of the wicked is unceasing torment, the years allotted to the tyrant are numbered.

Job 15:21 A cry of panic echoes in his ear; when all is peace, his destroyer swoops down on him.

Job 15:22 No more can he count on escaping from the dark, but knows that he is destined for the sword,

Job 15:23 marked down as meat for the vulture. He knows that his ruin is at hand.

Job 15:24 The hour of darkness terrifies him, distress and anguish assail him as when a king is poised for the assault.

Job 15:25 He raised his hand against God, boldly he defied Shaddai!

Job 15:26 Head lowered, he charged him, with his massively bossed shield.

Job 15:27 His face had grown full and fat, and his thighs too heavy with flesh.

Job 15:28 He had occupied the towns he had destroyed, with their uninhabited houses about to fall into ruins;

Job 15:29 but no great profit to him, his luck will not hold, he will cast his shadow over the country no longer,

Job 15:30 (he will not escape the dark). A flame will scorch his young shoots, the wind will carry off his blossom.

Job 15:31 Let him not trust in his great height or delusion will be his.

Job 15:32 His palm trees will wither before their time and his branches never again be green.

Job 15:33 Like the vine, he will shake off his unripe fruit, like the olive tree, shed his blossom.

Job 15:34 Yes, sterile is the spawn of the sinner, and fire consumes the tents of the venal.

Job 15:35 Whoever conceives malice, breeds disaster, bears as offspring only a false hope.

Job 16:1 Job spoke next. He said:

Job 16:2 How often have I heard all this before! What sorry comforters you are!

Job 16:3 'When will these windy arguments be over?' or again, 'What sickness drives you to defend yourself?'

Job 16:4 Oh yes! I too could talk as you do, if you were in my place; I could overwhelm you with speeches, shaking my head over you,

Job 16:5 and speak words of encouragement, and then have no more to say.

Job 16:6 When I speak, my suffering does not stop; if I say nothing, is it in any way reduced?

Job 16:7 And now it is driving me to distraction; you have struck my whole acquaintanceship with horror,

Job 16:8 now it rounds on me, my slanderer has now turned witness, he appears against me, accusing me face to face;

Job 16:9 his anger tears and hounds me with gnashing teeth. My enemies look daggers at me,

Job 16:10 and open gaping jaws. Their sneers strike like slaps in the face; and they all set on me at once.

Job 16:11 Yes, God has handed me over to the godless, and cast me into the hands of the wicked.

Job 16:12 I was living at peace, until he made me totter, taking me by the neck to shatter me. He has set me up as his target:

Job 16:13 he shoots his arrows at me from all sides, pitilessly pierces my loins, and pours my gall out on the ground.

Job 16:14 Breach after breach he drives through me, charging on me like a warrior.

Job 16:15 I have sewn sackcloth over my skin, thrown my forehead in the dust.

Job 16:16 My face is red with tears, and shadow dark as death covers my eyelids.

Job 16:17 Nonetheless, my hands are free of violence, and my prayer is pure.

Job 16:18 Cover not my blood, O earth, and let my cry mount without cease!

Job 16:19 Henceforth I have a witness in heaven, my defender is there on high.

Job 16:20 Interpreter of my thoughts there with God, before whom flow my tears,

Job 16:21 let my anguish plead the cause of a man at grips with God, just as a man might defend his fellow.

Job 16:22 For the years of my life are numbered, and I am leaving by the road of no return.

Job 17:1 My breathing is growing weaker and the gravediggers are gathering for me.

Job 17:2 Scoffers are my only companions, their harshness haunts my nights.

Job 17:3 So you must go bail for me to yourself, for which of them cares to clap his hand on mine?

Job 17:4 For you have shut their hearts to reason, hence not a hand is lifted.

Job 17:5 Just so is a man who invites his friends to share his property while the eyes of his own children languish.

Job 17:6 I have become a byword among foreigners, and a creature on whose face to spit,

Job 17:7 since I am nearly blind with grief and my limbs are reduced to a shadow.

Job 17:8 Any honest person is appalled at the sight, the innocent is indignant at the sinner.

Job 17:9 Anyone upright grows stronger step by step: and anyone whose hands are clean grows ever in vigour!

Job 17:10 Come on then, all of you, back to the attack! I shall not find one wise man among you!

Job 17:11 My days are over, so are my plans, my heart-strings are broken;

Job 17:12 yet they would have me believe that night is day, that light to dispel the darkness is at hand,

Job 17:13 when all I want, in fact, is to dwell in Sheol and in that darkness there to make my bed!

Job 17:14 To the tomb, I cry, 'You are my father!'—to the worm, 'You are my mother-you, my sister!'

Job 17:15 Where then is my hope? Who can see any happiness for me?

Job 17:16 unless they come down to Sheol with me, all of us sinking into the dust together?

Job 18:1 Bildad of Shuah spoke next. He said:

Job 18:2 What prevents you others from saying something? Think—for it is our turn to speak!

Job 18:3 Why do you regard us as animals, considering us no more than brutes?

Job 18:4 Tear yourself to pieces if you will, but the world, for all your rage, will not turn to desert, the rocks will not shift from their places.

Job 18:5 The light of the wicked must certainly be put out, the lamp that gives him light cease to shine.

Job 18:6 In his tent the light is dimmed, the lamp that shone on him is snuffed.

Job 18:7 His vigorous stride loses its power, his own designs falter.

Job 18:8 For into the net his own feet carry him, he walks into the snares.

Job 18:9 A spring grips him by the heel, a trap snaps shut, and he is caught.

Job 18:10 Hidden in the ground is a snare to catch him, pitfalls lie across his path.

Job 18:11 Terrors threaten him from all sides following him step by step.

Job 18:12 Hunger becomes his companion, by his side Disaster stands.

Job 18:13 Disease devours his skin, Death’s First-Born gnaws his limbs.

Job 18:14 He will be torn from the shelter of his tent, and you will drag him to the King of Terrors.

Job 18:15 You can live in the tent, since it is no longer his, and brimstone will be scattered on his sheepfold.

Job 18:16 Below, his roots dry out and his branches are blasted above.

Job 18:17 His memory fades from the land, his name is forgotten in the countryside.

Job 18:18 Driven from the light into the darkness, he is banished from the world,

Job 18:19 without issue or posterity among his own people or a single survivor where he used to live.

Job 18:20 His end appals the west and fills the east with terror.

Job 18:21 Such indeed is the fate of the places where wickedness dwells—the home of everyone who knows not God.

Job 19:1 Job spoke next. He said:

Job 19:2 How much longer are you going to torment me and crush me by your speeches?

Job 19:3 You have insulted me ten times already: have you no shame at maltreating me?

Job 19:4 Even if I had gone astray, my error would still be my own affair.

Job 19:5 But, whereas you take this superior attitude and claim that my disgrace is my own fault,

Job 19:6 I tell you that God has wronged me and enveloped me in his net.

Job 19:7 If I protest against such violence, I am not heard, if I appeal against it, judgement is never given.

Job 19:8 He has built an impassable wall across my path and covered my way with darkness.

Job 19:9 He has deprived me of my glory and taken the crown from my head.

Job 19:10 He assails me from all directions to make me vanish; he uproots my hope as he might a tree.

Job 19:11 Inflamed with anger against me, he regards me as his foe.

Job 19:12 His troops have come in force, directing their line of advance towards me, they are now encamped round my tent.

Job 19:13 He has alienated my brothers from me, my relatives take care to avoid me,

Job 19:14 my intimate friends have gone away and the guests in my house have forgotten me.

Job 19:15 My slave-girls regard me as an intruder, a stranger as far as they are concerned.

Job 19:16 My servant does not answer when I call him, I am obliged to beg favours from him!

Job 19:17 My breath is unbearable to my wife, my stench to my own brothers.

Job 19:18 Even the children look down on me, whenever I stand up, they start jeering at me.

Job 19:19 All my dearest friends recoil from me in horror: those I loved best have turned against me.

Job 19:20 My flesh is rotting under my skin, my bones are sticking out like teeth.

Job 19:21 Pity me, pity me, my friends, since I have been struck by the hand of God.

Job 19:22 Must you persecute me just as God does, and give my body no peace?

Job 19:23 Will no one let my words be recorded, inscribed on some monument

Job 19:24 with iron chisel and engraving tool, cut into the rock for ever?

Job 19:25 I know that I have a living Defender and that he will rise up last, on the dust of the earth.

Job 19:26 After my awakening, he will set me close to him, and from my flesh I shall look on God.

Job 19:27 He whom I shall see will take my part: my eyes will be gazing on no stranger. My heart sinks within me.

Job 19:28 When you say, 'How can we confound him? What pretext can we discover against him?'

Job 19:29 You yourselves had best beware the sword, since the wrath bursts into flame at wicked deeds and then you will learn that there is indeed a judgement!

Job 20:1 Zophar of Naamath spoke next. He said:

Job 20:2 My thoughts urge me to reply to this, and hence the impatience that grips me.

Job 20:3 I have put up with prating that outrages me and now my mind inspires me with an answer.

Job 20:4 Do you not know, that since time began and human beings were set on the earth,

Job 20:5 the triumph of the wicked has always been brief, and the sinner's gladness has never lasted long?

Job 20:6 Towering to the sky he may have been, his head touching the clouds;

Job 20:7 but he vanishes, like a phantom, once for all, while those who used to see him, ask, 'Where is he?'

Job 20:8 Like a dream that leaves no trace he takes his flight, like a vision in the night he flies away.

Job 20:9 The eye accustomed to see him sees him no more, his home will never set eyes on him again.

Job 20:10 His sons will have to reimburse the poor and his children pay back his riches.

Job 20:11 His bones used to be full of youthful vigour: and there it lies, in the dust with him, now!

Job 20:12 Evil was sweet to his mouth, he would shelter it under his tongue;

Job 20:13 cultivating it carefully, he would let it linger on his palate.

Job 20:14 Such food goes bad in his belly, working inside him like the poison of a viper.

Job 20:15 Now he has to vomit up the wealth that he has swallowed, God makes him disgorge it.

Job 20:16 He used to suck vipers’ venom, and the tongue of the adder kills him.

Job 20:17 No more will he know the streams of oil or the torrents of honey and cream.

Job 20:18 When he gives back his winnings, his cheerfulness will fade, and the satisfied air he had when business was thriving.

Job 20:19 Since he once destroyed the huts of the poor, plundering houses instead of building them up,

Job 20:20 since his avarice could never be satisfied, now all his hoarding will not save him;

Job 20:21 since nothing could escape his greed, his prosperity will not last.

Job 20:22 When he has everything he needs, want will seize him, and misery will light on him with all its force.

Job 20:23 On him God looses all his burning wrath, hurling against his flesh a hail of arrows.

Job 20:24 If he escapes the weapons of iron, the bow of bronze will transfix him.

Job 20:25 Out of his back sticks an arrow, from his gall a shining point. The terrors advance on him,

Job 20:26 all the hidden darknesses are waiting to carry him off. A fire unlit by human hand devours him, and consumes what is left in his tent.

Job 20:27 The heavens lay bare his iniquity, and the earth rises up against him.

Job 20:28 The income of his house pours away, like the torrents, on the day of retribution.

Job 20:29 Such is the fate God reserves for the wicked, the inheritance he assigns to the accursed!

Job 21:1 Job spoke next. He said:

Job 21:2 Listen carefully to my words; let this be the consolation you allow me.

Job 21:3 Permit me to speak in my turn; you may jeer when I have spoken.

Job 21:4 Is my complaint just about a fellow-mortal? I have good grounds to be perturbed!

Job 21:5 Give your attention to me; you will be dumbfounded and will place your hand over your mouth.

Job 21:6 I myself am appalled at the very thought, and my flesh creeps.

Job 21:7 Why do the wicked still live on, their power increasing with their age?

Job 21:8 They see their posterity assured, and their offspring secure before their eyes.

Job 21:9 The peace of their houses has nothing to fear, the rod that God wields is not for them.

Job 21:10 No mishap with their bull at breeding-time, nor miscarriage with their cow at calving.

Job 21:11 They let their infants frisk like lambs, their children dance like deer.

Job 21:12 They sing to the tambourine and harp, and rejoice to the sound of the pipe.

Job 21:13 They end their lives in happiness and go down in peace to Sheol.

Job 21:14 Yet these are the ones who say to God, 'Go away! We do not want to learn your ways.

Job 21:15 What is the point of our serving Shaddai? What should we gain from praying to him?'

Job 21:16 Surely they have won their own prosperity, since God is kept so far from their plans?

Job 21:17 Do we often see the light of the wicked put out, or disaster overtake him, or the retribution of God destroy his possessions,

Job 21:18 or the wind blow him away like a straw, or a whirlwind carry him off like chaff?

Job 21:19 So God is storing up punishment for his children? But the wicked himself should be punished, and should know it!

Job 21:20 He himself should witness his own ruin, and himself drink the anger of Shaddai.

Job 21:21 Once he is gone, what joy can he gain from his family, once the number of his months has been cut off?

Job 21:22 But who can teach wisdom to God, to him who is judge of those on high?

Job 21:23 And again: one person dies in the fullness of strength, in all possible happiness and ease,

Job 21:24 thighs padded with fat and the marrow in the bones good and moist.

Job 21:25 Another dies in bitterness of heart, never having tasted happiness.

Job 21:26 They lie together down in the dust and the worms soon cover them both.

Job 21:27 Oh, I know what is in your minds, what you so spitefully think about me!

Job 21:28 'What has become of the great lord's house,' you say, 'where is the tent where the wicked used to live?'

Job 21:29 Have you never questioned people who travel, do you not understand the testimony they give:

Job 21:30 on the day of disaster, the wicked is spared, on the day of retribution, he is kept safe?

Job 21:31 And who is there then to reproach him for his deeds and to pay him back for the things he has done?

Job 21:32 He is carried away to the cemetery, and a watch is kept at his tomb.

Job 21:33 The clods of the ravine lie easy on him, and the whole population walk behind.

Job 21:34 So what sense is there in your empty consolation? your answers are the left-overs of infidelity!

Job 22:1 Eliphaz of Teman spoke next. He said:

Job 22:2 Can a human being contribute anything to God, when even someone intelligent can benefit only himself?

Job 22:3 Does Shaddai derive any benefit from your uprightness, or profit from your blameless conduct?

Job 22:4 Do you think he is punishing you for your piety and bringing you to justice for that?

Job 22:5 No, for your great wickedness, more likely, for your unlimited sins!

Job 22:6 You have exacted unearned pledges from your brothers, stripped people naked of their clothes,

Job 22:7 failed to give water to the thirsty and refused bread to the hungry;

Job 22:8 handed the land over to a strong man, for some favoured person to move in,

Job 22:9 sent widows away empty-handed and crushed the arms of orphans.

Job 22:10 No wonder, then, if snares are all around you, and sudden terrors make you afraid;

Job 22:11 if light has turned to darkness, so that you cannot see, and you have been submerged in the flood.

Job 22:12 Does not God live high in the heavens, does he not see the zenith of the stars?

Job 22:13 And because he is up there, you have said, 'What does God know? Can he judge through the dark cloud?

Job 22:14 The clouds, to him, are an impenetrable veil, as he goes his way on the rim of the heavens.'

Job 22:15 And will you still follow the ancient trail trodden by the wicked,

Job 22:16 those who were borne off before their time, whose foundations were swamped by a flood,

Job 22:17 for having said to God, 'Go away! What can Shaddai do to us?'

Job 22:18 Yet he himself had filled their houses with good things, although excluded from the plans of the wicked!

Job 22:19 At such a spectacle, the upright rejoice, and the innocent deride them:

Job 22:20 'See how our enemies have been destroyed! See how their wealth has perished in the flames!'

Job 22:21 Well then! Make peace with him, be reconciled, and all your happiness will be restored to you.

Job 22:22 Welcome the teaching from his lips, and keep his words close to your heart.

Job 22:23 If you return, humbled, to Shaddai and drive wickedness far from your tent,

Job 22:24 if you lay your gold down on the dust, Ophir down among the pebbles of the torrent,

Job 22:25 Shaddai will be bars of gold to you and silver piled in heaps.

Job 22:26 Then Shaddai will be all your delight, and you will lift your face to God.

Job 22:27 You will pray, and he will hear; and you will be able to fulfil your vows.

Job 22:28 Whatever you undertake will go well, and light will shine on your path;

Job 22:29 for he casts down the pride of the arrogant, but he saves those of downcast eyes.

Job 22:30 He rescues anyone who is innocent; have your hands clean, and you will be saved.

Job 23:1 Job spoke next. He said:

Job 23:2 My lament is still rebellious; despite my groans, his hand is just as heavy.

Job 23:3 Will no one help me to know how to travel to his dwelling?

Job 23:4 I should set out my case to him, advancing any number of grievances.

Job 23:5 Then I could learn his defence, every word of it, taking note of everything he said to me.

Job 23:6 Would he put all his strength into this debate with me? No, he would only have to give his attention to me,

Job 23:7 to recognise his opponent as upright and so I should win my case for ever.

Job 23:8 If I go to the east, he is not there; or to the west, I still cannot see him.

Job 23:9 If I seek him in the north, he is not to be found, invisible as ever, if I turn to the south.

Job 23:10 And yet he knows every step I take! Let him test me in the crucible: I shall come out pure gold.

Job 23:11 My footsteps have followed close in his, I have walked in his way without swerving;

Job 23:12 I have not neglected the commandment of his lips, in my heart I have cherished the words of his mouth.

Job 23:13 But once he has made up his mind, who can change it? Whatever he plans, that he carries out.

Job 23:14 No doubt, then, but he will carry out my sentence, like so many other decrees that he has made.

Job 23:15 That is why I am full of fear before him, and the more I think, the greater grows my dread of him.

Job 23:16 God has undermined my courage, Shaddai has filled me with fear.

Job 23:17 The darkness having failed to destroy me, I am plunged back into obscurity by him!

Job 24:1 Why does Shaddai not make known the times he has fixed; why do his faithful never see his Days?

Job 24:2 The wicked move boundary-marks away, they carry off flock and shepherd.

Job 24:3 They drive away the orphan’s donkey, as security, they seize the widow’s ox.

Job 24:4 The needy have to keep out of the way, poor country people have to keep out of sight.

Job 24:5 Like wild desert donkeys, they go out to work, searching from dawn for food, and at evening for something on which to feed their children.

Job 24:6 They go harvesting in the field of some scoundrel, they go pilfering in the vineyards of the wicked.

Job 24:7 They spend the night naked, lacking clothes, with no covering against the cold.

Job 24:8 Mountain rainstorms cut them through, unsheltered, they hug the rocks.

Job 24:9 The orphan child is torn from the breast, the child of the poor is exacted as security.

Job 24:10 They go about naked, lacking clothes, and starving while they carry the sheaves.

Job 24:11 Two little walls, their shelter at high noon; parched with thirst, they have to tread the winepress.

Job 24:12 From the towns come the groans of the dying and the gasp of the wounded crying for help. Yet God remains deaf to prayer!

Job 24:13 In contrast, there are those who reject the light: who know nothing of its ways and who do not frequent its paths.

Job 24:14 When all is dark the murderer leaves his bed to kill the poor and needy. During the night the thief goes on the prowl,

Job 24:15 The eye of the adulterer watches for twilight, ‘No one will see me,’ he mutters as he masks his face.In the daytime they keep out of sight, these people who do not want to know the light.

Job 24:16 breaking into houses while the darkness lasts.

Job 24:17 For all of them, morning is a time of shadow dark as death, since that is when they know what fear is.

Job 24:18

Job 24:19

Job 24:20

Job 24:21

Job 24:22

Job 24:23

Job 24:24

Job 24:25 Is this not so? Who can prove me a liar or show that my words have no substance?

Job 25:1 Bildad of Shuah spoke next. He said:

Job 25:2 What sovereignty, what awe, is his who creates peace on his heights!

Job 25:3 Who can count his armies? Against whom does his lightning not surge forth?

Job 25:4 Could anyone think God regards him as virtuous, the child of woman as pure!

Job 25:5 Why, the very moon lacks lustre, the very stars seem impure to him! The Shadows tremble underneath the earth, the waters and their denizens are afraid.

Job 25:6 How much less a human, this maggot, the child of man, this worm! Before his eyes, Sheol is bare, Perdition itself is uncovered.

Job 25:7 He it was who spread the North above the void and poised the earth on nothingness.

Job 25:8 He fastens up the waters in his clouds, without the clouds giving way under their weight.

Job 25:9 He covers the face of the full moon, spreading his cloud across it.

Job 25:10 He has traced a ring on the surface of the waters, at the boundary between light and dark.

Job 25:11 The pillars of the heavens tremble, awe-struck at his threats.

Job 25:12 By his power, he has whipped up the Sea, by his skill, he has crushed Rahab.

Job 25:13 His breath has made the heavens luminous, his hand transfixed the Fleeing Serpent.

Job 25:14 This is only a fraction of what he has done and all we catch of it is the feeblest echo. But who can conceive the thunder of his power?

Job 26:1 Job spoke next. He said:

Job 26:2 To one so weak, what a help you are, for the arm that is powerless, what a rescuer!

Job 26:3 What excellent advice you give the unlearned, you are never at a loss for a helpful suggestion!

Job 26:4 For whom are these words of yours intended and whence comes that wit you are now displaying?

Job 27:1 And Job continued his solemn discourse. He said:

Job 27:2 I swear by the living God who denies me justice, by Shaddai who has filled me with bitterness,

Job 27:3 that as long as a shred of life is left in me, and the breath of God breathes in my nostrils,

Job 27:4 my lips will never speak evil nor my tongue utter any lie.

Job 27:5 Far from admitting you to be in the right, I shall maintain my integrity to my dying day.

Job 27:6 I take my stand on my uprightness, I shall not stir: in my heart I need not be ashamed of my days.

Job 27:7 Let my enemy meet the fate of the wicked, my adversary, the lot of the evil-doer!

Job 27:8 For what hope does the godless have when he prays and raises his soul to God?

Job 27:9 Is God likely to hear his cries when disaster descends on him?

Job 27:10 Did he make Shaddai all his delight, calling on him at every turn?

Job 27:11 But I am showing you the way that God works, making no secret of Shaddai’s designs.

Job 27:12 And if you had all understood them for yourselves, you would not have wasted your breath in empty words.

Job 27:13 This is the fate that God assigns to the wicked, the inheritance that the violent receive from Shaddai.

Job 27:14 Though he have many children, it is but for the sword; his descendants will never have enough to eat.

Job 27:15 Plague will bury those he leaves behind him, and their widows will have no chance to mourn them.

Job 27:16 Though he amass silver like dust and gather fine clothes like clay,

Job 27:17 let him gather!-some good man will wear them, while his silver is shared among the upright.

Job 27:18 All he has built himself is a spider’s web, made himself a watchman’s shack.

Job 27:19 He goes to bed rich, but never again: he wakes to find it has all gone. As drought and heat make snow disappear, so does Sheol anyone who has sinned.

Job 27:20 Terror assails him in broad daylight, and at night a whirlwind sweeps him off. The womb that shaped him forgets him and his name is recalled no longer. Thus wickedness is blasted as a tree is struck.

Job 27:21 An east wind picks him up and drags him away, snatching him up from his homestead. He used to ill-treat the childless woman and show no kindness to the widow.

Job 27:22 Pitilessly he is turned into a target, and forced to flee from the hands that menace him. But he who lays mighty hold on tyrants rises up to take away a life that seemed secure.

Job 27:23 His downfall is greeted with applause, he is hissed wherever he goes. He is no more than a straw floating on the water, his estate is accursed throughout the land, nobody goes near his vineyard. He let him build his hopes on false security, but kept his eyes on every step he took.

Job 27:24 He had his time of glory, now he vanishes, wilting like the saltwort once it is picked, and withering like an ear of corn.

Job 28:1 Silver has its mines, and gold a place for refining.

Job 28:2 Iron is extracted from the earth, the smelted rocks yield copper.

Job 28:3 Man makes an end of darkness, to the utmost limit he digs the black rock in shadow dark as death.

Job 28:4 Foreigners bore into ravines in unfrequented places, swinging suspended far from human beings.

Job 28:5 That earth from which bread comes is ravaged underground by fire.

Job 28:6 There, the rocks have veins of sapphire and their dust contains gold.

Job 28:7 That is a path unknown to birds of prey, unseen by the eye of any vulture;

Job 28:8 a path not trodden by the lordly beasts, where no lion ever walked.

Job 28:9 Man attacks the flint, upturning mountains by their roots.

Job 28:10 He cuts canals through the rock, on the watch for anything precious.

Job 28:11 He explores the sources of rivers, bringing hidden things to light.

Job 28:12 But where does Wisdom come from? Where is Intelligence to be found?

Job 28:13 No human being knows the way to her, she is not to be found on earth where they live.

Job 28:14 'She is not in me,' says the Abyss; 'Nor here,' replies the Sea.

Job 28:15 She cannot be bought with solid gold, nor paid for with any weight of silver,

Job 28:16 nor valued against gold of Ophir, precious agate or sapphire.

Job 28:17 Neither gold nor glass compares with her, for her, a vase of fine gold would be no exchange,

Job 28:18 let alone coral or crystal: better go fishing for Wisdom than for pearls!

Job 28:19 Topaz from Cush is worthless in comparison, and gold, even refined, is valueless.

Job 28:20 But where does Wisdom come from? Where is Intelligence to be found?

Job 28:21 She cannot be seen by any living creature, she is hidden from the birds of the sky.

Job 28:22 Perdition and Death both say, 'We have heard only rumours of her.'

Job 28:23 God alone understands her path and knows where she is to be found.

Job 28:24 (For he sees to the remotest parts of the earth, and observes all that lies under heaven.)

Job 28:25 When he willed to give weight to the wind and measured out the waters with a gauge,

Job 28:26 when he imposed a law on the rain and mapped a route for thunderclaps to follow,

Job 28:27 then he saw and evaluated her, looked her through and through, assessing her.

Job 28:28 Then he said to human beings, 'Wisdom? - that is fear of the Lord; Intelligence? - avoidance of evil.'

Job 29:1 And Job continued his solemn discourse. He said:

Job 29:2 Will no one bring back to me the months that have gone, and the days when God was my guardian,

Job 29:3 when his lamp shone over my head, and his light was my guide in the darkness?

Job 29:4 Shall I ever see my days of harvest again when God protected my tent;

Job 29:5 when Shaddai still dwelt with me, and my children were around me;

Job 29:6 when my feet were bathed in milk, and streams of oil poured from the rocks?

Job 29:7 When I went out to the gate of the city, when I took my seat in the square,

Job 29:8 as soon as I appeared, the young men stepped aside, and the old men rose to their feet.

Job 29:9 Men of note broke off their speeches, and put their hands over their mouths;

Job 29:10 the voices of rulers were silenced, and their tongues stayed still in their mouths.

Job 29:11 On hearing me, people congratulated me, on seeing me, people deferred to me,

Job 29:12 because I freed the poor in distress and the orphan who had no helper.

Job 29:13 The dying man's blessing rested on me and I gave the widow's heart cause to rejoice.

Job 29:14 Uprightness I wore as a garment, fair judgement was my cloak and my turban.

Job 29:15 I was eyes for the blind, and feet for the lame.

Job 29:16 Who but me was father of the poor? The stranger's case had a hearing from me.

Job 29:17 I used to break the fangs of the wicked, and snatch their prey from their jaws.

Job 29:18 And I used to say, 'I shall die in honour, after days as numerous as the sand.

Job 29:19 My roots can reach the water, the dews of night settle on my leaves.

Job 29:20 My glory will be for ever new and the bow in my hand for ever strong.'

Job 29:21 They waited anxiously to hear me, and listened in silence to what I had to say.

Job 29:22 When I had finished, no one contradicted, my words dropping on them, one by one.

Job 29:23 They waited for me as though for rain, open-mouthed as though for a late shower.

Job 29:24 If I smiled at them, it was too good to be true, they watched my face for the least sign of favour.

Job 29:25 As their chief, I told them which course to take, like a king living among his troops, and I led them wherever I chose.

Job 30:1 And now I am the laughing-stock of people who are younger than I am and whose parents I would have disdained to put with the dogs guarding my flock.

Job 30:2 And what use to me was the strength of their hands? - enfeebled as they were,

Job 30:3 worn out by want and hunger, for they used to gnaw the roots of the thirsty ground—that place of gloom, ruin and desolation-

Job 30:4 they used to pick saltwort among the scrub, making their meals off roots of broom.

Job 30:5 Outlawed from human company, which raised hue and cry against them, as against thieves,

Job 30:6 they made their homes in the sides of ravines, in holes in the earth or in clefts of rock.

Job 30:7 You could hear them braying from the bushes as they huddled together in the thistles.

Job 30:8 Children of scoundrels, worse, nameless people, the very outcasts of society!

Job 30:9 And these are the ones who now make up songs about me and use me as a byword!

Job 30:10 Filled with disgust, they keep their distance, on seeing me, they spit without restraint.

Job 30:11 And since God has loosened my bow-string and afflicted me, they too throw off the bridle in my presence.

Job 30:12 Their brats surge forward on my right, to see when I am having a little peace, and advance on me with threatening strides.

Job 30:13 They cut off all means of escape seizing the chance to destroy me, and no one stops them.

Job 30:14 They move in, as if through a wide breach, and I go tumbling beneath the rubble.

Job 30:15 Terror rounds on me, my confidence is dispersed as though by the wind, my hope of safety vanishes like a cloud.

Job 30:16 And now the life in me trickles away, days of grief have gripped me.

Job 30:17 At night-time sickness saps my bones I am gnawed by wounds that never sleep.

Job 30:18 Violently, he has caught me by my clothes, has gripped me by the collar of my coat.

Job 30:19 He has thrown me into the mud; I am no more than dust and ashes.

Job 30:20 I cry to you, and you give me no answer; I stand before you, but you take no notice.

Job 30:21 You have grown cruel to me, and your strong hand torments me unmercifully.

Job 30:22 You carry me away astride the wind and blow me to pieces in a tempest.

Job 30:23 Yes, I know that you are taking me towards death, to the common meeting-place of all the living.

Job 30:24 Yet have I ever laid a hand on the poor when they cried out for justice in calamity?

Job 30:25 Have I not wept for those whose life is hard, felt pity for the penniless?

Job 30:26 I hoped for happiness, but sorrow came; I looked for light, but there was darkness.

Job 30:27 My stomach seethes, is never still, days of suffering have struck me.

Job 30:28 Sombre I go, yet no one comforts me, and if I rise in the council, I rise to weep.

Job 30:29 I have become brother to the jackal and companion to the ostrich.

Job 30:30 My skin has turned black on me, my bones are burnt with fever.

Job 30:31 My harp is tuned to dirges, my pipe to the voice of mourners.

Job 31:1 I had made an agreement with my eyes not to linger on any virgin.

Job 31:2 Now what portion does God allot from above, what fate does Shaddai apportion from his heaven-

Job 31:3 if not the disasters appropriate to the wicked and the calamities fit for evil-doers?

Job 31:4 But surely he sees how I behave, does he not count all my steps?

Job 31:5 Have I been a fellow-traveller with falsehood, or hastened my steps towards deceit?

Job 31:6 Let him weigh me on accurate scales: then he, God, will recognise my integrity!

Job 31:7 If my feet have wandered from the rightful path, or if my eyes have led my heart astray, or if my hands are smirched with any stain,

Job 31:8 let someone else eat what I have sown and let my young shoots all be rooted out.

Job 31:9 If my heart has been seduced by a woman, or if I have lurked at my neighbour's door,

Job 31:10 let my wife go and grind for someone else, let others have intercourse with her!

Job 31:11 For I would have committed a sin of lust, a crime punishable by the law,

Job 31:12 a fire, indeed, burning all to Perdition, which would have devoured my whole revenue.

Job 31:13 If I have ever infringed the rights of slave or slave-girl in legal actions against me-

Job 31:14 what shall I do, when God stands up? What shall I say, when he holds his assize?

Job 31:15 Did he not create them in the womb like me, the same God forming us in the womb?

Job 31:16 Have I been insensible to the needs of the poor, or let a widow's eyes grow dim?

Job 31:17 Have I eaten my bit of bread on my own without sharing it with the orphan?

Job 31:18 I, whom God has fostered father-like from childhood, and guided since I left my mother's womb,

Job 31:19 have I ever seen a wretch in need of clothing, or the poor with nothing to wear,

Job 31:20 without his having cause to bless me from his heart, as he felt the warmth of the fleece from my lambs?

Job 31:21 Have I raised my hand against an orphan, presuming on my credit at the gate?

Job 31:22 If so, let my shoulder fall from its socket, let my arm break off at the elbow!

Job 31:23 For the terror of God would fall on me and I could not then stand my ground before his majesty.

Job 31:24 Have I put my faith in gold, saying to fine gold, 'Ah, my security'?

Job 31:25 Have I ever gloated over my great wealth, or the riches that my hands have won?

Job 31:26 Or has the sight of the sun in its glory, or the glow of the moon as it walked the sky,

Job 31:27 secretly stolen my heart, so that I blew them a kiss?

Job 31:28 That too would be a criminal offence, to have denied the supreme God.

Job 31:29 Have I rejoiced at my enemy's misfortune, or exulted when disaster overtook him? -

Job 31:30 I, who would not allow my tongue to sin or to lay his life under a curse.

Job 31:31 The people of my tent, did they not say, 'Will anyone name a person whom he has not filled with meat?'

Job 31:32 No stranger ever had to sleep outside, my door was always open to the traveller.

Job 31:33 Have I ever concealed my transgression from others or kept my fault a secret in my breast?

Job 31:34 Have I ever stood in fear of common gossip, or dreaded any family's contempt, and so kept quiet, not venturing out of doors?

Job 31:35 Will no one give me a hearing? I have said my last word; now let Shaddai reply! When my adversary has drafted his writ against me

Job 31:36 I shall wear it on my shoulder, and bind it round my head like a royal turban.

Job 31:37 I shall give him an account of my every step and go as boldly as a prince to meet him.End of the words of Job.

Job 31:38 If my land cries for vengeance against me and its furrows weep in concert,

Job 31:39 if I have eaten its produce without paying, and caused the death of its owners,

Job 31:40 let brambles grow instead of wheat, rank weeds instead of barley!

Job 32:1 These three men stopped arguing with Job, because he was convinced of his uprightness.

Job 32:2 But Elihu son of Barachel the Buzite, of the clan of Ram, became very angry. He fumed with rage against Job for thinking that he was right and God was wrong;

Job 32:3 and he was equally angry with the three friends for giving up the argument and thus putting God in the wrong.

Job 32:4 While they and Job were talking, Elihu had waited, because they were older than he was;

Job 32:5 but when he saw that the three men had not another word to say in answer, his anger burst out.

Job 32:6 And Elihu son of Barachel the Buzite began to speak. He said: I am still young, and you are old, so I was shy and hesitant to tell you what I know.

Job 32:7 I thought, 'Age ought to speak, advancing years will convey wisdom.'

Job 32:8 There is, you see, a spirit residing in humanity, the breath of God conferring intelligence.

Job 32:9 Great age does not give wisdom, nor seniority fair judgement.

Job 32:10 And so I ask you for a hearing; now it is my turn to tell what I know.

Job 32:11 Up to now, I was hanging on your words, I paid attention to your arguments as each of you chose his words.

Job 32:12 I paid very close attention; and I see that none of you has confounded Job, not one of you has refuted what he says.

Job 32:13 So do not say, 'We have found wisdom; our teaching is divine and not human.'

Job 32:14 I am not going to follow the same line of argument; my reply to Job will be couched in different terms.

Job 32:15 They are nonplussed for an answer, words have failed them.

Job 32:16 I have been waiting. Since they do not speak, since they have given up the argument,

Job 32:17 now I shall have my say, my turn has come to say what I know.

Job 32:18 For I am full of words and forced to speak by a spirit within me;

Job 32:19 within me, it feels like new wine seeking a vent, bursting out of new wine-skins.

Job 32:20 To gain relief, I must speak, I must open my lips and reply.

Job 32:21 I shall not take anyone's side, I shall not flatter anyone.

Job 32:22 I do not know how to flatter—or my Creator would make short work of me.

Job 33:1 So, Job, please listen to my words and attend to all I have to say.

Job 33:2 Now as I open my mouth, and my tongue shapes words against my palate,

Job 33:3 I shall utter words of wisdom from the heart, my lips will speak in all sincerity.

Job 33:4 God's was the spirit that made me, Shaddai's the breath that gave me life.

Job 33:5 Refute me, if you can. Prepare yourself, take up your position!

Job 33:6 Look, I am your equal, not some god, like you I was moulded out of clay.

Job 33:7 No fear of me, therefore, need affright you, my hand will not lie heavy over you.

Job 33:8 How could you say in my hearing—for the sound of your words did not escape me-

Job 33:9 'I am clean, and sinless, I am pure, without fault.

Job 33:10 But he keeps inventing excuses against me and regards me as his enemy.

Job 33:11 He puts me in the stocks, he watches my every path'?

Job 33:12 In saying so, I tell you, you are wrong: for God is greater than any human being.

Job 33:13 Why then quarrel with him for not replying to you, word for word?

Job 33:14 God speaks first in one way, and then in another, although we do not realise it.

Job 33:15 In dreams and in night-visions, when slumber has settled on humanity and people are asleep in bed,

Job 33:16 he speaks in someone's ear, frightens him with apparitions

Job 33:17 to turn him from what he is doing and to put an end to his pride.

Job 33:18 And thus he preserves his soul from the abyss, his life from passing down the Canal.

Job 33:19 Or again, he corrects by the sufferings of the sick-bed, when someone's bones tremble continuously

Job 33:20 and the thought of food revolts him, however tasty it is,

Job 33:21 and his flesh rots away while you watch it and the bones beneath begin to show,

Job 33:22 and his soul is drawing nearer to the abyss and his life to the dwelling of the dead.

Job 33:23 Then, if there is an Angel near him, a Mediator, one in a thousand, to remind him where his duty lies,

Job 33:24 to take pity on him and to say, ‘Spare him from going down to the abyss: I have found the ransom for his life,’

Job 33:25 his flesh will recover its childhood freshness, he will return to the days of his youth.

Job 33:26 He will pray to God who has restored him to favour, and will come into his presence with joy. He will tell others how he has received saving justice

Job 33:27 and sing this hymn before his companions, ‘I sinned and left the path of right, but God has not punished me as my sin deserved.

Job 33:28 He has spared my soul from going down to the abyss and is making my life see the light.’

Job 33:29 All this is what God keeps doing again and yet again for human beings,

Job 33:30 to snatch souls back from the abyss and to make the light of the living still shine.

Job 33:31 Pay attention, Job, listen to me: keep quiet, I have more to say.

Job 33:32 If you have anything to say, refute me, speak out, for I would gladly accept that you are upright.

Job 33:33 If not, then listen to me: keep quiet, and I will teach you wisdom.

Job 34:1 Elihu continued his speech. He said:

Job 34:2 And now, you sages, listen to what I say, lend me your ears, you learned men.

Job 34:3 The ear distinguishes the value of what is said, just as the palate can tell one food from another.

Job 34:4 Let us consider together God’s ruling and decide what we all mean by good.

Job 34:5 Job has been saying, ‘I am upright and God denies me fair judgement.

Job 34:6 My judge is treating me cruelly, my wound is incurable, for no fault of mine.’

Job 34:7 Can anyone else exist like Job, who laps up mockery like water,

Job 34:8 who consorts with evil-doers and marches in step with the wicked?

Job 34:9 Did he not say, ‘No one derives any benefit from enjoying the society of God’?

Job 34:10 Listen to me then, like intelligent people. Far be evil from God or injustice from Shaddai!

Job 34:11 For he pays people back for what they do, treating each as his own conduct deserves.

Job 34:12 Be sure of it: God never does wrong, Shaddai does not pervert what is just.

Job 34:13 Did someone else entrust the world to his care was he given charge of the universe by someone else?

Job 34:14 If he were to recall his spirit, to concentrate his breath back in himself,

Job 34:15 all flesh would instantly perish and all people would return to dust.

Job 34:16 If you have any intelligence, listen to this, lend your ear to the sound of my words.

Job 34:17 Could an enemy of fair judgement ever govern? Would you dare condemn the Upright One, the Almighty,

Job 34:18 who says to a king, 'You are a scoundrel!' and to nobles, 'You are wicked!',

Job 34:19 who is unimpressed by princes and makes no distinction between rich and poor, since all alike have been made by him?

Job 34:20 They die suddenly, at dead of night, they perish—these great ones—and disappear: it costs him no effort to remove a tyrant.

Job 34:21 For his eyes keep watch on human ways, and he observes every step.

Job 34:22 No darkness, no shadow dark as death where wrong-doers can hide!

Job 34:23 He serves no writ on anyone, no summons to appear before God's court:

Job 34:24 he breaks the powerful without enquiry and sets up others in their places.

Job 34:25 He knows the sort of things they do! He overthrows them at night, to be trampled on.

Job 34:26 He beats them like criminals chained up for all to see,

Job 34:27 since they have turned their backs on him, having understood so little of his ways

Job 34:28 as to make the cries of the weak rise to him and let him hear the appeal of the afflicted.

Job 34:29 But if he is still silent and no one can move him, if he veils his face, so that no one can see him, he is taking pity on nations and individuals,

Job 34:30 is setting some wrong-doer free from the meshes of affliction.

Job 34:31 When such a one says to God, 'I was misled, I shall not do wrong any more;

Job 34:32 although I have sinned, instruct me; although I did wrong, I will not do it again,'

Job 34:33 in your opinion, should he punish such a one—you who have rejected his decisions? This is for you to decide—not for me!- so kindly enlighten us!

Job 34:34 Ordinary sensible people, however, will say to me, and so will any sage who has been listening to me,

Job 34:35 'Job's words are spoken without any knowledge, what he says shows no intelligence.

Job 34:36 Kindly examine him thoroughly, since his answers imply that he is a criminal.

Job 34:37 For to his sin he now adds rebellion, bringing law to an end among us and heaping abuse on God.'

Job 35:1 Elihu continued his speech. He said:

Job 35:2 Do you think you can prove yourself upright and establish your uprightness before God

Job 35:3 by daring to say to him, 'What does it matter to you, or how does it benefit me, whether I have sinned or not?'

Job 35:4 Very well, I shall tell you and your friends as well.

Job 35:5 Take a look at the skies and see, observe how high the clouds are above you.

Job 35:6 If you sin, how can you affect him? If you heap up crimes, what effect has it on him?

Job 35:7 If you are upright, what do you give him, what benefit does he receive at your hands?

Job 35:8 Your wickedness affects only your fellows, your uprightness, other human beings.

Job 35:9 They too groan under the weight of oppression, they cry for help under the tyranny of the mighty,

Job 35:10 but none of them thinks of saying, 'Where is God, my Maker, who makes glad songs ring out at night,

Job 35:11 who has made us more intelligent than wild animals wiser than birds in the sky?'

Job 35:12 Cry they may, but get no answer, to be spared from the arrogance of the wicked.

Job 35:13 Of course God does not listen to trivialities, Shaddai pays no attention to them.

Job 35:14 And how much less when you say, 'I cannot see him, my case is open and I am waiting for him.’

Job 35:15 Or, ‘His anger never punishes, he does not seem aware of human rebellion.’

Job 35:16 Hence, when Job speaks, he talks nonsense, ignorantly babbling on and on.

Job 36:1 Elihu went on speaking. He said:

Job 36:2 Be patient a little longer while I explain, for I have more to say on God’s behalf.

Job 36:3 I shall range far afield for my arguments to prove my Maker just.

Job 36:4 I guarantee, nothing I shall say will be untrue: you have a man of sound learning here.

Job 36:5 God does not reject anyone whose heart is pure

Job 36:6 or let the sinner live on in all his power. He does accord fair judgement to the afflicted;

Job 36:7 he does uphold what the upright deserve. When he raises kings to thrones, if they grow proud of their unending rule,

Job 36:8 then he fetters them with chains, they are caught in the bonds of affliction.

Job 36:9 He shows them the import of their deeds, of the sins of pride they have committed.

Job 36:10 In their ears he sounds a warning, ordering them to turn back from doing wrong.

Job 36:11 If they take notice and obey him, the rest of their days are prosperous and the years pass pleasantly.

Job 36:12 If not, they go down the Canal and perish in their stupidity.

Job 36:13 The stubborn, who cherish their anger and do not cry for help when he chains them,

Job 36:14 die in the bloom of youth or live among the male prostitutes of the temple.

Job 36:15 But God saves the afflicted by his affliction, warning him in his misery.

Job 36:16 You, too, he would like to snatch from torment. While you were enjoying boundless abundance, with rich food piled high on your table,

Job 36:17 you did not bring the wicked to trial and did not give fair judgement to the orphan.

Job 36:18 Beware of being led astray by abundance, of being corrupted by expensive presents.

Job 36:19 Take the powerful to law, not merely the penniless, those whose arm is strong, not merely the weak.

Job 36:20 Do not crush people you do not know to install your relations in their place.

Job 36:21 Avoid any tendency to wrong-doing, for this is why affliction is testing you now.

Job 36:22 See, God is sublime in his strength and who can teach lessons as he does?

Job 36:23 Who has even told him which course to take, or dared to say to him, 'You have done wrong'?

Job 36:24 Consider, rather, how you may praise his work, a theme that many have sung.

Job 36:25 This is something that everyone can see, gazing, as we do, from afar.

Job 36:26 Yes, the greatness of God exceeds our knowledge, the number of his years is past counting.

Job 36:27 It is he who makes the raindrops small and pulverises the rain into mist.

Job 36:28 And the clouds then pour this out, sending it streaming down on the human race.

Job 36:29 And who can fathom how he spreads the clouds, or why such crashes thunder from his tent?

Job 36:30 He spreads a mist before him and covers the tops of the mountains.

Job 36:31 By these means, he sustains the peoples, giving them plenty to eat.

Job 36:32 He gathers up the lightning in his hands, assigning it the mark where to strike.

Job 36:33 His crashing gives warning of its coming, anger flashes out against iniquity.

Job 37:1 At this, my very heart quakes and leaps out of its place.

Job 37:2 Listen, oh listen, to the blast of his voice and the sound that issues from his mouth.

Job 37:3 His lightning is hurled across the heaven, it strikes to the extremities of earth.

Job 37:4 After it comes a roaring sound, God thunders with majestic voice. He does not check his thunderbolts until his voice resounds no more.

Job 37:5 Yes, certainly God shows us marvels and does great deeds that we cannot understand.

Job 37:6 When he says to the snow, 'Fall on the earth!' to the showers, 'Now rain hard!'

Job 37:7 he brings all human activity to a standstill, for everyone to acknowledge his work.

Job 37:8 The animals go back to their dens and take shelter in their lairs.

Job 37:9 The storm wind comes from the Mansion of the South, and the north winds usher in the cold.

Job 37:10 At the breath of God, ice comes next, the surface of the waters hardens over.

Job 37:11 He weighs the clouds down with moisture, and the storm clouds radiate his lightning.

Job 37:12 He himself guides their wheeling motion presiding over their seasonal changes. They carry out his orders to the letter all over this earthly world.

Job 37:13 Whether to punish earth’s peoples or as a work of faithful love, he despatches them.

Job 37:14 Listen to this, Job, without flinching and reflect on the marvellous works of God.

Job 37:15 Do you know how God controls them or how his clouds make the lightning flash?

Job 37:16 Do you know how he balances the clouds—a miracle of consummate skill?

Job 37:17 When your clothes are hot to your body and the earth lies still under the south wind,

Job 37:18 can you, like him, stretch out the sky, tempered like a mirror of cast metal?

Job 37:19 Teach me what we should say to him: but better discuss no further, since we are in the dark.

Job 37:20 Does he take note when I speak? When human beings give orders, does he take it in?

Job 37:21 There are times when the light vanishes, behind darkening clouds; then comes the wind, sweeping them away.

Job 37:22 and brightness spreads from the north. God is clothed in fearful splendour:

Job 37:23 he, Shaddai, is far beyond our reach. Supreme in power, in equity, excelling in saving justice, yet no oppressor-

Job 37:24 no wonder then that people fear him: everyone thoughtful holds him in awe!

Job 38:1 Then from the heart of the tempest Yahweh gave Job his answer. He said:

Job 38:2 Who is this, obscuring my intentions with his ignorant words?

Job 38:3 Brace yourself like a fighter; I am going to ask the questions, and you are to inform me!

Job 38:4 Where were you when I laid the earth's foundations? Tell me, since you are so well-informed!

Job 38:5 Who decided its dimensions, do you know? Or who stretched the measuring line across it?

Job 38:6 What supports its pillars at their bases? Who laid its cornerstone

Job 38:7 to the joyful concert of the morning stars and unanimous acclaim of the sons of God?

Job 38:8 Who pent up the sea behind closed doors when it leapt tumultuous from the womb,

Job 38:9 when I wrapped it in a robe of mist and made black clouds its swaddling bands;

Job 38:10 when I cut out the place I had decreed for it and imposed gates and a bolt?

Job 38:11 'Come so far,' I said, 'and no further; here your proud waves must break!'

Job 38:12 Have you ever in your life given orders to the morning or sent the dawn to its post,

Job 38:13 to grasp the earth by its edges and shake the wicked out of it?

Job 38:14 She turns it as red as a clay seal, she tints it as though it were a dress,

Job 38:15 stealing the light from evil-doers and breaking the arm raised to strike.

Job 38:16 Have you been right down to the sources of the sea and walked about at the bottom of the Abyss?

Job 38:17 Have you been shown the gates of Death, have you seen the janitors of the Shadow dark as death?

Job 38:18 Have you an inkling of the extent of the earth? Tell me all about it if you have!

Job 38:19 Which is the way to the home of the Light, and where does darkness live? -

Job 38:20 You could then show them the way to their proper places, you could put them on the path home again!

Job 38:21 If you do know, you must have been born when they were, you must be very old by now!

Job 38:22 Have you visited the place where the snow is stored? Have you seen the stores of hail,

Job 38:23 which I keep for times of distress, for days of battle and war?

Job 38:24 From which direction does the lightning fork, where in the world does the east wind blow itself out?

Job 38:25 Who bores a channel for the downpour or clears the way for the rolling thunder

Job 38:26 so that rain may fall on lands where no one lives, and the deserts void of human dwelling,

Job 38:27 to meet the needs of the lonely wastes and make grass sprout on the thirsty ground?

Job 38:28 Has the rain a father? Who begets the dewdrops?

Job 38:29 What womb brings forth the ice, who gives birth to the frost of heaven,

Job 38:30 when the waters grow hard as stone and the surface of the deep congeals?

Job 38:31 Can you fasten the harness of the Pleiades, or untie Orion’s bands?

Job 38:32 Can you guide the Crown season by season and show the Bear and its cubs which way to go?

Job 38:33 Have you grasped the celestial laws? Could you make their writ run on the earth?

Job 38:34 Can your voice carry as far as the clouds and make the pent-up waters do your bidding?

Job 38:35 Will lightning flashes come at your command and answer, ‘Here we are’?

Job 38:36 Who endowed the ibis with wisdom and gave the cock his intelligence?

Job 38:37 Whose skill details every cloud and tilts the water-skins of heaven

Job 38:38 until the dust solidifies and the cracks in the ground close up?

Job 38:39 Do you go hunting prey for the lioness; do you satisfy the hunger of young lions

Job 38:40 where they crouch in their den, waiting eagerly in the bushes?

Job 38:41 Who makes provision for the raven when his little ones cry out to God craning their necks in search of food?

Job 39:1 Do you know when mountain goats give birth? Have you ever watched deer in labour?

Job 39:2 Have you ever counted the months that they carry their young? Do you know when they give birth?

Job 39:3 They crouch to drop their young, they get rid of their burdens

Job 39:4 and the calves, having grown big and strong, go off into the desert and never come back to them.

Job 39:5 Who has given the wild donkey his freedom, who has undone the harness of the brayer?

Job 39:6 I have given him the wastelands as his home, the salt plain as his habitat.

Job 39:7 He scorns the turmoil of the town, obeys no donkey-man’s shouts.

Job 39:8 The mountains are the pastures that he ranges in quest of anything green.

Job 39:9 Is the wild ox willing to serve you or spend a night beside your manger?

Job 39:10 If you tie a rope round his neck will he harrow the furrows for you?

Job 39:11 Can you rely on his massive strength and leave him to do your heavy work?

Job 39:12 Can you depend on him to come home and pile your grain on your threshing-floor?

Job 39:13 Can the wing of the ostrich be compared with the plumage of stork or falcon?

Job 39:14 She leaves her eggs on the ground with only earth to warm them;

Job 39:15 forgetting that a foot may tread on them or a wild animal crush them.

Job 39:16 Cruel to her chicks as if they were not hers, little she cares if her labour goes for nothing.

Job 39:17 God, you see, has deprived her of wisdom and given her no share of intelligence.

Job 39:18 Yet, if she bestirs herself to use her height, she can make fools of horse and rider too.

Job 39:19 Are you the one who makes the horse so brave and covers his neck with flowing mane?

Job 39:20 Do you make him leap like a grasshopper? His haughty neighing inspires terror.

Job 39:21 Exultantly he paws the soil of the valley, and charges the battle-line in all his strength.

Job 39:22 He laughs at fear; he is afraid of nothing, he recoils before no sword.

Job 39:23 On his back the quiver rattles, the flashing spear and javelin.

Job 39:24 Trembling with impatience, he eats up the miles; when the trumpet sounds, there is no holding him.

Job 39:25 At each trumpet blast he neighs exultantly. He scents the battle from afar, the thundering of the commanders and the war cry.

Job 39:26 Is it your wisdom that sets the hawk flying when he spreads his wings to travel south?

Job 39:27 Does the eagle soar at your command to make her eyrie in the heights?

Job 39:28 She spends her nights among the crags with a needle of rock as her fortress,

Job 39:29 from which she watches for prey, fixing it with her far-ranging eye.

Job 39:30 Even her young drink blood; where anyone has been killed, she is there.

Job 40:1 Still speaking to Job, Yahweh said:

Job 40:2 Is Yahweh's opponent going to give way? Has God's critic thought up an answer?

Job 40:3 Job replied to Yahweh:

Job 40:4 My words have been frivolous: what can I reply? I had better lay my hand over my mouth.

Job 40:5 I have spoken once, I shall not speak again; I have spoken twice, I have nothing more to say.

Job 40:6 Yahweh gave Job his answer from the heart of the tempest. He said:

Job 40:7 Brace yourself like a fighter, I am going to ask the questions, and you are to inform me!

Job 40:8 Do you really want to reverse my judgement, put me in the wrong and yourself in the right?

Job 40:9 Has your arm the strength of God's, can your voice thunder as loud?

Job 40:10 Come on, display your majesty and grandeur, robe yourself in splendour and glory.

Job 40:11 Let the fury of your anger burst forth, humble the haughty at a glance!

Job 40:12 At a glance, bring down all the proud, strike down the wicked where they stand.

Job 40:13 Bury the lot of them in the ground, shut them, every one, in the Dungeon.

Job 40:14 And I shall be the first to pay you homage, since your own right hand is strong enough to save you.

Job 40:15 But look at Behemoth, my creature, just as you are! He feeds on greenstuff like the ox,

Job 40:16 but what strength he has in his loins, what power in his stomach muscles!

Job 40:17 His tail is as stiff as a cedar, the sinews of his thighs are tightly knit.

Job 40:18 His bones are bronze tubes, his frame like forged iron.

Job 40:19 He is the first of the works of God. His Maker threatened him with the sword,

Job 40:20 forbidding him the mountain regions and all the wild animals that play there.

Job 40:21 Under the lotus he lies, he hides among the reeds in the swamps.

Job 40:22 The leaves of the lotus give him shade, the willows by the stream shelter him.

Job 40:23 If the river overflows, he does not worry: Jordan might come up to his mouth, but he would not care.

Job 40:24 Who is going to catch him by the eyes or put poles through his nose?

Job 40:25 Leviathan, too! Can you catch him with a fish-hook or hold his tongue down with a rope?

Job 40:26 Can you put a cane through his nostrils or pierce his jaw with a hook?

Job 40:27 Will he plead lengthily with you, addressing you in diffident tones?

Job 40:28 Will he strike a bargain with you to become your slave for life?

Job 40:29 Will you make a pet of him, like a bird, keep him on a lead to amuse your little girls?

Job 40:30 Is he to be sold by the fishing guild and then retailed by merchants?

Job 40:31 Riddle his hide with darts? Or his head with fishing spears?

Job 40:32 You have only to lay a finger on him never to forget the struggle or risk it again!

Job 41:1 Any hope you might have would be futile, the mere sight of him would overwhelm you.

Job 41:2 When roused, he grows ferocious, who could ever stand up to him?

Job 41:3 Who has ever attacked him with impunity? No one beneath all heaven!

Job 41:4 Next I will talk of his limbs and describe his matchless strength-

Job 41:5 who can undo the front of his tunic or pierce the double armour of his breastplate?

Job 41:6 Who dare open the gates of his mouth? Terror reigns round his teeth!

Job 41:7 His back is like rows of shields, sealed with a stone seal,

Job 41:8 touching each other so close that no breath could pass between,

Job 41:9 sticking to one another making an impervious whole.

Job 41:10 His sneezes radiate light, his eyes are like the eyelashes of the dawn.

Job 41:11 From his mouth come fiery torches, sparks of fire fly out of it.

Job 41:12 His nostrils belch smoke like a cauldron boiling on the fire.

Job 41:13 His breath could kindle coals, flame issues from his mouth.

Job 41:14 His strength resides in his neck, violence leaps before him as he goes.

Job 41:15 The strips of his flesh are jointed together, firmly set in and immovable.

Job 41:16 His heart is as hard as rock unyielding as the lower millstone.

Job 41:17 When he stands up, the waves take fright and the billows of the sea retreat.

Job 41:18 Sword may strike but will not stick in him, no more will spear, javelin or lance.

Job 41:19 Iron means no more to him than straw, nor bronze than rotten wood.

Job 41:20 No arrow can make him flee, a sling-stone tickles him like hay.

Job 41:21 Club seems to him like straw, he laughs at the whirring javelin.

Job 41:22 He has sharp potsherds underneath, and moves across the slime like a harrow.

Job 41:23 He makes the depths seethe like a cauldron, he makes the sea fume like a scent burner.

Job 41:24 Behind him he leaves a glittering wake—a white fleece seems to float on the deeps.

Job 41:25 He has no equal on earth, being created without fear.

Job 41:26 He looks the haughtiest in the eye; of all the lordly beasts he is king.

Job 42:1 This was the answer Job gave to Yahweh:

Job 42:2 I know that you are all-powerful: what you conceive, you can perform.

Job 42:3 I was the man who misrepresented your intentions with my ignorant words. You have told me about great works that I cannot understand, about marvels which are beyond me, of which I know nothing.

Job 42:4 (Listen, please, and let me speak: I am going to ask the questions, and you are to inform me.)

Job 42:5 Before, I knew you only by hearsay but now, having seen you with my own eyes,

Job 42:6 I retract what I have said, and repent in dust and ashes.

Job 42:7 When Yahweh had finished saying this to Job, he said to Eliphaz of Teman, 'I burn with anger against you and your two friends, for not having spoken correctly about me as my servant Job has done.

Job 42:8 So now find seven bullocks and seven rams, and take them back with you to my servant Job and make a burnt offering for yourselves, while Job, my servant, offers prayers for you. I shall show him favour and shall not inflict my displeasure on you for not having spoken about me correctly, as my servant Job has done.'

Job 42:9 Eliphaz of Teman, Bildad of Shuah and Zophar of Naamath went away to do as Yahweh had ordered, and Yahweh listened to Job with favour.

Job 42:10 And Yahweh restored Job's condition, while Job was interceding for his friends. More than that, Yahweh gave him double what he had before.

Job 42:11 And all his brothers and all his sisters and all his friends of former times came to see him. Over dinner in his house, they showed their sympathy and comforted him for all the evils Yahweh had inflicted on him. Each of them gave him a silver coin, and each a gold ring.

Job 42:12 Yahweh blessed Job's latter condition even more than his former one. He came to own fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen and a thousand she-donkeys.

Job 42:13 He had seven sons and three daughters;

Job 42:14 his first daughter he called 'Turtledove', the second 'Cassia' and the third 'Mascara'.

Job 42:15 Throughout the land there were no women as beautiful as the daughters of Job. And their father gave them inheritance rights like their brothers.

Job 42:16 After this, Job lived for another one hundred and forty years, and saw his children and his children's children to the fourth generation.

Job 42:17 Then, old and full of days, Job died.

Psalms

1:1 How blessed is anyone who rejects the advice of the wicked and does not take a stand in the path that sinners tread, nor a seat in company with cynics,

Psalms 1:2 but who delights in the law of Yahweh and murmurs his law day and night.

Psalms 1:3 Such a one is like a tree planted near streams; it bears fruit in season and its leaves never wither, and every project succeeds.

Psalms 1:4 How different the wicked, how different! Just like chaff blown around by the wind

Psalms 1:5 the wicked will not stand firm at the Judgement nor sinners in the gathering of the upright.

Psalms 1:6 For Yahweh watches over the path of the upright, but the path of the wicked is doomed.

Psalms 2:1 Why this uproar among the nations, this impotent muttering of the peoples?

Psalms 2:2 Kings of the earth take up position, princes plot together against Yahweh and his anointed,

Psalms 2:3 'Now let us break their fetters! Now let us throw off their bonds!'

Psalms 2:4 He who is enthroned in the heavens laughs, Yahweh makes a mockery of them,

Psalms 2:5 then in his anger rebukes them, in his rage he strikes them with terror.

Psalms 2:6 'I myself have anointed my king on Zion my holy mountain.'

Psalms 2:7 I will proclaim the decree of Yahweh: He said to me, 'You are my son, today have I fathered you.

Psalms 2:8 Ask of me, and I shall give you the nations as your birthright, the whole wide world as your possession.

Psalms 2:9 With an iron sceptre you will break them, shatter them like so many pots.'

Psalms 2:10 So now, you kings, come to your senses, you earthly rulers, learn your lesson!

Psalms 2:11 In fear be submissive to Yahweh;

Psalms 2:12 with trembling kiss his feet, lest he be angry and your way come to nothing, for his fury flares up in a moment. How blessed are all who take refuge in him!

Psalms 3:1 [Psalm Of David When he was fleeing from his son Absalom] Yahweh, how countless are my enemies, how countless those who rise up against me,

Psalms 3:2 how countless those who say of me, 'No salvation for him from his God!'Pause

Psalms 3:3 But you, Yahweh, the shield at my side, my glory, you hold my head high.

Psalms 3:4 I cry out to Yahweh; he answers from his holy mountain.Pause

Psalms 3:5 As for me, if I lie down and sleep, I shall awake, for Yahweh sustains me.

Psalms 3:6 I have no fear of people in their thousands upon thousands, who range themselves against me wherever I turn.

Psalms 3:7 Arise, Yahweh, rescue me, my God! You strike all my foes across the face, you break the teeth of the wicked.

Psalms 3:8 In Yahweh is salvation, on your people, your blessing!Pause

Psalms 4:1 [For the choirmaster For strings Psalm Of David] When I call, answer me, God, upholder of my right. In my distress you have set me at large; take pity on me and hear my prayer!

Psalms 4:2 Children of men, how long will you be heavy of heart, why love what is vain and chase after illusions?Pause

Psalms 4:3 Realise that Yahweh performs wonders for his faithful, Yahweh listens when I call to him.

Psalms 4:4 Be careful not to sin, speak in your hearts, and on your beds keep silence.Pause

Psalms 4:5 Loyally offer sacrifices, and trust in Yahweh.

Psalms 4:6 Many keep saying, 'Who will put happiness before our eyes?' Let the light of your face shine on us. Yahweh,

Psalms 4:7 to my heart you are a richer joy than all their corn and new wine.

Psalms 4:8 In peace I lie down and at once fall asleep, for it is you and none other, Yahweh, who make me rest secure.

Psalms 5:1 [For the choirmaster For flutes Psalm Of David] Give ear to my words, Yahweh, spare a thought for my sighing.

Psalms 5:2 Listen to my cry for help, my King and my God! To you I pray,

Psalms 5:3 Yahweh. At daybreak you hear my voice; at daybreak I lay my case before you and fix my eyes on you.

Psalms 5:4 You are not a God who takes pleasure in evil, no sinner can be your guest.

Psalms 5:5 Boasters cannot stand their ground under your gaze. You hate evil-doers, Psalms 5:6 liars you destroy; the violent and deceitful Yahweh detests.

Psalms 5:7 But, so great is your faithful love, I may come into your house, and before your holy temple bow down in reverence of you.

Psalms 5:8 In your saving justice, Yahweh, lead me, because of those who lie in wait for me; make your way plain before me.

Psalms 5:9 Not a word from their lips can be trusted, through and through they are destruction, their throats are wide—open graves, their tongues seductive.

Psalms 5:10 Lay the guilt on them, God, make their intrigues their own downfall; for their countless offences, thrust them from you, since they have rebelled against you.

Psalms 5:11 But joy for all who take refuge in you, endless songs of gladness! You shelter them, they rejoice in you, those who love your name.

Psalms 5:12 It is you who bless the upright, Yahweh, you surround them with favour as with a shield.

Psalms 6:1 [For the choirmaster For strings For the octachord Psalm Of David] Yahweh, let your rebuke to me not be in anger, your punishment not in the heat of wrath.

Psalms 6:2 Have pity on me, Yahweh, for I am fading away. Heal me, Yahweh, my bones are shaken, Psalms 6:3 my spirit is shaken to its very depths. But you, Yahweh . . . how long?

Psalms 6:4 Yahweh, relent and save my life rescue me because of your faithful love,

Psalms 6:5 for in death there is no remembrance of you; who could sing your praises in Sheol?

Psalms 6:6 I am worn out with groaning, every night I drench my pillow and soak my bed with tears.

Psalms 6:7 My eyes waste away with vexation. Arrogance from all my foes!

Psalms 6:8 Away from me, all evil-doers! For Yahweh has heard the sound of my weeping, Psalms 6:9 Yahweh has heard my pleading. Yahweh will accept my prayer.

Psalms 6:10 Let all my enemies be put to confusion, shaken to their depths, let them retreat in sudden confusion.

Psalms 7:1 [Lament Of David Which he sang to Yahweh about Cush the Benjaminite] Yahweh my God, I take refuge in you, save me from all my pursuers and rescue me,

Psalms 7:2 or he will savage me like a lion, carry me off with no one to rescue me.

Psalms 7:3 Yahweh my God, if I have done this: if injustice has stained my hands,

Psalms 7:4 if I have repaid my ally with treachery or spared one who attacked me unprovoked,

Psalms 7:5 may an enemy hunt me down and catch me, may he trample my life into the ground and crush my vital parts into the dust.Pause

Psalms 7:6 Arise, Yahweh, in your anger, rise up against the arrogance of my foes. Awake, my God, you demand judgement.

Psalms 7:7 Let the assembly of nations gather round you; return above it on high!

Psalms 7:8 (Yahweh judges the nations.) Judge me, Yahweh, as my uprightness and my integrity deserve.

Psalms 7:9 Put an end to the malice of the wicked, make the upright stand firm, you who discern hearts and minds, God the upright.

Psalms 7:10 God is a shield that protects me, saving the honest of heart.

Psalms 7:11 God is an upright judge, slow to anger, but a God at all times threatening

Psalms 7:12 for those who will not repent. Let the enemy whet his sword, draw his bow and make ready;

Psalms 7:13 but he is making ready instruments of death for himself and tipping his arrows with fire;

Psalms 7:14 look at him: pregnant with malice, conceiving spite, he gives birth to treachery.

Psalms 7:15 He digs a trap, scoops it out, but he falls into the snare he made himself.

Psalms 7:16 His spite recoils on his own head, his brutality falls back on his own skull.

Psalms 7:17 I thank Yahweh for his saving justice. I sing to the name of the Most High.

Psalms 8:1 [For the choirmaster On the . . . of Gath Psalm Of David] Yahweh our Lord, how majestic is your name throughout the world! Whoever keeps singing of your majesty higher than the heavens,

Psalms 8:2 even through the mouths of children, or of babes in arms, you make him a fortress, firm against your foes, to subdue the enemy and the rebel.

Psalms 8:3 I look up at your heavens, shaped by your fingers, at the moon and the stars you set firm-

Psalms 8:4 what are human beings that you spare a thought for them, or the child of Adam that you care for him?

Psalms 8:5 Yet you have made him little less than a god, you have crowned him with glory and beauty,

Psalms 8:6 made him lord of the works of your hands, put all things under his feet,

Psalms 8:7 sheep and cattle, all of them, and even the wild beasts,

Psalms 8:8 birds in the sky, fish in the sea, when he makes his way across the ocean.

Psalms 8:9 Yahweh our Lord, how majestic your name throughout the world!

Psalms 9:1 [For the choirmaster On oboe and harp Psalm Of David] I thank you, Yahweh, with my whole heart, I recount all your wonders,

Psalms 9:2 I rejoice and delight in you, I sing to your name, Most High.

Psalms 9:3 My enemies are in retreat, they stumble and perish at your presence,

Psalms 9:4 for you have given fair judgement in my favour, seated on your throne as upright judge.

Psalms 9:5 You have rebuked the nations, destroyed the wicked, blotted out their name for ever and ever;

Psalms 9:6 the enemy is wiped out—mere ruins for ever—you have annihilated their cities, their memory has perished. See,

Psalms 9:7 Yahweh is enthroned for ever, keeping his throne firm for judgement;

Psalms 9:8 he will himself judge the world in uprightness, will give a true verdict on the nations.

Psalms 9:9 May Yahweh be a stronghold for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble!

Psalms 9:10 Those who revere your name can rely on you, you never desert those who seek you, Yahweh.

Psalms 9:11 Sing to Yahweh who dwells in Zion, tell the nations his mighty deeds,

Psalms 9:12 for the avenger of blood does not forget them, he does not ignore the cry of the afflicted.

Psalms 9:13 Have pity on me, Yahweh, see my affliction, pull me back from the gates of death,

Psalms 9:14 that I may recount all your praises at the gates of the daughter of Zion and rejoice in your salvation.

Psalms 9:15 The nations have fallen into the trap they made, their feet caught in the snare they laid.

Psalms 9:16 Yahweh has made himself known, given judgement, he has ensnared the wicked in the work of their own hands.Muted music Pause

Psalms 9:17 May the wicked turn away to Sheol, all the nations forgetful of God.

Psalms 9:18 For the needy is not forgotten for ever, not for ever does the hope of the poor come to nothing.

Psalms 9:19 Arise, Yahweh; human strength shall not prevail. The nations shall stand trial before you.

Psalms 9:20 Strike them with terror, Yahweh; the nations shall know that they are no more than human!Pause

Psalms 10:1 Why, Yahweh, do you keep so distant, stay hidden in times of trouble?

Psalms 10:2 In his pride the wicked hunts down the weak, who is caught in the schemes he devises.

Psalms 10:3 The wicked is proud of his inmost desires, by his blasphemies the grasping spurns Yahweh,

Psalms 10:4 the wicked in his arrogance does not look very far; 'There is no God,' is his only thought.

Psalms 10:5 In all circumstances his step is assured; your judgements are above his head. His rivals? He scoffs at them all.

Psalms 10:6 He says in his heart, 'I shall never be shaken,' free of trouble himself,

Psalms 10:7 he wishes it on others. His speech is full of lies and browbeating, under his tongue lurk spite and wickedness.

Psalms 10:8 In the undergrowth he lies in ambush, in his hiding-place he murders the innocent. He watches intently for the downtrodden,

Psalms 10:9 lurking unseen like a lion in his lair, lurking to pounce on the poor; he pounces on him and drags him off in his net.

Psalms 10:10 He keeps watch, crouching down low, the poor wretch falls into his clutches;

Psalms 10:11 he says in his heart, 'God forgets, he has turned away his face to avoid seeing the end.'

Psalms 10:12 Rise, Yahweh! God, raise your hand, do not forget the afflicted!

Psalms 10:13 Why should the wicked spurn God, assuring himself you will never follow it up?

Psalms 10:14 You have seen for yourself the trouble and vexation, you watch so as to take it in hand. The oppressed relies on you; you are the only recourse of the orphan.

Psalms 10:15 Break the arm of the wicked and evil, seek out wickedness till there is none left to be found.

Psalms 10:16 Yahweh is king for ever and ever, the heathen has vanished from his country.

Psalms 10:17 Yahweh, you listen to the laments of the poor, you give them courage, you grant them a hearing,

Psalms 10:18 to give judgement for the orphaned and exploited, so that earthborn humans may strike terror no more.

Psalms 11:1 [For the choirmaster Of David] In Yahweh I have found refuge. How can you say to me, 'Bird, flee to your mountain?

Psalms 11:2 'For look, the wicked are drawing their bows, fitting their arrows to the string to shoot honest men from the shadows.

Psalms 11:3 If the foundations fall to ruin, what can the upright do?'

Psalms 11:4 Yahweh in his holy temple! Yahweh, his throne is in heaven; his eyes watch over the world, his gaze scrutinises the children of Adam.

Psalms 11:5 Yahweh examines the upright and the wicked, the lover of violence he detests.

Psalms 11:6 He will rain down red-hot coals, fire and sulphur on the wicked, a scorching wind will be their lot.

Psalms 11:7 For Yahweh is upright and loves uprightness, the honest will ever see his face.

Psalms 12:1 [For the choirmaster On the octachord Psalm Of David] Help, Yahweh! No one loyal is left, the faithful have vanished from among the children of Adam.

Psalms 12:2 Friend tells lies to friend, and, smooth-tongued, speaks from an insincere heart.

Psalms 12:3 May Yahweh cut away every smooth lip, every boastful tongue,

Psalms 12:4 those who say, 'In our tongue lies our strength, our lips are our allies; who can master us?'

Psalms 12:5 'For the poor who are plundered, the needy who groan, now will I act,' says Yahweh, 'I will grant salvation to those who sigh for it.'

Psalms 12:6 Yahweh's promises are promises unalloyed, natural silver which comes from the earth seven times refined.

Psalms 12:7 You, Yahweh, will watch over them, you will protect them from that brood for ever.

Psalms 12:8 The wicked will scatter in every direction, as the height of depravity among the children of Adam.

Psalms 13:1 [For the choirmaster Psalm Of David] How long, Yahweh, will you forget me? For ever? How long will you turn away your face from me?

Psalms 13:2 How long must I nurse rebellion in my soul, sorrow in my heart day and night? How long is the enemy to domineer over me?

Psalms 13:3 Look down, answer me, Yahweh my God! Give light to my eyes or I shall fall into the sleep of death.

Psalms 13:4 Or my foe will boast, 'I have overpowered him,' and my enemy have the joy of seeing me stumble.

Psalms 13:5 As for me, I trust in your faithful love, Yahweh. Let my heart delight in your saving help, let me sing to Yahweh for his generosity to me, let me sing to the name of Yahweh the Most High!

Psalms 14:1 [For the choirmaster Of David] The fool has said in his heart, 'There is no God.' Their deeds are corrupt and vile, not one of them does right.

Psalms 14:2 Yahweh looks down from heaven at the children of Adam. To see if a single one is wise, a single one seeks God.

Psalms 14:3 All have turned away, all alike turned sour, not one of them does right, not a single one.

Psalms 14:4 Are they not aware, all these evil-doers? They are devouring my people, this is the bread they eat, and they never call to Yahweh.

Psalms 14:5 They will be gripped with fear, where there is no need for fear, for God takes the side of the upright;

Psalms 14:6 you may mock the plans of the poor, but Yahweh is their refuge.

Psalms 14:7 Who will bring from Zion salvation for Israel? When Yahweh brings his people home, what joy for Jacob, what happiness for Israel!

Psalms 15:1 [Psalm Of David] Yahweh, who can find a home in your tent, who can dwell on your holy mountain?

Psalms 15:2 Whoever lives blamelessly, who acts uprightly, who speaks the truth from the heart,

Psalms 15:3 who keeps the tongue under control, who does not wrong a comrade, who casts no discredit on a neighbour,

Psalms 15:4 who looks with scorn on the vile, but honours those who fear Yahweh, who stands by an oath at any cost,

Psalms 15:5 who asks no interest on loans, who takes no bribe to harm the innocent. No one who so acts can ever be shaken.

Psalms 16:1 [In a quiet voice Of David] Protect me, O God, in you is my refuge.

Psalms 16:2 To Yahweh I say, 'You are my Lord, my happiness is in none

Psalms 16:3 of the sacred spirits of the earth.' They only take advantage of all who love them.

Psalms 16:4 People flock to their teeming idols. Never shall I pour libations to them! Never take their names on my lips.

Psalms 16:5 My birthright, my cup is Yahweh; you, you alone, hold my lot secure.

Psalms 16:6 The measuring-line marks out for me a delightful place, my birthright is all I could wish.

Psalms 16:7 I bless Yahweh who is my counsellor, even at night my heart instructs me.

Psalms 16:8 I keep Yahweh before me always, for with him at my right hand, nothing can shake me.

Psalms 16:9 So my heart rejoices, my soul delights, my body too will rest secure,

Psalms 16:10 for you will not abandon me to Sheol, you cannot allow your faithful servant to see the abyss.

Psalms 16:11 You will teach me the path of life, unbounded joy in your presence, at your right hand delight for ever.

Psalms 17:1 [Prayer Of David] Listen, Yahweh, to an upright cause, pay attention to my cry, lend an ear to my prayer, my lips free from deceit.

Psalms 17:2 From your presence will issue my vindication, your eyes fixed on what is right.

Psalms 17:3 You probe my heart, examine me at night, you test me by fire and find no evil. I have not sinned with my mouth

Psalms 17:4 as most people do. I have treasured the word from your lips,

Psalms 17:5 my steps never stray from the paths you lay down, from your tracks; so my feet never stumble.

Psalms 17:6 I call upon you, God, for you answer me; turn your ear to me, hear what I say.

Psalms 17:7 Show the evidence of your faithful love, saviour of those who hope in your strength against attack.

Psalms 17:8 Guard me as the pupil of an eye, shelter me in the shadow of your wings

Psalms 17:9 from the presence of the wicked who would maltreat me; deadly enemies are closing in on me.

Psalms 17:10 Engrossed in themselves they are mouthing arrogant words.

Psalms 17:11 They are advancing against me, now they are closing in, watching for the chance to hurl me to the ground, Psalms 17:12 like a lion preparing to pounce, like a young lion crouching in ambush.

Psalms 17:13 Arise, Yahweh, confront him and bring him down, with your sword save my life from the wicked,

Psalms 17:14 Yahweh, from mortals, by your hand, from mortals whose part in life is in this world. You fill their bellies from your store, their children will have all they desire, and leave their surplus to their children.

Psalms 17:15 But I in my uprightness will see your face, and when I awake I shall be filled with the vision of you.

Psalms 18:1 [For the choirmaster Of David, the servant of Yahweh, who addressed the words of this song to Yahweh when Yahweh had delivered him from all his enemies and from the clutches of Saul. He said:] I love you, Yahweh, my strength (my Saviour, you have saved me from violence).

Psalms 18:2 Yahweh is my rock and my fortress, my deliverer is my God. I take refuge in him, my rock, my shield, my saving strength, my stronghold, my place of refuge.

Psalms 18:3 I call to Yahweh who is worthy of praise, and I am saved from my foes.

Psalms 18:4 With Death's breakers closing in on me, Belial's torrents ready to swallow me,

Psalms 18:5 Sheol's snares every side of me, Death's traps lying ahead of me,

Psalms 18:6 I called to Yahweh in my anguish, I cried for help to my God; from his Temple he heard my voice, my cry came to his ears.

Psalms 18:7 Then the earth quaked and rocked, the mountains' foundations shuddered, they quaked at his blazing anger.

Psalms 18:8 Smoke rose from his nostrils, from his mouth devouring fire (coals were kindled at it).

Psalms 18:9 He parted the heavens and came down, a storm-cloud underneath his feet;

Psalms 18:10 riding one of the winged creatures, he flew, soaring on the wings of the wind.

Psalms 18:11 His covering he made the darkness, his pavilion dark waters and dense cloud.

Psalms 18:12 A brightness lit up before him, hail and blazing fire.

Psalms 18:13 Yahweh thundered from the heavens, the Most High made his voice heard.

Psalms 18:14 He shot his arrows and scattered them, he hurled his lightning and routed them.

Psalms 18:15 The very springs of ocean were exposed, the world's foundations were laid bare, at your roaring, Yahweh, at the blast of breath from your nostrils!

Psalms 18:16 He reached down from on high, snatched me up, pulled me from the watery depths,

Psalms 18:17 rescued me from my mighty foe, from my enemies who were stronger than I.

Psalms 18:18 They assailed me on my day of disaster but Yahweh was there to support me;

Psalms 18:19 he freed me, set me at large, he rescued me because he loves me.

Psalms 18:20 Yahweh rewards me for my uprightness, as my hands are pure, so he repays me,

Psalms 18:21 since I have kept the ways of Yahweh, and not fallen away from my God.

Psalms 18:22 His judgements are all before me, his statutes I have not put away from me.

Psalms 18:23 I am blameless before him, I keep myself clear of evil.

Psalms 18:24 So Yahweh repaid me for acting uprightly because he could see I was pure.

Psalms 18:25 You are faithful to the faithful, blameless with the blameless,

Psalms 18:26 sincere to the sincere, but cunning to the crafty,

Psalms 18:27 you save a people that is humble and humiliate those with haughty looks.

Psalms 18:28 Yahweh, you yourself are my lamp, my God lights up my darkness;

Psalms 18:29 with you I storm the rampart, with my God I can scale any wall.

Psalms 18:30 This God, his way is blameless; the word of Yahweh is refined in the furnace, for he alone is the shield of all who take refuge in him.

Psalms 18:31 For who is God but Yahweh, who is a rock but our God?

Psalms 18:32 This God who girds me with strength, who makes my way free from blame,

Psalms 18:33 who makes me as swift as a deer and sets me firmly on the heights,

Psalms 18:34 who trains my hands for battle, my arms to bend a bow of bronze.

Psalms 18:35 You give me your invincible shield (your right hand upholds me) you never cease to listen to me, Psalms 18:36 you give me the strides of a giant, give me ankles that never weaken.

Psalms 18:37 I pursue my enemies and overtake them, not turning back till they are annihilated;

Psalms 18:38 I strike them down and they cannot rise, they fall, they are under my feet.

Psalms 18:39 You have girded me with strength for the fight, bent down my assailants beneath me,

Psalms 18:40 made my enemies retreat before me; and those who hate me I destroy.

Psalms 18:41 They cry out, there is no one to save; to Yahweh, but no answer comes.

Psalms 18:42 I crumble them like dust before the wind, trample them like the mud of the streets.

Psalms 18:43 You free me from the quarrels of my people, you place me at the head of the nations, a people I did not know are now my servants;

Psalms 18:44 foreigners come wooing my favour, no sooner do they hear than they obey me;

Psalms 18:45 foreigners grow faint of heart, they come trembling out of their fastnesses.

Psalms 18:46 Life to Yahweh! Blessed be my rock! Exalted be the God of my salvation,

Psalms 18:47 the God who gives me vengeance, and subjects whole peoples to me,

Psalms 18:48 who rescues me from my raging enemies. You lift me high above those who attack me, you deliver me from the man of violence.

Psalms 18:49 For this I will praise you, Yahweh, among the nations, and sing praise to your name.

Psalms 18:50 He saves his king time after time, displays his faithful love for his anointed, for David and his heirs for ever.

Psalms 19:1 [For the choirmaster Psalm Of David] The heavens declare the glory of God, the vault of heaven proclaims his handiwork,

Psalms 19:2 day discourses of it to day, night to night hands on the knowledge.

Psalms 19:3 No utterance at all, no speech, not a sound to be heard,

Psalms 19:4 but from the entire earth the design stands out, this message reaches the whole world. High above, he pitched a tent for the sun,

Psalms 19:5 who comes forth from his pavilion like a bridegroom, delights like a champion in the course to be run.

Psalms 19:6 Rising on the one horizon he runs his circuit to the other, and nothing can escape his heat.

Psalms 19:7 The Law of Yahweh is perfect, refreshment to the soul; the decree of Yahweh is trustworthy, wisdom for the simple.

Psalms 19:8 The precepts of Yahweh are honest, joy for the heart; the commandment of Yahweh is pure, light for the eyes.

Psalms 19:9 The fear of Yahweh is pure, lasting for ever; the judgements of Yahweh are true, upright, every one,

Psalms 19:10 more desirable than gold, even than the finest gold; his words are sweeter than honey, that drips from the comb.

Psalms 19:11 Thus your servant is formed by them; observing them brings great reward.

Psalms 19:12 But who can detect his own failings? Wash away my hidden faults.

Psalms 19:13 And from pride preserve your servant, never let it be my master. So shall I be above reproach, free from grave sin.

Psalms 19:14 May the words of my mouth always find favour, and the whispering of my heart, in your presence, Yahweh, my rock, my redeemer.

Psalms 20:1 [For the choirmaster Psalm Of David] May Yahweh answer you in time of trouble, may the name of the God of Jacob protect you!

Psalms 20:2 May he send you help from the sanctuary, give you support from Zion!

Psalms 20:3 May he remember all your sacrifices and delight in your burnt offerings! Pause

Psalms 20:4 May he grant you your heart’s desire and crown all your plans with success!

Psalms 20:5 So that with joy we can hail your victory and draw up our ranks in the name of our God. May Yahweh grant all your petitions.

Psalms 20:6 Now I know that Yahweh gives victory to his anointed. He will respond from his holy heavens with great deeds of victory from his right hand.

Psalms 20:7 Some call on chariots, some on horses, but we on the name of Yahweh our God.

Psalms 20:8 They will crumple and fall, while we stand upright and firm.

Psalms 20:9 Yahweh, save the king, answer us when we call.

Psalms 21:1 [For the choirmaster Psalm Of David] Yahweh, the king rejoices in your power; How your saving help fills him with joy!

Psalms 21:2 You have granted him his heart’s desire, not denied him the prayer of his lips.Pause

Psalms 21:3 For you come to meet him with blessings of prosperity, put a crown of pure gold on his head.

Psalms 21:4 He has asked for life, you have given it him, length of days for ever and ever.

Psalms 21:5 Great his glory through your saving help; you invest him with splendour and majesty.

Psalms 21:6 You confer on him everlasting blessings, you gladden him with the joy of your presence.

Psalms 21:7 For the king puts his trust in Yahweh; the faithful love of the Most High will keep him from falling.

Psalms 21:8 Your hand will reach all your enemies, your right hand all who hate you.

Psalms 21:9 You will hurl them into a blazing furnace on the day when you appear; Yahweh will engulf them in his anger, and fire will devour them.

Psalms 21:10 You will purge the earth of their descendants, the human race of their posterity.

Psalms 21:11 They have devised evil against you but, plot as they may, they will not succeed,

Psalms 21:12 since you will make them turn tail, by shooting your arrows in their faces.

Psalms 21:13 Rise, Yahweh, in your power! We will sing and make music in honour of your strength.

Psalms 22:1 [For the choirmaster To ‘the Doe of the Dawn’ Psalm Of David] My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? The words of my groaning do nothing to save me.

Psalms 22:2 My God, I call by day but you do not answer, at night, but I find no respite.

Psalms 22:3 Yet you, the Holy One, who make your home in the praises of Israel,

Psalms 22:4 in you our ancestors put their trust, they trusted and you set them free.

Psalms 22:5 To you they called for help and were delivered; in you they trusted and were not put to shame.

Psalms 22:6 But I am a worm, less than human, scorn of mankind, contempt of the people;

Psalms 22:7 all who see me jeer at me, they sneer and wag their heads,

Psalms 22:8 ‘He trusted himself to Yahweh, let Yahweh set him free!

Let him deliver him, as he took such delight in him.’

Psalms 22:9 It was you who drew me from the womb and soothed me on my mother’s breast.

Psalms 22:10 On you was I cast from my birth, from the womb I have belonged to you.

Psalms 22:11 Do not hold aloof, for trouble is upon me, and no one to help me!

Psalms 22:12 Many bulls are encircling me, wild bulls of Bashan closing in on me.

Psalms 22:13 Lions ravening and roaring open their jaws at me.

Psalms 22:14 My strength is trickling away, my bones are all disjointed, my heart has turned to wax, melting inside me.

Psalms 22:15 My mouth is dry as earthenware, my tongue sticks to my jaw. You lay me down in the dust of death.

Psalms 22:16 A pack of dogs surrounds me, a gang of villains closing in on me as if to hack off my hands and my feet.

Psalms 22:17 I can count every one of my bones, while they look on and gloat;

Psalms 22:18 they divide my garments among them and cast lots for my clothing.

Psalms 22:19 Yahweh, do not hold aloof! My strength, come quickly to my help,

Psalms 22:20 rescue my soul from the sword, the one life I have from the grasp of the dog!

Psalms 22:21 Save me from the lion’s mouth, my poor life from the wild bulls’ horns!

Psalms 22:22 I shall proclaim your name to my brothers, praise you in full assembly:

Psalms 22:23 ‘You who fear Yahweh, praise him! All the race of Jacob, honour him! Revere him, all the race of Israel!’

Psalms 22:24 For he has not despised nor disregarded the poverty of the poor, has not turned away his face, but has listened to the cry for help.

Psalms 22:25 Of you is my praise in the thronged assembly, I will perform my vows before all who fear him.

Psalms 22:26 The poor will eat and be filled, those who seek Yahweh will praise him, ‘May your heart live for ever.’

Psalms 22:27 The whole wide world will remember and return to Yahweh, all the families of nations bow down before him.

Psalms 22:28 For to Yahweh, ruler of the nations, belongs kingly power!

Psalms 22:29 All who prosper on earth will bow before him, all who go down to the dust will do reverence before him. And those who are dead,

Psalms 22:30 their descendants will serve him, will proclaim his name to generations

Psalms 22:31 still to come; and these will tell of his saving justice to a people yet unborn: he has fulfilled it.

Psalms 23:1 [Psalm Of David] Yahweh is my shepherd, I lack nothing.

Psalms 23:2 In grassy meadows he lets me lie. By tranquil streams he leads me

Psalms 23:3 to restore my spirit. He guides me in paths of saving justice as befits his name.

Psalms 23:4 Even were I to walk in a ravine as dark as death I should fear no danger, for you are at my side. Your staff and your crook are there to soothe me.

Psalms 23:5 You prepare a table for me under the eyes of my enemies; you anoint my head with oil; my cup brims over.

Psalms 23:6 Kindness and faithful love pursue me every day of my life. I make my home in the house of Yahweh for all time to come.

Psalms 24:1 [Psalm Of David] To Yahweh belong the earth and all it contains, the world and all who live there;

Psalms 24:2 it is he who laid its foundations on the seas, on the flowing waters fixed it firm.

Psalms 24:3 Who shall go up to the mountain of Yahweh? Who shall take a stand in his holy place?

Psalms 24:4 The clean of hands and pure of heart, whose heart is not set on vanities, who does not swear an oath in order to deceive.

Psalms 24:5 Such a one will receive blessing from Yahweh, saving justice from the God of his salvation.

Psalms 24:6 Such is the people that seeks him, that seeks your presence, God of Jacob.Pause

Psalms 24:7 Gates, lift high your heads, raise high the ancient gateways, and the king of glory shall enter!

Psalms 24:8 Who is he, this king of glory? It is Yahweh, strong and valiant, Yahweh valiant in battle.

Psalms 24:9 Gates, lift high your heads, raise high the ancient gateways, and the king of glory shall enter!

Psalms 24:10 Who is he, this king of glory? Yahweh Sabaoth, he is the king of glory.Pause

Psalms 25:1 [Of David] ADORATION I offer, Yahweh, Psalms 25:2 to you, my God. BUT in my trust in you do not put me to shame, let not my enemies gloat over me.

Psalms 25:3 CALLING to you, none shall ever be put to shame, but shame is theirs who groundlessly break faith.

Psalms 25:4 DIRECT me in your ways, Yahweh, and teach me your paths.

Psalms 25:5 ENCOURAGE me to walk in your truth and teach me since you are the God who saves me. FOR my hope is in you all day long—such is your generosity, Yahweh.

Psalms 25:6 GOODNESS and faithful love have been yours for ever, Yahweh, do not forget them.

Psalms 25:7 HOLD not my youthful sins against me, but remember me as your faithful love dictates.

Psalms 25:8 INTEGRITY and generosity are marks of Yahweh for he brings sinners back to the path.

Psalms 25:9 JUDICIOUSLY he guides the humble, instructing the poor in his way.

Psalms 25:10 KINDNESS unfailing and constancy mark all Yahweh's paths, for those who keep his covenant and his decrees.

Psalms 25:11 LET my sin, great though it is, be forgiven, Yahweh, for the sake of your name.

Psalms 25:12 MEN who respect Yahweh, what of them? He teaches them the way they must choose.

Psalms 25:13 NEIGHBOURS to happiness will they live, and their children inherit the land.

Psalms 25:14 ONLY those who fear Yahweh have his secret and his covenant, for their understanding.

Psalms 25:15 PERMANENTLY my eyes are on Yahweh, for he will free my feet from the snare.

Psalms 25:16 QUICK, turn to me, pity me, alone and wretched as I am!

Psalms 25:17 RELIEVE the distress of my heart, bring me out of my constraint.

Psalms 25:18 SPARE a glance for my misery and pain, take all my sins away.

Psalms 25:19 TAKE note how countless are my enemies, how violent their hatred for me.

Psalms 25:20 UNLESS you guard me and rescue me I shall be put to shame, for you are my refuge.

Psalms 25:21 VIRTUE and integrity be my protection, for my hope, Yahweh, is in you.

Psalms 25:22 Ransom Israel, O God, from all its troubles.

Psalms 26:1 [Of David] Yahweh, be my judge! I go on my way in innocence, my trust in Yahweh never wavers.

Psalms 26:2 Probe me, Yahweh, examine me, Test my heart and my mind in the fire.

Psalms 26:3 For your faithful love is before my eyes, and I live my life by your truth.

Psalms 26:4 No sitting with wastrels for me, no travelling with hypocrites;

Psalms 26:5 I hate the company of sinners, I refuse to sit down with the wicked.

Psalms 26:6 I will wash my hands in innocence and join the procession round your altar, Yahweh,

Psalms 26:7 to make heard the sound of thanksgiving, to proclaim all your wonders.

Psalms 26:8 Yahweh, I love the beauty of your house and the place where your glory dwells.

Psalms 26:9 Do not couple me with sinners, nor my life with men of violence,

Psalms 26:10 whose hands are stained with guilt, their right hands heavy with bribes.

Psalms 26:11 In innocence I will go on my way; ransom me, take pity on me.

Psalms 26:12 I take my stand on the right path; I will bless you, Yahweh, in the assemblies.

Psalms 27:1 [Of David] Yahweh is my light and my salvation, whom should I fear? Yahweh is the fortress of my life, whom should I dread?

Psalms 27:2 When the wicked advance against me to eat me up, they, my opponents, my enemies, are the ones who stumble and fall.

Psalms 27:3 Though an army pitch camp against me, my heart will not fear, though war break out against me, my trust will never be shaken.

Psalms 27:4 One thing I ask of Yahweh, one thing I seek: to dwell in Yahweh's house all the days of my life, to enjoy the sweetness of Yahweh, to seek out his temple.

Psalms 27:5 For he hides me away under his roof on the day of evil, he folds me in the recesses of his tent, sets me high on a rock.

Psalms 27:6 Now my head is held high above the enemies who surround me; in his tent I will offer sacrifices of acclaim. I will sing, I will make music for Yahweh.

Psalms 27:7 Yahweh, hear my voice as I cry, pity me, answer me!

Psalms 27:8 Of you my heart has said, ‘Seek his face!’ Your face, Yahweh, I seek;

Psalms 27:9 do not turn away from me. Do not thrust aside your servant in anger, without you I am helpless. Never leave me, never forsake me, God, my Saviour.

Psalms 27:10 Though my father and mother forsake me, Yahweh will gather me up.

Psalms 27:11 Yahweh, teach me your way, lead me on the path of integrity because of my enemies;

Psalms 27:12 do not abandon me to the will of my foes—false witnesses have risen against me, and are breathing out violence.

Psalms 27:13 This I believe: I shall see the goodness of Yahweh, in the land of the living.

Psalms 27:14 Put your hope in Yahweh, be strong, let your heart be bold, put your hope in Yahweh.

Psalms 28:1 [Of David] To you, Yahweh, I cry, my rock, do not be deaf to me! If you stay silent I shall be like those who sink into oblivion.

Psalms 28:2 Hear the sound of my prayer when I call upon you, when I raise my hands, Yahweh, towards your Holy of Holies.

Psalms 28:3 Do not drag me away with the wicked, with evil-doers, who talk to their partners of peace with treachery in their hearts.

Psalms 28:4 Repay them as their deeds deserve, as befits their treacherous actions; as befits their handiwork repay them, let their deserts fall back on themselves.

Psalms 28:5 They do not comprehend the deeds of Yahweh, the work of his hands. May he pull them down and not rebuild them!

Psalms 28:6 Blessed be Yahweh for he hears the sound of my prayer.

Psalms 28:7 Yahweh is my strength and my shield, in him my heart trusts. I have been helped; my body has recovered its vigour, with all my heart I thank him.

Psalms 28:8 Yahweh is the strength of his people, a safe refuge for his anointed.

Psalms 28:9 Save your people, bless your heritage, shepherd them and carry them for ever!

Psalms 29:1 [Psalm Of David] Give Yahweh his due, sons of God, give Yahweh his due of glory and strength,

Psalms 29:2 give Yahweh the glory due to his name, adore Yahweh in the splendour of holiness.

Psalms 29:3 Yahweh’s voice over the waters, the God of glory thunders; Yahweh over countless waters,

Psalms 29:4 Yahweh’s voice in power, Yahweh’s voice in splendour;

Psalms 29:5 Yahweh's voice shatters cedars, Yahweh shatters cedars of Lebanon,

Psalms 29:6 he makes Lebanon skip like a calf, Sirion like a young wild ox.

Psalms 29:7 Yahweh's voice carves out lightning-shafts,

Psalms 29:8 Yahweh's voice convulses the desert, Yahweh convulses the desert of Kadesh,

Psalms 29:9 Yahweh's voice convulses terebinths, strips forests bare. In his palace all cry, 'Glory!'

Psalms 29:10 Yahweh was enthroned for the flood, Yahweh is enthroned as king for ever.

Psalms 29:11 Yahweh will give strength to his people, Yahweh blesses his people with peace.

Psalms 30:1 [Psalm Canticle for the Dedication of the House Of David] I praise you to the heights, Yahweh, for you have raised me up, you have not let my foes make merry over me.

Psalms 30:2 Yahweh, my God, I cried to you for help and you healed me.

Psalms 30:3 Yahweh, you have lifted me out of Sheol, from among those who sink into oblivion you have given me life.

Psalms 30:4 Make music for Yahweh, all you who are faithful to him, praise his unforgettable holiness.

Psalms 30:5 His anger lasts but a moment, his favour through life; In the evening come tears, but with dawn cries of joy.

Psalms 30:6 Carefree, I used to think, 'Nothing can ever shake me!'

Psalms 30:7 Your favour, Yahweh, set me on impregnable heights, but you turned away your face and I was terrified.

Psalms 30:8 To you, Yahweh, I call, to my God I cry for mercy.

Psalms 30:9 What point is there in my death, my going down to the abyss? Can the dust praise you or proclaim your faithfulness?

Psalms 30:10 Listen, Yahweh, take pity on me, Yahweh, be my help!

Psalms 30:11 You have turned my mourning into dancing, you have stripped off my sackcloth and clothed me with joy.

Psalms 30:12 So my heart will sing to you unceasingly, Yahweh, my God, I shall praise you for ever.

Psalms 31:1 [For the choirmaster Psalm Of David] In you, Yahweh, I have taken refuge, let me never be put to shame, in your saving justice deliver me, rescue me,

Psalms 31:2 turn your ear to me, make haste. Be for me a rock-fastness, a fortified citadel to save me.

Psalms 31:3 You are my rock, my rampart; true to your name, lead me and guide me!

Psalms 31:4 Draw me out of the net they have spread for me, for you are my refuge;

Psalms 31:5 to your hands I commit my spirit, by you have I been redeemed. God of truth,

Psalms 31:6 you hate those who serve useless idols; but my trust is in Yahweh:

Psalms 31:7 I will delight and rejoice in your faithful love! You, who have seen my misery, and witnessed the miseries of my soul,

Psalms 31:8 have not handed me over to the enemy, but have given me freedom to roam at large.

Psalms 31:9 Take pity on me, Yahweh, for I am in trouble. Vexation is gnawing away my eyes, my soul deep within me.

Psalms 31:10 For my life is worn out with sorrow, and my years with sighs. My strength gives way under my misery, and my bones are all wasted away.

Psalms 31:11 The sheer number of my enemies makes me contemptible, loathsome to my neighbours, and my friends shrink from me in horror. When people see me in the street they take to their heels.

Psalms 31:12 I have no more place in their hearts than a corpse, or something lost.

Psalms 31:13 All I hear is slander—terror wherever I turn—as they plot together against me, scheming to take my life.

Psalms 31:14 But my trust is in you, Yahweh; I say, 'You are my God,'

Psalms 31:15 every moment of my life is in your hands, rescue me from the clutches of my foes who pursue me;

Psalms 31:16 let your face shine on your servant, save me in your faithful love.

Psalms 31:17 I call on you, Yahweh, so let disgrace fall not on me, but on the wicked. Let them go down to Sheol in silence,

Psalms 31:18 muzzles on their lying mouths, which speak arrogantly against the upright in pride and contempt.

Psalms 31:19 Yahweh, what quantities of good things you have in store for those who fear you, and bestow on those who make you their refuge, for all humanity to see.

Psalms 31:20 Safe in your presence you hide them, far from human plotting, shielding them in your tent, far from contentious tongues.

Psalms 31:21 Blessed be Yahweh who works for me miracles of his faithful love (in a fortified city)!

Psalms 31:22 In a state of terror I cried, 'I have been cut off from your sight!’ Yet you heard my plea for help when I cried out to you.

Psalms 31:23 Love Yahweh, all his faithful: Yahweh protects his loyal servants, but he repays the arrogant with interest.

Psalms 31:24 Be brave, take heart, all who put your hope in Yahweh.

Psalms 32:1 [Of David Poem] How blessed are those whose offence is forgiven, whose sin blotted out.

Psalms 32:2 How blessed are those to whom Yahweh imputes no guilt, whose spirit harbours no deceit.

Psalms 32:3 I said not a word, but my bones wasted away from groaning all the day;

Psalms 32:4 day and night your hand lay heavy upon me; my heart grew parched as stubble in summer drought.Pause

Psalms 32:5 I made my sin known to you, did not conceal my guilt. I said, ‘I shall confess my offence to Yahweh.’ And you, for your part, took away my guilt, forgave my sin.Pause

Psalms 32:6 That is why each of your faithful ones prays to you in time of distress. Even if great floods overflow, they will never reach your faithful.

Psalms 32:7 You are a refuge for me, you guard me in trouble, with songs of deliverance you surround me.Pause

Psalms 32:8 I shall instruct you and teach you the way to go; I shall not take my eyes off you.

Psalms 32:9 Be not like a horse or a mule; that does not understand bridle or bit; if you advance to master them, there is no means of bringing them near.

Psalms 32:10 Countless troubles are in store for the wicked, but one who trusts in Yahweh is enfolded in his faithful love.

Psalms 32:11 Rejoice in Yahweh, exult all you upright, shout for joy, you honest of heart.

Psalms 33:1 Shout for joy, you upright; praise comes well from the honest.

Psalms 33:2 Give thanks to Yahweh on the lyre, play for him on the ten-stringed lyre.

Psalms 33:3 Sing to him a new song, make sweet music for your cry of victory.

Psalms 33:4 The word of Yahweh is straightforward, all he does springs from his constancy.

Psalms 33:5 He loves uprightness and justice; the faithful love of Yahweh fills the earth.

Psalms 33:6 By the word of Yahweh the heavens were made, by the breath of his mouth all their array.

Psalms 33:7 He collects the waters of the sea like a dam, he stores away the abyss in his treasure-house.

Psalms 33:8 Let the whole earth fear Yahweh, let all who dwell in the world revere him;

Psalms 33:9 for, the moment he spoke, it was so, no sooner had he commanded, than there it stood!

Psalms 33:10 Yahweh thwarts the plans of nations, frustrates the counsels of peoples;

Psalms 33:11 but Yahweh's own plan stands firm for ever, his heart's counsel from age to age.

Psalms 33:12 How blessed the nation whose God is Yahweh, the people he has chosen as his heritage.

Psalms 33:13 From heaven Yahweh looks down, he sees all the children of Adam,

Psalms 33:14 from the place where he sits he watches all who dwell on the earth;

Psalms 33:15 he alone moulds their hearts, he understands all they do.

Psalms 33:16 A large army will not keep a king safe, nor his strength save a warrior's life;

Psalms 33:17 it is delusion to rely on a horse for safety, for all its power it cannot save.

Psalms 33:18 But see how Yahweh watches over those who fear him, those who rely on his faithful love,

Psalms 33:19 to rescue them from death and keep them alive in famine.

Psalms 33:20 We are waiting for Yahweh; he is our help and our shield,

Psalms 33:21 for in him our heart rejoices, in his holy name we trust.

Psalms 33:22 Yahweh, let your faithful love rest on us, as our hope has rested in you.

Psalms 34:1 [Of David, when he had feigned insanity before Abimelech, and Abimelech sent him away] I will bless Yahweh at all times, his praise continually on my lips.

Psalms 34:2 I will praise Yahweh from my heart; let the humble hear and rejoice.

Psalms 34:3 Proclaim with me the greatness of Yahweh, let us acclaim his name together.

Psalms 34:4 I seek Yahweh and he answers me, frees me from all my fears.

Psalms 34:5 Fix your gaze on Yahweh and your face will grow bright, you will never hang your head in shame.

Psalms 34:6 A pauper calls out and Yahweh hears, saves him from all his troubles.

Psalms 34:7 The angel of Yahweh encamps around those who fear him, and rescues them.

Psalms 34:8 Taste and see that Yahweh is good. How blessed are those who take refuge in him.

Psalms 34:9 Fear Yahweh, you his holy ones; those who fear him lack for nothing.

Psalms 34:10 Young lions may go needy and hungry, but those who seek Yahweh lack nothing good.

Psalms 34:11 Come, my children, listen to me, I will teach you the fear of Yahweh.

Psalms 34:12 Who among you delights in life, longs for time to enjoy prosperity?

Psalms 34:13 Guard your tongue from evil, your lips from any breath of deceit.

Psalms 34:14 Turn away from evil and do good, seek peace and pursue it.

Psalms 34:15 The eyes of Yahweh are on the upright, his ear turned to their cry.

Psalms 34:16 But Yahweh's face is set against those who do evil, to cut off the memory of them from the earth.

Psalms 34:17 They cry in anguish and Yahweh hears, and rescues them from all their troubles.

Psalms 34:18 Yahweh is near to the broken-hearted, he helps those whose spirit is crushed.

Psalms 34:19 Though hardships without number beset the upright, Yahweh brings rescue from them all.

Psalms 34:20 Yahweh takes care of all their bones, not one of them will be broken.

Psalms 34:21 But to the wicked evil brings death, those who hate the upright will pay the penalty.

Psalms 34:22 Yahweh ransoms the lives of those who serve him, and there will be no penalty for those who take refuge in him.

Psalms 35:1 [Of David] Accuse my accusers, Yahweh, attack my attackers.

Psalms 35:2 Grasp your buckler and shield, up, and help me.

Psalms 35:3 Brandish spear and pike to confront my pursuers, give me the assurance, 'I am your Saviour.'

Psalms 35:4 Shame and humiliation on those who are out to kill me! Defeat and repulse in dismay on those who plot my downfall.

Psalms 35:5 May they be like chaff before the wind, with the angel of Yahweh to chase them.

Psalms 35:6 May their way be dark and slippery, with the angel of Yahweh to hound them.

Psalms 35:7 Unprovoked they laid their snare for me, unprovoked dug a trap to kill me.

Psalms 35:8 Ruin comes upon them unawares; the snare they have laid will catch them, and into their own trap they will fall.

Psalms 35:9 Then I shall delight in Yahweh, rejoice that he has saved me.

Psalms 35:10 My very bones will all exclaim, Yahweh, who can compare with you in rescuing the poor from the oppressor; the needy from the exploiter?

Psalms 35:11 False witnesses come forward against me asking me questions I cannot answer, they cross-examine me,

Psalms 35:12 repay my kindness with cruelty, make my life barren.

Psalms 35:13 But I, when they were ill, had worn sackcloth, and mortified myself with fasting, praying ever anew in my heart,

Psalms 35:14 as if for a friend or brother; I had wandered restless, as if mourning a mother, so bowed had I been in sorrow.

Psalms 35:15 When I stumble they gather in glee, gather around me; strangers I never even knew tear me apart incessantly.

Psalms 35:16 If I fall they surround me, grinding their teeth at me.

Psalms 35:17 How much longer, Lord, will you look on? Rescue me from their onslaughts, from young lions rescue the one life that I have.

Psalms 35:18 I will give you thanks in the great assembly praise you where the people gather.

Psalms 35:19 Let not my lying enemies gloat over me; those who hate me unprovoked look askance at me.

Psalms 35:20 They have no greeting of peace to the peace-loving people of the land; they think up deceptive speeches.

Psalms 35:21 Their mouths wide open to accuse me, they say, 'Come on now, we saw you.'

Psalms 35:22 You saw it, Yahweh, do not stay silent; Lord, do not stand aloof from me.

Psalms 35:23 Up, awake, to my defence, my God and my Lord, to my cause.

Psalms 35:24 In your saving justice give judgement for me, Yahweh my God, and do not let them gloat over me.

Psalms 35:25 Do not let them think, ‘Just as we hoped,’ nor, ‘Now we have swallowed him up.’

Psalms 35:26 Shame and dismay on them all who gloat over my misfortunes. Let all who profit at my expense be covered with shame and disgrace.

Psalms 35:27 But let all who delight in my uprightness shout for joy and gladness; let them constantly say, ‘Great is Yahweh, who delights to see his servant in peace.’

Psalms 35:28 And my tongue shall recount your saving justice, all day long sing your praise.

Psalms 36:1 [For the choirmaster Of the servant of Yahweh Of David] Sin is the oracle of the wicked in the depths of his heart; there is no fear of God before his eyes.

Psalms 36:2 He sees himself with too flattering an eye to detect and detest his guilt;

Psalms 36:3 all he says is malicious and deceitful, he has turned his back on wisdom. To get his way

Psalms 36:4 he hatches malicious plots even in his bed; once set on his evil course no wickedness is too much for him.

Psalms 36:5 Yahweh, your faithful love is in the heavens, your constancy reaches to the clouds,

Psalms 36:6 your saving justice is like towering mountains, your judgements like the mighty deep. Yahweh, you support both man and beast;

Psalms 36:7 how precious, God, is your faithful love. So the children of Adam take refuge in the shadow of your wings.

Psalms 36:8 They feast on the bounty of your house, you let them drink from your delicious streams;

Psalms 36:9 in you is the source of life, by your light we see the light.

Psalms 36:10 Maintain your faithful love to those who acknowledge you, and your saving justice to the honest of heart.

Psalms 36:11 Do not let the foot of the arrogant overtake me or wicked hands drive me away.

Psalms 36:12 There they have fallen, the evil-doers, flung down, never to rise again.

Psalms 37:1 [Of David] Do not get heated about the wicked or envy those who do wrong.

Psalms 37:2 Quick as the grass they wither, fading like the green of the fields.

Psalms 37:3 Put your trust in Yahweh and do right, make your home in the land and live secure.

Psalms 37:4 Make Yahweh your joy and he will give you your heart's desires.

Psalms 37:5 Commit your destiny to Yahweh, be confident in him, and he will act,

Psalms 37:6 making your uprightness clear as daylight, and the justice of your cause as the noon.

Psalms 37:7 Stay quiet before Yahweh, wait longingly for him, do not get heated over someone who is making a fortune, succeeding by devious means.

Psalms 37:8 Refrain from anger, leave rage aside, do not get heated—it can do no good;

Psalms 37:9 for evil-doers will be annihilated, while those who hope in Yahweh shall have the land for their own.

Psalms 37:10 A little while and the wicked will be no more, however well you search for the place, the wicked will not be there;

Psalms 37:11 but the poor will have the land for their own, to enjoy untroubled peace.

Psalms 37:12 The wicked plots against the upright and gnashes his teeth at him,

Psalms 37:13 but Yahweh only laughs at his efforts, knowing that his end is in sight.

Psalms 37:14 Though the wicked draw his sword and bend his bow to slaughter the honest and bring down the poor and the needy,

Psalms 37:15 his sword will pierce his own heart, and his bow will be shattered.

Psalms 37:16 What little the upright possesses outweighs all the wealth of the wicked;

Psalms 37:17 for the weapons of the wicked shall be shattered, while Yahweh supports the upright.

Psalms 37:18 The lives of the just are in Yahweh's care, their birthright will endure for ever;

Psalms 37:19 they will not be put to shame when bad times come, in time of famine they will have plenty.

Psalms 37:20 The wicked, enemies of Yahweh, will be destroyed, they will vanish like the green of the pasture, they will vanish in smoke.

Psalms 37:21 The wicked borrows and will not repay, but the upright is generous in giving;

Psalms 37:22 those he blesses will have the land for their own, and those he curses be annihilated.

Psalms 37:23 Yahweh guides a strong man's steps and keeps them firm; and takes pleasure in him.

Psalms 37:24 When he trips he is not thrown sprawling, since Yahweh supports him by the hand.

Psalms 37:25 Now I am old, but ever since my youth I never saw an upright person abandoned, or the descendants of the upright forced to beg their bread.

Psalms 37:26 The upright is always compassionate, always lending, so his descendants reap a blessing.

Psalms 37:27 Turn your back on evil and do good, you will have a home for ever,

Psalms 37:28 for Yahweh loves justice and will not forsake his faithful. Evil-doers will perish eternally, the descendants of the wicked be annihilated,

Psalms 37:29 but the upright shall have the land for their own, there they shall live for ever.

Psalms 37:30 Wisdom comes from the lips of the upright, and his tongue speaks what is right;

Psalms 37:31 the law of his God is in his heart, his foot will never slip.

Psalms 37:32 The wicked keeps a close eye on the upright, looking out for a chance to kill him;

Psalms 37:33 Yahweh will never abandon him to the clutches of the wicked, nor let him be condemned if he is tried.

Psalms 37:34 Put your hope in Yahweh, keep to his path, he will raise you up to make the land your own; you will look on while the wicked are annihilated.

Psalms 37:35 I have seen the wicked exultant, towering like a cedar of Lebanon.

Psalms 37:36 When next I passed he was gone, I searched for him and he was nowhere to be found.

Psalms 37:37 Observe the innocent, consider the honest, for the lover of peace will not lack children.

Psalms 37:38 But the wicked will all be destroyed together, and their children annihilated.

Psalms 37:39 The upright have Yahweh for their Saviour, their refuge in times of trouble;

Psalms 37:40 Yahweh helps them and rescues them, he will rescue them from the wicked, and save them because they take refuge in him.

Psalms 38:1 [Psalm Of David In commemoration] Yahweh, do not correct me in anger, do not discipline me in wrath.

Psalms 38:2 For your arrows have pierced deep into me, your hand has pressed down upon me.

Psalms 38:3 Your indignation has left no part of me unscathed, my sin has left no health in my bones.

Psalms 38:4 My sins stand higher than my head, they weigh on me as an unbearable weight.

Psalms 38:5 I have stinking, festering wounds, thanks to my folly.

Psalms 38:6 I am twisted and bent double, I spend my days in gloom.

Psalms 38:7 My loins burn with fever, no part of me is unscathed.

Psalms 38:8 Numbed and utterly crushed I groan in distress of heart.

Psalms 38:9 Lord, all my longing is known to you, my sighing no secret from you,

Psalms 38:10 my heart is throbbing, my strength has failed, the light has gone out of my eyes.

Psalms 38:11 Friends and companions shun my disease, even the dearest of them keep their distance.

Psalms 38:12 Those with designs on my life lay snares, those who wish me ill speak of violence and hatch treachery all day long.

Psalms 38:13 But I hear nothing, as though I were deaf, as though dumb, saying not a word.

Psalms 38:14 I am like the one who, hearing nothing, has no sharp answer to make.

Psalms 38:15 For in you, Yahweh, I put my hope, you, Lord my God, will give answer.

Psalms 38:16 I said, ‘Never let them gloat over me, do not let them take advantage of me if my foot slips.’

Psalms 38:17 There is no escape for me from falling, no relief from my misery.

Psalms 38:18 But I make no secret of my guilt, I am anxious at the thought of my sin.

Psalms 38:19 There is no numbering those who oppose me without cause, no counting those who hate me unprovoked,

Psalms 38:20 repaying me evil for good, slandering me for trying to do them good.

Psalms 38:21 Yahweh, do not desert me, my God, do not stand aloof from me.

Psalms 38:22 Come quickly to my help, Lord, my Saviour!

Psalms 39:1 [For the choirmaster For Jeduthun Psalm Of David] I said, ‘I will watch how I behave so that I do not sin by my tongue. I will keep a muzzle on my mouth as long as any sinner is near.’

Psalms 39:2 I stayed dumb, silent, speechless, but the sinner’s prosperity redoubled my torment.

Psalms 39:3 My heart had been smouldering within me, but at the thought of this it flared up and the words came bursting out,

Psalms 39:4 ‘Yahweh, let me know my fate, how much longer I have to live. Show me just how frail I am.

Psalms 39:5 ‘Look, you have given me but a hand’s breadth or two of life, the length of my life is as nothing to you. Every human being that stands on earth is a mere puff of wind,

Psalms 39:6 every human being that walks only a shadow; a mere puff of wind is the wealth stored away—no knowing who will profit from it.’

Psalms 39:7 So now, Lord, what am I to hope for? My hope is in you.

Psalms 39:8 Save me from all my sins, do not make me the butt of fools.

Psalms 39:9 I keep silence, I speak no more since you yourself have been at work.

Psalms 39:10 Take your scourge away from me. I am worn out by the blows you deal me.

Psalms 39:11 You correct human beings by punishing sin, like a moth you eat away all their desires—a human being is a mere puff of wind.

Psalms 39:12 Yahweh, hear my prayer, listen to my cry for help, do not remain deaf to my weeping. For I am a stranger in your house, a nomad like all my ancestors.

Psalms 39:13 Turn away your gaze that I may breathe freely before I depart and am no more!

Psalms 40:1 [For the choirmaster Of David Psalm] I waited, I waited for Yahweh, then he stooped to me and heard my cry for help.

Psalms 40:2 He pulled me up from the seething chasm, from the mud of the mire. He set my feet on rock, and made my footsteps firm.

Psalms 40:3 He put a fresh song in my mouth, praise of our God. Many will be awestruck at the sight, and will put their trust in Yahweh.

Psalms 40:4 How blessed are those who put their trust in Yahweh, who have not sided with rebels and those who have gone astray in falsehood.

Psalms 40:5 How much you have done, Yahweh, my God—your wonders, your plans for us—you have no equal. I will proclaim and speak of them; they are beyond number.

Psalms 40:6 You wanted no sacrifice or cereal offering, but you gave me an open ear, you did not ask for burnt offering or sacrifice for sin;

Psalms 40:7 then I said, 'Here I am, I am coming.' In the scroll of the book it is written of me,

Psalms 40:8 my delight is to do your will; your law, my God, is deep in my heart.

Psalms 40:9 I proclaimed the saving justice of Yahweh in the great assembly. See, I will not hold my tongue, as you well know.

Psalms 40:10 I have not kept your saving justice locked in the depths of my heart, but have spoken of your constancy and saving help. I have made no secret of your faithful and steadfast love, in the great assembly.

Psalms 40:11 You, Yahweh, have not withheld your tenderness from me; your faithful and steadfast love will always guard me.

Psalms 40:12 For troubles surround me, until they are beyond number; my sins have overtaken me; I cannot see my way. They outnumber the hairs of my head, and my heart fails me.

Psalms 40:13 Be pleased, Yahweh, to rescue me, Yahweh, come quickly and help me!

Psalms 40:14 Shame and dismay to all who seek to take my life. Back with them, let them be humiliated who delight in my misfortunes.

Psalms 40:15 Let them be aghast with shame, those who say to me, 'Aha, aha!'

Psalms 40:16 But joy and happiness in you to all who seek you! Let them ceaselessly cry, 'Great is Yahweh' who love your saving power.

Psalms 40:17 Poor and needy as I am, the Lord has me in mind. You, my helper, my Saviour, my God, do not delay.

Psalms 41:1 [For the choirmaster Psalm Of David] Blessed is anyone who cares for the poor and the weak; in time of trouble Yahweh rescues him.

Psalms 41:2 Yahweh protects him, gives him life and happiness on earth. Do not abandon him to his enemies' pleasure!

Psalms 41:3 Yahweh sustains him on his bed of sickness; you transform altogether the bed where he lies sick.

Psalms 41:4 For my part I said, 'Yahweh, take pity on me! Cure me for I have sinned against you.'

Psalms 41:5 My enemies speak to me only of disaster, 'When will he die and his name disappear?'

Psalms 41:6 When people come to see me their talk is hollow, when they get out they spread the news with spite in their hearts.

Psalms 41:7 All who hate me whisper together about me and reckon I deserve the misery I suffer.

Psalms 41:8 'A fatal sickness has a grip on him; now that he is down, he will never get up again.'

Psalms 41:9 Even my trusted friend on whom I relied, who shared my table, takes advantage of me.

Psalms 41:10 But you, Yahweh, take pity on me! Put me on my feet and I will give them their due.

Psalms 41:11 This will convince me that you delight in me, if my enemy no longer exults over me.

Psalms 41:12 Then you will keep me unscathed, and set me in your presence for ever.

Psalms 41:13 Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, from eternity to eternity. Amen, Amen.

Psalms 42:1 [For the choirmaster Poem Of the sons of Korah] As a deer yearns for running streams, so I yearn for you, my God.

Psalms 42:2 I thirst for God, the living God; when shall I go to see the face of God?

Psalms 42:3 I have no food but tears day and night, as all day long I am taunted, 'Where is your God?'

Psalms 42:4 This I remember as I pour out my heart, how I used to pass under the roof of the Most High used to go to the house of God, among cries of joy and praise, the sound of the feast.

Psalms 42:5 Why be so downcast, why all these sighs? Hope in God! I will praise him still, my Saviour, Psalms 42:6 my God. When I am downcast I think of you: from the land of Jordan and Hermon, I think of you, humble mountain.

Psalms 42:7 Deep is calling to deep by the roar of your cataracts, all your waves and breakers have rolled over me.

Psalms 42:8 In the daytime God sends his faithful love, and even at night; the song it inspires in me is a prayer to my living God.

Psalms 42:9 I shall say to God, my rock, 'Why have you forgotten me? Why must I go around in mourning, harrassed by the enemy?'

Psalms 42:10 With death in my bones, my enemies taunt me, all day long they ask me, 'Where is your God?'

Psalms 42:11 Why so downcast, why all these sighs? Hope in God! I will praise him still, my Saviour, my God.

Psalms 43:1 Judge me, God, defend my cause against a people who have no faithful love; from those who are treacherous and unjust, rescue me.

Psalms 43:2 For you are the God of my strength; why abandon me? Why must I go around in mourning, harrassed by the enemy?

Psalms 43:3 Send out your light and your truth; they shall be my guide, to lead me to your holy mountain to the place where you dwell.

Psalms 43:4 Then I shall go to the altar of God, to the God of my joy.

I will rejoice and praise you on the harp, O God, my God.

Psalms 43:5 Why so downcast, why all these sighs? Hope in God! I will praise him still, my Saviour, my God.

Psalms 44:1 [For the choirmaster Of the sons of Korah Poem] God, we have heard for ourselves, our ancestors have told us, of the deeds you did in their days, in days of old,

Psalms 44:2 by your hand. To establish them in the land you drove out nations, to make room for them you harried peoples.

Psalms 44:3 It was not their own sword that won the land, nor their own arms which made them victorious, but your hand it was and your arm, and the light of your presence, for you loved them.

Psalms 44:4 You are my king, my God, who decreed Jacob’s victories;

Psalms 44:5 through you we conquered our opponents, in your name we trampled down those who rose up against us.

Psalms 44:6 For my trust was not in my bow, my victory was not won by my sword;

Psalms 44:7 it was you who saved us from our opponents, you who put to shame those who hate us.

Psalms 44:8 Our boast was always of God, we praised your name without ceasing.Pause

Psalms 44:9 Yet now you have abandoned and humiliated us, you no longer take the field with our armies,

Psalms 44:10 you leave us to fall back before the enemy, those who hate us plunder us at will.

Psalms 44:11 You hand us over like sheep for slaughter, you scatter us among the nations,

Psalms 44:12 you sell your people for a trifle and make no profit on the sale.

Psalms 44:13 You make us the butt of our neighbours, the mockery and scorn of those around us,

Psalms 44:14 you make us a by-word among nations, other peoples shake their heads over us.

Psalms 44:15 All day long I brood on my disgrace, the shame written clear on my face,

Psalms 44:16 from the sound of insult and abuse, from the sight of hatred and vengefulness.

Psalms 44:17 All this has befallen us though we had not forgotten you, nor been disloyal to your covenant,

Psalms 44:18 our hearts never turning away, our feet never straying from your path.

Psalms 44:19 Yet you have crushed us in the place where jackals live, and immersed us in shadow dark as death.

Psalms 44:20 Had we forgotten the name of our God and stretched out our hands to a foreign god,

Psalms 44:21 would not God have found this out, for he knows the secrets of the heart?

Psalms 44:22 For your sake we are being massacred all day long, treated as sheep to be slaughtered.

Psalms 44:23 Wake, Lord! Why are you asleep? Awake! Do not abandon us for good.

Psalms 44:24 Why do you turn your face away, forgetting that we are poor and harrassed?

Psalms 44:25 For we are bowed down to the dust, and lie prone on the ground.

Psalms 44:26 Arise! Come to our help! Ransom us, as your faithful love demands.

Psalms 45:1 [For the choirmaster Tune: 'Lilies . . .' Of the sons of Korah Poem Love song] My heart is stirred by a noble theme, I address my poem to the king, my tongue the pen of an expert scribe.

Psalms 45:2 Of all men you are the most handsome, gracefulness is a dew upon your lips, for God has blessed you for ever.

Psalms 45:3 Warrior, strap your sword at your side, in your majesty and splendour advance,

Psalms 45:4 ride on in the cause of truth, gentleness and uprightness. Stretch the bowstring tight, lending terror to your right hand.

Psalms 45:5 Your arrows are sharp, nations lie at your mercy, the king's enemies lose heart.

Psalms 45:6 Your throne is from God, for ever and ever, the sceptre of your kingship a sceptre of justice,

Psalms 45:7 you love uprightness and detest evil. This is why God, your God, has anointed you with oil of gladness, as none of your rivals,

Psalms 45:8 your robes all myrrh and aloes. From palaces of ivory, harps bring you joy,

Psalms 45:9 in your retinue are daughters of kings, the consort at your right hand in gold of Ophir.

Psalms 45:10 Listen, my daughter, attend to my words and hear; forget your own nation and your ancestral home,

Psalms 45:11 then the king will fall in love with your beauty; he is your lord, bow down before him.

Psalms 45:12 The daughter of Tyre will court your favour with gifts, and the richest of peoples

Psalms 45:13 with jewels set in gold. Clothed

Psalms 45:14 in brocade, the king's daughter is led within to the king with the maidens of her retinue; her companions are brought to her,

Psalms 45:15 they enter the king's palace with joy and rejoicing.

Psalms 45:16 Instead of your ancestors you will have sons; you will make them rulers over the whole world.

Psalms 45:17 I will make your name endure from generation to generation, so nations will sing your praise for ever and ever.

Psalms 46:1 [For the choirmaster Of the sons of Korah For oboe Song] God is both refuge and strength for us, a help always ready in trouble;

Psalms 46:2 so we shall not be afraid though the earth be in turmoil, though mountains tumble into the depths of the sea,

Psalms 46:3 and its waters roar and seethe, and the mountains totter as it heaves. (Yahweh Sabaoth is with us, our citadel, the God of Jacob.)Pause

Psalms 46:4 There is a river whose streams bring joy to God's city, it sanctifies the dwelling of the Most High.

Psalms 46:5 God is in the city, it cannot fall; at break of day God comes to its rescue.

Psalms 46:6 Nations are in uproar, kingdoms are tumbling, when he raises his voice the earth crumbles away.

Psalms 46:7 Yahweh Sabaoth is with us, our citadel, the God of Jacob. Pause

Psalms 46:8 Come, consider the wonders of Yahweh, the astounding deeds he has done on the earth;

Psalms 46:9 he puts an end to wars over the whole wide world, he breaks the bow, he snaps the spear, shields he burns in the fire.

Psalms 46:10 'Be still and acknowledge that I am God, supreme over nations, supreme over the world.'

Psalms 46:11 Yahweh Sabaoth is with us, our citadel, the God of Jacob.Pause

Psalms 47:1 [For the choirmaster Of the sons of Korah Psalm] Clap your hands, all peoples, acclaim God with shouts of joy.

Psalms 47:2 For Yahweh, the Most High, is glorious, the great king over all the earth.

Psalms 47:3 He brings peoples under our yoke and nations under our feet.

Psalms 47:4 He chooses for us our birthright, the pride of Jacob whom he loves.Pause

Psalms 47:5 God goes up to shouts of acclaim, Yahweh to a fanfare on the ram's horn.

Psalms 47:6 Let the music sound for our God, let it sound, let the music sound for our king, let it sound.

Psalms 47:7 For he is king of the whole world; learn the music, let it sound for God!

Psalms 47:8 God reigns over the nations, seated on his holy throne.

Psalms 47:9 The leaders of the nations rally to the people of the God of Abraham. The shields of the earth belong to God, who is exalted on high.

Psalms 48:1 [Song Psalm Of the sons of Korah] Great is Yahweh and most worthy of praise in the city of our God, the holy mountain,

Psalms 48:2 towering in beauty, the joy of the whole world: Mount Zion in the heart of the north, the settlement of the great king;

Psalms 48:3 God himself among its palaces has proved himself its bulwark.

Psalms 48:4 For look, kings made alliance, together they advanced;

Psalms 48:5 without a second glance, when they saw, they panicked and fled away.

Psalms 48:6 Trembling seized them on the spot, pains like those of a woman in labour;

Psalms 48:7 it was the east wind, that wrecker of ships from Tarshish.

Psalms 48:8 What we had heard we saw for ourselves in the city of our God, in the city of Yahweh Sabaoth, which God has established for ever.Pause

Psalms 48:9 We reflect on your faithful love, God, in your temple!

Psalms 48:10 Both your name and your praise, God, are over the whole wide world. Your right hand is full of saving justice,

Psalms 48:11 Mount Zion rejoices, the daughters of Judah delight because of your saving justice.

Psalms 48:12 Go round Zion, walk right through her, count her bastions,

Psalms 48:13 admire her walls, examine her palaces, to tell future generations

Psalms 48:14 that such is God; our God for ever and ever, he is our guide!

Psalms 49:1 [For the choirmaster Of the sons of Korah Psalm] Hear this, all nations, listen, all who dwell on earth,

Psalms 49:2 people high and low, rich and poor alike!

Psalms 49:3 My lips have wisdom to utter, my heart good sense to whisper.

Psalms 49:4 I listen carefully to a proverb, I set my riddle to the music of the harp.

Psalms 49:5 Why should I be afraid in times of trouble? Malice dogs me and hems me in.

Psalms 49:6 They trust in their wealth, and boast of the profusion of their riches.

Psalms 49:7 But no one can ever redeem himself or pay his own ransom to God,

Psalms 49:8 the price for himself is too high; it can never be

Psalms 49:9 that he will live on for ever and avoid the sight of the abyss.

Psalms 49:10 For he will see the wise also die no less than the fool and the brute, and leave their wealth behind for others.

Psalms 49:11 For ever no home but their tombs, their dwelling-place age after age, though they gave their name to whole territories.

Psalms 49:12 In prosperity people lose their good sense, they become no better than dumb animals.

Psalms 49:13 So they go on in their self-assurance, right up to the end they are content with their lot.Pause

Psalms 49:14 They are penned in Sheol like sheep, Death will lead them to pasture, and those who are honest will rule over them. In the morning all trace of them will be gone, Sheol will be their home.

Psalms 49:15 But my soul God will ransom from the clutches of Sheol, and will snatch me up.Pause

Psalms 49:16 Do not be overawed when someone gets rich, and lives in ever greater splendour;

Psalms 49:17 when he dies he will take nothing with him, his wealth will not go down with him.

Psalms 49:18 Though he pampered himself while he lived—and people praise you for looking after yourself-

Psalms 49:19 he will go to join the ranks of his ancestors, who will never again see the light.

Psalms 49:20 In prosperity people lose their good sense, they become no better than dumb animals.

Psalms 50:1 [Psalm Of Asaph] The God of gods, Yahweh, is speaking, from east to west he summons the earth.

Psalms 50:2 From Zion, perfection of beauty, he shines forth;

Psalms 50:3 he is coming, our God, and will not be silent. Devouring fire ahead of him, raging tempest around him,

Psalms 50:4 he summons the heavens from on high, and the earth to judge his people.

Psalms 50:5 ‘Gather to me my faithful, who sealed my covenant by sacrifice.’

Psalms 50:6 The heavens proclaim his saving justice, ‘God himself is judge.’Pause

Psalms 50:7 ‘Listen, my people, I am speaking, Israel, I am giving evidence against you, I, God, your God.

Psalms 50:8 ‘It is not with your sacrifices that I find fault, those burnt offerings constantly before me;

Psalms 50:9 I will not accept any bull from your homes, nor a single goat from your folds.

Psalms 50:10 ‘For all forest creatures are mine already, the animals on the mountains in their thousands.

Psalms 50:11 I know every bird in the air, whatever moves in the fields is mine.

Psalms 50:12 ‘If I am hungry I shall not tell you, since the world and all it holds is mine.

Psalms 50:13 Am I to eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of goats?

Psalms 50:14 ‘Let thanksgiving be your sacrifice to God, fulfil the vows you make to the Most High;

Psalms 50:15 then if you call to me in time of trouble I will rescue you and you will honour me.’

Psalms 50:16 But to the wicked, God says: ‘What right have you to recite my statutes, to take my covenant on your lips,

Psalms 50:17 when you detest my teaching, and thrust my words behind you?

Psalms 50:18 ‘You make friends with a thief as soon as you see one, you feel at home with adulterers,

Psalms 50:19 your conversation is devoted to wickedness, and your tongue to inventing lies.

Psalms 50:20 ‘You sit there, slandering your own brother, you malign your own mother’s son.

Psalms 50:21 You do this, and am I to say nothing? Do you think that I am really like you? I charge you, indict you to your face.

Psalms 50:22 ‘Think it out, you who forget God, or I will tear you apart without hope of a rescuer.

Psalms 50:23 Honour to me is a sacrifice of thanksgiving; to the upright I will show God’s salvation.’

Psalms 51:1 [For the choirmaster Of David When the prophet Nathan had come to him because he had gone to Bathsheba] Have mercy on me, O God, in your faithful love, in your great tenderness wipe away my offences;

Psalms 51:2 wash me clean from my guilt, purify me from my sin.

Psalms 51:3 For I am well aware of my offences, my sin is constantly in mind.

Psalms 51:4 Against you, you alone, I have sinned, I have done what you see to be wrong, that you may show your saving justice when you pass sentence, and your victory may appear when you give judgement,

Psalms 51:5 remember, I was born guilty, a sinner from the moment of conception.

Psalms 51:6 But you delight in sincerity of heart, and in secret you teach me wisdom.

Psalms 51:7 Purify me with hyssop till I am clean, wash me till I am whiter than snow.

Psalms 51:8 Let me hear the sound of joy and gladness, and the bones you have crushed will dance.

Psalms 51:9 Turn away your face from my sins, and wipe away all my guilt.

Psalms 51:10 God, create in me a clean heart, renew within me a resolute spirit,

Psalms 51:11 do not thrust me away from your presence, do not take away from me your spirit of holiness.

Psalms 51:12 Give me back the joy of your salvation, sustain in me a generous spirit.

Psalms 51:13 I shall teach the wicked your paths, and sinners will return to you.

Psalms 51:14 Deliver me from bloodshed, God, God of my salvation, and my tongue will acclaim your saving justice.

Psalms 51:15 Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will speak out your praise.

Psalms 51:16 Sacrifice gives you no pleasure, burnt offering you do not desire.

Psalms 51:17 Sacrifice to God is a broken spirit, a broken, contrite heart you never scorn.

Psalms 51:18 In your graciousness do good to Zion, rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.

Psalms 51:19 Then you will delight in upright sacrifices,-burnt offerings and whole oblations—and young bulls will be offered on your altar.

Psalms 52:1 [For the choirmaster Poem Of David When Doeg the Edomite went and warned Saul, ‘David has gone to Abimelech’s house’]

Why take pride in being wicked, you champion in villainy, all day long

Psalms 52:2 plotting crime? Your tongue is razor-sharp, you artist in perfidy.

Psalms 52:3 You prefer evil to good, lying to uprightness. Pause

Psalms 52:4 You revel in destructive talk, treacherous tongue!

Psalms 52:5 That is why God will crush you, destroy you once and for all, snatch you from your tent, uproot you from the land of the living.Pause

Psalms 52:6 The upright will be awestruck as they see it, they will mock him,

Psalms 52:7 'So much for someone who would not place his reliance in God, but relied on his own great wealth, and made himself strong by crime.'

Psalms 52:8 But I, like a flourishing olive tree in the house of God, put my trust in God's faithful love, for ever and ever.

Psalms 52:9 I shall praise you for ever for what you have done, and shall trust in your name, so full of goodness, in the presence of your faithful.

Psalms 53:1 [For the choirmaster In sickness Poem Of David] The fool has said in his heart, 'There is no God!' They are corrupt, vile and unjust, not one of them does right.

Psalms 53:2 God looks down from heaven at the children of Adam, to see if a single one is wise, a single one seeks God.

Psalms 53:3 All have proved faithless, all alike turned sour, not one of them does right, not a single one.

Psalms 53:4 Are they not aware, these evil-doers? They are devouring my people; this is the bread they eat, and they never call upon God.

Psalms 53:5 They will be gripped with fear, just where there is no need for fear, for God scatters the bones of him who besieges you; they are mocked because God rejects them.

Psalms 53:6 Who will bring from Zion salvation for Israel? When God brings his people home, what joy for Jacob, what happiness for Israel!

Psalms 54:1 [For the choirmaster On stringed instruments Poem Of David When the Ziphites went to Saul and said,'Is not David hiding with us?'] God, save me by your name, in your power vindicate me.

Psalms 54:2 God, hear my prayer, listen to the words I speak.

Psalms 54:3 Arrogant men are attacking me, bullies hounding me to death, no room in their thoughts for God.Pause

Psalms 54:4 But now God is coming to my help, the Lord, among those who sustain me.

Psalms 54:5 May their wickedness recoil on those who lie in wait for me. Yahweh, in your constancy destroy them.

Psalms 54:6 How gladly will I offer you sacrifice, and praise your name, for it is good,

Psalms 54:7 for it has rescued me from all my troubles, and my eye has feasted on my enemies.

Psalms 55:1 [For the choirmaster For strings Poem Of David] God, hear my prayer, do not hide away from my plea,

Psalms 55:2 give me a hearing, answer me, my troubles give me no peace. I shudder

Psalms 55:3 at the enemy's shouts, at the outcry of the wicked; they heap up charges against me, in their anger bring hostile accusations against me.

Psalms 55:4 My heart writhes within me, the terrors of death come upon me,

Psalms 55:5 fear and trembling overwhelm me, and shuddering grips me.

Psalms 55:6 And I say, 'Who will give me wings like a dove, to fly away and find rest?'

Psalms 55:7 How far I would escape, and make a nest in the desert!Pause

Psalms 55:8 I would soon find a refuge from the storm of abuse, from the Psalms 55:9 destructive tempest, Lord, from the flood of their tongues. For I see violence and strife in the city,

Psalms 55:10 day and night they make their rounds along the city walls, Inside live malice and mischief,

Psalms 55:11 inside lives destruction, tyranny and treachery never absent from its central square.

Psalms 55:12 Were it an enemy who insulted me, that I could bear; if an opponent pitted himself against me, I could turn away from him.

Psalms 55:13 But you, a person of my own rank, a comrade and dear friend,

Psalms 55:14 to whom I was bound by intimate friendship in the house of God! May they recoil in disorder,

Psalms 55:15 may death descend on them, may they go down alive to Sheol, since evil shares their home with them.

Psalms 55:16 For my part, I appeal to God, and Yahweh saves me;

Psalms 55:17 evening, morning, noon, I complain and I groan. He hears my cry,

Psalms 55:18 he ransoms me and gives me peace from the feud against me, for they are taking me to law.

Psalms 55:19 But God will listen and will humble them, he who has been enthroned from the beginning; no change of heart for them, for they do not fear God.

Psalms 55:20 They attack those at peace with them, going back on their oaths;

Psalms 55:21 though their mouth is smoother than butter, enmity is in their hearts; their words more soothing than oil, yet sharpened like swords.

Psalms 55:22 Unload your burden onto Yahweh and he will sustain you; never will he allow the upright to stumble.

Psalms 55:23 You, God, will thrust them down to the abyss of destruction, men bloodthirsty and deceptive, before half their days are spent. For my part, I put my trust in you.

Psalms 56:1 [For the choirmaster Tune: 'The oppression of distant princes' Of David In a quiet voice When the Philistines seized him in Gath] Take pity on me, God, as they harry me, pressing their attacks home all day.

Psalms 56:2 Those who harry me lie in wait for me all day, countless are those who attack me from the heights.

Psalms 56:3 When I am afraid, I put my trust in you,

Psalms 56:4 in God, whose word I praise, in God I put my trust and have no fear, what power has human strength over me?

Psalms 56:5 All day long they carp at my words, their only thought is to harm me,

Psalms 56:6 they gather together, lie in wait and spy on my movements, as though determined to take my life.

Psalms 56:7 Because of this crime reject them, in your anger, God, strike down the nations.

Psalms 56:8 You yourself have counted up my sorrows, collect my tears in your wineskin.

Psalms 56:9 Then my enemies will turn back on the day when I call. This I know, that God is on my side.

Psalms 56:10 In God whose word I praise, in Yahweh whose word I praise,

Psalms 56:11 in God I put my trust and have no fear; what can mortal man do to me?

Psalms 56:12 I am bound by the vows I have made, God, I will pay you the debt of thanks,

Psalms 56:13 for you have saved my life from death to walk in the presence of God, in the light of the living.

Psalms 57:1 [For the choirmaster Tune: ‘Do not destroy’ Of David In a quiet voice When he escaped from Saul in the cave] Take pity on me, God, take pity on me, for in you I take refuge, in the shadow of your wings I take refuge, until the destruction is past.

Psalms 57:2 I call to God the Most High, to God who has done everything for me;

Psalms 57:3 may he send from heaven and save me, and check those who harry me;Pause may God send his faithful love and his constancy.

Psalms 57:4 I lie surrounded by lions, greedy for human prey, their teeth are spears and arrows, their tongue a sharp sword.

Psalms 57:5 Be exalted above the heavens, God! Your glory over all the earth!

Psalms 57:6 They laid a snare in my path—I was bowed with care—they dug a pit ahead of me, but fell in it themselves.Pause

Psalms 57:7 My heart is ready, God, my heart is ready; I will sing, and make music for you.

Psalms 57:8 Awake, my glory, awake, lyre and harp, that I may awake the Dawn.

Psalms 57:9 I will praise you among the peoples, Lord, I will make music for you among nations,

Psalms 57:10 for your faithful love towers to heaven, your constancy to the clouds.

Psalms 57:11 Be exalted above the heavens, God! Your glory over all the earth!

Psalms 58:1 [For the choirmaster Tune: ‘Do not destroy’ Of David In a quiet voice] Divine as you are, do you truly give upright verdicts? do you judge fairly the children of Adam?

Psalms 58:2 No! You devise injustice in your hearts, and with your hands you administer tyranny on the earth.

Psalms 58:3 Since the womb they have gone astray, the wicked, on the wrong path since their birth, with their unjust verdicts.

Psalms 58:4 They are poisonous as any snake, deaf as an adder that blocks its ears

Psalms 58:5 so as not to hear the magician’s music, however skilful his spells.

Psalms 58:6 God, break the teeth in their mouths, snap off the fangs of these young lions, Yahweh.

Psalms 58:7 May they drain away like water running to waste, may they wither like trampled grass,

Psalms 58:8 like the slug that melts as it moves or a still-born child that never sees the sun.

Psalms 58:9 Before they sprout thorns like the bramble, green or burnt up, may retribution whirl them away.

Psalms 58:10 The upright will rejoice to see vengeance done, and will bathe his feet in the blood of the wicked.

Psalms 58:11 'So', people will say, 'the upright does have a reward; there is a God to dispense justice on earth.'

Psalms 59:1 [For the choirmaster Tune: 'Do not destroy' Of David In a quiet voice When Saul sent men to watch David's house in order to have him killed] Rescue me from my enemies, my God, be my stronghold from my assailants,

Psalms 59:2 rescue me from evil-doers, from men of violence save me.

Psalms 59:3 Look at them, lurking to ambush me, violent men are attacking me, for no fault, no sin of mine, Yahweh,

Psalms 59:4 for no guilt, they come running to take up position. Wake up, stand by me and keep watch,

Psalms 59:5 Yahweh, God of Sabaoth, God of Israel, rise up, to punish all the nations, show no mercy to all these malicious traitors.Pause

Psalms 59:6 Back they come at nightfall, snarling like curs, prowling through the town.

Psalms 59:7 Look how they rant in speech with swords on their lips, 'Who is there to hear us?'

Psalms 59:8 For your part, Yahweh, you laugh at them, you make mockery of all nations.

Psalms 59:9 My strength, I keep my eyes fixed on you. For my stronghold is God,

Psalms 59:10 the God who loves me faithfully is coming to meet me, God will let me feast my eyes on those who lie in wait for me.

Psalms 59:11 Do not annihilate them, or my people may forget; shake them in your power, bring them low, Lord, our shield.

Psalms 59:12 Sin is in their mouths, sin on their lips, so let them be trapped in their pride for the curses and lies that they utter.

Psalms 59:13 Destroy them in your anger, destroy them till they are no more, and let it be known that God is Master in Jacob and the whole wide world.Pause

Psalms 59:14 Back they come at nightfall, snarling like curs, prowling through the town,

Psalms 59:15 scavenging for something to eat, growling unless they have their fill.

Psalms 59:16 And so I will sing of your strength, in the morning acclaim your faithful love; you have been a stronghold for me, a refuge when I was in trouble.

Psalms 59:17 My strength, I will make music for you, for my stronghold is God, the God who loves me faithfully.

Psalms 60:1 [For the choirmaster To the tune 'The decree is a lily' In a quiet voice Of David To be learnt When he was at war with Aram-Naharaim and Aram-Zobah, and Joab marched back to destroy twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt] God, you have rejected us, broken us, you were angry, come back to us!

Psalms 60:2 You made the earth tremble, split it open; now mend the rifts, it is tottering still.

Psalms 60:3 You have forced your people to drink a bitter draught, forced us to drink a wine that made us reel.

Psalms 60:4 You gave a signal to those who fear you to let them escape out of range of the bow.Pause

Psalms 60:5 To rescue those you love, save with your right hand and answer us.

Psalms 60:6 God has spoken from his sanctuary, 'In triumph I will divide up Shechem, and share out the Valley of Succoth.

Psalms 60:7 'Mine is Gilead, mine Manasseh, Ephraim the helmet on my head, Judah my commander's baton,

Psalms 60:8 'Moab a bowl for me to wash in, on Edom I plant my sandal. Now try shouting "Victory!" over me, Philistia!'

Psalms 60:9 Who will lead me against a fortified city, who will guide me into Edom,

Psalms 60:10 if not you, the God who has rejected us? God, you no longer march with our armies.

Psalms 60:11 Bring us help in our time of crisis, any human help is worthless.

Psalms 60:12 With God we shall do deeds of valour, he will trample down our enemies.

Psalms 61:1 [For the choirmaster For strings Of David] God, hear my cry, listen to my prayer.

Psalms 61:2 From the end of the earth I call to you with fainting heart. Lead me to the high rock that stands far out of my reach.

Psalms 61:3 For you are my refuge, a strong tower against the enemy.

Psalms 61:4 Let me stay in your tent for ever, taking refuge in the shelter of your wings!

Psalms 61:5 For you, God, accept my vows, you grant me the heritage of those who fear your name.

Psalms 61:6 Let the king live on and on, let his years continue age after age.

Psalms 61:7 May his throne be always in God’s presence, your faithful love and constancy watch over him.

Psalms 61:8 Then I shall always sing to your name, day after day fulfilling my vows.

Psalms 62:1 [For the choirmaster . . . Jeduthun Psalm Of David] In God alone there is rest for my soul, from him comes my safety;

Psalms 62:2 he alone is my rock, my safety, my stronghold so that I stand unshaken.

Psalms 62:3 How much longer will you set on a victim, all together, intent on murder, like a rampart already leaning over, a wall already damaged?

Psalms 62:4 Trickery is their only plan, deception their only pleasure, with lies on their lips they pronounce a blessing, with a curse in their hearts.Pause

Psalms 62:5 Rest in God alone, my soul! He is the source of my hope.

Psalms 62:6 He alone is my rock, my safety, my stronghold, so that I stand unwavering.

Psalms 62:7 In God is my safety and my glory, the rock of my strength. In God is my refuge;

Psalms 62:8 trust in him, you people, at all times. Pour out your hearts to him, God is a refuge for us.Pause

Psalms 62:9 Ordinary people are a mere puff of wind, important people a delusion; set both on the scales together, and they are lighter than a puff of wind.

Psalms 62:10 Put no trust in extortion, no empty hopes in robbery; however much wealth may multiply, do not set your heart on it.

Psalms 62:11 Once God has spoken, twice have I heard this: Strength belongs to God,

Psalms 62:12 to you, Lord, faithful love; and you repay everyone as their deeds deserve.

Psalms 63:1 [Psalm Of David When he was in the desert of Judah] God, you are my God, I pine for you; my heart thirsts for you, my body longs for you, as a land parched, dreary and waterless.

Psalms 63:2 Thus I have gazed on you in the sanctuary, seeing your power and your glory.

Psalms 63:3 Better your faithful love than life itself; my lips will praise you.

Psalms 63:4 Thus I will bless you all my life, in your name lift up my hands.

Psalms 63:5 All my longings fulfilled as with fat and rich foods, a song of joy on my lips and praise in my mouth.

Psalms 63:6 On my bed when I think of you, I muse on you in the watches of the night,

Psalms 63:7 for you have always been my help; in the shadow of your wings I rejoice;

Psalms 63:8 my heart clings to you, your right hand supports me.

Psalms 63:9 May those who are hounding me to death go down to the depths of the earth,

Psalms 63:10 given over to the blade of the sword, and left as food for jackals.

Psalms 63:11 Then the king shall rejoice in God, all who swear by him shall gain recognition, for the mouths of liars shall be silenced.

Psalms 64:1 [For the choirmaster Psalm Of David] Listen, God, to my voice as I plead, protect my life from fear of the enemy;

Psalms 64:2 hide me from the league of the wicked, from the gang of evil-doers.

Psalms 64:3 They sharpen their tongues like a sword, aim their arrows of poisonous abuse,

Psalms 64:4 shoot at the innocent from cover, shoot suddenly, with nothing to fear.

Psalms 64:5 They support each other in their evil designs, they discuss how to lay their snares. 'Who will see us?' they say,

Psalms 64:6 'or will penetrate our secrets?' He will do that, he who penetrates human nature to its depths, the depths of the heart.

Psalms 64:7 God has shot them with his arrow, sudden were their wounds.

Psalms 64:8 He brings them down because of their tongue, and all who see them shake their heads.

Psalms 64:9 Everyone will be awestruck, proclaim what God has done, and understand why he has done it.

Psalms 64:10 The upright will rejoice in Yahweh, will take refuge in him, and all the honest will praise him.

Psalms 65:1 [For the choirmaster Psalm Of David Song] Praise is rightfully yours, God, in Zion. Vows to you shall be fulfilled,

Psalms 65:2 for you answer prayer. All humanity must come to you

Psalms 65:3 with its sinful deeds. Our faults overwhelm us, but you blot them out.

Psalms 65:4 How blessed those whom you choose and invite to dwell in your courts. We shall be filled with the good things of your house, of your holy temple.

Psalms 65:5 You respond to us with the marvels of your saving justice, God our Saviour, hope of the whole wide world, even the distant islands.

Psalms 65:6 By your strength you hold the mountains steady, being clothed in power,

Psalms 65:7 you calm the turmoil of the seas, the turmoil of their waves. The nations are in uproar, in panic those who live at the ends of the earth;

Psalms 65:8 your miracles bring shouts of joy to the gateways of morning and evening.

Psalms 65:9 You visit the earth and make it fruitful, you fill it with riches; the river of God brims over with water, you provide the grain. To that end

Psalms 65:10 you water its furrows abundantly, level its ridges, soften it with showers and bless its shoots.

Psalms 65:11 You crown the year with your generosity, richness seeps from your tracks,

Psalms 65:12 the pastures of the desert grow moist, the hillsides are wrapped in joy,

Psalms 65:13 the meadows are covered with flocks, the valleys clothed with wheat; they shout and sing for joy.

Psalms 66:1 [For the choirmaster Song Psalm] Acclaim God, all the earth,

Psalms 66:2 sing psalms to the glory of his name, glorify him with your praises,

Psalms 66:3 say to God, 'How awesome you are! 'Your achievements are the measure of your power, your enemies woo your favour,

Psalms 66:4 all the earth bows down before you, sings psalms to you, sings psalms to your name.'Pause

Psalms 66:5 Come and see the marvels of God, his awesome deeds for the children of Adam:

Psalms 66:6 he changed the sea into dry land, they crossed the river on foot. So let us rejoice in him,

Psalms 66:7 who rules for ever by his power; his eyes keep watch on the nations to forestall rebellion against him.Pause

Psalms 66:8 Nations, bless our God, let the sound of his praise be heard;

Psalms 66:9 he brings us to life and keeps our feet from stumbling.

Psalms 66:10 God, you have put us to the test, refined us like silver,

Psalms 66:11 let us fall into the net; you have put a heavy strain on our backs, Psalms 66:12 let men ride over our heads; but now the ordeal by fire and water is over, you have led us out to breathe again.

Psalms 66:13 I bring burnt offerings to your house, I fulfil to you my vows,

Psalms 66:14 the vows that rose to my lips, that I pronounced when I was in trouble.

Psalms 66:15 I will offer you rich burnt offerings, with the smoke of burning rams. I will sacrifice to you bullocks and goats.Pause

Psalms 66:16 Come and listen, all who fear God, while I tell what he has done for me.

Psalms 66:17 To him I cried aloud, high praise was on my tongue.

Psalms 66:18 Had I been aware of guilt in my heart, the Lord would not have listened,

Psalms 66:19 but in fact God did listen, attentive to the sound of my prayer.

Psalms 66:20 Blessed be God who has not turned away my prayer, nor his own faithful love from me.

Psalms 67:1 [For the choirmaster For strings Psalm Song] May God show kindness and bless us, and make his face shine on us.Pause

Psalms 67:2 Then the earth will acknowledge your ways, and all nations your power to save.

Psalms 67:3 Let the nations praise you, God, let all the nations praise you.

Psalms 67:4 Let the nations rejoice and sing for joy, for you judge the world with justice, you judge the peoples with fairness, you guide the nations on earth.Pause

Psalms 67:5 Let the nations praise you, God, let all the nations praise you.

Psalms 67:6 The earth has yielded its produce; God, our God has blessed us.

Psalms 67:7 May God continue to bless us, and be revered by the whole wide world.

Psalms 68:1 [For the choirmaster Of David Psalm Song] Let God arise, let his enemies scatter, let his opponents flee before him.

Psalms 68:2 You disperse them like smoke; as wax melts in the presence of a fire, so the wicked melt at the presence of God.

Psalms 68:3 The upright rejoice in the presence of God, delighted and crying out for joy.

Psalms 68:4 Sing to God, play music to his name, build a road for the Rider of the Clouds, rejoice in Yahweh, dance before him.

Psalms 68:5 Father of orphans, defender of widows, such is God in his holy dwelling.

Psalms 68:6 God gives the lonely a home to live in, leads prisoners out into prosperity, but rebels must live in the bare wastelands.

Psalms 68:7 God, when you set out at the head of your people, when you strode over the desert,

Psalms 68:8 the earth rocked,Pause the heavens pelted down rain at the presence of God, at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

Psalms 68:9 God, you rained down a shower of blessings, when your heritage was weary you gave it strength.

Psalms 68:10 Your family found a home, which you in your generosity provided for the humble.

Psalms 68:11 The Lord gave a command, the good news of a countless army.

Psalms 68:12 The chieftains of the army are in flight, in flight, and the fair one at home is sharing out the spoils.

Psalms 68:13 While you are at ease in the sheepfolds, the wings of the Dove are being covered with silver, and her feathers with a sheen of green gold;

Psalms 68:14 when Shaddai scatters the chieftains, through her it snows on the Dark Mountain.

Psalms 68:15 A mountain of God, the mountain of Bashan! a haughty mountain, the mountain of Bashan!

Psalms 68:16 Why be envious, haughty mountains, of the mountain God has chosen for his dwelling? There God will dwell for ever.

Psalms 68:17 The chariots of God are thousand upon thousand; God has come from Sinai to the sanctuary.

Psalms 68:18 You have climbed the heights, taken captives, you have taken men as tribute, even rebels that Yahweh God might have a dwelling-place.

Psalms 68:19 Blessed be the Lord day after day, he carries us along, God our Saviour.Pause

Psalms 68:20 This God of ours is a God who saves; from Lord Yahweh comes escape from death;

Psalms 68:21 but God smashes the head of his enemies, the long-haired skull of the prowling criminal.

Psalms 68:22 The Lord has said, ‘I will bring them back from Bashan, I will bring them back from the depths of the sea,

Psalms 68:23 so that you may bathe your feet in blood, and the tongues of your dogs feast on your enemies.’

Psalms 68:24 Your processions, God, are for all to see, the processions of my God, of my king, to the sanctuary;

Psalms 68:25 singers ahead, musicians behind, in the middle come girls, beating their drums.

Psalms 68:26 In choirs they bless God, Yahweh, since the foundation of Israel.

Psalms 68:27 Benjamin was there, the youngest in front, the princes of Judah in bright-coloured robes, the princes of Zebulun, the princes of Naphtali.

Psalms 68:28 Take command, my God, as befits your power, the power, God, which you have wielded for us,

Psalms 68:29 from your temple high above Jerusalem. Kings will come to you bearing tribute.

Psalms 68:30 Rebuke the Beast of the Reeds, that herd of bulls, that people of calves, who bow down with ingots of silver. Scatter the people who delight in war.

Psalms 68:31 From Egypt nobles will come, Ethiopia will stretch out its hands to God.

Psalms 68:32 Kingdoms of the earth, sing to God, play for Psalms 68:33 the Rider of the Heavens, the primeval heavens.Pause There he speaks, with a voice of power!

Psalms 68:34 Acknowledge the power of God. Over Israel his splendour, in the clouds his power.

Psalms 68:35 Awesome is God in his sanctuary. He, the God of Israel, gives strength and power to his people. Blessed be God.

Psalms 69:1 [For the choirmaster Tune: 'Lilies . . .' Of David] Save me, God, for the waters have closed in on my very being.

Psalms 69:2 I am sinking in the deepest swamp and there is no firm ground. I have stepped into deep water and the waves are washing over me.

Psalms 69:3 I am exhausted with calling out, my throat is hoarse, my eyes are worn out with searching for my God.

Psalms 69:4 More numerous than the hairs of my head are those who hate me without reason. Those who seek to get rid of me are powerful, my treacherous enemies. (Must I give back what I have never stolen?)

Psalms 69:5 God, you know how foolish I am, my offences are not hidden from you.

Psalms 69:6 Those who hope in you must not be made fools of, Yahweh Sabaoth, because of me! Those who seek you must not be disgraced, God of Israel, because of me!

Psalms 69:7 It is for you I bear insults, my face is covered with shame,

Psalms 69:8 I am estranged from my brothers, alienated from my own mother's sons;

Psalms 69:9 for I am eaten up with zeal for your house, and insults directed against you fall on me.

Psalms 69:10 I mortify myself with fasting, and find myself insulted for it,

Psalms 69:11 I dress myself in sackcloth and become their laughing-stock,

Psalms 69:12 the gossip of people sitting at the gate, and the theme of drunkards' songs.

Psalms 69:13 And so, I pray to you, Yahweh, at the time of your favour; in your faithful love answer me, in the constancy of your saving power.

Psalms 69:14 Rescue me from the mire before I sink in; so I shall be saved from those who hate me, from the watery depths.

Psalms 69:15 Let not the waves wash over me, nor the deep swallow me up, nor the pit close its mouth on me.

Psalms 69:16 Answer me, Yahweh, for your faithful love is generous; in your tenderness turn towards me;

Psalms 69:17 do not turn away from your servant, be quick to answer me, for I am in trouble.

Psalms 69:18 Come to my side, redeem me, ransom me because of my enemies.

Psalms 69:19 You know well the insults, the shame and disgrace I endure. Every one of my oppressors is known to you.

Psalms 69:20 Insult has broken my heart past cure. I hoped for sympathy, but in vain, for consolers—not one to be found.

Psalms 69:21 To eat they gave me poison, to drink, vinegar when I was thirsty.

Psalms 69:22 May their own table prove a trap for them, and their abundance a snare;

Psalms 69:23 may their eyes grow so dim that they cannot see, all their muscles lose their strength.

Psalms 69:24 Vent your fury on them, let your burning anger overtake them.

Psalms 69:25 Reduce their encampment to ruin, and leave their tents untenanted,

Psalms 69:26 for hounding someone you had already stricken, for redoubling the pain of one you had wounded.

Psalms 69:27 Charge them with crime after crime, exclude them from your saving justice,

Psalms 69:28 erase them from the book of life, do not enrol them among the upright.

Psalms 69:29 For myself, wounded wretch that I am, by your saving power raise me up!

Psalms 69:30 I will praise God's name in song, I will extol him by thanksgiving,

Psalms 69:31 for this will please Yahweh more than an ox, than a bullock horned and hoofed.

Psalms 69:32 The humble have seen and are glad. Let your courage revive, you who seek God.

Psalms 69:33 For God listens to the poor, he has never scorned his captive people.

Psalms 69:34 Let heaven and earth and seas, and all that stirs in them, acclaim him!

Psalms 69:35 For God will save Zion, and rebuild the cities of Judah, and people will live there on their own land;

Psalms 69:36 the descendants of his servants will inherit it, and those who love his name will dwell there.

Psalms 70:1 [For the choirmaster Of David In commemoration] Be pleased, God, to rescue me, Yahweh, come quickly and help me!

Psalms 70:2 Shame and dismay to those who seek my life! Back with them! Let them be humiliated who delight in my misfortunes.

Psalms 70:3 Let them shrink away covered with shame, those who say to me, 'Aha, aha!'

Psalms 70:4 But joy and happiness in you to all who seek you. Let them ceaselessly cry, 'God is great', who love your saving power.

Psalms 70:5 Poor and needy as I am, God, come quickly to me! Yahweh, my helper, my Saviour, do not delay!

Psalms 71:1 In you, Yahweh, I take refuge, I shall never be put to shame.

Psalms 71:2 In your saving justice rescue me, deliver me, listen to me and save me.

Psalms 71:3 Be a sheltering rock for me, always accessible; you have determined to save me, for you are my rock, my fortress.

Psalms 71:4 My God, rescue me from the clutches of the wicked, from the grasp of the rogue and the ruthless.

Psalms 71:5 For you are my hope, Lord, my trust, Yahweh, since boyhood.

Psalms 71:6 On you I have relied since my birth, since my mother's womb you have been my portion, the constant theme of my praise.

Psalms 71:7 Many were bewildered at me, but you are my sure refuge.

Psalms 71:8 My mouth is full of your praises, filled with your splendour all day long.

Psalms 71:9 Do not reject me in my old age, nor desert me when my strength is failing,

Psalms 71:10 for my enemies are discussing me, those with designs on my life are plotting together.

Psalms 71:11 'Hound him down, for God has deserted him! Seize him, there is no one to rescue him.'

Psalms 71:12 God, do not stand aloof, my God, come quickly to help me.

Psalms 71:13 Shame and ruin on those who slander me, may those intent on harming me be covered with insult and infamy.

Psalms 71:14 As for me, my hope will never fade, I will praise you more and more.

Psalms 71:15 My lips shall proclaim your saving justice, your saving power all day long.

Psalms 71:16 I will come in the power of Yahweh to tell of your justice, yours alone.

Psalms 71:17 God, you have taught me from boyhood, and I am still proclaiming your marvels.

Psalms 71:18 Now that I am old and grey-haired, God, do not desert me, till I have proclaimed your strength to generations still to come, your power

Psalms 71:19 and justice to the skies. You have done great things, God, who is like you?

Psalms 71:20 You have shown me much misery and hardship, but you will give me life again, You will raise me up again from the depths of the earth,

Psalms 71:21 prolong my old age, and comfort me again.

Psalms 71:22 For my part, I will thank you on the lyre for your constancy, my God. I will play the harp in your honour, Holy One of Israel.

Psalms 71:23 My lips sing for joy as I play to you, because you have redeemed me,

Psalms 71:24 and all day long my tongue muses on your saving justice. Shame and disgrace on those intent to harm me!

Psalms 72:1 [Of Solomon] God, endow the king with your own fair judgement, the son of the king with your own saving justice,

Psalms 72:2 that he may rule your people with justice, and your poor with fair judgement.

Psalms 72:3 Mountains and hills, bring peace to the people! With justice

Psalms 72:4 he will judge the poor of the people, he will save the children of the needy and crush their oppressors.

Psalms 72:5 In the sight of the sun and the moon he will endure, age after age.

Psalms 72:6 He will come down like rain on mown grass, like showers moistening the land.

Psalms 72:7 In his days uprightness shall flourish, and peace in plenty till the moon is no more.

Psalms 72:8 His empire shall stretch from sea to sea, from the river to the limits of the earth.

Psalms 72:9 The Beast will cower before him, his enemies lick the dust;

Psalms 72:10 the kings of Tarshish and the islands will pay him tribute. The kings of Sheba and Saba will offer gifts;

Psalms 72:11 all kings will do him homage, all nations become his servants.

Psalms 72:12 For he rescues the needy who calls to him, and the poor who has no one to help.

Psalms 72:13 He has pity on the weak and the needy, and saves the needy from death.

Psalms 72:14 From oppression and violence he redeems their lives, their blood is precious in his sight.

Psalms 72:15 (Long may he live; may the gold of Sheba be given him!) Prayer will be offered for him constantly, and blessings invoked on him all day.

Psalms 72:16 May wheat abound in the land, waving on the heights of the hills, like Lebanon with its fruits and flowers at their best, like the grasses of the earth.

Psalms 72:17 May his name be blessed for ever, and endure in the sight of the sun. In him shall be blessed every race in the world, and all nations call him blessed.

Psalms 72:18 Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, who alone works wonders;

Psalms 72:19 blessed for ever his glorious name. May the whole world be filled with his glory! Amen! Amen!

Psalms 72:20 End of the prayers of David, son of Jesse.

Psalms 73:1 [Psalm Of Asaph] Indeed God is good to Israel, the Lord to those who are pure of heart.

Psalms 73:2 My feet were on the point of stumbling, a little more and I had slipped, Psalms 73:3 envying the arrogant as I did, and seeing the prosperity of the wicked.

Psalms 73:4 For them no such thing as pain, untroubled, their comfortable portliness;

Psalms 73:5 exempt from the cares which are the human lot, they have no part in Adam’s afflictions.

Psalms 73:6 So pride is a necklace to them, violence the garment they wear.

Psalms 73:7 From their fat oozes out malice, their hearts drip with cunning.

Psalms 73:8 Cynically they advocate evil, loftily they advocate force.

Psalms 73:9 Their mouth claims heaven for themselves, and their tongue is never still on earth.

Psalms 73:10 That is why my people turn to them, and enjoy the waters of plenty,

Psalms 73:11 saying, ‘How can God know? What knowledge can the Most High have?’

Psalms 73:12 That is what the wicked are like, piling up wealth without any worries.

Psalms 73:13 Was it useless, then, to have kept my own heart clean, to have washed my hands in innocence?

Psalms 73:14 When I was under a hail of blows all day long, and punished every morning,

Psalms 73:15 had I said, ‘I shall talk like them,’ I should have betrayed your children’s race.

Psalms 73:16 So I set myself to understand this: how difficult I found it!

Psalms 73:17 Until I went into the sanctuaries of the gods and understood what was destined to become of them.

Psalms 73:18 You place them on a slippery slope and drive them down into chaos.

Psalms 73:19 How sudden their hideous destruction! They are swept away, annihilated by terror!

Psalms 73:20 Like a dream upon waking, Lord, when you awake, you dismiss their image.

Psalms 73:21 My heart grew embittered, my affections dried up,

Psalms 73:22 I was stupid and uncomprehending, a clumsy animal in your presence.

Psalms 73:23 Even so, I stayed in your presence, you grasped me by the right hand;

Psalms 73:24 you will guide me with advice, and will draw me in the wake of your glory.

Psalms 73:25 Who else is there for me in heaven? And, with you, I lack nothing on earth.

Psalms 73:26 My heart and my flesh are pining away: my heart's rock, my portion, God for ever!

Psalms 73:27 Truly, those who abandon you will perish; you destroy those who adulterously desert you,

Psalms 73:28 whereas my happiness is to be near God. I have made the Lord Yahweh my refuge, to tell of all your works.

Psalms 74:1 [Poem Of Asaph] God, why have you finally rejected us, your anger blazing against the flock you used to pasture?

Psalms 74:2 Remember the people you took to yourself long ago, your own tribe which you redeemed, and this Mount Zion where you came to live.

Psalms 74:3 Come up to these endless ruins! The enemy have sacked everything in the sanctuary;

Psalms 74:4 your opponents made uproar in the place of assemblies, they fixed their emblems over the entrance, emblems

Psalms 74:5 never known before. Their axes deep in the wood,

Psalms 74:6 hacking at the panels, they battered them down with axe and pick;

Psalms 74:7 they set fire to your sanctuary, profanely rased to the ground the dwelling-place of your name.

Psalms 74:8 They said to themselves, 'Let us crush them at one stroke!' They burned down every sacred shrine in the land.

Psalms 74:9 We see no signs, no prophet any more, and none of us knows how long it will last.

Psalms 74:10 How much longer, God, will the enemy blaspheme? Is the enemy to insult your name for ever?

Psalms 74:11 Why hold back your hand, keep your right hand hidden in the folds of your robe?

Psalms 74:12 Yet, God, my king from the first, author of saving acts throughout the earth,

Psalms 74:13 by your power you split the sea in two, and smashed the heads of the monsters on the waters.

Psalms 74:14 You crushed Leviathan's heads, gave him as food to the wild animals.

Psalms 74:15 You released the springs and brooks, and turned primordial rivers into dry land.

Psalms 74:16 Yours is the day and yours the night, you caused sun and light to exist, Psalms 74:17 you fixed all the boundaries of the earth, you created summer and winter.

Psalms 74:18 Remember, Yahweh, the enemy's blasphemy, a foolish people insults your name.

Psalms 74:19 Do not surrender your turtledove to the beast; do not forget for ever the life of your oppressed people.

Psalms 74:20 Look to the covenant! All the hiding-places of the land are full, haunts of violence.

Psalms 74:21 Do not let the downtrodden retreat in confusion, give the poor and needy cause to praise your name.

Psalms 74:22 Arise, God, champion your own cause, remember how fools blaspheme you all day long!

Psalms 74:23 Do not forget the shouting of your enemies, the ever-mounting uproar of your adversaries.

Psalms 75:1 [For the choirmaster Tune: 'Do not destroy' Psalm Of Asaph Song] We give thanks to you, God, we give thanks to you, as we call upon your name, as we recount your wonders.

Psalms 75:2 'At the appointed time I myself shall dispense justice.

Psalms 75:3 The earth quakes and all its inhabitants; it is I who hold its pillars firm.Pause

Psalms 75:4 'I said to the boastful, "Do not boast!" to the wicked, "Do not flaunt your strength!

Psalms 75:5 Do not flaunt your strength so proudly, do not talk with that arrogant stance." '

Psalms 75:6 No longer from east to west, no longer in the mountainous desert,

Psalms 75:7 is God judging in uprightness, bringing some down, raising others.

Psalms 75:8 Yahweh is holding a cup filled with a heady blend of wine; he will pour it, they will drink it to the dregs, all the wicked on earth will drink it.

Psalms 75:9 But I shall speak out for ever, shall make music for the God of Jacob.

Psalms 75:10 I shall break down all the strength of the wicked, and the strength of the upright will rise high.

Psalms 76:1 [For the choirmaster For strings Psalm Of Asaph Song] God is acknowledged in Judah, his name is great in Israel,

Psalms 76:2 his tent is pitched in Salem, his dwelling is in Zion;

Psalms 76:3 there he has broken the lightning-flashes of the bow, shield and sword and war.Pause

Psalms 76:4 Radiant you are, and renowned for the mountains of booty

Psalms 76:5 taken from them. Heroes are now sleeping their last sleep, the warriors' arms have failed them;

Psalms 76:6 at your reproof, God of Jacob, chariot and horse stand stunned.

Psalms 76:7 You, you alone, strike terror! Who can hold his ground in your presence when your anger strikes?

Psalms 76:8 From heaven your verdicts thunder, the earth is silent with dread

Psalms 76:9 when God takes his stand to give judgement, to save all the humble of the earth.Pause

Psalms 76:10 Human anger serves only to praise you, the survivors of your anger will huddle round you.

Psalms 76:11 Make and fulfil your vows to Yahweh your God, let those who surround him make offerings to the Awesome One.

Psalms 76:12 He cuts short the breath of princes, strikes terror in earthly kings.

Psalms 77:1 [For the choirmaster . . . Jeduthun Of Asaph Psalm] I cry to God in distress, I cry to God and he hears me.

Psalms 77:2 In the day of my distress I sought the Lord; all night I tirelessly stretched out my hands, my heart refused to be consoled.

Psalms 77:3 I sigh as I think of God, my spirit faints away as I ponder on him. Pause

Psalms 77:4 You kept me from closing my eyes, I was too distraught to speak;

Psalms 77:5 I thought of former times, years long past

Psalms 77:6 I recalled; through the night I ponder in my heart, as I reflect, my spirit asks this question:

Psalms 77:7 Is the Lord's rejection final? Will he never show favour again?

Psalms 77:8 Is his faithful love gone for ever? Has his Word come to an end for all time?

Psalms 77:9 Does God forget to show mercy? In anger does he shut off his tenderness?Pause

Psalms 77:10 And I said, 'This is what wounds me, the right hand of the Most High has lost its strength.'

Psalms 77:11 Remembering Yahweh's great deeds, remembering your wonders in the past,

Psalms 77:12 I reflect on all that you did, I ponder all your great deeds.

Psalms 77:13 God, your ways are holy! What god is as great as our God?

Psalms 77:14 You are the God who does marvellous deeds, brought nations to acknowledge your power,

Psalms 77:15 with your own arm redeeming your people, the children of Jacob and Joseph.Pause

Psalms 77:16 When the waters saw you, God, when the waters saw you they writhed in anguish, the very depths shook with fear.

Psalms 77:17 The clouds pelted down water, the sky thundered, your arrows shot back and forth.

Psalms 77:18 The rolling of your thunder was heard, your lightning-flashes lit up the world, the earth shuddered and shook.

Psalms 77:19 Your way led over the sea, your path over the countless waters, and none could trace your footsteps.

Psalms 77:20 You guided your people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psalms 78:1 [Psalm Of Asaph] My people, listen to my teaching, pay attention to what I say.

Psalms 78:2 I will speak to you in poetry, unfold the mysteries of the past.

Psalms 78:3 What we have heard and know, what our ancestors have told us

Psalms 78:4 we shall not conceal from their descendants, but will tell to a generation still to come: the praises of Yahweh, his power, the wonderful deeds he has done.

Psalms 78:5 He instituted a witness in Jacob, he established a law in Israel, he commanded our ancestors to hand it down to their descendants,

Psalms 78:6 that a generation still to come might know it, children yet to be born. They should be sure to tell their own children,

Psalms 78:7 and should put their trust in God, never forgetting God's great deeds, always keeping his commands,

Psalms 78:8 and not, like their ancestors, be a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation weak of purpose, their spirit fickle towards God.

Psalms 78:9 The archer sons of Ephraim turned tail when the time came for fighting;

Psalms 78:10 they failed to keep God's covenant, they refused to follow his Law;

Psalms 78:11 they had forgotten his great deeds, the marvels he had shown them;

Psalms 78:12 he did marvels in the sight of their ancestors in Egypt, in the plains of Tanis.

Psalms 78:13 He split the sea and brought them through, made the waters stand up like a dam;

Psalms 78:14 he led them with a cloud by day, and all the night with the light of a fire;

Psalms 78:15 he split rocks in the desert, let them drink as though from the limitless depths;

Psalms 78:16 he brought forth streams from a rock, made waters flow down in torrents.

Psalms 78:17 But they only sinned against him more than ever, defying the Most High in barren country;

Psalms 78:18 they deliberately challenged God by demanding food to their hearts' content.

Psalms 78:19 They insulted God by saying, 'Can God make a banquet in the desert?

Psalms 78:20 True, when he struck the rock, waters gushed out and flowed in torrents; but what of bread? Can he give that, can he provide meat for his people?'

Psalms 78:21 When he heard them Yahweh vented his anger, fire blazed against Jacob, his anger mounted against Israel,

Psalms 78:22 because they had no faith in God, no trust in his power to save.

Psalms 78:23 Even so he gave orders to the skies above, he opened the sluice-gates of heaven;

Psalms 78:24 he rained down manna to feed them, he gave them the wheat of heaven;

Psalms 78:25 mere mortals ate the bread of the Mighty, he sent them as much food as they could want.

Psalms 78:26 He roused an east wind in the heavens, despatched a south wind by his strength;

Psalms 78:27 he rained down meat on them like dust, birds thick as sand on the seashore,

Psalms 78:28 tumbling into the middle of his camp, all around his dwelling-place.

Psalms 78:29 They ate as much food as they wanted, he satisfied all their cravings;

Psalms 78:30 but their cravings were still upon them, the food was still in their mouths,

Psalms 78:31 when the wrath of God attacked them, slaughtering their strongest men, laying low the flower of Israel.

Psalms 78:32 Despite all this, they went on sinning, they put no faith in his marvels.

Psalms 78:33 He made their days vanish in mist, their years in sudden ruin.

Psalms 78:34 Whenever he slaughtered them, they began to seek him, they turned back and looked eagerly for him,

Psalms 78:35 recalling that God was their rock, God the Most High, their redeemer.

Psalms 78:36 They tried to hoodwink him with their mouths, their tongues were deceitful towards him;

Psalms 78:37 their hearts were not loyal to him, they were not faithful to his covenant.

Psalms 78:38 But in his compassion he forgave their guilt instead of killing them, time and again repressing his anger instead of rousing his full wrath,

Psalms 78:39 remembering they were creatures of flesh, a breath of wind that passes, never to return.

Psalms 78:40 How often they defied him in the desert! How often they grieved him in the wastelands!

Psalms 78:41 Repeatedly they challenged God, provoking the Holy One of Israel,

Psalms 78:42 not remembering his hand, the time when he saved them from the oppressor,

Psalms 78:43 he who did his signs in Egypt, his miracles in the plains of Tanis,

Psalms 78:44 turning their rivers to blood, their streams so that they had nothing to drink.

Psalms 78:45 He sent horseflies to eat them up, and frogs to devastate them,

Psalms 78:46 consigning their crops to the caterpillar, the fruit of their hard work to the locust;

Psalms 78:47 he killed their vines with hail, their sycamore trees with frost,

Psalms 78:48 delivering up their cattle to hail, and their flocks to thunderbolts.

Psalms 78:49 He loosed against them the full heat of his anger, fury, rage and destruction, a detachment of destroying angels;

Psalms 78:50 he gave free course to his anger. He did not exempt their own selves from death, delivering up their lives to the plague.

Psalms 78:51 He struck all the first-born in Egypt, the flower of the youth in the tents of Ham.

Psalms 78:52 He brought out his people like sheep, guiding them like a flock in the desert,

Psalms 78:53 leading them safe and unafraid, while the sea engulfed their enemies.

Psalms 78:54 He brought them to his holy land, the hill-country won by his right hand;

Psalms 78:55 he dispossessed nations before them, measured out a heritage for each of them, and settled the tribes of Israel in their tents.

Psalms 78:56 But still they challenged the Most High God and defied him, refusing to keep his decrees;

Psalms 78:57 as perverse and treacherous as their ancestors, they gave way like a faulty bow,

Psalms 78:58 provoking him with their high places, rousing his jealousy with their idols.

Psalms 78:59 God listened and vented his wrath, he totally rejected Israel;

Psalms 78:60 he forsook his dwelling in Shiloh, the tent where he used to dwell on the earth.

Psalms 78:61 He abandoned his power to captivity, his splendour to the enemy’s clutches;

Psalms 78:62 he gave up his people to the sword, he vented his wrath on his own heritage.

Psalms 78:63 Fire devoured their young men, their young girls had no wedding-song;

Psalms 78:64 their priests fell by the sword and their widows sang no dirge.

Psalms 78:65 The Lord arose as though he had been asleep, like a strong man fighting-mad with wine,

Psalms 78:66 he struck his enemies on the rump, and put them to everlasting shame.

Psalms 78:67 Rejecting the tents of Joseph, passing over the tribe of Ephraim,

Psalms 78:68 he chose the tribe of Judah, his well-loved mountain of Zion;

Psalms 78:69 he built his sanctuary like high hills, like the earth set it firm for ever.

Psalms 78:70 He chose David to be his servant, took him from the sheepfold, Psalms 78:71 took him from tending ewes to pasture his servant Jacob, and Israel his heritage.

Psalms 78:72 He pastured them with unblemished heart, with a sensitive hand he led them.

Psalms 79:1 [Psalm Of Asaph] God, the pagans have invaded your heritage, they have defiled your holy temple, they have laid Jerusalem in ruins,

Psalms 79:2 they have left the corpses of your servants as food for the birds of the air, the bodies of your faithful for the wild beasts.

Psalms 79:3 Around Jerusalem they have shed blood like water, leaving no one to bury them.

Psalms 79:4 We are the scorn of our neighbours, the butt and laughing-stock of those around us.

Psalms 79:5 How long will you be angry, Yahweh? For ever? Is your jealousy to go on smouldering like a fire?

Psalms 79:6 Pour out your anger on the nations who do not acknowledge you, and on the kingdoms that do not call on your name;

Psalms 79:7 for they have devoured Jacob and devastated his home.

Psalms 79:8 Do not count against us the guilt of former generations, in your tenderness come quickly to meet us, for we are utterly weakened;

Psalms 79:9 help us, God our Saviour, for the glory of your name; Yahweh, wipe away our sins, rescue us for the sake of your name.

Psalms 79:10 Why should the nations ask, ‘Where is their God?’ Let us see the nations suffer vengeance for shedding your servants’ blood.

Psalms 79:11 May the groans of the captive reach you, by your great strength save those who are condemned to death!

Psalms 79:12 Repay our neighbours sevenfold for the insults they have levelled at you, Lord.

Psalms 79:13 And we, your people, the flock that you pasture, will thank you for ever, will recite your praises from age to age.

Psalms 80:1 [For the choirmaster Tune: ‘The decrees are lilies’ Of Asaph Psalm] Shepherd of Israel, listen, you who lead Joseph like a flock, enthroned on the winged creatures, shine forth

Psalms 80:2 over Ephraim, Benjamin and Manasseh; rouse your valour and come to our help.

Psalms 80:3 God, bring us back, let your face shine on us and we shall be safe.

Psalms 80:4 Yahweh, God Sabaoth, how long will you flare up at your people’s prayer?

Psalms 80:5 You have made tears their food, redoubled tears their drink.

Psalms 80:6 You let our neighbours quarrel over us, our enemies mock us.

Psalms 80:7 God Sabaoth, bring us back, let your face shine on us and we shall be safe.

Psalms 80:8 You brought a vine out of Egypt, to plant it you drove out nations;

Psalms 80:9 you cleared a space for it, it took root and filled the whole country.

Psalms 80:10 The mountains were covered with its shade, and the cedars of God with its branches,

Psalms 80:11 its boughs stretched as far as the sea, its shoots as far as the River.

Psalms 80:12 Why have you broken down its fences? Every passer-by plucks its grapes, Psalms 80:13 boars from the forest tear at it, wild beasts feed on it.

Psalms 80:14 God Sabaoth, come back, we pray, look down from heaven and see, visit this vine;

Psalms 80:15 protect what your own hand has planted.

Psalms 80:16 They have thrown it on the fire like dung, the frown of your rebuke will destroy them.

Psalms 80:17 May your hand protect those at your side, the child of Adam you have strengthened for yourself!

Psalms 80:18 Never again will we turn away from you, give us life and we will call upon your name.

Psalms 80:19 God Sabaoth, bring us back, let your face shine on us and we shall be safe.

Psalms 81:1 [For the choirmaster On the . . . of Gath Of Asaph] Sing for joy to God our strength, shout in triumph to the God of Jacob.

Psalms 81:2 Strike up the music, beat the tambourine, play the melodious harp and the lyre;

Psalms 81:3 blow the trumpet for the new month, for the full moon, for our feast day!

Psalms 81:4 For Israel has this statute, a decision of the God of Jacob,

Psalms 81:5 a decree he imposed on Joseph, when he went to war against Egypt. I heard a voice unknown to me,

Psalms 81:6 'I freed his shoulder from the burden, his hands were able to lay aside the labourer's basket.

Psalms 81:7 You cried out in your distress, so I rescued you. 'Hidden in the storm, I answered you, I tested you at the waters of Meribah.Pause

Psalms 81:8 Listen, my people, while I give you warning; Israel, if only you would listen to me!

Psalms 81:9 'You shall have no strange gods, shall worship no alien god.

Psalms 81:10 I, Yahweh, am your God, who brought you here from Egypt, you have only to open your mouth for me to fill it.

Psalms 81:11 ‘My people would not listen to me, Israel would have none of me.

Psalms 81:12 So I left them to their stubborn selves, to follow their own devices.

Psalms 81:13 ‘If only my people would listen to me, if only Israel would walk in my ways,

Psalms 81:14 at one stroke I would subdue their enemies, turn my hand against their opponents.

Psalms 81:15 ‘Those who hate Yahweh would woo his favour, though their doom was sealed for ever,

Psalms 81:16 while I would feed him on pure wheat, would give you your fill of honey from the rock.’

Psalms 82:1 [Psalm Of Asaph] God takes his stand in the divine assembly, surrounded by the gods he gives judgement.

Psalms 82:2 ‘How much longer will you give unjust judgements and uphold the prestige of the wicked?

Psalms 82:3 Let the weak and the orphan have justice, be fair to the wretched and the destitute.Pause

Psalms 82:4 ‘Rescue the weak and the needy, save them from the clutches of the wicked.

Psalms 82:5 ‘Ignorant and uncomprehending, they wander in darkness, while the foundations of the world are tottering.

Psalms 82:6 I had thought, “Are you gods, are all of you sons of the Most High?”

Psalms 82:7 No! you will die as human beings do, as one man, princes, you will fall.’

Psalms 82:8 Arise, God, judge the world, for all nations belong to you.

Psalms 83:1 [Song Psalm Of Asaph] God, do not remain silent, do not stay quiet or unmoved, God!

Psalms 83:2 See how your enemies are in uproar, how those who hate you are rearing their heads.

Psalms 83:3 They are laying plans against your people, conspiring against those you cherish;

Psalms 83:4 they say, ‘Come, let us annihilate them as a nation, the name of Israel shall be remembered no more!’

Psalms 83:5 They conspire with a single mind, they conclude an alliance against you,

Psalms 83:6 the tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites, Moab and the Hagrites, Psalms 83:7 Gebal, Ammon, Amalek, Philistia and the Tyrians;

Psalms 83:8 even Assyria has joined them to reinforce the children of Lot.Pause

Psalms 83:9 Treat them like Midian and Sisera, like Jabin at the river Kishon;

Psalms 83:10 wiped out at En-Dor, they served to manure the ground.

Psalms 83:11 Treat their leaders like Oreb and Zeeb, all their commanders like Zebah and Zalmunna,

Psalms 83:12 for they said, 'Let us take for ourselves God's settlements.'

Psalms 83:13 My God, treat them like thistledown, like chaff at the mercy of the wind.

Psalms 83:14 As fire devours a forest, as a flame sets mountains ablaze,

Psalms 83:15 so drive them away with your tempest, by your whirlwind fill them with terror.

Psalms 83:16 Shame written all over their faces, let them seek your name, Yahweh!

Psalms 83:17 Dishonour and terror be always theirs, death also and destruction.

Psalms 83:18 Let them know that you alone bear the name of Yahweh, Most High over all the earth.

Psalms 84:1 [For the choirmaster On the . . . of Gath Of the sons of Korah Psalm] How lovely are your dwelling-places, Yahweh Sabaoth.

Psalms 84:2 My whole being yearns and pines for Yahweh's courts, My heart and my body cry out for joy to the living God.

Psalms 84:3 Even the sparrow has found a home, the swallow a nest to place its young: your altars, Yahweh Sabaoth, my King and my God.

Psalms 84:4 How blessed are those who live in your house; they shall praise you continually. Pause

Psalms 84:5 Blessed those who find their strength in you, whose hearts are set on pilgrimage.

Psalms 84:6 As they pass through the Valley of the Balsam, they make there a water-hole, and—a further blessing—early rain fills it.

Psalms 84:7 They make their way from height to height, God shows himself to them in Zion.

Psalms 84:8 Yahweh, God Sabaoth, hear my prayer, listen, God of Jacob.

Psalms 84:9 God, our shield, look, and see the face of your anointed.

Psalms 84:10 Better one day in your courts than a thousand at my own devices, to stand on the threshold of God's house than to live in the tents of the wicked.

Psalms 84:11 For Yahweh God is a rampart and shield, he gives grace and glory; Yahweh refuses nothing good to those whose life is blameless.

Psalms 84:12 Yahweh Sabaoth, blessed is he who trusts in you.

Psalms 85:1 [For the choirmaster Of the sons of Korah Psalm] Yahweh, you are gracious to your land, you bring back the captives of Jacob,

Psalms 85:2 you take away the guilt of your people, you blot out all their sin.Pause

Psalms 85:3 You retract all your anger, you renounce the heat of your fury.

Psalms 85:4 Bring us back, God our Saviour, appease your indignation against us!

Psalms 85:5 Will you be angry with us for ever? Will you prolong your wrath age after age?

Psalms 85:6 Will you not give us life again, for your people to rejoice in you?

Psalms 85:7 Show us, Lord, your faithful love, grant us your saving help.

Psalms 85:8 I am listening. What is God's message? Yahweh's message is peace for his people, for his faithful, if only they renounce their folly.

Psalms 85:9 His saving help is near for those who fear him, his glory will dwell in our land.

Psalms 85:10 Faithful Love and Loyalty join together, Saving Justice and Peace embrace.

Psalms 85:11 Loyalty will spring up from the earth, and Justice will lean down from heaven.

Psalms 85:12 Yahweh will himself give prosperity, and our soil will yield its harvest.

Psalms 85:13 Justice will walk before him, treading out a path.

Psalms 86:1 [Prayer Of David] Listen to me, Yahweh, answer me, for I am poor and needy.

Psalms 86:2 Guard me, for I am faithful, save your servant who relies on you. You are my God,

Psalms 86:3 take pity on me, Lord, for to you I cry all the day.

Psalms 86:4 Fill your servant's heart with joy, Lord, for to you I raise up my heart.

Psalms 86:5 Lord, you are kind and forgiving, rich in faithful love for all who call upon you.

Psalms 86:6 Yahweh, hear my prayer, listen to the sound of my pleading.

Psalms 86:7 In my day of distress I call upon you, because you answer me, Lord;

Psalms 86:8 among the gods there is none to compare with you, no great deeds to compare with yours.

Psalms 86:9 All nations will come and adore you, Lord, and give glory to your name.

Psalms 86:10 For you are great and do marvellous deeds, you, God, and none other.

Psalms 86:11 Teach me, Yahweh, your ways, that I may not stray from your loyalty; let my heart's one aim be to fear your name.

Psalms 86:12 I thank you with all my heart, Lord my God, I will glorify your name for ever,

Psalms 86:13 for your faithful love for me is so great that you have rescued me from the depths of Sheol.

Psalms 86:14 Arrogant men, God, are rising up against me, a brutal gang is after my life, in their scheme of things you have no place.

Psalms 86:15 But you, Lord, God of tenderness and mercy, slow to anger, rich in faithful love and loyalty,

Psalms 86:16 turn to me and pity me. Give to your servant your strength, to the child of your servant your saving help,

Psalms 86:17 give me a sign of your kindness.

Psalms 86:18 My enemies will see to their shame that you, Yahweh, help and console me.

Psalms 87:1 [Of the sons of Korah Psalm Song] With its foundations on the holy mountains,

Psalms 87:2 Yahweh loves his city, he prefers the gates of Zion to any dwelling-place in Jacob.

Psalms 87:3 He speaks of glory for you, city of God,Pause

Psalms 87:4 'I number Rahab and Babylon among those that acknowledge me; look at Tyre, Philistia, Ethiopia, so and so was born there.'

Psalms 87:5 But of Zion it will be said, 'Every one was born there,' her guarantee is the Most High.

Psalms 87:6 Yahweh in his register of peoples will note against each, 'Born there',Pause

Psalms 87:7 princes no less than native-born; all make their home in you.

Psalms 88:1 [Song Psalm Of the sons of Korah In sickness In suffering Poem For Heman the native-born] Yahweh, God of my salvation, when I cry out to you in the night,

Psalms 88:2 may my prayer reach your presence, hear my cry for help.

Psalms 88:3 For I am filled with misery, my life is on the brink of Sheol;

Psalms 88:4 already numbered among those who sink into oblivion, I am as one bereft of strength,

Psalms 88:5 left alone among the dead, like the slaughtered lying in the grave, whom you remember no more, cut off as they are from your protection.

Psalms 88:6 You have plunged me to the bottom of the grave, in the darkness, in the depths;

Psalms 88:7 weighted down by your anger, kept low by your waves.Pause

Psalms 88:8 You have deprived me of my friends, made me repulsive to them, imprisoned, with no escape;

Psalms 88:9 my eyes are worn out with suffering. I call to you, Yahweh, all day, I stretch out my hands to you.

Psalms 88:10 Do you work wonders for the dead, can shadows rise up to praise you?Pause

Psalms 88:11 Do they speak in the grave of your faithful love, of your constancy in the place of perdition?

Psalms 88:12 Are your wonders known in the darkness, your saving justice in the land of oblivion?

Psalms 88:13 But, for my part, I cry to you, Yahweh, every morning my prayer comes before you;

Psalms 88:14 why, Yahweh, do you rebuff me, turn your face away from me?

Psalms 88:15 Wretched and close to death since childhood, I have borne your terrors—I am finished!

Psalms 88:16 Your anger has overwhelmed me, your terrors annihilated me.

Psalms 88:17 They flood around me all day long, close in on me all at once.

Psalms 88:18 You have deprived me of friends and companions, and all that I know is the dark.

Psalms 89:1 [Poem For Ethan the native-born] I shall sing the faithful love of Yahweh for ever, from age to age my lips shall declare your constancy,

Psalms 89:2 for you have said: love is built to last for ever, you have fixed your constancy firm in the heavens.

Psalms 89:3 ‘I have made a covenant with my Chosen One, sworn an oath to my servant David:

Psalms 89:4 I have made your dynasty firm for ever, built your throne stable age after age.’Pause

Psalms 89:5 The heavens praise your wonders, Yahweh, your constancy in the gathering of your faithful.

Psalms 89:6 Who in the skies can compare with Yahweh? Who among the sons of god can rival him?

Psalms 89:7 God, awesome in the assembly of holy ones, great and dreaded among all who surround him,

Psalms 89:8 Yahweh, God Sabaoth, who is like you? Mighty Yahweh, your constancy is all round you!

Psalms 89:9 You control the pride of the ocean, when its waves ride high you calm them.

Psalms 89:10 You split Rahab in two like a corpse, scattered your enemies with your mighty arm.

Psalms 89:11 Yours are the heavens and yours the earth, the world and all it holds, you founded them;

Psalms 89:12 you created the north and the south, Tabor and Hermon hail your name with joy.

Psalms 89:13 Yours is a strong arm, mighty your hand, your right hand raised high;

Psalms 89:14 Saving Justice and Fair Judgement the foundations of your throne, Faithful Love and Constancy march before you.

Psalms 89:15 How blessed the nation that learns to acclaim you! They will live, Yahweh, in the light of your presence.

Psalms 89:16 In your name they rejoice all day long, by your saving justice they are raised up.

Psalms 89:17 You are the flower of their strength, by your favour our strength is triumphant;

Psalms 89:18 for to Yahweh belongs our shield, to the Holy One of Israel our king.

Psalms 89:19 Once you spoke in a vision, to your faithful you said: ‘I have given strength to a warrior, I have raised up a man chosen from my people.

Psalms 89:20 ‘I have found David my servant, and anointed him with my holy oil.

Psalms 89:21 My hand will always be with him, my arm will make him strong.

Psalms 89:22 ‘No enemy will be able to outwit him, no wicked man overcome him;

Psalms 89:23 I shall crush his enemies before him, strike his opponents dead.

Psalms 89:24 ‘My constancy and faithful love will be with him, in my name his strength will be triumphant.

Psalms 89:25 I shall establish his power over the sea, his dominion over the rivers.

Psalms 89:26 ‘He will cry to me, “You are my father, my God, the rock of my salvation!”

Psalms 89:27 So I shall make him my first-born, the highest of earthly kings.

Psalms 89:28 ‘I shall maintain my faithful love for him always, my covenant with him will stay firm.

Psalms 89:29 I have established his dynasty for ever, his throne to be as lasting as the heavens.

Psalms 89:30 ‘Should his descendants desert my law, and not keep to my rulings,

Psalms 89:31 should they violate my statutes, and not observe my commandments,

Psalms 89:32 ‘then I shall punish their offences with the rod, their guilt with the whip,

Psalms 89:33 but I shall never withdraw from him my faithful love, I shall not belie my constancy.

Psalms 89:34 ‘I shall not violate my covenant, I shall not withdraw the word once spoken.

Psalms 89:35 I have sworn by my holiness, once and for all, never will I break faith with David.

Psalms 89:36 ‘His dynasty shall endure for ever, his throne like the sun before me,

Psalms 89:37 as the moon is established for ever, a faithful witness in the skies.’Pause

Psalms 89:38 Yet you yourself—you have spurned and rejected, and have vented your wrath on your anointed,

Psalms 89:39 you have repudiated the covenant with your servant, dishonoured his crown in the dust.

Psalms 89:40 You have pierced all his defences, and laid his strongholds in ruins,

Psalms 89:41 everyone passing by plunders him, he has become the butt of his neighbours.

Psalms 89:42 You have raised high the right hand of his opponents, have made all his enemies happy;

Psalms 89:43 you have snapped off his sword on a rock, and failed to support him in battle.

Psalms 89:44 You have stripped him of his splendid sceptre, and toppled his throne to the ground.

Psalms 89:45 You have aged him before his time, enveloped him in shame.Pause

Psalms 89:46 How long, Yahweh, will you remain hidden? For ever? Is your anger to go on smouldering like a fire?

Psalms 89:47 Remember me; how long have I left? For what pointless end did you create all the children of Adam?

Psalms 89:48 Who can live and never see death? Who can save himself from the clutches of Sheol?Pause

Psalms 89:49 Lord, what of those pledges of your faithful love? You made an oath to David by your constancy.

Psalms 89:50 Do not forget the insults to your servant; I take to heart the taunts of the nations,

Psalms 89:51 which your enemies have levelled, Yahweh, have levelled at the footsteps of your anointed!

Psalms 89:52 Blessed be Yahweh for ever. Amen, Amen.

Psalms 90:1 [Prayer Of Moses, man of God] Lord, you have been our refuge from age to age.

Psalms 90:2 Before the mountains were born, before the earth and the world came to birth, from eternity to eternity you are God.

Psalms 90:3 You bring human beings to the dust, by saying, ‘Return, children of Adam.’

Psalms 90:4 A thousand years are to you like a yesterday which has passed, like a watch of the night.

Psalms 90:5 You flood them with sleep—in the morning they will be like growing grass:

Psalms 90:6 in the morning it is blossoming and growing, by evening it is withered and dry.

Psalms 90:7 For we have been destroyed by your wrath, dismayed by your anger.

Psalms 90:8 You have taken note of our guilty deeds, our secrets in the full light of your presence.

Psalms 90:9 All our days pass under your wrath, our lives are over like a sigh.

Psalms 90:10 The span of our life is seventy years—eighty for those who are strong—but their whole extent is anxiety and trouble, they are over in a moment and we are gone.

Psalms 90:11 Who feels the power of your anger, or who that fears you, your wrath?

Psalms 90:12 Teach us to count up the days that are ours, and we shall come to the heart of wisdom.

Psalms 90:13 Come back, Yahweh! How long must we wait? Take pity on your servants.

Psalms 90:14 Each morning fill us with your faithful love, we shall sing and be happy all our days;

Psalms 90:15 let our joy be as long as the time that you afflicted us, the years when we experienced disaster.

Psalms 90:16 Show your servants the deeds you do, let their children enjoy your splendour!

Psalms 90:17 May the sweetness of the Lord be upon us, to confirm the work we have done!

Psalms 91:1 You who live in the secret place of Elyon, spend your nights in the shelter of Shaddai,

Psalms 91:2 saying to Yahweh, ‘My refuge, my fortress, my God in whom I trust!’

Psalms 91:3 He rescues you from the snare of the fowler set on destruction;

Psalms 91:4 he covers you with his pinions, you find shelter under his wings. His constancy is shield and protection.

Psalms 91:5 You need not fear the terrors of night, the arrow that flies in the daytime,

Psalms 91:6 the plague that stalks in the darkness, the scourge that wreaks havoc at high noon.

Psalms 91:7 Though a thousand fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, you yourself will remain unscathed.

Psalms 91:8 You have only to keep your eyes open to see how the wicked are repaid,

Psalms 91:9 you who say, ‘Yahweh my refuge!’ and make Elyon your fortress.

Psalms 91:10 No disaster can overtake you, no plague come near your tent;

Psalms 91:11 he has given his angels orders about you to guard you wherever you go.

Psalms 91:12 They will carry you in their arms in case you trip over a stone.

Psalms 91:13 You will walk upon wild beast and adder, you will trample young lions and snakes.

Psalms 91:14 ‘Since he clings to me I rescue him, I raise him high, since he acknowledges my name.

Psalms 91:15 He calls to me and I answer him: in distress I am at his side, I rescue him and bring him honour.

Psalms 91:16 I shall satisfy him with long life, and grant him to see my salvation.’

Psalms 92:1 [Psalm Song For the Sabbath] It is good to give thanks to Yahweh, to make music for your name, Most High,

Psalms 92:2 to proclaim your faithful love at daybreak, and your constancy all through the night,

Psalms 92:3 on the lyre, the ten-stringed lyre, to the murmur of the harp.

Psalms 92:4 You have brought me joy, Yahweh, by your deeds, at the work of your hands I cry out,

Psalms 92:5 ‘How great are your works, Yahweh, immensely deep your thoughts!’

Psalms 92:6 Stupid people cannot realise this, fools do not grasp it.

Psalms 92:7 The wicked may sprout like weeds, and every evil-doer flourish, but only to be eternally destroyed;

Psalms 92:8 whereas you are supreme for ever, Yahweh.

Psalms 92:9 Look how your enemies perish, how all evil-doers are scattered!

Psalms 92:10 You give me the strength of the wild ox, you anoint me with fresh oil;

Psalms 92:11 I caught sight of the ambush against me, overheard the plans of the wicked.

Psalms 92:12 The upright will flourish like the palm tree, will grow like a cedar of Lebanon.

Psalms 92:13 Planted in the house of Yahweh, they will flourish in the courts of our God.

Psalms 92:14 In old age they will still bear fruit, will remain fresh and green,

Psalms 92:15 to proclaim Yahweh’s integrity; my rock, in whom no fault can be found.

Psalms 93:1 Yahweh is king, robed in majesty, robed is Yahweh and girded with power.

Psalms 93:2 The world is indeed set firm, it can never be shaken; your throne is set firm from of old, from all eternity you exist.

Psalms 93:3 The rivers lift up, Yahweh, the rivers lift up their voices, the rivers lift up their thunder.

Psalms 93:4 Greater than the voice of many waters, more majestic than the breakers of the sea, Yahweh is majestic in the heights.

Psalms 93:5 Your decrees stand firm, unshakeable, holiness is the beauty of your house, Yahweh, for all time to come.

Psalms 94:1 God of vengeance, Yahweh, God of vengeance, shine forth!

Psalms 94:2 Arise, judge of the world, give back the proud what they deserve!

Psalms 94:3 How long are the wicked, Yahweh, how long are the wicked to triumph?

Psalms 94:4 They bluster and boast, they flaunt themselves, all the evil-doers.

Psalms 94:5 They crush your people, Yahweh, they oppress your heritage,

Psalms 94:6 they murder the widow and the stranger, bring the orphan to a violent death.

Psalms 94:7 They say, 'Yahweh is not looking, the God of Jacob is taking no notice.'

Psalms 94:8 Take notice yourselves, you coarsest of people! Fools, when will you learn some sense?

Psalms 94:9 Shall he who implanted the ear not hear, he who fashioned the eye not see?

Psalms 94:10 Shall he who instructs nations not punish? Yahweh, the teacher of all people, Psalms 94:11 knows human plans and how insipid they are.

Psalms 94:12 How blessed are those you instruct, Yahweh, whom you teach by means of your law,

Psalms 94:13 to give them respite in evil times, till a pit is dug for the wicked.

Psalms 94:14 Yahweh will not abandon his people, he will not desert his heritage;

Psalms 94:15 for judgement will again become saving justice, and in its wake all upright hearts will follow.

Psalms 94:16 Who rises up on my side against the wicked? Who stands firm on my side against all evil-doers?

Psalms 94:17 If Yahweh did not come to my help, I should soon find myself dwelling in the silence.

Psalms 94:18 I need only say, 'I am slipping,' for your faithful love, Yahweh, to support me;

Psalms 94:19 however great the anxiety of my heart, your consolations soothe me.

Psalms 94:20 Are you partner to a destructive court, that gives disorder the status of law?

Psalms 94:21 They make an attack on the life of the upright, and condemn innocent blood.

Psalms 94:22 No! Yahweh is a stronghold to me, my God is my rock of refuge.

Psalms 94:23 He turns back their guilt on themselves, annihilates them for their wickedness, he annihilates them, Yahweh our God.

Psalms 95:1 Come, let us cry out with joy to Yahweh, acclaim the rock of our salvation.

Psalms 95:2 Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving, acclaim him with music.

Psalms 95:3 For Yahweh is a great God, a king greater than all the gods.

Psalms 95:4 In his power are the depths of the earth, the peaks of the mountains are his;

Psalms 95:5 the sea belongs to him, for he made it, and the dry land, moulded by his hands.

Psalms 95:6 Come, let us bow low and do reverence; kneel before Yahweh who made us!

Psalms 95:7 For he is our God, and we the people of his sheepfold, the flock of his hand. If only you would listen to him today!

Psalms 95:8 Do not harden your hearts as at Meribah, as at the time of Massah in the desert,

Psalms 95:9 when your ancestors challenged me, put me to the test, and saw what I could do!

Psalms 95:10 For forty years that generation sickened me, and I said, 'Always fickle hearts; they cannot grasp my ways.'

Psalms 95:11 Then in my anger I swore they would never enter my place of rest.

Psalms 96:1 Sing a new song to Yahweh! Sing to Yahweh, all the earth!

Psalms 96:2 Sing to Yahweh, bless his name! Proclaim his salvation day after day,

Psalms 96:3 declare his glory among the nations, his marvels to every people!

Psalms 96:4 Great is Yahweh, worthy of all praise, more awesome than any of the gods.

Psalms 96:5 All the gods of the nations are idols! It was Yahweh who made the heavens;

Psalms 96:6 in his presence are splendour and majesty, in his sanctuary power and beauty.

Psalms 96:7 Give to Yahweh, families of nations, give to Yahweh glory and power, Psalms 96:8 give to Yahweh the glory due to his name! Bring an offering and enter his courts, Psalms 96:9 adore Yahweh in the splendour of his holiness. Tremble before him, all the earth.

Psalms 96:10 Say among the nations, 'Yahweh is king.' The world is set firm, it cannot be moved. He will judge the nations with justice.

Psalms 96:11 Let the heavens rejoice and earth be glad! Let the sea thunder, and all it holds!

Psalms 96:12 Let the countryside exult, and all that is in it, and all the trees of the forest cry out for joy,

Psalms 96:13 at Yahweh's approach, for he is coming, coming to judge the earth; he will judge the world with saving justice, and the nations with constancy.

Psalms 97:1 Yahweh is king! Let earth rejoice, the many isles be glad!

Psalms 97:2 Cloud, black cloud enfolds him, saving justice and judgement the foundations of his throne.

Psalms 97:3 Fire goes before him, sets ablaze his enemies all around;

Psalms 97:4 his lightning-flashes light up the world, the earth sees it and quakes.

Psalms 97:5 The mountains melt like wax, before the Lord of all the earth.

Psalms 97:6 The heavens proclaim his saving justice, all nations see his glory.

Psalms 97:7 Shame on all who serve images, who pride themselves on their idols; bow down to him, all you gods!

Psalms 97:8 Zion hears and is glad, the daughters of Judah exult, because of your judgements, Yahweh.

Psalms 97:9 For you are Yahweh, Most High over all the earth, far transcending all gods.

Psalms 97:10 Yahweh loves those who hate evil, he keeps safe his faithful, rescues them from the clutches of the wicked.

Psalms 97:11 Light dawns for the upright, and joy for honest hearts.

Psalms 97:12 Rejoice in Yahweh, you who are upright, praise his unforgettable holiness.

Psalms 98:1 [Psalm] Sing a new song to Yahweh, for he has performed wonders, his saving power is in his right hand and his holy arm.

Psalms 98:2 Yahweh has made known his saving power, revealed his saving justice for the nations to see, Psalms 98:3 mindful of his faithful love and his constancy to the House of Israel. The whole wide world has seen the saving power of our God.

Psalms 98:4 Acclaim Yahweh, all the earth, burst into shouts of joy!

Psalms 98:5 Play to Yahweh on the harp, to the sound of instruments;

Psalms 98:6 to the sound of trumpet and horn, acclaim the presence of the King.

Psalms 98:7 Let the sea thunder, and all that it holds, the world and all who live in it.

Psalms 98:8 Let the rivers clap their hands, and the mountains shout for joy together,

Psalms 98:9 at Yahweh's approach, for he is coming to judge the earth; he will judge the world with saving justice and the nations with fairness.

Psalms 99:1 Yahweh is king, the peoples tremble; he is enthroned on the winged creatures, the earth shivers;

Psalms 99:2 Yahweh is great in Zion. He is supreme over all nations;

Psalms 99:3 let them praise your name, great and awesome; holy is he

Psalms 99:4 and mighty! You are a king who loves justice, you established honesty, justice and uprightness; in Jacob it is you who are active.

Psalms 99:5 Exalt Yahweh our God, bow down at his footstool; holy is he!

Psalms 99:6 Moses and Aaron are among his priests, and Samuel, calling on his name; they called on Yahweh and he answered them.

Psalms 99:7 He spoke with them in the pillar of fire, they obeyed his decrees, the Law he gave them.

Psalms 99:8 Yahweh our God, you answered them, you were a God of forgiveness to them, but punished them for their sins.

Psalms 99:9 Exalt Yahweh our God, bow down at his holy mountain; holy is Yahweh our God!

Psalms 100:1 [Psalm For thanksgiving] Acclaim Yahweh, all the earth,

Psalms 100:2 serve Yahweh with gladness, come into his presence with songs of joy!

Psalms 100:3 Be sure that Yahweh is God, he made us, we belong to him, his people, the flock of his sheepfold.

Psalms 100:4 Come within his gates giving thanks, to his courts singing praise, give thanks to him and bless his name!

Psalms 100:5 For Yahweh is good, his faithful love is everlasting, his constancy from age to age.

Psalms 101:1 [Of David Psalm] I will sing of faithful love and judgement; to you, Yahweh, will I make music.

Psalms 101:2 I will go forward in the path of the blameless; when will you come to me? I will live in purity of heart, in my house,

Psalms 101:3 I will not set before my eyes anything sordid. I hate those who act crookedly; this has no attraction for me.

Psalms 101:4 Let the perverse of heart keep away from me; the wicked I disregard.

Psalms 101:5 One who secretly slanders a comrade, I reduce to silence; haughty looks, proud heart, these I cannot abide.

Psalms 101:6 I look to the faithful of the land to be my companions, only he who walks in the path of the blameless shall be my servant.

Psalms 101:7 There is no room in my house for anyone who practises deceit; no liar will stand his ground where I can see him.

Psalms 101:8 Morning after morning I reduce to silence all the wicked in the land, banishing from the city of Yahweh all evil-doers.

Psalms 102:1 [Prayer of someone afflicted, who in misfortune pours out sorrows before Yahweh] Yahweh, hear my prayer, let my cry for help reach you.

Psalms 102:2 Do not turn away your face from me when I am in trouble; bend down and listen to me, when I call, be quick to answer me!

Psalms 102:3 For my days are vanishing like smoke, my bones burning like an oven;

Psalms 102:4 like grass struck by blight, my heart is withering, I forget to eat my meals.

Psalms 102:5 From the effort of voicing my groans my bones stick out through my skin.

Psalms 102:6 I am like a desert-owl in the wastes, a screech-owl among ruins,

Psalms 102:7 I keep vigil and moan like a lone bird on a roof.

Psalms 102:8 All day long my enemies taunt me, those who once praised me now use me as a curse.

Psalms 102:9 Ashes are the food that I eat, my drink is mingled with tears,

Psalms 102:10 because of your fury and anger, since you have raised me up only to cast me away;

Psalms 102:11 my days are like a fading shadow, I am withering up like grass.

Psalms 102:12 But you, Yahweh, are enthroned for ever, each generation in turn remembers you.

Psalms 102:13 Rise up, take pity on Zion! the time has come to have mercy on her, the moment has come;

Psalms 102:14 for your servants love her very stones, are moved to pity by her dust.

Psalms 102:15 Then will the nations revere the name of Yahweh, and all the kings of the earth your glory;

Psalms 102:16 when Yahweh builds Zion anew, he will be seen in his glory;

Psalms 102:17 he will turn to hear the prayer of the destitute, and will not treat their prayer with scorn.

Psalms 102:18 This shall be put on record for a future generation, and a people yet to be born shall praise God:

Psalms 102:19 Yahweh has leaned down from the heights of his sanctuary, has looked down from heaven to earth,

Psalms 102:20 to listen to the sighing of the captive, and set free those condemned to death,

Psalms 102:21 to proclaim the name of Yahweh in Zion, his praise in Jerusalem;

Psalms 102:22 nations will gather together, and kingdoms to worship Yahweh.

Psalms 102:23 In my journeying my strength has failed on the way;

Psalms 102:24 let me know the short time I have left. Do not take me away before half my days are done, for your years run on from age to age.

Psalms 102:25 Long ago you laid earth’s foundations, the heavens are the work of your hands.

Psalms 102:26 They pass away but you remain; they all wear out like a garment, like outworn clothes you change them;

Psalms 102:27 but you never alter, and your years never end.

Psalms 102:28 The children of those who serve you will dwell secure, and their descendants live on in your presence.

Psalms 103:1 [Of David] Bless Yahweh, my soul, from the depths of my being, his holy name;

Psalms 103:2 bless Yahweh, my soul, never forget all his acts of kindness.

Psalms 103:3 He forgives all your offences, cures all your diseases,

Psalms 103:4 he redeems your life from the abyss, crowns you with faithful love and tenderness;

Psalms 103:5 he contents you with good things all your life, renews your youth like an eagle’s.

Psalms 103:6 Yahweh acts with uprightness, with justice to all who are oppressed;

Psalms 103:7 he revealed to Moses his ways, his great deeds to the children of Israel.

Psalms 103:8 Yahweh is tenderness and pity, slow to anger and rich in faithful love;

Psalms 103:9 his indignation does not last for ever, nor his resentment remain for all time;

Psalms 103:10 he does not treat us as our sins deserve, nor repay us as befits our offences.

Psalms 103:11 As the height of heaven above earth, so strong is his faithful love for those who fear him.

Psalms 103:12 As the distance of east from west, so far from us does he put our faults.

Psalms 103:13 As tenderly as a father treats his children, so Yahweh treats those who fear him;

Psalms 103:14 he knows of what we are made, he remembers that we are dust.

Psalms 103:15 As for a human person—his days are like grass, he blooms like the wild flowers;

Psalms 103:16 as soon as the wind blows he is gone, never to be seen there again.

Psalms 103:17 But Yahweh's faithful love for those who fear him is from eternity and for ever; and his saving justice to their children's children;

Psalms 103:18 as long as they keep his covenant, and carefully obey his precepts.

Psalms 103:19 Yahweh has fixed his throne in heaven, his sovereign power rules over all.

Psalms 103:20 Bless Yahweh, all his angels, mighty warriors who fulfil his commands, attentive to the sound of his words.

Psalms 103:21 Bless Yahweh, all his armies, servants who fulfil his wishes.

Psalms 103:22 Bless Yahweh, all his works, in every place where he rules. Bless Yahweh, my soul.

Psalms 104:1 Bless Yahweh, my soul, Yahweh, my God, how great you are! Clothed in majesty and splendour,

Psalms 104:2 wearing the light as a robe! You stretch out the heavens like a tent,

Psalms 104:3 build your palace on the waters above, making the clouds your chariot, gliding on the wings of the wind, Psalms 104:4 appointing the winds your messengers, flames of fire your servants.

Psalms 104:5 You fixed the earth on its foundations, for ever and ever it shall not be shaken;

Psalms 104:6 you covered it with the deep like a garment, the waters overtopping the mountains.

Psalms 104:7 At your reproof the waters fled, at the voice of your thunder they sped away,

Psalms 104:8 flowing over mountains, down valleys, to the place you had fixed for them;

Psalms 104:9 you made a limit they were not to cross, they were not to return and cover the earth.

Psalms 104:10 In the ravines you opened up springs, running down between the mountains,

Psalms 104:11 supplying water for all the wild beasts; the wild asses quench their thirst,

Psalms 104:12 on their banks the birds of the air make their nests, they sing among the leaves.

Psalms 104:13 From your high halls you water the mountains, satisfying the earth with the fruit of your works:

Psalms 104:14 for cattle you make the grass grow, and for people the plants they need, to bring forth food from the earth,

Psalms 104:15 and wine to cheer people’s hearts, oil to make their faces glow, food to make them sturdy of heart.

Psalms 104:16 The trees of Yahweh drink their fill, the cedars of Lebanon which he sowed;

Psalms 104:17 there the birds build their nests, on the highest branches the stork makes its home;

Psalms 104:18 for the wild goats there are the mountains, in the crags the coneys find refuge.

Psalms 104:19 He made the moon to mark the seasons, the sun knows when to set.

Psalms 104:20 You bring on darkness, and night falls, when all the forest beasts roam around;

Psalms 104:21 young lions roar for their prey, asking God for their food.

Psalms 104:22 The sun rises and away they steal, back to their lairs to lie down,

Psalms 104:23 and man goes out to work, to labour till evening falls.

Psalms 104:24 How countless are your works, Yahweh, all of them made so wisely! The earth is full of your creatures.

Psalms 104:25 Then there is the sea, with its vast expanses teeming with countless creatures, creatures both great and small;

Psalms 104:26 there ships pass to and fro, and Leviathan whom you made to sport with.

Psalms 104:27 They all depend upon you, to feed them when they need it.

Psalms 104:28 You provide the food they gather, your open hand gives them their fill.

Psalms 104:29 Turn away your face and they panic; take back their breath and they die and revert to dust.

Psalms 104:30 Send out your breath and life begins; you renew the face of the earth.

Psalms 104:31 Glory to Yahweh for ever! May Yahweh find joy in his creatures!

Psalms 104:32 At his glance the earth trembles, at his touch the mountains pour forth smoke.

Psalms 104:33 I shall sing to Yahweh all my life, make music for my God as long as I live.

Psalms 104:34 May my musings be pleasing to him, for Yahweh gives me joy.

Psalms 104:35 May sinners vanish from the earth, and the wicked exist no more! Bless Yahweh, my soul.

Psalms 105:1 Alleluia! Give thanks to Yahweh, call on his name, proclaim his deeds to the peoples!

Psalms 105:2 Sing to him, make music for him, recount all his wonders!

Psalms 105:3 Glory in his holy name, let the hearts that seek Yahweh rejoice!

Psalms 105:4 Seek Yahweh and his strength, tirelessly seek his presence!

Psalms 105:5 Remember the marvels he has done, his wonders, the judgements he has spoken.

Psalms 105:6 Stock of Abraham, his servant, children of Jacob whom he chose!

Psalms 105:7 He is Yahweh our God, his judgements touch the whole world.

Psalms 105:8 He remembers his covenant for ever, the promise he laid down for a thousand generations,

Psalms 105:9 which he concluded with Abraham, the oath he swore to Isaac.

Psalms 105:10 He established it as a statute for Jacob, an everlasting covenant with Israel,

Psalms 105:11 saying, ‘To you I give a land, Canaan, your allotted birthright.’

Psalms 105:12 When they were insignificant in numbers, a handful of strangers in the land,

Psalms 105:13 wandering from country to country, from one kingdom and nation to another,

Psalms 105:14 he allowed no one to oppress them; for their sake he instructed kings,

Psalms 105:15 ‘Do not touch my anointed ones, to my prophets you may do no harm.’

Psalms 105:16 He called down famine on the land, he took away their food supply;

Psalms 105:17 he sent a man ahead of them, Joseph, sold as a slave.

Psalms 105:18 So his feet were weighed down with shackles, his neck was put in irons.

Psalms 105:19 In due time his prophecy was fulfilled, the word of Yahweh proved him true.

Psalms 105:20 The king sent orders to release him, the ruler of nations set him free;

Psalms 105:21 he put him in charge of his household, the ruler of all he possessed,

Psalms 105:22 to instruct his princes as he saw fit, to teach his counsellors wisdom.

Psalms 105:23 Then Israel migrated to Egypt, Jacob settled in the country of Ham.

Psalms 105:24 He made his people increase in numbers, he gave them more strength than their enemies,

Psalms 105:25 whose heart he turned to hate his own people, to double-cross his servants.

Psalms 105:26 He sent his servant Moses, and Aaron, the man of his choice.

Psalms 105:27 They worked there the wonders he commanded, marvels in the country of Ham.

Psalms 105:28 Darkness he sent, and darkness fell, but that nation defied his orders.

Psalms 105:29 He turned their rivers to blood, and killed all the fish in them.

Psalms 105:30 Their country was overrun with frogs, even in the royal apartments;

Psalms 105:31 at his word came flies, and mosquitoes throughout the country.

Psalms 105:32 He gave them hail as their rain, flames of fire in their land;

Psalms 105:33 he blasted their vine and their fig tree, and shattered the trees of the country.

Psalms 105:34 At his word came locusts, hoppers beyond all counting;

Psalms 105:35 they devoured every green thing in the land, devoured all the produce of the soil.

Psalms 105:36 He struck all the first-born in their land, the flower of all their manhood;

Psalms 105:37 he led Israel out with silver and gold; in their tribes there was none who stumbled.

Psalms 105:38 Egypt was glad at their leaving, for terror of Israel had seized them.

Psalms 105:39 He spread out a cloud to cover them, and fire to light up the night.

Psalms 105:40 They asked and he brought them quails, food from heaven to their hearts' content;

Psalms 105:41 he opened a rock, the waters gushed out, and flowed in dry ground as a river.

Psalms 105:42 Faithful to his sacred promise, given to his servant Abraham,

Psalms 105:43 he led out his people with rejoicing, his chosen ones with shouts of joy.

Psalms 105:44 He gave them the territories of nations, they reaped the fruit of other people's labours,

Psalms 105:45 on condition that they kept his statutes, and remained obedient to his laws.

Psalms 106:1 Alleluia! Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good, his faithful love is everlasting!

Psalms 106:2 Who can recount all Yahweh's triumphs, who can fully voice his praise?

Psalms 106:3 How blessed are those who keep to what is just, whose conduct is always upright!

Psalms 106:4 Remember me, Yahweh, in your love for your people. Come near to me with your saving power,

Psalms 106:5 let me share the happiness of your chosen ones, let me share the joy of your people, the pride of your heritage.

Psalms 106:6 Like our ancestors, we have sinned, we have acted wickedly, guiltily;

Psalms 106:7 our ancestors in Egypt never grasped the meaning of your wonders. They did not bear in mind your countless acts of love, at the Sea of Reeds they defied the Most High;

Psalms 106:8 but for the sake of his name he saved them, to make known his mighty power.

Psalms 106:9 At his rebuke the Sea of Reeds dried up, he let them pass through the deep as though it were desert,

Psalms 106:10 so he saved them from their opponents' clutches, rescued them from the clutches of their enemies.

Psalms 106:11 The waters enveloped their enemies, not one of whom was left.

Psalms 106:12 Then they believed what he had said, and sang his praises.

Psalms 106:13 But they soon forgot his achievements, they did not even wait for his plans;

Psalms 106:14 they were overwhelmed with greed in the wastelands, in the solitary wastes they challenged God.

Psalms 106:15 He gave them all they asked for, but struck them with a deep wasting sickness;

Psalms 106:16 in the camp they grew jealous of Moses, and of Aaron, Yahweh's holy one.

Psalms 106:17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, closed in on Abiram's faction;

Psalms 106:18 fire flamed out against their faction, the renegades were engulfed in flames.

Psalms 106:19 At Horeb they made a calf, bowed low before cast metal;

Psalms 106:20 they exchanged their glory for the image of a grass-eating bull.

Psalms 106:21 They forgot the God who was saving them, who had done great deeds in Egypt,

Psalms 106:22 such wonders in the land of Ham, such awesome deeds at the Sea of Reeds.

Psalms 106:23 He thought of putting an end to them, had not Moses, his chosen one, taken a stand in the breach and confronted him, to turn his anger away from destroying them.

Psalms 106:24 They counted a desirable land for nothing, they put no trust in his promise;

Psalms 106:25 they stayed in their tents and grumbled, they would not listen to Yahweh's voice.

Psalms 106:26 So he lifted his hand against them, to strike them down in the desert,

Psalms 106:27 to strike down their descendants among the nations, to scatter them all over the world.

Psalms 106:28 They committed themselves to serve Baal-Peor, and ate sacrifices made to lifeless gods.

Psalms 106:29 They so provoked him by their actions that a plague broke out among them.

Psalms 106:30 Then up stood Phinehas to intervene, and the plague was checked;

Psalms 106:31 for this he is the example of uprightness, from age to age for ever.

Psalms 106:32 At the waters of Meribah they so angered Yahweh, that Moses suffered on their account, Psalms 106:33 for they had embittered his spirit, and he spoke without due thought.

Psalms 106:34 They did not destroy the nations, as Yahweh had told them to do,

Psalms 106:35 but intermarried with them, and adopted their ways.

Psalms 106:36 They worshipped those nations' false gods, till they found themselves entrapped,

Psalms 106:37 and sacrificed their own sons and their daughters to demons.

Psalms 106:38 Innocent blood they shed, the blood of their sons and daughters; offering them to the idols of Canaan, they polluted the country with blood.

Psalms 106:39 They defiled themselves by such actions, their behaviour was that of a harlot.

Psalms 106:40 Yahweh's anger blazed out at his people, his own heritage filled him with disgust.

Psalms 106:41 He handed them over to the nations, and their opponents became their masters;

Psalms 106:42 their enemies lorded it over them, crushing them under their rule.

Psalms 106:43 Time and again he rescued them, but they still defied him deliberately, and sank ever deeper in their guilt;

Psalms 106:44 even so he took pity on their distress, as soon as he heard them cry out.

Psalms 106:45 Bearing his covenant with them in mind, he relented in his boundless and faithful love;

Psalms 106:46 he ensured that they received compassion, in their treatment by all their captors.

Psalms 106:47 Save us, Yahweh our God, gather us from among the nations, that we may give thanks to your holy name, and may glory in praising you.

Psalms 106:48 Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, from all eternity and for ever! Let all the people say, ‘Amen’.

Psalms 107:1 Alleluia! Give thanks to Yahweh for he is good, his faithful love lasts for ever.

Psalms 107:2 So let them say whom Yahweh redeemed, whom he redeemed from the power of their enemies,

Psalms 107:3 bringing them back from foreign lands, from east and west, north and south.

Psalms 107:4 They were wandering in the desert, in the wastelands, could find no way to an inhabited city;

Psalms 107:5 they were hungry and thirsty, their life was ebbing away.

Psalms 107:6 They cried out to Yahweh in their distress, he rescued them from their plight,

Psalms 107:7 he set them on the road, straight to an inhabited city.

Psalms 107:8 Let them thank Yahweh for his faithful love, for his wonders for the children of Adam!

Psalms 107:9 He has fed the hungry to their hearts’ content, filled the starving with good things.

Psalms 107:10 Sojourners in gloom and shadow dark as death, fettered in misery and chains,

Psalms 107:11 for defying the orders of Yahweh, for scorning the plan of the Most High-

Psalms 107:12 he subdued their spirit by hard labour; if they fell there was no one to help.

Psalms 107:13 They cried out to Yahweh in their distress, he rescued them from their plight,

Psalms 107:14 he brought them out from gloom and shadow dark as death, and shattered their chains.

Psalms 107:15 Let them thank Yahweh for his faithful love, for his wonders for the children of Adam!

Psalms 107:16 He broke open gates of bronze and smashed iron bars.

Psalms 107:17 Fools for their rebellious ways, wretched because of their sins,

Psalms 107:18 finding all food repugnant, brought close to the gates of death-

Psalms 107:19 they cried out to Yahweh in their distress; he rescued them from their plight,

Psalms 107:20 he sent out his word and cured them, and rescued their life from the abyss.

Psalms 107:21 Let them thank Yahweh for his faithful love, for his wonders for the children of Adam!

Psalms 107:22 Let them offer thanksgiving sacrifices, and recount with shouts of joy what he has done!

Psalms 107:23 Voyagers on the sea in ships, plying their trade on the great ocean,

Psalms 107:24 have seen the works of Yahweh, his wonders in the deep.

Psalms 107:25 By his word he raised a storm-wind, lashing up towering waves.

Psalms 107:26 Up to the sky then down to the depths! Their stomachs were turned to water;

Psalms 107:27 they staggered and reeled like drunkards, and all their skill went under.

Psalms 107:28 They cried out to Yahweh in their distress, he rescued them from their plight,

Psalms 107:29 he reduced the storm to a calm, and all the waters subsided,

Psalms 107:30 and he brought them, overjoyed at the stillness, to the port where they were bound.

Psalms 107:31 Let them thank Yahweh for his faithful love, for his wonders for the children of Adam!

Psalms 107:32 Let them extol him in the assembly of the people, and praise him in the council of elders.

Psalms 107:33 He has turned rivers into desert, bubbling springs into arid ground,

Psalms 107:34 fertile country into salt-flats, because the people living there were evil.

Psalms 107:35 But he has turned desert into stretches of water, arid ground into bubbling springs,

Psalms 107:36 and has given the hungry a home, where they have built themselves a city.

Psalms 107:37 There they sow fields and plant vines, and reap a harvest of their produce.

Psalms 107:38 He blesses them and their numbers increase, he keeps their cattle at full strength.

Psalms 107:39 Their numbers had fallen, they had grown weak, under pressure of disaster and hardship;

Psalms 107:40 he covered princes in contempt, left them to wander in trackless wastes.

Psalms 107:41 But the needy he raises from their misery, makes their families as numerous as sheep.

Psalms 107:42 At the sight the honest rejoice, and the wicked have nothing to say.

Psalms 107:43 Who is wise? Such a one should take this to heart, and come to understand Yahweh's faithful love.

Psalms 108:1 [Song Psalm Of David] My heart is ready, God, I will sing and make music; come, my glory!

Psalms 108:2 Awake, lyre and harp, I will awake the Dawn!

Psalms 108:3 I will praise you among the peoples, Yahweh, I will play to you among nations,

Psalms 108:4 for your faithful love towers to heaven, and your constancy to the clouds.

Psalms 108:5 Be exalted above the heavens, God. Your glory over the whole earth!

Psalms 108:6 To rescue those you love, save with your right hand and answer us.

Psalms 108:7 God has spoken from his sanctuary, 'In triumph I will divide up Shechem, and share out the Valley of Succoth.

Psalms 108:8 'Mine is Gilead, mine Manasseh, Ephraim the helmet on my head, Judah my commander's baton,

Psalms 108:9 'Moab a bowl for me to wash in, on Edom I plant my sandal, over Philistia I cry victory.'

Psalms 108:10 Who will lead me against a fortified city, who will guide me into Edom,

Psalms 108:11 if not you, the God who has rejected us? God, you no longer march with our armies.

Psalms 108:12 Bring us help in our time of crisis, any human assistance is worthless.

Psalms 108:13 With God we shall do deeds of valour, he will trample down our enemies.

Psalms 109:1 [For the choirmaster Of David Psalm] God whom I praise, do not be silent!

Psalms 109:2 Wicked and deceiving words are being said about me, false accusations are cast in my teeth.

Psalms 109:3 Words of hate fly all around me, though I give no cause for hostility.

Psalms 109:4 In return for my friendship they denounce me, and all

I can do is pray!

Psalms 109:5 They repay my kindness with evil, and friendship with hatred.

Psalms 109:6 ‘Set up a wicked man against him as accuser to stand on his right.

Psalms 109:7 At his trial may he emerge as guilty, even his prayer construed as a crime!

Psalms 109:8 ‘May his life be cut short, someone else take over his office,

Psalms 109:9 his children be orphaned, his wife be widowed.

Psalms 109:10 ‘May his children wander perpetually, beggars, driven from the ruins of their house,

Psalms 109:11 a creditor seize all his goods, and strangers make off with his earnings.

Psalms 109:12 ‘May there be none left faithful enough to show him love, no one take pity on his orphans,

Psalms 109:13 the line of his descendants cut off, his name wiped out in one generation.

Psalms 109:14 ‘May Yahweh never forget the crimes of his ancestors, and his mother’s sins not be wiped out;

Psalms 109:15 may Yahweh keep these constantly in mind, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.’

Psalms 109:16 He had no thought of being loyal, but hounded the poor and the needy and the broken-hearted to their death.

Psalms 109:17 He had a taste for cursing; let it recoil on him! No taste for blessing; let it never come his way!

Psalms 109:18 Cursing has been the uniform he wore; let it soak into him like water, like oil right into his bones.

Psalms 109:19 Let it be as a robe which envelops him completely, a sash which he always wears.

Psalms 109:20 Let this be the salary Yahweh pays the accusers who blacken my name.

Psalms 109:21 Yahweh, treat them as your name demands; as your faithful love is generous, deliver me.

Psalms 109:22 Poor and needy as I am, my wounds go right to the heart;

Psalms 109:23 I am passing away like a fading shadow, they have shaken me off like a locust.

Psalms 109:24 My knees are weak from lack of food, my body lean for lack of fat.

Psalms 109:25 I have become the butt of their taunts, they shake their heads at the sight of me.

Psalms 109:26 Help me, Yahweh my God, save me as your faithful love demands.

Psalms 109:27 Let them know that yours is the saving hand, that this, Yahweh, is your work.

Psalms 109:28 Let them curse, provided that you bless; let their attacks bring shame to them and joy to your servant!

Psalms 109:29 Let my accusers be clothed in disgrace, enveloped in a cloak of shame.

Psalms 109:30 With generous thanks to Yahweh on my lips, I shall praise him before all the people,

Psalms 109:31 for he stands at the side of the poor, to save their lives from those who sit in judgement on them.

Psalms 110:1 [Of David Psalm] Yahweh declared to my Lord, 'Take your seat at my right hand, till I have made your enemies your footstool.'

Psalms 110:2 Yahweh will stretch out the sceptre of your power; from Zion you will rule your foes all around you.

Psalms 110:3 Royal dignity has been yours from the day of your birth, sacred honour from the womb, from the dawn of your youth.

Psalms 110:4 Yahweh has sworn an oath he will never retract, you are a priest for ever of the order of Melchizedek.

Psalms 110:5 At your right hand, Lord, he shatters kings when his anger breaks out.

Psalms 110:6 He judges nations, heaping up corpses, he breaks heads over the whole wide world.

Psalms 110:7 He drinks from a stream as he goes, and therefore he holds his head high.

Psalms 111:1 Alleluia! I give thanks to Yahweh with all my heart, in the meeting-place of honest people, in the assembly.

Psalms 111:2 Great are the deeds of Yahweh, to be pondered by all who delight in them.

Psalms 111:3 Full of splendour and majesty his work, his saving justice stands firm for ever.

Psalms 111:4 He gives us a memorial of his great deeds; Yahweh is mercy and tenderness.

Psalms 111:5 He gives food to those who fear him, he keeps his covenant ever in mind.

Psalms 111:6 His works show his people his power in giving them the birthright of the nations.

Psalms 111:7 The works of his hands are fidelity and justice, all his precepts are trustworthy, Psalms 111:8 established for ever and ever, accomplished in fidelity and honesty.

Psalms 111:9 Deliverance he sends to his people, his covenant he imposes for ever; holy and awesome his name.

Psalms 111:10 The root of wisdom is fear of Yahweh; those who attain it are wise. His praise will continue for ever.

Psalms 112:1 Alleluia! How blessed is anyone who fears Yahweh, who delights in his commandments!

Psalms 112:2 His descendants shall be powerful on earth, the race of the honest shall receive blessings:

Psalms 112:3 Riches and wealth for his family; his uprightness stands firm for ever.

Psalms 112:4 For the honest he shines as a lamp in the dark, generous, tender-hearted, and upright.

Psalms 112:5 All goes well for one who lends generously, who is honest in all his dealing;

Psalms 112:6 for all time to come he will not stumble, for all time to come the upright will be remembered.

Psalms 112:7 Bad news holds no fears for him, firm is his heart, trusting in Yahweh.

Psalms 112:8 His heart held steady, he has no fears, till he can gloat over his enemies.

Psalms 112:9 To the needy he gives without stint, his uprightness stands firm for ever; his reputation is founded on strength.

Psalms 112:10 The wicked are vexed at the sight, they grind their teeth and waste away. The desires of the wicked will be frustrated.

Psalms 113:1 Alleluia! Praise, servants of Yahweh, praise the name of Yahweh.

Psalms 113:2 Blessed be the name of Yahweh, henceforth and for ever.

Psalms 113:3 From the rising of the sun to its setting, praised be the name of Yahweh!

Psalms 113:4 Supreme over all nations is Yahweh, supreme over the heavens his glory.

Psalms 113:5 Who is like Yahweh our God? His throne is set on high,

Psalms 113:6 but he stoops to look down on heaven and earth.

Psalms 113:7 He raises the poor from the dust, he lifts the needy from the dunghill,

Psalms 113:8 to give them a place among princes, among princes of his people.

Psalms 113:9 He lets the barren woman be seated at home, the happy mother of sons.

Psalms 114:1 Alleluia! When Israel came out of Egypt, the House of Jacob from a people of foreign speech, Psalms 114:2 Judah became his sanctuary, and Israel his domain.

Psalms 114:3 The sea fled at the sight, the Jordan turned back,

Psalms 114:4 the mountains skipped like rams, the hills like sheep.

Psalms 114:5 Sea, what makes you flee? Jordan, why turn back?

Psalms 114:6 Why skip like rams, you mountains? Why like sheep, you hills?

Psalms 114:7 Tremble, earth, at the coming of the Lord, at the coming of the God of Jacob,

Psalms 114:8 who turns rock into pool, flint into fountain.

Psalms 115:1 Not to us, Yahweh, not to us, but to your name give the glory, for your faithful love and your constancy!

Psalms 115:2 Why should the nations ask, 'Where is their God?'

Psalms 115:3 Our God is in heaven, he creates whatever he chooses.

Psalms 115:4 They have idols of silver and gold, made by human hands.

Psalms 115:5 These have mouths but say nothing, have eyes but see nothing,

Psalms 115:6 have ears but hear nothing, have noses but smell nothing.

Psalms 115:7 They have hands but cannot feel, have feet but cannot walk, no sound comes from their throats.

Psalms 115:8 Their makers will end up like them, and all who rely on them.

Psalms 115:9 House of Israel, rely on Yahweh; he is their help and their shield.

Psalms 115:10 House of Aaron, rely on Yahweh; he is their help and their shield.

Psalms 115:11 You who fear Yahweh, rely on Yahweh; he is their help and their shield.

Psalms 115:12 Yahweh will keep us in mind, he will bless, he will bless the House of Israel, he will bless the House of Aaron, Psalms 115:13 he will bless those who fear Yahweh, small and great alike.

Psalms 115:14 May Yahweh add to your numbers, yours and your children's too!

Psalms 115:15 May you be blessed by Yahweh, who made heaven and earth.

Psalms 115:16 Heaven belongs to Yahweh, but earth he has given to the children of Adam.

Psalms 115:17 The dead cannot praise Yahweh, those who sink into silence,

Psalms 115:18 but we, the living, shall bless Yahweh, henceforth and for ever.

Psalms 116:1 Alleluia! I am filled with love when Yahweh listens to the sound of my prayer,

Psalms 116:2 when he bends down to hear me, as I call.

Psalms 116:3 The bonds of death were all round me, the snares of Sheol held me fast; distress and anguish held me in their grip,

Psalms 116:4 I called on the name of Yahweh. Deliver me, Yahweh, I beg you.

Psalms 116:5 Yahweh is merciful and upright, our God is tenderness.

Psalms 116:6 Yahweh looks after the simple, when I was brought low he gave me strength.

Psalms 116:7 My heart, be at peace once again, for Yahweh has treated you generously.

Psalms 116:8 He has rescued me from death, my eyes from tears, and my feet from stumbling.

Psalms 116:9 I shall pass my life in the presence of Yahweh, in the land of the living.

Psalms 116:10 My trust does not fail even when I say, 'I am completely wretched.'

Psalms 116:11 In my terror I said, 'No human being can be relied on.'

Psalms 116:12 What return can I make to Yahweh for his generosity to me?

Psalms 116:13 I shall take up the cup of salvation and call on the name of Yahweh.

Psalms 116:14 I shall fulfil my vows to Yahweh, witnessed by all his people.

Psalms 116:15 Costly in Yahweh's sight is the death of his faithful.

Psalms 116:16 I beg you, Yahweh! I am your servant, I am your servant and my mother was your servant; you have undone my fetters.

Psalms 116:17 I shall offer you a sacrifice of thanksgiving and call on the name of Yahweh.

Psalms 116:18 I shall fulfil my vows to Yahweh, witnessed by all his people,

Psalms 116:19 in the courts of the house of Yahweh, in your very heart, Jerusalem.

Psalms 117:1 Alleluia! Praise Yahweh, all nations, extol him, all peoples, Psalms 117:2 for his faithful love is strong and his constancy never-ending.

Psalms 118:1 Alleluia! Give thanks to Yahweh for he is good, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 118:2 Let the House of Israel say, 'His faithful love endures for ever.'

Psalms 118:3 Let the House of Aaron say, 'His faithful love endures for ever.'

Psalms 118:4 Let those who fear Yahweh say, 'His faithful love endures for ever.'

Psalms 118:5 In my distress I called to Yahweh, he heard me and brought me relief.

Psalms 118:6 With Yahweh on my side I fear nothing; what can human beings do to me?

Psalms 118:7 With Yahweh on my side as my help, I gloat over my enemies.

Psalms 118:8 It is better to take refuge in Yahweh than to rely on human beings;

Psalms 118:9 better to take refuge in Yahweh than to rely on princes.

Psalms 118:10 Nations were swarming around me, in the name of Yahweh I cut them down;

Psalms 118:11 they swarmed around me, pressing upon me, in the name of Yahweh I cut them down.

Psalms 118:12 They swarmed around me like bees, they flared up like a brushwood fire, in the name of Yahweh I cut them down.

Psalms 118:13 I was pushed hard, to make me fall, but Yahweh came to my help.

Psalms 118:14 Yahweh is my strength and my song, he has been my Saviour.

Psalms 118:15 Shouts of joy and salvation, in the tents of the upright, 'Yahweh's right hand is triumphant,

Psalms 118:16 Yahweh's right hand is victorious, Yahweh's right hand is triumphant!'

Psalms 118:17 I shall not die, I shall live to recount the great deeds of Yahweh.

Psalms 118:18 Though Yahweh punished me sternly, he has not abandoned me to death.

Psalms 118:19 Open for me the gates of saving justice, I shall go in and thank Yahweh.

Psalms 118:20 This is the gate of Yahweh, where the upright go in.

Psalms 118:21 I thank you for hearing me, and making yourself my Saviour.

Psalms 118:22 The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone;

Psalms 118:23 This is Yahweh's doing, and we marvel at it.

Psalms 118:24 This is the day which Yahweh has made, a day for us to rejoice and be glad.

Psalms 118:25 We beg you, Yahweh, save us, we beg you, Yahweh, give us victory!

Psalms 118:26 Blessed in the name of Yahweh is he who is coming! We bless you from the house of Yahweh.

Psalms 118:27 Yahweh is God, he gives us light. Link your processions, branches in hand, up to the horns of the altar.

Psalms 118:28 You are my God, I thank you, all praise to you, my God. I thank you for hearing me, and making yourself my Saviour.

Psalms 118:29 Give thanks to Yahweh for he is good, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 119:1 How blessed are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the Law of Yahweh!

Psalms 119:2 Blessed are those who observe his instructions, who seek him with all their hearts,

Psalms 119:3 and, doing no evil, who walk in his ways.

Psalms 119:4 You lay down your precepts to be carefully kept.

Psalms 119:5 May my ways be steady in doing your will.

Psalms 119:6 Then I shall not be shamed, if my gaze is fixed on your commandments.

Psalms 119:7 I thank you with a sincere heart for teaching me your upright judgements.

Psalms 119:8 I shall do your will; do not ever abandon me wholly.

Psalms 119:9 How can a young man keep his way spotless? By keeping your words.

Psalms 119:10 With all my heart I seek you, do not let me stray from your commandments.

Psalms 119:11 In my heart I treasure your promises, to avoid sinning against you.

Psalms 119:12 Blessed are you, Yahweh, teach me your will!

Psalms 119:13 With my lips I have repeated all the judgements you have given.

Psalms 119:14 In the way of your instructions lies my joy, a joy beyond all wealth.

Psalms 119:15 I will ponder your precepts and fix my gaze on your paths.

Psalms 119:16 I find my delight in your will, I do not forget your words.

Psalms 119:17 Be generous to your servant and I shall live, and shall keep your words.

Psalms 119:18 Open my eyes and I shall fix my gaze on the wonders of your Law.

Psalms 119:19 Wayfarer though I am on the earth, do not hide your commandments from me.

Psalms 119:20 My heart is pining away with longing at all times for your judgements.

Psalms 119:21 You have rebuked the arrogant, the accursed, who stray from your commandments.

Psalms 119:22 Set me free from taunts and contempt since I observe your instructions.

Psalms 119:23 Though princes sit plotting against me, your servant keeps pondering your will.

Psalms 119:24 Your instructions are my delight, your wishes my counsellors.

Psalms 119:25 Down in the dust I lie prostrate; true to your word, revive me.

Psalms 119:26 I tell you my ways and you answer me; teach me your wishes.

Psalms 119:27 Show me the way of your precepts, that I may reflect on your wonders.

Psalms 119:28 I am melting away for grief; true to your word, raise me up.

Psalms 119:29 Keep me far from the way of deceit, grant me the grace of your Law.

Psalms 119:30 I have chosen the way of constancy, I have moulded myself to your judgements.

Psalms 119:31 I cling to your instructions, Yahweh, do not disappoint me.

Psalms 119:32 I run the way of your commandments, for you have given me freedom of heart.

Psalms 119:33 Teach me, Yahweh, the way of your will, and I will observe it.

Psalms 119:34 Give me understanding and I will observe your Law, and keep it wholeheartedly.

Psalms 119:35 Guide me in the way of your commandments, for my delight is there.

Psalms 119:36 Bend my heart to your instructions, not to selfish gain.

Psalms 119:37 Avert my eyes from pointless images, by your word give me life.

Psalms 119:38 Keep your promise to your servant so that all may hold you in awe.

Psalms 119:39 Avert the taunts that I dread, for your judgements are generous.

Psalms 119:40 See how I yearn for your precepts; in your saving justice give me life.

Psalms 119:41 Let your faithful love come to me, Yahweh, true to your promise, save me!

Psalms 119:42 Give me an answer to the taunts against me, since I rely on your word.

Psalms 119:43 Do not deprive me of that faithful word, since my hope lies in your judgements.

Psalms 119:44 I shall keep your Law without fail for ever and ever.

Psalms 119:45 I shall live in all freedom because I have sought your precepts.

Psalms 119:46 I shall speak of your instructions before kings and will not be shamed.

Psalms 119:47 Your commandments fill me with delight, I love them dearly.

Psalms 119:48 I stretch out my hands to your commandments that I love, and I ponder your judgements.

Psalms 119:49 Keep in mind your promise to your servant on which I have built my hope.

Psalms 119:50 It is my comfort in distress, that your promise gives me life.

Psalms 119:51 Endlessly the arrogant have jeered at me, but I have not swerved from your Law.

Psalms 119:52 I have kept your age—old judgements in mind, Yahweh, and I am comforted.

Psalms 119:53 Fury grips me when I see the wicked who abandon your Law.

Psalms 119:54 Your judgements are my song where I live in exile.

Psalms 119:55 All night, Yahweh, I hold your name in mind, I keep your Law.

Psalms 119:56 This is what it means to me, observing your precepts.

Psalms 119:57 My task, I have said, Yahweh, is to keep your word.

Psalms 119:58 Wholeheartedly I entreat your favour; true to your promise, take pity on me!

Psalms 119:59 I have reflected on my ways, and I turn my steps to your instructions.

Psalms 119:60 I hurry without delay to keep your commandments.

Psalms 119:61 Though caught in the snares of the wicked, I do not forget your Law.

Psalms 119:62 At midnight I rise to praise you for your upright judgements.

Psalms 119:63 I am a friend to all who fear you and keep your precepts.

Psalms 119:64 Your faithful love fills the earth, Yahweh, teach me your judgements.

Psalms 119:65 You have been generous to your servant, Yahweh, true to your promise.

Psalms 119:66 Teach me judgement and knowledge, for I rely on your commandments.

Psalms 119:67 Before I was punished I used to go astray, but now I keep to your promise.

Psalms 119:68 You are generous and act generously, teach me your will.

Psalms 119:69 The arrogant blacken me with lies though I wholeheartedly observe your precepts.

Psalms 119:70 Their hearts are gross like rich fat, but my delight is in your Law.

Psalms 119:71 It was good for me that I had to suffer, the better to learn your judgements.

Psalms 119:72 The Law you have uttered is more precious to me than all the wealth in the world.

Psalms 119:73 Your hands have made me and held me firm, give me understanding and I shall learn your commandments.

Psalms 119:74 Those who fear you rejoice at the sight of me since I put my hope in your word.

Psalms 119:75 I know, Yahweh, that your judgements are upright, and in punishing me you show your constancy.

Psalms 119:76 Your faithful love must be my consolation, as you have promised your servant.

Psalms 119:77 Treat me with tenderness and I shall live, for your Law is my delight.

Psalms 119:78 Let the arrogant who tell lies against me be shamed, while I ponder your precepts.

Psalms 119:79 Let those who fear you rally to me, those who understand your instructions.

Psalms 119:80 My heart shall be faultless towards your will; then I shall not be ashamed.

Psalms 119:81 I shall wear myself out for your salvation, for your word is my hope.

Psalms 119:82 My eyes, too, are worn out waiting for your promise, when will you have pity on me?

Psalms 119:83 For I am like a smoked wineskin, but I do not forget your will.

Psalms 119:84 How long has your servant to live? When will you bring my persecutors to judgement?

Psalms 119:85 The arrogant have dug pitfalls for me in defiance of your Law.

Psalms 119:86 All your commandments show constancy. Help me when they pursue me dishonestly.

Psalms 119:87 They have almost annihilated me on earth, but I have not deserted your precepts.

Psalms 119:88 True to your faithful love, give me life, and I shall keep the instructions you have laid down.

Psalms 119:89 For ever, Yahweh, your word is planted firm in heaven.

Psalms 119:90 Your constancy endures from age to age; you established the earth and it stands firm.

Psalms 119:91 Through your judgements all stands firm to this day, for all creation is your servant.

Psalms 119:92 Had your Law not been my delight, I would have perished in my misery.

Psalms 119:93 I shall never forget your precepts, for by them you have given me life.

Psalms 119:94 I am yours, save me, for I seek your precepts.

Psalms 119:95 The wicked may hope to destroy me, but all my thought is of your instructions.

Psalms 119:96 I have seen that all perfection is finite, but your commandment has no limit.

Psalms 119:97 How I love your Law! I ponder it all day long.

Psalms 119:98 You make me wiser than my enemies by your commandment which is mine for ever.

Psalms 119:99 I am wiser than all my teachers because I ponder your instructions.

Psalms 119:100 I have more understanding than the aged because I keep your precepts.

Psalms 119:101 I restrain my foot from evil paths to keep your word.

Psalms 119:102 I do not turn aside from your judgements, because you yourself have instructed me.

Psalms 119:103 How pleasant your promise to my palate, sweeter than honey in my mouth!

Psalms 119:104 From your precepts I learn wisdom, so I hate all deceptive ways.

Psalms 119:105 Your word is a lamp for my feet, a light on my path.

Psalms 119:106 I have sworn—and shall maintain it—to keep your upright judgements.

Psalms 119:107 I am utterly wretched, Yahweh; true to your promise, give me life.

Psalms 119:108 Accept, Yahweh, the tribute from my mouth, and teach me your judgements.

Psalms 119:109 My life is in your hands perpetually, I do not forget your Law.

Psalms 119:110 The wicked have laid out a snare for me, but I have not strayed from your precepts.

Psalms 119:111 Your instructions are my eternal heritage, they are the joy of my heart.

Psalms 119:112 I devote myself to obeying your statutes, their recompense is eternal.

Psalms 119:113 I hate a divided heart, I love your Law.

Psalms 119:114 You are my refuge and shield, I put my hope in your word.

Psalms 119:115 Leave me alone, you wicked, I shall observe the commandments of my God.

Psalms 119:116 True to your word, support me and I shall live; do not disappoint me of my hope.

Psalms 119:117 Uphold me and I shall be saved, my gaze fixed on your will.

Psalms 119:118 You shake off all who stray from your will; deceit fills their horizon.

Psalms 119:119 In your sight all the wicked of the earth are like rust, so I love your instructions.

Psalms 119:120 My whole body trembles before you, your judgements fill me with fear.

Psalms 119:121 All my conduct has been just and upright, do not hand me over to my oppressors.

Psalms 119:122 Guarantee the well-being of your servant, do not let the proud oppress me.

Psalms 119:123 My eyes are languishing for your salvation and for the saving justice you have promised.

Psalms 119:124 Show your faithful love to your servant, teach me your judgements.

Psalms 119:125 Your servant am I; give me understanding and I shall know your instructions.

Psalms 119:126 It is time to take action, Yahweh, your Law is being broken.

Psalms 119:127 So I love your commandments more than gold, purest gold.

Psalms 119:128 So I rule my life by your precepts, I hate all deceptive paths.

Psalms 119:129 Wonderful are your instructions, so I observe them.

Psalms 119:130 As your word unfolds it gives light, and even the simple understand.

Psalms 119:131 I open wide my mouth, panting eagerly for your commandments.

Psalms 119:132 Turn to me, pity me; those who love your name deserve it.

Psalms 119:133 Keep my steps firm in your promise; that no evil may triumph over me.

Psalms 119:134 Rescue me from human oppression, and I will observe your precepts.

Psalms 119:135 Let your face shine on your servant, teach me your will.

Psalms 119:136 My eyes stream with tears because your Law is disregarded.

Psalms 119:137 You are upright, Yahweh, and your judgements are honest.

Psalms 119:138 You impose uprightness as a witness to yourself, it is constancy itself.

Psalms 119:139 My zeal is burning me up because my oppressors forget your word.

Psalms 119:140 Your promise is well tested, your servant holds it dear.

Psalms 119:141 Puny and despised as I am, I do not forget your precepts.

Psalms 119:142 Your saving justice is for ever just, and your Law is trustworthy.

Psalms 119:143 Though anguish and distress grip me your commandments are my delight.

Psalms 119:144 Your instructions are upright for ever, give me understanding and I shall live.

Psalms 119:145 I call with all my heart; answer me, Yahweh, and I will observe your judgements.

Psalms 119:146 I call to you; save me, and I will keep your instructions.

Psalms 119:147 I am awake before dawn to cry for help, I put my hope in your word.

Psalms 119:148 My eyes are awake before each watch of the night, to ponder your promise.

Psalms 119:149 In your faithful love, Yahweh, listen to my voice, let your judgements give me life.

Psalms 119:150 My pursuers are coming closer to their wicked designs, and further from your Law.

Psalms 119:151 You are close to me, Yahweh, and all your commandments are true.

Psalms 119:152 Long have I known that your instructions were laid down to last for ever.

Psalms 119:153 Look at my suffering and rescue me, for I do not forget your Law.

Psalms 119:154 Plead my cause and defend me; as you promised, give me life.

Psalms 119:155 Salvation is far from the wicked, for they do not seek your will.

Psalms 119:156 Your kindnesses to me are countless, Yahweh; true to your judgements, give me life.

Psalms 119:157 Though my enemies and oppressors are countless, I do not turn aside from your instructions.

Psalms 119:158 The sight of these renegades appals me; they do not observe your promise.

Psalms 119:159 See how I love your precepts; true to your faithful love, give me life.

Psalms 119:160 Faithfulness is the essence of your word, your upright judgements hold good for ever.

Psalms 119:161 Though princes hound me unprovoked, what fills me with awe is your word.

Psalms 119:162 I rejoice in your promise like one who finds a vast treasure.

Psalms 119:163 Falsehood I hate and detest, my love is for your Law.

Psalms 119:164 Seven times a day I praise you for your upright judgements.

Psalms 119:165 Great peace for those who love your Law; no stumbling-blocks for them!

Psalms 119:166 I am waiting for your salvation, Yahweh, I fulfil your commandments.

Psalms 119:167 I observe your instructions, I love them dearly.

Psalms 119:168 I observe your precepts, your judgements, for all my ways are before you.

Psalms 119:169 May my cry approach your presence, Yahweh; by your word give me understanding.

Psalms 119:170 May my prayer come into your presence, rescue me as you have promised.

Psalms 119:171 May my lips proclaim your praise, for you teach me your will.

Psalms 119:172 May my tongue recite your promise, for all your commandments are upright.

Psalms 119:173 May your hand be there to help me, since I have chosen your precepts.

Psalms 119:174 I long for your salvation, Yahweh, your Law is my delight.

Psalms 119:175 May I live only to praise you, may your judgements be my help.

Psalms 119:176 I am wandering like a lost sheep, come and look for your servant, for I have not forgotten your commandments.

Psalms 120:1 [Song of Ascents { The Songs of Ascents (Pss 120-134) were sung by pilgrims on their way up to Jerusalem.}] To Yahweh when I am in trouble I call and he answers me.

Psalms 120:2 Yahweh, save me from lying lips and a treacherous tongue!

Psalms 120:3 What will he repay you, what more, treacherous tongue?

Psalms 120:4 War-arrows made sharp over red-hot charcoal.

Psalms 120:5 How wretched I am, living in Meshech, dwelling in the tents of Kedar!

Psalms 120:6 Too long have I lived among people who hate peace.

Psalms 120:7 When I speak of peace they are all for war!

Psalms 121:1 [Song of Ascents] I lift up my eyes to the mountains; where is my help to come from?

Psalms 121:2 My help comes from Yahweh who made heaven and earth.

Psalms 121:3 May he save your foot from stumbling; may he, your guardian, not fall asleep!

Psalms 121:4 You see—he neither sleeps nor slumbers, the guardian of Israel.

Psalms 121:5 Yahweh is your guardian, your shade, Yahweh, at your right hand.

Psalms 121:6 By day the sun will not strike you, nor the moon by night.

Psalms 121:7 Yahweh guards you from all harm Yahweh guards your life,

Psalms 121:8 Yahweh guards your comings and goings, henceforth and for ever.

Psalms 122:1 [Song of Ascents Of David] I rejoiced that they said to me, 'Let us go to the house of Yahweh.'

Psalms 122:2 At last our feet are standing at your gates, Jerusalem!

Psalms 122:3 Jerusalem, built as a city, in one united whole,

Psalms 122:4 there the tribes go up, the tribes of Yahweh, a sign for Israel to give thanks to the name of Yahweh.

Psalms 122:5 For there are set the thrones of judgement, the thrones of the house of David.

Psalms 122:6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem, prosperity for your homes!

Psalms 122:7 Peace within your walls, prosperity in your palaces!

Psalms 122:8 For love of my brothers and my friends I will say, 'Peace upon you!'

Psalms 122:9 For love of the house of Yahweh our God I will pray for your well-being.

Psalms 123:1 [Song of Ascents] I lift up my eyes to you who are enthroned in heaven.

Psalms 123:2 Just as the eyes of slaves are on their masters' hand, or the eyes of a slave-girl on the hand of her mistress, so our eyes are on Yahweh our God, for him to take pity on us.

Psalms 123:3 Have pity on us, Yahweh, have pity, for we have had our full share of scorn,

Psalms 123:4 more than our share of jeers from the complacent. (Scorn is for the proud.)

Psalms 124:1 [Song of Ascents Of David] If Yahweh had not been on our side—let Israel repeat it-

Psalms 124:2 if Yahweh had not been on our side when people attacked us,

Psalms 124:3 they would have swallowed us alive in the heat of their anger.

Psalms 124:4 Then water was washing us away, a torrent running right over us;

Psalms 124:5 running right over us then were turbulent waters.

Psalms 124:6 Blessed be Yahweh for not letting us fall a prey to their teeth!

Psalms 124:7 We escaped like a bird from the fowlers' net. The net was broken and we escaped;

Psalms 124:8 our help is in the name of Yahweh, who made heaven and earth.

Psalms 125:1 [Song of Ascents] Whoever trusts in Yahweh is like Mount Zion: unshakeable, it stands for ever.

Psalms 125:2 Jerusalem! The mountains encircle her: so Yahweh encircles his people, henceforth and for ever.

Psalms 125:3 The sceptre of the wicked will not come to rest over the heritage of the upright; or the upright might set their own hands to evil.

Psalms 125:4 Do good, Yahweh, to those who are good, to the sincere at heart.

Psalms 125:5 But the crooked, the twisted, turn them away, Yahweh, with evil-doers. Peace to Israel!

Psalms 126:1 [Song of Ascents] When Yahweh brought back Zion's captives we lived in a dream;

Psalms 126:2 then our mouths filled with laughter, and our lips with song. Then the nations kept saying, 'What great deeds Yahweh has done for them!'

Psalms 126:3 Yes, Yahweh did great deeds for us, and we were overjoyed.

Psalms 126:4 Bring back, Yahweh, our people from captivity like torrents in the Negeb!

Psalms 126:5 Those who sow in tears sing as they reap.

Psalms 126:6 He went off, went off weeping, carrying the seed. He comes back, comes back singing, bringing in his sheaves.

Psalms 127:1 [Song of Ascents Of Solomon] If Yahweh does not build a house in vain do its builders toil. If Yahweh does not guard a city in vain does its guard keep watch.

Psalms 127:2 In vain you get up earlier, and put off going to bed, sweating to make a living, since it is he who provides for his beloved as they sleep.

Psalms 127:3 Sons are a birthright from Yahweh, children are a reward from him.

Psalms 127:4 Like arrows in a warrior’s hand are the sons you father when young.

Psalms 127:5 How blessed is the man who has filled his quiver with them; in dispute with his enemies at the city gate he will not be worsted.

Psalms 128:1 [Song of Ascents] How blessed are all who fear Yahweh, who walk in his ways!

Psalms 128:2 Your own labours will yield you a living, happy and prosperous will you be.

Psalms 128:3 Your wife a fruitful vine in the inner places of your house. Your children round your table like shoots of an olive tree.

Psalms 128:4 Such are the blessings that fall on those who fear Yahweh.

Psalms 128:5 May Yahweh bless you from Zion! May you see Jerusalem prosper all the days of your life,

Psalms 128:6 and live to see your children’s children! Peace to Israel!

Psalms 129:1 [Song of Ascents] Often as men have attacked me since I was young—let Israel repeat it-

Psalms 129:2 often as men have attacked me since I was young, they have never overcome me.

Psalms 129:3 On my back ploughmen have set to work, making long furrows,

Psalms 129:4 but Yahweh the upright has shattered the yoke of the wicked.

Psalms 129:5 Let all who hate Zion be thrown back in confusion,

Psalms 129:6 let them be like grass on a roof, dried up before it is cut,

Psalms 129:7 never to fill the reaper’s arm nor the binder’s lap.

Psalms 129:8 And no passer-by will say, ‘The blessing of Yahweh be on you! ‘We bless you in the name of Yahweh.’

Psalms 130:1 [Song of Ascents] From the depths I call to you, Yahweh:

Psalms 130:2 Lord, hear my cry. Listen attentively to the sound of my pleading!

Psalms 130:3 If you kept a record of our sins, Lord, who could stand their ground?

Psalms 130:4 But with you is forgiveness, that you may be revered.

Psalms 130:5 I rely, my whole being relies, Yahweh, on your promise.

Psalms 130:6 My whole being hopes in the Lord, more than watchmen for daybreak; more than watchmen for daybreak

Psalms 130:7 let Israel hope in Yahweh. For with Yahweh is faithful love, with him generous ransom;

Psalms 130:8 and he will ransom Israel from all its sins.

Psalms 131:1 [Song of Ascents] Yahweh, my heart is not haughty, I do not set my sights too high. I have taken no part in great affairs, in wonders beyond my scope.

Psalms 131:2 No, I hold myself in quiet and silence, like a little child in its mother's arms, like a little child, so I keep myself.

Psalms 131:3 Let Israel hope in Yahweh henceforth and for ever.

Psalms 132:1 [Song of Ascents] Yahweh, remember David and all the hardships he endured,

Psalms 132:2 the oath he swore to Yahweh, his vow to the Mighty One of Jacob:

Psalms 132:3 'I will not enter tent or house, will not climb into bed,

Psalms 132:4 will not allow myself to sleep, not even to close my eyes,

Psalms 132:5 till I have found a place for Yahweh, a dwelling for the Mighty One of Jacob!'

Psalms 132:6 Listen, we heard of it in Ephrathah, we found it at Forest-Fields.

Psalms 132:7 Let us go into his dwelling-place, and worship at his footstool.

Psalms 132:8 Go up, Yahweh, to your resting-place, you and the ark of your strength.

Psalms 132:9 Your priests are robed in saving justice, your faithful are shouting for joy.

Psalms 132:10 For the sake of your servant David, do not reject your anointed.

Psalms 132:11 Yahweh has sworn to David, and will always remain true to his word, 'I promise that I will set a son of yours upon your throne.

Psalms 132:12 If your sons observe my covenant and the instructions I have taught them, their sons too for evermore will occupy your throne.'

Psalms 132:13 For Yahweh has chosen Zion, he has desired it as a home.

Psalms 132:14 'Here shall I rest for evermore, here shall I make my home as I have wished.

Psalms 132:15 'I shall generously bless her produce, give her needy their fill of food,

Psalms 132:16 I shall clothe her priests with salvation, and her faithful will sing aloud for joy.

Psalms 132:17 'There I shall raise up a line of descendants for David, light a lamp for my anointed;

Psalms 132:18 I shall clothe his enemies with shame, while his own crown shall flourish.'

Psalms 133:1 [Song of Ascents] How good, how delightful it is to live as brothers all together!

Psalms 133:2 It is like a fine oil on the head, running down the beard, running down Aaron's beard, onto the collar of his robes.

Psalms 133:3 It is like the dew of Hermon falling on the heights of Zion; for there Yahweh bestows his blessing, everlasting life.

Psalms 134:1 [Song of Ascents] Come, bless Yahweh, all you who serve Yahweh, serving in the house of Yahweh, in the courts of the house of our God. Through the night watches

Psalms 134:2 stretch out your hands towards the sanctuary and bless Yahweh.

Psalms 134:3 May Yahweh bless you from Zion, he who made heaven and earth!

Psalms 135:1 Alleluia! Praise the name of Yahweh, you who serve Yahweh, praise him,

Psalms 135:2 serving in the house of Yahweh, in the courts of the house of our God.

Psalms 135:3 Praise Yahweh, for Yahweh is good, make music for his name—it brings joy-

Psalms 135:4 for Yahweh has chosen Jacob for himself, Israel as his own possession.

Psalms 135:5 For I know that Yahweh is great, our Lord is above all gods.

Psalms 135:6 Yahweh does whatever he pleases in heaven, on earth, in the waters and all the depths.

Psalms 135:7 He summons up clouds from the borders of earth, sends rain with lightning-flashes, and brings the wind out of his storehouse.

Psalms 135:8 He struck the first-born in Egypt, man and beast alike,

Psalms 135:9 he sent signs and wonders into the heart of Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his officials.

Psalms 135:10 He struck down many nations, he slaughtered mighty kings,

Psalms 135:11 Sihon king of the Amorites, and Og king of Bashan, and all the kingdoms of Canaan.

Psalms 135:12 He gave their land as a birthright, a birthright to his people Israel.

Psalms 135:13 Yahweh, your name endures for ever, Yahweh, your memory is fresh from age to age.

Psalms 135:14 For Yahweh vindicates his people, feels compassion for his servants.

Psalms 135:15 The idols of the nations are silver and gold, made by human hands.

Psalms 135:16 These have mouths but say nothing, have eyes but see nothing,

Psalms 135:17 have ears but hear nothing, and they have no breath in their mouths.

Psalms 135:18 Their makers will end up like them, everyone who relies on them.

Psalms 135:19 House of Israel, bless Yahweh, House of Aaron, bless Yahweh,

Psalms 135:20 House of Levi, bless Yahweh, you who fear Yahweh, bless Yahweh.

Psalms 135:21 Blessed be Yahweh from Zion, he who dwells in Jerusalem!

Psalms 136:1 Alleluia! Give thanks to Yahweh for he is good, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:2 Give thanks to the God of gods, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:3 Give thanks to the Lord of lords, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:4 He alone works wonders, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:5 In wisdom he made the heavens, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:6 He set the earth firm on the waters, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:7 He made the great lights, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:8 The sun to rule the day, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:9 Moon and stars to rule the night, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:10 He struck down the first-born of Egypt, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:11 He brought Israel out from among them, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:12 With mighty hand and outstretched arm, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:13 He split the Sea of Reeds in two, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:14 Let Israel pass through the middle, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:15 And drowned Pharaoh and all his army, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:16 He led his people through the desert, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:17 He struck down mighty kings, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:18 Slaughtered famous kings, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:19 Sihon king of the Amorites, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:20 And Og king of Bashan, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:21 He gave their land as a birthright, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:22 A birthright to his servant Israel, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:23 He kept us in mind when we were humbled, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:24 And rescued us from our enemies, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:25 He provides food for all living creatures, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:26 Give thanks to the God of heaven, for his faithful love endures for ever.

Psalms 137:1 By the rivers of Babylon we sat and wept at the memory of Zion.

Psalms 137:2 On the poplars there we had hung up our harps.

Psalms 137:3 For there our gaolers had asked us to sing them a song, our captors to make merry, ‘Sing us one of the songs of Zion.’

Psalms 137:4 How could we sing a song of Yahweh on alien soil?

Psalms 137:5 If I forget you, Jerusalem, may my right hand wither!

Psalms 137:6 May my tongue remain stuck to my palate if I do not keep you in mind, if I do not count Jerusalem the greatest of my joys.

Psalms 137:7 Remember, Yahweh, to the Edomites’ cost, the day of Jerusalem, how they said, ‘Down with it! Rase it to the ground!’

Psalms 137:8 Daughter of Babel, doomed to destruction, a blessing on anyone who treats you as you treated us,

Psalms 137:9 a blessing on anyone who seizes your babies and shatters them against a rock!

Psalms 138:1 [Of David] I thank you, Yahweh, with all my heart, for you have listened to the cry I uttered. In the presence of angels I sing to you,

Psalms 138:2 I bow down before your holy Temple. I praise your name for your faithful love and your constancy; your promises surpass even your fame.

Psalms 138:3 You heard me on the day when I called, and you gave new strength to my heart.

Psalms 138:4 All the kings of the earth give thanks to you, Yahweh, when they hear the promises you make;

Psalms 138:5 they sing of Yahweh's ways, 'Great is the glory of Yahweh!'

Psalms 138:6 Sublime as he is, Yahweh looks on the humble, the proud he picks out from afar.

Psalms 138:7 Though I live surrounded by trouble you give me life—to my enemies' fury! You stretch out your right hand and save me,

Psalms 138:8 Yahweh will do all things for me. Yahweh, your faithful love endures for ever, do not abandon what you have made.

Psalms 139:1 [For the choirmaster Of David Psalm] Yahweh, you examine me and know me,

Psalms 139:2 you know when I sit, when I rise, you understand my thoughts from afar.

Psalms 139:3 You watch when I walk or lie down, you know every detail of my conduct.

Psalms 139:4 A word is not yet on my tongue before you, Yahweh, know all about it.

Psalms 139:5 You fence me in, behind and in front, you have laid your hand upon me.

Psalms 139:6 Such amazing knowledge is beyond me, a height to which I cannot attain.

Psalms 139:7 Where shall I go to escape your spirit? Where shall I flee from your presence?

Psalms 139:8 If I scale the heavens you are there, if I lie flat in Sheol, there you are.

Psalms 139:9 If I speed away on the wings of the dawn, if I dwell beyond the ocean,

Psalms 139:10 even there your hand will be guiding me, your right hand holding me fast.

Psalms 139:11 I will say, 'Let the darkness cover me, and the night wrap itself around me,'

Psalms 139:12 even darkness to you is not dark, and night is as clear as the day.

Psalms 139:13 You created my inmost self, knit me together in my mother's womb.

Psalms 139:14 For so many marvels I thank you; a wonder am I, and all your works are wonders. You knew me through and through,

Psalms 139:15 my being held no secrets from you, when I was being formed in secret, textured in the depths of the earth.

Psalms 139:16 Your eyes could see my embryo. In your book all my days were inscribed, every one that was fixed is there.

Psalms 139:17 How hard for me to grasp your thoughts, how many, God, there are!

Psalms 139:18 If I count them, they are more than the grains of sand; if I come to an end, I am still with you.

Psalms 139:19 If only, God, you would kill the wicked!-Men of violence, keep away from me!-

Psalms 139:20 those who speak blasphemously about you, and take no account of your thoughts.

Psalms 139:21 Yahweh, do I not hate those who hate you, and loathe those who defy you?

Psalms 139:22 My hate for them has no limits, I regard them as my own enemies.

Psalms 139:23 God, examine me and know my heart, test me and know my concerns.

Psalms 139:24 Make sure that I am not on my way to ruin, and guide me on the road of eternity.

Psalms 140:1 [For the choirmaster Psalm Of David] Rescue me, Yahweh, from evil men, protect me from violent men,

Psalms 140:2 whose heart is bent on malice, day after day they harbour strife;

Psalms 140:3 their tongues as barbed as a serpent's, viper's venom behind their lips.Pause

Psalms 140:4 Keep me, Yahweh, from the clutches of the wicked, protect me from violent men, who are bent on making me stumble,laying out snares where I walk,

Psalms 140:5 in their arrogance hiding pitfall and nooseto trap me as I pass.Pause

Psalms 140:6 I said to Yahweh, 'You are my God.' Listen, Yahweh, to the sound of my prayer.

Psalms 140:7 Yahweh my Lord, my saving strength, you shield my head when battle comes.

Psalms 140:8 Yahweh, do not grant the wicked their wishes, do not let their plots succeed.Pause Do not let my attackers

Psalms 140:9 prevail, but let them be overwhelmed by their own malice.

Psalms 140:10 May red-hot embers rain down on them, may they be flung into the mire once and for all.

Psalms 140:11 May the slanderer find no rest anywhere, may evil hunt down violent men implacably.

Psalms 140:12 I know that Yahweh will give judgement for the wretched, justice for the needy.

Psalms 140:13 The upright shall praise your name, the honest dwell in your presence.

Psalms 141:1 [Psalm Of David] Yahweh, I am calling, hurry to me, listen to my voice when I call to you.

Psalms 141:2 May my prayer be like incense in your presence, my uplifted hands like the evening sacrifice.

Psalms 141:3 Yahweh, mount a guard over my mouth, a guard at the door of my lips.

Psalms 141:4 Check any impulse to speak evil, to share the foul deeds of evil-doers. I shall not sample their delights!

Psalms 141:5 May the upright correct me with a friend’s rebuke; but the wicked shall never anoint my head with oil, for that would make me party to their crimes.

Psalms 141:6 They are delivered into the power of the rock, their judge, those who took pleasure in hearing me say,

Psalms 141:7 ‘Like a shattered millstone on the ground our bones are scattered at the mouth of Sheol.’

Psalms 141:8 To you, Yahweh, I turn my eyes, in you I take refuge, do not leave me unprotected.

Psalms 141:9 Save me from the traps that are set for me, the snares of evil-doers.

Psalms 141:10 Let the wicked fall each into his own net, while I pass on my way.

Psalms 142:1 [Psalm Of David When he was in the cave Prayer] To Yahweh I cry out with my plea. To Yahweh I cry out with entreaty.

Psalms 142:2 I pour out my worry in his presence, in his presence I unfold my troubles.

Psalms 142:3 However faint my spirit; you are watching over my path. On the road I have to travel they have hidden a trap for me.

Psalms 142:4 Look on my right and see—there is no one who recognises me. All refuge is denied me, no one cares whether I live or die.

Psalms 142:5 I cry out to you, Yahweh, I affirm, 'You are my refuge, my share in the land of the living!'

Psalms 142:6 Listen to my calling, for I am miserably weak. Rescue me from my persecutors, for they are too strong for me.

Psalms 142:7 Lead me out of prison that I may praise your name. The upright gather round me because of your generosity to me.

Psalms 143:1 [Psalm Of David] Yahweh, hear my prayer, listen to my pleading; in your constancy answer me, in your saving justice;

Psalms 143:2 do not put your servant on trial, for no one living can be found guiltless at your tribunal.

Psalms 143:3 An enemy is in deadly pursuit, crushing me into the ground, forcing me to live in darkness, like those long dead.

Psalms 143:4 My spirit is faint, and within me my heart is numb with fear.

Psalms 143:5 I recall the days of old, reflecting on all your deeds, I ponder the works of your hands.

Psalms 143:6 I stretch out my hands to you, my heart like a land thirsty for you.Pause

Psalms 143:7 Answer me quickly, Yahweh, my spirit is worn out; do not turn away your face from me, or I shall be like those who sink into oblivion.

Psalms 143:8 Let dawn bring news of your faithful love, for I place my trust in you; show me the road I must travel for you to relieve my heart.

Psalms 143:9 Rescue me from my enemies, Yahweh, since in you I find protection.

Psalms 143:10 Teach me to do your will, for you are my God. May your generous spirit lead me on even ground.

Psalms 143:11 Yahweh, for the sake of your name, in your saving justice give me life, rescue me from distress.

Psalms 143:12 In your faithful love annihilate my enemies, destroy all those who oppress me, for I am your servant.

Psalms 144:1 [Of David] Blessed be Yahweh, my rock, who trains my hands for war and my fingers for battle,

Psalms 144:2 my faithful love, my bastion, my citadel, my Saviour; I shelter behind him, my shield, he makes the peoples submit to me.

Psalms 144:3 Yahweh, what is a human being for you to notice, a child of Adam for you to think about?

Psalms 144:4 Human life, a mere puff of wind, days as fleeting as a shadow.

Psalms 144:5 Yahweh, part the heavens and come down, touch the mountains, make them smoke.

Psalms 144:6 Scatter them with continuous lightning-flashes, rout them with a volley of your arrows.

Psalms 144:7 Stretch down your hand from above, save me, rescue me from deep waters, from the clutches of foreigners,

Psalms 144:8 whose every word is worthless, whose right hand is raised in perjury.

Psalms 144:9 God, I sing to you a new song, I play to you on the ten-stringed lyre,

Psalms 144:10 for you give kings their victories, you rescue your servant David. From the sword of evil

Psalms 144:11 save me, rescue me from the clutches of foreigners whose every word is worthless, whose right hand testifies to falsehood.

Psalms 144:12 May our sons be like plants growing tall from their earliest days, our daughters like pillars carved fit for a palace,

Psalms 144:13 our barns filled to overflowing with every kind of crop, the sheep in our pastures be numbered in thousands and tens of thousands,

Psalms 144:14 our cattle well fed, free of raids and pillage, free of outcry in our streets.

Psalms 144:15 How blessed the nation of whom this is true, blessed the nation whose God is Yahweh!

Psalms 145:1 [Hymn of Praise Of David] I shall praise you to the heights, God my King, I shall bless your name for ever and ever.

Psalms 145:2 Day after day I shall bless you, I shall praise your name for ever and ever.

Psalms 145:3 Great is Yahweh and worthy of all praise, his greatness beyond all reckoning.

Psalms 145:4 Each age will praise your deeds to the next, proclaiming your mighty works.

Psalms 145:5 Your renown is the splendour of your glory, I will ponder the story of your wonders.

Psalms 145:6 They will speak of your awesome power, and I shall recount your greatness.

Psalms 145:7 They will bring out the memory of your great generosity, and joyfully acclaim your saving justice.

Psalms 145:8 Yahweh is tenderness and pity, slow to anger, full of faithful love.

Psalms 145:9 Yahweh is generous to all, his tenderness embraces all his creatures.

Psalms 145:10 All your creatures shall thank you, Yahweh, and your faithful shall bless you.

Psalms 145:11 They shall speak of the glory of your kingship and tell of your might,

Psalms 145:12 making known your mighty deeds to the children of Adam, the glory and majesty of your kingship.

Psalms 145:13 Your kingship is a kingship for ever, your reign lasts from age to age. Yahweh is trustworthy in all his words, and upright in all his deeds.

Psalms 145:14 Yahweh supports all who stumble, lifts up those who are bowed down.

Psalms 145:15 All look to you in hope and you feed them with the food of the season.

Psalms 145:16 And, with generous hand, you satisfy the desires of every living creature.

Psalms 145:17 Upright in all that he does, Yahweh acts only in faithful love.

Psalms 145:18 He is close to all who call upon him, all who call on him from the heart.

Psalms 145:19 He fulfils the desires of all who fear him, he hears their cry and he saves them.

Psalms 145:20 Yahweh guards all who love him, but all the wicked he destroys.

Psalms 145:21 My mouth shall always praise Yahweh, let every creature bless his holy name for ever and ever.

Psalms 146:1 Alleluia! Praise Yahweh, my soul!

Psalms 146:2 I will praise Yahweh all my life, I will make music to my God as long as I live.

Psalms 146:3 Do not put your trust in princes, in any child of Adam, who has no power to save.

Psalms 146:4 When his spirit goes forth he returns to the earth, on that very day all his plans come to nothing.

Psalms 146:5 How blessed is he who has Jacob’s God to help him, his hope is in Yahweh his God,

Psalms 146:6 who made heaven and earth, the sea and all that is in them. He keeps faith for ever,

Psalms 146:7 gives justice to the oppressed, gives food to the hungry; Yahweh sets prisoners free.

Psalms 146:8 Yahweh gives sight to the blind, lifts up those who are bowed down.

Psalms 146:9 Yahweh protects the stranger, he sustains the orphan and the widow. Yahweh loves the upright,but he frustrates the wicked.

Psalms 146:10 Yahweh reigns for ever, your God, Zion, from age to age.

Psalms 147:1 Alleluia! Praise Yahweh—it is good to sing psalms to our God—how pleasant to praise him.

Psalms 147:2 Yahweh, Builder of Jerusalem! He gathers together the exiles of Israel,

Psalms 147:3 healing the broken-hearted and binding up their wounds;

Psalms 147:4 he counts out the number of the stars, and gives each one of them a name.

Psalms 147:5 Our Lord is great, all-powerful, his wisdom beyond all telling.

Psalms 147:6 Yahweh sustains the poor, and humbles the wicked to the ground.

Psalms 147:7 Sing to Yahweh in thanksgiving, play the harp for our God.

Psalms 147:8 He veils the sky with clouds, and provides the earth with rain, makes grass grow on the hills and plants for people to use,

Psalms 147:9 gives fodder to cattle and to young ravens when they cry.

Psalms 147:10 He takes no delight in the power of horses, no pleasure in human sturdiness;

Psalms 147:11 his pleasure is in those who fear him, in those who hope in his faithful love.

Psalms 147:12 Praise Yahweh, Jerusalem, Zion, praise your God.

Psalms 147:13 For he gives strength to the bars of your gates, he blesses your children within you,

Psalms 147:14 he maintains the peace of your frontiers, gives you your fill of finest wheat.

Psalms 147:15 He sends his word to the earth, his command runs quickly,

Psalms 147:16 he spreads the snow like flax, strews hoarfrost like ashes,

Psalms 147:17 he sends ice-crystals like breadcrumbs, and who can withstand that cold?

Psalms 147:18 When he sends his word it thaws them, when he makes his wind blow, the waters are unstopped.

Psalms 147:19 He reveals his word to Jacob, his statutes and judgements to Israel.

Psalms 147:20 For no other nation has he done this, no other has known his judgements.

Psalms 148:1 Alleluia! Praise Yahweh from the heavens, praise him in the heights.

Psalms 148:2 Praise him, all his angels, praise him, all his host!

Psalms 148:3 Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all shining stars,

Psalms 148:4 praise him, highest heavens, praise him, waters above the heavens.

Psalms 148:5 Let them praise the name of Yahweh at whose command they were made;

Psalms 148:6 he established them for ever and ever by an unchanging decree.

Psalms 148:7 Praise Yahweh from the earth, sea-monsters and all the depths,

Psalms 148:8 fire and hail, snow and mist, storm-winds that obey his word,

Psalms 148:9 mountains and every hill, orchards and every cedar,

Psalms 148:10 wild animals and all cattle, reptiles and winged birds,

Psalms 148:11 kings of the earth and all nations, princes and all judges on earth,

Psalms 148:12 young men and girls, old people and children together.

Psalms 148:13 Let them praise the name of Yahweh, for his name alone is sublime, his splendour transcends earth and heaven.

Psalms 148:14 For he heightens the strength of his people, to the praise of all his faithful, the children of Israel, the people close to him.

Psalms 149:1 Alleluia! Sing a new song to Yahweh: his praise in the assembly of the faithful!

Psalms 149:2 Israel shall rejoice in its Maker, the children of Zion delight in their king;

Psalms 149:3 they shall dance in praise of his name, play to him on tambourines and harp!

Psalms 149:4 For Yahweh loves his people, he will crown the humble with salvation.

Psalms 149:5 The faithful exult in glory, shout for joy as they worship him,

Psalms 149:6 praising God to the heights with their voices, a two-edged sword in their hands,

Psalms 149:7 to wreak vengeance on the nations, punishment on the peoples,

Psalms 149:8 to load their kings with chains and their nobles with iron fetters,

Psalms 149:9 to execute on them the judgement passed—to the honour of all his faithful.

Psalms 150:1 Alleluia! Praise God in his holy place, praise him in the heavenly vault of his power, Psalms 150:2 praise him for his mighty deeds, praise him for all his greatness.

Psalms 150:3 Praise him with fanfare of trumpet, praise him with harp and lyre,

Psalms 150:4 praise him with tambourines and dancing, praise him with strings and pipes,

Psalms 150:5 praise him with the clamour of cymbals, praise him with triumphant cymbals,

Psalms 150:6 Let everything that breathes praise Yahweh. Alleluia!

Proverbs

1:1 The proverbs of Solomon son of David, king of Israel:

Proverbs 1:2 for learning what wisdom and discipline are, for understanding words of deep meaning,

Proverbs 1:3 for acquiring a disciplined insight, uprightness, justice and fair dealing;

Proverbs 1:4 for teaching sound judgement to the simple, and knowledge and reflection to the young;

Proverbs 1:5 Let the wise listen and learn yet more, and a person of discernment will acquire the art of guidance.

Proverbs 1:6 for perceiving the meaning of proverbs and obscure sayings, the sayings of the sages and their riddles.

Proverbs 1:7 The fear of Yahweh is the beginning of knowledge; fools spurn wisdom and discipline.

Proverbs 1:8 Listen, my child, to your father’s instruction, do not reject your mother’s teaching:

Proverbs 1:9 they will be a crown of grace for your head, a circlet for your neck.

Proverbs 1:10 My child, if sinners try to seduce you, do not go with them.

Proverbs 1:11 If they say, ‘Come with us: let us lie in ambush to shed blood; if we plan an ambush for the innocent without provocation,

Proverbs 1:12 we can swallow them alive, like Sheol, and whole, like those who sink into oblivion.

Proverbs 1:13 We shall find treasures of every sort, we shall fill our houses with plunder;

Proverbs 1:14 throw in your lot with us: one purse between us all.'

Proverbs 1:15 My child, do not follow them in their way, keep your steps out of their path

Proverbs 1:16 for their feet hasten to evil, they are quick to shed blood;

Proverbs 1:17 for the net is spread in vain if any winged creature can see it.

Proverbs 1:18 It is for their own blood such people lie in wait, their ambush is against their own selves!

Proverbs 1:19 Such are the paths of all who seek dishonest gain: which robs of their lives all who take it for their own.

Proverbs 1:20 Wisdom calls aloud in the streets, she raises her voice in the public squares;

Proverbs 1:21 she calls out at the street corners, she delivers her message at the city gates.

Proverbs 1:22 'You simple people, how much longer will you cling to your simple ways? How much longer will mockers revel in their mocking and fools go on hating knowledge?

Proverbs 1:23 Pay attention to my warning. To you I will pour out my heart and tell you what I have to say.

Proverbs 1:24 Since I have called and you have refused me, since I have beckoned and no one has taken notice,

Proverbs 1:25 since you have ignored all my advice and rejected all my warnings,

Proverbs 1:26 I, for my part, shall laugh at your distress, I shall jeer when terror befalls you,

Proverbs 1:27 when terror befalls you, like a storm, when your distress arrives, like a whirlwind, when ordeal and anguish bear down on you.

Proverbs 1:28 Then they will call me, but I shall not answer, they will look eagerly for me and will not find me.

Proverbs 1:29 They have hated knowledge, they have not chosen the fear of Yahweh,

Proverbs 1:30 they have taken no notice of my advice, they have spurned all my warnings:

Proverbs 1:31 so they will have to eat the fruits of their own ways of life, and choke themselves with their own scheming.

Proverbs 1:32 For the errors of the simple lead to their death, the complacency of fools works their own ruin;

Proverbs 1:33 but whoever listens to me may live secure, will have quiet, fearing no mischance.’

Proverbs 2:1 My child, if you take my words to heart, if you set store by my commandments,

Proverbs 2:2 tuning your ear to wisdom, tuning your heart to understanding,

Proverbs 2:3 yes, if your plea is for clear perception, if you cry out for understanding,

Proverbs 2:4 if you look for it as though for silver, search for it as though for buried treasure,

Proverbs 2:5 then you will understand what the fear of Yahweh is, and discover the knowledge of God.

Proverbs 2:6 For Yahweh himself is giver of wisdom, from his mouth issue knowledge and understanding.

Proverbs 2:7 He reserves his advice for the honest, a shield to those whose ways are sound;

Proverbs 2:8 he stands guard over the paths of equity, he keeps watch over the way of those faithful to him.

Proverbs 2:9 Then you will understand uprightness, equity and fair dealing, the paths that lead to happiness.

Proverbs 2:10 When wisdom comes into your heart and knowledge fills your soul with delight,

Proverbs 2:11 then prudence will be there to watch over you, and understanding will be your guardian

Proverbs 2:12 to keep you from the way that is evil, from those whose speech is deceitful,

Proverbs 2:13 from those who leave the paths of honesty to walk the roads of darkness:

Proverbs 2:14 those who find their joy in doing wrong, and their delight in deceitfulness,

Proverbs 2:15 whose tracks are twisted, and the paths that they tread crooked.

Proverbs 2:16 To keep you, too, from the woman who belongs to another, from the stranger, with her wheedling words;

Proverbs 2:17 she has left the partner of her younger days, she has forgotten the covenant of her God;

Proverbs 2:18 her house is tilting towards Death, down to the Shades go her paths.

Proverbs 2:19 Of those who go to her not one returns, they never regain the paths of life.

Proverbs 2:20 Thus you will tread the way of good people, persisting in the paths of the upright.

Proverbs 2:21 For the land will be for the honest to live in, the innocent will have it for their home;

Proverbs 2:22 while the wicked will be cut off from the land, and the faithless rooted out of it.

Proverbs 3:1 My child, do not forget my teaching, let your heart keep my principles,

Proverbs 3:2 since they will increase your length of days, your years of life and your well-being.

Proverbs 3:3 Let faithful love and constancy never leave you: tie them round your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart.

Proverbs 3:4 Thus you will find favour and success in the sight of God and of people.

Proverbs 3:5 Trust wholeheartedly in Yahweh, put no faith in your own perception;

Proverbs 3:6 acknowledge him in every course you take, and he will see that your paths are smooth.

Proverbs 3:7 Do not congratulate yourself on your own wisdom, fear Yahweh and turn your back on evil:

Proverbs 3:8 health-giving, this, to your body, relief to your bones.

Proverbs 3:9 Honour Yahweh with what goods you have and with the first-fruits of all your produce;

Proverbs 3:10 then your barns will be filled with corn, your vats overflowing with new wine.

Proverbs 3:11 My child, do not scorn correction from Yahweh, do not resent his reproof;

Proverbs 3:12 for Yahweh reproves those he loves, as a father the child whom he loves.

Proverbs 3:13 Blessed are those who have discovered wisdom, those who have acquired understanding!

Proverbs 3:14 Gaining her is more rewarding than silver, her yield is more valuable than gold.

Proverbs 3:15 She is beyond the price of pearls, nothing you could covet is her equal.

Proverbs 3:16 In her right hand is length of days; in her left hand, riches and honour.

Proverbs 3:17 Her ways are filled with delight, her paths all lead to contentment.

Proverbs 3:18 She is a tree of life for those who hold her fast, those who cling to her live happy lives.

Proverbs 3:19 In wisdom, Yahweh laid the earth's foundations, in understanding he spread out the heavens.

Proverbs 3:20 Through his knowledge the depths were cleft open, and the clouds distil the dew.

Proverbs 3:21 My child, hold to sound advice and prudence, never let them out of sight;

Proverbs 3:22 they will give life to your soul and beauty to your neck.

Proverbs 3:23 You will go on your way in safety, your feet will not stumble.

Proverbs 3:24 When you go to bed, you will not be afraid; once in bed, your sleep will be sweet.

Proverbs 3:25 Have no fear either of sudden terror or of attack mounted by wicked men,

Proverbs 3:26 since Yahweh will be your guarantor, he will keep your steps from the snare.

Proverbs 3:27 Refuse no kindness to those who have a right to it, if it is in your power to perform it.

Proverbs 3:28 Do not say to your neighbour, 'Go away! Come another time! I will give it you tomorrow,' if you can do it now.

Proverbs 3:29 Do not plot harm against your neighbour who is living unsuspecting beside you.

Proverbs 3:30 Do not pick a groundless quarrel with anyone who has done you no harm.

Proverbs 3:31 Do not envy the man of violence, never model your conduct on his;

Proverbs 3:32 for the wilful wrong-doer is abhorrent to Yahweh, who confides only in the honest.

Proverbs 3:33 Yahweh's curse lies on the house of the wicked, but he blesses the home of the upright.

Proverbs 3:34 He mocks those who mock, but accords his favour to the humble.

Proverbs 3:35 Glory is the portion of the wise, all that fools inherit is contempt.

Proverbs 4:1 Listen, my children, to a father's instruction; pay attention, and learn what understanding is.

Proverbs 4:2 What I am offering you is sound doctrine: do not forsake my teaching.

Proverbs 4:3 I too was once a child with a father, in my mother's eyes a tender child, unique.

Proverbs 4:4 This was what he used to teach me, 'Let your heart treasure what I have to say, keep my principles and you will live;

Proverbs 4:5 acquire wisdom, acquire understanding, never forget her, never deviate from my words.

Proverbs 4:6 Do not desert her, she will keep you safe; love her, she will watch over you.

Proverbs 4:7 The first principle of wisdom is: acquire wisdom; at the cost of all you have, acquire understanding!

Proverbs 4:8 Hold her close, and she will make you great; embrace her, and she will be your pride;

Proverbs 4:9 she will provide a graceful garland for your head, bestow a crown of honour on you.’

Proverbs 4:10 Listen, my child, take my words to heart, and the years of your life will be multiplied.

Proverbs 4:11 I have educated you in the ways of wisdom, I have guided you along the path of honesty.

Proverbs 4:12 When you walk, your going will be unhindered, if you run, you will not stumble.

Proverbs 4:13 Hold fast to discipline, never let her go, keep your eyes on her, she is your life.

Proverbs 4:14 Do not follow the path of the wicked, do not walk the way that the evil go.

Proverbs 4:15 Avoid it, do not take it, turn your back on it, pass it by.

Proverbs 4:16 For they cannot sleep unless they have first done wrong, they miss their sleep if they have not made someone stumble;

Proverbs 4:17 for the bread of wickedness is what they eat, and the wine of violence is what they drink.

Proverbs 4:18 The path of the upright is like the light of dawn, its brightness growing to the fullness of day;

Proverbs 4:19 the way of the wicked is as dark as night, they cannot tell the obstacles they stumble over.

Proverbs 4:20 My child, pay attention to what I am telling you, listen carefully to my words;

Proverbs 4:21 do not let them out of your sight, keep them deep in your heart.

Proverbs 4:22 For they are life to those who find them and health to all humanity.

Proverbs 4:23 More than all else, keep watch over your heart, since here are the wellsprings of life.

Proverbs 4:24 Turn your back on the mouth that misleads, keep your distance from lips that deceive.

Proverbs 4:25 Let your eyes be fixed ahead, your gaze be straight before you.

Proverbs 4:26 Let the path you tread be level and all your ways be firm.

Proverbs 4:27 Turn neither to right nor to left, keep your foot clear of evil.

Proverbs 5:1 My son, pay attention to my wisdom, listen carefully to what I know;

Proverbs 5:2 so that you may preserve discretion and your lips may guard knowledge. Take no notice of a loose-living woman,

Proverbs 5:3 for the lips of the adulteress drip with honey, her palate is more unctuous than oil,

Proverbs 5:4 but in the end she is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword.

Proverbs 5:5 Her feet go down to death, Sheol the goal of her steps;

Proverbs 5:6 far from following the path of life, her course is uncertain and she does not know it.

Proverbs 5:7 And now, son, listen to me, never deviate from what I say:

Proverbs 5:8 set your course as far from her as possible, go nowhere near the door of her house,

Proverbs 5:9 or she will hand over your honour to others, the years of your life to a man without pity,

Proverbs 5:10 and strangers will batten on your property, and your produce go to the house of a stranger,

Proverbs 5:11 and, at your ending, your body and flesh having been consumed, you will groan

Proverbs 5:12 and exclaim, ‘Alas, I hated discipline, my heart spurned all correction;

Proverbs 5:13 I would not attend to the voice of my masters, I would not listen to those who tried to teach me.

Proverbs 5:14 Now I have come to nearly every kind of misery, in the assembly and in the community.’

Proverbs 5:15 Drink the water from your own storage-well, fresh water from your own spring.

Proverbs 5:16 Even if your fountains overflow outside, your streams of water in the public squares:

Proverbs 5:17 let them be for you alone, and not for strangers with you.

Proverbs 5:18 May your fountain-head be blessed! Find joy with the wife you married in your youth,

Proverbs 5:19 fair as a hind, graceful as a fawn: hers the breasts that ever fill you with delight, hers the love that ever holds you captive.

Proverbs 5:20 Why be seduced, my son, by someone else’s wife, and fondle the breast of a woman who belongs to another?

Proverbs 5:21 For the eyes of Yahweh observe human ways, and survey all human paths.

Proverbs 5:22 The wicked is snared in his own misdeeds, is caught in the meshes of his own sin.

Proverbs 5:23 For want of discipline, he dies, led astray by his own excessive folly.

Proverbs 6:1 My child, if you have gone surety for your neighbour, if you have guaranteed the bond of a stranger,

Proverbs 6:2 if you have committed yourself with your lips, if through words of yours you have been entrapped,

Proverbs 6:3 do this, my child, to extricate yourself—since you have put yourself in the power of your neighbour: go, humble yourself, plead with your neighbour,

Proverbs 6:4 give your eyes no sleep, your eyelids no rest,

Proverbs 6:5 break free like a gazelle from the trap, like a bird from the fowler’s clutches.

Proverbs 6:6 Idler, go to the ant; ponder her ways and grow wise:

Proverbs 6:7 no one gives her orders, no overseer, no master,

Proverbs 6:8 yet all through the summer she gets her food ready, and gathers her supplies at harvest time.

Proverbs 6:9 How long do you intend to lie there, idler? When are you going to rise from your sleep?

Proverbs 6:10 A little sleep, a little drowsiness, a little folding of the arms to lie back,

Proverbs 6:11 and poverty comes like a vagrant and, like a beggar, dearth.

Proverbs 6:12 A scoundrel, a vicious man, he goes with a leer on his lips,

Proverbs 6:13 winking his eye, shuffling his foot, beckoning with his finger.

Proverbs 6:14 Trickery in his heart, always scheming evil, he sows dissension.

Proverbs 6:15 Disaster will overtake him sharply for this, suddenly, irretrievably, he will be broken.

Proverbs 6:16 There are six things that Yahweh hates, seven that he abhors:

Proverbs 6:17 a haughty look, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood,

Proverbs 6:18 a heart that weaves wicked plots, feet that hurry to do evil,

Proverbs 6:19 a false witness who lies with every breath, and one who sows dissension among brothers.

Proverbs 6:20 Keep your father's precept, my child, do not spurn your mother's teaching.

Proverbs 6:21 Bind them ever to your heart, tie them round your neck.

Proverbs 6:22 While you are active, they will guide you, when you fall asleep, they will watch over you, when you wake up, they will converse with you.

Proverbs 6:23 For the precept is a lamp, the teaching is a light; correction and discipline are the way to life,

Proverbs 6:24 preserving you from the woman of bad character, from the wheedling talk of a woman who belongs to another.

Proverbs 6:25 Do not covet her beauty in your heart or let her captivate you with the play of her eyes;

Proverbs 6:26 a prostitute can be bought for a hunk of bread, but a married woman aims to snare a precious life.

Proverbs 6:27 Can a man carry fire inside his shirt without setting his clothes alight?

Proverbs 6:28 Can you walk on red-hot coals without burning your feet?

Proverbs 6:29 Just so, the man who makes love to his neighbour's wife: no one who touches her will get off unpunished.

Proverbs 6:30 People attach but little blame to a thief who steals only to satisfy his hunger;

Proverbs 6:31 yet even he, if caught, will have to repay sevenfold and hand over all his family resources.

Proverbs 6:32 But the adulterer has no sense; he works his own destruction.

Proverbs 6:33 All he will get is blows and contempt, and dishonour never to be blotted out.

Proverbs 6:34 For jealousy inflames the husband who will show no mercy when the day comes for revenge;

Proverbs 6:35 he will not consider any compensation; lavish what gifts you may, he will not be placated.

Proverbs 7:1 My child, keep my words, and treasure my precepts,

Proverbs 7:2 keep my precepts and you will live, keep my teaching as the apple of your eye.

Proverbs 7:3 Bind these to your fingers, write them on the tablet of your heart.

Proverbs 7:4 Say to Wisdom, 'You are my sister!' Call Understanding your relation,

Proverbs 7:5 to save yourself from the woman that belongs to another, from the stranger, with her seductive words.

Proverbs 7:6 While I was at the window of my house, I was looking out through the lattice

Proverbs 7:7 and I saw, among the callow youths, I noticed among the lads, one boy who had no sense.

Proverbs 7:8 Going along the lane, near the corner where she lives, he reaches the path to her house,

Proverbs 7:9 at twilight when day is declining, at dead of night and in the dark.

Proverbs 7:10 And look, a woman is coming to meet him, dressed like a prostitute, false of heart.

Proverbs 7:11 She is loud and brazen; her feet cannot rest at home.

Proverbs 7:12 Once in the street, once in the square, she lurks at every corner.

Proverbs 7:13 She catches hold of him, she kisses him, the bold-faced creature says to him,

Proverbs 7:14 'I had to offer a communion sacrifice, I have discharged my vows today;

Proverbs 7:15 that is why I came out to meet you, to look for you, and now I have found you.

Proverbs 7:16 I have spread coverlets over my divan, embroidered stuff, Egyptian material,

Proverbs 7:17 I have sprinkled my bed with myrrh, with aloes and cinnamon.

Proverbs 7:18 Come on, we'll make love as much as we like, till morning. Let us enjoy the delights of love!

Proverbs 7:19 For my husband is not at home, he has gone on a very long journey,

Proverbs 7:20 taking his moneybags with him; he will not be back till the moon is full.'

Proverbs 7:21 With her persistent coaxing she overcomes him, lures him on with her wheedling patter.

Proverbs 7:22 Forthwith he follows her, like an ox on its way to the slaughterhouse, like a madman on his way to the stocks,

Proverbs 7:23 until an arrow pierces him to the liver, like the bird that dashes into the net without realising that its life is at stake.

Proverbs 7:24 And now, son, listen to me, pay attention to the words I have to say:

Proverbs 7:25 do not let your heart stray into her ways, or wander into her paths;

Proverbs 7:26 she has done so many to death, and the strongest have all been her victims.

Proverbs 7:27 Her house is the way to Sheol, the descent to the courts of death.

Proverbs 8:1 Is not Wisdom calling? Is not Understanding raising her voice?

Proverbs 8:2 On the heights overlooking the road, at the crossways, she takes her stand;

Proverbs 8:3 by the gates, at the entrance to the city, on the access-roads, she cries out,

Proverbs 8:4 'I am calling to you, all people, my words are addressed to all humanity.

Proverbs 8:5 Simpletons, learn how to behave, fools, come to your senses.

Proverbs 8:6 Listen, I have something important to tell you, when I speak, my words are right.

Proverbs 8:7 My mouth proclaims the truth, for evil is abhorrent to my lips.

Proverbs 8:8 All the words from my mouth are upright, nothing false there, nothing crooked,

Proverbs 8:9 everything plain, if you can understand, straight, if you have acquired knowledge.

Proverbs 8:10 Accept my discipline rather than silver, and knowledge of me in preference to finest gold.

Proverbs 8:11 For Wisdom is more precious than jewels, and nothing else is so worthy of desire.

Proverbs 8:12 'I, Wisdom, share house with Discretion, I am mistress of the art of thought.

Proverbs 8:13 (Fear of Yahweh means hatred of evil.) I hate pride and arrogance, wicked behaviour and a lying mouth.

Proverbs 8:14 To me belong good advice and prudence, I am perception: power is mine!

Proverbs 8:15 By me monarchs rule and princes decree what is right;

Proverbs 8:16 by me rulers govern, so do nobles, the lawful authorities.

Proverbs 8:17 I love those who love me; whoever searches eagerly for me finds me.

Proverbs 8:18 With me are riches and honour, lasting wealth and saving justice.

Proverbs 8:19 The fruit I give is better than gold, even the finest, the return I make is better than pure silver.

Proverbs 8:20 I walk in the way of uprightness in the path of justice,

Proverbs 8:21 to endow my friends with my wealth and to fill their treasuries.

Proverbs 8:22 'Yahweh created me, first-fruits of his fashioning, before the oldest of his works.

Proverbs 8:23 From everlasting, I was firmly set, from the beginning, before the earth came into being.

Proverbs 8:24 The deep was not, when I was born, nor were the springs with their abounding waters.

Proverbs 8:25 Before the mountains were settled, before the hills, I came to birth;

Proverbs 8:26 before he had made the earth, the countryside, and the first elements of the world.

Proverbs 8:27 When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there, when he drew a circle on the surface of the deep,

Proverbs 8:28 when he thickened the clouds above, when the sources of the deep began to swell,

Proverbs 8:29 when he assigned the sea its boundaries—and the waters will not encroach on the shore—when he traced the foundations of the earth,

Proverbs 8:30 I was beside the master craftsman, delighting him day after day, ever at play in his presence,

Proverbs 8:31 at play everywhere on his earth, delighting to be with the children of men.

Proverbs 8:32 'And now, my children, listen to me. Happy are those who keep my ways.

Proverbs 8:33 Listen to instruction and become wise, do not reject it.

Proverbs 8:34 Blessed, whoever listens to me, who day after day keeps watch at my gates to guard my portals.

Proverbs 8:35 For whoever finds me finds life, and obtains the favour of Yahweh;

Proverbs 8:36 but whoever misses me harms himself, all who hate me are in love with death.'

Proverbs 9:1 Wisdom has built herself a house, she has hewn her seven pillars,

Proverbs 9:2 she has slaughtered her beasts, drawn her wine, she has laid her table.

Proverbs 9:3 She has despatched her maidservants and proclaimed from the heights above the city,

Proverbs 9:4 ‘Who is simple? Let him come this way.’ To the fool she says,

Proverbs 9:5 ‘Come and eat my bread, drink the wine which I have drawn!

Proverbs 9:6 Leave foolishness behind and you will live, go forwards in the ways of perception.’

Proverbs 9:7 Reprove a mocker and you attract contempt, rebuke the wicked and you attract dishonour.

Proverbs 9:8 Do not rebuke the mocker, he will hate you. Rebuke the wise and he will love you for it.

Proverbs 9:9 Be open with the wise, he grows wiser still, teach the upright, he will gain yet more.

Proverbs 9:10 The first principle of wisdom is the fear of Yahweh, What God’s holy ones know—this is understanding.

Proverbs 9:11 For by me your days will be multiplied, and your years of life increased.

Proverbs 9:12 Are you wise? You are wise to your own good. A mocker? The burden is yours alone.

Proverbs 9:13 A silly woman acts on impulse, is foolish and knows nothing.

Proverbs 9:14 She sits at the door of her house, on a throne high up in the city,

Proverbs 9:15 calling to the passers-by, who are walking straight past on their way,

Proverbs 9:16 ‘Who is simple? Turn aside, come over here.’ To the fool she says,

Proverbs 9:17 ‘Stolen waters are sweet, and bread tastes better when eaten in secret.’

Proverbs 9:18 But the fool does not know that this is where the Shades are and that her guests are already in the vales of Sheol.

Proverbs 10:1 The proverbs of Solomon. A wise child is a father’s joy, a foolish child a mother’s grief.

Proverbs 10:2 Treasures wickedly come by give no benefit, but uprightness brings delivery from death.

Proverbs 10:3 Yahweh does not let the upright go hungry, but he thwarts the greed of the wicked.

Proverbs 10:4 A slack hand brings poverty, but the hand of the diligent brings wealth.

Proverbs 10:5 Reaping at harvest-time is the mark of the prudent, sleeping at harvest-time is the sign of the worthless.

Proverbs 10:6 Blessings are on the head of the upright, but the mouth of the godless is a cover for violence.

Proverbs 10:7 The upright is remembered with blessings, the name of the wicked rots away.

Proverbs 10:8 The wise of heart takes orders, but a gabbling fool heads for ruin.

Proverbs 10:9 Anyone whose ways are honourable walks secure, but whoever follows crooked ways is soon unmasked.

Proverbs 10:10 A wink of the eye brings trouble, a bold rebuke brings peace.

Proverbs 10:11 The mouth of the upright is a life-giving fountain, but the mouth of the godless is a cover for violence.

Proverbs 10:12 Hatred provokes disputes, but love excuses all offences.

Proverbs 10:13 On the lips of the discerning is found wisdom, on the back of a fool, the stick.

Proverbs 10:14 Wise people store up knowledge, but the mouth of a fool makes ruin imminent.

Proverbs 10:15 The wealth of the rich is their stronghold, poverty is the undoing of the weak.

Proverbs 10:16 The wage of the upright affords life, but sin is all the wicked earns.

Proverbs 10:17 Whoever abides by discipline, walks towards life, whoever ignores correction goes astray.

Proverbs 10:18 Liars’ lips are a cover for hatred, whoever utters slander is a fool.

Proverbs 10:19 A flood of words is never without fault; whoever controls the lips is wise.

Proverbs 10:20 The tongue of the upright is purest silver, the heart of the wicked is of trumpery value.

Proverbs 10:21 The lips of the upright nourish many peoples, but fools die for want of sense.

Proverbs 10:22 The blessing of Yahweh is what brings riches, to this, hard toil has nothing to add.

Proverbs 10:23 A fool takes pleasure in doing wrong, the intelligent in cultivating wisdom.

Proverbs 10:24 What the wicked fears overtakes him, what the upright desires comes to him as a present.

Proverbs 10:25 When the storm is over, the wicked is no more, but the upright stands firm for ever.

Proverbs 10:26 As vinegar to the teeth, smoke to the eyes, so the sluggard to the one who sends him.

Proverbs 10:27 The fear of Yahweh adds length to life, the years of the wicked will be cut short.

Proverbs 10:28 The hope of the upright is joy, the expectations of the wicked come to nothing.

Proverbs 10:29 The way of Yahweh is a rampart for the honest, for evil-doers nothing but ruin.

Proverbs 10:30 The upright will never have to give way, but the land will offer no home for the wicked.

Proverbs 10:31 The mouth of the upright utters wisdom, the tongue that deceives will be cut off.

Proverbs 10:32 The lips of the upright know about kindness, the mouth of the wicked about deceit.

Proverbs 11:1 A false balance is abhorrent to Yahweh, a just weight is pleasing to him.

Proverbs 11:2 Pride comes first; disgrace soon follows; with the humble is wisdom found.

Proverbs 11:3 The honest have their own honesty for guidance, the treacherous are ruined by their own perfidy.

Proverbs 11:4 In the day of retribution riches will be useless, but uprightness delivers from death.

Proverbs 11:5 The uprightness of the good makes their way straight, the wicked fall by their own wickedness.

Proverbs 11:6 Their uprightness sets the honest free, the treacherous are imprisoned by their own desires.

Proverbs 11:7 The hope of the wicked perishes with death, hope placed in riches comes to nothing.

Proverbs 11:8 The upright escapes affliction, the wicked incurs it instead.

Proverbs 11:9 Through his mouth the godless is the ruin of his neighbour, but by knowledge the upright are safeguarded.

Proverbs 11:10 When the upright prosper the city rejoices, when the wicked are ruined there is a shout of joy.

Proverbs 11:11 A city is raised on the blessing of the honest, and demolished by the mouth of the wicked.

Proverbs 11:12 Whoever looks down on a neighbour lacks good sense; the intelligent keeps a check on the tongue.

Proverbs 11:13 A tittle-tattler lets secrets out, the trustworthy keeps things hidden.

Proverbs 11:14 For want of leadership a people perishes, safety lies in many advisers.

Proverbs 11:15 Whoever goes bail for a stranger does himself harm, but one who shuns going surety is safe.

Proverbs 11:16 A gracious woman acquires honour, violent people acquire wealth.

Proverbs 11:17 Faithful love brings its own reward, the inflexible injure their own selves.

Proverbs 11:18 Disappointment crowns the labours of the wicked, whoever sows uprightness reaps a solid reward.

Proverbs 11:19 Whoever establishes uprightness is on the way to life, whoever pursues evil, on the way to death.

Proverbs 11:20 Tortuous hearts are abhorrent to Yahweh, dear to him, those whose ways are blameless.

Proverbs 11:21 Be sure of it, the wicked will not go unpunished, but the race of the upright will come to no harm.

Proverbs 11:22 A golden ring in the snout of a pig is a lovely woman who lacks discretion.

Proverbs 11:23 The hope of the upright is nothing but good, the expectation of the wicked is retribution.

Proverbs 11:24 One scatters money around, yet only adds to his wealth, another is excessively mean, but only grows the poorer.

Proverbs 11:25 The soul who blesses will prosper, whoever satisfies others will also be satisfied.

Proverbs 11:26 The people's curse is on those who hoard the wheat, their blessing on the head of those who sell it.

Proverbs 11:27 Whoever strives for good obtains favour, whoever looks for evil will get an evil return.

Proverbs 11:28 Whoever trusts in riches will have a fall, the upright will flourish like the leaves.

Proverbs 11:29 Whoever misgoverns a house inherits the wind, and the fool becomes slave to the wise.

Proverbs 11:30 The fruit of the upright is a tree of life: the sage captivates souls.

Proverbs 11:31 If here on earth the upright gets due reward, how much more the wicked and the sinner!

Proverbs 12:1 Whoever loves discipline, loves knowledge, stupid are those who hate correction.

Proverbs 12:2 The honest obtains Yahweh's favour, the schemer incurs his condemnation.

Proverbs 12:3 No one is made secure by wickedness, but nothing shakes the roots of the upright.

Proverbs 12:4 A capable wife, her husband's crown, a shameless wife, a cancer in his bones.

Proverbs 12:5 The plans of the upright are honest, the intrigues of the wicked are full of deceit.

Proverbs 12:6 The words of the wicked are snares to shed blood, what the honest say keeps them safe.

Proverbs 12:7 Once thrown down, the wicked are no more, but the house of the upright stands firm.

Proverbs 12:8 Prudence wins praise, but a tortuous heart incurs only contempt.

Proverbs 12:9 Better a common fellow who has a slave than someone who gives himself airs and has nothing to eat.

Proverbs 12:10 The upright has compassion on his animals, but the heart of the wicked is ruthless.

Proverbs 12:11 Whoever works his land shall have bread and to spare, but no one who chases fantasies has any sense.

Proverbs 12:12 The godless delights in the snare of the wicked, but the root of the upright bears fruit.

Proverbs 12:13 In the sin of the lips lies a disastrous trap, but the upright finds a way out of misfortune.

Proverbs 12:14 Abundance of good things is the fruit of the lips; labour brings its own return.

Proverbs 12:15 Fools think the way they go is straight, the wise listens to advice.

Proverbs 12:16 The fool shows anger straightaway, the discreet conceals dislike.

Proverbs 12:17 To tell the truth is to further justice, a false witness is nothing but deceit.

Proverbs 12:18 Thoughtless words can wound like a sword, but the tongue of the wise brings healing.

Proverbs 12:19 Sincere lips endure for ever, the lying tongue lasts only a moment.

Proverbs 12:20 Deceit is in the heart of the schemer, joy with those who give counsels of peace.

Proverbs 12:21 No harm can come to the upright, but the wicked are swamped by misfortunes.

Proverbs 12:22 Lying lips are abhorrent to Yahweh; dear to him those who make truth their way of life.

Proverbs 12:23 The discreet keeps knowledge hidden, the heart of fools proclaims their folly.

Proverbs 12:24 For the diligent hand, authority; for the slack hand, forced labour.

Proverbs 12:25 Worry makes a heart heavy, a kindly word makes it glad.

Proverbs 12:26 The upright shows the way to a friend; the way of the wicked leads them astray.

Proverbs 12:27 The idle has no game to roast; diligence is anyone's most precious possession.

Proverbs 12:28 In the way of uprightness is life, the ways of the vengeful lead to death.

Proverbs 13:1 A wise child listens to a father's discipline, a cynic will not listen to reproof.

Proverbs 13:2 The fruit of the mouth provides a good meal, but the soul of the treacherous feeds on violence.

Proverbs 13:3 A guard on the mouth makes life secure, whoever talks too much is lost.

Proverbs 13:4 The idler hungers but has no food; hard workers get their fill.

Proverbs 13:5 The upright hates a lying word, but the wicked slanders and defames.

Proverbs 13:6 Uprightness stands guard over one whose way is honest, sin causes the ruin of the wicked.

Proverbs 13:7 There are some who, on nothing, pretend to be rich, some, with great wealth, pretend to be poor.

Proverbs 13:8 The ransom for life is a person's wealth; but the poor will not hear the reproof.

Proverbs 13:9 The light of the upright is joyful, the lamp of the wicked goes out.

Proverbs 13:10 Insolence breeds only disputes, wisdom lies with those who take advice.

Proverbs 13:11 A sudden fortune will dwindle away, accumulation little by little is the way to riches.

Proverbs 13:12 Hope deferred makes the heart sick, desire fulfilled is a tree of life.

Proverbs 13:13 Contempt for the word is self-destructive, respect for the commandment wins salvation.

Proverbs 13:14 The teaching of the wise is a life-giving fountain for eluding the snares of death.

Proverbs 13:15 Good sense wins favour, but the way of the treacherous is hard.

Proverbs 13:16 Anyone of discretion acts by the light of knowledge, the fool parades his folly.

Proverbs 13:17 A bad messenger falls into misfortune, a trusty messenger brings healing.

Proverbs 13:18 Whoever rejects discipline wins poverty and scorn; for anyone who accepts correction: honour.

Proverbs 13:19 Desire fulfilled is sweet to the soul; fools are loth to turn—from evil.

Proverbs 13:20 Whoever walks with the wise becomes wise, whoever mixes with fools will be ruined.

Proverbs 13:21 Evil will pursue the sinner, but good will reward the upright.

Proverbs 13:22 The good bequeaths a heritage to children's children, the wealth of the sinner is stored away for the upright.

Proverbs 13:23 Though the farms of the poor yield much food, some perish for lack of justice.

Proverbs 13:24 Whoever fails to use the stick hates his child; whoever is free with correction loves him.

Proverbs 13:25 The upright eats to the full, the belly of the wicked goes empty.

Proverbs 14:1 Wisdom builds herself a house; with her own hands Folly pulls it down.

Proverbs 14:2 Whoever keeps to an honest course fears Yahweh, whoever deserts his paths shows contempt for him.

Proverbs 14:3 Pride sprouts in the mouth of the fool, the lips of the wise keep them safe.

Proverbs 14:4 No oxen, empty manger; strong bull, much cash.

Proverbs 14:5 The truthful witness tells no lies, the false witness lies with every breath.

Proverbs 14:6 In vain the mocker looks for wisdom, knowledge comes easy to the intelligent.

Proverbs 14:7 Keep well clear of the fool, you will not find wise lips there.

Proverbs 14:8 With people of discretion, wisdom keeps a watch over their conduct, but the folly of fools leads them astray.

Proverbs 14:9 Fools mock at the sacrifice for sin, but favour resides among the honest.

Proverbs 14:10 The heart knows its own grief best, nor can a stranger share its joy.

Proverbs 14:11 The house of the wicked will be destroyed, the tent of the honest will prosper.

Proverbs 14:12 There are ways that some think straight, but they lead in the end to death.

Proverbs 14:13 Even in laughter the heart finds sadness, and joy makes way for sorrow.

Proverbs 14:14 The miscreant will reap the reward of his conduct, and the good the reward of his deeds.

Proverbs 14:15 The simpleton believes any message, a person of discretion treads a careful path.

Proverbs 14:16 The wise fears evil and avoids it, the fool is insolent and conceited.

Proverbs 14:17 A quick-tempered person commits rash acts, but a schemer is detestable.

Proverbs 14:18 Simpletons have folly for their portion, people of discretion knowledge for their crown.

Proverbs 14:19 The evil bow down before the good, the wicked, at the gates of the upright.

Proverbs 14:20 The poor is detestable even to a friend, but many are they who love someone rich.

Proverbs 14:21 One who despises the needy is at fault, one who takes pity on the poor is blessed.

Proverbs 14:22 Plan evil—isn't this to go astray? Those who plan for good can earn faithful love and constancy.

Proverbs 14:23 Hard work always yields its profit, idle talk brings only want.

Proverbs 14:24 The crown of the wise is their riches; the folly of fools is folly.

Proverbs 14:25 A truthful witness saves lives, whoever utters lies is a deceiver.

Proverbs 14:26 In the fear of Yahweh is powerful security; for his children he is a refuge.

Proverbs 14:27 The fear of Yahweh is a life-giving spring for eluding the snares of death.

Proverbs 14:28 Large population, monarch's glory; dwindling population, ruler's ruin.

Proverbs 14:29 Mastery of temper is high proof of intelligence, a quick temper makes folly worse than ever.

Proverbs 14:30 The life of the body is a tranquil heart, but envy is a cancer in the bones.

Proverbs 14:31 To oppress the weak insults the Creator, kindness to the needy honours the Creator.

Proverbs 14:32 For evil-doing, the wicked will be flung headlong, but in integrity the upright will find refuge.

Proverbs 14:33 Wisdom resides in an understanding heart; she is not to be found in the hearts of fools.

Proverbs 14:34 Uprightness makes a nation great, by sin whole races are disgraced.

Proverbs 14:35 A king shows favour to a wise minister, but anger to one who shames him.

Proverbs 15:1 A mild answer turns away wrath, sharp words stir up anger.

Proverbs 15:2 The tongue of the wise makes knowledge welcome, the mouth of a fool spews folly.

Proverbs 15:3 The eyes of Yahweh are everywhere: observing the wicked and the good.

Proverbs 15:4 The tongue that soothes is a tree of life; the perverse tongue, a breaker of hearts.

Proverbs 15:5 Only a fool spurns a father's discipline, whoever accepts correction is discreet.

Proverbs 15:6 In the house of the upright there is no lack of treasure, the earnings of the wicked are fraught with anxiety.

Proverbs 15:7 The lips of the wise spread knowledge, not so the hearts of fools.

Proverbs 15:8 The sacrifice of the wicked is abhorrent to Yahweh, dear to him is the prayer of the honest.

Proverbs 15:9 The conduct of the wicked is abhorrent to Yahweh, but he loves the person whose goal is uprightness.

Proverbs 15:10 Correction is severe for one who leaves the way; whoever hates being reprimanded will die.

Proverbs 15:11 Sheol and Perdition lie open to Yahweh; how much more the human heart!

Proverbs 15:12 The mocker does not care to be reprimanded, and will not choose the wise as companions.

Proverbs 15:13 Glad heart means happy face, where the heart is sad the spirit is broken.

Proverbs 15:14 The heart of the wise seeks knowledge, a fool's mouth feeds on folly.

Proverbs 15:15 For the poor every day is evil, for the joyous heart it is always festival time.

Proverbs 15:16 Better to have little and with it fear of Yahweh than immense wealth and with it anxiety.

Proverbs 15:17 Better a dish of herbs when love is there than a fattened ox and hatred to go with it.

Proverbs 15:18 The hot-headed provokes disputes, the equable allays dissension.

Proverbs 15:19 The way of the lazy is like a thorny hedge, the path of the honest is a broad highway.

Proverbs 15:20 A wise child is a father's joy; only a brute despises his mother.

Proverbs 15:21 Folly appeals to someone without sense, a person of understanding goes straight forward.

Proverbs 15:22 Without deliberation plans come to nothing. Plans succeed where counsellors are many.

Proverbs 15:23 Anyone who has a ready answer has joy too: how satisfying is the apt reply!

Proverbs 15:24 For the prudent, the path of life leads upwards thus avoiding Sheol below.

Proverbs 15:25 Yahweh pulls down the house of the proud, but he keeps the widow's boundaries intact.

Proverbs 15:26 Wicked scheming is abhorrent to Yahweh, but words that are kind are pure.

Proverbs 15:30 A kindly glance gives joy to the heart, good news lends strength to the bones.

Proverbs 15:31 The ear attentive to wholesome correction finds itself at home in the company of the wise.

Proverbs 15:32 Whoever rejects correction lacks self-respect, whoever accepts reproof grows in understanding.

Proverbs 15:33 The fear of Yahweh is a school of wisdom, before there can be glory, there must be humility.

Proverbs 16:1 A human heart makes the plans, Yahweh gives the answer.

Proverbs 16:2 A person's own acts seem right to the doer, but Yahweh is the weigher of souls.

Proverbs 16:3 Commend what you do to Yahweh, and what you plan will be achieved.

Proverbs 16:4 Yahweh made everything for its own purpose, yes, even the wicked for the day of disaster.

Proverbs 16:5 Every arrogant heart is abhorrent to Yahweh: be sure this will not go unpunished.

Proverbs 16:6 By faithful love and constancy sin is expiated; by fear of Yahweh evil is avoided.

Proverbs 16:7 Let Yahweh be pleased with someone's way of life and he makes that person's very enemies into friends.

Proverbs 16:8 Better have little and with it uprightness than great revenues with injustice.

Proverbs 16:9 The human heart may plan a course, but it is Yahweh who makes the steps secure.

Proverbs 16:10 The lips of the king utter prophecies, he keeps faith when he speaks in judgement.

Proverbs 16:11 The balances and scales belong to Yahweh, all the weights in the bag are of his making.

Proverbs 16:12 Evil-doing is abhorrent to kings, since uprightness is a throne's foundation.

Proverbs 16:13 Upright lips are welcome to a king, he loves someone of honest words.

Proverbs 16:14 The king's wrath is the herald of death, but the wise will appease it.

Proverbs 16:15 When the king's face brightens it spells life, his favour is like the rain in spring.

Proverbs 16:16 Better gain wisdom than gold, choose understanding in preference to silver.

Proverbs 16:17 To turn from evil is the way of the honest; whoever watches the path keeps life safe.

Proverbs 16:18 Pride goes before destruction, a haughty spirit before a fall.

Proverbs 16:19 Better be humble with the poor than share the booty with the proud.

Proverbs 16:20 Whoever listens closely to the word finds happiness; whoever trusts Yahweh is blessed.

Proverbs 16:21 The wise of heart is acclaimed as intelligent, sweetness of speech increases knowledge.

Proverbs 16:22 Shrewdness is a fountain of life for its possessor, the folly of fools is their own punishment.

Proverbs 16:23 The heart of the wise lends shrewdness to speech and makes words more persuasive.

Proverbs 16:24 Kindly words are a honeycomb, sweet to the taste, wholesome to the body.

Proverbs 16:25 There is a way that some think straight, but it leads in the end to death.

Proverbs 16:26 A worker's appetite works on his behalf, for his hunger urges him on.

Proverbs 16:27 A worthless person concocts evil, such a one's talk is like a scorching fire.

Proverbs 16:28 A troublemaker sows strife, a slanderer divides friend from friend.

Proverbs 16:29 The violent lures his neighbour astray and leads him by a way that is not good.

Proverbs 16:30 Whoever narrows the eyes to think up tricks and purses the lips has already done wrong.

Proverbs 16:31 White hairs are a crown of honour, they are found in the ways of uprightness.

Proverbs 16:32 Better an equable person than a hero, someone with self-mastery than one who takes a city.

Proverbs 16:33 In the fold of the garment the lot is thrown, but from Yahweh comes the decision.

Proverbs 17:1 Better a mouthful of dry bread with peace than a house filled with quarrelsome sacrifices.

Proverbs 17:2 A shrewd servant comes off better than an unworthy child, he will share the inheritance with the brothers.

Proverbs 17:3 A furnace for silver, a foundry for gold, but Yahweh for the testing of hearts!

Proverbs 17:4 An evil-doer pays heed to malicious talk, a liar listens to a slanderous tongue.

Proverbs 17:5 To mock the poor is to insult the Creator, no one who laughs at distress will go unpunished.

Proverbs 17:6 The crown of the aged is their children's children; the children's glory is their father.

Proverbs 17:7 Fine words do not become the foolish, false words become a prince still less.

Proverbs 17:8 A gift works like a talisman for one who holds it: it brings prosperity at every turn.

Proverbs 17:9 Whoever covers an offence promotes love, whoever again raises the matter divides friends.

Proverbs 17:10 A reproof makes more impression on a person of understanding than a hundred strokes on a fool.

Proverbs 17:11 The wicked person thinks of nothing but rebellion, but a cruel messenger will be sent to such a one.

Proverbs 17:12 Rather come on a bear robbed of her cubs than on a fool in his folly.

Proverbs 17:13 Disaster will never be far from the house of one who returns evil for good.

Proverbs 17:14 As well unleash a flood as start a dispute; desist before the quarrel breaks out.

Proverbs 17:15 To absolve the guilty and condemn the upright, both alike are abhorrent to Yahweh.

Proverbs 17:16 What good is money in the hand of a fool? To buy wisdom with it? The desire is not there.

Proverbs 17:17 A friend is a friend at all times, it is for adversity that a brother is born.

Proverbs 17:18 Whoever offers guarantees lacks sense and goes surety for a neighbour.

Proverbs 17:19 The double-dealer loves sin, the proud courts ruin.

Proverbs 17:20 The tortuous of heart finds no happiness, the perverse of speech falls into misery.

Proverbs 17:21 He who fathers a stupid child does so to his sorrow, the father of a fool knows no joy.

Proverbs 17:22 A glad heart is excellent medicine, a depressed spirit wastes the bones away.

Proverbs 17:23 Under cover of his cloak a bad man takes a gift to pervert the course of justice.

Proverbs 17:24 The intelligent has wisdom there before him, but the eyes of a fool range to the ends of the earth.

Proverbs 17:25 A foolish child is a father's sorrow, and the grief of her who gave the child birth.

Proverbs 17:26 To fine the upright is indeed a crime, to strike the noble is an injustice.

Proverbs 17:27 Whoever can control the tongue knows what knowledge is, someone of understanding keeps a cool temper.

Proverbs 17:28 If the fool holds his tongue, he may pass for wise; if he seals his lips, he may pass for intelligent.

Proverbs 18:1 Whoever lives alone follows private whims, and is angered by advice of any kind.

Proverbs 18:2 A fool takes no pleasure in understanding but only in airing an opinion.

Proverbs 18:3 When wickedness comes, indignity comes too, and, with contempt, dishonour.

Proverbs 18:4 Deep waters, such are human words: a gushing stream, the utterance of wisdom.

Proverbs 18:5 It is not good to show partiality for the wicked and so to deprive the upright when giving judgement.

Proverbs 18:6 The lips of a fool go to the law-courts with a mouth that pleads for a beating.

Proverbs 18:7 The mouth of the fool works its owner's ruin, the lips of a fool are a snare for their owner's life.

Proverbs 18:8 The words of a slanderer are tasty morsels that go right down into the belly.

Proverbs 18:9 Whoever is idle at work is blood-brother to the destroyer.

Proverbs 18:10 The name of Yahweh is a strong tower; the upright runs to it and is secure.

Proverbs 18:11 The wealth of the rich forms a stronghold, a high wall, as the rich supposes.

Proverbs 18:12 The human heart is haughty until destruction comes, before there can be glory there must be humility.

Proverbs 18:13 To retort without first listening is both foolish and embarrassing.

Proverbs 18:14 Sickness the human spirit can endure, but when the spirit is broken, who can bear this?

Proverbs 18:18 The lot puts an end to disputes and decides between men of power.

Proverbs 18:19 A brother offended is worse than a fortified city, and quarrels are like the locks of a keep.

Proverbs 18:20 From the fruit of the mouth is a stomach filled, it is the yield of the lips that gives contentment.

Proverbs 18:21 Death and life are in the gift of the tongue, those who indulge it must eat the fruit it yields.

Proverbs 18:22 He who finds a wife finds happiness, receiving a mark of favour from Yahweh.

Proverbs 18:23 The language of the poor is entreaty, the answer of the rich harshness.

Proverbs 18:24 There are friends who point the way to ruin, others are closer than a brother.

Proverbs 19:1 Better the poor living an honest life than the adept at double-talk who is a fool.

Proverbs 19:2 Where knowledge is wanting, zeal is not good; whoever goes too quickly stumbles.

Proverbs 19:3 Folly leads conduct astray, yet it is against Yahweh that the heart rages.

Proverbs 19:4 Wealth multiplies friends, but the one friend the poor has is taken away.

Proverbs 19:5 The false witness will not go unpunished, no one who utters lies will go free.

Proverbs 19:6 The nobleman has many to court his favour, to a giver of gifts, everyone is friend.

Proverbs 19:7 The poor man's brothers hate him, every one; his friends—how much the more do these desert him! He goes in search of words, but there are none to be had.

Proverbs 19:8 Whoever acquires sense wins profit from it, whoever treasures understanding finds happiness.

Proverbs 19:9 The false witness will not go unpunished, whoever utters lies will be destroyed.

Proverbs 19:10 It is not fitting for a fool to live in luxury, still less for a slave to govern princes.

Proverbs 19:11 Good sense makes for self-control, and for pride in overlooking an offence.

Proverbs 19:12 Like the roaring of a lion, the anger of a king, but like dew on the grass his favour.

Proverbs 19:13 A foolish child is a disaster for the father, the bickerings of a wife are like an ever-dripping gutter.

Proverbs 19:14 From fathers comes inheritance of house and wealth, from Yahweh a wife who is discreet.

Proverbs 19:15 Idleness lulls to sleep, the feckless soul will go hungry.

Proverbs 19:16 Keeping the commandment is self-preservation, but whoever despises these ways will die.

Proverbs 19:17 Whoever is kind to the poor is lending to Yahweh who will repay him the kindness done.

Proverbs 19:18 While there is hope for him, chastise your child, but do not get so angry as to kill him.

Proverbs 19:19 The violent lays himself open to a penalty; spare him, and you aggravate his crime.

Proverbs 19:20 Listen to advice, accept correction, to be the wiser in the time to come.

Proverbs 19:21 Many are the plans in the human heart, but the purpose of Yahweh—that stands firm.

Proverbs 19:22 Faithful love is what people look for in a person; they prefer the poor to a liar.

Proverbs 19:23 The fear of Yahweh leads to life, it brings food and shelter, without fear of evil.

Proverbs 19:24 Into the dish the idler dips his hand, but bring it back to his mouth he cannot.

Proverbs 19:25 Strike a cynic, and simpletons will be more wary; reprove the intelligent and he will understand your meaning.

Proverbs 19:26 He who ill-treats his father and drives out his mother is a child both worthless and depraved.

Proverbs 19:27 Give up listening to instruction, my child, if you mean to stray from words of knowledge.

Proverbs 19:28 A perjured witness holds the law in scorn; the mouth of the wicked feasts on evil-doing.

Proverbs 19:29 Punishments were made for mockers, and beating for the backs of fools.

Proverbs 20:1 Wine is reckless, liquor rowdy; unwise is anyone whom it seduces.

Proverbs 20:2 Like the roaring of a lion is the fury of a king; whoever provokes him sins against himself.

Proverbs 20:3 It is praiseworthy to stop short of a law-suit; only a fool flies into a rage.

Proverbs 20:4 In autumn the idler does not plough, at harvest time he looks—nothing there!

Proverbs 20:5 The resources of the human heart are like deep waters: an understanding person has only to draw on them.

Proverbs 20:6 Many describe themselves as people of faithful love, but who can find someone really to be trusted?

Proverbs 20:7 The upright whose ways are blameless—blessed the children who come after!

Proverbs 20:8 A king enthroned on the judgement seat with one look scatters all that is evil.

Proverbs 20:9 Who can say, ‘I have cleansed my heart, I am purified of my sin’?

Proverbs 20:10 One weight here, another there; here one measure, there another: both alike are abhorrent to Yahweh.

Proverbs 20:11 A young man’s character appears in what he does, if his behaviour is pure and straight.

Proverbs 20:12 Ear that hears, eye that sees, Yahweh has made both of these.

Proverbs 20:13 Do not love sleep or you will know poverty; keep your eyes open and have your fill of food.

Proverbs 20:14 ‘No good, no good!’ says the buyer, but he goes off congratulating himself.

Proverbs 20:15 There are gold and jewels of every type, but a priceless ornament is speech informed by knowledge.

Proverbs 20:16 Take the man’s clothes! He has gone surety for a stranger. Take a pledge from him to the profit of persons unknown!

Proverbs 20:17 Bread is sweet when it is got by fraud, but later the mouth is full of grit.

Proverbs 20:18 Plans are matured by consultation; take wise advice when waging war.

Proverbs 20:19 The bearer of gossip lets out secrets; do not mingle with chatterers.

Proverbs 22:9 A kindly eye will earn a blessing, such a person shares out food with the poor.

Proverbs 22:10 Expel the mocker and strife goes too, law-suits and dislike die down.

Proverbs 22:11 Whoever loves the pure of heart and is gracious of speech has the king for a friend.

Proverbs 22:12 Yahweh’s eyes protect knowledge, but he confounds deceitful speeches.

Proverbs 22:13 ‘There is a lion outside,’ says the idler, ‘I shall be killed in the street!’

Proverbs 22:14 The mouth of an adulterous woman is a deep pit, into it falls the man whom Yahweh rebukes.

Proverbs 22:15 Folly is anchored in the heart of a youth, the whip of instruction will rid him of it.

Proverbs 22:16 Harsh treatment enriches the poor, but a gift impoverishes the rich.

Proverbs 22:17 Give ear, listen to the sayings of the sages, and apply your heart to what I know,

Proverbs 22:18 for it will be a delight to keep them deep within you to have them all ready on your lips.

Proverbs 22:19 So that your trust may be in Yahweh, it is you whom I wish to instruct today.

Proverbs 22:20 Have I not written for you thirty chapters of advice and knowledge,

Proverbs 22:21 to make you know the certainty of true sayings, so that you can return with sound answers to those who sent you?

Proverbs 22:22 Do not despoil the weak, for he is weak, and do not oppress the poor at the gate,

Proverbs 22:23 for Yahweh takes up their cause, and extorts the life of their extortioners.

Proverbs 22:24 Do not make friends with one who gives way to anger, make no one quick-tempered a companion of yours,

Proverbs 22:25 for fear you learn such behaviour and in it find a snare for yourself.

Proverbs 22:26 Do not be one of those who go guarantor, who go surety for debts:

Proverbs 22:27 if you have no means of paying your bed will be taken from under you.

Proverbs 22:28 Do not displace the ancient boundary-stone set by your ancestors.

Proverbs 22:29 You see someone alert at his business? His aim will be to serve kings; not for him the service of the obscure.

Proverbs 23:1 If you take your seat at a great man’s table, take careful note of what you have before you;

Proverbs 23:2 if you have a big appetite put a knife to your throat.

Proverbs 23:3 Do not hanker for his delicacies, for they are deceptive food.

Proverbs 23:4 Do not wear yourself out in quest of wealth, stop applying your mind to this.

Proverbs 23:5 Fix your gaze on it, and it is there no longer, for it is able to sprout wings like an eagle that flies off to the sky.

Proverbs 23:6 Do not eat the food of anyone whose eye is jealous, do not hanker for his delicacies.

Proverbs 23:7 For what he is really thinking about is himself: ‘Eat and drink,’ he tells you, but his heart is not with you.

Proverbs 23:8 You will spit out whatever you have eaten and find your compliments wasted.

Proverbs 23:9 Do not waste words on a fool, who will not appreciate the shrewdness of your remarks.

Proverbs 23:10 Do not displace the ancient boundary-stone, or encroach on orphans' lands,

Proverbs 23:11 for they have a powerful avenger, and he will take up their cause against you.

Proverbs 23:12 Apply your heart to discipline, and your ears to instructive sayings.

Proverbs 23:13 Do not be chary of correcting a child, a stroke of the cane is not likely to be fatal.

Proverbs 23:14 Give him a stroke of the cane, you will save his soul from Sheol.

Proverbs 23:15 My child, if your heart is wise, then my own heart is glad,

Proverbs 23:16 and my inmost self rejoices when from your lips come honest words.

Proverbs 23:17 Do not let your heart be envious of sinners but remain steady every day in the fear of Yahweh;

Proverbs 23:18 for there is a future, and your hope will not come to nothing.

Proverbs 23:19 Listen, my child, and be wise, and guide your heart in the way.

Proverbs 23:20 Do not be one of those forever tippling wine nor one of those who gorge themselves with meat;

Proverbs 23:21 for the drunkard and glutton impoverish themselves, and sleepiness is clothed in rags.

Proverbs 23:22 Listen to your father from whom you are sprung, do not despise your mother in her old age.

Proverbs 23:23 Purchase truth—never sell it-wisdom, discipline, and discernment.

Proverbs 23:24 The father of the upright will rejoice indeed, he who fathers a wise child will have joy of it.

Proverbs 23:25 Your father and mother will be happy, and she who bore you joyful.

Proverbs 23:26 My child, pay attention to me, let your eyes take pleasure in my way:

Proverbs 23:27 a prostitute is a deep pit, a narrow well, the woman who belongs to another.

Proverbs 23:28 Yes, like a brigand, she lies in wait, increasing the number of law-breakers.

Proverbs 23:29 For whom is pity, for whom contempt, for whom is strife, for whom complaint, for whom blows struck at random, for whom the clouded eye?

Proverbs 23:30 For those who linger over wine too long, ever on the look-out for the blended liquors.

Proverbs 23:31 Do not gaze at wine, how red it is, how it sparkles in the cup! How smoothly it slips down the throat!

Proverbs 23:32 In the end its bite is like a serpent's, its sting as sharp as an adder's.

Proverbs 23:33 Your eyes will see peculiar things, you will talk nonsense from your heart.

Proverbs 23:34 You will be like someone sleeping in mid-ocean, like one asleep at the mast-head.

Proverbs 23:35 'Struck me, have they? But I'm not hurt. Beaten me? I don't feel anything. When shall I wake up? . . I'll ask for more of it!'

Proverbs 24:1 Do not be envious of the wicked or wish for their company,

Proverbs 24:2 for their hearts are scheming violence, their lips talking mischief.

Proverbs 24:3 By wisdom a house is built, by understanding it is made strong;

Proverbs 24:4 by knowledge its storerooms are filled with riches of every kind, rare and desirable.

Proverbs 24:5 The wise is mighty in power, strength is reinforced by science;

Proverbs 24:6 for it is by strategy that you wage war, and victory depends on having many counsellors.

Proverbs 24:7 For a fool wisdom is an inaccessible fortress: at the city gate he does not open his mouth.

Proverbs 24:8 Anyone intent on evil-doing is known as a master in cunning.

Proverbs 24:9 Folly dreams of nothing but sin, the mocker is abhorrent.

Proverbs 24:10 If you lose heart when things go wrong, your strength is not worth much.

Proverbs 24:11 Save those being dragged towards death, but can you rescue those on their way to execution?

Proverbs 24:12 If you say, 'But look, we did not know,' will the Weigher of the heart pay no attention? Will not the Guardian of your soul be aware and repay you as your deeds deserve?

Proverbs 24:13 Eat honey, my child, since it is good; honey that drips from the comb is sweet to the taste:

Proverbs 24:14 and so, for sure, will wisdom be to your soul: find it and you will have a future and your hope will not be cut short.

Proverbs 24:15 Do not lurk, wicked man, round the upright man's dwelling, do not despoil his house.

Proverbs 24:16 For though the upright falls seven times, he gets up again; the wicked are the ones who stumble in adversity.

Proverbs 24:17 Should your enemy fall, do not rejoice, when he stumbles do not let your heart exult:

Proverbs 24:18 for fear that Yahweh will be displeased at the sight and turn his anger away from him.

Proverbs 24:19 Do not be indignant about the wicked, do not be envious of the evil,

Proverbs 24:20 for there is no future for the evil, the lamp of the wicked will go out.

Proverbs 24:21 Fear Yahweh, my child, and fear the king; do not ally yourself with innovators;

Proverbs 24:22 for suddenly disaster will loom for them, and who knows what ruin will seize them and their friends?

Proverbs 24:23 The following are also taken from the sages: To show partiality in judgement is not good.

Proverbs 24:24 Whoever tells the wicked, 'You are upright,' peoples curse him, nations revile him;

Proverbs 24:25 but those who correct him, come out of it well, on them will come a happy blessing.

Proverbs 24:26 Whoever returns an honest answer, plants a kiss on the lips.

Proverbs 24:27 Plan what you want on the open ground, make your preparation in the field; then go and build your house.

Proverbs 24:28 Do not bear witness lightly against your neighbour, nor deceive with your lips.

Proverbs 24:29 Do not say, 'I will treat my neighbour as my neighbour treated me; I will repay everyone what each has earned.'

Proverbs 24:30 By the idler's field I was passing, by the vineyard of a man who had no sense,

Proverbs 24:31 there it all lay, deep in thorns, entirely overgrown with weeds, and its stone wall broken down.

Proverbs 24:32 And as I gazed I pondered, I drew this lesson from the sight,

Proverbs 24:33 'A little sleep, a little drowsiness, a little folding of the arms to lie back

Proverbs 24:34 and poverty comes like a vagrant, and, like a beggar, dearth.’

Proverbs 25:1 Here are some more of Solomon’s proverbs, transcribed at the court of Hezekiah king of Judah:

Proverbs 25:2 To conceal a matter, this is the glory of God, to sift it thoroughly, the glory of kings.

Proverbs 25:3 The heavens for height and the earth for depth, unfathomable, as are the hearts of kings.

Proverbs 25:4 From silver remove the dross and it emerges wholly purified;

Proverbs 25:5 from the king’s presence remove the wicked and on uprightness his throne is founded.

Proverbs 25:6 In the presence of the king do not give yourself airs, do not take a place among the great;

Proverbs 25:7 better to be invited, ‘Come up here’, than be humiliated in the presence of the prince.

Proverbs 25:8 What your eyes have witnessed do not produce too quickly at the trial, for what are you to do at the end should your neighbour confute you?

Proverbs 25:9 Have the quarrel out with your neighbour. but do not disclose another’s secret,

Proverbs 25:10 for fear your listener put you to shame, and the loss of repute be irremediable.

Proverbs 25:11 Like apples of gold inlaid with silver is a word that is aptly spoken.

Proverbs 25:12 A golden ring, an ornament of finest gold, is a wise rebuke to an attentive ear.

Proverbs 25:13 The coolness of snow in harvest time, such is a trustworthy messenger to those who send him: he revives the soul of his master.

Proverbs 25:14 Clouds and wind, but no rain: such is anyone whose promises are princely but never kept.

Proverbs 25:15 With patience a judge may be cajoled: a soft tongue breaks bones.

Proverbs 25:16 Eat to your satisfaction what honey you may find, but not to excess or you will bring it up again.

Proverbs 25:17 Do not set foot too often in your neighbour’s house, for fear the neighbour tire of you and come to hate you.

Proverbs 25:18 A mace, a sword, a piercing arrow, such is anyone who bears false witness against a companion.

Proverbs 25:19 Decaying tooth, lame foot, such is the fickle when trusted in time of trouble:

Proverbs 25:20 as well take off your coat in bitter weather. You are pouring vinegar on a wound when you sing songs to a sorrowing heart.

Proverbs 25:21 If your enemy is hungry, give him something to eat; if thirsty, something to drink.

Proverbs 25:22 By this you will be heaping red-hot coals on his head, and Yahweh will reward you.

Proverbs 25:23 The north wind begets the rain, and a backbiting tongue, black looks.

Proverbs 25:24 Better the corner of a roof to live on than a house shared with a quarrelsome woman.

Proverbs 25:25 Cold water to a thirsty throat; such is good news from a distant land.

Proverbs 25:26 A churned—up spring, a fountain fouled; such is the upright person trembling before the wicked.

Proverbs 25:27 It is not good to eat too much honey, nor to seek for glory on top of glory.

Proverbs 25:28 An open town, and without defences: such is anyone who lacks self-control.

Proverbs 26:1 Snow no more befits the summer, nor rain the harvest-time, than honours befit a fool.

Proverbs 26:2 As the sparrow escapes, and the swallow flies away, so the undeserved curse will never hit its mark.

Proverbs 26:3 A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, and for the backs of fools, a stick.

Proverbs 26:4 Do not answer a fool in the terms of his folly for fear you grow like him yourself.

Proverbs 26:5 Answer a fool in the terms of his folly for fear he imagine himself wise.

Proverbs 26:6 He wounds himself, he takes violence for his drink, who sends a message by a fool.

Proverbs 26:7 Unreliable as the legs of the lame, so is a proverb in the mouth of fools.

Proverbs 26:8 As well tie the stone to the sling as pay honour to a fool.

Proverbs 26:9 A thorn branch in a drunkard’s hand, such is a proverb in the mouth of fools.

Proverbs 26:10 An archer wounding everyone, such is he who hires the passing fool and drunkard.

Proverbs 26:11 As a dog returns to its vomit, so a fool reverts to his folly.

Proverbs 26:12 You see someone who thinks himself wise? More to be hoped for from a fool than from him!

Proverbs 26:13 ‘A wild beast on the road!’ says the idler, ‘a lion in the streets!’

Proverbs 26:14 The door turns on its hinges, the idler on his bed.

Proverbs 26:15 Into the dish the idler dips his hand, but is too tired to bring it back to his mouth.

Proverbs 26:16 The idler thinks himself wiser than seven people who answer with discretion.

Proverbs 26:17 He takes a stray dog by the ears, who meddles in someone else’s quarrel.

Proverbs 26:18 Like a madman hurling firebrands, arrows and death,

Proverbs 26:19 so is anyone who lies to a companion and then says, ‘Aren’t I amusing?’

Proverbs 26:20 No wood, and the fire goes out; no slanderer, and quarrelling dies down.

Proverbs 26:21 Charcoal for live embers, wood for fire, and the quarrelsome for kindling strife.

Proverbs 26:22 The words of a slanderer are tasty morsels that go right down into the belly.

Proverbs 26:23 Base silver-plate on top of clay: such are fervent lips and a wicked heart.

Proverbs 26:24 Whoever hates may hide it in speech, but deep within lies treachery;

Proverbs 26:25 do not trust such a person’s pretty speeches, since in the heart lurk seven abominations.

Proverbs 26:26 Hatred may disguise itself with guile, to reveal its wickedness later in the assembly.

Proverbs 26:27 Whoever digs a pit falls into it, the stone comes back on him that rolls it.

Proverbs 26:28 The lying tongue hates its victims, the wheedling mouth causes ruin.

Proverbs 27:1 Do not congratulate yourself about tomorrow, since you do not know what today will bring forth.

Proverbs 27:2 Let someone else sing your praises, but not your own mouth, a stranger, but not your own lips.

Proverbs 27:3 Heavy is the stone, weighty is the sand; heavier than both—a grudge borne by a fool.

Proverbs 27:4 Cruel is wrath, overwhelming is anger; but jealousy, who can withstand that?

Proverbs 27:5 Better open reproof than feigned love.

Proverbs 27:6 Trustworthy are blows from a friend, deceitful are kisses from a foe.

Proverbs 27:7 The gorged throat revolts at honey, the hungry throat finds all bitterness sweet.

Proverbs 27:8 Like a bird that strays from its nest, so is anyone who strays away from home.

Proverbs 27:9 Oil and perfume gladden the heart, and the sweetness of friendship rather than self-reliance.

Proverbs 27:10 Do not give up your friend or your father's friend; when trouble comes, do not go off to your brother's house, better a near neighbour than a distant brother.

Proverbs 27:11 Learn to be wise, my child, and gladden my heart, that I may have an answer for anyone who insults me.

Proverbs 27:12 The discreet sees danger and takes shelter, simpletons go ahead and pay the penalty.

Proverbs 27:13 Take the man's clothes! He has gone surety for a stranger. Take a pledge from him, for persons unknown.

Proverbs 27:14 Whoever at dawn loudly blesses his neighbour—it will be reckoned to him as a curse.

Proverbs 27:15 The dripping of a gutter on a rainy day and a quarrelsome woman are alike;

Proverbs 27:16 whoever can restrain her, can restrain the wind, and take a firm hold on grease.

Proverbs 27:17 Iron is sharpened by iron, one person is sharpened by contact with another.

Proverbs 27:18 Whoever tends the fig tree eats its figs, whoever looks after his master will be honoured.

Proverbs 27:19 As water reflects face back to face, so one human heart reflects another.

Proverbs 27:20 Sheol and Perdition are never satisfied, insatiable, too, are human eyes.

Proverbs 27:21 A furnace for silver, a foundry for gold: a person is worth what his reputation is worth.

Proverbs 27:22 Pound a fool in a mortar, among grain with a pestle, his folly will not leave him.

Proverbs 27:23 Know your flocks' condition well, take good care of your herds;

Proverbs 27:24 for riches do not last for ever, crowns do not hand themselves on from age to age.

Proverbs 27:25 The grass once gone, the aftergrowth appearing, the hay gathered in from the mountains,

Proverbs 27:26 you should have lambs to clothe you, goats to buy you a field,

Proverbs 27:27 goat’s milk sufficient to feed you, to feed your household and provide for your serving girls.

Proverbs 28:1 The wicked flees when no one is pursuing, the upright is bold as a lion.

Proverbs 28:2 A country in revolt throws up many leaders: with one person wise and experienced, you have stability.

Proverbs 28:3 The wicked oppresses the weak: here is a devastating rain—and farewell, bread!

Proverbs 28:4 Those who forsake the law sing the praises of the wicked, those who observe the law are angered by them.

Proverbs 28:5 The wicked do not know what justice means, those who seek Yahweh understand everything.

Proverbs 28:6 Better someone poor living an honest life than someone of devious ways however rich.

Proverbs 28:7 An intelligent child is one who keeps the Law; an associate of profligates brings shame on his father.

Proverbs 28:8 Whoever increases wealth by usury and interest amasses it for someone else who will bestow it on the poor.

Proverbs 28:9 Whoever refuses to listen to the Law, such a one’s very prayer is an abomination.

Proverbs 28:10 Whoever seduces the honest to evil ways will fall into his own pit. The blameless are the heirs to happiness.

Proverbs 28:11 The rich may think himself wise, but the intelligent poor will unmask him.

Proverbs 28:12 When the upright triumph, there is great exultation: when the wicked are in the ascendant, people take cover.

Proverbs 28:13 No one who conceals his sins will prosper, whoever confesses and renounces them will find mercy.

Proverbs 28:14 Blessed the person who is never without fear, whoever hardens his heart will fall into distress.

Proverbs 28:15 Like a roaring lion or a springing bear is a wicked ruler of a powerless people.

Proverbs 28:16 An unenlightened ruler is rich in rapacity, one who hates greed will lengthen his days.

Proverbs 28:17 A man guilty of murder will flee till he reaches his tomb: let no one halt him!

Proverbs 28:18 Whoever lives an honest life will be safe, whoever wavers between two ways falls down in one of them.

Proverbs 28:19 Whoever works his land shall have bread and to spare, but no one who chases fantasies has any sense.

Proverbs 28:20 A trustworthy person will be overwhelmed with blessings, but no one who tries to get rich quickly will go unpunished.

Proverbs 28:21 It is not good to show partiality, but people will do wrong for a mouthful of bread.

Proverbs 28:22 The person of greedy eye chases after wealth, not knowing that want will be the result.

Proverbs 28:23 Anyone who reproves another will enjoy more favour in the end than the flatterer.

Proverbs 28:24 Whoever robs father and mother saying, 'Nothing wrong in that!' is comrade for a brigand.

Proverbs 28:25 The covetous provokes disputes, whoever trusts in Yahweh will prosper.

Proverbs 28:26 Whoever trusts his own wit is a fool, anyone whose ways are wise will be safe.

Proverbs 28:27 No one who gives to the poor will ever go short, but whoever closes his eyes will have curses in plenty.

Proverbs 28:28 When the wicked are in the ascendant, people take cover, but when they perish, the upright multiply.

Proverbs 29:1 Whoever is stiff-necked under reproof will be suddenly and irremediably broken.

Proverbs 29:2 When the upright are on the increase, the people rejoice; when the wicked are in power, the people groan.

Proverbs 29:3 The lover of Wisdom makes his father glad, but the patron of prostitutes fritters his wealth away.

Proverbs 29:4 A king gives a country stability by justice, an extortioner brings it to ruin.

Proverbs 29:5 Whoever flatters his companion spreads a net for his feet.

Proverbs 29:6 In the sin of the wicked lies a snare, but the upright exults and rejoices.

Proverbs 29:7 The upright understands the cause of the weak, the wicked has not the wit to understand it.

Proverbs 29:8 Scoffers set a city in ferment, but the wise moderate anger.

Proverbs 29:9 Let someone wise argue with a fool, anger and good humour alike will be wasted.

Proverbs 29:10 The bloodthirsty hate the honest, but the upright seek them out.

Proverbs 29:11 The fool blurts out every angry feeling, but the wise subdues and restrains them.

Proverbs 29:12 When a ruler listens to false reports, all his ministers will be scoundrels.

Proverbs 29:13 Poor and oppressor are found together, Yahweh gives light to the eyes of both.

Proverbs 29:14 The king who judges the weak with equity sees his throne set firm for ever.

Proverbs 29:15 The stick and the reprimand bestow wisdom, a young man left to himself brings shame on his mother.

Proverbs 29:16 When the wicked are on the increase, sin multiplies, but the upright will witness their downfall.

Proverbs 29:17 Correct your child, and he will give you peace of mind; he will delight your soul.

Proverbs 29:18 Where there is no vision the people get out of hand; happy are they who keep the law.

Proverbs 29:19 Not by words is a slave corrected: even if he understands, he will take no notice.

Proverbs 29:20 You see someone too ready of speech? There is more to be hoped for from a fool!

Proverbs 29:21 If a slave is pampered from childhood, he will prove ungrateful in the end.

Proverbs 29:22 The hot-head provokes disputes, someone in a rage commits all sorts of sins.

Proverbs 29:23 Pride brings humiliation, whoever humbles himself will win honour.

Proverbs 29:24 To hear the curse and disclose nothing is to share with the thief and to hate oneself.

Proverbs 29:25 To be afraid of human beings is a snare, whoever trusts in Yahweh is secure.

Proverbs 29:26 Many people seek a ruler's favour, but the rights of each come from Yahweh.

Proverbs 29:27 Abhorrent to the upright is the sinful, abhorrent to the wicked is one whose way is straight.

Proverbs 30:1 The sayings of Agur son of Jakeh, of Massa. Prophecy of this man for Ithiel, for Ithiel and for Ucal.

Proverbs 30:2 I am myself the stupidest of people, bereft of human intelligence,

Proverbs 30:3 I have not learnt wisdom, and I lack the knowledge of the holy ones.

Proverbs 30:4 Who has mounted to the heavens, then come down again? Who has gathered the wind in the clasp of his hand? Who has wrapped the waters in his cloak? Who has set all the ends of the earth firm? What is his name? What is his child's name? Do you know?

Proverbs 30:5 Every word of God is unalloyed, a shield to those who take refuge in him.

Proverbs 30:6 To his words make no addition, lest he reprove you and account you a liar.

Proverbs 30:7 Two things I beg of you, do not grudge me them before I die:

Proverbs 30:8 keep falsehood and lies far from me, give me neither poverty nor riches, grant me only my share of food,

Proverbs 30:9 for fear that, surrounded by plenty, I should fall away and say, 'Yahweh-who is Yahweh?' or else, in destitution, take to stealing and profane the name of my God.

Proverbs 30:10 Do not blacken a slave's name to his master, lest he curse you, and you suffer for it.

Proverbs 30:11 There is a breed of person that curses his father and does not bless his mother;

Proverbs 30:12 a breed that, laying claim to purity, has not yet been cleansed of its filth;

Proverbs 30:13 a breed haughty of eye, with disdain in every glance;

Proverbs 30:14 a breed with swords for teeth, with knives for jaws, devouring the oppressed from the earth and the needy from the land.

Proverbs 30:15 The leech has two daughters: 'Give! Give!' There are three insatiable things, four, indeed, that never say, 'Enough!'

Proverbs 30:16 Sheol, the barren womb, earth which can never have its fill of water, fire which never says, 'Enough!'

Proverbs 30:17 The eye which looks jeeringly on a father, and scorns the obedience due to a mother, will be pecked out by the ravens of the valley, and eaten by the vultures.

Proverbs 30:18 There are three things beyond my comprehension, four, indeed, that I do not understand:

Proverbs 30:19 the way of an eagle through the skies, the way of a snake over the rock, the way of a ship in mid-ocean, the way of a man with a girl.

Proverbs 30:20 This is how an adulteress behaves: she eats, then wipes her mouth and says, 'I have done nothing wrong!'

Proverbs 30:21 There are three things at which the earth trembles, four, indeed, which it cannot endure:

Proverbs 30:22 a slave become king, a brute gorged with food,

Proverbs 30:23 a hateful woman wed at last, a servant girl inheriting from her mistress.

Proverbs 30:24 There are four creatures little on the earth, though they are wisest of the wise:

Proverbs 30:25 ants, a race with no strength, yet in the summer they make sure of their food;

Proverbs 30:26 the coneys, a race without defences, yet they make their home in the rocks;

Proverbs 30:27 locusts, which have no king, yet they all march in good order;

Proverbs 30:28 lizards, which you can catch in your hand, yet they frequent the palaces of kings.

Proverbs 30:29 There are three things of stately tread, four, indeed, of stately walk:

Proverbs 30:30 the lion, bravest of beasts, he will draw back from nothing;

Proverbs 30:31 a vigorous cock, a he-goat, and the king when he harangues his people.

Proverbs 30:32 If you have been foolish enough to fly into a passion and now have second thoughts, lay your hand on your lips.

Proverbs 30:33 For by churning the milk you produce butter, by wringing the nose you produce blood, and by whipping up anger you produce strife.

Proverbs 31:1 The sayings of Lemuel king of Massa, taught him by his mother:

Proverbs 31:2 What, my son! What, son of my womb! What, son of my vows!

Proverbs 31:3 Do not expend your energy on women nor your wealth on those who ruin kings.

Proverbs 31:4 Not for kings, O Lemuel, not for kings the drinking of wine, not for princes the love of liquor,

Proverbs 31:5 for fear that in liquor they forget what they have decreed and pervert the course of justice against all the poor.

Proverbs 31:6 Procure strong drink for someone about to die, wine for him whose heart is heavy:

Proverbs 31:7 let him drink and forget his misfortune, and remember his misery no more.

Proverbs 31:8 Make your views heard, on behalf of the dumb, on behalf of all the unwanted;

Proverbs 31:9 make your views heard, pronounce an upright verdict, defend the cause of the poor and the wretched.

Proverbs 31:10 The truly capable woman—who can find her? She is far beyond the price of pearls.

Proverbs 31:11 Her husband's heart has confidence in her, from her he will derive no little profit.

Proverbs 31:12 Advantage and not hurt she brings him all the days of her life.

Proverbs 31:13 She selects wool and flax, she does her work with eager hands.

Proverbs 31:14 She is like those merchant vessels, bringing her food from far away.

Proverbs 31:15 She gets up while it is still dark giving her household their food, giving orders to her serving girls.

Proverbs 31:16 She sets her mind on a field, then she buys it; with what her hands have earned she plants a vineyard.

Proverbs 31:17 She puts her back into her work and shows how strong her arms can be.

Proverbs 31:18 She knows that her affairs are going well; her lamp does not go out at night.

Proverbs 31:19 She sets her hands to the distaff, her fingers grasp the spindle.

Proverbs 31:20 She holds out her hands to the poor, she opens her arms to the needy.

Proverbs 31:21 Snow may come, she has no fears for her household, with all her servants warmly clothed.

Proverbs 31:22 She makes her own quilts, she is dressed in fine linen and purple.

Proverbs 31:23 Her husband is respected at the city gates, taking his seat among the elders of the land.

Proverbs 31:24 She weaves materials and sells them, she supplies the merchant with sashes.

Proverbs 31:25 She is clothed in strength and dignity, she can laugh at the day to come.

Proverbs 31:26 When she opens her mouth, she does so wisely; on her tongue is kindly instruction.

Proverbs 31:27 She keeps good watch on the conduct of her household, no bread of idleness for her.

Proverbs 31:28 Her children stand up and proclaim her blessed, her husband, too, sings her praises:

Proverbs 31:29 'Many women have done admirable things, but you surpass them all!'

Proverbs 31:30 Charm is deceitful, and beauty empty; the woman who fears Yahweh is the one to praise.

Proverbs 31:31 Give her a share in what her hands have worked for, and let her works tell her praises at the city gates.

Ecclesiastes

1:1 Composition of Qoheleth son of David, king in Jerusalem.

Ecclesiastes 1:2 Sheer futility, Qoheleth says. Sheer futility: everything is futile!

Ecclesiastes 1:3 What profit can we show for all our toil, toiling under the sun?

Ecclesiastes 1:4 A generation goes, a generation comes, yet the earth stands firm for ever.

Ecclesiastes 1:5 The sun rises, the sun sets; then to its place it speeds and there it rises.

Ecclesiastes 1:6 Southward goes the wind, then turns to the north; it turns and turns again; then back to its circling goes the wind.

Ecclesiastes 1:7 Into the sea go all the rivers, and yet the sea is never filled, and still to their goal the rivers go.

Ecclesiastes 1:8 All things are wearisome. No one can say that eyes have not had enough of seeing, ears their fill of hearing.

Ecclesiastes 1:9 What was, will be again, what has been done, will be done again, and there is nothing new under the sun!

Ecclesiastes 1:10 Take anything which people acclaim as being new: it existed in the centuries preceding us.

Ecclesiastes 1:11 No memory remains of the past, and so it will be for the centuries to come—they will not be remembered by their successors.

Ecclesiastes 1:12 I, Qoheleth, have reigned over Israel in Jerusalem.

Ecclesiastes 1:13 Wisely I have applied myself to investigation and exploration of everything that happens under heaven. What a wearisome task God has given humanity to keep us busy!

Ecclesiastes 1:14 I have seen everything that is done under the sun: how futile it all is, mere chasing after the wind!

Ecclesiastes 1:15 What is twisted cannot be straightened, what is not there cannot be counted.

Ecclesiastes 1:16 I thought to myself: I have acquired a greater stock of wisdom than anyone before me in Jerusalem. I myself have mastered every kind of wisdom and science.

Ecclesiastes 1:17 I have applied myself to understanding philosophy and science, stupidity and folly, and I now realise that all this too is chasing after the wind.

Ecclesiastes 1:18 Much wisdom, much grief; the more knowledge, the more sorrow.

Ecclesiastes 2:1 I thought to myself, 'Very well, I will try pleasure and see what enjoyment has to offer.' And this was futile too.

Ecclesiastes 2:2 This laughter, I reflected, is a madness, this pleasure no use at all.

Ecclesiastes 2:3 I decided to hand my body over to drinking wine, my mind still guiding me in wisdom; I resolved to embrace folly, to discover the best way for people to spend their days under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 2:4 I worked on a grand scale: built myself palaces, planted vineyards;

Ecclesiastes 2:5 made myself gardens and orchards, planting every kind of fruit tree in them;

Ecclesiastes 2:6 had pools made for watering the young trees of my plantations.

Ecclesiastes 2:7 I bought slaves, male and female, had home-born slaves as well; herds and flocks I had too, more than anyone in Jerusalem before me.

Ecclesiastes 2:8 I amassed silver and gold, the treasures of kings and provinces; acquired singers, men and women, and every human luxury, chest upon chest of it.

Ecclesiastes 2:9 So I grew great, greater than anyone in Jerusalem before me; nor did my wisdom leave me.

Ecclesiastes 2:10 I denied my eyes nothing that they desired, refused my heart no pleasure, for I found all my hard work a pleasure, such was the return for all my efforts.

Ecclesiastes 2:11 I then reflected on all that my hands had achieved and all the effort I had put into its achieving. What futility it all was, what chasing after the wind! There is nothing to be gained under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 2:12 My reflections then turned to wisdom, stupidity and folly. For instance, what can the successor of a king do? What has been done already.

Ecclesiastes 2:13 More is to be gained from wisdom than from folly, just as one gains more from light than from darkness; this, of course, I see:

Ecclesiastes 2:14 The wise have their eyes open, the fool walks in the dark. No doubt! But I know, too, that one fate awaits them both.

Ecclesiastes 2:15 'Since the fool's fate', I thought to myself, 'will be my fate too, what is the point of my having been wise?' I realised that this too is futile.

Ecclesiastes 2:16 For there is no lasting memory for the wise or the fool, and in the days to come both will be forgotten; the wise, no less than the fool, must die.

Ecclesiastes 2:17 Life I have come to hate, for what is done under the sun disgusts me, since all is futility and chasing after the wind.

Ecclesiastes 2:18 All I have toiled for under the sun and now bequeath to my successor I have come to hate;

Ecclesiastes 2:19 who knows whether he will be wise or a fool? Yet he will be master of all the work into which I have put my efforts and wisdom under the sun. That is futile too.

Ecclesiastes 2:20 I have come to despair of all the efforts I have expended under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 2:21 For here is one who has laboured wisely, skilfully and successfully and must leave what is his own to someone who has not toiled for it at all. This is futile too, and grossly unjust;

Ecclesiastes 2:22 for what does he gain for all the toil and strain that he has undergone under the sun-

Ecclesiastes 2:23 since his days are full of sorrow, his work is full of stress and even at night he has no peace of mind? This is futile too.

Ecclesiastes 2:24 There is no happiness except in eating and drinking, and in enjoying one’s achievements; and I see that this too comes from God’s hand;

Ecclesiastes 2:25 for who would get anything to eat or drink, unless all this came from him?

Ecclesiastes 2:26 Wisdom, knowledge and joy, God gives to those who please him, but on the sinner he lays the task of gathering and storing up for someone else who is pleasing to him. This too is futility and chasing after the wind.

Ecclesiastes 3:1 There is a season for everything, a time for every occupation under heaven:

Ecclesiastes 3:2 A time for giving birth, a time for dying; a time for planting, a time for uprooting what has been planted.

Ecclesiastes 3:3 A time for killing, a time for healing; a time for knocking down, a time for building.

Ecclesiastes 3:4 A time for tears, a time for laughter; a time for mourning, a time for dancing.

Ecclesiastes 3:5 A time for throwing stones away, a time for gathering them; a time for embracing, a time to refrain from embracing.

Ecclesiastes 3:6 A time for searching, a time for losing; a time for keeping, a time for discarding.

Ecclesiastes 3:7 A time for tearing, a time for sewing; a time for keeping silent, a time for speaking.

Ecclesiastes 3:8 A time for loving, a time for hating; a time for war, a time for peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:9 What do people gain from the efforts they make?

Ecclesiastes 3:10 I contemplate the task that God gives humanity to labour at.

Ecclesiastes 3:11 All that he does is apt for its time; but although he has given us an awareness of the passage of time, we can grasp neither the beginning nor the end of what God does.

Ecclesiastes 3:12 I know there is no happiness for a human being except in pleasure and enjoyment through life.

Ecclesiastes 3:13 And when we eat and drink and find happiness in all our achievements, this is a gift from God.

Ecclesiastes 3:14 I know that whatever God does will be for ever. To this there is nothing to add, from this there is nothing to subtract, and the way God acts inspires dread.

Ecclesiastes 3:15 What is, has been already, what will be, is already; God seeks out anyone who is persecuted.

Ecclesiastes 3:16 Again I observe under the sun: crime is where justice should be, the criminal is where the upright should be.

Ecclesiastes 3:17 And I think to myself: the upright and the criminal will both be judged by God, since there is a time for every thing and every action here.

Ecclesiastes 3:18 I think to myself: where human beings are concerned, this is so that God can test them and show them that they are animals.

Ecclesiastes 3:19 For the fate of human and the fate of animal is the same: as the one dies, so the other dies; both have the selfsame breath. Human is in no way better off than animal—since all is futile.

Ecclesiastes 3:20 Everything goes to the same place, everything comes from the dust, everything returns to the dust.

Ecclesiastes 3:21 Who knows if the human spirit mounts upward or if the animal spirit goes downward to the earth?

Ecclesiastes 3:22 I see there is no contentment for a human being except happiness in achievement; such is the lot of a human beings. No one can tell us what will happen after we are gone.

Ecclesiastes 4:1 Then again, I contemplate all the oppression that is committed under the sun. Take for instance the tears of the oppressed. No one to comfort them! The power their oppressors wield. No one to comfort them!

Ecclesiastes 4:2 So, rather than the living who still have lives to live, I congratulate the dead who have already met death;

Ecclesiastes 4:3 happier than both of these are those who are yet unborn and have not seen the evil things that are done under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 4:4 I see that all effort and all achievement spring from mutual jealousy. This too is futility and chasing after the wind.

Ecclesiastes 4:5 The fool folds his arms and eats his own flesh away.

Ecclesiastes 4:6 Better one hand full of repose than two hands full of achievements to chase after the wind.

Ecclesiastes 4:7 And something else futile I observe under the sun:

Ecclesiastes 4:8 a person is quite alone—no child, no brother; and yet there is no end to his efforts, his eyes can never have their fill of riches. For whom, then, do I work so hard and grudge myself pleasure? This too is futile, a sorry business.

Ecclesiastes 4:9 Better two than one alone, since thus their work is really rewarding.

Ecclesiastes 4:10 If one should fall, the other helps him up; but what of the person with no one to help him up when he falls?

Ecclesiastes 4:11 Again: if two sleep together they keep warm, but how can anyone keep warm alone?

Ecclesiastes 4:12 Where one alone would be overcome, two will put up resistance; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

Ecclesiastes 4:13 Better a youngster poor and wise than a monarch old and silly who will no longer take advice-

Ecclesiastes 4:14 even though stepping from prison to the throne, even though born a beggar in that kingdom.

Ecclesiastes 4:15 I observe that all who live and move under the sun support the young newcomer who takes over.

Ecclesiastes 4:16 He takes his place at the head of innumerable subjects; but his successors will not think the more kindly of him for that. This too is futile and chasing after the wind.

Ecclesiastes 4:17 Watch your step when you go to the House of God: drawing near to listen is better than the offering of a sacrifice by fools, though they do not know that they are doing wrong.

Ecclesiastes 5:1 Be in no hurry to speak; do not hastily declare yourself before God; for God is in heaven, you on earth. Be sparing, then, of speech:

Ecclesiastes 5:2 From too much worrying comes illusion, from too much talking, the accents of folly.

Ecclesiastes 5:3 If you make a vow to God, discharge it without delay, for God has no love for fools. Discharge your vow.

Ecclesiastes 5:4 Better a vow unmade than made and not discharged.

Ecclesiastes 5:5 Do not allow your mouth to make a sinner of you, and do not say to the messenger that it was a mistake. Why give God occasion to be angry with you and ruin all the work that you have done?

Ecclesiastes 5:6 From too many illusions come futility and too much talk. Therefore, fear God.

Ecclesiastes 5:7 If in a province you see the poor oppressed, fair judgement and justice violated, do not be surprised, for over every official there watches a higher official, and over these, higher officials still.

Ecclesiastes 5:8 But what the land yields is for the benefit of all, a king is served by the fields.

Ecclesiastes 5:9 No one who loves money ever has enough, no one who loves luxury has any income; this, too, is futile.

Ecclesiastes 5:10 Where goods abound, parasites abound: where is the owner's profit, apart from feasting his eyes?

Ecclesiastes 5:11 The labourer's sleep is sweet, whether he has eaten little or much, but the surfeit of the rich will not let him sleep at all.

Ecclesiastes 5:12 Something grossly unjust I observe under the sun: riches stored and turning to loss for their owner.

Ecclesiastes 5:13 An unlucky venture, and those riches are lost; a son is born to him, and he has nothing to leave him.

Ecclesiastes 5:14 Naked from his mother's womb he came; as naked as he came will he depart; not one of his achievements can he take with him.

Ecclesiastes 5:15 And something else grossly unjust: that as he came, so must he go; what profit can he show after toiling to earn the wind,

Ecclesiastes 5:16 as he spends the rest of his days in darkness, mourning, many sorrows, sickness and exasperation.

Ecclesiastes 5:17 So my conclusion is this: true happiness lies in eating and drinking and enjoying whatever has been achieved under the sun, throughout the life given by God: for this is the lot of humanity.

Ecclesiastes 5:18 And whenever God gives someone riches and property, with the ability to enjoy them and to find contentment in work, this is a gift from God.

Ecclesiastes 5:19 For such a person will hardly notice the passing of time, so long as God keeps his heart occupied with joy.

Ecclesiastes 6:1 I see another evil under the sun, which goes hard with people:

Ecclesiastes 6:2 suppose someone has received from God riches, property, honours—nothing at all left to wish for; but God does not give the chance to enjoy them, and some stranger enjoys them. This is futile, and grievous suffering too.

Ecclesiastes 6:3 Or take someone who has had a hundred children and lived for many years, and, having reached old age, has never enjoyed the good things of life and has not even got a tomb; it seems to me, a still-born child is happier.

Ecclesiastes 6:4 In futility it came, into darkness it departs, and in darkness will its name be buried.

Ecclesiastes 6:5 It has never so much as seen or known the sun; all the same, it will rest more easily than that person,

Ecclesiastes 6:6 who would never have known the good things of life, even by living a thousand years twice over. Do we not all go to the same place in the end?

Ecclesiastes 6:7 All toil is for the mouth, yet the appetite is never satisfied.

Ecclesiastes 6:8 What advantage has the wise over the fool? And what of the pauper who knows how to behave in society?

Ecclesiastes 6:9 Better the object seen than the sting of desire: for the latter too is futile and chasing after the wind.

Ecclesiastes 6:10 What has been is already defined—we know what people are: They cannot bring to justice one who is stronger than themselves.

Ecclesiastes 6:11 The more we say, the more futile it is: what good can we derive from it?

Ecclesiastes 6:12 And who knows what is best for someone during life, during the days of futile life which are spent like a shadow? Who can tell anyone what will happen after him under the sun?

Ecclesiastes 7:1 Better a good name than costly oil, the day of death than the day of birth.

Ecclesiastes 7:2 Better go to the house of mourning than to the house of feasting; for to this end everyone comes, let the living take this to heart.

Ecclesiastes 7:3 Better sadness than laughter: a joyful heart may be concealed behind sad looks.

Ecclesiastes 7:4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning, the heart of fools in the house of gaiety.

Ecclesiastes 7:5 Better attend to the reprimand of the wise than listen to a song sung by a fool.

Ecclesiastes 7:6 For like the crackling of thorns under the cauldron is the laughter of fools: and that too is futile.

Ecclesiastes 7:7 But being oppressed drives a sage mad, and a present corrupts the heart.

Ecclesiastes 7:8 Better the end of a matter than its beginning, better patience than ambition.

Ecclesiastes 7:9 Do not be too easily exasperated, for exasperation dwells in the heart of fools.

Ecclesiastes 7:10 Do not ask why the past was better than the present, for this is not a question prompted by wisdom.

Ecclesiastes 7:11 Wisdom is as good as a legacy, profitable to those who enjoy the light of the sun.

Ecclesiastes 7:12 For as money protects, so does wisdom, and the advantage of knowledge is this: that wisdom bestows life on those who possess her.

Ecclesiastes 7:13 Consider God's creation: who, for instance, can straighten what God has bent?

Ecclesiastes 7:14 When things are going well, enjoy yourself, and when they are going badly, consider this: God has designed the one no less than the other so that we should take nothing for granted.

Ecclesiastes 7:15 In my futile life, I have seen everything: the upright person perishing in uprightness and the wicked person surviving in wickedness.

Ecclesiastes 7:16 Do not be upright to excess and do not make yourself unduly wise: why should you destroy yourself?

Ecclesiastes 7:17 Do not be wicked to excess, and do not be a fool: why die before your time?

Ecclesiastes 7:18 It is wise to hold on to one and not let go of the other, since the godfearing will find both.

Ecclesiastes 7:19 Wisdom makes the wise stronger than a dozen governors in a city.

Ecclesiastes 7:20 No one on earth is sufficiently upright to do good without ever sinning.

Ecclesiastes 7:21 Again, do not listen to all that people say, then you will not hear your servant abusing you.

Ecclesiastes 7:22 For often, as you very well know, you have abused others.

Ecclesiastes 7:23 Thanks to wisdom, I have found all this to be true; I resolved to be wise, but this was beyond my reach!

Ecclesiastes 7:24 The past is out of reach, buried deep—who can discover it?

Ecclesiastes 7:25 But I have reached the point where, having learnt, explored and investigated wisdom and reflection, I recognise evil as being a form of madness, and folly as something stupid.

Ecclesiastes 7:26 And I find woman more bitter than Death, she is a snare, her heart is a net, and her arms are chains. The man who is pleasing to God eludes her, but the sinner is captured by her.

Ecclesiastes 7:27 This is what I think, says Qoheleth, having examined one thing after another to draw some conclusion,

Ecclesiastes 7:28 which I am still looking for, although unsuccessfully: one man in a thousand, I may find, but a woman better than other women-never.

Ecclesiastes 7:29 This alone is my conclusion: God has created man straightforward, and human artifices are human inventions.

Ecclesiastes 8:1 Who compares with the sage? Who else knows how to explain things? Wisdom lights up the face, enlivening a grim expression.

Ecclesiastes 8:2 Obey the king's command and, because of the divine promise,

Ecclesiastes 8:3 be in no hurry to depart from it; do not be obstinate in a bad cause, since the king will do as he likes in any case.

Ecclesiastes 8:4 Since the word of a king is sovereign, what is the point of saying, 'Why do that?'

Ecclesiastes 8:5 One who obeys the command will come to no harm; the heart of the sage knows the right moment and verdict,

Ecclesiastes 8:6 for there is a right moment and verdict for everything; but misfortune lies heavy upon anyone

Ecclesiastes 8:7 who does not know what the outcome will be, no one is going to say how things will turn out.

Ecclesiastes 8:8 No one can control the wind and stop it from blowing, no one can control the day of death. From war there is no escape, no more can wickedness save the person who commits it.

Ecclesiastes 8:9 I have seen all this to be so, having carefully studied everything taking place under the sun, while one person tyrannises over another to the former's detriment.

Ecclesiastes 8:10 And again, I have observed the wicked carried to their graves, and people leaving the holy place and, once out in the city, forgetting how the wicked used to behave; how futile this is too!

Ecclesiastes 8:11 Because the sentence on the evil-doer is not carried out on the instant, people's hearts are full of desire to do wrong.

Ecclesiastes 8:12 The sinner who does wrong a hundred times lives on. But this too I know, that there is good in store for people who fear God, because they fear him,

Ecclesiastes 8:13 but there is no good in store for the wicked because he does not fear God, and so, like a shadow, he will not prolong his days.

Ecclesiastes 8:14 Another futile thing that happens on earth: upright people being treated as though they were wicked and wicked people being treated as though they were upright. To me this is one more example of futility.

Ecclesiastes 8:15 And therefore I praise joy, since human happiness lies only in eating and drinking and in taking pleasure; this comes from what someone achieves during the days of life that God gives under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 8:16 Having applied myself to acquiring wisdom and to observing the activity taking place in the world—for day and night our eyes enjoy no rest-

Ecclesiastes 8:17 I have scrutinised God's whole creation: you cannot get to the bottom of everything taking place under the sun; you may wear yourself out in the search, but you will never find it. Not even a sage can get to the bottom of it, even if he says that he has done so.

Ecclesiastes 9:1 Yes, I have applied myself to all this and experienced all this to be so: that is to say, that the upright and the wise, with their activities, are in the hands of God. We do not understand either love or hate, where we are concerned, both of them are Ecclesiastes 9:2 futile. And for all of us is reserved a common fate, for the upright and for the wicked, for the good and for the bad; whether we are ritually pure or not, whether we offer sacrifice or not: it is the same for the good and for the sinner, for someone who takes a vow, as for someone who fears to do so.

Ecclesiastes 9:3 This is another evil among those occurring under the sun: that there should be the same fate for everyone. The human heart, however, is full of wickedness; folly lurks in our hearts throughout our lives, until we end among the dead.

Ecclesiastes 9:4 But there is hope for someone still linked to the rest of the living: better be a live dog than a dead lion.

Ecclesiastes 9:5 The living are at least aware that they are going to die, but the dead know nothing whatever. No more wages for them, since their memory is forgotten.

Ecclesiastes 9:6 Their love, their hate, their jealousy, have perished long since, and they will never have any further part in what goes on under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 9:7 So, eat your bread in joy, drink your wine with a glad heart, since God has already approved your actions.

Ecclesiastes 9:8 At all times, dress in white and keep your head well scented.

Ecclesiastes 9:9 Spend your life with the woman you love, all the days of futile life God gives you under the sun, throughout your futile days, since this is your lot in life and in the effort you expend under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 9:10 Whatever work you find to do, do it with all your might, for there is neither achievement, nor planning, nor science, nor wisdom in Sheol where you are going.

Ecclesiastes 9:11 Another thing I have observed under the sun: that the race is not won by the speediest, nor the battle by the champions; it is not the wise who get food, nor the intelligent wealth, nor the learned favour: chance and mischance befall them all.

Ecclesiastes 9:12 We do not know when our time will come: like fish caught in the treacherous net, like birds caught in the snare, just so are we all trapped by misfortune when it suddenly overtakes us.

Ecclesiastes 9:13 Here is another example of the wisdom I have acquired under the sun and it strikes me as important:

Ecclesiastes 9:14 There was once a small town, with only a few inhabitants; a mighty king made war on it, laying siege to it and building great siege-works round it.

Ecclesiastes 9:15 But there was in that town a poverty-stricken sage who by his wisdom saved the town. No one remembered this poor man afterwards.

Ecclesiastes 9:16 So I say: Wisdom is more effective than brute force, but the wisdom of a poor man is not valued: no one listens to what he has to say.

Ecclesiastes 9:17 The calm words of the wise make themselves heard above the shouts of someone commanding an army of fools.

Ecclesiastes 9:18 Wisdom is worth more than weapons of war, but a single sin undoes a deal of good.

Ecclesiastes 10:1 One dead fly can spoil the scent-maker’s oil: a grain of stupidity outweighs wisdom and glory.

Ecclesiastes 10:2 The sage’s heart leads him aright, the fool’s leads him astray.

Ecclesiastes 10:3 A fool walks down the road, he has no wit—and everyone remarks, ‘How silly he is!’

Ecclesiastes 10:4 If the anger of the ruler rises against you, do not leave your post; composure mitigates grave offences.

Ecclesiastes 10:5 One evil I observe under the sun: the sort of misjudgement to which rulers are prone-

Ecclesiastes 10:6 folly promoted to the top and the rich taking the lowest place.

Ecclesiastes 10:7 I see slaves riding on horses and princes on foot like slaves.

Ecclesiastes 10:8 He who digs a pit falls into it, he who undermines a wall gets bitten by a snake,

Ecclesiastes 10:9 he who quarries stones gets hurt by them, he who chops wood takes a risk from it.

Ecclesiastes 10:10 If, for want of sharpening, the blade is blunt, you have to work twice as hard; but it is the outcome that makes wisdom rewarding.

Ecclesiastes 10:11 If, for want of charming, the snake bites, the snake-charmer gets nothing out of it.

Ecclesiastes 10:12 The sayings of a sage give pleasure, what a fool says procures his own ruin:

Ecclesiastes 10:13 his words have their origin in stupidity and their ending in treacherous folly.

Ecclesiastes 10:14 A fool talks a great deal, but none of us in fact can tell the future; what will happen after us, who can tell?

Ecclesiastes 10:15 A fool finds hard work very tiring, he cannot even find his own way into town.

Ecclesiastes 10:16 Woe to you, country with a lad for king, and where princes start feasting in the morning!

Ecclesiastes 10:17 Happy the land whose king is nobly born, where princes eat at a respectable hour to keep themselves strong and not merely to revel!

Ecclesiastes 10:18 Thanks to idleness, the roof-tree gives way, thanks to carelessness, the house lets in the rain.

Ecclesiastes 10:19 We give parties to enjoy ourselves, wine makes us cheerful and money has an answer for everything.

Ecclesiastes 10:20 Do not abuse the king, even in thought, do not abuse a rich man, even in your bedroom, for a bird of the air might carry the news, a winged messenger might repeat what you have said.

Ecclesiastes 11:1 Cast your bread on the water, eventually you will recover it.

Ecclesiastes 11:2 Offer a share to seven or to eight people, you can never tell what disaster may occur.

Ecclesiastes 11:3 When clouds are full of rain, they will shed it on the earth. If a tree falls, whether south or north, where it falls, there it will lie.

Ecclesiastes 11:4 Keep watching the wind and you will never sow, keep staring at the clouds and you will never reap.

Ecclesiastes 11:5 You do not understand how the wind blows, or how the embryo grows in a woman’s womb: no more can you understand the work of God, the Creator of all.

Ecclesiastes 11:6 In the morning, sow your seed, until evening, do not cease from labour, for of any two things you do not know which will succeed, or which of the two is the better.

Ecclesiastes 11:7 How sweet light is, how delightful it is to see the sun!

Ecclesiastes 11:8 However many years you live, enjoy them all, but remember, the days of darkness will be many: futility awaits you at the end.

Ecclesiastes 11:9 Young man, enjoy yourself while you are young, make the most of the days of your youth, follow the prompting and desire of heart and eye, but remember, God will call you to account for everything.

Ecclesiastes 11:10 Rid your heart of indignation, keep your body clear of suffering, though youth and the age of black hair are both futile.

Ecclesiastes 12:1 Remember your Creator while you are still young, before the bad days come, before the years come which, you will say, give you no pleasure;

Ecclesiastes 12:2 before the sun and the light grow dim and the moon and stars, before the clouds return after the rain;

Ecclesiastes 12:3 the time when your watchmen become shaky, when strong men are bent double, when the women, one by one, quit grinding, and, as they look out of the window, find their sight growing dim.

Ecclesiastes 12:4 When the street-door is kept shut, when the sound of grinding fades away, when the first cry of a bird wakes you up, when all the singing has stopped;

Ecclesiastes 12:5 when going uphill is an ordeal and you are frightened at every step you take- yet the almond tree is in flower and the grasshopper is weighed down and the caper-bush loses its tang; while you are on the way to your everlasting home and the mourners are assembling in the street;

Ecclesiastes 12:6 before the silver thread snaps, or the golden bowl is cracked, or the pitcher shattered at the fountain, or the pulley broken at the well-head:

Ecclesiastes 12:7 the dust returns to the earth from which it came, and the spirit returns to God who gave it.

Ecclesiastes 12:8 Sheer futility, Qoheleth says, everything is futile.

Ecclesiastes 12:9 Besides being a sage, Qoheleth taught the people what he himself knew, having weighed, studied and emended many proverbs.

Ecclesiastes 12:10 Qoheleth took pains to write in an attractive style and by it to convey truths.

Ecclesiastes 12:11 The sayings of a sage are like goads, like pegs positioned by shepherds: the same shepherd finds a use for both.

Ecclesiastes 12:12 Furthermore, my child, you must realise that writing books involves endless hard work, and that much study wearies the body.

Ecclesiastes 12:13 To sum up the whole matter: fear God and keep his commandments, for that is the duty of everyone.

Ecclesiastes 12:14 For God will call all our deeds to judgement, all that is hidden, be it good or bad.

Song of Solomon

1:1 Solomon’s Song of Songs:

Song of Solomon 1:2 BELOVED: Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth, for your love-making is sweeter than wine;

Song of Solomon 1:3 delicate is the fragrance of your perfume, your name is an oil poured out, and that is why girls love you.

Song of Solomon 1:4 Draw me in your footsteps, let us run. The king has brought me into his rooms; you will be our joy and our gladness. We shall praise your love more than wine; how right it is to love you.

Song of Solomon 1:5 BELOVED: I am black but lovely, daughters of Jerusalem, like the tents of Kedar, like the pavilions of Salmah.

Song of Solomon 1:6 Take no notice of my dark colouring, it is the sun that has burnt me. My mother’s sons turned their anger on me, they made me look after the vineyards. My own vineyard I had not looked after!

Song of Solomon 1:7 Tell me then, sweetheart, where will you lead your flock to graze, where will you rest it at noon? That I may no more wander like a vagabond beside the flocks of your companions.

Song of Solomon 1:8 CHORUS: If you do not know this, O loveliest of women, follow the tracks of the flock, and take your kids to graze close by the shepherds’ tents.

Song of Solomon 1:9 LOVER: I compare you, my love, to my mare harnessed to Pharaoh’s chariot.

Song of Solomon 1:10 Your cheeks show fair between their pendants and your neck within its necklaces.

Song of Solomon 1:11 We shall make you golden earrings and beads of silver.

Song of Solomon 1:12 DUO: -While the king rests in his own room my nard yields its perfume.

Song of Solomon 1:13 My love is a sachet of myrrh lying between my breasts.

Song of Solomon 1:14 My love is a cluster of henna flowers among the vines of En-Gedi.

Song of Solomon 1:15 -How beautiful you are, my beloved, how beautiful you are! Your eyes are doves.

Song of Solomon 1:16 -How beautiful you are, my love, and how you delight me! Our bed is the greensward.

Song of Solomon 1:17 -The beams of our house are cedar trees, its panelling the cypress.

Song of Solomon 2:1 -I am the rose of Sharon, the lily of the valleys.

Song of Solomon 2:2 -As a lily among the thistles, so is my beloved among girls.

Song of Solomon 2:3 -As an apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my love among young men. In his delightful shade I sit, and his fruit is sweet to my taste.

Song of Solomon 2:4 He has taken me to his cellar, and his banner over me is love.

Song of Solomon 2:5 Feed me with raisin cakes, restore me with apples, for I am sick with love.

Song of Solomon 2:6 His left arm is under my head, his right embraces me.

Song of Solomon 2:7 -I charge you, daughters of Jerusalem, by all gazelles and wild does, do not rouse, do not wake my beloved before she pleases.

Song of Solomon 2:8 BELOVED: I hear my love. See how he comes leaping on the mountains, bounding over the hills.

Song of Solomon 2:9 My love is like a gazelle, like a young stag. See where he stands behind our wall. He looks in at the window, he peers through the opening.

Song of Solomon 2:10 My love lifts up his voice, he says to me, ‘Come then, my beloved, my lovely one, come.

Song of Solomon 2:11 For see, winter is past, the rains are over and gone.

Song of Solomon 2:12 ‘Flowers are appearing on the earth. The season of glad songs has come, the cooing of the turtledove is heard in our land.

Song of Solomon 2:13 The fig tree is forming its first figs and the blossoming vines give out their fragrance. Come then, my beloved, my lovely one, come.

Song of Solomon 2:14 ‘My dove, hiding in the clefts of the rock, in the coverts of the cliff, show me your face, let me hear your voice; for your voice is sweet and your face is lovely.’

Song of Solomon 2:15 Catch the foxes for us, the little foxes that make havoc of the vineyards, for our vineyards are in fruit.

Song of Solomon 2:16 My love is mine and I am his. He pastures his flock among the lilies.

Song of Solomon 2:17 Before the day-breeze rises, before the shadows flee, return! Be, my love, like a gazelle, like a young stag, on the mountains of Bether.

Song of Solomon 3:1 On my bed at night I sought the man who is my sweetheart: I sought but could not find him!

Song of Solomon 3:2 So I shall get up and go through the city; in the streets and in the squares, I shall seek my sweetheart. I sought but could not find him!

Song of Solomon 3:3 I came upon the watchmen—those who go on their rounds in the city: ‘Have you seen my sweetheart?’

Song of Solomon 3:4 Barely had I passed them when I found my sweetheart. I caught him, would not let him go, not till I had brought him to my mother’s house, to the room where she conceived me!

Song of Solomon 3:5 LOVER: I charge you, daughters of Jerusalem, by gazelles and wild does, do not rouse, do not wake my beloved before she pleases.

Song of Solomon 3:6 POET: What is this coming up from the desert like a column of smoke, breathing of myrrh and frankincense and every exotic perfume?

Song of Solomon 3:7 Here comes Solomon’s litter. Around it are sixty champions, the flower of the warriors of Israel;

Song of Solomon 3:8 all of them skilled swordsmen, expert in war. Each man has his sword at his side, against alarms by night.

Song of Solomon 3:9 King Solomon has had a palanquin made of wood from Lebanon.

Song of Solomon 3:10 He has had the posts made of silver, the canopy of gold, the seat of purple; the centre is inlaid with ebony.

Song of Solomon 3:11 Daughters of Zion, come and see King Solomon, wearing the diadem with which his mother crowned him on his wedding day, on the day of his heart’s joy.

Song of Solomon 4:1 LOVER: How beautiful you are, my beloved, how beautiful you are! Your eyes are doves, behind your veil; your hair is like a flock of goats surging down Mount Gilead.

Song of Solomon 4:2 Your teeth, a flock of sheep to be shorn when they come up from the washing. Each one has its twin, not one unpaired with another.

Song of Solomon 4:3 Your lips are a scarlet thread and your words enchanting. Your cheeks, behind your veil, are halves of pomegranate.

Song of Solomon 4:4 Your neck is the Tower of David built on layers, hung round with a thousand bucklers, and each the shield of a hero.

Song of Solomon 4:5 Your two breasts are two fawns, twins of a gazelle, that feed among the lilies.

Song of Solomon 4:6 Before the day-breeze rises, before the shadows flee, I shall go to the mountain of myrrh, to the hill of frankincense.

Song of Solomon 4:7 You are wholly beautiful, my beloved, and without a blemish.

Song of Solomon 4:8 Come from Lebanon, my promised bride, come from Lebanon, come on your way. Look down from the heights of Amanus, from the crests of Senir and Hermon, the haunt of lions, the mountains of leopards.

Song of Solomon 4:9 You ravish my heart, my sister, my promised bride, you ravish my heart with a single one of your glances, with a single link of your necklace.

Song of Solomon 4:10 What spells lie in your love, my sister, my promised bride! How delicious is your love, more delicious than wine! How fragrant your perfumes, more fragrant than all spices!

Song of Solomon 4:11 Your lips, my promised bride, distil wild honey. Honey and milk are under your tongue; and the scent of your garments is like the scent of Lebanon.

Song of Solomon 4:12 She is a garden enclosed, my sister, my promised bride; a garden enclosed, a sealed fountain.

Song of Solomon 4:13 Your shoots form an orchard of pomegranate trees, bearing most exquisite fruit:

Song of Solomon 4:14 nard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with all the incense-bearing trees; myrrh and aloes, with the subtlest odours.

Song of Solomon 4:15 Fountain of the garden, well of living water, streams flowing down from Lebanon!

Song of Solomon 4:16 BELOVED: Awake, north wind, come, wind of the south! Breathe over my garden, to spread its sweet smell around. Let my love come into his garden, let him taste its most exquisite fruits.

Song of Solomon 5:1 LOVER: I come into my garden, my sister, my promised bride, I pick my myrrh and balsam, I eat my honey and my honeycomb, I drink my wine and my milk. POET: Eat, friends, and drink, drink deep, my dearest friends.

Song of Solomon 5:2 BELOVED: I sleep, but my heart is awake. I hear my love knocking. ‘Open to me, my sister, my beloved, my dove, my perfect one, for my head is wet with dew, my hair with the drops of night.’

Song of Solomon 5:3 -’I have taken off my tunic, am I to put it on again? I have washed my feet, am I to dirty them again?’

Song of Solomon 5:4 My love thrust his hand through the hole in the door; I trembled to the core of my being.

Song of Solomon 5:5 Then I got up to open to my love, myrrh ran off my hands, pure myrrh off my fingers, on to the handle of the bolt.

Song of Solomon 5:6 I opened to my love, but he had turned and gone. My soul failed at his flight, I sought but could not find him, I called, but he did not answer.

Song of Solomon 5:7 The watchmen met me, those who go on their rounds in the city. They beat me, they wounded me, they took my cloak away from me: those guardians of the ramparts!

Song of Solomon 5:8 I charge you, daughters of Jerusalem, if you should find my love, what are you to tell him? -That I am sick with love!

Song of Solomon 5:9 CHORUS: What makes your lover better than other lovers, O loveliest of women? What makes your lover better than other lovers, to put us under such an oath?

Song of Solomon 5:10 BELOVED: My love is fresh and ruddy, to be known among ten thousand.

Song of Solomon 5:11 His head is golden, purest gold, his locks are palm fronds and black as the raven.

Song of Solomon 5:12 His eyes are like doves beside the water-courses, bathing themselves in milk, perching on a fountain-rim.

Song of Solomon 5:13 His cheeks are beds of spices, banks sweetly scented. His lips are lilies, distilling pure myrrh.

Song of Solomon 5:14 His hands are golden, rounded, set with jewels of Tarshish. His belly a block of ivory covered with sapphires.

Song of Solomon 5:15 His legs are alabaster columns set in sockets of pure gold. His appearance is that of Lebanon, unrivalled as the cedars.

Song of Solomon 5:16 His conversation is sweetness itself, he is altogether lovable. Such is my love, such is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

Song of Solomon 6:1 CHORUS: Where did your lover go, O loveliest of women? Which way did your lover turn so that we can help you seek him?

Song of Solomon 6:2 BELOVED: My love went down to his garden, to the beds of spices, to pasture his flock on the grass and gather lilies.

Song of Solomon 6:3 I belong to my love, and my love to me. He pastures his flock among the lilies.

Song of Solomon 6:4 LOVER: You are fair as Tirzah, my beloved, enchanting as Jerusalem, formidable as an army!

Song of Solomon 6:5 Turn your eyes away from me, they take me by assault! Your hair is like a flock of goats surging down the slopes of Gilead.

Song of Solomon 6:6 Your teeth are like a flock of ewes as they come up from being washed. Each one has its twin, not one unpaired with another.

Song of Solomon 6:7 Your cheeks, behind your veil, are halves of pomegranate.

Song of Solomon 6:8 There are sixty queens and eighty concubines (and countless girls).

Song of Solomon 6:9 My dove is my only one, perfect and mine. She is the darling of her mother, the favourite of the one who bore her. Girls have seen her and proclaimed her blessed, queens and concubines have sung her praises,

Song of Solomon 6:10 ‘Who is this arising like the dawn, fair as the moon, resplendent as the sun, formidable as an army?’

Song of Solomon 6:11 I went down to the nut orchard to see the fresh shoots in the valley, to see if the vines were budding and the pomegranate trees in flower.

Song of Solomon 6:12 Before I knew . . . my desire had hurled me onto the chariots of Amminadib!

Song of Solomon 7:1 CHORUS: Come back, come back, girl from Shulam, come back, come back, where we can look at you! Why are you looking at the girl from Shulam, dancing between two lines of dancers?

Song of Solomon 7:2 LOVER: How beautiful are your feet in their sandals, O prince’s daughter! The curve of your thighs is like the curve of a necklace, work of a master hand.

Song of Solomon 7:3 Your navel is a bowl well rounded with no lack of wine, your belly a heap of wheat surrounded with lilies.

Song of Solomon 7:4 Your two breasts are two fawns, twins of a gazelle.

Song of Solomon 7:5 Your neck is an ivory tower. Your eyes, the pools of Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-Rabbim. Your nose, the Tower of Lebanon, sentinel facing Damascus.

Song of Solomon 7:6 Your head is held high like Carmel, and its hair is as dark as purple; a king is held captive in your tresses.

Song of Solomon 7:7 How beautiful you are, how charming, my love, my delight!

Song of Solomon 7:8 In stature like the palm tree, its fruit-clusters your breasts.

Song of Solomon 7:9 I have decided, ‘I shall climb the palm tree, I shall seize its clusters of dates!’ May your breasts be clusters of grapes, your breath sweet-scented as apples,

Song of Solomon 7:10 and your palate like sweet wine. BELOVED: Flowing down the throat of my love, as it runs on the lips of those who sleep.

Song of Solomon 7:11 I belong to my love, and his desire is for me.

Song of Solomon 7:12 Come, my love, let us go to the fields. We will spend the night in the villages,

Song of Solomon 7:13 and in the early morning we will go to the vineyards. We will see if the vines are budding, if their blossoms are opening, if the pomegranate trees are in flower. Then I shall give you the gift of my love.

Song of Solomon 7:14 The mandrakes yield their fragrance, the most exquisite fruits are at our doors; the new as well as the old, I have stored them for you, my love.

Song of Solomon 8:1 Ah, why are you not my brother, nursed at my mother’s breast! Then if I met you out of doors, I could kiss you without people thinking ill of me.

Song of Solomon 8:2 I should lead you, I should take you into my mother’s house, and you would teach me! I should give you spiced wine to drink, juice of my pomegranates.

Song of Solomon 8:3 His left arm is under my head and his right embraces me.

Song of Solomon 8:4 LOVER: I charge you, daughters of Jerusalem, do not rouse, do not wake my beloved, before she pleases!

Song of Solomon 8:5 Who is this coming up from the desert leaning on her lover? I awakened you under the apple tree, where your mother conceived you, where she who bore you conceived you.

Song of Solomon 8:6 BELOVED: Set me like a seal on your heart, like a seal on your arm. For love is strong as Death, passion as relentless as Sheol. The flash of it is a flash of fire, a flame of Yahweh himself.

Song of Solomon 8:7 Love no flood can quench, no torrents drown. Were a man to offer all his family wealth to buy love, contempt is all that he would gain.

Song of Solomon 8:8 Our sister is little: her breasts are not yet formed. What shall we do for our sister on the day she is spoken for?

Song of Solomon 8:9 If she is a rampart, on the crest we shall build a battlement of silver; if she is a door, we shall board her up with planks of cedar.

Song of Solomon 8:10 I am a wall, and my breasts represent its towers. And under their eyes I have found true peace.

Song of Solomon 8:11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-Hamon. He entrusted it to overseers, and each one was to pay him the value of its produce, a thousand shekels of silver.

Song of Solomon 8:12 But I tend my own vineyard myself. You, Solomon, may have your thousand shekels, and those who oversee its produce their two hundred.

Song of Solomon 8:13 You who dwell in the gardens, my companions listen for your voice; let me hear it.

Song of Solomon 8:14 Haste away, my love, be like a gazelle, a young stag, on the spice-laden mountains.

Wis 1:1 Love uprightness you who are rulers on earth, be properly disposed towards the Lord and seek him in simplicity of heart;

Wis 1:2 for he will be found by those who do not put him to the test, revealing himself to those who do not mistrust him.

Wis 1:3 Perverse thoughts, however, separate people from God, and power, when put to the test, confounds the stupid.

Wis 1:4 Wisdom will never enter the soul of a wrong-doer, nor dwell in a body enslaved to sin;

Wis 1:5 for the holy spirit of instruction flees deceitfulness, recoils from unintelligent thoughts, is thwarted by the onset of vice.

Wis 1:6 Wisdom is a spirit friendly to humanity, though she will not let a blasphemer's words go unpunished; since God observes the very soul and accurately surveys the heart, listening to every word.

Wis 1:7 For the spirit of the Lord fills the world, and that which holds everything together knows every word said.

Wis 1:8 No one who speaks what is wrong will go undetected, nor will avenging Justice pass by such a one.

Wis 1:9 For the schemes of the godless will be examined, and a report of his words will reach the Lord to convict him of his crimes.

Wis 1:10 There is a jealous ear that overhears everything, not even a murmur of complaint escapes it.

Wis 1:11 So beware of uttering frivolous complaints, restrain your tongue from finding fault; even what is said in secret has repercussions, and a lying mouth deals death to the soul.

Wis 1:12 Do not court death by the errors of your ways, nor invite destruction through the work of your hands.

Wis 1:13 For God did not make Death, he takes no pleasure in destroying the living.

Wis 1:14 To exist—for this he created all things; the creatures of the world have health in them, in them is no fatal poison, and Hades has no power over the world:

Wis 1:15 for uprightness is immortal.

Wis 1:16 But the godless call for Death with deed and word, counting him friend, they wear themselves out for him; with him they make a pact, worthy as they are to belong to him.

Wis 2:1 And this is the false argument they use, 'Our life is short and dreary, there is no remedy when our end comes, no one is known to have come back from Hades.

Wis 2:2 We came into being by chance and afterwards shall be as though we had never been. The breath in our nostrils is a puff of smoke, reason a spark from the beating of our hearts;

Wis 2:3 extinguish this and the body turns to ashes, and the spirit melts away like the yielding air.

Wis 2:4 In time, our name will be forgotten, nobody will remember what we have done; our life will pass away like wisps of cloud, dissolving like the mist that the sun's rays drive away and that its heat dispels.

Wis 2:5 For our days are the passing of a shadow, our end is without return, the seal is affixed and nobody comes back.

Wis 2:6 ‘Come then, let us enjoy the good things of today, let us use created things with the zest of youth:

Wis 2:7 take our fill of the dearest wines and perfumes, on no account forgo the flowers of spring

Wis 2:8 but crown ourselves with rosebuds before they wither,

Wis 2:9 no meadow excluded from our orgy; let us leave the signs of our revelry everywhere, since this is our portion, this our lot!

Wis 2:10 ‘As for the upright man who is poor, let us oppress him; let us not spare the widow, nor respect old age, white-haired with many years.

Wis 2:11 Let our might be the yardstick of right, since weakness argues its own futility.

Wis 2:12 Let us lay traps for the upright man, since he annoys us and opposes our way of life, reproaches us for our sins against the Law, and accuses us of sins against our upbringing.

Wis 2:13 He claims to have knowledge of God, and calls himself a child of the Lord.

Wis 2:14 We see him as a reproof to our way of thinking, the very sight of him weighs our spirits down;

Wis 2:15 for his kind of life is not like other people’s, and his ways are quite different.

Wis 2:16 In his opinion we are counterfeit; he avoids our ways as he would filth; he proclaims the final end of the upright as blessed and boasts of having God for his father.

Wis 2:17 Let us see if what he says is true, and test him to see what sort of end he will have.

Wis 2:18 For if the upright man is God’s son, God will help him and rescue him from the clutches of his enemies.

Wis 2:19 Let us test him with cruelty and with torture, and thus explore this gentleness of his and put his patience to the test.

Wis 2:20 Let us condemn him to a shameful death since God will rescue him—or so he claims.’

Wis 2:21 This is the way they reason, but they are misled, since their malice makes them blind.

Wis 2:22 They do not know the hidden things of God, they do not hope for the reward of holiness, they do not believe in a reward for blameless souls.

Wis 2:23 For God created human beings to be immortal, he made them as an image of his own nature;

Wis 2:24 Death came into the world only through the Devil’s envy, as those who belong to him find to their cost.

Wis 3:1 But the souls of the upright are in the hands of God, and no torment can touch them.

Wis 3:2 To the unenlightened, they appeared to die, their departure was regarded as disaster,

Wis 3:3 their leaving us like annihilation; but they are at peace.

Wis 3:4 If, as it seemed to us, they suffered punishment, their hope was rich with immortality;

Wis 3:5 slight was their correction, great will their blessings be. God was putting them to the test and has proved them worthy to be with him;

Wis 3:6 he has tested them like gold in a furnace, and accepted them as a perfect burnt offering.

Wis 3:7 At their time of visitation, they will shine out; as sparks run through the stubble, so will they.

Wis 3:8 They will judge nations, rule over peoples, and the Lord will be their king for ever.

Wis 3:9 Those who trust in him will understand the truth, those who are faithful will live with him in love; for grace and mercy await his holy ones, and he intervenes on behalf of his chosen.

Wis 3:10 But the godless will be duly punished for their reasoning, for having neglected the upright and deserted the Lord.

Wis 3:11 Yes, wretched are they who scorn wisdom and discipline: their hope is void, their toil unavailing, their achievements unprofitable;

Wis 3:12 their wives are reckless, their children depraved, their descendants accursed.

Wis 3:13 Blessed the sterile woman if she be blameless, and has not known an unlawful bed, for she will have fruit at the visitation of souls.

Wis 3:14 Blessed, too, the eunuch whose hand commits no crime, and who harbours no resentment against the Lord: a special favour will be granted to him for his loyalty, a most desirable portion in the temple of the Lord.

Wis 3:15 For the fruit of honest labours is glorious, and the root of understanding does not decay.

Wis 3:16 But the children of adulterers will not reach maturity, the offspring of an unlawful bed will disappear.

Wis 3:17 Even if they live long, they will count for nothing, their old age will go unhonoured at the last;

Wis 3:18 while if they die early, they have neither hope nor comfort on the day of judgement,

Wis 3:19 for the end of a race of evil-doers is harsh.

Wis 4:1 Better to have no children yet to have virtue, since immortality perpetuates its memory; for God and human beings both recognise it.

Wis 4:2 Present, we imitate it, absent, we long for it; crowned, it holds triumph through eternity, having striven for untainted prizes and emerged the victor.

Wis 4:3 But the offspring of the godless come to nothing, however prolific, sprung from a bastard stock, they will never strike deep roots, never put down firm foundations.

Wis 4:4 They may branch out for a time, but, on unsteady foundations, they will be rocked by the wind and uprooted by the force of the storm;

Wis 4:5 their branches, yet unformed, will be snapped off, their fruit be useless, too unripe to eat, fit for nothing.

Wis 4:6 For children begotten of unlawful bed witness, when put on trial, to their parents' wickedness.

Wis 4:7 The upright, though he die before his time, will find rest.

Wis 4:8 Length of days is not what makes age honourable, nor number of years the true measure of life;

Wis 4:9 understanding, this is grey hairs, untarnished life, this is ripe old age.

Wis 4:10 Having won God's favour, he has been loved and, as he was living among sinners, has been taken away.

Wis 4:11 He has been carried off so that evil may not warp his understanding or deceitfulness seduce his soul;

Wis 4:12 for the fascination of evil throws good things into the shade, and the whirlwind of desire corrupts a simple heart.

Wis 4:13 Having come to perfection so soon, he has lived long;

Wis 4:14 his soul being pleasing to the Lord, he has hurried away from the wickedness around him. Yet people look on, uncomprehending; and it does not enter their heads

Wis 4:15 that grace and mercy await his chosen ones and that he intervenes on behalf of his holy ones.

Wis 4:16 The upright who dies condemns the godless who survive, and youth quickly perfected condemns the lengthy old age of the wicked.

Wis 4:17 These people see the end of the wise without understanding what the Lord has in store or why he has taken such a one to safety;

Wis 4:18 they look on and sneer, but the Lord will laugh at them.

Wis 4:19 Soon they will be corpses without honour, objects of horror among the dead for ever. For he will shatter them and fling them headlong and dumbfounded. He will shake them from their foundations; they will be utterly laid waste, a prey to grief, and their memory will perish.

Wis 4:20 When the count of their sins has been drawn up, in terror they will come, and their crimes, confronting them, will accuse them.

Wis 5:1 Then the upright will stand up boldly to face those who had oppressed him and had thought so little of his sufferings.

Wis 5:2 And, seeing him, they will be seized with terrible fear, amazed that he should have been so unexpectedly saved.

Wis 5:3 Stricken with remorse, they will say to one another with groans and labouring breath,

Wis 5:4 'This is the one whom we used to mock, making him the butt of our insults, fools that we were! His life we regarded as madness, his ending as without honour.

Wis 5:5 How has he come to be counted as one of the children of God and to have his lot among the holy ones?

Wis 5:6 Clearly we have strayed from the way of truth; the light of justice has not shone for us, the sun has not risen for us.

Wis 5:7 We have left no path of lawlessness or ruin unexplored, we have crossed deserts where there was no track, but the way of the Lord is one we have never known.

Wis 5:8 What good has arrogance been to us? What has been the purpose of our riches and boastfulness?

Wis 5:9 All those things have passed like a shadow, passed like a fleeting rumour.

Wis 5:10 Like a ship that cuts through heaving waves—leaving no trace to show where it has passed, no wake from its keel in the waves.

Wis 5:11 Or like a bird flying through the air—leaving no proof of its passing; it whips the light air with the stroke of its pinions, tears it apart in its whirring rush, drives its way onward with sweeping wing, and afterwards no sign is seen of its passage.

Wis 5:12 Or like an arrow shot at a mark, the pierced air closing so quickly on itself, there is no knowing which way the arrow has passed.

Wis 5:13 So with us: scarcely born, we disappear; of virtue not a trace have we to show, we have spent ourselves in our own wickedness!'

Wis 5:14 For the hope of the godless is like chaff carried on the wind, like fine spray driven by the storm; it disperses like smoke before the wind, goes away like the memory of a one-day guest.

Wis 5:15 But the upright live for ever, their recompense is with the Lord, and the Most High takes care of them.

Wis 5:16 So they will receive the glorious crown and the diadem of beauty from the Lord's hand; for he will shelter them with his right hand and with his arm he will shield them.

Wis 5:17 For armour he will take his jealous love, he will arm creation to punish his enemies;

Wis 5:18 he will put on justice as a breastplate, and for helmet wear his forthright judgement;

Wis 5:19 he will take up invincible holiness for shield,

Wis 5:20 of his pitiless wrath he will forge a sword, and the universe will march with him to fight the reckless.

Wis 5:21 Bolts truly aimed, the shafts of lightning will leap, and from the clouds, as from a full-drawn bow, fly to their mark;

Wis 5:22 and the catapult will hurl hailstones charged with fury. The waters of the sea will rage against them, the rivers engulf them without pity,

Wis 5:23 a mighty gale will rise against them and winnow them like a hurricane. Thus wickedness will lay the whole earth waste and evil-doing bring down the thrones of the mighty.

Wis 6:1 Listen then, kings, and understand; rulers of remotest lands, take warning;

Wis 6:2 hear this, you who govern great populations, taking pride in your hosts of subject nations!

Wis 6:3 For sovereignty is given to you by the Lord and power by the Most High, who will himself probe your acts and scrutinise your intentions.

Wis 6:4 If therefore, as servants of his kingdom, you have not ruled justly nor observed the law, nor followed the will of God,

Wis 6:5 he will fall on you swiftly and terribly. On the highly placed a ruthless judgement falls;

Wis 6:6 the lowly are pardoned, out of pity, but the mighty will be mightily tormented.

Wis 6:7 For the Lord of all does not cower before anyone, he does not stand in awe of greatness, since he himself has made small and great and provides for all alike;

Wis 6:8 but a searching trial awaits those who wield power.

Wis 6:9 So, monarchs, my words are meant for you, so that you may learn wisdom and not fall into error;

Wis 6:10 for those who in holiness observe holy things will be adjudged holy, and, accepting instruction from them, will find their defence in them.

Wis 6:11 Set your heart, therefore, on what I have to say, listen with a will, and you will be instructed.

Wis 6:12 Wisdom is brilliant, she never fades. By those who love her, she is readily seen, by those who seek her, she is readily found.

Wis 6:13 She anticipates those who desire her by making herself known first.

Wis 6:14 Whoever gets up early to seek her will have no trouble but will find her sitting at the door.

Wis 6:15 Meditating on her is understanding in its perfect form, and anyone keeping awake for her will soon be free from care.

Wis 6:16 For she herself searches everywhere for those who are worthy of her, benevolently appearing to them on their ways, anticipating their every thought.

Wis 6:17 For Wisdom begins with the sincere desire for instruction, care for instruction means loving her,

Wis 6:18 loving her means keeping her laws, attention to her laws guarantees incorruptibility,

Wis 6:19 and incorruptibility brings us near to God;

Wis 6:20 the desire for Wisdom thus leads to sovereignty.

Wis 6:21 If then thrones and sceptres delight you, monarchs of the nations, honour Wisdom, so that you may reign for ever.

Wis 6:22 What Wisdom is and how she was born, I shall now explain; I shall hide no mysteries from you, but shall follow her steps from the outset of her origin, setting out what we know of her in full light, without departing from the truth.

Wis 6:23 Blighting envy is no companion for me, for envy has nothing in common with Wisdom.

Wis 6:24 In the greatest number of the wise lies the world’s salvation, in a sagacious king the stability of a people.

Wis 6:25 Learn, therefore, from my words; the gain will be yours.

Wis 7:1 I too am mortal like everyone else, a descendant of the first man formed from the earth. I was modelled in flesh inside a mother’s womb,

Wis 7:2 where, for ten months, in blood I acquired substance—the result of virile seed and pleasure, sleep’s companion.

Wis 7:3 I too, when I was born, drew in the common air, I fell on the same ground that bears us all, and crying was the first sound I made, like everyone else.

Wis 7:4 I was nurtured in swaddling clothes, with every care.

Wis 7:5 No king has known any other beginning of existence;

Wis 7:6 for there is only one way into life, and one way out of it.

Wis 7:7 And so I prayed, and understanding was given me; I entreated, and the spirit of Wisdom came to me.

Wis 7:8 I esteemed her more than sceptres and thrones; compared with her, I held riches as nothing.

Wis 7:9 I reckoned no precious stone to be her equal, for compared with her, all gold is a pinch of sand, and beside her, silver ranks as mud.

Wis 7:10 I loved her more than health or beauty, preferred her to the light, since her radiance never sleeps.

Wis 7:11 In her company all good things came to me, and at her hands incalculable wealth.

Wis 7:12 All these delighted me, since Wisdom brings them, though I did not then realise that she was their mother.

Wis 7:13 What I learned diligently, I shall pass on liberally, I shall not conceal how rich she is.

Wis 7:14 For she is to human beings an inexhaustible treasure, and those who acquire this win God's friendship, commended to him by the gifts of instruction.

Wis 7:15 May God grant me to speak as he would wish and conceive thoughts worthy of the gifts I have received, since he is both guide to Wisdom and director of sages;

Wis 7:16 for we are in his hand, yes, ourselves and our sayings, and all intellectual and all practical knowledge.

Wis 7:17 He it was who gave me sure knowledge of what exists, to understand the structure of the world and the action of the elements,

Wis 7:18 the beginning, end and middle of the times, the alternation of the solstices and the succession of the seasons,

Wis 7:19 the cycles of the year and the position of the stars,

Wis 7:20 the natures of animals and the instincts of wild beasts, the powers of spirits and human mental processes, the varieties of plants and the medical properties of roots.

Wis 7:21 And now I understand everything, hidden or visible, for Wisdom, the designer of all things, has instructed me.

Wis 7:22 For within her is a spirit intelligent, holy, unique, manifold, subtle, mobile, incisive, unsullied, lucid, invulnerable, benevolent, shrewd,

Wis 7:23 irresistible, beneficent, friendly to human beings, steadfast, dependable, unperturbed, almighty, all-surveying, penetrating all intelligent, pure and most subtle spirits.

Wis 7:24 For Wisdom is quicker to move than any motion; she is so pure, she pervades and permeates all things.

Wis 7:25 She is a breath of the power of God, pure emanation of the glory of the Almighty; so nothing impure can find its way into her.

Wis 7:26 For she is a reflection of the eternal light, untarnished mirror of God's active power, and image of his goodness.

Wis 7:27 Although she is alone, she can do everything; herself unchanging, she renews the world, and, generation after generation, passing into holy souls, she makes them into God's friends and prophets;

Wis 7:28 for God loves only those who dwell with Wisdom.

Wis 7:29 She is indeed more splendid than the sun, she outshines all the constellations; compared with light, she takes first place,

Wis 7:30 for light must yield to night, but against Wisdom evil cannot prevail.

Wis 8:1 Strongly she reaches from one end of the world to the other and she governs the whole world for its good.

Wis 8:2 Wisdom I loved and searched for from my youth; I resolved to have her as my bride, I fell in love with her beauty.

Wis 8:3 She enhances her noble birth by sharing God's life, for the Master of All has always loved her.

Wis 8:4 Indeed, she shares the secrets of God's knowledge, and she chooses what he will do.

Wis 8:5 If in this life wealth is a desirable possession, what is more wealthy than Wisdom whose work is everywhere?

Wis 8:6 Or if it be the intellect that is at work, who, more than she, designs whatever exists?

Wis 8:7 Or if it be uprightness you love, why, virtues are the fruit of her labours, since it is she who teaches temperance and prudence, justice and fortitude; nothing in life is more useful for human beings.

Wis 8:8 Or if you are eager for wide experience, she knows the past, she forecasts the future; she knows how to turn maxims, and solve riddles; she has foreknowledge of signs and wonders, and of the unfolding of the ages and the times.

Wis 8:9 I therefore determined to take her to share my life, knowing that she would be my counsellor in prosperity and comfort me in cares and sorrow.

Wis 8:10 'Thanks to her, I shall be admired by the masses and honoured, though young, by the elders.

Wis 8:11 I shall be reckoned shrewd as a judge, and the great will be amazed at me.

Wis 8:12 They will wait on my silences, and pay attention when I speak; if I speak at some length, they will lay their hand on their lips.

Wis 8:13 By means of her, immortality will be mine, I shall leave an everlasting memory to my successors.

Wis 8:14 I shall govern peoples, and nations will be subject to me;

Wis 8:15 at the sound of my name fearsome despots will be afraid; I shall show myself kind to the people and valiant in battle.

Wis 8:16 'When I go home I shall take my ease with her, for nothing is bitter in her company, when life is shared with her there is no pain, nothing but pleasure and joy.'

Wis 8:17 Having meditated on all this, and having come to the conclusion that immortality resides in kinship with Wisdom, Wis 8:18 noble contentment in her friendship, inexhaustible riches in her activities, understanding in cultivating her society, and renown in conversing with her, I went all ways, seeking how to get her.

Wis 8:19 I was a boy of happy disposition, I had received a good soul as my lot,

Wis 8:20 or rather, being good, I had entered an undefiled body;

Wis 8:21 but, realising that I could never possess Wisdom unless God gave her to me, -a sign of intelligence in itself, to know in whose gift she lay—I prayed to the Lord and entreated him, and with all my heart I said:

Wis 9:1 'God of our ancestors, Lord of mercy, who by your word have made the universe,

Wis 9:2 and in your wisdom have fitted human beings to rule the creatures that you have made,

Wis 9:3 to govern the world in holiness and saving justice and in honesty of soul to dispense fair judgement,

Wis 9:4 grant me Wisdom, consort of your throne, and do not reject me from the number of your children.

Wis 9:5 For I am your servant, son of your serving maid, a feeble man, with little time to live, with small understanding of justice and the laws.

Wis 9:6 Indeed, were anyone perfect among the sons of men, if he lacked the Wisdom that comes from you, he would still count for nothing.

Wis 9:7 'You have chosen me to be king over your people, to be judge of your sons and daughters.

Wis 9:8 You have bidden me build a temple on your holy mountain, and an altar in the city where you have pitched your tent, a copy of the holy Tent which you prepared at the beginning.

Wis 9:9 With you is Wisdom, she who knows your works, she who was present when you made the world; she understands what is pleasing in your eyes and what agrees with your commandments.

Wis 9:10 Despatch her from the holy heavens, send her forth from your throne of glory to help me and to toil with me and teach me what is pleasing to you;

Wis 9:11 since she knows and understands everything she will guide me prudently in my actions and will protect me with her glory.

Wis 9:12 Then all I do will be acceptable, I shall govern your people justly and be worthy of my father's throne.

Wis 9:13 'What human being indeed can know the intentions of God? And who can comprehend the will of the Lord?

Wis 9:14 For the reasoning of mortals is inadequate, our attitudes of mind unstable;

Wis 9:15 for a perishable body presses down the soul, and this tent of clay weighs down the mind with its many cares.

Wis 9:16 It is hard enough for us to work out what is on earth, laborious to know what lies within our reach; who, then, can discover what is in the heavens?

Wis 9:17 And who could ever have known your will, had you not given Wisdom and sent your holy Spirit from above?

Wis 9:18 Thus have the paths of those on earth been straightened and people have been taught what pleases you, and have been saved, by Wisdom.'

Wis 10:1 It was Wisdom who protected the first man to be fashioned, the father of the world, who had been created all alone, she it was who rescued him from his fall

Wis 10:2 and gave him the strength to subjugate all things.

Wis 10:3 But when in his wrath a wicked man deserted her, he perished in his fratricidal fury.

Wis 10:4 When because of him the earth was drowned, it was Wisdom again who saved it, piloting the upright man on valueless timber.

Wis 10:5 Again, when, concurring in wickedness, the nations had been thrown into confusion, she singled out the upright man, preserved him blameless before God and fortified him against pity for his child.

Wis 10:6 She it was who, while the godless perished, saved the upright man as he fled from the fire raining down on the Five Cities,

Wis 10:7 in witness against whose evil ways a desolate land still smokes, where plants bear fruit that never ripens and where, monument to an unbelieving soul, there stands a pillar of salt.

Wis 10:8 For, by ignoring the path of Wisdom, not only did they suffer the loss of not knowing the good, but they left the world a memorial to their folly, so that their offences could not pass unnoticed.

Wis 10:9 But Wisdom delivered her servants from their ordeals.

Wis 10:10 The upright man, fleeing from the anger of his brother, was led by her along straight paths. She showed him the kingdom of God and taught him the knowledge of holy things. She brought him success in his labours and gave him full return for all his efforts;

Wis 10:11 she stood by him against grasping and oppressive men and she made him rich.

Wis 10:12 She preserved him from his enemies and saved him from the traps they set for him. In an arduous struggle she awarded him the prize, to teach him that piety is stronger than all.

Wis 10:13 She did not forsake the upright man when he was sold, but snatched him away from sin;

Wis 10:14 she accompanied him down into the pit, nor did she abandon him in his chains until she had brought him the sceptre of a kingdom and authority over his despotic masters, thus exposing as liars those who had traduced him, and giving him honour everlasting.

Wis 10:15 It was Wisdom who delivered a holy people, a blameless race, from a nation of oppressors.

Wis 10:16 She entered the soul of a servant of the Lord, and withstood fearsome kings with wonders and signs.

Wis 10:17 To the holy people she gave the wages of their labours; she guided them by a marvellous road, herself their shelter by day—and their starlight through the night.

Wis 10:18 She brought them across the Red Sea, leading them through an immensity of water,

Wis 10:19 whereas she drowned their enemies, then spat them out from the depths of the abyss.

Wis 10:20 So the upright despoiled the godless; Lord, they extolled your holy name, and with one accord praised your protecting hand;

Wis 10:21 for Wisdom opened the mouths of the dumb and made eloquent the tongues of babes.

Wis 11:1 She made their actions successful, by means of a holy prophet.

Wis 11:2 They journeyed through an unpeopled desert and pitched their tents in inaccessible places.

Wis 11:3 They stood firm against their enemies, fought off their foes.

Wis 11:4 On you they called when they were thirsty, and from the rocky cliff water was given them, from hard stone a remedy for their thirst.

Wis 11:5 Thus, what had served to punish their enemies became a benefit for them in their difficulties.

Wis 11:6 Whereas their enemies had only the ever-flowing source of a river fouled with mingled blood and mud,

Wis 11:7 to punish them for their decree of infanticide, you gave your people, against all hope, water in abundance,

Wis 11:8 once you had shown by the thirst that they were experiencing how severely you were punishing their enemies.

Wis 11:9 From their own ordeals, which were only loving correction, they realised how an angry sentence was tormenting the godless;

Wis 11:10 for you had tested your own as a father admonishes, but the others you had punished as a pitiless king condemns,

Wis 11:11 and, whether far or near, they were equally afflicted.

Wis 11:12 For a double sorrow seized on them, and a groaning at the memory of the past;

Wis 11:13 when they learned that the punishments they were receiving were beneficial to the others, they realised it was the Lord,

Wis 11:14 while for the man whom long before they had exposed and later mockingly rebuffed, they felt only admiration when all was done, having suffered a thirst so different from that of the upright.

Wis 11:15 For their foolish and wicked notions which led them astray into worshipping mindless reptiles and contemptible beetles, you sent a horde of mindless animals to punish them

Wis 11:16 and to teach them that the agent of sin is the agent of punishment.

Wis 11:17 And indeed your all-powerful hand which created the world from formless matter, did not lack means to unleash a horde of bears or savage lions on them

Wis 11:18 or unknown beasts, newly created, full of rage, breathing out fire, or puffing out stinking smoke, or flashing fearful sparks from their eyes,

Wis 11:19 beasts able not only to destroy them, being so savage, but even to strike them dead by their terrifying appearance.

Wis 11:20 However, without these, one breath could have blown them over, pursued by Justice, whirled away by the breath of your power. You, however, ordered all things by measure, number and weight.

Wis 11:21 For your great power is always at your service, and who can withstand the might of your arm?

Wis 11:22 The whole world, for you, can no more than tip a balance, like a drop of morning dew falling on the ground.

Wis 11:23 Yet you are merciful to all, because you are almighty, you overlook people’s sins, so that they can repent.

Wis 11:24 Yes, you love everything that exists, and nothing that you have made disgusts you, since, if you had hated something, you would not have made it.

Wis 11:25 And how could a thing subsist, had you not willed it? Or how be preserved, if not called forth by you?

Wis 11:26 No, you spare all, since all is yours, Lord, lover of life!

Wis 12:1 For your imperishable spirit is in everything!

Wis 12:2 And thus, gradually, you correct those who offend; you admonish and remind them of how they have sinned, so that they may abstain from evil and trust in you, Lord.

Wis 12:3 The ancient inhabitants of your holy land

Wis 12:4 you hated for their loathsome practices, their acts of sorcery, and unholy rites.

Wis 12:5 Those ruthless murderers of children, those eaters of entrails at feasts of human flesh and of blood, those initiates of secret brotherhoods,

Wis 12:6 those murderous parents of defenceless beings, you determined to destroy at our ancestors' hands,

Wis 12:7 so that this land, dearer to you than any other, might receive a worthy colony of God's children.

Wis 12:8 Even so, since these were human, you treated them leniently, sending hornets as forerunners of your army, to exterminate them little by little.

Wis 12:9 Not that you were unable to hand the godless over to the upright in pitched battle or destroy them at once by savage beasts or one harsh word;

Wis 12:10 but, by carrying out your sentences gradually, you gave them a chance to repent, although you knew that they were inherently evil, innately wicked,

Wis 12:11 and fixed in their cast of mind; for they were a race accursed from the beginning. Nor was it from awe of anyone that you let their sins go unpunished.

Wis 12:12 For who is there to ask, 'What have you done?' Or who is there to disagree with your sentence? Who to arraign you for destroying nations which you have created? Who to confront you by championing the wicked?

Wis 12:13 For there is no god, other than you, who cares for every one, to whom you have to prove that your sentences have been just.

Wis 12:14 No more could any king or despot challenge you over those whom you have punished.

Wis 12:15 For, being upright yourself, you rule the universe uprightly, and hold it as incompatible with your power to condemn anyone who has not deserved to be punished.

Wis 12:16 For your strength is the basis of your saving justice, and your sovereignty over all makes you lenient to all.

Wis 12:17 You show your strength when people will not believe in your absolute power, and you confound any insolence in those who do know it.

Wis 12:18 But you, controlling your strength, are mild in judgement, and govern us with great lenience, for you have only to will, and your power is there.

Wis 12:19 By acting thus, you have taught your people that the upright must be kindly to his fellows, and you have given your children the good hope that after sins you will grant repentance.

Wis 12:20 For, if with such care and indulgence you have punished your children's enemies, though doomed to death, and have given them time and place to be rid of their wickedness,

Wis 12:21 with what exact attention have you not judged your children, to whose ancestors, by oaths and covenants, you made such generous promises?

Wis 12:22 Thus, you instruct us, when you punish our enemies in moderation, that we should reflect on your kindness when we judge, and, when we are judged, we should look for mercy.

Wis 12:23 And this is why people leading foolish and wicked lives were tortured by you with their own abominations;

Wis 12:24 for they had strayed too far on the paths of error by taking the vilest and most despicable of animals for gods, being deluded like silly little children.

Wis 12:25 So, as to children with no sense, you gave them a sentence making fools of them.

Wis 12:26 Those, however, who would not take warning from a mocking reproof were soon to endure a sentence worthy of God.

Wis 12:27 The creatures that made them suffer and against which they protested, those very creatures that they had taken for gods and by which they were punished they saw in their true light; and he whom hitherto they had refused to know, they realised was true God. And this is why the final condemnation fell on them.

Wis 13:1 Yes, naturally stupid are all who are unaware of God, and who, from good things seen, have not been able to discover Him-who-is, or, by studying the works, have not recognised the Artificer.

Wis 13:2 Fire, however, or wind, or the swift air, the sphere of the stars, impetuous water, heaven's lamps, are what they have held to be the gods who govern the world.

Wis 13:3 If, charmed by their beauty, they have taken these for gods, let them know how much the Master of these excels them, since he was the very source of beauty that created them.

Wis 13:4 And if they have been impressed by their power and energy, let them deduce from these how much mightier is he that has formed them,

Wis 13:5 since through the grandeur and beauty of the creatures we may, by analogy, contemplate their Author.

Wis 13:6 Small blame, however, attaches to them, for perhaps they go astray only in their search for God and their eagerness to find him;

Wis 13:7 familiar with his works, they investigate them and fall victim to appearances, seeing so much beauty.

Wis 13:8 But even so, they have no excuse:

Wis 13:9 if they are capable of acquiring enough knowledge to be able to investigate the world, how have they been so slow to find its Master?

Wis 13:10 But wretched are they, with their hopes set on dead things, who have given the title of gods to human artefacts, gold or silver, skilfully worked, figures of animals, or useless stone, carved by some hand long ago.

Wis 13:11 Take a woodcutter. He fells a suitable tree, neatly strips off the bark all over and then with admirable skill works the wood into an object useful in daily life.

Wis 13:12 The bits left over from his work he uses for cooking his food, then eats his fill.

Wis 13:13 There is still a good-for-nothing bit left over, a gnarled and knotted billet: he takes it and whittles it with the concentration of his leisure hours, he shapes it with the skill of experience, he gives it a human shape

Wis 13:14 or perhaps he makes it into some vile animal, smears it with ochre, paints its surface red, coats over all its blemishes.

Wis 13:15 He next makes a worthy home for it, lets it into the wall, fixes it with an iron clamp.

Wis 13:16 Thus he makes sure that it will not fall down—being well aware that it cannot help itself, since it is only an image, and needs to be helped.

Wis 13:17 And yet, if he wishes to pray for his goods, for his marriage, for his children, he does not blush to harangue this lifeless thing—for health, he invokes what is weak,

Wis 13:18 for life, he pleads with what is dead, for help, he goes begging to total inexperience, for a journey, what cannot even use its feet,

Wis 13:19 for profit, an undertaking, and success in pursuing his craft, he asks skill from something whose hands have no skill whatever.

Wis 14:1 Or someone else, taking ship to cross the wild waves, loudly invokes a piece of wood frailer than the vessel that bears him.

Wis 14:2 Agreed, the ship is the product of a craving for gain, its building embodies the wisdom of the shipwright;

Wis 14:3 but your providence, Father, is what steers it, you having opened a pathway even through the sea, and a safe way over the waves,

Wis 14:4 showing that you can save, whatever happens, so that, even without experience, someone may put to sea.

Wis 14:5 It is not your will that the works of your Wisdom should be sterile, so people entrust their lives to the smallest piece of wood, cross the waves on a raft, yet are kept safe and sound.

Wis 14:6 Why, in the beginning, when the proud giants were perishing, the hope of the world took refuge on a raft and, steered by your hand, preserved the seed of a new generation for the ages to come.

Wis 14:7 For blessed is the wood which serves the cause of uprightness

Wis 14:8 but accursed the man-made idol, yes, it and its maker, he for having made it, and it because, though perishable, it has been called god.

Wis 14:9 For God holds the godless and his godlessness in equal hatred;

Wis 14:10 both work and workman will alike be punished.

Wis 14:11 Hence even the idols of the nations will have a visitation since, in God's creation, they have become an abomination, a scandal for human souls, a snare for the feet of the foolish.

Wis 14:12 The idea of making idols was the origin of fornication, their discovery corrupted life.

Wis 14:13 They did not exist at the beginning, they will not exist for ever;

Wis 14:14 human vanity brought them into the world, and a quick end is therefore reserved for them.

Wis 14:15 A father afflicted by untimely mourning has an image made of his child so soon carried off, and now pays divine honours to what yesterday was only a corpse, handing on mysteries and ceremonies to his people;

Wis 14:16 time passes, the custom hardens and is observed as law.

Wis 14:17 Rulers were the ones who ordered that statues should be worshipped: people who could not honour them in person, because they lived too far away, would have a portrait made of their distant countenance, to have an image that they could see of the king whom they honoured; meaning, by such zeal, to flatter the absent as if he were present.

Wis 14:18 Even people who did not know him were stimulated into spreading his cult by the artist's enthusiasm;

Wis 14:19 for the latter, doubtless wishing to please his ruler, exerted all his skill to surpass the reality,

Wis 14:20 and the crowd, attracted by the beauty of the work, mistook for a god someone whom recently they had honoured as a man.

Wis 14:21 And this became a snare for life: that people, whether enslaved by misfortune or by tyranny, should have conferred the ineffable Name on sticks and stones.

Wis 14:22 It is not enough, however, for them to have such misconceptions about God; for, living in the fierce warfare of ignorance, they call these terrible evils peace.

Wis 14:23 With their child-murdering rites, their occult mysteries, or their frenzied orgies with outlandish customs,

Wis 14:24 they no longer retain any purity in their lives or their marriages, one treacherously murdering another or wronging him by adultery.

Wis 14:25 Everywhere a welter of blood and murder, theft and fraud, corruption, treachery, riot, perjury,

Wis 14:26 disturbance of decent people, forgetfulness of favours, pollution of souls, sins against nature, disorder in marriage, adultery and debauchery.

Wis 14:27 For the worship of idols with no name is the beginning, cause, and end of every evil.

Wis 14:28 For these people either carry their merrymaking to the point of frenzy, or they prophesy what is not true, or they live wicked lives, or they perjure themselves without hesitation;

Wis 14:29 since they put their trust in lifeless idols they do not reckon their false oaths can harm them.

Wis 14:30 But they will be justly punished for this double crime: for degrading the concept of God by adhering to idols; and for wickedly perjuring themselves in contempt for what is holy.

Wis 14:31 For it is not the power of the things by which they swear but the punishment reserved for sinners that always follows the offences of wicked people.

Wis 15:1 But you, our God, are kind and true, slow to anger, governing the universe with mercy.

Wis 15:2 Even if we sin, we are yours, since we acknowledge your power, but we will not sin, knowing we count as yours.

Wis 15:3 To know you is indeed the perfect virtue, and to know your power is the root of immortality.

Wis 15:4 We have not been duped by inventions of misapplied human skill, or by the sterile work of painters, by figures daubed with assorted colours,

Wis 15:5 the sight of which sets fools yearning and hankering for the lifeless form of an unbreathing image.

Wis 15:6 Lovers of evil and worthy of such hopes are those who make them, those who want them and those who worship them.

Wis 15:7 Take a potter, now, laboriously working the soft earth, shaping each object for us to use. Out of the self-same clay, he models vessels intended for a noble use and those for a contrary purpose, all alike: but which of these two uses each will have is for the potter himself to decide.

Wis 15:8 Then—ill—spent effort!-from the same clay he models a futile god, although so recently made out of earth himself and shortly to return to what he was taken from, when asked to give back the soul that has been lent to him.

Wis 15:9 Even so, he does not worry about having to die or about the shortness of his life, but strives to outdo the goldsmiths and silversmiths, imitates the bronzeworkers, and prides himself on modelling counterfeits.

Wis 15:10 Ashes, his heart; more vile than earth, his hope; more wretched than clay, his life!

Wis 15:11 For he has misconceived the One who has modelled him, who breathed an active soul into him and inspired a living spirit.

Wis 15:12 What is more, he looks on this life of ours as a kind of game, and our time here like a fair, full of bargains. 'However foul the means,' he says, 'a man must make a living.'

Wis 15:13 He, more than any other, knows he is sinning, he who from one earthy stuff makes both brittle pots and idols.

Wis 15:14 But most foolish, more pitiable even than the soul of a little child, are the enemies who once played the tyrant with your people,

Wis 15:15 and have taken all the idols of the heathen for gods; these can use neither their eyes for seeing nor their nostrils for breathing the air nor their ears for hearing nor the fingers on their hands for handling nor their feet for walking.

Wis 15:16 They have been made, you see, by a human being, modelled by a being whose own breath is borrowed. No man can model a god to resemble himself;

Wis 15:17 subject to death, his impious hands can produce only something dead. He himself is worthier than the things he worships; he will at least have lived, but never they.

Wis 15:18 And they worship even the most loathsome of animals, worse than the rest in their degree of stupidity,

Wis 15:19 without a trace of beauty—if that is what is attractive in animals- and excluded from God's praises and blessing.

Wis 16:1 Thus they were appropriately punished by similar creatures and tormented by swarms of vermin.

Wis 16:2 In contrast to this punishment, you did your people a kindness and, to satisfy their sharp appetite, provided quails—a luscious rarity—for them to eat.

Wis 16:3 Thus the Egyptians, at the repulsive sight of the creatures sent against them, were to find that, though they longed for food, they had lost their natural appetite; whereas your own people, after a short privation, were to have a rare relish for their portion.

Wis 16:4 Inevitable that relentless want should seize on the former oppressors; enough for your people to be shown how their enemies were being tortured.

Wis 16:5 Even when the fearful rage of wild animals overtook them and they were perishing from the bites of writhing snakes, your retribution did not continue to the end.

Wis 16:6 Affliction struck them briefly, by way of warning, and they had a saving token to remind them of the commandment of your Law,

Wis 16:7 for whoever turned to it was saved, not by what he looked at, but by you, the Saviour of all.

Wis 16:8 And by such means you proved to our enemies that you are the one who delivers from every evil;

Wis 16:9 for them, the bites of locusts and flies proved fatal and no remedy could be found to save their lives, since they deserved to be punished by such creatures.

Wis 16:10 But your children, not even the fangs of poisonous snakes could bring them down; for your mercy came to their help and cured them.

Wis 16:11 One sting—how quickly healed!-to remind them of your pronouncements rather than that, by sinking into deep forgetfulness, they should be cut off from your kindness.

Wis 16:12 No herb, no poultice cured them, but your all-healing word, Lord.

Wis 16:13 Yes, you are the one with power over life and death, bringing to the gates of Hades and back again.

Wis 16:14 A human being out of malice may put to death, but cannot bring the departed spirit back or free the soul that Hades has once received.

Wis 16:15 It is not possible to escape your hand.

Wis 16:16 The godless who refused to acknowledge you were scourged by the strength of your arm, pursued by no ordinary rains, hail and unrelenting downpours, and consumed by fire.

Wis 16:17 Even more wonderful, in the water—which quenches all—the fire raged fiercer than ever; for the elements fight for the upright.

Wis 16:18 At one moment, the fire would die down, to avoid consuming the animals sent against the godless and to make clear to them by that sight, that the sentence of God was pursuing them;

Wis 16:19 at another, in the very heart of the water, it would burn more fiercely than fire to ruin the produce of a wicked land.

Wis 16:20 How differently with your people! You gave them the food of angels, from heaven untiringly providing them bread already prepared, containing every delight, to satisfy every taste.

Wis 16:21 And the substance you gave showed your sweetness towards your children, for, conforming to the taste of whoever ate it, it transformed itself into what each eater wished.

Wis 16:22 Snow and ice endured the fire, without melting; this was to show them that, to destroy the harvests of their enemies, fire would burn even in hail and flare in falling rain,

Wis 16:23 whereas, on the other hand, it would even forget its own strength in the service of feeding the upright.

Wis 16:24 For the creation, being at the service of you, its Creator, tautens to punish the wicked and slackens for the benefit of those who trust in you.

Wis 16:25 And this is why, by changing into all things, it obediently served your all-nourishing bounty, conforming to the wishes of those who were in need;

Wis 16:26 so that your beloved children, Lord, might learn that the various crops are not what provide nourishment, but your word which preserves all who believe in you.

Wis 16:27 For that which fire could not destroy melted in the heat of a single fleeting sunbeam,

Wis 16:28 to show that, to give you thanks, we must rise before the sun and meet you at the dawning of the day;

Wis 16:29 whereas the hope of the ungrateful melts like winter frost and flows away like water running to waste.

Wis 17:1 Yes, your judgements are great and impenetrable, which is why uninstructed souls have gone astray.

Wis 17:2 While the wicked supposed they had a holy nation in their power, they themselves lay prisoners of the dark, in the fetters of long night, confined under their own roofs, banished from eternal providence.

Wis 17:3 While they thought to remain unnoticed with their secret sins, curtained by dark forgetfulness, they were scattered in fearful dismay, terrified by apparitions.

Wis 17:4 The hiding place sheltering them could not ward off their fear; terrifying noises echoed round them; and gloomy, grim-faced spectres haunted them.

Wis 17:5 No fire had power enough to give them light, nor could the brightly blazing stars illuminate that dreadful night.

Wis 17:6 The only light for them was a great, spontaneous blaze—a fearful sight to see! And in their terror, once that sight had vanished, they thought what they had seen more terrible than ever.

Wis 17:7 Their magical illusions were powerless now, and their claims to intelligence were ignominiously confounded;

Wis 17:8 for those who promised to drive out fears and disorders from sick souls were now themselves sick with ludicrous fright.

Wis 17:9 Even when there was nothing frightful to scare them, the vermin creeping past and the hissing of reptiles filled them with panic;

Wis 17:10 they died convulsed with fright, refusing even to look at empty air, which cannot be eluded anyhow!

Wis 17:11 Wickedness is confessedly very cowardly, and it condemns itself; under pressure from conscience it always assumes the worst.

Wis 17:12 Fear, indeed, is nothing other than the failure of the help offered by reason;

Wis 17:13 the less you rely within yourself on this, the more alarming it is not to know the cause of your suffering.

Wis 17:14 And they, all locked in the same sleep, while that darkness lasted—which was in fact quite powerless and had issued from the depths of equally powerless Hades-

Wis 17:15 were now chased by monstrous spectres, now paralysed by the fainting of their souls; for a sudden, unexpected terror had attacked them.

Wis 17:16 And thus, whoever it might be that fell there stayed clamped to the spot in this prison without bars.

Wis 17:17 Whether he was ploughman or shepherd, or somebody at work in the desert, he was still overtaken and suffered the inevitable fate, for all had been bound by the one same chain of darkness.

Wis 17:18 The soughing of the wind, the tuneful noise of birds in the spreading branches, the measured beat of water in its powerful course, the headlong din of rocks cascading down,

Wis 17:19 the unseen course of bounding animals, the roaring of the most savage of wild beasts, the echo rebounding from the clefts in the mountains, all held them paralysed with fear.

Wis 17:20 For the whole world shone with the light of day and, unhindered, went about its work;

Wis 17:21 over them alone there spread a heavy darkness, image of the dark that would receive them. But heavier than the darkness was the burden they were to themselves.

Wis 18:1 For your holy ones, however, there was a very great light. The Egyptians, who could hear them but not see them, called them fortunate because they had not suffered too;

Wis 18:2 they thanked them for doing no injury in return for previous wrongs and asked forgiveness for their past ill-will.

Wis 18:3 In contrast to the darkness, you gave your people a pillar of blazing fire to guide them on their unknown journey, a mild sun for their ambitious migration.

Wis 18:4 But well those others deserved to be deprived of light and imprisoned in darkness, for they had kept in captivity your children, by whom the incorruptible light of the Law was to be given to the world.

Wis 18:5 As they had resolved to kill the infants of the holy ones, and as of those exposed only one child had been saved, you punished them by carrying off their horde of children and by destroying them all in the wild water.

Wis 18:6 That night had been known in advance to our ancestors, so that, well knowing him in whom they had put their trust, they would be sure of his promises.

Wis 18:7 Your people thus were waiting both for the rescue of the upright and for the ruin of the enemy;

Wis 18:8 for by the very vengeance that you exacted on our adversaries, you glorified us by calling us to you.

Wis 18:9 So the holy children of the good offered sacrifice in secret and with one accord enacted this holy law: that the holy ones should share good things and dangers alike; and forthwith they chanted the hymns of the ancestors.

Wis 18:10 In echo came the discordant cries of their enemies, and the pitiful wails of people mourning for their children could be heard from far away.

Wis 18:11 One and the same punishment had struck slave and master alike, and now commoner and king had the same sufferings to endure.

Wis 18:12 Struck by the same death, all had innumerable dead. There were not enough living left to bury them, for, at one stroke, the flower of their offspring had perished.

Wis 18:13 Those whose spells had made them completely incredulous, when faced with the destruction of their first-born, acknowledged this people to be child of God.

Wis 18:14 When peaceful silence lay over all, and night had run the half of her swift course,

Wis 18:15 down from the heavens, from the royal throne, leapt your all-powerful Word like a pitiless warrior into the heart of a land doomed to destruction. Carrying your unambiguous command like a sharp sword,

Wis 18:16 it stood, and filled the universe with death; though standing on the earth, it touched the sky.

Wis 18:17 Immediately, dreams and gruesome visions overwhelmed them with terror, unexpected fears assailed them.

Wis 18:18 Hurled down, some here, some there, half dead, they were able to say why they were dying;

Wis 18:19 for the dreams that had troubled them had warned them why beforehand, so that they should not perish without knowing why they were being afflicted.

Wis 18:20 Experience of death, however, touched the upright too, and a great many were struck down in the desert. But the Retribution did not last long,

Wis 18:21 for a blameless man hurried to their defence. Wielding the weapons of his sacred office, prayer and expiating incense, he confronted Retribution and put an end to the plague, thus showing that he was your servant.

Wis 18:22 He overcame Hostility, not by physical strength, nor by force of arms; but by word he prevailed over the Punisher, by recalling the oaths made to the Fathers, and the covenants.

Wis 18:23 Already the corpses lay piled in heaps, when he interposed and beat Retribution back and cut off its approach to the living.

Wis 18:24 For the whole world was on his flowing robe, the glorious names of the Fathers engraved on the four rows of stones, and your Majesty on the diadem on his head.

Wis 18:25 From these the Destroyer recoiled, he was afraid of these. This one experience of Retribution was enough.

Wis 19:1 But the godless were assailed by merciless anger to the very end, for he knew beforehand what they would do,

Wis 19:2 how, after letting his people leave and hastening their departure, they would change their minds and give chase.

Wis 19:3 They were actually still conducting their mourning rites and lamenting at the tombs of their dead, when another mad scheme came into their heads and they set out to pursue, as though runaways, the people whom they had expelled and begged to go.

Wis 19:4 A well-deserved fate urged them to this extreme and made them forget what had already happened, so that they would add to their torments the one punishment outstanding

Wis 19:5 and, while your people were experiencing a journey contrary to all expectations, would themselves meet an extraordinary death.

Wis 19:6 For the whole creation, submissive to your commands, had its very nature re-created, so that your children should be preserved from harm.

Wis 19:7 Overshadowing the camp there was the cloud; where there had been water, dry land was seen to rise; the Red Sea became an unimpeded way, the tempestuous waves, a green plain;

Wis 19:8 sheltered by your hand, the whole nation passed across, gazing at these amazing prodigies.

Wis 19:9 They were like horses at pasture, they skipped like lambs, singing your praises, Lord, their deliverer.

Wis 19:10 For they still remembered the events of their exile, how the land had bred mosquitoes instead of animals and the River had disgorged millions of frogs instead of fish.

Wis 19:11 Later they were to see a new way for birds to come into being, when, goaded by greed, they demanded something tasty,

Wis 19:12 and quails came up out of the sea to satisfy them.

Wis 19:13 On the sinners, however, punishments rained down not without violent thunder as early warning; and they suffered what their own crimes had justly deserved since they had shown such bitter hatred to foreigners.

Wis 19:14 Others, indeed, had failed to welcome strangers who came to them, but the Egyptians had enslaved their own guests and benefactors.

Wis 19:15 The sinners, moreover, will certainly be punished for it, since they gave the foreigners a hostile welcome;

Wis 19:16 but the latter, having given a festive reception to people who already shared the same rights as themselves, later overwhelmed them with terrible labours.

Wis 19:17 Hence they were struck with blindness, like the sinners at the gate of the upright, when, yawning darkness all around them, each had to grope his way through his own door.

Wis 19:18 A new attuning of the elements occurred, as on a harp the notes may change their rhythm, though all the while preserving the same tone; and this is just what happened:

Wis 19:19 land animals became aquatic, swimming ones took to the land,

Wis 19:20 fire reinforced its strength in water, and water forgot the power of extinguishing it;

Wis 19:21 flames, on the other hand, did not char the flesh of delicate animals that ventured into them; nor did they melt the heavenly food resembling ice and as easily melted.

Wis 19:22 Yes, Lord, in every way you have made your people great and glorious; you have never failed to help them at any time or place.

Sir 1:1 [The Law, the Prophets,and the other writers succeeding them have passed on to us great lessons,in consequence of which Israel must be commended for learning and wisdom. Furthermore, it is a duty, not only to acquire learning by reading,but also, once having acquired it, to make oneself of use to people outsideby what one can say or write. My grandfather Jesus, having long devoted himself to the readingof the Law,the Prophetsand other books of the Fathersand having become very learned in them,himself decided to write something on the subjects of learning and wisdom,so that people who wanted to learn might, by themselves accepting these disciplines,learn how better to live according to the Law.You are therefore askedto read this bookwith good will and attentionand to show indulgencein those places where, notwithstanding our efforts at interpretation, we may seemto have failed to give an adequate rendering of this or that expression;the fact is that there is no equivalentfor things originally written in Hebrew when it is a question of translating them into another language;what is more,the Law itself, the Prophetsand the other booksdiffer considerably in translation from what appears in the original text. It was in the thirty-eighth year of the late King Euergetesthat, coming to Egypt and spending some time here,and finding life here consistent with a high degree of wisdom,I became convinced of an immediate duty to apply myself in my turn with pains and diligence to the translation of the book that follows;and I spent much time and learning on itin the course of this period,to complete the work and to publish the bookfor the benefit of those too who, domiciled abroad, wish to study,to reform their behaviour, and to live as the Law requires.] All wisdom comes from the Lord, she is with him for ever.

Sir 1:2 The sands of the sea, the drops of rain, the days of eternity—who can count them?

Sir 1:3 The height of the sky, the breadth of the earth, the depth of the abyss—who can explore them?

Sir 1:4 Wisdom was created before everything, prudent understanding subsists from remotest ages.

Sir 1:5

Sir 1:6 For whom has the root of wisdom ever been uncovered? Her resourceful ways, who knows them?

Sir 1:7

Sir 1:8 One only is wise, terrible indeed,

Sir 1:9 seated on his throne, the Lord. It was he who created, inspected and weighed her up, and then poured her out on all his works-

Sir 1:10 as much to each living creature as he chose—bestowing her on those who love him.

Sir 1:11 The fear of the Lord is glory and pride, happiness and a crown of joyfulness.

Sir 1:12 The fear of the Lord gladdens the heart, giving happiness, joy and long life.

Sir 1:13 For those who fear the Lord, all will end well: on their dying day they will be blessed.

Sir 1:14 The basis of wisdom is to fear the Lord; she was created with the faithful in their mothers' womb;

Sir 1:15 she has made a home in the human race, an age—old foundation, and to their descendants will she faithfully cling.

Sir 1:16 The fullness of wisdom is to fear the Lord; she intoxicates them with her fruits;

Sir 1:17 she fills their entire house with treasures and their storerooms with her produce.

Sir 1:18 The crown of wisdom is to fear the Lord: she makes peace and health flourish.

Sir 1:19 The Lord has seen and assessed her, he has showered down knowledge and intelligence, he has exalted the renown of those who possess her.

Sir 1:20 The root of wisdom is to fear the Lord, and her branches are long life.

Sir 1:21

Sir 1:22 The rage of the wicked cannot put him in the right, for the weight of his rage is his downfall.

Sir 1:23 A patient person puts up with things until the right time comes: but his joy will break out in the end.

Sir 1:24 Till the time comes he keeps his thoughts to himself, and many a lip will affirm how wise he is.

Sir 1:25 Wisdom’s treasuries contain the maxims of knowledge, the sinner, however, holds piety in abhorrence.

Sir 1:26 If you desire wisdom, keep the commandments, and the Lord will bestow it on you.

Sir 1:27 For the fear of the Lord is wisdom and instruction, and what pleases him is faithfulness and gentleness.

Sir 1:28 Do not stand out against fear of the Lord, do not practise it with a double heart.

Sir 1:29 Do not act a part in public, keep watch over your lips.

Sir 1:30 Do not grow too high and mighty, for fear you fall and cover yourself in disgrace; for the Lord would then reveal your secrets and overthrow you before the whole community for not having practised fear of the Lord and for having a heart full of deceit.

Sir 2:1 My child, if you aspire to serve the Lord, prepare yourself for an ordeal.

Sir 2:2 Be sincere of heart, be steadfast, and do not be alarmed when disaster comes.

Sir 2:3 Cling to him and do not leave him, so that you may be honoured at the end of your days.

Sir 2:4 Whatever happens to you, accept it, and in the uncertainties of your humble state, be patient,

Sir 2:5 since gold is tested in the fire, and the chosen in the furnace of humiliation.

Sir 2:6 Trust him and he will uphold you, follow a straight path and hope in him.

Sir 2:7 You who fear the Lord, wait for his mercy; do not turn aside, for fear you fall.

Sir 2:8 You who fear the Lord, trust him, and you will not be robbed of your reward.

Sir 2:9 You who fear the Lord, hope for those good gifts of his, everlasting joy and mercy.

Sir 2:10 Look at the generations of old and see: whoever trusted in the Lord and was put to shame? Or whoever, steadfastly fearing him, was forsaken? Or whoever called to him and was ignored?

Sir 2:11 For the Lord is compassionate and merciful, he forgives sins and saves in the time of distress.

Sir 2:12 Woe to faint hearts and listless hands, and to the sinner who treads two paths.

Sir 2:13 Woe to the listless heart that has no faith, for such will have no protection.

Sir 2:14 Woe to you who have lost the strength to endure; what will you do at the Lord's visitation?

Sir 2:15 Those who fear the Lord do not disdain his words, and those who love him keep his ways.

Sir 2:16 Those who fear the Lord do their best to please him, and those who love him will find satisfaction in the Law.

Sir 2:17 Those who fear the Lord keep their hearts prepared and humble themselves in his presence.

Sir 2:18 Let us fall into the hands of the Lord, not into any human clutches; for as his majesty is, so too is his mercy.

Sir 3:1 Children, listen to me for I am your father: do what I tell you, and so be safe;

Sir 3:2 for the Lord honours the father above his children and upholds the rights of a mother over her sons.

Sir 3:3 Whoever respects a father expiates sins,

Sir 3:4 whoever honours a mother is like someone amassing a fortune.

Sir 3:5 Whoever respects a father will in turn be happy with children, the day he prays for help, he will be heard.

Sir 3:6 Long life comes to anyone who honours a father, whoever obeys the Lord makes a mother happy.

Sir 3:7 Such a one serves parents as well as the Lord.

Sir 3:8 Respect your father in deed as well as word, so that blessing may come on you from him;

Sir 3:9 since a father’s blessing makes his children’s house firm, while a mother’s curse tears up its foundations.

Sir 3:10 Do not make a boast of disgrace overtaking your father, your father’s disgrace reflects no honour on you;

Sir 3:11 for a person’s own honour derives from the respect shown to his father, and a mother held in dishonour is a reproach to her children.

Sir 3:12 My child, support your father in his old age, do not grieve him during his life.

Sir 3:13 Even if his mind should fail, show him sympathy, do not despise him in your health and strength;

Sir 3:14 for kindness to a father will not be forgotten but will serve as reparation for your sins.

Sir 3:15 On your own day of ordeal God will remember you: like frost in sunshine, your sins will melt away.

Sir 3:16 Whoever deserts a father is no better than a blasphemer, and whoever distresses a mother is accursed of the Lord.

Sir 3:17 My child, be gentle in carrying out your business, and you will be better loved than a lavish giver.

Sir 3:18 The greater you are, the more humbly you should behave, and then you will find favour with the Lord;

Sir 3:19

Sir 3:20 for great though the power of the Lord is, he accepts the homage of the humble.

Sir 3:21 Do not try to understand things that are too difficult for you, or try to discover what is beyond your powers.

Sir 3:22 Concentrate on what has been assigned you, you have no need to worry over mysteries.

Sir 3:23 Do not meddle with matters that are beyond you; what you have been taught already exceeds the scope of the human mind.

Sir 3:24 For many have been misled by their own notions, wicked presumption having warped their judgement.

Sir 3:25

Sir 3:26 A stubborn heart will come to a bad end, and whoever dallies with danger will perish in it.

Sir 3:27 A stubborn heart is weighed down with troubles, the sinner heaps sin on sin.

Sir 3:28 For the disease of the proud there is no cure, since an evil growth has taken root there.

Sir 3:29 The heart of the sensible will reflect on parables, an attentive ear is the sage’s dream.

Sir 3:30 Water puts out a blazing fire, almsgiving expiates sins.

Sir 3:31 Whoever gives favours in return is mindful of the future; at the moment of falling, such a person will find support.

Sir 4:1 My child, do not refuse the poor a livelihood, do not tantalise the needy.

Sir 4:2 Do not add to the sufferings of the hungry, do not bait anyone in distress.

Sir 4:3 Do not aggravate a heart already angry, nor keep the destitute waiting for your alms.

Sir 4:4 Do not repulse a hard-pressed beggar, nor turn your face from the poor.

Sir 4:5 Do not avert your eyes from the needy, give no one occasion to curse you;

Sir 4:6 for if someone curses you in distress, his Maker will give ear to the imprecation.

Sir 4:7 Gain the love of the community, in the presence of the great bow your head.

Sir 4:8 To the poor lend an ear, and courteously return the greeting.

Sir 4:9 Save the oppressed from the hand of the oppressor, and do not be mean-spirited in your judgements.

Sir 4:10 Be like a father to the fatherless and as good as a husband to their mothers. And you will be like a child to the Most High, who will love you more than your own mother does.

Sir 4:11 Wisdom brings up her own children and cares for those who seek her.

Sir 4:12 Whoever loves her loves life, those who seek her early will be filled with joy.

Sir 4:13 Whoever possesses her will inherit honour, and wherever he walks the Lord will bless him.

Sir 4:14 Those who serve her minister to the Holy One, and the Lord loves those who love her.

Sir 4:15 Whoever obeys her rules the nations, whoever pays attention to her dwells secure.

Sir 4:16 If he trusts himself to her he will inherit her, and his descendants will remain in possession of her;

Sir 4:17 for though she takes him at first through winding ways, bringing fear and faintness on him, trying him out with her discipline till she can trust him, and testing him with her ordeals,

Sir 4:18 she then comes back to him on the straight road, makes him happy and reveals her secrets to him.

Sir 4:19 If he goes astray, however, she abandons him and leaves him to his own destruction.

Sir 4:20 Take circumstances into account and beware of evil, and have no cause to be ashamed of yourself;

Sir 4:21 for there is a shame that leads to sin and a shame that is honourable and gracious.

Sir 4:22 Do not be too severe on yourself, do not let shame lead you to ruin.

Sir 4:23 Do not refrain from speaking when it will do good, and do not hide your wisdom;

Sir 4:24 for your wisdom is made known by what you say, your erudition by the words you utter.

Sir 4:25 Do not contradict the truth, rather blush for your own ignorance.

Sir 4:26 Do not be ashamed to confess your sins, do not struggle against the current of the river.

Sir 4:27 Do not grovel to the foolish, do not show partiality to the influential.

Sir 4:28 Fight to the death for truth, and the Lord God will war on your side.

Sir 4:29 Do not be bold of tongue, yet idle and slack in deed;

Sir 4:30 do not be like a lion at home, or cowardly towards your servants.

Sir 4:31 Do not let your hands be outstretched to receive, yet tight-fisted when the time comes to give back.

Sir 5:1 Do not put your confidence in your money or say, ‘With this I am self-sufficient.’

Sir 5:2 Do not be led by your appetites and energy to follow the passions of your heart.

Sir 5:3 And do not say, ‘Who has authority over me?’ for the Lord will certainly give you your deserts.

Sir 5:4 Do not say, ‘I have sinned, but what harm has befallen me?’ for the Lord’s forbearance is long.

Sir 5:5 Do not be so sure of forgiveness that you add sin to sin.

Sir 5:6 And do not say, ‘His compassion is great, he will forgive me my many sins’; for with him are both mercy and retribution, and his anger does not pass from sinners.

Sir 5:7 Do not delay your return to the Lord, do not put it off day after day; for suddenly the Lord’s wrath will blaze out, and on the day of punishment you will be utterly destroyed.

Sir 5:8 Do not set your heart on ill-gotten gains, they will be of no use to you on the day of disaster.

Sir 5:9 Do not winnow in every wind, or walk along every by-way (as the double-talking sinner does).

Sir 5:10 Be steady in your convictions, and be a person of your word.

Sir 5:11 Be quick to listen, and deliberate in giving an answer.

Sir 5:12 If you understand the matter, give your neighbour an answer, if not, keep your hand over your mouth.

Sir 5:13 Both honour and disgrace come from talking, the tongue is its owner's downfall.

Sir 5:14 Do not get a name for scandal-mongering, do not set traps with your tongue; for as shame lies in store for the thief, so harsh condemnation awaits the deceitful.

Sir 5:15 Avoid offences in great as in small matters, and do not exchange friendship for enmity,

Sir 6:1 for a bad name will earn you shame and reproach, as happens to the double-talking sinner.

Sir 6:2 Do not get carried aloft on the wings of passion, for fear your strength tear itself apart like a bull,

Sir 6:3 and you devour your own foliage and destroy your own fruit and end by making yourself like a piece of dried-up wood.

Sir 6:4 An evil temper destroys the person who has it and makes him the laughing-stock of his enemies.

Sir 6:5 A kindly turn of speech attracts new friends, a courteous tongue invites many a friendly response.

Sir 6:6 Let your acquaintances be many, but for advisers choose one out of a thousand.

Sir 6:7 If you want to make a friend, take him on trial, and do not be in a hurry to trust him;

Sir 6:8 for one kind of friend is so only when it suits him but will not stand by you in your day of trouble.

Sir 6:9 Another kind of friend will fall out with you and to your dismay make your quarrel public,

Sir 6:10 and a third kind of friend will share your table, but not stand by you in your day of trouble:

Sir 6:11 when you are doing well he will be your second self, ordering your servants about;

Sir 6:12 but, if disaster befalls you, he will recoil from you and keep out of your way.

Sir 6:13 Keep well clear of your enemies, and be wary of your friends.

Sir 6:14 A loyal friend is a powerful defence: whoever finds one has indeed found a treasure.

Sir 6:15 A loyal friend is something beyond price, there is no measuring his worth.

Sir 6:16 A loyal friend is the elixir of life, and those who fear the Lord will find one.

Sir 6:17 Whoever fears the Lord makes true friends, for as a person is, so is his friend too.

Sir 6:18 My child, from your earliest youth choose instruction, and till your hair is white you will keep finding wisdom.

Sir 6:19 Like ploughman and sower, cultivate her and wait for her fine harvest, for in tilling her you will toil a little while, but very soon you will be eating her crops.

Sir 6:20 How very harsh she is to the undisciplined! The senseless does not stay with her for long:

Sir 6:21 she will weigh as heavily on the senseless as a touchstone and such a person will lose no time in throwing her off;

Sir 6:22 for Wisdom is true to her name, she is not accessible to many.

Sir 6:23 Listen, my child, and take my advice, do not reject my counsel:

Sir 6:24 put your feet into her fetters, and your neck into her collar;

Sir 6:25 offer your shoulder to her burden, do not be impatient of her bonds;

Sir 6:26 court her with all your soul, and with all your might keep in her ways;

Sir 6:27 search for her, track her down: she will reveal herself; once you hold her, do not let her go.

Sir 6:28 For in the end you will find rest in her and she will take the form of joy for you:

Sir 6:29 her fetters you will find a mighty defence, her collars, a precious necklace.

Sir 6:30 Her yoke will be a golden ornament, and her bonds be purple ribbons;

Sir 6:31 you will wear her like a robe of honour, you will put her on like a crown of joy.

Sir 6:32 If you wish it, my child, you can be taught; apply yourself, and you will become intelligent.

Sir 6:33 If you love listening, you will learn, if you pay attention, you will become wise.

Sir 6:34 Attend the gathering of elders; if there is a wise man there, attach yourself to him.

Sir 6:35 Listen willingly to any discourse coming from God, do not let wise proverbs escape you.

Sir 6:36 If you see a man of understanding, visit him early, let your feet wear out his doorstep.

Sir 6:37 Reflect on the injunctions of the Lord, busy yourself at all times with his commandments. He will strengthen your mind, and the wisdom you desire will be granted you.

Sir 7:1 Do no evil, and evil will not befall you;

Sir 7:2 shun wrong, and it will avoid you.

Sir 7:3 My child, do not sow in the furrows of wickedness, for fear you have to reap them seven times over.

Sir 7:4 Do not ask the Lord for the highest place, or the king for a seat of honour.

Sir 7:5 Do not parade your uprightness before the Lord, or your wisdom before the king.

Sir 7:6 Do not scheme to be appointed judge, for fear you should not be strong enough to stamp out injustice, for fear of being swayed by someone influential and so of risking the loss of your integrity.

Sir 7:7 Do not wrong the general body of citizens and so lower yourself in popular esteem.

Sir 7:8 Do not be drawn to sin twice over, for you will not go unpunished even once.

Sir 7:9 Do not say, ‘God will be impressed by my numerous offerings; when I sacrifice to God Most High, he is bound to accept.’

Sir 7:10 Do not be hesitant in prayer; do not neglect to give alms.

Sir 7:11 Do not laugh at someone who is sad of heart, for he who brings low can lift up high.

Sir 7:12 Do not make up lies against your brother, nor against a friend either.

Sir 7:13 Mind you tell no lies, for no good can come of it.

Sir 7:14 Do not talk too much at the gathering of elders, and do not repeat yourself at your prayers.

Sir 7:15 Do not shirk tiring jobs or farm work, ordained by the Most High.

Sir 7:16 Do not swell the ranks of sinners, remember that the retribution will not delay.

Sir 7:17 Be very humble, since the recompense for the godless is fire and worms.

Sir 7:18 Do not barter a friend away for the sake of profit, nor a true brother for the gold of Ophir.

Sir 7:19 Do not turn against a wise and good wife; her gracious presence is worth more than gold.

Sir 7:20 Do not ill-treat a slave who is an honest worker, or a wage-earner who is devoted to you.

Sir 7:21 Love an intelligent slave with all your heart, and do not deny such a slave his freedom.

Sir 7:22 Have you cattle? Look after them; if they are making you a profit, keep them.

Sir 7:23 Have you children? Educate them, from childhood make them bow the neck.

Sir 7:24 Have you daughters? Take care of their bodies, but do not be over-indulgent.

Sir 7:25 Marry a daughter off, and you have finished a great work; but give her to a man of sense.

Sir 7:26 Have you a wife to your liking? Do not turn her out; but if you do not love her, never trust her.

Sir 7:27 With all your heart honour your father, never forget the birthpangs of your mother.

Sir 7:28 Remember that you owe your birth to them; how can you repay them for what they have done for you?

Sir 7:29 With all your soul, fear the Lord and revere his priests.

Sir 7:30 With all your might love him who made you, and do not abandon his ministers.

Sir 7:31 Fear the Lord and honour the priest and give him the portion enjoined on you: first-fruits, sacrifice of reparation, shoulder-gift, sanctification sacrifice, first-fruits of the holy things.

Sir 7:32 And also give generously to the poor, so that your blessing may lack nothing.

Sir 7:33 Let your generosity extend to all the living, do not withhold it even from the dead.

Sir 7:34 Do not turn your back on those who weep, but share the grief of the grief-stricken.

Sir 7:35 Do not shrink from visiting the sick; in this way you will make yourself loved.

Sir 7:36 In everything you do, remember your end, and you will never sin.

Sir 8:1 Do not try conclusions with anyone influential, in case you later fall into his clutches.

Sir 8:2 Do not quarrel with anyone rich, in case he puts his weight against you; for gold has destroyed many, and has swayed the hearts of kings.

Sir 8:3 Do not argue with anyone argumentative, do not pile wood on that fire.

Sir 8:4 Do not joke with anyone uncouth, for fear of hearing your ancestors insulted.

Sir 8:5 Do not revile a repentant sinner; remember that we all are guilty.

Sir 8:6 Do not despise anyone in old age; after all, some of us too are growing old.

Sir 8:7 Do not gloat over anyone's death; remember that we all have to die.

Sir 8:8 Do not scorn the discourse of the wise, but make yourself familiar with their maxims, since from these you will learn the theory and the art of serving the great.

Sir 8:9 Do not dismiss what the old people have to say, for they too were taught by their parents; from them you will learn how to think, and the art of the timely answer.

Sir 8:10 Do not kindle the coals of the sinner, in case you scorch yourself in his blaze.

Sir 8:11 Refuse to be provoked by the insolent, for fear that such a one try to trap you in your words.

Sir 8:12 Do not lend to anyone who is stronger than you are—if you do lend, resign yourself to loss.

Sir 8:13 Do not stand surety beyond your means; if you do stand surety, be prepared to pay up.

Sir 8:14 Do not go to law with a judge, since judgement will be given in his favour.

Sir 8:15 Do not go travelling with a rash man, for fear he becomes burdensome to you; he will act as the whim takes him, and you will both be ruined by his folly.

Sir 8:16 Do not argue with a quick-tempered man, do not go with him where there are no other people, since blood counts for nothing in his eyes, and where no help is to be had, he will strike you down.

Sir 8:17 Do not ask a fool for advice, since a fool will not be able to keep a confidence.

Sir 8:18 In a stranger's presence do nothing that should be kept secret, since you cannot tell what use the stranger will make of it.

Sir 8:19 Do not open your heart to all comers, nor lay claim to their good offices.

Sir 9:1 Do not be jealous of the wife you love, do not teach her lessons in how to harm you.

Sir 9:2 Do not put yourself in a woman's hands or she may come to dominate you completely.

Sir 9:3 Do not keep company with a prostitute, in case you get entangled in her snares.

Sir 9:4 Do not dally with a singing girl, in case you get caught by her wiles.

Sir 9:5 Do not stare at a pretty girl, in case you and she incur the same punishment.

Sir 9:6 Do not give your heart to whores, or you will ruin your inheritance.

Sir 9:7 Keep your eyes to yourself in the streets of a town, do not prowl about its unfrequented quarters.

Sir 9:8 Turn your eyes away from a handsome woman, do not stare at a beauty belonging to someone else. Because of a woman's beauty, many have been undone; this makes passion flare up like a fire.

Sir 9:9 Never sit down with a married woman, or sit at table with her drinking wine, in case you let your heart succumb to her and you lose all self-control and slide to disaster.

Sir 9:10 Do not desert an old friend; the new one will not be his match. New friend, new wine; when it grows old, you drink it with pleasure.

Sir 9:11 Do not envy the sinner his success; you do not know how that will end.

Sir 9:12 Do not take pleasure in what pleases the godless; remember they will not go unpunished here below.

Sir 9:13 Keep your distance from the man who has the power to put to death, and you will not be haunted by the fear of dying. If you do approach him, make no false move, or he may take your life. Realise that you are treading among trip-lines, that you are strolling on the battlements.

Sir 9:14 Cultivate your neighbours to the best of your ability, and consult with the wise.

Sir 9:15 For conversation seek the intelligent, let all your discussions bear on the law of the Most High.

Sir 9:16 Have the upright for your table companions, and let your pride be in fearing the Lord.

Sir 9:17 Work from skilled hands will earn its praise, but a leader of the people must be skilful in words.

Sir 9:18 A chatterbox is a terror to his town, a loose talker is detested.

Sir 10:1 A sagacious ruler educates his people, and he makes his subjects understand order.

Sir 10:2 As the magistrate is, so will his officials be, as the governor is, so will be the inhabitants of his city.

Sir 10:3 An undisciplined king will be the ruin of his people, a city owes its prosperity to the intelligence of its leading men.

Sir 10:4 The government of the earth is in the hands of the Lord, he sets the right leader over it at the right time.

Sir 10:5 Human success is in the hands of the Lord. He invests the scribe with honour.

Sir 10:6 Do not resent your neighbour’s every offence, and never act in a fit of passion.

Sir 10:7 Pride is hateful to God and humanity, and injustice is abhorrent to both.

Sir 10:8 Sovereignty passes from nation to nation because of injustice, arrogance and money.

Sir 10:9 What has dust and ashes to pride itself on? Even in life its entrails are repellent.

Sir 10:10 A long illness makes a fool of the doctor; a king today is a corpse tomorrow.

Sir 10:11 For in death the portion of all alike will be insects, wild animals and worms.

Sir 10:12 The first stage of pride is to desert the Lord and to turn one’s heart away from one’s Maker.

Sir 10:13 Since the first stage of pride is sin, whoever clings to it will pour forth filth. This is why the Lord inflicts unexpected punishments on such people, utterly destroying them.

Sir 10:14 The Lord has turned mighty princes off their thrones and seated the humble there instead.

Sir 10:15 The Lord has plucked up the proud by the roots, and planted the lowly in their place.

Sir 10:16 The Lord has overthrown the lands of the nations and destroyed them to the very foundations of the earth.

Sir 10:17 Sometimes he has taken them away and destroyed them, and blotted out their memory from the earth.

Sir 10:18 Pride was not created for human beings, nor furious rage for those born of woman.

Sir 10:19 What race deserves honour? The human race. What race deserves honour? Those who fear the Lord. What race deserves contempt? The human race. What race deserves contempt? Those who break the Law.

Sir 10:20 A leader is honoured by his brothers, and those who fear the Lord are honoured by him.

Sir 10:21

Sir 10:22 The rich, the noble, the poor, let them pride themselves on fearing the Lord.

Sir 10:23 It is not right to despise one who is poor but intelligent, and it is not good to honour one who is a sinner.

Sir 10:24 Magnate, magistrate, potentate, all are to be honoured, but none is greater than the one who fears the Lord.

Sir 10:25 A wise slave will have free men waiting on him, and the enlightened will not complain.

Sir 10:26 Do not try to be smart when you do your work, do not put on airs when you are in difficulties.

Sir 10:27 Better the hardworking who has plenty of everything, than the pretentious at a loss for a meal.

Sir 10:28 My child, be modest in your self-esteem, and value yourself at your proper worth.

Sir 10:29 Who can justify one who inflicts injuries on himself, or respect one who is full of self-contempt?

Sir 10:30 The poor is honoured for wit, and the rich for wealth.

Sir 10:31 Honoured in poverty, how much the more in wealth! Dishonoured in wealth, how much the more in poverty!

Sir 11:1 Wisdom enables the poor to stand erect, and gives to the poor a place with the great.

Sir 11:2 Do not praise anyone for good looks, nor dislike anyone for mere appearance.

Sir 11:3 Small among winged creatures is the bee but her produce is the sweetest of the sweet.

Sir 11:4 Do not grow proud when people honour you; for the works of the Lord are wonderful but hidden from human beings.

Sir 11:5 Many monarchs have been made to sit on the ground, and the person nobody thought of has worn the crown.

Sir 11:6 Many influential people have been utterly disgraced, and prominent people have fallen into the power of others.

Sir 11:7 Do not find fault before making thorough enquiry; first reflect, then give a reprimand.

Sir 11:8 Listen before you answer, and do not interrupt a speech before it is finished.

Sir 11:9 Do not wrangle about something that does not concern you, do not interfere in the quarrels of sinners.

Sir 11:10 My child, do not take on a great amount of business; if you multiply your interests, you are bound to suffer for it; hurry as fast as you can, yet you will never arrive, nor will you escape by running away.

Sir 11:11 Some people work very hard at top speed, only to find themselves falling further behind.

Sir 11:12 Or there is the slow kind of person, needing help, poor in possessions and rich in poverty; and the Lord turns a favourable eye on him, lifts him out of his wretched condition,

Sir 11:13 and enables him to hold his head high, thus causing general astonishment.

Sir 11:14 Good and bad, life and death, poverty and wealth, all come from the Lord.

Sir 11:15

Sir 11:16

Sir 11:17 To the devout the Lord's gift remains constant, and his favour will be there to lead them for ever.

Sir 11:18 Others grow rich by pinching and scraping, and here is the reward they receive for it:

Sir 11:19 although they say, 'Now I can sit back and enjoy the benefit of what I have got,' they do not know how long this will last; they will have to leave their goods to others and die.

Sir 11:20 Stick to your job, work hard at it and grow old at your work.

Sir 11:21 Do not admire the achievements of sinners, trust the Lord and mind your own business; since it is a trifle in the eyes of the Lord, in a moment, suddenly to make the poor rich.

Sir 11:22 The blessing of the Lord is the reward of the devout, in a moment God brings his blessing to flower.

Sir 11:23 Do not say, 'What are my needs, how much shall I have in the future?'

Sir 11:24 And do not say, 'I am self-sufficient, what disaster can affect me now?'

Sir 11:25 In prosperous times, disasters are forgotten and in times of disaster, no one remembers prosperity.

Sir 11:26 Yet it is a trifle for the Lord on the day someone dies to repay him as his conduct deserves.

Sir 11:27 A moment's adversity, and pleasures are forgotten; in a person's last hour his deeds will stand revealed.

Sir 11:28 Call no one fortunate before his death; it is by his end that someone will be known.

Sir 11:29 Do not bring everyone home with you, for many are the traps of the crafty.

Sir 11:30 Like a captive partridge in a cage, so is the heart of the proud: like a spy he watches for your downfall,

Sir 11:31 ever on the look-out, turning good into bad and finding fault with what is praiseworthy.

Sir 11:32 A hearthful of glowing coals starts from a single spark, and the sinner lurks for the chance to spill blood.

Sir 11:33 Beware of a scoundrel and his evil contrivances, in case he puts a smear on you for ever.

Sir 11:34 Give a home to a stranger and he will start trouble and estrange you from your own family.

Sir 12:1 If you mean to do a kindness, choose the right person, then your good deeds will not be wasted.

Sir 12:2 Do good to someone devout, and you will be rewarded, if not by that person, then certainly by the Most High.

Sir 12:3 No good will come to one who persists in evil, or who refuses to give alms.

Sir 12:4 Give to the devout, do not go to the help of a sinner.

Sir 12:5 Do good to the humble, give nothing to the godless. Refuse him bread, do not give him any, it might make him stronger than you are; then you would be repaid evil twice over for all the good you had done him.

Sir 12:6 For the Most High himself detests sinners, and will repay the wicked with what they deserve.

Sir 12:7 Give to the good, and do not go to the help of a sinner.

Sir 12:8 In prosperity you cannot always tell a true friend, but in adversity you cannot mistake an enemy.

Sir 12:9 When someone is doing well that person's enemies are sad, when someone is doing badly, even a friend will keep at a distance.

Sir 12:10 Do not ever trust an enemy; as bronze tarnishes, so does an enemy's malice.

Sir 12:11 Even if he behaves humbly and comes bowing and scraping, maintain your reserve and be on your guard against him. Behave towards him as if you were polishing a mirror, you will find that his tarnish cannot last.

Sir 12:12 Do not stand him beside you in case he thrusts you out and takes your place. Do not seat him on your right, or he will be after your position, and then you will remember what I have said and sadly admit that I was right.

Sir 12:13 Who feels sorry for a snake-charmer bitten by a snake, or for those who take risks with savage animals? -

Sir 12:14 just so for one who consorts with a sinner, and becomes an accomplice in his sins.

Sir 12:15 He will stay with you for a while, but if you once give way he will press his advantage.

Sir 12:16 An enemy may have sweetness on his lips, and in his heart a scheme to throw you into the ditch. An enemy may have tears in his eyes, but if he gets a chance there can never be too much blood for him.

Sir 12:17 If you meet with misfortune, you will find him there before you, and, pretending to help you, he will trip you up.

Sir 12:18 He will wag his head and clap his hands, he will whisper a lot and his expression will change.

Sir 13:1 Whoever touches pitch will be defiled, and anyone who associates with the proud will come to be like them.

Sir 13:2 Do not try to carry a burden too heavy for you, do not associate with someone more powerful and wealthy than yourself. Why put the clay pot next to the iron cauldron? It will only break when they bang against each other.

Sir 13:3 The rich does wrong and takes a high line; the poor is wronged and has to beg for pardon.

Sir 13:4 If you are useful the rich will exploit you, if you go bankrupt he will desert you.

Sir 13:5 Are you well off? - he will live with you, he will clean you out without a single qualm.

Sir 13:6 Does he need you? - he will hoodwink you, smile at you and raise your hopes; he will speak politely to you and say, 'Is there anything you need?'

Sir 13:7 He will make you feel small at his dinner parties and, having cleaned you out two or three times over, will end by laughing at you. Afterwards, when he sees you, he will avoid you and shake his head about you.

Sir 13:8 Take care you are not hoodwinked and thus humiliated through your own stupidity.

Sir 13:9 When an influential person invites you, show reluctance, and he will press his invitation all the more.

Sir 13:10 Do not thrust yourself forward, in case you are pushed aside, but do not stand aloof, or you will be overlooked.

Sir 13:11 Do not affect to treat him as an equal, do not trust his flow of words; since all this talking is expressly meant to test you, under cover of geniality he will be weighing you up.

Sir 13:12 Pitiless is anyone who retails gossip; he will not spare you either blows or chains.

Sir 13:13 Be wary, take very great care, because you are walking with your own downfall.

Sir 13:14

Sir 13:15 Every living thing loves its own sort, and every man his fellow.

Sir 13:16 Every creature mixes with its kind, and human beings stick to their own sort.

Sir 13:17 How can wolf and lamb agree? - Just so with sinner and devout.

Sir 13:18 What peace can there be between hyena and dog? And what peace between rich and poor?

Sir 13:19 Wild desert donkeys are the prey of lions; so too, the poor is the quarry of the rich.

Sir 13:20 The proud thinks humility abhorrent; so too, the rich abominates the poor.

Sir 13:21 When the rich stumbles he is supported by friends; when the poor falls, his friends push him away.

Sir 13:22 When the rich slips, there are many hands to catch him, if he talks nonsense he is congratulated. The poor slips, and is blamed for it, he may talk good sense, but no room is made for him.

Sir 13:23 The rich speaks and everyone stops talking, and then they praise his discourse to the skies. The poor speaks and people say, 'Who is this?' and if he stumbles, they trip him up yet more.

Sir 13:24 Wealth is good where there is no sin, poverty is evil, the godless say.

Sir 13:25 The heart moulds a person's expression whether for better or worse.

Sir 13:26 Happy heart, cheerful expression; but wearisome work, inventing proverbs.

Sir 14:1 Blessed is anyone who has not sinned in speech and who needs feel no remorse for sins.

Sir 14:2 Blessed is anyone whose conscience brings no reproach and who has never given up hope.

Sir 14:3 Wealth is not the right thing for the niggardly, and what use are possessions to the covetous?

Sir 14:4 Whoever hoards by stinting himself is hoarding for others, and others will live sumptuously on his riches.

Sir 14:5 If someone is mean to himself, whom does he benefit? he does not even enjoy what is his own.

Sir 14:6 No one is meaner than the person who is mean to himself, this is how his wickedness repays him.

Sir 14:7 If he does any good, he does it unintentionally, and in the end he himself reveals his wickedness.

Sir 14:8 Wicked the person who has an envious eye, averting his face, and careless of others' lives.

Sir 14:9 The eye of the grasping is not content with what he has, greed shrivels up the soul.

Sir 14:10 The miser is grudging of bread, there is famine at his table.

Sir 14:11 My child, treat yourself as well as you can afford, and bring worthy offerings to the Lord.

Sir 14:12 Remember that death will not delay, and that you have never seen Sheol's contract.

Sir 14:13 Be kind to your friend before you die, treat him as generously as you can afford.

Sir 14:14 Do not refuse yourself the good things of today, do not let your share of what is lawfully desired pass you by.

Sir 14:15 Will you not have to leave your fortune to another, and the fruit of your labour to be divided by lot?

Sir 14:16 Give and receive, enjoy yourself—there are no pleasures to be found in Sheol.

Sir 14:17 Like clothes, every body will wear out, the age—old law is, 'Everyone must die.'

Sir 14:18 Like foliage growing on a bushy tree, some leaves falling, others growing, so are the generations of flesh and blood: one dies, another is born.

Sir 14:19 Every achievement rots away and perishes, and with it goes its author.

Sir 14:20 Blessed is anyone who meditates on wisdom, and reasons with intelligence,

Sir 14:21 who studies her ways in his heart, and ponders her secrets.

Sir 14:22 He pursues her like a hunter, and lies in wait by her path;

Sir 14:23 he peeps in at her windows, and listens at her doors;

Sir 14:24 he lodges close to her house, and fixes his peg in her walls;

Sir 14:25 he pitches his tent at her side, and lodges in an excellent lodging;

Sir 14:26 he sets his children in her shade, and camps beneath her branches;

Sir 14:27 he is sheltered by her from the heat, and in her glory he makes his home.

Sir 15:1 Whoever fears the Lord will act like this, and whoever grasps the Law will obtain wisdom.

Sir 15:2 She will come to meet him like a mother, and receive him like a virgin bride.

Sir 15:3 She will give him the bread of understanding to eat, and the water of wisdom to drink.

Sir 15:4 He will lean on her and will not fall, he will rely on her and not be put to shame.

Sir 15:5 She will raise him high above his neighbours, and in full assembly she will open his mouth.

Sir 15:6 He will find happiness and a crown of joy, he will inherit an everlasting name.

Sir 15:7 Fools will not gain possession of her, nor will sinners set eyes on her.

Sir 15:8 She stands remote from pride, and liars cannot call her to mind.

Sir 15:9 Praise is unseemly in a sinner’s mouth, since it has not been put there by the Lord.

Sir 15:10 For praise should be uttered only in wisdom, and the Lord himself then prompts it.

Sir 15:11 Do not say, ‘The Lord was responsible for my sinning,’ for he does not do what he hates.

Sir 15:12 Do not say, ‘It was he who led me astray,’ for he has no use for a sinner.

Sir 15:13 The Lord hates all that is foul, and no one who fears him will love it either.

Sir 15:14 He himself made human beings in the beginning, and then left them free to make their own decisions.

Sir 15:15 If you choose, you will keep the commandments and so be faithful to his will.

Sir 15:16 He has set fire and water before you; put out your hand to whichever you prefer.

Sir 15:17 A human being has life and death before him; whichever he prefers will be given him.

Sir 15:18 For vast is the wisdom of the Lord; he is almighty and all-seeing.

Sir 15:19 His eyes are on those who fear him, he notes every human action.

Sir 15:20 He never commanded anyone to be godless, he has given no one permission to sin.

Sir 16:1 Do not long for a brood of worthless children, and do not take pleasure in godless sons.

Sir 16:2 However many you have, take no pleasure in them, unless the fear of the Lord lives among them.

Sir 16:3 Do not count on their having long life, do not put too much faith in their number; for better have one than a thousand, better die childless than have children who are godless.

Sir 16:4 One person of sense can populate a city, but a race of lawless people will be destroyed.

Sir 16:5 My eyes have seen many such things, my ears have heard things even more impressive.

Sir 16:6 Fire is kindled in a sinful society, Retribution blazes in a rebellious nation.

Sir 16:7 God did not pardon the giants of old who, confident in their strength, had rebelled.

Sir 16:8 He did not spare the people with whom Lot lived; he abhorred them, rather, for their pride.

Sir 16:9 He was pitiless to the nation of perdition—those people who gloried in their sins-

Sir 16:10 as also to the six hundred thousand men on the march, who had banded together in their obstinacy.

Sir 16:11 And had there been only one man stubborn, it would have been amazing had he escaped unpunished, since mercy and wrath alike belong to the Lord who is mighty to forgive and to pour out wrath.

Sir 16:12 As great as his mercy, so is his severity; he judges each person as his deeds deserve:

Sir 16:13 the sinner will not escape with his ill-gotten gains nor the patience of the devout go for nothing.

Sir 16:14 He takes note of every charitable action, and everyone is treated as he deserves.

Sir 16:15

Sir 16:16

Sir 16:17 Do not say, 'I shall hide from the Lord; who is going to remember me up there? I shall not be noticed among so many people; what am I in the immensity of creation?'

Sir 16:18 For see, the sky and the heavens above the sky, the abyss and the earth shake at his visitation.

Sir 16:19 The mountains and earth's foundations alike quail and tremble when he looks at them.

Sir 16:20 But to all this no one gives thought. Who keeps his movements in mind?

Sir 16:21 The storm wind itself is invisible, and most of what he does goes undetected.

Sir 16:22 'Who will report whether justice has been done? Who will be watching? The covenant is remote!'

Sir 16:23 Such are the thoughts of the person of little sense, stupid, misguided, cherishing his folly.

Sir 16:24 Listen to me, my child, and learn knowledge, and give your whole mind to my words.

Sir 16:25 I shall expound discipline methodically and proclaim knowledge with precision.

Sir 16:26 When God created his works in the beginning, he assigned them their places as soon as they were made.

Sir 16:27 He determined his works for all time, from their origins to their distant generations. They know neither hunger nor weariness, and they never desert their duties.

Sir 16:28 Not one has ever got in the way of another, and they will never disobey his word.

Sir 16:29 And afterwards the Lord looked at the earth, and filled it with his good things.

Sir 16:30 He covered its surface with every kind of animal, and to it they will return.

Sir 17:1 The Lord fashioned human beings from the earth, to consign them back to it.

Sir 17:2 He gave them so many days and so much time, he gave them authority over everything on earth.

Sir 17:3 He clothed them in strength, like himself, and made them in his own image.

Sir 17:4 He filled all living things with dread of human beings, making them masters over beasts and birds.

Sir 17:5

Sir 17:6 He made them a tongue, eyes and ears, and gave them a heart to think with.

Sir 17:7 He filled them with knowledge and intelligence, and showed them what was good and what evil.

Sir 17:8 He put his own light in their hearts to show them the magnificence of his works,

Sir 17:9

Sir 17:10 so that they would praise his holy name as they told of his magnificent works.

Sir 17:11 He set knowledge before them, he endowed them with the law of life.

Sir 17:12 He established an eternal covenant with them, and revealed his judgements to them.

Sir 17:13 Their eyes saw the majesty of his glory, and their ears heard the glory of his voice.

Sir 17:14 He said to them, 'Beware of all wrong-doing'; he gave each a commandment concerning his neighbour.

Sir 17:15 Their ways are always under his eye, they cannot be hidden from his sight.

Sir 17:16

Sir 17:17 Over each nation he has set a governor, but Israel is the Lord's own portion.

Sir 17:18

Sir 17:19 Their actions are all as plain as the sun to him, and his eyes rest constantly on their conduct.

Sir 17:20 Their iniquities are not hidden from him, all their sins are before the Lord.

Sir 17:21

Sir 17:22 Almsgiving is like a signet ring to him, he cherishes generosity like the pupil of an eye.

Sir 17:23 One day he will rise and reward them, he will repay their deserts on their own heads.

Sir 17:24 But to those who repent he permits return, and he encourages those who have lost hope.

Sir 17:25 Return to the Lord and renounce your sins, plead before his face, stop offending him.

Sir 17:26 Come back to the Most High, turn away from iniquity and hold all that is foul in abhorrence.

Sir 17:27 Who is going to praise the Most High in Sheol if we do not glorify him while we are alive?

Sir 17:28 The dead can praise no more than those who do not exist, only those with life and health can praise the Lord.

Sir 17:29 How great is the mercy of the Lord, his pardon for those who turn to him!

Sir 17:30 For we cannot have everything, human beings are not immortal.

Sir 17:31 What is brighter than the sun? And yet it fades. Flesh and blood think of nothing but evil.

Sir 17:32 He surveys the armies of the lofty sky, and all of us are only dust and ashes.

Sir 18:1 He who lives for ever has created the sum of things.

Sir 18:2 The Lord alone will be found just.

Sir 18:3

Sir 18:4 He has given no one the power to proclaim his works to the end, and who can fathom his magnificent deeds?

Sir 18:5 Who can assess his magnificent strength, and who can go further and tell all of his mercies?

Sir 18:6 Nothing can be added to them, nothing subtracted, it is impossible to fathom the marvels of the Lord.

Sir 18:7 When someone finishes he is only beginning, and when he stops he is as puzzled as ever.

Sir 18:8 What is a human being, what purpose does he serve? What is good and what is bad for him?

Sir 18:9 The length of his life: a hundred years at most.

Sir 18:10 Like a drop of water from the sea, or a grain of sand, such are these few years compared with eternity.

Sir 18:11 This is why the Lord is patient with them and pours out his mercy on them.

Sir 18:12 He sees and recognises how wretched their end is, and so he makes his forgiveness the greater.

Sir 18:13 Human compassion extends to neighbours, but the Lord's compassion extends to everyone; rebuking, correcting and teaching, bringing them back as a shepherd brings his flock.

Sir 18:14 He has compassion on those who accept correction, and who fervently search for his judgements.

Sir 18:15 My child, do not temper your favours with blame nor any of your gifts with words that hurt.

Sir 18:16 Does not dew relieve the heat? In the same way a word is worth more than a gift.

Sir 18:17 Why surely, a word is better than a good present, but a generous person is ready with both.

Sir 18:18 A fool will offer nothing but insult, and a grudging gift makes the eyes smart.

Sir 18:19 Learn before you speak, take care of yourself before you fall ill.

Sir 18:20 Examine yourself before judgement comes, and on the day of visitation you will be acquitted.

Sir 18:21 Humble yourself before you fall ill, repent as soon as the sin is committed.

Sir 18:22 Let nothing prevent your discharging a vow in good time, and do not wait till death to set matters right.

Sir 18:23 Prepare yourself before making a vow, and do not be like someone who tempts the Lord.

Sir 18:24 Bear in mind the retribution of the last days, the time of vengeance when God averts his face.

Sir 18:25 In a time of plenty remember times of famine, think of poverty and want when you are rich.

Sir 18:26 The time slips by between dawn and dusk, everything passes quickly for the Lord.

Sir 18:27 The wise will be cautious in everything, in sinful times will take care not to offend.

Sir 18:28 Every person of sense recognises wisdom, and will respect anyone who has found her.

Sir 18:29 Those who understand sayings have toiled for their wisdom and have poured out accurate maxims.

Sir 18:30 Do not be governed by your passions, restrain your desires.

Sir 18:31 If you allow yourself to satisfy your desires, this will make you the laughing-stock of your enemies.

Sir 18:32 Do not indulge in luxurious living, do not get involved in such society.

Sir 18:33 Do not beggar yourself by banqueting on credit when there is nothing in your pocket.

Sir 19:1 A drunken workman will never grow rich, and one who makes light of small matters will gradually sink.

Sir 19:2 Wine and women corrupt intelligent men, the customer of whores loses all sense of shame.

Sir 19:3 Grubs and worms will have him as their legacy, and the man who knows no shame will lose his life.

Sir 19:4 Being too ready to trust shows shallowness of mind, and sinning harms the sinner.

Sir 19:5 Taking pleasure in evil earns condemnation;

Sir 19:6 by hating gossip one avoids evil.

Sir 19:7 Never repeat what you are told and you will come to no harm;

Sir 19:8 whether to friend or foe, do not talk about it, unless it would be sinful not to, do not reveal it;

Sir 19:9 you would be heard out, then mistrusted, and in due course you would be hated.

Sir 19:10 Have you heard something? Let it die with you. Courage! It will not burst you!

Sir 19:11 A fool will suffer birthpangs over a piece of news, like a woman labouring with child.

Sir 19:12 Like an arrow stuck in the flesh of the thigh, so is a piece of news inside a fool.

Sir 19:13 Question your friend, he may have done nothing at all; and if he has done anything, he will not do it again.

Sir 19:14 Question your neighbour, he may have said nothing at all; and if he has said anything, he will not say it again.

Sir 19:15 Question your friend, for slander is very common, do not believe all you hear.

Sir 19:16 People sometimes make a slip, without meaning what they say; and which of us has never sinned by speech?

Sir 19:17 Question your neighbour before you threaten him, and defer to the Law of the Most High.

Sir 19:18

Sir 19:19

Sir 19:20 Wisdom consists entirely in fearing the Lord, and wisdom is entirely constituted by the fulfilling of the Law.

Sir 19:21

Sir 19:22 Being learned in evil, however, is not wisdom, there is no prudence in the advice of sinners.

Sir 19:23 There is a cleverness that is detestable; whoever has no wisdom is a fool.

Sir 19:24 Better be short of sense and full of fear, than abound in shrewdness and violate the Law.

Sir 19:25 There is a wickedness which is scrupulous but nonetheless dishonest, and there are those who misuse kindness to win their case.

Sir 19:26 There is the person who will walk bowed down with grief, when inwardly this is nothing but deceit:

Sir 19:27 he hides his face and pretends to be deaf, if he is not unmasked, he will take advantage of you.

Sir 19:28 There is the person who is prevented from sinning by lack of strength, yet he will do wrong when he gets the chance.

Sir 19:29 You can tell a person by his appearance, you can tell a thinker by the look on his face.

Sir 19:30 The way a person dresses, the way he laughs, the way he walks, tell you what he is.

Sir 20:1 There is the rebuke that is untimely, and there is the person who keeps quiet, and he is the shrewd one.

Sir 20:2 But how much better to rebuke than to fume!

Sir 20:3 The person who acknowledges a fault wards off punishment.

Sir 20:4 Like a eunuch trying to take a girl’s virginity is someone who tries to impose justice by force.

Sir 20:5 There is the person who keeps quiet and is considered wise, another incurs hatred for talking too much.

Sir 20:6 There is the person who keeps quiet, not knowing how to answer, another keeps quiet, knowing when to speak.

Sir 20:7 The wise will keep quiet till the right moment, but a garrulous fool will always misjudge it.

Sir 20:8 Someone who talks too much will earn dislike, and someone who usurps authority will earn hatred.

Sir 20:9 There is the person who finds misfortune a boon, and the piece of luck that turns to loss.

Sir 20:10 There is the gift that affords you no profit, and the gift that repays you double.

Sir 20:11 There is the honour that leads to humiliation, and there are people in a low state who raise their heads.

Sir 20:12 There is the person who buys much for little, yet pays for it seven times over.

Sir 20:13 The wise wins love with words, while fools may shower favours in vain.

Sir 20:14 The gift of the stupid will bring you no advantage, his eyes look for seven times as much in return.

Sir 20:15 He gives little and reviles much, he opens his mouth like the town crier, he lends today and demands payment tomorrow; he is a detestable fellow.

Sir 20:16 The fool will say, 'I have no friends, I get no gratitude for my good deeds;

Sir 20:17 those who eat my bread have malicious tongues.' How often he will be laughed at, and by how many!

Sir 20:18 Better a slip on the pavement than a slip of the tongue; this is how ruin takes the wicked by surprise.

Sir 20:19 A coarse-grained person is like an indiscreet story endlessly retold by the ignorant.

Sir 20:20 A maxim is rejected when coming from a fool, since the fool does not utter it on the apt occasion.

Sir 20:21 There is a person who is prevented from sinning by poverty; no qualms of conscience disturb that person's rest.

Sir 20:22 There is a person who courts destruction out of false shame, courts destruction for the sake of a fool's opinion.

Sir 20:23 There is a person who out of false shame makes promises to a friend, and so makes an enemy for nothing.

Sir 20:24 Lying is an ugly blot on anyone, and ever on the lips of the undisciplined.

Sir 20:25 A thief is preferable to an inveterate liar, but both are heading for ruin.

Sir 20:26 Lying is an abominable habit, the liar's disgrace lasts for ever.

Sir 20:27 The wise gains advancement by words, the shrewd wins favour from the great.

Sir 20:28 Whoever tills the soil will have a full harvest, whoever wins favour from the great will secure pardon for offences.

Sir 20:29 Presents and gifts blind the eyes of the wise and stifle rebukes like a muzzle on the mouth.

Sir 20:30 Wisdom concealed, and treasure undiscovered, what use is either of these?

Sir 20:31 Better one who conceals his folly than one who conceals his wisdom.

Sir 21:1 My child, have you sinned? Do so no more, and ask forgiveness for your previous faults.

Sir 21:2 Flee from sin as from a snake, if you approach it, it will bite you; its teeth are lion's teeth, they take human life away.

Sir 21:3 All law-breaking is like a two-edged sword, the wounds it inflicts are beyond cure.

Sir 21:4 Terror and violence make havoc of riches, similarly, desolation overtakes the houses of the proud.

Sir 21:5 A plea from the mouth of the poor goes straight to the ear of God, whose judgement comes without delay.

Sir 21:6 Whoever resents reproof walks in the sinner's footsteps; whoever fears the Lord is repentant of heart.

Sir 21:7 The glib speaker is known far and wide, but the wary detects every slip.

Sir 21:8 To build your house with other people's money is like collecting stones for your own tomb.

Sir 21:9 A meeting of the lawless is like a heap of tow: they will end in a blazing fire.

Sir 21:10 The sinner's road is smoothly paved, but it ends at the pit of Sheol.

Sir 21:11 Whoever keeps the Law will master his instincts; the fear of the Lord is made perfect in wisdom.

Sir 21:12 No one who lacks aptitude can be taught, but certain aptitudes give rise to bitterness.

Sir 21:13 The sage's knowledge is as rich as the abyss and his advice is like a living spring.

Sir 21:14 The heart of a fool is like a broken jar, it will not hold any knowledge.

Sir 21:15 If the educated hears a wise saying, he praises it and caps it with another; if a debauchee hears it, he does not like it and tosses it behind his back.

Sir 21:16 The talk of a fool is like a load on a journey, but it is a pleasure to listen to the intelligent.

Sir 21:17 The utterance of the shrewd will be eagerly awaited in the assembly, what he says will be given serious consideration.

Sir 21:18 The wisdom of a fool is like the wreckage of a house, the knowledge of a dolt is incoherent talk.

Sir 21:19 To the senseless fellow instruction is like fetters on the feet, like manacles on the right hand.

Sir 21:20 A fool laughs at the top of his voice, but the intelligent quietly smiles.

Sir 21:21 To the shrewd instruction is like a golden ornament, like a bracelet on the right arm.

Sir 21:22 The step of a fool goes straight into a house, but a person of much experience makes a respectful approach;

Sir 21:23 the stupid peeps inside through the door, a well-bred person waits outside.

Sir 21:24 Listening at doors is a sign of bad upbringing, the perceptive would be ashamed to do so.

Sir 21:25 The lips of gossips repeat the words of others, the words of the wise are carefully weighed.

Sir 21:26 The heart of fools is in their mouth, but the mouth of the wise is in their heart.

Sir 21:27 When the godless curses Satan, he is cursing himself.

Sir 21:28 The scandal-monger sullies himself and earns the hatred of the neighbourhood.

Sir 22:1 An idler is like a stone covered in filth, everyone whistles at his disgrace.

Sir 22:2 An idler is like a lump of dung, anyone picking it up shakes it off his hand.

Sir 22:3 It is a disgrace to have fathered a badly brought-up son, but the birth of any daughter is a loss;

Sir 22:4 a sensible daughter will find a husband, but a shameless one is a grief to her father.

Sir 22:5 A brazen daughter puts father and mother to shame, and will be disowned by both.

Sir 22:6 An untimely remonstrance is like music at a funeral, but a thrashing and correction are wisdom at all times.

Sir 22:7

Sir 22:8

Sir 22:9 Teaching a fool is like gluing bits of pottery together—you are rousing someone who is besotted with sleep.

Sir 22:10 You might as well talk to someone sound asleep; when you have finished the fool will say, 'What's up?'

Sir 22:11 Shed tears for the dead, who has left the light behind; shed tears for the fool, who has left his wits behind. Shed quieter tears for the dead who is at rest, for the fool life is worse than death.

Sir 22:12 Mourning for the dead lasts seven days, for the foolish and ungodly all the days of their lives.

Sir 22:13 Do not waste many words on the stupid, do not go near a dolt. Beware of him, or you will have trouble and be soiled by contact with him; keep away from him, and you will have peace of mind and not be exasperated by his folly.

Sir 22:14 What is heavier than lead, and what is its name if not 'fool'?

Sir 22:15 Sand and salt and a lump of iron are a lighter burden than a dolt.

Sir 22:16 A tie-beam bonded into a building will not be dislodged by an earthquake; so too, a heart resolved after due reflection will not flinch at the critical moment.

Sir 22:17 A heart founded on intelligent reflection is like a stucco decoration on a smooth wall.

Sir 22:18 Pebbles placed on top of a wall will not stand up to the wind; no more can the heart of a fool frightened at his own thoughts stand up to fear.

Sir 22:19 Prick an eye and you will draw a tear, prick a heart and you reveal its feelings.

Sir 22:20 Throw stones at birds and you scare them away, reproach a friend and you destroy a friendship.

Sir 22:21 If you have drawn your sword on a friend, do not despair; there is a way back.

Sir 22:22 If you have opened your mouth against your friend, do not worry; there is hope for reconciliation; but insult, arrogance, betrayal of secrets, and the stab in the back—in these cases any friend is lost.

Sir 22:23 Win your neighbour's confidence when he is poor, so that you may enjoy his later good fortune with him; stand by him in times of trouble, in order to have your share when he comes into a legacy.

Sir 22:24 Fire is heralded by the reek of the furnace and smoke, so too, bloodshed by insults.

Sir 22:25 I shall not be ashamed to shelter a friend nor shall I hide away from him,

Sir 22:26 and if evil comes to me through him, everyone who hears about it will beware of him.

Sir 22:27 Who will set a guard on my mouth, and an efficient seal on my lips, to keep me from falling, and my tongue from causing my ruin?

Sir 23:1 Lord, father and master of my life, do not abandon me to their whims, do not let me fall because of them.

Sir 23:2 Who will lay whips to my thoughts, and the discipline of wisdom to my heart, to be merciless to my errors and not let my sins go unchecked,

Sir 23:3 for fear my errors should multiply and my sins then abound and I fall before my adversaries, and my enemy gloat over me?

Sir 23:4 Lord, father and God of my life, do not let my eyes be proud,

Sir 23:5 turn envy away from me,

Sir 23:6 do not let lechery and lust grip me, do not leave me a prey to shameless desire.

Sir 23:7 Children, listen to what I teach, no one who keeps it will be caught out.

Sir 23:8 The sinner is ensnared by his own lips, both the abusive and the proud are tripped by them.

Sir 23:9 Do not get into the habit of swearing, do not make a habit of naming the Holy One;

Sir 23:10 for just as a slave who is constantly overseen will never be without bruises, so someone who is always swearing and uttering the Name will not be exempt from sin.

Sir 23:11 A man for ever swearing is full of iniquity, and the scourge will not depart from his house. If he offends, his sin will be on him, if he did it unheedingly, he has doubly sinned; if he swears a false oath, he will not be treated as innocent, for his house will be filled with calamities.

Sir 23:12 One way of talking is like death, let it not be found in the heritage of Jacob since devout people have nothing to do with that: they will not wallow in sin.

Sir 23:13 Do not get into the habit of using coarse and foul language since this involves sinful words.

Sir 23:14 Remember your father and mother when you are sitting with the great, for fear you forget yourself in their presence and behave like a fool, and then wish you had not been born and curse the day of your birth.

Sir 23:15 No one in the habit of using shameful language will break himself of it as long as he lives.

Sir 23:16 There are two types of people who commit sin after sin and a third who attracts retribution-

Sir 23:17 desire, blazing like a furnace, will not die down until it has been sated- the man who lusts after members of his own family is not going to stop until he is quite burnt out; every food is sweet to the promiscuous, and he will not desist until he dies;

Sir 23:18 and the man who sins against the marriage bed and says to himself, ‘Who can see me? There is darkness all round me, the walls hide me, no one can see me, why should I worry? The Most High will not remember my sins.’

Sir 23:19 What he fears are human eyes, he does not realise that the eyes of the Lord are ten thousand times brighter than the sun, observing every aspect of human behaviour, seeing into the most secret corners.

Sir 23:20 All things were known to him before they were created, and are still, now that they are finished.

Sir 23:21 This man will be punished in view of the whole town, and will be seized when he least expects it.

Sir 23:22 Similarly the woman unfaithful to her husband, who provides him with an heir by another man:

Sir 23:23 first, she has disobeyed the Law of the Most High; secondly, she has been false to her husband; and thirdly, she has gone whoring in adultery

Sir 23:24 and conceived children by another man. She will be led before the assembly, an enquiry will be held about her children.

Sir 23:25 Her children will strike no root, her branches will bear no fruit.

Sir 23:26 She will leave an accursed memory behind her, her shame will never be wiped out.

Sir 23:27 And those who survive her will recognise that nothing is better than fearing the Lord, and nothing sweeter than adherence to the Lord’s commandments.

Sir 24:1 Wisdom speaks her own praises, in the midst of her people she glories in herself.

Sir 24:2 She opens her mouth in the assembly of the Most High, she glories in herself in the presence of the Mighty One:

Sir 24:3 ‘I came forth from the mouth of the Most High, and I covered the earth like mist.

Sir 24:4 I had my tent in the heights, and my throne was a pillar of cloud.

Sir 24:5 Alone, I have made the circuit of the heavens and walked through the depths of the abyss.

Sir 24:6 Over the waves of the sea and over the whole earth, and over every people and nation I have held sway.

Sir 24:7 Among all these I searched for rest, and looked to see in whose territory I might pitch camp.

Sir 24:8 Then the Creator of all things instructed me and he who created me fixed a place for my tent. He said, “Pitch your tent in Jacob, make Israel your inheritance.”

Sir 24:9 From eternity, in the beginning, he created me, and for eternity I shall remain.

Sir 24:10 In the holy tent I ministered before him and thus became established in Zion.

Sir 24:11 In the beloved city he has given me rest, and in Jerusalem I wield my authority.

Sir 24:12 I have taken root in a privileged people, in the Lord’s property, in his inheritance.

Sir 24:13 I have grown tall as a cedar on Lebanon, as a cypress on Mount Hermon;

Sir 24:14 I have grown tall as a palm in En-Gedi, as the rose bushes of Jericho; as a fine olive in the plain, as a plane tree, I have grown tall.

Sir 24:15 Like cinnamon and acanthus, I have yielded a perfume, like choice myrrh, have breathed out a scent, like galbanum, onycha, labdanum, like the smoke of incense in the tent.

Sir 24:16 I have spread my branches like a terebinth, and my branches are glorious and graceful.

Sir 24:17 I am like a vine putting out graceful shoots, my blossoms bear the fruit of glory and wealth.

Sir 24:18

Sir 24:19 Approach me, you who desire me, and take your fill of my fruits,

Sir 24:20 for memories of me are sweeter than honey, inheriting me is sweeter than the honeycomb.

Sir 24:21 They who eat me will hunger for more, they who drink me will thirst for more.

Sir 24:22 No one who obeys me will ever have to blush, no one who acts as I dictate will ever sin.’

Sir 24:23 All this is no other than the Book of the Covenant of the Most High God, the Law that Moses enjoined on us, an inheritance for the communities of Jacob.

Sir 24:24

Sir 24:25 This is what makes wisdom brim over like the Pishon, like the Tigris in the season of fruit,

Sir 24:26 what makes intelligence overflow like the Euphrates, like the Jordan at harvest time;

Sir 24:27 and makes discipline flow like the Nile, like the Gihon when the grapes are harvested.

Sir 24:28 The first man did not finish discovering about her, nor has the most recent tracked her down;

Sir 24:29 for her thoughts are wider than the sea, and her designs more profound than the abyss.

Sir 24:30 And I, like a conduit from a river, like a watercourse running into a garden,

Sir 24:31 I said, ‘I am going to water my orchard, I intend to irrigate my flower beds.’ And see, my conduit has grown into a river, and my river has grown into a sea.

Sir 24:32 Making discipline shine forth from daybreak, I shall send its light far and wide.

Sir 24:33 I shall pour out teaching like prophecy, as a legacy to all future generations.

Sir 24:34 And note, I have been working not merely for myself, but for all who are seeking wisdom.

Sir 25:1 There are three things my soul delights in, and which are delightful to God and to all people: concord between brothers, friendship between neighbours, and a wife and husband who live happily together.

Sir 25:2 There are three sorts of people my soul hates, and whose existence I consider an outrage: the poor swollen with pride, the rich who is a liar and an adulterous old man who has no sense.

Sir 25:3 If you have gathered nothing in your youth, how can you discover anything in your old age?

Sir 25:4 How fine a thing: sound judgement with grey hairs, and for greybeards to know how to advise!

Sir 25:5 How fine a thing: wisdom in the aged, and considered advice coming from people of distinction!

Sir 25:6 The crown of the aged is ripe experience, their glory, the fear of the Lord.

Sir 25:7 There are nine things I can think of which strike me as happy, and a tenth which is now on my tongue: the man who can be proud of his children, he who lives to see the downfall of his enemies;

Sir 25:8 happy is he who keeps house with a sensible wife; he who does not toil with ox and donkey; he who has never sinned with his tongue; he who does not serve a man less worthy than himself;

Sir 25:9 happy is he who has acquired good sense and can find attentive ears for what he has to say;

Sir 25:10 how great is he who has acquired wisdom; but unsurpassed is one who fears the Lord.

Sir 25:11 The fear of the Lord surpasses everything; what can compare with someone who has mastered that?

Sir 25:12

Sir 25:13 Any wound rather than a wound of the heart! Any spite rather than the spite of woman!

Sir 25:14 Any evil rather than an evil caused by an enemy! Any vengeance rather than the vengeance of a foe!

Sir 25:15 There is no poison worse than the poison of a snake, there is no fury worse than the fury of an enemy.

Sir 25:16 I would sooner keep house with a lion or a dragon than keep house with a spiteful wife.

Sir 25:17 A woman's spite changes her appearance and makes her face as grim as a bear’s.

Sir 25:18 When her husband goes out to dinner with his neighbours, he cannot help heaving bitter sighs.

Sir 25:19 No spite can approach the spite of a woman, may a sinner’s lot be hers!

Sir 25:20 Like the climbing of a sandhill for elderly feet, such is a garrulous wife for a quiet husband.

Sir 25:21 Do not be taken in by a woman’s beauty, never lose your head over a woman.

Sir 25:22 Bad temper, insolence and shame hold sway where the wife supports the husband.

Sir 25:23 Low spirits, gloomy face, stricken heart: such is a spiteful wife. Slack hands and sagging knees: such is the wife who does not make her husband happy.

Sir 25:24 Sin began with a woman, and thanks to her we must all die.

Sir 25:25 Do not let water find a leak, nor a spiteful woman give free rein to her tongue.

Sir 25:26 If she will not do as you tell her, get rid of her.

Sir 26:1 How blessed is the husband of a really good wife; the number of his days will be doubled.

Sir 26:2 A perfect wife is the joy of her husband, he will live out the years of his life in peace.

Sir 26:3 A good wife is the best of portions, reserved for those who fear the Lord;

Sir 26:4 rich or poor, their hearts will be glad, their faces cheerful, whatever the season.

Sir 26:5 There are three things that I dread, and a fourth which terrifies me: slander by a whole town, the gathering of a mob, and a false accusation—these are all worse than death;

Sir 26:6 but a woman jealous of a woman means heartbreak and sorrow, and all this is the scourge of the tongue.

Sir 26:7 A bad wife is a badly fitting ox-yoke, trying to master her is like grasping a scorpion.

Sir 26:8 A drunken wife will goad anyone to fury, she cannot conceal her own degradation.

Sir 26:9 A woman’s wantonness shows in her wide-eyed look, her eyelashes leave no doubt.

Sir 26:10 Keep a headstrong daughter under firm control, or, feeling free, she will take advantage of it.

Sir 26:11 Keep a strict watch on her shameless eye, do not be surprised if she disgraces you.

Sir 26:12 Like a thirsty traveller she will open her mouth and drink any water she comes across; she will sit down in front of every tent-peg and open her quiver to any arrow.

Sir 26:13 The grace of a wife will charm her husband, her understanding will make him the stronger.

Sir 26:14 A silent wife is a gift from the Lord, no price can be put on a well-trained character.

Sir 26:15 A modest wife is a boon twice over, a chaste character cannot be over-valued.

Sir 26:16 Like the sun rising over the mountains of the Lord, such is the beauty of a good wife in a well-run house.

Sir 26:17 Like a lamp shining on the sacred lamp-stand, such is a beautiful face on a well-proportioned body.

Sir 26:18 Like golden pillars on a silver base, such are shapely legs on firm-set heels.

Sir 26:19

Sir 26:20

Sir 26:21

Sir 26:22

Sir 26:23

Sir 26:24

Sir 26:25

Sir 26:26

Sir 26:27

Sir 26:28 There are two things which grieve my heart and a third arouses my anger: a warrior wasting away through poverty, the intelligent treated with contempt, someone turning back from virtue to sin—the Lord marks out such a person for a violent death.

Sir 26:29 It is difficult for a merchant to avoid doing wrong and for a trader not to incur sin.

Sir 27:1 Many have sinned for the sake of profit, one who hopes to be rich must turn a blind eye.

Sir 27:2 A peg will stick in the joint between two stones, and sin will wedge itself between selling and buying.

Sir 27:3 Whoever does not firmly hold to the fear of the Lord, his house will soon be overthrown.

Sir 27:4 In a shaken sieve the rubbish is left behind, so too the defects of a person appear in speech.

Sir 27:5 The kiln tests the work of the potter, the test of a person is in conversation.

Sir 27:6 The orchard where the tree grows is judged by its fruit, similarly words betray what a person feels.

Sir 27:7 Do not praise anyone who has not yet spoken, since this is where people are tested.

Sir 27:8 If you pursue virtue, you will attain it and put it on like a festal gown.

Sir 27:9 Birds consort with their kind, truth comes home to those who practise it.

Sir 27:10 The lion lies in wait for its prey, so does sin for those who do wrong.

Sir 27:11 The conversation of the devout is wisdom at all times, but the fool is as changeable as the moon.

Sir 27:12 When visiting stupid people, choose the right moment, but among the thoughtful take your time.

Sir 27:13 The conversation of fools is disgusting, raucous their laughter in their sinful pleasures.

Sir 27:14 The talk of hard-swearing people makes your hair stand on end, their brawling makes you stop your ears.

Sir 27:15 A quarrel between the proud leads to bloodshed, and their insults are embarrassing to hear.

Sir 27:16 A betrayer of secrets forfeits all trust and will never find the kind of friend he wants.

Sir 27:17 Be fond of a friend and keep faith with him, but if you have betrayed his secrets, do not go after him any more;

Sir 27:18 for, as one destroys a person by killing him, so you have killed your neighbour’s friendship,

Sir 27:19 and as you let a bird slip through your fingers, so you have let your friend go, and will not catch him.

Sir 27:20 Do not go after him—he is far away, he has fled like a gazelle from the snare.

Sir 27:21 For a wound can be bandaged and abuse forgiven, but for the betrayer of a secret there is no hope.

Sir 27:22 Someone with a sly wink is plotting mischief, no one can dissuade him from it.

Sir 27:23 Honey-tongued to your face, he is lost in admiration at your words; but behind your back he has other things to say, and turns your words into a stumbling-block.

Sir 27:24 I have found many things to hate, but nothing as much as him, and the Lord hates him too.

Sir 27:25 Whoever throws a stone in the air, throws it on to his own head; a treacherous blow cuts both ways.

Sir 27:26 The man who digs a pit falls into it, whoever sets a snare will be caught by it.

Sir 27:27 On anyone who does evil, evil will recoil, without his knowing where it comes from.

Sir 27:28 Sarcasm and abuse are the mark of the arrogant, but vengeance lies in wait like a lion for such a one.

Sir 27:29 The trap will close on all who rejoice in the downfall of the devout, and pain will eat them up before they die.

Sir 27:30 Resentment and anger, these are foul things too, and a sinner is a master at them both.

Sir 28:1 Whoever exacts vengeance will experience the vengeance of the Lord, who keeps strict account of sin.

Sir 28:2 Pardon your neighbour any wrongs done to you, and when you pray, your sins will be forgiven.

Sir 28:3 If anyone nurses anger against another, can one then demand compassion from the Lord?

Sir 28:4 Showing no pity for someone like oneself, can one then plead for one's own sins?

Sir 28:5 Mere creature of flesh, yet cherishing resentment!-who will forgive one for sinning?

Sir 28:6 Remember the last things, and stop hating, corruption and death, and be faithful to the commandments.

Sir 28:7 Remember the commandments, and do not bear your fellow ill-will, remember the covenant of the Most High, and ignore the offence.

Sir 28:8 Avoid quarrelling and you will sin less; for the hot-tempered provokes quarrels,

Sir 28:9 a sinner sows trouble between friends, introducing discord among the peaceful.

Sir 28:10 The way a fire burns depends on its fuel, a quarrel spreads in proportion to its violence; a man's rage depends on his strength, his fury grows fiercer in proportion to his wealth.

Sir 28:11 A sudden quarrel kindles fire, a hasty dispute leads to bloodshed.

Sir 28:12 Blow on a spark and up it flares, spit on it and out it goes; both are the effects of your mouth.

Sir 28:13 A curse on the scandal-monger and double-talker, such a person has ruined many who lived in concord.

Sir 28:14 That third tongue has shattered the peace of many and driven them from nation to nation; it has pulled down fortified cities, and overthrown the houses of the great.

Sir 28:15 The third tongue has had upright wives divorced, depriving them of reward for their hard work.

Sir 28:16 No one who listens to it will ever know peace of mind, will ever live in peace again.

Sir 28:17 A stroke of the whip raises a weal, but a stroke of the tongue breaks bones.

Sir 28:18 Many have fallen by the edge of the sword, but many more have fallen by the tongue.

Sir 28:19 Blessed is anyone who has been sheltered from it, and has not experienced its fury, who has not dragged its yoke about, or been bound in its chains;

Sir 28:20 for its yoke is an iron yoke, its chains are bronze chains;

Sir 28:21 the death it inflicts is a miserable death, Sheol is preferable to it.

Sir 28:22 It cannot gain a hold over the devout, they are not burnt by its flames.

Sir 28:23 Those who desert the Lord will fall into it, it will flare up inextinguishably among them, it will be let loose against them like a lion, it will tear them like a leopard.

Sir 28:24 Be sure you put a thorn-hedge round your property, lock away your silver and gold;

Sir 28:25 then make scales and weights for your words, and put a door with bolts across your mouth.

Sir 28:26 Take care you take no false step through it, in case you fall a prey to him who lies in wait.

Sir 29:1 Making your neighbour a loan is an act of mercy, to lend him a helping hand is to keep the commandments.

Sir 29:2 Lend to your neighbour in his time of need, and in your turn repay your neighbour on time.

Sir 29:3 Be as good as your word and keep faith with him, and you will find your needs met every time.

Sir 29:4 Many treat a loan as a windfall, and embarrass those who have come to their rescue.

Sir 29:5 Until he gets something, a man will kiss his neighbour’s hand, and refer diffidently to his wealth; but when the loan falls due, he puts this off, he repays with offhand words, and pleads the inconvenience of the time.

Sir 29:6 Even if he can be made to pay, his creditor will recover barely half, and consider even that a windfall. But otherwise he will be cheated of his money, and undeservedly gain himself an enemy; the man will pay him back in curses and abuse, and with insults instead of honour.

Sir 29:7 Many, not out of malice, refuse to lend; they are merely anxious not to be cheated for nothing.

Sir 29:8 Nevertheless, be patient with those who are badly off, do not keep them waiting on your generosity.

Sir 29:9 In obedience to the commandment, help the poor; do not turn the poor away empty-handed in their need.

Sir 29:10 Spend your money on your brother or your friend, do not leave it under a stone to rust away.

Sir 29:11 Use your wealth as the Most High has decreed; you will find that more profitable than gold.

Sir 29:12 Stock your store-rooms with almsgiving; this will save you from all misfortune.

Sir 29:13 Better than sturdy shield or weighty spear, this will fight for you against the enemy.

Sir 29:14 A good man will go surety for his neighbour; only a shameless wretch would desert him.

Sir 29:15 Do not forget the favour your guarantor has done you; he has given his life for you.

Sir 29:16 A sinner is careless of his guarantor's prosperity, the ungrateful forgets his deliverer.

Sir 29:17 Going surety has ruined many who were prosperous, tossing them about in a heavy sea.

Sir 29:18 It has driven the powerful from home to wander among foreign nations.

Sir 29:19 A wicked man in a hurry to stand guarantor in the hope of profit, is hurrying to be sentenced.

Sir 29:20 Come to your neighbour's help as far as you can, but take care not to fall into the same plight.

Sir 29:21 The first thing in life is water, and bread, and clothing, and a house for the sake of privacy.

Sir 29:22 Better the life of the poor under a roof of planks, than lavish fare in somebody else's house.

Sir 29:23 Whether you have little or much, be content with it, and you will not hear your household complaining.

Sir 29:24 It is a miserable life, going from house to house; wherever you stay, you dare not open your mouth,

Sir 29:25 you do not belong, you receive no thanks for the drink you pour out and hear embittering words into the bargain:

Sir 29:26 'Come along, stranger, lay the table, what have you got ready? give me something to eat!'

Sir 29:27 'Go away, stranger, make room for someone important; my brother is coming to stay, I need the house.'

Sir 29:28 It is hard for the reasonable to be begrudged hospitality to be shamed like a debtor.

Sir 30:1 Whoever loves his son will beat him frequently so that in after years the son may be his comfort.

Sir 30:2 Whoever is strict with his son will reap the benefit, and be able to boast of him to his acquaintances.

Sir 30:3 Whoever educates his son will be the envy of his enemy, and will be proud of him among his friends.

Sir 30:4 Even when the father dies, he might well not be dead, since he leaves his likeness behind him.

Sir 30:5 In life he has had the joy of his company, dying, he has no anxieties.

Sir 30:6 He leaves an avenger against his enemies and a rewarder of favours for his friends.

Sir 30:7 Whoever coddles his son will bandage his wounds, his heart will turn over at every cry.

Sir 30:8 A badly broken-in horse turns out stubborn, a son left to himself turns out headstrong.

Sir 30:9 Pamper your child and he will terrorise you, play along with him and he will bring you sorrow.

Sir 30:10 Do not laugh with him, or one day you will weep with him and end up gnashing your teeth.

Sir 30:11 While he is young, do not allow him his freedom and do not wink at his mistakes.

Sir 30:12 Bend his neck in youth, bruise his ribs while he is a child, or else he will grow stubborn and disobedient, and hurt you very deeply.

Sir 30:13 Be strict with your son, and persevere with him, or you will rue his insolence.

Sir 30:14 Better be poor if healthy and fit than rich if tormented in body.

Sir 30:15 Health and strength are better than any gold, a robust body than untold wealth.

Sir 30:16 No riches can outweigh bodily health, no enjoyment surpass a cheerful heart.

Sir 30:17 Better death than a wretched life, and everlasting rest than chronic illness.

Sir 30:18 Good things lavished on a closed mouth are like food offerings put on a grave.

Sir 30:19 What use is an offering to an idol which can neither eat nor smell? How describe someone pursued by the Lord’s displeasure?

Sir 30:20 He looks and sighs like a eunuch embracing a pretty girl—how he sighs!

Sir 30:21 Do not abandon yourself to sorrow, do not torment yourself with brooding.

Sir 30:22 Gladness of heart is life to anyone, joy is what gives length of days.

Sir 30:23 Give your cares the slip, console your heart, chase sorrow far away; for sorrow has been the ruin of many, and is no use to anybody.

Sir 30:24 Jealousy and anger shorten your days, and worry brings premature old age.

Sir 30:25 A genial heart makes a good trencherman, someone who enjoys a good meal.

Sir 31:1 The sleeplessness brought by wealth makes a person lose weight, the worry it causes drives away sleep.

Sir 31:2 The worries of the daytime prevent you from sleeping, like a serious illness, they keep sleep at bay.

Sir 31:3 The rich for ever toils, piling up money, and then, leaving off, he is gorged with luxuries;

Sir 31:4 the poor for ever toils, barely making a living, and then, leaving off, is poorer than ever.

Sir 31:5 No one who loves money can easily avoid sinning, whoever pursues profit will be corrupted by it.

Sir 31:6 Gold has been the ruin of many; their coming destruction was self-evident,

Sir 31:7 since it is a snare for those who sacrifice to it and stupid people all get caught in it.

Sir 31:8 Happy the rich who is found to be blameless and does not go chasing after gold.

Sir 31:9 Who is he, so that we can congratulate him, for he has achieved marvels among his fellows?

Sir 31:10 Who has been through this test and emerged perfect? He may well be proud of that! Who has had the chance to sin and has not sinned, had the chance to do wrong and has not done it?

Sir 31:11 His fortune will be firmly based and the assembly will acclaim his generosity.

Sir 31:12 If you are sitting down to a lavish table, do not display your greed, do not say, ‘What a lot to eat!’

Sir 31:13 Remember, it is bad to have a greedy eye. Is any creature more wicked than the eye? - That is why it is always weeping!

Sir 31:14 Do not reach out for anything your host has his eye on, do not jostle him at the dish.

Sir 31:15 Judge your fellow-guest’s needs by your own, be thoughtful in every way.

Sir 31:16 Eat what is offered you like a well brought-up person, do not wolf your food or you will earn dislike.

Sir 31:17 For politeness’ sake be the first to stop; do not act the glutton, or you will give offence,

Sir 31:18 and if you are sitting with a large party, do not help yourself before the others do.

Sir 31:19 A little is quite enough for a well-bred person; his breathing is easy when he lies in bed.

Sir 31:20 A moderate diet ensures sound sleep, one gets up early, in the best of spirits. Sleeplessness, biliousness and gripe are what the glutton has to endure.

Sir 31:21 If you are forced to eat too much, get up, go and vomit, and you will feel better.

Sir 31:22 Listen to me, my child, do not disregard me, eventually you will see the force of my words. Be moderate in all your activities and illness will never overtake you.

Sir 31:23 People praise the person who keeps a splendid table, and their opinion of his munificence is sound.

Sir 31:24 But a niggardly host provokes universal resentment and people will retail instances of his meanness.

Sir 31:25 Do not play the valiant at your wine, for wine has been the undoing of many.

Sir 31:26 The furnace proves the temper of steel, and wine proves hearts in the drinking bouts of braggarts.

Sir 31:27 Wine gives life if drunk in moderation. What is life worth without wine? It came into being to make people happy.

Sir 31:28 Drunk at the right time and in the right amount, wine makes for a glad heart and a cheerful mind.

Sir 31:29 Bitterness of soul comes of wine drunk to excess out of temper or bravado.

Sir 31:30 Drunkenness excites the stupid to a fury to his own harm, it reduces his strength while leading to blows.

Sir 31:31 Do not provoke your fellow-guest at a wine feast, do not make fun of him when he is enjoying himself, do not take him to task or annoy him by reclaiming money owed.

Sir 32:1 Have they made you the presider? Do not let it go to your head, behave like everyone else in the party, see that they are happy and then sit down yourself.

Sir 32:2 Having discharged your duties, take your place so that your joy may be through theirs, and you may receive the crown for your competence.

Sir 32:3 Speak, old man—it is proper that you should—but with discretion: do not spoil the music.

Sir 32:4 If someone is singing, do not ramble on and do not play the sage at the wrong moment.

Sir 32:5 An amber seal on a precious stone, such is a concert of music at a wine feast.

Sir 32:6 An emerald seal in a golden setting, such are strains of music with a vintage wine.

Sir 32:7 Speak, young man, when you must, but twice at most, and then only if questioned.

Sir 32:8 Keep to the point, say much in few words; give the impression of knowing but not wanting to speak.

Sir 32:9 Among eminent people do not behave as though you were their equal; do not make frivolous remarks when someone else is speaking.

Sir 32:10 Lightning comes before the thunder, favour goes ahead of a modest person.

Sir 32:11 Leave in good time, do not bring up the rear, and hurry home without loitering.

Sir 32:12 There amuse yourself, and do what you have a mind to, but do not sin by arrogant talk.

Sir 32:13 And for all this bless your Creator, who intoxicates you with his favours.

Sir 32:14 Whoever fears the Lord will accept his correction; those who look for him will win his favour.

Sir 32:15 Whoever seeks the Law will be nourished by it, the hypocrite will find it a stumbling-block.

Sir 32:16 Those who fear the Lord win his approval, their good deeds shining like a light.

Sir 32:17 The sinner waves reproof aside, he finds an excuse for headstrong behaviour.

Sir 32:18 A sensible person never scorns a warning; foreigners and the proud do not know about fear.

Sir 32:19 Never act without reflection, and you will not regret your actions.

Sir 32:20 Do not venture on a rough road, for fear of stumbling over the stones.

Sir 32:21 Do not be over-confident on an even road

Sir 32:22 and beware of your own children.

Sir 32:23 Watch yourself in everything you do; this is also the way to keep the commandments.

Sir 32:24 Anyone who trusts in the Law obeys its precepts, no one who has confidence in the Lord will come to harm.

Sir 33:1 No evil will befall one who fears the Lord, such a one will be rescued even in the ordeal.

Sir 33:2 No one who hates the Law is wise, one who is hypocritical about it is like a storm-tossed ship.

Sir 33:3 An intelligent person will put faith in the Law, for such a one the Law is as dependable as a prophecy.

Sir 33:4 Prepare what you have to say and you will get a hearing, marshal your information before you answer.

Sir 33:5 The feelings of a fool are like a cart-wheel, a fool's thought revolves like a turning axle.

Sir 33:6 A rutting stallion is like a sarcastic friend; he neighs, whoever rides him.

Sir 33:7 Why is one day better than another, though the sun gives the same daylight throughout the year?

Sir 33:8 They have been differentiated in the mind of the Lord, who has diversified the seasons and feasts;

Sir 33:9 some he has made more important and has hallowed, others he has made ordinary days.

Sir 33:10 Human beings come from the ground, Adam himself was formed out of earth;

Sir 33:11 in the fullness of his wisdom the Lord has made distinctions between them, and diversified their conditions.

Sir 33:12 Some of them he has blessed, hallowing and setting them near him; others he has cursed and humiliated by degrading them from their positions.

Sir 33:13 Like clay in the hands of the potter to mould as it pleases him, so are human beings in the hands of their Maker to reward as he judges right.

Sir 33:14 Opposite evil stands good, opposite death, life; so too opposite the devout stands the sinner.

Sir 33:15 Contemplate all the works of the Most High, you will find they go in pairs, by opposites.

Sir 33:16 Although the last to come, I have kept my eyes open like a man picking up what the grape-pickers have left.

Sir 33:17 By the blessing of the Lord I have come in first, and like a true grape-picker have filled my winepress.

Sir 33:18 And note, I have not been working merely for myself, but for all who seek instruction.

Sir 33:19 Listen to me, important public figures, presidents of the assembly, give ear!

Sir 33:20 Neither to son nor wife, brother nor friend, give power over yourself during your own lifetime. And do not give your property to anyone else, in case you regret it and have to ask for it back.

Sir 33:21 As long as you live and there is breath in your body, do not yield power over yourself to anyone;

Sir 33:22 better for your children to come begging to you, than for you to have to go begging to them.

Sir 33:23 In all you do be the master, and leave a reputation unstained.

Sir 33:24 The day your life draws to a close, at the hour of death, then distribute your heritage.

Sir 33:25 Fodder, the stick and burdens for a donkey, bread, discipline and work for a slave.

Sir 33:26 Work your slave hard, and you will have peace of mind, leave his hands idle, and he will be asking for his freedom.

Sir 33:27 Yoke and harness will bow the neck, for a bad servant, torments and the rack.

Sir 33:28 Set him to work, so that he will not be idle; idleness teaches every kind of mischief.

Sir 33:29 Keep him at his duties, where he should be, if he is disobedient, clap him in irons.

Sir 33:30 But do not be over-exacting with anyone, and do nothing contrary to justice.

Sir 33:31 You have only one slave? Treat him like yourself, since you have acquired him with blood.

Sir 33:32 You have only one slave? Treat him as a brother, since you need him as you need yourself.

Sir 33:33 If you ill-treat him and he runs away, which way will you go to look for him?

Sir 34:1 Vain and deceptive hopes are for the foolish, and dreams lend wings to fools.

Sir 34:2 As well clutch at shadows and chase the wind as put any faith in dreams.

Sir 34:3 Dreams are no different from mirrors; confronting a face, the reflection of that face.

Sir 34:4 What can be cleansed by uncleanness, what can be verified by falsehood?

Sir 34:5 Divinations, auguries and dreams are nonsense, like the fantasies of a pregnant woman.

Sir 34:6 Unless sent as emissaries from the Most High, do not give them a thought;

Sir 34:7 for dreams have led many astray, and those who relied on them have come to grief.

Sir 34:8 Fulfilling the Law requires no such falsehood, and wisdom is perfected in veracity.

Sir 34:9 A much travelled man knows many things, and a man of great experience will talk sound sense.

Sir 34:10 Someone who has never had his trials knows little; but the travelled man is master of every situation.

Sir 34:11 I have seen many things on my travels, I have understood more than I can put into words.

Sir 34:12 I have often been in danger of death, but I have been spared, and this is why:

Sir 34:13 the spirit of those who fear the Lord can survive, for their hope is in someone with power to save them.

Sir 34:14 No one who fears the Lord need ever hesitate, or ever be daunted, since the Lord is his hope.

Sir 34:15 Happy the soul of one who fears the Lord. On whom does he rely? Who supports him?

Sir 34:16 The eyes of the Lord watch over those who love him, he is their powerful protection and their strong support, their screen from the desert wind, their shelter from the midday sun, a guard against stumbling, an assurance against a fall.

Sir 34:17 He revives the spirit and brightens the eyes, he gives health, life and blessing.

Sir 34:18 The sacrifice of an offering unjustly acquired is a mockery; the gifts of the impious are unacceptable.

Sir 34:19 The Most High takes no pleasure in offerings from the godless, multiplying sacrifices will not gain pardon for sin.

Sir 34:20 Offering sacrifice from the property of the poor is as bad as slaughtering a son before his father’s eyes.

Sir 34:21 A meagre diet is the very life of the poor, to deprive them of it is to commit murder.

Sir 34:22 To take away a fellow-man’s livelihood is to kill him, to deprive an employee of his wages is to shed blood.

Sir 34:23 If one person builds while another pulls down, what will they get out of it but trouble?

Sir 34:24 If one person prays and another calls down a curse, to which one’s voice is the Master going to listen?

Sir 34:25 If someone washes after touching a corpse, and then touches it again, what is the good of his washing?

Sir 34:26 Just so with someone who fasts for sin, and then goes and commits it again. Who is going to hear that person’s prayer? What is the good of the self-abasement?

Sir 35:1 One who keeps the Law multiplies offerings; one who follows the commandments offers communion sacrifices.

Sir 35:2 Proof of gratitude is an offering of fine flour, almsgiving a sacrifice of praise.

Sir 35:3 To abandon wickedness is what pleases the Lord, to give up wrong-doing is an expiatory sacrifice.

Sir 35:4 Do not appear empty-handed in the Lord’s presence; for all these things are due under the commandment.

Sir 35:5 The offering of the upright graces the altar, and its savour rises before the Most High.

Sir 35:6 The sacrifice of the upright is acceptable, its memorial will not be forgotten.

Sir 35:7 Honour the Lord with generosity, do not stint the first-fruits you bring.

Sir 35:8 Add a smiling face to all your gifts, and be cheerful as you dedicate your tithes.

Sir 35:9 Give to the Most High as he has given to you, as generously as your means can afford;

Sir 35:10 for the Lord is a good rewarder, he will reward you seven times over.

Sir 35:11 Do not try to bribe him with presents, he will not accept them, do not put your faith in wrongly motivated sacrifices;

Sir 35:12 for the Lord is a judge who is utterly impartial.

Sir 35:13 He never shows partiality to the detriment of the poor, he listens to the plea of the injured party.

Sir 35:14 He does not ignore the orphan’s supplication, nor the widow’s as she pours out her complaint.

Sir 35:15 Do the widow’s tears not run down her cheeks, as she accuses the man who is the cause of them?

Sir 35:16 Whoever wholeheartedly serves God will be accepted, his petitions will carry to the clouds.

Sir 35:17 The prayer of the humble pierces the clouds: and until it does, he is not to be consoled,

Sir 35:18 nor will he desist until the Most High takes notice of him, acquits the upright and delivers judgement.

Sir 35:19 And the Lord will not be slow, nor will he be dilatory on their behalf, Sir 35:20 until he has crushed the loins of the merciless and exacted vengeance on the nations,

Sir 35:21 until he has eliminated the hordes of the arrogant and broken the sceptres of the wicked,

Sir 35:22 until he has repaid all people as their deeds deserve and human actions as their intentions merit,

Sir 35:23 until he has judged the case of his people and made them rejoice in his mercy.

Sir 35:24 Mercy is welcome in time of trouble, like rain clouds in time of drought.

Sir 36:1 Take pity on us, Master, Lord of the universe, look at us, spread fear of yourself throughout all other nations.

Sir 36:2 Raise your hand against the foreign nations and let them see your might.

Sir 36:3 As, in their sight, you have proved yourself holy to us, so now, in our sight, prove yourself great to them.

Sir 36:4 Let them acknowledge you, just as we have acknowledged that there is no God but you, Lord.

Sir 36:5 Send new portents, do fresh wonders, win glory for your hand and your right arm.

Sir 36:6 Rouse your fury, pour out your rage, destroy the opponent, annihilate the enemy.

Sir 36:7 Hasten the day, remember the oath, and let people tell of your mighty deeds.

Sir 36:8 Let fiery wrath swallow up the survivor, and destruction overtake those who oppress your people.

Sir 36:9 Crush the heads of hostile rulers who say, 'There is no one else but us!'

Sir 36:10 Gather together all the tribes of Jacob, restore them their heritage as at the beginning.

Sir 36:11 Take pity, Lord, on the people called by your name, on Israel whom you have made your first-born.

Sir 36:12 Have compassion on your holy city, on Jerusalem, the place where you rest.

Sir 36:13 Fill Zion with your praises and your sanctuary with your glory.

Sir 36:14 Vindicate those whom you created first, fulfil what has been prophesied in your name.

Sir 36:15 Give those who wait for you their reward, let your prophets be proved true.

Sir 36:16 Grant, Lord, the prayer of your servants, in the terms of Aaron’s blessing on your people,

Sir 36:17 so that all the earth’s inhabitants may acknowledge that you are the Lord, the everlasting God.

Sir 36:18 The stomach takes in all kinds of food, but some foods are better than others.

Sir 36:19 As the palate discerns the flavour of game, so a shrewd listener detects lying words.

Sir 36:20 A perverse character causes depression in others; it needs experience to know how to repay such a one.

Sir 36:21 A woman will accept any husband, but some daughters are better than others.

Sir 36:22 A woman’s beauty delights the beholder, a man likes nothing better.

Sir 36:23 If her tongue is kind and gentle, her husband is the happiest of men.

Sir 36:24 The man who takes a wife has the makings of a fortune, a helper to match himself, a pillar of support.

Sir 36:25 When property has no fence, it is open to plunder, when a man has no wife, he is aimless and querulous.

Sir 36:26 Will anyone trust an armed thief who flits from town to town?

Sir 36:27 So it is with the man who has no nest, and lodges wherever night overtakes him.

Sir 37:1 Any friend will say, ‘I am your friend too,’ but some friends are friends only in name.

Sir 37:2 Is it not a deadly sorrow when a comrade or a friend turns enemy?

Sir 37:3 O evil inclination, why were you created, to cover the earth with deceit?

Sir 37:4 One kind of comrade congratulates a friend in prosperity but in time of trouble appears on the other side.

Sir 37:5 One kind of comrade genuinely feels for a friend and when it comes to a fight, springs to arms.

Sir 37:6 Do not forget the genuine friend, do not push him out of mind once you are rich.

Sir 37:7 Any adviser will offer advice, but some are governed by self-interest.

Sir 37:8 Beware of someone who offers advice; first find out what he wants himself- since his advice coincides with his own interest—in case he has designs on you

Sir 37:9 and tells you, ‘You are on the right road,’ but stands well clear to see what will happen to you.

Sir 37:10 Do not consult anyone who looks at you askance, conceal your plans from people jealous of you.

Sir 37:11 Do not consult a woman about her rival, or a coward about war, a merchant about prices, or a buyer about selling, anyone mean about gratitude, or anyone selfish about kindness, a lazy fellow about any sort of work, or a casual worker about finishing a job, an idle servant about a major undertaking—do not rely on these for any advice.

Sir 37:12 But have constant recourse to some devout person, whom you know to be a keeper of the commandments, whose soul matches your own, and who, if you go wrong, will be sympathetic.

Sir 37:13 Finally, stick to the advice your own heart gives you, no one can be truer to you than that;

Sir 37:14 since a person's soul often gives a clearer warning than seven watchmen perched on a watchtower.

Sir 37:15 And besides all this beg the Most High to guide your steps into the truth.

Sir 37:16 Reason should be the basis for every activity, reflection must come before any undertaking.

Sir 37:17 Thoughts are rooted in the heart, and this sends out four branches:

Sir 37:18 good and evil, life and death, and mistress of them always is the tongue.

Sir 37:19 One kind of person is clever at teaching others, yet is no good whatever to himself;

Sir 37:20 another, very eloquent, is detested and ends by starving to death,

Sir 37:21 not having won the favour of the Lord, and being destitute of all wisdom.

Sir 37:22 Another considers himself wise and proclaims his intellectual conclusions as certainties.

Sir 37:23 But the truly wise instructs his people and his intellectual conclusions are certainties.

Sir 37:24 The wise is showered with blessings, and all who see him will call him happy.

Sir 37:25 Human life lasts a number of days, but the days of Israel are beyond counting.

Sir 37:26 The wise will earn confidence among the people, his name will live for ever.

Sir 37:27 During your life, my child, see what suits your constitution, do not give it what you find disagrees with it;

Sir 37:28 for not everything is good for everybody, nor does everybody like everything.

Sir 37:29 Do not be insatiable for any delicacy, do not be greedy for food,

Sir 37:30 for over-eating leads to illness and excess leads to liver-attacks.

Sir 37:31 Many people have died from over-eating; control yourself, and so prolong your life.

Sir 38:1 Treat the doctor with the honour that is his due, in consideration of his services; for he too has been created by the Lord.

Sir 38:2 Healing itself comes from the Most High, like a gift received from a king.

Sir 38:3 The doctor's learning keeps his head high, and the great regard him with awe.

Sir 38:4 The Lord has brought forth medicinal herbs from the ground, and no one sensible will despise them.

Sir 38:5 Did not a piece of wood once sweeten the water, thus giving proof of its power?

Sir 38:6 He has also given some people knowledge, so that they may draw credit from his mighty works.

Sir 38:7 He uses these for healing and relieving pain; the druggist makes up a mixture from them.

Sir 38:8 Thus, there is no end to his activities; thanks to him, well-being exists throughout the world.

Sir 38:9 My child, when you are ill, do not rebel, but pray to the Lord and he will heal you.

Sir 38:10 Renounce your faults, keep your hands unsoiled, and cleanse your heart from all sin.

Sir 38:11 Offer incense and a memorial of fine flour, make as rich an offering as you can afford.

Sir 38:12 Then let the doctor take over—the Lord created him too—do not let him leave you, for you need him.

Sir 38:13 There are times when good health depends on doctors.

Sir 38:14 For they, in their turn, will pray the Lord to grant them the grace to relieve and to heal, and so prolong your life.

Sir 38:15 Whoever sins in the eyes of his Maker, let such a one come under the care of the doctor!

Sir 38:16 My child, shed tears over the dead, lament for the dead to show your sorrow, then bury the body with due ceremony and do not fail to honour the grave.

Sir 38:17 Weep bitterly, beat your breast, observe the mourning the dead deserves for a day or two, to avoid censorious comment, and then be comforted in your sorrow;

Sir 38:18 for grief can lead to death, a grief-stricken heart loses all energy.

Sir 38:19 In affliction sorrow persists, a life of grief is hard to bear.

Sir 38:20 Do not abandon your heart to grief, drive it away, bear your own end in mind.

Sir 38:21 Do not forget, there is no coming back; you cannot help the dead, and you will harm yourself.

Sir 38:22 'Remember my doom, since it will be yours too; I yesterday, you today!'

Sir 38:23 Once the dead are laid to rest, let their memory rest, do not fret for them, once their spirit departs.

Sir 38:24 Leisure gives the scribe the chance to acquire wisdom; a man with few commitments can grow wise.

Sir 38:25 How can the ploughman become wise, whose sole ambition is to wield the goad, driving his oxen, engrossed in their work, his conversation limited to bullocks,

Sir 38:26 his thoughts absorbed in the furrows he traces and his long evenings spent in fattening heifers?

Sir 38:27 Similarly with all workmen and craftsmen, toiling day and night; those who engrave seals, for ever trying to think of a new design, concentrating on catching a good likeness and staying up late to get the work done.

Sir 38:28 Similarly with the blacksmith sitting by his anvil; he considers what to do with the pig-iron, the breath of the fire scorches his skin, as he contends with the heat of the furnace; the noise of the hammer deafens him, his eyes are fixed on the pattern; he concentrates on getting the job done well and stays up late to apply the finishing touches.

Sir 38:29 Similarly with the potter, sitting at his work, turning the wheel with his feet; constantly on the alert over his work, each flick of the finger premeditated;

Sir 38:30 he pummels the clay with his arm, and with his feet he kneads it; he concentrates on applying the glaze right and stays up late to clean the kiln.

Sir 38:31 All these people rely on their hands and each is skilled at his own craft.

Sir 38:32 A town could not be inhabited without them, there would be no settling, no travelling.

Sir 38:33 But you will not find them in the parliament, they do not hold high rank in the assembly. They do not sit on the judicial bench, and they do not meditate on the Law.

Sir 38:34 They are not remarkable for their culture or judgement, nor are they found frequenting the philosophers. They sustain the structure of the world, and their prayer is concerned with their trade.

Sir 39:1 Not so with one who concentrates his mind and his meditation on the Law of the Most High. He researches into the wisdom of all the Ancients, he occupies his time with the prophecies.

Sir 39:2 He preserves the discourses of famous men, he is at home with the niceties of parables.

Sir 39:3 He researches into the hidden sense of proverbs, he ponders the obscurities of parables.

Sir 39:4 He enters the service of princes, he is seen in the presence of rulers. He travels in foreign countries, he has experienced human good and human evil.

Sir 39:5 At dawn and with all his heart he turns to the Lord his Creator; he pleads in the presence of the Most High, he opens his mouth in prayer and makes entreaty for his sins.

Sir 39:6 If such be the will of the great Lord, he will be filled with the spirit of intelligence, he will shower forth words of wisdom, and in prayer give thanks to the Lord.

Sir 39:7 He will grow upright in purpose and learning, he will ponder the Lord's hidden mysteries.

Sir 39:8 He will display the instruction he has received, taking his pride in the Law of the Lord's covenant.

Sir 39:9 Many will praise his intelligence and it will never be forgotten. His memory will not disappear, generation after generation his name will live.

Sir 39:10 Nations will proclaim his wisdom, the assembly will celebrate his praises.

Sir 39:11 If he lives long, his name will be more glorious than a thousand others, and if he dies, that will satisfy him just as well.

Sir 39:12 And here are some more of my reflections: yes, I am as full as the moon at the full!

Sir 39:13 Listen to me, devout children, and blossom like the rose that grows on the bank of a watercourse.

Sir 39:14 Give off a sweet smell like incense, flower like the lily, spread your fragrance abroad, sing a song of praise blessing the Lord for all his works.

Sir 39:15 Declare the greatness of his name, proclaim his praise with song and with lyre, and this is how you must sing his praises:

Sir 39:16 'How wonderful, the actions of the Lord! Whatever he orders is done at the proper time!' You must not say, 'What is this? Why is that?' There is a proper time for every question.

Sir 39:17 At his word, the water stops and piles up high, at his voice, the watery reservoirs take shape,

Sir 39:18 at his command, whatever he wants is done, no one can stop him, if he intends to save.

Sir 39:19 He can see whatever human beings are doing, nothing can be hidden from his eye;

Sir 39:20 his gaze stretches from eternity to eternity, and nothing can astonish him.

Sir 39:21 You must not say, 'What is this? Why is that?' for everything has been made for a purpose.

Sir 39:22 As his blessing covers the dry land like a river and soaks it like a flood,

Sir 39:23 so retribution is his legacy to the nations, just as he has turned fresh waters to salt.

Sir 39:24 His ways are as smooth for the devout, as they are full of obstacles for the wicked.

Sir 39:25 Good things were created from the beginning for good people, as bad ones were for sinners.

Sir 39:26 The prime needs of human beings for living are water and fire, iron and salt, wheat-flour, milk and honey, the juice of the grape, oil and clothing.

Sir 39:27 All these are good for those who are good, but turn out bad for sinners.

Sir 39:28 Some winds have been created for punishing, in his fury, he uses them as scourges; on the day of doom, they unleash their violence and appease the wrath of their Creator.

Sir 39:29 Fire and hail, famine and death, have all been created for punishing.

Sir 39:30 Wild animals' fangs, scorpions, vipers, the avenging sword for the ruin of the godless:

Sir 39:31 all of them exult in discharging his orders, ready on earth whenever the need arises and, when their time comes, not falling short of his word.

Sir 39:32 That is why I was determined from the outset, why I have pondered and why I have written,

Sir 39:33 'The works of the Lord are all good, when the time is right, he gives whatever is needed.

Sir 39:34 You must not say, "This is worse than that," for, sooner or later, everything proves its worth.

Sir 39:35 So now, sing with all your heart and voice, and bless the name of the Lord!’

Sir 40:1 A hard lot has been created for human beings, a heavy yoke lies on the children of Adam from the day they come out of their mother’s womb, till the day they return to the mother of them all.

Sir 40:2 What fills them with foreboding and their hearts with fear is dread of the day of death.

Sir 40:3 From the one who sits on a glorious throne to the wretch in dust and ashes,

Sir 40:4 from the one who wears purple and a crown to the one dressed in sacking, all is fury and jealousy, turmoil and unrest, fear of death, rivalry, strife.

Sir 40:5 And even at night while he rests on his bed his sleep only gives a new twist to his worries:

Sir 40:6 scarcely has he lain down to rest, when in his sleep, as if in broad daylight, he is troubled with nightmares, like one who has escaped from a battle,

Sir 40:7 and at the moment of rescue he wakes up, amazed that there was nothing to be afraid of!

Sir 40:8 For all creatures, human and animal—and seven times more for sinners-

Sir 40:9 there is death and blood and strife and the sword, disasters, famine, affliction, plague.

Sir 40:10 These things were all created for the wicked, and the Flood came because of them.

Sir 40:11 All that comes from the earth returns to the earth, and what comes from the water returns to the sea.

Sir 40:12 All bribery and injustice will be blotted out, but good faith will stand for ever.

Sir 40:13 Ill-gotten wealth will vanish like a torrent, like the single thunder-clap that heralds rain.

Sir 40:14 When he opens his hand, he rejoices, by the same token, sinners come to ruin.

Sir 40:15 The sprigs of the godless will not make many branches, tainted roots find only hard rock.

Sir 40:16 The reed that grows by every lake and river’s edge is the first plant to be uprooted.

Sir 40:17 Charity is a very paradise of blessing and almsgiving endures for ever.

Sir 40:18 For a person of private means and one who works hard, life is pleasant, better off than either, one who finds a treasure.

Sir 40:19 Children and the founding of a city perpetuate a name:

more esteemed than either, a perfect wife.

Sir 40:20 Wine and music cheer the heart; better than either, the love of wisdom.

Sir 40:21 Flute and harp add sweetness to a song; better than either, a melodious voice.

Sir 40:22 The eye longs for grace and beauty; better than either, the green of spring corn.

Sir 40:23 Friend or comrade—it is always well met; better than either, a wife and husband.

Sir 40:24 Brothers and allies are good in times of trouble; better than either, almsgiving to the rescue.

Sir 40:25 Gold and silver will steady your feet; more esteemed than either, good advice.

Sir 40:26 Money and strength make a confident heart; better than either, the fear of the Lord. With fear of the Lord, nothing is lacking: no need to seek for other help.

Sir 40:27 Fear of the Lord is a paradise of blessing, a better protection than the highest reputation.

Sir 40:28 My child, do not live by sponging off others, better be dead than be a sponger.

Sir 40:29 A life spent in eyeing someone else's table cannot be accounted a life at all. Other people's food defiles the gullet; a wise, well-brought-up person will beware of doing this.

Sir 40:30 What a sponger says may sound very sweet but in his belly there burns a fire.

Sir 41:1 O death, how bitter it is to remember you for someone peacefully living with his possessions, for someone with no worries and everything going well and who can still enjoy his food!

Sir 41:2 O death, your sentence is welcome to one in want, whose strength is failing, to one worn out with age and a thousand worries, resentful and impatient!

Sir 41:3 Do not dread death's sentence; remember those who came before you and those who will come after.

Sir 41:4 This is the sentence passed on all living creatures by the Lord, so why object to what seems good to the Most High? Whether your life lasts ten or a hundred or a thousand years, its length will not be held against you in Sheol.

Sir 41:5 Hateful brats, such are the children of sinners, who foregather in the haunts of the godless.

Sir 41:6 The inheritance of sinners' children is doomed to perish, their posterity will endure lasting reproach.

Sir 41:7 A godless father will be blamed by his children for the reproach he has brought on them.

Sir 41:8 A bad outlook for you, godless people, who have forsaken the Law of God Most High.

Sir 41:9 When you were born, you were born to be accursed, and when you die, that curse will be your portion.

Sir 41:10 All that comes from the earth returns to the earth, so too the wicked proceed from curse to destruction.

Sir 41:11 Mourning concerns only the bodies of the dead, but the worthless name of sinners will be blotted out.

Sir 41:12 Be careful of your reputation, for it will last you longer than a thousand great hoards of gold.

Sir 41:13 A good life lasts a certain number of days, but a good reputation lasts for ever.

Sir 41:14 Keep my instructions and be at peace, my children. Wisdom hidden away and treasure undisplayed, what use is either of these?

Sir 41:15 Better someone who hides his folly than one who hides his wisdom.

Sir 41:16 Preserve a sense of shame in the following matters, for not every kind of shame is right to harbour, nor is every situation correctly appraised by all.

Sir 41:17 Be ashamed, before father and mother, of depraved behaviour, and before prince or potentate of telling lies;

Sir 41:18 of wrong-doing before judge or magistrate, and of impiety before the assembly of the people;

Sir 41:19 of sharp practice before your companion and your friend, and of theft before the neighbourhood you live in.

Sir 41:20 Before the truth and covenant of God, be ashamed of leaning elbows on the table,

Sir 41:21 of being ungracious when giving or receiving, of ignoring those who greet you,

Sir 41:22 of gazing at a loose woman, of repulsing your fellow-countryman,

Sir 41:23 of misappropriating another’s portion or gift, of paying court to another man’s wife,

Sir 41:24 of making advances to his servant-girl—do not go near her bed-

Sir 41:25 of saying disagreeable things to friends—do not follow up a gift with a taunt-

Sir 41:26 of repeating everything you hear and of betraying confidences.

Sir 41:27 Then you will know what true shame is, and you will find yourself in everyone's graces.

Sir 42:1 The following things you should not be ashamed of, and do not sin from fear of what others think:

Sir 42:2 of the Law of the Most High or of the covenant, of a verdict that acquits the godless,

Sir 42:3 of keeping accounts with a travelling companion, of settling property on your friends,

Sir 42:4 of being accurate over scales and weights, of making small and large profits,

Sir 42:5 of gaining from commercial transactions, of disciplining your children strictly, of lashing a wicked slave till you draw blood.

Sir 42:6 With an interfering wife, it is as well to use your seal, and where there are many hands, lock things up.

Sir 42:7 Whatever stores you issue, do it by number and weight, spendings and takings, put everything in writing.

Sir 42:8 Do not be ashamed to correct a stupid person or a fool, or an old dotard who bickers with young people. Then you will show yourself really educated and win the approval of everyone.

Sir 42:9 Unknown to her, a daughter keeps her father awake, the worry she gives him drives away his sleep: in her youth, in case she never marries, married, in case she should be disliked,

Sir 42:10 as a virgin, in case she should be defiled and found with child in her father's house, having a husband, in case she goes astray, married, in case she should be sterile!

Sir 42:11 Your daughter is headstrong? Keep a sharp look-out that she does not make you the laughing-stock of your enemies, the talk of the town, the object of common gossip, and put you to public shame.

Sir 42:12 Do not stare at any man for his good looks, do not sit down with women;

Sir 42:13 for moth comes out of clothes, and woman's spite out of woman.

Sir 42:14 Better a man's spite than a woman's kindness: women give rise to shame and reproach.

Sir 42:15 Next, I shall remind you of the works of the Lord, and tell of what I have seen. By the words of the Lord his works come into being and all creation obeys his will.

Sir 42:16 The shining sun looks down on all things, and the work of the Lord is full of his glory.

Sir 42:17 The Lord has not granted the Holy Ones the power to tell of all his marvels which the Almighty Lord has solidly constructed for the universe to stand firm in his glory.

Sir 42:18 He has fathomed both the abyss and the human heart and seen into their devious ways; for the Most High knows all there is to know and sees the signs of the times.

Sir 42:19 He declares what is past and what will be, and reveals the trend of hidden things.

Sir 42:20 Not a thought escapes him, not a single word is hidden from him.

Sir 42:21 He has embellished the magnificent works of his wisdom, he is from everlasting to everlasting, nothing can be added to him, nothing taken away, he needs no one's advice.

Sir 42:22 How lovely, all his works, how dazzling to the eye!

Sir 42:23 They all live and last for ever, and, whatever the circumstances, all obey.

Sir 42:24 All things go in pairs, by opposites, he has not made anything imperfect:

Sir 42:25 one thing complements the excellence of another. Who could ever grow tired of gazing at his glory?

Sir 43:1 Pride of the heights, a clear vault of the sky—such is the beauty of the heavens, a glorious sight.

Sir 43:2 The sun, as he emerges, proclaims at his rising, 'How wonderful a thing, the work of the Most High!'

Sir 43:3 At his zenith, he parches the ground, who can withstand his blaze?

Sir 43:4 We have to blow the furnace to produce any heat, the sun burns the mountains three times as much; breathing out blasts of fire, flashing his rays, he dazzles the eyes.

Sir 43:5 Great is the Lord who created him and whose word speeds him on his course.

Sir 43:6 And then the moon, ever punctual to mark the times, an everlasting sign:

Sir 43:7 It is the moon that signals the feasts, a luminary that wanes after being full.

Sir 43:8 The month derives its name from hers, she waxes wonderfully in her phases, banner of the hosts on high, shining in the vault of heaven.

Sir 43:9 The glory of the stars makes the beauty of the sky, a brilliant adornment of the Lord on High.

Sir 43:10 At the words of the Holy One they stand as he decrees, and never grow slack at their watch.

Sir 43:11 See the rainbow and praise its Maker, so superbly beautiful in its splendour.

Sir 43:12 Across the sky it forms a glorious arc drawn by the hands of the Most High.

Sir 43:13 By his command he sends the snow, he speeds the lightning by his command.

Sir 43:14 In the same way, his treasuries open and the clouds fly out like birds.

Sir 43:15 His great power solidifies the clouds, then pulverises them into hail.

Sir 43:16 at the sight of him, the mountains quake. At his will the south wind blows,or the storm from the north and the whirlwind.

Sir 43:17 At the roar of his thunder, the earth writhes in labour,

Sir 43:18 He sprinkles snow like birds alighting, it comes down like locusts settling. The eye marvels at the beauty of its whiteness, and the mind is amazed at its falling.

Sir 43:19 Over the earth, like salt, he also pours hoarfrost, which, when it freezes, bristles like thorns.

Sir 43:20 The cold wind blows from the north, and ice forms on the water; it forms on every piece of standing water, covering it like a breastplate.

Sir 43:21 The wind swallows up the mountains and scorches the desert, like a fire it consumes the vegetation.

Sir 43:22 But cloud brings swift healing, and dew brings joy after the heat.

Sir 43:23 By his own resourcefulness he has tamed the abyss, and planted it with islands.

Sir 43:24 Those who sail the sea tell of its dangers, their accounts fill our ears with amazement:

Sir 43:25 for there too exist strange and wonderful works, animals of every kind and huge sea creatures.

Sir 43:26 Thanks to God, his messenger reaches port, everything works out according to his word.

Sir 43:27 We could say much more and still fall short; to put it concisely, 'He is all.'

Sir 43:28 Where shall we find sufficient power to glorify him, since he is the Great One, above all his works,

Sir 43:29 the awe-inspiring Lord, stupendously great, and wonderful in his power?

Sir 43:30 Exalt the Lord in your praises as high as you may—still he surpasses you. Exert all your strength when you exalt him, do not grow tired—you will never come to the end.

Sir 43:31 Who has ever seen him to describe him? Who can glorify him as he deserves?

Sir 43:32 Many mysteries remain even greater than these, for we have seen only a few of his works,

Sir 43:33 the Lord himself having created all things and given wisdom to those who are devout.

Sir 44:1 Next let us praise illustrious men, our ancestors in their successive generations.

Sir 44:2 The Lord has created an abundance of glory, and displayed his greatness from earliest times.

Sir 44:3 Some wielded authority as kings and were renowned for their strength; others were intelligent advisers and uttered prophetic sayings.

Sir 44:4 Others directed the people by their advice, by their understanding of the popular mind, and by the wise words of their teaching;

Sir 44:5 others composed musical melodies and set down ballads;

Sir 44:6 others were rich and powerful, living peacefully in their homes.

Sir 44:7 All these were honoured by their contemporaries and were the glory of their day.

Sir 44:8 Some of them left a name behind them, so that their praises are still sung.

Sir 44:9 While others have left no memory, and disappeared as though they had not existed. They are now as though they had never been, and so too, their children after them.

Sir 44:10 But here is a list of illustrious men whose good works have not been forgotten.

Sir 44:11 In their descendants they find a rich inheritance, their posterity.

Sir 44:12 Their descendants stand by the commandments and, thanks to them, so do their children’s children.

Sir 44:13 Their offspring will last for ever, their glory will not fade.

Sir 44:14 Their bodies have been buried in peace, and their name lives on for all generations.

Sir 44:15 The peoples will proclaim their wisdom, the assembly will celebrate their praises.

Sir 44:16 Enoch pleased the Lord and was transferred to heaven, an example for the conversion of all generations.

Sir 44:17 Noah was found perfectly upright, in the time of retribution he became the heir: because of him a remnant was preserved for the earth at the coming of the Flood.

Sir 44:18 Everlasting covenants were made with him that never again should every living creature perish by flood.

Sir 44:19 Abraham, the great ancestor of a host of nations, no one was ever his equal in glory.

Sir 44:20 He observed the Law of the Most High, and entered into a covenant with him. He confirmed the covenant in his own flesh, and proved himself faithful under ordeal.

Sir 44:21 The Lord therefore promised him on oath to bless the nations through his descendants, to multiply him like the dust on the ground, to exalt his descendants like the stars, and to give them the land as their heritage, from one sea to the other, from the River to the ends of the earth.

Sir 44:22 To Isaac too, for the sake of Abraham his father, he assured

Sir 44:23 the blessing of all humanity; he caused the covenant to rest on the head of Jacob. He confirmed him in his blessings and gave him the land as his inheritance; he divided it into portions, and shared it out among the twelve tribes.

Sir 45:1 From Jacob's stock he produced a generous man who found favour in the eyes of all humanity, beloved by God and people, Moses, of blessed memory.

Sir 45:2 He made him the equal of the holy ones in glory and made him strong, to the terror of his enemies.

Sir 45:3 By the word of Moses, he made prodigies cease and raised him high in the respect of kings; he gave him commandments for his people, and showed him something of his glory.

Sir 45:4 For his loyalty and gentleness he sanctified him, choosing him alone out of all human beings;

Sir 45:5 he allowed him to hear his voice, and led him into the darkness;

Sir 45:6 he gave him the commandments face to face, the law of life and knowledge, to teach Jacob his ordinances and Israel his decrees. He raised up Aaron, a holy man like Moses, his brother, of the tribe of Levi.

Sir 45:7 He made an everlasting covenant with him, and gave him the priesthood of the people. He adorned him with impressive vestments, he dressed him in a robe of glory.

Sir 45:8 He clothed him in glorious perfection and invested him with rich ornaments, the breeches, the long robe, the ephod.

Sir 45:9 To surround the robe he gave him pomegranates, and many gold bells all round to chime at every step, for their sound to be heard in the Temple as a reminder to the children of his people;

Sir 45:10 and a sacred vestment of gold and aquamarine and scarlet, the work of an embroiderer; the pectoral of judgement, the urim and thummim, of plaited crimson, the work of a craftsman;

Sir 45:11 precious stones cut like seals mounted in gold, the work of a jeweller, as a reminder with their engraved inscriptions of the number of the tribes of Israel;

Sir 45:12 and a golden diadem on his turban, engraved with the seal of consecration; superb ornamentation, magnificent work, adornment to delight the eye.

Sir 45:13 There had never been such lovely things before him, and no one else has ever put them on, but only his own sons, and his descendants for all time.

Sir 45:14 His sacrifices were to be burnt entirely, twice each day and for ever.

Sir 45:15 Moses consecrated him and anointed him with holy oil; and this was an everlasting covenant for him, and for his descendants as long as the heavens endure, that he should preside over worship, act as priest, and bless the people in the name of the Lord.

Sir 45:16 He chose him out of all the living to offer sacrifices to the Lord, incense and perfume as a memorial to make expiation for the people.

Sir 45:17 He entrusted him with his commandments, committed to him the statutes of the Law for him to teach Jacob his decrees and enlighten Israel on his Law.

Sir 45:18 Others plotted against him, they were jealous of him in the desert, Dathan and Abiram and their men, Korah and his crew in fury and rage.

Sir 45:19 The Lord saw it and was displeased, his raging fury made an end of them; he worked miracles on them, consuming them by his flaming fire.

Sir 45:20 And he added to Aaron’s glory, he gave him an inheritance; he allotted him the offerings of the first-fruits, before all else, as much bread as he could want.

Sir 45:21 Thus they eat the sacrifices of the Lord which he gave to him and his posterity.

Sir 45:22 But of the people’s territory he inherits nothing, he alone of all the people has no share, ‘For I myself am your share and heritage.’

Sir 45:23 Phinehas son of Eleazar is third in glory because of his zeal in the fear of the Lord, because he stood firm when the people revolted, with a staunch and courageous heart; and in this way made expiation for Israel.

Sir 45:24 Hence a covenant of peace was sealed with him, making him governor of both sanctuary and people, and securing to him and his descendants the high priestly dignity for ever.

Sir 45:25 There was also a covenant with David son of Jesse, of the tribe of Judah, a royal succession by exclusively linear descent, but the succession of Aaron passes to all his descendants.

Sir 45:26 May God endow your hearts with wisdom to judge his people uprightly, so that the virtues of your ancestors may never fade, and their glory may pass to all their descendants!

Sir 46:1 Mighty in war was Joshua son of Nun, successor to Moses in the prophetic office, who well deserved his name, and was a great saviour of the chosen people, wreaking vengeance on the enemies who opposed him, and so bringing Israel into its inheritance.

Sir 46:2 How splendid he was when, arms uplifted, he brandished his sword against cities!

Sir 46:3 Who had ever shown such determination as his? He himself led the battles of the Lord.

Sir 46:4 Was not the sun held back by his hand, and one day drawn out into two?

Sir 46:5 He called on the Most High, the Mighty One, while pressing the enemies from all directions, and the great Lord answered him with hard and violent hailstones.

Sir 46:6 He fell on that enemy nation, and at the Descent destroyed all resistance to make the nations acknowledge his warlike prowess and that he was waging war on behalf of the Lord.

Sir 46:7 For he was a follower of the Mighty One, in the time of Moses showing his devotion, he and Caleb son of Jephunneh, by opposing the whole community, by preventing the people from sinning, and by silencing the mutters of rebellion.

Sir 46:8 Hence these two alone were preserved out of six hundred thousand men on the march, and brought into their inheritance, into a land where milk and honey flow.

Sir 46:9 And the Lord conferred strength on Caleb too, which stayed by him into old age, so that he could invest the highlands of the country which his descendants kept as their inheritance,

Sir 46:10 so that every Israelite might see that it is good to follow the Lord.

Sir 46:11 The Judges too, each when he was called, all men whose hearts were never disloyal, who never turned their backs on the Lord—may their memory be blessed!

Sir 46:12 May their bones flourish again from the tomb, and may the names of those illustrious men be worthily borne by their sons!

Sir 46:13 Samuel was the beloved of his Lord; prophet of the Lord, he instituted the kingdom, and anointed rulers over his people.

Sir 46:14 By the Law of the Lord he judged the assembly, and the Lord watched over Jacob.

Sir 46:15 By his loyalty he was recognised as a prophet, by his words he was known to be a trustworthy seer.

Sir 46:16 He called on the Lord, the Mighty One, when his enemies pressed in from all directions, by offering a sucking lamb.

Sir 46:17 And the Lord thundered from heaven, and made his voice heard in a rolling peal;

Sir 46:18 he massacred the leaders of the enemy, and all the rulers of the Philistines.

Sir 46:19 Before the time of his everlasting rest he bore witness to the Lord and his anointed, 'Of no property, not even a pair of sandals, have I ever deprived a soul.' Nor did anyone accuse him.

Sir 46:20 And, having fallen asleep, he prophesied again, warning the king of his end; he spoke from the depths of the earth in prophecy, to blot out the wickedness of the people.

Sir 47:1 After him arose Nathan, to prophesy in the time of David.

Sir 47:2 As the fat is set apart from the communion sacrifice, so was David chosen out of the Israelites.

Sir 47:3 He played with lions as though with kids, and with bears as though with lambs.

Sir 47:4 While still a boy, did he not slay the giant and take away the people's shame, by hurling a stone from his sling and cutting short the boasting of Goliath?

Sir 47:5 For he called on the Lord Most High, who gave strength to his right arm to put a mighty warrior to death and assert the strength of his own people.

Sir 47:6 Hence they gave him credit for ten thousand, and praised him while they blessed the Lord, by offering him a crown of glory.

Sir 47:7 For he destroyed the enemies on every front, he annihilated his foes, the Philistines, and crushed their strength for ever.

Sir 47:8 In all his activities he gave thanks to the Holy One Most High in words of glory; he put all his heart into his songs out of love for his Creator.

Sir 47:9 He placed singers before the altar, melodiously to sing;

Sir 47:10 he gave the feasts their splendour, the festivals their solemn pomp, causing the Lord's holy name to be praised and the sanctuary to resound from dawn.

Sir 47:11 The Lord took away his sins, making his strength ever greater; he gave him a royal covenant, and a glorious throne in Israel.

Sir 47:12 A wise son succeeded him, who lived content, thanks to him.

Sir 47:13 Solomon reigned in a time of peace, and God gave him peace all round so that he could raise a house to his name and prepare an everlasting sanctuary.

Sir 47:14 How wise you were despite your youth, like a river, brimming over with intelligence!

Sir 47:15 Your mind ranged the earth, you filled it with mysterious sayings.

Sir 47:16 Your name reached the distant islands, and you were loved for your peace.

Sir 47:17 Your songs, your proverbs, your sayings and your answers were the wonder of the world.

Sir 47:18 In the name of the Lord God, of him who is called the God of Israel, you amassed gold like so much tin, and made silver as common as lead.

Sir 47:19 You abandoned your body to women, you became the slave of your appetites.

Sir 47:20 You stained your honour, you profaned your stock, so bringing retribution on your children and affliction for your folly:

Sir 47:21 the empire split in two, from Ephraim arose a rebel kingdom.

Sir 47:22 But the Lord never goes back on his mercy, never cancels any of his words, will neither deny offspring to his elect nor stamp out the line of the man who loved him. And hence, he has granted a remnant to Jacob and to David a root sprung from him.

Sir 47:23 Solomon rested with his ancestors, leaving one of his stock as his successor, the stupidest member of the nation, brainless Rehoboam, who drove the people to rebel.

Sir 47:24 Next, Jeroboam son of Nebat, who made Israel sin, and set Ephraim on the way of evil; from then on their sins multiplied so excessively as to drive them out of their country;

Sir 47:25 for they tried out every kind of wickedness, until vengeance overtook them.

Sir 48:1 Then the prophet Elijah arose like a fire, his word flaring like a torch.

Sir 48:2 It was he who brought famine on them and decimated them in his zeal.

Sir 48:3 By the word of the Lord he shut up the heavens, three times also he brought down fire.

Sir 48:4 How glorious you were in your miracles, Elijah! Has anyone reason to boast as you have? -

Sir 48:5 rousing a corpse from death, from Sheol, by the word of the Most High;

Sir 48:6 dragging kings down to destruction, and high dignitaries from their beds;

Sir 48:7 hearing a rebuke on Sinai and decrees of punishment on Horeb;

Sir 48:8 anointing kings as avengers, and prophets to succeed you;

Sir 48:9 taken up in the whirlwind of fire, in a chariot with fiery horses;

Sir 48:10 designated in the prophecies of doom to allay God's wrath before the fury breaks, to turn the hearts of fathers towards their children, and to restore the tribes of Jacob.

Sir 48:11 Blessed, those who will see you, and those who have fallen asleep in love; for we too shall certainly have life.

Sir 48:12 Such was Elijah, who was enveloped in a whirlwind; and Elisha was filled with his spirit; throughout his life no ruler could shake him, and no one could subdue him.

Sir 48:13 No task was too hard for him, and even in death his body prophesied.

Sir 48:14 In his lifetime he performed wonders, and in death his works were marvellous.

Sir 48:15 Despite all this the people did not repent, nor did they give up their sins, until they were herded out of their country and scattered all over the earth;

Sir 48:16 only a few of the people were left, with a ruler of the House of David. Some of them did what pleased the Lord, others piled sin on sin.

Sir 48:17 Hezekiah fortified his city, and laid on a water-supply inside it; with iron he tunnelled through the rock and constructed storage-tanks.

Sir 48:18 In his days Sennacherib invaded and sent Rabshakeh; he lifted his hand against Zion, and boasted loudly in his arrogance.

Sir 48:19 Then their hearts and hands trembled, they felt the pangs of a woman in labour,

Sir 48:20 but they called on the merciful Lord, stretching out their hands towards him. Swiftly the Holy One heard them from heaven and delivered them by the agency of Isaiah;

Sir 48:21 he struck the camp of the Assyrians and his Angel annihilated them.

Sir 48:22 For Hezekiah did what is pleasing to the Lord, and was steadfast in the ways of David his father, enjoined on him by the prophet Isaiah, a great man trustworthy in his vision.

Sir 48:23 In his days the sun moved back; he prolonged the life of the king.

Sir 48:24 In the power of the spirit he saw the last things, he comforted the mourners of Zion,

Sir 48:25 he revealed the future to the end of time, and hidden things long before they happened.

Sir 49:1 The memory of Josiah is like blended incense prepared by the perfumer’s art; it is as sweet as honey to all mouths, and like music at a wine feast.

Sir 49:2 He took the right course, of converting the people, he rooted out the iniquitous abominations,

Sir 49:3 he set his heart on the Lord, in godless times he upheld the cause of religion.

Sir 49:4 Apart from David, Hezekiah and Josiah, they all heaped wrong on wrong, they abandoned the Law of the Most High: the kings of Judah disappeared;

Sir 49:5 for they handed their power over to others and their honour to a foreign nation.

Sir 49:6 The holy, chosen city was burnt down, her streets were left deserted,

Sir 49:7 as Jeremiah had predicted; for they had ill-treated him, though consecrated a prophet in his mother’s womb, to tear up and afflict and destroy, but also to build up and to plant.

Sir 49:8 Ezekiel saw a vision of glory which God showed to him above the chariot of the great winged creatures,

Sir 49:9 for he mentioned the enemies in the downpour to the advantage of those who follow the right way.

Sir 49:10 As for the twelve prophets, may their bones flower again from the tomb, since they have comforted Jacob and redeemed him in faith and hope.

Sir 49:11 How shall we extol Zerubbabel? He was like a signet ring on the right hand,

Sir 49:12 so too was Joshua son of Jozadak; they who in their days built the Temple and raised a sanctuary sacred to the Lord, destined to everlasting glory.

Sir 49:13 Great too is the memory of Nehemiah, who rebuilt our walls which lay in ruins, erected the bolted gates and rebuilt our houses.

Sir 49:14 No one else has ever been created on earth to equal Enoch, for he was taken up from earth.

Sir 49:15 And no one else ever born has been like Joseph, the leader of his brothers, the prop of his people; his bones received a visitation.

Sir 49:16 Shem and Seth were the most honoured of men, but above every living creature is Adam.

Sir 50:1 It was the High Priest Simon son of Onias who repaired the Temple during his lifetime and in his day fortified the sanctuary.

Sir 50:2 He laid the foundations of double depth, the high buttresses of the Temple precincts.

Sir 50:3 In his day the pool was excavated, a reservoir as huge as the sea.

Sir 50:4 Anxious to save the people from ruin, he fortified the city against siege.

Sir 50:5 How splendid he was with the people thronging round him, when he emerged from the curtained shrine,

Sir 50:6 like the morning star among the clouds, like the moon at the full,

Sir 50:7 like the sun shining on the Temple of the Most High, like the rainbow gleaming against brilliant clouds,

Sir 50:8 like a rose in springtime, like a lily by a spring, like a branch of the incense tree in summer,

Sir 50:9 like fire and incense in the censer, like a massive golden vessel encrusted with every kind of precious stone,

Sir 50:10 like an olive tree loaded with fruit, like a cypress soaring to the clouds;

Sir 50:11 when he took his ceremonial robe and put on his magnificent ornaments, when he went up to the holy altar and filled the sanctuary precincts with his grandeur;

Sir 50:12 when he received the portions from the hands of the priests, himself standing by the altar hearth, crowned with the circle of his brothers, as a cedar of Lebanon is by its foliage, as though surrounded by the trunks of palm trees.

Sir 50:13 When all the sons of Aaron in their glory, with the offerings of the Lord in their hands, stood before the whole assembly of Israel,

Sir 50:14 while he completed the rites at the altars, nobly presenting the offerings to the Almighty, Most High!

Sir 50:15 He would reach out his hand to the cup and pour a libation of wine, pouring it at the foot of the altar, a fragrance pleasing to the Most High, King of All;

Sir 50:16 then the sons of Aaron would shout and blow their metal trumpets, making a mighty sound ring out as a reminder before the Most High;

Sir 50:17 and immediately the people all together would fall on their faces to the ground, in adoration of their Lord, the Almighty, God Most High,

Sir 50:18 and with the cantors chanting their hymns of praise. Sweet was the melody of all these voices,

Sir 50:19 as the people pleaded with the Lord Most High and prayed in the presence of the Merciful, until the service of the Lord was completed and the ceremony at an end.

Sir 50:20 Then he would come down and raise his hands over the whole assembly of the Israelites, to give them the Lord's blessing from his lips, being privileged to pronounce his name;

Sir 50:21 and once again the people would bow low to receive the blessing of the Most High.

Sir 50:22 And now bless the God of all things, the doer of great deeds everywhere, who has exalted our days from the womb and has acted mercifully towards us.

Sir 50:23 May he grant us cheerful hearts and bring peace in our time, in Israel for ages on ages.

Sir 50:24 May his mercy be faithfully with us, may he redeem us in our own times!

Sir 50:25 There are two nations that my soul detests, the third is not a nation at all:

Sir 50:26 the inhabitants of Mount Seir, the Philistines, and the stupid people living at Shechem.

Sir 50:27 Instruction in wisdom and knowledge is what has been written in this book by Jesus son of Sira Eleazar of Jerusalem, who has poured a rain of wisdom from his heart.

Sir 50:28 Blessed is he who devotes his time to these and grows wise by taking them to heart!

Sir 50:29 If he practises them he will be strong enough for anything, since the light of the Lord is his path.

Sir 51:1 I shall give thanks to you, Lord and King, and praise you, God my Saviour, I give thanks to your name;

Sir 51:2 for you have been my guard and support and redeemed my body from destruction, from the snare of the lying tongue, from lips that fabricate falsehood; in the presence of my assailants, you were on my side; you have been my support, you have redeemed me,

Sir 51:3 true to your abounding kindness—and the greatness of your name—you liberated me from the fangs of those seeking to devour me, from the clutches of those seeking my life, from the many ordeals which I have endured,

Sir 51:4 from the stifling heat which hemmed me in, from the heart of a fire which I had not kindled,

Sir 51:5 from deep in the belly of Sheol,

Sir 51:6 treacherous denunciations to the king. My soul has been close to death, my life had gone down to the brink of Sheol.

Sir 51:7 I was completely surrounded, there was no one to help me; I looked for someone to help me, there was no one.

Sir 51:8 Then I remembered your mercy, Lord, and your deeds from earliest times, how you deliver those who wait for you patiently, and save them from the clutches of their enemies.

Sir 51:9 And I sent up my plea from the earth, I begged to be delivered from death.

Sir 51:10 I called on the Lord, the father of my Lord, 'Do not desert me in the days of ordeal, in the days of the proud, when we are helpless. I shall praise your name unceasingly and gratefully sing its praises.'

Sir 51:11 And my plea was heard, for you saved me from destruction, you delivered me from that time of evil.

Sir 51:12 And therefore I shall thank you and praise you, and bless the name of the Lord.

Sir 51:13 When I was still a youth, before I went travelling, in my prayers I asked outright for wisdom.

Sir 51:14 Outside the sanctuary I would pray for her, and to the last I shall continue to seek her.

Sir 51:15 From her blossoming to the ripening of her grape my heart has taken its delight in her. My foot has pursued a straight path, I have sought her ever since my youth.

Sir 51:16 By bowing my ear a little, I have received her, and have found much instruction.

Sir 51:17 Thanks to her I have advanced; glory be to him who has given me wisdom!

Sir 51:18 For I was determined to put her into practice, have earnestly pursued the good, and shall not be put to shame.

Sir 51:19 My soul has fought to possess her, I have been scrupulous in keeping the Law; I have stretched out my hands to heaven and bewailed how little I knew of her;

Sir 51:20 I have directed my soul towards her, and in purity I have found her; having my heart fixed on her from the outset, I shall never be deserted;

Sir 51:21 my very core having yearned to discover her, I have now acquired a good possession.

Sir 51:22 In reward the Lord has given me a tongue with which I shall sing his praises.

Sir 51:23 Come close to me, you ignorant, take your place in my school.

Sir 51:24 Why complain about lacking these things when your souls are so thirsty for them?

Sir 51:25 I have opened my mouth, I have said: 'Buy her without money,

Sir 51:26 put your necks under her yoke, let your souls receive instruction, she is near, within your reach.’

Sir 51:27 See for yourselves: how slight my efforts have been to win so much peace.

Sir 51:28 Buy instruction with a large sum of silver, thanks to her you will gain much gold.

Sir 51:29 May your souls rejoice in the mercy of the Lord, may you never be ashamed of praising him.

Sir 51:30 Do your work before the appointed time and at the appointed time he will give you your reward. (Subscript:) Wisdom of Jesus, son of Sira.

Isaiah

1:1 The vision of Isaiah son of Amoz concerning Judah and Jerusalem, which he received in the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah kings of Judah.

Isaiah 1:2 Listen, you heavens; earth, attend, for Yahweh is speaking, ‘I have reared children and brought them up, but they have rebelled against me.

Isaiah 1:3 The ox knows its owner and the donkey its master’s crib; Israel does not know, my people do not understand.’

Isaiah 1:4 Disaster, sinful nation, people weighed down with guilt, race of wrong-doers, perverted children! They have abandoned Yahweh, despised the Holy One of Israel, they have turned away from him.

Isaiah 1:5 Where shall I strike you next, if you persist in treason? The whole head is sick, the whole heart is diseased,

Isaiah 1:6 from the sole of the foot to the head there is nothing healthy: only wounds, bruises and open sores not dressed, not bandaged, not soothed with ointment,

Isaiah 1:7 your country a desolation, your towns burnt down, your soil, foreigners lay it waste before your eyes, a desolation like devastation by foreigners.

Isaiah 1:8 The daughter of Zion is left like a shanty in a vineyard, like a shed in a cucumber field, like a city besieged.

Isaiah 1:9 Had Yahweh Sabaoth not left us a few survivors, we should be like Sodom, we should be the same as Gomorrah.

Isaiah 1:10 Hear what Yahweh says, you rulers of Sodom; listen to what our God teaches, you people of Gomorrah.

Isaiah 1:11 ‘What are your endless sacrifices to me?’ says Yahweh. ‘I am sick of burnt offerings of rams and the fat of calves. I take no pleasure in the blood of bulls and lambs and goats.

Isaiah 1:12 When you come and present yourselves before me, who has asked you to trample through my courts?

Isaiah 1:13 Bring no more futile cereal offerings, the smoke from them fills me with disgust. New Moons, Sabbaths, assemblies—I cannot endure solemnity combined with guilt.

Isaiah 1:14 Your New Moons and your meetings I utterly detest; to me they are a burden I am tired of bearing.

Isaiah 1:15 When you stretch out your hands I turn my eyes away. You may multiply your prayers, I shall not be listening. Your hands are covered in blood, Isaiah 1:16 wash, make yourselves clean. Take your wrong-doing out of my sight. Cease doing evil.

Isaiah 1:17 Learn to do good, search for justice, discipline the violent, be just to the orphan, plead for the widow.

Isaiah 1:18 'Come, let us talk this over,' says Yahweh. 'Though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be white as snow; though they are red as crimson, they shall be like wool.

Isaiah 1:19 If you are willing to obey, you shall eat the good things of the earth.

Isaiah 1:20 But if you refuse and rebel, the sword shall eat you instead—for Yahweh's mouth has spoken.'

Isaiah 1:21 The faithful city, what a harlot she has become! Zion, once full of fair judgement, where saving justice used to dwell, but now assassins!

Isaiah 1:22 Your silver has turned into dross, your wine is watered.

Isaiah 1:23 Your princes are rebels, accomplices of brigands. All of them greedy for presents and eager for bribes, they show no justice to the orphan, and the widow's cause never reaches them.

Isaiah 1:24 Hence, the Lord Yahweh Sabaoth, the Mighty One of Israel, says this, 'Disaster, I shall get the better of my enemies, I shall avenge myself on my foes.

Isaiah 1:25 'I shall turn my hand against you, I shall purge your dross as though with potash, I shall remove all your alloy.

Isaiah 1:26 'And I shall restore your judges as at first, your counsellors as in bygone days, after which you will be called City of Saving Justice, Faithful City.'

Isaiah 1:27 Zion will be redeemed by fair judgement, and those who return, by saving justice.

Isaiah 1:28 Rebels and sinners alike will be destroyed, and those who abandon Yahweh will perish.

Isaiah 1:29 How ashamed you will be of the terebinths which gave you such delight; and how you will blush for the gardens which you chose!

Isaiah 1:30 For you will be like a terebinth with faded leaves, like a garden without water;

Isaiah 1:31 the strong will become like tinder, his work like the spark; both will go up in flames together, with no one to put them out.

Isaiah 2:1 The vision of Isaiah son of Amoz, concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

Isaiah 2:2 It will happen in the final days that the mountain of Yahweh’s house will rise higher than the mountains and tower above the heights. Then all the nations will stream to it,

Isaiah 2:3 many peoples will come to it and say, ‘Come, let us go up to the mountain of Yahweh, to the house of the God of Jacob that he may teach us his ways so that we may walk in his paths.’ For the Law will issue from Zion and the word of Yahweh from Jerusalem.

Isaiah 2:4 Then he will judge between the nations and arbitrate between many peoples. They will hammer their swords into ploughshares and their spears into sickles. Nation will not lift sword against nation, no longer will they learn how to make war.

Isaiah 2:5 House of Jacob, come, let us walk in Yahweh’s light.

Isaiah 2:6 You have rejected your people, the House of Jacob, for it has long been full of sorcerers like the Philistines, and is overrun with foreigners.

Isaiah 2:7 The country is full of silver and gold and treasures unlimited, the country is full of horses, its chariots are unlimited;

Isaiah 2:8 the country is full of idols. They bow down before the work of their hands, before what their own fingers have made.

Isaiah 2:9 Human nature has been humbled, humankind brought low: do not raise them again!

Isaiah 2:10 Go into the rock, hide in the dust, in terror of Yahweh, at the brilliance of his majesty, when he arises to make the earth quake.

Isaiah 2:11 Human pride will lower its eyes, human arrogance will be humbled, and Yahweh alone will be exalted, on that day.

Isaiah 2:12 That will be a day for Yahweh Sabaoth, for all who are majestic and haughty, for all who are proud, to be brought low,

Isaiah 2:13 for all the cedars of Lebanon, high and proud, and for all the oaks of Bashan;

Isaiah 2:14 for all the high mountains and for all the proud hills;

Isaiah 2:15 for every lofty tower and for every towering wall;

Isaiah 2:16 for all the ships of Tarshish and for everything held precious.

Isaiah 2:17 Human pride will be humbled, human arrogance brought low, and Yahweh alone will be exalted, on that day.

Isaiah 2:18 When the idols all disappear, Isaiah 2:19 they will go into the caverns of the rocks and into the fissures of the earth in terror of Yahweh, at the brilliance of his majesty, when he arises to make the earth quake.

Isaiah 2:20 That day, people will fling to moles and bats the silver idols and golden idols which have been made for them to worship,

Isaiah 2:21 and go into the crevices of the rocks and the clefts in the cliffs, in terror of Yahweh, at the brilliance of his majesty, when he arises to make the earth quake.

Isaiah 2:22 Have no more to do with humankind, which has only the breath in its nostrils. How much is this worth?

Isaiah 3:1 Now the Lord Yahweh Sabaoth is about to deprive Jerusalem and Judah of resources and provisions—all reserves of food, all reserves of water-

Isaiah 3:2 of hero, warrior, judge, prophet, diviner, elder,

Isaiah 3:3 captain, dignitary, counsellor, architect, soothsayer.

Isaiah 3:4 'I shall give them boys for princes, raw lads to rule over them.'

Isaiah 3:5 People will be ill-treated by one another, each by his neighbour; the young will insult the aged, and the low, the respected.

Isaiah 3:6 Yes, a man will catch hold of his brother in their father's house, to say, 'You have a cloak, so you be leader, and rule this heap of ruins.'

Isaiah 3:7 And, that day, the other will protest, 'I am no healer; in my house there is neither food nor clothing; do not make me leader of the people.'

Isaiah 3:8 For Jerusalem has collapsed and Judah has fallen, because their words and deeds affront Yahweh and insult his glorious gaze.

Isaiah 3:9 Their complacency bears witness against them, they parade their sin like Sodom; they do not conceal it, all the worse for them, for they have hatched their own downfall.

Isaiah 3:10 Say, 'Blessed the upright, for he will feed on the fruit of his deeds;

Isaiah 3:11 woe to the wicked, it will go ill with him, for he will be treated as his actions deserve.'

Isaiah 3:12 O my people, their oppressors pillage them and extortioners rule over them! O my people, your rulers mislead you and efface the paths you ought to follow!

Isaiah 3:13 Yahweh has risen to accuse, is standing to pass judgement on the people.

Isaiah 3:14 Yahweh is about to try the elders and the princes of his people, 'You are the ones who have ravaged the vineyard, the spoils of the poor are in your houses.

Isaiah 3:15 By what right do you crush my people and grind the faces of the poor?' says the Lord Yahweh Sabaoth.

Isaiah 3:16 Yahweh says: Because Zion's daughters are proud and walk with heads held high and enticing eyes—with mincing steps they go, jingling the bangles on their feet-

Isaiah 3:17 the Lord will give Zion's daughters scabby heads, Yahweh will lay their foreheads bare.

Isaiah 3:18 That day the Lord will take away the ornamental chains, medallions, crescents,

Isaiah 3:19 pendants, bracelets, trinkets,

Isaiah 3:20 diadems, ankle-chains, necklaces, scent bottles, amulets,

Isaiah 3:21 finger-rings, nose-rings,

Isaiah 3:22 party dresses, cloaks, scarves, purses,

Isaiah 3:23 mirrors, linen clothes, turbans and mantillas.

Isaiah 3:24 Then, instead of perfume, a stink; instead of belt, a rope, instead of hair elaborately dressed, a shaven scalp, instead of gorgeous clothes, sacking round the waist, and brand marks instead of beauty.

Isaiah 3:25 Your men will fall by the sword, your warriors in battle,

Isaiah 3:26 and her gates will moan and mourn; she will sit on the ground, deserted.

Isaiah 4:1 That day, seven women will catch hold of one man and say, 'We will eat our own food, and wear our own clothing, but just let us bear your name. Take our disgrace away.'

Isaiah 4:2 That day, Yahweh's seedling will turn to beauty and glory, what the earth brings forth will turn to the pride and ornament of Israel's survivors.

Isaiah 4:3 Those who are left in Zion and remain in Jerusalem will be called holy, all those in Jerusalem noted down to live.

Isaiah 4:4 When the Lord has washed away the filth of Zion's daughters and with the wind of judgement and the wind of burning cleansed Jerusalem of the blood shed in her,

Isaiah 4:5 Yahweh will create, over every house on Mount Zion and over those who assemble there, a cloud by day, and by night smoke with the brightness of a flaring fire. For over all will be the Glory as canopy

Isaiah 4:6 and tent to give shade by day from the heat, refuge and shelter from the storm and the rain.

Isaiah 5:1 Let me sing my beloved the song of my friend for his vineyard. My beloved had a vineyard on a fertile hillside.

Isaiah 5:2 He dug it, cleared it of stones, and planted it with red grapes. In the middle he built a tower, he hewed a press there too. He expected it to yield fine grapes: wild grapes were all it yielded.

Isaiah 5:3 And now, citizens of Jerusalem and people of Judah, I ask you to judge between me and my vineyard.

Isaiah 5:4 What more could I have done for my vineyard that I have not done? Why, when I expected it to yield fine grapes, has it yielded wild ones?

Isaiah 5:5 Very well, I shall tell you what I am going to do to my vineyard: I shall take away its hedge, for it to be grazed on, and knock down its wall, for it to be trampled on.

Isaiah 5:6 I shall let it go to waste, unpruned, undug, overgrown by brambles and thorn-bushes, and I shall command the clouds to rain no rain on it.

Isaiah 5:7 Now, the vineyard of Yahweh Sabaoth is the House of Israel, and the people of Judah the plant he cherished. He expected fair judgement, but found injustice, uprightness, but found cries of distress.

Isaiah 5:8 Woe to those who add house to house and join field to field until there is nowhere left and they are the sole inhabitants of the country.

Isaiah 5:9 Yahweh Sabaoth has sworn this in my hearing, 'Many houses will be brought to ruin, great and fine ones left untenanted;

Isaiah 5:10 for ten acres of vineyard will yield only one barrel, and ten bushel of seed will yield only one bushel.'

Isaiah 5:11 Woe to those who get up early to go after strong drink, and stay up late at night inflamed with wine.

Isaiah 5:12 Nothing but harp and lyre, tambourine and pipe, and wine for their drinking bouts. Never a thought for the works of Yahweh, never a glance for what his hands have done.

Isaiah 5:13 That is why my people is in exile, for want of perception; her dignitaries starving, her populace parched with thirst.

Isaiah 5:14 That is why Sheol opens wide its throat and gapes with measureless jaw and down go her noblemen and populace and her loud revellers merry to the last!

Isaiah 5:15 Human nature has been humbled, humankind brought low, and the eyes of the proud have been humbled.

Isaiah 5:16 Yahweh Sabaoth is the more respected for his judgement, God the Holy One has displayed his holiness by his justice!

Isaiah 5:17 Now the lambs will graze in their old pastures, and the fields laid waste by fat cattle will feed the kids.

Isaiah 5:18 Woe to those who drag guilt along by the reins of duplicity, drag along sin as though with a cart rope;

Isaiah 5:19 to those who say, 'Why doesn't he do his work quickly so that we can see it; why doesn't the Holy One of Israel's design hurry up and come true so that we can experience it?'

Isaiah 5:20 Woe to those who call what is bad, good, and what is good, bad, who substitute darkness for light and light for darkness, who substitute bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter.

Isaiah 5:21 Woe to those who think themselves wise and believe themselves enlightened.

Isaiah 5:22 Woe to those whose might lies in wine bibbing, their heroism in mixing strong drinks,

Isaiah 5:23 who acquit the guilty for a bribe and deny justice to the upright.

Isaiah 5:24 Yes, as the flame devours the stubble, as the straw flares up and disappears, their root will be like decay and their shoot be carried off like dust, for having rejected the law of Yahweh Sabaoth, for having despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 5:25 This is why Yahweh's anger has blazed out against his people; and he has raised his hand against them to strike them; why the mountains have shuddered and why corpses are lying like dung in the streets. After all this, his anger is not spent. No, his hand is still raised!

Isaiah 5:26 He hoists a signal for a distant nation, he whistles them up from the ends of the earth; and see how swift, how fleet they come!

Isaiah 5:27 None of them tired, none of them stumbling, none of them asleep or drowsy, none of them with belt unfastened, none of them with broken sandal-strap.

Isaiah 5:28 Their arrows are sharpened, their bows all strung, their horses' hoofs you would think were flint and their wheels, a whirlwind!

Isaiah 5:29 Their roar is like that of a lioness, like fierce young lions they roar, growling they seize their prey and carry it off, with no one to prevent it,

Isaiah 5:30 growling at it, that day, like the growling of the sea. Only look at the country: darkness and distress, and the light turned to darkness by the clouds.

Isaiah 6:1 In the year of King Uzziah's death I saw the Lord seated on a high and lofty throne; his train filled the sanctuary.

Isaiah 6:2 Above him stood seraphs, each one with six wings: two to cover its face, two to cover its feet and two for flying;

Isaiah 6:3 and they were shouting these words to each other: Holy, holy, holy is Yahweh Sabaoth. His glory fills the whole earth.

Isaiah 6:4 The door-posts shook at the sound of their shouting, and the Temple was full of smoke.

Isaiah 6:5 Then I said: 'Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have seen the King, Yahweh Sabaoth.’

Isaiah 6:6 Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding in its hand a live coal which it had taken from the altar with a pair of tongs.

Isaiah 6:7 With this it touched my mouth and said: ‘Look, this has touched your lips, your guilt has been removed and your sin forgiven.’

Isaiah 6:8 I then heard the voice of the Lord saying: ‘Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?’ And I said, ‘Here am I, send me.’

Isaiah 6:9 He said: ‘Go, and say to this people, “Listen and listen, but never understand! Look and look, but never perceive!”

Isaiah 6:10 Make this people’s heart coarse, make their ears dull, shut their eyes tight, or they will use their eyes to see, use their ears to hear, use their heart to understand, and change their ways and be healed.’

Isaiah 6:11 I then said, ‘Until when, Lord?’ He replied, ‘Until towns are in ruins and deserted, houses untenanted and a great desolation reigns in the land,

Isaiah 6:12 and Yahweh has driven the people away and the country is totally abandoned.

Isaiah 6:13 And suppose one-tenth of them are left in it, that will be stripped again, like the terebinth, like the oak, cut back to the stock; their stock is a holy seed.’

Isaiah 7:1 In the reign of Ahaz son of Jotham, son of Uzziah king of Judah, Razon king of Aram advanced on Jerusalem with Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel, to attack it; but he was unable to attack it.

Isaiah 7:2 The House of David was informed: ‘Aram has halted in Ephraimite territory.’ At this, his heart and his people’s hearts shook like forest trees shaking in the wind.

Isaiah 7:3 Yahweh then said to Isaiah, ‘Go out with your son Shear-Jashub, and meet Ahaz at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, on the road to the Fuller’s Field,

Isaiah 7:4 and say to him, “Pay attention and keep calm. Do not be frightened or demoralised by these two smouldering sticks of firewood, by the fierce anger of Razon, Aram and the son of Remaliah,

Isaiah 7:5 or because Aram, Ephraim and the son of Remaliah have been plotting against you and saying:

Isaiah 7:6 Let us mount an attack on Judah, destroy it, force it onto our side and install the son of Tabeel there as king.

Isaiah 7:7 “Lord Yahweh says this: This will not happen, it will never occur,

Isaiah 7:8 for the head of Aram is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Razon; another sixty-five years, and Ephraim will cease to be a people.

Isaiah 7:9 The head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is the son of Remaliah. If you will not take your stand on me you will not stand firm.” ‘

Isaiah 7:10 Yahweh spoke to Ahaz again and said:

Isaiah 7:11 Ask Yahweh your God for a sign, either in the depths of Sheol or in the heights above.

Isaiah 7:12 But Ahaz said, ‘I will not ask. I will not put Yahweh to the test.’

Isaiah 7:13 He then said: Listen now, House of David: are you not satisfied with trying human patience that you should try my God’s patience too?

Isaiah 7:14 The Lord will give you a sign in any case: It is this: the young woman is with child and will give birth to a son whom she will call Immanuel.

Isaiah 7:15 On curds and honey will he feed until he knows how to refuse the bad and choose the good.

Isaiah 7:16 Before the child knows how to refuse the bad and choose the good, the lands whose two kings are frightening you will be deserted.

Isaiah 7:17 Yahweh will bring times for you, your people and your ancestral House, such as have not been seen since Ephraim broke away from Judah (the king of Assyria).

Isaiah 7:18 When that day comes, Yahweh will whistle up mosquitoes from the distant streams of Egypt and bees from the land of Assyria,

Isaiah 7:19 and they will all come and settle on the streams in the gullies, in the holes in the rocks, on all the thorn-bushes and on all the water-points.

Isaiah 7:20 That day the Lord will shave, with a razor hired from the other side of the River (with the king of Assyria), the head and the hair of the leg, and take off the beard, too.

Isaiah 7:21 When that day comes, each man will raise one heifer and two sheep,

Isaiah 7:22 and because of the abundant milk they give (on curds will he feed) all who are left in the country will feed on curds and honey.

Isaiah 7:23 When that day comes, wherever there used to be a thousand vines worth a thousand pieces of silver, all will be brambles and thorn-bushes;

Isaiah 7:24 to be ventured into only with arrows and bow, for the country will be nothing but brambles and thorn-bushes.

Isaiah 7:25 No more will you venture on any hillside formerly under the hoe for fear of the brambles and thorn-bushes; it will be fit only for pasturing the cattle, a tramping-ground for sheep.

Isaiah 8:1 Yahweh said to me, 'Take a large tablet and on it with an ordinary stylus write, "Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz".

Isaiah 8:2 And take reliable witnesses, the priest Uriah and Zechariah son of Jeberechiah.'

Isaiah 8:3 I then had intercourse with the prophetess, who then conceived and gave birth to a son. Yahweh said to me, 'Call him Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz,

Isaiah 8:4 for before the child knows how to say "mother" or "father", the wealth of Damascus and the booty of Samaria will be carried away while the king of Assyria looks on.'

Isaiah 8:5 Yahweh spoke to me again and said,

Isaiah 8:6 'Since this people has rejected the waters of Shiloah which flow smoothly, and has trembled before Razon and the son of Remaliah,

Isaiah 8:7 now, against it, the Lord will bring the mighty, swelling waters of the River (the king of Assyria and all his glory); the River will flood up all its channels and overflow all its banks;

Isaiah 8:8 it will flow into Judah, flooding everything and passing on; it will reach right up to the neck, and the spreading of its wings will cover the whole extent of your country, Immanuel!

Isaiah 8:9 Realise this, peoples, and be afraid, listen, all members of far-off nations! Arm yourselves yet be afraid! Arm yourselves yet be afraid!

Isaiah 8:10 Devise plans as you may: they will come to nothing! Make what pronouncements you like; it will not come about! For God is with us!'

Isaiah 8:11 For this was how Yahweh spoke to me when his hand seized hold of me and he taught me not to follow the path of this people, saying,

Isaiah 8:12 'Do not call conspiracy all that this people calls conspiracy; do not dread what they dread, have no fear of that.

Isaiah 8:13 Yahweh Sabaoth is the one you will proclaim holy, him you will dread, him you will fear.

Isaiah 8:14 He will be a sanctuary, a stumbling-stone, a rock to trip up the two Houses of Israel; a snare and a trap for the inhabitants of Jerusalem,

Isaiah 8:15 over which many of them will stumble, fall and be broken, be ensnared and made captive.

Isaiah 8:16 Bind up the testimony, seal the instruction in the heart of my disciples.'

Isaiah 8:17 My trust is in Yahweh who hides his face from the House of Jacob; I put my hope in him.

Isaiah 8:18 Look, I and the children whom Yahweh has given me shall become signs and portents in Israel on behalf of Yahweh Sabaoth who dwells on Mount Zion.

Isaiah 8:19 And should people say to you, ‘Go and consult ghosts and wizards that whisper and mutter’—a people should certainly consult its gods and the dead on behalf of the living!

Isaiah 8:20 As regards instruction and testimony, without doubt this is how they will talk, and hence there will be no dawn for them.

Isaiah 8:21 Oppressed and starving he will wander the country; and, once starving, he will become frenzied and curse his king and his God; turning his gaze upward,

Isaiah 8:22 then down to earth, there will be only anguish, gloom, the confusion of night, swirling darkness.

Isaiah 8:23 For is not everything dark as night for a country in distress? As the past humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, so the future will glorify the Way of the Sea, beyond the Jordan, the territory of the nations.

Isaiah 9:1 The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; on the inhabitants of a country in shadow dark as death light has blazed forth.

Isaiah 9:2 You have enlarged the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as people rejoice at harvest time, as they exult when they are dividing the spoils.

Isaiah 9:3 For the yoke that weighed on it, the bar across its shoulders, the rod of its oppressor, these you have broken as on the day of Midian.

Isaiah 9:4 For all the footgear clanking over the ground and all the clothing rolled in blood, will be burnt, will be food for the flames.

Isaiah 9:5 For a son has been born for us, a son has been given to us, and dominion has been laid on his shoulders; and this is the name he has been given, ‘Wonder-Counsellor, Mighty-God, Eternal-Father, Prince-of-Peace’

Isaiah 9:6 to extend his dominion in boundless peace, over the throne of David and over his kingdom to make it secure and sustain it in fair judgement and integrity. From this time onwards and for ever, the jealous love of Yahweh Sabaoth will do this.

Isaiah 9:7 The Lord has launched a word at Jacob and it has fallen on Israel;

Isaiah 9:8 and the people will all soon know it, Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, who say in the pride of their arrogant hearts,

Isaiah 9:9 ‘The bricks have fallen down but we shall rebuild with dressed stone; the sycamores have been felled but we shall replace them with cedars.’

Isaiah 9:10 But, against them, Yahweh has raised their foe Razon, he has whipped up their enemies,

Isaiah 9:11 Aram to the east, Philistines to the west, to devour Israel with gaping jaws. After all this, his anger is not spent. No, his hand is still raised!

Isaiah 9:12 But the people would not come back to him who struck them, they would not seek out Yahweh Sabaoth;

Isaiah 9:13 hence Yahweh has topped and tailed Israel, cutting off palm and reed in a single day.

Isaiah 9:14 (The 'top' is the elder and the man of rank; the 'tail' is the prophet teaching lies.)

Isaiah 9:15 This people's leaders have led them astray, and those who are led by them are swallowed up.

Isaiah 9:16 Hence the Lord will no longer take delight in their young people, or pity on their orphans and widows, since all of them are godless and evil, and everything they say is madness. After all this, his anger is not spent. No, his hand is still raised!

Isaiah 9:17 Yes, wickedness has been burning like a fire, devouring bramble and thorn-bush, setting the forest thickets ablaze—up they go in billowing smoke!

Isaiah 9:18 The country has been set on fire by the fury of Yahweh Sabaoth, and the people are like food for the flames. No one spares a thought for his brother.

Isaiah 9:19 They have sliced to the right and are still hungry, they have eaten to the left and are not satisfied; each devours the flesh of his own arm.

Isaiah 9:20 Manasseh devours Ephraim, Ephraim Manasseh, together they turn against Judah. After all this, his anger is not spent. No, his hand is still raised!

Isaiah 10:1 Woe to those who enact unjust decrees, who compose oppressive legislation

Isaiah 10:2 to deny justice to the weak and to cheat the humblest of my people of fair judgement, to make widows their prey and to rob the orphan.

Isaiah 10:3 What will you do on the day of punishment, when disaster comes from far away? To whom will you run for help and where will you leave your riches,

Isaiah 10:4 to avoid squatting among the captives or falling among the slain? After all this, his anger is not spent. No, his hand is still raised!

Isaiah 10:5 Woe to Assyria, rod of my anger, the club in their hands is my fury!

Isaiah 10:6 I was sending him against a godless nation, commissioning him against the people who enraged me, to pillage and plunder at will and trample on them like the mud in the streets.

Isaiah 10:7 But this was not his intention nor did his heart plan it so, for he dreamed of putting an end to them, of liquidating nations without number!

Isaiah 10:8 For he thought, 'Are not my officers all kings?

Isaiah 10:9 Is not Calno like Carchemish, Hamath like Arpad, Samaria like Damascus?

Isaiah 10:10 As my hand has found the kingdoms of the false gods, where there were more images than in Jerusalem and Samaria,

Isaiah 10:11 as I have treated Samaria and her false gods shall I not treat Jerusalem and her statues too?'

Isaiah 10:12 When the Lord has completed all his work on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, he will punish the fruit of the king of Assyria's boastful heart and the insolence of his haughty looks.

Isaiah 10:13 For he thinks: 'By the strength of my own arm I have done this and by my own wisdom: how intelligent I have been! I have abolished the frontiers between peoples, I have plundered their treasures, like a hero, I have subjugated their inhabitants.

Isaiah 10:14 My hand has found, as though a bird's nest, the riches of the peoples. Like someone collecting deserted eggs, I have collected the whole world while no one has fluttered a wing or opened a beak to squawk.'

Isaiah 10:15 Does the axe claim more credit than the man who wields it, or the saw more strength than the man who handles it? As though a staff controlled those who raise it, or the club could raise what is not made of wood!

Isaiah 10:16 That is why Yahweh Sabaoth is going to inflict leanness on his stout men, and beneath his glory kindle a fever burning like a fire.

Isaiah 10:17 The light of Israel will become a fire and its Holy One a flame burning and devouring his thorn-bushes and brambles in a day.

Isaiah 10:18 He will consume his luxuriant forest and productive ground, he will ravage body and soul: it will be like a consumptive wasting away;

Isaiah 10:19 and what remain of the trees of his forest will be so few that a child could write their number.

Isaiah 10:20 When that day comes, the remnant of Israel and the survivors of the House of Jacob will stop relying on the man who strikes them and will truly rely on Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 10:21 A remnant will return, the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God.

Isaiah 10:22 Israel, though your people are like the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them will return: a destruction has been decreed which will make justice overflow,

Isaiah 10:23 for, throughout the country, the Lord Yahweh Sabaoth will enforce the destruction now decreed.

Isaiah 10:24 That is why the Lord Yahweh Sabaoth says this: My people who live in Zion, do not be afraid of Assyria! He may strike you with the rod, he may raise the club against you (on the way from Egypt),

Isaiah 10:25 but in a very short time the retribution will come to an end, and my anger will destroy them.

Isaiah 10:26 Yahweh Sabaoth will brandish a whip at him as he struck Midian at Oreb's Rock, will brandish his rod at the Sea as he raised it on the way from Egypt.

Isaiah 10:27 When that day comes, his burden will fall from your shoulder, and his yoke from your neck, and the yoke will be destroyed . . .

Isaiah 10:28 He has reached Aiath, he has moved on to Migron, he has left his baggage train at Michmash.

Isaiah 10:29 They have passed through the defile, they have bivouacked at Geba. Ramah quaked, Gibeah of Saul has fled.

Isaiah 10:30 Cry your loudest, Bath-Gallim! Pay attention, Laish! Answer her, Anathoth!

Isaiah 10:31 Madmenah has run away, the inhabitants of Gebim have taken cover.

Isaiah 10:32 This very day, as he halts at Nob, he will shake his fist at the mountain of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

Isaiah 10:33 See how the Lord Yahweh Sabaoth violently lops off the foliage! The ones standing highest are cut down, the proudest are laid low!

Isaiah 10:34 The forest thickets fall beneath the axe, and the Lebanon falls to the blows of a Mighty One.

Isaiah 11:1 A shoot will spring from the stock of Jesse, a new shoot will grow from his roots.

Isaiah 11:2 On him will rest the spirit of Yahweh, the spirit of wisdom and insight, the spirit of counsel and power, the spirit of knowledge and fear of Yahweh:

Isaiah 11:3 his inspiration will lie in fearing Yahweh. His judgement will not be by appearances. his verdict not given on hearsay.

Isaiah 11:4 He will judge the weak with integrity and give fair sentence for the humblest in the land. He will strike the country with the rod of his mouth and with the breath of his lips bring death to the wicked.

Isaiah 11:5 Uprightness will be the belt around his waist, and constancy the belt about his hips.

Isaiah 11:6 The wolf will live with the lamb, the panther lie down with the kid, calf, lion and fat-stock beast together, with a little boy to lead them.

Isaiah 11:7 The cow and the bear will graze, their young will lie down together. The lion will eat hay like the ox.

Isaiah 11:8 The infant will play over the den of the adder; the baby will put his hand into the viper's lair.

Isaiah 11:9 No hurt, no harm will be done on all my holy mountain, for the country will be full of knowledge of Yahweh as the waters cover the sea.

Isaiah 11:10 That day, the root of Jesse, standing as a signal for the peoples, will be sought out by the nations and its home will be glorious.

Isaiah 11:11 When that day comes, the Lord will raise his hand a second time to ransom the remnant of his people, those still left, from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, Cush and Elam, from Shinar, Hamath and the islands of the Sea.

Isaiah 11:12 He will hoist a signal for the nations and assemble the outcasts of Israel; he will gather the scattered people of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

Isaiah 11:13 Then Ephraim's jealousy will cease and Judah's enemies be suppressed; Ephraim will no longer be jealous of Judah nor Judah any longer hostile to Ephraim,

Isaiah 11:14 but together they will swoop on the Philistines' back, to the west, and together pillage the people of the east. Edom and Moab will be subject to their sway and the Ammonites will obey them.

Isaiah 11:15 Then Yahweh will dry up the gulf of the Sea of Egypt, he will raise his hand against the River with the heat of his breath. He will divide it into seven streams for them to cross dry-shod.

Isaiah 11:16 And there will be a highway for the remnant of his people for those still left, from Assyria, as there was for Israel when he came out of Egypt.

Isaiah 12:1 And, that day, you will say: 'I praise you, Yahweh, you have been angry with me but your anger is now appeased and you have comforted me.

Isaiah 12:2 Look, he is the God of my salvation: I shall have faith and not be afraid, for Yahweh is my strength and my song, he has been my salvation.'

Isaiah 12:3 Joyfully you will draw water from the springs of salvation

Isaiah 12:4 and, that day, you will say, 'Praise Yahweh, invoke his name. Proclaim his deeds to the people, declare his name sublime.

Isaiah 12:5 Sing of Yahweh, for his works are majestic, make them known throughout the world.

Isaiah 12:6 Cry and shout for joy, you who live in Zion, For the Holy One of Israel is among you in his greatness.'

Isaiah 13:1 Proclamation about Babylon, seen by Isaiah son of Amoz.

Isaiah 13:2 On a bare hill hoist a signal, shout for them, beckon them to come to the Nobles' Gate.

Isaiah 13:3 I have issued orders to my sacred warriors, I have summoned my heroes to serve my anger, my proud champions.

Isaiah 13:4 The noise of a great crowd in the mountains, like an immense people, the tumultuous sound of kingdoms, of nations mustering: it is Yahweh Sabaoth marshalling the troops for battle.

Isaiah 13:5 They come from a distant country, from the far horizons, Yahweh and the instruments of his fury to lay the whole country waste.

Isaiah 13:6 Howl! For the Day of Yahweh is near, coming like devastation from Shaddai.

Isaiah 13:7 This is why all hands fall limp, why all the men are losing heart;

Isaiah 13:8 they are panic-stricken, seized with pains and convulsions; they writhe like a woman in labour, they look at one another appalled, with feverish faces.

Isaiah 13:9 Look, the Day of Yahweh is coming, merciless, with wrath and burning anger, to reduce the country to a desert and root out the sinners from it.

Isaiah 13:10 For in the sky the stars and Orion will shed their light no longer, the sun will be dark when it rises, and the moon will no longer give its light.

Isaiah 13:11 I am going to punish the world for its wickedness and the wicked for their guilt, and put an end to the pride of the arrogant and humble the haughtiness of despots.

Isaiah 13:12 I shall make people scarcer than pure gold, human life scarcer than the gold of Ophir.

Isaiah 13:13 This is why I am going to shake the heavens, why the earth will reel on its foundations, under the wrath of Yahweh Sabaoth, the day when his anger ignites.

Isaiah 13:14 Then like a hunted gazelle, like sheep that nobody gathers in, everyone will head back to his people, everyone will flee to his native land.

Isaiah 13:15 All those who are found will be stabbed, all those captured will fall by the sword,

Isaiah 13:16 their babies dashed to pieces before their eyes, their houses plundered, their wives raped.

Isaiah 13:17 Look, against them I am stirring up the Medes who care nothing for silver, who set no value by gold.

Isaiah 13:18 Bows will annihilate the young men, they will have no pity for the fruit of the womb, or mercy in their eyes for children.

Isaiah 13:19 And Babylon, that pearl of kingdoms, that splendid jewel of the Chaldaeans, will, like Sodom and Gomorrah, be overthrown by God.

Isaiah 13:20 Never again will anyone live there or reside there for all generations to come. Never again will the Arab pitch his tent there, or the shepherds bring their flocks to rest.

Isaiah 13:21 But beasts of the desert will make their haunt there and owls fill their houses, there ostriches will settle their home, there goats will dance.

Isaiah 13:22 Hyenas will howl in its towers, jackals in its delightful palaces, for its doom is about to come and its days will not last long.

Isaiah 14:1 Yahweh will have pity on Jacob, he will choose Israel once more and resettle them on their native soil. Foreigners will join them, attaching themselves to the House of Jacob.

Isaiah 14:2 Peoples will take them and escort them home, and the House of Israel will take them as slaves, men and women on Yahweh's soil. They will enslave those who enslaved them and will master their oppressors.

Isaiah 14:3 When that day comes, and Yahweh gives you rest from your suffering and torment and the grim servitude to which you have been subjected,

Isaiah 14:4 you will recite this satire on the king of Babylon and say: 'How did the tyrant end? How did his arrogance end?

Isaiah 14:5 Yahweh has broken the staff of the wicked, the sceptre of rulers,

Isaiah 14:6 furiously lashing peoples with continual blows, angrily hammering nations, pursuing without respite.

Isaiah 14:7 The whole world is at rest and calm, shouts of joy resounding,

Isaiah 14:8 the cypresses, the cedars of Lebanon, rejoice aloud at your fate, "Now that you have been laid low, no one comes up to fell us."

Isaiah 14:9 'On your account, Sheol below is astir to greet your arrival. He has roused the ghosts to greet you, all the rulers of the world. He has made all the kings of the nations get up from their thrones.

Isaiah 14:10 They will all greet you with the words, "So, you too are now as weak as we are! You, too, have become like us.

Isaiah 14:11 Your pride has been flung down to Sheol with the music of your lyres; under you a mattress of maggots, over you a blanket of worms.

Isaiah 14:12 How did you come to fall from the heavens, Daystar, son of Dawn? How did you come to be thrown to the ground, conqueror of nations?

Isaiah 14:13 You who used to think to yourself: I shall scale the heavens; higher than the stars of God I shall set my throne. I shall sit on the Mount of Assembly far away to the north.

Isaiah 14:14 I shall climb high above the clouds, I shall rival the Most High.”

Isaiah 14:15 Now you have been flung down to Sheol, into the depths of the abyss!

Isaiah 14:16 ‘When they see you, they will scrutinise you and consider what you have become, “Is this the man who made the world tremble, who overthrew kingdoms?

Isaiah 14:17 He made the world a desert, he levelled cities and never freed his prisoners to go home.”

Isaiah 14:18 All other kings of nations, all of them, lie honourably, each in his own tomb;

Isaiah 14:19 but you have been thrown away, unburied, like a loathsome branch, covered with heaps of the slain pierced by the sword who fall on the rocks of the abyss like trampled carrion.

Isaiah 14:20 ‘You will not rejoin them in the grave, for you have brought your country to ruin and destroyed your people. The offspring of the wicked leave no name behind them.

Isaiah 14:21 Make ready to slaughter his sons for the guilt of their father! Never again must they rise to conquer the world and cover the face of the earth with their cities.

Isaiah 14:22 ‘I will rise against them, declares Yahweh Sabaoth, and deprive Babylon of name, remnant, offspring and posterity, declares Yahweh.

Isaiah 14:23 I shall turn it into the haunt of hedgehogs, a swamp. I shall sweep it with the broom of destruction, declares Yahweh Sabaoth.’

Isaiah 14:24 Yahweh Sabaoth has sworn it, ‘Yes, what I have planned will take place, what I have decided will be so:

Isaiah 14:25 ‘I shall break Assyria in my country, I shall trample on him on my mountains. Then his yoke will slip off them, his burden will slip from their shoulders.’

Isaiah 14:26 This is the decision taken in defiance of the whole world; this, the hand outstretched in defiance of all nations.

Isaiah 14:27 Once Yahweh Sabaoth has decided, who will stop him? Once he stretches out his hand, who can withdraw it?

Isaiah 14:28 In the year Ahaz died came this proclamation:

Isaiah 14:29 All Philistia, do not rejoice because the rod which used to beat you is now broken, for the serpent stock will produce a viper, its offspring will be a flying dragon.

Isaiah 14:30 While the first-born of the poor are grazing and the destitute are resting in safety, I shall make your stock die of hunger and then slaughter what remains of you.

Isaiah 14:31 Howl, gate! Shriek, city! Totter, all Philistia! For a smoke is coming from the north, and there are no deserters in those battalions.

Isaiah 14:32 What reply will be given then to the messengers of that nation? - That Yahweh founded Zion and there the poor of his people will find refuge.

Isaiah 15:1 Proclamation about Moab: Laid waste in a night, Ar-Moab lies silent; Laid waste in a night, Kir-Moab lies silent.

Isaiah 15:2 The daughter of Dibon has climbed to the high places to weep; on Nebo and in Medeba Moab laments. Every head shaven, every beard cut off, Isaiah 15:3 they wear sackcloth in their streets; on their roofs and in their squares, everyone is lamenting and collapsing in tears.

Isaiah 15:4 Heshbon and Elealeh are crying out in distress, their voices can be heard as far as Jahaz. That is why the warriors of Moab are shivering, his soul trembles at the sound.

Isaiah 15:5 His heart cries out in distress for Moab, whose fugitives are already at Zoar, nearly at Eglath-Shelishiyah. They climb the slope of Luhith, weeping as they go; on the road to Horonaim they utter heart-rending cries.

Isaiah 15:6 The Waters of Nimrim have become a waste land, the grass dried up, the plants withered away, nothing green any more.

Isaiah 15:7 That is why they are carrying what they could save of their stores across the Ravine of the Willows.

Isaiah 15:8 For the cry for help re-echoes round the territory of Moab; their wailing, right to Eglaim, to Beer-Elim, their wailing;

Isaiah 15:9 Dimon’s waters are swollen with blood, and I have worse in store for Dimon: a lion for those of Moab who survive, for those left on its soil.

Isaiah 16:1 Send the lamb to the ruler of the land, from Sela by the desert, to the mountain of the daughter of Zion,

Isaiah 16:2 for soon, like a fluttered bird, like nestlings cast out, will be the women of Moab at the fords of the Arnon.

Isaiah 16:3 Hold a council, make a decision. At noon spread your shadow as if it were night. Hide those who have been driven out, do not betray the fugitive,

Isaiah 16:4 let those who have been driven out of Moab come and live with you; be their refuge in the face of the devastator. Once the oppression is past, and the devastation has stopped and those now trampling on the country have gone away,

Isaiah 16:5 the throne will be made secure in faithful love and on it will sit in constancy within the tent of David, a judge seeking fair judgement and pursuing uprightness.

Isaiah 16:6 We have heard about Moab's pride, about how very proud it is, about its arrogance, its pride, its rage, its bravado, which will come to nothing!

Isaiah 16:7 And so Moab is wailing for Moab, wailing, every one of them. For the raisin cakes of Kir-Hareseth you mourn, stricken with grief.

Isaiah 16:8 For Heshbon's vineyards are withering, the vine of Sibmah whose red grapes used to overcome the overlords of the nations. It used to reach to Jazer, had wound its way into the desert, its shoots grew so numerous they spread across the sea.

Isaiah 16:9 And so I weep, as Jazer weeps, for the vine of Sibmah. I water you with my tears, Heshbon and Elealeh. For over your harvest and vintage the cheering has died away;

Isaiah 16:10 joy and gladness have vanished from the orchards. No more revelry in the vineyards, no more happy shouting; no more the treader treads wine in the presses, the cheering has ceased.

Isaiah 16:11 That is why my whole being quivers like harp strings for Moab, my very heart, for Kir-Heres.

Isaiah 16:12 Moab will be seen, wearing itself out on the high places and going to its temple to pray, but it will accomplish nothing.

Isaiah 16:13 Such was the word which Yahweh spoke about Moab in the past.

Isaiah 16:14 And now Yahweh has spoken in these terms, 'Within three years, as a hired worker reckons them, the glory of Moab will be humbled, despite its teeming population. It will be reduced to nothing, an insignificant remnant.'

Isaiah 17:1 Proclamation about Damascus: Damascus will soon cease to be a city, it will become a heap of ruins.

Isaiah 17:2 Its towns, abandoned for ever, will be pastures for flocks; there they will rest with no one to disturb them.

Isaiah 17:3 Ephraim will be stripped of its defences and Damascus of its sovereignty; and the remnant of Aram will be treated like the glory of the Israelites—declares Yahweh Sabaoth.

Isaiah 17:4 When that day comes, Jacob's glory will diminish, from being fat he will grow lean;

Isaiah 17:5 as when a reaper gathers in the standing corn, harvesting the ears of corn with his arm, or when they glean the ears in the Valley of Rephaim,

Isaiah 17:6 nothing will remain but pickings, as when an olive tree is beaten; two or three berries left on the topmost bough, four or five berries on the branches of the tree—declares Yahweh, God of Israel.

Isaiah 17:7 That day, a man will look to his Creator and his eyes will turn to the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 17:8 He will no longer look to altars, his own handiwork, or to what his own fingers have made: the sacred poles and incense-altars.

Isaiah 17:9 That day, its cities of refuge will be abandoned as were the woods and heaths at the Israelites' advance: there will be desolation.

Isaiah 17:10 Since you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and failed to keep the Rock, your refuge, in mind, you plant pleasure-gardens, you sow exotic seeds;

Isaiah 17:11 the day you plant them, you get them to sprout, and, next morning, your seedlings are in flower; but the harvest will vanish on the day of disease and incurable pain.

Isaiah 17:12 Disaster! The thunder of vast hordes, a thunder like the thunder of the seas, the roar of nations roaring like the roar of mighty floods, Isaiah 17:13 of nations roaring like the roar of ocean! He rebukes them and far away they flee, driven like chaff on the mountains before the wind, like an eddy of dust before the storm.

Isaiah 17:14 At evening all is terror, by morning all have disappeared. Such will be the lot of those who plunder us, such, the fate of our despoilers.

Isaiah 18:1 Disaster! Land of the whirring locust beyond the rivers of Cush,

Isaiah 18:2 who send ambassadors by sea, in little reed-boats across the waters! Go, swift messengers to a nation tall and bronzed, to a people feared far and near, a mighty and masterful nation whose country is criss-crossed with rivers.

Isaiah 18:3 All you who inhabit the world, you who people the earth, when the signal is hoisted on the mountains, you will see, when the ram's-horn is sounded, you will hear.

Isaiah 18:4 For this is what Yahweh has told me, 'I shall sit here quietly looking down, like the burning heat in the daytime, like a dewy mist in the heat of harvest.'

Isaiah 18:5 For, before the harvest, once the flowering is over and blossom turns into ripening grape, the branches will be cut off with pruning knives, and the shoots taken off, cut away.

Isaiah 18:6 All has been abandoned to the mountain birds of prey and the wild animals: the birds of prey will summer on them, and all the wild animals winter on them.

Isaiah 18:7 Then, an offering will be brought to Yahweh Sabaoth on behalf of a people tall and bronzed, on behalf of a people feared far and near, on behalf of a mighty and masterful nation whose country is criss-crossed with rivers: to the place where the name of Yahweh Sabaoth resides, Mount Zion.

Isaiah 19:1 Proclamation about Egypt: Look! Yahweh, riding a swift cloud, is coming to Egypt. The false gods of Egypt totter before him and Egypt's heart quails within her.

Isaiah 19:2 I shall stir up Egypt against Egypt, they will fight one another, brother against brother, friend against friend, city against city, kingdom against kingdom.

Isaiah 19:3 Egypt's spirit will fail within her and I shall confound her deliberations. They will consult false gods and wizards, ghosts and sorcerers.

Isaiah 19:4 And I shall hand Egypt over to the clutches of a cruel master, a ruthless king will rule them—declares Yahweh Sabaoth.

Isaiah 19:5 The waters will ebb from the sea, the river will dry up and run low,

Isaiah 19:6 the streams will become foul, the rivers of Egypt sink and dry up. Rush and reed will turn black,

Isaiah 19:7 the Nile-plants on the banks of the Nile; all the vegetation of the Nile, will wither, blow away and be no more.

Isaiah 19:8 The fishermen will groan, it will be mourning for all who cast hook in the Nile; those who spread nets on the waters will lose heart.

Isaiah 19:9 The workers of carded flax and the weavers of white cloth will be confounded,

Isaiah 19:10 the weavers dismayed, all the workmen dejected.

Isaiah 19:11 Yes, the princes of Zoan are fools, Pharaoh's wisest councillors make up a stupid council. How dare you say to Pharaoh, 'I am descended from sages, I am descended from bygone kings'?

Isaiah 19:12 Where are these sages of yours? Let them tell you, so that all may know, the plans Yahweh Sabaoth has made against Egypt!

Isaiah 19:13 The princes of Zoan are fools, the princes of Noph, self-deceivers, the top men of her provinces have led Egypt astray.

Isaiah 19:14 Yahweh has infused them with a giddy spirit; they have led Egypt astray in all she undertakes like a drunkard straying about as he vomits.

Isaiah 19:15 Nowadays no one does for Egypt what top and tail, palm and reed used to do.

Isaiah 19:16 That day Egypt will be like women, trembling and terrified at the threatening hand of Yahweh Sabaoth, when he raises it against her.

Isaiah 19:17 The land of Judah will become Egypt's shame; whenever she is reminded of it, she will be terrified, because of the plan which Yahweh Sabaoth has laid against her.

Isaiah 19:18 That day in Egypt there will be five towns speaking the language of Canaan and pledging themselves to Yahweh Sabaoth; one of them will be called City of the Sun.

Isaiah 19:19 That day there will be an altar dedicated to Yahweh in the centre of Egypt and, close to the frontier, a pillar dedicated to Yahweh,

Isaiah 19:20 and this will be a sign and a witness to Yahweh Sabaoth in Egypt. When they cry to Yahweh for help because of oppressors, he will send them a Saviour and leader to deliver them.

Isaiah 19:21 Yahweh will reveal himself to Egypt, and the Egyptians will acknowledge Yahweh that day and will offer sacrifices and cereal offerings, and will make vows to Yahweh and perform them.

Isaiah 19:22 And if Yahweh strikes Egypt, having struck he will heal, and they will turn to Yahweh who will hear their prayers and heal them.

Isaiah 19:23 That day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria. Assyria will have access to Egypt and Egypt have access to Assyria. Egypt will serve with Assyria.

Isaiah 19:24 That day Israel will make a third with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing at the centre of the world,

Isaiah 19:25 and Yahweh Sabaoth will bless them in the words, 'Blessed be my people Egypt, Assyria my creation, and Israel my heritage.'

Isaiah 20:1 The year the general-in-chief, sent by Sargon king of Assyria, came to Ashdod and stormed and captured it

Isaiah 20:2 at that time Yahweh spoke through Isaiah son of Amoz and said, 'Go, undo the sackcloth round your waist and take the sandals off your feet.' And he did so, and walked about, naked and barefoot.

Isaiah 20:3 Yahweh then said, 'As my servant Isaiah has been walking about naked and barefoot for the last three years as a sign and portent for Egypt and Cush,

Isaiah 20:4 so the king of Assyria will lead the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Cush, young and old, naked and barefoot, their buttocks bared, to the shame of Egypt.

Isaiah 20:5 Then they will be afraid and ashamed of Cush their hope and Egypt their pride,

Isaiah 20:6 and the inhabitants of this coast will say on that day, “Look what has happened to our hope, to those to whom we fled for help, to escape from the king of Assyria. How are we going to escape?” ‘

Isaiah 21:1 Proclamation about the coastal desert: As whirlwinds sweeping over the Negeb, he comes from the desert, from a fearsome country.

Isaiah 21:2 A harsh vision has been shown me, ‘The traitor betrays and the despoiler despoils. Advance, Elam, lay siege, Media!’ I have cut short all groaning.

Isaiah 21:3 This is why my loins are racked with pain, why I am seized with pangs like the pangs of a woman in labour; I am too distressed to hear, too afraid to look.

Isaiah 21:4 My heart is bewildered, dread overwhelms me, the twilight I longed for has become my horror.

Isaiah 21:5 They lay the table, spread the cloth, they eat, they drink. Up, princes, grease the shield!

Isaiah 21:6 For this is what the Lord has told me, ‘Go, post a look-out, let him report what he sees.

Isaiah 21:7 He will see cavalry, horsemen two by two, men mounted on donkeys, men mounted on camels; let him watch alertly, be very alert indeed!’

Isaiah 21:8 Then the look-out shouted, ‘On the watchtower, Lord, I stay all day and at my post I stand all night.

Isaiah 21:9 Now the cavalry is coming, horsemen two by two.’ He shouted again and said, ‘Babylon has fallen, has fallen, and all the images of her gods he has shattered to the ground!’

Isaiah 21:10 You whom I have threshed, grain of my threshing-floor, what I have heard from Yahweh Sabaoth, God of Israel, I am telling you now.

Isaiah 21:11 Proclamation about Dumah: From Seir, someone shouts to me, ‘Watchman, what time of night? Watchman, what time of night?’

Isaiah 21:12 The watchman answers, ‘Morning is coming, then night again. If you want to ask, ask! Come back! Come here!’

Isaiah 21:13 Proclamation about the wastelands: In the thickets, on the wastelands, you spend the night, you caravans of Dedanites.

Isaiah 21:14 Bring water for the thirsty! The inhabitants of Tema went with bread to greet the fugitive.

Isaiah 21:15 For these have fled before the sword, the naked sword and the bent bow, the press of battle.

Isaiah 21:16 For this is what the Lord has told me, ‘In one year’s time as a hired worker reckons it, all the glory of Kedar will be finished

Isaiah 21:17 and, of the valiant archers, the Kedarites, hardly any will be left, for Yahweh, God of Israel, has spoken.'

Isaiah 22:1 Prophecy on the Valley of Vision: Now what is the matter with you for you all to be up on the housetops,

Isaiah 22:2 full of excitement, boisterous town, joyful city? Your slain have not fallen to the sword nor died in battle.

Isaiah 22:3 Your leaders have all fled together, captured without a bow between them, all who could be found have been captured at a blow, far though they had fled.

Isaiah 22:4 That is why I said, 'Turn your eyes away from me, let me weep bitterly; do not try to comfort me over the ruin of the daughter of my people.'

Isaiah 22:5 For this is a day of rout, panic and confusion, the work of the Lord Yahweh Sabaoth in the Valley of Vision. The wall is sapped, cries for help ring out to the mountains.

Isaiah 22:6 Elam has picked up his quiver, with manned chariots and horsemen, and Kir has bared his shield.

Isaiah 22:7 Your fairest valleys are full of chariots and the horsemen take up positions at the gates;

Isaiah 22:8 thus falls the defence of Judah. That day you turned your gaze to the weapons in the House of the Forest.

Isaiah 22:9 You saw how many breaches there were in the City of David. You collected the waters of the lower pool.

Isaiah 22:10 You surveyed the houses in Jerusalem and pulled houses down to strengthen the wall.

Isaiah 22:11 Between the two walls you made a reservoir for the waters of the old pool. But you did not look to the Creator of these things, you did not look to the One who fashioned them long ago.

Isaiah 22:12 That day the Lord Yahweh Sabaoth called on you to weep and mourn, to shave your heads, to put on sackcloth.

Isaiah 22:13 But instead there is joy and merriment, killing of oxen, slaughtering of sheep, eating of meat, drinking of wine, 'Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we shall be dead.'

Isaiah 22:14 Then Yahweh Sabaoth revealed this to my ears, 'This guilt will never be forgiven you, until you are dead,' says the Lord Yahweh Sabaoth.

Isaiah 22:15 The Lord Yahweh Sabaoth says this: Go and find that steward, Shebna, the master of the palace:

Isaiah 22:16 'What do you own here, who gave you the right for you to hew yourself a tomb here?' He is hewing himself a tomb, is digging a resting-place for himself in the rock.

Isaiah 22:17 But Yahweh will throw you away, strong as you are, will grasp you in his grip,

Isaiah 22:18 will screw you up into a ball, a ball thrown into a vast space. There you will die, with your splendid chariots, disgrace to your master's palace!

Isaiah 22:19 I shall hound you from your office, I shall snatch you from your post

Isaiah 22:20 and, when that day comes, I shall summon my servant Eliakim son of Hilkiah.

Isaiah 22:21 I shall dress him in your tunic, I shall put your sash round his waist, I shall invest him with your authority; and he will be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the House of Judah.

Isaiah 22:22 I shall place the key of David's palace on his shoulder; when he opens, no one will close, when he closes, no one will open.

Isaiah 22:23 I shall drive him like a nail into a firm place; and he will become a throne of glory for his family.

Isaiah 22:24 'On him will depend all the glory of his family, the descendants and offspring, all the vessels of small capacity too, from cups to pitchers.

Isaiah 22:25 That day, declares Yahweh Sabaoth, the nail driven into a firm place will give way, will be torn out and fall. And the whole load hanging on it will be lost. For Yahweh has spoken.'

Isaiah 23:1 Proclamation about Tyre: Howl, ships of Tarshish, for all has been destroyed- no more houses, no way of getting in: the news has reached them from Kittim.

Isaiah 23:2 Be struck dumb, inhabitants of the coast, you merchants of Sidon, whose messengers cross the sea

Isaiah 23:3 to the wide ocean. The grain of the Canal, the harvest of the Nile, formed her revenue. She was the market for the nations.

Isaiah 23:4 Blush, Sidon (citadel of the seas), for this is what the sea has said, 'I have felt no birth-pangs, never given birth, never reared boys nor brought up girls.'

Isaiah 23:5 When the news reaches Egypt, they will tremble to hear Tyre's fate.

Isaiah 23:6 Cross to Tarshish, howl, inhabitants of the coast.

Isaiah 23:7 Is this your proud city founded far back in the past, whose steps led her far afield to found her colonies?

Isaiah 23:8 Who took this decision against Tyre, who used to hand out crowns, whose traders were princes, whose merchants, men honoured in the city?

Isaiah 23:9 Yahweh Sabaoth took this decision to wither the pride of all beauty and humiliate those honoured in the city.

Isaiah 23:10 Cultivate your country like the Delta, daughter of Tarshish, for your marine docks are no more.

Isaiah 23:11 He has raised his hand against the sea, he has shaken kingdoms, Yahweh has ordained the destruction of the fortresses of Canaan.

Isaiah 23:12 He has said, ‘Exult no more, ill-treated virgin daughter of Sidon! Get up, cross to Kittim, no respite for you there, either.’

Isaiah 23:13 Look at the land of the Chaldaeans, a people who used not to exist! Assyria assigned it to the creatures of the wilds; they raised their siege-towers against it, demolished its bastions, reduced it to ruin.

Isaiah 23:14 Howl, ships of Tarshish, for your fortress has been destroyed.

Isaiah 23:15 When that day comes, Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years, the length of one king’s life. But when the seventy years are over, Tyre will become like the whore in the song:

Isaiah 23:16 ‘Take your harp, walk the town, whore whom men have forgotten! Play sweetly, song after song, to make them remember you.’

Isaiah 23:17 At the end of the seventy years Yahweh will visit Tyre. She will receive her pay again and play the whore with all the kingdoms of the world on the surface of the earth.

Isaiah 23:18 But her profits and wages will be dedicated to Yahweh. They will not be stored or hoarded, but her profits will go to those who live in Yahweh’s presence, for them to have as much food as they want and splendid clothes.

Isaiah 24:1 See how Yahweh lays the earth waste, makes it a desert, buckles its surface, scatters its inhabitants,

Isaiah 24:2 priest and people alike, master and slave, mistress and maid, seller and buyer, lender and borrower, creditor and debtor.

Isaiah 24:3 Ravaged, ravaged the earth will be, despoiled, despoiled, for Yahweh has uttered this word.

Isaiah 24:4 The earth is mourning, pining away, the pick of earth’s people are withering away.

Isaiah 24:5 The earth is defiled by the feet of its inhabitants, for they have transgressed the laws, violated the decree, broken the everlasting covenant.

Isaiah 24:6 That is why the curse has consumed the earth and its inhabitants pay the penalty, that is why the inhabitants of the earth have been burnt up and few people are left.

Isaiah 24:7 The new wine is mourning, the vine is withering away, the once merry-hearted are sighing.

Isaiah 24:8 The cheerful sound of tambourines is silent, the sound of revelling is over, the cheerful sound of the harp is silent.

Isaiah 24:9 No more will they sing over their wine, liquor will taste bitter to the drinker.

Isaiah 24:10 The city of nothingness is in ruins, every house is shut, no one can enter.

Isaiah 24:11 People shout in the streets to try to get wine; all joy has vanished, happiness has been banished from the country.

Isaiah 24:12 Nothing but rubble in the city, the gate has collapsed in ruins.

Isaiah 24:13 For at the heart of earth's life, among the peoples, it is as at the beating of the olive trees, as at the gleaning of the grapes when the grape harvest is over.

Isaiah 24:14 They raise their voices, shouting for joy, in Yahweh's honour they shout from the west.

Isaiah 24:15 'Yes, in the east, give glory to Yahweh, in the islands of the sea, to the name of Yahweh, God of Israel!'

Isaiah 24:16 We have heard psalms from the remotest parts of earth, 'Glory to the Upright One!' But I thought, 'What an ordeal, what an ordeal! What misery for me!' The traitors have betrayed, the traitors have acted most treacherously.

Isaiah 24:17 Fear, the pit and the snare for you, inhabitants of the city!

Isaiah 24:18 And whoever flees from the cry of fear will fall into the pit, and whoever climbs out of the pit will be caught in the snare. Yes, the sluice-gates above are open, the foundations of the earth are quaking.

Isaiah 24:19 A cracking, the earth cracks open, a jolting, the earth gives a jolt, a lurching, the earth lurches backwards and forwards.

Isaiah 24:20 The earth will reel to and fro like a drunkard, it will be shaken like a shanty; so heavy will be its sin on it, it will fall, never to rise again.

Isaiah 24:21 When that day comes, Yahweh will punish the armies of the sky above and on earth the kings of the earth;

Isaiah 24:22 they will be herded together, herded together like prisoners in a dungeon and shut up in gaol, and, after long years, punished.

Isaiah 24:23 The moon will be confused and the sun ashamed, for Yahweh Sabaoth is king on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and the Glory will radiate on their elders.

Isaiah 25:1 Yahweh, you are my God, I shall praise you to the heights, I shall praise your name; for you have accomplished marvels, plans long-conceived, faithfully, firmly.

Isaiah 25:2 For you have made the town a heap of stones, the fortified city a ruin. The foreigners’ citadel is a city no longer, it will never be rebuilt.

Isaiah 25:3 Hence mighty peoples will honour you, the city of pitiless nations hold you in awe;

Isaiah 25:4 For you have been a refuge for the weak, a refuge for the needy in distress, a shelter from the storm, shade from the heat; for the breath of the pitiless is like a winter storm.

Isaiah 25:5 Like heat in a dry land you calm the foreigners’ tumult; as heat under the shadow of a cloud, so the song of the pitiless dies away.

Isaiah 25:6 On this mountain, for all peoples, Yahweh Sabaoth is preparing a banquet of rich food, a banquet of fine wines, of succulent food, of well-strained wines.

Isaiah 25:7 On this mountain, he has destroyed the veil which used to veil all peoples, the pall enveloping all nations;

Isaiah 25:8 he has destroyed death for ever. Lord Yahweh has wiped away the tears from every cheek; he has taken his people’s shame away everywhere on earth, for Yahweh has spoken.

Isaiah 25:9 And on that day, it will be said, ‘Look, this is our God, in him we put our hope that he should save us, this is Yahweh, we put our hope in him. Let us exult and rejoice since he has saved us.’

Isaiah 25:10 For Yahweh’s hand will rest on this mountain, and Moab will be trodden under his feet as straw is trodden into the dung-heap.

Isaiah 25:11 He may stretch his hands wide on the mountain like a swimmer stretching out his hands to swim. But he will humble his pride despite what his hands may attempt.

Isaiah 25:12 And the impregnable fortress of your walls, he has overthrown, laid low, flung to the ground, in the dust.

Isaiah 26:1 That day, this song will be sung in Judah: ‘We have a fortress city, the walls and ramparts provide safety.

Isaiah 26:2 Open the gates! Let the upright nation come in, the nation that keeps faith!

Isaiah 26:3 This is the plan decreed: you will guarantee peace, the peace entrusted to you.

Isaiah 26:4 Trust in Yahweh for ever, for Yahweh is a rock for ever.

Isaiah 26:5 He has brought low the dwellers on the heights, the lofty citadel; he lays it low, brings it to the ground, flings it down in the dust.

Isaiah 26:6 It will be trodden under foot, by the feet of the needy, the steps of the weak.’

Isaiah 26:7 The path of the Upright One is honesty; you smooth the honest way of the upright.

Isaiah 26:8 Following the path of your judgements, Yahweh, we set our hopes in you, your name, your memory are all our soul desires.

Isaiah 26:9 At night my soul longs for you and my spirit within me seeks you out; for when your judgements appear on earth the inhabitants of the world learn what saving justice is.

Isaiah 26:10 If pity is shown to the wicked without his learning what saving justice is, he will act wrongly in the land of right conduct and not see the majesty of Yahweh.

Isaiah 26:11 Yahweh, your hand is raised but they do not see! The antagonists of your people will look and grow pale; with your fiery wrath you will devour your enemies.

Isaiah 26:12 Yahweh, you will grant us peace, having completed all our undertakings for us.

Isaiah 26:13 Yahweh our God, other lords than you have ruled us but, loyal to you alone, we invoke your name.

Isaiah 26:14 The dead will not come back to life, the shadows will not rise again, for you have punished them, annihilated them, wiping out their very memory.

Isaiah 26:15 You have made the nation larger, Yahweh, made the nation larger and won yourself glory, you have rolled back the frontiers of the country.

Isaiah 26:16 Yahweh, in distress they had recourse to you, they expended themselves in prayer, since your punishment was on them.

Isaiah 26:17 As a pregnant woman near her time of delivery writhes and cries out in her pangs, so have we been, Yahweh, in your eyes:

Isaiah 26:18 we have been pregnant, we have writhed, but we have given birth only to wind: we have not given salvation to the earth, no inhabitants for the world have been brought to birth.

Isaiah 26:19 Your dead will come back to life, your corpses will rise again. Wake up and sing, you dwellers in the dust, for your dew will be a radiant dew, but the earth will give birth to the shades.

Isaiah 26:20 Go, my people, go to your private room, shut yourselves in. Hide yourselves a little while until the retribution has passed.

Isaiah 26:21 For see, Yahweh emerges from his dwelling to punish the inhabitants of earth for their guilt; and the earth will reveal the blood shed on it and no longer hide its slain.

Isaiah 27:1 That day Yahweh will punish, with his unyielding sword, massive and strong, Leviathan the fleeing serpent, Leviathan the coiling serpent; he will kill that dragon that lives in the sea.

Isaiah 27:2 That day, sing of the splendid vineyard!

Isaiah 27:3 I, Yahweh, am its guardian, from time to time I water it; so that no harm befall it, I guard it night and day.

Isaiah 27:4 -I do not have a wall. Who can reduce me to brambles and thorn-bushes? -I shall make war and trample on it and at the same time burn it.

Isaiah 27:5 Or should they beg for my protection, let them make their peace with me, peace let them make with me.

Isaiah 27:6 In days to come, Jacob will take root, Israel will bud and blossom and the surface of the world be one vast harvest.

Isaiah 27:7 Has he struck him as he was struck by those who struck him? Has he murdered him as he was murdered by those who murdered him?

Isaiah 27:8 By expelling, by excluding him, you have executed a sentence, he has blown him away with a breath as rough as the east wind.

Isaiah 27:9 For that is how Jacob's guilt will be forgiven, such will be the result of renouncing his sin, when all the altar-stones have been smashed to pieces like lumps of chalk, when the sacred poles and incense-altars stand no longer.

Isaiah 27:10 For the fortified city is abandoned now, deserted, forsaken as a desert where calves browse, where they lie down, destroying its branches.

Isaiah 27:11 When boughs go dry, they get burnt, women come and use them for firewood. Now, this is a people that does not understand, and so its Maker will not take pity on it, he who formed it will not show it any mercy.

Isaiah 27:12 When that day comes, Yahweh will start his threshing from the course of the River to the Torrent of Egypt, and you will be gathered one by one, Israelites!

Isaiah 27:13 When that day comes, the great ram's-horn will be sounded, and those lost in Assyria will come, and those banished to Egypt, and they will worship Yahweh on the holy mountain, in Jerusalem.

Isaiah 28:1 Woe to the haughty crown of Ephraim's drunkards, to the fading flower of its proud splendour sited at the head of the lush valley, to those prostrated by wine!

Isaiah 28:2 See, a strong and mighty man in the Lord's service, like a storm of hail, a destroying tempest, like immense flood-waters overflowing, with his hand he throws them to the ground.

Isaiah 28:3 They will be trampled underfoot, the haughty crown of Ephraim's drunkards,

Isaiah 28:4 and the faded flower of its proud splendour sited at the head of the lush valley. Like a fig ripe before summer comes: whoever spots it forthwith picks and swallows it.

Isaiah 28:5 That day Yahweh Sabaoth will be a crown of splendour and a proud diadem for the remnant of his people,

Isaiah 28:6 a spirit of fair judgement for him who sits in judgement, and the strength of those who repel the assault on the gate.

Isaiah 28:7 These too have been confused by wine, have gone astray owing to liquor. Priest and prophet have become confused by liquor, are sodden with wine, have strayed owing to liquor, have become confused in their visions, have strayed in their decisions.

Isaiah 28:8 Yes, every table is covered in filthy vomit, not one is clean!

Isaiah 28:9 'Whom does he think he is lecturing? Whom does he think his message is for? Babies just weaned? Babies just taken from the breast?

Isaiah 28:10 With his "Sav lasav, sav lasav, kav lakav, kav lakav, zeer sham, zeer sham!"

Isaiah 28:11 Now, with stammering lips and in a foreign language, he will talk to this nation.

Isaiah 28:12 He used to say to them, 'Here you can rest! Here you can let the weary rest! Here all is quiet.' But they refused to listen.

Isaiah 28:13 Now Yahweh is going to say this to them, 'Sav lasav, sav lasav, kav lakav, kav lakav, zeer sham, zeer sham.' So that when they walk they will fall over backwards and so be broken, trapped and taken captive.

Isaiah 28:14 Hence listen to Yahweh's word, you insolent men, rulers of this people in Jerusalem.

Isaiah 28:15 Because you have said, 'We have made a treaty with Death and have struck a pact with Sheol. When the scourging flood comes over, it will not touch us, for we have made lies our refuge and hidden under falsehood.'

Isaiah 28:16 So the Lord Yahweh says this, 'Now I shall lay a stone in Zion, a granite stone, a precious corner-stone, a firm foundation-stone: no one who relies on this will stumble.

Isaiah 28:17 And I will make fair judgement the measure, and uprightness the plumb-line.' But hail will sweep away the refuge of lies and floods wash away the hiding-place;

Isaiah 28:18 your treaty with Death will be broken and your pact with Sheol will not hold. When the scourging flood comes over, you will be trodden down by it;

Isaiah 28:19 every time it comes over, it will seize on you, for it will come over, morning after morning, day by day and night by night. Nothing but fear will make you understand what you hear.

Isaiah 28:20 For the bed is too short to stretch in, the blanket too narrow for covering.

Isaiah 28:21 Yes, as on Mount Perazim, Yahweh will rise, as in the Valley of Gibeon, he will storm to do his work, his mysterious work, to do his deed, his extraordinary deed.

Isaiah 28:22 Stop scoffing, then, or your bonds will be tightened further, for I have heard it: it has been irrevocably decided as regards the whole country by the Lord Yahweh Sabaoth.

Isaiah 28:23 Listen closely to my words, be attentive, understand what I am saying.

Isaiah 28:24 Does the ploughman plough all day to sow, breaking up and harrowing his ground?

Isaiah 28:25 Once he has levelled its surface, does he not scatter fennel, sow cummin? Then he puts in wheat, millet, barley and, round the edges, spelt,

Isaiah 28:26 for his God has taught him this rule and instructed him.

Isaiah 28:27 Fennel must not be crushed with a sledge, nor cart-wheels driven over cummin; fennel must be beaten with a stick, and cummin with a flail.

Isaiah 28:28 When you are threshing wheat, you do not waste time crushing it; you get the horse and cart-wheel moving, but you do not grind it fine.

Isaiah 28:29 All this is a gift from Yahweh Sabaoth, marvellous advice leading to great achievements.

Isaiah 29:1 Woe, Ariel, Ariel, city where David encamped. Let year after year pass, let the feasts make their full round,

Isaiah 29:2 then I shall inflict trouble on Ariel, and there will be sighing and sobbing, and I shall make it truly Ariel.

Isaiah 29:3 I shall encamp all round you, I shall lay siege to you and mount siege-works against you.

Isaiah 29:4 You will be laid low, will speak from the underworld, your words will rise like a murmur from the dust. Your voice from the earth will be like a ghost’s, it will whisper as though coming from the dust.

Isaiah 29:5 The horde of your enemies will be like fine dust, the horde of the warriors like flying chaff. And suddenly, in an instant,

Isaiah 29:6 you will be visited by Yahweh Sabaoth with thunder, earthquake, mighty din, hurricane, tempest, flame of devouring fire.

Isaiah 29:7 It will be like a dream, like a vision at night: the horde of all the nations at war with Ariel, all those fighting, besieging and troubling it.

Isaiah 29:8 It will be like the dream of a hungry man: he eats, then wakes up with an empty belly; or like the dream of a thirsty man: he drinks, then wakes up exhausted with a parched throat. So will it be with the horde of all the nations making war on Mount Zion.

Isaiah 29:9 Be stupefied and stunned, go blind, unseeing, drunk but not on wine, staggering but not through liquor.

Isaiah 29:10 For Yahweh has infused you with a spirit of lethargy, he has closed your eyes (the prophets), he has veiled your heads (the seers).

Isaiah 29:11 For to you every vision has become like the words of a sealed book. You give it to someone able to read and say, ‘Read that.’ He replies, ‘I cannot, because it is sealed.’

Isaiah 29:12 You then give the book to someone who cannot read, and say, ‘Read that.’ He replies, ‘I cannot read.’

Isaiah 29:13 The Lord then said: Because this people approaches me only in words, honours me only with lip-service while their hearts are far from me, and reverence for me, as far as they are concerned, is nothing but human commandment, a lesson memorised,

Isaiah 29:14 very well, I shall have to go on astounding this people with prodigies and wonders: for the wisdom of its wise men is doomed, the understanding of any who understand will vanish.

Isaiah 29:15 Woe to those who burrow down to conceal their plans from Yahweh, who scheme in the dark and say, ‘Who can see us? Who knows who we are?’

Isaiah 29:16 How perverse you are! Is the potter no better than the clay? Something that was made, can it say of its maker, ‘He did not make me’? Or a pot say of the potter, ‘He does not know his job’?

Isaiah 29:17 Is it not true that in a very short time the Lebanon will become productive ground, so productive you might take it for a forest?

Isaiah 29:18 That day the deaf will hear the words of the book and, delivered from shadow and darkness, the eyes of the blind will see.

Isaiah 29:19 The lowly will find ever more joy in Yahweh and the poorest of people will delight in the Holy One of Israel;

Isaiah 29:20 for the tyrant will be no more, the scoffer has vanished and all those on the look-out for evil have been destroyed:

Isaiah 29:21 those who incriminate others by their words, those who lay traps for the arbitrator at the gate and groundlessly deprive the upright of fair judgement.

Isaiah 29:22 That is why Yahweh, God of the House of Jacob, Abraham’s redeemer, says this, ‘No longer shall Jacob be disappointed, no more shall his face grow pale,

Isaiah 29:23 for when he sees his children, my creatures, home again with him, he will acknowledge my name as holy, he will acknowledge the Holy One of Jacob to be holy and will hold the God of Israel in awe.

Isaiah 29:24 Erring spirits will learn to understand and murmurers accept instruction.’

Isaiah 30:1 Woe to the rebellious children—declares Yahweh—who make plans which do not come from me and make alliances not inspired by me, and so add sin to sin!

Isaiah 30:2 They are leaving for Egypt, without consulting me, to take refuge in Pharaoh’s protection, to shelter in Egypt’s shadow.

Isaiah 30:3 Pharaoh’s protection will be your shame, the shelter of Egypt’s shadow your confounding.

Isaiah 30:4 For his princes have gone to Zoan and his messengers have reached Hanes.

Isaiah 30:5 Everyone has been disappointed by a people who cannot help, who bring neither aid nor profit, only disappointment and confusion.

Isaiah 30:6 Proclamation about the beasts of the Negeb: Into the land of distress and of anguish, of lioness and roaring lion, of viper and flying dragon, they bear their riches on donkeys’ backs, their treasures on camels’ humps, to a nation that cannot help:

Isaiah 30:7 Egypt, whose help is vain and futile; and so I call her ‘Rahab -the-collapsed’.

Isaiah 30:8 Now go, inscribe this on a tablet, write it on a scroll, so that it may serve for time to come for ever and for ever.

Isaiah 30:9 This is a rebellious people, they are lying children, children who will not listen to Yahweh’s Law.

Isaiah 30:10 To the seers they say, ‘See nothing!’ To the prophets, ‘Do not prophesy the truth to us; tell us flattering things; have illusory visions;

Isaiah 30:11 turn aside from the way, leave the path, rid us of the Holy One of Israel.’

Isaiah 30:12 So the Holy One of Israel says this, ‘Since you have rejected this word and put your trust in fraud and disloyalty and rely on these,

Isaiah 30:13 for you this guilt will prove to be a breach opening up, a bulge at the top of a wall which suddenly and all at once comes crashing down.

Isaiah 30:14 He will shatter it like an earthenware pot, ruthlessly knocking it to pieces, so that of the fragments not one shard can be found with which to take up fire from the hearth or scoop water from the storage-well.’

Isaiah 30:15 For Lord Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel, says this, ‘Your salvation lay in conversion and tranquillity, your strength in serenity and trust and you would have none of it.

Isaiah 30:16 “No,” you said, “we shall flee on horses.” And so flee you will! And again, “We shall ride on swift ones.” And so your pursuers will be swift!

Isaiah 30:17 A thousand will quake at the threat of one and when five threaten you will flee, until what is left of you will be like a flagstaff on a mountain top, like a signal on a hill.’

Isaiah 30:18 But Yahweh is waiting to be gracious to you, the Exalted One, to take pity on you, for Yahweh is a God of fair judgement; blessed are all who hope in him.

Isaiah 30:19 Yes, people of Zion living in Jerusalem, you will weep no more. He will be gracious to you when your cry for help rings out; as soon as he hears it, he will answer you.

Isaiah 30:20 When the Lord has given you the bread of suffering and the water of distress, he who is your teacher will hide no longer, and you will see your teacher with your own eyes.

Isaiah 30:21 Your ears will hear these words behind you, ‘This is the way, keep to it,’ whether you turn to right or left.

Isaiah 30:22 You will hold unclean the silverplating of your idols and the goldplating of your images. You will throw them away like the polluted things they are, shouting after them, ‘Good riddance!’

Isaiah 30:23 He will send rain for the seed you sow in the ground, and the bread that the ground provides will be rich and nourishing. That day, your cattle will graze in wide pastures.

Isaiah 30:24 Oxen and donkeys that work the land will eat for fodder wild sorrel, spread by the shovel-load and fork-load.

Isaiah 30:25 On every lofty mountain, on every high hill there will be streams and water-courses, on the day of the great slaughter when the strongholds fall.

Isaiah 30:26 Then moonlight will be bright as sunlight and sunlight itself be seven times brighter—like the light of seven days in one—on the day Yahweh dresses his people’s wound and heals the scars of the blows they have received.

Isaiah 30:27 See, the name of Yahweh comes from afar, blazing his anger, heavy his threat. His lips are brimming over with fury, his tongue is like a devouring fire.

Isaiah 30:28 His breath is like a river in spate coming up to the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction, to harness the peoples in a bridle, that will lead them astray.

Isaiah 30:29 Your song will be like that on a festal night, and there will be joy in your hearts as when to the sound of the flute people make a pilgrimage to the mountain of Yahweh, the Rock of Israel.

Isaiah 30:30 Yahweh will make his majestic voice ring out, he will show the weight of his arm in the heat of his anger, with a devouring fire, with thunderbolt, downpour and hailstones.

Isaiah 30:31 Yes, at Yahweh's voice Assyria will be terrified, he will strike him with his rod;

Isaiah 30:32 each time he goes by, will fall the punishing rod that Yahweh will lay on him, to the sound of tambourines and harps, in the battles which he will wage against him with uplifted hand.

Isaiah 30:33 Yes, Topheth has been ready for a long time now, that too is ready for the king, deep and wide his pyre, fire and wood in plenty. Yahweh's breath, like a stream of brimstone, will set fire to it.

Isaiah 31:1 Woe to those going down to Egypt for help, who put their trust in horses, who rely on the quantity of chariots, and on great strength of cavalrymen, but do not look to the Holy One of Israel or consult Yahweh.

Isaiah 31:2 Yet he too is wise and can bring disaster and he will not go back on his word; he will rise against the breed of evil-doers and against those who protect wrong-doers.

Isaiah 31:3 The Egyptian is human, not divine, his horses are flesh, not spirit; Yahweh will stretch out his hand: the protector will stumble, the protected will fall and all will perish together.

Isaiah 31:4 Yes, this is what Yahweh has said to me: As a lion or lion cub growls over its prey, when scores of shepherds are summoned to drive it off, without being frightened by their shouting or cowed by the noise they make, just so will Yahweh Sabaoth descend to fight for Mount Zion and for its hill.

Isaiah 31:5 Like hovering birds, so will Yahweh Sabaoth protect Jerusalem; by protecting it, he will save it, by supporting it, he will deliver it.

Isaiah 31:6 Come back to the one whom the Israelites have so deeply betrayed!

Isaiah 31:7 For, that day, each of you will throw away the false gods of silver and the false gods of gold which your own sinful hands have made.

Isaiah 31:8 Assyria will fall by the sword, not that of a man, will be devoured by the sword, of no human being, he will flee before the sword and his young warriors will be enslaved.

Isaiah 31:9 In his terror he will abandon his rock, and his panic-stricken officers desert the standard—declares Yahweh, whose fire is in Zion, whose furnace, in Jerusalem.

Isaiah 32:1 There will be a king who reigns uprightly and princes who rule with fair judgement;

Isaiah 32:2 each will be like a shelter from the wind, a refuge from the storm, like streams on arid ground, like the shade of a solid rock in a desolate land.

Isaiah 32:3 The eyes of seers will no longer be closed, the ears of hearers will be alert,

Isaiah 32:4 the heart of the hasty will learn to think things over, and the tongue of stammerers will speak promptly and clearly.

Isaiah 32:5 The fool will no longer be called generous, nor the rascal be styled bountiful.

Isaiah 32:6 For the fool speaks folly and his heart is set on villainy; he is godless in his actions and his words ascribe error to Yahweh; he starves the hungry of their food and refuses drink to the thirsty.

Isaiah 32:7 Everything to do with the rascal is evil, he devises infamous plans to ruin the poor with lying words even when the needy has right on his side;

Isaiah 32:8 but the noble person plans only noble things, noble his every move.

Isaiah 32:9 Stand up, you haughty women, listen to my words; you over-confident daughters, pay attention to what I say.

Isaiah 32:10 Within one year and a few days you will tremble, you over-confident women; grape-harvesting will be finished, gathering will never happen again.

Isaiah 32:11 Shudder, you haughty women, tremble, you over-confident women; strip, undress, put sackcloth round your waists.

Isaiah 32:12 Beat your breasts for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine,

Isaiah 32:13 for my people's soil where the bramble-bush will be growing and for all the happy houses, for the rejoicing city.

Isaiah 32:14 For the citadel will be abandoned and the thronged city deserted, Ophel and the Keep will be denuded for ever, the playground of wild donkeys and the pasture of flocks,

Isaiah 32:15 until the spirit is poured out on us from above, and the desert becomes an orchard, and an orchard that seems like a forest.

Isaiah 32:16 Fair judgement will fix its home in the desert, and uprightness live in this orchard,

Isaiah 32:17 and the product of uprightness will be peace, the effect of uprightness being quiet and security for ever.

Isaiah 32:18 My people will live in a peaceful home, in peaceful houses, tranquil dwellings.

Isaiah 32:19 And should the forest be totally destroyed and the city gravely humiliated,

Isaiah 32:20 You will be happy to sow wherever there is water and to let the ox and donkey roam free.

Isaiah 33:1 Woe to you, destroying though not yourself destroyed, betraying though not yourself betrayed; when you have finished destroying, you will be destroyed, when you have stopped betraying, you will be betrayed.

Isaiah 33:2 Yahweh, show us your mercy, we hope in you. Be our arm every morning and our salvation in time of distress.

Isaiah 33:3 At the sound of tumult the peoples flee, when you stand up the nations scatter.

Isaiah 33:4 Your spoil is gathered in as a grasshopper gathers in, like a swarm of locusts people descend on it.

Isaiah 33:5 Yahweh is exalted, for he is enthroned above, he has filled Zion with fair judgement and saving justice.

Isaiah 33:6 You can count on this all your days: wisdom and knowledge are the riches that save, the fear of Yahweh is his treasure.

Isaiah 33:7 Look, Ariel is lamenting in the streets, the ambassadors of peace are weeping bitterly.

Isaiah 33:8 The highways are deserted, no travellers any more on the roads. Agreements are broken, witnesses held in contempt, there is respect for no one.

Isaiah 33:9 The land pines away in mourning, the Lebanon is withering with shame, Sharon has become like the wasteland, Bashan and Carmel are shuddering.

Isaiah 33:10 'Now I shall stand up,' says Yahweh, 'now I shall rise, now draw myself up.

Isaiah 33:11 You conceive chaff, you give birth to straw: like fire, my breath will devour you.

Isaiah 33:12 The peoples will be burnt up as though by quicklime, like cut thorns they will be burnt on the fire.

Isaiah 33:13 You who are far away, listen to what I have done, and you who are near, realise my strength.'

Isaiah 33:14 The sinners in Zion are panic-stricken and fear seizes on the godless, 'Which of us can survive the devouring fire, which of us survive everlasting burning?'

Isaiah 33:15 The one who acts uprightly and speaks honestly, who scorns to get rich by extortion, who rejects bribes out of hand, who refuses to listen to plans involving bloodshed and shuts his eyes rather than countenance crime:

Isaiah 33:16 such a man will live on the heights, the craggy rocks will be his refuge, he will be fed, he will not want for water.

Isaiah 33:17 Your eyes will gaze on the king in his beauty, they will look on a country stretching far and wide.

Isaiah 33:18 Your heart will meditate on past terrors, 'Where is the man who did the counting? Where is the man who did the weighing? Where is the man who counted off the towers?'

Isaiah 33:19 No more will you see that insolent people, that people of unintelligible speech, of barbarous and meaningless tongue.

Isaiah 33:20 Gaze at Zion, city of our feasts; your eyes will see Jerusalem as a home that is secure, a tent not to be moved, none of its tent-pegs ever to be pulled out, none of its guy-ropes ever to be broken.

Isaiah 33:21 There it is that Yahweh shows us his power, like a place of rivers and very wide canals on which will row no galley, over which will pass no majestic ship.

Isaiah 33:22 (For Yahweh is our judge, Yahweh our lawgiver, Yahweh is our king and our Saviour.)

Isaiah 33:23 Your tackle has given way, it cannot support the mast, it cannot hoist the pennon. And so there is much booty to be shared out; the lame fall to plundering,

Isaiah 33:24 and no one living there will say, 'I am sickly'; the people living there will find their guilt forgiven.

Isaiah 34:1 Come near and listen, you nations, pay attention, you peoples. Let the earth and its contents listen, the world and its entire population.

Isaiah 34:2 For Yahweh is angry with all the nations, enraged with all their hordes. He has vowed them to destruction, handed them over to slaughter.

Isaiah 34:3 Their dead will be thrown away, the stench will rise from their corpses, the mountains will run with their blood,

Isaiah 34:4 the entire array of heaven will fall apart. The heavens will be rolled up like a scroll and all their array will fade away, as fade the leaves falling from the vine, as fade those falling from the fig tree.

Isaiah 34:5 For my sword has drunk deep in the heavens: see how it now falls on Edom, on the people vowed to destruction, to punish them.

Isaiah 34:6 Yahweh's sword is gorged with blood, it is greasy with fat, with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams. For Yahweh has a sacrifice in Bozrah, a great slaughter in the land of Edom.

Isaiah 34:7 The wild oxen will fall with them, the bullocks with the bulls; their land will be drenched with blood and their dust will be greasy with fat.

Isaiah 34:8 For this will be Yahweh's day of vengeance, the year of retribution in Zion's lawsuit.

Isaiah 34:9 Its streams will turn into pitch, its dust into brimstone, its country will turn into blazing pitch.

Isaiah 34:10 Never quenched night or day, its smoke rising for ever, it will lie waste age after age, no one will travel through it for ever and ever.

Isaiah 34:11 It will be the haunt of pelican and hedgehog, the owl and the raven will live there; over it Yahweh will stretch the measuring line of chaos and the plumb-line of emptiness.

Isaiah 34:12 There will be no more nobles to proclaim the royal authority; there will be an end of all its princes.

Isaiah 34:13 Brambles will grow in its bastions, nettles and thorn-bushes in its fortresses, it will be the lair of jackals, an enclosure for ostriches.

Isaiah 34:14 Wild cats will meet hyenas there, satyr will call to satyr, there Lilith too will lurk and find somewhere to rest.

Isaiah 34:15 The snake will nest and lay eggs there, will hatch and gather its young into the shade; and there the vultures will assemble, each one with its mate.

Isaiah 34:16 Search in Yahweh's book, and read, not one of these will be missing, not one of them lacking a mate; for thus his mouth has ordained it, and his spirit has brought them together.

Isaiah 34:17 He has thrown the lot for each, his hand has measured out their share; they will possess it for ever, and live there age after age.

Isaiah 35:1 Let the desert and the dry lands be glad, let the wasteland rejoice and bloom; like the asphodel,

Isaiah 35:2 let it burst into flower, let it rejoice and sing for joy. The glory of Lebanon is bestowed on it, the splendour of Carmel and Sharon; then they will see the glory of Yahweh, the splendour of our God.

Isaiah 35:3 Strengthen all weary hands, steady all trembling knees

Isaiah 35:4 and say to the faint-hearted, 'Be strong! Do not be afraid. Here is your God, vengeance is coming, divine retribution; he is coming to save you.'

Isaiah 35:5 Then the eyes of the blind will be opened, the ears of the deaf unsealed,

Isaiah 35:6 then the lame will leap like a deer and the tongue of the dumb sing for joy; for water will gush in the desert and streams in the wastelands,

Isaiah 35:7 the parched ground will become a marsh and the thirsty land springs of water; the lairs where the jackals used to live will become plots of reed and papyrus.

Isaiah 35:8 And through it will run a road for them and a highway which will be called the Sacred Way; the unclean will not be allowed to use it; He will be the one to use this road, the fool will not stray along it.

Isaiah 35:9 No lion will be there, no ferocious beast set foot on it, nothing of the sort be found; it will be used by the redeemed.

Isaiah 35:10 For those whom Yahweh has ransomed will return, they will come to Zion shouting for joy, their heads crowned with joy unending; rejoicing and gladness will escort them and sorrow and sighing will take flight.

Isaiah 36:1 In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria advanced on all the fortified towns of Judah and captured them.

Isaiah 36:2 From Lachish the king of Assyria sent the cupbearer-in-chief with a large force to King Hezekiah in Jerusalem. The cupbearer-in-chief took up position near the conduit of the upper pool on the road to the Fuller's Field.

Isaiah 36:3 The master of the palace, Eliakim son of Hilkiah, Shebna the secretary and the herald Joah son of Asaph went out to him.

Isaiah 36:4 The cupbearer-in-chief said to them, 'Say to Hezekiah, "The great king, the king of Assyria, says this: What makes you so confident?

Isaiah 36:5 Do you think empty words are as good as strategy and military strength? Who are you relying on, to dare to rebel against me?

Isaiah 36:6 There you are, relying on that broken reed, Egypt, which pricks and pierces the hand of the person who leans on it. That is what Pharaoh king of Egypt is like to all who rely on him.

Isaiah 36:7 You may say to me: We rely on Yahweh our God. But haven't his high places and altars been suppressed by Hezekiah, who told Judah and Jerusalem: This is the altar before which you must worship?

Isaiah 36:8 Very well, then, make a wager with my lord the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses if you can find horsemen to ride them.

Isaiah 36:9 How could you repulse a single one of the least of my master's soldiers? And yet you have relied on Egypt for chariots and horsemen.

Isaiah 36:10 And lastly, have I marched on this country to lay it waste without warrant from Yahweh? Yahweh himself said to me: March on this country and lay it waste."

Isaiah 36:11 Eliakim, Shebna and Joah said to the cupbearer-in-chief, 'Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it; do not speak to us in the Judaean language within earshot of the people on the ramparts.'

Isaiah 36:12 But the cupbearer-in-chief said, 'Do you think my lord sent me here to say these things to your master or to you? On the contrary, it was to the people sitting on the ramparts who, like you, are doomed to eat their own dung and drink their own urine.'

Isaiah 36:13 The cupbearer-in-chief then drew himself up and shouted loudly in the Judaean language, 'Listen to the words of the great king, the king of Assyria.

Isaiah 36:14 The king says this, “Do not let Hezekiah delude you! He will be powerless to save you.

Isaiah 36:15 Do not let Hezekiah persuade you to rely on Yahweh by saying: Yahweh is sure to save us; this city will not fall into the king of Assyria’s clutches.

Isaiah 36:16 Do not listen to Hezekiah, for the king of Assyria says this: Make peace with me,

Isaiah 36:17 surrender to me, and every one of you will be free to eat the fruit of his own vine and of his own fig tree and to drink the water of his own storage-well until I come and take you away to a country like your own, a land of corn and good wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

Isaiah 36:18 Do not let Hezekiah delude you by saying: Yahweh will save us. Has any god of any nation been able to save his country from the king of Assyria’s clutches?

Isaiah 36:19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Where are the national gods of Samaria? Did they save Samaria from my clutches?

Isaiah 36:20 Of all the national gods, which ones have saved their countries from my clutches, that Yahweh should be able to save Jerusalem from my clutches?” ‘

Isaiah 36:21 They, however, kept quiet and said nothing in reply, since the king had given the order, ‘You are not to answer him.’

Isaiah 36:22 The master of the palace, Eliakim son of Hilkiah, Shebna the secretary and the herald Joah son of Asaph, with their clothes torn, went to Hezekiah and reported what the cupbearer-in-chief had said.

Isaiah 37:1 On hearing this, King Hezekiah tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and went to the Temple of Yahweh.

Isaiah 37:2 He sent Eliakim master of the palace, Shebna the secretary and the elders of the priests, wearing sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz.

Isaiah 37:3 They said to him, ‘This is what Hezekiah says, “Today is a day of suffering, of punishment, of disgrace. Children come to birth and there is no strength to bring them forth.

Isaiah 37:4 May Yahweh your God hear the words of the cupbearer-in-chief whom his master, the king of Assyria, has sent to insult the living God, and may Yahweh your God punish the words he has heard! Offer your prayer for the remnant still left.” ‘

Isaiah 37:5 When King Hezekiah’s ministers came to Isaiah,

Isaiah 37:6 he said to them, ‘Say to your master, “Yahweh says this: Do not be afraid of the words which you have heard or the blasphemies which the king of Assyria’s minions have uttered against me.

Isaiah 37:7 Look, I am going to put a spirit in him and, on the strength of a rumour, he will go back to his own country, and in that country I shall make him fall by the sword.” ‘

Isaiah 37:8 The cupbearer turned about and rejoined the king of Assyria, who was then attacking Libnah, the cupbearer having learnt that the king had already left Lachish

Isaiah 37:9 on hearing that Tirhakah king of Cush was on his way to attack him. Sennacherib again sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

Isaiah 37:10 ‘Tell Hezekiah king of Judah this, “Do not let your God on whom you are relying deceive you with the promise: Jerusalem will not fall into the king of Assyria’s clutches.

Isaiah 37:11 You have learnt by now what the kings of Assyria have done to all the other countries, putting them under the curse of destruction. Are you likely to be saved?

Isaiah 37:12 Did the gods of the nations whom my ancestors devastated save them-Gozan, Haran, Rezeph and the Edenites who were in Tel Basar?

Isaiah 37:13 Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of Lair, of Sepharvaim, of Hena, of Ivvah?” ‘

Isaiah 37:14 Hezekiah took the letter from the messengers’ hands and read it; he then went up to the Temple of Yahweh and spread it out before Yahweh.

Isaiah 37:15 Hezekiah said this prayer in the presence of Yahweh,

Isaiah 37:16 ‘Yahweh Sabaoth, God of Israel, enthroned on the winged creatures, you alone are God of all the kingdoms of the world, you made heaven and earth.

Isaiah 37:17 Give ear, Yahweh, and listen; open your eyes, Yahweh, and see! Hear the words of Sennacherib, who has sent to insult the living God.

Isaiah 37:18 It is true, Yahweh, that the kings of Assyria have destroyed all the nations (and their countries);

Isaiah 37:19 they have thrown their gods on the fire, for these were not gods but human artefacts—wood and stone—and hence they have destroyed them.

Isaiah 37:20 But now, Yahweh our God, save us from his clutches, I beg you, and let all the kingdoms of the world know that you alone are God, Yahweh.’

Isaiah 37:21 Isaiah son of Amoz then sent the following message to Hezekiah, ‘Yahweh, God of Israel, says this, “In answer to the prayer which you have addressed to me about Sennacherib king of Assyria.

Isaiah 37:22 Here is the pronouncement which Yahweh has made about him: She despises you, she scorns you, the virgin daughter of Zion; she tosses her head at you, the daughter of Jerusalem!

Isaiah 37:23 Whom have you insulted, whom did you blaspheme? Against whom raised your voice and lifted your haughty eyes? Against the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 37:24 Through your minions you have insulted the Lord, thinking: With my many chariots I have climbed the mountain-tops, the utmost peaks of Lebanon. I have felled its mighty cedars, its finest cypresses, have reached its furthest peak, its forest garden.

Isaiah 37:25 Yes, I have dug and drunk of foreign waters; under the soles of my feet I have dried up all Egypt's rivers.

Isaiah 37:26 Do you hear? Long ago I prepared this, from days of old I actually planned it, now I carry it out. You were to lay walled cities in heaps of ruins;

Isaiah 37:27 that was why their inhabitants, feeble of hand, were dismayed and discomfited, were weak as grass, were frail as plants, were like grass of housetop and meadow under the east wind.

Isaiah 37:28 But whether you stand up or sit down, whether you go out or come in, I know it (and how you rave against me).

Isaiah 37:29 Because you have raved against me and your arrogance has reached my ears, I shall put a hook through your nostrils and a muzzle on your lips, and make you return by the road by which you came.

Isaiah 37:30 And this will be the sign for you: This year will be eaten the self-sown grain, next year what sprouts in the fallow; but in the third year sow and reap, plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

Isaiah 37:31 The surviving remnant of the House of Judah will bring forth new roots below and fruits above;

Isaiah 37:32 for a remnant will issue from Jerusalem, and survivors from Mount Zion. Yahweh Sabaoth's jealous love will accomplish this." '

Isaiah 37:33 'This, then, is what Yahweh says about the king of Assyria: He will not enter this city, will shoot no arrow at it, confront it with no shield, throw up no earthwork against it.

Isaiah 37:34 By the road by which he came, by that he will return; he will not enter this city, declares Yahweh.

Isaiah 37:35 I shall protect this city and save it for my sake and my servant David's sake.'

Isaiah 37:36 That same night the angel of Yahweh went out and struck down a hundred and eighty-five thousand men in the Assyrian camp. In the early morning when it was time to get up, there they lay, so many corpses.

Isaiah 37:37 Sennacherib struck camp and left; he returned home and stayed in Nineveh.

Isaiah 37:38 One day when he was worshipping in the temple of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him down with the sword and escaped into the territory of Ararat. His son Esarhaddon succeeded him.

Isaiah 38:1 About then, Hezekiah fell ill and was at the point of death. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz came and said to him, 'Yahweh says this, "Put your affairs in order, for you are going to die, you will not live." '

Isaiah 38:2 Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and addressed this prayer to Yahweh,

Isaiah 38:3 'Ah, Yahweh, remember, I beg you, that I have behaved faithfully and with sincerity of heart in your presence and done what you regard as right.' And Hezekiah shed many tears.

Isaiah 38:4 Then the word of Yahweh came to Isaiah,

Isaiah 38:5 'Go and say to Hezekiah, "Yahweh, the God of your ancestor David, says this: I have heard your prayer and seen your tears. I shall cure you: in three days' time you will go up to the Temple of Yahweh. I shall add fifteen years to your life.

Isaiah 38:6 I shall save you and this city from the king of Assyria's clutches and defend this city for my sake and my servant David's sake." '

Isaiah 38:7 'Here', Isaiah replied, 'is the sign from Yahweh that he will do what he has said.

Isaiah 38:8 Look, I shall make the shadow cast by the declining sun on the steps—the steps to Ahaz's roof-room-go back ten steps.' And the sun went back the ten steps by which it had declined.

Isaiah 38:9 Canticle of Hezekiah king of Judah after his illness and recovery.

Isaiah 38:10 I thought: In the noon of my life I am to depart. At the gates of Sheol I shall be held for the rest of my days.

Isaiah 38:11 I thought: I shall never see Yahweh again in the land of the living, I shall never see again a single one of those who live on earth.

Isaiah 38:12 My home has been pulled up, and thrown away like a shepherd's tent; like a weaver, I have rolled up my life, he has cut me from the loom. From dawn to dark, you have been making an end of me;

Isaiah 38:13 till daybreak, I cried for help; like a lion, he has crushed all my bones, from dawn to dark, you have been making an end of me.

Isaiah 38:14 I twitter like a swallow, I moan like a dove, my eyes have grown dim from looking up. Lord, I am overwhelmed, come to my help.

Isaiah 38:15 How can I speak and what can I say to him? He is the one to act. I must eke out the rest of my years in bitterness of soul.

Isaiah 38:16 The Lord is over them; they live, and everything in them lives by his spirit. You will cure me. Restore me to life.

Isaiah 38:17 At once, my bitterness turns to well-being. For you have preserved my soul from the pit of nothingness, you have thrust all my sins behind you.

Isaiah 38:18 For Sheol cannot praise you, nor Death celebrate you; those who go down to the pit can hope no longer in your constancy.

Isaiah 38:19 The living, the living are the ones who praise you, as I do today. Fathers tell their sons about your constancy.

Isaiah 38:20 Yahweh, come to my help and we will make our harps resound all the days of our life in the Temple of Yahweh.

Isaiah 38:21 'Bring a fig poultice,' Isaiah said, 'apply it to the ulcer and he will recover.'

Isaiah 38:22 Hezekiah said, 'What is the sign to tell me that I shall be going up to the Temple of Yahweh?'

Isaiah 39:1 At that time, the king of Babylon, Merodach-Baladan son of Baladan, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah, for he had heard of his illness and his recovery.

Isaiah 39:2 Hezekiah was delighted at this and showed the ambassadors his entire treasury, the silver, gold, spices, precious oil, his armoury too, and everything to be seen in his storehouses. There was nothing in his palace or in his whole domain that Hezekiah did not show them.

Isaiah 39:3 The prophet Isaiah then came to King Hezekiah and asked him, 'What have these men said, and where have they come to you from?' Hezekiah answered, 'They have come from a distant country, from Babylon.'

Isaiah 39:4 Isaiah said, 'What have they seen in your palace?' 'They have seen everything in my palace,' Hezekiah answered. 'There is nothing in my storehouses that I have not shown them.'

Isaiah 39:5 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, 'Listen to the word of Yahweh Sabaoth,

Isaiah 39:6 "The days are coming when everything in your palace, everything that your ancestors have amassed until now, will be carried off to Babylon. Not a thing will be left," Yahweh says.

Isaiah 39:7 "Sons sprung from you, sons begotten by you, will be abducted to be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon." '

Isaiah 39:8 Hezekiah said to Isaiah, 'This word of Yahweh that you announce is reassuring,' for he was thinking, 'There is going to be peace and security during my lifetime.'

Isaiah 40:1 'Console my people, console them,' says your God.

Isaiah 40:2 'Speak to the heart of Jerusalem and cry to her that her period of service is ended, that her guilt has been atoned for, that, from the hand of Yahweh, she has received double punishment for all her sins.'

Isaiah 40:3 A voice cries, 'Prepare in the desert a way for Yahweh. Make a straight highway for our God across the wastelands.

Isaiah 40:4 Let every valley be filled in, every mountain and hill be levelled, every cliff become a plateau, every escarpment a plain;

Isaiah 40:5 then the glory of Yahweh will be revealed and all humanity will see it together, for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken.'

Isaiah 40:6 A voice said, 'Cry aloud!' and I said, 'What shall I cry?' - 'All humanity is grass and all its beauty like the wild flower's.

Isaiah 40:7 The grass withers, the flower fades when the breath of Yahweh blows on them. (The grass is surely the people.)

Isaiah 40:8 The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God remains for ever.'

Isaiah 40:9 Go up on a high mountain, messenger of Zion. Shout as loud as you can, messenger of Jerusalem! Shout fearlessly, say to the towns of Judah, 'Here is your God.'

Isaiah 40:10 Here is Lord Yahweh coming with power, his arm maintains his authority, his reward is with him and his prize precedes him.

Isaiah 40:11 He is like a shepherd feeding his flock, gathering lambs in his arms, holding them against his breast and leading to their rest the mother ewes.

Isaiah 40:12 Who was it measured the water of the sea in the hollow of his hand and calculated the heavens to the nearest inch, gauged the dust of the earth to the nearest bushel, weighed the mountains in scales, the hills in a balance?

Isaiah 40:13 Who directed the spirit of Yahweh, what counsellor could have instructed him?

Isaiah 40:14 Whom has he consulted to enlighten him, to instruct him in the path of judgement, to teach him knowledge and show him how to understand?

Isaiah 40:15 See, the nations are like a drop in a bucket, they count as a grain of dust on the scales. See, coasts and islands weigh no more than fine powder.

Isaiah 40:16 The Lebanon is not enough for the burning fires nor its animals enough for the burnt offering.

Isaiah 40:17 All the nations are as nothing before him, for him they count as nothingness and emptiness.

Isaiah 40:18 To whom can you compare God? What image can you contrive of him?

Isaiah 40:19 The craftsman casts an idol, a goldsmith overlays it with gold and casts silver chains for it.

Isaiah 40:20 Someone too poor to afford a sacrifice chooses a piece of wood that will not rot; he then seeks out a skilled craftsman to set up an idol that will not totter.

Isaiah 40:21 Did you not know, had you not heard? Was it not told you from the beginning? Have you not understood how the earth was set on its foundations?

Isaiah 40:22 He who sits enthroned above the circle of the earth, the inhabitants of which are like grasshoppers, stretches out the heavens like a cloth, spreads them out like a tent to live in.

Isaiah 40:23 He reduces princes to nothing, the rulers of the world to mere emptiness.

Isaiah 40:24 Scarcely are they planted, scarcely sown, scarcely has their stem taken root in the soil, than he blows on them and they wither and the storm carries them away like chaff.

Isaiah 40:25 'To whom can you compare me, or who is my equal?' says the Holy One.

Isaiah 40:26 Lift your eyes and look: he who created these things leads out their army in order, summoning each of them by name. So mighty is his power, so great his strength, that not one fails to answer.

Isaiah 40:27 How can you say, Jacob, how can you repeat, Israel, 'My way is hidden from Yahweh, my rights are ignored by my God'?

Isaiah 40:28 Did you not know? Had you not heard? Yahweh is the everlasting God, he created the remotest parts of the earth. He does not grow tired or weary, his understanding is beyond fathoming.

Isaiah 40:29 He gives strength to the weary, he strengthens the powerless.

Isaiah 40:30 Youths grow tired and weary, the young stumble and fall,

Isaiah 40:31 but those who hope in Yahweh will regain their strength, they will sprout wings like eagles, though they run they will not grow weary, though they walk they will never tire.

Isaiah 41:1 Coasts and islands, fall silent before me, and let the peoples renew their strength, let them come forward and speak; let us assemble for judgement.

Isaiah 41:2 'Who has raised from the east him whom saving justice summons in its train, him to whom Yahweh delivers up the nations and subjects kings, him who reduces them to dust with his sword, and to driven stubble with his bow,

Isaiah 41:3 him who pursues them and advances unhindered, his feet scarcely touching the road?

Isaiah 41:4 Who has acted thus, who has done this? He who calls each generation from the beginning: I, Yahweh, who am the first and till the last I shall still be there.’

Isaiah 41:5 The coasts and islands have seen and taken fright, the remotest parts of earth are trembling: they are approaching, they are here!

Isaiah 41:6 People help one another, they say to each other, ‘Take heart!’

Isaiah 41:7 The woodworker encourages the smelter, the polisher encourages the hammerer, saying of the soldering, ‘It is sound’; and he fastens it with nails to keep it steady.

Isaiah 41:8 But you, Israel, my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, descendant of Abraham my friend,

Isaiah 41:9 whom I have taken to myself, from the remotest parts of the earth and summoned from countries far away, to whom I have said, ‘You are my servant, I have chosen you, I have not rejected you,’

Isaiah 41:10 do not be afraid, for I am with you; do not be alarmed, for I am your God. I give you strength, truly I help you, truly I hold you firm with my saving right hand.

Isaiah 41:11 Look, all those who rage against you will be put to shame and humiliated; those who picked quarrels with you will be reduced to nothing and will perish.

Isaiah 41:12 You will look for them but will not find them, those who used to fight you; they will be destroyed and brought to nothing, those who made war on you.

Isaiah 41:13 For I, Yahweh, your God, I grasp you by your right hand; I tell you, ‘Do not be afraid, I shall help you.’

Isaiah 41:14 Do not be afraid, Jacob, you worm! You little handful of Israel! I shall help you, declares Yahweh; your redeemer is the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 41:15 Look, I am making you into a threshing-sledge, new, with double teeth; you will thresh and beat the mountains to dust and reduce the hills to straw.

Isaiah 41:16 You will winnow them and the wind will carry them off, the gale will scatter them; whereas you will rejoice in Yahweh, will glory in the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 41:17 The oppressed and needy search for water, and there is none, their tongue is parched with thirst. I, Yahweh, shall answer them, I, the God of Israel, shall not abandon them.

Isaiah 41:18 I shall open up rivers on barren heights and water-holes down in the ravines; I shall turn the desert into a lake and dry ground into springs of water.

Isaiah 41:19 I shall plant the desert with cedar trees, acacias, myrtles and olives; in the wastelands I shall put cypress trees, plane trees and box trees side by side;

Isaiah 41:20 so that people may see and know, so that they may all observe and understand that the hand of Yahweh has done this, that the Holy One of Israel has created it.

Isaiah 41:21 'Present your case,' says Yahweh, 'Produce your arguments,' says Jacob's king.

Isaiah 41:22 'Let them produce and reveal to us what is going to happen. What happened in the past? Reveal it so that we can consider it and know what the outcome will be. Or tell us about the future, Isaiah 41:23 reveal what is to happen next, and then we shall know that you are gods. At least, do something, be it good or bad, so that we may feel alarm and fear.

Isaiah 41:24 Look, you are less than nothingness, and what you do is less than nothing; to choose you is an outrage.'

Isaiah 41:25 I have raised him from the north and he has come, from the east he has been summoned by name. He tramples on rulers like mud, like a potter treading clay.

Isaiah 41:26 Who revealed this from the beginning for us to know, and in the past for us to say, 'That is right'? No one in fact revealed it, no one proclaimed it, no one has heard you speak.

Isaiah 41:27 First-fruits of Zion, look, here they come! I send a messenger to Jerusalem,

Isaiah 41:28 and I look—no one, not a single counsellor among them who, if I asked, could give an answer.

Isaiah 41:29 Taken altogether they are nothingness, what they do is nothing, their statues, wind and emptiness.

Isaiah 42:1 Here is my servant whom I uphold, my chosen one in whom my soul delights. I have sent my spirit upon him, he will bring fair judgement to the nations.

Isaiah 42:2 He does not cry out or raise his voice, his voice is not heard in the street;

Isaiah 42:3 he does not break the crushed reed or snuff the faltering wick. Faithfully he presents fair judgement;

Isaiah 42:4 he will not grow faint, he will not be crushed until he has established fair judgement on earth, and the coasts and islands are waiting for his instruction.

Isaiah 42:5 Thus says God, Yahweh, who created the heavens and spread them out, who hammered into shape the earth and what comes from it, who gave breath to the people on it, and spirit to those who walk on it:

Isaiah 42:6 I, Yahweh, have called you in saving justice, I have grasped you by the hand and shaped you; I have made you a covenant of the people and light to the nations,

Isaiah 42:7 to open the eyes of the blind, to free captives from prison, and those who live in darkness from the dungeon.

Isaiah 42:8 I am Yahweh, that is my name! I shall not yield my glory to another, nor my honour to idols.

Isaiah 42:9 See how the former predictions have come true. Fresh things I now reveal; before they appear I tell you of them.

Isaiah 42:10 Sing a new song to Yahweh! Let his praise be sung from remotest parts of the earth by those who sail the sea and by everything in it, by the coasts and islands and those who inhabit them.

Isaiah 42:11 Let the desert and its cities raise their voices, the encampments where Kedar lives. Let the inhabitants of the Rock cry aloud for joy and shout from the mountain tops.

Isaiah 42:12 Let them give glory to Yahweh and, in the coasts and islands, let them voice his praise.

Isaiah 42:13 Yahweh advances like a hero, like a warrior he rouses his fire. He shouts, he raises the war cry, he shows his might against his foes.

Isaiah 42:14 'From long ago I have been silent, I have kept quiet, held myself in check, groaning like a woman in labour, panting and gasping for air.

Isaiah 42:15 I shall ravage mountain and hill, shall wither all their vegetation; I shall turn the torrents into firm ground and dry up the marshes.

Isaiah 42:16 I shall lead the blind by a road they do not know, by paths they do not know I shall conduct them. I shall turn the darkness into light before them and the quagmires into solid ground. This I shall do—without fail.'

Isaiah 42:17 Those who trust in idols will recoil, they will blush for shame, who say to metal images, 'You are our gods.'

Isaiah 42:18 Listen, you deaf! Look and see, you blind!

Isaiah 42:19 Who so blind as my servant, so deaf as the messenger I send? (Who so blind as the friend I have taken to myself, so deaf as Yahweh's servant?)

Isaiah 42:20 You have seen many things but not observed them; your ears are open but you do not hear.

Isaiah 42:21 Yahweh wished, because of his saving justice, to make the Law great and glorious.

Isaiah 42:22 Yet here is a people pillaged and plundered, all of them shut up in caves, imprisoned in dungeons. They have been pillaged, with no one to rescue them, plundered, with no one to say, ‘Give it back!’

Isaiah 42:23 Which of you will listen to this, who pay attention and listen in future?

Isaiah 42:24 Who surrendered Jacob to the plunderer and Israel to the pillagers? Was it not Yahweh, against whom we had sinned, in whose ways they would not walk and whose Law they would not obey?

Isaiah 42:25 On him he poured out his blazing anger and the fury of war; it enveloped him in flames and yet he did not understand; it burned him up, but he did not learn a lesson.

Isaiah 43:1 And now, thus says Yahweh, he who created you, Jacob, who formed you, Israel: Do not be afraid, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by your name, you are mine.

Isaiah 43:2 Should you pass through the waters, I shall be with you; or through rivers, they will not swallow you up. Should you walk through fire, you will not suffer, and the flame will not burn you.

Isaiah 43:3 For I am Yahweh, your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Saviour. I have given Egypt for your ransom, Cush and Seba in exchange for you.

Isaiah 43:4 Since I regard you as precious, since you are honoured and I love you, I therefore give people in exchange for you, and nations in return for your life.

Isaiah 43:5 Do not be afraid, for I am with you. I shall bring your offspring from the east, and gather you from the west.

Isaiah 43:6 To the north I shall say, ‘Give them up!’ and to the south, ‘Do not hold them back!’ Bring back my sons from far away, and my daughters from the remotest part of the earth,

Isaiah 43:7 everyone who bears my name, whom I have created for my glory, whom I have formed, whom I have made.

Isaiah 43:8 Bring forward the people that is blind, yet has eyes, that is deaf and yet has ears.

Isaiah 43:9 Let all the nations assemble, let the peoples gather here! Which of them has proclaimed this and revealed things to us in the past? Let them bring their witnesses to justify themselves, let others hear and say, ‘It is true.’

Isaiah 43:10 You yourselves are my witnesses, declares Yahweh, and the servant whom I have chosen, so that you may know and believe me and understand that it is I. No god was formed before me, nor will be after me.

Isaiah 43:11 I, I am Yahweh, and there is no other Saviour but me.

Isaiah 43:12 I have revealed, have saved, and have proclaimed, not some foreigner among you. You are my witnesses, declares Yahweh, I am God, Isaiah 43:13 yes, from eternity I am. No one can deliver from my hand; when I act, who can thwart me?

Isaiah 43:14 Thus says Yahweh, your redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: For your sake I have sent to Babylon, I shall knock down all the prison bars, and the Chaldaeans' shouts of joy will change to lamentations.

Isaiah 43:15 I am Yahweh, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your king.

Isaiah 43:16 Thus says Yahweh, who made a way through the sea, a path in the raging waters,

Isaiah 43:17 who led out chariot and horse together with an army of picked troops: they lay down never to rise again, they were snuffed out, put out like a wick.

Isaiah 43:18 No need to remember past events, no need to think about what was done before.

Isaiah 43:19 Look, I am doing something new, now it emerges; can you not see it? Yes, I am making a road in the desert and rivers in wastelands.

Isaiah 43:20 The wild animals will honour me, the jackals and the ostriches, for bestowing water in the desert and rivers on the wastelands for my people, my chosen one, to drink.

Isaiah 43:21 The people I have shaped for myself will broadcast my praises.

Isaiah 43:22 But, Jacob, you have not invoked me; no, Israel, you have grown weary of me.

Isaiah 43:23 You have not brought me lambs as your burnt offerings and have not honoured me with your sacrifices. I have not subjected you to cereal offering, I have not wearied you by demanding incense.

Isaiah 43:24 You have not bought expensive reed for me or sated me with the fat of your sacrifices. Instead by your sins you have trected me like a slave, you have wearied me with your crimes,

Isaiah 43:25 I, I it is who blot out your acts of revolt for my own sake and shall not call your sins to mind.

Isaiah 43:26 Remind me, and we will judge this together; state your own case and justify yourself.

Isaiah 43:27 Your first ancestor sinned, your interpreters revolted against me.

Isaiah 43:28 That is why I deposed the chief men of my sanctuary, why I put Jacob under the curse of destruction and subjected Israel to insult.

Isaiah 44:1 And now listen, Jacob my servant, Israel whom I have chosen.

Isaiah 44:2 Thus says Yahweh who made you, who formed you in the womb; he will help you. Do not be afraid, Jacob my servant, Jeshurun whom I have chosen.

Isaiah 44:3 For I shall pour out water on the thirsty soil and streams on the dry ground. I shall pour out my spirit on your descendants, my blessing on your offspring,

Isaiah 44:4 and they will spring up among the grass, like willows on the banks of a stream.

Isaiah 44:5 One person will say, 'I belong to Yahweh,' another will call himself by Jacob's name. On his hand another will write 'Yahweh's' and be surnamed 'Israel'.

Isaiah 44:6 Thus says Yahweh, Israel's king, Yahweh Sabaoth, his redeemer: I am the first and I am the last; there is no God except me.

Isaiah 44:7 Who is like me? Let him call out, let him affirm it and convince me it is so; let him say what has been happening since I instituted an eternal people, and predict to them what will happen next!

Isaiah 44:8 Have no fear, do not be afraid: have I not told you and revealed it long ago? You are my witnesses. Is there any God except me? There is no Rock; I know of none.

Isaiah 44:9 The makers of idols are all nothingness; the works they delight in serve no purpose. And these are the witness against them: they see nothing, they know nothing; and so they will be put to shame.

Isaiah 44:10 Who ever fashioned a god or cast an image without hope of gain?

Isaiah 44:11 Watch how all its devotees will be put to shame, and the men who made it too, who are only human. Let them all assemble, let them stand forward and feel both fear and shame!

Isaiah 44:12 The blacksmith makes an axe over the charcoal, beats it into shape with a hammer, works on it with his strong arm. Then he feels hungry and his strength deserts him; having drunk no water, he is exhausted.

Isaiah 44:13 The wood carver takes his measurements, outlines the image with chalk, executes it with the chisel, following the outline with a compass. He makes it look like a human being, with human standards of beauty, so that it can reside in a house.

Isaiah 44:14 He has cut down cedars, has selected an oak and a terebinth which he has grown for himself among the trees in the forest and has planted a pine tree which the rain has nourished.

Isaiah 44:15 Once it is suitable to burn, he takes some of it to warm himself; having kindled it, he bakes bread. But he also makes a god and worships it; he makes an idol from it and bows down before it.

Isaiah 44:16 Half of it he burns on the fire, over this half he roasts meat, eats it and is replete; at the same time he warms himself and says, ‘Ah, how warm I am, watching the flames!’

Isaiah 44:17 With the remainder he makes a god, his idol, bows down before it, worships it and prays to it. ‘Save me,’ he says, ‘for you are my god.’

Isaiah 44:18 They know nothing, they understand nothing, since their eyes are incapable of seeing and their hearts of reflecting.

Isaiah 44:19 Not one of them looks into his heart, not one of them has the knowledge and wit to think, ‘I burned half of it on the fire and cooked food over the embers. Am I right to make something disgusting out of what is left? Am I right to bow down before a block of wood?’

Isaiah 44:20 He hankers after ashes, his deluded heart has led him astray; he will not save himself, he will not think, ‘What I have in my hand is nothing but a lie!’

Isaiah 44:21 Remember these things, Jacob, and Israel, since you are my servant. I formed you, you are my servant; Israel, I shall not forget you.

Isaiah 44:22 I have dispelled your acts of revolt like a cloud and your sins like a mist. Come back to me, for I have redeemed you.

Isaiah 44:23 Heavens, shout for joy, for Yahweh has acted! Underworld, shout aloud! Shout for joy, you mountains, forests and all your trees! For Yahweh has redeemed Jacob and displayed his glory in Israel.

Isaiah 44:24 Thus says Yahweh, your redeemer, he who formed you in the womb: I, Yahweh, have made all things, I alone spread out the heavens. When I hammered the earth into shape, who was with me?

Isaiah 44:25 I, who foil the omens of soothsayers and make fools of diviners, who confound sages turning their knowledge into folly,

Isaiah 44:26 who confirm the word of my servant and make the plans of my envoys succeed; who say to Jerusalem, ‘You will be inhabited,’ and to the towns of Judah, ‘You will be rebuilt and I shall restore the ruins of Jerusalem’;

Isaiah 44:27 who say to the ocean, ‘Dry up! I shall make your rivers run dry’;

Isaiah 44:28 who say to Cyrus, ‘My shepherd.’ He will perform my entire will by saying to Jerusalem, ‘You will be rebuilt,’ and to the Temple, ‘You will be refounded.’

Isaiah 45:1 Thus says Yahweh to his anointed one, to Cyrus whom, he says, I have grasped by his right hand, to make the nations bow before him and to disarm kings, to open gateways before him so that their gates be closed no more:

Isaiah 45:2 I myself shall go before you, I shall level the heights, I shall shatter the bronze gateways, I shall smash the iron bars.

Isaiah 45:3 I shall give you secret treasures and hidden hoards of wealth, so that you will know that I am Yahweh, who call you by your name, the God of Israel.

Isaiah 45:4 It is for the sake of my servant Jacob and of Israel my chosen one, that I have called you by your name, have given you a title though you do not know me.

Isaiah 45:5 I am Yahweh, and there is no other, there is no other God except me. Though you do not know me, I have armed you

Isaiah 45:6 so that it may be known from east to west that there is no one except me. I am Yahweh, and there is no other,

Isaiah 45:7 I form the light and I create the darkness, I make well-being, and I create disaster, I, Yahweh, do all these things.

Isaiah 45:8 Rain down, you heavens, from above, and let the clouds pour down saving justice, let the earth open up and blossom with salvation, and let justice sprout with it; I, Yahweh, have created it!

Isaiah 45:9 Woe to anyone who argues with his Maker, one earthenware pot among many! Does the clay say to its potter, 'What are you doing? Your work has no hands!'

Isaiah 45:10 Woe to anyone who asks a father, 'Why are you begetting?' and a woman, 'Why are you giving birth?'

Isaiah 45:11 Thus says Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel and his Maker: I am asked for signs regarding my sons, I am given orders about the work I do.

Isaiah 45:12 It was I who made the earth and I created human beings on it, mine were the hands that spread out the heavens and I have given the orders to all their array.

Isaiah 45:13 I myself have raised him in saving justice and I shall make all paths level for him. He will rebuild my city and bring my exiles home without ransom or indemnity, says Yahweh Sabaoth.

Isaiah 45:14 Thus says Yahweh: The produce of Egypt, the commerce of Cush and the men of Seba, tall of stature, will come over to you and belong to you. They will follow you, walking in chains, they will bow before you, they will pray to you, 'With you alone is God, and there is no other! The gods do not exist.'

Isaiah 45:15 Truly, you are a God who conceals himself, God of Israel, Saviour!

Isaiah 45:16 They are shamed and humbled, every one of them, humiliated they go, the makers of idols.

Isaiah 45:17 Israel will be saved by Yahweh, saved everlastingly. You will never be ashamed or humiliated for ever and ever.

Isaiah 45:18 For thus says Yahweh, the Creator of the heavens—he is God, who shaped the earth and made it, who set it firm; he did not create it to be chaos, he formed it to be lived in: I am Yahweh, and there is no other.

Isaiah 45:19 I have not spoken in secret, in some dark corner of the underworld. I did not say, ‘Offspring of Jacob, search for me in chaos!’ I am Yahweh: I proclaim saving justice, I say what is true.

Isaiah 45:20 Assemble, come, all of you gather round, survivors of the nations. They have no knowledge, those who parade their wooden idols and pray to a god that cannot save.

Isaiah 45:21 Speak up, present your case, let them put their heads together! Who foretold this in the past, who revealed it long ago? Was it not I, Yahweh? There is no other god except me, no saving God, no Saviour except me!

Isaiah 45:22 Turn to me and you will be saved, all you ends of the earth, for I am God, and there is no other.

Isaiah 45:23 By my own self I swear it; what comes from my mouth is saving justice, it is an irrevocable word: All shall bend the knee to me, by me every tongue shall swear,

Isaiah 45:24 saying, ‘In Yahweh alone are saving justice and strength,’ until all those who used to rage at him come to him in shame.

Isaiah 45:25 In Yahweh the whole race of Israel finds justice and glory.

Isaiah 46:1 Bel is crouching, Nebo cowering, their idols are being put on animals, on beasts of burden, the loads you have been carrying are a burden to a weary beast.

Isaiah 46:2 They are cowering and crouching together, no one can save this burden, they themselves have gone into captivity.

Isaiah 46:3 Listen to me, House of Jacob, all who remain of the House of Israel, whom I have carried since the womb, whom I have supported since you were conceived.

Isaiah 46:4 Until your old age I shall be the same, until your hair is grey I shall carry you. As I have done, so I shall support you, I myself shall carry and shall save you.

Isaiah 46:5 With whom can you compare me, equate me, to whom can you liken me, making equals of us?

Isaiah 46:6 They lavish gold from their purses and weigh out silver on the scales. They engage a goldsmith to make a god, then bow low and actually adore!

Isaiah 46:7 They lift it on their shoulders and carry it, and put it down where it is meant to stand, so that it never moves from the spot. You may cry out to it in distress, it never replies, it never saves anyone in trouble.

Isaiah 46:8 Remember this and stand firm; rebels, look into your hearts.

Isaiah 46:9 Remember the things that happened long ago, for I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is none like me.

Isaiah 46:10 From the beginning I revealed the future, in advance, what has not yet occurred. I say: My purpose will come about, I shall do whatever I please;

Isaiah 46:11 I call a bird of prey from the east, my man predestined, from a distant land. What I have said, I shall do, what I have planned, I shall perform.

Isaiah 46:12 Listen to me, you hard-hearted people far removed from saving justice:

Isaiah 46:13 I am bringing my justice nearer, it is not far away, my salvation will not delay. I shall place my salvation in Zion and my glory in Israel.

Isaiah 47:1 Step down! Sit in the dust, virgin daughter of Babylon. Sit on the ground, no throne, daughter of the Chaldaeans, for never again will you be called tender and delicate.

Isaiah 47:2 Take the grinding mill, crush up the meal. Remove your veil, tie up your skirt, bare your legs, cross the rivers.

Isaiah 47:3 Let your nakedness be displayed and your shame exposed. I am going to take vengeance and no one will stand in my way.

Isaiah 47:4 Our redeemer, Yahweh Sabaoth is his name, the Holy One of Israel, says:

Isaiah 47:5 Sit in silence, bury yourself in darkness, daughter of the Chaldaeans, for never again will you be called the mistress of kingdoms.

Isaiah 47:6 Being angry with my people, I rejected my heritage, surrendering them into your clutches. You showed them no mercy, you made your yoke very heavy on the aged.

Isaiah 47:7 You thought, 'I shall be a queen for ever.' You did not reflect on these matters or think about the future.

Isaiah 47:8 Now listen to this, voluptuous woman, lolling at ease and thinking to yourself, 'I am the only one who matters. I shall never be widowed, never know bereavement.'

Isaiah 47:9 Yet both these things will befall you, suddenly, in one day. Bereavement and widowhood will suddenly befall you in spite of all your witchcraft and the potency of your spells.

Isaiah 47:10 Confident in your wickedness, you thought, 'No one can see me.' Your wishes and your knowledge were what deluded you, as you thought to yourself, 'I am the only one who matters.'

Isaiah 47:11 Hence, disaster will befall you which you will not know how to charm away, calamity overtake you which you will not be able to avert, ruination will suddenly befall you, such as you have never known.

Isaiah 47:12 Keep to your spells then, and all your sorceries, at which you have worked so hard since you were young. Perhaps you will succeed, perhaps you will strike terror!

Isaiah 47:13 You have had many tiring consultations: let the astrologers come forward now and save you, the star-gazers who announce month by month what will happen to you next.

Isaiah 47:14 Look, they are like wisps of straw, the fire will burn them up. They will not save their lives from the power of the flame. No embers these, for keeping warm, no fire to sit beside!

Isaiah 47:15 Such will your wizards prove to be for you, for whom you have worked so hard since you were young; each wandering his own way, none of them can save you.

Isaiah 48:1 Listen to this, House of Jacob, you who are called by the name of Israel and issued from the waters of Judah, who swear by the name of Yahweh and invoke the God of Israel, though not in good faith or uprightness;

Isaiah 48:2 for they call themselves after the holy city and rely on the God of Israel, Yahweh Sabaoth is his name.

Isaiah 48:3 Things now past I revealed long ago, they issued from my mouth, I proclaimed them; suddenly I acted and they happened.

Isaiah 48:4 For I knew you to be obstinate, your neck an iron sinew and your forehead bronze.

Isaiah 48:5 As I told you about it long before, before it happened I revealed it to you, so that you could not say, ‘My statue did it, my idol, my metal image, ordained this.’

Isaiah 48:6 You have heard and seen all this, why won’t you admit it? Now I am going to reveal new things to you, secrets that you do not know;

Isaiah 48:7 they have just been created, not long ago, and until today you have heard nothing about them, so that you cannot say, ‘Yes, I knew about this.’

Isaiah 48:8 No, you have not heard, you have not known, for a long time your ear has not been attentive, for I knew how treacherous you were; you have been called a rebel since the womb.

Isaiah 48:9 For the sake of my name I shall defer my anger, for the sake of my honour I shall be patient with you, rather than destroy you.

Isaiah 48:10 Look, I have purchased you, but not for silver, I have chosen you out of the cauldron of affliction.

Isaiah 48:11 For my sake and my sake only shall I act, for why should my name be profaned? I will not yield my glory to another.

Isaiah 48:12 Listen to me, Jacob, Israel whom I have called: I, and none else, am the first, I am also the last.

Isaiah 48:13 My hand laid the foundations of earth and my right hand spread out the heavens. I summon them and they all present themselves together.

Isaiah 48:14 Assemble, all of you, and listen; which of them has revealed this? Yahweh loves him; he will do his pleasure on Babylon and the race of the Chaldaeans;

Isaiah 48:15 I, I have spoken, yes, I have summoned him, I have brought him, and he will succeed.

Isaiah 48:16 Come near and listen to this: from the first, I never spoke obscurely; when it happened, I was there, and now Lord Yahweh has sent me with his spirit.

Isaiah 48:17 Thus says Yahweh, your redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: I am Yahweh your God and teach you for your own good, I lead you in the way you ought to go.

Isaiah 48:18 If only you had listened to my commandments! Your prosperity would have been like a river and your saving justice like the waves of the sea.

Isaiah 48:19 Your descendants would have been numbered like the sand, your offspring as many as its grains. Their name would never be cancelled or blotted out from my presence.

Isaiah 48:20 Come out from Babylon! Flee from the Chaldaeans! Declare this with cries of joy, proclaim it, carry it to the remotest parts of earth, say, 'Yahweh has redeemed his servant Jacob.'

Isaiah 48:21 Those he led through the arid country never went thirsty; he made water flow for them from the rock, he split the rock and out streamed the water.

Isaiah 48:22 There is no peace, says Yahweh, for the wicked.

Isaiah 49:1 Coasts and islands, listen to me, pay attention, distant peoples. Yahweh called me when I was in the womb, before my birth he had pronounced my name.

Isaiah 49:2 He made my mouth like a sharp sword, he hid me in the shadow of his hand. He made me into a sharpened arrow and concealed me in his quiver.

Isaiah 49:3 He said to me, 'Israel, you are my servant, through whom I shall manifest my glory.'

Isaiah 49:4 But I said, 'My toil has been futile, I have exhausted myself for nothing, to no purpose.' Yet all the while my cause was with Yahweh and my reward with my God.

Isaiah 49:5 And now Yahweh has spoken, who formed me in the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him and to re-unite Israel to him;-I shall be honoured in Yahweh's eyes, and my God has been my strength.-

Isaiah 49:6 He said, 'It is not enough for you to be my servant, to restore the tribes of Jacob and bring back the survivors of Israel; I shall make you a light to the nations so that my salvation may reach the remotest parts of earth.'

Isaiah 49:7 Thus says Yahweh, the redeemer, the Holy One of Israel, to the one who is despised, detested by the nation, to the slave of despots: Kings will stand up when they see, princes will see and bow low, because of Yahweh who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel who has chosen you.

Isaiah 49:8 Thus says Yahweh: At the time of my favour I have answered you, on the day of salvation I have helped you. I have formed you and have appointed you to be the covenant for a people, to restore the land, to return ravaged properties,

Isaiah 49:9 to say to prisoners, 'Come out,' to those who are in darkness, 'Show yourselves.' Along the roadway they will graze, and any bare height will be their pasture.

Isaiah 49:10 They will never hunger or thirst, scorching wind and sun will never plague them; for he who pities them will lead them, will guide them to springs of water.

Isaiah 49:11 I shall turn all my mountains into a road and my highways will be raised aloft.

Isaiah 49:12 Look! Here they come from far away, look, these from the north and the west, those from the land of Sinim.

Isaiah 49:13 Shout for joy, you heavens; earth, exult! Mountains, break into joyful cries! For Yahweh has consoled his people, is taking pity on his afflicted ones.

Isaiah 49:14 Zion was saying, 'Yahweh has abandoned me, the Lord has forgotten me.'

Isaiah 49:15 Can a woman forget her baby at the breast, feel no pity for the child she has borne? Even if these were to forget, I shall not forget you.

Isaiah 49:16 Look, I have engraved you on the palms of my hands, your ramparts are ever before me.

Isaiah 49:17 Your rebuilders are hurrying, your destroyers and despoilers will soon go away.

Isaiah 49:18 Raise your eyes and look around you: all are assembling, coming to you. By my life, declares Yahweh, you will put them all on like jewels, like a bride, you will fasten them on.

Isaiah 49:19 For your desolate places and your ruins and your devastated country from now on will be too cramped for your inhabitants, and your devourers will be far away.

Isaiah 49:20 Once more they will say in your hearing, the children of whom you were bereft, 'The place is too cramped for me, make room for me to live.’

Isaiah 49:21 Then you will think to yourself, ‘Who has borne me these? I was bereft and barren, exiled, turned out of my home; who has reared these? I was left all alone, so where have these come from?’

Isaiah 49:22 Thus says Lord Yahweh: Look, I am beckoning to the nations and hoisting a signal to the peoples: they will bring your sons in their arms and your daughters will be carried on their shoulders.

Isaiah 49:23 Kings will be your foster-fathers and their princesses, your foster-mothers. They will fall prostrate before you, faces to the ground, and lick the dust at your feet. And you will know that I am Yahweh; those who hope in me will not be disappointed.

Isaiah 49:24 Can the body be snatched from the warrior, can the tyrant’s captive be set free?

Isaiah 49:25 But thus says Yahweh: The warrior’s captive will indeed be snatched away and the tyrant’s booty will indeed be set free; I myself shall fight those who fight you and I myself shall save your children.

Isaiah 49:26 I shall make your oppressors eat their own flesh, they will be as drunk on their own blood as on new wine. And all humanity will know that I am Yahweh, your Saviour, your redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

Isaiah 50:1 Thus says Yahweh: Where is your mother’s writ of divorce by which I repudiated her? Or to which of my creditors have I sold you? Look, you have been sold for your own misdeeds, your mother was repudiated for your acts of rebellion.

Isaiah 50:2 Why was there no one there when I came? Why did no one answer when I called? Is my hand too short to redeem? Have I not strength to save? Look, with a threat I can dry the sea, and turn rivers to desert; the fish in them go rotten for want of water and die of thirst.

Isaiah 50:3 I dress the heavens in black, I cover them in sackcloth.

Isaiah 50:4 Lord Yahweh has given me a disciple’s tongue, for me to know how to give a word of comfort to the weary. Morning by morning he makes my ear alert to listen like a disciple.

Isaiah 50:5 Lord Yahweh has opened my ear and I have not resisted, I have not turned away.

Isaiah 50:6 I have offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who plucked my beard; I have not turned my face away from insult and spitting.

Isaiah 50:7 Lord Yahweh comes to my help, this is why insult has not touched me, this is why I have set my face like flint and know that I shall not be put to shame.

Isaiah 50:8 He who grants me saving justice is near! Who will bring a case against me? Let us appear in court together! Who has a case against me? Let him approach me!

Isaiah 50:9 Look, Lord Yahweh is coming to my help! Who dares condemn me? Look at them, all falling apart like moth-eaten clothes!

Isaiah 50:10 Which of you fears Yahweh and listens to his servant's voice? Which of you walks in darkness and sees no light? Let him trust in the name of Yahweh and lean on his God!

Isaiah 50:11 Look, all you who light a fire and arm yourselves with firebrands, walk by the light of your fire and the firebrands you have kindled! This is what you will get from me: you will lie down in torment!

Isaiah 51:1 Listen to me, you who pursue saving justice, you who seek Yahweh. Consider the rock from which you were hewn, the quarry from which you were dug.

Isaiah 51:2 Consider Abraham your father and Sarah who gave you birth. When I called him he was the only one but I blessed him and made him numerous.

Isaiah 51:3 Yes, Yahweh has pity on Zion, has pity on all her ruins; he will turn her desert into an Eden and her wastelands into the garden of Yahweh. Joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving and the sound of music.

Isaiah 51:4 Pay attention to me, my people, listen to me, my nation, for a law will come from me, and I shall make my saving justice the light of peoples.

Isaiah 51:5 My justice is suddenly approaching, my salvation appears, my arm is about to judge the peoples. The coasts and islands will put their hope in me and put their trust in my arm.

Isaiah 51:6 Raise your eyes to the heavens, look down at the earth; for the heavens will vanish like smoke, the earth wear out like clothing and its inhabitants die like vermin, but my salvation will last for ever and my saving justice remain inviolable.

Isaiah 51:7 Listen to me, you who know what saving justice means, a people who take my laws to heart: do not fear people's taunts, do not be alarmed by their insults,

Isaiah 51:8 for the moth will eat them like clothing, the grub will devour them like wool, but my saving justice will last for ever and my salvation for all generations.

Isaiah 51:9 Awake, awake! Clothe yourself in strength, arm of Yahweh. Awake, as in the olden days, generations long ago! Was it not you who split Rahab in half, who pierced the Dragon through?

Isaiah 51:10 Was it not you who dried up the sea, the waters of the great Abyss; who made the sea-bed into a road for the redeemed to go across?

Isaiah 51:11 This is why those whom Yahweh has ransomed will return, they will enter Zion shouting for joy, their heads crowned with a joy unending; joy and gladness will escort them and sorrow and sighing will take flight.

Isaiah 51:12 I, I am your consoler. Why then should you be afraid of mortal human beings, of a child of man, whose fate is that of the grass?

Isaiah 51:13 You forget about Yahweh your Creator who spread out the heavens and laid the earth’s foundations; you have never stopped trembling all day long before the fury of the oppressor when he was bent on destruction. Where is the oppressor’s fury now?

Isaiah 51:14 The despairing captive is soon to be set free; he will not die in the dungeon, nor will his food run out.

Isaiah 51:15 I am Yahweh your God who stirs up the sea, making its waves roar—Yahweh Sabaoth is my name.

Isaiah 51:16 I put my words into your mouth, I hid you in the shadow of my hand, to spread out the heavens and lay the earth’s foundations and say to Zion, ‘You are my people.’

Isaiah 51:17 Awake, awake! To your feet, Jerusalem! You who from Yahweh’s hand have drunk the cup of his wrath. The chalice, the stupefying cup, you have drained to the dregs.

Isaiah 51:18 There is no one to guide her of all the children she has borne, no one to grasp her hand of all the children she has reared.

Isaiah 51:19 Double disaster has befallen you—who is there to sympathise? Pillage and ruin, famine and sword—who is there to console you?

Isaiah 51:20 Your children are lying helpless at the end of every street like an antelope trapped in a net; they are filled to the brim with Yahweh’s wrath, with the rebuke of your God.

Isaiah 51:21 So listen to this, afflicted one, drunk, though not with wine.

Isaiah 51:22 Thus says your Lord Yahweh, your God, defender of your people: Look, I am taking the stupefying cup from your hand, the chalice, the cup of my wrath, you will not have to drink again.

Isaiah 51:23 I shall hand it to your tormentors who used to say to you, ‘On the ground! So that we can walk over you!’ And you would flatten your back like the ground, like a street for them to walk on.

Isaiah 52:1 Awake, awake! Clothe yourself in strength, Zion. Put on your finest clothes, Jerusalem, Holy City; for the uncircumcised and the unclean will enter you no more.

Isaiah 52:2 Shake off your dust; get up, captive Jerusalem! The chains have fallen from your neck, captive daughter of Jerusalem!

Isaiah 52:3 For Yahweh says this, ‘You were sold for nothing; you will be redeemed without money.’

Isaiah 52:4 For the Lord Yahweh says this, ‘Long ago my people went to Egypt and settled there as aliens; finally Assyria oppressed them for no reason.

Isaiah 52:5 So now what is to be done,' declares Yahweh, 'since my people have been carried off for nothing, their masters howl in triumph,' declares Yahweh, 'and my name is held in contempt all day, every day?

Isaiah 52:6 Because of this my people will know my name, because of this they will know when the day comes, that it is I saying, Here I am!'

Isaiah 52:7 How beautiful on the mountains, are the feet of the messenger announcing peace, of the messenger of good news, who proclaims salvation and says to Zion, 'Your God is king!'

Isaiah 52:8 The voices of your watchmen! Now they raise their voices, shouting for joy together, for with their own eyes they have seen Yahweh returning to Zion.

Isaiah 52:9 Break into shouts together, shouts of joy, you ruins of Jerusalem; for Yahweh has consoled his people, he has redeemed Jerusalem.

Isaiah 52:10 Yahweh has bared his holy arm for all the nations to see, and all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Isaiah 52:11 Go away, go away, leave that place, do not touch anything unclean. Get out of her, purify yourselves, you who carry Yahweh's vessels!

Isaiah 52:12 For you are not to hurry away, you are not to leave like fugitives. No, Yahweh marches at your head and the God of Israel is your rearguard.

Isaiah 52:13 Look, my servant will prosper, will grow great, will rise to great heights.

Isaiah 52:14 As many people were aghast at him—he was so inhumanly disfigured that he no longer looked like a man-

Isaiah 52:15 so many nations will be astonished and kings will stay tight-lipped before him, seeing what had never been told them, learning what they had not heard before.

Isaiah 53:1 Who has given credence to what we have heard? And who has seen in it a revelation of Yahweh's arm?

Isaiah 53:2 Like a sapling he grew up before him, like a root in arid ground. He had no form or charm to attract us, no beauty to win our hearts;

Isaiah 53:3 he was despised, the lowest of men, a man of sorrows, familiar with suffering, one from whom, as it were, we averted our gaze, despised, for whom we had no regard.

Isaiah 53:4 Yet ours were the sufferings he was bearing, ours the sorrows he was carrying, while we thought of him as someone being punished and struck with affliction by God;

Isaiah 53:5 whereas he was being wounded for our rebellions, crushed because of our guilt; the punishment reconciling us fell on him, and we have been healed by his bruises.

Isaiah 53:6 We had all gone astray like sheep, each taking his own way, and Yahweh brought the acts of rebellion of all of us to bear on him.

Isaiah 53:7 Ill-treated and afflicted, he never opened his mouth, like a lamb led to the slaughter-house, like a sheep dumb before its shearers he never opened his mouth.

Isaiah 53:8 Forcibly, after sentence, he was taken. Which of his contemporaries was concerned at his having been cut off from the land of the living, at his having been struck dead for his people's rebellion?

Isaiah 53:9 He was given a grave with the wicked, and his tomb is with the rich, although he had done no violence, had spoken no deceit.

Isaiah 53:10 It was Yahweh's good pleasure to crush him with pain; if he gives his life as a sin offering, he will see his offspring and prolong his life, and through him Yahweh's good pleasure will be done.

Isaiah 53:11 After the ordeal he has endured, he will see the light and be content. By his knowledge, the upright one, my servant will justify many by taking their guilt on himself.

Isaiah 53:12 Hence I shall give him a portion with the many, and he will share the booty with the mighty, for having exposed himself to death and for being counted as one of the rebellious, whereas he was bearing the sin of many and interceding for the rebellious.

Isaiah 54:1 Shout for joy, barren one who has borne no children! Break into cries and shouts of joy, you who were never in labour! For the children of the forsaken one are more in number than the children of the wedded wife, says Yahweh.

Isaiah 54:2 Widen the space of your tent, extend the curtains of your home, do not hold back! Lengthen your ropes, make your tent-pegs firm,

Isaiah 54:3 for you will burst out to right and to left, your race will dispossess the nations and repopulate deserted towns.

Isaiah 54:4 Do not fear, you will not be put to shame again, do not worry, you will not be disgraced again; for you will forget the shame of your youth and no longer remember the dishonour of your widowhood.

Isaiah 54:5 For your Creator is your husband, Yahweh Sabaoth is his name, the Holy One of Israel is your redeemer, he is called God of the whole world.

Isaiah 54:6 Yes, Yahweh has called you back like a forsaken, grief-stricken wife, like the repudiated wife of his youth, says your God.

Isaiah 54:7 I did forsake you for a brief moment, but in great compassion I shall take you back.

Isaiah 54:8 In a flood of anger, for a moment I hid my face from you. But in everlasting love I have taken pity on you, says Yahweh, your redeemer.

Isaiah 54:9 For me it will be as in the days of Noah when I swore that Noah's waters should never flood the world again. So now I swear never to be angry with you and never to rebuke you again.

Isaiah 54:10 For the mountains may go away and the hills may totter, but my faithful love will never leave you, my covenant of peace will never totter, says Yahweh who takes pity on you.

Isaiah 54:11 Unhappy creature, storm-tossed, unpitied, look, I shall lay your stones on agates and your foundations on sapphires.

Isaiah 54:12 I shall make your battlements rubies, your gateways firestone and your entire wall precious stones.

Isaiah 54:13 All your children will be taught by Yahweh and great will be your children's prosperity.

Isaiah 54:14 In saving justice you will be made firm, free from oppression: you will have nothing to fear; free from terror: it will not approach you.

Isaiah 54:15 Should anyone attack you, that will not be my doing, and whoever does attack you, for your sake will fall.

Isaiah 54:16 I created the smith who blows on the charcoal-fire to produce a weapon for his use; I also created the destroyer to ruin it.

Isaiah 54:17 No weapon forged against you will succeed. Any voice raised against you in court you will refute. Such is the lot of the servants of Yahweh, the saving justice I assure them, declares Yahweh.

Isaiah 55:1 Oh, come to the water all you who are thirsty; though you have no money, come! Buy and eat; come, buy wine and milk without money, free!

Isaiah 55:2 Why spend money on what cannot nourish and your wages on what fails to satisfy? Listen carefully to me, and you will have good things to eat and rich food to enjoy.

Isaiah 55:3 Pay attention, come to me; listen, and you will live. I shall make an everlasting covenant with you in fulfilment of the favours promised to David.

Isaiah 55:4 Look, I have made him a witness to peoples, a leader and lawgiver to peoples.

Isaiah 55:5 Look, you will summon a nation unknown to you, a nation unknown to you will hurry to you for the sake of Yahweh your God, because the Holy One of Israel has glorified you.

Isaiah 55:6 Seek out Yahweh while he is still to be found, call to him while he is still near.

Isaiah 55:7 Let the wicked abandon his way and the evil one his thoughts. Let him turn back to Yahweh who will take pity on him, to our God, for he is rich in forgiveness;

Isaiah 55:8 for my thoughts are not your thoughts and your ways are not my ways, declares Yahweh.

Isaiah 55:9 For the heavens are as high above earth as my ways are above your ways, my thoughts above your thoughts.

Isaiah 55:10 For, as the rain and the snow come down from the sky and do not return before having watered the earth, fertilising it and making it germinate to provide seed for the sower and food to eat,

Isaiah 55:11 so it is with the word that goes from my mouth: it will not return to me unfulfilled or before having carried out my good pleasure and having achieved what it was sent to do.

Isaiah 55:12 Yes, you will go out with joy and be led away in safety. Mountains and hills will break into joyful cries before you and all the trees of the countryside clap their hands.

Isaiah 55:13 Cypress will grow instead of thorns, myrtle instead of nettles. And this will be fame for Yahweh, an eternal monument never to be effaced.

Isaiah 56:1 Thus says Yahweh: Make fair judgement your concern, act with justice, for soon my salvation will come and my saving justice be manifest.

Isaiah 56:2 Blessed is anyone who does this, anyone who clings to it, observing the Sabbath, not profaning it, and abstaining from every evil deed.

Isaiah 56:3 No foreigner adhering to Yahweh should say, 'Yahweh will utterly exclude me from his people.' No eunuch should say, 'Look, I am a dried-up tree.'

Isaiah 56:4 For Yahweh says this: To the eunuchs who observe my Sabbaths and choose to do my good pleasure and cling to my covenant,

Isaiah 56:5 I shall give them in my house and within my walls a monument and a name better than sons and daughters; I shall give them an everlasting name that will never be effaced.

Isaiah 56:6 As for foreigners who adhere to Yahweh to serve him, to love Yahweh's name and become his servants, all who observe the Sabbath, not profaning it, and cling to my covenant:

Isaiah 56:7 these I shall lead to my holy mountain and make them joyful in my house of prayer. Their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be accepted on my altar, for my house will be called a house of prayer for all peoples.

Isaiah 56:8 Lord Yahweh who gathers the exiles of Israel declares: There are others I shall gather besides those already gathered.

Isaiah 56:9 Come and gorge, all you wild beasts, all you beasts of the forest!

Isaiah 56:10 Its watchmen are all blind, they know nothing. Dumb watchdogs all, unable to bark, they dream, lie down, and love to sleep.

Isaiah 56:11 Greedy dogs, never satisfied, such are the shepherds, who understand nothing; they all go their own way, each to the last man after his own interest.

Isaiah 56:12 'Come, let me fetch wine; we will get drunk on strong drink, tomorrow will be just as wonderful as today and even more so!'

Isaiah 57:1 The upright person perishes and no one cares. The faithful is taken off and no one takes it to heart. Yes, because of the evil times the upright is taken off;

Isaiah 57:2 he will enter peace, and those who follow the right way will find rest on their beds.

Isaiah 57:3 But you, you children of a witch, come here, adulterous race prostituting yourselves!

Isaiah 57:4 At whom are you jeering, at whom are you making faces and sticking out your tongue? Are you not the spawn of rebellion, a lying race?

Isaiah 57:5 Lusting among the terebinths, and under every spreading tree, sacrificing children in the ravines, below the clefts in the rocks.

Isaiah 57:6 The smooth stones of the ravines will be your portion, yes, these will be your lot. To these you have poured libations, have brought your cereal offering. Can all this appease me?

Isaiah 57:7 On a mountain high and lofty you have put your bed. Thither, too, you have climbed to offer sacrifice.

Isaiah 57:8 Behind door and doorpost you have set your reminder. Yes, far from me, you exposed yourself, climbed on to your bed, and made the most of it. You struck a profitable bargain with those whose bed you love, whoring with them often, with your eyes on the sacred symbol.

Isaiah 57:9 You went to Molech with oil, you were prodigal with your perfumes; you sent your envoys far afield, down to Sheol itself.

Isaiah 57:10 Though tired by so much travelling, you never said, 'It is no use.' Finding your strength revive, you never gave up.

Isaiah 57:11 Who was it you dreaded, and feared, that you should betray me, no longer remember me and not spare a thought for me? Was I not silent for a long time? So you cannot have been afraid of me.

Isaiah 57:12 Now I shall expose this uprightness of yours, and little good it did you.

Isaiah 57:13 When you cry for help, let those thronging round you save you! The wind will carry them all away, one puff will take them off. But whoever trusts in me will inherit the country, he will own my holy mountain.

Isaiah 57:14 Then it will be said: Level up, level up, clear the way, remove the obstacle from my people's way,

Isaiah 57:15 for thus says the High and Exalted One who lives eternally and whose name is holy, 'I live in the holy heights but I am with the contrite and humble, to revive the spirit of the humble, to revive the heart of the contrite.

Isaiah 57:16 'For I do not want to be forever accusing nor always to be angry, or the spirit would fail under my onslaught, the souls that I myself have made.

Isaiah 57:17 'Angered by his wicked cupidity, I hid and struck him in anger, but he rebelliously went the way of his choice.

Isaiah 57:18 'I saw how he behaved, but I shall heal him, I shall lead him, fill him with consolation, him and those who mourn for him,

Isaiah 57:19 bringing praise to their lips. Peace, peace to far and near, Yahweh says, and I shall heal him.'

Isaiah 57:20 The wicked, however, are like the restless sea that cannot be still, whose waters throw up mud and dirt.

Isaiah 57:21 'No peace', says Yahweh, 'for the wicked.'

Isaiah 58:1 Shout for all you are worth, do not hold back, raise your voice like a trumpet. To my people proclaim their rebellious acts, to the House of Jacob, their sins.

Isaiah 58:2 They seek for me day after day, they long to know my ways, like a nation that has acted uprightly and not forsaken the law of its God. They ask me for laws that are upright, they long to be near God:

Isaiah 58:3 'Why have we fasted, if you do not see, why mortify ourselves if you never notice?' Look, you seek your own pleasure on your fastdays and you exploit all your workmen;

Isaiah 58:4 look, the only purpose of your fasting is to quarrel and squabble and strike viciously with your fist. Fasting like yours today will never make your voice heard on high.

Isaiah 58:5 Is that the sort of fast that pleases me, a day when a person inflicts pain on himself? Hanging your head like a reed, spreading out sackcloth and ashes? Is that what you call fasting, a day acceptable to Yahweh?

Isaiah 58:6 Is not this the sort of fast that pleases me: to break unjust fetters, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break all yokes?

Isaiah 58:7 Is it not sharing your food with the hungry, and sheltering the homeless poor; if you see someone lacking clothes, to clothe him, and not to turn away from your own kin?

Isaiah 58:8 Then your light will blaze out like the dawn and your wound be quickly healed over. Saving justice will go ahead of you and Yahweh’s glory come behind you.

Isaiah 58:9 Then you will cry for help and Yahweh will answer; you will call and he will say, ‘I am here.’ If you do away with the yoke, the clenched fist and malicious words,

Isaiah 58:10 if you deprive yourself for the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, your light will rise in the darkness, and your darkest hour will be like noon.

Isaiah 58:11 Yahweh will always guide you, will satisfy your needs in the scorched land; he will give strength to your bones and you will be like a watered garden, like a flowing spring whose waters never run dry.

Isaiah 58:12 Your ancient ruins will be rebuilt; you will build on age—old foundations. You will be called ‘Breach-mender’, ‘Restorer of streets to be lived in’.

Isaiah 58:13 If you refrain from breaking the Sabbath, from taking your own pleasure on my holy day, if you call the Sabbath ‘Delightful’, and the day sacred to Yahweh ‘Honourable’, if you honour it by abstaining from travel, from seeking your own pleasure and from too much talk,

Isaiah 58:14 then you will find true happiness in Yahweh, and I shall lead you in triumph over the heights of the land. I shall feed you on the heritage of your father Jacob, for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken.

Isaiah 59:1 No, the arm of Yahweh is not too short to save, nor his ear too dull to hear,

Isaiah 59:2 but your guilty deeds have made a gulf between you and your God. Your sins have made him hide his face from you so as not to hear you,

Isaiah 59:3 since your hands are stained with blood and your fingers with guilt; your lips utter lies, your tongues murmur wickedness.

Isaiah 59:4 No one makes upright accusations or pleads sincerely. All rely on empty words, utter falsehood, conceive trouble and give birth to evil.

Isaiah 59:5 They are hatching adders’ eggs and weaving a spider’s web; eat one of their eggs and you die, crush one and a viper emerges.

Isaiah 59:6 Their webs are useless for clothing, their deeds are useless for wearing; their deeds are deeds of guilt, violence fills their hands.

Isaiah 59:7 Their feet run to do evil; they are quick to shed innocent blood. Their thoughts are thoughts of guilt, wherever they go there is havoc and ruin.

Isaiah 59:8 They do not know the way of peace, there is no fair judgement in their course, they have made their own crooked paths, and no one treading them knows any peace.

Isaiah 59:9 Thus fair judgement is remote from us nor can uprightness overtake us. We looked for light and all is darkness, for brightness and we walk in gloom.

Isaiah 59:10 Like the blind we feel our way along walls, we grope our way like people without eyes. We stumble as though noon were twilight, among the robust we are like the dead.

Isaiah 59:11 We growl, all of us, like bears, like doves we make no sound but moaning, waiting for the fair judgement that never comes, for salvation, but that is far away.

Isaiah 59:12 How often we have rebelled against you and our sins bear witness against us. Our rebellious acts are indeed with us, we are well aware of our guilt:

Isaiah 59:13 rebellion and denial of Yahweh, turning our back on our God, talking violence and revolt, murmuring lies in our heart.

Isaiah 59:14 Fair judgement is driven away and saving justice stands aloof, for good faith has stumbled in the street and sincerity cannot enter.

Isaiah 59:15 Good faith has vanished; anyone abstaining from evil is victimised. Yahweh saw this and was displeased that there was no fair judgement.

Isaiah 59:16 He saw there was no one and wondered there was no one to intervene. So he made his own arm his mainstay, his own saving justice his support.

Isaiah 59:17 He put on saving justice like a breastplate, on his head the helmet of salvation. He put on the clothes of vengeance like a tunic and wrapped himself in jealousy like a cloak.

Isaiah 59:18 To each he repays his due, retribution to his enemies, reprisals on his foes, to the coasts and islands he will repay their due.

Isaiah 59:19 From the west, Yahweh's name will be feared, and from the east, his glory, for he will come like a pent-up stream impelled by the breath of Yahweh.

Isaiah 59:20 Then for Zion will come a redeemer, for those who stop rebelling in Jacob, declares Yahweh.

Isaiah 59:21 'For my part, this is my covenant with them, says Yahweh. My spirit with which I endowed you, and my words that I have put in your mouth, will not leave your mouth, or the mouths of your children, or the mouths of your children's children, says Yahweh, henceforth and for ever.'

Isaiah 60:1 Arise, shine out, for your light has come, and the glory of Yahweh has risen on you.

Isaiah 60:2 Look! though night still covers the earth and darkness the peoples, on you Yahweh is rising and over you his glory can be seen.

Isaiah 60:3 The nations will come to your light and kings to your dawning brightness.

Isaiah 60:4 Lift up your eyes and look around: all are assembling and coming towards you, your sons coming from far away and your daughters being carried on the hip.

Isaiah 60:5 At this sight you will grow radiant, your heart will throb and dilate, since the riches of the sea will flow to you, the wealth of the nations come to you;

Isaiah 60:6 camels in throngs will fill your streets, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; everyone in Saba will come, bringing gold and incense and proclaiming Yahweh's praises.

Isaiah 60:7 All the flocks of Kedar will gather inside you, the rams of Nebaioth will be at your service as acceptable victims on my altar, and I shall glorify my glorious house.

Isaiah 60:8 Who are these flying like a cloud, like doves to their dovecote?

Isaiah 60:9 Why, the coasts and islands put their hope in me and the vessels of Tarshish take the lead in bringing your children from far away, and their silver and gold with them, for the sake of the name of Yahweh your God, of the Holy One of Israel who has made you glorious.

Isaiah 60:10 Foreigners will rebuild your walls and their kings will serve you. For though I struck you in anger, in mercy I have pitied you.

Isaiah 60:11 Your gates will always be open, never closed, either day or night, for the riches of the nations to be brought you and their kings to be let in.

Isaiah 60:12 For the nation and kingdom that will not serve you will perish, and the nations will be utterly destroyed.

Isaiah 60:13 The glory of the Lebanon will come to you, cypress, plane-tree, box-tree, one and all, to adorn the site of my sanctuary, for me to honour the place where I stand.

Isaiah 60:14 Your oppressors' children will humbly approach you, at your feet all who despised you will fall addressing you as 'City of Yahweh', 'Zion of the Holy One of Israel'.

Isaiah 60:15 Instead of your being forsaken and hated, avoided by everyone, I will make you an object of eternal pride, a source of joy from age to age.

Isaiah 60:16 You will suck the milk of nations, you will suck the wealth of kings, and you will know that I, Yahweh, am your Saviour, that your redeemer is the Mighty One of Jacob.

Isaiah 60:17 For bronze I shall bring gold and for iron I shall bring silver, and for wood, bronze, and for stone, iron; I shall make Peace your administration and Saving Justice your government.

Isaiah 60:18 Violence will no longer be heard of in your country, nor devastation and ruin within your frontiers. You will call your walls ‘Salvation’ and your gates ‘Praise’.

Isaiah 60:19 No more will the sun give you daylight, nor moonlight shine on you, but Yahweh will be your everlasting light, your God will be your splendour.

Isaiah 60:20 Your sun will set no more nor will your moon wane, for Yahweh will be your everlasting light and your days of mourning will be over.

Isaiah 60:21 Your people, all of them upright, will possess the country for ever, the shoot I myself have planted, my handiwork, for my own glory.

Isaiah 60:22 The smallest will grow into a thousand, the weakest one into a mighty nation. When the time is ripe, I, Yahweh, shall quickly bring it about.

Isaiah 61:1 The spirit of Lord Yahweh is on me for Yahweh has anointed me. He has sent me to bring the news to the afflicted, to soothe the broken-hearted,

Isaiah 61:2 to proclaim liberty to captives, release to those in prison, to proclaim a year of favour from Yahweh and a day of vengeance for our God, to comfort all who mourn

Isaiah 61:3 (to give to Zion’s mourners), to give them for ashes a garland, for mourning-dress, the oil of gladness, for despondency, festal attire; and they will be called ‘terebinths of saving justice’, planted by Yahweh to glorify him.

Isaiah 61:4 They will rebuild the ancient ruins, they will raise what has long lain waste, they will restore the ruined cities, all that has lain waste for ages past.

Isaiah 61:5 Strangers will come forward to feed your flocks, foreigners be your ploughmen and vinedressers;

Isaiah 61:6 but you will be called ‘priests of Yahweh’ and be addressed as ‘ministers of our God’. You will feed on the wealth of nations, you will supplant them in their glory.

Isaiah 61:7 To make up for your shame, you will receive double; instead of disgrace, shouts of joy will be their lot; yes, they will have a double portion in their country and everlasting joy will be theirs.

Isaiah 61:8 For I am Yahweh: I love fair judgement, I hate robbery and wrong-doing, and I shall reward them faithfully and make an everlasting covenant with them.

Isaiah 61:9 Their race will be famous throughout the nations and their offspring throughout the peoples. All who see them will admit that they are a race whom Yahweh has blessed.

Isaiah 61:10 I exult for joy in Yahweh, my soul rejoices in my God, for he has clothed me in garments of salvation, he has wrapped me in a cloak of saving justice, like a bridegroom wearing his garland, like a bride adorned in her jewels.

Isaiah 61:11 For as the earth sends up its shoots and a garden makes seeds sprout, so Lord Yahweh makes saving justice and praise spring up in the sight of all nations.

Isaiah 62:1 About Zion I will not be silent, about Jerusalem I shall not rest until saving justice dawns for her like a bright light and her salvation like a blazing torch.

Isaiah 62:2 The nations will then see your saving justice, and all kings your glory, and you will be called a new name which Yahweh's mouth will reveal.

Isaiah 62:3 You will be a crown of splendour in Yahweh's hand, a princely diadem in the hand of your God.

Isaiah 62:4 No more will you be known as 'Forsaken' or your country be known as 'Desolation'; instead, you will be called 'My Delight is in her' and your country 'The Wedded'; for Yahweh will take delight in you and your country will have its wedding.

Isaiah 62:5 Like a young man marrying a virgin, your rebuilder will wed you, and as the bridegroom rejoices in his bride, so will your God rejoice in you.

Isaiah 62:6 On your walls, Jerusalem, I have posted watchmen; they will never fall silent, day or night. No peace for you, as you keep Yahweh's attention!

Isaiah 62:7 And give him no peace either until he restores Jerusalem and makes her the pride of the world!

Isaiah 62:8 Yahweh has sworn by his right hand and by his mighty arm: Never again shall I give your grain to feed your enemies. Never again will foreigners drink the wine for which you have toiled.

Isaiah 62:9 No, the reapers will eat it and praise Yahweh, the harvesters will drink it in my sacred courts!

Isaiah 62:10 Pass through, pass through the gates. Clear a way for my people! Level up, level up the highway, remove the stones! Hoist a signal to the peoples!

Isaiah 62:11 This is what Yahweh has proclaimed to the remotest part of earth: Say to the daughter of Zion, 'Look, your salvation is coming; with him comes his reward, his achievement precedes him!'

Isaiah 62:12 They will be called 'The Holy People', 'Yahweh's Redeemed', while you will be called 'Sought-after', 'City-not-forsaken'.

Isaiah 63:1 Who is this coming from Edom, from Bozrah in crimson garments, so magnificently dressed, marching so full of strength? - It is I, whose word is saving justice, whose power is to save.

Isaiah 63:2 -Why are your garments red, your clothes like someone treading the winepress?

Isaiah 63:3 -I have trodden the winepress alone; of my people, not one was with me. So I trod them down in my anger, I trampled on them in my wrath. Their blood squirted over my garments and all my clothes are stained.

Isaiah 63:4 For I have decided on a day of vengeance, my year of retribution has come.

Isaiah 63:5 I looked: there was no one to help me; I was appalled but could find no supporter! Then my own arm came to my rescue and my own fury supported me.

Isaiah 63:6 I crushed the peoples in my anger, I shattered them in my fury and sent their blood streaming to the ground.

Isaiah 63:7 I shall recount Yahweh's acts of faithful love, Yahweh's praises, in return for all that Yahweh has done for us, for his great kindness to the House of Israel, for all that he has done in his mercy, for the abundance of his acts of faithful love.

Isaiah 63:8 For he said, 'Truly they are my people, children who will not betray me,' and he became their Saviour.

Isaiah 63:9 In all their troubles, it was no messenger or angel but his presence that saved them. In his love and pity he himself redeemed them, lifted them up and carried them throughout the days of old.

Isaiah 63:10 But they rebelled and vexed his holy Spirit. Then he became their enemy and himself waged war on them.

Isaiah 63:11 But he called the past to mind, Moses his servant. Where is he who saved them from the sea, the Shepherd of his flock? Where was he who put his holy Spirit among them,

Isaiah 63:12 whose glorious arm led the way by Moses' right hand? Who divided the waters before them to win himself everlasting renown,

Isaiah 63:13 who led them through the depths as easily as a horse through the desert? They stumbled as little

Isaiah 63:14 as cattle going down to the plain. Yahweh's Spirit led them to rest. This was how you guided your people to win yourself glorious renown.

Isaiah 63:15 Look down from heaven and see from your holy and glorious dwelling. Where is your zeal and your might? Are your deepest feelings, your mercy to me, to be restrained?

Isaiah 63:16 After all, you are our Father. If Abraham will not own us, if Israel will not acknowledge us, you, Yahweh, are our Father, 'Our Redeemer' is your name from of old.

Isaiah 63:17 Why, Yahweh, do you let us wander from your ways and let our hearts grow too hard to fear you? Return, for the sake of your servants, the tribes of your heritage.

Isaiah 63:18 Your holy people have owned it for so short a time, our enemies have trampled on your sanctuary.

Isaiah 63:19 We have long been like those you do not rule, people who do not bear your name. Oh, that you would tear the heavens open and come down—in your presence the mountains would quake,

Isaiah 64:1 as fire sets brushwood alight, as fire makes water boil—to make your name known to your foes; the nations would tremble at your presence,

Isaiah 64:2 at the unexpected miracles you would do. (Oh, that you would come down, in your presence the mountains would quake!)

Isaiah 64:3 Never has anyone heard, no ear has heard, no eye has seen any god but you act like this for the sake of those who trust him.

Isaiah 64:4 You come to meet those who are happy to act uprightly; keeping your ways reminds them of you. Yes, you have been angry and we have been sinners; now we persist in your ways and we shall be saved.

Isaiah 64:5 We have all been like unclean things and our upright deeds like filthy rags. We wither, all of us, like leaves, and all our misdeeds carry us off like the wind.

Isaiah 64:6 There is no one to invoke your name, to rouse himself to hold fast to you, for you have hidden your face from us and given us up to the power of our misdeeds.

Isaiah 64:7 And yet, Yahweh, you are our Father; we the clay and you our potter, all of us are the work of your hands.

Isaiah 64:8 Yahweh, do not let your anger go too far and do not remember guilt for ever. Look, please, we are all your people;

Isaiah 64:9 your holy cities have become a desert, Zion has become a desert, Jerusalem a wasteland.

Isaiah 64:10 Our holy and glorious Temple, in which our ancestors used to praise you, has been burnt to the ground; all our delight lies in ruins.

Isaiah 64:11 Yahweh, can you restrain yourself at all this? Will you stay silent and afflict us beyond endurance?

Isaiah 65:1 I have let myself be approached by those who did not consult me, I have let myself be found by those who did not seek me. I said, ‘Here I am, here I am!’ to a nation that did not invoke my name.

Isaiah 65:2 Each day I stretched out my hands to a rebellious people who follow a way which is not good, as the fancy takes them;

Isaiah 65:3 a people constantly provoking me to my face by sacrificing in gardens, burning incense on bricks,

Isaiah 65:4 living in tombs, spending the night in dark corners, eating the meat of pigs, putting unclean foods on their plates.

Isaiah 65:5 ‘Keep your distance,’ they say, ‘do not touch me, lest my sanctity come near you!’ Such words are like stifling smoke to me, an ever-burning fire.

Isaiah 65:6 Look, it is inscribed before me: I shall not be silent until I have repaid them, repaid them in full,

Isaiah 65:7 punished your guilt and your ancestors’ guilt together, Yahweh declares. For having burnt incense on the mountains and insulted me on the hills, I shall pay them back in full for what they have done.

Isaiah 65:8 Yahweh says this: As when a bunch of grapes is found still to have juice in it, people say, ‘Do not destroy it, for it contains a blessing,’ so I shall act for my servants’ sake, I shall not destroy them all.

Isaiah 65:9 I shall produce descendants from Jacob and heirs to my mountains from Judah, my chosen ones will own them and my servants will live there.

Isaiah 65:10 Sharon will be a pasture for flocks, the Valley of Achor a feeding ground for cattle, for those of my people who have sought me.

Isaiah 65:11 But as for those of you who abandon Yahweh, who forget my holy mountain, who lay the table for Gad, who fill cups of mixed wine for Meni,

Isaiah 65:12 you I shall destine to the sword and all of you will stoop to be slaughtered, because I called and you would not answer, I spoke and you would not listen; you have done what I consider evil, you chose to do what displeases me.

Isaiah 65:13 Therefore Lord Yahweh says this: You will see my servants eating while you go hungry; you will see my servants drinking while you go thirsty; you will see my servants rejoicing while you are put to shame;

Isaiah 65:14 you will hear my servants shouting for joy of heart, while you shriek for sorrow of heart and howl with a broken spirit.

Isaiah 65:15 And you will leave your name behind as a curse for my chosen ones, ‘May Lord Yahweh strike you dead!’ But to his servants he will give another name.

Isaiah 65:16 Whoever blesses himself on earth will bless himself by the God of truth, and whoever swears an oath on earth will swear by the God of truth, for past troubles will be forgotten and hidden from my eyes.

Isaiah 65:17 For look, I am going to create new heavens and a new earth, and the past will not be remembered and will come no more to mind.

Isaiah 65:18 Rather be joyful, be glad for ever at what I am creating, for look, I am creating Jerusalem to be ‘Joy’ and my people to be ‘Gladness’.

Isaiah 65:19 I shall be joyful in Jerusalem and I shall rejoice in my people. No more will the sound of weeping be heard there, nor the sound of a shriek;

Isaiah 65:20 never again will there be an infant there who lives only a few days, nor an old man who does not run his full course; for the youngest will die at a hundred, and at a hundred the sinner will be accursed.

Isaiah 65:21 They will build houses and live in them, they will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

Isaiah 65:22 They will not build for others to live in, or plant for others to eat; for the days of my people will be like the days of a tree, and my chosen ones will themselves use what they have made.

Isaiah 65:23 They will not toil in vain, nor bear children destined to disaster, for they are the race of Yahweh's blessed ones and so are their offspring.

Isaiah 65:24 Thus, before they call I shall answer, before they stop speaking I shall have heard.

Isaiah 65:25 The wolf and the young lamb will feed together, the lion will eat hay like the ox, and dust be the serpent's food. No hurt, no harm will be done on all my holy mountain, Yahweh says.

Isaiah 66:1 Thus says Yahweh: With heaven my throne and earth my footstool, what house could you build me, what place for me to rest,

Isaiah 66:2 when all these things were made by me and all belong to me? - declares Yahweh. But my eyes are drawn to the person of humbled and contrite spirit, who trembles at my word.

Isaiah 66:3 Some slaughter a bull, some kill a human being, some sacrifice a lamb, some strangle a dog, some present an offering of pig's blood, some burn memorial incense, a revolting blessing; all these people have chosen their own ways and take delight in their disgusting practices.

Isaiah 66:4 I too take delight in making fools of them, I shall bring what they most fear down on them because I have called and no one would answer, I spoke and no one listened. They have done what I regard as evil, have chosen what displeases me.

Isaiah 66:5 Listen to the word of Yahweh, you who tremble at his word. Your brothers, who hate and reject you because of my name, have said, 'Let Yahweh show his glory, let us witness your joy!' But they will be put to shame.

Isaiah 66:6 Listen! An uproar from the city! A voice from the Temple! The voice of Yahweh bringing retribution on his enemies.

Isaiah 66:7 Before being in labour she has given birth. Before the birth pangs came, she has been delivered of a child.

Isaiah 66:8 Who ever heard of such a thing, who ever saw anything like this? Can a country be born in one day? Can a nation be brought forth all at once? For Zion, scarcely in labour, has brought forth her children!

Isaiah 66:9 Shall I open the womb and not bring to birth? says Yahweh. Shall I, who bring to birth, close the womb? says your God.

Isaiah 66:10 Rejoice with Jerusalem, be glad for her, all you who love her! Rejoice, rejoice with her, all you who mourned her!

Isaiah 66:11 So that you may be suckled and satisfied from her consoling breast, so that you may drink deep with delight from her generous nipple.

Isaiah 66:12 For Yahweh says this: Look, I am going to send peace flowing over her like a river, and like a stream in spate the glory of the nations. You will be suckled, carried on her hip and fondled in her lap.

Isaiah 66:13 As a mother comforts a child, so I shall comfort you; you will be comforted in Jerusalem.

Isaiah 66:14 At the sight your heart will rejoice, and your limbs regain vigour like the grass. To his servants Yahweh will reveal his hand, but to his enemies his fury.

Isaiah 66:15 For see how Yahweh comes in fire, his chariots like the whirlwind, to assuage his anger with burning, his rebukes with flaming fire.

Isaiah 66:16 For by fire will Yahweh execute fair judgement, and by his sword, on all people; and Yahweh's victims will be many.

Isaiah 66:17 As for those who sanctify themselves and purify themselves to enter the gardens, following the one in the centre, who eat the flesh of pigs, revolting things and rats: their deeds and their thoughts will perish together, declares Yahweh.

Isaiah 66:18 I am coming to gather every nation and every language. They will come to witness my glory.

Isaiah 66:19 I shall give them a sign and send some of their survivors to the nations: to Tarshish, Put, Lud, Meshech, Tubal and Javan, to the distant coasts and islands that have never heard of me or seen my glory. They will proclaim my glory to the nations,

Isaiah 66:20 and from all the nations they will bring all your brothers as an offering to Yahweh, on horses, in chariots, in litters, on mules and on camels, to my holy mountain, Jerusalem, Yahweh says, like Israelites bringing offerings in clean vessels to Yahweh's house.

Isaiah 66:21 And some of them I shall make into priests and Levites, Yahweh says.

Isaiah 66:22 For as the new heavens and the new earth I am making will endure before me, declares Yahweh, so will your race and your name endure.

Isaiah 66:23 From New Moon to New Moon, from Sabbath to Sabbath, all humanity will come and bow in my presence, Yahweh says.

Isaiah 66:24 And on their way out they will see the corpses of those who rebelled against me; for their worm will never die nor their fire be put out, and they will be held in horror by all humanity.

Jeremiah

1:1 The words of Jeremiah son of Hilkiah, one of the priests living at Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin.

Jeremiah 1:2 The word of Yahweh came to him in the days of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign;

Jeremiah 1:3 then in the days of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, until the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah son of Josiah, king of Judah, until the deportation of Jerusalem, in the fifth month.

Jeremiah 1:4 The word of Yahweh came to me, saying:

Jeremiah 1:5 'Before I formed you in the womb I knew you; before you came to birth I consecrated you; I appointed you as prophet to the nations.'

Jeremiah 1:6 I then said, 'Ah, ah, ah, Lord Yahweh; you see, I do not know how to speak: I am only a child!'

Jeremiah 1:7 But Yahweh replied, 'Do not say, "I am only a child," for you must go to all to whom I send you and say whatever I command you.

Jeremiah 1:8 Do not be afraid of confronting them, for I am with you to rescue you, Yahweh declares.'

Jeremiah 1:9 Then Yahweh stretched out his hand and touched my mouth, and Yahweh said to me: 'There! I have put my words into your mouth.

Jeremiah 1:10 Look, today I have set you over the nations and kingdoms, to uproot and to knock down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant.'

Jeremiah 1:11 The word of Yahweh came to me, asking, 'Jeremiah, what do you see?' I answered, 'I see a branch of the Watchful Tree.'

Jeremiah 1:12 Then Yahweh said, 'Well seen, for I am watching over my word to perform it.'

Jeremiah 1:13 A second time the word of Yahweh came to me, asking, 'What do you see?' I answered, 'I see a cooking pot on the boil, with its mouth tilting from the north.'

Jeremiah 1:14 Then Yahweh said: 'From the north disaster will come boiling over on all who live in the country,

Jeremiah 1:15 for I am now summoning all the families of the kingdoms of the north, Yahweh declares. They will come, and each will set his throne in front of the gates of Jerusalem, all round, against its walls and against all the towns of Judah.

Jeremiah 1:16 I shall pronounce my judgements on them because of all their wickedness, since they have abandoned me, offering incense to other gods and worshipping what their own hands have made.

Jeremiah 1:17 'As for you, prepare yourself for action. Stand up and tell them all I command you. Have no fear of them and in their presence I will make you fearless.

Jeremiah 1:18 For look, today I have made you into a fortified city, a pillar of iron, a wall of bronze to stand against the whole country: the kings of Judah, its princes, its priests and the people of the country.

Jeremiah 1:19 They will fight against you but will not overcome you, for I am with you, Yahweh declares, to rescue you.'

Jeremiah 2:1 The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,

Jeremiah 2:2 'Go and shout this in Jerusalem's ears: 'Yahweh says this: "I remember your faithful love, the affection of your bridal days, when you followed me through the desert, through a land unsown.

Jeremiah 2:3 Israel was sacred to Yahweh; the first-fruits of his harvest; all who ate this incurred guilt, disaster befell them, Yahweh declares." '

Jeremiah 2:4 Listen to Yahweh's word, House of Jacob and all the families of the House of Israel.

Jeremiah 2:5 Yahweh says this, 'What did your ancestors find wrong in me for them to have deserted me so far as to follow Futility and become futile themselves?

Jeremiah 2:6 They never said, "Where is Yahweh, who brought us out of Egypt and led us through the desert, through a land of plains and ravines, through a land of drought, of shadow dark as death, a land through which no one passes and where no human being lives?"

Jeremiah 2:7 I brought you to a country of plenty, to enjoy its produce and good things; but when you entered you defiled my country and made my heritage loathsome.

Jeremiah 2:8 The priests never asked, "Where is Yahweh?" Those skilled in the Law did not know me, the shepherds too rebelled against me and the prophets prophesied by Baal and followed the Useless Ones.

Jeremiah 2:9 So I must state my case against you once more, Yahweh declares, and state my case against your children's children:

Jeremiah 2:10 Cross to the isles of the Kittim and look, send to Kedar and carefully observe, see if anything like this has happened before!

Jeremiah 2:11 Does a nation change its gods? - and these are not gods at all! Yet my people have exchanged their Glory for the Useless

One!

Jeremiah 2:12 You heavens, stand aghast at this, horrified, utterly appalled, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 2:13 For my people have committed two crimes: they have abandoned me, the fountain of living water, and dug water-tanks for themselves, cracked water-tanks that hold no water.

Jeremiah 2:14 'Is Israel a slave? Was he born into serfdom, for him to be preyed on like this?

Jeremiah 2:15 Lions have roared at him, they have made their voices heard. They have left this country a desert, his towns lie burnt and uninhabited.

Jeremiah 2:16 The people of Noph and Tahpanhes have shaved your skull!

Jeremiah 2:17 Have you not brought this on yourself, by abandoning Yahweh your God, when he was guiding you on your way?

Jeremiah 2:18 What is the good of going to Egypt now to drink the water of the Nile? What is the good of going to Assyria to drink the water of the River?

Jeremiah 2:19 Your wickedness will bring its own punishment, your infidelities will bring you to book, so give thought and see how evil and bitter it is to abandon Yahweh your God and not to stand in awe of me, the Lord Yahweh Sabaoth declares.

Jeremiah 2:20 'It is long ago now since you broke your yoke, burst your bonds and said, "I will not serve!" Yet on every high hill and under every green tree you have sprawled and played the whore.

Jeremiah 2:21 Yet I had planted you, a red vine of completely sound stock. How is it you have turned into seedlings of a vine that is alien to me?

Jeremiah 2:22 Even though you scrub yourself with soda and put in quantities of soap, the stain of your guilt would still be visible to me, the Lord Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 2:23 How dare you say, "I am not defiled, I have not run after the Baals?" Look at your behaviour in the Valley, realise what you have done.

Jeremiah 2:24 A wild she-donkey, at home in the desert, snuffing the breeze in desire; who can control her when she is on heat? Males need not trouble to look for her, they will find her in her month.

Jeremiah 2:25 Beware! Your own foot will go unshod, your own throat grow dry! But you said, "It is no use! No! For I love the Strangers and they are the ones I shall follow."

Jeremiah 2:26 'Like a thief ashamed at being caught, so will the House of Israel be: they, their kings, their chief men, their priests and their prophets,

Jeremiah 2:27 who say to a piece of wood, “You are my father,” and to a stone, “You gave birth to me.” For they turn to me their backs, never their faces; yet when trouble comes they shout, “Get up! Save us!”

Jeremiah 2:28 Where are your gods you made for yourself? Let them get up if they can save you when trouble comes! For you have as many gods as you have towns, Judah!

Jeremiah 2:29 Why make out a case against me? You have all rebelled against me, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 2:30 In vain I have struck your children, they have not accepted correction; your own sword has devoured your prophets like a marauding lion.

Jeremiah 2:31 Now you of this generation, listen to what Yahweh says: Have I been a desert for Israel, or a land of gloom? Why do my people say, “We are our own masters, we will come to you no more”?

Jeremiah 2:32 Does a girl forget her ornaments, a bride her sash? And yet my people have forgotten me, days beyond number.

Jeremiah 2:33 ‘How well you set your course in pursuit of love! And so you have schooled your ways to wicked deeds.

Jeremiah 2:34 The very skirts of your robe are stained with the blood of the poor, of innocent men you never caught breaking and entering! And in spite of all this,

Jeremiah 2:35 you say, “I am innocent, let his anger turn from me!” Now I pass sentence on you for saying, “I have not sinned.”

Jeremiah 2:36 ‘How frivolously you undertake a change of course! But you will be disappointed by Egypt just as you were by Assyria.

Jeremiah 2:37 You will have to leave there too with your hands on your head, for Yahweh has rejected those that you rely on, you will come to no good with them.’

Jeremiah 3:1 ‘If a man divorces his wife and she leaves him and becomes someone else’s, has he the right to go back to her? Has not that piece of land been totally polluted? And you, having played the whore with many lovers, you claim the right to come back to me! Yahweh demands.

Jeremiah 3:2 ‘Lift your eyes to the bare heights and look! Where have you not offered your sex! You waited by the roadside for them like an Arab in the desert. You have polluted the country with your prostitution and your vices:

Jeremiah 3:3 this is why the showers have been withheld, the late rains have not come. ‘But you maintained a prostitute’s bold front, with no trace of a blush.

Jeremiah 3:4 From now on, do not cry out at me, “My father! My beloved ever since I was young!

Jeremiah 3:5 Will he keep up his anger for ever, maintain his wrath to the end?” You say this but still go on sinning, being so obstinate.’

Jeremiah 3:6 In the days of King Josiah, Yahweh said to me, ‘Have you seen what disloyal Israel has done? How she has made her way up every high hill and to every green tree, and played the whore there?

Jeremiah 3:7 I thought, “After doing all this she will come back to me.” But she did not come back. Her faithless sister Judah saw this.

Jeremiah 3:8 She also saw that I had repudiated disloyal Israel for all her adulteries and given her her divorce papers. Her faithless sister Judah, however, was not afraid: she too went and played the whore.

Jeremiah 3:9 And with her shameless whoring, she polluted the country; she committed adultery with stones and pieces of wood.

Jeremiah 3:10 Worse than all this: Judah, her faithless sister, has come back to me not in sincerity, but only in pretence, Yahweh declares.’

Jeremiah 3:11 And Yahweh said to me, ‘Disloyal Israel is upright, compared with faithless Judah.

Jeremiah 3:12 So go and shout words towards the north, and say: “Come back, disloyal Israel, Yahweh declares, I shall frown on you no more, since I am merciful, Yahweh declares. I shall not keep my anger for ever.

Jeremiah 3:13 Only acknowledge your guilt: how you have rebelled against Yahweh your God, how you have prostituted yourself with the Strangers under every green tree and have not listened to my voice, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 3:14 “Come back, disloyal children, Yahweh declares, for I alone am your Master, and I will take you, one from a town, two from a family, and bring you to Zion.

Jeremiah 3:15 I shall give you shepherds after my own heart, who will pasture you wisely and discreetly.

Jeremiah 3:16 Then, when you have increased and grown numerous in the country, Yahweh declares, no one will ever again say: The ark of the covenant of Yahweh! It will not enter their minds, they will not remember it or miss it, nor will another one be made.

Jeremiah 3:17 When that time comes, Jerusalem will be called: The Throne of Yahweh, and all the nations will converge on her, on Yahweh’s name, on Jerusalem, and will no longer follow their own stubborn and wicked inclinations.

Jeremiah 3:18 “When those days come, the House of Judah will join the House of Israel; together they will come from the land of the north to the country I gave your ancestors as their heritage.”

Jeremiah 3:19 ‘And I was thinking: How am I to rank you as my children? I shall give you a country of delights, the fairest heritage of all the nations! I thought: You will call me Father and will never cease to follow me.

Jeremiah 3:20 But like a woman betraying her lover, House of Israel, you have betrayed me,' Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 3:21 A noise is heard on the bare heights: the weeping and entreaty of the Israelites, for they have gone wildly astray, have forgotten Yahweh their God.

Jeremiah 3:22 'Come back, disloyal sons, I want to cure your disloyalty.' 'We are here, we are coming to you, for you are Yahweh our God.

Jeremiah 3:23 The hills are a delusion after all, so is the tumult of the mountains. Yahweh our God is, after all, the saving of Israel.

Jeremiah 3:24 Shame has devoured what our ancestors worked for ever since we were young, their flocks and herds, their sons and their daughters.

Jeremiah 3:25 Let us lie down in our shame, let our confusion cover us, for we have sinned against Yahweh our God, we and our ancestors, from our youth until today, and have not listened to the voice of Yahweh our God.'

Jeremiah 4:1 'If you come back, Israel, Yahweh declares, if you come back to me, if you take your Horrors out of my sight, if you go roving no more,

Jeremiah 4:2 if you swear, "As Yahweh lives!" truthfully, justly, uprightly, then the nations will bless themselves by him and glory in him.

Jeremiah 4:3 'For Yahweh says this to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, "Clear the ground that lies neglected, do not sow among thorns.

Jeremiah 4:4 Circumcise yourselves for Yahweh, apply circumcision to your hearts, men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, or my wrath will leap out like a fire and burn with no one to quench it, in return for the wickedness of your deeds." '

Jeremiah 4:5 Announce it in Judah, proclaim it in Jerusalem, say, 'Sound the trumpet in the countryside, shout the message aloud: Mobilise! Take to the fortified towns!

Jeremiah 4:6 Signpost the way to Zion! Run! Do not delay! For I am bringing disaster from the north, an immense calamity.

Jeremiah 4:7 The lion is up from his thicket, the destroyer of nations is on his way, he has come from his home to reduce your land to a desert; your towns will be in ruins, uninhabited.

Jeremiah 4:8 So wrap yourselves in sackcloth, lament and wail, since Yahweh's burning anger has not turned away from us.

Jeremiah 4:9 'That day,' Yahweh declares, 'the king's heart will fail him, the princes' hearts will fail them too, the priests will stand aghast, the prophets stupefied.'

Jeremiah 4:10 Then I said, 'Ah, Lord Yahweh, how sadly you deceived this people and Jerusalem when you used to say, "You will have peace," whereas the sword is now at our throats!

Jeremiah 4:11 When that time comes, this will be said to this people and to Jerusalem: The scorching wind from the desert heights comes towards the daughter of my people -and not to winnow or to cleanse!

Jeremiah 4:12 A gale of wind comes to me from over there. Now I myself shall pass sentence on them!'

Jeremiah 4:13 Look, he is advancing like the clouds, his chariots like a hurricane, his horses swifter than eagles. Disaster for us! We are lost!

Jeremiah 4:14 Wash your heart clean of wickedness, Jerusalem, and so be saved. How long will you go on harbouring your pernicious thoughts?

Jeremiah 4:15 For a voice from Dan shouts the news, proclaims disaster from the highlands of Ephraim.

Jeremiah 4:16 Report it to the nations, proclaim it to Jerusalem, 'Enemies are coming from a distant country, shouting their war cry against the towns of Judah;

Jeremiah 4:17 they surround her like watchmen round a field because she has rebelled against me', Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 4:18 'Your own behaviour and actions have brought this on yourself. Your wickedness, how bitter, has stabbed you to the heart!'

Jeremiah 4:19 In the pit of my stomach how great my agony! Walls of my heart! My heart is throbbing! I cannot keep quiet, for I have heard the trumpet call, the battle cry.

Jeremiah 4:20 Ruin on ruin is the news: the whole land is laid waste, my tents are suddenly destroyed, in one moment all that sheltered me.

Jeremiah 4:21 How long must I see the standard and hear the trumpet call?

Jeremiah 4:22 'This is because my people are stupid, they do not know me, they are slow-witted children, they have no understanding, they are clever enough at doing wrong, but do not know how to do right.'

Jeremiah 4:23 I looked to the earth—it was a formless waste; to the heavens, and their light had gone.

Jeremiah 4:24 I looked to the mountains—they were quaking and all the hills rocking to and fro.

Jeremiah 4:25 I looked—there was no one at all, the very birds of heaven had all fled.

Jeremiah 4:26 I looked—the fruitful land was a desert, all its towns in ruins before Yahweh, before his burning anger.

Jeremiah 4:27 Yes, Yahweh has said this, 'The whole country will be laid waste, though I shall not annihilate it completely.

Jeremiah 4:28 For this, the earth will go into mourning and the heavens above grow dark. For I have spoken, I have decided, I shall not change my mind or go back on it.'

Jeremiah 4:29 At the din of horseman and archer the entire city takes to flight: some plunge into the thickets, others scale the rocks; every town is abandoned, not a single person is left there.

Jeremiah 4:30 And, once despoiled, what are you going to do? You may dress yourself in scarlet, put on ornaments of gold, enlarge your eyes with paint but you make yourself pretty in vain. Your former lovers disdain you, your life is what they are seeking.

Jeremiah 4:31 Yes, I hear screams like those of a woman in labour, anguish like that of a woman giving birth to her first child; they are the screams of the daughter of Zion, gasping, hands outstretched, 'Unhappy me! I am dying, the murderers have killed me!'

Jeremiah 5:1 Rove the streets of Jerusalem, now look and enquire, see in her squares if you can find an individual, one individual who does right and seeks the truth, and I will pardon her, Yahweh says.

Jeremiah 5:2 Although they say, 'As Yahweh lives,' they are, in fact, swearing a false oath.

Jeremiah 5:3 Yahweh, do your eyes not look for truth? You have struck them; they have not felt it. You have annihilated them, for they ignored the lesson. They have set their faces harder than rock, they have refused to repent.

Jeremiah 5:4 I thought, 'These are only the poor! They behave stupidly since they do not know Yahweh's way or the ruling of their God.

Jeremiah 5:5 I shall approach the great men and speak to them, for these will know Yahweh's way and the ruling of their God.' But these, too, have broken the yoke, have burst the bonds.

Jeremiah 5:6 And so, a lion from the forest will slaughter them, a wolf from the plains will despoil them, a leopard will be lurking round their towns: anyone who goes out will be torn to pieces—because of their many crimes, their countless infidelities.

Jeremiah 5:7 'Why should I pardon you? Your sons have abandoned me, to swear by gods that are not gods at all. I fed them full, and they became adulterers, they hurried to the brothel.

Jeremiah 5:8 They are well-fed, roving stallions, each neighing for his neighbour's wife.

Jeremiah 5:9 Shall I fail to punish this, Yahweh demands, or on such a nation to exact vengeance?

Jeremiah 5:10 Scale her terraces! Destroy! But do not annihilate her completely! Strip off her branches, for Yahweh does not own them!

Jeremiah 5:11 How treacherously they have treated me, the House of Israel and the House of Judah! Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 5:12 'They have denied Yahweh, they have said, "He is nothing; no evil will overtake us, we shall not see sword or famine.

Jeremiah 5:13 And the prophets? Nothing but wind; the word is not in them; let those very things happen to them!" '

Jeremiah 5:14 Because of this, Yahweh, God Sabaoth, says this, 'Since you have said such things, now I shall make my words a fire in your mouth, and make this people wood, for the fire to devour.

Jeremiah 5:15 Now I shall bring on you a nation from afar, House of Israel, Yahweh declares, an enduring nation, an ancient nation, a nation whose language you do not know, nor can you grasp what they say.

Jeremiah 5:16 Their quiver a gaping tomb, they are all of them fighters.

Jeremiah 5:17 They will devour your harvest and your food, devour your sons and daughters, devour your flocks and herds, devour your vines and fig trees, and demolish your fortified towns in which you trust—with the sword!'

Jeremiah 5:18 'Yet even in those days, Yahweh declares, I shall not annihilate you completely.

Jeremiah 5:19 'And when you ask, "Why has Yahweh our God done all this to us?" you will give them this answer, "As you abandon me to serve alien gods in your own country, so you must serve aliens in a country not your own."

Jeremiah 5:20 'Announce this in the House of Jacob, proclaim it in Judah, and say,

Jeremiah 5:21 "Now listen to this, stupid, brainless people who have eyes and do not see, who have ears and do not hear!

Jeremiah 5:22 Have you no fear of me? Yahweh demands. Will you not tremble before me who set the sand as limit to the sea, as an everlasting barrier it cannot pass? Its waves may toss but not prevail, they may roar but cannot pass beyond.

Jeremiah 5:23 But this people has a rebellious, unruly heart; they have rebelled and gone!

Jeremiah 5:24 Nor do they say to themselves: Now we ought to fear Yahweh our God who gives the rain, of autumn and of spring, at the right season, and reserves us the weeks appointed for harvest.

Jeremiah 5:25 Your misdeeds have upset all this, your sins have deprived you of these blessings.”

Jeremiah 5:26 Yes, there are wicked men among my people who watch like fowlers on the alert; they set traps and they catch human beings.

Jeremiah 5:27 Like a cage full of birds so are their houses full of loot; they have grown rich and powerful because of it,

Jeremiah 5:28 they are fat, they are sleek, in wickedness they go to any lengths: they have no respect for rights, for orphans’ rights, and yet they succeed! They have not upheld the cause of the needy.

Jeremiah 5:29 Shall I fail to punish this, Yahweh demands, or on such a nation to exact vengeance?

Jeremiah 5:30 Horrible, disgusting things are happening in the land:

Jeremiah 5:31 the prophets prophesy falsely and the priests exploit the people. And my people love it! But when the end comes, what will you do?

Jeremiah 6:1 Flee in a body, Benjaminites, right away from Jerusalem! Sound the trumpet in Tekoa! Light the beacon on Beth-ha-Cherem! For disaster lowers from the north, an immense calamity.

Jeremiah 6:2 Beautiful, delicate as she is, I shall destroy the daughter of Zion!

Jeremiah 6:3 Shepherds are advancing on her with their flocks. They have pitched their tents all round her, each grazes his part.

Jeremiah 6:4 Prepare for holy war against her! To arms! We shall attack at noon! Disaster for us! The light is fading, the evening shadows lengthen.

Jeremiah 6:5 To arms! We shall attack at night and destroy her palaces.

Jeremiah 6:6 For Yahweh Sabaoth says this, ‘Cut down trees, throw up an earthwork outside Jerusalem: this is the city to be punished, with nothing but oppression in her.

Jeremiah 6:7 As a well keeps its water fresh so she keeps her wickedness fresh. Violence and ruin are what you hear in her, wounds and blows always forced on my attention.

Jeremiah 6:8 Reform, Jerusalem, or I shall turn my attention away from you and reduce you to a desert, a land without people.’

Jeremiah 6:9 Yahweh Sabaoth says this, ‘They will glean, glean what is left of Israel like a vine. Like a grape-picker, pass your hand again over the branches!’

Jeremiah 6:10 To whom should I speak, whom warn, for them to hear? Look, their ears are uncircumcised, they cannot listen. Look, for them Yahweh’s word is something to sneer at, they have no taste for it.

Jeremiah 6:11 So I am full of Yahweh’s wrath, I am weary of holding it in. Then pour it on the children in the streets, and on the bands of youths as well, for husband and wife will both be taken, the greybeard and the man weighed down with years.

Jeremiah 6:12 Their houses will pass to other men, so will their fields and wives. Yes, I shall stretch my hand over those living in this country, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 6:13 For, from the least to greatest, they are all greedy for gain; prophet no less than priest, all of them practise fraud.

Jeremiah 6:14 Without concern they dress my people’s wound, saying, ‘Peace! Peace!’ whereas there is no peace.

Jeremiah 6:15 They should be ashamed of their loathsome deeds. Not they! They feel no shame, they do not even know how to blush. And so as others fall, they too will fall, will be thrown down when I come and punish them, Yahweh says.

Jeremiah 6:16 Yahweh says this, ‘Stand at the crossroads and look, ask for the ancient paths: which was the good way? Take it and you will find rest for yourselves. But they have said, “We will not take it.”

Jeremiah 6:17 I posted look-outs on your behalf: Listen to the sound of the trumpet! But they said, “We will not listen.”

Jeremiah 6:18 Then hear, you nations, and know, assembly, what is going to happen to them!

Jeremiah 6:19 Listen, earth! Watch, I shall bring disaster on this people: it is the fruit of the way they think, since they have not listened to my words nor to my law, but have rejected it.

Jeremiah 6:20 What do I care about incense imported from Sheba, or fragrant cane from a distant country? Your burnt offerings are not acceptable, your sacrifices do not please me.’

Jeremiah 6:21 And so, Yahweh says this, ‘In front of this people I shall now lay obstacles for them to stumble over; father and son alike, neighbour and friend will perish.’

Jeremiah 6:22 Yahweh says this, ‘Look, a people is coming from the land of the north, from the far ends of the earth a great nation is rising;

Jeremiah 6:23 they are armed with bow and spear, they are cruel and pitiless; their noise is like the roaring of the sea; they are riding horses, they are ready to fight against you as one man, against you, daughter of Zion.

Jeremiah 6:24 We have heard the news, our hands fall limp, anguish has gripped us, pain like that of a woman in labour.

Jeremiah 6:25 Do not go out into the countryside, do not venture onto the roads, for the enemy’s sword is there, terror on every side.

Jeremiah 6:26 Put on sackcloth, daughter of my people, roll in ashes; mourn as for an only son, a very bitter dirge. For on us suddenly the destroyer is coming.

Jeremiah 6:27 'I have appointed you as tester of my people, to learn and to test how they behave.

Jeremiah 6:28 All of them are total rebels peddlers of slander, hard as bronze and iron, all agents of corruption.

Jeremiah 6:29 The bellows blast away to make the fire burn away the lead. In vain the smelter does his work, for the dross is not purged out.

Jeremiah 6:30 "Silver-reject", men call them, and indeed Yahweh has rejected them!'

Jeremiah 7:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying,

Jeremiah 7:2 'Stand at the gate of the Temple of Yahweh and there proclaim this message. Say, "Listen to the word of Yahweh, all you of Judah who come in by these gates to worship Yahweh.

Jeremiah 7:3 Yahweh Sabaoth, the God of Israel, says this: Amend your behaviour and your actions and I will let you stay in this place.

Jeremiah 7:4 Do not put your faith in delusive words, such as: This is Yahweh's sanctuary, Yahweh's sanctuary, Yahweh's sanctuary!

Jeremiah 7:5 But if you really amend your behaviour and your actions, if you really treat one another fairly,

Jeremiah 7:6 if you do not exploit the stranger, the orphan and the widow, if you do not shed innocent blood in this place and if you do not follow other gods, to your own ruin,

Jeremiah 7:7 then I shall let you stay in this place, in the country I gave for ever to your ancestors of old.

Jeremiah 7:8 Look, you are putting your faith in delusive, worthless words!

Jeremiah 7:9 Steal, would you, murder, commit adultery, perjure yourselves, burn incense to Baal, follow other gods of whom you know nothing? -

Jeremiah 7:10 and then come and stand before me in this Temple that bears my name, saying: Now we are safe to go on doing all these loathsome things!

Jeremiah 7:11 Do you look on this Temple that bears my name as a den of bandits? I, at any rate, can see straight, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 7:12 "Now go to the place which used to be mine at Shiloh, where I once gave my name a home; see what I have done to it because of the wickedness of my people Israel!

Jeremiah 7:13 And now, since you have done all these things, Yahweh declares, and refused to listen when I spoke so urgently, so persistently, or to answer when I called you,

Jeremiah 7:14 I shall treat this Temple that bears my name, and in which you put your heart, the place that I gave you and your ancestors, just as I treated Shiloh,

Jeremiah 7:15 and I shall drive you out of my sight, as I did all your kinsfolk, the whole race of Ephraim.”

Jeremiah 7:16 ‘You, for your part, must not intercede for this people, nor raise either plea or prayer on their behalf; do not plead with me, for I will not listen to you.

Jeremiah 7:17 Can you not see what they are doing in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

Jeremiah 7:18 The children collect the wood, the fathers light the fire, the women knead the dough, to make cakes for the Queen of Heaven; and, to spite me, they pour libations to alien gods.

Jeremiah 7:19 Is it really me they spite, Yahweh demands, is it not in fact themselves, to their own confusion?

Jeremiah 7:20 So, Lord Yahweh says this, “My anger, my wrath will be poured down on this place, on man and beast, on the trees of the countryside and the fruits of the soil; it will burn, and not be quenched.”

Jeremiah 7:21 ‘Yahweh Sabaoth, the God of Israel, says this, “Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices and eat all the meat.

Jeremiah 7:22 For when I brought your ancestors out of Egypt, I said nothing to them, gave them no orders, about burnt offerings or sacrifices.

Jeremiah 7:23 My one command to them was this: Listen to my voice, then I will be your God and you shall be my people. In everything, follow the way that I mark out for you, and you shall prosper.

Jeremiah 7:24 But they did not listen, they did not pay attention; they followed their own devices, their own stubborn and wicked inclinations, and got worse rather than better.

Jeremiah 7:25 From the day your ancestors left Egypt until today, I have sent you all my servants the prophets, persistently sending them day after day.

Jeremiah 7:26 But they have not listened to me, have not paid attention; they have deliberately resisted, behaving worse than their ancestors.

Jeremiah 7:27 So you will tell them all this, but they will not listen to you; you will call them, but they will not answer you.”

Jeremiah 7:28 Then you are to say to them, “This is the nation that will neither listen to the voice of Yahweh its God nor take correction. Sincerity is no more, it has vanished from their mouths.

Jeremiah 7:29 “Cut off your tresses, throw them away! On the bare heights raise a dirge, for Yahweh has rejected, has abandoned, a brood that enrages him!”

Jeremiah 7:30 'Yes, the people of Judah have done what displeases me, Yahweh declares. They have set up their Horrors in the Temple that bears my name, to defile it,

Jeremiah 7:31 and have built the high places of Topheth in the Valley of Ben-Hinnom, to burn their sons and daughters: a thing I never ordered, that had never entered my thoughts.

Jeremiah 7:32 So now the days are coming, Yahweh declares, when people will no longer say Topheth or Valley of Ben-Hinnom, but Valley of Slaughter. Topheth will become a burial ground, for lack of other space;

Jeremiah 7:33 the corpses of this people will be food for the birds of the sky and the animals of earth, and there will be no one to drive them off.

Jeremiah 7:34 I shall silence the shouts of rejoicing and mirth and the voices of bridegroom and bride, in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem, for the country will be reduced to desert.'

Jeremiah 8:1 'When that time comes, Yahweh declares, the bones of the kings of Judah, the bones of its chief men, the bones of the priests, the bones of the prophets and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, will be taken from their tombs.

Jeremiah 8:2 They will be spread out before the sun, the moon, the whole array of heaven, whom they have loved and served, followed, consulted and worshipped. They will not be gathered or reburied but will be left lying on the surface like dung.

Jeremiah 8:3 And death will seem preferable to life to all the survivors of this wicked race, wherever I have driven them, Yahweh Sabaoth declares.

Jeremiah 8:4 'You are to tell them, "Yahweh says this: If someone falls, can he not stand up again? If people stray, can they not turn back?

Jeremiah 8:5 Why does this people persist in acts of infidelity, why does Jerusalem persist in continuous infidelity? They cling to illusion, they refuse to turn back.

Jeremiah 8:6 I have listened attentively: they have never said anything like that. Not one repents of wickedness saying: What have I done? Each one keeps returning to the course like a horse charging into battle.

Jeremiah 8:7 Even the stork in the sky knows the appropriate season; turtledove, swallow and crane observe their time of migration. But my people do not know Yahweh's laws!" '

Jeremiah 8:8 How can you say, 'We are wise, since we have Yahweh's Law?' Look how it has been falsified by the lying pen of the scribes!

Jeremiah 8:9 The wise are put to shame, alarmed, caught out because they have rejected Yahweh's word. What price their wisdom now?

Jeremiah 8:10 So I shall give their wives to other men, their fields to new masters, for, from the least to greatest, they are all greedy for gain; prophet no less than priest, all of them practise fraud.

Jeremiah 8:11 Without concern they dress the wound of the daughter of my people, saying, ‘Peace! Peace!’ whereas there is no peace.

Jeremiah 8:12 They should be ashamed of their loathsome deeds. Not they! They feel no shame, they do not even know how to blush. And so as others fall, they too will fall, will be thrown down when the time for punishing them comes, Yahweh says.

Jeremiah 8:13 I shall put an end to them, Yahweh declares, no more grapes on the vine, no more figs on the fig tree only withered leaves: I have found them people to trample on them!

Jeremiah 8:14 Why are we sitting still? Mobilise! Take to the fortified towns and there fall silent, since Yahweh our God means to silence us by giving us poisoned water to drink because we have sinned against him.

Jeremiah 8:15 We are hoping for peace—no good came of it! For the time of healing—nothing but terror!

Jeremiah 8:16 From Dan you can hear the snorting of his horses; at the neighing of his stallions the whole country quakes; they are coming to devour the country and its contents, the town and those that live in it.

Jeremiah 8:17 Yes, now I am sending you poisonous snakes against which no charm exists; and they will bite you, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 8:18 Incurable sorrow overtakes me, my heart fails me.

Jeremiah 8:19 Hark, from the daughter of my people the cry for help, ringing far and wide throughout the land! ‘Is Yahweh no longer in Zion, her King no longer there?’ (Why have they provoked me with their idols, with their futile foreign gods?)

Jeremiah 8:20 ‘Harvest is over, summer at an end, and we have not been saved!’

Jeremiah 8:21 The wound of the daughter of my people wounds me too, all looks dark to me, terror grips me.

Jeremiah 8:22 Is there no balm in Gilead any more? Is no doctor there? Then why is there no progress in the cure of the daughter of my people?

Jeremiah 8:23 Who will turn my head into a fountain, and my eyes into a spring of tears, that I can weep day and night over the slain of the daughter of my people?

Jeremiah 9:1 Who will find me a wayfarer’s shelter in the desert, for me to quit my people, and leave them far behind? For all of them are adulterers, a conspiracy of traitors.

Jeremiah 9:2 They bend their tongues like a bow; not truth but falsehood holds sway in the land; yes, they go from crime to crime, but me they do not know, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 9:3 Let each be on his guard against his friend; do not trust a brother, for every brother aims but to supplant, and every friend is a peddler of slander.

Jeremiah 9:4 Each one cheats his friend, never telling the truth; they have trained their tongues to lie and devote all their energies to doing wrong.

Jeremiah 9:5 You live in a world of bad faith! Out of bad faith, they refuse to know me, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 9:6 And, so, Yahweh Sabaoth declares, now I shall purge them and test them, no other way to treat the daughter of my people!

Jeremiah 9:7 Their tongue is a deadly arrow, their words are in bad faith; with his mouth each wishes his neighbour peace, while in his heart plotting a trap for him.

Jeremiah 9:8 Shall I fail to punish them for this, Yahweh demands, or on such a nation fail to exact vengeance?

Jeremiah 9:9 I raise the wail and lament for the mountains, the dirge for the desert pastures, for they have been burnt: no one passes there, the sound of flocks is heard no more. Birds of the sky and animals, all have fled, all are gone.

Jeremiah 9:10 I shall make Jerusalem a heap of ruins, a lair for jackals, and the towns of Judah an uninhabited wasteland.

Jeremiah 9:11 Who is wise enough to understand this? To whom has Yahweh's mouth spoken to explain it? Why is the country annihilated, burnt like the desert where no one passes?

Jeremiah 9:12 Yahweh says, 'This is because they have forsaken my Law which I gave them and have not listened to my voice or followed it,

Jeremiah 9:13 but have followed their own stubborn hearts, have followed the Baals as their ancestors taught them.'

Jeremiah 9:14 So Yahweh Sabaoth, the God of Israel, says this, 'Now I shall give this people wormwood to eat and poisoned water to drink.

Jeremiah 9:15 I shall scatter them among nations unknown to their ancestors or to them; and I shall pursue them with the sword until I have annihilated them.'

Jeremiah 9:16 Yahweh Sabaoth says this, 'Prepare to call for the mourning women! Send for those who are best at it!

Jeremiah 9:17 Let them lose no time in raising the lament over us! Let our eyes rain tears, our eyelids run with weeping!

Jeremiah 9:18 A lament makes itself heard in Zion, "What ruin is ours, what utter shame! For we must leave the country, our homes have been knocked down!" '

Jeremiah 9:19 Now listen, you women, to Yahweh's word, let your ears take in the word his own mouth speaks. Teach your daughters how to wail and teach one another this dirge,

Jeremiah 9:20 'Death has climbed in at our windows, and made its way into our palaces; it has cut down the children in the street, the young people in the squares-

Jeremiah 9:21 Speak! Yahweh declares this—human corpses are strewn like dung in the open field, like sheaves left by the reaper, with no one to gather them.'

Jeremiah 9:22 Yahweh says this, 'Let the sage not boast of wisdom, nor the valiant of valour, nor the wealthy of riches!

Jeremiah 9:23 But let anyone who wants to boast, boast of this: of understanding and knowing me. For I am Yahweh, who acts with faithful love, justice, and uprightness on earth; yes, these are what please me,' Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 9:24 'Look, the days are coming, Yahweh declares, when I shall punish all who are circumcised only in the flesh:

Jeremiah 9:25 Egypt, Judah, Edom, the Ammonites, Moab, and all the men with shaven temples who live in the desert. For all those nations, and the whole House of Israel too, are uncircumcised at heart.'

Jeremiah 10:1 Listen, House of Israel, to the word that Yahweh addresses to you. Yahweh says this:

Jeremiah 10:2 'Do not learn the ways of the nations or take alarm at the heavenly signs, alarmed though the nations may be at them.

Jeremiah 10:3 Yes, the customs of the peoples are quite futile: wood, nothing more, cut out of a forest, worked with a blade by a carver's hand,

Jeremiah 10:4 then embellished with silver and gold, then fastened with hammer and nails to keep it from moving.

Jeremiah 10:5 Like scarecrows in a melon patch, they cannot talk, they have to be carried, since they cannot walk. Have no fear of them: they can do no harm—nor any good either!'

Jeremiah 10:6 Yahweh, there is no one like you, so great you are, so great your mighty name.

Jeremiah 10:7 Who would not revere you, King of nations? Yes, this is your due. Since of all the wise among the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is not a single one like you.

Jeremiah 10:8 All of them are brutish and stupid: the Futile Ones' teaching is but wood,

Jeremiah 10:9 silver leaf imported from Tarshish and gold from Ophir, the work of carver or goldsmith; then dressed up in violet and purple, all the work of skilled men.

Jeremiah 10:10 But Yahweh is the true God. He is the living God, the everlasting King. The earth quakes when he is wrathful, the nations cannot endure his fury.

Jeremiah 10:11 'Tell them this, "The gods who did not make the heavens and the earth will vanish from the earth and from under these heavens." '

Jeremiah 10:12 By his power he made the earth, by his wisdom set the world firm, but his discernment spread out the heavens.

Jeremiah 10:13 When he thunders there is a roaring of waters in heaven; he raises clouds from the remotest parts of the earth, makes the lightning flash for the downpour, and brings the wind from his storehouse.

Jeremiah 10:14 At this all people stand stupefied, uncomprehending, every goldsmith blushes for his idols; his castings are but delusion, with no breath in them.

Jeremiah 10:15 They are futile, a laughable production; when the time comes for them to be punished, they will vanish.

Jeremiah 10:16 The Heritage of Jacob is not like these, for he is the maker of everything, and Israel is the tribe that is his heritage. His name is Yahweh Sabaoth.

Jeremiah 10:17 Pick up your pack from the ground, you the besieged!

Jeremiah 10:18 For Yahweh says this, 'Now I shall throw out the inhabitants of the country, this time, and bring distress on them, so that they may find me!'

Jeremiah 10:19 Disaster is on me! What a wound! My injury is incurable! And I used to think, 'If this is the worst, I can bear it!'

Jeremiah 10:20 But now my tent is destroyed, all my ropes are snapped, my sons have left me and are no more; no one is left to put my tent up again or to hang the side-cloths.

Jeremiah 10:21 The shepherds are the ones who have been stupid: they have not searched for Yahweh. This is why they have not prospered and why their whole flock has been dispersed.

Jeremiah 10:22 Listen! A terrible noise! A mighty uproar from the land of the north to reduce the towns of Judah to desert, to a lair for jackals!

Jeremiah 10:23 I know, Yahweh, no one's course is in his control, nor is it in anyone's power, as he goes his way, to guide his own steps.

Jeremiah 10:24 Correct me, Yahweh, but with moderation, not in your anger, or you will reduce me to nothing.

Jeremiah 10:25 Pour out your anger on the nations who do not acknowledge you, and on the families that do not call on your name, for they have devoured Jacob, have devoured and made an end of him and reduced his home to desolation.

Jeremiah 11:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh,

Jeremiah 11:2 'Hear the terms of this covenant; tell them to the people of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 11:3 Tell them, "Yahweh, God of Israel, says this: Cursed be anyone who will not listen to the terms of this covenant

Jeremiah 11:4 which I ordained for your ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt, out of that iron-foundry. Listen to my voice, I told them, carry out all my orders, then you will be my people and I shall be your God,

Jeremiah 11:5 so that I may fulfil the oath I swore to your ancestors, that I may give them a country flowing with milk and honey, as is the case today." ' I replied, 'So be it, Yahweh!'

Jeremiah 11:6 Then Yahweh said to me, 'Proclaim all these terms in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, "Listen to the terms of this covenant and obey them.

Jeremiah 11:7 For when I brought your ancestors out of Egypt, I solemnly warned them, and have persistently warned them until today, saying: Listen to my voice.

Jeremiah 11:8 But they did not listen, did not pay attention; instead, each followed his own stubborn and wicked inclinations. And against them, in consequence, I put into action the words of this covenant which I had ordered them to obey and which they had not obeyed." '

Jeremiah 11:9 Yahweh said to me, 'Plainly there is conspiracy among the people of Judah and the citizens of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 11:10 They have reverted to the sins of their ancestors who refused to listen to my words: they too are following other gods and serving them. The House of Israel and the House of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their ancestors.

Jeremiah 11:11 And so, Yahweh says this, "I shall now bring a disaster on them which they cannot escape; they will call to me for help, but I shall not listen to them.

Jeremiah 11:12 The towns of Judah and the citizens of Jerusalem will then go and call for help to the gods to whom they burn incense, but these will be no help at all to them in their time of distress!

Jeremiah 11:13 "For you have as many gods as you have towns, Judah! You have built as many altars to Shame, as many incense altars to Baal, as Jerusalem has streets!

Jeremiah 11:14 "You, for your part, must not intercede for this people, nor raise either plea or prayer on their behalf, for I will not listen when their distress forces them to call to me for help."

Jeremiah 11:15 'What is my beloved doing in my house? She has achieved her wicked plans. Can vows and consecrated meat turn disaster from you for you to be so happy?

Jeremiah 11:16 “Green olive-tree covered in fine fruit”, was Yahweh’s name for you. With a shattering noise he has set fire to it, its branches are broken.’

Jeremiah 11:17 And Yahweh Sabaoth, who planted you, has decreed disaster for you because of the evil the House of Israel and the House of Judah have done, provoking me by burning incense to Baal.

Jeremiah 11:18 Yahweh informed me and I knew it; you then revealed their scheming to me.

Jeremiah 11:19 I for my part was like a trustful lamb being led to the slaughterhouse, not knowing the schemes they were plotting against me, ‘Let us destroy the tree in its strength, let us cut him off from the land of the living, so that his name may no longer be remembered!’

Jeremiah 11:20 Yahweh Sabaoth, whose judgement is upright, tester of motives and thoughts, I shall see your vengeance on them, for I have revealed my cause to you.

Jeremiah 11:21 Against the people of Anathoth who are determined to kill me and say to me, ‘Do not prophesy in the name of Yahweh or you will die at our hands!’

Jeremiah 11:22 Yahweh says this, ‘I am about to punish them. Their young people will die by the sword, their sons and daughters by famine.

Jeremiah 11:23 Not one will be left when I bring disaster on the people of Anathoth, when the year for punishing them comes.’

Jeremiah 12:1 Your uprightness is too great, Yahweh, for me to dispute with you. But I should like to discuss some points of justice with you: Why is it that the way of the wicked prospers? Why do all treacherous people thrive?

Jeremiah 12:2 You plant them, they take root, they flourish, yes, and bear fruit. You are on their lips, yet far from their heart.

Jeremiah 12:3 You know me, Yahweh, you see me, you probe my heart, which is close to yours. Drag them off like sheep for the slaughterhouse, reserve them for the day of butchery.

Jeremiah 12:4 (How long will the land be in mourning, and the grass wither all over the countryside? The animals and birds are dying as a result of the wickedness of the inhabitants.) For they say, ‘God does not see our fate.’

Jeremiah 12:5 ‘If you find it exhausting to race against me on foot, how will you compete against horses? In a country at peace you feel secure, but how will you fare in the thickets of the Jordan?

Jeremiah 12:6 ‘For even your brothers and your own family will betray you. They will pursue you in full cry. Put no faith in them when they speak you fair!’

Jeremiah 12:7 I have abandoned my house, left my heritage, I have delivered what I dearly loved into the clutches of its enemies.

Jeremiah 12:8 To me, my heritage has behaved like a lion in the forest, it roared at me ferociously: so I now hate it.

Jeremiah 12:9 I see my heritage as a brightly-coloured bird of prey attacked by birds of prey on every side! Go, assemble all the wild animals, make them come and dine!

Jeremiah 12:10 Many shepherds have laid my vineyard waste, have trampled over my plot of land, the plot of land which was my joy, reducing my favourite estate to a deserted wilderness.

Jeremiah 12:11 They have made it a waste; wasted, it mourns before me. The whole country has been devastated and no one takes it to heart.

Jeremiah 12:12 The devastators have arrived on all the bare heights of the desert (for Yahweh wields a devouring sword); from one end of the country to the other, there is no peace for any living thing.

Jeremiah 12:13 Wheat they have sown, thorns they reap: they have worn themselves out, to no profit. They are disappointed in their harvests, because of Yahweh's burning anger.

Jeremiah 12:14 Yahweh says this, 'As regards all my evil neighbours who have laid hands on the heritage I granted my people Israel, look, I shall uproot them from their soil, (though I shall uproot the House of Judah from among them).

Jeremiah 12:15 But having uprooted them, I shall take pity on them again and bring them back each to its own heritage, each to its own country,

Jeremiah 12:16 and if they carefully learn my people's ways and swear by my name, "As Yahweh lives", as they have taught my people to swear by Baal, then they will be re-established among my people.

Jeremiah 12:17 But if any nation refuses to listen, I shall uproot it for ever and destroy it, Yahweh declares.'

Jeremiah 13:1 Yahweh said this to me, 'Go and buy a linen waistcloth and put it round your waist. But do not dip it in water.'

Jeremiah 13:2 And so, as Yahweh had ordered, I bought a waistcloth and put it round my waist.

Jeremiah 13:3 A second time the word of Yahweh came to me,

Jeremiah 13:4 'Take the waistcloth that you have bought and are wearing round your waist. Up, go to the Euphrates and hide it there in a hole in the rock.'

Jeremiah 13:5 So I went and hid it by the Euphrates as Yahweh had ordered me.

Jeremiah 13:6 A long time later, Yahweh said to me, 'Up, go to the Euphrates and fetch the waistcloth I ordered you to hide there.'

Jeremiah 13:7 So I went to the Euphrates, and I searched, and I took the waistcloth from the place where I had hidden it. And there was the waistcloth ruined, no use for anything.

Jeremiah 13:8 Then the word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Jeremiah 13:9 'Yahweh says this, "In the same way I shall ruin the pride of Judah, the immense pride of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 13:10 This evil people, these people who refuse to listen to my words, who follow their own stubborn inclinations and run after other gods, serving and worshipping them—this people will become like this waistcloth, no good for anything.

Jeremiah 13:11 For just as a waistcloth clings to a man's waist, so I made the whole House of Israel and the whole House of Judah cling to me, Yahweh declares, to be my people, my glory, my honour and my pride. But they have not listened."

Jeremiah 13:12 'You will also say this to them, "Yahweh, God of Israel, says this: Any jug can be filled with wine." And if they answer you, "Do you think we do not know that any jug can be filled with wine?"

Jeremiah 13:13 you are to say, "Yahweh says this: Look, I shall fill all the inhabitants of this country, the kings who occupy the throne of David, the priests, the prophets and all the citizens of Jerusalem, with drunkenness.

Jeremiah 13:14 Then I shall smash them one against the other, parents and children all together, Yahweh declares. Mercilessly, relentlessly, pitilessly, I shall destroy them." '

Jeremiah 13:15 Listen and pay attention, do not be proud: Yahweh is speaking!

Jeremiah 13:16 Give glory to Yahweh your God before the darkness comes, before your feet stumble on the darkened mountains. You hope for light, but he will turn it to shadow dark as death, will change it to blackness.

Jeremiah 13:17 If you do not listen to this warning, I shall weep in secret for your pride; my eyes will weep bitterly and stream with tears, for Yahweh's flock is being led into captivity.

Jeremiah 13:18 Tell the king and the queen mother, 'Sit in a lower place, since your glorious crown has fallen from your head.

Jeremiah 13:19 The towns of the Negeb are shut off with no one to give access to them. All Judah has been deported, deported wholesale.'

Jeremiah 13:20 Raise your eyes and look at these now coming from the north. Where is the flock once entrusted to you, the flock which was your pride?

Jeremiah 13:21 What will you say when they come and punish you, you yourself having taught them? Against you, in the lead, will come your friends. Then will not anguish grip you as it grips a woman in labour?

Jeremiah 13:22 And should you ask yourself, 'Why is all this happening to me?' it is because of your great guilt that your skirts have been pulled up and you have been manhandled.

Jeremiah 13:23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? And you, can you do right, being so accustomed to wrong?

Jeremiah 13:24 'I shall scatter you like chaff on the desert wind.

Jeremiah 13:25 This is your share, the part allotted you, from me, Yahweh declares, because you have forgotten me and put your trust in Delusion.

Jeremiah 13:26 I am the one who pulls your skirts up over your face to let your shame be seen.

Jeremiah 13:27 Oh! Your adulteries, your shrieks of pleasure, your vile prostitution! On the hills, in the fields, I have seen your Horrors. Jerusalem, disaster is coming for you! How much longer till you are made clean?'

Jeremiah 14:1 The word of Yahweh that came to Jeremiah on the occasion of the drought.

Jeremiah 14:2 'Judah is in mourning, her towns are pining, sinking to the ground; a cry goes up from Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 14:3 The nobles send their servants for water, they come to the water-tanks, find no water, and return with their pitchers empty. Dismayed and bewildered, they cover their heads.

Jeremiah 14:4 Because the soil is all cracked since the country has had no rain; the farmers are dismayed, they cover their heads.

Jeremiah 14:5 Even the doe in the countryside giving birth abandons her young, for there is no grass;

Jeremiah 14:6 the wild donkeys standing on the bare heights gasp for air like jackals: their eyes grow dim for lack of pasture.'

Jeremiah 14:7 Although our sins witness against us, Yahweh, for your name's sake, intervene! Yes, our acts of infidelity have been many, we have sinned against you!

Jeremiah 14:8 Yahweh, hope of Israel, its Saviour in time of distress, why are you like a stranger in this country, like a traveller staying only for one night?

Jeremiah 14:9 Why are you like someone bemused, like a warrior who has no power to rescue? And yet, Yahweh, you are among us, we are called by your name. Do not desert us!

Jeremiah 14:10 Yahweh says this about this people, 'They take such pleasure in darting hither and thither, they cannot restrain their feet! But Yahweh takes pleasure in them no longer; now he will keep their guilt in mind and punish their sins.’

Jeremiah 14:11 Yahweh then said to me, ‘Do not intercede for this people or their welfare.

Jeremiah 14:12 If they fast, I will not listen to their plea; if they offer burnt offerings and cereal offerings I will not accept them. Rather, I shall make an end of them by sword, famine and plague.’

Jeremiah 14:13 ‘Ah, Lord Yahweh,’ I answered, ‘here are the prophets telling them, “You will not see the sword, famine will not touch you; I promise you true peace in this place.” ‘

Jeremiah 14:14 Then Yahweh said to me, ‘The prophets are prophesying lies in my name; I have not sent them, I gave them no orders, I never spoke to them. Delusive visions, hollow predictions, daydreams of their own, that is what they prophesy to you.

Jeremiah 14:15 Therefore, Yahweh says this: The prophets who prophesy in my name when I have not sent them, and tell you there will be no sword or famine in this country, these same prophets will meet their end by sword and famine.

Jeremiah 14:16 And as for the people to whom they prophesy, they will be tossed into the streets of Jerusalem, victims of famine and the sword, with not a soul to bury them: neither them nor their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters. I shall pour their own wickedness down on them.

Jeremiah 14:17 ‘So say this word to them: May my eyes shed tears night and day, unceasingly, since the daughter of my people has sustained a fearsome wound, a crippling injury.

Jeremiah 14:18 If I go into the countryside, there lie those killed by the sword; if I go into the city, I see people tortured with hunger; even prophets and priests roam the country at their wits’ end.’

Jeremiah 14:19 Have you rejected Judah altogether? Does your very soul revolt at Zion? Why have you struck us down without hope of cure? We were hoping for peace—no good came of it! For the moment of cure—nothing but terror!

Jeremiah 14:20 Yahweh, we acknowledge our wickedness and our ancestors’ guilt: we have indeed sinned against you.

Jeremiah 14:21 For your name’s sake do not reject us, do not dishonour the throne of your glory. Remember us; do not break your covenant with us.

Jeremiah 14:22 Can any of the nations’ Futile Ones make it rain? Can the heavens of their own accord give showers? Are you not the one, Yahweh our God? In you is our hope, since you make all these things.

Jeremiah 15:1 Yahweh said to me, ‘Even if Moses and Samuel pleaded before me, I could not sympathise with this people! Drive them out of my sight; away with them!

Jeremiah 15:2 And if they ask you, “Where shall we go?” tell them this, “Yahweh says this: Those for the plague, to the plague; those for the sword, to the sword; those for famine, to famine; those for captivity, to captivity!

Jeremiah 15:3 “I shall consign them to four kinds of thing, Yahweh declares: the sword to kill, the dogs to drag away, the birds of heaven and wild animals of earth to devour and to destroy.

Jeremiah 15:4 I shall make them an object of horror to all the kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, and what he did in Jerusalem.” ‘

Jeremiah 15:5 Who is there to pity you, Jerusalem, who to grieve for you, who to go out of his way and ask how you are?

Jeremiah 15:6 ‘You yourself have rejected me, Yahweh declares, you have turned your back on me; so I have stretched my hand over you and destroyed you. Tired of relenting,

Jeremiah 15:7 I have winnowed them with a winnow at the country’s gates. They have been bereft, I have destroyed my people, but they refuse to leave their ways.

Jeremiah 15:8 I have made their widows outnumber the sand of the sea. On the mother of young warriors I bring the destroyer in broad daylight. Suddenly I bring anguish and terror down on her.

Jeremiah 15:9 The mother of seven sons grows faint and gasps for breath. It is still day, but already her sun has set, she is dismayed and distracted; and the rest of them I shall consign to the sword, to their enemies, Yahweh declares.’

Jeremiah 15:10 A disaster for me, mother, that you bore me to be a man of strife and dissension for the whole country. I neither lend nor borrow, yet all of them curse me.

Jeremiah 15:11 Have I not genuinely done my best to serve you, Yahweh? Have I not interceded with you in time of disaster and distress!

Jeremiah 15:12 ‘Can iron break the iron of the north and the bronze?

Jeremiah 15:13 Your wealth and your treasures I shall hand over to plunder, without repayment, because of all your sins, throughout your territory.

Jeremiah 15:14 I shall enslave you to your enemies in a country which you do not know, for my anger has kindled a fire that will burn you up.’

Jeremiah 15:15 Yahweh, you know! Remember me, take care of me, and avenge me on my persecutors. However long your anger endures, do not snatch me away. Realise that I suffer insult for your sake.

Jeremiah 15:16 When your words came, I devoured them: your word was my delight and the joy of my heart; for I was called by your Name, Yahweh, God Sabaoth.

Jeremiah 15:17 I never sat in the company of scoffers amusing myself; with your hands on me I held myself aloof, since you had filled me with indignation.

Jeremiah 15:18 Why is my suffering continual, my wound incurable, refusing to be healed? Truly, for me you are a deceptive stream with uncertain waters!

Jeremiah 15:19 To which Yahweh replied, 'If you repent, I shall restore you to plead before me. If you distinguish between the precious and the base, you shall be as my own mouth. They will come back to you, but you must not go back to them.

Jeremiah 15:20 As far as these people are concerned, I shall make you a fortified wall of bronze. They will fight against you but will not overcome you, because I am with you to save you and rescue you, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 15:21 I shall rescue you from the clutches of the wicked and redeem you from the grasp of the violent.'

Jeremiah 16:1 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows:

Jeremiah 16:2 'You are not to marry or have sons and daughters in this place.

Jeremiah 16:3 For Yahweh says this regarding the sons and daughters to be born in this place, about the mothers who give birth to them, and about the fathers who beget them in this land,

Jeremiah 16:4 "They will die of deadly diseases, unlamented and unburied; they will be like dung spread on the ground; they will meet their end by sword and famine, and their corpses will be food for the birds of the sky and the beasts of earth."

Jeremiah 16:5 'Yes, Yahweh says this, "Go into no house where there is mourning, do not go and lament or grieve with them; for I have withdrawn my peace from this people, Yahweh declares, and faithful love and pity too.

Jeremiah 16:6 High or low, they will die in this country, without burial or lament; there will be no gashing, no shaving of the head for them.

Jeremiah 16:7 No bread will be broken for the mourner to comfort him for the dead; no cup of consolation will be offered him for his father or his mother.

Jeremiah 16:8 "And do not enter a house where there is feasting, to sit with them and eat and drink.

Jeremiah 16:9 For Yahweh Sabaoth, the God of Israel, says this: In this place, before your eyes, in your own days, I will silence the shouts of rejoicing and mirth and the voices of bridegroom and bride.

Jeremiah 16:10 “When you tell these people this and they ask you: Why has Yahweh decreed such complete and total disaster for us? What have we done wrong? What sin have we committed against Yahweh our God?

Jeremiah 16:11 then you are to answer: It is because your ancestors abandoned me, Yahweh declares, and followed other gods, and served and worshipped them. They abandoned me and did not keep my Law.

Jeremiah 16:12 And you for your part have behaved even worse than your ancestors. Look, each of you follows his own stubborn and wicked inclinations, without listening to me.

Jeremiah 16:13 And so, I shall eject you from this country into a country unknown to you or to your ancestors, and there you can serve other gods, day and night, for I shall show you no more favour.”

Jeremiah 16:14 ‘Look, the days are coming, Yahweh declares, when people will no longer say, “As Yahweh lives who brought the Israelites out of Egypt!”

Jeremiah 16:15 but, “As Yahweh lives who brought the Israelites back from the land of the north and all the countries to which he had driven them.” I shall bring them back to the very soil I gave their ancestors.’

Jeremiah 16:16 ‘Watch, I shall send for many fishermen, Yahweh declares, and these will fish them up; next, I shall send for many huntsmen, and these will hunt them out of every mountain, every hill, and out of the holes in the rocks.

Jeremiah 16:17 For my eyes watch all their ways, these are not hidden from me, and their guilt does not escape my gaze.

Jeremiah 16:18 I shall requite their guilt and their sin twice over, since they have polluted my country with the carcases of their Horrors, and filled my heritage with their Abominations.’

Jeremiah 16:19 Yahweh, my strength, my stronghold, my refuge in time of distress! To you the nations will come from the remotest parts of the earth and say, ‘Our fathers inherited nothing but Delusion, Futility of no use whatever.

Jeremiah 16:20 Can human beings make their own gods? These are not gods at all!’

Jeremiah 16:21 ‘Now listen, I will make them acknowledge, this time I will make them acknowledge my hand and my might; and then they will know that Yahweh is my name.’

Jeremiah 17:1 ‘The sin of Judah is written with an iron pen, engraved with a diamond point on the tablet of the heart and on the horns of their altars,

Jeremiah 17:2 while their children remember their altars and their sacred pole beside the green trees, on the lofty hills.

Jeremiah 17:3 My mountain on the plain, your wealth and all your treasures I shall hand over to be plundered, because of the sin of your high places throughout your territory.

Jeremiah 17:4 You will have to relinquish your heritage which I gave you; I will enslave you to your enemies in a country which you do not know, for my fiery anger kindled by you will burn for ever.'

Jeremiah 17:5 Yahweh says this, 'Accursed be anyone who trusts in human beings, who relies on human strength and whose heart turns from Yahweh.

Jeremiah 17:6 Such a person is like scrub in the wastelands: when good comes, it does not affect him since he lives in the parched places of the desert, uninhabited, salt land.

Jeremiah 17:7 'Blessed is anyone who trusts in Yahweh, with Yahweh to rely on.

Jeremiah 17:8 Such a person is like a tree by the waterside that thrusts its roots to the stream: when the heat comes it has nothing to fear, its foliage stays green; untroubled in a year of drought, it never stops bearing fruit.

Jeremiah 17:9 'The heart is more devious than any other thing, and is depraved; who can pierce its secrets?

Jeremiah 17:10 I, Yahweh, search the heart, test the motives, to give each person what his conduct and his actions deserve.

Jeremiah 17:11 'The partridge will hatch eggs it has not laid. No different is the person who gets riches unjustly: his days half done, they will desert him and he prove a fool after all.'

Jeremiah 17:12 A glorious throne, sublime from the beginning, such is our Holy Place.

Jeremiah 17:13 Yahweh, hope of Israel, all who abandon you will be put to shame, those who turn from you will be registered in the underworld, since they have abandoned Yahweh, the fountain of living water.

Jeremiah 17:14 Heal me, Yahweh, and I shall be healed, save me, and I shall be saved, for you are my praise.

Jeremiah 17:15 Look, they keep saying to me, 'Where is Yahweh's word? Let it come true then!'

Jeremiah 17:16 Yet I have never urged you to send disaster, I never desired the fatal day, this you know; what came from my lips was not concealed from you.

Jeremiah 17:17 Do not be a terror to me, you, my refuge in time of disaster.

Jeremiah 17:18 Let my persecutors be confounded, not me, let them, not me, be terrified. On them bring the day of disaster, destroy them, destroy them twice over!

Jeremiah 17:19 Yahweh said this to me, ‘Go and stand at the Gate of the Sons of the People by which the kings of Judah go in and out—and at all the gates of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 17:20 Say to them, “Listen to the word of Yahweh, you kings of Judah, all you people of Judah too, and all you inhabitants of Jerusalem who pass through the gates.

Jeremiah 17:21 Yahweh says this: As you value your lives, on no account carry a burden on the Sabbath day or bring it in through the gates of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 17:22 Bring no burden out of your houses on the Sabbath day, and do no work. Keep the Sabbath day holy, as I ordered your ancestors.

Jeremiah 17:23 They would not hear, would not pay attention; they deliberately refused to listen or accept instruction.

Jeremiah 17:24 But if you listen carefully to me, Yahweh declares, and bring no burden in through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, if you keep the Sabbath holy and do no work on that day,

Jeremiah 17:25 then, through the gates of this city, kings and princes occupying the throne of David will continue to make their entry, riding in chariots or on horseback, they, their chief men, the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And this city will be inhabited for ever.

Jeremiah 17:26 They will come from the towns of Judah, from the districts round Jerusalem, from the territory of Benjamin, from the lowlands, from the highlands, from the Negeb, to offer burnt offering and sacrifice, and cereal offering and incense, to offer thanksgiving sacrifices in the Temple of Yahweh.

Jeremiah 17:27 But if you do not listen to me to keep the Sabbath day holy, and to refrain from entering the gates of Jerusalem with burdens on the Sabbath day, then I shall set fire to its gates; fire will devour the palaces of Jerusalem and not be quenched.” ‘

Jeremiah 18:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh as follows,

Jeremiah 18:2 ‘Get up and make your way down to the potter’s house, and there I shall tell you what I have to say.’

Jeremiah 18:3 So I went down to the potter’s house; and there he was, working at the wheel.

Jeremiah 18:4 But the vessel he was making came out wrong, as may happen with clay when a potter is at work. So he began again and shaped it into another vessel, as he thought fit.

Jeremiah 18:5 Then the word of Yahweh came to me as follows, Jeremiah 18:6 ‘House of Israel, can I not do to you what this potter does? Yahweh demands. Yes, like clay in the potter’s hand, so you are in mine, House of Israel.

Jeremiah 18:7 Sometimes I announce that I shall uproot, break down and destroy a certain nation or kingdom,

Jeremiah 18:8 but should the nation I have threatened abandon its wickedness, I then change my mind about the disaster which I had intended to inflict on it.

Jeremiah 18:9 Sometimes I announce that I shall build up and plant a certain nation or kingdom,

Jeremiah 18:10 but should that nation do what displeases me and refuse to listen to my voice, I then change my mind about the good which I was intending to confer on it.

Jeremiah 18:11 So now, say this to the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, “Yahweh says this: Listen, I am preparing a disaster for you, I am working out a plan against you. So now, each one of you, turn back from your evil ways, amend your conduct and actions.”

Jeremiah 18:12 They, however, will say, “It is no use! We shall follow our own plans; each of us will act on his own wicked inclinations.” ‘

Jeremiah 18:13 Therefore, Yahweh says this, ‘Ask, please, among the nations if anyone has heard anything like this. The Virgin of Israel has done a very horrible thing.

Jeremiah 18:14 Does the snow of Lebanon ever leave the rocks of its slopes? Do the rivers of foreign lands, their cold flowing waters, ever run dry?

Jeremiah 18:15 And yet my people have forgotten me! They burn incense to a Nothing! They have been made to stumble in their ways, the ancient paths, to walk in paths, on an unmade road,

Jeremiah 18:16 to make their country an object of horror, everlastingly derided: every passer-by will be appalled at it and shake his head.

Jeremiah 18:17 Like the east wind, I shall scatter them before the enemy. I shall show them my back, not my face, the day they are ruined.’

Jeremiah 18:18 ‘Come on,’ they said, ‘let us concoct a plot against Jeremiah, for the Law will not perish for lack of priests, nor advice for lack of wise men, nor the word for lack of prophets. Come on, let us slander him and pay no attention to anything he says.’

Jeremiah 18:19 Pay attention to me, Yahweh, hear what my adversaries are saying.

Jeremiah 18:20 Should evil be returned for good? Now they are digging a pit for me. Remember how I pleaded before you and spoke good of them, to turn your retribution away from them.

Jeremiah 18:21 So, hand their sons over to famine, abandon them to the edge of the sword. Let their wives become childless and widowed. Let their husbands die of plague, their young men be cut down by the sword in battle.

Jeremiah 18:22 Let cries re-echo from their houses as you bring raiders suddenly on them. For they have dug a pit to catch me, they have laid snares to trap my feet.

Jeremiah 18:23 But you, Yahweh, know all about their murderous plot against me. Do not forgive their guilt, do not efface their sin from your sight. Let them be hurled down before you, deal with them while you are angry!

Jeremiah 19:1 Then Yahweh said to Jeremiah, 'Go and buy a potter's earthenware jug. Take some of the people's elders and some of the senior priests with you.

Jeremiah 19:2 Go out towards the Valley of Ben-Hinnom, just outside the Gate of the Potsherds. There proclaim the words I shall say to you.

Jeremiah 19:3 You must say, "Kings of Judah, inhabitants of Jerusalem! Listen to the word of Yahweh! Yahweh Sabaoth, the God of Israel, says this: I am about to bring such a disaster on this place that the ears of every one who hears of it will ring.

Jeremiah 19:4 For they have abandoned me and have made this place unrecognisable, and offered incense here to other gods which neither they nor their ancestors nor the kings of Judah ever knew before. They have filled this place with the blood of the innocent;

Jeremiah 19:5 for they have built high places for Baal to burn their sons as burnt offerings to Baal, a thing I never ordered, never mentioned, that had never entered my thoughts.

Jeremiah 19:6 So now the days are coming, Yahweh declares, when people will no longer call this place Topheth, or Valley of Ben-Hinnom, but Valley of Slaughter.

Jeremiah 19:7 Because of this place, I shall empty Judah and Jerusalem of sound advice; I shall make them fall by the sword before their enemies, by the hand of those determined to kill them; I shall give their corpses as food to the birds of the sky and the animals of earth.

Jeremiah 19:8 And I shall make this city an object of horror and derision; every passer-by will be appalled at it and whistle at the sight of all the wounds it has sustained.

Jeremiah 19:9 I shall make them eat the flesh of their own sons and daughters: they will eat one another during the siege, in the shortage to which their enemies, and those determined to kill them, will reduce them."

Jeremiah 19:10 'You must break this jug in front of the men who are with you,

Jeremiah 19:11 and say to them, “Yahweh Sabaoth says this: I am going to break this people and this city just as one breaks a potter’s pot, so that it can never be mended again. “Topheth will become a burial ground, for lack of other burial space.

Jeremiah 19:12 That is how I shall treat this place, Yahweh declares, and its inhabitants, by making this city like Topheth.

Jeremiah 19:13 The houses of Jerusalem and those of the kings of Judah, all the houses on the roofs of which they offered incense to the whole array of heaven and poured libations to other gods, will be unclean, like this place Topheth.” ‘

Jeremiah 19:14 Jeremiah then came back from Topheth where Yahweh had sent him to prophesy, and stood in the court of the Temple of Yahweh and said to all the people,

Jeremiah 19:15 ‘Yahweh Sabaoth, the God of Israel, says this, “Yes, on this city, and on all the towns belonging to it, I shall bring all the disaster which I had decreed for it, since they have stubbornly refused to listen to my words.” ‘

Jeremiah 20:1 Now the priest Pashhur son of Immer, who was the chief of police in the Temple of Yahweh, heard Jeremiah making this prophecy.

Jeremiah 20:2 Pashhur struck the prophet Jeremiah and then put him in the stocks, in the Upper Benjamin Gate leading into the Temple of Yahweh.

Jeremiah 20:3 Next day, Pashhur had Jeremiah taken out of the stocks; Jeremiah then said to him, ‘Not Pashhur but Terror-on-every-Side is Yahweh’s name for you.

Jeremiah 20:4 For Yahweh says this, “I am going to hand you over to terror, you and all your friends; they will fall by the sword of their enemies, your own eyes will see it. The whole of Judah, too, I shall hand over to the king of Babylon; he will carry them off captive to Babylon and put them to the sword.

Jeremiah 20:5 And all the wealth of this city, all its stores, all its valuables, all the treasures of the kings of Judah, I shall hand over to their enemies who will plunder them, round them up and carry them off to Babylon.

Jeremiah 20:6 As for you, Pashhur, and your whole household, you will go into captivity; you will go to Babylon; there you will die, and there be buried, you and all your friends to whom you have prophesied lies.” ‘

Jeremiah 20:7 You have seduced me, Yahweh, and I have let myself be seduced; you have overpowered me: you were the stronger. I am a laughing-stock all day long, they all make fun of me.

Jeremiah 20:8 For whenever I speak, I have to howl and proclaim, ‘Violence and ruin!’ For me, Yahweh’s word has been the cause of insult and derision all day long.

Jeremiah 20:9 I would say to myself, ‘I will not think about him, I will not speak in his name any more,’ but then there seemed to be a fire burning in my heart, imprisoned in my bones. The effort to restrain it wearied me, I could not do it.

Jeremiah 20:10 I heard so many disparaging me, ‘Terror on every side! Denounce him! Let us denounce him!’ All those who were on good terms with me watched for my downfall, ‘Perhaps he will be seduced into error. Then we shall get the better of him and take our revenge!’

Jeremiah 20:11 But Yahweh is at my side like a mighty hero; my opponents will stumble, vanquished, confounded by their failure; everlasting, unforgettable disgrace will be theirs.

Jeremiah 20:12 Yahweh Sabaoth, you who test the upright, observer of motives and thoughts, I shall see your vengeance on them, for I have revealed my cause to you.

Jeremiah 20:13 Sing to Yahweh, praise Yahweh, for he has delivered the soul of one in need from the clutches of evil doers.

Jeremiah 20:14 A curse on the day when I was born! May the day my mother bore me be unblessed!

Jeremiah 20:15 A curse on the man who brought my father the news, ‘A son, a boy has been born to you!’ making him overjoyed.

Jeremiah 20:16 May this man be like the towns that Yahweh overthrew without mercy; may he hear the warning-cry at dawn and the shout of battle at high noon,

Jeremiah 20:17 for not killing me in the womb; my mother would have been my grave and her womb pregnant for ever.

Jeremiah 20:18 Why ever did I come out of the womb to see toil and sorrow and end my days in shame?

Jeremiah 21:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh when King Zedekiah sent Pashhur son of Malchiah to him, with the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah, to say this,

Jeremiah 21:2 ‘Please consult Yahweh for us, since Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon is making war on us: perhaps Yahweh will work one of his many miracles for us and force him to withdraw.’

Jeremiah 21:3 Jeremiah said to them, ‘Take this answer to Zedekiah,

Jeremiah 21:4 “Yahweh, God of Israel, says this: I shall bring back the weapons of war which you are now carrying, and with which you are fighting the king of Babylon and the Chaldaeans now besieging you; from outside the walls, I shall stack them in the centre of this city.

Jeremiah 21:5 And I shall fight against you myself with outstretched hand and mighty arm, in anger, fury and great wrath.

Jeremiah 21:6 I shall strike down the inhabitants of this city, human and animal; they will die of a great plague.

Jeremiah 21:7 Then, Yahweh declares, I shall deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, his officials, the people and those of this city who have escaped the plague, the sword, or the famine, into the clutches of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, into the clutches of their enemies and into the clutches of those determined to kill them; mercilessly, relentlessly, pitilessly, he will put them to the sword."

Jeremiah 21:8 'And you must say to this people, "Yahweh says this: Look, I offer you a choice between the way of life and the way of death.

Jeremiah 21:9 Anyone who stays in this city will die by sword, by famine, or by plague; but anyone who leaves it and surrenders to the Chaldaeans now besieging you will live; he will escape with his life.

Jeremiah 21:10 For I am determined on disaster, and not prosperity, for this city, Yahweh declares. It will be handed over to the king of Babylon, and he will burn it down." '

Jeremiah 21:11 To the royal House of Judah. Listen to the word of Yahweh,

Jeremiah 21:12 House of David! Yahweh says this: Each morning give fair judgement, rescue anyone who has been wronged from the hands of his oppressor, or else my wrath will leap out like a fire, it will burn and no one will be able to quench it, because of the wickedness of your actions.

Jeremiah 21:13 My quarrel is with you, resident of the valley, Rock-in-the-Plain, Yahweh declares, with you that say, 'Who would dare attack us and enter our lairs?'

Jeremiah 21:14 I shall punish you as your actions deserve, Yahweh declares, I shall set fire to its forest and it will devour all around it.

Jeremiah 22:1 Yahweh said this, 'Go down to the palace of the king of Judah and there say this word, Jeremiah 22:2 "Listen to the word of Yahweh, king of Judah now occupying the throne of David, you, your officials and your people who go through these gates.

Jeremiah 22:3 Yahweh says this: Act uprightly and justly; rescue from the hands of the oppressor anyone who has been wronged, do not exploit or ill-treat the stranger, the orphan, the widow; shed no innocent blood in this place.

Jeremiah 22:4 For if you are scrupulous in obeying this command, then kings occupying the throne of David will continue to make their entry through the gates of this palace riding in chariots or on horseback, they, their officials and their people.

Jeremiah 22:5 But if you do not listen to these words, then I swear by myself, Yahweh declares, this palace shall become a ruin!

Jeremiah 22:6 “Yes, this is what Yahweh says about the palace of the king of Judah: You are like Gilead to me, like a peak of Lebanon. All the same, I will reduce you to a desert, to uninhabited towns.

Jeremiah 22:7 I dedicate men to destroy you, each man with his weapons; they will cut down your finest cedars and throw them on the fire.

Jeremiah 22:8 “And when many nations pass this city, they will say to one another: Why has Yahweh treated this great city like this?

Jeremiah 22:9 And the answer will be: Because they abandoned the covenant of Yahweh their God to worship other gods and serve them.” ‘

Jeremiah 22:10 Do not weep for the man who is dead, do not raise the dirge for him. Weep rather for the one who has gone away, since he will never come back, never see his native land again.

Jeremiah 22:11 For this is what Yahweh has said about Shallum son of Josiah, king of Judah, who succeeded Josiah his father and was forced to leave this place, ‘He will never come back to it

Jeremiah 22:12 but will die in the place to which he has been taken captive; and he will never see this country again.

Jeremiah 22:13 ‘Disaster for the man who builds his house without uprightness, his upstairs rooms without fair judgement, who makes his fellow-man work for nothing, without paying him his wages,

Jeremiah 22:14 who says, “I shall build myself a spacious palace with airy upstairs rooms,” who makes windows in it, panels it with cedar, and paints it vermilion.

Jeremiah 22:15 Are you more of a king because of your passion for cedar? Did your father go hungry or thirsty? But he did what is just and upright, so all went well for him.

Jeremiah 22:16 He used to examine the cases of poor and needy, then all went well. Is not that what it means to know me? Yahweh demands.

Jeremiah 22:17 You on the other hand have eyes and heart for nothing but your own interests, for shedding innocent blood and perpetrating violence and oppression.’

Jeremiah 22:18 That is why Yahweh says this about Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah: ‘No lamenting for him, “My poor brother! My poor sister!” No lamenting for him, “His poor lordship! His poor majesty!”

Jeremiah 22:19 He will have a donkey’s funeral—dragged away and thrown out of the gates of Jerusalem.’

Jeremiah 22:20 ‘Climb the Lebanon range and shriek, raise your voice in Bashan, shriek from the Abarim, for all your lovers have been ruined!

Jeremiah 22:21 I spoke to you in your prosperity, but you said, “I will not listen!” From your youth this has been how you behaved, refusing to listen to my voice.

Jeremiah 22:22 The wind will shepherd all your shepherds away and your lovers will go into captivity. Then you will blush deep with shame at the thought of all your wickedness.

Jeremiah 22:23 You who have made the Lebanon your home and made your nest among the cedars, how you will groan when anguish overtakes you, pangs like those of a woman in labour!

Jeremiah 22:24 ‘As I live, Yahweh declares, even if Coniah son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, were the signet ring on my right hand, I would still wrench you off!

Jeremiah 22:25 I shall hand you over to those determined to kill you, to those you dread, to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, to the Chaldaeans.

Jeremiah 22:26 I shall hurl you and the mother who bore you into another country; you were not born there but you will both die there.

Jeremiah 22:27 They will not return to the country to which they desperately long to return.’

Jeremiah 22:28 Is he a shoddy broken pot, this man Coniah, a crock that no one wants? Why are he and his offspring ejected, hurled into a country they know nothing of?

Jeremiah 22:29 O land, land, land, listen to the word of Yahweh!

Jeremiah 22:30 Yahweh says this, ‘List this man as: Childless; a man who made a failure of his life, since none of his offspring will succeed in occupying the throne of David, or ruling in Judah again.’

Jeremiah 23:1 ‘Disaster for the shepherds who lose and scatter the sheep of my pasture, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 23:2 This, therefore, is what Yahweh, God of Israel, says about the shepherds who shepherd my people, “You have scattered my flock, you have driven them away and have not taken care of them. Right, I shall take care of you for your misdeeds, Yahweh declares!

Jeremiah 23:3 But the remnant of my flock I myself shall gather from all the countries where I have driven them, and bring them back to their folds; they will be fruitful and increase in numbers.

Jeremiah 23:4 For them I shall raise up shepherds to shepherd them and pasture them. No fear, no terror for them any more; not one shall be lost, Yahweh declares!

Jeremiah 23:5 Look, the days are coming, Yahweh declares, when I shall raise an upright Branch for David; he will reign as king and be wise, doing what is just and upright in the country.

Jeremiah 23:6 In his days Judah will triumph and Israel live in safety. And this is the name he will be called, 'Yahweh-is-our-Saving-Justice.' "

Jeremiah 23:7 'So, look, the days are coming, Yahweh declares, when people will no longer say, "As Yahweh lives who brought the Israelites out of Egypt,"

Jeremiah 23:8 but, "As Yahweh lives who led back and brought home the offspring of the House of Israel from the land of the north and all the countries to which he had driven them, to live on their own soil." '

Jeremiah 23:9 On the prophets. My heart is broken within me, I tremble in all my bones; I am like a drunken man, like a man overcome with wine, because of Yahweh and his holy words:

Jeremiah 23:10 'For the country is full of adulterers; yes, because of a curse, the country is in mourning and the pasturage in the desert has dried up; they are prompt to do wrong, make no effort to do right.

Jeremiah 23:11 Yes, even prophet and priest are godless, I have detected their wickedness in my own House, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 23:12 Because of this, their way will prove treacherous going for them; in the darkness where they are driven, there they will fall. For I shall bring disaster on them, when the year for punishing them comes, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 23:13 'In the prophets of Samaria I have seen insanity: they prophesied in the name of Baal and led my people Israel astray.

Jeremiah 23:14 But in the prophets of Jerusalem I have seen something horrible: adultery, persistent lying, such abetting of the wicked that no one renounces his wickedness. To me they are all like Sodom and its inhabitants are like Gomorrah.

Jeremiah 23:15 So this is what Yahweh Sabaoth says about the prophets, "Now I shall give them wormwood to eat and make them drink poisoned water, since from the prophets of Jerusalem godlessness has spread throughout the land."

Jeremiah 23:16 'Yahweh Sabaoth says this, "Do not listen to what those prophets prophesy to you; they are deluding you, they retail visions of their own, and not what comes from Yahweh's mouth.

Jeremiah 23:17 To those who despise me, they keep saying: Yahweh has spoken: you will have peace! and to all who follow their own stubborn inclinations: No disaster will touch you."

Jeremiah 23:18 But who has been present in Yahweh's council and seen, and heard his word? Who has paid attention to his word and listened to it?

Jeremiah 23:19 Look, Yahweh's hurricane, his wrath, bursts out, a fearsome hurricane, to burst on the heads of the wicked;

Jeremiah 23:20 Yahweh's anger will not withdraw until he has performed, has carried out, what he has in mind. In the final days, you will understand this clearly,

Jeremiah 23:21 ‘I did not send these prophets, yet they ran! I did not speak to them, yet they prophesied!

Jeremiah 23:22 Had they been present in my council, they could have proclaimed my words to my people and turned them from their evil way and from the wickedness of their deeds!

Jeremiah 23:23 ‘Am I a God when near, Yahweh demands, and not a God when far away?

Jeremiah 23:24 Can anyone hide somewhere secret without my seeing him? Yahweh demands. Do I not fill heaven and earth? Yahweh demands.

Jeremiah 23:25 ‘I have heard what the prophets say who make their lying prophecies in my name. “I have had a dream,” they say, “I have had a dream!”

Jeremiah 23:26 How long are there to be those among the prophets who prophesy lies and are in fact prophets of their own delusions?

Jeremiah 23:27 They are doing their best, by means of the dreams that they keep telling each other, to make my people forget my name, just as their ancestors forgot my name in favour of Baal.

Jeremiah 23:28 Let the prophet who has had a dream tell it for a dream! And let him who receives a word from me, deliver my word accurately! ‘What have straw and wheat in common? Yahweh demands.

Jeremiah 23:29 Is my word not like fire, Yahweh demands, is it not like a hammer shattering a rock?

Jeremiah 23:30 ‘So, then, I have a quarrel with the prophets, Yahweh declares, that steal my words from one another.

Jeremiah 23:31 I have a quarrel with the prophets, Yahweh declares, who wag their tongues to utter prophecies.

Jeremiah 23:32 I have a quarrel with the prophets who make prophecies out of lying dreams, Yahweh declares, who recount them, and lead my people astray by their lies and their bragging. I certainly never sent them or commissioned them, and they serve no good purpose for this people, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 23:33 ‘And when this people, or a prophet, or a priest, asks you, “What is Yahweh’s burden?” you must answer, “You are the burden, and I shall get rid of you, Yahweh declares!”

Jeremiah 23:34 ‘As for the prophet, the priest, or anyone else, who says, “Yahweh’s burden”, I shall punish that man, and his household too.

Jeremiah 23:35 This is what you must say to one another, among yourselves, “What answer has Yahweh given?” or “What has Yahweh said?”

Jeremiah 23:36 But stop using the expression “Yahweh’s burden”, for what each man says will be his own responsibility. And you twist the words of the living God, of Yahweh Sabaoth, our God.

Jeremiah 23:37 This is the way to speak to a prophet, “What answer has Yahweh given?” or “What has Yahweh said?”

Jeremiah 23:38 But if you say, “Yahweh’s burden”, then Yahweh says this, “Since you use the expression ‘Yahweh’s burden’, when I have warned you to stop saying, ‘Yahweh’s burden’,

Jeremiah 23:39 believe me, I shall pick you up and fling you from my presence, you and the city I gave to you and to your ancestors.

Jeremiah 23:40 I shall bring down everlasting shame on you, everlasting and unforgettable disgrace.” ‘

Jeremiah 24:1 Yahweh gave me a vision: set out in front of the Temple of Yahweh were two baskets of figs. This was after Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had led Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, away into exile from Jerusalem, with the chief men of Judah, the blacksmiths and metalworkers, and had taken them to Babylon.

Jeremiah 24:2 One basket contained excellent figs, like those that ripen first; the other contained very bad figs, so bad they were uneatable.

Jeremiah 24:3 Yahweh said to me, ‘What do you see, Jeremiah?’ ‘Figs,’ I answered, ‘the good ones excellent, the bad ones very bad, so bad as to be uneatable.’

Jeremiah 24:4 Then the word of Yahweh was addressed to me,

Jeremiah 24:5 ‘Yahweh, the God of Israel, says this, “As these figs are good, so I mean to concern myself with the welfare of the exiles of Judah whom I have sent from this place to the country of the Chaldaeans.

Jeremiah 24:6 My eyes will watch over them for their good, to bring them back to this country, to build them up and not to break them down, to plant them and not to uproot them.

Jeremiah 24:7 I shall give them a heart to acknowledge that I am Yahweh. They will be my people and I shall be their God, for they will return to me with all their heart.

Jeremiah 24:8 As for the bad figs, the figs so bad as to be uneatable-yes, Yahweh says this—that is how I shall treat Zedekiah king of Judah, his chief men and what is left of Jerusalem, those who remain in this country and those living in Egypt.

Jeremiah 24:9 I shall make them an object of horror, a disaster, to all the kingdoms of the earth, a thing of shame, a byword, a laughing-stock, a curse, wherever I shall drive them.

Jeremiah 24:10 Sword, famine and plague I shall send against them until they have vanished from the soil I gave to them and to their ancestors.” ‘

Jeremiah 25:1 The word that was addressed to Jeremiah about all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah (that is to say the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon).

Jeremiah 25:2 The prophet Jeremiah proclaimed it before all the people of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem:

Jeremiah 25:3 ‘For twenty-three years, from the thirteenth year of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah, until today, the word of Yahweh has been addressed to me and I have never tired of speaking to you (but you have not listened.

Jeremiah 25:4 Furthermore, Yahweh has untiringly sent you all his servants the prophets, but you have not listened or paid attention).

Jeremiah 25:5 The message was this, “Turn back, each one of you, from your evil behaviour and your evil actions, and you will go on living on the soil Yahweh long ago gave to you and your ancestors for ever.

Jeremiah 25:6 (And do not follow other gods to serve and worship them, do not provoke me with things you yourselves have made, and then I shall not harm you.)

Jeremiah 25:7 But you have not listened to me (Yahweh declares, so that you have now provoked me with things you yourselves have made, and thus harmed yourselves).”

Jeremiah 25:8 ‘So-this is what Yahweh Sabaoth says, “Since you have not listened to my words,

Jeremiah 25:9 I shall now send for all the families of the north (Yahweh declares, that is, for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, my servant) and bring them down on this country and its inhabitants (and on all these surrounding nations); I shall curse them with utter destruction and make them an object of horror, of scorn, and ruin them for ever.

Jeremiah 25:10 From them I shall banish the shouts of rejoicing and mirth, the voices of bridegroom and bride, the sound of the handmill and the light of the lamp;

Jeremiah 25:11 and this whole country will be reduced to ruin and desolation, and these nations will be enslaved to the king of Babylon for seventy years.

Jeremiah 25:12 (But when the seventy years are over, I shall punish the king of Babylon and that nation, Yahweh declares, for the wrong they have done, that is, the country of the Chaldaeans, and make it desolate for ever),

Jeremiah 25:13 and against that country I shall perform all the words with which I have threatened it, that is, everything written in this book.” ‘

Jeremiah 25:14 What Jeremiah prophesied against all the nations.

('For these in their turn are to be enslaved to powerful nations and great kings, and I shall pay them back as their deeds and handiwork deserve.')

Jeremiah 25:15 For Yahweh, the God of Israel, said this to me, 'Take this cup of the wine of wrath and make all the nations to whom I send you drink it;

Jeremiah 25:16 they will drink and reel and lose their wits, because of the sword I am sending among them.'

Jeremiah 25:17 I took the cup from Yahweh's hand and made all the nations to whom Yahweh sent me drink it

Jeremiah 25:18 (Jerusalem and the towns of Judah, its kings and its chief men, to make them a ruin, an object of horror and derision and a curse, as is the case today):

Jeremiah 25:19 Pharaoh king of Egypt, his officials, his chief men and all his people,

Jeremiah 25:20 with the whole conglomeration of peoples there (all the kings of the country of Uz); all the kings of the country of the Philistines, Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron and what is still left of Ashdod;

Jeremiah 25:21 Edom, Moab and the Ammonites;

Jeremiah 25:22 (all) the kings of Tyre, (all) the kings of Sidon, the kings of the island across the sea;

Jeremiah 25:23 Dedan, Tema, Buz, all the people with shaven temples;

Jeremiah 25:24 all the kings of Arabia (and all the kings of the conglomeration of peoples) who live in the desert

Jeremiah 25:25 (all the kings of Zimri), all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of Media;

Jeremiah 25:26 all the kings of the north, near and far, one after another: in short, all the kingdoms on the face of the earth. (As for the king of Sheshak, he will drink last of all.)

Jeremiah 25:27 'You will say to them, "Yahweh Sabaoth, the God of Israel, says this: Drink! Get drunk! Vomit! Fall, never to rise again, before the sword that I am sending among you!"

Jeremiah 25:28 If they refuse to take the cup from your hand and drink, you will say to them, "Yahweh Sabaoth says this: You must drink!

Jeremiah 25:29 Look, for a start, I am bringing disaster on the city that bears my name, so are you likely to go unpunished? You certainly will not go unpunished, for next I shall summon a sword against all the inhabitants of the land, Yahweh declares."

Jeremiah 25:30 'For your part, you are to prophesy all these words to them. Say to them: "Yahweh roars from on high, he thunders from his holy dwelling-place, loudly he roars at his own fold, shouts aloud like those who tread the grape at all the inhabitants of the land.

Jeremiah 25:31 The noise resounds to the remotest parts of the earth. For Yahweh is indicting the nations, arraigning all humanity for judgement; the wicked he assigns to the sword, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 25:32 Yahweh Sabaoth says this: Look, disaster is spreading from nation to nation, a mighty tempest is rising from the far ends of the earth.

Jeremiah 25:33 "Those slaughtered by Yahweh that day will be scattered across the world from end to end. No dirge will be raised for them; no one will gather them or bury them; they will stay lying on the surface like dung.

Jeremiah 25:34 "Howl, shepherds, shriek, roll on the ground, you lords of the flock, for your days have come to be slaughtered and to be scattered, and like a choice vase you will fall.

Jeremiah 25:35 No refuge then for the shepherds, no escape for the lords of the flock!

Jeremiah 25:36 Listen! A shriek from the shepherds, a howl from the lords of the flock! For Yahweh has laid their pasture waste, Jeremiah 25:37 the peaceful sheepfolds are reduced to silence owing to Yahweh's furious anger.

Jeremiah 25:38 The lion has left his lair and their country is a wasteland now, owing to the devastating fury, owing to his furious anger." '

Jeremiah 26:1 At the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, Jeremiah 26:2 'Yahweh says this, "Stand in the court of the Temple of Yahweh. To all the people from the towns of Judah who come to worship in the Temple of Yahweh you will say everything I have ordered you to say, not omitting one syllable.

Jeremiah 26:3 Perhaps they will listen and each turn from his evil way: if so, I shall relent and not bring the disaster on them which I intend because of their misdeeds."

Jeremiah 26:4 Say to them, "Yahweh says this: If you will not listen to me and follow my Law which I have given you,

Jeremiah 26:5 and pay attention to the words of my servants the prophets whom I have never tired of sending to you, although you never have paid attention,

Jeremiah 26:6 I shall treat this Temple as I treated Shiloh, and make this city a curse for all the nations of the world." '

Jeremiah 26:7 The priests and prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah say these words in the Temple of Yahweh.

Jeremiah 26:8 When Jeremiah had finished saying everything that Yahweh had ordered him to say to all the people, the priests and prophets and all the people seized hold of him and said, 'You will die for this!

Jeremiah 26:9 Why have you made this prophecy in Yahweh's name, “This Temple will become like Shiloh, and this city become an uninhabited ruin”?' And the people all crowded in on Jeremiah in the Temple of Yahweh.

Jeremiah 26:10 Hearing of this, the chief men of Judah came up from the royal palace to the Temple of Yahweh and took their seats at the entry of the New Gate of the Temple of Yahweh.

Jeremiah 26:11 The priests and prophets then said to the chief men and all the people, 'This man deserves to die, since he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your own ears.'

Jeremiah 26:12 Jeremiah, however, replied to all the chief men and all the people as follows, 'Yahweh himself sent me to prophesy against this Temple and this city all the things you have heard.

Jeremiah 26:13 So now amend your behaviour and actions, listen to the voice of Yahweh your God, and Yahweh will relent about the disaster that he has decreed for you.

Jeremiah 26:14 For myself, I am, as you see, in your hands. Do whatever you please or think right with me.

Jeremiah 26:15 But be sure of this, that if you put me to death, you will be bringing innocent blood on yourselves, on this city and on its inhabitants, since Yahweh has truly sent me to you to say all this for you to hear.'

Jeremiah 26:16 The chief men and all the people then said to the priests and prophets, 'This man does not deserve to die: he has spoken to us in the name of Yahweh our God.'

Jeremiah 26:17 And some of the country's elders rose to address all the assembled people.

Jeremiah 26:18 'Micah of Moresheth,' they said, 'who prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, had this to say to all the people of Judah, “Yahweh Sabaoth says this: Zion will become ploughland, Jerusalem a heap of rubble and the Temple Mount a wooded height.”

Jeremiah 26:19 'Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him to death for this? Did they not rather, fearing Yahweh, plead with him, to such effect that Yahweh relented about the disaster which he had decreed for them? Are we now to burden our souls with such a crime?'

Jeremiah 26:20 There was another man, too, who used to prophesy in Yahweh's name, Uriah son of Shemaiah, from Kiriath-Jearim. He prophesied exactly the same things against this city and this country as Jeremiah.

Jeremiah 26:21 When King Jehoiakim with all his officers and all the chief men heard what he said, the king was determined to put him to death. On hearing this, Uriah took fright and, fleeing, escaped to Egypt.

Jeremiah 26:22 King Jehoiakim, however, sent Elnathan son of Achbor to Egypt with others,

Jeremiah 26:23 who brought Uriah back from Egypt and took him to King Jehoiakim, who had him put to the sword and his body thrown into the common burial ground.

Jeremiah 26:24 But Jeremiah had a protector in Ahikam son of Shaphan, so he was not handed over to the people to be put to death.

Jeremiah 27:1 (At the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh:)

Jeremiah 27:2 Yahweh said this to me, 'Make yourself thongs and yokes and put them on your neck.

Jeremiah 27:3 Then send them to the king of Edom, the king of Moab, the king of the Ammonites, the king of Tyre, and the king of Sidon, through their envoys accredited to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 27:4 Give them the following message for their masters, "Yahweh Sabaoth, God of Israel, says this: You must tell your masters this:

Jeremiah 27:5 I by my great power and outstretched arm made the earth, the human beings and the animals that are on earth, and I give them to whom I please.

Jeremiah 27:6 For the present, I have handed all these countries over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, my servant; I have even put the wild animals at his service.

Jeremiah 27:7 (All the nations will serve him, his son and his grandson, until the time for his own country comes in its turn, when mighty nations and great kings will enslave him.)

Jeremiah 27:8 Any nation or kingdom that will not serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and will not bow its neck to the yoke of the king of Babylon, I shall punish that nation with sword, famine and plague, Yahweh declares, until I have destroyed it by his hand.

Jeremiah 27:9 For your own part, do not listen to your prophets, your diviners, dreamers, magicians and sorcerers, who tell you: You will not be enslaved by the king of Babylon.

Jeremiah 27:10 They prophesy lies to you, the result of which will be that you will be banished from your soil, that I shall drive you out, and you will perish.

Jeremiah 27:11 The nation, however, that is prepared to bend its neck to the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, I shall leave in peace on its own soil, Yahweh declares, to farm it and stay on it." '

Jeremiah 27:12 To Zedekiah king of Judah I spoke in exactly the same terms. 'Bend your necks', I told him, 'to the yoke of the king of Babylon; serve him and his people and you will survive.

Jeremiah 27:13 (Why so anxious to die, you and your people, by sword, famine and plague, with which Yahweh has threatened the nation refusing to serve the king of Babylon?)

Jeremiah 27:14 Do not listen to the words the prophets say to you, “You will not be enslaved by the king of Babylon.” They prophesy lies to you.

Jeremiah 27:15 Since I have not sent them, Yahweh declares, they prophesy untruths to you in my name. The result will be that I shall drive you out, you will perish, and so will the prophets who prophesy to you.’

Jeremiah 27:16 I also spoke to the priests and to all this people as follows, ‘Yahweh says this, “Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you as follows: Look, the vessels of the Temple of Yahweh will very shortly be brought back from Babylon. They prophesy lies to you.

Jeremiah 27:17 (Do not listen to them; serve the king of Babylon and you will survive. Why should this city become a ruin?)

Jeremiah 27:18 If they are real prophets, if Yahweh’s word is really with them, they ought now to be pleading with Yahweh Sabaoth that the remaining vessels in the Temple of Yahweh, in the palace of the king of Judah and elsewhere in Jerusalem, do not go to Babylon too!

Jeremiah 27:19 For this is what Yahweh Sabaoth says about (the pillars, the Sea, the stands and) the other vessels still remaining in this city,

Jeremiah 27:20 those not carried off by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon when he took Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon (with all the leading men of Judah and Jerusalem).

Jeremiah 27:21 Yes, this is what Yahweh Sabaoth, God of Israel, says about the vessels still remaining in the Temple of Yahweh, in the palace of the king of Judah and elsewhere in Jerusalem:

Jeremiah 27:22 They will be carried off to Babylon (and stay there until the day I punish them), Yahweh declares. (Then I shall bring them back and restore them to this place.)” ‘

Jeremiah 28:1 That same year, at the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fifth month of the fourth year, the prophet Hananiah son of Azzur, a Gibeonite, spoke as follows to Jeremiah in the Temple of Yahweh in the presence of the priests and of all the people,

Jeremiah 28:2 ‘Yahweh Sabaoth, the God of Israel, says this, “I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.

Jeremiah 28:3 In exactly two years’ time I shall bring back all the vessels of the Temple of Yahweh which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from here and carried off to Babylon.

Jeremiah 28:4 And I shall also bring back Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah and all the exiles of Judah who have gone to Babylon, Yahweh declares, for I shall break the yoke of the king of Babylon." '

Jeremiah 28:5 The prophet Jeremiah then replied to the prophet Hananiah in front of the priests and all the people present in the Temple of Yahweh.

Jeremiah 28:6 'So be it!' the prophet Jeremiah said, 'May Yahweh do so! May he fulfil the words that you have prophesied and bring all the vessels of the Temple of Yahweh and all the exiles back to this place from Babylon.

Jeremiah 28:7 Listen carefully, however, to this word that I am now going to say for you and all the people to hear:

Jeremiah 28:8 From remote times, the prophets who preceded you and me prophesied war, disaster and plague for many countries and for great kingdoms;

Jeremiah 28:9 the prophet who prophesies peace can be recognised as one truly sent by Yahweh only when his word comes true.'

Jeremiah 28:10 The prophet Hananiah then snatched the yoke off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah and broke it.

Jeremiah 28:11 In front of all the people Hananiah then said, 'Yahweh says this, "This is how, in exactly two years' time, I shall break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and take it off the necks of all the nations." ' At this, the prophet Jeremiah went away.

Jeremiah 28:12 After the prophet Hananiah had broken the yoke he had snatched off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, Jeremiah 28:13 'Go to Hananiah and tell him this, "Yahweh says this: You have broken the wooden yokes only to make iron yokes to replace them!

Jeremiah 28:14 For Yahweh Sabaoth, the God of Israel, says this: An iron yoke is what I now lay on the necks of all these nations to enslave them to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. (They will be enslaved to him; I have even given him the wild animals.)" '

Jeremiah 28:15 The prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah, 'Listen carefully, Hananiah: Yahweh has not sent you; and thanks to you this people is now relying on what is false.

Jeremiah 28:16 And so, Yahweh says this, "I am going to send you off the face of the earth: you will die this year (since you have preached rebellion against Yahweh)." '

Jeremiah 28:17 The prophet Hananiah died the same year, in the seventh month.

Jeremiah 29:1 This is the text of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to those who were left of the elders in exile, to the priests, the prophets and all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had deported from Jerusalem to Babylon.

Jeremiah 29:2 This was after King Jeconiah had left Jerusalem with the queen mother, the eunuchs, the chief men of Judah and Jerusalem, and the blacksmiths and metalworkers.

Jeremiah 29:3 The letter was entrusted to Elasah son of Shaphan and to Gemariah son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah had sent to Babylon, to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. The letter said:

Jeremiah 29:4 'Yahweh Sabaoth, the God of Israel, says this to all the exiles deported from Jerusalem to Babylon:

Jeremiah 29:5 Build houses, settle down; plant gardens and eat what they produce;

Jeremiah 29:6 marry and have sons and daughters; choose wives for your sons, find husbands for your daughters so that these can bear sons and daughters in their turn; you must increase there and not decrease.

Jeremiah 29:7 Work for the good of the city to which I have exiled you; pray to Yahweh on its behalf, since on its welfare yours depends.

Jeremiah 29:8 For Yahweh Sabaoth, the God of Israel, says this: Do not be deceived by the prophets who are with you or by your diviners; do not listen to the dreams you have,

Jeremiah 29:9 since they prophesy lies to you in my name. I have not sent them, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 29:10 For Yahweh says this: When the seventy years granted to Babylon are over, I shall intervene on your behalf and fulfil my favourable promise to you by bringing you back to this place.

Jeremiah 29:11 Yes, I know what plans I have in mind for you, Yahweh declares, plans for peace, not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope.

Jeremiah 29:12 When you call to me and come and pray to me, I shall listen to you.

Jeremiah 29:13 When you search for me, you will find me; when you search wholeheartedly for me,

Jeremiah 29:14 I shall let you find me (Yahweh declares. I shall restore your fortunes and gather you in from all the nations and wherever I have driven you, Yahweh declares. I shall bring you back to the place from which I exiled you).

Jeremiah 29:15 'Since you say: Yahweh has raised up prophets for us in Babylon-

Jeremiah 29:16 this is what Yahweh says about the king now occupying the throne of David and all the people living in this city, your brothers who did not go with you into exile:

Jeremiah 29:17 Yahweh Sabaoth says this: I am now going to send them sword, famine and plague; I shall make them like rotten figs, so bad as to be uneatable.

Jeremiah 29:18 I shall pursue them with sword, famine and plague. I shall make them an object of terror to all the kingdoms of the earth, a curse, a thing of horror, scorn and derision to all the nations where I have driven them,

Jeremiah 29:19 because they have refused to listen to my words, Yahweh declares, although I have persistently sent them all my servants the prophets; but they would not listen, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 29:20 But all you exiles, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon, listen to Yahweh's word!

Jeremiah 29:21 'This is what Yahweh Sabaoth, God of Israel, says about Ahab son of Kolaiah, and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah, who prophesy lies to you in my name: I shall hand them over now to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon who will put them to death before your very eyes.

Jeremiah 29:22 This curse, based on their fate, will be used by all the exiles of Judah in Babylon: May Yahweh treat you like Zedekiah and Ahab, roasted alive by the king of Babylon,

Jeremiah 29:23 because they have done a scandalous thing in Israel, committing adultery with their neighbour's wives and speaking lying words in my name without orders from me. I know all the same and am witness to it, Yahweh declares.'

Jeremiah 29:24 'And to Shemaiah of Nehelam you will speak as follows:

Jeremiah 29:25 Yahweh Sabaoth, God of Israel, says this: Since you, on your own initiative, have sent a letter to all the people in Jerusalem, to the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah (and to all the priests), saying:

Jeremiah 29:26 Yahweh has appointed you priest in place of the priest Jehoiada to keep order in the Temple of Yahweh, to put any crazy fellow posing as a prophet in the stocks and collar,

Jeremiah 29:27 why then have you not disciplined Jeremiah of Anathoth, now posing as a prophet to you?

Jeremiah 29:28 Why, he has even sent us a message in Babylon, saying: It will be a long time. Build houses, settle down; plant gardens and eat what they produce.'. . .

Jeremiah 29:29 (Now, after the priest Zephaniah had read this letter to the prophet Jeremiah),

Jeremiah 29:30 the word of Yahweh came then to Jeremiah as follows, Jeremiah 29:31 ‘Send this message to all the exiles, “This is what Yahweh says about Shemaiah of Nehelam: Since Shemaiah has prophesied to you without my sending him, and since he has caused you to rely on what is false

Jeremiah 29:32 for that reason, Yahweh declares, I shall punish Shemaiah of Nehelam and his descendants; no male member of his family will survive among this people to see the happiness that I will bestow on my people (Yahweh declares, since he has preached rebellion against Yahweh).” ‘

Jeremiah 30:1 The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, as follows,

Jeremiah 30:2 ‘Yahweh, God of Israel, says this, “Write for yourself in a book all the words I have spoken to you.

Jeremiah 30:3 For look, the days are coming, Yahweh declares, when I shall bring back the captives of my people Israel (and Judah), Yahweh says. I shall make them come back and take possession of the country I gave to their ancestors.” ‘

Jeremiah 30:4 These are the words Yahweh spoke about Israel (and Judah):

Jeremiah 30:5 Yahweh says this: We have heard a cry of panic, of terror, not of peace.

Jeremiah 30:6 Now ask and see: can a man bear children? Then why do I see each man with his hands on his loins like a woman in labour? Why has every face grown pale?

Jeremiah 30:7 Disaster! This is the great day, no other like it: a time of distress for Jacob, though he will be saved from it.

Jeremiah 30:8 (That day, Yahweh Sabaoth declares, I shall break the yoke now on your neck and snap your chains; and foreigners will enslave you no more, Jeremiah 30:9 but Israel and Judah will serve Yahweh their God, and David their king whom I shall raise up for them.)

Jeremiah 30:10 So do not be afraid, my servant Jacob, Yahweh declares, Israel, do not be alarmed: for look, I shall rescue you from distant countries and your descendants from the country where they are captive. Jacob will return and be at peace, secure, with no one to trouble him.

Jeremiah 30:11 For I am with you to save you, Yahweh declares, I shall make an end of all the nations where I have driven you, but I shall not make an end of you, only discipline you in moderation, not to let you go quite unpunished.

Jeremiah 30:12 Yes, Yahweh says this: Your wound is incurable, your injury past healing.

Jeremiah 30:13 There is no one to plead your cause; for an ulcer there are remedies, but for you no cure at all.

Jeremiah 30:14 All your lovers have forgotten you, they look for you no more. Yes, I have struck you as an enemy strikes, with cruel punishment (because of your great guilt and countless sins).

Jeremiah 30:15 Why cry out because of your wound? Your pain is incurable! Because of your great guilt and countless sins, I have treated you like this.

Jeremiah 30:16 But all those who devoured you will be devoured, all your enemies, all, go into captivity, those who despoiled you will be despoiled, and all who pillaged you be pillaged.

Jeremiah 30:17 For I shall restore you to health and heal your wounds, Yahweh declares, you who used to be called 'Outcast', 'Zion for whom no one cares'.

Jeremiah 30:18 Yahweh says this: Look, I shall restore the tents of Jacob and take pity on his dwellings: the town will be rebuilt on its mound, the stronghold where it ought to stand.

Jeremiah 30:19 From them will come thanksgiving and shouts of joy. I shall make them increase, they will not decrease; I shall make them honoured, no more to be humbled.

Jeremiah 30:20 Their sons will be as once they were, their community fixed firmly before me, and I shall punish all their oppressors.

Jeremiah 30:21 Their prince will be one of their own, their ruler come from their own people, and I shall permit him to approach me freely; for who, otherwise, would be so bold as to approach me, Yahweh demands?

Jeremiah 30:22 You will be my people and I shall be your God.

Jeremiah 30:23 Look, Yahweh's hurricane, his wrath, bursts out, a roaring hurricane, to burst on the heads of the wicked;

Jeremiah 30:24 Yahweh's burning anger will not turn aside until he has performed, has carried out, what he has in mind. In the final days, you will understand this.

Jeremiah 31:1 When that time comes, Yahweh declares, I shall be the God of all the families of Israel, and they will be my people.

Jeremiah 31:2 Yahweh says this: They have found pardon in the desert, those who have survived the sword. Israel is marching to his rest.

Jeremiah 31:3 Yahweh has appeared to me from afar; I have loved you with an everlasting love and so I still maintain my faithful love for you.

Jeremiah 31:4 I shall build you once more, yes, you will be rebuilt, Virgin of Israel! Once more in your best attire, and with your tambourines, you will go out dancing gaily.

Jeremiah 31:5 Once more you will plant vineyards on the mountains of Samaria (those who plant will themselves enjoy the fruit).

Jeremiah 31:6 Yes, a day will come when the watchmen shout on the mountains of Ephraim, 'Up! Let us go up to Zion, to Yahweh our God!'

Jeremiah 31:7 For Yahweh says this: Shout with joy for Jacob! Hail the chief of nations! Proclaim! Praise! Shout, 'Yahweh has saved his people, the remnant of Israel!'

Jeremiah 31:8 Watch, I shall bring them back from the land of the north and gather them in from the far ends of the earth. With them, the blind and the lame, women with child, women in labour, all together: a mighty throng will return here!

Jeremiah 31:9 In tears they will return, in prayer I shall lead them. I shall guide them to streams of water, by a smooth path where they will not stumble. For I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born son.

Jeremiah 31:10 Listen, nations, to the word of Yahweh. On the farthest coasts and islands proclaim it, say, 'He who scattered Israel is gathering him, will guard him as a shepherd guarding his flock.'

Jeremiah 31:11 For Yahweh has ransomed Jacob, rescued him from a hand stronger than his own.

Jeremiah 31:12 They will come, shouting for joy on the heights of Zion, thronging towards Yahweh's lavish gifts, for wheat, new wine and oil, sheep and cattle; they will be like a well-watered garden, they will sorrow no more.

Jeremiah 31:13 The young girl will then take pleasure in the dance, and young men and old alike; I shall change their mourning into gladness, comfort them, give them joy after their troubles;

Jeremiah 31:14 I shall refresh my priests with rich food, and my people will gorge themselves on my lavish gifts, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 31:15 Yahweh says this: A voice is heard in Ramah, lamenting and weeping bitterly: it is Rachel weeping for her children, refusing to be comforted for her children, because they are no more.

Jeremiah 31:16 Yahweh says this: Stop your lamenting dry your eyes, for your labour will have a reward, Yahweh declares, and they will return from the enemy's country.

Jeremiah 31:17 There is hope for your future after all, Yahweh declares, your children will return to their homeland.

Jeremiah 31:18 I have indeed heard Ephraim's grieving, 'You flogged me, I took a flogging, like a young, untrained bull. Bring me back, let me come back, for you are Yahweh my God!

Jeremiah 31:19 For, since I turned away, I have repented; having understood, I beat my breast. I was deeply ashamed, I blushed, aware of the disgrace incurred when I was young.’

Jeremiah 31:20 Is Ephraim, then, so dear a son to me, a child so favoured, that whenever I mention him I remember him lovingly still? That is why I yearn for him, why I must take pity on him, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 31:21 Set up your signposts, raise yourself landmarks, fix your mind on the road, the way by which you went. Come home, Virgin of Israel, come home to these towns of yours.

Jeremiah 31:22 How long will you hesitate, rebellious daughter? For Yahweh is creating something new on earth: the Woman sets out to find her Husband again.

Jeremiah 31:23 Yahweh Sabaoth, the God of Israel, says this, ‘In the country of Judah and in its towns, they will use these words once more, when I bring their captives home: “Yahweh bless you, home of saving justice, holy mountain!”

Jeremiah 31:24 ‘And in this country, Judah and all its towns, the ploughmen and those who wander with their flocks, will live together,

Jeremiah 31:25 for I shall give the weary all they need and satisfy all those whose strength has gone.’

Jeremiah 31:26 At this, I awoke and saw that my sleep had been sweet to me.

Jeremiah 31:27 ‘Look, the days are coming, Yahweh declares, when I shall sow the House of Israel and the House of Judah with the seed both of people and of cattle.

Jeremiah 31:28 And as I once watched over them to uproot, to knock down, to overthrow, destroy and bring disaster, so now I shall watch over them to build and to plant, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 31:29 ‘In those days people will no longer say: “The fathers have eaten unripe grapes; the children’s teeth are set on edge.”

Jeremiah 31:30 But each will die for his own guilt. Everyone who eats unripe grapes will have his own teeth set on edge.

Jeremiah 31:31 ‘Look, the days are coming, Yahweh declares, when I shall make a new covenant with the House of Israel (and the House of Judah),

Jeremiah 31:32 but not like the covenant I made with their ancestors the day I took them by the hand to bring them out of Egypt, a covenant which they broke, even though I was their Master, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 31:33 No, this is the covenant I shall make with the House of Israel when those days have come, Yahweh declares. Within them I shall plant my Law, writing it on their hearts. Then I shall be their God and they will be my people.

Jeremiah 31:34 There will be no further need for everyone to teach neighbour or brother, saying, “Learn to know Yahweh!” No, they will all know me, from the least to the greatest, Yahweh declares, since I shall forgive their guilt and never more call their sin to mind.’

Jeremiah 31:35 Yahweh who provides the sun to shine by day, who regulates moon and stars to shine by night, who stirs the sea, making its waves roar, he whose name is Yahweh Sabaoth, says this,

Jeremiah 31:36 ‘Were this established order ever to pass away before me, Yahweh declares, then the race of Israel would also cease being a nation for ever before me!’

Jeremiah 31:37 Yahweh says this, ‘Were the heavens above ever to be measured, the foundations of the earth below ever to be fathomed, then I too would reject the whole race of Israel for all that they have done, Yahweh declares.’

Jeremiah 31:38 ‘Look, the days are coming, Yahweh declares, when the City will be rebuilt for Yahweh, from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate.

Jeremiah 31:39 Then once again the measuring line will stretch straight to the Hill of Gareb, turning then to Goah.

Jeremiah 31:40 And the whole valley, with its corpses and ashes, and all the ground beside the ravine of the Kidron as far as the corner of the Horse Gate, eastwards, will be consecrated to Yahweh. It will never be destroyed or demolished again.

Jeremiah 32:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar.

Jeremiah 32:2 The army of the king of Babylon was then besieging Jerusalem, and the prophet Jeremiah was confined in the Court of the Guard in the king of Judah’s palace,

Jeremiah 32:3 where Zedekiah king of Judah had confined him, saying, ‘Why do you keep prophesying like this, “Yahweh says this: I am going to hand this city over to the king of Babylon and he will capture it;

Jeremiah 32:4 and Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape the clutches of the Chaldaeans, but will certainly be handed over to the king of Babylon, speak to him personally and see him face to face.

Jeremiah 32:5 He will take Zedekiah away to Babylon and there he will stay (until I attend to him, Yahweh declares. If you fight the Chaldaeans you will not succeed!)” ‘

Jeremiah 32:6 Jeremiah said, ‘The word of Yahweh has been addressed to me as follows,

Jeremiah 32:7 “Look, Hanamel the son of your uncle Shallum will come to you and say: Buy my field at Anathoth, for you have the right of redemption to purchase it.”

Jeremiah 32:8 And, as Yahweh had said, my cousin Hanamel came to me, in the Court of the Guard and said, "Buy my field at Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin, for you have the right of inheritance and right of redemption; buy it." I knew then that this was Yahweh's order.

Jeremiah 32:9 Accordingly, I bought the field from my cousin Hanamel of Anathoth and weighed him out the money: seventeen silver shekels.

Jeremiah 32:10 I drew up the deeds and sealed it, called in witnesses and weighed out the money on the scales.

Jeremiah 32:11 I then took both the sealed deed of purchase (with its stipulations and clauses) and its open copy

Jeremiah 32:12 and handed over the deed of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah, son of Mahseiah, in the presence of my cousin Hanamel, of the witnesses who had signed the deed of purchase, and of all the Judaeans who then happened to be in the Court of the Guard.

Jeremiah 32:13 In their presence I gave Baruch this order,

Jeremiah 32:14 "Yahweh Sabaoth, God of Israel, says this: Take these deeds, the sealed deed of purchase and its open copy, and put them in an earthenware pot, so that they may be preserved for a long time.

Jeremiah 32:15 For Yahweh Sabaoth, God of Israel, says this: Houses, fields and vineyards will again be bought in this country."

Jeremiah 32:16 'After I had entrusted the deed of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah, I prayed to Yahweh as follows,

Jeremiah 32:17 "Ah, Lord Yahweh, you made the heavens and the earth by your great power and outstretched arm. To you nothing is impossible.

Jeremiah 32:18 You show faithful love to thousands but repay the fathers' guilt in full to their children after them. Great and mighty God, whose name is Yahweh Sabaoth,

Jeremiah 32:19 great in purpose, mighty in deed, whose eyes are open on all human ways, rewarding every individual as that person's ways and actions deserve!

Jeremiah 32:20 You performed signs and wonders in Egypt, as you still do in Israel and among humanity today. You have won the name for yourself which is yours today.

Jeremiah 32:21 You brought your people Israel out of Egypt with signs and wonders, with mighty hand and outstretched arm and fearsome terror.

Jeremiah 32:22 Then you gave them this country which you had promised on oath to their ancestors, a country flowing with milk and honey.

Jeremiah 32:23 They then entered it, taking possession of it, but they would not listen to your voice nor follow your Law: they would do nothing you ordered them to do; and so you made this total disaster befall them.

Jeremiah 32:24 Look! The earthworks are already in place to take the city and, by means of sword, famine and plague, the city is now within the clutches of the Chaldaeans attacking it. What you said has now come true, as you see.

Jeremiah 32:25 Yet you yourself, Lord Yahweh, told me: Buy the field, pay for it, have it witnessed although the city is already in the Chaldaeans' clutches." '

Jeremiah 32:26 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Jeremiah 32:27 'Look, I am Yahweh, God of all humanity. Is anything impossible to me?

Jeremiah 32:28 'So, Yahweh says this, "I shall hand this city over to the Chaldaeans and to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will capture it;

Jeremiah 32:29 the Chaldaeans attacking this city will enter it, fire it and burn it to the ground, with the houses on whose roofs incense has been offered to Baal and libations poured to other gods, to provoke my anger.

Jeremiah 32:30 For the people of Israel and Judah alike have done nothing but what displeases me since they were young. (The people of Israel in fact have done nothing but provoke my anger by their actions, Yahweh declares.)

Jeremiah 32:31 Yes, from the day when this city was built until today, it has been such cause of anger and wrath to me that I mean to remove it from my sight,

Jeremiah 32:32 on account of all the wickedness the people of Israel and the people of Judah have done to provoke my anger; they, their kings, their chief men, their priests, their prophets, the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 32:33 They turned to me their backs, never their faces; and though I taught them so urgently, so untiringly, they would not listen and accept correction.

Jeremiah 32:34 Instead, they set up their Horrors in the Temple that bears my name to defile it,

Jeremiah 32:35 and built the high places of Baal in the Valley of Ben-Hinnom, to burn their sons and daughters alive in honour of Molech: a thing I have never ordered, that had never entered my thoughts—that they would cause Judah to sin by anything so loathsome!

Jeremiah 32:36 "So now, this is what Yahweh, God of Israel, says about this city of which you now say: By means of sword, famine and plague, it is already within the king of Babylon’s clutches:

Jeremiah 32:37 Look, I shall gather them in from all the countries where I have driven them in my anger, my fury and great wrath. I shall bring them back to this place and make them live in safety.

Jeremiah 32:38 Then they will be my people, and I shall be their God.

Jeremiah 32:39 I shall give them singleness of heart and singleness of conduct so that they will always fear me, for their own good and that of their children after them.

Jeremiah 32:40 I shall make an everlasting covenant with them, never to cease in my efforts for their welfare, and I shall put respect for me in their hearts, so that they will never turn away from me again.

Jeremiah 32:41 My joy will lie in them and in doing them good, and I shall plant them firmly in this country, with all my heart and soul.

Jeremiah 32:42 For Yahweh says this: Just as I have brought this complete and total disaster on this people, so I shall bring them all the good things I have promised them.

Jeremiah 32:43 Fields will again be bought in this country of which you now say: It is a wasteland without human or animal, already in the clutches of the Chaldaeans.

Jeremiah 32:44 People will buy fields, pay money, draw up deeds, seal them and have them witnessed in the territory of Benjamin, in the districts round Jerusalem, in the towns of Judah, of the highlands, of the lowlands and of the Negeb. For I shall bring back their captives, Yahweh declares.” ‘

Jeremiah 33:1 Jeremiah was still confined to the Court of the Guard when the word of Yahweh came to him a second time, as follows,

Jeremiah 33:2 ‘Yahweh who made the earth, who formed it and set it firm—Yahweh is his name—says this,

Jeremiah 33:3 “Call to me and I will answer you; I will tell you great secrets of which you know nothing.

Jeremiah 33:4 For this is what Yahweh, God of Israel, says about the houses of this city and the palaces of the kings of Judah which are about to be destroyed by means of the earthworks and the sword;

Jeremiah 33:5 about those now fighting the Chaldaeans, only to fill the city with corpses, those whom I have slaughtered in my furious anger, those whose wickedness has made me hide my face from this city:

Jeremiah 33:6 Look, I shall bring them remedy and cure; I shall cure them and reveal a new order of peace and loyalty to them.

Jeremiah 33:7 I shall bring back the captives of Judah and the captives of Israel and shall rebuild them as before.

Jeremiah 33:8 I shall cleanse them of all their guilt, by which they have offended me, I shall forgive all their guilty actions, by which they have offended me and rebelled against me.

Jeremiah 33:9 And, for me, Jerusalem will become a name of joy and praise and pride for all the nations on earth to see; when they hear of all the prosperity that I shall give, they will be seized with fear and trembling at all the prosperity and the peace that I provide for it."

Jeremiah 33:10 'Yahweh says this, "In this place of which you now say: It is a ruin, without human or animal, in the towns of Judah and desolate streets of Jerusalem where there is neither human nor animal, once more will be heard

Jeremiah 33:11 shouts of rejoicing and mirth, the voices of bridegroom and bride, and the singing of those who bring thanksgiving sacrifices to the Temple of Yahweh: Give thanks to Yahweh Sabaoth, for Yahweh is good, for his faithful love is everlasting. For I shall bring back the country's captives, as before, Yahweh says."

Jeremiah 33:12 'Yahweh Sabaoth says this, "In this ruinous place, without human or animal, in all its towns, once again there will be pastures for the shepherds to rest their flocks.

Jeremiah 33:13 In the towns of the highlands, of the lowlands and the Negeb, in the territory of Benjamin, in the districts round Jerusalem and in the towns of Judah, once again the flocks shall pass under the hand of someone who counts them, Yahweh says.

Jeremiah 33:14 "Look, the days are coming, Yahweh declares, when I shall fulfil the promise of happiness I made to the House of Israel and the House of Judah:

Jeremiah 33:15 In those days and at that time, I shall make an upright Branch grow for David, who will do what is just and upright in the country.

Jeremiah 33:16 In those days Judah will triumph and Israel live in safety. And this is the name the city will be called: Yahweh-is-our-Saving-Justice."

Jeremiah 33:17 'For Yahweh says this, "David will never lack a male descendant to occupy the throne of the House of Israel,

Jeremiah 33:18 nor will the levitical priests ever lack male descendants to stand before me and offer the burnt offering, to burn the cereal offering and offer sacrifice every day." '

Jeremiah 33:19 The word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah as follows,

Jeremiah 33:20 'Yahweh says this, "If you could break my covenant with the day and my covenant with the night so that day and night do not come at their due time,

Jeremiah 33:21 then my covenant with David my servant might also be broken and he would have no son to reign on his throne, and so also might my covenant with the levitical priests, who are my ministers.

Jeremiah 33:22 As surely as the array of heaven cannot be counted, nor the sand of the sea be measured, so surely shall I increase the heirs of David my servant and the Levites who minister to me.” ‘

Jeremiah 33:23 The word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah as follows,

Jeremiah 33:24 ‘Have you not noticed what these people say, “The two families which Yahweh chose he has now rejected”? So they despise my people, whom they no longer think of as a nation.

Jeremiah 33:25 Yahweh says this, “If I have not created day and night and fixed the laws governing heaven and earth,

Jeremiah 33:26 why, then I shall reject the descendants of Jacob and of David my servant and cease to choose rulers from his descendants for the heirs of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob! For I shall bring back their captives and take pity on them.” ‘

Jeremiah 34:1 The word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and his whole army, with all the kingdoms of the earth under his dominion and all the peoples, were waging war on Jerusalem and all its towns,

Jeremiah 34:2 ‘Yahweh, God of Israel, says this, “Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah and tell him, Yahweh says this: I am going to hand this city over to the power of the king of Babylon, and he will burn it down.

Jeremiah 34:3 And you yourself will not escape his clutches but will certainly be captured and handed over to him. You will see the king of Babylon face to face and speak to him personally. Then you will go to Babylon.

Jeremiah 34:4 Even so, listen to the word of Yahweh, Zedekiah king of Judah! This is what Yahweh says about you: You will not die by the sword;

Jeremiah 34:5 you will die in peace. And as spices were burnt for your ancestors, the kings who in times past preceded you, so spices will be burnt for you and a dirge sung for you: Alas for his highness! I have spoken, Yahweh declares.” ‘

Jeremiah 34:6 The prophet Jeremiah repeated all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem,

Jeremiah 34:7 while the army of the king of Babylon was attacking Jerusalem and all such towns of Judah as still held out, namely Lachish and Azekah, these being the only fortified towns of Judah remaining.

Jeremiah 34:8 The word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people in Jerusalem to issue a proclamation freeing their slaves:

Jeremiah 34:9 each man was to free his Hebrew slaves, men and women, no one was any longer to keep a brother Judaean in slavery.

Jeremiah 34:10 All the chief men and all the people who had entered into the covenant had agreed that everyone should free his slaves, men or women, and no longer keep them as slaves: they had agreed on this and set them free.

Jeremiah 34:11 Afterwards, however, they changed their minds, recovered the slaves, men and women, whom they had set free, and reduced them to slavery again.

Jeremiah 34:12 The word of Yahweh came then to Jeremiah as follows,

Jeremiah 34:13 'Yahweh, God of Israel, says this, "I made a covenant with your ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; it said:

Jeremiah 34:14 At the end of seven years each one of you is to free his brother Hebrew who has sold himself to you: he may be your slave for six years, then you must send him away free. But your ancestors did not listen to me and would not pay attention.

Jeremiah 34:15 Now, today you repented and did what pleases me by proclaiming freedom for your neighbour; you made a covenant before me in the Temple that bears my name.

Jeremiah 34:16 And then you changed your minds and, profaning my name, each of you has recovered his slaves, men and women, whom you had sent away free to live their own lives, and has forced them to become your slaves again."

Jeremiah 34:17 'So Yahweh says this: "You have disobeyed me, by failing to grant freedom to brother and neighbour. Very well, I in my turn, Yahweh declares, shall leave sword, famine and plague free to deal with you and I shall make you an object of horror to all the kingdoms of the earth.

Jeremiah 34:18 As for the people who have broken my covenant, who have not observed the terms of the covenant which they made before me, I shall treat them like the calf that people cut in two to pass between its pieces.

Jeremiah 34:19 The chief men of Judah and Jerusalem, the eunuchs, the priests, and all the country people who have passed between the pieces of the calf,

Jeremiah 34:20 I shall hand over to their enemies and those determined to kill them, and their corpses will be food for the birds of the sky and the animals of earth.

Jeremiah 34:21 As for Zedekiah king of Judah and his chief men, I shall hand them to their enemies, to those determined to kill them, and to the army of the king of Babylon which has just withdrawn.

Jeremiah 34:22 Listen, I shall give the order, Yahweh declares, and bring them back to this city to attack it and capture it and burn it down. And I shall make an uninhabited waste of the towns of Judah." '

Jeremiah 35:1 The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh in the days of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah,

Jeremiah 35:2 'Go to the clan of the Rechabites and speak to them; bring them into one of the rooms of the Temple of Yahweh and offer them wine to drink.'

Jeremiah 35:3 So I took Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah, son of Habazziniah, with his brothers and all his sons, the whole Rechabite clan,

Jeremiah 35:4 and brought them to the Temple of Yahweh into the room of Ben-Johanan son of Igdaliah, a man of God, which was next to that of the chief men, above the room of Maaseiah son of Shallum, guardian of the threshold.

Jeremiah 35:5 I then set pitchers full of wine, and some cups, before the members of the Rechabite clan and said, 'Drink some wine.'

Jeremiah 35:6 But they replied, 'We do not drink wine, because our ancestor Jonadab son of Rechab gave us this order, "You must not drink wine, neither you nor your sons for ever;

Jeremiah 35:7 nor must you build houses, sow seed, plant vineyards or own them, but must live in tents all your lives, so that you may live long on the soil to which you are alien."

Jeremiah 35:8 We have punctiliously obeyed the orders of our ancestor, Jonadab son of Rechab, never drinking wine ourselves, nor our wives, our sons or our daughters,

Jeremiah 35:9 not building houses to live in, owning neither vineyard nor field nor seed,

Jeremiah 35:10 living in tents. We have obeyed the orders of our ancestor Jonadab, respecting them in every particular.

Jeremiah 35:11 However, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon invaded this country, we decided, "We must get away! We will go to Jerusalem to escape the armies of the Chaldaeans and Aramaeans." So that is why we are living in Jerusalem.'

Jeremiah 35:12 Then the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah as follows,

Jeremiah 35:13 'Yahweh Sabaoth, the God of Israel, says this, "Go and say to the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: Will you never learn the lesson and listen to my words, Yahweh demands?

Jeremiah 35:14 The words of Jonadab son of Rechab, ordering his sons to drink no wine, have been observed; obedient to their ancestor's command, they drink none even today . But to me, who spoke to you so urgently, so untiringly, you have not listened.

Jeremiah 35:15 I have urgently and untiringly sent you all my servants the prophets to say: Turn back, each one of you, from your evil behaviour and amend your actions, do not follow other gods to serve them, and you will go on living on the soil I gave to you and your ancestors. But you have not paid attention or listened to me.

Jeremiah 35:16 Thus the sons of Jonadab son of Rechab have kept the command their ancestor gave them, but this people has not listened to me.

Jeremiah 35:17 And so, Yahweh, God Sabaoth, God of Israel, says this: Look, on Judah and the citizens of Jerusalem I am going to bring all the disaster which I have decreed for them, because I spoke to them and they would not listen, called to them and they would not answer." '

Jeremiah 35:18 Then Jeremiah said to the Rechabite clan, 'Yahweh Sabaoth, the God of Israel, says this, "Because you have obeyed the orders of your ancestor Jonadab and observed all his rules and done everything he ordered you to do,

Jeremiah 35:19 therefore, Yahweh Sabaoth, the God of Israel, says this: Jonadab son of Rechab will never lack a male descendant to stand before me for ever." '

Jeremiah 36:1 In the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh,

Jeremiah 36:2 'Take a scroll and on it write all the words I have spoken to you about Israel, Judah and all the nations, from the day I first spoke to you, in the time of Josiah, until today.

Jeremiah 36:3 Perhaps when the House of Judah hears about all the disaster I intend to inflict on them, they will turn, each one of them, from their evil behaviour, so that I can forgive their sinful guilt.'

Jeremiah 36:4 Jeremiah then summoned Baruch son of Neriah, who at his dictation wrote down on the scroll all the words Yahweh had spoken to him.

Jeremiah 36:5 Jeremiah then gave Baruch this order, 'As I am prevented from entering the Temple of Yahweh,

Jeremiah 36:6 you yourself must go and, from the scroll you wrote at my dictation, read all Yahweh's words to the people in his Temple on the day of the fast, and in this way you can read them in the hearing also of all the Judaeans who come in from their towns.

Jeremiah 36:7 Perhaps their prayers will move Yahweh and they will turn one and all from their evil behaviour, for great is the furious anger with which Yahweh has threatened this people.'

Jeremiah 36:8 Baruch son of Neriah duly carried out the order that the prophet Jeremiah had given him, to read all Yahweh's words from the book in his Temple.

Jeremiah 36:9 Now, in the fifth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, all the people of Jerusalem and all the people who could get to Jerusalem from the towns of Judah were summoned to a fast before Yahweh.

Jeremiah 36:10 Baruch then read Jeremiah's words from the book; this happened in the room of Gemariah son of the scribe Shaphan, in the upper court at the entry of the New Gate of the Temple of Yahweh, where all the people could hear.

Jeremiah 36:11 Micaiah son of Gemariah, son of Shaphan, having heard all Yahweh's words read from the book,

Jeremiah 36:12 went down to the royal palace, to the scribe's room. All the chief men were in session: the scribe Elishama, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Achbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah and all the other chief men;

Jeremiah 36:13 and to them Micaiah reported all the words he heard as Baruch was reading the book aloud to the people.

Jeremiah 36:14 The chief men then by common consent sent Jehudi son of Netaniah to Baruch, with Shelemiah son of Cushi, to say, 'Come, and bring the scroll with you which you have been reading to the people.'

Jeremiah 36:15 Bringing the scroll with him, Baruch son of Neriah appeared before them. 'Sit down,' they said, 'and read it out.' So Baruch read it to them.

Jeremiah 36:16 Having heard all the words they turned to one another in alarm and said to Baruch, 'We must certainly inform the king of this.'

Jeremiah 36:17 They then questioned Baruch, 'Tell us', they said, 'how you came to write all these words.'

Jeremiah 36:18 'Jeremiah dictated them all to me,' Baruch replied, 'and I wrote them down in ink in this book.'

Jeremiah 36:19 The chief men said to Baruch, 'You and Jeremiah had better go into hiding; and do not tell anyone where you are.'

Jeremiah 36:20 Whereupon they went off to the king in the palace court, depositing the scroll in the room of the scribe Elishama. They then informed the king of the whole affair.

Jeremiah 36:21 The king sent Jehudi for the scroll, and he brought it from the room of the scribe Elishama and read it to the king and all the chief men standing round the king.

Jeremiah 36:22 The king was sitting in his winter apartments—it was the ninth month—with a fire burning in a brazier in front of him.

Jeremiah 36:23 Each time Jehudi had read three or four columns, the king cut them off with a scribe's knife and threw them into the fire in the brazier until the whole of the scroll had been burnt in the brazier fire.

Jeremiah 36:24 But in spite of hearing all these words, neither the king nor any of his courtiers took alarm or tore their clothes;

Jeremiah 36:25 and although Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had urged the king not to burn the scroll he would not listen to them, Jeremiah 36:26 but ordered the king’s son Jerahmeel and Seraiah son of Azriel and Shelemiah son of Abdeel to arrest the scribe Baruch and the prophet Jeremiah. But Yahweh had hidden them.

Jeremiah 36:27 Then the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, after the king had burnt the scroll containing the words Baruch had written at Jeremiah’s dictation,

Jeremiah 36:28 ‘Take another scroll and write down all the words that were written on the first scroll burnt by Jehoiakim king of Judah.

Jeremiah 36:29 And as regards Jehoiakim king of Judah, you are to say, “Yahweh says this: You have burnt that scroll, saying: Why have you written down: The king of Babylon will certainly come and lay this country waste and leave it without human or animal?

Jeremiah 36:30 So, this is what Yahweh says about Jehoiakim king of Judah: He will have no one to occupy the throne of David, and his corpse will be tossed out to the heat of the day and the frost of the night.

Jeremiah 36:31 I shall punish him, his offspring and his courtiers for their guilt; on them, on the citizens of Jerusalem and on the people of Judah I shall bring the total disaster which I had decreed for them but to which they have paid no attention.”

Jeremiah 36:32 Jeremiah then took another scroll and gave it to the scribe Baruch son of Neriah, who in it at Jeremiah’s dictation wrote all the words of the book that Jehoiakim king of Judah had burnt, with many similar words in addition.

Jeremiah 37:1 Zedekiah son of Josiah became king, succeeding Coniah son of Jehoiakim. Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had made him king of Judah.

Jeremiah 37:2 But neither he nor his courtiers nor the people of the country paid any attention to the words Yahweh spoke through the prophet Jeremiah.

Jeremiah 37:3 King Zedekiah sent Jehucal son of Shelemiah and the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah to the prophet Jeremiah with this message, ‘Intercede for us with Yahweh our God.’

Jeremiah 37:4 Now Jeremiah was still moving freely among the people: he had not yet been put in prison.

Jeremiah 37:5 Meanwhile Pharaoh’s army was on the move from Egypt and the Chaldaeans besieging Jerusalem had raised the siege when they heard the news.

Jeremiah 37:6 Then the word of Yahweh came to the prophet Jeremiah as follows,

Jeremiah 37:7 ‘Yahweh, God of Israel, says this, “To the king of Judah who sent you to consult me make this reply: Is Pharaoh’s army marching to your aid? It will withdraw to its own country, Egypt.

Jeremiah 37:8 The Chaldaeans will return to attack this city; they will capture it and burn it down.

Jeremiah 37:9 Yahweh says this: Do not cheer yourselves up by thinking: The Chaldaeans are leaving us for good. They are not leaving.

Jeremiah 37:10 Even if you cut to pieces the whole Chaldaean army now fighting against you until there were only the wounded left, they would stand up again, each man in his tent, to burn this city down." '

Jeremiah 37:11 At the time when the Chaldaean army, threatened by Pharaoh's army, had raised the siege of Jerusalem,

Jeremiah 37:12 Jeremiah set out from Jerusalem for the territory of Benjamin to see about a piece of his property among the people there.

Jeremiah 37:13 He was at the Benjamin Gate when the guard commander there, a certain Irijah son of Shelemiah, son of Hananiah, arrested the prophet Jeremiah, shouting, 'You are deserting to the Chaldaeans!'

Jeremiah 37:14 Jeremiah answered, 'It is a lie! I am not deserting to the Chaldaeans.' But Irijah would not listen to Jeremiah and took him under arrest to the chief men.

Jeremiah 37:15 And the chief men, furious with Jeremiah, had him beaten and shut up in the house of the scribe Jonathan, which had been turned into a prison.

Jeremiah 37:16 Thus Jeremiah found himself in an underground vault. And there for a long time he stayed.

Jeremiah 37:17 Later, King Zedekiah had him sent for, and the king questioned him privately in his palace. 'Is there any word from Yahweh?' he asked. 'There is,' Jeremiah answered, and added, 'you will be handed over to the king of Babylon.'

Jeremiah 37:18 Jeremiah then said to King Zedekiah, 'What wrong have I done you, or your courtiers or this people, for you to have put me in prison?

Jeremiah 37:19 Where are your prophets now who prophesied, "The king of Babylon will not attack you or this country"?

Jeremiah 37:20 So now I beg you to hear me, my lord king! I beg you to approve my request! Do not have me taken back to the house of the scribe Jonathan, or I shall die there.'

Jeremiah 37:21 King Zedekiah then gave an order, and Jeremiah was confined in the Court of the Guard and given a loaf of bread a day from the Street of the Bakers as long as there was bread left in the city. So Jeremiah stayed in the Court of the Guard.

Jeremiah 38:1 But Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jucal son of Shelemiah and Pashhur son of Malchiah heard the words which Jeremiah was saying to all the people,

Jeremiah 38:2 'Yahweh says this, "Anyone who stays in this city will die by sword, famine or plague; but anyone who leaves it and surrenders to the Chaldaeans will live; he will escape with his life.

Jeremiah 38:3 Yahweh says this: This city will certainly be handed over to the army of the king of Babylon, and he will capture it." '

Jeremiah 38:4 The chief men then said to the king, 'You must have this man put to death: he is unquestionably disheartening the remaining soldiers in the city, and all the people too, by talking like this. This man is seeking not the welfare of the people but their ruin.'

Jeremiah 38:5 King Zedekiah answered, 'He is in your hands as you know, for the king is powerless to oppose you.'

Jeremiah 38:6 So they took Jeremiah and put him into the storage-well of the king's son Malchiah in the Court of the Guard, letting him down with ropes. There was no water in the storage-well, only mud, and into the mud Jeremiah sank.

Jeremiah 38:7 But Ebed-Melech the Cushite, a eunuch attached to the palace, heard that Jeremiah had been put into the storage-well. As the king was sitting in the Benjamin Gate, Jeremiah 38:8 Ebed-Melech came out from the palace and spoke to the king.

Jeremiah 38:9 'My lord king,' he said, 'these men have done a wicked thing by treating the prophet Jeremiah like this: they have thrown him into the storage-well. He will starve to death there, since there is no more food in the city.'

Jeremiah 38:10 At this the king gave Ebed-Melech the Cushite the following order: 'Take thirty men with you from here and pull the prophet Jeremiah out of the storage-well before he dies.'

Jeremiah 38:11 Ebed-Melech took the men with him and went into the palace to the Treasury wardrobe; out of it he took some torn, worn-out rags which he lowered on ropes to Jeremiah in the storage-well.

Jeremiah 38:12 Ebed-Melech the Cushite then said to Jeremiah, 'These torn, worn-out rags are for you to put under your armpits to pad the ropes.' Jeremiah did this.

Jeremiah 38:13 Then they hauled Jeremiah up with the ropes and pulled him out of the storage-well. And Jeremiah stayed in the Court of the Guard.

Jeremiah 38:14 King Zedekiah had the prophet Jeremiah summoned to him at the third entrance to the Temple of Yahweh. 'I want to ask you for a word,' the king said to Jeremiah, 'keep nothing back from me.'

Jeremiah 38:15 Jeremiah answered Zedekiah, 'If I do proclaim it to you, are you not sure to have me put to death? And if I give you advice, you will not listen to me.'

Jeremiah 38:16 King Zedekiah then secretly swore this oath to Jeremiah, 'As Yahweh lives, giver of this life of ours, I will have you neither put to death nor handed over to these men who are determined to kill you.'

Jeremiah 38:17 Jeremiah then said to Zedekiah, 'Yahweh, God Sabaoth, God of Israel, says this, "If you go out and surrender to the king of Babylon's generals, your life will be safe and this city will not be burnt down; you and your family will survive.

Jeremiah 38:18 But if you do not go out and surrender to the king of Babylon's generals, this city will be handed over to the Chaldaeans and they will burn it down; nor will you yourself escape their clutches." '

Jeremiah 38:19 King Zedekiah then said to Jeremiah, 'I am afraid of the Judaeans who have already gone over to the Chaldaeans: I might be handed over to them and they would ill-treat me.'

Jeremiah 38:20 'You will not be handed over to them,' Jeremiah replied. 'Please listen to Yahweh's voice as I have relayed it to you, and then all will go well with you and your life will be safe.

Jeremiah 38:21 But if you refuse to surrender, this is what Yahweh has shown me:

Jeremiah 38:22 the sight of all the women left in the king of Judah's palace being led off to the king of Babylon's generals and saying: "They have misled you, they have triumphed over you, those friends of yours! Your feet have sunk in the mud! They are up and away!"

Jeremiah 38:23 'Yes, all your wives and children will be led off to the Chaldaeans, and you yourself will not escape their clutches but will be a prisoner in the clutches of the king of Babylon. And as for this city, it will be burnt down.'

Jeremiah 38:24 Zedekiah then said to Jeremiah, 'Do not let anyone else hear these words or you will die.

Jeremiah 38:25 If the chief men hear that I have been talking to you, and come and say, "Tell us what you said to the king and what the king said to you; keep nothing back from us, or we shall put you to death,"

Jeremiah 38:26 you must reply, "I presented this request to the king: that he would not have me sent back to Jonathan's house to die." '

Jeremiah 38:27 And in fact all the chief men came to Jeremiah and questioned him. He told them exactly what the king had ordered him to say. They then left him in peace, since the conversation had not been overheard.

Jeremiah 38:28 And Jeremiah stayed in the Court of the Guard until the day Jerusalem was captured. And he was there when Jerusalem actually was captured.

Jeremiah 39:1 In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon advanced on Jerusalem with his entire army, and they laid siege to it.

Jeremiah 39:2 In the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, a breach was made in the city wall.

Jeremiah 39:3 The king of Babylon's officials, all having made their entry, took their seats in the Middle Gate: Nergal-Sharezer, Samgar-Nebo, Sar-Sechim a high dignitary of state, Nergal-Sharezer the chief astrologer, and all the king of Babylon's other officials . . .

Jeremiah 39:4 On seeing them, Zedekiah king of Judah and all the fighting men fled, leaving the city under cover of dark, by way of the king's garden through the gate between the two walls, and made their way towards the Arabah.

Jeremiah 39:5 But the Chaldaean troops pursued them and caught up with Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. They captured him and took him to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon at Riblah in the territory of Hamath, where he passed sentence on him.

Jeremiah 39:6 The king of Babylon had Zedekiah's sons slaughtered before his eyes at Riblah; the king of Babylon also had all the leading men of Judah put to death.

Jeremiah 39:7 He then put out Zedekiah's eyes and, loading him with chains, carried him off to Babylon.

Jeremiah 39:8 The Chaldaeans burnt down the royal palace and the private houses, and demolished the walls of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 39:9 Nebuzaradan commander of the guard deported the remainder of the population left behind in the city, the deserters who had gone over to him, and the rest of the artisans to Babylon.

Jeremiah 39:10 But Nebuzaradan commander of the guard left some of the poor people behind in the country of Judah, those who had nothing, at the same time giving them vineyards and fields.

Jeremiah 39:11 With regard to Jeremiah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had given the following orders to Nebuzaradan, commander of the guard,

Jeremiah 39:12 'Take him, look after him; do him no harm, but treat him as he may ask you.'

Jeremiah 39:13 He entrusted this mission to (Nebuzaradan commander of the guard,) Nebushazban the high dignitary of state, Nergal-Sharezer the chief astrologer and all the king of Babylon's other officials.

Jeremiah 39:14 These despatched men to take Jeremiah from the Court of the Guard and turned him over to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan for safe conduct home. So he remained among the people.

Jeremiah 39:15 While Jeremiah was confined in the Court of the Guard, the word of Yahweh came to him as follows,

Jeremiah 39:16 'Go and say to Ebed-Melech the Cushite, "Yahweh, God of Israel says this: Look, I am about to perform my words about this city for its ruin and not for its prosperity. That day they will come true before your eyes.

Jeremiah 39:17 But I shall rescue you that day, Yahweh declares, and you will not be handed over to the hands of the men you fear.

Jeremiah 39:18 Yes, I shall certainly rescue you: you will not fall to the sword; you will escape with your life, because you have put your trust in me, Yahweh declares."

Jeremiah 40:1 The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh after Nebuzaradan commander of the guard had released him from Ramah, where he had found him in chains with all the other captives from Jerusalem and Judah who were being deported to Babylon:

Jeremiah 40:2 The commander of the guard took Jeremiah and said to him, 'Yahweh your God foretold calamity for this country,

Jeremiah 40:3 and now he has brought it. He has done what he threatened to do, because you had sinned against Yahweh and would not listen to his voice; so all this has happened to you.

Jeremiah 40:4 Look, today I am having your hands unchained. If you like to come with me to Babylon, come: I shall look after you. If you do not want to come with me to Babylon, do not. Look, you have the whole country before you: go wherever you think it best and most suitable to go.'

Jeremiah 40:5 And before Jeremiah retired, he added, 'You can go back to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has appointed governor of the towns of Judah, and stay with him among the people, or go anywhere else you think suitable.' With that, the commander of the guard gave him provisions and a present, and dismissed him.

Jeremiah 40:6 Jeremiah went to Mizpah, to Gedaliah son of Ahikam and stayed with him, among those people still left in the country.

Jeremiah 40:7 When the military leaders who with their men were still in the field, all heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam as governor of the country, making him responsible for the men, women and children, and those of the poor country people who had not been deported to Babylon,

Jeremiah 40:8 they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah: Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, Jezaniah son of the Maacathite, they and their men.

Jeremiah 40:9 To them and to their men Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, swore an oath. 'Do not be afraid', he said, 'of serving the Chaldaeans, stay in the country, serve the king of Babylon, and all will go well with you.

Jeremiah 40:10 I for my part, as the man answerable to the Chaldaeans when they come to us, shall stay here at Mizpah, whereas you can harvest the wine, summer fruit and oil, fill your storage jars and settle in the towns which you have seized.’

Jeremiah 40:11 Similarly, when all the Judaeans living in Moab, with the Ammonites, in Edom and elsewhere, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant in Judah and had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan as their governor,

Jeremiah 40:12 the Judaeans all came back from wherever they had been driven. On their return to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah, they harvested an immense quantity of wine and summer fruit.

Jeremiah 40:13 Now Johanan son of Kareah and all the military leaders still in the field, came to Gedaliah at Mizpah

Jeremiah 40:14 and said to him, ‘Are you aware that Baalis king of the Ammonites has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to assassinate you?’ But Gedaliah son of Ahikam would not believe them.

Jeremiah 40:15 Johanan son of Kareah then spoke in secret to Gedaliah at Mizpah, as follows: ‘Please let me go and kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah, and no one will be any the wiser. Why should he assassinate you and cause the dispersal of all the Judaeans who have rallied round you. Why should the remnant of Judah perish?’

Jeremiah 40:16 But Gedaliah son of Ahikam replied to Johanan son of Kareah, ‘You will do no such thing, for what you say about Ishmael is false.’

Jeremiah 41:1 In the seventh month, however, Ishmael son of Nethaniah son of Elishama, who was of royal descent, came with officers of the king and ten men to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah. And as they were taking their meal together, there at Mizpah,

Jeremiah 41:2 Ishmael son of Nethaniah stood up with his ten men, and attacking Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, with their swords, they killed the man whom the king of Babylon had made governor of the country.

Jeremiah 41:3 And all the Judaeans who were with him, that is with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and the Chaldaean soldiers who happened to be there, Ishmael killed too.

Jeremiah 41:4 On the day after the murder of Gedaliah, before the news had become known,

Jeremiah 41:5 eighty men arrived from Shechem, Shiloh and Samaria, with their beards shaved off, their clothing torn, and covered in self-inflicted gashes; they were bringing cereal offerings and incense with them to present to the Temple of Yahweh.

Jeremiah 41:6 Ishmael son of Nethaniah went out of Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he went. When he met them he said, ‘Come to Gedaliah son of Ahikam.’

Jeremiah 41:7 But once they were well inside the town, Ishmael son of Nethaniah slaughtered them, with the help of his men, and had them thrown into the storage-well.

Jeremiah 41:8 There were ten of them, however, who said to Ishmael, 'Do not kill us: we have stocks of wheat and barley, oil and honey, hidden away in the fields.' So he spared them and did not kill them with their brothers.

Jeremiah 41:9 The storage-well into which Ishmael threw the corpses of all the men he had killed was a large one, the one which King Asa had built as a precaution against Baasha king of Israel. Ishmael son of Nethaniah filled it with the slaughtered men.

Jeremiah 41:10 Ishmael then took all the rest of the people prisoner who were at Mizpah, the king's daughters and all the remaining people in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan, commander of the guard, had entrusted to Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Ishmael son of Nethaniah took them prisoner and set out, intending to cross over to the Ammonites.

Jeremiah 41:11 When Johanan son of Kareah and all the military leaders who were with him heard about all the crimes committed by Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Jeremiah 41:12 they mustered all their men and set out to attack Ishmael son of Nethaniah. They caught up with him at the great Pool of Gibeon.

Jeremiah 41:13 At the sight of Johanan son of Kareah and all the military leaders with him, all the people with Ishmael were delighted.

Jeremiah 41:14 All the people whom Ishmael had taken as prisoners from Mizpah turned about, went back and joined Johanan son of Kareah.

Jeremiah 41:15 Ishmael son of Nethaniah, however, escaped from Johanan with eight of his men and fled to the Ammonites.

Jeremiah 41:16 Johanan son of Kareah and all the military leaders with him then rallied all the remaining people whom Ishmael son of Nethaniah had taken as prisoners from Mizpah after killing Gedaliah son of Ahikam: men—fighting men-women, children and eunuchs, whom they brought back from Gibeon.

Jeremiah 41:17 Setting off, they made a halt at Khan Kimham near Bethlehem, intending to go on to Egypt,

Jeremiah 41:18 to get away from the Chaldaeans. They were now terrified of them, since Ishmael son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam whom the king of Babylon had made governor of the country.

Jeremiah 42:1 Then all the military leaders, in particular Johanan son of Kareah and Azariah son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from least to greatest, approached

Jeremiah 42:2 the prophet Jeremiah and said, 'Please hear our petition and intercede with Yahweh your God for us and for all this remnant—and how few of us are left out of many, your own eyes can see-

Jeremiah 42:3 so that Yahweh your God may show us the way we are to go and what we must do.’

Jeremiah 42:4 The prophet Jeremiah replied, ‘I hear you; I will indeed pray to Yahweh your God as you ask; and whatever answer Yahweh your God gives you, I will tell you, keeping nothing back from you.’

Jeremiah 42:5 They in their turn said to Jeremiah, ‘May Yahweh be a true and faithful witness against us, if we do not follow the instructions that Yahweh your God sends us through you.

Jeremiah 42:6 Whether we like it or not, we shall obey the voice of Yahweh our God to whom we are sending you, so that we may prosper by obeying the voice of Yahweh our God.’

Jeremiah 42:7 Ten days later the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah.

Jeremiah 42:8 He then summoned Johanan son of Kareah and all the military leaders who were with him, and all the people from least to greatest,

Jeremiah 42:9 and said, ‘Yahweh, God of Israel, to whom you deputed me to present your petition says this,

Jeremiah 42:10 “If you will only stay in this country, I shall build you and not overthrow you; I shall plant you and not uproot you, for I am sorry about the disaster I have inflicted on you.

Jeremiah 42:11 Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, whom you fear now; do not fear him, Yahweh declares, for I am with you to save you and rescue you from his clutches.

Jeremiah 42:12 I shall take pity on you, so that he pities you and lets you return to your native soil.

Jeremiah 42:13 But if you say: We will not stay in this country; if you disobey the voice of Yahweh your God,

Jeremiah 42:14 and say: No, Egypt is where we shall go, where we shall not see war or hear the trumpet-call or go short of food; that is where we want to live;

Jeremiah 42:15 in that case, remnant of Judah, listen to Yahweh’s word: Yahweh Sabaoth, God of Israel, says this: If you are determined to go to Egypt, and if you do go and settle there,

Jeremiah 42:16 the sword you fear will overtake you there in Egypt, and there you will die.

Jeremiah 42:17 Yes, all those who are determined to go to Egypt and settle there, will die by sword, famine and plague: not a single one of them will survive or escape the disaster I shall inflict on them.

Jeremiah 42:18 Yes, Yahweh Sabaoth, the God of Israel, says this: Just as my furious anger was poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so will my fury be poured out on you if you go to Egypt: you will become an object of execration and horror, a curse, a laughing-stock; and you will never see this place again.”

Jeremiah 42:19 Remnant of Judah, Yahweh has told you, “Do not go into Egypt.” Understand clearly that today I have given you a solemn warning.

Jeremiah 42:20 You were not being sincere when you sent me to Yahweh your God and said, “Intercede for us with Yahweh our God; tell us exactly what Yahweh our God says and we will do it.”

Jeremiah 42:21 Today I have told you, but you have not obeyed the voice of Yahweh your God or any part of the message he sent me to give you.

Jeremiah 42:22 So understand this clearly: you will die by sword, famine and plague in the place where you want to go and settle.’

Jeremiah 43:1 When Jeremiah had finished telling all the people all the words of Yahweh their God, which Yahweh their God had sent him to tell them—all the words quoted above-

Jeremiah 43:2 Azariah son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan son of Kareah, and all those arrogant men, said to Jeremiah, ‘You are lying. Yahweh our God did not send you to say, “Do not go to Egypt and settle there.”

Jeremiah 43:3 It was Baruch son of Neriah, who keeps inciting you against us, to hand us over to the Chaldaeans so that they can put us to death or deport us to Babylon.’

Jeremiah 43:4 So neither Johanan nor any of the military leaders nor any of the people obeyed the voice of Yahweh by staying in the country of Judah.

Jeremiah 43:5 Instead, Johanan son of Kareah and all the military leaders led off the entire remnant of Judah, those who had come back from all the nations where they had been driven to live in the country of Judah:

Jeremiah 43:6 men, women, children, the royal princesses too, and every single person that Nebuzaradan commander of the guard had left with Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, including the prophet Jeremiah and Baruch son of Neriah.

Jeremiah 43:7 And so, in disobedience to the voice of Yahweh, they reached Egypt and arrived at Tahpanhes.

Jeremiah 43:8 At Tahpanhes the word of Yahweh was addressed to Jeremiah as follows,

Jeremiah 43:9 ‘Take some large stones and bury them in the cement on the terrace outside the entrance of Pharaoh’s palace in Tahpanhes, where the Judaeans can see you.

Jeremiah 43:10 Then say to them, “Yahweh, God of Israel, says this: Look, I shall send for my servant Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, and he will place his throne on these stones I have buried, and spread his canopy above them.

Jeremiah 43:11 When he comes, he will defeat Egypt: Those for the plague, to the plague; those for captivity, to captivity; those for the sword, to the sword!

Jeremiah 43:12 “He will set fire to the temples of the gods of Egypt; he will burn these gods or take them prisoner; like a shepherd wrapping his cloak round him, so he will wrap Egypt round him, and then leave without anyone laying hands on him.

Jeremiah 43:13 He will break the obelisks of the temple of the Sun in Egypt, and burn down the temples of the gods of Egypt.” ‘

Jeremiah 44:1 The word that came to Jeremiah for all the Judaeans living in Egypt, those, that is, living in Migdol, Tahpanhes, Noph and the territory of Pathros.

Jeremiah 44:2 ‘Yahweh Sabaoth, God of Israel, says this, “You have seen all the disaster I have brought on Jerusalem and all the towns of Judah; today they lie in ruins and uninhabited.

Jeremiah 44:3 This was because of the wicked deeds they committed to provoke my anger, by going and offering incense and serving other gods whom neither they, nor you, nor your ancestors knew anything about,

Jeremiah 44:4 although I urgently and untiringly sent you all my servants the prophets to say: You must not do this loathsome thing, which I hate.

Jeremiah 44:5 But they would not listen or pay attention, and turn from their wickedness and stop offering incense to other gods.

Jeremiah 44:6 And so my furious anger overflowed, burning down the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem, which were reduced to ruins and wasteland, as they still are today.

Jeremiah 44:7 And now, Yahweh, God Sabaoth, God of Israel, says this: Why bring complete disaster on yourselves by cutting yourselves off from Judah—your men, women, children and babes in arms—so as to leave yourselves no remnant,

Jeremiah 44:8 by provoking my wrath by your actions, offering incense to other gods in Egypt where you have come to settle, as though bent on your own destruction and on becoming a curse and a laughing-stock for all the nations of the earth?

Jeremiah 44:9 Have you forgotten the wicked deeds of your ancestors, of the kings of Judah and of your princes, your own wicked deeds and those of your wives, committed in the country of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

Jeremiah 44:10 To this day they have felt neither contrition nor fear; they have not observed my Law or my statutes, which I prescribed for you, as for your ancestors.

Jeremiah 44:11 So, Yahweh Sabaoth, God of Israel, says this: Look, I have determined on disaster and shall destroy Judah completely.

Jeremiah 44:12 I shall take the remnant of Judah who were determined to come to Egypt and settle there, and in Egypt they will perish; they will fall to the sword or perish of famine, from least to greatest; by sword and famine they will die and be an object of execration and horror, a curse, a laughing-stock.

Jeremiah 44:13 I shall punish those who live in Egypt just as I punished Jerusalem: by sword, famine and plague.

Jeremiah 44:14 Of the remnant of Judah which has come to settle in Egypt, not a single one will escape or survive to return to the country of Judah where they long to return and live. For none of them will return, except a few refugees." '

Jeremiah 44:15 At this, all the men who knew that their wives offered incense to other gods, and all the women who were standing there, a great crowd (and all the people living in Egypt, in Pathros), answered Jeremiah as follows,

Jeremiah 44:16 'We have no intention of listening to the word you have just spoken to us in Yahweh's name,

Jeremiah 44:17 but intend to go on doing all we have vowed to do: offering incense to the Queen of Heaven and pouring libations in her honour, as we used to do, we and our ancestors, our kings and our chief men, in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem: we had food in plenty then, we lived well, we suffered no disasters.

Jeremiah 44:18 But since we gave up offering incense to the Queen of Heaven and pouring libations in her honour, we have been destitute and have perished either by sword or by famine.

Jeremiah 44:19 Besides, when we offer incense to the Queen of Heaven and pour libations in her honour, do you think we make cakes for her with her features on them, and pour libations to her, without our husbands' knowledge?'

Jeremiah 44:20 To all the people, men and women, all those who had made this answer, Jeremiah retorted,

Jeremiah 44:21 'The incense you offered in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem, you, your ancestors, your kings, your chief men and the people at large—was this not what Yahweh kept remembering, and found so repellent

Jeremiah 44:22 that Yahweh could not endure your misdeeds and your loathsome practices any longer, with the result that your country has become the uninhabited ruin, the object of horror and cursing it is today?

Jeremiah 44:23 Because you offered incense, because you sinned against Yahweh, refusing to listen to the voice of Yahweh, or to observe his Law, his statutes and his decrees—that is why the present disaster has overtaken you.'

Jeremiah 44:24 Further, Jeremiah said to all the people, and particularly to all the women, 'Listen to the word of Yahweh, all you Judaeans in Egypt,

Jeremiah 44:25 Yahweh Sabaoth, God of Israel, says this, "You and your wives, what your mouths promised, your hands have indeed performed! You said: We shall punctiliously fulfil the vows we have made and offer incense to the Queen of Heaven and pour libations in her honour. Very well, keep your vows, perform them punctiliously!

Jeremiah 44:26 But listen to the word of Yahweh, all you Judaeans living in Egypt: I swear by my great name, Yahweh says, that my name will no longer be uttered by any man of Judah throughout Egypt; no one will say: As Lord Yahweh lives.

Jeremiah 44:27 No, I am going to keep my eye on them for disaster, not for prosperity, and all the Judaeans in Egypt will perish either by the sword or by famine until they are wiped out.

Jeremiah 44:28 Yet, though few in number, those who escape the sword will return to the country of Judah from Egypt. Then the entire remnant of Judah which has come and settled in Egypt will know whose word comes true, mine or theirs.

Jeremiah 44:29 "And here is the sign for you, Yahweh declares, that I shall punish you in this place: so that you will know that the words with which I threaten you will come true:

Jeremiah 44:30 Yahweh says this: Look, I shall hand Pharaoh Hophra, king of Egypt, over to his enemies and to those determined to kill him, just as I handed Zedekiah king of Judah over to his enemy Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who was determined to kill him." '

Jeremiah 45:1 The word that the prophet Jeremiah addressed to Baruch son of Neriah when the latter wrote these words down in a book at Jeremiah's dictation in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah,

Jeremiah 45:2 'This is what Yahweh God of Israel says about you, Baruch!

Jeremiah 45:3 "You have been thinking: what disaster for me, and Yahweh has added further grief to my troubles! I am worn out with groaning, and find no relief!"

Jeremiah 45:4 Say to him as follows, "Yahweh says this: Now I am knocking down what I have built, am uprooting what I have planted, over the whole country!

Jeremiah 45:5 And you ask for special treatment! Do not ask, for I am now going to bring disaster on all humanity, Yahweh declares, but you I shall allow to escape with your life, wherever you may go." '

Jeremiah 46:1 The words of Yahweh that were addressed to the prophet Jeremiah against the nations.

Jeremiah 46:2 On Egypt. Against the army of Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt, which was at Carchemish on the River Euphrates when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon defeated it in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah.

Jeremiah 46:3 Buckler and shield at the ready! Onward to battle!

Jeremiah 46:4 Harness the horses: into the saddle, horsemen! To your ranks! On with your helmets! Sharpen your spears, put on your breastplates!

Jeremiah 46:5 Why do I see them retreating, panic-stricken? Their heroes, beaten back, are fleeing headlong, with not a look behind. Terror on every side, Yahweh declares!

Jeremiah 46:6 No flight for the swift, no escape for the strong! Up in the north on the River Euphrates, they have collapsed, have fallen.

Jeremiah 46:7 Who was it rose like the Nile, his waters foaming like a torrent?

Jeremiah 46:8 Why, Egypt rose like the Nile, his waters foaming like a torrent. 'I shall rise', he said, 'and drown the earth; sweep away town and its inhabitants!

Jeremiah 46:9 Charge, horses! Forward, chariots! Let the warriors advance, men from Cush and Put with shield in hand, men from Lud who bend the bow!'

Jeremiah 46:10 For this is the Day of Lord Yahweh Sabaoth, a day of vengeance when he takes revenge on his foes: the sword will devour until gorged, until drunk with their blood, for Lord Yahweh Sabaoth is holding a sacrificial feast in the land of the north, on the River Euphrates.

Jeremiah 46:11 Go up to Gilead and fetch balm, virgin daughter of Egypt! You multiply remedies in vain, nothing can cure you!

Jeremiah 46:12 The nations have heard of your shame, your wailing fills the world, for warrior has stumbled against warrior, and both have fallen together.

Jeremiah 46:13 The word that came from Yahweh to the prophet Jeremiah when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon advanced to attack Egypt.

Jeremiah 46:14 Publish it in Egypt, proclaim it in Migdol, proclaim it in Noph and Tahpanhes! Say, 'Stand your ground, be prepared, for the sword is devouring all round you!'

Jeremiah 46:15 Why has Apis fled? Why has your Mighty One not stood firm? Why, Yahweh has overturned him,

Jeremiah 46:16 he has caused many to fall! Falling over one another, they say, ‘Up, and back to our own people, to the country where we were born, away from the devastating sword!’

Jeremiah 46:17 They have given Pharaoh king of Egypt the nickname, ‘Much-noise-but-he-lets-the-chance-slip-by’!

Jeremiah 46:18 As I live, the King declares, whose name is Yahweh Sabaoth, he is coming, a very Tabor among mountains, a Carmel high above the sea!

Jeremiah 46:19 Get your bundle ready for exile, fair inhabitant of Egypt! Noph will be reduced to a desert, desolate, uninhabited.

Jeremiah 46:20 Egypt was a splendid heifer, but a gadfly from the north has settled on her.

Jeremiah 46:21 The mercenaries she had with her, these too were like fattened calves: but they too have taken to their heels, have all run away, not held their ground, for their day of disaster has overtaken them, their time for being punished.

Jeremiah 46:22 Hear her hissing like a snake as they advance in force to fall on her with their axes, like woodcutters,

Jeremiah 46:23 they will fell her forest, Yahweh declares, however impenetrable it was for they are more numerous than locusts, there is no counting them.

Jeremiah 46:24 The daughter of Egypt is put to shame, handed over to a people from the north.

Jeremiah 46:25 Yahweh Sabaoth, God of Israel, has said, ‘Look, I shall punish Amon of No, Pharaoh, Egypt, its gods, its kings, Pharaoh and those who put their trust in him.

Jeremiah 46:26 I shall hand him over to those who are determined to kill him, to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, to his generals. But afterwards, Egypt will be inhabited again as in the past, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 46:27 But do not be afraid, my servant Jacob, Israel, do not be alarmed: for look, I shall rescue you from afar and your descendants from the country where they are captive. Jacob will return and be at peace, secure, with no one to trouble him.

Jeremiah 46:28 Do not be afraid, my servant Jacob, Yahweh declares, for I am with you: I shall make an end of all the nations where I have driven you, but I shall not make an end of you, I shall discipline you only as you deserve, not leaving you quite unpunished.

Jeremiah 47:1 The word of Yahweh that came to Jeremiah about the Philistines before Pharaoh attacked Gaza.

Jeremiah 47:2 ‘Yahweh says this: Look, the waters are rising from the north to become an overwhelming flood, overwhelming the country and all in it, the town and its inhabitants! People cry for help, and there is wailing from all the country’s inhabitants

Jeremiah 47:3 at the thunder of his chargers' hoofs, the crash of his chariots, the grinding of his wheels. Fathers forget about their children, their hands fall limp

Jeremiah 47:4 because the day has come for all the Philistines to be destroyed, for Tyre and Sidon to be stripped to the last of their allies. Yes, Yahweh is destroying the Philistines, the remnant from the Isle of Caphtor.

Jeremiah 47:5 Baldness has befallen Gaza, Ashkelon has been reduced to silence. You who remain in the valley, how long will you gash yourselves?

Jeremiah 47:6 Oh, sword of Yahweh, how long before you rest? Back into your scabbard, stop, keep still!

Jeremiah 47:7 Yet how can it rest when Yahweh has given it an order, Ashkelon and the sea coast, the targets assigned to it?

Jeremiah 48:1 On Moab. Yahweh, God of Israel, says this: Wretched Nebo, for it has been ravaged, Kiriathaim has been shamed and taken, shame and distraction on the citadel, Jeremiah 48:2 the pride of Moab is no more! At Heshbon they plotted her downfall, 'Come, let us put an end to her as a nation!' And you too, inhabitants of Madmen, will be silenced, the sword will be after you.

Jeremiah 48:3 A cry of agony goes up from Horonaim, 'Devastation! Dire calamity.

Jeremiah 48:4 Moab has been shattered,' the agonised cries of her little ones ring out.

Jeremiah 48:5 Up the slope of Luhith, weeping they go. On the road down to Horonaim is heard the shriek of disaster,

Jeremiah 48:6 'Away! Flee for your lives like the wild donkey into the desert!'

Jeremiah 48:7 Yes, since you relied on your deeds and your wealth, you will be captured too. Chemosh will go into exile, with all his priests and princes.

Jeremiah 48:8 The despoiler will descend on every town, not one will escape; the Valley will be ravaged, the Plain be plundered as Yahweh has said.

Jeremiah 48:9 Give Moab wings so that she can fly away, for her towns will be laid in ruins where no one will ever live again.

Jeremiah 48:10 (Accursed be he who does Yahweh's work negligently! Accursed be he who deprives his sword of blood!)

Jeremiah 48:11 From his youth Moab lived at ease, he settled on his lees, never having been decanted, never having gone into exile: and so he kept his own flavour, his aroma was unchanged.

Jeremiah 48:12 And so the days are coming, Yahweh declares, when

I shall send him decanters to decant him; they will empty his pitchers and break his wine jars to bits.

Jeremiah 48:13 Moab will be shamed by Chemosh then, as the House of Israel was shamed by Bethel in which they put their trust.

Jeremiah 48:14 How can you say, 'We are heroes, sturdy fighting men'?

Jeremiah 48:15 Moab has been ravaged, his cities scaled, the flower of his youth goes down to the slaughter, declares the King, whose name is Yahweh Sabaoth.

Jeremiah 48:16 Moab's ruin is coming soon, his downfall comes at top speed.

Jeremiah 48:17 Grieve for him, all you living near him, all you who knew his name. Say, 'How shattered it is, that mighty rod, that splendid sceptre!'

Jeremiah 48:18 Come down from your glory, sit on the parched ground, daughter of Dibon, for the despoiler of Moab has advanced on you, he has destroyed your strongholds.

Jeremiah 48:19 Stand by the roadside, keep watch, daughter of Aroer. Question fugitive and runaway, ask, 'What has happened?'

Jeremiah 48:20 'Moab has been shattered and shamed. Wail and shriek! Shout along the Arnon, Moab has been laid waste!'

Jeremiah 48:21 Judgement has also come on the Plain, on Holon, Jahzah, Mephaath,

Jeremiah 48:22 Dibon, Nebo, Beth-Diblathaim,

Jeremiah 48:23 Kiriathaim, Beth-Gamul, Beth-Meon,

Jeremiah 48:24 Kerioth, Bozrah, and all the towns of Moab, far and near.

Jeremiah 48:25 Moab's horn has been cut off, his arm is broken, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 48:26 Make him drunk! He has set himself up against Yahweh; let Moab wallow in his vomit and become a laughing-stock in his turn.

Jeremiah 48:27 Was Israel not a laughing-stock to you? Was he caught red-handed with the thieves, for you to shake your head whenever you mention him?

Jeremiah 48:28 Leave the towns, make the rocks your home, inhabitants of Moab. Learn from the dove that makes its nest in the walls of the gaping gorge.

Jeremiah 48:29 We have heard about Moab's pride, so very proud! What arrogance! What pride! What conceit! What a haughty heart!

Jeremiah 48:30 -I know all about his presumption, Yahweh declares, his empty boasting, those empty deeds of his!

Jeremiah 48:31 -and so I lament for Moab, for all Moab I raise my cry and mourn for the people of Kir-Heres.

Jeremiah 48:32 More than for Jazer I weep for you, vineyard of Sibmah: your shoots stretched beyond the sea, they reached all the way to Jazer. On your harvest and vintage the despoiler has descended.

Jeremiah 48:33 Gladness and joy have vanished from the orchards of Moab. I have dried up the wine in the presses, the treader of grapes treads no more, the joyful shouting has ceased.

Jeremiah 48:34 The cries of Heshbon and Elealeh can be heard as far as Jahaz. The shrieks resound from Zoar to Horonaim and Eglath-Shelishiyah, for even the Waters of Nimrim have become a wasteland.

Jeremiah 48:35 And in Moab I shall make an end, Yahweh declares, of anyone offering sacrifice on the high places and anyone offering incense to his gods.

Jeremiah 48:36 That is why my heart sobs like a flute for Moab, sobs like a flute for the people of Kir-Heres, since the wealth he had acquired is lost.

Jeremiah 48:37 Yes, every head is shaved, every beard cut off, gashes are on every hand, sackcloth round every waist.

Jeremiah 48:38 On all the housetops of Moab and in all its squares there is nothing but lamenting, for I have broken Moab like an unwanted pot, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 48:39 How shattered he is! Wail! Moab so shamefully in retreat! Moab has become a laughing-stock, a thing of horror to all his neighbours.

Jeremiah 48:40 For Yahweh says this: (Look, like an eagle, he will hover, spreading his wings over Moab.)

Jeremiah 48:41 The towns have been captured, the strongholds seized. (And the heart of Moab’s warriors, that day, will be like that of a woman in labour pains.)

Jeremiah 48:42 Moab will be destroyed, no longer a people, for setting itself up against Yahweh.

Jeremiah 48:43 Terror, the pit and the snare for you, inhabitant of Moab, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 48:44 And anyone who escapes from terror will fall into the pit, and anyone who climbs out of the pit will be caught in the snare. Yes, I shall bring all this on Moab when the year comes for punishing them, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 48:45 In the shelter of Heshbon the fugitives have paused, exhausted. But fire will burst from Heshbon, a flame from the palace of Sihon, consuming the brows of Moab, the head of a turbulent brood.

Jeremiah 48:46 Disaster for you, Moab! The people of Chemosh are lost! For your sons have been taken into exile and your daughters into captivity.

Jeremiah 48:47 But I shall bring back Moab's captives in the final days, Yahweh declares. Thus far the judgement on Moab.

Jeremiah 49:1 To the Ammonites. Yahweh says this: Has Israel no sons? Has he no heir? Why should Milcom have inherited Gad and his people have settled in its towns?

Jeremiah 49:2 And so the days are coming, Yahweh declares, when I shall make the war cry ring out for Rabbah-of-the-Ammonites. She will become a desolate mound and her daughter towns will be burnt down. Then Israel will inherit from his heirs, Yahweh says.

Jeremiah 49:3 Wail, Heshbon, for Ar has been laid waste! Shriek, daughters of Rabbah! Wrap yourself in sackcloth, raise the dirge, run to and fro among the sheep-pens! For Milcom is going into exile, with all his priests and princes.

Jeremiah 49:4 How you used to glory in your Valley, rebellious daughter, confident in your resources, 'Who will dare to attack me?'

Jeremiah 49:5 Look, I shall bring terror on you, Lord Yahweh Sabaoth declares, from all directions; you shall be driven away, everyone for himself, with no one to rally the fugitives.

Jeremiah 49:6 (But later I shall bring back the captive Ammonites, Yahweh declares.)

Jeremiah 49:7 To Edom. Yahweh says this: Is there no wisdom left in Teman? Have the shrewd run out of commonsense, has their wisdom vanished?

Jeremiah 49:8 Away! Take to your heels! Go into hiding, inhabitants of Dedan, for I shall bring ruin on Esau when the time comes for me to punish him.

Jeremiah 49:9 If grape-pickers were to come to you, would they not leave a few gleanings? If robbers came during the night, would they not steal only as much as they wanted?

Jeremiah 49:10 But I for my part have stripped Esau, have laid his hiding places bare: he can hide no longer. His race is destroyed, so are his brothers and neighbours; he is no more!

Jeremiah 49:11 Leave your orphans, I shall support them, and let your widows rely on me!

Jeremiah 49:12 For Yahweh says this, 'Look, those who would not have had to drink the cup will have to drink it all the same; so why should you go unpunished? You will not go unpunished, but will certainly have to drink.

Jeremiah 49:13 For by my own self I have sworn, Yahweh declares, that Bozrah will become an object of horror, a laughing-stock, a desert, a curse, and all its towns ruins for ever.'

Jeremiah 49:14 I have received a message from Yahweh, a herald has been sent throughout the nations, ‘Muster! March against this people! Prepare for battle!’

Jeremiah 49:15 For look, I shall reduce you to the smallest of nations, to the most despised of people.

Jeremiah 49:16 Your reputation for ferocity, your proud heart has misled you. You whose home is in the crannies of the Rock, who cling to the top of the peak! Though you make your nest as high as the eagle’s, I shall bring you down from there, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 49:17 Edom will become an object of horror; everyone going near will be appalled, and whistle at the sight of all her wounds.

Jeremiah 49:18 As at the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbouring towns, no one will live there any more, Yahweh says, no human being settle there again.

Jeremiah 49:19 Look, like a lion he climbs from the thickets of the Jordan to the perennial pasture! In a flash, I shall make them run away, and there appoint someone I shall choose. For who is there like me? Who can hale me into court? Name me the shepherd who can stand up to me.

Jeremiah 49:20 So now hear the plan that Yahweh has laid against Edom, the schemes he has in mind against the inhabitants of Teman: they will certainly be dragged away like the smallest of the flock! Their pastures will certainly be sacked before their eyes!

Jeremiah 49:21 The earth quakes at the sound of their downfall, the sound of it echoes to the Sea of Reeds.

Jeremiah 49:22 Look, like an eagle, he will soar and hover, spreading his wings over Bozrah. And the heart of Edom’s warriors, that day, will be like that of a woman in labour pains.

Jeremiah 49:23 To Damascus. Hamath and Arpad are shamed, for they have heard bad news. They are convulsed with anxiety like the sea that cannot be calmed.

Jeremiah 49:24 Damascus is aghast, she prepares for flight, she is seized with trembling (anguish and sorrow have laid hold on her as on a woman in labour).

Jeremiah 49:25 What now! That famous town deserted, that city of gaiety?

Jeremiah 49:26 And so in her squares her young men will fall, and all her fighting men will perish, that day, Yahweh Sabaoth declares.

Jeremiah 49:27 I shall light a fire inside the walls of Damascus, to devour the palaces of Ben-Hadad.

Jeremiah 49:28 To Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor, which were conquered by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. Yahweh says this: Up! March on Kedar, destroy the sons of the east!

Jeremiah 49:29 Let their tents and their flocks be captured, their tent-cloths and all their gear; let their camels be seized and the shout go up, 'Terror on every side!'

Jeremiah 49:30 Away! Get into hiding as fast as you can, inhabitants of Hazor, Yahweh declares, for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has made a plan against you, he has a scheme in mind against you,

Jeremiah 49:31 Up! March on a nation at its ease, living secure, Yahweh declares, that has no gates, no bars, that lives in a remote place!

Jeremiah 49:32 Their camels will be the plunder, their countless sheep the spoil. I shall scatter them to the winds, those Crop-Heads, and bring ruin on them from every side, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 49:33 Hazor will become the lair of jackals, desolate for ever. No one will live there any more, no human being settle there again.

Jeremiah 49:34 The word of Yahweh that came to the prophet Jeremiah about Elam, at the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah.

Jeremiah 49:35 'Yahweh Sabaoth says this: Look, I shall break Elam's bow, the source of his might.

Jeremiah 49:36 I shall bring four winds on Elam from the four corners of the sky, and I shall scatter them to all these winds: there will not be a single nation to which people expelled from Elam do not go.

Jeremiah 49:37 I shall make the Elamites tremble before their enemies, before those determined to kill them. I shall bring disaster on them, my burning anger, Yahweh declares. I shall pursue them with the sword until I have destroyed them all.

Jeremiah 49:38 I shall set up my throne in Elam, uprooting its king and princes, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 49:39 In the final days, I shall bring Elam's captives back, Yahweh declares.'

Jeremiah 50:1 The word that Yahweh spoke against Babylon, against the country of the Chaldaeans, through the prophet Jeremiah.

Jeremiah 50:2 Announce it to the nations, proclaim it, hoist a signal and proclaim it, making no secret of it, say, 'Babylon is captured, Bel disgraced, Marduk shattered. (Her idols are disgraced, her Obscenities shattered.)'

Jeremiah 50:3 For a nation is marching on her from the north, to turn her country into a desert: no one will live there any more; human and animal have fled and gone.

Jeremiah 50:4 In those days and at that time the people of Israel will return (they and the people of Judah); they will come weeping in search of Yahweh their God.

Jeremiah 50:5 They will ask the way to Zion and turn their faces towards her, 'Come, let us bind ourselves to Yahweh by an everlasting covenant never to be forgotten!'

Jeremiah 50:6 Lost sheep, such were my people; their shepherds led them astray, the mountains misled them; from mountain to hill they went, forgetful of their fold.

Jeremiah 50:7 Whoever came across them devoured them, their enemies said, 'We are not to blame, since they have sinned against Yahweh, the Home of Justice, against Yahweh, the Hope of their ancestors.'

Jeremiah 50:8 Escape from Babylon, leave the country of the Chaldaeans. Be like he-goats, leading the sheep!

Jeremiah 50:9 For look, I shall raise a league of mighty nations to attack Babylon, from the land of the north. They will take up position against her; by them she will be taken. Their arrows, like an experienced soldier's, never return in vain.

Jeremiah 50:10 Chaldaea will be plundered, all her plunderers will be satisfied, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 50:11 Rejoice! Have your triumph, you plunderers of my heritage! Be playful like a heifer let out to grass! Neigh like stallions!

Jeremiah 50:12 But your mother is covered with shame, disgraced is the woman who bore you; she is the least of nations now; a desert, a parched land, a wasteland.

Jeremiah 50:13 Because of Yahweh's anger, no one will live there any more, she will become a total solitude. All who pass by Babylon will be appalled and whistle at the sight of all her wounds.

Jeremiah 50:14 Take position against Babylon, surround her, all you who bend the bow. Shoot at her! Do not spare your arrows, for she has sinned against Yahweh!

Jeremiah 50:15 Raise the war cry against her from all sides. She surrenders! Her bastions fall! Her walls collapse! This is Yahweh's vengeance! Take revenge on her. Treat her as she has treated others.

Jeremiah 50:16 Deprive Babylon of the man who sows, of the man who wields the sickle at harvest. Away from the devastating sword, let everyone return to his own people, let everyone flee to his own country!

Jeremiah 50:17 Israel was a straying sheep pursued by lions. First, the king of Assyria devoured him, and latterly Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon crunched his bones.

Jeremiah 50:18 So Yahweh Sabaoth, God of Israel, says this: Look, I shall punish the king of Babylon and his country as I punished the king of Assyria.

Jeremiah 50:19 I will bring Israel back to his pastures to browse on Carmel and in Bashan, on the highlands of Ephraim and in Gilead, and he will be satisfied.

Jeremiah 50:20 In those days and at that time, Yahweh declares, you may look for Israel's guilt, it will not be there, for Judah's sins, you will not find them, for I shall pardon the remnant that I leave.

Jeremiah 50:21 March on the country of Merathaim, march on it and on the inhabitants of Pekod; slaughter and curse with destruction every last one of them, Yahweh declares, carry out my orders to the letter!

Jeremiah 50:22 The din of battle fills the country, immense destruction.

Jeremiah 50:23 How utterly shattered that hammer of the whole world! What a thing of horror Babylon has become throughout the nations!

Jeremiah 50:24 I set a snare for you, Babylon; you were caught before you knew it. You have been found and overpowered for having defied Yahweh.

Jeremiah 50:25 Yahweh has opened his armoury and taken out the weapons of his fury. For Lord Yahweh Sabaoth has work to do in the country of the Chaldaeans.

Jeremiah 50:26 Fall on her from every side, open her granaries, pile her in heaps, curse her with destruction, until nothing is left of her.

Jeremiah 50:27 Slaughter all her bulls, down to the slaughterhouse with them! Disaster on them, their day has come, their time for being punished.

Jeremiah 50:28 Listen! Fugitives and runaways from the country of Babylon arrive in Zion and proclaim the revenge of Yahweh our God, revenge for his Temple!

Jeremiah 50:29 Call up the archers against Babylon! All you who bend the bow, invest her on all sides, leave her no way of escape. Repay her as her deeds deserve; treat her as she has treated others, for she was arrogant to Yahweh, to the Holy One of Israel.

Jeremiah 50:30 And so in her squares her young men will fall, and all her fighting men will perish, that day, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 50:31 My quarrel is with you, 'Arrogance!' Lord Yahweh Sabaoth declares, your day has come, the time for me to punish you.

Jeremiah 50:32 'Arrogance' will stumble, she will fall, no one will lift her up: I shall set fire to her towns and it will devour all around it.

Jeremiah 50:33 Yahweh Sabaoth says this: The people of Israel are oppressed (and the people of Judah too), all their captors hold them fast, they will not let them go.

Jeremiah 50:34 But their redeemer is strong: Yahweh Sabaoth is his name. He will take up their cause, to give our country rest but make the inhabitants of Babylon tremble.

Jeremiah 50:35 A sword against the Chaldaeans, Yahweh declares, against the inhabitants of Babylon, against her princes and her sages!

Jeremiah 50:36 A sword against her diviners: may they lose their wits! A sword against her warriors: may they panic!

Jeremiah 50:37 A sword against her horses, her chariots and the conglomeration of people inside her: may they be like women! A sword against her treasures: may they be plundered!

Jeremiah 50:38 Drought on her waters: may they dry up! For it is a country of idols, and they are mad about those bogeys of theirs!

Jeremiah 50:39 Hence wild cats and jackals will live there, and ostriches make their home there. She will never again be inhabited, for ever, but remain uninhabited age after age.

Jeremiah 50:40 As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and their neighbouring towns, Yahweh declares, no one will live there any more, no human being settle there again.

Jeremiah 50:41 Look, a people is coming from the north, a mighty nation; from the far ends of the earth many kings are stirring.

Jeremiah 50:42 They are armed with bow and spear, they are cruel and pitiless; their noise is like the roaring of the sea; they ride horses, ready as one man to fight you, daughter of Babylon!

Jeremiah 50:43 The king of Babylon has heard the news, his hands fall limp, anguish has seized him, pain like that of a woman in labour.

Jeremiah 50:44 Look, like a lion he climbs the thickets of the Jordan to the perennial pasture! In a flash I shall make them run away and there appoint someone I shall choose. For who is there like me? Who can hale me into court? Name me the shepherd who can stand up to me.

Jeremiah 50:45 So now hear the plan that Yahweh has laid against Babylon, the schemes he has in mind against the country of the Chaldaeans: they will certainly be dragged away like the smallest in the flock! Their pastures will certainly be sacked before their eyes!

Jeremiah 50:46 The earth quakes at the sound of Babylon’s capture, and the shouting echoes through the nations.

Jeremiah 51:1 Yahweh says this: Against Babylon and the inhabitants of Leb-Kamai I shall rouse a destructive wind.

Jeremiah 51:2 I shall send winnowers to Babylon to winnow her and leave her country bare, for she will be beleaguered on all sides, on the day of disaster.

Jeremiah 51:3 Let no archer bend his bow! Let no man swagger in his breastplate!-No quarter for her young men! Curse her whole army with destruction!

Jeremiah 51:4 In the country of the Chaldaeans the slaughtered will fall, in the streets of Babylon, those run through by the sword.

Jeremiah 51:5 For Israel and Judah have not been bereft of their God, Yahweh Sabaoth, although their country was full of sin against the Holy One of Israel.

Jeremiah 51:6 Escape from Babylon (save your lives, each one of you); do not perish for her guilt, for now is the time for Yahweh's vengeance: he will pay her her reward!

Jeremiah 51:7 Babylon was a golden cup in Yahweh's hand, she made the whole world drunk, the nations drank her wine and then went mad.

Jeremiah 51:8 Babylon has suddenly fallen, is broken: wail for her! Fetch balm for her wounds, perhaps she can be cured!

Jeremiah 51:9 -'We tried to cure Babylon; she has got no better. Leave her alone and let us each go to his own country.' -Yes, her sentence reaches to the sky, rises to the very clouds.

Jeremiah 51:10 Yahweh has shown the uprightness of our cause. Come, let us tell in Zion what Yahweh our God has done.

Jeremiah 51:11 Sharpen the arrows, fill the quivers! Yahweh has roused the spirit of the kings of the Medes, because he has a plan against Babylon to destroy it; this is Yahweh's revenge, revenge for his Temple.

Jeremiah 51:12 Against the walls of Babylon raise the standard! Strengthen the guard! Post the sentries! Take up concealed positions! For Yahweh has both planned and done what he promised he would to the inhabitants of Babylon.

Jeremiah 51:13 Enthroned beside abundant waters, rich in treasures, you now meet your end, the finish of your pillaging.

Jeremiah 51:14 By his own self Yahweh Sabaoth has sworn: I shall fill you with men as though with grasshoppers, and over you they will raise the triumph-shout.

Jeremiah 51:15 By his power he made the earth, by his wisdom set the world firm, by his discernment spread out the heavens.

Jeremiah 51:16 When he thunders there is a roaring of waters in heaven; he raises clouds from the furthest limits of the earth, makes the lightning flash for the downpour, and brings the wind from his storehouse.

Jeremiah 51:17 At this everyone stands stupefied, uncomprehending, every goldsmith blushes for his idols; his castings are but delusion, with no breath in them.

Jeremiah 51:18 They are futile, a laughable production, when the time comes for them to be punished, they will vanish.

Jeremiah 51:19 The Heritage of Jacob is not like these, for he is the maker of everything, and Israel is the tribe that is his heritage; His name is Yahweh Sabaoth.

Jeremiah 51:20 You were my mace, a weapon of war. With you I crushed nations, struck kingdoms down,

Jeremiah 51:21 with you crushed horse and rider, with you crushed chariot and charioteer,

Jeremiah 51:22 with you crushed man and woman, with you crushed old man and young, with you crushed young man and girl,

Jeremiah 51:23 with you crushed shepherd and flock, with you crushed ploughman and team, with you crushed governors and magistrates,

Jeremiah 51:24 and I shall repay Babylon and the inhabitants of Chaldaea, before your eyes, for all the wrongs they have done to Zion, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 51:25 I am setting myself against you, mountain of destruction, Yahweh declares, destroyer of the whole world! I shall reach out my hand for you and send you tumbling from the crags and make you a burnt-out mountain.

Jeremiah 51:26 No corner-stone will be taken from you again and no foundation-stone, for you will be a desert for ever, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 51:27 Raise the standard throughout the world, sound the trumpet among the nations! Consecrate nations to make war on her; summon kingdoms against her: Ararat, Minni, Ashkenaz; appoint a recruiting-officer for her enemies, bring up the cavalry, bristling like locusts.

Jeremiah 51:28 Consecrate nations to make war on her: the kings of Media, her governors, all her magistrates and the whole territory under their rule.

Jeremiah 51:29 Then the earth trembled and writhed, for Yahweh’s plan against Babylon was being executed: to change the country of Babylon into an unpopulated desert.

Jeremiah 51:30 The warriors of Babylon have done with fighting, they have stayed inside their fortresses; their courage exhausted, they are now like women. Her houses are on fire, her gates are shattered.

Jeremiah 51:31 Courier follows close on courier, messenger on messenger, to tell the king of Babylon that his city has been taken from all sides,

Jeremiah 51:32 the fords occupied, the bastions burnt down and the fighting men seized with panic.

Jeremiah 51:33 For Yahweh Sabaoth, the God of Israel, says this: the daughter of Babylon is like a threshing-floor when it is being trodden: a little while, and then the time for harvesting her will come.

Jeremiah 51:34 He devoured me, consumed me, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, left me like an empty dish, like the Dragon he has swallowed me whole, filled his belly with my titbits and threw me out.

Jeremiah 51:35 ‘On Babylon be the wounds I suffered!’ the daughter of Zion will say. ‘On the inhabitants of Chaldaea be my blood!’ Jerusalem will say.

Jeremiah 51:36 So, Yahweh says this: Look, I am taking up your cause to make sure you are avenged. I shall dry her river up, make her springs run dry.

Jeremiah 51:37 Babylon will become a heap of stones, the lair of jackals, a thing of horror and of scorn, with no one living in it.

Jeremiah 51:38 Like lions they roar together, they growl like lions’ whelps.

Jeremiah 51:39 Are they feverish? I will prepare them a drink and make them drink until they are tipsy and fall into an everlasting sleep, never to wake again, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 51:40 I will drag them away to the slaughterhouse like lambs, like rams and goats.

Jeremiah 51:41 What! Has Sheshak been taken, been conquered, the pride of the whole world? What a thing of horror Babylon has become throughout the nations!

Jeremiah 51:42 The sea has risen over Babylon, she sinks beneath its boisterous waves.

Jeremiah 51:43 Her towns have been turned into wasteland, a parched land, a desert, a country where no one lives and where nobody goes.

Jeremiah 51:44 I shall punish Bel in Babylon and make him disgorge what he has swallowed. In future the nations will stream to him no more. The very walls of Babylon will fall.

Jeremiah 51:45 Get out of her, my people; save your lives, each one of you, from Yahweh’s furious anger.

Jeremiah 51:46 But do not be faint-hearted! Do not take fright at rumours hawked round the country: one rumour spreads one year, next year another follows; violence rules on earth and one tyrant succeeds another.

Jeremiah 51:47 So look, the days are coming when I shall punish the idols of Babylon. Her entire country will be humbled, with all her slaughtered lying on home-soil.

Jeremiah 51:48 The heaven and earth and all within them will shout for joy over Babylon, for the destroyers from the north are coming to her, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 51:49 Babylon in her turn must fall, you slaughtered ones of Israel, just as through Babylon there fell men slaughtered all over the world.

Jeremiah 51:50 You who have escaped her sword, leave her, do not wait! Remember Yahweh from afar, let Jerusalem come into your mind.

Jeremiah 51:51 -'We were ashamed when we heard of the outrage, we were covered in confusion because foreigners had entered the Temple of Yahweh's holy places.'

Jeremiah 51:52 -So look, the days are coming, Yahweh declares, when I shall punish her idols, and the wounded will groan throughout her country.

Jeremiah 51:53 Were Babylon to scale the heavens or reinforce her towering citadel, destroyers would still come to her on my orders, Yahweh declares.

Jeremiah 51:54 The din of shouting from Babylon, of immense destruction, from the country of the Chaldaeans!

Jeremiah 51:55 Yes, Yahweh is laying Babylon waste and silencing her monstrous din, whose waves used to roar like the ocean and their tumultuous voices rang out.

Jeremiah 51:56 For the destroyer has fallen on Babylon, her warriors are captured, their bows are broken. Yes, Yahweh is a God of retribution, he never fails to repay.

Jeremiah 51:57 I shall make her princes and her sages drink, her governors, her magistrates, her warriors; they will fall into an everlasting sleep, never to wake again, declares the King, whose name is Yahweh Sabaoth.

Jeremiah 51:58 Yahweh Sabaoth says this: The walls of Babylon the Great will be rased to the ground, and her lofty gates will be burnt down. Thus peoples toil for nothing and nations wear themselves out, for the flames.

Jeremiah 51:59 This is the order that the prophet Jeremiah gave to Seraiah son of Neriah, son of Mahseiah when Seraiah left for Babylon with Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year of his reign. Seraiah was lord chamberlain.

Jeremiah 51:60 Now, on one sheet, Jeremiah had written down the entire disaster that was to befall Babylon, that is, all these words recorded here against Babylon.

Jeremiah 51:61 Jeremiah then said to Seraiah, 'When you reach Babylon, see to it that you read all these words aloud.

Jeremiah 51:62 Then say, "You, Yahweh, have promised to destroy this place, so that no one will live here ever again, neither human nor animal, and it will be desolate for ever."

Jeremiah 51:63 Then, when you have finished reading this sheet, tie a stone to it and throw it into the middle of the Euphrates, Jeremiah 51:64 with the words, “So shall Babylon sink, never to rise again from the disaster which I am going to bring on her.” ‘ Thus far the words of Jeremiah.

Jeremiah 52:1 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he came to the throne, and he reigned for eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Hamital daughter of Jeremiah, of Libnah.

Jeremiah 52:2 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh, just as Jehoiakim had done.

Jeremiah 52:3 That this should happen to Jerusalem and Judah was due to Yahweh’s anger, resulting in his casting them away from his presence. Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

Jeremiah 52:4 In the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon advanced on Jerusalem with his entire army; he pitched camp in front of the city and threw up earthworks round it.

Jeremiah 52:5 The city lay under siege till the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

Jeremiah 52:6 In the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, when famine was raging in the city and there was no food for the populace,

Jeremiah 52:7 a breach was made in the city wall. The king and all the fighting men then fled, leaving the city under cover of dark, by way of the gate between the two walls, which is near the king’s garden—the Chaldaeans had surrounded the city—and made his way towards the Arabah.

Jeremiah 52:8 The Chaldaean troops pursued the king and caught up with Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho, where all his troops deserted.

Jeremiah 52:9 But the Chaldaeans captured the king and took him to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the territory of Hamath, where he passed sentence on him.

Jeremiah 52:10 He had Zedekiah’s sons slaughtered before his eyes; he also had all the chief men of Judah put to death at Riblah.

Jeremiah 52:11 He then put out Zedekiah’s eyes and, loading him with chains, the king of Babylon carried him off to Babylon where he kept him prisoner until his dying day.

Jeremiah 52:12 In the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month—it was in the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon—Nebuzaradan commander of the guard, a member of the king of Babylon’s staff, entered Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 52:13 He burnt down the Temple of Yahweh, the royal palace and all the houses in Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 52:14 The Chaldaean troops who accompanied the commander of the guard demolished all the walls surrounding Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 52:15 Nebuzaradan commander of the guard deported (some of the poor people and) the remainder of the population left in the city, the deserters who had gone over to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the artisans.

Jeremiah 52:16 But Nebuzaradan commander of the guard left some of the poor country-people behind as vineyard workers and ploughmen.

Jeremiah 52:17 The Chaldaeans broke up the bronze pillars from the Temple of Yahweh, the wheeled stands and the bronze Sea, which were in the Temple of Yahweh, and took all the bronze away to Babylon.

Jeremiah 52:18 They also took the ash containers, the scoops, the knives, the sprinkling bowls, the incense bowls, and all the bronze furnishings used in worship.

Jeremiah 52:19 The commander of the guard also took the bowls, the censers, the sprinkling bowls, the ash containers, the lamp-stands, the goblets and the saucers: everything that was made of gold and everything made of silver.

Jeremiah 52:20 As regards the two pillars, the one Sea, the twelve bronze oxen supporting the Sea, and the wheeled stands, which King Solomon had made for the Temple of Yahweh, there was no reckoning the weight of bronze in all these objects.

Jeremiah 52:21 As regards the pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, its circumference was twelve cubits, it was four fingers thick, and hollow inside;

Jeremiah 52:22 on it stood a capital of bronze, the height of the capital being five cubits; round the capital were filigree and pomegranates, all in bronze. So also for the second pillar.

Jeremiah 52:23 There were ninety-six pomegranates round the sides, making a hundred pomegranates round the filigree in all.

Jeremiah 52:24 The commander of the guard took prisoner Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the priest next in rank, and the three guardians of the threshold.

Jeremiah 52:25 In the city he took prisoner an official who was in command of the fighting men, seven of the king’s personal friends who were discovered in the city, the secretary to the army commander responsible for military conscription, and sixty men of distinction discovered in the city.

Jeremiah 52:26 Nebuzaradan commander of the guard took these men and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah,

Jeremiah 52:27 and at Riblah, in the territory of Hamath, the king of Babylon had them put to death. Thus Judah was deported from its country.

Jeremiah 52:28 The number of people deported by Nebuchadnezzar was as follows. In the seventh year: three thousand and twenty-three Judaeans;

Jeremiah 52:29 in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar, eight hundred and thirty-two persons were deported from Jerusalem;

Jeremiah 52:30 in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzaradan commander of the guard deported seven hundred and forty-five Judaeans. In all: four thousand six hundred persons.

Jeremiah 52:31 But in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth day of the month, Evil-Merodach king of Babylon, in the year he came to the throne, pardoned Jehoiachin king of Judah and released him from prison.

Jeremiah 52:32 He treated him kindly and allotted him a seat above those of the other kings who were with him in Babylon.

Jeremiah 52:33 So Jehoiachin laid aside his prisoner's garb and for the rest of his life always ate at the king's table.

Jeremiah 52:34 And his upkeep was permanently ensured by the king, day after day, for the rest of his life until the day he died.

Lamentations

1:1 How deserted she sits, the city once thronged with people! Once the greatest of nations, she is now like a widow. Once the princess of states, she is now put to forced labour.

Lamentations 1:2 All night long she is weeping, tears running down her cheeks. Not one of all her lovers remains to comfort her. Her friends have all betrayed her and become her enemies.

Lamentations 1:3 Judah has gone into exile after much pain and toil. Living among the nations she finds no respite; her persecutors all overtake her where there is no way out.

Lamentations 1:4 The roads to Zion are in mourning; no one comes to her festivals now. Her gateways are all deserted; her priests groan; her young girls are grief-stricken; she suffers bitterly.

Lamentations 1:5 Her foes now have the upper hand, her enemies prosper, for Yahweh has made her suffer for her many, many crimes; her children have gone away into captivity driven in front of the oppressor.

Lamentations 1:6 And from the daughter of Zion all her splendour has departed. Her princes were like stags which could find no pasture, exhausted, as they flee before the hunter.

Lamentations 1:7 Jerusalem remembers her days of misery and distress; when her people fell into the enemy's clutches there was no one to help her. Her enemies looked on and laughed at her downfall.

Lamentations 1:8 Jerusalem has sinned so gravely that she has become a thing unclean. All who used to honour her despise her, having seen her nakedness; she herself groans aloud and turns her face away.

Lamentations 1:9 Her filth befouls her skirts—she never thought to end like this, and hence her astonishing fall with no one to comfort her. Yahweh, look at my misery, for the enemy is triumphant!

Lamentations 1:10 The enemy stretched out his hand for everything she treasured; she saw the heathen enter her sanctuary, whom you had forbidden to enter your Assembly.

Lamentations 1:11 All her people are groaning, looking for something to eat; they have bartered their treasures for food, to keep themselves alive. Look, Yahweh, and consider how despised I am!

Lamentations 1:12 All you who pass this way, look and see: is any sorrow like the sorrow inflicted on me, with which Yahweh struck me on the day of his burning anger?

Lamentations 1:13 He sent fire from on high deep into my bones; he stretched a net for my feet, he pulled me back; he left me shattered, sick all day long.

Lamentations 1:14 He has watched out for my offences, with his hand he enmeshes me, his yoke is on my neck, he has deprived me of strength. The Lord has put me into clutches which I am helpless to resist.

Lamentations 1:15 The Lord has rejected all my warriors within my walls, he has summoned a host against me to crush my young men; in the winepress the Lord trampled the young daughter of Judah.

Lamentations 1:16 And that is why I weep; my eyes stream with water, since a comforter who could revive me is far away. My children are shattered, for the enemy has proved too strong.

Lamentations 1:17 Zion stretches out her hands, with no one to comfort her. Yahweh has commanded Jacob's enemies to surround him; they treat Jerusalem as though she were unclean.

Lamentations 1:18 Yahweh is in the right, for I rebelled against his command. Listen, all you peoples, and see my sorrow. My young girls and my young men have gone into captivity. Qophp

Lamentations 1:19 I called to my lovers; they failed me. My priests and my elders expired in the city, as they searched for food to keep themselves alive.

Lamentations 1:20 Look, Yahweh. I am in distress! My inmost being is in ferment; my heart turns over inside me—how rebellious I have been! Outside, the sword bereaves; inside it is like death.

Lamentations 1:21 Listen, for I am groaning, with no one to comfort me. All my enemies have heard of my disaster, they are glad about what you have done. Bring the Day you once foretold, so that they may be like me!

Lamentations 1:22 Let all their wickedness come before you, and treat them as you have treated me for all my crimes; numberless are my groans, and I am sick at heart.

Lamentations 2:1 In his anger, with what darkness has the Lord enveloped the daughter of Zion! He has flung the beauty of Israel from heaven to the ground, without regard for his footstool on the day of his anger.

Lamentations 2:2 The Lord pitilessly engulfed all the homes of Jacob; in his fury he tore down the fortresses of the daughter of Judah; he threw to the ground, he desecrated the kingdom and its princes.

Lamentations 2:3 In his burning anger he broke all the might of Israel, withdrew his protecting right hand at the coming of the enemy, and blazed against Jacob like a fire that burns up everything near it.

Lamentations 2:4 Like an enemy he bent his bow, and his right hand held firm; like a foe he slaughtered all those who were a delight to see; on the tent of the daughter of Zion he poured out his fury like fire.

Lamentations 2:5 The Lord behaved like an enemy; he engulfed Israel, he engulfed all its citadels, he destroyed its fortresses and for the daughter of Judah multiplied weeping on wailing.

Lamentations 2:6 He wrecked his domain like a garden, destroyed his assembly-points, Yahweh erased the memory of festivals and Sabbaths in Zion; in the heat of his anger he treated king and priest with contempt.

Lamentations 2:7 The Lord has rejected his altar, he has come to loathe his sanctuary and has given her palace walls into the clutches of the enemy; from the uproar they made in Yahweh's temple it might have been a festival day!

Lamentations 2:8 Yahweh has resolved to destroy the walls of the daughter of Zion, stretching out the line, not staying his hand until he has engulfed everything, thus bringing mourning on wall and rampart; alike they crumbled.

Lamentations 2:9 Her gates have sunk into the ground; he has broken and shattered their bars. Her king and her princes are among the gentiles, there is no instruction, furthermore her prophets cannot find any vision from Yahweh.

Lamentations 2:10 Mute, they sit on the ground, the elders of the daughter of Zion; they have put dust on their heads and wrapped themselves in sackcloth. The young girls of Jerusalem bow their heads to the ground.

Lamentations 2:11 My eyes are worn out with weeping, my inmost being is in ferment, my heart plummets at the destruction of my young people, as the children and babies grow faint in the streets of the city.

Lamentations 2:12 They keep saying to their mothers, 'Where is some food?' as they faint like wounded men in the streets of the city, as they breathe their last on their mothers' breasts.

Lamentations 2:13 To what can I compare or liken you, daughter of Jerusalem? Who can rescue and comfort you, young daughter of Zion? For huge as the sea is your ruin: who can heal you?

Lamentations 2:14 The visions your prophets had for you were deceptive whitewash; they did not lay bare your guilt so as to change your fortunes: the visions they told you were deceptive.

Lamentations 2:15 All who pass your way clap their hands at the sight; they whistle and shake their heads over the daughter of Jerusalem, 'Is this the city they call Perfection of Beauty, the joy of the whole world?'

Lamentations 2:16 Your enemies open their mouths in chorus against you; they whistle and grind their teeth; they say, 'We have swallowed her up. This is the day we were waiting for; at last we have seen it!'

Lamentations 2:17 Yahweh has done what he planned, has carried out his threat, as he ordained long ago: he has destroyed without pity, increasing the might of your foes—and letting your foes get the credit.

Lamentations 2:18 Cry then to the Lord, rampart of the daughter of Zion; let your tears flow like a torrent, day and night; allow yourself no respite, give your eyes no rest!

Lamentations 2:19 Up, cry out in the night-time as each watch begins! Pour your heart out like water in Yahweh's presence! Raise your hands to him for the lives of your children (who faint with hunger at the end of every street)!

Lamentations 2:20 Look, Yahweh, and consider: whom have you ever treated like this? Should women eat their little ones, the children they have nursed? Should priest and prophet be slaughtered in the Lord's sanctuary?

Lamentations 2:21 Children and old people are lying on the ground in the streets; my young men and young girls have fallen by the sword; you have killed them, on the day of your anger, you have slaughtered them pitilessly.

Lamentations 2:22 As though to a festival you called together terrors from all sides, so that, on the day of Yahweh's anger, none escaped and none survived. Those whom I had nursed and reared, my enemy has annihilated them all.

Lamentations 3:1 I am the man familiar with misery under the rod of his fury.

Lamentations 3:2 He has led and guided me into darkness, not light.

Lamentations 3:3 Against none but me does he turn his hand, again and again, all day.

Lamentations 3:4 He has wasted my flesh and skin away, has broken my bones.

Lamentations 3:5 He has besieged me and made hardship a circlet round my head.

Lamentations 3:6 He has forced me to dwell where all is dark, like those long-dead in their everlasting home.

Lamentations 3:7 He has walled me in so that I cannot escape; he has weighed me down with chains;

Lamentations 3:8 even when I shout for help, he shuts out my prayer.

Lamentations 3:9 He has closed my way with blocks of stone, he has obstructed my paths.

Lamentations 3:10 For me he is a lurking bear, a lion in hiding.

Lamentations 3:11 Heading me off, he has torn me apart, leaving me shattered.

Lamentations 3:12 He has bent his bow and used me as a target for his arrows.

Lamentations 3:13 He has shot deep into me with shafts from his quiver.

Lamentations 3:14 I have become a joke to all my own people, their refrain all day long.

Lamentations 3:15 He has given me my fill of bitterness, he has made me drunk with wormwood.

Lamentations 3:16 He has broken my teeth with gravel, he has fed me on ashes.

Lamentations 3:17 I have been deprived of peace, I have forgotten what happiness is Lamentations 3:18 and thought, 'My lasting hope in Yahweh is lost.'

Lamentations 3:19 Bring to mind my misery and anguish; it is wormwood and gall!

Lamentations 3:20 My heart dwells on this continually and sinks within me.

Lamentations 3:21 This is what I shall keep in mind and so regain some hope:

Lamentations 3:22 Surely Yahweh's mercies are not over, his deeds of faithful love not exhausted;

Lamentations 3:23 every morning they are renewed; great is his faithfulness!

Lamentations 3:24 'Yahweh is all I have,' I say to myself, 'and so I shall put my hope in him.'

Lamentations 3:25 Yahweh is good to those who trust him, to all who search for him.

Lamentations 3:26 It is good to wait in silence for Yahweh to save.

Lamentations 3:27 It is good for someone to bear the yoke from a young age,

Lamentations 3:28 to sit in solitude and silence when it weighs heavy,

Lamentations 3:29 to lay one’s head in the dust—maybe there is hope-

Lamentations 3:30 to offer one’s cheek to the striker, to have one’s fill of disgrace!

Lamentations 3:31 For the Lord will not reject anyone for ever.

Lamentations 3:32 If he brings grief, he will have pity out of the fullness of his faithful love,

Lamentations 3:33 for it is not for his own pleasure that he torments and grieves the human race.

Lamentations 3:34 When all the prisoners in a country are crushed underfoot,

Lamentations 3:35 when human rights are overridden in defiance of the Most High,

Lamentations 3:36 when someone is cheated of justice, does not the Lord see it?

Lamentations 3:37 Who has only to speak and it is so done? Who commands, if not the Lord?

Lamentations 3:38 From where, if not from the mouth of the Most High, do evil and good come?

Lamentations 3:39 Why then should anyone complain? Better to be bold against one’s sins.

Lamentations 3:40 Let us examine our path, let us ponder it and return to Yahweh.

Lamentations 3:41 Let us raise our hearts and hands to God in heaven.

Lamentations 3:42 We are the ones who have sinned, who have rebelled, and you have not forgiven.

Lamentations 3:43 You have enveloped us in anger, pursuing us, slaughtering without pity.

Lamentations 3:44 You have wrapped yourself in a cloud too thick for prayer to pierce.

Lamentations 3:45 You have reduced us to rubbish and refuse among the nations.

Lamentations 3:46 Our enemies open their mouths in chorus against us.

Lamentations 3:47 Terror and pitfall have been our lot, ravage and ruin.

Lamentations 3:48 My eyes dissolve in torrents of tears at the ruin of my beloved people.

Lamentations 3:49 My eyes will weep ceaselessly, without relief,

Lamentations 3:50 until Yahweh looks down and sees from heaven.

Lamentations 3:51 My eyes have grown sore over all the daughters of my city.

Lamentations 3:52 Unprovoked, my enemies hunted me down like a bird.

Lamentations 3:53 They shut me finally in a pit, they closed me in with a stone.

Lamentations 3:54 The waters rose over my head; I thought, 'I am lost!'

Lamentations 3:55 Yahweh, I called on your name from the deep pit.

Lamentations 3:56 You heard my voice, do not close your ear to my prayer, to my cry.

Lamentations 3:57 You are near when I call to you. You said, 'Do not be afraid!'

Lamentations 3:58 Lord, you defended my cause, you have redeemed my life.

Lamentations 3:59 Yahweh, you have seen the wrong done to me, grant me redress.

Lamentations 3:60 You have seen their vindictiveness, all their plots against me.

Lamentations 3:61 You have heard their insults, Yahweh, all their plots against me,

Lamentations 3:62 the whispering and murmuring of my enemies against me all day long.

Lamentations 3:63 Look, whether they sit or stand, I am their refrain.

Lamentations 3:64 Yahweh, repay them as their deeds deserve.

Lamentations 3:65 Lay hardness of heart as your curse on them.

Lamentations 3:66 Angrily pursue them, root them out from under your heavens!

Lamentations 4:1 How the gold has tarnished, how the fine gold has changed! The sacred stones lie scattered at the corner of every street.

Lamentations 4:2 The children of Zion, as precious as finest gold—to think that they should now be reckoned like crockery made by a potter!

Lamentations 4:3 The very jackals give the breast, and suckle their young: but the daughter of my people is as cruel as the ostriches of the desert.

Lamentations 4:4 The tongue of the baby at the breast sticks to its palate for thirst; little children ask for bread, no one gives them any.

Lamentations 4:5 Those who used to eat only the best, now lie dying in the streets; those who were reared in the purple claw at the rubbish heaps,

Lamentations 4:6 for the wickedness of the daughter of my people exceeded the sins of Sodom, which was overthrown in a moment without a hand being laid on it.

Lamentations 4:7 Once her young people were brighter than snow, whiter than milk; rosier than coral their bodies, their hue like sapphire.

Lamentations 4:8 Now their faces are blacker than soot, they are not recognised in the streets, the skin has shrunk over their bones, as dry as a stick.

Lamentations 4:9 Happier those killed by the sword than those killed by famine: they waste away, sunken for lack of the fruits of the earth.

Lamentations 4:10 With their own hands, kindly women cooked their children; this was their food when the daughter of my people was ruined.

Lamentations 4:11 Yahweh indulged his fury, he vented his fierce anger, he lit a fire in Zion which devoured her foundations.

Lamentations 4:12 The kings of the earth never believed, nor did any of the inhabitants of the world, that foe or enemy would ever penetrate the gates of Jerusalem.

Lamentations 4:13 Owing to the sins of her prophets and the crimes of her priests, who had shed the blood of the upright, in the heart of the city,

Lamentations 4:14 they wandered blindly through the streets, polluted with blood, so that no one dared to touch their clothes.

Lamentations 4:15 ‘Keep away! Unclean!’ people shouted, ‘Keep away! Keep away! Don’t touch!’ If they left and fled to the nations, they were not allowed to stay there either.

Lamentations 4:16 The face of Yahweh destroyed them, he will look on them no more. There was no respect for the priests, no deference for the elders.

Lamentations 4:17 Continually we were wearing out our eyes, watching for help—in vain. From our towers we watched for a nation which could not save us anyway.

Lamentations 4:18 Men dogged our steps, to keep us out of our streets. Our end was near, our days were done, our end had come.

Lamentations 4:19 Our pursuers were swifter than eagles in the sky; they hounded our steps through the mountains, they lay in ambush for us in the wilds.

Lamentations 4:20 The breath of our nostrils, Yahweh's anointed, was caught in their traps, he of whom we said, 'In his shadow we shall live among the nations.'

Lamentations 4:21 Rejoice, exult, daughter of Edom, you who reside in Uz! To you in turn the cup will pass; you will get drunk and strip yourself naked!

Lamentations 4:22 Your wickedness is atoned for, daughter of Zion, he will never banish you again. But your wickedness, daughter of Edom, will he punish, your sins he will lay bare!

Lamentations 5:1 Yahweh, remember what has happened to us; consider, and see our degradation.

Lamentations 5:2 Our heritage has passed to strangers, our homes to foreigners.

Lamentations 5:3 We are orphans, we are fatherless; our mothers are like widows.

Lamentations 5:4 We have to buy our own water to drink, our own wood we can get only at a price.

Lamentations 5:5 The yoke is on our necks; we are persecuted; exhausted we are, allowed no rest.

Lamentations 5:6 We made a pact with Egypt, with Assyria, to have plenty of food.

Lamentations 5:7 Our ancestors sinned; they are no more, and we bear the weight of their guilt.

Lamentations 5:8 Slaves rule us; there is no one to rescue us from their clutches.

Lamentations 5:9 At peril of our lives we earn our bread, by risking the sword of the desert.

Lamentations 5:10 Our skin is as hot as an oven, from the scorch of famine.

Lamentations 5:11 The women in Zion have been raped, the young girls in the towns of Judah.

Lamentations 5:12 Princes have been hanged by their hands; the face of the old has won no respect.

Lamentations 5:13 Youths have been put to the mill, boys stagger under loads of wood.

Lamentations 5:14 The elders have deserted the gateway; the young have given up their music.

Lamentations 5:15 Joy has vanished from our hearts; our dancing has turned to mourning.

Lamentations 5:16 The crown has fallen from our heads. Alas that ever we sinned!

Lamentations 5:17 This is why our hearts are sick; this is why our eyes are dim:

Lamentations 5:18 because Mount Zion is desolate; jackals roam to and fro on it.

Lamentations 5:19 Yet you, Yahweh, rule from eternity; your throne endures from age to age.

Lamentations 5:20 Why do you never remember us? Why do you abandon us so long?

Lamentations 5:21 Make us come back to you, Yahweh, and we will come back. Restore us as we were before!

Lamentations 5:22 Unless you have utterly rejected us, in an anger which knows no limit.

Bar 1:1 This is the text of the book written in Babylon by Baruch son of Neraiah, son of Mahseiah, son of Zedekiah, son of Hasadiah, son of Hilkiah, Bar 1:2 in the fifth year, on the seventh day of the month, at the time when the Chaldaeans had captured Jerusalem and burned it down.

Bar 1:3 Baruch read the text of this book aloud to Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and to all the people who had come to hear the reading,

Bar 1:4 to the nobles and the sons of the king, and to the elders; to the whole people, that is, to the least no less than to the greatest, to all who lived in Babylon beside the river Sud.

Bar 1:5 On hearing it they wept, fasted and prayed before the Lord;

Bar 1:6 and they collected as much money as each could afford

Bar 1:7 and sent it to Jerusalem to the priest Jehoiakim son of Hilkiah, son of Shallum, and the other priests, and all the people who were with him in Jerusalem.

Bar 1:8 Also on the tenth day of Sivan he was given the utensils of the house of the Lord, which had been removed from the Temple, to take them back to the land of Judah; these were silver utensils which Zedekiah son of Josiah, king of Judah, had had made

Bar 1:9 after Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had deported Jeconiah from Jerusalem to Babylon, together with the princes, the metalworkers, the nobles and the common people.

Bar 1:10 Now, they wrote, we are sending you money to pay for burnt offerings, offerings for sin, and incense. Prepare oblations and offer them on the altar of the Lord our God;

Bar 1:11 and pray for the long life of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and of his son Belshazzar, that they may endure on earth as long as the heavens endure;

Bar 1:12 and that the Lord may give us strength and enlighten our eyes, so that we may lead our lives under the protection of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and of his son Belshazzar, and that we may serve them for a long time and win their favour.

Bar 1:13 Also pray to the Lord our God for us, because we have sinned against him, and the anger, the fury of the Lord, has still not turned away from us.

Bar 1:14 Lastly, you must read the booklet which we are sending you, publicly in the house of the Lord on the feastday and appropriate days.

Bar 1:15 You must say: Saving justice is the Lord's, we have only the look of shame we bear, as is the case today for the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem,

Bar 1:16 for our kings and princes, our priests, our prophets, and for our ancestors,

Bar 1:17 because we have sinned before the Lord,

Bar 1:18 have disobeyed him, and have not listened to the voice of the Lord our God telling us to follow the commandments which the Lord had ordained for us.

Bar 1:19 From the day when the Lord brought our ancestors out of Egypt until today we have been disobedient to the Lord our God, we have been disloyal, refusing to listen to his voice.

Bar 1:20 And we are not free even today of the disasters and the curse which the Lord pronounced through his servant Moses the day he brought our ancestors out of Egypt to give us a land flowing with milk and honey.

Bar 1:21 We have not listened to the voice of the Lord our God in all the words of those prophets he sent us;

Bar 1:22 but, each following the dictates of our evil heart, we have taken to serving alien gods, and doing what is displeasing to the Lord our God.

Bar 2:1 And so the Lord has carried out the sentence which he passed on us, on our judges who governed Israel, on our kings and leaders and on the people of Israel and of Judah;

Bar 2:2 what he did to Jerusalem has never been paralleled under the wide heavens—in conformity with what was written in the Law of Moses;

Bar 2:3 we were each reduced to eating the flesh of our own sons and daughters.

Bar 2:4 Furthermore, he has handed them over into the power of all the kingdoms that surround us, to be the contempt and execration of all the neighbouring peoples among whom the Lord scattered them.

Bar 2:5 Instead of being masters, they found themselves enslaved, because we had sinned against the Lord our God by not listening to his voice.

Bar 2:6 Saving justice is the Lord's; we and our ancestors have only the look of shame we bear today.

Bar 2:7 All those disasters which the Lord pronounced against us have now befallen us.

Bar 2:8 And yet we have not tried to win the favour of the Lord by each of us renouncing the dictates of our own wicked heart;

Bar 2:9 so the Lord has been alert to our misdeeds and has brought disaster down on us, since the Lord is upright in everything he had commanded us to do,

Bar 2:10 and we have not listened to his voice so as to follow the commandments which the Lord had ordained for us.

Bar 2:11 And now, Lord, God of Israel, who brought your people out of Egypt with a mighty hand, with signs and wonders, with great power and with outstretched arm, to win yourself a name such as you have today,

Bar 2:12 we have sinned, we have committed sacrilege; Lord our God, we have broken all your precepts.

Bar 2:13 Let your anger turn from us since we are no more than a little remnant among the nations where you have dispersed us.

Bar 2:14 Listen, Lord, to our prayers and our entreaties; deliver us for your own sake and let us win the favour of the people who have deported us,

Bar 2:15 so that the whole world may know that you are the Lord our God, since Israel and his descendants bear your name.

Bar 2:16 Look down, Lord, from your holy dwelling-place and think of us, bow your ear and listen,

Bar 2:17 open your eyes, Lord, and look; the dead down in Sheol, whose breath has been taken from their bodies, are not the ones to give glory and due recognition to the Lord;

Bar 2:18 whoever is overcome with affliction, who goes along bowed down and frail, with failing eyes and hungering soul, that is the one to give you glory and due recognition, Lord.

Bar 2:19 We do not rely on the merits of our ancestors and of our kings to offer you our humble plea, Lord our God.

Bar 2:20 No, you have sent down your anger and your fury on us, as you threatened through your servants the prophets when they said,

Bar 2:21 'The Lord says this: Bend your necks and serve the king of Babylon, and you will remain in the country which I gave to your ancestors.

Bar 2:22 But if you do not listen to the voice of the Lord and serve the king of Babylon

Bar 2:23 then I shall silence the shouts of rejoicing and mirth and the voices of bridegroom and bride in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem, and the whole country will be reduced to desert, with no inhabitants.'

Bar 2:24 But we would not listen to your voice and serve the king of Babylon, and so you carried out what you had threatened through your servants the prophets: that the bones of our kings and of our ancestors would be dragged from their resting places.

Bar 2:25 They were indeed tossed out to the heat of the day and the frost of the night. And people died in dreadful agony, from famine, sword and plague.

Bar 2:26 And so, because of the wickedness of the House of Israel and the House of Judah, you have made this House, that bears your name, what it is today.

Bar 2:27 And yet, Lord our God, you have treated us in a way worthy of all your goodness and boundless tenderness,

Bar 2:28 just as you had promised through your servant Moses, the day you told him to write your Law in the presence of the Israelites, and said,

Bar 2:29 'If you do not listen to my voice, this great and innumerable multitude will certainly be reduced to a tiny few among the nations where I shall scatter them-

Bar 2:30 for I knew that, being an obstinate people, they would not listen to me. But in the country of their exile, they will come to themselves

Bar 2:31 and acknowledge that I am the Lord their God. I shall give them a heart and an attentive ear,

Bar 2:32 and they will sing my praises in the country of their exile, they will remember my name;

Bar 2:33 they will stop being obstinate and, remembering what became of their ancestors who sinned before the Lord, will turn from their evil deeds.

Bar 2:34 Then I shall bring them back to the country which I promised on oath to their ancestors Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and make them masters in it. I shall make their numbers grow; they will not dwindle again.

Bar 2:35 And I shall make an everlasting covenant with them; so that I am their God and they are my people. And never again shall I drive my people Israel out of the country which I have given them.'

Bar 3:1 Almighty Lord, God of Israel, a soul in anguish, a troubled heart now cries to you:

Bar 3:2 Listen and have pity, Lord, for we have sinned before you.

Bar 3:3 You sit enthroned for ever, while we are perishing for ever.

Bar 3:4 Almighty Lord, God of Israel, hear the prayer of the dead of Israel, of the children of those who have sinned against you and have not listened to the voice of the Lord their God; hence the disasters which dog us.

Bar 3:5 Do not call to mind the misdeeds of our ancestors, but remember instead your power and your name.

Bar 3:6 You are indeed the Lord our God and we will praise you, Lord,

Bar 3:7 since you have put respect for you in our hearts to encourage us to call on your name. We long to praise you in our exile, for we have rid our hearts of the wickedness of our ancestors who sinned against you.

Bar 3:8 Look, today we are still in exile where you have scattered us as something contemptible, accursed, condemned, for all the misdeeds of our ancestors who had abandoned the Lord our God.

Bar 3:9 Listen, Israel, to commands that bring life; hear, and learn what knowledge means.

Bar 3:10 Why, Israel, why are you in the country of your enemies, growing older and older in an alien land,

Bar 3:11 defiling yourselves with the dead, reckoned with those who go to Sheol?

Bar 3:12 It is because you have forsaken the fountain of wisdom!

Bar 3:13 Had you walked in the way of God, you would be living in peace for ever.

Bar 3:14 Learn where knowledge is, where strength, where understanding, and so learn where length of days is, where life, where the light of the eyes and where peace.

Bar 3:15 But who has found out where she lives, who has entered her treasure house?

Bar 3:16 Where now are the leaders of the nations and those who ruled even the beasts of earth,

Bar 3:17 those who sported with the birds of heaven, those who accumulated silver and gold on which all people rely, and whose possessions had no end,

Bar 3:18 those who worked so carefully in silver -but of whose works no trace is to be found?

Bar 3:19 They have vanished, gone down to Sheol. Others have risen to their places,

Bar 3:20 more recent generations have seen the day and peopled the earth in their turn, but the way of knowledge they have not found;

Bar 3:21 they have not recognised the paths she treads. Nor have their children had any grasp of her, remaining far from her way.

Bar 3:22 Nothing has been heard of her in Canaan, nothing has been seen of her in Teman;

Bar 3:23 the children of Hagar in search of worldly wisdom, the merchants of Midian and Teman, the tale-spinners and the philosophers have none of them found the way to wisdom or remembered the paths she treads.

Bar 3:24 How great, Israel, is the house of God, how wide his domain,

Bar 3:25 immeasurably wide, infinitely lofty!

Bar 3:26 In it were born the giants, famous from the beginning, immensely tall, expert in war;

Bar 3:27 God's choice did not fall on these, he did not show them the way of knowledge;

Bar 3:28 they perished for lack of wisdom, perished by their own folly.

Bar 3:29 Who has ever climbed the sky and seized her to bring her down from the clouds?

Bar 3:30 Who has ever crossed the ocean and found her to bring her back in exchange for the finest gold?

Bar 3:31 No one can learn the way to her, no one can understand the path she treads.

Bar 3:32 But the One who knows all discovers her, he has grasped her with his own intellect, he has set the earth firm for evermore and filled it with four-footed beasts,

Bar 3:33 he sends the light—and it goes, he recalls it—and trembling it obeys;

Bar 3:34 the stars shine joyfully at their posts;

Bar 3:35 when he calls them, they answer, 'Here we are'; they shine to delight their Creator.

Bar 3:36 It is he who is our God, no other can compare with him.

Bar 3:37 He has uncovered the whole way of knowledge and shown it to his servant Jacob, to Israel his well-beloved;

Bar 3:38 only then did she appear on earth and live among human beings.

Bar 4:1 She is the book of God's commandments, the Law that stands for ever; those who keep her shall live, those who desert her shall die.

Bar 4:2 Turn back, Jacob, seize her, in her radiance make your way to light:

Bar 4:3 do not yield your glory to another, your privilege to a people not your own.

Bar 4:4 Israel, blessed are we: what pleases God has been revealed to us!

Bar 4:5 Take courage, my people, memorial of Israel!

Bar 4:6 You were sold to the nations, but not for extermination. You provoked God; and so were delivered to your enemies,

Bar 4:7 since you had angered your Creator by offering sacrifices to demons, and not to God.

Bar 4:8 You had forgotten the eternal God who reared you. You had also grieved Jerusalem who nursed you,

Bar 4:9 for when she saw God's anger falling on you, she said: Listen, you neighbours of Zion: God has sent me great sorrow.

Bar 4:10 I have seen my sons and daughters taken into captivity, which the Eternal brought down on them.

Bar 4:11 I had reared them joyfully; in tears, in sorrow, I watched them go away.

Bar 4:12 Do not, any of you, exult over me, a widow, deserted by so many; I am bereaved because of the sins of my children, who turned away from the Law of God,

Bar 4:13 who did not want to know his precepts and would not follow the ways of his commandments or tread the paths of discipline as his justice directed.

Bar 4:14 Come here, neighbours of Zion! Remember my sons' and daughters' captivity, which the Eternal brought down on them.

Bar 4:15 How he brought a distant nation down on them, a ruthless nation speaking a foreign language, they showed neither respect for the aged, nor pity for the child;

Bar 4:16 they carried off the widow's cherished sons, they left her quite alone, bereft of her daughters.

Bar 4:17 For my part, how could I help you?

Bar 4:18 He who brought those disasters down on you, is the one to deliver you from your enemies' clutches.

Bar 4:19 Go, my children, go your way! I must stay bereft and lonely;

Bar 4:20 I have taken off the clothes of peace and put on the sackcloth of entreaty; all my life I shall cry to the Eternal.

Bar 4:21 Take courage, my children, call on God: he will deliver you from tyranny, from the clutches of your enemies;

Bar 4:22 for I look to the Eternal for your rescue, and joy has come to me from the Holy One at the mercy soon to reach you from your Saviour, the Eternal.

Bar 4:23 In sorrow and tears I watched you go away, but God will give you back to me in joy and gladness for ever.

Bar 4:24 As the neighbours of Zion have now witnessed your captivity, so will they soon see your rescue by God, which will come upon you with great glory and splendour of the Eternal.

Bar 4:25 My children, patiently bear the anger brought on you by God. Your enemy has persecuted you, but soon you will witness his destruction and set your foot on his neck.

Bar 4:26 My favourite children have travelled by rough roads, carried off like a flock by a marauding enemy.

Bar 4:27 Take courage, my children, call on God: he who brought this on you will remember you.

Bar 4:28 As by your will you first strayed from God, so now turn back and search for him ten times harder;

Bar 4:29 for as he has been bringing down those disasters on you, so will he rescue you and give you eternal joy.

Bar 4:30 Take courage, Jerusalem: he who gave you your name will console you.

Bar 4:31 Disaster will come to all who have ill-treated you and gloated over your fall.

Bar 4:32 Disaster will come to the cities where your children were slaves; disaster to whichever one received your children,

Bar 4:33 for just as she rejoiced at your fall and was happy to see you ruined, so will she grieve over her own desolation.

Bar 4:34 I shall deprive her of the joy of a populous city, and her insolence will turn to mourning;

Bar 4:35 fire from the Eternal will befall her for many a day, and demons will dwell in her for ages.

Bar 4:36 Jerusalem, turn your eyes to the east, see the joy that is coming to you from God.

Bar 4:37 Look, the children you watched go away are on their way home; reassembled from east and west, they are on their way home at the Holy One’s command, rejoicing in God’s glory.

Bar 5:1 Jerusalem, take off your dress of sorrow and distress, put on the beauty of God’s glory for evermore,

Bar 5:2 wrap the cloak of God’s saving justice around you, put the diadem of the Eternal One’s glory on your head,

Bar 5:3 for God means to show your splendour to every nation under heaven,

Bar 5:4 and the name God gives you for evermore will be, ‘Peace-through-Justice, and Glory-through-Devotion’.

Bar 5:5 Arise, Jerusalem, stand on the heights and turn your eyes to the east: see your children reassembled from west and east at the Holy One's command, rejoicing because God has remembered.

Bar 5:6 Though they left you on foot driven by enemies, now God brings them back to you, carried gloriously, like a royal throne.

Bar 5:7 For God has decreed the flattening of each high mountain, of the everlasting hills, the filling of the valleys to make the ground level so that Israel can walk safely in God's glory.

Bar 5:8 And the forests and every fragrant tree will provide shade for Israel, at God's command;

Bar 5:9 for God will guide Israel in joy by the light of his glory, with the mercy and saving justice which come from him. A copy of the letter which Jeremiah sent to those about to be led captive to Babylon by the king of the Babylonians, to tell them what he had been commanded by God:

Bar 6:1 'Because of the sins which you have committed before God you are to be deported to Babylon by Nebuchadnezzar king of the Babylonians.

Bar 6:2 Once you have reached Babylon you will stay there for many years, as long as seven generations; after which I shall bring you home in peace.

Bar 6:3 Now in Babylon you will see gods made of silver, of gold, of wood, being carried shoulder-high, and filling the gentiles with fear.

Bar 6:4 Be on your guard! Do not imitate the foreigners, do not have any fear of their gods

Bar 6:5 as you see their worshippers prostrating themselves before and behind them. Instead, say in your hearts, "Master, it is you that we must worship."

Bar 6:6 For my angel is with you; your lives will be in his care.

Bar 6:7 'Overlaid with gold and silver, their tongues polished smooth by a craftsman, they are counterfeit and have no power to speak.

Bar 6:8 As though for a girl fond of finery, these people take gold and make crowns for the heads of their gods.

Bar 6:9 And sometimes, the priests filch gold and silver from their gods to spend on themselves, even giving some of it to the prostitutes on the terrace.

Bar 6:10 They dress up these gods of silver, gold and wood, in clothes, like human beings; on their own they cannot protect themselves from either tarnish or woodworm;

Bar 6:11 when they have been dressed in purple cloaks, their faces have to be dusted, because of the temple dust which settles thick on them.

Bar 6:12 One holds a sceptre like the governor of a province, yet is powerless to put to death anyone who offends him;

Bar 6:13 another holds sword and mace in his right hand, yet is powerless to defend himself against war or thieves.

Bar 6:14 From this it is evident that they are not gods; do not be afraid of them.

Bar 6:15 'Just as a pot in common use becomes useless once it is broken, so are these gods enshrined inside their temples.

Bar 6:16 Their eyes are full of dust raised by the feet of those who enter.

Bar 6:17 Just as the doors are locked on all sides on someone who has offended a king and is under sentence of death, so the priests secure the temples of these gods with gates and bolts and bars for fear of burglary.

Bar 6:18 They light more lamps for them than they do for themselves, and the gods see none of them.

Bar 6:19 They are like one of the temple beams, which are said to be gnawed away from within; the termites creep out of the ground and eat them and their clothes too, and they feel nothing.

Bar 6:20 Their faces are blackened by the smoke that rises from the temple.

Bar 6:21 Bats, swallows, birds of every kind perch on their bodies and heads, and so do cats.

Bar 6:22 From this, you can see for yourselves that they are not gods; do not be afraid of them.

Bar 6:23 'The gold with which they are parading their futility before the world is supposed to make them look beautiful, but if someone does not rub off the tarnish, these gods will not be shining much on their own, and even while they were being cast, they felt nothing.

Bar 6:24 However much was paid for them, there is still no breath of life in them.

Bar 6:25 Being unable to walk, they have to be carried on men's shoulders, which shows how futile they are. It is humiliating for their worshippers, too, who have to stand them up again if they fall over.

Bar 6:26 Once they have been stood up, they cannot move on their own; if they tilt askew, they cannot right themselves; offerings made to them might as well be made to the dead.

Bar 6:27 Whatever is sacrificed to them, the priests re-sell and pocket the profit; while their wives salt down part of it, but give nothing to the poor or to the helpless. As to the sacrifices themselves, why, women during their periods and women in childbed are not afraid to touch them!

Bar 6:28 From all this you can tell that they are not gods; do not be afraid of them.

Bar 6:29 ‘Indeed, how can they even be called gods, when women do the offering to these gods of silver, gold and wood?

Bar 6:30 In their temples, the priests stay sitting down, their garments torn, heads and beard shaved and heads uncovered;

Bar 6:31 they roar and shriek before their gods as people do at funeral feasts.

Bar 6:32 The priests take robes from the gods to clothe their own wives and children.

Bar 6:33 Whether these gods are treated badly or well, they are incapable of paying back either treatment; as incapable too of making or unmaking kings,

Bar 6:34 equally incapable of distributing wealth or money. If anyone fails to honour a vow he has made to them, they cannot call him to account.

Bar 6:35 They can neither save anyone from death nor rescue the weak from the strong,

Bar 6:36 nor restore sight to the blind, nor save anyone in trouble,

Bar 6:37 nor take pity on a widow, nor be generous to an orphan.

Bar 6:38 These wooden gods overlaid with gold and silver are about as much use as rocks cut out of the mountain side. Their worshippers will be confounded!

Bar 6:39 So how can anyone think or say that they are gods?

Bar 6:40 ‘The Chaldaeans themselves do them no honour; if they find someone who is dumb and cannot speak, they present him to Bel, entreating him for the gift of speech, as though he could perceive it!

Bar 6:41 And they are incapable of drawing the conclusion and abandoning those gods—such is their lack of perception.

Bar 6:42 Women with strings round their waists sit in the streets, burning bran like incense;

Bar 6:43 when one of these has been picked up by a passer-by and been to bed with him, she then gloats over her neighbour for not having been thought as worthy as herself and for not having had her string broken.

Bar 6:44 Whatever is done for them is spurious. So how can anyone think or say that they are gods?

Bar 6:45 ‘Made by woodworkers and goldsmiths, they are only what those workmen decide to make them.

Bar 6:46 Their makers have not long to live themselves, so how can the things they make be gods?

Bar 6:47 Their legacy to their descendants is nothing but delusion and dishonour.

Bar 6:48 If war or disasters befall them, the priests discuss where best to hide themselves and these gods;

Bar 6:49 how can anyone fail to realise that they are not gods, if they cannot save themselves from war or from disasters?

Bar 6:50 And since they are only made of wood overlaid with gold or silver, it will later become apparent that they are spurious; it will be obvious to everyone, to nations as to kings, that they are not gods but the work of human hands, and that there is no divine activity in them.

Bar 6:51 Does anyone still need convincing that they are not gods?

Bar 6:52 'They can neither appoint a king over a country, nor give rain to humankind,

Bar 6:53 nor regulate their own affairs, nor rescue anyone who suffers a wrong; they are as helpless as crows between sky and ground.

Bar 6:54 If fire falls on the temple of these wooden gods overlaid with gold or silver, their priests fly to safety while they for their part stay there like beams, to be burnt.

Bar 6:55 They cannot put up any resistance to a king or to enemies.

Bar 6:56 So how can anyone think or say that they are gods?

Bar 6:57 'These wooden gods overlaid with gold or silver cannot evade thieves or marauders; strong men may rob them of their gold and silver and make off with the robes they are dressed in; yet they are powerless to help even themselves.

Bar 6:58 Better to be a king displaying his prowess, a household pot of use to its owner, than to be these counterfeit gods; or merely the door of a house, protecting what is inside, than these counterfeit gods; or a wooden pillar in a palace than these counterfeit gods.

Bar 6:59 The sun, the moon and the stars, which shine and have been given work to do, are obedient;

Bar 6:60 similarly, the lightning, as it flashes, is a fine sight; in the same way, the wind blows across every country,

Bar 6:61 the clouds execute the order God gives them to pass over the whole earth, and the fire, sent from above to consume mountain and forest, carries out its orders.

Bar 6:62 Now these gods are not their equals, either in beauty or in power.

Bar 6:63 So, no one can think or say that they are gods, powerless as they are to administer justice or to do anyone any good.

Bar 6:64 Therefore, knowing that they are not gods, do not be afraid of them.

Bar 6:65 'For they can neither curse nor bless kings, Bar 6:66 nor produce signs in heaven for the nations, nor shine like the sun, nor shed light like the moon.

Bar 6:67 The animals are better off than they are, being able to look after themselves by making for cover.

Bar 6:68 There is not the slightest shred of evidence that they are gods; so do not be afraid of them!

Bar 6:69 'Their wooden gods overlaid with gold and silver are like a scarecrow in a field of cucumbers—protecting nothing.

Bar 6:70 Or again, their wooden gods overlaid with gold and silver are like a thorn-bush in a garden—any kind of bird may perch on it—or like a corpse thrown out into the dark.

Bar 6:71 From the purple and linen rotting on their backs you can tell that they are not gods; and in the end, eaten away, they will be the dishonour of the country.

Bar 6:72 Better, then, someone upright who has no idols; dishonour will never come near him.'

Ezekiel

1:1 In the thirtieth year, on the fifth day of the fourth month, as I was among the exiles by the River Chebar, heaven opened and I saw visions from God.

Ezekiel 1:2 On the fifth of the month—it was the fifth year of exile for King Jehoiachin-

Ezekiel 1:3 the word of Yahweh was addressed to the priest Ezekiel son of Buzi, in Chaldaea by the River Chebar. There the hand of Yahweh came on him.

Ezekiel 1:4 I looked; a stormy wind blew from the north, a great cloud with flashing fire and brilliant light round it, and in the middle, in the heart of the fire, a brilliance like that of amber,

Ezekiel 1:5 and in the middle what seemed to be four living creatures. They looked like this: They were of human form.

Ezekiel 1:6 Each had four faces, each had four wings.

Ezekiel 1:7 Their legs were straight; they had hooves like calves, glittering like polished brass.

Ezekiel 1:8 Below their wings, they had human hands on all four sides corresponding to their four faces and four wings.

Ezekiel 1:9 They touched one another with their wings; they did not turn as they moved; each one moved straight forward.

Ezekiel 1:10 As to the appearance of their faces, all four had a human face, and a lion's face to the right, and all four had a bull's face to the left, and all four had an eagle's face.

Ezekiel 1:11 Their wings were spread upwards, each had one pair touching its neighbour's, and the other pair covering its body.

Ezekiel 1:12 And each one moved straight forward; they went where the spirit urged them, they did not turn as they moved.

Ezekiel 1:13 Between these living creatures were what looked like blazing coals, like torches, darting backwards and forwards between the living creatures; the fire gave a brilliant light, and lightning flashed from the fire,

Ezekiel 1:14 and the living creatures kept disappearing and reappearing like flashes of lightning.

Ezekiel 1:15 Now, as I looked at the living creatures, I saw a wheel touching the ground beside each of the four-faced living creatures.

Ezekiel 1:16 The appearance and structure of the wheels were like glittering chrysolite. All four looked alike, and their appearance and structure were such that each wheel seemed to have another wheel inside it.

Ezekiel 1:17 In whichever of the four directions they moved, they did not need to turn as they moved.

Ezekiel 1:18 Their circumference was of awe-inspiring size, and the rims of all four sparkled all the way round.

Ezekiel 1:19 When the living creatures moved, the wheels moved beside them; and when the living creatures left the ground, the wheels too left the ground.

Ezekiel 1:20 They moved in whichever direction the spirit chose to go, and the wheels rose with them, since the wheels shared the spirit of the animals.

Ezekiel 1:21 When the living creatures moved on, they moved on; when the former halted, the latter halted; when the former left the ground, the wheels too left the ground, since the wheels shared the spirit of the animals.

Ezekiel 1:22 Over the heads of the living creatures was what looked like a solid surface glittering like crystal, spread out over their heads, above them,

Ezekiel 1:23 and under the solid surface, their wings were spread out straight, touching one another, and each had a pair covering its body.

Ezekiel 1:24 I also heard the noise of their wings; when they moved, it was like the noise of flood-waters, like the voice of Shaddai, like the noise of a storm, like the noise of an armed camp; and when they halted, they lowered their wings;

Ezekiel 1:25 there was a noise too.

Ezekiel 1:26 Beyond the solid surface above their heads, there was what seemed like a sapphire, in the form of a throne. High above on the form of a throne was a form with the appearance of a human being.

Ezekiel 1:27 I saw a brilliance like amber, like fire, radiating from what appeared to be the waist upwards; and from what appeared to be the waist downwards, I saw what looked like fire, giving a brilliant light all round.

Ezekiel 1:28 The radiance of the encircling light was like the radiance of the bow in the clouds on rainy days. The sight was like the glory of Yahweh. I looked and fell to the ground, and I heard the voice of someone speaking to me.

Ezekiel 2:1 He said, 'Son of man, get to your feet; I will speak to you.'

Ezekiel 2:2 As he said these words the spirit came into me and put me on my feet, and I heard him speaking to me.

Ezekiel 2:3 He said, 'Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, to the rebels who have rebelled against me. They and their ancestors have been in revolt against me up to the present day.

Ezekiel 2:4 Because they are stubborn and obstinate children, I am sending you to them, to say, "Lord Yahweh says this."

Ezekiel 2:5 Whether they listen or not, this tribe of rebels will know there is a prophet among them.

Ezekiel 2:6 And you, son of man, do not be afraid of them or of what they say, though you find yourself surrounded with brambles and sitting on scorpions. Do not be afraid of their words or alarmed by their looks, for they are a tribe of rebels.

Ezekiel 2:7 You are to deliver my words to them whether they listen or not, for they are a tribe of rebels.

Ezekiel 2:8 But you, son of man, are to listen to what I say to you; do not be a rebel like that rebellious tribe. Open your mouth and eat what I am about to give you.'

Ezekiel 2:9 When I looked, there was a hand stretch- ing out to me, holding a scroll.

Ezekiel 2:10 He un- rolled it in front of me; it was written on, front and back; on it was written 'Lamentations, dirges and cries of grief '.

Ezekiel 3:1 He then said, 'Son of man, eat what you see; eat this scroll, then go and speak to the House of Israel.'

Ezekiel 3:2 I opened my mouth; he gave me the scroll to eat

Ezekiel 3:3 and then said, 'Son of man, feed on this scroll which I am giving you and eat your fill.' So I ate it, and it tasted sweet as honey.

Ezekiel 3:4 He then said, 'Son of man, go to the House of Israel and tell them what I have said.

Ezekiel 3:5 You are not being sent to a nation that speaks a difficult foreign language; you are being sent to the House of Israel.

Ezekiel 3:6 Not to big nations that speak difficult foreign languages, and whose words you would not understand—if I sent you to them, they would listen to you;

Ezekiel 3:7 but the House of Israel will not listen to you because it will not listen to me. The whole House of Israel is defiant and obstinate.

Ezekiel 3:8 But now, I am making you as defiant as they are, and as obstinate as they are;

Ezekiel 3:9 I am making your resolution as hard as a diamond, harder than flint. So do not be afraid of them, do not be overawed by them, for they are a tribe of rebels.'

Ezekiel 3:10 Then he said, 'Son of man, take to heart everything I say to you, listen carefully,

Ezekiel 3:11 then go to your exiled countrymen and talk to them. Say to them, "Lord Yahweh says this," whether they listen or not.'

Ezekiel 3:12 The spirit lifted me up, and behind me I heard a great vibrating sound, 'Blessed be the glory of Yahweh in his dwelling-place!'

Ezekiel 3:13 This was the sound of the living creatures' wings beating against each other, and the sound of the wheels beside them: a great vibrating sound.

Ezekiel 3:14 The spirit lifted me up and took me, and I went, bitter and angry, and the hand of Yahweh lay heavy on me.

Ezekiel 3:15 I came to Tel Abib, to the exiles beside the River Chebar where they were living, and there I stayed with them in a stupor for seven days.

Ezekiel 3:16 After seven days the word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 3:17 'Son of man, I have appointed you as watchman for the House of Israel. When you hear a word from my mouth, warn them from me.

Ezekiel 3:18 If I say to someone wicked, "You will die," and you do not warn this person; if you do not speak to warn someone wicked to renounce evil and so save his life, it is the wicked person who will die for the guilt, but I shall hold you responsible for that death.

Ezekiel 3:19 If, however, you do warn someone wicked who then fails to renounce wickedness and evil ways, the wicked person will die for the guilt, but you yourself will have saved your life.

Ezekiel 3:20 When someone upright renounces uprightness to do evil and I set a trap for him, it is he who will die; since you failed to warn him, he will die for his guilt, and the uprightness he practised will no longer be remembered; but I shall hold you responsible for his death.

Ezekiel 3:21 If, however, you warn someone upright not to sin and this person does not sin, such a one will live, thanks to your warning, and you too will have saved your life.'

Ezekiel 3:22 While I was there the hand of Yahweh came on me; he said, ‘Get up, go out into the valley, and there I shall speak to you.’

Ezekiel 3:23 I got up and went out into the valley; the glory of Yahweh was resting there, like the glory I had seen by the River Chebar, and I fell to the ground.

Ezekiel 3:24 The spirit of Yahweh then entered me and put me on my feet and spoke to me. He said, ‘Go and shut yourself in your house.

Ezekiel 3:25 Son of man, you are about to be tied and bound, and unable to mix with other people.

Ezekiel 3:26 I am going to make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth; you will be dumb, and no longer able to reprove them, for they are a tribe of rebels.

Ezekiel 3:27 When I speak to you, however, I shall open your mouth and then you will say to them, “Lord Yahweh says this: Let anyone prepared to listen, listen; let anyone who refuses, refuse!”-for they are a tribe of rebels.’

Ezekiel 4:1 ‘For your part, son of man, take a brick and lay it in front of you; on it scratch a city, Jerusalem.

Ezekiel 4:2 You are then to besiege it, trench round it, build earthworks, pitch camps and bring up battering-rams all round.

Ezekiel 4:3 Then take an iron pan and place it as though it were an iron wall between you and the city. Then fix your gaze on it; it is being besieged and you are besieging it. This is a sign for the House of Israel.

Ezekiel 4:4 ‘Lie down on your left side and take the guilt of the House of Israel on yourself. You will bear their guilt for as many days as you lie on that side.

Ezekiel 4:5 Allowing one day for every year of their guilt, I ordain that you bear it for three hundred and ninety days; this is how you will bear the House of Israel’s guilt.

Ezekiel 4:6 And when you have finished doing this, you are to lie down again, on your right side, and bear the guilt of the House of Judah for forty days. I have set the length for you as one day for one year.

Ezekiel 4:7 Then fix your gaze on the siege of Jerusalem, raise your bared arm and prophesy against her.

Ezekiel 4:8 Look, I am going to tie you up and you will not be able to turn over from one side to the other until the period of your seclusion is over.

Ezekiel 4:9 ‘Now take wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet and spelt; put them all in the same pot and make them into bread for yourself. You are to eat it for as many days as you are lying on your side—three hundred and ninety days.

Ezekiel 4:10 Of this food, you are to weigh out a daily portion of twenty shekels and eat it a little piece at a time.

Ezekiel 4:11 And you are to ration the water you drink—a sixth of a hin—drinking that a little at a time.

Ezekiel 4:12 You are to eat this in the form of a barley cake baked where they can see you, on human dung.’

Ezekiel 4:13 And Yahweh said, ‘This is how the Israelites will have to eat their defiled food, wherever I disperse them among the nations.’

Ezekiel 4:14 I then said, ‘Lord Yahweh, my soul is not defiled. From my childhood until now, I have never eaten an animal that has died a natural death or been savaged; no tainted meat has ever entered my mouth.’

Ezekiel 4:15 ‘Very well,’ he said, ‘I grant you cow-dung instead of human dung; you are to bake your bread on that.’

Ezekiel 4:16 He then said, ‘Son of man, I am going to cut off Jerusalem’s food supply; in their extremity, the food they eat will be weighed out; to their horror, the water they drink will be rationed,

Ezekiel 4:17 until there is no food or water left, and they fall into a stupor and waste away because of their guilt.’

Ezekiel 5:1 ‘Son of man, take a sharp sword, use it like a barber’s razor and run it over your head and beard. Then take scales and divide the hair you have cut off.

Ezekiel 5:2 Burn one-third inside the city, while the days of the siege are working themselves out. Then take another third and chop it up with the sword all round the city. The last third you are to scatter to the wind, while I unsheathe the sword behind them.

Ezekiel 5:3 Also take a few hairs and tie them up in the folds of your cloak;

Ezekiel 5:4 and of these again take a few, and throw them on the fire and burn them. From them fire will come on the whole House of Israel.

Ezekiel 5:5 ‘The Lord Yahweh says this, “This is Jerusalem, which I have placed in the middle of the nations, surrounded with foreign countries.

Ezekiel 5:6 She has rebelled more perversely against my observances than the nations have, and against my laws than the surrounding countries have; for they have rejected my observances and not kept my laws.”

Ezekiel 5:7 ‘Therefore, the Lord Yahweh says this, “Because your disorders are worse than those of the nations round you, since you do not keep my laws or respect my observances, and since you do not respect even the observances of the surrounding nations,

Ezekiel 5:8 very well, the Lord Yahweh says this: I, too, am against you and shall execute my judgements on you for the nations to see.

Ezekiel 5:9 Because of all your loathsome practices I shall do such things as I have never done before, nor shall ever do again.

Ezekiel 5:10 Those of you who are parents will eat their children, and children will eat their parents. I shall execute judgement on you and disperse what remains of you to the winds.

Ezekiel 5:11 For, as I live—declares Lord Yahweh—as sure as you have defiled my sanctuary with all your horrors and all your loathsome practices, so I too shall reject you without a glance of pity, I shall not spare you.

Ezekiel 5:12 A third of your citizens will die of plague or starve to death inside you; a third will fall by the sword round you; and a third I shall scatter to the winds, unsheathing the sword behind them.

Ezekiel 5:13 I shall sate my anger and bring my fury to rest on them until I am avenged; and when I have sated my fury on them, then they will know that I, Yahweh, spoke out of jealousy for you.

Ezekiel 5:14 Yes, I shall reduce you to a ruin, an object of derision to the surrounding nations, in the eyes of all who pass by.

Ezekiel 5:15 You will be an object of derision and insults, an example, an object of amazement to the surrounding nations, when I execute judgement on you in furious anger and furious punishments. I, Yahweh, have spoken.

Ezekiel 5:16 On them I shall send the deadly arrows of famine, which will destroy you—for I shall send them to destroy you; then I shall make the famine worse and cut off your food supply.

Ezekiel 5:17 I shall send famine and wild animals on you to rob you of your children; plague and bloodshed will sweep through you, and I shall bring the sword down on you. I, Yahweh, have spoken." '

Ezekiel 6:1 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 6:2 'Son of man, turn towards the mountains of Israel and prophesy against them.

Ezekiel 6:3 Say, "Mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord Yahweh. The Lord Yahweh says this to mountains and hills and ravines and valleys: Look, I am going to summon the sword against you and destroy your high places.

Ezekiel 6:4 Your altars will be wrecked, and your incense burners smashed; I shall fling your butchered inhabitants down in front of your foul idols;

Ezekiel 6:5 I shall lay the corpses of the Israelites in front of their foul idols and scatter their bones all round your altars.

Ezekiel 6:6 Wherever you live, the towns will be destroyed and the high places wrecked, to the ruin and wrecking of your altars, the shattering and abolition of your foul idols, the smashing of your incense burners and the utter destruction of all your works.

Ezekiel 6:7 As the butchered fall about you, you will know that I am Yahweh.

Ezekiel 6:8 "But I shall spare some of you to escape the sword among the nations, when you have been dispersed in their lands;

Ezekiel 6:9 and your survivors will remember me among the nations where they are held captive, since I shall have broken their adulterous hearts for having deserted me, and destroyed their eyes for having turned adulterously towards their foul idols. They will loathe themselves for all the wrong they have caused by their loathsome practices.

Ezekiel 6:10 Then they will know that I am Yahweh and that I was not talking lightly when I said that I would inflict these disasters on them."

Ezekiel 6:11 'The Lord Yahweh says this, "Clap your hands, stamp your feet, and say: Alas for all the loathsome sins of the House of Israel, which is about to fall by sword, famine and plague!

Ezekiel 6:12 Far off, they will die by plague; near at hand they will fall by the sword; and any who survive or are spared will die of famine. This is how I shall sate my fury on them.

Ezekiel 6:13 Then you will know that I am Yahweh, when their butchered corpses lie among their foul idols, all round their altars, on every high hill, on every mountain top, under every green tree, under every leafy oak, wherever they offer a smell pleasing to all their idols.

Ezekiel 6:14 I shall point my finger at them and reduce the country to an empty wasteland from the desert to Riblah, everywhere they live, and they will know that I am Yahweh." '

Ezekiel 7:1 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 7:2 'Son of man, say, "Lord Yahweh says this to the land of Israel: Finished! The end is coming for the four corners of the country.

Ezekiel 7:3 This is the end for you; I shall unleash my anger on you, and judge you as your conduct deserves and call you to account for all your loathsome practices.

Ezekiel 7:4 I shall show you no pity, I shall not spare you; I shall repay you for your conduct and for the loathsome practices in which you persist. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.

Ezekiel 7:5 "The Lord Yahweh says this: Disaster, a unique disaster, is coming.

Ezekiel 7:6 The end is coming, the end is coming, it is on the move towards you, it is coming now.

Ezekiel 7:7 Now it is your turn, you who dwell in this country. Doom is coming, the day is near; no joy now, only tumult, on the mountains.

Ezekiel 7:8 Now I shall soon vent my fury on you and sate my anger on you: I shall judge you as your conduct deserves and repay you for all your loathsome practices.

Ezekiel 7:9 I shall show neither pity nor mercy, but shall repay you for your conduct and the loathsome practices in which you persist. Then you will know that I am Yahweh and that I strike.

Ezekiel 7:10 “Now is the day, your turn has come, it has come, it appears, the sceptre has blossomed, pride is at its peak.

Ezekiel 7:11 Violence has risen to become the scourge of wickedness . . .

Ezekiel 7:12 Doom is coming, the day is near. Neither should buyer rejoice, nor seller regret, for the fury rests on everyone alike.

Ezekiel 7:13 The seller will not be able to go back on his bargain; each persists in his sins; they take no defensive measures.

Ezekiel 7:14 The trumpet sounds, all is ready, but no one goes into battle, since my fury rests on all alike.

Ezekiel 7:15 “Outside, the sword; inside, plague and famine. Whoever is living in the countryside will die by the sword; whoever is living in the city will be devoured by famine and plague.

Ezekiel 7:16 And those who escape will escape to the mountains and there, like doves of the valleys, I shall slaughter them all, each one for his sin.

Ezekiel 7:17 Every hand will grow limp, every knee turn to water.

Ezekiel 7:18 They will put on sackcloth, each one trembling. Every face will be ashamed and every head be shaved.

Ezekiel 7:19 They will throw their silver away in the streets and their gold they will regard as a pollution; neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them on the day of Yahweh’s fury. Never again will they have enough to eat, never again will they fill their bellies, since that was the occasion for their guilt.

Ezekiel 7:20 They used to pride themselves on the beauty of their jewellery, out of which they made their loathsome images, their horrors; so now I have made it pollute them.

Ezekiel 7:21 I shall hand it over as plunder to foreigners, as loot to the most evil people on earth. They will profane it.

Ezekiel 7:22 I shall turn my face away from them, while my treasure-house is profaned and robbers will force their way in and profane it.

Ezekiel 7:23 “Forge yourself a chain; for the country is full of bloody executions and the city full of deeds of violence,

Ezekiel 7:24 so I shall bring the cruellest of the nations to seize their houses. I shall put an end to the pride of their e’lite, and their sanctuary will be profaned.

Ezekiel 7:25 Terror is on the way: they will look for peace and there will be none.

Ezekiel 7:26 Disaster will follow on disaster, rumour on rumour; they will pester the prophet for a vision; the priest will be at a loss over the law and the elders on how to advise.

Ezekiel 7:27 The king will go into mourning, the prince be plunged in grief, the hands of the country people tremble. I shall treat them as their conduct deserves, and judge them as their own verdicts merit. Then they will know that I am Yahweh!" '

Ezekiel 8:1 In the sixth year, on the fifth day of the sixth month, I was sitting at home and the elders of Judah were sitting with me, when suddenly the hand of the Lord Yahweh fell on me there.

Ezekiel 8:2 I looked, and there was a form with the appearance of a human being. Downwards from what seemed to be the waist there was fire; and upwards from the waist there was a brilliance like the glitter of amber.

Ezekiel 8:3 Something like a hand was stretched out and it took me by a lock of my hair; and the spirit lifted me between heaven and earth and, in visions from God, took me to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the inner north gate, where stands the idol that provokes jealousy.

Ezekiel 8:4 There was the glory of the God of Israel; it looked like what I had seen in the valley.

Ezekiel 8:5 He said, 'Son of man, raise your eyes to the north.' I raised my eyes to the north, and there, to the north of the altar gate, stood this statue of jealousy at the entrance.

Ezekiel 8:6 He said, 'Son of man, do you see what they are doing, the monstrous, loathsome things that the House of Israel is practising here, to drive me out of my sanctuary? And you will see practices more loathsome still.'

Ezekiel 8:7 He next took me to the entrance to the court. I looked; there was a hole in the wall.

Ezekiel 8:8 He said, 'Son of man, bore through the wall.' I bored through the wall, until I had made an opening.

Ezekiel 8:9 He said, 'Go in and look at the loathsome things they are doing inside.'

Ezekiel 8:10 I went in and looked and there was every kind of reptile and repulsive animal, and all the foul idols of the House of Israel, carved all round the walls.

Ezekiel 8:11 Seventy elders of the House of Israel were worshipping the idols—among them Jaazaniah son of Shaphan—each one with his censer in his hand, from which rose a fragrant cloud of incense.

Ezekiel 8:12 He said, 'Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the House of Israel do in the dark, each in his personal image-shrine? They say, "Yahweh cannot see us; Yahweh has abandoned the country." '

Ezekiel 8:13 He said, 'You will see them at practices more loathsome still.’

Ezekiel 8:14 He next took me to the entrance of the north gate of the Temple of Yahweh where women were sitting, weeping for Tammuz.

Ezekiel 8:15 He said, ‘Son of man, do you see that? You will see even more loathsome things than that.’

Ezekiel 8:16 He then led me to the inner court of the Temple of Yahweh. And there, at the entrance to Yahweh’s sanctuary, between the portico and the altar, there were about twenty-five men, with their backs to Yahweh’s sanctuary and their faces turned towards the east. They were prostrating themselves to the east, before the rising sun.

Ezekiel 8:17 He said to me, ‘Son of man, do you see that? Is it not bad enough for the House of Judah to be doing the loathsome things they are doing here? But they fill the country with violence and provoke my anger further; look at them now putting that branch to their nostrils.

Ezekiel 8:18 And so I shall react in fury; I shall show neither pity nor mercy. They may cry as loudly as they like to me; I will not listen.’

Ezekiel 9:1 Then he shouted loudly for me to hear, ‘The scourges of the city are approaching, each carrying his weapon of destruction!’

Ezekiel 9:2 Immediately six men advanced from the upper north gate, each holding a deadly weapon. Among them was a man dressed in linen, with a scribe’s ink-horn in his belt. They came in and halted in front of the bronze altar.

Ezekiel 9:3 The glory of the God of Israel rose from above the winged creature where it had been, towards the threshold of the Temple. He called to the man dressed in linen with a scribe’s ink-horn in his belt

Ezekiel 9:4 and Yahweh said to him, ‘Go all through the city, all through Jerusalem, and mark a cross on the foreheads of all who grieve and lament over all the loathsome practices in it.’

Ezekiel 9:5 I heard him say to the others, ‘Follow him through the city and strike. Not one glance of pity; show no mercy;

Ezekiel 9:6 old men, young men, girls, children, women, kill and exterminate them all. But do not touch anyone with a cross on his forehead. Begin at my sanctuary.’ So they began with the old men who were in the Temple.

Ezekiel 9:7 He said to them, ‘Defile the Temple; fill the courts with corpses; then go out!’ They went out and hacked their way through the city.

Ezekiel 9:8 While they were hacking them down, I was left alone; I fell on my face, crying out, ‘Ah, Lord Yahweh, are you going to annihilate all that is left of Israel by venting your fury on Jerusalem?’

Ezekiel 9:9 He said, ‘The guilt of the House of Israel and Judah is immense; the country is full of bloodshed, the city full of perversity, for they say, “Yahweh has abandoned the country, Yahweh cannot see.”

Ezekiel 9:10 Then, I too shall neither give one glance of pity nor show any mercy. I shall repay them for what they have done.'

Ezekiel 9:11 The man dressed in linen with the scribe's ink-horn in his belt then came back and made his report, 'I have carried out your orders.'

Ezekiel 10:1 Then, in vision I saw that above the solid surface over the heads of the winged creatures there was above them something like sapphire, which seemed to be like a throne.

Ezekiel 10:2 He then said to the man dressed in linen, 'Go in between the wheels below the winged creatures; take a handful of burning coal from between the winged creatures and scatter it over the city.' He went in as I watched.

Ezekiel 10:3 The winged creatures were on the right of the Temple as the man went in, and the cloud filled the inner court.

Ezekiel 10:4 The glory of Yahweh rose from above the winged creatures, towards the threshold of the Temple; the Temple was filled by the cloud and the court was full of the brightness of the glory of Yahweh.

Ezekiel 10:5 The noise of the winged creatures' wings could be heard even in the outer court, like the voice of God Almighty when he speaks.

Ezekiel 10:6 When he had given the order to the man dressed in linen, 'Take the fire from between the wheels, between the winged creatures,' the man went in and stood by one of the wheels.

Ezekiel 10:7 One of the winged creatures then reached his hand out towards the fire between the winged creatures, took some of it and put it into the hands of the man dressed in linen, who took it and came out again.

Ezekiel 10:8 There appeared to be what looked like a human hand under the winged creatures' wings.

Ezekiel 10:9 And I looked, and there were four wheels beside the winged creatures, one wheel beside each winged creature, and the appearance of the wheels was like the sparkle of chrysolite.

Ezekiel 10:10 In appearance, all four looked alike, as though each wheel had another wheel inside it.

Ezekiel 10:11 In whichever of the four directions they moved, they did not need to turn as they moved, but whichever way the head was facing there they followed; they did not turn as they moved,

Ezekiel 10:12 and their entire bodies, their backs, their hands, their wings, as well as the wheels, had eyes all the way round (the wheels of all four).

Ezekiel 10:13 In my hearing, these wheels were called 'galgal'.

Ezekiel 10:14 Each had four faces; the first was a winged creature's face, the second a human face, the third a lion's face and the fourth an eagle’s face.

Ezekiel 10:15 The winged creatures rose; this was the being I had seen by the River Chebar.

Ezekiel 10:16 When the winged creatures moved, the wheels moved beside them; and when the winged creatures raised their wings to leave the ground, the wheels did not turn beside them.

Ezekiel 10:17 When the former halted the latter halted; when the former rose, the latter rose with them, since they shared the same living spirit.

Ezekiel 10:18 The glory of Yahweh then came out over the Temple threshold and paused over the winged creatures.

Ezekiel 10:19 These raised their wings and rose from the ground as I watched, and the wheels were beside them. They paused at the entrance to the east gate of the Temple of Yahweh, with the glory of the God of Israel over them, above.

Ezekiel 10:20 This was the winged creature I had seen beneath the God of Israel by the River Chebar; I knew that they were winged creatures.

Ezekiel 10:21 Each had four faces and four wings and what seemed to be human hands under their wings.

Ezekiel 10:22 Their faces were like those I had seen by the River Chebar. Each one moved straight forward.

Ezekiel 11:1 The spirit lifted me up and brought me to the east gate of the Temple of Yahweh, the gate that looks eastwards. There at the entrance to the gate stood twenty-five men, among whom I saw Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, leaders of the people.

Ezekiel 11:2 He said to me, ‘Son of man, these are the wicked schemers who are spreading their bad advice through this city.

Ezekiel 11:3 They say, “There will be no house-building yet awhile. The city is the cooking pot and we are the meat.”

Ezekiel 11:4 So prophesy against them, prophesy, son of man!’

Ezekiel 11:5 The spirit of Yahweh fell on me, and he said to me, ‘Say, “Yahweh says this: I know what you are saying, House of Israel, I know how insolent you are.

Ezekiel 11:6 You have filled this city with more and more of your victims; you have strewn its streets with victims.

Ezekiel 11:7 And so the Lord Yahweh says this: Your victims, whom you have put in it, are the meat, and the city is the cooking pot; but I shall take you out of it.

Ezekiel 11:8 You are afraid of the sword and I shall bring the sword down on you—declares the Lord Yahweh-

Ezekiel 11:9 and I shall take you out of it and hand you over to foreigners and bring you to justice;

Ezekiel 11:10 you will fall by the sword on the soil of Israel; I shall execute justice on you, and you will know that I am Yahweh.

Ezekiel 11:11 This city will be no cooking pot for you, nor will you be the meat inside; I shall execute justice on you on the soil of Israel;

Ezekiel 11:12 and you will know that I am Yahweh, whose laws you have not obeyed and whose judgements you have not kept; instead, you have adopted the customs of the nations round you.” ‘

Ezekiel 11:13 Now as I was prophesying, Pelatiah son of Benaiah dropped dead. I fell to the ground and cried out, ‘Ah, Lord Yahweh, are you going to annihilate the remnant of Israel?’

Ezekiel 11:14 The word of Yahweh was then addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 11:15 ‘Son of man, to your brothers one and all, to your kinsfolk and to the whole House of Israel, the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, “Keep well away from Yahweh. This country has now been made over to us!”

Ezekiel 11:16 So say, “The Lord Yahweh says this: Yes, I have sent them far away among the nations and I have dispersed them to foreign countries; and for a while I have been a sanctuary for them in the country to which they have gone.”

Ezekiel 11:17 So say, “The Lord Yahweh says this: I shall gather you back from the peoples, I shall collect you in from the countries where you have been scattered and give you the land of Israel.

Ezekiel 11:18 When they come back, they will purge it of all its horrors and loathsome practices.

Ezekiel 11:19 I shall give them a single heart and I shall put a new spirit in them; I shall remove the heart of stone from their bodies and give them a heart of flesh,

Ezekiel 11:20 so that they can keep my laws and respect my judgements and put them into practice. Then they will be my people and I shall be their God.

Ezekiel 11:21 But those whose hearts are set on their horrors and loathsome practices I shall repay for their conduct—declares the Lord Yahweh.” ‘

Ezekiel 11:22 The winged creatures then raised their wings and the wheels moved with them, with the glory of the God of Israel over them, above.

Ezekiel 11:23 And the glory of Yahweh rose from the centre of the city and halted on the mountain to the east of the city.

Ezekiel 11:24 Then the spirit lifted me up and took me, in vision, in the spirit of God, to the exiles in Chaldaea, and the vision which I had seen faded.

Ezekiel 11:25 I then told the exiles everything that Yahweh had shown me.

Ezekiel 12:1 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 12:2 ‘Son of man, you are living among a tribe of rebels who have eyes and never see, they have ears and never hear, because they are a tribe of rebels.

Ezekiel 12:3 So, son of man, pack an exile’s bundle and set off for exile by daylight while they watch. You will leave your home and go somewhere else while they watch. Then perhaps they will see that they are a tribe of rebels.

Ezekiel 12:4 You will pack your baggage like an exile’s bundle, by daylight, while they watch, and leave like an exile in the evening, while they watch.

Ezekiel 12:5 While they watch, make a hole in the wall, and go out through it.

Ezekiel 12:6 While they watch, you will shoulder your pack and go out into the dark; you will cover your face so that you cannot see the ground, since I have made you an omen for the House of Israel.’

Ezekiel 12:7 I did as I had been told. I packed my baggage like an exile’s bundle, by daylight; and in the evening I made a hole through the wall with my hands; then I went out into the dark and shouldered my pack while they watched.

Ezekiel 12:8 Next morning the word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 12:9 ‘Son of man, did not the House of Israel, did not that tribe of rebels, ask you, “What are you doing?”

Ezekiel 12:10 Say, “The Lord Yahweh says this: This prophecy concerns Jerusalem and the whole House of Israel who live there.”

Ezekiel 12:11 Say, “I am an omen for you; as I have done, so will be done to them; they will be deported into exile.

Ezekiel 12:12 Their prince will shoulder his pack in the dark and go out through the wall; a hole will be made to let him out; he will cover his face, so that he cannot see the country.

Ezekiel 12:13 I shall throw my net over him and catch him in my mesh; I shall take him to Babylon, to the land of the Chaldaeans, though he will not see it; and there he will die.

Ezekiel 12:14 And all those in attendance on him, his army and all his troops, I shall scatter to all the winds and unsheathe the sword behind them.

Ezekiel 12:15 Then they will know that I am Yahweh, when I scatter them throughout the nations and disperse them in foreign countries.

Ezekiel 12:16 But I shall let a few of them escape the sword, famine and plague, to describe all their loathsome practices to the peoples among whom they will go, so that these too may know that I am Yahweh." '

Ezekiel 12:17 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 12:18 'Son of man, you are to tremble as you eat your food and shudder apprehensively as you drink your water,

Ezekiel 12:19 and you are to say to the people of the country, "The Lord Yahweh says this to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. They will shudder apprehensively as they eat their food, and drink their water in fear, so that the country and its population may be freed from the violence of its inhabitants.

Ezekiel 12:20 When the populous cities have been destroyed and the country has been reduced to desert, then you will know that I am Yahweh." '

Ezekiel 12:21 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 12:22 'Son of man, what do you understand by the saying pronounced over the land of Israel, "Days go by and visions fade"?

Ezekiel 12:23 'Very well, tell them, "The Lord Yahweh says this: I shall put an end to this saying; it will never be used in Israel again." Instead, tell them: "The days are coming when every vision will come true,

Ezekiel 12:24 for there will be no more futile visions or deceptive prophecy in the House of Israel,

Ezekiel 12:25 since I, Yahweh, shall speak. And what I shall say will come true without delay; for what I shall say, I shall perform in your own lifetime, you tribe of rebels—declares the Lord Yahweh." '

Ezekiel 12:26 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 12:27 'Son of man, the House of Israel is now saying, "The vision that this man sees concerns the distant future; he is prophesying for times far ahead."

Ezekiel 12:28 Very well, tell them, "The Lord Yahweh says this: There will be no further delay in the fulfilling of any of my words. What I have said shall be done now—declares the Lord Yahweh." '

Ezekiel 13:1 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 13:2 'Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel; prophesy, and say to those who make up prophecies out of their own heads, "Hear what Yahweh says:

Ezekiel 13:3 The Lord Yahweh says this: Disaster is in store for the foolish prophets who follow their own spirit and have seen nothing!

Ezekiel 13:4 Your prophets, Israel, are like ruin-haunting jackals!

Ezekiel 13:5 “You have not ventured into the breach; you have not built up the wall round the House of Israel, to hold fast in battle on the Day of Yahweh.

Ezekiel 13:6 Theirs are futile visions and false predictions, who say: A prophecy from Yahweh, when Yahweh has not sent them; yet they expect their words to come true.

Ezekiel 13:7 Have not the visions you see been futile, have not the predictions you make been false, although you say: A prophecy of Yahweh, when I have not spoken?

Ezekiel 13:8 “Very well, the Lord Yahweh says this: Because of your futile words and false predictions, I am now against you—declares Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 13:9 My hand will be against the prophets who have futile visions and give false predictions; they will not be admitted to the council of my people, their names will not be entered in the roll of the House of Israel, they will not set foot on the soil of Israel; and they will know that I am the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 13:10 This is because they have misled my people by saying Peace! when there is no peace. When my people were repairing a wall, these men came and plastered it over!

Ezekiel 13:11 Tell these plasterers: It will rain hard, it will hail, it will blow a gale,

Ezekiel 13:12 and down will come the wall! Will not people ask you: What has become of the plaster you slapped on it?

Ezekiel 13:13 Well then, the Lord Yahweh says this: I am going to unleash a stormy wind in my fury, torrential rain in my anger, hailstones in my destructive fury,

Ezekiel 13:14 and I shall shatter the wall you plastered and knock it down and lay its foundations bare. It will fall and you will perish under it; then you will know that I am Yahweh.”

Ezekiel 13:15 ‘When I have sated my anger on the wall and those who plastered it, I shall say to you, “The wall is gone, and so are those who plastered over it,

Ezekiel 13:16 the prophets of Israel who prophesy about Jerusalem and have visions of peace for her when there is no peace—declares the Lord Yahweh.”

Ezekiel 13:17 ‘Also, son of man, turn to the women of your people who make up prophecies out of their own heads; prophesy against them.

Ezekiel 13:18 Say, “The Lord Yahweh says this: Disaster is in store for women who sew ribbons round each wrist and make head-cloths for people of all sizes, in their hunt for souls! Are you to hunt the souls of my people and keep your own souls safe?

Ezekiel 13:19 You dishonour me in front of my people for a few handfuls of barley, a few bits of bread, killing those who ought not to die and sparing those who ought not to live, lying to my people who love listening to lies.

Ezekiel 13:20 “Very well, the Lord Yahweh says this: Look, I am now against your ribbons, with which you hunt souls like birds, and I shall tear them off your arms and free those souls whom you hunt like birds.

Ezekiel 13:21 I shall tear your head-cloths to pieces and rescue my people from your clutches; no longer will they be fair game for you to ensnare. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.

Ezekiel 13:22 “For having intimidated with lies the heart of the upright whom I had done nothing to alarm, and for having encouraged the wicked not to give up wicked ways and so be saved,

Ezekiel 13:23 very well, you will have no more futile visions and make no more predictions, for I shall rescue my people from your clutches, and you will know that I am Yahweh.” ‘

Ezekiel 14:1 Next, some elders of Israel visited me and while they were sitting with me,

Ezekiel 14:2 the word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 14:3 ‘Son of man, these men have enshrined their foul idols in their hearts and placed the cause of their sinning right before their eyes. Why should I let myself be consulted by them?

Ezekiel 14:4 So speak to them; tell them this, “Lord Yahweh says this: Every member of the House of Israel who enshrines his foul idols in his heart and places the cause of his sinning right before his eyes, and who then approaches the prophet, will get this answer from me, Yahweh, as the multiplicity of his idols deserves, Ezekiel 14:5 and in this way I hope to win back the hearts of the House of Israel who have all been estranged from me by their foul idols.”

Ezekiel 14:6 ‘So say to the House of Israel, “The Lord Yahweh says this: Come back, turn away from your foul idols, turn your backs on all your loathsome practices;

Ezekiel 14:7 for if any member of the House of Israel—or any foreigner living in Israel—deserts me to enshrine his foul idols in his heart and places the cause of his sinning right before his eyes and then approaches a prophet to consult me through him, he will get his answer from me, Yahweh.

Ezekiel 14:8 I shall set my face against that person; I shall make him an example and a byword; I shall rid my people of him, and you will know that I am Yahweh.

Ezekiel 14:9 And if the prophet is seduced into saying something, I, Yahweh, shall have seduced that prophet; I shall point my finger at him and rid my people Israel of him.

Ezekiel 14:10 Both will be punished for their guilt; the prophet’s punishment will be the same as that of the person who consults him,

Ezekiel 14:11 so that the House of Israel will never stray from me again or defile themselves again with these crimes, but be my people and I their God—declares the Lord Yahweh." '

Ezekiel 14:12 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me:

Ezekiel 14:13 'Son of man, when a country sins against me by being unfaithful and I point my finger at it and destroy its supply of food, inflicting famine on it and denuding it of human and animal,

Ezekiel 14:14 even if the three men, Noah, Danel and Job, were living in it, they would save no one but themselves by their uprightness—declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 14:15 Were I to unleash wild beasts on that country to rob it of its children and reduce it to a desert which no one would dare to cross because of the animals,

Ezekiel 14:16 even if these three men were living there, as I live—declares the Lord Yahweh—they would not be able to save either son or daughter; they alone would be saved, and the country would become a desert.

Ezekiel 14:17 Were I to bring the sword down on that country and say, "Sword, cross the country!" so as to denude it of human and animal,

Ezekiel 14:18 even if these three men were living there, as I live—declares the Lord Yahweh—they would not be able to save either son or daughter; they alone would be saved.

Ezekiel 14:19 If I were to send the plague on that country and vent my fury on it by bloodshed, so as to denude it of human and animal,

Ezekiel 14:20 even if Noah and Danel and Job were living there, as I live—declares the Lord Yahweh—they would be able to save neither son nor daughter, only themselves by their uprightness.

Ezekiel 14:21 'The Lord Yahweh says this, "Even if I send my four dreadful scourges on Jerusalem-sword, famine, wild beasts and plague—to denude it of human and animal,

Ezekiel 14:22 even so, there will be a remnant left, a few men and women who come through; when they come to you and you see their conduct and actions, you will take comfort in spite of the disaster which I have brought on Jerusalem, in spite of all I have brought on her.

Ezekiel 14:23 They will comfort you, when you see their conduct and actions, and so you will know that I have not done in vain all I have done to her—declares the Lord Yahweh." '

Ezekiel 15:1 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows:

Ezekiel 15:2 Son of man, how is the wood of the vine better than wood from the branch of a forest tree?

Ezekiel 15:3 Is its wood used for making anything? Are pegs on which to hang things made from it?

Ezekiel 15:4 There it is, thrown on the fire for fuel. The fire burns off both ends; the middle is charred; can it be kept for anything now?

Ezekiel 15:5 While it was intact, you could make nothing with it; burned and charred, is it any more useful now?

Ezekiel 15:6 So, the Lord Yahweh says this: As the wood of the vine among the forest trees, which I have thrown on the fire for fuel, so shall I treat the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

Ezekiel 15:7 I shall set my face against them. They have escaped one fire, but fire will devour them yet. And you will know that I am Yahweh, when I set my face against them.

Ezekiel 15:8 I shall reduce the country to a desert, because of their infidelity- declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 16:1 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 16:2 'Son of man, confront Jerusalem with her loathsome practices!

Ezekiel 16:3 Say, "The Lord Yahweh says this: By origin and birth you belong to the land of Canaan. Your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite.

Ezekiel 16:4 At birth, the very day you were born, there was no one to cut your navel-string, or wash you in water to clean you, or rub you with salt, or wrap you in swaddling clothes.

Ezekiel 16:5 No one looked at you with pity enough to do any of these things out of sympathy for you. You were exposed in the open fields in your own dirt on the day you were born.

Ezekiel 16:6 "I saw you kicking on the ground in your blood as I was passing, and I said to you as you lay in your blood: Live!

Ezekiel 16:7 and I made you grow like the grass of the fields. You developed, you grew, you reached marriageable age. Your breasts became firm and your hair grew richly, but you were stark naked.

Ezekiel 16:8 Then I saw you as I was passing. Your time had come, the time for love. I spread my cloak over you and covered your nakedness; I gave you my oath, I made a covenant with you—declares the Lord Yahweh—and you became mine.

Ezekiel 16:9 I bathed you in water, I washed the blood off you, I anointed you with oil.

Ezekiel 16:10 I gave you embroidered dresses, fine leather shoes, a linen headband and a cloak of silk.

Ezekiel 16:11 I loaded you with jewels, gave you bracelets for your wrists and a necklace for your throat.

Ezekiel 16:12 I gave you nose-ring and earrings; I put a beautiful diadem on your head.

Ezekiel 16:13 You were loaded with gold and silver and dressed in linen and silk and brocade. Your food was the finest flour, honey and oil. You grew more and more beautiful; and you rose to be queen.

Ezekiel 16:14 The fame of your beauty spread through the nations, since it was perfect, because I had clothed you with my own splendour—declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 16:15 “But you became infatuated with your own beauty and used your fame to play the whore, lavishing your debauchery on all comers.

Ezekiel 16:16 You took some of your clothes to make for yourself high places bright with colours and there you played the whore.

Ezekiel 16:17 You also took your jewellery, made with my gold and silver which I had given you, and made yourself male images to serve your whorings.

Ezekiel 16:18 You took your embroidered clothes and used these to dress them up, and you offered them my oil and my incense.

Ezekiel 16:19 And the bread I gave you, the finest flour, the oil and honey with which I fed you, you offered them as a pleasing smell. “What is more—declares the Lord Yahweh-

Ezekiel 16:20 you took the sons and daughters you had borne me and sacrificed them as food to the images. Was not your whoring enough in itself,

Ezekiel 16:21 for you to slaughter my children and hand them over to be burnt in their honour?

Ezekiel 16:22 And in all your loathsome practices and your whorings you never called your early days to mind, when you were stark naked, kicking on the ground in your own blood.

Ezekiel 16:23 “To crown your wickedness—disaster upon you, disaster! declares the Lord Yahweh-

Ezekiel 16:24 you built yourself a mound and made yourself a high place in every open space.

Ezekiel 16:25 At the entry to every alley you made yourself a high place, defiling your beauty and opening your legs to all comers in countless acts of fornication.

Ezekiel 16:26 You have also fornicated with your big-membered neighbours, the Egyptians, provoking my anger with further acts of fornication.

Ezekiel 16:27 So now I have raised my hand against you, I have cut down on your food, I have put you at the mercy of your enemies, the Philistine women, who blush at your lewd behaviour.

Ezekiel 16:28 Still unsatisfied, you prostituted yourself to the Assyrians; you played the whore with them, but were not satisfied even then.

Ezekiel 16:29 You committed further acts of fornication in the country of merchants, with the Chaldaeans, and these did not satisfy you either.

Ezekiel 16:30 "How simple-minded you are!-declares the Lord Yahweh—for although you do all the things that a professional prostitute would,

Ezekiel 16:31 in building a mound and making yourself a high place in every street, you do not act like a proper prostitute because you disdain to take a fee.

Ezekiel 16:32 An adulteress welcomes strangers instead of her husband.

Ezekiel 16:33 All prostitutes accept presents, but you give presents to all your lovers, you bribe them to come from all over the place to fornicate with you!

Ezekiel 16:34 In fornicating, you are the opposite of other women, since no one runs after you to fornicate with you; since you give the fee and do not get one, you are the very opposite!

Ezekiel 16:35 "Very well, whore, hear the word of Yahweh!

Ezekiel 16:36 The Lord Yahweh says this: For having squandered your money and let yourself be seen naked while whoring with your lovers and all the foul idols of your loathsome practices and for giving them your children's blood-

Ezekiel 16:37 for all this, I shall assemble all the lovers to whom you have given pleasure, all the ones you liked and also all the ones you disliked; yes, I shall assemble them round you and strip you naked in front of them, and let them see you naked from head to foot.

Ezekiel 16:38 I shall pass on you the sentence that adulteresses and murderesses receive; I shall hand you over to their jealous fury;

Ezekiel 16:39 I shall hand you over to them; they will destroy your mound and pull down your high place; they will tear off your clothes, take away your jewels and leave you stark naked.

Ezekiel 16:40 Then they will call an assembly of citizens to deal with you, who will stone you to death and hack you to pieces with their swords,

Ezekiel 16:41 and burn down your premises and execute justice on you, while many other women look on; and I shall put an end to your whoring: no more paid lovers for you!

Ezekiel 16:42 Once my fury is exhausted with you, then my jealousy will leave you; I shall be calm and not angry any more.

Ezekiel 16:43 Since you never called to mind your early days and have done nothing but provoke me, now I in my turn shall bring your conduct down on your own head—declares the Lord Yahweh! “Have you not added this lewd behaviour to your other loathsome practices?

Ezekiel 16:44 So now all dealers in proverbs will apply this one to you: Like mother, like daughter.

Ezekiel 16:45 Yes; you are a true daughter of your mother, who hated her husband and her children; you are a true sister of your sisters, who hated their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite.

Ezekiel 16:46 Your elder sister is Samaria, who lives to the north of you with her daughters. Your younger sister is Sodom, who lives to the south of you with her daughters.

Ezekiel 16:47 You never failed to imitate their behaviour and copy their loathsome practices, and soon your behaviour was more corrupt than theirs was.

Ezekiel 16:48 As I live—declares the Lord Yahweh—your sister Sodom and her daughters never did what you and your daughters have done.

Ezekiel 16:49 The crime of your sister Sodom was pride, gluttony, calm complacency; such were hers and her daughters’ crimes. They never helped the poor and needy;

Ezekiel 16:50 they were proud, and engaged in loathsome practices before me, and so I swept them away as you have seen.

Ezekiel 16:51 And yet Samaria never committed half the crimes that you have. “You have done more loathsome things than they have. By all your loathsome practices you have made your sisters seem innocent,

Ezekiel 16:52 and now you bear the shame of which you have freed your sisters; since the sins which you have committed are more revolting than theirs, they are more upright than you are. So now, bear the disgrace and shame of having put your sisters in the right.

Ezekiel 16:53 “I shall restore their fortunes, I shall restore Sodom and her daughters, I shall re- store Samaria and her daughters, and then I shall restore your fortune with theirs,

Ezekiel 16:54 so that you can bear your shame and disgrace for all you have done, and so console them.

Ezekiel 16:55 When your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, are restored to what they were, and Samaria and her daughters are restored to what they were, then you too and your daughters will be restored to what you were.

Ezekiel 16:56 Did you not gloat over your sister Sodom when you were so proud,

Ezekiel 16:57 before you were stripped naked? Like her, you are now the laughing-stock of the women of Edom, of all the women round, of the women of Philistia, who pour out their contempt on you.

Ezekiel 16:58 You have brought this on yourself, with your lewdness and your loathsome practices—declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 16:59 “For the Lord Yahweh says this: I shall treat you as you have deserved for making light of an oath and breaking a covenant,

Ezekiel 16:60 but I shall remember my covenant with you when you were a girl and shall conclude a covenant with you that will last for ever.

Ezekiel 16:61 And you for your part will remember your behaviour and feel ashamed of it when you receive your elder and younger sisters and I make them your daughters, although this is not included in my covenant with you.

Ezekiel 16:62 I shall renew my covenant with you; and you will know that I am Yahweh,

Ezekiel 16:63 and so remember and feel ashamed and in your confusion be reduced to silence, when I forgive you for everything you have done—declares the Lord Yahweh.” ‘

Ezekiel 17:1 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 17:2 ‘Son of man, put a riddle, propound a parable to the House of Israel.

Ezekiel 17:3 Say, “The Lord Yahweh says this: A great eagle with great wings, long-pinioned, rich with many-coloured plumage, came to the Lebanon.

Ezekiel 17:4 He took the top of the cedar tree, he plucked off the top branch, he carried it off to the country of merchants and set it down in a city of shopkeepers.

Ezekiel 17:5 Next, he took one of the country’s seeds and put it in a fertile field; by the side of a generous stream, like a willow tree, he placed it.

Ezekiel 17:6 It grew and became a fruitful vine of modest size, grew up towards the eagle, its roots grew downwards. So it became a vine, branching out and sprouting new shoots.

Ezekiel 17:7 But there was another great eagle with great wings and thick plumage. And now the vine twisted its roots towards him and stretched its branches towards him, for him to water it away from the bed where it was planted.

Ezekiel 17:8 It was in a fertile field, by the side of a wide stream that the vine had been planted, to branch out and bear fruit and become a noble vine.”

Ezekiel 17:9 Say, “The Lord Yahweh says this: Will it succeed? Will the eagle not tear out its roots and strip off its fruit, so that all the new leaves it puts out will wither, and no great strength is needed nor many people to pull it up by the roots?

Ezekiel 17:10 Planted it may be—will it succeed? Will it not shrivel up when the east wind blows? It will wither in the bed where it was growing!" '

Ezekiel 17:11 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows:

Ezekiel 17:12 'Say to that tribe of rebels, "Do you not know what this means?" Say this, 'Look, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem; he carried away the king and the princes, and took them to his home in Babylon.

Ezekiel 17:13 He took a member of the royal family and made a treaty with him, forcing him to swear loyalty, having already deported the leading men of the country,

Ezekiel 17:14 so that the kingdom would remain modest and without ambitions, and would keep and honour his treaty.

Ezekiel 17:15 But the prince rebelled against him and sent envoys to Egypt to procure himself horses and a large number of troops. Will he succeed? Will a man who has done this go unpunished? Can he break a treaty and go unpunished?

Ezekiel 17:16 As I live, I swear it—declares the Lord Yahweh—in Babylon, in the country of the king who put him on the throne, whose oath he has disregarded and whose treaty he has broken, there he will die.

Ezekiel 17:17 Despite the pharaoh's great army and hordes of men, he will not be able to save him by fighting, however many earthworks are raised, however many trenches dug to the loss of many lives.

Ezekiel 17:18 He has disregarded the oath by breaking the treaty to which he had pledged himself and, having done all this, will not go unpunished.

Ezekiel 17:19 "So, the Lord Yahweh says this: As I live, I swear it: my oath which he has disregarded, my treaty which he has broken, I shall make them both recoil on his own head.

Ezekiel 17:20 I shall throw my net over him, he will be caught in my mesh; I shall take him to Babylon and punish him there for being unfaithful to me.

Ezekiel 17:21 All the pick of all his troops will fall by the sword, and the survivors be scattered to all the winds. And you will know that I, Yahweh, have spoken.

Ezekiel 17:22 "The Lord Yahweh says this: From the top of the tall cedar tree, from the highest branch I shall take a shoot and plant it myself on a high and lofty mountain.

Ezekiel 17:23 I shall plant it on the highest mountain in Israel. It will put out branches and bear fruit and grow into a noble cedar tree. Every kind of bird will live beneath it, every kind of winged creature will rest in the shade of its branches.

Ezekiel 17:24 And all the trees of the countryside will know that I, Yahweh, am the one who lays the tall tree low and raises the low tree high, who makes the green tree wither and makes the withered bear fruit. I, Yahweh, have spoken, and I will do it." '

Ezekiel 18:1 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 18:2 'Why do you keep repeating this proverb in the land of Israel: The parents have eaten unripe grapes; and the children's teeth are set on edge?

Ezekiel 18:3 'As I live—declares the Lord Yahweh—you will have no further cause to repeat this proverb in Israel.

Ezekiel 18:4 Look, all life belongs to me; the father's life and the son's life, both alike belong to me. The one who has sinned is the one to die.

Ezekiel 18:5 'But if a man is upright, his actions law-abiding and upright,

Ezekiel 18:6 and he does not eat on the mountains or raise his eyes to the foul idols of the House of Israel, does not defile his neighbour's wife or touch a woman during her periods,

Ezekiel 18:7 oppresses no one, returns the pledge on a debt, does not rob, gives his own food to the hungry, his clothes to those who lack clothing,

Ezekiel 18:8 does not lend for profit, does not charge interest, abstains from evil, gives honest judgement between one person and another,

Ezekiel 18:9 keeps my laws and sincerely respects my judgements—someone like this is truly upright and will live—declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 18:10 'But if he has a son prone to violence and bloodshed, who commits one of these misdeeds-

Ezekiel 18:11 even though the father never has—a son who dares to eat on the mountains, who defiles his neighbour's wife,

Ezekiel 18:12 who oppresses the poor and needy, robs, fails to return pledges, raises his eyes to foul idols, engages in loathsome practices,

Ezekiel 18:13 lends for profit, or charges interest, such a person will by no means live; having committed all these appalling crimes he will die, and his blood be on his own head.

Ezekiel 18:14 'But if he in turn has a son who, in spite of seeing all the sins that his father has committed, does not imitate him,

Ezekiel 18:15 does not eat on the mountains or raise his eyes to the foul idols of the House of Israel, does not defile his neighbour's wife,

Ezekiel 18:16 oppresses no one, takes no pledges, does not rob, gives his own food to the hungry, his clothes to those who lack clothing, Ezekiel 18:17 abstains from evil, does not lend for profit or charge interest, respects my judgements and keeps my laws, he will not die for his father's sins: he will most certainly live.

Ezekiel 18:18 But his father, because he was violent, robbed others and never did good among his people, will most certainly die in his guilt.

Ezekiel 18:19 'Now, you say, "Why doesn't the son bear his father's guilt?" If the son has been law-abiding and upright, has kept all my laws and followed them, most certainly he will live.

Ezekiel 18:20 The one who has sinned is the one who must die; a son is not to bear his father's guilt, nor a father his son's guilt. The upright will be credited with his uprightness, and the wicked with his wickedness.

Ezekiel 18:21 'If the wicked, however, renounces all the sins he has committed, respects my laws and is law-abiding and upright, he will most certainly live; he will not die.

Ezekiel 18:22 None of the crimes he committed will be remembered against him from then on; he will most certainly live because of his upright actions.

Ezekiel 18:23 Would I take pleasure in the death of the wicked—declares the Lord Yahweh—and not prefer to see him renounce his wickedness and live?

Ezekiel 18:24 'But if the upright abandons uprightness and does wrong by copying all the loathsome practices of the wicked, is he to live? All his upright actions will be forgotten from then on; for the infidelity of which he is guilty and the sin which he has committed, he will most certainly die.

Ezekiel 18:25 'Now, you say, "What the Lord does is unjust." Now listen, House of Israel: is what I do unjust? Is it not what you do that is unjust?

Ezekiel 18:26 When the upright abandons uprightness and does wrong and dies, he dies because of the wrong which he himself has done.

Ezekiel 18:27 Similarly, when the wicked abandons wickedness to become law-abiding and upright, he saves his own life.

Ezekiel 18:28 Having chosen to renounce all his previous crimes, he will most certainly live: he will not die.

Ezekiel 18:29 And yet the House of Israel says, "What the Lord does is unjust." Is what I do unjust, House of Israel? Is it not what you do that is unjust?

Ezekiel 18:30 So in future, House of Israel, I shall judge each of you by what that person does—declares the Lord Yahweh. Repent, renounce all your crimes, avoid all occasions for guilt.

Ezekiel 18:31 Shake off all the crimes you have committed, and make yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! Why die, House of Israel?

Ezekiel 18:32 I take no pleasure in the death of anyone—declares the Lord Yahweh—so repent and live!’

Ezekiel 19:1 ‘Now, raise a lament for the princes of Israel.

Ezekiel 19:2 Say: What was your mother? A lioness among lions; lying among the cubs she nursed her whelps.

Ezekiel 19:3 She reared one of her whelps: he grew into a young lion; he learnt to tear his prey; he became a man-eater.

Ezekiel 19:4 The nations came to hear of him; he was caught in their pit; they dragged him away with hooks to Egypt.

Ezekiel 19:5 Her expectation thwarted, and seeing her hope dashed, she took another of her whelps and made a young lion of him.

Ezekiel 19:6 He prowled among the lions, he grew into a young lion, he learnt to tear his prey; he became a man-eater.

Ezekiel 19:7 He tore down their palaces, he destroyed their cities; the land and all its inhabitants were appalled by the sound of his roars.

Ezekiel 19:8 The nations marched out against him from the surrounding provinces; they spread their net over him; he was caught in their pit.

Ezekiel 19:9 They shackled him with hooks, they took him to the king of Babylon and threw him into a fortress, so that his voice could never again be heard on the mountains of Israel.

Ezekiel 19:10 Your mother was like a vine planted beside the water, fruitful and leafy, because the water flowed so full.

Ezekiel 19:11 She had stout stems which became kingly sceptres; she grew higher and higher, up into the clouds; she was admired for her height and the number of her branches.

Ezekiel 19:12 But she was furiously uprooted and thrown on the ground; the east wind dried up her fruit, she was broken to pieces; her stout stem dried up, the fire devoured it.

Ezekiel 19:13 Now she has been transplanted to the desert, to a dry and thirsty land.

Ezekiel 19:14 Fire burst out of her stem devouring her branches and fruit. No more stout stem for her, no more kingly sceptre.’ This is a lament; it was used as such.

Ezekiel 20:1 In the seventh year, on the tenth day of the fifth month, some of the elders of Israel came to consult Yahweh and were sitting with me,

Ezekiel 20:2 when the word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 20:3 ‘Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel. Say, “The Lord Yahweh says this: Have you come to consult me? As I live, I will not be consulted by you—declares the Lord Yahweh.”

Ezekiel 20:4 ‘Are you ready to judge them? Are you ready to judge them, son of man? Confront them with the loathsome practices of their ancestors.

Ezekiel 20:5 Say, “The Lord Yahweh says this: On the day when I chose Israel, when I pledged my word to the House of Jacob, I made myself known to them in Egypt; I pledged my word to them and said: I am Yahweh your God.

Ezekiel 20:6 That day I pledged them my word that I would bring them out of Egypt to a country which I had reconnoitred for them, a country flowing with milk and honey, and the loveliest of them all.

Ezekiel 20:7 And I said to them: Each of you must reject the horrors which attract you; do not pollute yourselves with the foul idols of Egypt; I am Yahweh your God.

Ezekiel 20:8 But they rebelled against me and would not listen to me. Not one of them rejected the horrors which attracted them; they did not give up the foul idols of Egypt. I then resolved to vent my fury on them, to sate my anger on them in Egypt.

Ezekiel 20:9 But respect for my own name kept me from letting it be profaned in the eyes of the nations among whom they were living, and before whom I had made myself known to them and promised to bring them out of Egypt.

Ezekiel 20:10 So I brought them out of Egypt and led them into the desert.

Ezekiel 20:11 I gave them my laws and taught them my judgements, in whose observance people find life.

Ezekiel 20:12 And I also gave them my Sabbaths as a sign between me and them, so that they might know that I, Yahweh, am the one who sanctifies them.

Ezekiel 20:13 The House of Israel, however, rebelled against me in the desert; they refused to keep my laws, they scorned my judgements, in whose observance people find life, and they grossly profaned my Sabbaths. I then resolved to vent my fury on them in the desert and destroy them.

Ezekiel 20:14 But respect for my own name kept me from letting it be profaned in the eyes of the nations, before whom I had brought them out.

Ezekiel 20:15 Even so, I pledged them my word in the desert that I would not lead them to the country which I had given them, a country flowing with milk and honey, and the loveliest of them all,

Ezekiel 20:16 since they had scorned my judgements, had refused to keep my laws and had profaned my Sabbaths, their hearts being attached to foul idols.

Ezekiel 20:17 In spite of this, I took pity on them; I refrained from destroying them and did not make an end of them in the desert.

Ezekiel 20:18 “I said to their children in the desert: Do not follow the laws of your ancestors, do not practise their judgements, do not defile yourselves with their foul idols.

Ezekiel 20:19 I am Yahweh your God. Keep my laws, respect my judgements and practise them.

Ezekiel 20:20 Keep my Sabbaths holy; let them be a sign between me and you, so that people may know that I am Yahweh your God.

Ezekiel 20:21 Their children, however, rebelled against me; they refused to keep my laws, they did not respect or practise my judgements, which must be practised by all who want to live; they profaned my Sabbaths. I then resolved to vent my fury on them, to sate my anger on them in the desert.

Ezekiel 20:22 But I restrained my hand; respect for my own name kept me from letting it be profaned in the eyes of the nations, before whom I had brought them out.

Ezekiel 20:23 Once again, however, I pledged them my word that I would scatter them throughout the nations and disperse them in foreign countries,

Ezekiel 20:24 because they had not followed my judgements but had rejected my laws and profaned my Sabbaths, their eyes being fastened on the foul idols of their ancestors.

Ezekiel 20:25 And for this reason I gave them laws that were not good and judgements by which they could never live;

Ezekiel 20:26 and I polluted them with their own offerings, making them sacrifice every first-born son in order to fill them with revulsion, so that they would know that I am Yahweh.”

Ezekiel 20:27 ‘For this reason, son of man, speak to the House of Israel. Say to them, “The Lord Yahweh says this: Here is another way by which your ancestors outraged me by their infidelity.

Ezekiel 20:28 Once I had brought them into the country which I had pledged my word to give them, they then saw all sorts of high hills, all kinds of leafy trees, and there they performed their sacrifices and made offerings that provoked my anger; there they set out their pleasing smell and poured their libations.

Ezekiel 20:29 I then said to them: What is this high place where you go? And they gave, and still give it, the name of Bamah.”

Ezekiel 20:30 ‘So, say to the House of Israel, “The Lord Yahweh says this: If you are polluting yourselves as your ancestors did by fornicating with their horrors-

Ezekiel 20:31 for by offering your gifts and by burning your children as sacrifices, you have been polluting yourselves with all your foul idols to this very day—shall I let myself be consulted by you, House of Israel?

As I live—declares Lord Yahweh—I shall not let myself be consulted by you.

Ezekiel 20:32 And what you sometimes imagine will never be so, when you say: We shall be like the peoples, the tribes of foreign lands, worshipping wood and stone.

Ezekiel 20:33 As I live I swear it—declares the Lord Yahweh—I am the one who will reign over you, with a strong hand and outstretched arm, once my fury is sated.

Ezekiel 20:34 With a strong hand and outstretched arm, once my fury is sated, I shall bring you back from the peoples and gather you again from the countries throughout which you have been scattered.

Ezekiel 20:35 I shall lead you into the desert of the nations and there I shall judge you face to face.

Ezekiel 20:36 As I judged your ancestors in the desert of Egypt, so will I judge you—declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 20:37 I shall make you pass under the crook, bring you to respect the covenant

Ezekiel 20:38 and rid you of the rebels who have revolted against me; I shall bring them out of the country where they are staying, but they will not enter the country of Israel, and you will know that I am Yahweh.

Ezekiel 20:39 House of Israel, Lord Yahweh says this: Go on, all of you, worship your foul idols, but later we shall see if you don’t listen to me! Then you will stop profaning my holy name with your offerings and your foul idols.

Ezekiel 20:40 For on my holy mountain, on the high mountain of Israel—declares the Lord Yahweh—is where the whole House of Israel, everyone in the country, will worship me. There I shall accept and there expect your presents, your choicest offering and all your consecrated gifts.

Ezekiel 20:41 I shall welcome you like a pleasing smell when I bring you back from the peoples and gather you from the countries throughout which you have been scattered, and through you I shall display my holiness for all the nations to see;

Ezekiel 20:42 and you will know that I am Yahweh, when I bring you back to the soil of Israel, to the country which I pledged my word to give to your ancestors.

Ezekiel 20:43 There you will remember your past behaviour and all the actions by which you have defiled yourselves, and you will loathe yourselves for all the wrongs which you have committed.

Ezekiel 20:44 And you will know that I am Yahweh, when I treat you as respect for my own name requires, and not as your wicked behaviour and corrupt actions deserve, House of Israel—declares the Lord Yahweh.”

‘

Ezekiel 21:1 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 21:2 ‘Son of man, turn to the right; utter your word towards the south, prophesy against the forest land of the Negeb.

Ezekiel 21:3 Say to the forest of Negeb, “Hear the word of Yahweh! The Lord Yahweh says this: Listen; I am about to kindle a fire in you which will burn up every green tree in you as well as every dry one; it will be an unquenchable blaze and every face will be scorched by it from the Negeb to the north.

Ezekiel 21:4 All humanity will see that it was I, Yahweh, who kindled it, and it will not be extinguished.” ‘

Ezekiel 21:5 I said, ‘Lord Yahweh, they say of me, “He does nothing but speak in riddles!”‘

Ezekiel 21:6 Then the word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 21:7 ‘Son of man, turn towards Jerusalem, utter your word towards the sanctuary and prophesy against the land of Israel.

Ezekiel 21:8 Say to the land of Israel, “Yahweh says this: Now I am against you; I am about to unsheathe my sword and rid you of the upright and the wicked alike.

Ezekiel 21:9 Since I am going to rid you of upright and wicked alike, I shall unsheathe my sword against everyone alive, from the Negeb to the north,

Ezekiel 21:10 so that everyone alive will know that I, Yahweh, am the one who has unsheathed my sword; it will not go back again.”

Ezekiel 21:11 ‘Son of man, groan as though your heart were breaking. Utter your bitter groans where they can see you.

Ezekiel 21:12 And if they say, “Why these groans?” reply, “Because of the news which is about to come, all hearts will sink, all hands grow weak, all spirits grow faint and all knees turn to water. It is coming now, it is here!-declares Lord Yahweh.” ‘

Ezekiel 21:13 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 21:14 ‘Son of man, prophesy. Say, “The Lord says this. Say: The sword, the sword has been sharpened and polished,

Ezekiel 21:15 sharpened for slaughter, polished to flash like lightning . . .

Ezekiel 21:16 He has had it polished to be wielded, this sword sharpened and polished to put in the slaughterer’s hand!

Ezekiel 21:17 Shout and wail, son of man, for it will come on my people, on all the chief men of Israel doomed like my people to the sword! So beat your breast,

Ezekiel 21:18 for this will be an ordeal . . . declares the Lord

Yahweh.

Ezekiel 21:19 So prophesy, son of man, and clap your hands! Let the sword pass three times, that sword for victims, that sword for a great victim, threatening them from every side!

Ezekiel 21:20 To make hearts sink and make sure many fall, I have posted the slaughtering sword at every gate to flash like lightning, polished for slaughter.

Ezekiel 21:21 Be sharp, on the right, be ready on the left, whichever way your blade is needed!

Ezekiel 21:22 I too shall clap my hands and sate my fury! I, Yahweh, have spoken." '

Ezekiel 21:23 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 21:24 'Son of man, mark out two roads for the sword of the king of Babylon to come along, making both of them begin from the same country. Then put up a signpost, put it where the road leaves for the city,

Ezekiel 21:25 trace the route which the sword should take for Rabbah-of-the-Ammonites, and for Judah, to the fortress of Jerusalem.

Ezekiel 21:26 For the king of Babylon has halted at the fork where these two roads diverge, to take the omens. He has shaken the arrows, questioned the household gods, inspected the liver.

Ezekiel 21:27 The lot marked 'Jerusalem' is in his right hand: there to set up battering-rams, give the word for slaughter, raise the war cry, level battering-rams against the gates, cast up earthworks, build entrenchments.

Ezekiel 21:28 The inhabitants will believe that these omens are idle, for they have received sworn guarantees, but he will bring their guilt to mind and capture them.

Ezekiel 21:29 And so the Lord Yahweh says this, "Since you have brought your guilt to mind by parading your misdeeds and flaunting your sins in everything you do: because you have drawn attention to yourselves, you will be captured.

Ezekiel 21:30 As for you, impious and wicked prince of Israel, whose doom is approaching to put an end to your crimes,

Ezekiel 21:31 the Lord Yahweh says this: They will take away your diadem and remove your crown. Everything will be changed; the low will be raised and the high brought low!

Ezekiel 21:32 Ruin, ruin, I shall bring such ruin as never was before, until the rightful ruler comes, on whom I shall bestow it."

Ezekiel 21:33 'Son of man, prophesy and say, "The Lord Yahweh says this: In reply to the Ammonites and their jeers, say: The sword, the sword is drawn for slaughter, polished to devour, to flash like lightning-

Ezekiel 21:34 while you have empty visions and consult lying omens-to cut the throats of the wicked, whose doom is approaching to put an end to their crimes.

Ezekiel 21:35 Put it back in the scabbard. The place where you were created, the land of your origin, will be where I judge you.

Ezekiel 21:36 I shall vent my fury on you, breathe the fire of my rage against you and hand you over to barbarous men whose trade is destruction.

Ezekiel 21:37 You will be fuel for the fire, your blood will flow through the country, you will leave no memory behind you; for I, Yahweh, have spoken!" '

Ezekiel 22:1 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 22:2 'Son of man, are you ready to judge? Are you ready to judge the blood-stained city? Confront her with all her loathsome practices!

Ezekiel 22:3 Say, "The Lord Yahweh says this: City shedding blood inside yourself to hasten your doom, making foul idols on your soil to defile yourself,

Ezekiel 22:4 you have incurred guilt by the blood you have shed, you have defiled yourself with the foul idols you have made, you have shortened your days, you have come to the end of your years. This is why I have made you an object of scorn to the nations and a laughing-stock to every country.

Ezekiel 22:5 From far and near they will taunt you with your infamous disorders.

Ezekiel 22:6 "Look! In you the princes of Israel, one and all, have furthered their own interests at the cost of bloodshed;

Ezekiel 22:7 in you people have despised their fathers and mothers; in you they have ill-treated the settler; in you they have oppressed the widow and orphan.

Ezekiel 22:8 You have treated my sanctuary with contempt, you have profaned my Sabbaths.

Ezekiel 22:9 In you informers incite to bloodshed; in you people eat on the mountains and act licentiously;

Ezekiel 22:10 in you they have sexual intercourse with their fathers; in you they force themselves on women in their periods;

Ezekiel 22:11 in you one man engages in loathsome practices with his neighbour's wife, another lewdly defiles his daughter-in-law, another violates his sister, his own father's daughter.

Ezekiel 22:12 In you people take bribes for shedding blood; you lend for profit and charge interest, you profit from your fellow by extortion and have forgotten about me—declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 22:13 "Now I shall clap my hands at your acts of banditry and the blood that flows in you.

Ezekiel 22:14 Will your heart be able to resist, will your hands be steady, the day when I call you to account? I, Yahweh, have spoken and shall act.

Ezekiel 22:15 I shall scatter you among the nations and disperse you in foreign countries, and so put an end to the filthiness now inside you;

Ezekiel 22:16 through your own fault, you will be profaned in the eyes of the nations, and you will know that I am Yahweh!" '

Ezekiel 22:17 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 22:18 'Son of man, for me, the House of Israel has become dross: copper, tin, iron, lead, all mixed up together in the melting-pot; they are dross.

Ezekiel 22:19 And so, Lord Yahweh says this, "Since you have all become dross, right! I shall collect you inside Jerusalem.

Ezekiel 22:20 As silver, copper, iron, lead and tin are collected in the melting-pot, and the fire is blown underneath to melt them down, so I shall collect you in my furious anger and have you melted down;

Ezekiel 22:21 I shall collect you and blow up the fire of my rage for you and have you melted down inside the city.

Ezekiel 22:22 As silver is melted in the melting-pot, so you will be melted down inside the city, and you will know that I, Yahweh, have vented my fury on you." '

Ezekiel 22:23 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 22:24 'Son of man, say to her, "You are a land that has not received rain or shower on the day of anger.

Ezekiel 22:25 In you, the princes are like a roaring lion tearing its prey. They have eaten the people, seized wealth and jewels and widowed many inside her.

Ezekiel 22:26 Her priests have violated my law and desecrated my sanctuary; they have made no distinction between sacred and profane, they have not taught people the difference between clean and unclean; they have turned their eyes away from my Sabbaths and I have been dishonoured by them.

Ezekiel 22:27 In her the leaders are wolves tearing their prey, shedding blood and killing people to steal their possessions.

Ezekiel 22:28 Her prophets have plastered these things over with their empty visions and lying prophecies, saying: Yahweh says this, although Yahweh has not spoken.

Ezekiel 22:29 The people of the country have taken to extortion and banditry; they have oppressed the poor and needy and ill-treated the settler in a way that is unjustifiable.

Ezekiel 22:30 I have been looking for someone among them to build a barricade and oppose me in the breach, to defend the country and prevent me from destroying it; but I have found no one.

Ezekiel 22:31 Hence I have vented my fury on them; I have put an end to them in the fire of my rage. I have made their conduct recoil on their own heads—declares the Lord Yahweh.” ‘

Ezekiel 23:1 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 23:2 ‘Son of man, there were once two women, daughters of the same mother.

Ezekiel 23:3 They played the whore in Egypt; they played the whore when they were still girls. There their nipples were handled, there their virgin breasts were first fondled.

Ezekiel 23:4 Their names were: Oholah the elder, Oholibah her sister. They belonged to me and bore sons and daughters. As regards their names, Samaria is Oholah, Jerusalem Oholibah.

Ezekiel 23:5 Now Oholah played the whore, although she belonged to me; she lusted after her lovers, her neighbours the Assyrians,

Ezekiel 23:6 dressed in purple, governors and magistrates, all of them young and desirable, and skilful horsemen.

Ezekiel 23:7 She played the whore with all of them, the pick of Assyria, and defiled herself with all the foul idols of all those with whom she was in love,

Ezekiel 23:8 nor did she give up the whoring begun in Egypt, where men had slept with her from her girlhood, fondling her virgin breasts, debauching her over and over again.

Ezekiel 23:9 ‘That is why I have handed her over to her lovers, to the Assyrians with whom she was in love.

Ezekiel 23:10 They stripped her naked, seized her sons and daughters and put her to the sword. She became notorious among women for the justice done on her.

Ezekiel 23:11 ‘Her sister Oholibah saw all this, but she was even more depraved, and her whorings were worse than her sister’s.

Ezekiel 23:12 She fell in love with her neighbours the Assyrians, governors and magistrates, dressed in sumptuous clothes, skilful horsemen, all young and desirable.

Ezekiel 23:13 Then I saw that she had defiled herself, that both sisters were equally bad.

Ezekiel 23:14 She began whoring worse than ever; no sooner had she seen wall-carvings of men, pictures of Chaldaeans coloured vermilion,

Ezekiel 23:15 men with sashes round their waists and elaborate turbans on their heads, all so lordly of bearing, depicting the Babylonians, natives of Chaldaea, Ezekiel 23:16 than she fell in love with them at first sight and sent messengers to them in Chaldaea.

Ezekiel 23:17 The Babylonians came to her, shared her love-bed and defiled her with their whoring. Once defiled by them, she withdrew her affection from them.

Ezekiel 23:18 Thus she flaunted her whoring, exposing her body, until I withdrew my affection from her as I had withdrawn it from her sister.

Ezekiel 23:19 But she began whoring worse than ever, remembering her girlhood, when she had played the whore in Egypt,

Ezekiel 23:20 when she had been in love with their profligates, big-membered as donkeys, ejaculating as violently as stallions.

Ezekiel 23:21 'You were hankering for the debauchery of your girlhood, when they used to handle your nipples in Egypt and fondle your young breasts.

Ezekiel 23:22 And so, Oholibah, Lord Yahweh says this, "I shall set all your lovers against you, from whom you have withdrawn your affection, and bring them to assault you from all directions:

Ezekiel 23:23 the Babylonians and all the Chaldaeans, the men of Pekod and Shoa and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them, young and desirable, all governors and magistrates, all famous lords and skilful horsemen.

Ezekiel 23:24 From the north, they will advance on you with chariots and wagons and an international army and beset you with shield, buckler and helmet on all sides. I shall charge them to pass sentence on you and they will pass sentence on you as they think fit.

Ezekiel 23:25 I shall direct my jealousy against you; they will treat you with fury; they will cut off your nose and ears, and what is left of your family will fall by the sword; they will seize your sons and daughters, and what is left will be burnt.

Ezekiel 23:26 They will strip off your garments and rob you of your jewels.

Ezekiel 23:27 I shall put an end to your debauchery and to the whorings you began in Egypt; you will not look to the Egyptians any more, you will never think of them again.

Ezekiel 23:28 For the Lord Yahweh says this: Now, I shall hand you over to those you hate, to those for whom you no longer feel affection.

Ezekiel 23:29 They will treat you with hatred, they will rob you of the entire fruit of your labours and leave you stark naked. And thus your shameful whorings will be exposed, your debauchery and your whorings.

Ezekiel 23:30 This will happen to you because you have played the whore with the nations and have defiled yourself with their foul idols.

Ezekiel 23:31 Since you have copied your sister’s behaviour, I shall put her cup in your hand.”

Ezekiel 23:32 The Lord Yahweh says this: You will drink your sister’s cup, a cup both deep and wide, leading to laughter and mockery, so ample the draught it holds.

Ezekiel 23:33 You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow. Cup of affliction and devastation, the cup of your sister Samaria,

Ezekiel 23:34 you will drink it, you will drain it; then you will break it in pieces and lacerate your own breasts. For I have spoken—declared the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 23:35 “And so, the Lord Yahweh says this: Since you have forgotten me and have turned your back on me, you too will have to bear the weight of your debauchery and whorings.” ‘

Ezekiel 23:36 And Yahweh said to me, ‘Son of man, are you ready to judge Oholah and Oholibah and charge them with their loathsome practices?

Ezekiel 23:37 They have been adulteresses, their hands are dripping with blood, they have committed adultery with their foul idols. As for the children they had borne me, they have offered them as burnt sacrifices to feed them.

Ezekiel 23:38 And here is something else they have done to me: they have defiled my sanctuary today and have profaned my Sabbaths.

Ezekiel 23:39 The same day as sacrificing their children to their idols, they have been to my sanctuary and profaned it. Yes, this is what they have done in my own house.

Ezekiel 23:40 ‘Worse still, they summoned men from far away, invited by messenger, and they came. For them you bathed, you painted your eyes, put on your jewels

Ezekiel 23:41 and sat on a sumptuous bed, by which a table was laid out. On this you had put my incense and my oil.

Ezekiel 23:42 The noise of the carefree company resounded, made by the crowd of men brought in from the desert; they put bracelets on the women’s arms and magnificent crowns on their heads.

Ezekiel 23:43 I thought, “That woman, worn out with adultery! Are they going to fornicate with her too?”

Ezekiel 23:44 Yet they visit her like any common prostitute, just as they visited those profligate women Oholah and Oholibah.

Ezekiel 23:45 All the same, there are upright men who will judge them as adulteresses and murderesses are judged, since they are adulteresses and their hands are dripping with blood.”

Ezekiel 23:46 ‘The Lord Yahweh says this, “Summon an assembly to deal with them, and hand them over to terror and pillage;

Ezekiel 23:47 let the assembly stone them and dispatch them with their swords; let their sons and daughters be slaughtered and their houses set on fire.

Ezekiel 23:48 This is how I shall purge the country of debauchery, so that all women will be taught the lesson never to ape your debauchery again.

Ezekiel 23:49 Your debauchery will recoil on yourselves, and you will bear the weight of the sins committed with your foul idols and you will know that I am the Lord Yahweh." '

Ezekiel 24:1 In the ninth year, on the tenth day of the tenth month, the word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 24:2 'Son of man, write down today's date, yes, today's, for this very day the king of Babylon began his attack on Jerusalem.

Ezekiel 24:3 So pronounce a parable for this tribe of rebels. Say, "The Lord Yahweh says this: Put the pot on the fire; put it on; pour the water in!

Ezekiel 24:4 Now put the cuts of meat all in together, all the best cuts, leg and shoulder. Fill it with the best bones.

Ezekiel 24:5 Take the best of the flock, then heap wood underneath; boil it thoroughly until even the bones are cooked.

Ezekiel 24:6 "For the Lord Yahweh says this: Disaster is in store for the bloody city, for that rusty cooking pot whose rust will not come off! Empty it, bit by bit, not bothering to draw lots;

Ezekiel 24:7 for she is still full of bloodshed, she has put blood on the naked rock; she did not pour it on the ground so as to cover it with dust.

Ezekiel 24:8 To make anger rise, to exact vengeance, I have put her blood on the naked rock, so that it should not be covered:

Ezekiel 24:9 "So, the Lord Yahweh says this: Disaster is in store for the bloody city! I too plan to build a great fire.

Ezekiel 24:10 Heap on the wood, light it, cook the meat, prepare the seasoning let the bones burn!

Ezekiel 24:11 Put the empty pot on the coals to make it hot, until the bronze glows, the filth inside melts and the rust is burnt away!

Ezekiel 24:12 "But all that rust would not come off in the fire.

Ezekiel 24:13 Your filth is infamous. Since I have tried to purge you and you would not let yourself be purged of your filth, so now you will never be purged of your filth until I have sated my anger on you.

Ezekiel 24:14 I, Yahweh, have spoken; this will happen; I shall act and not relent; I shall show no pity, no compassion. You will be judged as your conduct and actions deserve—declares the Lord Yahweh." '

Ezekiel 24:15 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows, Ezekiel 24:16 ‘Son of man, at a blow I am about to deprive you of the delight of your eyes. But you are not to lament, not to weep, not to let your tears run down.

Ezekiel 24:17 Groan in silence, do not go into mourning for the dead, knot your turban round your head, put your sandals on your feet, do not cover your beard, do not eat the usual food.’

Ezekiel 24:18 I told this to the people in the morning, and my wife died in the evening, and the next morning I did as I had been ordered.

Ezekiel 24:19 The people then said to me, ‘Will you not explain what meaning these actions have for us?’

Ezekiel 24:20 I replied, ‘The word of Yahweh has been addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 24:21 “Say to the House of Israel, the Lord Yahweh says this: I am about to profane my sanctuary, the pride of your strength, the delight of your eyes, the joy of your hearts. Your sons and daughters whom you have left behind will fall by the sword.

Ezekiel 24:22 Then you will do as I have done: you will not cover your beards or eat the usual food;

Ezekiel 24:23 you will keep your turbans on your heads and your sandals on your feet; you will not lament or weep but will waste away for your crimes, groaning among yourselves.

Ezekiel 24:24 Thus Ezekiel is a sign for you. You will do exactly what he has done. And when this happens, you will know that I am Lord Yahweh!”

Ezekiel 24:25 ‘And, son of man, the day that I deprive them of their strength, their crowning joy, the delight of their eyes, the joy of their hearts, their sons and daughters,

Ezekiel 24:26 that day a survivor will bring you the news.

Ezekiel 24:27 That day your mouth will be opened to speak to the survivor; you will speak and no longer be dumb; you will be a sign for them, and they will know that I am Yahweh.’

Ezekiel 25:1 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 25:2 ‘Son of man, turn towards the Ammonites and prophesy against them.

Ezekiel 25:3 Say to the Ammonites, “Hear the word of the Lord Yahweh. The Lord Yahweh says this: “Since you gloated over my sanctuary when it was profaned, and over the land of Israel when it was ravaged, and over the House of Judah when it went into exile,

Ezekiel 25:4 I shall let the sons of the East take possession of you; they will pitch their camps inside you, they will make their home in you. They will be the ones to eat your produce and drink your milk.

Ezekiel 25:5 I shall turn Rabbah into a camel yard and the towns of Ammon into sheepfolds. And so you will know that I am Yahweh.

Ezekiel 25:6 “The Lord Yahweh says this: Since you have clapped your hands and danced for joy, full of malicious delight at Israel’s fate,

Ezekiel 25:7 my hand will be against you for this; I shall hand you over to be looted by the peoples, obliterate you as a nation and wipe you out as a country. I shall reduce you to nothing, and you will know that I am Yahweh.

Ezekiel 25:8 “The Lord Yahweh says this: “Since Moab and Seir have said: Look at the House of Judah; it is no different from any other nation;

Ezekiel 25:9 very well, I shall expose Moab’s heights; its cities will no longer be cities throughout the land—the jewels of the country, Beth-Jeshimoth, Baal-Meon and Kiriathaim.

Ezekiel 25:10 I shall let the sons of the East and the Ammonites take possession of them, so that they will no longer be remembered by the nations.

Ezekiel 25:11 I shall bring Moab to justice, and they will know that I am Yahweh.

Ezekiel 25:12 “The Lord Yahweh says this: “Since Edom has taken revenge on the House of Judah and committed great crimes in doing so,

Ezekiel 25:13 very well, the Lord Yahweh says this: My hand will be against Edom and denude it of human and animal. I shall lay it waste, from Teman as far as Dedan they will be put to the sword.

Ezekiel 25:14 I shall take vengeance on Edom by means of my people Israel. They will treat Edom as my anger and fury dictate, and they will know this is my vengeance—declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 25:15 “The Lord Yahweh says this, “Since the Philistines have acted in revenge and, motivated by malice, have taken revenge, doing their best to destroy because of their long-standing hatred,

Ezekiel 25:16 very well, the Lord Yahweh says this: My hand will be against the Philistines; I shall exterminate the Cherethites and destroy the rest of the coastal peoples.

Ezekiel 25:17 I shall perform frightful acts of vengeance and inflict furious punishments on them; and they will know that I am Yahweh, when I exact my vengeance on them.” ‘

Ezekiel 26:1 In the eleventh year, on the first of the month, the word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 26:2 ‘Son of man, since Tyre has said of Jerusalem: “Aha! She is shattered, the Gateway to the Nations; she now gives way to me. Her riches are ruined!”

Ezekiel 26:3 Very well, the Lord Yahweh says this, “Now, Tyre, I am against you,

Ezekiel 26:4 I shall raise many nations against you as the sea raises its waves. They will destroy the walls of Tyre, they will demolish her towers; I shall sweep the dust of her away and reduce her to a naked rock.

Ezekiel 26:5 She will be a drying-ground out to sea for fishing-nets. For I have spoken- declares Lord Yahweh. She will be the prey of the nations.

Ezekiel 26:6 As for her daughters on the mainland, these will be put to the sword, and they will know that I am Yahweh."

Ezekiel 26:7 'For the Lord Yahweh says this, "From the north, I shall bring Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, king of kings, down on Tyre with horses, chariots, cavalry and an enormous army.

Ezekiel 26:8 He will put your daughters on the mainland to the sword. He will build siege-works against you, cast up a siege-ramp against you, raise a screen against you;

Ezekiel 26:9 he will pound your walls with his battering-rams, and demolish your towers with his siege-engines.

Ezekiel 26:10 His horses are so many that their dust will hide you. The noise of his horsemen and his chariot-wheels will make your walls tremble as he enters your gates as though storming into a city through the breach.

Ezekiel 26:11 With his horses' hoofs he will trample through all your streets; he will put your people to the sword, and throw your massive pillars to the ground.

Ezekiel 26:12 Your wealth will be seized, your merchandise looted, your walls rased, your luxurious houses shattered, your stones, your timbers, your very dust, thrown into the sea.

Ezekiel 26:13 I shall put an end to the sound of your songs; the sound of your harps will not be heard again.

Ezekiel 26:14 I shall reduce you to a naked rock, and make you into a drying-ground for fishing-nets, never to be rebuilt; for I, Yahweh, have spoken -declares the Lord Yahweh."

Ezekiel 26:15 'The Lord Yahweh says this to Tyre, "Will not the islands quake at the sound of your fall, while the wounded groan and the slaughter takes place inside you?

Ezekiel 26:16 All the princes of the sea will leave their thrones, lay aside their cloaks, take off their embroidered robes. Dressed in terror they will sit on the ground trembling incessantly, stunned at your fate.

Ezekiel 26:17 "They will raise the lament for you as follows: You are destroyed then, vanished from the seas, famous city, former sea-power, who with her citizens, used to spread terror all over the mainland!

Ezekiel 26:18 Now the islands are trembling on the day of your fall; the islands of the sea are terrified by your end.

Ezekiel 26:19 “For the Lord Yahweh says this: “When I make you a ruined city like other deserted cities, when I raise the deep against you and the ocean covers you,

Ezekiel 26:20 when I fling you down with those who go down into the abyss, with the people of long ago, and put you deep in the underworld, in the ruins of long ago with those who sink into oblivion, so that you can never come back or be restored to the land of the living,

Ezekiel 26:21 I will make you an object of terror; you will not exist. People will look for you but never find you again—declares the Lord Yahweh!” ‘

Ezekiel 27:1 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 27:2 ‘Son of man, raise the lament for Tyre.

Ezekiel 27:3 Say to Tyre, “City enthroned at the gateway of the sea, agent between the peoples and the many islands, Lord Yahweh says this: Tyre, you used to say: I am a ship perfect in beauty.

Ezekiel 27:4 Your frontiers were far out to sea; those who built you made you perfect in beauty.

Ezekiel 27:5 Cypress from Senir they used for all your planking. They took a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast above you.

Ezekiel 27:6 From oaks of Bashan they made your oars. They built you a deck of cedar inlaid with ivory from the Kittim isles.

Ezekiel 27:7 Embroidered linen from Egypt was used for your sail and for your flag. Purple and scarlet from the Elishah islands formed your deck-tent.

Ezekiel 27:8 The people of Sidon and Arvad were your oarsmen. The sages of Tyre were aboard, serving as sailors.

Ezekiel 27:9 The elders and craftsmen of Gebal were there to caulk your seams. “Every sea-going ship and crew frequented you to guarantee your trade.

Ezekiel 27:10 Men from Persia, Lud and Put served as warriors in your army; hanging up shield and helmet in you, they displayed your splendour.

Ezekiel 27:11 The sons of Arvad with their army manned your walls all round, while the Gammadians manned your towers; hanging their shields all round your walls, they completed your beauty.

Ezekiel 27:12 Tarshish traded with you because of your abundant resources and exchanged your merchandise for silver, iron, tin and lead.

Ezekiel 27:13 Javan, Tubal and Meshech traded with you. For your merchandise they traded slaves and bronze artefacts.

Ezekiel 27:14 The people of Beth-Togarmah traded your horses, chargers, mules.

Ezekiel 27:15 The people of Dedan traded with you; many islands were your customers and paid you in ivory tusks and ebony.

Ezekiel 27:16 Edom traded with you for the sake of your many manufactured goods, exchanging garnets, purple, embroideries, fine linen, coral and rubies for your goods.

Ezekiel 27:17 Judah and the land of Israel also traded with you, bringing corn from Minnith, pannag, honey, oil and balm.

Ezekiel 27:18 Damascus traded with you, for quantities of your manufactured goods and other goods of all kinds, furnishing you with wine from Helbon and wool from Zahar.

Ezekiel 27:19 Dan and Javan, from Uzal onwards, supplied you with wrought iron, cassia and reeds in exchange for your goods.

Ezekiel 27:20 Dedan traded with you in saddle-cloths.

Ezekiel 27:21 Arabia and all the sheikhs of Kedar were your customers; they paid in lambs, rams and he-goats.

Ezekiel 27:22 The merchants of Sheba and Raamah traded with you; they supplied you with the finest spices, precious stones and gold for your merchandise.

Ezekiel 27:23 Haran, Canneh and Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Asshur and Chilmad traded with you.

Ezekiel 27:24 They traded rich clothes, embroidered and purple cloaks, multi-coloured materials and strong plaited cords for your markets.

Ezekiel 27:25 Ships of Tarshish sailed on your business; you were full and heavily loaded far out to sea.

Ezekiel 27:26 Out to the open sea your oarsmen rowed you. The east wind has wrecked you far out to sea.

Ezekiel 27:27 Your riches, your goods, your cargo, your seamen, your sailors, your caulkers, your commercial agents, all the warriors you carry, and all the passengers who are aboard will founder far out to sea on the day of your shipwreck.

Ezekiel 27:28 When they hear the cries of your sailors the coasts will tremble.

Ezekiel 27:29 Then the oarsmen will all desert their ships. The sailors and seafaring people will stay ashore.

Ezekiel 27:30 They will raise their voices for you and weep bitterly. They will throw dust on their heads and roll in ashes;

Ezekiel 27:31 they will shave their heads for you and put sackcloth round their waists. With heartfelt bitterness they will weep for you, bitterly wail.

Ezekiel 27:32 Wailing, they will raise the lament for you, they will lament over you: Who is like Tyre, far out to sea?

Ezekiel 27:33 When you unloaded your goods to satisfy so many peoples, you enriched the kings of the earth with your excess of wealth and goods.

Ezekiel 27:34 Now you have been wrecked by the waves, by the depths of the sea. Your cargo and all your passengers have foundered with you.

Ezekiel 27:35 All those who live in the islands will be stunned at your fate. Their kings will quake with horror, with downcast expressions.

Ezekiel 27:36 The merchants of the nations will whistle at your fate. You will be an object of terror, gone for ever.” ‘

Ezekiel 28:1 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 28:2 ‘Son of man, say to the ruler of Tyre, “The Lord Yahweh says this: Because your heart has grown proud, you thought: I am a god; I am divinely enthroned far out to sea. Though you are human, not divine, you have allowed yourself to think like God.

Ezekiel 28:3 So, you are wiser than Danel; no sage as wise as you!

Ezekiel 28:4 By your wisdom and your intelligence you have made yourself a fortune, you have put gold and silver into your treasuries.

Ezekiel 28:5 Such is your skill in trading, your fortune has continued to increase, and your fortune has made your heart grow prouder.

Ezekiel 28:6 “And so, the Lord Yahweh says this: Since you have allowed yourself to think like God,

Ezekiel 28:7 very well, I am going to bring foreigners against you, the most barbarous of the nations. They will draw sword against your fine wisdom, they will desecrate your splendour,

Ezekiel 28:8 they will throw you down into the grave and you will die a violent death far out to sea.

Ezekiel 28:9 Will you still think: I am a god, when your slaughterers confront you? But you will be human, not divine, in the clutches of the ones who strike you down!

Ezekiel 28:10 You will die like the uncircumcised at the hand of foreigners. “For I have spoken—declares the Lord Yahweh.” ‘

Ezekiel 28:11 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 28:12 ‘Son of man, raise a lament for the king of Tyre. Say to him, “The Lord Yahweh says this: You used to be a model of perfection, full of wisdom, perfect in beauty;

Ezekiel 28:13 you were in Eden, in the garden of God. All kinds of gem formed your mantle: sard, topaz, diamond, chrysolite, onyx, jasper, sapphire, garnet, emerald, and your ear-pendants and spangles were made of gold; all was ready on the day you were created.

Ezekiel 28:14 I made you a living creature with outstretched wings, as guardian, you were on the holy mountain of God; you walked amid red-hot coals.

Ezekiel 28:15 Your behaviour was exemplary from the day you were created until guilt first appeared in you,

Ezekiel 28:16 because your busy trading has filled you with violence and sin. I have thrown you down from the mountain of God and destroyed you, guardian winged creature, amid the coals.

Ezekiel 28:17 Your heart has grown proud because of your beauty, your wisdom has been corrupted by your splendour. I have thrown you to the ground; I have made you a spectacle for kings.

Ezekiel 28:18 By the immense number of your crimes, by the dishonesty of your trading, you have defiled your sanctuary. So I have brought fire out of you to devour you; I have reduced you to ashes on the ground before the eyes of all who saw you.

Ezekiel 28:19 Of the nations, all who know you are stunned at your fate. You are an object of terror; gone for ever." '

Ezekiel 28:20 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 28:21 'Son of man, turn towards Sidon and prophesy against her.

Ezekiel 28:22 Say, "The Lord Yahweh says this: I am against you, Sidon, I will show my glory in you! They will know I am Yahweh, once I execute sentence on her and display my holiness in her.

Ezekiel 28:23 For I shall send her the plague, and there will be blood in her streets, and in her the dead will fall under the sword raised against her from all sides, and they will know that I am Yahweh.

Ezekiel 28:24 "No more, for the House of Israel, shall any of the hostile nations surrounding them be a thorn that wounds or a briar that tears; and they will know that I am Yahweh.

Ezekiel 28:25 "The Lord Yahweh says this: When I gather the House of Israel back from the peoples where they are dispersed, I shall display my glory in them for the nations to see. They will live on the soil which I gave to my servant Jacob.

Ezekiel 28:26 They will live there in confidence, build houses, plant vineyards. They will live in safety, once I inflict punishments on all the hostile nations surrounding them, and they will know that I am Yahweh their God." '

Ezekiel 29:1 In the tenth year, on the twelfth day of the tenth month, the word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 29:2 'Son of man, turn towards Pharaoh king of Egypt and prophesy against him and against the whole of Egypt.

Ezekiel 29:3 Speak and say, "The Lord Yahweh says this: Look, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt- the great crocodile wallowing in his Niles who thought: My Nile is mine, I made it.

Ezekiel 29:4 I shall put hooks through your jaws, make your Nile fish stick to your scales, and pull you out of your Niles with all your Nile fish sticking to your scales.

Ezekiel 29:5 I shall drop you in the desert, with all your Nile fish. You will fall in the wilds and not be taken up or buried. I shall give you as food to the wild animals and the birds of heaven,

Ezekiel 29:6 and all the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am Yahweh, for they have given no more support than a reed to the House of Israel.

Ezekiel 29:7 Wherever they grasped you, you broke in their hands and cut their hands all over. Whenever they leaned on you, you broke, making all their limbs give way.

Ezekiel 29:8 "So, the Lord Yahweh says this: I shall send the sword against you to denude you of human and animal.

Ezekiel 29:9 Egypt will become a desolate waste, and they will know that I am Yahweh. Because he thought: The Nile is mine, I made it, Ezekiel 29:10 very well, I am against you and your Niles. I shall make Egypt a waste and a desolation, from Migdol to Syene and beyond to the frontiers of Ethiopia.

Ezekiel 29:11 No human foot will pass through it, no animal foot will pass through it. For forty years it will remain uninhabited.

Ezekiel 29:12 I shall make Egypt the most desolate of countries; for forty years its cities will be the most desolate of wasted cities. And I shall scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them among the countries.

Ezekiel 29:13 The Lord Yahweh, however, says this: After forty years have passed, I shall gather the Egyptians back from the nations where they were dispersed.

Ezekiel 29:14 I shall bring the Egyptian captives back and re-install them in the land of Pathros, in the country of their origin. There they will constitute a modest kingdom.

Ezekiel 29:15 Egypt will be the most modest of kingdoms and no longer dominate other nations; for I shall reduce it, so that it will not rule other nations ever again.

Ezekiel 29:16 It will no longer be anything for the House of Israel to trust in, but will be a reminder of the guilt which lay in turning to it for help. And they will know that I am Lord Yahweh." '

Ezekiel 29:17 In the twenty-seventh year, on the first day of the first month, the word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows:

Ezekiel 29:18 'Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has taken his army in a great expedition against Tyre. Their heads have all gone bald, their shoulders are all chafed, but even so he has derived no profit, either for himself or for his army, from the expedition mounted against Tyre.

Ezekiel 29:19 Since this is so, the Lord Yahweh says this, “Look, I shall hand Egypt over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He will carry off its riches, loot it, put it to the sack; that will be the wages for his army.

Ezekiel 29:20 As wages for the trouble he has taken, I am giving him Egypt instead (for they have been working for me)-declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 29:21 “That day, I shall raise up a new stock for the House of Israel and allow you to open your mouth among them. And they will know that I am Yahweh.” ‘

Ezekiel 30:1 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 30:2 ‘Son of man, prophesy and say, “The Lord Yahweh says this: Howl: Disaster day!

Ezekiel 30:3 For the day is near, the day of Yahweh is near; it will be a day dark with cloud, a time of doom for the nations.

Ezekiel 30:4 “The sword will come on Egypt, and anguish on the country of Cush when the slaughtered fall in Egypt, when her riches are carried away and her foundations are destroyed.

Ezekiel 30:5 Cush, Put and Lud, all Arabia, Cub and the children of the country of the covenant will fall by the sword with them.

Ezekiel 30:6 “Yahweh says this: “The supports of Egypt will fall; the pride of her strength will crumble; they will fall by the sword from Migdol to Syene—declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 30:7 “They will be the most desolate of desolate countries, and its cities the most ruined of cities.

Ezekiel 30:8 And they will know that I am Yahweh when I set fire to Egypt and all its supports are shattered.

Ezekiel 30:9 “That day, I shall send messengers by ship to terrify the carefree Cushites, and anguish will overtake them on the day of Egypt—it is coming now!

Ezekiel 30:10 The Lord Yahweh says this: I shall destroy the huge population of Egypt at the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

Ezekiel 30:11 He and his people, the most barbarous of nations, will be brought to ravage the country. They will draw the sword against Egypt and fill the country with corpses.

Ezekiel 30:12 I shall dry up the courses of the Nile and sell the country to the wicked. I shall lay the whole country waste and everything in it, at the hand of foreigners. I, Yahweh, have spoken.

Ezekiel 30:13 “The Lord Yahweh says this: I shall destroy the foul idols and take the false gods away from Noph. Egypt will be left without a ruler. I shall spread fear through Egypt.

Ezekiel 30:14 I shall lay Pathros waste, set Zoan on fire, inflict my punishments on No.

Ezekiel 30:15 I shall vent my fury on Sin, the bastion of Egypt; I shall wipe out the throngs of No.

Ezekiel 30:16 I shall set fire to Egypt; Sin will be seized with convulsions; a breach will be opened at No and the waters flood out.

Ezekiel 30:17 The young men of On and Pi-Beseth will fall by the sword and the cities themselves go into captivity.

Ezekiel 30:18 At Tahpanhes day will turn to darkness when I shatter the sceptres of Egypt there, when the pride of her strength ceases. A cloud will cover Egypt itself, and its daughters will go into captivity.

Ezekiel 30:19 Such will be the punishments I inflict on Egypt. And they will know that I am Yahweh." '

Ezekiel 30:20 In the eleventh year, on the seventh day of the first month, the word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 30:21 'Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; you can see that no one has dressed his wound by applying remedies to it, by bandaging it and by dressing it, to make it strong enough to wield the sword.

Ezekiel 30:22 This being so, the Lord Yahweh says this, "Look, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt; I shall break his arms, the sound one and the broken one, and make the sword drop from his hand.

Ezekiel 30:23 I shall scatter Egypt among the nations and disperse it among the countries.

Ezekiel 30:24 I shall strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and put my sword in his hand. I shall break Pharaoh's arms and, confronted with his enemy, he will groan like a dying man.

Ezekiel 30:25 I shall strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh will fall. And they will know that I am Yahweh, when I put my sword into the hands of the king of Babylon and he wields it against Egypt.

Ezekiel 30:26 I shall scatter Egypt among the nations and disperse it among the countries; and they will know that I am Yahweh." '

Ezekiel 31:1 In the eleventh year, on the first day of the third month, the word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 31:2 'Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and his throng of subjects: "What can compare with you for greatness?

Ezekiel 31:3 I know: a cedar tree in the Lebanon with noble branches, dense foliage, lofty height. Its top pierces the clouds.

Ezekiel 31:4 The waters have made it grow, the deep has made it tall, pouring its rivers round the place where it is planted, sending rivulets to all the wild trees.

Ezekiel 31:5 This is why its height was greater than that of other wild trees, its branches increased in number, its boughs stretched wide, because of the plentiful waters making it grow.

Ezekiel 31:6 All the birds of heaven nested in its branches; under its boughs all wild animals dropped their young; in its shade sat many, many people.

Ezekiel 31:7 It was beautiful in its size, in the span of its boughs; for its roots were in plentiful waters.

Ezekiel 31:8 There was no cedar like it in the garden of God, no cypress had branches such as these, no plane tree could match its boughs, no tree in the garden of God could rival its beauty.

Ezekiel 31:9 I had made it so lovely with its many branches that it was the envy of every tree in Eden, in the garden of God.

Ezekiel 31:10 “Very well, the Lord Yahweh says this: “Since it has raised itself to its full height, has lifted its top into the clouds, and has grown arrogant about its height,

Ezekiel 31:11 I have handed it over to the prince of the nations, for him to treat as its wickedness deserves; I have rejected it.

Ezekiel 31:12 Foreigners, the most barbarous of nations, have cut it down and deserted it. On the mountains, in all the valleys, lie its branches; its broken boughs are in every ravine throughout the country; everybody in the country has fled its shade and deserted it.

Ezekiel 31:13 On its wreckage perch all the birds of heaven; all the wild animals have advanced on its branches.

Ezekiel 31:14 “So in future let no tree rear its height beside the waters, none push its top into the clouds, no watered tree stretch its height towards them. For all of them are doomed to death, to the depths of the underworld, with the common run of humanity, with those who sink into oblivion.

Ezekiel 31:15 “The Lord Yahweh says this: The day it went down to Sheol, I imposed mourning, I closed the deep over it. I stopped its rivers and the plentiful waters dried up; I made Lebanon dark because of it, and all the wild trees wilted because of it.

Ezekiel 31:16 With the noise when it fell I made the nations quake, as I hurled it down to Sheol, with those who sink into oblivion. In the depths of the underworld all the trees of Eden took comfort, the pick of the loveliest trees of the Lebanon, all irrigated by the waters.

Ezekiel 31:17 And its offspring among the nations, once living in its shade, went down to Sheol with it, to those who have been slaughtered by the sword.

Ezekiel 31:18 “Which of the trees of Eden compares with you for glory and greatness? Yet you have been hurled down with the trees of Eden, to the depths of the underworld, among the uncircumcised, and there you lie with those who have been slaughtered by the sword. So much for Pharaoh and all his throng—declares the Lord Yahweh." ‘

Ezekiel 32:1 In the twelfth year, on the first day of the twelfth month, the word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 32:2 ‘Son of man, raise a lament for Pharaoh king of Egypt. Say to him: "Young lion of nations, you are destroyed! Once you were like a crocodile in the lagoons; emerging from your rivers, you churned up the water with your trampling and fouled their streams.

Ezekiel 32:3 "The Lord Yahweh says this: I shall throw my net over you in a great concourse of nations; and they will trawl you up in my net. Then I shall leave you high and dry,

Ezekiel 32:4 I shall throw you out into the wilds and make all the birds of heaven settle on you, and glut all the beasts of the earth with you.

Ezekiel 32:5 I shall strew your flesh on your mountains and fill the valleys with your corruption;

Ezekiel 32:6 I shall water the country with what flows from you, with your blood, on the mountainsides, and you will fill the ravines.

Ezekiel 32:7 When I extinguish you I shall cover the skies and darken the stars. I shall cover the sun with clouds and the moon will not give its light.

Ezekiel 32:8 I shall dim every luminary in heaven because of you and cover your country in darkness -declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 32:9 "I shall grieve the heart of many peoples when I bring about your destruction among the nations, in countries unknown to you.

Ezekiel 32:10 I shall stun many peoples with shock at your fate; their kings will tremble with horror at your fate, when I brandish my sword before their eyes. The day you fall, each will tremble in terror for his life.

Ezekiel 32:11 For the Lord Yahweh says this: The sword of the king of Babylon will overtake you.

Ezekiel 32:12 I shall make your throngs of subjects fall at the swords of my warriors. They are the most barbarous of nations. They will annihilate the pride of Egypt, and all its throngs will be destroyed.

Ezekiel 32:13 I shall also destroy all its cattle beside the plentiful waters. No human foot will churn them, no animal foot will churn them up again;

Ezekiel 32:14 then I shall let their waters settle and make their rivers glide like oil—declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 32:15 "When I reduce Egypt to a ruin and the country is stripped of its contents, when I strike all those who live there, they will know that I am Yahweh.

Ezekiel 32:16 “Such is the lament which the daughters of the nations will raise. They will raise it over Egypt and all its throng. This is the lament they will raise—declares the Lord Yahweh.” ‘

Ezekiel 32:17 In the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the first month, the word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 32:18 ‘Son of man, lament over the throng of Egypt, for down she must go with the daughters of majestic nations to the depths of the underworld with those who sink into oblivion.

Ezekiel 32:19 ‘Whom do you surpass in beauty? Down with you, make your bed with the uncircumcised,

Ezekiel 32:20 with those who have been slaughtered by the sword. (The sword has been given, it has been drawn.) She and all her throngs have fallen.

Ezekiel 32:21 From the depths of Sheol, the mightiest heroes, her allies, will say to her, “They have come down, they have lain down, uncircumcised, slaughtered by the sword.”

Ezekiel 32:22 ‘Assyria is there and all her hordes, with their graves all round her; all of them slaughtered, fallen by the sword;

Ezekiel 32:23 their graves have been made in the deepest part of the abyss, and her hordes, with their graves all round her; all of them slaughtered, killed by the sword, who once spread terror through the world of the living.

Ezekiel 32:24 ‘Elam is there and all her throng round her grave, all of them slaughtered, fallen by the sword; they have gone down uncircumcised to the depths of the underworld, who once spread terror throughout the world of the living. They have borne their shame with those who sink into oblivion.

Ezekiel 32:25 Among the slaughtered, they have put a bed for her, among her throng with their tombs round her, all of them uncircumcised, slaughtered by the sword for having spread terror throughout the world of the living. They have borne their shame with those who sink into oblivion. They have been put among the slaughtered.

Ezekiel 32:26 ‘Meshech, Tubal are there and all her throng, with their graves round her, all of them uncircumcised, slaughtered by the sword for having spread terror through the world of the living.

Ezekiel 32:27 They do not lie with the heroes who fell long ago, those who went down to Sheol fully armed, who had their swords laid under their heads and their shields put under their bones, since the heroes inspired the world of the living with terror.

Ezekiel 32:28 But you will be broken with the uncircumcised and lie with those slaughtered by the sword.

Ezekiel 32:29 ‘Edom is there, her kings and all her princes who, despite their valour, have been laid with those slaughtered by the sword.

They lie with the uncircumcised, with those who sink into oblivion.

Ezekiel 32:30 ‘All the princes of the north and all the Sidonians are there, who have gone down with the slaughtered, because of the terror which their power inspired. Ashamed, uncircumcised, they lie among those slaughtered by the sword and bear their shame with those who sink into oblivion.

Ezekiel 32:31 ‘Pharaoh will see them and take comfort at the sight of all this throng slaughtered by the sword—Pharaoh and all his throng—declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 32:32 For having spread terror through the world of the living, he will be laid with the uncircumcised, with those slaughtered by the sword, Pharaoh and all his throng—declares the Lord Yahweh.’

Ezekiel 33:1 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 33:2 ‘Son of man, speak to the people of your country. Say to them, “When I send the sword against the people of that country, take one of their number and post him as a watchman;

Ezekiel 33:3 if he sees the sword coming against the country, he must sound his horn to warn the people.

Ezekiel 33:4 If someone hears the sound of the horn but pays no attention and the sword overtakes him and destroys him, he will have been responsible for his own death.

Ezekiel 33:5 He has heard the sound of the horn and paid no attention; his death will be his own responsibility. But the life of someone who pays attention will be secure.

Ezekiel 33:6 “If, however, the watchman has seen the sword coming but has not blown his horn, and so the people are not alerted and the sword overtakes them and destroys a single one of them, that person will indeed die for his guilt, but I shall hold the watchman responsible for his death.”

Ezekiel 33:7 ‘Son of man I have appointed you as watchman for the House of Israel. When you hear a word from my mouth, warn them from me.

Ezekiel 33:8 If I say to someone wicked, “Evil- doer, you are to die,” and you do not speak to warn the wicked person to renounce such ways, the wicked person will die for this guilt, but I shall hold you responsible for the death.

Ezekiel 33:9 If, however, you do warn someone wicked to renounce such ways and repent, and that person does not repent, then the culprit will die for this guilt, but you yourself will have saved your life.

Ezekiel 33:10 ‘Son of man, say to the House of Israel, “You are continually saying: Our crimes and sins weigh heavily on us; we are wasting away because of them. How are we to go on living?”

Ezekiel 33:11 Say to them, “As I live—declares the Lord Yahweh—I do not take pleasure in the death of the wicked but in the conversion of the wicked who changes his ways and saves his life. Repent, turn back from your evil ways. Why die, House of Israel?”

Ezekiel 33:12 ‘Son of man, say to the members of your nation, “The uprightness of an upright person will not save him once he takes to wrong-doing; the wickedness of a wicked person will not ruin him once he renounces his wickedness. No one upright will be able to live on the strength of uprightness, having once taken to sinning.

Ezekiel 33:13 If I say to someone upright: You are to live, and then, trusting in this uprightness, he does wrong, none of the uprightness will be remembered; because of the wrong-doing, he will die.

Ezekiel 33:14 If, however, I say to someone wicked: You are to die, and he turns back from sin and does what is lawful and upright,

Ezekiel 33:15 if he returns pledges, restores what he has stolen, keeps the laws that give life and no longer does wrong, he will live and will not die.

Ezekiel 33:16 None of his previous sins will be remembered against him; having done what is lawful and upright, he will live.

Ezekiel 33:17 “But the members of your nation say: What the Lord does is unjust. But it is what you do that is unjust.

Ezekiel 33:18 When an upright person gives up being upright and does wrong, he dies for it.

Ezekiel 33:19 And when a wicked person gives up being wicked and does what is lawful and upright, because of this he lives.

Ezekiel 33:20 But you say: What the Lord does is unjust! I shall judge each of you by what you do, House of Israel.” ‘

Ezekiel 33:21 In the twelfth year of our captivity, on the fifth day of the tenth month, a fugitive arrived from Jerusalem and said to me, ‘The city has been taken.’

Ezekiel 33:22 Now the hand of the Lord had been on me the evening before the fugitive arrived; he had opened my mouth before the fugitive came to me the next morning; my mouth had been opened and I was dumb no longer.

Ezekiel 33:23 The word of Yahweh was then addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 33:24 ‘Son of man, the people living in those ruins on the soil of Israel say this, “Abraham was alone when he was given possession of this country. But we are many; the country has been given us as our heritage.”

Ezekiel 33:25 ‘Very well, tell them, “The Lord Yahweh says this: You eat blood, you raise your eyes to your foul idols, you shed blood; are you to own the country?

Ezekiel 33:26 You rely on your swords, you engage in loathsome practices, each of you defiles his neighbour's wife; are you to own the country?"

Ezekiel 33:27 Tell them this, "The Lord Yahweh says this: As I live, I swear it, those in the ruins will fall to the sword, those in the countryside I shall give to the wild animals for them to eat, and those among the crags and in caves will die of plague.

Ezekiel 33:28 I shall make the country a desolate waste, and the pride of its strength will be at an end. The mountains of Israel will be deserted and no one will pass that way again.

Ezekiel 33:29 Then they will know that I am Yahweh, when I make the country a desolate waste because of all the filthy things they have done."

Ezekiel 33:30 'Son of man, the members of your nation are talking about you on the ramparts and in doorways. They keep saying to one another, "Come and hear the word that has come from Yahweh."

Ezekiel 33:31 They throng towards you; my people sit down in front of you and listen to your words, but they do not act on them. What they act on is the lie in their mouths, and their hearts are set on dishonest gain.

Ezekiel 33:32 As far as they are concerned, you are like a love song pleasantly sung to a good musical accompaniment. They listen to your words, but no one acts on them.

Ezekiel 33:33 When the thing takes place—and it is beginning now—they will know that there has been a prophet among them.'

Ezekiel 34:1 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 34:2 'Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel; prophesy and say to them, "Shepherds, the Lord Yahweh says this: Disaster is in store for the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves! Are not shepherds meant to feed a flock?

Ezekiel 34:3 Yet you have fed on milk, you have dressed yourselves in wool, you have sacrificed the fattest sheep, but failed to feed the flock.

Ezekiel 34:4 You have failed to make weak sheep strong, or to care for the sick ones, or bandage the injured ones. You have failed to bring back strays or look for the lost. On the contrary, you have ruled them cruelly and harshly.

Ezekiel 34:5 For lack of a shepherd they have been scattered, to become the prey of all the wild animals; they have been scattered.

Ezekiel 34:6 My flock is astray on every mountain and on every high hill; my flock has been scattered all over the world; no one bothers about them and no one looks for them.

Ezekiel 34:7 "Very well, shepherds, hear the word of Yahweh:

Ezekiel 34:8 As I live, I swear it—declares the Lord Yahweh—since my flock has been pillaged and for lack of a shepherd is now the prey of every wild animal, since my shepherds have ceased to bother about my flock, since my shepherds feed themselves rather than my flock,

Ezekiel 34:9 very well, shepherds, hear the word of Yahweh:

Ezekiel 34:10 The Lord Yahweh says this: Look, I am against the shepherds. I shall take my flock out of their charge and henceforth not allow them to feed my flock. And the shepherds will stop feeding themselves, because I shall rescue my sheep from their mouths to stop them from being food for them.

Ezekiel 34:11 "For the Lord Yahweh says this: Look, I myself shall take care of my flock and look after it.

Ezekiel 34:12 As a shepherd looks after his flock when he is with his scattered sheep, so shall I look after my sheep. I shall rescue them from wherever they have been scattered on the day of clouds and darkness.

Ezekiel 34:13 I shall bring them back from the peoples where they are; I shall gather them back from the countries and bring them back to their own land. I shall pasture them on the mountains of Israel, in the ravines and in all the inhabited parts of the country.

Ezekiel 34:14 I shall feed them in good pasturage; the highest mountains of Israel will be their grazing ground. There they will rest in good grazing grounds; they will browse in rich pastures on the mountains of Israel.

Ezekiel 34:15 I myself shall pasture my sheep, I myself shall give them rest—declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 34:16 I shall look for the lost one, bring back the stray, bandage the injured and make the sick strong. I shall watch over the fat and healthy. I shall be a true shepherd to them.

Ezekiel 34:17 "As for you, my sheep, the Lord Yahweh says this: I shall judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and he-goats.

Ezekiel 34:18 Not content to drink the clearest of the water, you foul the rest with your feet.

Ezekiel 34:19 And my sheep must graze on what your feet have trampled and drink what your feet have fouled.

Ezekiel 34:20 Very well, the Lord Yahweh says this: I myself shall judge between the fat sheep and the thin sheep.

Ezekiel 34:21 Since you have jostled with flank and shoulder and butted all the ailing sheep with your horns, until you have scattered them outside,

Ezekiel 34:22 I shall come and save my sheep and stop them from being victimised. I shall judge between sheep and sheep.

Ezekiel 34:23 "I shall raise up one shepherd, my servant David, and put him in charge of them to pasture them; he will pasture them and be their shepherd.

Ezekiel 34:24 I, Yahweh, shall be their God, and my servant David will be ruler among them. I, Yahweh, have spoken.

Ezekiel 34:25 I shall make a covenant of peace with them; I shall rid the country of wild animals. They will be able to live secure in the desert and go to sleep in the woods.

Ezekiel 34:26 I shall settle them round my hill; I shall send rain at the proper time; it will be a rain of blessings.

Ezekiel 34:27 The trees of the countryside will yield their fruit and the soil will yield its produce; they will be secure on their soil. And they will know that I am Yahweh when I break the bars of their yoke and rescue them from the clutches of their slave-masters.

Ezekiel 34:28 No more will they be a prey to the nations, no more will the wild animals of the country devour them. They will live secure, with no one to frighten them.

Ezekiel 34:29 I shall make splendid vegetation grow for them; no more will they suffer from famine in the country; no more will they have to bear the insults of other nations.

Ezekiel 34:30 So they will know that I, their God, am with them and that they, the House of Israel, are my people—declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 34:31 And you, my sheep, are the flock of my human pasture, and I am your God—declares the Lord Yahweh.” ‘

Ezekiel 35:1 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 35:2 ‘Son of man, turn towards Mount Seir and prophesy against it.

Ezekiel 35:3 Say to it, “The Lord Yahweh says this: Look, I am against you, Mount Seir; I shall stretch out my hand against you; I shall make you a desolate waste;

Ezekiel 35:4 I shall lay your towns in ruins. You will become a waste and you will know that I am Yahweh.

Ezekiel 35:5 Since, following a long-standing hatred, you betrayed the Israelites to the sword on the day of their distress, on the day when an end came for their guilt,

Ezekiel 35:6 very well, as I live—declares the Lord Yahweh—I destine you to bloodshed, and bloodshed will pursue you. I swear it; you have incurred guilt by shedding blood, and bloodshed will pursue you.

Ezekiel 35:7 I shall make Mount Seir a desolate waste and denude it of anyone travelling to and fro.

Ezekiel 35:8 I shall fill its mountains with its slaughtered; on your hills, in your valleys and in all your ravines, those slaughtered by the sword will fall.

Ezekiel 35:9 I shall make you a perpetual waste, your towns will never be inhabited again, and you will know that I am Yahweh.

Ezekiel 35:10 “Since you said: The two nations and the two countries will be mine; we are going to take possession of it, although Yahweh was there,

Ezekiel 35:11 very well, as I live—declares the Lord Yahweh—I shall act with the same anger and jealousy as you acted in your hatred for them. I shall make myself known for their sake, when I punish you,

Ezekiel 35:12 and you will know that I, Yahweh, have heard all the blasphemies which you have uttered against the mountains of Israel, such as: They have been laid waste, they have been given to us for us to devour.

Ezekiel 35:13 Great was your insolence towards me, many your speeches against me; I have heard!

Ezekiel 35:14 Lord Yahweh says this: To the joy of the whole world, I shall make you a waste.

Ezekiel 35:15 Since you rejoiced because the heritage of the House of Israel had been laid waste, I shall do the same to you, Mount Seir; and you will become a waste, and so will the whole of Edom; and they will know that I am Yahweh.’ “

Ezekiel 36:1 ‘Son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel. Say, “Mountains of Israel, hear the word of Yahweh.

Ezekiel 36:2 The Lord Yahweh says this: Since the enemy has gloated over you by saying: Aha! These eternal heights are owned by us now,

Ezekiel 36:3 very well, prophesy! Say: The Lord Yahweh says this: Since you have been ravaged and seized on from all sides, and have become the property of the rest of the nations, and become the subject of people’s talk and gossip,

Ezekiel 36:4 very well, mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord Yahweh! The Lord Yahweh says this to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys, to the devastated ruins and abandoned cities which have been put to the sack and have become a laughing-stock to the rest of the nations all round;

Ezekiel 36:5 very well, the Lord Yahweh says this: I swear it in the heat of my jealousy; I am speaking to the rest of the nations and to the whole of Edom who so exultantly and contemptuously took possession of my country to despoil its pastureland.”

Ezekiel 36:6 ‘Because of this, prophesy about the land of Israel. Say to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys, “The Lord Yahweh says this: I am speaking in my jealousy and rage; because you are enduring the insults of the nations,

Ezekiel 36:7 very well, the Lord Yahweh says this: I raise my hand and I swear that the nations all around you shall have their own insults to bear.

Ezekiel 36:8 “Mountains of Israel, you will grow branches and bear fruit for my people Israel, who will soon return.

Ezekiel 36:9 Yes, I am coming to you, I shall turn to you; you will be tilled and sown.

Ezekiel 36:10 I shall increase your population, the whole House of Israel, yes, all. The cities will be inhabited and the ruins rebuilt.

Ezekiel 36:11 I shall increase your population, both human and animal; they will be fertile and reproduce. I shall repopulate you as you were before; I shall make you more prosperous than you were before, and you will know that I am Yahweh.

Ezekiel 36:12 Thanks to me, men will tread your soil again, my people Israel; they will own you and you will be their heritage, and never again will you rob them of their children.

Ezekiel 36:13 “The Lord Yahweh says this: Since people have said of you: You are a man-eater, you have robbed your nation of its children,

Ezekiel 36:14 very well, you will eat no more men, never rob your nation of its children again—declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 36:15 I shall never again let you hear the insults of the nations, you will never again have to bear the taunts of the peoples, you will never again rob the nation of its children—declares the Lord Yahweh.” ‘

Ezekiel 36:16 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 36:17 ‘Son of man, the members of the House of Israel used to live in their own territory, but they defiled it by their conduct and actions; to me their conduct was as unclean as a woman’s menstruation.

Ezekiel 36:18 I then vented my fury on them because of the blood they shed in the country and the foul idols with which they defiled it.

Ezekiel 36:19 I scattered them among the nations and they were dispersed throughout the countries. I sentenced them as their conduct and actions deserved.

Ezekiel 36:20 They have profaned my holy name among the nations where they have gone, so that people say of them, “These are the people of Yahweh; they have been exiled from his land.”

Ezekiel 36:21 But I have been concerned about my holy name, which the House of Israel has profaned among the nations where they have gone.

Ezekiel 36:22 And so, say to the House of Israel, “The Lord Yahweh says this: I am acting not for your sake, House of Israel, but for the sake of my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations where you have gone.

Ezekiel 36:23 I am going to display the holiness of my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, which you have profaned among them. And the nations will know that I am Yahweh—declares the Lord Yahweh—when in you I display my holiness before their eyes.

Ezekiel 36:24 For I shall take you from among the nations and gather you back from all the countries, and bring you home to your own country.

Ezekiel 36:25 I shall pour clean water over you and you will be cleansed; I shall cleanse you of all your filth and of all your foul idols.

Ezekiel 36:26 I shall give you a new heart, and put a new spirit in you; I shall remove the heart of stone from your bodies and give you a heart of flesh instead.

Ezekiel 36:27 I shall put my spirit in you, and make you keep my laws, and respect and practise my judgements.

Ezekiel 36:28 You will live in the country which I gave your ancestors. You will be my people and I shall be your God.

Ezekiel 36:29 I shall save you from everything that defiles you, I shall summon the wheat and make it plentiful and impose no more famines on you.

Ezekiel 36:30 I shall increase the yield of tree and field, so that you will never again bear the ignominy of famine among the nations.

Ezekiel 36:31 Then you will remember your evil conduct and actions. You will loathe yourselves for your guilt and your loathsome practices.

Ezekiel 36:32 I assure you that I am not doing this for your sake—declares the Lord Yahweh. Be ashamed and blush for your conduct, House of Israel.

Ezekiel 36:33 “The Lord Yahweh says this: On the day I cleanse you from all your guilt, I shall repopulate the cities and cause the ruins to be rebuilt.

Ezekiel 36:34 Waste land, once desolate for every passer-by to see, will now be farmed again.

Ezekiel 36:35 And people will say: This land, so recently a waste, is now like a garden of Eden, and the ruined cities once abandoned and levelled to the ground are now strongholds with people living in them.

Ezekiel 36:36 And the nations left round you will know that I, Yahweh, have rebuilt what was levelled and replanted what was ruined. I, Yahweh, have spoken and shall do it.

Ezekiel 36:37 “The Lord Yahweh says this: As a further mark of favour, I shall let myself be consulted by the House of Israel; I shall increase their numbers like a human flock, Ezekiel 36:38 like a flock of sacrificial animals, like the flock in Jerusalem on her solemn feasts. So your ruined cities will be filled with human flocks, and they will know that I am Yahweh." '

Ezekiel 37:1 The hand of Yahweh was on me; he carried me away by the spirit of Yahweh and set me down in the middle of the valley, a valley full of bones.

Ezekiel 37:2 He made me walk up and down and all around among them. There were vast quantities of these bones on the floor of the valley; and they were completely dry.

Ezekiel 37:3 He said to me, 'Son of man, can these bones live?' I said, 'You know, Lord Yahweh.'

Ezekiel 37:4 He said, 'Prophesy over these bones. Say, "Dry bones, hear the word of Yahweh.

Ezekiel 37:5 The Lord Yahweh says this to these bones: I am now going to make breath enter you, and you will live.

Ezekiel 37:6 I shall put sinews on you, I shall make flesh grow on you, I shall cover you with skin and give you breath, and you will live; and you will know that I am Yahweh." '

Ezekiel 37:7 I prophesied as I had been ordered. While I was prophesying, there was a noise, a clattering sound; it was the bones coming together.

Ezekiel 37:8 And as I looked, they were covered with sinews; flesh was growing on them and skin was covering them, yet there was no breath in them.

Ezekiel 37:9 He said to me, 'Prophesy to the breath; prophesy, son of man. Say to the breath, "The Lord Yahweh says this: Come from the four winds, breath; breathe on these dead, so that they come to life!" '

Ezekiel 37:10 I prophesied as he had ordered me, and the breath entered them; they came to life and stood up on their feet, a great, an immense army.

Ezekiel 37:11 Then he said, 'Son of man, these bones are the whole House of Israel. They keep saying, "Our bones are dry, our hope has gone; we are done for."

Ezekiel 37:12 So, prophesy. Say to them, "The Lord Yahweh says this: I am now going to open your graves; I shall raise you from your graves, my people, and lead you back to the soil of Israel.

Ezekiel 37:13 And you will know that I am Yahweh, when I open your graves and raise you from your graves, my people,

Ezekiel 37:14 and put my spirit in you, and you revive, and I resettle you on your own soil. Then you will know that I, Yahweh, have spoken and done this—declares the Lord Yahweh." '

Ezekiel 37:15 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 37:16 'Son of man, take a stick and write on it, "Judah and those Israelites loyal to him." Take another stick and write on it, "Joseph (Ephraim’s wood) and all the House of Israel loyal to him.”

Ezekiel 37:17 ‘Join one to the other to make a single piece of wood, a single stick in your hand.

Ezekiel 37:18 And when the members of your nation say, “Will you not tell us what you mean?”

Ezekiel 37:19 say, “The Lord Yahweh says this: I am taking the stick of Joseph (now in Ephraim’s hand) and those tribes of Israel loyal to him and shall join them to the stick of Judah. I shall make one stick out of the two, a single stick in my hand.”

Ezekiel 37:20 ‘When the pieces of wood you have written on are in your hand in full sight of them,

Ezekiel 37:21 say, “The Lord Yahweh says this: I shall take the Israelites from the nations where they have gone. I shall gather them together from everywhere and bring them home to their own soil.

Ezekiel 37:22 I shall make them into one nation in the country, on the mountains of Israel, and one king is to be king of them all; they will no longer form two nations, nor be two separate kingdoms.

Ezekiel 37:23 They will no longer defile themselves with their foul idols, their horrors and any of their crimes. I shall save them from the acts of infidelity which they have committed and shall cleanse them; they will be my people and I shall be their God.

Ezekiel 37:24 My servant David will reign over them, one shepherd for all; they will follow my judgements, respect my laws and practise them.

Ezekiel 37:25 They will live in the country which I gave to my servant Jacob, the country in which your ancestors lived. They will live in it, they, their children, their children’s children, for ever. David my servant is to be their prince for ever.

Ezekiel 37:26 I shall make a covenant of peace with them, an eternal covenant with them. I shall resettle them and make them grow; I shall set my sanctuary among them for ever.

Ezekiel 37:27 I shall make my home above them; I shall be their God, and they will be my people.

Ezekiel 37:28 And the nations will know that I am Yahweh the sanctifier of Israel, when my sanctuary is with them for ever.” ‘

Ezekiel 38:1 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Ezekiel 38:2 ‘Son of man, turn towards Gog, to the country of Magog, towards the paramount prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him.

Ezekiel 38:3 Say, “The Lord Yahweh says this: I am against you, Gog, paramount prince of Meshech and Tubal.

Ezekiel 38:4 I shall turn you about, I shall fix hooks in your jaws and bring you out with your entire army, horses and horsemen, all perfectly equipped, a huge array armed with shields and bucklers, and all wielding swords.

Ezekiel 38:5 Persia and Cush and Put are with them, all with buckler and helmet;

Ezekiel 38:6 Gomer and all its troops, Beth-Togarmah in the far north and all its troops, and many nations with you.

Ezekiel 38:7 Be ready, be well prepared, you and all your troops and the others rallying to you, and hold yourself at my service.

Ezekiel 38:8 “Many days will pass before you are given orders; in the final years you will march on this country, whose inhabitants will have been living in confidence, remote from other peoples, since they escaped the sword and were gathered in from various nations, here in the long-deserted mountains of Israel.

Ezekiel 38:9 Like a storm you will approach, you will advance and cover the country like a cloud, you, all your troops and many nations with you.

Ezekiel 38:10 “The Lord Yahweh says this: That day, a thought will enter your mind and you will form a sinister plan.

Ezekiel 38:11 You will think: I shall attack this undefended country and march on this peaceful nation living secure, all living in towns without walls or bars or gates.

Ezekiel 38:12 You will come to plunder and loot and turn your might against the ruins they live in, against this people gathered back from the nations, these stock-breeders and traders who live at the Navel of the World.

Ezekiel 38:13 Sheba and Dedan, the merchants and all the magnates of Tarshish will ask you: Have you come for plunder? Are you massing your troops with a view to looting? To make off with gold and silver, seize cattle and goods, and come away with unlimited spoil?”

Ezekiel 38:14 ‘So, son of man, prophesy. Say to Gog, “The Lord Yahweh says this: Is it not true that you will set out at a time when my people Israel is living secure?

Ezekiel 38:15 You will leave your home in the far north, you and many nations with you, a great army of countless troops all mounted.

Ezekiel 38:16 You will invade Israel, my people. You will be like a cloud covering the country. In the final days, I myself shall bring you to attack my country, so that the nations will know who I am, when I display my holiness to them, by means of you, Gog.

Ezekiel 38:17 “The Lord Yahweh says this: It was of you that I spoke in the past through my servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days, foretelling your invasion.

Ezekiel 38:18 The day Gog attacks the land of Israel—declares the Lord Yahweh—my furious wrath will boil up. In my anger,

Ezekiel 38:19 in my jealousy, in the heat of my fury I say it: That day, I swear, there will be such a huge earthquake in the land of Israel,

Ezekiel 38:20 that the fish in the sea and the birds of heaven, the wild beasts, all the reptiles creeping along the ground, and all people on the surface of the earth will quake before me. Mountains will fall, cliffs crumble, all walls collapse, and Ezekiel 38:21 I shall summon every kind of sword against him—declares the Lord Yahweh—and each will turn his sword against his comrade.

Ezekiel 38:22 I shall punish him with plague and bloodshed, and rain down torrential rain, hailstones, fire and brimstone on him, on his troops and on the many nations with him.

Ezekiel 38:23 I shall display my greatness and holiness and bring the many nations to acknowledge me; and they will know that I am Yahweh.” ‘

Ezekiel 39:1 ‘So, son of man, prophesy against Gog. Say, “The Lord Yahweh says this: Look, I am against you, Gog, paramount prince of Meshech and Tubal.

Ezekiel 39:2 I shall turn you about, lead you on, and bring you from the farthest north against the mountains of Israel.

Ezekiel 39:3 I shall break the bow in your left hand and dash the arrows out of your right.

Ezekiel 39:4 You will fall on the mountains of Israel, you, all your troops and the nations with you. I shall make you food for every kind of bird of prey and wild animals.

Ezekiel 39:5 You will fall in the wilds, for I have spoken—declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 39:6 I shall send down fire on Magog and on those living undisturbed in the islands, and they will know that I am Yahweh.

Ezekiel 39:7 I shall see that my holy name is acknowledged by my people Israel, and no longer allow my holy name to be profaned; and the nations will know that I am Yahweh, holy in Israel.

Ezekiel 39:8 “All this is to happen, all this is to take place—declares the Lord Yahweh. This is the day I predicted.

Ezekiel 39:9 “The inhabitants of the towns of Israel will go out and set fire to and burn the weapons, the shields and bucklers, bows and arrows, javelins and spears. They will burn these for seven years

Ezekiel 39:10 and not fetch wood from the countryside or cut it in the forests, since they will be burning the weapons. They will plunder those who plundered them, and despoil those who despoiled them—declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 39:11 “That day, I shall give Gog a famous spot in Israel for his grave, the valley of the Obarim, east of the Sea—the valley that halts the traveller—and there Gog and his whole throng will be buried, and it will be called the Valley of Hamon-Gog.

Ezekiel 39:12 The House of Israel will take seven months to bury them and cleanse the country.

Ezekiel 39:13 All the people of the country will dig their graves, thus winning themselves renown, the day when I display my glory—declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 39:14 And men will be detailed to the permanent duty of going through the country and burying those left above ground and cleansing it. They will begin their search once the seven months are over,

Ezekiel 39:15 and as they go through the country, if one of them sees any human bones, he will set up a marker beside them until the gravediggers have buried them in the valley of Hamon-Gog

Ezekiel 39:16 (and Hamonah is also the name of a town) and have cleansed the country.”

Ezekiel 39:17 ‘Son of man, the Lord Yahweh says this, “Say to the birds of every kind and to all the wild animals: Muster, come, gather from everywhere around for the sacrifice I am making for you, a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, so that you can eat flesh and drink blood.

Ezekiel 39:18 You will eat the flesh of heroes, you will drink the blood of the princes of the world. They are all rams and lambs, goats and fat bulls of Bashan.

Ezekiel 39:19 You will glut yourselves on fat and drink yourselves drunk on blood at this sacrifice I am making for you.

Ezekiel 39:20 You will glut yourselves at my table on horses and chargers, on heroes and every kind of warrior—declares the Lord Yahweh.”

Ezekiel 39:21 ‘I shall display my glory to the nations, and all nations will see my sentence when I inflict it and my hand when I strike them.

Ezekiel 39:22 The House of Israel will know that I am Yahweh their God, from that day forward for ever.

Ezekiel 39:23 The nations too will know that the House of Israel were exiled for their guilt; because they were unfaithful to me, I hid my face from them and put them into the clutches of their enemies, so that they all fell by the sword.

Ezekiel 39:24 I treated them as their loathsome acts of infidelity deserved and hid my face from them.

Ezekiel 39:25 ‘So, the Lord Yahweh says this, “Now I shall bring Jacob’s captives back and take pity on the whole House of Israel and show myself jealous for my holy name.

Ezekiel 39:26 They will forget their disgrace and all the acts of infidelity which they committed against me when they were living safely in their own country, with no one to disturb them.

Ezekiel 39:27 When I bring them home from the peoples, when I gather them back from the countries of their enemies, when I display my holiness in them for many nations to see,

Ezekiel 39:28 they will know that I am Yahweh their God who, having sent them into exile among the nations, have reunited them in their own country, not leaving a single one behind.

Ezekiel 39:29 I shall never hide my face from them again, since I shall pour out my spirit on the House of Israel—declares the Lord Yahweh." '

Ezekiel 40:1 In the twenty-fifth year of our captivity, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month, fourteen years to the day from the capture of the city, the hand of Yahweh was on me. He carried me away:

Ezekiel 40:2 in divine visions, he carried me away to the land of Israel and put me down on a very high mountain, on the south of which there seemed to be built a city.

Ezekiel 40:3 He took me to it, and there I saw a man, whose appearance was like brass. He had a flax cord and a measuring rod in his hand and was standing in the gateway.

Ezekiel 40:4 The man said to me, 'Son of man, look carefully, listen closely and pay attention to everything I show you, since you have been brought here only for me to show it to you. Tell the House of Israel everything that you see.'

Ezekiel 40:5 Now, the Temple was surrounded on all sides by an outer wall. The man was holding a measuring rod six cubits long, each cubit a forearm and a handsbreadth. He measured the thickness of this construction—one rod; and its height—one rod.

Ezekiel 40:6 He went to the east gate, climbed the steps and measured its threshold: one rod deep.

Ezekiel 40:7 Each guardroom one rod by one rod; and the piers between the guardrooms five cubits thick, and the threshold of the gate inwards from the porch of the gate: one rod.

Ezekiel 40:8

Ezekiel 40:9 He measured the porch of the gate: eight cubits; its piers: two cubits; the porch of the gate was at the inner end.

Ezekiel 40:10 There were three guardrooms on each side of the east gate, all three of the same size; the piers between them all of the same thickness each side.

Ezekiel 40:11 He measured the width of the entrance: ten cubits; and the width all down the gateway: thirteen cubits.

Ezekiel 40:12 There was a rail in front of the guardrooms; each rail on either side was one cubit. And the guardrooms on either side were six cubits square.

Ezekiel 40:13 He measured the width of the gate from the back wall of one guardroom to the back wall of the other; it was twenty-five cubits across, the openings being opposite each other.

Ezekiel 40:14 He measured the porch: twenty cubits; the court surrounded the gate on all sides.

Ezekiel 40:15 From the front of the entrance gate, to the far end of the porch of the inner gate: fifty cubits.

Ezekiel 40:16 All round inside the gate there were trellised windows in the guardrooms and in their piers; similarly, in the porch there were windows all round and palm trees on the piers.

Ezekiel 40:17 He then took me to the outer court, which had rooms and a paved terrace going all the way round; there were thirty rooms on this terrace.

Ezekiel 40:18 This terrace, which came up to the sides of the gates and matched their depth, was the Lower Terrace. He measured the width of the court,

Ezekiel 40:19 from the front of the lower gate to the façade of the inner court, outside: a hundred cubits (on the east and on the north).

Ezekiel 40:20 He measured the length and breadth of the north gate of the outer court.

Ezekiel 40:21 It had three guardrooms on each side; its piers and porch were of the same size as those of the first gate: fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

Ezekiel 40:22 Its windows, its porch and its palm trees were of the same size as those of the east gate. There were seven steps up to it, and its porch was at the inner end.

Ezekiel 40:23 In the inner court there was, opposite the north gate, a gate like the one opposite the east gate. He measured the distance from one gate to the other: a hundred cubits.

Ezekiel 40:24 He took me to the south side where there was a south gate; he measured its guardrooms, piers and porch; they were of the same size as the others.

Ezekiel 40:25 The gateway, as well as its porch, had windows all round, like the windows of the others; it was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide,

Ezekiel 40:26 and it had seven steps up to it; its porch was at the inner end and had palm trees on its piers, one on either side.

Ezekiel 40:27 The inner court had a south gate; he measured the distance southwards from one gate to the other: a hundred cubits.

Ezekiel 40:28 He then took me into the inner court by the south gate; he measured the south gate which was of the same size as the others.

Ezekiel 40:29 Its guardrooms, piers and porch were of the same size as the others.

Ezekiel 40:30 The gateway, as well as its porch, had windows all round; it was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

Ezekiel 40:31 The porch gave on to the outer court. It had palm trees on its piers and eight steps leading up to it.

Ezekiel 40:32 He took me to the eastern part of the inner court and measured the gate. It was of the same size as the others.

Ezekiel 40:33 Its guardrooms, piers and porch were of the same size as the others. The gateway, as well as its porch, had windows all round; it was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

Ezekiel 40:34 Its porch gave on to the outer court. There were palm trees on its piers on either side and eight steps leading up to it.

Ezekiel 40:35 He then took me to the north gate and measured it.

Ezekiel 40:36 Its guardrooms, piers and porch were of the same size as the others. The gateway had windows all round; it was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

Ezekiel 40:37 Its porch gave on to the outer court. There were palm trees on its piers on either side and eight steps leading up to it.

Ezekiel 40:38 There was a room, the entrance to which was in the porch of the gateway, where they washed the burnt offerings.

Ezekiel 40:39 And inside the porch of the gateway were slabs, two on either side, for slaughtering the burnt offerings, the sacrifice for sin and the sacrifice of reparation.

Ezekiel 40:40 Outside, at the approach to the entrance of the north gate, were two slabs, and on the other side, at the porch end of the gate were two slabs.

Ezekiel 40:41 There were four slabs on one side and four slabs on the other side of the gateway, eight slabs in all, on which the slaughtering was done.

Ezekiel 40:42 There were also four slabs of dressed stone for the burnt offerings, a cubit and a half long, a cubit and a half wide and a cubit high, on which the instruments for slaughtering the burnt offerings and sacrifice were placed;

Ezekiel 40:43 runnels a handsbreadth wide went all round the top, and on these slabs was put the sacrificial flesh.

Ezekiel 40:44 Then he took me into the inner court; there were two rooms in the inner court, one on the side of the north gate, facing south, the other on the side of the south gate, facing north.

Ezekiel 40:45 He told me, 'The room looking south is for the priests responsible for the service of the Temple,

Ezekiel 40:46 and the room looking north is for the priests responsible for the service of the altar. These are the sons of Zadok, those of the sons of Levi who approach Yahweh to serve him.'

Ezekiel 40:47 He measured the court; it was a hundred cubits long and a hundred cubits wide, a square with the altar standing in front of the Temple.

Ezekiel 40:48 He took me to the Ulam of the Temple and measured the piers of the Ulam: five cubits either side; and the width of the entrance was three cubits either side.

Ezekiel 40:49 The length of the Ulam was twenty cubits and its width twelve cubits. There were ten steps leading up to it, and there were columns by the piers, one on either side.

Ezekiel 41:1 He took me to the Hekal and measured its piers: six cubits wide on the one side, six cubits wide on the other.

Ezekiel 41:2 The width of the entrance was ten cubits, and the returns of the entrance were five cubits on the one side and five cubits on the other. He measured its length: forty cubits; and its width: twenty cubits.

Ezekiel 41:3 He then went inside and measured the pier at the entrance: two cubits; then the entrance; six cubits; and the returns of the entrance: seven cubits.

Ezekiel 41:4 He measured its length; twenty cubits; and its width against the Hekal: twenty cubits. He then said to me, 'This is the Holy of Holies.'

Ezekiel 41:5 He then measured the wall of the Temple: six cubits. The width of the lateral structure was four cubits, all round the Temple.

Ezekiel 41:6 The cells were one above the other in three tiers of thirty cells each. The cells were recessed into the wall, the wall of the structure comprising the cells, all round, forming offsets; but there were no offsets in the wall of the Temple itself.

Ezekiel 41:7 The width of the cells increased, storey by storey, corresponding to the amount taken in from the wall from one storey to the next, all round the Temple.

Ezekiel 41:8 Then I saw that there was a paved terrace all round the Temple. The height of this, which formed the base of the side cells, was one complete rod of six cubits.

Ezekiel 41:9 The outer wall of the side cells was five cubits thick. There was a passage between the cells of the Temple

Ezekiel 41:10 and the rooms, twenty cubits wide, all round the Temple.

Ezekiel 41:11 As a way in to the lateral cells on the passage there was one entrance on the north side and one entrance on the south side. The width of the passage was five cubits right round.

Ezekiel 41:12 The building on the west side of the court was seventy cubits wide, the wall of the building was five cubits thick all round and its length was ninety cubits.

Ezekiel 41:13 He measured the length of the Temple: a hundred cubits.

Ezekiel 41:14 The length of the court plus the building and its walls: a hundred cubits.

Ezekiel 41:15 He measured the length of the building, along the court, at the back, and its galleries on either side: a hundred cubits. The inside of the Hekal and the porches of the court,

Ezekiel 41:16 the thresholds, the windows, the galleries on three sides, facing the threshold, were panelled with wood all round from floor to windows, and the windows were screened with latticework.

Ezekiel 41:17 From the door to the inner part of the Temple, as well as outside, and on the wall all round, both inside and out,

Ezekiel 41:18 were carved great winged creatures and palm trees, one palm tree between two winged creatures; each winged creature had two faces:

Ezekiel 41:19 a human face turned towards the palm tree on one side and the face of a lion towards the palm tree on the other side, throughout the Temple, all round.

Ezekiel 41:20 Winged creatures and palm trees were carved on the wall from the floor to above the entrance.

Ezekiel 41:21 The doorposts of the Temple were square. In front of the sanctuary there was something like

Ezekiel 41:22 a wooden altar, three cubits high and two cubits square. Its corners, base and sides were of wood. He said to me, 'This is the table in the presence of Yahweh.'

Ezekiel 41:23 The Hekal had double doors and the sanctuary

Ezekiel 41:24 double doors. These doors had two hinged leaves, two leaves for the one door, two leaves for the other.

Ezekiel 41:25 On them (on the doors of the Hekal), were carved great winged creatures and palm trees like those carved on the walls. There was a wooden porch roof on the front of the Ulam on the outside,

Ezekiel 41:26 and windows with flanking palm trees on the sides of the Ulam, the cells to the side of the Temple and the porch-roofs.

Ezekiel 42:1 He then took me out into the outer court on the north side and led me to the room facing the court, that is to say, to the front of the building on the north side.

Ezekiel 42:2 Along the front, it was a hundred cubits long on the north side and fifty cubits wide.

Ezekiel 42:3 Facing the gateways of the inner court and facing the paving of the outer court was a gallery in front of the triple gallery,

Ezekiel 42:4 and in front of the rooms was a walk, ten cubits measured inwards and a hundred cubits long; their doors looked north.

Ezekiel 42:5 The top-floor rooms were narrow because the galleries took up part of the width, being narrower than those on the ground floor or those on the middle floor of the building;

Ezekiel 42:6 these were divided into three storeys and had no columns such as the court had. Hence they were narrower than the ground floor ones or the middle-floor ones (below them).

Ezekiel 42:7 The outer wall parallel to the rooms, facing them and giving onto the outer court, was fifty cubits long,

Ezekiel 42:8 the length of the rooms facing the outer court being fifty cubits, while for those facing the hall of the Temple it was a hundred cubits.

Ezekiel 42:9 Beneath the rooms there was an entrance from the east, leading in from the outer court.

Ezekiel 42:10 In the thickness of the wall of the court, on the south side fronting the court and the building, were rooms.

Ezekiel 42:11 A walk ran in front of them, as with the rooms built on the north side; they were of the same length and breadth, and were of similar design with similar doors in and out.

Ezekiel 42:12 Before the rooms on the south side there was an entrance at the end of each walk, opposite the corresponding wall on the east side, at their entries.

Ezekiel 42:13 He said to me, 'The northern and southern rooms giving onto the court are the rooms of the sanctuary, in which the priests who approach Yahweh will eat the most holy things. In them will be placed the most holy things: the oblation, the sacrifice for sin and the sacrifice of reparation, since this is a holy place.

Ezekiel 42:14 Once the priests have entered, they will not go out of the holy place into the outer court without leaving their liturgical vestments there, since these vestments are holy; they will put on other clothes before going near places assigned to the people.'

Ezekiel 42:15 When he had finished measuring the inside of the Temple, he took me out to the east gate and measured it right round the sides.

Ezekiel 42:16 He measured the east side with his measuring rod: a total of five hundred cubits by the measuring rod.

Ezekiel 42:17 He then measured the north side: a total of five hundred cubits by the measuring rod.

Ezekiel 42:18 He then measured the south side: five hundred cubits by the measuring rod

Ezekiel 42:19 was the total. On the west side he measured five hundred cubits by the measuring rod.

Ezekiel 42:20 He measured the entire enclosing wall on all four sides: length five hundred, breadth five hundred, separating the sacred from the profane.

Ezekiel 43:1 He took me to the gate, the one facing east.

Ezekiel 43:2 I saw the glory of the God of Israel approaching from the east. A sound came with him like the sound of the ocean, and the earth shone with his glory.

Ezekiel 43:3 This vision was like the one I had seen when I had come for the destruction of the city, and like the one I had seen by the River Chebar. Then I fell to the ground.

Ezekiel 43:4 The glory of Yahweh arrived at the Temple by the east gate.

Ezekiel 43:5 The Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner court; I saw the glory of Yahweh fill the Temple.

Ezekiel 43:6 And I heard someone speaking to me from the Temple while the man stood beside me.

Ezekiel 43:7 He said, 'Son of man, this is the dais of my throne, the step on which I rest my feet. I shall live here among the Israelites for ever; and the House of Israel, they and their kings, will never again defile my holy name with their whorings and the corpses of their kings,

Ezekiel 43:8 by putting their threshold beside my threshold and their doorposts beside my door-posts, with a party wall shared by them and me. They used to defile my holy name by their loathsome practices, and this is why I put an end to them in my anger.

Ezekiel 43:9 From now on they will banish their whorings and the corpses of their kings from my presence and I shall live among them for ever.

Ezekiel 43:10 'Son of man, describe this Temple to the House of Israel, to shame them out of their loathsome practices. (Let them draw up the plan of it.)

Ezekiel 43:11 And, if they are ashamed of their behaviour, show them the design and plan of the Temple, its exits and entrances, its shape, how all of it is arranged, the entire design and all its principles. Give them all this in writing so that they can see and take note of its design and the way it is all arranged and carry it out.

Ezekiel 43:12 This is the charter of the Temple: all the surrounding space on the mountain top is an especially holy area. (Such is the charter of the Temple.)’

Ezekiel 43:13 These were the dimensions of the altar, in cubits each of a cubit plus a handsbreadth. The base: one cubit high and one cubit wide; the space by the runnel, all round the edge of the altar, one handsbreadth.

Ezekiel 43:14 From the ground level of the base up to the lower plinth, two cubits high and one cubit wide; from the lesser plinth to the greater plinth, four cubits high and one cubit wide.

Ezekiel 43:15 The altar hearth: four cubits high, with four horns projecting from the hearth,

Ezekiel 43:16 the hearth was four-square: twelve cubits by twelve cubits;

Ezekiel 43:17 and the square plinth: fourteen cubits by fourteen cubits; and the ledge all round: half a cubit; and the base: one cubit all round. The steps were on the east side.

Ezekiel 43:18 He said to me, ‘Son of man, the Lord Yahweh says this, “As regards the altar, this is how things must be done when it has been built for the sacrifice of the burnt offering and for the pouring of blood.

Ezekiel 43:19 To the levitical priests—those of the race of Zadok—who approach me to serve me—declares the Lord Yahweh—you must give a young bull as a sacrifice for sin.

Ezekiel 43:20 You must take some of its blood and put it on the four horns, on the four corners of the plinth and on the surrounding ledge. In this way you will purify it and make expiation on it.

Ezekiel 43:21 Then take the bull of the sacrifice for sin and burn it in that part of the Temple which is cut off from the sanctuary.

Ezekiel 43:22 On the second day, you must offer an unblemished he-goat as the sacrifice for sin, and the altar must be purified again as was done with the bull.

Ezekiel 43:23 When you have finished the purification, you must offer a young, unblemished bull and an unblemished ram from the flock.

Ezekiel 43:24 You must present them before Yahweh, and the priests will sprinkle salt on them and offer them as burnt offerings to Yahweh.

Ezekiel 43:25 As a sacrifice for sin, every day for seven days you must offer a he-goat, a bull and an unblemished ram from the flock.

Ezekiel 43:26 In this way the altar will be expiated and will be purified and inaugurated.

Ezekiel 43:27 At the end of that time, on the eighth day and afterwards, the priest will offer your burnt offerings and your communion sacrifices on the altar, and I shall look favourably on you—declares the Lord Yahweh.” ‘

Ezekiel 44:1 He brought me back to the outer east gate of the sanctuary. It was shut.

Ezekiel 44:2 Yahweh said to me, ‘This gate will be kept shut. No one may open it or go through it, since Yahweh, God of Israel, has been through it. And so it must be kept shut.

Ezekiel 44:3 The prince himself, however, may sit there to take his meal in the presence of Yahweh. He must enter and leave through the porch of the gate.’

Ezekiel 44:4 He led me through the north gate to the front of the Temple. And then I looked; I saw the glory of Yahweh filling the Temple of Yahweh; and I fell to the ground.

Ezekiel 44:5 Yahweh said to me, ‘Son of man, pay attention, look carefully and listen closely to everything I explain; these are all the arrangements of the Temple of Yahweh and all its laws. Be careful about who is admitted to the Temple and who is excluded from the sanctuary.

Ezekiel 44:6 And say to the rebels of the House of Israel, “The Lord Yahweh says this: You have gone beyond all bounds with all your loathsome practices, House of Israel,

Ezekiel 44:7 by admitting aliens, uncircumcised in heart and body, to frequent my sanctuary and profane my Temple, while offering my food, the fat and the blood, and breaking my covenant with all your loathsome practices.

Ezekiel 44:8 Instead of maintaining the service of my holy things, you have deputed someone else to maintain my service in my sanctuary.

Ezekiel 44:9 The Lord Yahweh says this: No alien, uncircumcised in heart and body, may enter my sanctuary, none of the aliens living among the Israelites.

Ezekiel 44:10 “As regards the Levites who abandoned me when Israel strayed far from me by following its idols, they must bear the weight of their own sin.

Ezekiel 44:11 They must be servants in my sanctuary, responsible for guarding the Temple gates and serving the Temple. They will kill the burnt offerings and the sacrifice for the people, and hold themselves at the service of the people.

Ezekiel 44:12 Since they used to be at their service in front of their idols and were an occasion of guilt for the House of Israel, very well, I stretch out my hand against them—declares the Lord Yahweh—they will bear the weight of their guilt.

Ezekiel 44:13 They may never approach me again to perform the priestly office in my presence, nor touch my holy things and my most holy things; they must bear the disgrace of their loathsome practices.

Ezekiel 44:14 I shall give them the responsibility of serving the Temple; I shall make them responsible for serving it and for everything to be done in it.

Ezekiel 44:15 “As regards the levitical priests, the sons of Zadok, who maintained the service of my sanctuary when the Israelites strayed far from me, they will approach me to serve me; they will stand in my presence to offer me the fat and blood—declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 44:16 They will enter my sanctuary and approach my table to serve me; they will maintain my service.

Ezekiel 44:17 Once they enter the gates of the inner court, they must wear linen vestments; they must wear no wool when they serve inside the gates of the inner court and in the Temple.

Ezekiel 44:18 They must wear linen caps on their heads and linen breeches on their loins; they may not wear anything round their waists that makes them sweat.

Ezekiel 44:19 When they go out to the people in the outer court, they must remove the vestments in which they have performed the liturgy and leave them in the rooms of the Holy Place, and put on other clothes, so as not to hallow the people with their vestments.

Ezekiel 44:20 They may neither shave their heads nor let their hair grow long, but must cut their hair carefully.

Ezekiel 44:21 No priest may drink wine on the day he enters the inner court.

Ezekiel 44:22 They may not marry widows or divorced women, but only virgins of the race of Israel; they may, however, marry a widow, if she is the widow of a priest.

Ezekiel 44:23 They must teach my people the difference between what is sacred and what is profane and make them understand the difference between what is clean and what is unclean.

Ezekiel 44:24 They must be judges in law-suits; they must judge in the spirit of my judgements; they must follow my laws and ordinances at all my feasts and keep my Sabbaths holy.

Ezekiel 44:25 They may not go near a dead person, in case they become unclean, except in these permissible cases, that is, for father, mother, daughter, son, brother or unmarried sister.

Ezekiel 44:26 After one of them has been purified, seven days must elapse;

Ezekiel 44:27 then, the day he enters the Holy Place in the inner court to minister in the Holy Place, he must offer his sacrifice for sin—declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 44:28 They may have no heritage; I myself shall be their heritage. You may give them no patrimony in Israel; I myself shall be their patrimony.

Ezekiel 44:29 Their food must be the oblation, the sacrifice for sin and the sacrifice of reparation. Everything dedicated by vow in Israel shall be for them.

Ezekiel 44:30 The best of all your first-fruits and of all the dues and of everything you offer, must go to the priests; and the best of your dough you must also give to the priests, so that a blessing may rest on your house.

Ezekiel 44:31 Priests must not eat the flesh of anything that has died a natural death or been savaged, be it bird or animal.” ‘

Ezekiel 45:1 ‘ “When you draw lots to divide the country by heritage, you must set a sacred portion of the country aside for Yahweh: twenty-five thousand cubits long and twenty thousand wide. The whole of this land must be sacred,

Ezekiel 45:2 and of this an area five hundred by five hundred cubits must be for the sanctuary, with a boundary fifty cubits wide right round.

Ezekiel 45:3 Out of this area you must also measure a section twenty-five thousand by ten thousand cubits, in which will be the sanctuary, the Holy of Holies.

Ezekiel 45:4 This will be the sacred portion of the country, belonging to the priests who officiate in the sanctuary and approach Yahweh to serve him. It will contain room for their houses and room for the sanctuary.

Ezekiel 45:5 A portion twenty-five thousand by ten thousand cubits will be owned by the Levites serving the Temple, with towns for them to live in.

Ezekiel 45:6 You must give the city possession of an area five thousand by twenty-five thousand cubits, near the land belonging to the sanctuary; this must be for the whole House of Israel.

Ezekiel 45:7 “The prince must have a territory either side of the sacred portion and of the property of the city, adjacent to the sacred portion and the property of the city, stretching westwards from the west and eastwards from the east, its size equal to one of the portions between the west and the east frontiers

Ezekiel 45:8 of the country. This will be his property in Israel. Then my princes will no longer oppress my people; they must leave the rest of the country for the House of Israel, for its tribes.

Ezekiel 45:9 “The Lord Yahweh says this: Enough, princes of Israel! Give up your violence and plundering, do what is upright and just, stop crushing my people with taxation—declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 45:10 Have fair scales, a fair ephah, a fair bat.

Ezekiel 45:11 Let the ephah and bat be equal, let the bat hold one-tenth of a homer and the ephah one-tenth of a homer. Let the measures be based on the homer.

Ezekiel 45:12 The shekel must be twenty gerah. Twenty shekels, twenty-five shekels and fifteen shekels must make one mina.

Ezekiel 45:13 “This is the offering that you must levy: the sixth of an ephah for every homer of wheat, and the sixth of an ephah for every homer of barley.

Ezekiel 45:14 The dues on oil: one bat of oil out of every ten bat or out of every kor (which is equal to ten bat or one homer, since ten bat equal one homer).

Ezekiel 45:15 You must levy one sheep on every flock of two hundred from the pastures of Israel for the oblation, the burnt offerings and the communion sacrifice. This must form your expiation—declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 45:16 Let all the people of the country be subject to this due for the prince of Israel.

Ezekiel 45:17 The prince must make himself responsible for providing the burnt offerings, the oblation and the libations for feasts, New Moons, Sabbaths and all the solemn festivals of the House of Israel. He must provide the sacrifice for sin, the oblation, the burnt offerings and the communion sacrifices to make expiation for the House of Israel.

Ezekiel 45:18 “The Lord Yahweh says this: On the first day of the first month, you must take a young bull without blemish, to purify the sanctuary.

Ezekiel 45:19 The priest must take blood from the sacrifice for sin and put it on the doorposts of the Temple, on the four corners of the altar plinth and on the doorposts of the gates of the inner court.

Ezekiel 45:20 You must do the same on the seventh of the month, on behalf of anyone who has sinned through inadvertence or ignorance. This is how you must make expiation for the Temple.

Ezekiel 45:21 On the fourteenth day of the first month, you must celebrate the feast of the Passover. For seven days everyone must eat unleavened loaves.

Ezekiel 45:22 On that day, the prince must offer a bull as a sacrifice for sin, for himself and all the people of the country.

Ezekiel 45:23 For the seven days of the feast, he must offer Yahweh burnt offerings of seven bulls and seven rams without blemish, daily for a week, and one he-goat daily as a sacrifice for sin,

Ezekiel 45:24 and as an oblation, one ephah for each bull and one ephah for each ram, and a hin of oil for every ephah.

Ezekiel 45:25 “For the feast that falls on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, he must do the same for seven days, offering the sacrifice for sin, the burnt offerings, the oblation and the oil.” ‘

Ezekiel 46:1 ‘ “The Lord Yahweh says this: The east gate of the inner court must be kept shut for the six working days. On the Sabbath day, however, it must be opened, as also on the day of the New Moon;

Ezekiel 46:2 and the prince must go in through the porch of the outer gate and take his position by the doorposts of the gate. The priests must then offer his burnt offerings and his communion sacrifice. He must prostrate himself on the threshold of the gate and go out, and the gate must not be shut again until the evening.

Ezekiel 46:3 The people of the country must prostrate themselves in the presence of Yahweh at the entrance to the gate on Sabbaths and days of the New Moon.

Ezekiel 46:4 The burnt offering offered to Yahweh by the prince on the Sabbath day must consist of six unblemished lambs and one unblemished ram,

Ezekiel 46:5 with an oblation of one ephah for the ram, and such oblation as he pleases for the lambs, and a hin of oil for every ephah.

Ezekiel 46:6 On the day of the New Moon it must consist of an unblemished young bull, six unblemished lambs and one unblemished ram,

Ezekiel 46:7 when he must make an oblation of one ephah for the bull and one ephah for the ram, and what he pleases for the lambs, and a hin of oil for every ephah.

Ezekiel 46:8 “When the prince goes in, he must enter by the porch of the gate, and he must leave by the same way.

Ezekiel 46:9 When the people of the country come into the presence of Yahweh at the solemn festivals, those who have come in by the north gate to prostrate themselves must go out by the south gate, and those who have come in by the south gate must go out by the north gate; no one must turn back to leave through the gate by which he entered but must go out on the opposite side.

Ezekiel 46:10 The prince will be with them, coming in like them and going out like them.

Ezekiel 46:11 “On feast days and solemn festivals the oblation must be one ephah for every bull, one ephah for every ram, what he pleases for the lambs, and a hin of oil for every ephah.

Ezekiel 46:12 When the prince offers Yahweh voluntary burnt offerings or a voluntary communion sacrifice, the east gate must be opened for him, and he must offer his burnt offerings and his communion sacrifice as he does on the Sabbath day; when he has gone out, the gate must be shut after him.

Ezekiel 46:13 Every day he must offer an unblemished lamb one year old as a burnt offering to Yahweh; he must offer this every morning.

Ezekiel 46:14 Every morning in addition he must offer an oblation of one-sixth of an ephah and one-third of a hin of oil, for mixing with the flour. This is the oblation to Yahweh, a perpetual decree, fixed for ever.

Ezekiel 46:15 The lamb, the oblation and the oil must be offered morning after morning for ever.

Ezekiel 46:16 “Lord Yahweh says this: If the prince presents part of his hereditary portion to one of his sons, the gift must pass into the ownership of his sons and become their hereditary property.

Ezekiel 46:17 If, however, he presents part of his hereditary portion to one of his slaves, it will belong to the man only until the year of liberation and then must revert to the prince. Only his sons may retain his hereditary portion.

Ezekiel 46:18 The prince may not take any part of the people’s hereditary portion, thus robbing them of what is theirs; he must provide the patrimony of his sons out of his own property, so that no member of my people is robbed of what is his!” ‘

Ezekiel 46:19 He took me through the entrance at the side of the north gate that leads to the rooms of the Holy Place set apart for the priests. And there before us, to the west, was a space at the end.

Ezekiel 46:20 He said to me, ‘This is where the priests must boil the slaughtered animals for the sacrifice for sin and the sacrifice of reparation, and where they must bake the oblation, without having to carry them into the outer court and so run the risk of hallowing the people.’

Ezekiel 46:21 He then took me into the outer court and led me to each of its four corners; in each corner of the outer court was a compound;

Ezekiel 46:22 in other words, the four corners of the court contained four small compounds, forty cubits by thirty, all four being the same size.

Ezekiel 46:23 All four were enclosed by a wall, with hearths all round the bottom of the wall.

Ezekiel 46:24 He said, ‘These are the kitchens where the Temple servants must boil the sacrifices offered by the people.’

Ezekiel 47:1 He brought me back to the entrance of the Temple, where a stream flowed eastwards from under the Temple threshold, for the Temple faced east. The water flowed from under the right side of the Temple, south of the altar.

Ezekiel 47:2 He took me out by the north gate and led me right round outside as far as the outer east gate where the water flowed out on the right-hand side.

Ezekiel 47:3 The man went off to the east holding his measuring line and measured off a thousand cubits; he then made me wade across the stream; the water reached my ankles.

Ezekiel 47:4 He measured off another thousand and made me wade across the stream again; the water reached my knees. He measured off another thousand and made me wade across the stream again; the water reached my waist.

Ezekiel 47:5 He measured off another thousand; it was now a river which I could not cross; the stream had swollen and was now deep water, a river impossible to cross.

Ezekiel 47:6 He then said, 'Do you see, son of man?' He then took me and brought me back to the bank on the river.

Ezekiel 47:7 Now, when I reached it, I saw an enormous number of trees on each bank of the river.

Ezekiel 47:8 He said, 'This water flows east down to the Arabah and to the sea; and flowing into the sea it makes its waters wholesome.

Ezekiel 47:9 Wherever the river flows, all living creatures teeming in it will live. Fish will be very plentiful, for wherever the water goes it brings health, and life teems wherever the river flows.

Ezekiel 47:10 There will be fishermen on its banks. Fishing nets will be spread from En-Gedi to En-Eglaim. The species of fish will be the same as the fish of the Great Sea.

Ezekiel 47:11 The marshes and lagoons, however, will not become wholesome, but will remain salt.

Ezekiel 47:12 Along the river, on either bank, will grow every kind of fruit tree with leaves that never wither and fruit that never fails; they will bear new fruit every month, because this water comes from the sanctuary. And their fruit will be good to eat and the leaves medicinal.'

Ezekiel 47:13 'The Lord Yahweh says this, "This will be the territory which you must distribute among the twelve tribes of Israel, with two portions for Joseph.

Ezekiel 47:14 You will each have a fair share of it, since I swore to your fathers that I would give it to them, and this country now falls to you as your heritage.

Ezekiel 47:15 These will be the frontiers of the country. On the north, from the Great Sea, the road from Hethlon to the Pass of Hamath, Zedad,

Ezekiel 47:16 Berothah, Sibraim lying between the territories of Damascus and Hamath, to Hazer-ha-Tikon on the borders of Hauran;

Ezekiel 47:17 the frontier will extend from the sea to Hazer-Enon, with the territory of Damascus and the territory of Hamath to the north; that will be the northern frontier.

Ezekiel 47:18 On the east, the Jordan will serve as frontier between Hauran and Damascus, between Gilead and Israel, down to the Eastern Sea as far as Tamar; that will be the eastern frontier.

Ezekiel 47:19 On the south, from Tamar southward to the Waters of Meribah in Kadesh, to the Wadi and the Great Sea; that will be the southern frontier.

Ezekiel 47:20 And to the west, the Great Sea will serve as frontier up to the point opposite the Pass of Hamath; that will be the western frontier.

Ezekiel 47:21 You must distribute this country among yourselves, among the tribes of Israel.

Ezekiel 47:22 You must distribute it as a heritage for yourselves and the aliens settled among you who have fathered children among you, since you must treat them as citizens of Israel. They must draw lots for their heritage with you, among the tribes of Israel.

Ezekiel 47:23 You will give the alien his heritage in the tribe where he has settled—declares the Lord Yahweh.” ‘

Ezekiel 48:1 ‘ “This is the list of the tribes. One portion in the far north by way of Hethlon to the Pass of Hamath, to Hazer-Enon, with the territory of Damascus to the north, and marching with Hamath, from the eastern limit to the western limit: Dan.

Ezekiel 48:2 One portion bordering Dan, from the eastern limit to the western limit: Asher.

Ezekiel 48:3 One portion bordering Asher, from the eastern limit to the western limit: Naphtali.

Ezekiel 48:4 One portion bordering Naphtali, from the eastern limit to the western limit: Manasseh.

Ezekiel 48:5 One portion bordering Manasseh, from the eastern limit to the western limit: Ephraim.

Ezekiel 48:6 One portion bordering Ephraim, from the eastern limit to the western limit: Reuben.

Ezekiel 48:7 One portion bordering Reuben, from the eastern limit to the western limit: Judah.

Ezekiel 48:8 One portion bordering Judah, from the eastern limit to the western limit, is the portion which you must set aside, twenty-five thousand cubits wide, and as long as each of the other portions from the eastern limit to the western limit. The sanctuary will be in the centre of it.

Ezekiel 48:9 “The portion which you must set aside for Yahweh must be twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand cubits wide.

Ezekiel 48:10 This sacred portion must belong to the priests, being, on the north side, twenty-five thousand cubits; on the west side ten thousand cubits wide, on the east side ten thousand cubits wide and on the south side twenty-five thousand cubits long; the sanctuary of Yahweh will be in the centre of it.

Ezekiel 48:11 This will be for the consecrated priests, those of the sons of Zadok who maintained my liturgy and did not go astray with the straying Israelites, as the Levites went astray.

Ezekiel 48:12 And so their portion must be taken out of the especially holy portion of the land, near the territory of the Levites.

Ezekiel 48:13 The territory of the Levites, like the territory of the priests, must be twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand wide—the whole length being twenty-five thousand and the width ten thousand.

Ezekiel 48:14 It will be illegal for them to sell or exchange any part of it, and the domain can never be alienated, since it is consecrated to Yahweh.

Ezekiel 48:15 As regards the remainder, an area of five thousand cubits by twenty-five thousand, this must be for the common use of the city, for houses and pastures. In the middle will be the city.

Ezekiel 48:16 These will be its dimensions: on the north side, four thousand five hundred cubits; on the south side, four thousand five hundred cubits; on the east side, four thousand five hundred cubits; on the west side, four thousand five hundred cubits.

Ezekiel 48:17 The pasture land of the city must extend two hundred and fifty cubits to the north, two hundred and fifty to the south, two hundred and fifty to the east, two hundred and fifty to the west.

Ezekiel 48:18 One strip, contiguous to the sacred portion, must be left over, consisting of ten thousand cubits to eastward and ten thousand to westward, marching with the sacred portion; this will bring in a revenue for feeding the municipal workmen.

Ezekiel 48:19 And the municipal workmen, drawn from all the tribes of Israel, will farm it.

Ezekiel 48:20 The portion must have a total area of twenty-five thousand cubits by twenty-five thousand. You must allocate a square area from the sacred portion to constitute the city.

Ezekiel 48:21 What is left over will be for the prince, on either side of the sacred portion and of the property of the city, marching with the twenty-five thousand cubits to eastward to the eastern frontier, and marching with the twenty-five thousand cubits to westward to the western frontier—running parallel with the other portions and belonging to the prince. In the centre will be the sacred portion and the sanctuary of the Temple.

Ezekiel 48:22 Thus, apart from the property of the Levites and the property of the city which lie in the middle of the prince’s portion, everything between the borders of Judah and the borders of Ben- jamin must belong to the prince.

Ezekiel 48:23 “As regards the rest of the tribes: One portion from the eastern limit to the western limit: Benjamin.

Ezekiel 48:24 One portion bordering Benjamin, from the eastern limit to the western limit: Simeon.

Ezekiel 48:25 One portion bordering Simeon, from the eastern limit to the western limit: Issachar.

Ezekiel 48:26 One portion bordering Issachar, from the eastern limit to the western limit: Zebulun.

Ezekiel 48:27 One portion bordering Zebulun, from the eastern limit to the western limit: Gad.

Ezekiel 48:28 On the southern border of Gad, on the south side, the border will run from Tamar to the Waters of Meribah in Kadesh, to the Wadi and the Great Sea.

Ezekiel 48:29 This is how you must distribute the country to the tribes of Israel as their heritage, and these must be their portions—declares the Lord Yahweh.

Ezekiel 48:30 “Here are the exits from the city. On the north side, four thousand five hundred cubits are to be measured off.

Ezekiel 48:31 The gates of the city are to be named after the tribes of Israel. Three gates to the north: one the gate of Reuben; one the gate of Judah; one the gate of Levi.

Ezekiel 48:32 On the east side, there will be four thousand five hundred cubits and three gates: one the gate of Joseph; one the gate of Benjamin; one the gate of Dan.

Ezekiel 48:33 On the south side, four thousand five hundred cubits are to be measured off, and there are to be three gates: one the gate of Simeon; one the gate of Issachar; one the gate of Zebulun.

Ezekiel 48:34 On the west side, there will be four thousand five hundred cubits and three gates: one the gate of Gad; one the gate of Asher; one the gate of Naphtali.

Ezekiel 48:35 Total perimeter: eighteen thousand cubits. “The name of the city in future must be: Yahweh-is-there.” ‘

Daniel

1:1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched on Jerusalem and besieged it.

Daniel 1:2 The Lord let Jehoiakim king of Judah fall into his power, as well as some of the vessels belonging to the Temple of God. These he took away to Shinar, putting the vessels into the treasury of his own gods.

Daniel 1:3 From the Israelites, the king ordered Ashpenaz, his chief eunuch, to bring a certain number of boys of royal or noble descent;

Daniel 1:4 they had to be without any physical defect, of good appearance, versed in every branch of wisdom, well-informed, discerning, suitable for service at the royal court. Ashpenaz was to teach them to speak and write the language of the Chaldaeans.

Daniel 1:5 The king assigned them a daily allowance of food and wine from the royal table. They were to receive an education lasting for three years, after which they would enter the royal service.

Daniel 1:6 Among them were the Judaeans Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah.

Daniel 1:7 The chief eunuch gave them other names, calling Daniel Belteshazzar, Hananiah Shadrach, Mishael Meshach, and Azariah Abed-Nego.

Daniel 1:8 Daniel, who was determined not to incur pollution by food and wine from the royal table, begged the chief eunuch to spare him this defilement.

Daniel 1:9 God allowed Daniel to receive faithful love and sympathy from the chief eunuch.

Daniel 1:10 But the eunuch warned Daniel, 'I am afraid of my lord the king: he has assigned you food and drink, and if he sees you looking thinner in the face than the other boys of your age, my head will be in danger with the king because of you.'

Daniel 1:11 To the guard assigned to Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah by the chief eunuch, Daniel then said,

Daniel 1:12 'Please allow your servants a ten days' trial, during which we are given only vegetables to eat and water to drink.

Daniel 1:13 You can then compare our looks with those of the boys who eat the king's food; go by what you see, and treat your servants accordingly.'

Daniel 1:14 The man agreed to do what they asked and put them on ten days' trial.

Daniel 1:15 When the ten days were over, they looked better and fatter than any of the boys who had eaten their allowance from the royal table;

Daniel 1:16 so the guard withdrew their allowance of food and the wine they were to drink, and gave them vegetables.

Daniel 1:17 To these four boys God gave knowledge and skill in every aspect of literature and learning; Daniel also had the gift of interpreting every kind of vision and dream.

Daniel 1:18 When the time stipulated by the king for the boys to be presented to him came round, the chief eunuch presented them to Nebuchadnezzar.

Daniel 1:19 The king conversed with them, and among all the boys found none to equal Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah. So they became members of the king's court,

Daniel 1:20 and on whatever point of wisdom or understanding he might question them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and soothsayers in his entire kingdom. Daniel remained there until the first year of King Cyrus.

Daniel 2:1 In the second year of his reign, Nebuchadnezzar had a series of dreams; he was perturbed by this and sleep deserted him.

Daniel 2:2 The king then had magicians and soothsayers, sorcerers and Chaldaeans summoned to tell him what his dreams meant. They arrived and stood in the king's presence.

Daniel 2:3 The king said to them, 'I have had a dream, and my mind is troubled by a wish to understand it.'

Daniel 2:4 The Chaldaeans answered the king: 'May your majesty live for ever! Tell your servants the dream, and we shall reveal its meaning for you.'

Daniel 2:5 The king answered the Chaldaeans, 'This is my firm resolve: if you cannot tell me what I dreamt and what it means, I shall have you torn limb from limb and your houses turned into dunghills.

Daniel 2:6 If, on the other hand, you can tell me what I dreamt and what it means, I shall give you presents, rewards and high honour. So tell me what I dreamt and what it means.'

Daniel 2:7 A second time they said, 'Let the king tell his dream to his servants, and we shall reveal its meaning.'

Daniel 2:8 But the king retorted, 'It is plain to me that you are trying to gain time, knowing my proclaimed resolve.

Daniel 2:9 If you do not interpret my dream for me, there will be but one sentence passed on you all; you have agreed among yourselves to make me misleading and tortuous speeches while the time goes by. So tell me what my dream was, and then I shall know whether you can interpret it.'

Daniel 2:10 The Chaldaeans answered the king, 'Nobody in the world could explain the king's problem; what is more, no other king, governor or chief would think of putting such a question to any magician, soothsayer or Chaldaean.

Daniel 2:11 The question the king asks is difficult, and no one can find the king an answer to it, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with mortals.'

Daniel 2:12 At this the king flew into a rage and ordered all the Babylonian sages to be put to death.

Daniel 2:13 On publication of the decree to have the sages killed, search was made for Daniel and his companions to have them put to death.

Daniel 2:14 Then, with shrewd and cautious words, Daniel approached Arioch, the king's chief executioner, when he was on his way to kill the Babylonian sages.

Daniel 2:15 To this royal official Arioch he said, 'Why has the king issued such a harsh decree?' Arioch explained matters to Daniel,

Daniel 2:16 and Daniel went off to ask the king for a stay of execution to give him the opportunity of revealing his interpretation to the king.

Daniel 2:17 Daniel then went home and told his friends Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah what had happened,

Daniel 2:18 urging them to beg the God of heaven to show his mercy and explain the mysterious secret, so that Daniel and his friends might be spared the fate of the other Babylonian sages.

Daniel 2:19 The mystery was then revealed to Daniel in a night-vision, and Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

Daniel 2:20 This is what Daniel said: May the name of God be blessed for ever and ever, since wisdom and power are his alone.

Daniel 2:21 It is he who controls the procession of times and seasons, who makes and unmakes kings, who confers wisdom on the wise, and knowledge on those with discernment,

Daniel 2:22 who uncovers depths and mysteries, who knows what lies in darkness; and light dwells with him.

Daniel 2:23 To you, God of my fathers, I give thanks and praise for having given me wisdom and strength: to me you have explained what we asked you, to us you have explained the king's problem.

Daniel 2:24 So Daniel went to see Arioch, whom the king had made responsible for putting the Babylonian sages to death. Going in, he said, 'Do not put the Babylonian sages to death. Take me into the king's presence and I will reveal the meaning to the king.'

Daniel 2:25 Arioch lost no time in bringing Daniel to the king. 'Among the exiles from Judah,' he said, 'I have discovered a man who can reveal the meaning to the king.'

Daniel 2:26 The king said to Daniel (who had been given the name Belteshazzar), 'Can you tell me what I dreamt and what it means?'

Daniel 2:27 Facing the king, Daniel replied, 'None of the sages, soothsayers, magicians or exorcists has been able to tell the king the truth of the mystery which the king has propounded;

Daniel 2:28 but there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries and who has shown King Nebuchadnezzar what is to take place in the final days. These, then, are the dream and the visions that passed through your head as you lay in bed:

Daniel 2:29 'Your Majesty, on your bed your thoughts turned to what would happen in the future, and the Revealer of Mysteries disclosed to you what is to take place.

Daniel 2:30 This mystery has been revealed to me, not that I am wiser than anyone else, but for this sole purpose: that the king should learn what it means, and that you should understand your inmost thoughts.

Daniel 2:31 'You have had a vision, Your Majesty; this is what you saw: a statue, a great statue of extreme brightness, stood before you, terrible to see.

Daniel 2:32 The head of this statue was of fine gold, its chest and arms were of silver, its belly and thighs of bronze,

Daniel 2:33 its legs of iron, its feet part iron, part clay.

Daniel 2:34 While you were gazing, a stone broke away, untouched by any hand, and struck the statue, struck its feet of iron and clay and shattered them.

Daniel 2:35 Then, iron and clay, bronze, silver and gold, all broke into pieces as fine as chaff on the threshing-floor in summer. The wind blew them away, leaving not a trace behind. And the stone that had struck the statue grew into a great mountain, filling the whole world.

Daniel 2:36 This was the dream; we shall now explain to the king what it means.

Daniel 2:37 'You, Your Majesty, king of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given sovereignty, power, strength and honour-

Daniel 2:38 human beings, wild animals, birds of the air, wherever they live, he has entrusted to your rule, making you king of them all—you are the golden head.

Daniel 2:39 And, after you, another kingdom will rise, not as great as yours, and then a third, of bronze, which will rule the whole world.

Daniel 2:40 There will be a fourth kingdom, hard as iron, as iron that pulverises and crushes all. Like iron that breaks everything to pieces, it will crush and break all the earlier kingdoms.

Daniel 2:41 The feet you saw, part earthenware, part iron, are a kingdom which will be split in two, but which will retain something of the strength of iron, just as you saw the iron and the clay of the earthenware mixed together.

Daniel 2:42 The feet were part iron, part potter's clay: the kingdom will be partly strong and partly brittle.

Daniel 2:43 And just as you saw the iron and the clay of the earthenware mixed together, so the two will be mixed together in human seed; but they will not hold together any more than iron will blend with clay.

Daniel 2:44 In the days of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom which will never be destroyed, and this kingdom will not pass into the hands of another race: it will shatter and absorb all the previous kingdoms and itself last for ever-

Daniel 2:45 just as you saw a stone, untouched by hand, break away from the mountain and reduce iron, bronze, earthenware, silver and gold to powder. The Great God has shown the king what is to take place. The dream is true, the interpretation exact.'

Daniel 2:46 At this, King Nebuchadnezzar fell prostrate before Daniel; he gave orders for Daniel to be offered an oblation and a fragrant sacrifice.

Daniel 2:47 The king said to Daniel, 'Your god is indeed the God of gods, the Master of kings, and the Revealer of Mysteries, since you have been able to reveal this mystery.'

Daniel 2:48 The king then conferred high rank on Daniel and gave him many handsome presents. He also made him governor of the whole province of Babylon and head of all the sages of Babylon.

Daniel 2:49 At Daniel's request, the king entrusted the affairs of the province of Babylon to Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego; Daniel himself remained in attendance on the king.

Daniel 3:1 King Nebuchadnezzar had a golden statue made, sixty cubits high and six cubits wide, which he set up on the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

Daniel 3:2 King Nebuchadnezzar then summoned the satraps, magistrates, governors, counsellors, treasurers, judges, lawyers, and all the provincial authorities to assemble and attend the dedication of the statue set up by King Nebuchadnezzar.

Daniel 3:3 Satraps, magistrates, governors, counsellors, treasurers, judges, lawyers and all the provincial authorities then assembled for the dedication of the statue set up by King Nebuchadnezzar and stood in front of the statue which King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Daniel 3:4 A herald then loudly proclaimed: 'Peoples, nations, languages! Thus are you commanded:

Daniel 3:5 the moment you hear the sound of horn, pipe, lyre, zither, harp, bagpipe and every other kind of instrument, you will prostrate yourselves and worship the golden statue set up by King Nebuchadnezzar.

Daniel 3:6 Anyone who does not prostrate himself and worship will immediately be thrown into the burning fiery furnace.'

Daniel 3:7 And so, the instant all the peoples heard the sound of horn, pipe, lyre, zither, harp, bagpipe and all the other instruments, all the peoples, nations and languages prostrated themselves and worshipped the statue set up by King Nebuchadnezzar.

Daniel 3:8 Some Chaldaeans then came forward and maliciously accused the Jews.

Daniel 3:9 They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, 'May Your Majesty live for ever!

Daniel 3:10 You have issued a decree, Your Majesty, to the effect that everyone on hearing the sound of horn, pipe, lyre, zither, harp, bagpipe and every other kind of instrument is to prostrate himself and worship the golden statue;

Daniel 3:11 and that anyone who does not prostrate himself and worship is to be thrown into the burning fiery furnace.

Daniel 3:12 Now, there are certain Jews to whom you have entrusted the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego; these men have ignored your command, Your Majesty; they do not serve your gods, and refuse to worship the golden statue you have set up.'

Daniel 3:13 Shaking with fury, Nebuchadnezzar sent for Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego. The men were immediately brought before the king.

Daniel 3:14 Nebuchadnezzar addressed them, 'Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego, is it true that you do not serve my gods, and that you refuse to worship the golden statue I have set up?

Daniel 3:15 When you hear the sound of horn, pipe, lyre, zither, harp, bagpipe and every other kind of instrument, are you prepared to prostrate yourselves and worship the statue I have made? If you refuse to worship it, you will be thrown forthwith into the burning fiery furnace; then which of the gods could save you from my power?'

Daniel 3:16 Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego replied to King Nebuchadnezzar, 'Your question needs no answer from us:

Daniel 3:17 if our God, the one we serve, is able to save us from the burning fiery furnace and from your power, Your Majesty, he will save us;

Daniel 3:18 and even if he does not, then you must know, Your Majesty, that we will not serve your god or worship the statue you have set up.'

Daniel 3:19 This infuriated King Nebuchadnezzar; his expression was changed now as he looked at Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego. He gave orders for the furnace to be made seven times hotter than usual

Daniel 3:20 and commanded certain stalwarts from his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego and throw them into the burning fiery furnace.

Daniel 3:21 They were then bound in their cloaks, trousers, headgear and other garments, and thrown into the burning fiery furnace.

Daniel 3:22 The king's command was so urgent and the heat of the furnace was so fierce, that the men carrying Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego were burnt to death by the flames from the fire;

Daniel 3:23 the three men, Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego fell, bound, into the burning fiery furnace.

Daniel 3:24 And they walked in the heart of the flames, praising God and blessing the Lord.

Daniel 3:25 Azariah stood in the heart of the fire, praying aloud thus:

Daniel 3:26 May you be blessed and revered, Lord, God of our ancestors, may your name be held glorious for ever.

Daniel 3:27 For you are upright in all that you have done for us, all your deeds are true, all your ways right, all your judgements true.

Daniel 3:28 True is the sentence you have given in all that you have brought down on us and on Jerusalem, the holy city of our ancestors, for you have treated us rightly and truly, as our sins deserve.

Daniel 3:29 Yes, we have sinned and committed a crime by deserting you, yes, we have greatly sinned; we have not listened to your commandments,

Daniel 3:30 we have not observed them, we have not done what you commanded us to do for our own good.

Daniel 3:31 Yes, all that you have brought down on us, all that you have done to us, you have been fully justified in doing.

Daniel 3:32 You have handed us over to our enemies, to a lawless people, the worst of the godless, to an unjust king, the worst in the whole world;

Daniel 3:33 today we have no right to open our mouths, shame and dishonour are the lot of those who serve and worship you.

Daniel 3:34 Do not abandon us for ever, for the sake of your name; do not repudiate your covenant,

Daniel 3:35 do not withdraw your favour from us, for the sake of Abraham, your friend, of Isaac, your servant, and of Israel, your holy one,

Daniel 3:36 to whom you promised to make their descendants as many as the stars of heaven and as the grains of sand on the seashore.

Daniel 3:37 Lord, we have become the least of all nations, we are put to shame today throughout the world, because of our sins.

Daniel 3:38 We now have no leader, no prophet, no prince, no burnt offering, no sacrifice, no oblation, no incense, no place where we can make offerings to you

Daniel 3:39 and win your favour. But may the contrite soul, the humbled spirit, be as acceptable to you

Daniel 3:40 as burnt offerings of rams and bullocks, as thousands of fat lambs: such let our sacrifice be to you today, and may it please you that we follow you whole-heartedly, since those who trust in you will not be shamed.

Daniel 3:41 And now we put our whole heart into following you, into fearing you and seeking your face once more.

Daniel 3:42 Do not abandon us to shame but treat us in accordance with your gentleness, in accordance with the greatness of your mercy.

Daniel 3:43 Rescue us in accordance with your wonderful deeds and win fresh glory for your name, O Lord.

Daniel 3:44 Confusion seize all who ill-treat your servants: may they be covered with shame, deprived of all their power, and may their strength be broken.

Daniel 3:45 Let them learn that you alone are God and Lord, glorious over the whole world.

Daniel 3:46 All this time, the king's servants, who had thrown them into the furnace, had been stoking it with crude oil, pitch, tow and brushwood

Daniel 3:47 until the flames rose forty-nine cubits above the furnace

Daniel 3:48 and, leaping out, burnt those Chaldaeans to death who were standing round it.

Daniel 3:49 But the angel of the Lord came down into the furnace beside Azariah and his companions; he drove the flames of the fire outwards from the furnace

Daniel 3:50 and, in the heart of the furnace, wafted a coolness to them as of the breeze and dew, so that the fire did not touch them at all and caused them no pain or distress.

Daniel 3:51 Then all three in unison began to sing, glorifying and blessing God in the furnace, with the words:

Daniel 3:52 May you be blessed, Lord, God of our ancestors, be praised and extolled for ever. Blessed be your glorious and holy name, praised and extolled for ever.

Daniel 3:53 May you be blessed in the Temple of your sacred glory, exalted and glorified above all for ever:

Daniel 3:54 blessed on the throne of your kingdom, exalted above all, glorified for ever:

Daniel 3:55 blessed are you who fathom the abyss, enthroned on the winged creatures, praised and exalted above all for ever:

Daniel 3:56 blessed in the expanse of the heavens, exalted and glorified for ever.

Daniel 3:57 Bless the Lord, all the Lord's creation: praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:58 Bless the Lord, angels of the Lord, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:59 Bless the Lord, heavens, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:60 Bless the Lord, all the waters above the heavens, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:61 Bless the Lord, powers of the Lord, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:62 Bless the Lord, sun and moon, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:63 Bless the Lord, stars of heaven, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:64 Bless the Lord, all rain and dew, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:65 Bless the Lord, every wind, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:66 Bless the Lord, fire and heat, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:67 Bless the Lord, cold and warmth, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:68 Bless the Lord, dew and snow-storm, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:69 Bless the Lord, frost and cold, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:70 Bless the Lord, ice and snow, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:71 Bless the Lord, nights and days, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:72 Bless the Lord, light and darkness, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:73 Bless the Lord, lightning and cloud, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:74 Let the earth bless the Lord: praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:75 Bless the Lord, mountains and hills, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:76 Bless the Lord, every plant that grows, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:77 Bless the Lord, springs of water, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:78 Bless the Lord, seas and rivers, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:79 Bless the Lord, whales, and everything that moves in the waters, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:80 Bless the Lord, every kind of bird, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:81 Bless the Lord, all animals wild and tame, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:82 Bless the Lord, all the human race: praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:83 Bless the Lord, O Israel, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:84 Bless the Lord, priests, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:85 Bless the Lord, his servants, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:86 Bless the Lord, spirits and souls of the upright, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:87 Bless the Lord, faithful, humble-hearted people, praise and glorify him for ever!

Daniel 3:88 Hananiah, Azariah and Mishael, bless the Lord, praise and glorify him for ever!-For he has rescued us from the Underworld, he has saved us from the hand of Death, he has snatched us from the burning fiery furnace, he has drawn us from the heart of the flame!

Daniel 3:89 Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, for his love is everlasting.

Daniel 3:90 Bless the Lord, the God of gods, all who fear him, give praise and thanks to him, for his love is everlasting!

Daniel 3:91 King Nebuchadnezzar sprang to his feet in amazement. He said to his advisers, ‘Did we not have these three men thrown bound into the fire?’ They answered the king, ‘Certainly, Your Majesty’.

Daniel 3:92 ‘But’, he went on, ‘I can see four men walking free in the heart of the fire and quite unharmed! And the fourth looks like a child of the gods!’

Daniel 3:93 Nebuchadnezzar approached the mouth of the burning fiery furnace and said, ‘Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego, servants of God Most High, come out, come here!’ And from the heart of the fire out came Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego.

Daniel 3:94 The satraps, magistrates, governors, and advisers of the king crowded round the three men to examine them: the fire had had no effect on their bodies: not a hair of their heads had been singed, their cloaks were not scorched, no smell of burning hung about them. Nebuchadnezzar said,

Daniel 3:95 ‘Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego: he has sent his angel to rescue his servants who, putting their trust in him, defied the order of the king, and preferred to forfeit their bodies rather than serve or worship any god but their God.

Daniel 3:96 I therefore decree as follows, “Peoples, nations, and languages! Let any of you speak disrespectfully of the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego, and I shall have him torn limb from limb and his house turned into a dunghill; for there is no other god who can save like this." '

Daniel 3:97 The king then showered favours on Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego in the province of Babylon.

Daniel 3:98 'King Nebuchadnezzar, to all peoples, nations and languages dwelling throughout the world: may you prosper more and more!

Daniel 3:99 'It is my pleasure to make known the signs and wonders with which the Most High God has favoured me.

Daniel 3:100 How great his signs, how mighty his wonders! His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, his empire endures age after age!'

Daniel 4:1 'I, Nebuchadnezzar, was living comfortably in my house, prosperously in my palace.

Daniel 4:2 I had a dream; it appalled me. Dread assailed me as I lay in bed; the visions that passed through my head tormented me.

Daniel 4:3 So I decreed that all the sages of Babylon be summoned to explain to me what the dream meant.

Daniel 4:4 Magicians, soothsayers, Chaldaeans and exorcists came, and I told them what I had dreamt, but they could not interpret it for me.

Daniel 4:5 Daniel, renamed Belteshazzar after my own god, and in whom the spirit of the holy gods resides, then came into my presence. I told him my dream:

Daniel 4:6 ' "Belteshazzar, chief of magicians," I said, "I know that the spirit of the holy gods resides in you and that no mystery puts you at a loss. This is the dream I have had; tell me what it means.

Daniel 4:7 ' "The visions that passed through my head as I lay in bed were these: I saw a tree in the middle of the world; it was very tall.

Daniel 4:8 The tree grew taller and stronger, until its top reached the sky and it could be seen from the very ends of the earth.

Daniel 4:9 Its foliage was beautiful, its fruit abundant, in it was food for all. For the wild animals it provided shade, the birds of heaven nested in its branches, all living creatures found their food on it.

Daniel 4:10 ' "I watched the visions passing through my head as I lay in bed: Next, a Watchful One, a holy one, came down from heaven.

Daniel 4:11 At the top of his voice he shouted: Cut the tree down, lop off its branches, strip off its leaves, throw away its fruit; let the animals flee from its shelter and the birds from its branches.

Daniel 4:12 But leave the stump with its roots in the ground, bound with hoops of iron and bronze, in the grass of the countryside. Let it be drenched by the dew of heaven and have its lot with the animals, eating grass!

Daniel 4:13 Let it cease to have a human heart, and be given the heart of a beast, and seven times shall pass over him!

Daniel 4:14 Such is the sentence proclaimed by the Watchers, the verdict announced by the holy ones- so that every living thing may learn that the Most High rules over human sovereignty; he confers it on whom he pleases, and raises the lowest of humankind.

Daniel 4:15 ' "This was the dream I had-I, Nebuchadnezzar the king. Now it is for you, Belteshazzar, to pronounce on its meaning, since not one of the sages in my kingdom has been able to interpret it for me; you, however, can do so, since the spirit of the holy gods resides in you." '

Daniel 4:16 Daniel, known as Belteshazzar, was confused for a time and upset. The king said, 'Belteshazzar, do not be upset at the dream and its meaning.' Belteshazzar answered, 'My lord, may the dream apply to those who hate you, and its meaning to your foes!

Daniel 4:17 The tree you saw, so large and strong and tall that it reached the sky and could be seen throughout the world,

Daniel 4:18 the tree with beautiful foliage and abundant fruit, with food for all in it, providing shade for the wild animals, with the birds of heaven nesting in its branches:

Daniel 4:19 that tree is yourself, Your Majesty, for you have grown great and strong; your stature is now so great that it reaches the sky, and your empire extends to the ends of the earth.

Daniel 4:20 'And the Watchful One seen by the king, the holy one coming down from heaven and saying, "Cut the tree down and destroy it, but leave stump and roots in the ground, bound with hoops of iron and bronze in the grass of the countryside; let it be drenched by the dew and have its lot with the wild animals until seven times have passed over it":

Daniel 4:21 the meaning of this, Your Majesty, the verdict of the Most High passed on my lord the king, is this:

Daniel 4:22 You will be driven from human society and will make your home with the wild animals, you will feed on grass, as oxen do, you will be drenched by the dew of heaven; seven times will pass over you until you have learnt that the Most High rules over human sovereignty and confers it on whom he pleases.

Daniel 4:23 'And the order, "Leave the stump and roots of the tree", means that your kingdom will be kept for you until you come to understand that Heaven rules all.

Daniel 4:24 May it please the king to accept my advice: by upright actions break with your sins, break with your crimes by showing mercy to the poor, and so live long and peacefully.'

Daniel 4:25 This all happened to King Nebuchadnezzar.

Daniel 4:26 At the end of twelve months, while strolling on the roof of the royal palace in Babylon,

Daniel 4:27 the king was saying, 'Great Babylon! Was it not built by me as a royal residence, by the force of my might and for the majesty of my glory?’

Daniel 4:28 The words were not out of his mouth when a voice came down from heaven: ‘Of you, King Nebuchadnezzar, it is decreed: the empire has been taken from you,

Daniel 4:29 you will be driven from human society and will make your home with the wild animals; you will feed on grass, as oxen do, and seven times will pass over you until you have learnt that the Most High rules over human sovereignty and gives it to whom he pleases.’

Daniel 4:30 The words were immediately fulfilled: Nebuchadnezzar was driven from human society and ate grass as oxen do; he was drenched by the dew of heaven; his hair grew like an eagle’s feathers, and his nails became like a bird’s talons.

Daniel 4:31 ‘When the time was over, I, Nebuchad- nezzar, raised my eyes to heaven: my reason returned. And I blessed the Most High, praising and glorifying him who lives for ever, for his empire is an everlasting empire, his kingship endures, age after age.

Daniel 4:32 All who dwell on earth count for nothing; as he thinks fit, he disposes the army of heaven and those who dwell on earth. No one can arrest his hand or ask him, “What have you done?”

Daniel 4:33 ‘At that moment my reason returned and, for the honour of my royal state, my glory and splendour returned too. My counsellors and noblemen acclaimed me; I was restored to my throne, and to my past greatness even more was added.

Daniel 4:34 And now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise, extol and glorify the King of heaven, all of whose deeds are true, all of whose ways are right, and who can humble those who walk in pride.’

Daniel 5:1 King Belshazzar gave a great banquet for his noblemen, a thousand of them, and, in the presence of this thousand, he drank his wine.

Daniel 5:2 Having tasted the wine, Belshazzar gave orders for the gold and silver vessels to be brought which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the sanctuary in Jerusalem, so that the king, his noblemen, his wives and the women who sang for him could drink out of them.

Daniel 5:3 The gold and silver vessels taken from the sanctuary of the Temple of God in Jerusalem were brought in, and the king, his noblemen, his wives and the women who sang for him drank out of them.

Daniel 5:4 They drank their wine and praised their idols of gold and silver, of bronze and iron, of wood and stone.

Daniel 5:5 Suddenly, the fingers of a human hand appeared and began to write on the plaster of the palace wall, directly behind the lamp-stand; and the king could see the hand as it wrote.

Daniel 5:6 The king turned pale with alarm: his hip-joints went slack and his knees began to knock.

Daniel 5:7 He shouted for his soothsayers, Chaldaeans, and exorcists. And the king said to the Babylonian sages, ‘Anyone who can read this writing and tell me what it means shall be dressed in purple, and have a chain of gold put round his neck, and be one of the three men who govern the kingdom.’

Daniel 5:8 The king’s sages all crowded forward, but they could neither read the writing nor explain to the king what it meant.

Daniel 5:9 Greatly alarmed, King Belshazzar turned even paler, and his noblemen were equally disturbed.

Daniel 5:10 Then the queen, attracted by the noise made by the king and his noblemen, came into the banqueting hall. ‘May Your Majesty live for ever!’ said the queen. ‘Do not be alarmed, do not look so pale.

Daniel 5:11 In your kingdom there is a man in whom lives the spirit of the holy gods. In your father’s days he was known for a perception, intelligence and wisdom comparable to that of the gods. King Nebuchadnezzar, your father, made him head of the magicians, soothsayers, Chaldaeans and exorcists.

Daniel 5:12 Since this man Daniel, whom the king had renamed Belteshazzar, is filled with such a marvellous spirit and such knowledge and intelligence in interpreting dreams, solving enigmas and unravelling difficult problems, send for him; he will be able to tell you what this means.’

Daniel 5:13 Daniel was brought into the king’s presence; the king said to Daniel, ‘Are you the Daniel who was one of the Judaean exiles brought by my father the king from Judah?

Daniel 5:14 I am told that the spirit of the gods lives in you, and that you are known for your perception, intelligence and marvellous wisdom.

Daniel 5:15 The sages and soothsayers have already been brought to me to read this writing and tell me what it means, but they have been unable to reveal its meaning.

Daniel 5:16 I am told that you are able to give interpretations and to unravel difficult problems, so if you can read the writing and tell me what it means, you shall be dressed in purple, and have a chain of gold put round your neck, and be one of the three men who govern the kingdom.’

Daniel 5:17 Then Daniel spoke up in the presence of the king. ‘Keep your gifts for yourself,’ he said, ‘and give your rewards to others! I can certainly read the writing to the king and tell him what it means.

Daniel 5:18 Your Majesty, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father sovereignty, greatness, majesty and glory.

Daniel 5:19 He made him so great that all peoples, nations and languages shook with dread before him: he killed whom he pleased, spared whom he pleased, promoted whom he pleased, degraded whom he pleased.

Daniel 5:20 But because his heart grew swollen with pride, and his spirit stiff with arrogance, he was deposed from his sovereign throne and stripped of his glory.

Daniel 5:21 He was driven from human society, his heart was more like an animal's than a man's; he lived with the wild donkeys; he fed on grass like oxen; his body was drenched by the dew of heaven, until he had learnt that the Most High rules over human sovereignty and appoints whom he pleases to rule it.

Daniel 5:22 But you, Belshazzar, who are his son, you have not humbled your heart, in spite of knowing all this.

Daniel 5:23 You have defied the Lord of heaven, you have had the vessels from his Temple brought to you, and you, your noblemen, your wives and the women singing for you have drunk your wine out of them. You have praised gods of gold and silver, of bronze and iron, of wood and stone, which can neither see, hear nor understand; but you have given no glory to the God in whose hands are your breath itself and all your fortunes.

Daniel 5:24 That is why he has sent the hand which has written these words.

Daniel 5:25 The writing reads: mene, mene, teqel and parsin.

Daniel 5:26 The meaning of the words is this: mene: God has measured your sovereignty and put an end to it;

Daniel 5:27 teqel: you have been weighed in the balance and found wanting;

Daniel 5:28 parsin: your kingdom has been divided and given to the Medes and the Persians.'

Daniel 5:29 At Belshazzar's order Daniel was dressed in purple, a chain of gold was put round his neck and he was proclaimed as one of the three men who governed the kingdom.

Daniel 5:30 That same night, the Chaldaean king Belshazzar was murdered,

Daniel 6:1 and Darius the Mede received the kingdom, at the age of sixty-two.

Daniel 6:2 It pleased Darius to appoint a hundred and twenty satraps over his kingdom for the various parts,

Daniel 6:3 and over them three presidents—of whom Daniel was one—to whom the satraps were to be responsible. This was to safeguard the king's interests.

Daniel 6:4 This Daniel, by virtue of the marvellous spirit residing in him, was so evidently superior to the other presidents and satraps that the king considered appointing him to rule the whole kingdom.

Daniel 6:5 The presidents and satraps, in consequence, started hunting for some affair of state by which they could discredit Daniel; but they could find nothing to his discredit, and no case of negligence; he was so punctilious that they could not find a single instance of maladministration or neglect.

Daniel 6:6 These men then thought, 'We shall never find a way of discrediting Daniel unless we try something to do with the law of his God.'

Daniel 6:7 The presidents and satraps then went in a body to the king. 'King Darius,' they said, 'live for ever!

Daniel 6:8 We are all agreed, presidents of the realm, magistrates, satraps, councillors and governors, that the king should issue an edict enforcing the following regulation: Whoever within the next thirty days prays to anyone, divine or human, other than to yourself, Your Majesty, is to be thrown into the lions' den.

Daniel 6:9 Your Majesty, ratify the edict at once by signing this document, making it unalterable, as befits the law of the Medes and the Persians, which cannot be revoked.'

Daniel 6:10 King Darius accordingly signed the document embodying the edict.

Daniel 6:11 When Daniel heard that the document had been signed, he retired to his house. The windows of his upstairs room faced towards Jerusalem. Three times each day, he went down on his knees, praying and giving praise to God as he had always done.

Daniel 6:12 These men came along in a body and found Daniel praying and pleading with God.

Daniel 6:13 They then went to the king and reminded him of the royal edict, 'Have you not signed an edict forbidding anyone for the next thirty days to pray to anyone, divine or human, other than to yourself, Your Majesty, on pain of being thrown into the lions' den?' 'The decision stands', the king replied, 'as befits the law of the Medes and the Persians, which cannot be revoked.'

Daniel 6:14 They then said to the king, 'Your Majesty, this man Daniel, one of the exiles from Judah, disregards both you and the edict which you have signed: he is at his prayers three times each day.'

Daniel 6:15 When the king heard these words he was deeply distressed and determined to save Daniel; he racked his brains until sunset to find some way to save him.

Daniel 6:16 But the men kept pressing the king, 'Your Majesty, remember that in conformity with the law of the Medes and the Persians, no edict or decree can be altered when once issued by the king.'

Daniel 6:17 The king then ordered Daniel to be brought and thrown into the lion pit. The king said to Daniel, 'Your God, whom you have served so faithfully, will have to save you.'

Daniel 6:18 A stone was then brought and laid over the mouth of the pit; and the king sealed it with his own signet and with that of his noblemen, so that there could be no going back on the original decision about Daniel.

Daniel 6:19 The king returned to his palace, spent the night in fasting and refused to receive any of his concubines. Sleep eluded him,

Daniel 6:20 and at the first sign of dawn he got up and hurried to the lion pit.

Daniel 6:21 As he approached the pit he called in anguished tones to Daniel, 'Daniel, servant of the living God! Has your God, whom you serve so faithfully, been able to save you from the lions?'

Daniel 6:22 Daniel answered the king, 'May Your Majesty live for ever!

Daniel 6:23 My God sent his angel who sealed the lions' jaws; they did me no harm, since in his sight I am blameless; neither have I ever done you any wrong, Your Majesty.'

Daniel 6:24 The king was overjoyed and ordered Daniel to be released from the pit. Daniel was released from the pit and found to be quite unhurt, because he had trusted in his God.

Daniel 6:25 The king then sent for the men who had accused Daniel and had them thrown into the lion pit, and their wives and children too; and before they reached the floor of the pit the lions had seized them and crushed their bones to pieces.

Daniel 6:26 King Darius then wrote to all nations, peoples and languages dwelling throughout the world: 'May you prosper more and more!

Daniel 6:27 This is my decree: Throughout every dominion of my realm, let all tremble with fear before the God of Daniel: He is the living God, he endures for ever, his kingdom will never be destroyed and his empire never come to an end.

Daniel 6:28 He saves, sets free, and works signs and wonders in the heavens and on earth; he has saved Daniel from the power of the lions.'

Daniel 6:29 This Daniel flourished in the reign of Darius and the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Daniel 7:1 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions that passed through his head as he lay in bed. He wrote the dream down, and this is how the narrative began:

Daniel 7:2 Daniel said, 'I have been seeing visions in the night. I saw that the four winds of heaven were stirring up the Great Sea;

Daniel 7:3 four great beasts emerged from the sea, each different from the others.

Daniel 7:4 The first was like a lion with eagle’s wings and, as I looked, its wings were torn off, and it was lifted off the ground and set standing on its feet like a human; and it was given a human heart.

Daniel 7:5 And there before me was a second beast, like a bear, rearing up on one side, with three ribs in its mouth, between its teeth. “Up!” came the command. “Eat quantities of flesh!”

Daniel 7:6 After this I looked; and there before me was another beast, like a leopard, and with four bird’s wings on its flanks; it had four heads and was granted authority.

Daniel 7:7 Next, in the visions of the night, I saw another vision: there before me was a fourth beast, fearful, terrifying, very strong; it had great iron teeth, and it ate its victims, crushed them, and trampled their remains underfoot. It was different from the previous beasts and had ten horns.

Daniel 7:8 ‘While I was looking at these horns, I saw another horn sprouting among them, a little one; three of the original horns were pulled out by the roots to make way for it; and in this horn I saw eyes like human eyes, and a mouth full of boasting.

Daniel 7:9 While I was watching, thrones were set in place and one most venerable took his seat. His robe was white as snow, the hair of his head as pure as wool. His throne was a blaze of flames, its wheels were a burning fire.

Daniel 7:10 A stream of fire poured out, issuing from his presence. A thousand thousand waited on him, ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him. The court was in session and the books lay open.

Daniel 7:11 ‘I went on watching: then, because of the noise made by the boastings of the horn, as I watched, the beast was put to death, and its body destroyed and committed to the flames.

Daniel 7:12 The other beasts were deprived of their empire, but received a lease of life for a season and a time.

Daniel 7:13 I was gazing into the visions of the night, when I saw, coming on the clouds of heaven, as it were a son of man. He came to the One most venerable and was led into his presence.

Daniel 7:14 On him was conferred rule, honour and kingship, and all peoples, nations and languages became his servants. His rule is an everlasting rule which will never pass away, and his kingship will never come to an end.

Daniel 7:15 ‘I, Daniel, was deeply disturbed and the visions that passed through my head alarmed me.

Daniel 7:16 So I approached one of those who were standing by and asked him about all this. And in reply he revealed to me what these things meant.

Daniel 7:17 “These four great beasts are four kings who will rise up from the earth.

Daniel 7:18 Those who receive royal power are the holy ones of the Most High, and kingship will be theirs for ever, for ever and ever.”

Daniel 7:19 Then I asked about the fourth beast, different from all the rest, very terrifying, with iron teeth and bronze claws; it ate its victims, crushed them, and trampled their remains underfoot;

Daniel 7:20 and about the ten horns on its head—and why the other horn sprouted and the three original horns fell, and why this horn had eyes and a mouth full of boasting, and why it looked more impressive than its fellows.

Daniel 7:21 This was the horn I had watched making war on the holy ones and proving the stronger,

Daniel 7:22 until the coming of the One most venerable who gave judgement in favour of the holy ones of the Most High, when the time came for the holy ones to assume kingship.

Daniel 7:23 This is what he said: “The fourth beast is to be a fourth kingdom on earth, different from all other kingdoms. It will devour the whole world, trample it underfoot and crush it.

Daniel 7:24 As for the ten horns: from this kingdom will rise ten kings, and another after them; this one will be different from the previous ones and will bring down three kings;

Daniel 7:25 he will insult the Most High, and torment the holy ones of the Most High. He will plan to alter the seasons and the Law, and the Saints will be handed over to him for a time, two times, and half a time.

Daniel 7:26 But the court will sit, and he will be stripped of his royal authority which will be finally destroyed and reduced to nothing.

Daniel 7:27 And kingship and rule and the splendours of all the kingdoms under heaven will be given to the people of the holy ones of the Most High, whose royal power is an eternal power, whom every empire will serve and obey.”

Daniel 7:28 ‘Here the narrative ends. ‘I, Daniel, was greatly disturbed in mind, and I grew pale; but I kept these things to myself.’

Daniel 8:1 In the third year of King Belshazzar a vision appeared to me, Daniel, after the one that had originally appeared to me.

Daniel 8:2 I gazed at the vision, and as I gazed I found myself in Susa, the citadel in the province of Elam; gazing at the vision, I found myself at the Ulai Gate.

Daniel 8:3 I raised my eyes to look, and I saw a ram standing in front of the gate. It had two horns; both were tall, but one taller than the other, and the one that rose the higher was the second.

Daniel 8:4 I saw the ram butting westwards, northwards and southwards. No animal could stand up to it, nothing could escape its power. It did as it pleased and became strong.

Daniel 8:5 This is what I observed: a he-goat from the west, encroaching over the entire surface of the world though never touching the ground, and between its eyes the goat had one majestic horn.

Daniel 8:6 It advanced on the two-horned ram, which I had seen standing in front of the gate, and charged at it in the full force of its fury.

Daniel 8:7 I saw it reach the ram; it was enraged with the ram and struck it, breaking both its horns, so that the ram was not strong enough to hold its ground; it threw it to the ground and trampled it underfoot; no one was there to rescue the ram.

Daniel 8:8 The he-goat then grew more powerful than ever; but at the height of its strength the great horn snapped, and in its place sprouted four majestic horns, pointing to the four winds of heaven.

Daniel 8:9 From one of these, the small one, sprang a horn which grew to great size towards south and east and towards the Land of Splendour.

Daniel 8:10 It grew right up to the armies of heaven and flung armies and stars to the ground, and trampled them underfoot.

Daniel 8:11 It even challenged the power of the Prince of the army; it abolished the perpetual sacrifice and overthrew the foundation of his sanctuary,

Daniel 8:12 and the army too; over the sacrifice it installed iniquity and flung truth to the ground; the horn was active and successful.

Daniel 8:13 I heard a holy one speaking, and another holy one say to the speaker, ‘How long is this vision to be—of perpetual sacrifice, of horrifying iniquity, of sanctuary and army trampled underfoot?’

Daniel 8:14 The first replied, ‘Until two thousand three hundred evenings and mornings have gone by: then the sanctuary will have its rights restored.’

Daniel 8:15 As I, Daniel, gazed at the vision and tried to understand it, I saw someone standing in front of me who looked like a man.

Daniel 8:16 I heard a human voice cry over the Ulai, ‘Gabriel, tell him the meaning of the vision!’

Daniel 8:17 He approached the place where I was standing; as he approached, I was seized with terror and fell prostrate on the ground. ‘Son of man,’ he said to me, ‘understand this: the vision shows the time of the End.’

Daniel 8:18 He was still speaking, when I fainted, face downwards on the ground. He touched me, however, and raised me to my feet.

Daniel 8:19 ‘Come,’ he said, ‘I shall tell you what is going to happen when the Retribution is over, about the final times.

Daniel 8:20 As for the ram which you saw, its two horns are the kings of Media and of Persia.

Daniel 8:21 The hairy he-goat is the king of Greece, the large horn between its eyes is the first king.

Daniel 8:22 The horn which snapped and the four horns which sprouted in its place are four kingdoms rising from his nation but not having his strength.

Daniel 8:23 ‘And at the end of their reign, when the measure of their sins is full, a king will arise, a proud-faced, ingenious-minded man.

Daniel 8:24 His power will grow greater and greater, though not through any power of his own; he will plot incredible schemes, he will succeed in whatever he undertakes, he will destroy powerful men and the holy ones, God’s people.

Daniel 8:25 Such will be his resourcefulness of mind that all his treacherous activities will succeed. He will grow arrogant of heart and destroy many people by taking them unawares. He will challenge the power of the Prince of princes but, without any human intervention, he will be broken.

Daniel 8:26 The vision of the evenings and the mornings which has been revealed is true, but you must keep the vision secret, for there are still many days to go.’

Daniel 8:27 At this I, Daniel, lost consciousness; I was ill for several days. Then I got up to discharge my duties in the king’s service, keeping the vision a secret and still not understanding what it meant.

Daniel 9:1 It was the first year of Darius son of Artaxerxes, a Mede by race who assumed the throne of Chaldaea.

Daniel 9:2 In the first year of his reign I, Daniel, was studying the scriptures, counting over the number of years—as revealed by Yahweh to the prophet Jeremiah—that were to pass before the desolation of Jerusalem would come to an end, namely seventy years.

Daniel 9:3 I turned my face to the Lord God begging for time to pray and to plead, with fasting, sackcloth and ashes.

Daniel 9:4 I pleaded with Yahweh my God and made this confession: ‘O my Lord, God great and to be feared, you keep the covenant and show faithful love towards those who love you and who observe your commandments:

Daniel 9:5 we have sinned, we have done wrong, we have acted wickedly, we have betrayed your commandments and rulings and turned away from them.

Daniel 9:6 We have not listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our chief men, our ancestors and all people of the country.

Daniel 9:7 Saving justice, Lord, is yours; we have only the look of shame we wear today, we, the people of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the whole of Israel, near and far away, in every country to which you have dispersed us because of the treachery we have committed against you.

Daniel 9:8 To us, our kings, our chief men and our ancestors, belongs the look of shame, O Yahweh, since we have sinned against you.

Daniel 9:9 And it is for the Lord our God to have mercy and to pardon, since we have betrayed him,

Daniel 9:10 and have not listened to the voice of Yahweh our God nor followed the laws he has given us through his servants the prophets.

Daniel 9:11 The whole of Israel has flouted your Law and turned away, unwilling to listen to your voice; and the curse and imprecation written in the Law of Moses, the servant of God, have come pouring down on us, because we have sinned against him.

Daniel 9:12 He has carried out the threats which he made against us and the chief men who governed us—that he would bring so great a disaster down on us that the fate of Jerusalem would find no parallel under all heaven.

Daniel 9:13 And now, as written in the Law of Moses, this whole calamity has befallen us; even so, we have not appeased Yahweh our God by renouncing our crimes and learning your truth.

Daniel 9:14 Yahweh has watched for the right moment to bring disaster on us, since Yahweh our God is just in all his dealings with us, and we have not listened to his voice.

Daniel 9:15 And now, Lord our God, who by your mighty hand brought us out of Egypt—the renown you won then endures to this day—we have sinned, we have done wrong.

Daniel 9:16 Lord, by all your acts of saving justice, turn away your anger and your fury from Jerusalem, your city, your holy mountain, for as a result of our sins and the crimes of our ancestors, Jerusalem and your people are objects of scorn to all who surround us.

Daniel 9:17 And now, our God, listen to the prayer and pleading of your servant. For your own sake, Lord, let your face smile again on your desolate sanctuary.

Daniel 9:18 Listen, my God, listen to us; open your eyes and look at our plight and at the city that bears your name. Relying not on our upright deeds but on your great mercy, we pour out our plea to you.

Daniel 9:19 Listen, Lord! Forgive, Lord! Hear, Lord, and act! For your own sake, my God, do not delay—since your city and your people alike bear your name.'

Daniel 9:20 I was still speaking, still at prayer, confessing my own sins and the sins of my people Israel, and placing my plea before Yahweh my God for the holy mountain of my God,

Daniel 9:21 still speaking, still at prayer, when Gabriel, the being I had originally seen in vision, swooped on me in full flight at the hour of the evening sacrifice.

Daniel 9:22 He came, he spoke, he said to me, ‘Now, Daniel; I have come down to teach you how to understand.

Daniel 9:23 When your pleading began, a word was uttered, and I have come to tell you. You are a man specially chosen. Grasp the meaning of the word, understand the vision:

Daniel 9:24 ‘Seventy weeks are decreed for your people and your holy city, for putting an end to transgression, for placing the seal on sin, for expiating crime, for introducing everlasting uprightness for setting the seal on vision and on prophecy, for anointing the holy of holies.

Daniel 9:25 Know this, then, and understand: From the time there went out this message: “Return and rebuild Jerusalem” to the coming of an Anointed Prince, seven weeks and sixty-two weeks, with squares and ramparts restored and rebuilt, but in a time of trouble.

Daniel 9:26 And after the sixty-two weeks an Anointed One put to death without his . . . city and sanctuary ruined by a prince who is to come. The end of that prince will be catastrophe and, until the end, there will be war and all the devastation decreed.

Daniel 9:27 He will strike a firm alliance with many people for the space of a week; and for the space of one half-week he will put a stop to sacrifice and oblation, and on the wing of the Temple will be the appalling abomination until the end, until the doom assigned to the devastator.’

Daniel 10:1 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia, a revelation was made to Daniel known as Belteshazzar, a true revelation of a great conflict. He grasped the meaning of the revelation; what it meant was disclosed to him in a vision.

Daniel 10:2 At that time, I, Daniel, was doing a three-week penance;

Daniel 10:3 I ate no agreeable food, touched no meat or wine, and did not anoint myself, until these three weeks were over.

Daniel 10:4 On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I stood on the bank of that great river, the Tigris,

Daniel 10:5 I raised my eyes to look about me, and this is what I saw: A man dressed in linen, with a belt of pure gold round his waist:

Daniel 10:6 his body was like beryl, his face looked like lightning, his eyes were like fiery torches, his arms and his face had the gleam of burnished bronze, the sound of his voice was like the roar of a multitude.

Daniel 10:7 I, Daniel, alone saw the apparition; the men who were with me did not see the vision, but so great a trembling overtook them that they fled to hide.

Daniel 10:8 I was left alone, gazing on this great vision; I was powerless, my appearance was changed and contorted; my strength deserted me.

Daniel 10:9 I heard a voice speaking, and at the sound of the voice I fell fainting, face downwards on the ground.

Daniel 10:10 I felt a hand touching me, setting my knees and my hands trembling.

Daniel 10:11 He said, ‘Daniel, you are a man specially chosen; understand the words that I am about to say; stand up; I have been sent to you now.’ He said this, and I stood up trembling.

Daniel 10:12 He then said, ‘Daniel, do not be afraid: from that first day when, the better to understand, you resolved to mortify yourself before God, your words have been heard; and your words are the reason why I have come.

Daniel 10:13 The Prince of the kingdom of Persia has been resisting me for twenty-one days, but Michael, one of the Chief Princes, came to my assistance. I have left him confronting the kings of Persia

Daniel 10:14 and have come to tell you what will happen to your people in the final days. For here is a new vision about those days.’

Daniel 10:15 When he had said these things to me, I prostrated myself on the ground, without saying a word;

Daniel 10:16 then someone looking like a man touched my lips. I opened my mouth to speak, and I said to the person standing in front of me, ‘My lord, anguish overcomes me at this vision, and my strength deserts me.

Daniel 10:17 How can your servant speak to my lord now that I have no strength left and my breath fails me?’

Daniel 10:18 Once again, the person like a man touched me; he gave me strength.

Daniel 10:19 ‘Do not be afraid,’ he said, ‘you are a man specially chosen; peace be with you; play the man, be strong!’ And as he spoke to me I felt strong again and said, ‘Let my lord speak, you have given me strength.’

Daniel 10:20 He then said, ‘Do you know why I have come to you?

Daniel 10:21 It is to tell you what is written in the Book of Truth. I must go back to fight the Prince of Persia; when I have overcome him, the Prince of Javan will come next.In all this, there is no one to lend me support except Michael your Prince,

Daniel 11:1 on whom I rely to give me support and to reinforce me.

Daniel 11:2 And now I shall tell you the truth about these things. ‘Three more kings are going to rise in Persia; a fourth will come and be richer than all the others, and when, thanks to his wealth, he has grown powerful, he will make war on all the kingdoms of Greece.

Daniel 11:3 A mighty king will rise and govern a vast empire and do whatever he pleases.

Daniel 11:4 But once he has come to power, his empire will be broken up and parcelled out to the four winds of heaven, though not to his descendants: it will not be ruled as he ruled it, for his sovereignty will be uprooted and will pass to others than his own descendants.

Daniel 11:5 'The king of the south will grow powerful, but one of his princes will grow more powerful still, with an empire greater than his own.

Daniel 11:6 Some years later, these will conclude a treaty and, to ratify the agreement, the daughter of the king of the south will go to the king of the north. Her arm will not, however, retain its strength, nor his posterity endure: she will be handed over, she, her escorts and her child, and he who has had authority over her. In due time

Daniel 11:7 a sprig from her roots will rise in his place, will march on the defences, force the stronghold of the king of the north, and succeed in overcoming them.

Daniel 11:8 He will even carry off all their gods, their statues, their precious gold and silver vessels as booty to Egypt. For some years he will leave the king of the north in peace,

Daniel 11:9 but the latter will invade the kingdom of the king of the south, then retire to his own country.

Daniel 11:10 His sons will next be on the march, mustering a host of powerful forces; and he will advance, deploy, break through and march on the southern stronghold once again.

Daniel 11:11 The king of the south will fly into a rage and set out to give battle to the king of the north, who will have an immense army on his side, but this army will be defeated by him.

Daniel 11:12 The army will be annihilated; he will be triumphant; he will overthrow tens of thousands; yet he will have no enduring strength.

Daniel 11:13 The king of the north will come back, having recruited an even larger army than before, and finally, after some years, he will advance a second time with a great army and plentiful supplies.

Daniel 11:14 At that time, many will take up arms against the king of the south, and the more violent of your own people will rebel in the hope of realising the vision; but they will fail.

Daniel 11:15 The king of the north will then come and throw up siege-works to capture a strongly fortified city. The forces of the south will not stand their ground; the pick of the people will not be strong enough to resist.

Daniel 11:16 The invader will do as he pleases, no one will be able to resist him: he will take his stand in the Land of Splendour, destruction in his hands.

Daniel 11:17 He will set about conquering his entire kingdom, but will then make a treaty with him and, to overthrow the kingdom, give him a woman's hand; but this will not last or be to his advantage.

Daniel 11:18 He will next turn to the coasts and islands and conquer many of them, but a magistrate will put a stop to his outrages in such a way that he will be unable to repay outrage for outrage.

Daniel 11:19 'He will then turn on the strongholds of his own country, but will stumble, fall, and never be seen again.

Daniel 11:20 In his place there will rise a man who will send an extortioner to despoil the royal splendour; in a few days he will be shattered, though neither publicly nor in battle.

Daniel 11:21 'In his place will rise a wretch: royal honours will not be given to him, but rather he will insinuate himself into them at his pleasure and will gain possession of the kingdom by intrigue.

Daniel 11:22 Armies will be utterly routed and crushed by him, the Prince of the covenant too.

Daniel 11:23 Through his alliances he will act treacherously and, despite the smallness of his following, grow ever stronger.

Daniel 11:24 At his pleasure, he will invade rich provinces, acting as his fathers or his fathers' fathers never acted, distributing among them plunder, spoil and wealth, plotting his stratagems against the fortresses—for a time.

Daniel 11:25 'He will summon up his might and courage against the king of the south with a great army. The king of the south will march to war with a huge and powerful army but will not succeed, since he will be outwitted by trickery.

Daniel 11:26 Those who shared his food will ruin him; his army will be swept away, many will fall in the slaughter.

Daniel 11:27 'The two kings, seated at one table, hearts bent on evil, will tell their lies; but they will not have their way, for the appointed time is still to come.

Daniel 11:28 Then the wretch will return greatly enriched to his own country, his heart set against the holy covenant; he will take action and then return to his own country.

Daniel 11:29 In due time, he will make his way southwards again, but this time the outcome will not be as before.

Daniel 11:30 The ships of the Kittim will oppose him, and he will be worsted. He will retire and take furious action against the holy covenant and, as before, will favour those who forsake that holy covenant.

Daniel 11:31 'Forces of his will come and profane the Citadel-Sanctuary; they will abolish the perpetual sacrifice and install the appalling abomination there.

Daniel 11:32 Those who break the covenant he will seduce by his blandishments, but the people who know their God will stand firm and take action.

Daniel 11:33 Those of the people who are wise leaders will instruct many; for some days, however, they will stumble from sword and flame, captivity and pillage.

Daniel 11:34 And thus stumbling, little help will they receive, though many will be scheming in their support.

Daniel 11:35 Of the wise leaders some will stumble, and so a number of them will be purged, purified and made clean—until the time of the End, for the appointed time is still to come.

Daniel 11:36 'The king will do as he pleases, growing more and more arrogant, considering himself greater than all the gods; he will utter incredible blasphemies against the God of gods, and he will thrive until the wrath reaches bursting point; for what has been decreed will certainly be fulfilled.

Daniel 11:37 Heedless of his fathers' gods, heedless of the god whom women love, heedless of any god whatever, he will consider himself greatest of all.

Daniel 11:38 Instead of them, he will honour the god of fortresses, will honour a god unknown to his ancestors with gold and silver, precious stones and valuable presents.

Daniel 11:39 He will use the people of an alien god to defend the fortresses; he will confer great honours on those whom he acknowledges, by giving them wide authority and by parcelling the country out for rent.

Daniel 11:40 'When the time comes for the End, the king of the south will try conclusions with him; but the king of the north will come storming down on him with chariots, cavalry, and a large fleet. He will invade countries, overrun them and drive on.

Daniel 11:41 He will invade the Land of Splendour, and many will fall; but Edom, Moab, and what remains of the sons of Ammon will escape him.

Daniel 11:42 'He will reach out to attack countries: Egypt will not escape him.

Daniel 11:43 The gold and silver treasures and all the valuables of Egypt will lie in his power. Libyans and Cushites will be at his feet:

Daniel 11:44 but reports coming from the East and the north will worry him, and in great fury he will set out to bring ruin and complete destruction to many.

Daniel 11:45 He will pitch the tents of his royal headquarters between the sea and the mountains of the Holy Splendour. Yet he will come to his end—there will be no help for him.'

Daniel 12:1 ‘At that time Michael will arise—the great Prince, defender of your people. That will be a time of great distress, unparalleled since nations first came into existence. When that time comes, your own people will be spared—all those whose names are found written in the Book.

Daniel 12:2 ‘Of those who are sleeping in the Land of Dust, many will awaken, some to everlasting life, some to shame and everlasting disgrace.

Daniel 12:3 Those who are wise will shine as brightly as the expanse of the heavens, and those who have instructed many in uprightness, as bright as stars for all eternity.

Daniel 12:4 ‘But you, Daniel, must keep these words secret and keep the book sealed until the time of the End. Many will roam about, this way and that, and wickedness will continue to increase.’

Daniel 12:5 I, Daniel, then looked and saw two other people standing, one on the near bank of the river, the other on the far.

Daniel 12:6 One of them said to the man dressed in linen who was standing further up the stream, ‘How long until these wonders take place?’

Daniel 12:7 I heard the man speak who was dressed in linen, standing further up the stream: he raised his right hand and his left to heaven and swore by him who lives for ever, ‘A time and two times, and half a time; and all these things will come true, once the crushing of the holy people’s power is over.’

Daniel 12:8 I listened but did not understand. I then said, ‘My lord, what is to be the outcome?’

Daniel 12:9 ‘Go, Daniel,’ he said. ‘These words are to remain secret and sealed until the time of the End.

Daniel 12:10 Many will be cleansed, made white and purged; the wicked will persist in doing wrong; the wicked will never understand; those who are wise will understand.

Daniel 12:11 From the moment that the perpetual sacrifice is abolished and the appalling abomination set up: a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

Daniel 12:12 Blessed is he who perseveres and attains a thousand three hundred and thirty-five days.

Daniel 12:13 But you, go away and rest; and you will rise for your reward at the end of time.’

Daniel 13:1 In Babylon there lived a man named Joakim.

Daniel 13:2 He was married to a woman called Susanna daughter of Hilkiah, a woman of great beauty; and she was God-fearing, for

Daniel 13:3 her parents were worthy people and had instructed their daughter in the Law of Moses.

Daniel 13:4 Joakim was a very rich man and had a garden by his house; he used to be visited by a considerable number of the Jews, since he was held in greater respect than any other man.

Daniel 13:5 Two elderly men had been selected from the people, that year, to act as judges. Of such the Lord had said, 'Wickedness has come to Babylon through the elders and judges posing as guides to the people.'

Daniel 13:6 These men were often at Joakim's house, and all who were engaged in litigation used to come to them.

Daniel 13:7 At midday, when the people had gone away, Susanna would take a walk in her husband's garden.

Daniel 13:8 The two elders, who used to watch her every day as she came in to take her walk, gradually began to desire her.

Daniel 13:9 They threw reason aside, making no effort to turn their eyes to Heaven, and forgetting the demands of virtue.

Daniel 13:10 Both were inflamed by passion for her, but they hid their desire from each other,

Daniel 13:11 for they were ashamed to admit the longing to sleep with her,

Daniel 13:12 but they made sure of watching her every day.

Daniel 13:13 One day, having parted with the words, 'Let us go home, then, it is time for the midday meal,' they went off in different directions,

Daniel 13:14 only to retrace their steps and find themselves face to face again. Obliged then to explain, they admitted their desire and agreed to look for an opportunity of surprising her alone.

Daniel 13:15 So they waited for a favourable moment; and one day Susanna came as usual, accompanied only by two young maidservants. The day was hot and she wanted to bathe in the garden.

Daniel 13:16 There was no one about except the two elders, spying on her from their hiding place.

Daniel 13:17 She said to the servants, 'Bring me some oil and balsam and shut the garden door while I bathe.'

Daniel 13:18 They did as they were told, shutting the garden door and going back to the house by a side entrance to fetch what she had asked for; they knew nothing about the elders, for they had concealed themselves.

Daniel 13:19 Hardly were the maids gone than the two elders sprang up and rushed upon her.

Daniel 13:20 'Look,' they said, 'the garden door is shut, no one can see us. We want to have you, so give in and let us!

Daniel 13:21 Refuse, and we shall both give evidence that a young man was with you and that this was why you sent your maids away.'

Daniel 13:22 Susanna sighed. 'I am trapped,' she said, 'whatever I do. If I agree, it means death for me; if I resist, I cannot get away from you.

Daniel 13:23 But I prefer to fall innocent into your power than to sin in the eyes of the Lord.'

Daniel 13:24 She then cried out as loud as she could. The two elders began shouting too, putting the blame on her,

Daniel 13:25 and one of them ran to open the garden door.

Daniel 13:26 The household, hearing the shouting in the garden, rushed out by the side entrance to see what had happened to her.

Daniel 13:27 Once the elders had told their story, the servants were thoroughly taken aback, since nothing of this sort had ever been said of Susanna.

Daniel 13:28 Next day a meeting was held at the house of her husband Joakim. The two elders arrived, full of their wicked plea against Susanna, to have her put to death.

Daniel 13:29 They addressed the company, 'Summon Susanna daughter of Hilkiah and wife of Joakim.' She was sent for,

Daniel 13:30 and came accompanied by her parents, her children and all her relations.

Daniel 13:31 Susanna was very graceful and beautiful to look at;

Daniel 13:32 she was veiled, so the wretches made her unveil in order to feast their eyes on her beauty.

Daniel 13:33 All her own people were weeping, and so were all the others who saw her.

Daniel 13:34 The two elders stood up, with all the people round them, and laid their hands on her head.

Daniel 13:35 Tearfully she turned her eyes to Heaven, her heart confident in God.

Daniel 13:36 The elders then spoke, 'While we were walking by ourselves in the garden, this woman arrived with two maids. She shut the garden door and then dismissed the servants.

Daniel 13:37 A young man, who had been hiding, went over to her and they lay together.

Daniel 13:38 From the end of the garden where we were, we saw this crime taking place and hurried towards them.

Daniel 13:39 Though we saw them together, we were unable to catch the man: he was too strong for us; he opened the door and took to his heels.

Daniel 13:40 We did, however, catch this woman and ask her who the young man was.

Daniel 13:41 She refused to tell us. That is our evidence.’ Since they were elders of the people and judges, the assembly accepted their word: Susanna was condemned to death.

Daniel 13:42 She cried out as loud as she could, ‘Eternal God, you know all secrets and everything before it happens;

Daniel 13:43 you know that they have given false evidence against me. And now I must die, innocent as I am of everything their malice has invented against me!’

Daniel 13:44 The Lord heard her cry

Daniel 13:45 and, as she was being led away to die, he roused the holy spirit residing in a young boy called Daniel

Daniel 13:46 who began to shout, ‘I am innocent of this woman’s death!’

Daniel 13:47 At this all the people turned to him and asked, ‘What do you mean by that?’

Daniel 13:48 Standing in the middle of the crowd, he replied, ‘Are you so stupid, children of Israel, as to condemn a daughter of Israel unheard, and without troubling to find out the truth?

Daniel 13:49 Go back to the scene of the trial: these men have given false evidence against her.’

Daniel 13:50 All the people hurried back, and the elders said to Daniel, ‘Come and sit with us and tell us what you mean, since God has given you the gifts that elders have.’

Daniel 13:51 Daniel said, ‘Keep the men well apart from each other, for I want to question them.’

Daniel 13:52 When the men had been separated, Daniel had one of them brought to him. ‘You have grown old in wickedness,’ he said, ‘and now the sins of your earlier days have overtaken you,

Daniel 13:53 you with your unjust judgements, your condemnation of the innocent, your acquittal of the guilty, although the Lord has said, “You must not put the innocent and upright to death.”

Daniel 13:54 Now then, since you saw her so clearly, tell me what sort of tree you saw them lying under.’ He replied, ‘Under an acacia tree.’

Daniel 13:55 Daniel said, ‘Indeed! Your lie recoils on your own head: the angel of God has already received from him your sentence and will cut you in half.’

Daniel 13:56 He dismissed the man, ordered the other to be brought and said to him, ‘Son of Canaan, not of Judah, beauty has seduced you, lust has led your heart astray!

Daniel 13:57 This is how you have been behaving with the daughters of Israel, and they have been too frightened to resist; but here is a daughter of Judah who could not stomach your wickedness!

Daniel 13:58 Now then, tell me what sort of tree you surprised them under.' He replied, 'Under an aspen tree.'

Daniel 13:59 Daniel said, 'Indeed! Your lie recoils on your own head: the angel of God is waiting with a sword to rend you in half, and destroy the pair of you.'

Daniel 13:60 Then the whole assembly shouted, blessing God, the Saviour of those who trust in him.

Daniel 13:61 And they turned on the two elders whom Daniel had convicted of false evidence out of their own mouths.

Daniel 13:62 As the Law of Moses prescribes, they were given the same punishment as they had schemed to inflict on their neighbour. They were put to death. And thus, that day, an innocent life was saved.

Daniel 13:63 Hilkiah and his wife gave thanks to God for their daughter Susanna, and so did her husband Joakim and all his relations, because she had been acquitted of anything dishonourable.

Daniel 13:64 From that day onwards, Daniel's reputation stood high with the people.

Daniel 14:1 When King Astyages joined his ancestors, Cyrus of Persia succeeded him.

Daniel 14:2 Daniel was very close to the king, who respected him more than any of his other friends.

Daniel 14:3 Now, in Babylon there was an idol called Bel, to which twelve bushels of the finest flour, forty sheep and six measures of wine were offered every day.

Daniel 14:4 The king venerated this idol and used to go and worship it every day. Daniel, however, worshipped his own God.

Daniel 14:5 'Why do you not worship Bel?' the king asked Daniel. 'I do not worship idols made by human hand,' Daniel replied, 'I worship the living God who made heaven and earth and who is lord over all living creatures.'

Daniel 14:6 'Do you not believe, then,' said the king, 'that Bel is a living god? Can you not see how much he eats and drinks each day?'

Daniel 14:7 Daniel laughed. 'Your Majesty,' he said, 'do not be taken in; he is clay inside, and bronze outside, and has never eaten or drunk anything.'

Daniel 14:8 This made the king angry; he summoned his priests, 'Tell me who eats all this food,' he said, 'or die. Prove to me that Bel really eats it, and I will have Daniel put to death for blaspheming him.'

Daniel 14:9 Daniel said to the king, 'Let it be as you say.'

Daniel 14:10 There were seventy of these priests, to say nothing of their wives and children. The king went to the temple of Bel, taking

Daniel with him.

Daniel 14:11 The priests of Bel said to him, 'We shall now go out, and you, Your Majesty, will lay out the meal and mix the wine and set it out. Then, lock the door and seal it with your personal seal. If, when you return in the morning, you do not find that everything has been eaten by Bel, let us be put to death; otherwise let Daniel, that slanderer!'

Daniel 14:12 They were thinking—hence their confidence—of a secret entrance which they had made under the table, and by which they came in regularly and took the offerings away.

Daniel 14:13 When the priests had gone and the king had set out the food for Bel,

Daniel 14:14 Daniel made his servants bring ashes and spread them all over the temple floor, with no other witness than the king. They then left the building, shut the door and, sealing it with the king's seal, went away.

Daniel 14:15 That night, as usual, the priests came with their wives and children; they ate and drank everything.

Daniel 14:16 The king was up very early next morning, and Daniel with him.

Daniel 14:17 'Daniel,' said the king, 'are the seals intact?' 'They are intact, Your Majesty,' he replied.

Daniel 14:18 The king then opened the door and, taking one look at the table, exclaimed, 'You are great, O Bel! There is no deception in you!'

Daniel 14:19 But Daniel laughed; and, restraining the king from going in any further, he said, 'Look at the floor and take note whose footmarks these are!'

Daniel 14:20 'I can see the footmarks of men, of women and of children,' said the king,

Daniel 14:21 and angrily ordered the priests to be arrested, with their wives and children. They then showed him the secret door through which they used to come and take what was on the table.

Daniel 14:22 The king had them put to death and handed Bel over to Daniel who destroyed both the idol and its temple.

Daniel 14:23 There was a great dragon which the Babylonians worshipped too.

Daniel 14:24 The king said to Daniel, 'Are you going to tell me that this is made of bronze? Look, it is alive; it eats and drinks; you cannot deny that this is a living god; worship it, then.'

Daniel 14:25 Daniel replied, 'I will worship the Lord my God; he is the living God. With your permission, Your Majesty, without using either sword or club, I shall kill this dragon.'

Daniel 14:26 'You have my permission,' said the king.

Daniel 14:27 Whereupon, Daniel took some pitch, some fat and some hair and boiled them up together, rolled the mixture into balls and fed them to the dragon; the dragon swallowed them and burst. Daniel said, ‘Now look at the sort of thing you worship!’

Daniel 14:28 The Babylonians were furious when they heard about this and rose against the king. ‘The king has turned Jew,’ they said, ‘he has allowed Bel to be overthrown, and the dragon to be killed, and he has put the priests to death.’

Daniel 14:29 So they went to the king and said, ‘Hand Daniel over to us or else we shall kill you and your family.’

Daniel 14:30 They pressed him so hard that the king found himself forced to hand Daniel over to them.

Daniel 14:31 They threw Daniel into the lion pit, and there he stayed for six days.

Daniel 14:32 In the pit were seven lions, which were given two human bodies and two sheep every day; but for this period they were not given anything, to make sure they would eat Daniel.

Daniel 14:33 Now, the prophet Habakkuk was in Judaea: he had been making a stew and breaking up bread into a basket. He was on his way to the fields, taking this to the harvesters,

Daniel 14:34 when the angel of the Lord spoke to him, ‘Take the meal you are carrying to Babylon, and give it to Daniel in the lion pit.’

Daniel 14:35 ‘Lord,’ replied Habakkuk, ‘I have not even seen Babylon and know nothing about this pit.’

Daniel 14:36 The angel of the Lord took hold of his head and carried him off by the hair to Babylon where, with a great blast of his breath, he set Habakkuk down on the edge of the pit.

Daniel 14:37 ‘Daniel, Daniel,’ Habakkuk shouted, ‘take the meal that God has sent you.’

Daniel 14:38 And Daniel said, ‘You have kept me in mind, O God; you have not deserted those who love you.’

Daniel 14:39 Rising to his feet, he ate the meal, while the angel of God carried Habakkuk back in a moment to his own country.

Daniel 14:40 On the seventh day, the king came to lament over Daniel; on reaching the pit he looked inside, and there sat Daniel.

Daniel 14:41 ‘You are great, O Lord, God of Daniel,’ he exclaimed, ‘there is no god but you!’

Daniel 14:42 He then had Daniel released from the pit and the plotters of Daniel’s ruin thrown in instead, where they were instantly eaten before his eyes.

Hosea

1:1 The word of Yahweh which came to Hosea son of Beeri during the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah kings of Judah, and of Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel.

Hosea 1:2 The beginning of what Yahweh said through Hosea: Yahweh said to Hosea, 'Go, marry a whore, and get children with a whore; for the country itself has become nothing but a whore by abandoning Yahweh.'

Hosea 1:3 So he went and married Gomer daughter of Diblaim, who conceived and bore him a son.

Hosea 1:4 Yahweh then said to him, 'Call him Jezreel, for in a little while I shall punish the House of Jehu for the bloodshed at Jezreel and put an end to the sovereignty of the House of Israel.

Hosea 1:5 When that day comes, I shall break the bow of Israel in the Valley of Jezreel.'

Hosea 1:6 She conceived a second time and gave birth to a daughter. Yahweh then said to him, 'Call her Lo-Ruhamah, for I shall show no more pity for the House of Israel, I shall never forgive them again.

Hosea 1:7 (Instead, I shall take pity on the House of Judah and shall save them, not by bow or sword or force of arms, not by horses or horsemen, but by Yahweh their God.)'

Hosea 1:8 After weaning Lo-Ruhamah, she conceived and gave birth to a son.

Hosea 1:9 Yahweh said, 'Call him Lo-Ammi, for you are not my people and I do not exist for you.'

Hosea 2:1 But the Israelites will become as numerous as the sands of the sea, which cannot be measured or counted. In the very place where they were told, 'You are not my people,' they will be told they are 'Children of the living God'.

Hosea 2:2 The Judaeans and Israelites will be reunited and will choose themselves a single head, and will spread far beyond their country, for great will be the Day of Jezreel!

Hosea 2:3 Then call your brothers, 'My people', and your sisters, 'You have been pitied'.

Hosea 2:4 To court, take your mother to court! For she is no longer my wife nor am I her husband. She must either remove her whoring ways from her face and her adulteries from between her breasts,

Hosea 2:5 or I shall strip her and expose her naked as the day she was born; I shall make her as bare as the desert, I shall make her as dry as arid country, and let her die of thirst.

Hosea 2:6 And I shall feel no pity for her children since they are the children of her whorings.

Hosea 2:7 Yes, their mother has played the whore, she who conceived them has disgraced herself by saying, ‘I shall chase after my lovers; they will assure me my keep, my wool, my flax, my oil and my drinks.’

Hosea 2:8 This is why I shall block her way with thorns, and wall her in to stop her in her tracks;

Hosea 2:9 then if she chases her lovers she will not catch them, if she looks for them she will not find them, and then she will say, ‘I shall go back to my first husband, I was better off then than I am now;’

Hosea 2:10 she had never realised before that I was the one who was giving her the grain, new wine and oil, giving her more and more silver and gold which they have spent on Baal!

Hosea 2:11 This is why I shall take back my grain when it is due and my new wine, when the season for it comes. I shall withdraw my wool and my flax which were to cover her naked body,

Hosea 2:12 and then display her infamy before her lovers’ eyes- no one will take her from me then!

Hosea 2:13 I shall put an end to all her merrymaking, her festivals, her New Moons and her Sabbaths and all her solemn feasts.

Hosea 2:14 I shall make her vines and fig trees derelict of which she used to say, ‘These are the pay my lovers gave me.’ I shall turn them into a jungle: wild animals will feed on them.

Hosea 2:15 I mean to make her pay for the feast-days on which she burnt incense to the Baals, when she tricked herself out in her earrings and necklaces to chase after her lovers, and forget me! -declares Yahweh.

Hosea 2:16 But look, I am going to seduce her and lead her into the desert and speak to her heart.

Hosea 2:17 There I shall give her back her vineyards, and make the Vale of Achor a gateway of hope. There she will respond as when she was young, as on the day when she came up from Egypt.

Hosea 2:18 When that day comes- declares Yahweh- you will call me, ‘My husband’, no more will you call me, ‘My Baal’.

Hosea 2:19 I shall banish the names of the Baals from her lips and their name will be mentioned no more.

Hosea 2:20 When that day comes I shall make a treaty for them with the wild animals, with the birds of heaven and the creeping things of the earth; I shall break the bow and the sword and warfare, and banish them from the country, and I will let them sleep secure.

Hosea 2:21 I shall betroth you to myself for ever, I shall betroth you in uprightness and justice, and faithful love and tenderness.

Hosea 2:22 Yes, I shall betroth you to myself in loyalty and in the knowledge of Yahweh.

Hosea 2:23 When that day comes, I shall respond -declares Yahweh- I shall respond to the heavens and they will respond to the earth

Hosea 2:24 and the earth will respond to the grain, the new wine and oil, and they will respond to Jezreel.

Hosea 2:25 I shall sow her in the country to be mine, I shall take pity on Lo-Ruhamah, I shall tell Lo-Ammi, 'You are my people,' and he will say, 'You are my God.'

Hosea 3:1 Yahweh said to me, 'Go again, love a woman who loves another man, an adulteress, and love her as Yahweh loves the Israelites although they turn to other gods and love raisin cakes.'

Hosea 3:2 So I bought her for fifteen shekels of silver, a homer of barley and a skin of wine,

Hosea 3:3 and I said to her, 'You will have to spend a long time waiting for me without playing the whore and without giving yourself to any man, and I will behave in the same way towards you.'

Hosea 3:4 For the Israelites will have to spend a long time without king or leader, without sacrifice or sacred pillar, without ephod or domestic images;

Hosea 3:5 but after that, the Israel- ites will return and again seek Yahweh their God and David their king, and turn trembling to Yahweh for his bounty in the final days.

Hosea 4:1 Israelites, hear what Yahweh says, for Yahweh indicts the citizens of the country: there is no loyalty, no faithful love, no knowledge of God in the country,

Hosea 4:2 only perjury and lying, murder, theft, adultery and violence, bloodshed after bloodshed.

Hosea 4:3 This is why the country is in mourning and all its citizens pining away, the wild animals also and birds of the sky, even the fish in the sea will disappear.

Hosea 4:4 But let no one denounce, no one rebuke; it is you, priest, that I denounce.

Hosea 4:5 Priest, you will stumble in broad daylight, and the prophet will stumble with you in the dark, and I will make your mother perish.

Hosea 4:6 My people perish for want of knowledge. Since you yourself have rejected knowledge, so I shall reject you from my priesthood; since you have forgotten the teaching of your God, I in my turn shall forget your children.

Hosea 4:7 The more of them there have been, the more they have sinned against me; they have bartered their Glory for Shame.

Hosea 4:8 They feed on the sin of my people, they are greedy for their iniquity.

Hosea 4:9 But as with the people, so with the priest, I shall punish them for their conduct, I shall pay them back for their deeds.

Hosea 4:10 They will eat but never be satisfied, they will play the whore but not grow more prolific, since they have deserted Yahweh to give themselves up

Hosea 4:11 to whoring. Old wine and new wine addle my people's wits,

Hosea 4:12 they consult their block of wood, and their stick explains what they should do. For an urge to go whoring has led them astray and whoring they go and desert their God;

Hosea 4:13 they offer sacrifice on the mountain tops, they burn incense on the hills, under oak and poplar and terebinth, for pleasant is their shade. So, although your daughters play the whore and your daughters-in-law commit adultery,

Hosea 4:14 I shall not punish your daughters for playing the whore nor your daughters-in-law for committing adultery, when the men themselves are wandering off with whores and offering sacrifice with sacred prostitutes, for a people with no understanding is doomed.

Hosea 4:15 Though you, Israel, play the whore, there is no need for Judah to sin too. Do not go to Gilgal, do not go up to Beth-Aven, do not swear oaths 'by Yahweh's life',

Hosea 4:16 for Israel is as stubborn as a stubborn heifer; so is Yahweh likely to pasture him like a lamb in a broad meadow?

Hosea 4:17 Ephraim has made a pact with idols- let him alone!

Hosea 4:18 Their drunken orgy over, they do nothing but play the whore, preferring Shame to their Pride;

Hosea 4:19 the wind with its wings will carry them off and their sacrifices will bring them nothing but disgrace.

Hosea 5:1 Hear this, you priests, listen, House of Israel, pay attention, royal House, for it is you who have justice in your care, but you have been a snare at Mizpah and a net outspread on Tabor.

Hosea 5:2 They have dug the ditch deep at Shittim and so I am going to punish them all.

Hosea 5:3 Ephraim have I known, Israel is not hidden from me; and yet, Ephraim, you have played the whore, Israel is befouled.

Hosea 5:4 Their deeds do not allow them to return to their God, since an urge to play the whore possesses them and they no longer know Yahweh.

Hosea 5:5 Israel's arrogance is his accuser, the guilt of Israel and Ephraim is their undoing, Judah too will be undone with them.

Hosea 5:6 Though they go in search of Yahweh with their sheep and cattle, they will not find him; he has withdrawn from them.

Hosea 5:7 They have betrayed Yahweh because they have fathered bastards; now the new moon will devour them and their fields.

Hosea 5:8 Sound the horn in Gibeah, the trumpet in Ramah, raise the war cry in Beth-Aven, 'We are behind you, Benjamin!'

Hosea 5:9 When the day of punishment comes, Ephraim will be a wasteland; on the tribes of Israel I have pronounced certain doom.

Hosea 5:10 The rulers of Judah act like men who move the boundary stone; I shall pour my wrath out on them like a flood.

Hosea 5:11 Ephraim is oppressed, crushed by the sentence, for having deliberately followed a Lie.

Hosea 5:12 Because of this, I shall be like ringworm for Ephraim and like gangrene for the House of Judah.

Hosea 5:13 Once Ephraim realised that he was sick and Judah that he had an ulcer, Ephraim then went to Assyria, he sent messengers to the Great King; but he has no power to cure you or to heal you of your sore;

Hosea 5:14 for I shall be like a lion to Ephraim, like a young lion to the House of Judah; I myself shall rend them, then go my way, shall carry them off, beyond hope of rescue.

Hosea 5:15 I shall go back to my place until they confess their guilt and seek me, seek me eagerly in their distress.

Hosea 6:1 Come, let us return to Yahweh. He has rent us and he will heal us; he has struck us and he will bind up our wounds;

Hosea 6:2 after two days he will revive us, on the third day he will raise us up and we shall live in his presence.

Hosea 6:3 Let us know, let us strive to know Yahweh; that he will come is as certain as the dawn. He will come to us like a shower, like the rain of springtime to the earth.

Hosea 6:4 What am I to do with you, Ephraim? What am I to do with you, Judah? For your love is like morning mist, like the dew that quickly disappears.

Hosea 6:5 This is why I have hacked them to pieces by means of the prophets, why I have killed them with words from my mouth, why my sentence will blaze forth like the dawn-

Hosea 6:6 for faithful love is what pleases me, not sacrifice; knowledge of God, not burnt offerings.

Hosea 6:7 But they have broken the covenant at Adam, there they have betrayed me.

Hosea 6:8 Gilead is a city of evil-doers, full of bloody footprints.

Hosea 6:9 Like so many robbers in ambush, a gang of priests commits murder on the road to Shechem- what infamous behaviour!

Hosea 6:10 At Bethel I have seen a horrible thing; there Ephraim plays the whore, Israel is befouled.

Hosea 6:11 For you too, Judah, a harvest is in store, when I restore my people’s fortunes.

Hosea 7:1 Whenever I would heal Israel, I am confronted by the guilt of Ephraim and the evil-doings of Samaria; for deceit is their principle of behaviour; the thief breaks into the house, marauders raid in the open;

Hosea 7:2 and they never pause to consider that I remember all their wicked deeds; and now their own deeds hem them in and stare me in the face.

Hosea 7:3 They amuse the king with their wickedness and the chief men with their lies.

Hosea 7:4 They are all adulterers, hot as an oven which the baker need not stoke from the time he has kneaded the dough until it rises.

Hosea 7:5 At the holiday for our king, the ministers become inflamed with wine, while he accepts the homage of people

Hosea 7:6 who laugh at him. Their hearts are like an oven as they plot, all night their passion slumbers, then in the morning it bursts into flame;

Hosea 7:7 yes, all of them as hot as ovens, they consume their rulers. All their kings have fallen thus, not one of them has ever called on me.

Hosea 7:8 Ephraim mixes with the nations. Ephraim is a half-baked cake.

Hosea 7:9 Foreigners have eaten his strength away but he is unconscious of it; even his hair is turning grey but he is unconscious of it.

Hosea 7:10 (Israel’s arrogance is his own accuser; but they do not come back to Yahweh their God or seek him, despite all this.)

Hosea 7:11 Ephraim is like a silly, witless pigeon calling on Egypt, turning to Assyria.

Hosea 7:12 Wherever they turn, I shall spread my net over them, I shall bring them down like the birds of the sky, I shall punish them for their perversity.

Hosea 7:13 Woe to them for having fled from me! Ruin seize them for having wronged me! I have rescued them again and again and they have only told lies about me.

Hosea 7:14 Theirs is no heartfelt cry to me when they lament on their beds; when they gash themselves over the grain and new wine, they are still rebelling against me.

Hosea 7:15 Though I supported and gave strength to their arms, they plan how to hurt me.

Hosea 7:16 They turn to what does not exist, they are like a faulty bow. Their leaders will fall by the sword because of their arrogant talk;

how they will be laughed at in Egypt!

Hosea 8:1 Put the trumpet to your lips! Like an eagle, disaster is swooping on Yahweh's home! Because they have violated my covenant and been unfaithful to my Law,

Hosea 8:2 in vain will they cry, 'My God!' In vain, 'We, Israel, know you!'

Hosea 8:3 Israel has rejected the good, the enemy will pursue them.

Hosea 8:4 They have set up kings, but without my consent, and appointed princes, but without my knowledge. With their silver and gold, they have made themselves idols, but only to be destroyed.

Hosea 8:5 I spurn your calf, Samaria! My anger blazes against them! How long will it be before they recover their innocence?

Hosea 8:6 For it is the product of Israel- a craftsman made the thing, it is no god at all! The calf of Samaria will be broken to pieces!

Hosea 8:7 Since they sow the wind, they will reap the whirlwind; stalk without ear, it will never yield flour- or if it does, foreigners will swallow it.

Hosea 8:8 Israel has himself been swallowed; now they are lost among the nations like something no one wants,

Hosea 8:9 for having made approaches to Assyria- like a wild donkey, all alone. Ephraim has rented lovers

Hosea 8:10 and because he has rented them from the nations I am now going to round them up; soon they will feel the weight of the king of princes!

Hosea 8:11 Ephraim keeps building altars for his sins, these very altars are themselves a sin.

Hosea 8:12 However much of my Law I write for him, Ephraim regards it as alien to him.

Hosea 8:13 They offer sacrifices to me and eat the meat, they do not win Yahweh's favour. On the contrary, he will remember their guilt and punish their sins; they will have to go back to Egypt.

Hosea 8:14 Israel has forgotten his Maker and has built palaces, while Judah keeps on building fortified towns; but I shall send fire down on his cities to devour their citadels.

Hosea 9:1 No merrymaking, Israel, for you, no rejoicing like other peoples, for you have deserted your God to play the whore, you have loved the fee of prostitution on every threshing-floor.

Hosea 9:2 The threshing-floor and wine-press will not feed them; they will be disappointed of new wine.

Hosea 9:3 No more will they live in Yahweh's country; Ephraim will have to go back to Egypt, and eat polluted food in Assyria.

Hosea 9:4 No more will they pour libations of wine to Yahweh, and their sacrifices will not win his favour but will be like funeral fare for them: whoever eats them will be polluted; for their food will be for themselves alone, not being offered in Yahweh's home.

Hosea 9:5 What will you do on the solemn feast-day, on the day of Yahweh's festival?

Hosea 9:6 What a scene of devastastion they have left! Egypt will round them up, Memphis will bury them, nettles will inherit their fields and thorn-bushes invade their homesteads.

Hosea 9:7 The days of punishment have come, the days of retribution are here; Israel knows it! 'The prophet is mad and the inspired man a fool!' Great has been your guilt- all the greater then the hostility!

Hosea 9:8 The watchman of Ephraim is with my God: it is the prophet- and a fowler's trap is placed on all his paths; and in the shrine of his God there is enmity towards him.

Hosea 9:9 They have become deeply corrupt as in the days of Gibeah; he will remember their guilt, he will punish their sins.

Hosea 9:10 It was like finding grapes in the desert when I found Israel, like seeing early fruit on a fig tree when I saw your ancestors; but when they reached Baal-Peor they devoted themselves to Shame and became as loathsome as the thing they loved.

Hosea 9:11 The glory of Ephraim will fly away like a bird: no giving birth, no pregnancy, no conceiving.

Hosea 9:12 If they rear their children, I shall take them away before they grow up! Woe to them indeed when I leave them!

Hosea 9:13 Ephraim looked to me like Tyre, planted in a meadow, so Ephraim will present his children to the slaughterer.

Hosea 9:14 Give them, Yahweh- what are you to give? - give them wombs that miscarry and dried-up breasts.

Hosea 9:15 Their wickedness appeared in full at Gilgal, there I came to hate them. Because of the wickedness of their deeds I shall drive them from my home, I shall love them no longer; all their princes are rebels.

Hosea 9:16 Ephraim is blasted, their root has dried out, they will bear no more fruit. And even if they do bear children I shall slaughter the darlings of their womb.

Hosea 9:17 Because they have not listened to him, my God will cast them off and they will become wanderers among the nations.

Hosea 10:1 Israel was a luxuriant vine yielding plenty of fruit. The more his fruit increased, the more altars he built; the richer his land became, the richer he made the sacred pillars.

Hosea 10:2 Theirs is a divided heart; now they will have to pay for it. He himself will hack down their altars and wreck their sacred pillars.

Hosea 10:3 Then they will say, ‘We have no king because we have not feared Yahweh, but what could the king do for us?’

Hosea 10:4 Speeches are made, oaths sworn to no purpose, agreements concluded, and so-called justice spreads like a poisonous weed along the furrows of the fields!

Hosea 10:5 Samaria’s citizens will tremble for the calf of Beth-Aven; the people there will mourn for it, so will its idol-priests, as they exult in its glory once it has been carried away!

Hosea 10:6 It will be carried off to Assyria as tribute to the Great King. Ephraim will reap the shame, and Israel blush for his intentions.

Hosea 10:7 Samaria has had her day. Her king is like a straw drifting on the water.

Hosea 10:8 The high places of Aven, the sin of Israel, will be destroyed; thorns and thistles will grow over their altars. Then they will say to the mountains, ‘Cover us!’ and to the hills, ‘Fall on us!’

Hosea 10:9 Since the days of Gibeah, Israel, you have sinned. There they have taken their stand, and will not war overtake the guilty at Gibeah?

Hosea 10:10 I am coming to punish them; nations will muster against them to punish them for their two crimes.

Hosea 10:11 Ephraim is a well-trained heifer that loves to tread the grain. But I have laid a yoke on her fine neck, I shall put Ephraim into harness, Judah will have to plough, Jacob must draw the harrow.

Hosea 10:12 Sow saving justice for yourselves, reap a harvest of faithful love; break up your fallow ground: it is time to seek out Yahweh until he comes to rain saving justice down on you.

Hosea 10:13 You have ploughed wickedness, you have reaped iniquity, you have eaten the fruit of falsehood. Because you have trusted in your chariots, in your great numbers of warriors,

Hosea 10:14 turmoil is going to break out among your people, and all your fortresses will be laid waste. As Shalman laid Beth-Arbel waste on the day of battle, dashing mothers to pieces on their children,

Hosea 10:15 so it shall be done to you, Bethel, because of your great wickedness; at dawn, the king of Israel will be no more.

Hosea 11:1 When Israel was a child I loved him, and I called my son out of Egypt.

Hosea 11:2 But the more I called, the further they went away from me; they offered sacrifice to Baal and burnt incense to idols.

Hosea 11:3 I myself taught Ephraim to walk, I myself took them by the arm, but they did not know that I was the one caring for them,

Hosea 11:4 that I was leading them with human ties, with leading-strings of love, that, with them, I was like someone lifting an infant to his cheek, and that I bent down to feed him.

Hosea 11:5 He will not have to go back to Egypt, Assyria will be his king instead! Since he has refused to come back to me,

Hosea 11:6 the sword will rage through his cities, destroying the bars of his gates, devouring them because of their plots.

Hosea 11:7 My people are bent on disregarding me; if they are summoned to come up, not one of them makes a move.

Hosea 11:8 Ephraim, how could I part with you? Israel, how could I give you up? How could I make you like Admah or treat you like Zeboiim? My heart within me is overwhelmed, fever grips my inmost being.

Hosea 11:9 I will not give rein to my fierce anger, I will not destroy Ephraim again, for I am God, not man, the Holy One in your midst, and I shall not come to you in anger.

Hosea 11:10 They will follow Yahweh; he will roar like a lion, and when he roars, his children will come fluttering from the west,

Hosea 11:11 fluttering like sparrows from Egypt, like pigeons from Assyria, and I shall settle them in their homes -declares Yahweh.

Hosea 12:1 Ephraim besieges me with lying, the House of Israel with duplicity. (But Judah still is on God’s side, he is faithful to the Holy One.)

Hosea 12:2 Ephraim feeds himself on wind, all day he chases the wind from the East, he heaps up cheating and violence; they make a treaty with Assyria, at the same time sending oil to Egypt.

Hosea 12:3 Yahweh has a case against Judah, he will punish Jacob as his conduct merits, he will repay him as his deeds deserve.

Hosea 12:4 In the very womb he overreached his brother, in maturity he wrestled against God.

Hosea 12:5 He wrestled with the angel and beat him, he wept and pleaded with him. He met him at Bethel and there God spoke to us-

Hosea 12:6 yes, Yahweh, God Sabaoth, Yahweh is his title!

Hosea 12:7 So turn back with God’s help, maintain faithful love and loyalty and always put your trust in your God.

Hosea 12:8 Merchants use fraudulent scales. To defraud is his delight.

Hosea 12:9 ‘How rich I have become!’ says Ephraim, ‘I have made a fortune.’ But of all his gains he will keep nothing because of the sin of which he is guilty.

Hosea 12:10 But I have been Yahweh your God since your days in Egypt and will make you live in tents again as in the days of Meeting.

Hosea 12:11 I will speak through prophets, I will give vision after vision and through the ministry of prophets will speak in parables.

Hosea 12:12 Is Gilead a sink of iniquity? Yes, they are a worthless lot! At Gilgal they sacrifice to bulls, that is why their altars are like heaps of stones in a ploughed field.

Hosea 12:13 Jacob fled to the countryside of Aram, Israel slaved to win a wife, to win a wife he looked after sheep.

Hosea 12:14 By a prophet Yahweh brought Israel out of Egypt and by a prophet Israel was preserved.

Hosea 12:15 Ephraim gave bitter provocation- Yahweh will bring his bloodshed down on him, his Lord will repay him for his insult.

Hosea 13:1 When Ephraim used to speak, all trembled; he was a power in Israel; but once he had incurred guilt with Baal, he died.

Hosea 13:2 And now they compound their sins by casting images for themselves out of their silver, idols of their own invention, the work of craftsmen, all of it! 'Sacrifice to them,' they say! Men bestow kisses to calves!

Hosea 13:3 That is why they will be like morning mist, like the dew that quickly disappears, like the chaff whirled from the threshing-floor, like smoke escaping through the window.

Hosea 13:4 But I have been Yahweh your God since your days in Egypt when you knew no god but me, since you had no one else to save you.

Hosea 13:5 I cared for you in the desert, in the land of dreadful drought.

Hosea 13:6 I pastured them, and they were satisfied; once satisfied, their hearts grew proud, and therefore they forgot me.

Hosea 13:7 So now I shall be like a lion to them, like a leopard I shall lurk beside the road,

Hosea 13:8 like a bear robbed of her cubs I shall meet them and rend the membrane of their heart, and there like a lioness I shall eat them, like a wild beast tear them to shreds.

Hosea 13:9 Israel, you have destroyed yourself though in me lies your help.

Hosea 13:10 Your king, where is he now, to save you, or the governors in all your cities? - whom you once pleaded for, saying, 'Give me a king and princes!'

Hosea 13:11 In my anger I gave you a king and in my wrath I have taken him away.

Hosea 13:12 Ephraim's guilt is packed away, his sin is locked up.

Hosea 13:13 Pangs as of childbirth overtake him, and a stupid child he is; his time is due, but he does not leave the womb.

Hosea 13:14 Shall I save them from the clutches of Sheol? Shall I buy them back from Death? Where are your plagues, Death? Where are your scourges, Sheol? Compassion will be banished from my sight!

Hosea 13:15 Though Ephraim bears more fruit than his brothers, the wind from the East will come, Yahweh's breath blowing up from the desert to dry his spring, to dry up his fountain, to strip his treasury of everything worth having.

Hosea 14:1 Samaria will pay the penalty for having rebelled against her God. They will fall by the sword, their little children will be dashed to pieces and their pregnant women disembowelled.

Hosea 14:2 Israel, come back to Yahweh your God your guilt was the cause of your downfall.

Hosea 14:3 Provide yourself with words and come back to Yahweh. Say to him, 'Take all guilt away and give us what is good, instead of bulls we will dedicate to you our lips.

Hosea 14:4 Assyria cannot save us, we will not ride horses any more, or say, "Our God!" to our own handiwork, for you are the one in whom orphans find compassion.'

Hosea 14:5 I shall cure them of their disloyalty, I shall love them with all my heart, for my anger has turned away from them.

Hosea 14:6 I shall fall like dew on Israel, he will bloom like the lily and thrust out roots like the cedar of Lebanon;

Hosea 14:7 he will put out new shoots, he will have the beauty of the olive tree and the fragrance of Lebanon.

Hosea 14:8 They will come back to live in my shade; they will grow wheat again, they will make the vine flourish, their wine will be as famous as Lebanon's.

Hosea 14:9 What has Ephraim to do with idols any more when I hear him and watch over him? I am like an evergreen cypress, you owe your fruitfulness to me.

Hosea 14:10 Let the wise understand these words, let the intelligent grasp their meaning, for Yahweh's ways are straight and the upright will walk in them, but sinners will stumble.

Joel

1:1 The word of Yahweh that was addressed to Joel son of Pethuel.

Joel 1:2 Listen to this, you elders; everybody in the country, attend! Has anything like this ever happened in your day, or in your ancestors' days?

Joel 1:3 Tell your children about it and let your children tell their children, and their children the next generation!

Joel 1:4 What the nibbler has left, the grown locust has eaten, what the grown locust has left, the hopper has eaten, and what the hopper has left, the shearer has eaten.

Joel 1:5 Wake up, you drunkards, and weep! All you wine-bibbers, lament for the new wine: it has been snatched from your lips.

Joel 1:6 For a nation has invaded my country, mighty and innumerable, with teeth like a lion's teeth, with the fangs of a lioness.

Joel 1:7 It has reduced my vines to a desolation and my fig trees to splinters, stripped them and broken them down, leaving their branches white.

Joel 1:8 Mourn, as a virgin-bride in sackcloth for the bridegroom of her youth!

Joel 1:9 Cereal offering and libation are lost to Yahweh's Temple. The priests, the ministers of Yahweh, are in mourning.

Joel 1:10 The fields are ruined, the land is in mourning, for the grain has been ruined, the new wine has failed, of olive oil only a trickle.

Joel 1:11 Stand dismayed, you farmers, wail, you vinedressers, for the wheat, for the barley! The harvest of the fields has been lost!

Joel 1:12 The vine has withered, the fig tree wilts away; pomegranate, palm tree, apple tree, every tree in the countryside is dry, and for human beings joy has run dry too.

Joel 1:13 Priests, put on sackcloth and lament! You ministers of the altar, wail! Come here, lie in sackcloth all night long, you ministers of my God! For the Temple of your God has been deprived of cereal offering and libation.

Joel 1:14 Order a fast, proclaim a solemn assembly; you elders, summon everybody in the country to the Temple of Yahweh your God. Cry out to Yahweh:

Joel 1:15 'Alas for the day! For the Day of Yahweh is near, coming as destruction from Shaddai.'

Joel 1:16 Has not the food disappeared before our very eyes? Have not joy and gladness vanished from the Temple of our God?

Joel 1:17 The seeds shrivel under their clods; the granaries are deserted, the barns are in ruins, because the harvest has dried out.

Joel 1:18 Loudly the cattle groan! The herds of oxen are bewildered because they have no pasture. The flocks of sheep bear the punishment too.

Joel 1:19 Yahweh, to you I cry: for fire has devoured the desert pastures, flame has burnt up all the trees in the countryside.

Joel 1:20 Even the wild animals pant loudly for you, for the watercourses have run dry, and fire has devoured the desert pastures.

Joel 2:1 Blow the ram's-horn in Zion, sound the alarm on my holy mountain! Let everybody in the country tremble, for the Day of Yahweh is coming, yes, it is near.

Joel 2:2 Day of darkness and gloom, Day of cloud and blackness.

Like the dawn, across the mountains spreads a vast and mighty people, such as has never been before, such as will never be again to the remotest ages.

Joel 2:3 In their van a fire devours, in their rear a flame consumes. The country is like a garden of Eden ahead of them and a desert waste behind them. Nothing escapes them.

Joel 2:4 They look like horses, like chargers they gallop on,

Joel 2:5 with a racket like that of chariots they spring over the mountain tops, with a crackling like a blazing fire devouring the stubble, a mighty army in battle array.

Joel 2:6 At the sight of them, people are appalled and every face grows pale.

Joel 2:7 Like fighting men they press forward, like warriors they scale the walls, each marching straight ahead, not turning from his path;

Joel 2:8 they never jostle each other, each marches straight ahead: arrows fly, they still press forward, never breaking ranks.

Joel 2:9 They hurl themselves at the city, they leap onto the walls, swarm up the houses, getting in through the windows like thieves.

Joel 2:10 As they come on, the earth quakes, the skies tremble, sun and moon grow dark, the stars lose their brilliance.

Joel 2:11 Yahweh's voice rings out at the head of his troops! For mighty indeed is his army, strong, the enforcer of his orders, for great is the Day of Yahweh, and very terrible—who can face it?

Joel 2:12 'But now—declares Yahweh- come back to me with all your heart, fasting, weeping, mourning.'

Joel 2:13 Tear your hearts and not your clothes, and come back to Yahweh your God, for he is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger, rich in faithful love, and he relents about inflicting disaster.

Joel 2:14 Who knows if he will not come back, relent and leave a blessing behind him, a cereal offering and a libation to be presented to Yahweh your God?

Joel 2:15 Blow the ram's-horn in Zion! Order a fast, proclaim a solemn assembly,

Joel 2:16 call the people together, summon the community, assemble the elders, gather the children, even infants at the breast! Call the bridegroom from his bedroom and the bride from her bower!

Joel 2:17 Let the priests, the ministers of Yahweh, stand weeping between portico and altar, saying, 'Spare your people, Yahweh! Do not expose your heritage to the contempt, to the sarcasm of the nations! Why give the peoples cause to say, "Where is their God?" '

Joel 2:18 Then, becoming jealous over his country, Yahweh took pity on his people.

Joel 2:19 Yahweh said in answer to his people, 'Now I shall send you wheat, wine and olive oil until you have enough. Never again will I expose you to the contempt of the nations.

Joel 2:20 I shall take the northerner far away from you and drive him into an arid, desolate land, his vanguard to the eastern sea, his rearguard to the western sea. He will give off a stench, he will give off a foul stink (for what he made bold to do).'

Joel 2:21 Land, do not be afraid; be glad, rejoice, for Yahweh has done great things.

Joel 2:22 Wild animals, do not be afraid; the desert pastures are green again, the trees bear fruit, vine and fig tree yield their richness.

Joel 2:23 Sons of Zion, be glad, rejoice in Yahweh your God; for he has given you autumn rain as justice demands, and he will send the rains down for you, the autumn and spring rain as of old.

Joel 2:24 The threshing-floors will be full of grain, the vats overflow with wine and oil.

Joel 2:25 'I will make up to you for the years devoured by grown locust and hopper, by shearer and young locust, my great army which I sent to invade you.

Joel 2:26 'You will eat to your heart's content, and praise the name of Yahweh your God who has treated you so wonderfully. (My people will never be humiliated again!)

Joel 2:27 'And you will know that I am among you in Israel, I, Yahweh your God, and no one else. My people will never be humiliated again!'

Joel 3:1 'After this I shall pour out my spirit on all humanity. Your sons and daughters shall prophesy, your old people shall dream dreams, and your young people see visions.

Joel 3:2 Even on the slaves, men and women, shall I pour out my spirit in those days.

Joel 3:3 I shall show portents in the sky and on earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke.'

Joel 3:4 The sun will be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the Day comes, that great and terrible Day.

Joel 3:5 All who call on the name of Yahweh will be saved, for on Mount Zion will be those who have escaped, as Yahweh has said, and in Jerusalem a remnant whom Yahweh is calling.

Joel 4:1 'For in those days and at that time, when I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem,

Joel 4:2 I shall gather all the nations together and take them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat; there I shall put them on trial because of Israel, my people and my heritage, for having scattered them among the nations and having divided my land among themselves.

Joel 4:3 They drew lots for my people, bartering a boy for a whore and selling a girl for wine to drink.

Joel 4:4 ‘And what are you to me, Tyre and Sidon and all you regions of Philistia? Can you take revenge on me? If you take revenge on me, I shall quickly, instantly, make your revenge recoil on your own heads

Joel 4:5 for having taken my silver and gold away and carried off my valuable treasures to your temples,

Joel 4:6 and for having sold the children of Judah and Jerusalem to the Ionians, to be taken far away from their own frontiers.

Joel 4:7 Look, I shall rouse them from the places to which you have sold them; I shall make your actions recoil on your own heads

Joel 4:8 by selling your sons and daughters to the sons of Judah, who in turn will sell them to the Sabaeans, to a nation far away- Yahweh has spoken!’

Joel 4:9 Proclaim this among the nations. Prepare for war! Rouse the champions! All you troops, advance, march!

Joel 4:10 Hammer your ploughshares into swords, your bill-hooks into spears; let the weakling say, ‘I am tough!’

Joel 4:11 Hurry and come, all the nations around, and assemble there! (Yahweh, send down your champions!)

Joel 4:12 ‘Let the nations rouse themselves and march to the Valley of Jehoshaphat, for there I shall sit in judgement on all the nations around.

Joel 4:13 Ply the sickle, for the harvest is ripe; come and tread, for the winepress is full; the vats are overflowing, so great is their wickedness!’

Joel 4:14 Multitude on multitude in the Valley of Decision! For the Day of Yahweh is near in the Valley of the Verdict!

Joel 4:15 Sun and moon grow dark, the stars lose their brilliance.

Joel 4:16 Yahweh roars from Zion, he thunders from Jerusalem; heaven and earth tremble. But Yahweh will be a shelter for his people, a stronghold for the Israelites.

Joel 4:17 ‘Then you will know that I am Yahweh your God residing on Zion, my holy mountain. Jerusalem will then be a sanctuary, no foreigners will overrun it ever again.’

Joel 4:18 When that Day comes, the mountains will run with new wine and the hills will flow with milk, and all the stream-beds of Judah will run with water. A fountain will spring from Yahweh’s Temple and water the Gorge of the Acacias.

Joel 4:19 Egypt will become a desolation, and Edom a desert waste on account of the violence done to the children of Judah whose innocent blood they shed in their country.

Joel 4:20 But Judah will be inhabited for ever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation!

Joel 4:21 'I shall avenge their blood and let none go unpunished,' and Yahweh will dwell in Zion.

Amos

1:1 Words of Amos one of the shepherds of Tekoa. The visions he had about Israel, in the time of Uzziah king of Judah and Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

Amos 1:2 He said: Yahweh roars from Zion, and makes himself heard from Jerusalem; the shepherds' pastures mourn, and the crown of Carmel dries up.

Amos 1:3 Yahweh says this: For the three crimes, the four crimes of Damascus, I have made my decree and will not relent: because they have threshed Gilead with iron threshing-sledges,

Amos 1:4 I shall send fire down on the House of Hazael to devour the palaces of Ben-Hadad;

Amos 1:5 I shall break the gate-bar of Damascus, I shall destroy the inhabitant of Bikath-Aven, the holder of the sceptre in Beth-Eden, and the people of Aram will be deported to Kir, Yahweh says.

Amos 1:6 Yahweh says this: For the three crimes, the four crimes of Gaza, I have made my decree and will not relent: because they have deported entire nations as slaves to Edom,

Amos 1:7 I shall send fire down on the walls of Gaza to devour its palaces;

Amos 1:8 I shall destroy the inhabitant of Ashdod, the holder of the sceptre in Ashkelon; I shall turn my hand against Ekron and the remnant of the Philistines will perish, says the Lord Yahweh.

Amos 1:9 Yahweh says this: For the three crimes, the four crimes of Tyre, I have made my decree and will not relent: because they have handed hosts of captives over to Edom, heedless of a covenant of brotherhood,

Amos 1:10 I shall send fire down on the walls of Tyre to devour its palaces.

Amos 1:11 Yahweh says this: For the three crimes, the four crimes of Edom, I have made my decree and will not relent: because he has pursued his brother with the sword, because he has stifled any sense of pity, and perpetually nursed his anger and constantly cherished his rage,

Amos 1:12 I shall send fire down on Teman to devour the palaces of Bozrah.

Amos 1:13 Yahweh says this: For the three crimes, the four crimes of the Ammonites, I have made my decree and will not relent: because they have disembowelled the pregnant women of Gilead in order to extend their own frontiers,

Amos 1:14 I shall light a fire against the walls of Rabbah to devour its palaces amid war cries on the day of battle, in a whirlwind on the day of storm,

Amos 1:15 and their king shall go into captivity, he and his chief men with him, says Yahweh.

Amos 2:1 Yahweh says this: For the three crimes, the four crimes of Moab, I have made my decree and will not relent: because they have burnt the bones of the king of Edom to ash,

Amos 2:2 I shall send fire down into Moab to devour the palaces of Kerioth, and Moab will die in the tumult, amid war cries and the blare of trumpets;

Amos 2:3 I shall destroy the ruler there and slaughter all the chief men there with him, says Yahweh.

Amos 2:4 Yahweh says this: For the three crimes, the four crimes of Judah, I have made my decree and will not relent: because they have despised Yahweh's law and not kept his commandments, since their Falsehoods, which their ancestors followed, have led them astray,

Amos 2:5 I shall send fire down on Judah to devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

Amos 2:6 Yahweh says this: For the three crimes, the four crimes of Israel, I have made my decree and will not relent: because they have sold the upright for silver and the poor for a pair of sandals,

Amos 2:7 because they have crushed the heads of the weak into the dust and thrust the rights of the oppressed to one side, father and son sleeping with the same girl and thus profaning my holy name,

Amos 2:8 lying down beside every altar on clothes acquired as pledges, and drinking the wine of the people they have fined in the house of their god.

Amos 2:9 Yet it was I who destroyed the Amorite before them, he who was as tall as the cedars, as strong as the oaks; I who destroyed his fruit above ground and his roots below.

Amos 2:10 It was I who brought you up from Egypt and for forty years led you through the desert to take possession of the Amorite's country;

Amos 2:11 I who raised up prophets from your sons and Nazirites from your young men. Israelites, is this not true? -declares Yahweh!

Amos 2:12 But you have made the Nazirite drink wine and given orders to the prophets, 'Do not prophesy.'

Amos 2:13 Very well! Like a cart overloaded with sheaves I shall crush you where you stand;

Amos 2:14 flight will be cut off for the swift, the strong will have no chance to exert his strength nor the warrior be able to save his life;

Amos 2:15 the archer will not stand his ground, the swift of foot will not escape, nor will the horseman save his life;

Amos 2:16 even the bravest of warriors will jettison his arms and run away, that day! -declares Yahweh!

Amos 3:1 Listen, Israelites, to this prophecy which Yahweh pronounces against you, against the whole family which I brought up from Egypt:

Amos 3:2 You alone have I intimately known of all the families of earth, that is why I shall punish you for all your wrong-doings.

Amos 3:3 Do two people travel together unless they have agreed to do so?

Amos 3:4 Does the lion roar in the forest if it has no prey? Does the young lion growl in his lair if it has caught nothing?

Amos 3:5 Does a bird fall on the ground in a net unless a trap has been set for it? Will the net spring up from the ground without catching something?

Amos 3:6 Does the trumpet sound in the city without the people being alarmed? Does misfortune come to a city if Yahweh has not caused it?

Amos 3:7 No indeed, Lord Yahweh does nothing without revealing his secret to his servants the prophets.

Amos 3:8 The lion roars: who is not afraid? Lord Yahweh has spoken: who will not prophesy?

Amos 3:9 From the palace roofs of Assyria and from the palace roofs of Egypt, proclaim aloud, ‘Assemble on the hills of Samaria and observe the grave disorders inside her and the acts of oppression there!’

Amos 3:10 Little they know of right conduct -declares Yahweh- who cram their palaces with violence and extortion.

Amos 3:11 This is why—Lord Yahweh says this- an enemy will soon besiege the land, he will bring down your strength and your palaces will be looted.

Amos 3:12 Yahweh says this: As the shepherd rescues two legs or the tip of an ear from the lion’s mouth, so will the children of Israel be salvaged who now loll in Samaria in the corners of their beds, on their divans of Damascus.

Amos 3:13 Listen and testify against the House of Jacob -declares the Lord Yahweh, God Sabaoth-

Amos 3:14 the day when I punish Israel for his crimes I shall also punish the altars of Bethel; the horns of the altar will be hacked off and will fall to the ground.

Amos 3:15 I shall blast winter house with summer house, ivory houses will be destroyed and many mansions cease to be -declares Yahweh.

Amos 4:1 Listen to this saying, you cows of Bashan living on the hill of Samaria, exploiting the weak and ill-treating the poor, saying to your husbands, 'Bring us something to drink!'

Amos 4:2 The Lord God has sworn by his holiness: Look, the days will soon be on you when he will use hooks to drag you away and fish-hooks for the very last of you;

Amos 4:3 through the breaches in the wall you will leave, each one straight ahead, and be herded away towards Hermon -declares Yahweh.

Amos 4:4 Go to Bethel, and sin, to Gilgal, and sin even harder! Bring your sacrifices each morning, your tithes every third day,

Amos 4:5 burn your thank-offering of leaven and widely publicise your free-will offerings, for this, children of Israel, is what makes you happy -declares the Lord Yahweh.

Amos 4:6 I even gave you clean teeth in all your towns and a shortage of food in all your villages and still you would not come back to me -declares Yahweh.

Amos 4:7 I even withheld the rain from you full three months before harvest-time; I caused rain to fall in one town and caused no rain to fall in another; one field was rained on and the next for want of rain dried up;

Amos 4:8 two towns, three towns went tottering to one town for water to drink but went unsatisfied, and still you would not come back to me -declares Yahweh.

Amos 4:9 I struck you with blight and mildew, I dried up your gardens and vineyards; the locust devoured your fig trees and olive trees and still you would not come back to me -declares Yahweh.

Amos 4:10 I sent plague on you like Egypt's plague, I slaughtered your young men with the sword and at the same time your horses were captured; I filled your nostrils with the stench of your camps and still you would not come back to me -declares Yahweh.

Amos 4:11 I overturned you as God overturned Sodom and Gomorrah; you were like a brand snatched from the blaze and still you would not come back to me -declares Yahweh.

Amos 4:12 So this, Israel, is what I plan to do to you. Because I am going to do this to you, Israel, prepare to meet your God!

Amos 4:13 For look, he it is who forges the mountains, creates the wind, who reveals his mind to humankind, changes the dawn into darkness and strides on the heights of the world: Yahweh, God Sabaoth, is his name.

Amos 5:1 Listen to this word which I utter against you, it is a dirge, House of Israel:

Amos 5:2 She has fallen down, never to rise again, the virgin Israel. There she lies on her own soil, with no one to lift her up.

Amos 5:3 For Lord Yahweh says this: The town which used to put a thousand in the field will be left with a hundred, and the one which used to put a hundred will be left with ten, to fight for the House of Israel.

Amos 5:4 For Yahweh says this to the House of Israel: Seek me out and you will survive,

Amos 5:5 but do not seek out Bethel, do not go to Gilgal, do not journey to Beersheba, for Gilgal is going into captivity and Bethel will be brought to nothing.

Amos 5:6 Seek out Yahweh and you will survive or else he will sweep like fire upon the House of Joseph and burn it down, with no one at Bethel able to quench the flames.

Amos 5:7 They turn justice into wormwood and throw uprightness to the ground.

Amos 5:8 He it is who makes the Pleiades and Orion, who turns shadow dark as death into morning and day to darkest night, who summons the waters of the sea and pours them over the surface of the land. Yahweh is his name.

Amos 5:9 He brings destruction on the strong and ruin comes on the fortress.

Amos 5:10 They hate the man who teaches justice at the city gate and detest anyone who declares the truth.

Amos 5:11 For trampling on the poor man and for extorting levies on his wheat: although you have built houses of dressed stone, you will not live in them; although you have planted pleasant vineyards, you will not drink wine from them:

Amos 5:12 for I know how many your crimes are and how outrageous your sins, you oppressors of the upright, who hold people to ransom and thrust the poor aside at the gates.

Amos 5:13 That is why anyone prudent keeps silent now, since the time is evil.

Amos 5:14 Seek good and not evil so that you may survive, and Yahweh, God Sabaoth, be with you as you claim he is.

Amos 5:15 Hate evil, love good, let justice reign at the city gate: it may be that Yahweh, God Sabaoth, will take pity on the remnant of Joseph.

Amos 5:16 Therefore Yahweh Sabaoth, the Lord, says this: In every public square there will be lamentation, in every street they will cry out, 'Alas! Alas!' The farmer will be called on to mourn, the professional mourners to lament,

Amos 5:17 and there will be wailing in every vineyard, for I mean to pass through among you, Yahweh says.

Amos 5:18 Disaster for you who long for the Day of Yahweh! What will the Day of Yahweh mean for you? It will mean darkness, not light,

Amos 5:19 as when someone runs away from a lion, only to meet a bear; he goes into his house and puts his hand on the wall, only for a snake to bite him.

Amos 5:20 Will not the Day of Yahweh be darkness, not light, totally dark, without a ray of light?

Amos 5:21 I hate, I scorn your festivals, I take no pleasure in your solemn assemblies.

Amos 5:22 When you bring me burnt offerings . . . your oblations, I do not accept them and I do not look at your communion sacrifices of fat cattle.

Amos 5:23 Spare me the din of your chanting, let me hear none of your strumming on lyres,

Amos 5:24 but let justice flow like water, and uprightness like a never-failing stream!

Amos 5:25 Did you bring me sacrifices and oblations those forty years in the desert, House of Israel?

Amos 5:26 Now you must shoulder Sakkuth your king and the star of your God, Kaiwan, those idols you made for yourselves;

Amos 5:27 for I am about to drive you into captivity beyond Damascus, Yahweh says—God Sabaoth is his name.

Amos 6:1 Disaster for those so comfortable in Zion and for those so confident on the hill of Samaria, the notables of this first of nations, those to whom the House of Israel has recourse!

Amos 6:2 Travel to Calneh and look, go on from there to Hamath the great, then go down to Gath in Philistia. Are they more powerful than these kingdoms? Is their territory larger than yours?

Amos 6:3 Thinking to defer the evil day, you are hastening the reign of violence.

Amos 6:4 Lying on ivory beds and sprawling on their divans, they dine on lambs from the flock, and stall-fattened veal;

Amos 6:5 they bawl to the sound of the lyre and, like David, they invent musical instruments;

Amos 6:6 they drink wine by the bowlful, and lard themselves with the finest oils, but for the ruin of Joseph they care nothing.

Amos 6:7 That is why they will now go into captivity, heading the column of captives. The sprawlers' revelry is over.

Amos 6:8 Lord Yahweh has sworn by his own self -declares Yahweh, God Sabaoth: I detest the pride of Jacob, I hate his palaces, I shall hand over the city and all in it.

Amos 6:9 If ten people are left in a single house, they will die

Amos 6:10 and a few will be left to carry the bones from the house, and they will say to anyone deep inside the house, 'Any more there?' and he will answer, 'No.' Then he will say, 'Hush!-Yahweh's name must not be mentioned.'

Amos 6:11 For look, Yahweh gives the command: as he strikes, the great house falls to pieces and the small house is in fragments.

Amos 6:12 Can horses gallop over rocks? Can the sea be ploughed with oxen? Yet you have changed justice into poison, and the fruit of uprightness into wormwood,

Amos 6:13 while rejoicing over Lo-Debar and saying, 'Wasn't it by our own strength that we captured Karnaim?'

Amos 6:14 But look, House of Israel, against you -declares Yahweh, God Sabaoth- I am raising a nation to oppress you from the Pass of Hamath to the Gorge of the Arabah.

Amos 7:1 This is what Lord Yahweh showed me: there was a swarm of locusts when the second crop was sprouting, full-grown locusts, after the king's hay had been cut.

Amos 7:2 When they had eaten all the grass in the land, I said, 'Lord Yahweh, forgive, I beg you. How can Jacob survive, being so small?'

Amos 7:3 Then Yahweh relented; 'It will not happen,' said Yahweh.

Amos 7:4 This is what Lord Yahweh showed me: Lord Yahweh summoning fire in punishment; it had devoured the great Abyss and was encroaching on the land,

Amos 7:5 when I said, 'Lord Yahweh, stop, I beg you. How can Jacob survive, being so small?'

Amos 7:6 Then Yahweh relented; 'This will not happen either,' said the Lord Yahweh.

Amos 7:7 This is what he showed me: the Lord standing by a wall, with a plumb-line in his hand.

Amos 7:8 'What do you see, Amos?' Yahweh asked me. 'A plumb-line,' I said. Then the Lord said, 'Look, I am going to put a plumb-line in among my people Israel; never again will I overlook their offences.

Amos 7:9 The high places of Isaac will be ruined and the sanctuaries of Israel laid waste, and, sword in hand, I will attack the House of Jeroboam.'

Amos 7:10 Amaziah the priest of Bethel then sent word to Jeroboam king of Israel as follows, 'Amos is plotting against you in the heart of the House of Israel; the country cannot tolerate his speeches.

Amos 7:11 For this is what Amos says, “Jeroboam is going to die by the sword, and Israel will go into captivity far from its native land.” ‘

Amos 7:12 To Amos himself Amaziah said, ‘Go away, seer, take yourself off to Judah, earn your living there, and there you can prophesy!

Amos 7:13 But never again will you prophesy at Bethel, for this is a royal sanctuary, a national temple.’

Amos 7:14 ‘I am not a prophet,’ Amos replied to Amaziah, ‘nor do I belong to a prophetic brotherhood. I am merely a herdsman and dresser of sycamore-figs.

Amos 7:15 But Yahweh took me as I followed the flock, and Yahweh said to me, “Go and prophesy to my people Israel.”

Amos 7:16 So now listen to what Yahweh says: “You say: Do not prophesy against Israel, do not foretell doom on the House of Isaac!”

Amos 7:17 Very well, this is what Yahweh says, “Your wife will become a prostitute in the streets, your sons and daughters will fall by the sword, your land will be parcelled out by measuring line, and you yourself will die on polluted soil and Israel will go into captivity far from its own land!” ‘

Amos 8:1 This is what Lord Yahweh showed me: A basket of ripe fruit.

Amos 8:2 ‘What do you see, Amos?’ he asked. ‘A basket of ripe fruit,’ I said. Then Yahweh said, ‘The time is ripe for my people Israel; I will not continue to overlook their offences.

Amos 8:3 That day, the palace songs will turn to howls, -declares the Lord Yahweh- the corpses will be many that are thrown down everywhere. Keep silent!’

Amos 8:4 Listen to this, you who crush the needy and reduce the oppressed to nothing,

Amos 8:5 you who say, ‘When will New Moon be over so that we can sell our corn, and Sabbath, so that we can market our wheat? Then, we can make the bushel-measure smaller and the shekel-weight bigger, by fraudulently tampering with the scales.

Amos 8:6 We can buy up the weak for silver and the poor for a pair of sandals, and even get a price for the sweepings of the wheat.’

Amos 8:7 Yahweh has sworn by the pride of Jacob, ‘Never will I forget anything they have done.’

Amos 8:8 Will not the earth tremble for this and all who live on it lament, as it all rises together like the Nile in Egypt, it swells and then subsides like the Egyptian Nile?

Amos 8:9 ‘On that Day- declares the Lord Yahweh- I shall make the sun go down at noon and darken the earth in broad daylight.

Amos 8:10 I shall turn your festivals into mourning and all your singing into lamentation; I shall make you all wear sacking round your waists and have all your heads shaved. I shall make it like the mourning for an only child, and it will end like the bitterest of days.

Amos 8:11 'The days are coming- declares the Lord Yahweh- when I shall send a famine on the country, not hunger for food, not thirst for water, but famine for hearing Yahweh's word.

Amos 8:12 People will stagger from sea to sea, will wander from the north to the east, searching for Yahweh's word, but will not find it.

Amos 8:13 'That Day, fine girls and stalwart youths will faint from thirst.

Amos 8:14 The people who swear by the Sin of Samaria, who say, "Long live your god, Dan!" and "Hurrah for the pilgrimage to Beersheba!" will all fall, never to rise again.'

Amos 9:1 I saw the Lord standing by the altar, and he said, 'Strike the top of the pillar so that the thresholds shake! Smash their heads in, one and all! And I shall put any survivors to the sword; whoever runs away will not run far, whoever escapes will not make good his escape.

Amos 9:2 Should they burrow into Sheol, my hand will haul them out; should they climb to heaven, I shall bring them down.

Amos 9:3 Should they hide on the top of Carmel, I shall track them down and catch them; should they hide from me on the sea bed, I shall order the Serpent there to bite them;

Amos 9:4 if their enemies herd them into captivity, I shall order the sword to kill them there, and I shall fix my eyes on them for evil and not for good.'

Amos 9:5 Lord Yahweh Sabaoth- he touches the earth and it melts, and all living things on it lament, as all rises together like the Nile in Egypt and then subsides like the Egyptian Nile.

Amos 9:6 He who builds his mansions in the heavens, supporting his vault on the earth; who summons the waters of the sea and pours them over the surface of the land: Yahweh is his name.

Amos 9:7 Are not you and the Cushites all the same to me, children of Israel? - declares Yahweh. Did I not bring Israel up from Egypt and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Aramaeans from Kir?

Amos 9:8 Look, Lord Yahweh's eyes are on the sinful kingdom, I shall wipe it off the face of the earth, although I shall not destroy the House of Jacob completely -declares Yahweh.

Amos 9:9 For look, I shall give the command and shall shake out the House of Israel among all nations as a sieve is shaken out without one grain falling on the ground.

Amos 9:10 All the sinners of my people will perish by the sword, who say, 'Disaster will never approach or overtake us.'

Amos 9:11 On that Day, I shall rebuild the tottering hut of David, make good the gaps in it, restore its ruins and rebuild it as it was in the days of old,

Amos 9:12 for them to be master of what is left of Edom and of all the nations once called mine -Yahweh declares, and he will perform it.

Amos 9:13 The days are coming- declares Yahweh- when the ploughman will tread on the heels of the reaper, and the treader of grapes on the heels of the sower of seed, and the mountains will run with new wine and the hills all flow with it.

Amos 9:14 I shall restore the fortunes of my people Israel; they will rebuild the ruined cities and live in them, they will plant vineyards and drink their wine, they will lay out gardens and eat their produce.

Amos 9:15 And I shall plant them in their own soil and they will never be uprooted again from the country which I have given them, declares Yahweh, your God.

Obadiah

1:1 Vision of Obadiah: about Edom. I have received a message from Yahweh, a herald has been sent throughout the nations: 'Up! Let us march against this people. Into battle!' The Lord Yahweh says this:

Obadiah 1:2 Look, I have reduced you to the smallest of nations, you are now beneath contempt.

Obadiah 1:3 Your proud heart has misled you, you whose home is in the crannies of the Rock, who make the heights your dwelling, who think to yourself, 'Who can bring me down to earth?'

Obadiah 1:4 Though you soar like an eagle, though you set your nest among the stars, I shall bring you down from there!-declares Yahweh.

Obadiah 1:5 If thieves were to come to you (or robbers during the night) surely they would steal only as much as they wanted? If grape-pickers were to come to you, surely they would leave a few gleanings? But how you have been pillaged!

Obadiah 1:6 How Esau has been looted, his hidden treasures routed out!

Obadiah 1:7 Your allies all pursued you right to the frontier, your confederates kept you in suspense, then got the better of you, your own guests laid a trap for you, 'He has quite lost his wits.'

Obadiah 1:8 When that day comes- declares Yahweh- shall I not eliminate sages from Edom and intelligence from Mount Esau?

Obadiah 1:9 Your warriors, Teman, will be so demoralised that the people of Mount Esau will be massacred to the last one. For the slaughter, Obadiah 1:10 for the violence done to your brother Jacob, shame will cover you and you will be annihilated for ever.

Obadiah 1:11 On the day, when you stood aloof while strangers carried off his riches, while foreigners passed through his gate and cast lots for Jerusalem, you were as bad as the rest of them.

Obadiah 1:12 Do not feast your eyes on your brother on the day of his misfortune. Do not gloat over the children of Judah on the day of their ruin. Do not play the braggart on the day of distress.

Obadiah 1:13 Do not enter my people's gate on their day of calamity. Do not, you especially, feast your eyes on their suffering on their day of calamity. Do not touch their possessions on their day of calamity.

Obadiah 1:14 Do not wait at the crossroads to annihilate their fugitives. Do not hand over their survivors on the day of distress.

Obadiah 1:15 For the Day of Yahweh is near for all the nations. As you have done, so will it be done to you: your deeds will recoil on your own head.

Obadiah 1:16 Just as you have drunk on my holy mountain, so will all the nations drink continually, they will drink, will drink greedily, but they will be as though they had never been!

Obadiah 1:17 But on Mount Zion will be those who have escaped -it will be a sanctuary- and the House of Jacob will recover what is rightfully theirs.

Obadiah 1:18 Then the House of Jacob will be a fire, the House of Joseph a flame, and the House of Esau like stubble. They will set it alight and burn it up, and no one of the House of Esau will survive. Yahweh has spoken.

Obadiah 1:19 People from the Negeb will occupy the Mount of Esau, people from the lowlands the country of the Philistines; they will occupy Ephraim and Samaria, and Benjamin will occupy Gilead.

Obadiah 1:20 The exiles of this army, the sons of Israel, will have the Canaanites' land as far as Zarephthah, while the exiles from Jerusalem now in Sepharad will have the cities of the Negeb.

Obadiah 1:21 Victorious, they will climb Mount Zion to rule over Mount Esau, and sovereignty will be Yahweh's!

Jonah

1:1 The word of Yahweh was addressed to Jonah son of Amittai:

Jonah 1:2 'Up!' he said, 'Go to Nineveh, the great city, and proclaim to them that their wickedness has forced itself upon me.'

Jonah 1:3 Jonah set about running away from Yahweh, and going to Tarshish. He went down to Jaffa and found a ship bound for Tarshish; he paid his fare and boarded it, to go with them to Tarshish, to get away from Yahweh.

Jonah 1:4 But Yahweh threw a hurricane at the sea, and there was such a great storm at sea that the ship threatened to break up.

Jonah 1:5 The sailors took fright, and each of them called on his own god, and to lighten the ship they threw the cargo overboard. Jonah, however, had gone below, had lain down in the hold and was fast asleep,

Jonah 1:6 when the boatswain went up to him and said, 'What do you mean by sleeping? Get up! Call on your god! Perhaps he will spare us a thought and not leave us to die.'

Jonah 1:7 Then they said to each other, 'Come on, let us draw lots to find out who is to blame for bringing us this bad luck.' So they cast lots, and the lot pointed to Jonah.

Jonah 1:8 Then they said to him, 'Tell us, what is your business? Where do you come from? What is your country? What is your nationality?'

Jonah 1:9 He replied, 'I am a Hebrew, and I worship Yahweh, God of Heaven, who made both sea and dry land.'

Jonah 1:10 The sailors were seized with terror at this and said, 'Why ever did you do this?' since they knew that he was trying to escape from Yahweh, because he had told them so.

Jonah 1:11 They then said, 'What are we to do with you, to make the sea calm down for us?' For the sea was growing rougher and rougher.

Jonah 1:12 He replied, 'Take me and throw me into the sea, and then it will calm down for you. I know it is my fault that this great storm has struck you.'

Jonah 1:13 The sailors rowed hard in an effort to reach the shore, but in vain, since the sea was growing rougher and rougher.

Jonah 1:14 So at last they called on Yahweh and said, 'O, Yahweh, do not let us perish for the sake of this man's life, and do not hold us responsible for causing an innocent man's death; for you, Yahweh, have acted as you saw fit.'

Jonah 1:15 And taking hold of Jonah they threw him into the sea; and the sea stopped raging.

Jonah 1:16 At this, the men were seized with dread of Yahweh; they offered a sacrifice to Yahweh and made vows to him.

Jonah 2:1 Now Yahweh ordained that a great fish should swallow Jonah; and Jonah remained in the belly of the fish for three days and three nights.

Jonah 2:2 From the belly of the fish, Jonah prayed to Yahweh, his God; he said:

Jonah 2:3 Out of my distress I cried to Yahweh and he answered me, from the belly of Sheol I cried out; you heard my voice!

Jonah 2:4 For you threw me into the deep, into the heart of the seas, and the floods closed round me. All your waves and billows passed over me;

Jonah 2:5 then I thought, 'I am banished from your sight; how shall I ever see your holy Temple again?'

Jonah 2:6 The waters round me rose to my neck, the deep was closing round me, seaweed twining round my head.

Jonah 2:7 To the roots of the mountains, I sank into the underworld, and its bars closed round me for ever. But you raised my life from the Pit, Yahweh my God!

Jonah 2:8 When my soul was growing ever weaker, Yahweh, I remembered you, and my prayer reached you in your holy Temple.

Jonah 2:9 Some abandon their faithful love by worshipping false gods,

Jonah 2:10 but I shall sacrifice to you with songs of praise. The vow I have made I shall fulfil! Salvation comes from Yahweh!

Jonah 2:11 Yahweh spoke to the fish, which then vomited Jonah onto the dry land.

Jonah 3:1 The word of Yahweh was addressed to Jonah a second time.

Jonah 3:2 'Up!' he said, 'Go to Nineveh, the great city, and preach to it as I shall tell you.'

Jonah 3:3 Jonah set out and went to Nineveh in obedience to the word of Yahweh. Now Nineveh was a city great beyond compare; to cross it took three days.

Jonah 3:4 Jonah began by going a day's journey into the city and then proclaimed, 'Only forty days more and Nineveh will be overthrown.'

Jonah 3:5 And the people of Nineveh believed in God; they proclaimed a fast and put on sackcloth, from the greatest to the least.

Jonah 3:6 When the news reached the king of Nineveh, he rose from his throne, took off his robe, put on sackcloth and sat down in ashes.

Jonah 3:7 He then had it proclaimed throughout Nineveh, by decree of the king and his nobles, as follows: 'No person or animal, herd or flock, may eat anything; they may not graze, they may not drink any water.

Jonah 3:8 All must put on sackcloth and call on God with all their might; and let everyone renounce his evil ways and violent behaviour.

Jonah 3:9 Who knows? Perhaps God will change his mind and relent and renounce his burning wrath, so that we shall not perish.'

Jonah 3:10 God saw their efforts to renounce their evil ways. And God relented about the disaster which he had threatened to bring on them, and did not bring it.

Jonah 4:1 This made Jonah very indignant; he fell into a rage.

Jonah 4:2 He prayed to Yahweh and said, ‘Please, Yahweh, isn’t this what I said would happen when I was still in my own country? That was why I first tried to flee to Tarshish, since I knew you were a tender, compassionate God, slow to anger, rich in faithful love, who relents about inflicting disaster.

Jonah 4:3 So now, Yahweh, please take my life, for I might as well be dead as go on living.’

Jonah 4:4 Yahweh replied, ‘Are you right to be angry?’

Jonah 4:5 Jonah then left the city and sat down to the east of the city. There he made himself a shelter and sat under it in the shade, to see what would happen to the city.

Jonah 4:6 Yahweh God then ordained that a castor-oil plant should grow up over Jonah to give shade for his head and soothe his ill-humour; Jonah was delighted with the castor-oil plant.

Jonah 4:7 But at dawn the next day, God ordained that a worm should attack the castor-oil plant—and it withered.

Jonah 4:8 Next, when the sun rose, God ordained that there should be a scorching east wind; the sun beat down so hard on Jonah’s head that he was overcome and begged for death, saying, ‘I might as well be dead as go on living.’

Jonah 4:9 God said to Jonah, ‘Are you right to be angry about the castor-oil plant?’ He replied, ‘I have every right to be angry, mortally angry!’

Jonah 4:10 Yahweh replied, ‘You are concerned for the castor-oil plant which has not cost you any effort and which you did not grow, which came up in a night and has perished in a night.

Jonah 4:11 So why should I not be concerned for Nineveh, the great city, in which there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand people who cannot tell their right hand from their left, to say nothing of all the animals?’

Micah

1:1 The word of Yahweh which came to Micah of Moresheth during the reigns of Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah kings of Judah. His visions about Samaria and Jerusalem.

Micah 1:2 Listen, all you peoples, attend, earth and everyone on it! Yahweh intends to give evidence against you, the Lord, from his holy temple.

Micah 1:3 For look, Yahweh is leaving his home, down he comes, he treads the heights of earth.

Micah 1:4 Beneath him, the mountains melt, and valleys are torn open, like wax near a fire, like water pouring down a slope.

Micah 1:5 All this is because of the crime of Jacob, the sin of the House of Israel. What is the crime of Jacob? Is it not Samaria? What is the sin of the House of Judah? Is it not Jerusalem?

Micah 1:6 So I shall make Samaria a ruin in the open country, a place for planting vines. I shall send her stones rolling into the valley, until I have laid her foundations bare.

Micah 1:7 All her images will be shattered, all her earnings consumed by fire. I shall leave all her idols derelict- they were amassed out of prostitutes' earnings and prostitutes' earnings once more they will be.

Micah 1:8 This is why I shall howl and wail, why I shall go barefoot and naked, why I shall howl like the jackals, why I shall shriek like the owls;

Micah 1:9 for there is no cure for the wounds that Yahweh inflicts: the blow falls on Judah, it falls on the gateway of my people, on Jerusalem itself.

Micah 1:10 Do not announce it in Gath, in . . . shed no tears! In Beth-Leaphrah roll in the dust!

Micah 1:11 Sound the horn, inhabitant of Shaphir! She has not left her city, she who lives in Zaanan. Beth-Ezel is torn from its foundations, from its strong supports.

Micah 1:12 What hope has she of happiness, she who lives in Maroth? Instead Yahweh sent down disaster on the gateway of Jerusalem itself!

Micah 1:13 Harness the horse to the chariot, you inhabitant of Lachish! That is where the sin of the daughter of Zion began; the crimes of Israel can be traced to you!

Micah 1:14 And so you must provide a dowry for Moresheth-Gath. Beth-Achzib will prove a disappointment for the kings of Israel.

Micah 1:15 The plunderer will come to you again, you citizen of Mareshah! And into Adullam will vanish the glory of Israel.

Micah 1:16 Off with your hair, shave your head, for the children that were your joy. Make yourselves bald like the vulture, for they have left you for exile.

Micah 2:1 Disaster for those who plot evil, who lie in bed planning mischief! No sooner is it dawn than they do it, since they have the power to do so.

Micah 2:2 Seizing the fields that they covet, they take over houses as well, owner and house they seize alike, the man himself as well as his inheritance.

Micah 2:3 So Yahweh says this: Look, I am now plotting a disaster for this breed from which you will not extricate your necks; you will not hold your heads up then, for the times will be disastrous indeed.

Micah 2:4 That day they will make a satire on you, they will strike up a dirge and say, 'We have been stripped of everything; my people's land has been divided up, no one else can restore it to them, our fields have been awarded to our despoiler.'

Micah 2:5 Because of this, you will have no one to measure out a share in Yahweh's community.

Micah 2:6 'Do not drivel,' they drivel, 'do not drivel like this! Disgrace will not overtake us!

Micah 2:7 'Can the House of Jacob be accursed? Has Yahweh grown short-tempered? Is that his way of going to work? His prophecies can only be favourable for his people Israel!'

Micah 2:8 But you are the ones who play the enemy to my people. From the inoffensive man you snatch his cloak, on those who feel safe you inflict the damage of war.

Micah 2:9 My people's women you evict from the homes they love, and deprive the children of my glory for ever,

Micah 2:10 saying, 'Up and off with you! You can't stay here!' For a worthless thing you exact an extortionate pledge.

Micah 2:11 If a man of the spirit came and invented this lie, 'I prophesy wine and liquor for you,' he would be the prophet for a people like this.

Micah 2:12 I shall assemble the whole of Jacob, I shall gather the remnant of Israel, I shall gather them together like sheep in an enclosure. And like a flock within their fold, they will bleat far away from anyone,

Micah 2:13 their leader will break out first, then all break out through the gate and escape, with their king leading the way and with Yahweh at their head.

Micah 3:1 Then I said, 'Kindly listen, you leaders of the House of Jacob, you princes of the House of Israel. Surely you are the ones who ought to know what is right,

Micah 3:2 and yet you hate what is good and love what is evil, skinning people alive, pulling the flesh off their bones,

Micah 3:3 eating my people's flesh, stripping off their skin, breaking up their bones, chopping them up small like flesh for the pot, like meat in the stew-pan?'

Micah 3:4 Then they will call to Yahweh, but he will not answer them. When the time comes he will hide his face from them because of the crimes they have committed.

Micah 3:5 Yahweh says this against the prophets who lead my people astray: So long as they have something to eat they cry 'Peace'. But on anyone who puts nothing into their mouths they declare war.

Micah 3:6 And so, for you, night will be without vision and for you the darkness without divination. The sun will set for the prophets, the daylight will go black above them.

Micah 3:7 Then the seers will be covered with shame, the diviners with confusion; they will all put their hands over their mouths because there is no answer from God.

Micah 3:8 Not so with me, I am full of strength (full of Yahweh's spirit), of the sense of right, of energy to accuse Jacob of his crime and Israel of his sin.

Micah 3:9 Kindly listen to this, you leaders of the House of Jacob, you princes of the House of Israel, who detest justice, wresting it from its honest course,

Micah 3:10 who build Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity!

Micah 3:11 Her leaders give verdicts for presents, her priests take a fee for their rulings, her prophets divine for money and yet they rely on Yahweh! 'Isn't Yahweh among us?' they say, 'No disaster is going to overtake us.'

Micah 3:12 That is why, thanks to you, Zion will become ploughland, Jerusalem a heap of rubble and the Temple Mount a wooded height.

Micah 4:1 But in days to come Yahweh's Temple Mountain will tower above the mountains, rise higher than the hills.

Micah 4:2 Then the peoples will stream to it, then many nations will come and say, 'Come, we will go up to Yahweh's mountain, to the Temple of the God of Jacob, so that he may teach us his ways and we may walk in his paths; for the Law issues from Zion and Yahweh's word from Jerusalem.'

Micah 4:3 He will judge between many peoples and arbitrate between mighty nations. They will hammer their swords into ploughshares and their spears into bill-hooks. Nation will not lift sword against nation or ever again be trained to make war.

Micah 4:4 But each man will sit under his vine and fig tree with no one to trouble him. The mouth of Yahweh Sabaoth has spoken.

Micah 4:5 For all peoples go forward, each in the name of its god, while we go forward in the name of Yahweh our God for ever and ever.

Micah 4:6 That day—declares Yahweh- I shall gather in the lame and bring together the strays and those whom I have treated harshly.

Micah 4:7 From the footsore I shall make a remnant, and from the far-flung a mighty nation. And Yahweh will reign over them on Mount Zion thenceforth and for ever.

Micah 4:8 And to you, Tower of the Flock, Ophel of the daughter of Zion, to you your former sovereignty will return, the royal power of the daughter of Jerusalem.

Micah 4:9 Why are you crying out now? Have you no king? Has your counsellor perished, for pangs to grip you like those of a woman in labour?

Micah 4:10 Writhe in pain and cry aloud, daughter of Zion, like a woman in labour, for now you must leave the city and camp in the open country; to Babylon you must go, and there you will be rescued; there Yahweh will ransom you from the clutches of your enemies.

Micah 4:11 Now many nations have mustered against you. They say, 'Let us desecrate her, let us gloat over Zion!'

Micah 4:12 But they do not know Yahweh's thoughts, they do not understand his design: he has collected them like sheaves on the threshing-floor.

Micah 4:13 Start your threshing, daughter of Zion, for I shall make your horn like iron, I shall make your hooves like bronze, so that you can crush many peoples. And you will devote what they have stolen to Yahweh, their wealth to the Lord of the whole earth.

Micah 4:14 Now look to your fortifications, Fortress! They have laid siege to us; the ruler of Israel will be struck on the cheek with a rod.

Micah 5:1 But you (Bethlehem) Ephrathah, the least of the clans of Judah, from you will come for me a future ruler of Israel whose origins go back to the distant past, to the days of old.

Micah 5:2 Hence Yahweh will abandon them only until she who is in labour gives birth, and then those who survive of his race will be reunited to the Israelites.

Micah 5:3 He will take his stand and he will shepherd them with the power of Yahweh, with the majesty of the name of his God, and they will be secure, for his greatness will extend henceforth to the most distant parts of the country.

Micah 5:4 He himself will be peace! Should the Assyrian invade our country, should he set foot in our land, we shall raise seven shepherds against him, eight leaders of men;

Micah 5:5 they will shepherd Assyria with the sword, the country of Nimrod with naked blade. He will save us from the Assyrian, should he invade our country, should he set foot inside our frontiers.

Micah 5:6 Then what is left of Jacob, surrounded by many peoples, will be like a dew from Yahweh, like showers on the grass, which do not depend on human agency and are beyond human control.

Micah 5:7 Then what is left of Jacob, surrounded by many peoples, will be like a lion among the forest beasts, like a fierce lion among flocks of sheep trampling as he goes, mangling his prey which no one takes from him.

Micah 5:8 You will be victorious over your foes and all your enemies will be torn to pieces.

Micah 5:9 When that day comes- declares Yahweh- I shall tear your horses away from you, I shall destroy your chariots;

Micah 5:10 I shall tear the cities from your country, I shall overthrow all your fortresses;

Micah 5:11 I shall tear the spells out of your hands and you will have no more soothsayers;

Micah 5:12 I shall tear away your images and your sacred pillars from among you, and no longer will you worship things which your own hands have made!

Micah 5:13 I shall uproot your sacred poles and shall destroy your cities!

Micah 5:14 In furious anger I shall wreak vengeance on the nations who have disobeyed me!

Micah 6:1 Now listen to what Yahweh says: 'Stand up, state your case to the mountains and let the hills hear what you have to say!'

Micah 6:2 Listen, mountains, to the case as Yahweh puts it, give ear, you foundations of the earth, for Yahweh has a case against his people and he will argue it with Israel.

Micah 6:3 'My people, what have I done to you, how have I made you tired of me? Answer me!

Micah 6:4 For I brought you up from Egypt, I ransomed you from the place of slave-labour and sent Moses, Aaron and Miriam to lead you.

Micah 6:5 My people, please remember: what was Balak king of Moab's plan and how did Balaam son of Beor answer him? . . . from Shittim to Gilgal, for you to know Yahweh's saving justice.

Micah 6:6 'With what shall I enter Yahweh's presence and bow down before God All-high? Shall I enter with burnt offerings, with calves one year old?

Micah 6:7 Will he be pleased with rams by the thousand, with ten thousand streams of oil? Shall I offer my eldest son for my wrong-doing, the child of my own body for my sin?

Micah 6:8 'You have already been told what is right and what Yahweh wants of you. Only this, to do what is right, to love loyalty and to walk humbly with your God.'

Micah 6:9 Yahweh's voice! He thunders to the city, 'Listen, tribe of assembled citizens!

Micah 6:10 Can I overlook the false measure, that abomination, the short bushel?

Micah 6:11 Can I connive at rigged scales and at the bag of fraudulent weights?

Micah 6:12 For the rich there are steeped in violence, and the citizens there are habitual liars.

Micah 6:13 'I myself have therefore begun to strike you down, to bring you to ruin for your sins.

Micah 6:14 You will eat but not be satisfied; you will store up but never keep safe; what you do keep safe I shall hand over to the sword;

Micah 6:15 you will sow but will not reap, press the olive but will not rub yourself with oil, tread the grape but will not drink the wine.

Micah 6:16 'For you keep the laws of Omri; what the House of Ahab did, you have done; by modelling yourselves on their standards, you force me to make an appalling example of you and reduce your citizens to a laughing-stock; hence you will endure the scorn of other peoples.'

Micah 7:1 How wretched I am, a harvester in summer time, like a gleaner at the vintage: not a single cluster to eat, none of those early figs I love!

Micah 7:2 The faithful have vanished from the land: there is no one honest left. All of them are on the alert for blood, every man hunting his brother with a net.

Micah 7:3 Their hands are adept at wrong-doing: the official makes his demands, the judge gives judgement for a bribe, the man in power pronounces as he pleases.

Micah 7:4 The best of them is like a briar, the most honest of them like a thorn-hedge. Now from the north their punishment approaches! That will be when they are confounded!

Micah 7:5 Trust no neighbour, put no confidence in a friend; do not open your mouth to the wife who shares your bed.

Micah 7:6 For son insults father, daughter rebels against mother, daughter-in-law against mother-in-law; a person's enemies come from within the household itself.

Micah 7:7 But I shall look to Yahweh, my hope is in the God who will save me; my God will hear me.

Micah 7:8 Do not gloat over me, my enemy: though I have fallen, I shall rise; though I live in darkness, Yahweh is my light.

Micah 7:9 I must endure Yahweh's anger for I have sinned against him, until he takes up my cause and rights my wrongs; he will bring me out into the light, and then I shall contemplate his saving justice.

Micah 7:10 When my enemy sees this, she will be covered with shame, having sneered, 'Where is Yahweh your God?' This time, I shall be watching as she is trampled underfoot like mud in the streets.

Micah 7:11 That will be the day for rebuilding your walls! The day for expanding your frontiers!

Micah 7:12 The day when others come to you all the way from Assyria, from Egypt, from Tyre and all the way from the Euphrates, from sea to sea, from the mountains to the mountains!

Micah 7:13 The earth will become a desert by reason of its inhabitants, in return for what they have done.

Micah 7:14 With shepherd's crook lead your people to pasture, the flock that is your heritage, living confined in a forest with meadow land all round. Let them graze in Bashan and Gilead as in the days of old!

Micah 7:15 As in the days when you came out of Egypt, grant us to see wonders!

Micah 7:16 The nations will see and be confounded in spite of all their power; they will put their hands over their mouths, their ears will be deafened.

Micah 7:17 They will lick the dust like snakes, like reptiles that crawl on the earth. They will creep trembling out of their lairs, in terror before you.

Micah 7:18 What god can compare with you for pardoning guilt and for overlooking crime? He does not harbour anger for ever, since he delights in showing faithful love.

Micah 7:19 Once more have pity on us, tread down our faults; throw all our sins to the bottom of the sea.

Micah 7:20 Grant Jacob your faithfulness, and Abraham your faithful love, as you swore to our ancestors from the days of long ago.

Nahum

1:1 Prophecy about Nineveh. Book of the vision of Nahum of Elkosh.

Nahum 1:2 Yahweh is a jealous and vengeful God, Yahweh takes vengeance, he is rich in wrath; Yahweh takes vengeance on his foes, he stores up fury for his enemies.

Nahum 1:3 Yahweh is slow to anger but great in power, Yahweh never lets evil go unpunished. In storm and whirlwind he takes his way, the clouds are the dust stirred up by his feet.

Nahum 1:4 He rebukes the sea, dries it up, and makes all the rivers run dry. . . . Bashan and Carmel wither, the greenery of the Lebanon withers too.

Nahum 1:5 The mountains tremble before him, the hills reel; the earth collapses before him, the world and all who live in it.

Nahum 1:6 His fury—who can withstand it? Who can endure his burning wrath? His anger pours out like fire and the rocks break apart before him.

Nahum 1:7 Yahweh is better than a fortress in time of distress; he recognises those who trust in him

Nahum 1:8 even when the flood rushes on; he will make an end once and for all of those who defy him, and pursue his foes into darkness.

Nahum 1:9 What are your thoughts about Yahweh? He it is who makes a final end: his adversaries will not rise up a second time;

Nahum 1:10 like a thicket of tangled brambles, like dry straw, they will be burnt up completely. To Assyria

Nahum 1:11 From you has emerged someone plotting evil against Yahweh, one of Belial's counsellors. To Judah

Nahum 1:12 Yahweh says this: Unopposed and many though they be, they will be cut down and pass away. Though I have made you suffer, I shall make you suffer no more,

Nahum 1:13 for now I shall break his yoke which presses hard on you and snap your chains. To the king of Nineveh

Nahum 1:14 As for you, this is Yahweh's decree: You will have no heirs to your name, from the temple of your gods I shall remove carved image and cast image, and I shall devastate your tomb, for you are accursed!

Nahum 2:1 To Judah See on the mountains the feet of the herald! 'Peace!' he proclaims. Judah, celebrate your feasts, carry out your vows, for Belial will never pass through you again; he has been utterly destroyed.

Nahum 2:2 The destroyer has advanced on you, guarding the siege-works, watching the road, bracing himself, mustering great strength!

Nahum 2:3 (For Yahweh has restored the vine of Jacob, yes, the vine of Israel, although the plunderers had plundered them, although they had snapped off their vine-shoots!)

Nahum 2:4 The shields of his fighting men show red, his warriors are dressed in scarlet; the metal of the chariots sparkles as he prepares for battle; the horsemen are impatient for action;

Nahum 2:5 the chariots storm through the streets, jostling one another in the squares; they look like blazing flames, like lightning they dash to and fro.

Nahum 2:6 His captains are called out; stumbling as they go, they speed towards the wall, and the mantelet is put in position.

Nahum 2:7 The sluices of the River are opened, and the palace melts in terror.

Nahum 2:8 Beauty is taken captive, carried away, her slave-girls moaning like doves

Nahum 2:9 and beating their breasts. Nineveh is like a lake, whose waters are draining away. 'Stop! Stop!' But no one turns back.

Nahum 2:10 'Plunder the silver! Plunder the gold!' There is no end to the treasure, a mass of everything you could desire!

Nahum 2:11 Ravaged, wrecked, ruined! Heart fails and knees give way, anguish is in the loins of all, and every face grows pale!

Nahum 2:12 Where is the lions' den now, the cave of the lion's whelps, where the lion and lioness walked with their cubs and no one molested them,

Nahum 2:13 where the lion would tear up food for his whelps and strangle the kill for his mates, where he filled his caverns with prey and his lairs with spoil?

Nahum 2:14 Look, I am against you!- declares Yahweh Sabaoth- I shall send your chariots up in smoke, and the sword will devour your whelps; I shall cut short your depredations on earth, and the voices of your envoys will be heard no more.

Nahum 3:1 Disaster to the city of blood, packed throughout with lies, stuffed with booty, where plundering has no end!

Nahum 3:2 The crack of the whip! The rumble of wheels! Galloping horse, jolting chariot,

Nahum 3:3 charging cavalry, flashing swords, gleaming spears, a mass of wounded, hosts of dead, countless corpses; they stumble over corpses-

Nahum 3:4 because of the countless whorings of the harlot, the graceful beauty, the cunning witch, who enslaved nations by her harlotries and tribes by her spells.

Nahum 3:5 Look, I am against you!- declares Yahweh Sabaoth- I shall lift your skirts as high as your face and show your nakedness to the nations, your shame to the kingdoms.

Nahum 3:6 I shall pelt you with filth, I shall shame you and put you in the pillory.

Nahum 3:7 Then all who look at you will shrink from you and say, 'Nineveh has been ruined!' Who will mourn for her? Where would I find people to comfort you?

Nahum 3:8 Are you better off than No-Amon situated among rivers, her defences the seas, her rampart the waters?

Nahum 3:9 In Ethiopia and Egypt lay her strength, and it was boundless; Put and the Libyans served in her army.

Nahum 3:10 But she too went into exile, into captivity; her little ones too were dashed to pieces at every crossroad; lots were drawn for her nobles, all her great men were put in chains.

Nahum 3:11 You too will become drunk, you will go into hiding; you too will have to search for a refuge from the enemy.

Nahum 3:12 Your fortifications are all fig trees, with early ripening figs: as soon as they are shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater.

Nahum 3:13 Look at your people: you are a nation of women! The gates of your country gape open to your enemies; fire has devoured their bars!

Nahum 3:14 Draw yourselves water for the siege, strengthen your fortifications! Into the mud with you, puddle the clay, repair the brick-kiln!

Nahum 3:15 There the fire will burn you up, the sword will cut you down. Make yourselves as numerous as locusts, make yourselves as numerous as the hoppers,

Nahum 3:16 let your commercial agents outnumber the stars of heaven,

Nahum 3:17 your garrisons, like locusts, and your marshals, like swarms of hoppers! They settle on the walls when the day is cold. The sun appears, the locusts spread their wings, they fly away,away they fly, no one knows where. Alas,

Nahum 3:18 your shepherds are asleep, king of Assyria, your bravest men slumber; your people are scattered on the mountains with no one to gather them.

Nahum 3:19 There is no remedy for your wound, your injury is past healing. All who hear the news of you clap their hands at your downfall. For who has not felt your unrelenting cruelty?

Habakkuk

1:1 The charge that Habakkuk the prophet received in a vision.

Habakkuk 1:2 How long, Yahweh, am I to cry for help while you will not listen; to cry, 'Violence!' in your ear while you will not save?

Habakkuk 1:3 Why do you make me see wrong-doing, why do you countenance oppression? Plundering and violence confront me, contention and discord flourish.

Habakkuk 1:4 And so the law loses its grip and justice never emerges, since the wicked outwits the upright and so justice comes out perverted.

Habakkuk 1:5 Cast your eyes over the nations, look, and be amazed, astounded. For I am doing something in your own days which you will not believe if you are told of it.

Habakkuk 1:6 For look, I am stirring up the Chaldaeans, that fierce and fiery nation who march miles across country to seize the homes of others.

Habakkuk 1:7 They are dreadful and awesome, a law and authority to themselves.

Habakkuk 1:8 Their horses are swifter than leopards, fiercer than wolves at night; their horsemen gallop on, their horsemen advance from afar, swooping like an eagle anxious to feed.

Habakkuk 1:9 They are all bent on violence, their faces scorching like an east wind; they scoop up prisoners like sand.

Habakkuk 1:10 They scoff at kings, they despise princes. They make light of all fortresses: they heap up earth and take them.

Habakkuk 1:11 Then the wind changes and is gone . . . Guilty is he who makes his strength his god.

Habakkuk 1:12 Surely you, Yahweh, are from ancient times, my holy God, who never dies! Yahweh, you have appointed him to execute judgement; O Rock, you have set him firm to punish.

Habakkuk 1:13 Your eyes are too pure to rest on evil, you cannot look on at oppression. Why do you look on at those who play the traitor, why say nothing while the wicked swallows someone more upright than himself?

Habakkuk 1:14 Why treat people like fish of the sea, like gliding creatures who have no leader?

Habakkuk 1:15 They haul them all up on their hook, they catch them in their net, they sweep them up in their dragnet and then make merry and rejoice.

Habakkuk 1:16 And so they offer a sacrifice to their net, and burn incense to their dragnet, for by these they get a rich living and live off the fat of the land.

Habakkuk 1:17 Are they to go on emptying their net unceasingly, slaughtering the nations without pity?

Habakkuk 2:1 I shall stand at my post, I shall station myself on my watch-tower, watching to see what he will say to me, what answer he will make to my complaints.

Habakkuk 2:2 Then Yahweh answered me and said, 'Write the vision down, inscribe it on tablets to be easily read.

Habakkuk 2:3 For the vision is for its appointed time, it hastens towards its end and it will not lie; although it may take some time, wait for it, for come it certainly will before too long.

Habakkuk 2:4 'You see, anyone whose heart is not upright will succumb, but the upright will live through faithfulness.'

Habakkuk 2:5 Now, surely, wealth is treacherous! He is arrogant, for ever on the move, with appetite as large as Sheol and as insatiable as Death, gathering in all the nations, and making a harvest of all peoples.

Habakkuk 2:6 Are not the peoples all bound to satirise and make up cryptic riddles about him? As for instance: Disaster to anyone who amasses goods not his (for how long?) and to anyone who weighs himself down with goods taken in pledge!

Habakkuk 2:7 Will not your creditors suddenly stand up, will not those who make you shiver wake up, and you will fall a prey to them?

Habakkuk 2:8 Since you have plundered many nations, all the nations that remain will plunder you, because of the bloodshed and violence done to the country, to the city and to all who live in it.

Habakkuk 2:9 Disaster to anyone who amasses ill-gotten gains for his house, so as to fix his nest on high and so evade the reach of misfortune!

Habakkuk 2:10 You have conspired to bring shame on your house: by overthrowing many peoples you have worked your own ruin.

Habakkuk 2:11 For the very stone will protest from the wall, and the beam will respond from the framework.

Habakkuk 2:12 Disaster to anyone who builds a town with bloodshed and founds a city on wrong-doing!

Habakkuk 2:13 Is it not thanks to Yahweh Sabaoth that the peoples' toil is fuel for the fire, and the nations' labour came to nothing?

Habakkuk 2:14 But the earth will be full of the knowledge of the glory of Yahweh as the waters cover the depths of the sea.

Habakkuk 2:15 Disaster to anyone who makes his neighbours drink, pouring out his poison until they are drunk, so that he can see them naked!

Habakkuk 2:16 You are full of shame, not glory! Your turn now to drink and show your foreskin. The cup in Yahweh's right hand comes round to you, and disgrace will overshadow your glory.

Habakkuk 2:17 For the violence done to the Lebanon will overwhelm you and the massacre of animals will terrify you, because of the bloodshed and violence done to the country, to the city and to all who live in it. Disaster to anyone who says to the log, 'Wake up!', to the dumb stone, 'On your feet!' (This is the prophecy!) Look, he is encased in gold and silver, -but not a breath of life inside it!

Habakkuk 2:18 What use is a sculpted image that a sculptor should make it? - a metal image, a lying instructor! And why does the image-maker put his trust in it, that he should make dumb idols?

Habakkuk 2:19

Habakkuk 2:20 But Yahweh is in his holy Temple: let the whole earth be silent before him.

Habakkuk 3:1 A prayer of the prophet Habakkuk; tone as for dirges.

Habakkuk 3:2 Yahweh, I have heard of your renown; your work, Yahweh, inspires me with dread. Make it live again in our time, make it known in our time; in wrath remember mercy.

Habakkuk 3:3 Eloah comes from Teman, and the Holy One from Mount Paran. Pause His majesty covers the heavens, and his glory fills the earth.

Habakkuk 3:4 His brightness is like the day, rays flash from his hands, that is where his power lies hidden.

Habakkuk 3:5 Pestilence goes before him and Plague follows close behind.

Habakkuk 3:6 When he stands up, he makes the earth tremble, with his glance he makes the nations quake. And the eternal mountains are dislodged, the everlasting hills sink down, his pathway from of old.

Habakkuk 3:7 I saw the tents of Cushan in trouble, the tent-curtains of Midian shuddering.

Habakkuk 3:8 Yahweh, are you enraged with the rivers, are you angry with the sea, that you should mount your chargers, your rescuing chariots?

Habakkuk 3:9 You uncover your bow, and give the string its fill of arrows. PauseYou drench the soil with torrents;

Habakkuk 3:10 the mountains see you and tremble, great floods sweep by, the abyss roars aloud, lifting high its waves.

Habakkuk 3:11 Sun and moon stay inside their dwellings, they flee at the light of your arrows, at the flash of your lightning-spear.

Habakkuk 3:12 In rage you stride across the land, in anger you trample the nations.

Habakkuk 3:13 You marched to save your people, to save your anointed one; you wounded the head of the house of the wicked, laid bare the foundation to the rock. Pause

Habakkuk 3:14 With your shafts you pierced the leader of his warriors who stormed out with shouts of joy to scatter us, as if they meant to devour some poor wretch in their lair.

Habakkuk 3:15 With your horses you trampled through the sea, through the surging abyss!

Habakkuk 3:16 When I heard, I trembled to the core, my lips quivered at the sound; my bones became disjointed and my legs gave way beneath me. Calmly I await the day of anguish which is dawning on the people now attacking us.

Habakkuk 3:17 (For the fig tree is not to blossom, nor will the vines bear fruit, the olive crop will disappoint and the fields will yield no food; the sheep will vanish from the fold; no cattle in the stalls.)

Habakkuk 3:18 But I shall rejoice in Yahweh, I shall exult in God my Saviour.

Habakkuk 3:19 Yahweh my Lord is my strength, he will make my feet as light as a doe's, and set my steps on the heights. For the choirmaster; on stringed instruments.

Zephaniah

1:1 The word of Yahweh which was addressed to Zephaniah son of Cushi, son of Gedaliah, son of Amariah, son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah.

Zephaniah 1:2 I shall sweep away everything off the face of the earth, declares Yahweh.

Zephaniah 1:3 I shall sweep away humans and animals, the birds of the air and the fish of the sea, I shall topple the wicked and wipe all people off the face of the earth -declares Yahweh.

Zephaniah 1:4 I shall raise my hand against Judah and against all who live in Jerusalem, and from this place I will wipe out Baal's remnant, the very name of his priests,

Zephaniah 1:5 and those who prostrate themselves on the roofs before the array of heaven, and those who prostrate themselves before Yahweh but swear by Milcom,

Zephaniah 1:6 and those who have turned their back on Yahweh, who do not seek Yahweh and do not consult him.

Zephaniah 1:7 Silence before Lord Yahweh, for the Day of Yahweh is near! Yahweh has prepared a sacrifice, he has consecrated his guests.

Zephaniah 1:8 On the Day of Yahweh's sacrifice, I shall punish the courtiers, the royal princes and all who dress in outlandish clothes.

Zephaniah 1:9 On that day I shall punish all who go up the Step and fill the Temple of their lords, with violence and deceit.

Zephaniah 1:10 On that Day—declares Yahweh—uproar will be heard from the Fish Gate, wailing from the New Quarter and a great crash from the hills.

Zephaniah 1:11 Wail, you who live in the Hollow, for it is all over with the merchants, all the money-bags have been wiped out!

Zephaniah 1:12 When that time comes I shall search Jerusalem by lamplight and punish the men stagnating over the remains of their wine, who say in their hearts, 'Yahweh can do nothing, either good or bad.'

Zephaniah 1:13 For this, their wealth will be looted and their houses laid in ruins; they will build houses but not live in them, they will plant vineyards but not drink their wine.

Zephaniah 1:14 The great Day of Yahweh is near, near, and coming with great speed. How bitter the sound of the Day of Yahweh, the Day when the warrior shouts his cry of war.

Zephaniah 1:15 That Day is a day of retribution, a day of distress and tribulation, a day of ruin and of devastation, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of cloud and thick fog,

Zephaniah 1:16 a day of trumpet blast and battle cry against fortified town and high corner-tower.

Zephaniah 1:17 I shall bring such distress on humanity that they will grope their way like the blind for having sinned against Yahweh. Their blood will be poured out like mud, yes, their corpses like dung;

Zephaniah 1:18 nor will their silver or gold be able to save them. On the Day of Yahweh's anger, by the fire of his jealousy, the whole earth will be consumed. For he will destroy, yes, annihilate everyone living on earth.

Zephaniah 2:1 Gather together, gather together, nations without shame,

Zephaniah 2:2 before you are dispersed like chaff which disappears in a day; before Yahweh’s burning anger overtakes you (before the Day of Yahweh’s anger overtakes you).

Zephaniah 2:3 Seek Yahweh, all you humble of the earth, who obey his commands. Seek uprightness, seek humility: you may perhaps find shelter on the Day of Yahweh’s anger.

Zephaniah 2:4 For Gaza will be abandoned and Ashkelon reduced to ruins; Ashdod will be driven out in broad daylight and Ekron uprooted.

Zephaniah 2:5 Disaster to the members of the coastal league, to the nation of the Cherethites! This is the word of Yahweh against you: I shall subdue you, land of the Philistines, I shall destroy you till there are no inhabitants left;

Zephaniah 2:6 and the coastal league will be reduced to pasture land, to grazing grounds for shepherds and folds for sheep;

Zephaniah 2:7 and the league will belong to the remnant of the House of Judah; they will pasture their flocks there, at night they will rest in the houses of Ashkelon; for, when Yahweh their God has punished them, he will restore their fortunes.

Zephaniah 2:8 I have heard the taunt of Moab and the insults of the Ammonites, as they taunted my people and boasted of their own domains.

Zephaniah 2:9 For this, as I live—declares Yahweh Sabaoth, God of Israel—Moab will become like Sodom and the Ammonites like Gomorrah: a realm of nettles, a heap of salt, a desolation for ever. What is left of my people will plunder them, the survivors of my nation will take their heritage.

Zephaniah 2:10 This will be the price of their pride for having taunted and boasted over the people of Yahweh Sabaoth.

Zephaniah 2:11 Yahweh will be fearsome to them, for he will scatter all the gods of the earth, and they will bow down to him, each from his own place—all the islands of the nations.

Zephaniah 2:12 You Ethiopians too will be run through by my sword.

Zephaniah 2:13 He will raise his hand against the north and bring Assyria down in ruins; he will make Nineveh a waste, as dry as a desert.

Zephaniah 2:14 Flocks will rest inside there, so will wild animals; pelican and porcupine will nest round her cornices at night; the owl will hoot at the window and the raven croak on the doorstep—for the cedar has been torn down.

Zephaniah 2:15 This is what the city will be like, once living happy and carefree and thinking to itself, 'I have no rival—not I!' And what will it be now? A ruin, a lair for wild beasts to rest in, and everyone who passes by will whistle and throw up his hands.

Zephaniah 3:1 Disaster to the rebellious, the befouled, the tyrannical city!

Zephaniah 3:2 She has not listened to the call, she has not bowed to correction, she has not trusted in Yahweh, she has not drawn near to her God.

Zephaniah 3:3 The rulers she has are roaring lions, her judges are wolves of the wastelands which leave nothing over for the morning,

Zephaniah 3:4 her prophets are braggarts, impostors, her priests have profaned what is holy and violated the Law.

Zephaniah 3:5 Yahweh the Upright is in her, he does no wrong; morning by morning he gives judgement, each dawn unfailingly (but the wrong-doer knows no shame).

Zephaniah 3:6 I have exterminated the nations, their corner-towers lie in ruins; I have emptied their streets, no one walks through them; their cities have been destroyed and are now deserted and unpeopled.

Zephaniah 3:7 I thought, 'At least you will fear me, at least you will bow to correction,' and none of the punishments I brought on them will disappear from their view. But no, it only made them more anxious to do whatever was corrupt.

Zephaniah 3:8 So wait for me—declares Yahweh—for the day when I rise as accuser, for I am determined to gather the nations, to assemble the kingdoms, and on you to vent my fury, the whole heat of my anger (for the whole earth will be devoured by the fire of my jealousy).

Zephaniah 3:9 Yes, then I shall purge the lips of the peoples, so that all may invoke the name of Yahweh and serve him shoulder to shoulder.

Zephaniah 3:10 From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia, my suppliants will bring me tribute.

Zephaniah 3:11 When that Day comes you will never again be ashamed of all the deeds with which you once rebelled against me, for I shall rid you of those who exult in your pride; never again will you strut on my holy mountain.

Zephaniah 3:12 But in you I shall leave surviving a humble and lowly people,

Zephaniah 3:13 and those who are left in Israel will take refuge in the name of Yahweh. They will do no wrong, will tell no lies; nor will a deceitful tongue be found in their mouths. But they will be able to graze and rest with no one to alarm them.

Zephaniah 3:14 Shout for joy, daughter of Zion, Israel, shout aloud! Rejoice, exult with all your heart, daughter of Jerusalem!

Zephaniah 3:15 Yahweh has repealed your sentence; he has turned your enemy away. Yahweh is king among you, Israel, you have nothing more to fear.

Zephaniah 3:16 When that Day comes, the message for Jerusalem will be: Zion, have no fear, do not let your hands fall limp.

Zephaniah 3:17 Yahweh your God is there with you, the warrior-Saviour. He will rejoice over you with happy song, he will renew you by his love, he will dance with shouts of joy for you,

Zephaniah 3:18 as on a day of festival. I have taken away your misfortune, no longer need you bear the disgrace of it.

Zephaniah 3:19 I am taking action here and now against your oppressors. When that time comes I will rescue the lame, and gather the strays, and I will win them praise and renown when I restore their fortunes.

Zephaniah 3:20 At that time I shall be your guide, at the time when I gather you in, I shall give you praise and renown among all the peoples of the earth when I restore your fortunes under your own eyes, declares Yahweh.

Haggai

1:1 In the second year of King Darius, on the first day of the sixth month, the word of Yahweh was addressed through the prophet Haggai to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel governor of Judah and to Joshua son of Jehozadak the high priest as follows,

Haggai 1:2 'Yahweh Sabaoth says this, "This people says: The time has not yet come to rebuild the Temple of Yahweh." '

Haggai 1:3 (And the word of Yahweh was addressed through the prophet Haggai, as follows,)

Haggai 1:4 'Is this a time for you to live in your panelled houses, when this House lies in ruins?

Haggai 1:5 So now, Yahweh Sabaoth says this, "Think carefully about your behaviour.

Haggai 1:6 You have sown much and harvested little; you eat but never have enough, drink but never have your fill, put on clothes but feel no warmth. The wage-earner gets his wages only to put them in a bag with a hole in it."

Haggai 1:7 Yahweh Sabaoth says this, "Think carefully about your behaviour.

Haggai 1:8 Go up into the hills, fetch timber and rebuild the House; and I shall take pleasure in it and manifest my glory there—Yahweh says.

Haggai 1:9 The abundance you expected proved to be little. When you brought the harvest in, I blasted it. And why? - Yahweh Sabaoth declares. Because while my House lies in ruins, each of you is busy with his own house.

Haggai 1:10 That is why the sky has withheld the rain and the earth withheld its yield.

Haggai 1:11 I have called down drought on land and hills, on grain, on new wine, on olive oil and on all the produce of the ground, on humans and animals and all your labours." '

Haggai 1:12 Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, Joshua son of Jehozadak the high priest and the entire remnant of the people, paid attention to the voice of Yahweh their God and to the words of the prophet Haggai, which Yahweh their God had sent him to deliver. And the people were filled with fear before Yahweh.

Haggai 1:13 Haggai, the messenger of Yahweh, then passed on Yahweh's message to the people, 'I am with you—declares Yahweh.'

Haggai 1:14 And Yahweh roused the spirit of Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel governor of Judah, the spirit of Joshua son of Jehozadak the high priest and the spirit of the entire remnant of the people; they came and set to work in the Temple of Yahweh Sabaoth, their God.

Haggai 1:15 This was on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month. In the second year of King Darius,

Haggai 2:1 on the twenty-first day of the seventh month, the word of Yahweh was addressed through the prophet Haggai, as follows,

Haggai 2:2 'You are to speak to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel governor of Judah, to Joshua son of Jehozadak the high priest and to the remnant of the people. Say this,

Haggai 2:3 "Is there anyone left among you who saw this Temple in its former glory? And how does it look to you now? Does it not seem as though there is nothing there?

Haggai 2:4 But take courage now, Zerubbabel!-Yahweh declares. Courage, Joshua son of Jehozadak high priest! Courage, all you people of the country!-Yahweh declares. To work! I am with you—Yahweh Sabaoth declares-

Haggai 2:5 and my spirit is present among you. Do not be afraid!

Haggai 2:6 For Yahweh Sabaoth says this: A little while now, and I shall shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land.

Haggai 2:7 I shall shake all the nations, and the treasures of all the nations will flow in, and I shall fill this Temple with glory, says Yahweh Sabaoth.

Haggai 2:8 Mine is the silver, mine the gold!-Yahweh Sabaoth declares.

Haggai 2:9 The glory of this new Temple will surpass that of the old, says Yahweh Sabaoth, and in this place I shall give peace—Yahweh Sabaoth declares.” ‘

Haggai 2:10 On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of Yahweh was addressed to the prophet Haggai as follows,

Haggai 2:11 ‘Yahweh Sabaoth says this, “Ask the priests to give a ruling on this:

Haggai 2:12 If someone is carrying consecrated meat in the fold of his gown and allows the fold to touch bread, broth, wine, oil or food of any kind, will that become holy?” ‘ The priests replied, ‘No.’

Haggai 2:13 Haggai then said, ‘If anyone rendered unclean by contact with a corpse touches any of these things, will that become unclean?’ The priests replied, ‘It will become unclean.’

Haggai 2:14 Haggai then spoke out. ‘It is the same with this people,’ he said, ‘the same with this nation, in my view—Yahweh declares—the same with everything they turn their hands to; and whatever they offer here is unclean.

Haggai 2:15 ‘So now think carefully, today and henceforth: before one stone had been laid on another in the sanctuary of Yahweh,

Haggai 2:16 what state were you in? You would come to a twenty-measure heap and find only ten; you would come to a vat to draw fifty measures and find only twenty.

Haggai 2:17 Everything you turned your hands to, I struck with wind-blast, mildew and hail, and still you would not return to me—Yahweh declares.

Haggai 2:18 So think carefully, today and henceforth (from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, from the day the foundation of the sanctuary of Yahweh was laid, think carefully)

Haggai 2:19 if seed-corn is still short in the barn, and if vine and fig tree, pomegranate and olive tree still bear no fruit. ‘From today onwards I intend to bless you.’

Haggai 2:20 On the twenty-fourth day of the month the word of Yahweh was addressed a second time to Haggai, as follows, Haggai 2:21 ‘Speak to Zerubbabel governor of Judah. Say this, “I am going to shake the heavens and the earth.

Haggai 2:22 I shall overturn the thrones of kingdoms and destroy the power of the kings of the nations. I shall overthrow the chariots and their crews; horses and their riders will fall, every one to the sword of his comrade.

Haggai 2:23 When that day comes—Yahweh Sabaoth declares—I shall take you, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel my servant—Yahweh declares—and make you like a signet ring. For I have chosen you—Yahweh Sabaoth declares.” ‘

Zecharaih

1:1 In the second year of Darius, in the eighth month, the word of Yahweh was addressed to the prophet Zechariah (son of Berechiah), son of Iddo, as follows,

Zecharaih 1:2 'Yahweh was deeply angry with your ancestors.

Zecharaih 1:3 So say this to them, "Yahweh Sabaoth says this: Return to me—Yahweh Sabaoth declares—and I will return to you, says Yahweh Sabaoth.

Zecharaih 1:4 Do not be like your ancestors when the prophets in the past cried to them: Yahweh Sabaoth says this: Turn back from your evil ways and evil deeds—they would not listen or pay attention to me—Yahweh declares.

Zecharaih 1:5 Where are your ancestors now? And the prophets, do they live for ever?

Zecharaih 1:6 But did not my words and statutes, with which I had charged my servants the prophets, overtake your ancestors just the same?" ' So they repented and said, 'Yahweh Sabaoth has treated us as he resolved to do, and as our ways and deeds deserved.'

Zecharaih 1:7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month (the month of Shebat), in the second year of Darius, the word of Yahweh was addressed to the prophet Zechariah (son of Berechiah), son of Iddo, as follows,

Zecharaih 1:8 'I had a vision during the night. There was a man riding a red horse standing among the deep-rooted myrtles; behind him were other horses-red, chestnut and white.

Zecharaih 1:9 I said, "What are these, my lord?" And the angel who was talking to me said, "I will show you what they are."

Zecharaih 1:10 The man standing among the myrtles then replied, "Those are they whom Yahweh has sent to patrol the world."

Zecharaih 1:11 They reported to the angel of Yahweh as he stood among the myrtles, "We have been patrolling the world, and indeed the whole world is still and at peace."

Zecharaih 1:12 The angel of Yahweh then spoke and said, "Yahweh Sabaoth, how long will you wait before taking pity on Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, on which you have inflicted your anger for the past seventy years?"

Zecharaih 1:13 Yahweh then replied with kind and comforting words to the angel who was talking to me.

Zecharaih 1:14 The angel who was talking to me then said to me, "Make this proclamation: Yahweh Sabaoth says this: I am burning with jealousy for Jerusalem and Zion

Zecharaih 1:15 but am deeply angry with the nations now at ease; before, I was only mildly angry, but they contributed to the disaster.

Zecharaih 1:16 So now Yahweh says this: In compassion I have returned to Jerusalem; my Temple will be rebuilt there—Yahweh Sabaoth declares—and the measuring line will be stretched over Jerusalem.

Zecharaih 1:17 Make this proclamation too: Yahweh Sabaoth says this: My cities are once more to be very prosperous. Yahweh will comfort Zion once again, and again make Jerusalem his choice." '

Zecharaih 2:1 Then, raising my eyes, I had a vision. It was this: There were four horns.

Zecharaih 2:2 I said to the angel who was talking to me, 'What are these?' He said to me, 'These are the horns which scattered Judah (Israel) and Jerusalem.'

Zecharaih 2:3 Yahweh then showed me four smiths.

Zecharaih 2:4 And I said, 'What are these coming to do?' He said to me, '(Those horns scattered Judah so completely that no one dared to raise his head; but) these have come to terrify them, to throw down the horns of the nations who raised their horns over the land of Judah to scatter it.'

Zecharaih 2:5 Then, raising my eyes, I had a vision. There was a man with a measuring line in his hand.

Zecharaih 2:6 I asked him, 'Where are you going?' He said, 'To measure Jerusalem, to calculate her width and length.'

Zecharaih 2:7 And then, while the angel who was talking to me walked away, another angel came out to meet him.

Zecharaih 2:8 He said to him, 'Run, and tell that young man this, "Jerusalem is to remain unwalled, because of the great number of men and cattle inside.

Zecharaih 2:9 For I—Yahweh declares—shall be a wall of fire all round her and I shall be the Glory within her." '

Zecharaih 2:10 Look out! Look out! Flee from the land of the north—Yahweh declares- for I have scattered you to the four winds of heaven—Yahweh declares.

Zecharaih 2:11 Look out! Make your escape, Zion, now living with the daughter of Babylon!

Zecharaih 2:12 For Yahweh Sabaoth says this, since the Glory commissioned me, about the nations who plundered you, 'Whoever touches you touches the apple of my eye.

Zecharaih 2:13 Now look, I shall wave my hand over them and they will be plundered by those whom they have enslaved.' Then you will know that Yahweh Sabaoth has sent me!

Zecharaih 2:14 Sing, rejoice, daughter of Zion, for now I am coming to live among you -Yahweh declares!

Zecharaih 2:15 And on that day many nations will be converted to Yahweh. Yes, they will become his people, and they will live among you. Then you will know that Yahweh Sabaoth has sent me to you!

Zecharaih 2:16 Yahweh will take possession of Judah, his portion in the Holy Land, and again make Jerusalem his choice.

Zecharaih 2:17 Let all people be silent before Yahweh, now that he is stirring from his holy Dwelling!

Zecharaih 3:1 He then showed me the high priest Joshua, standing before the angel of Yahweh, with Satan standing on his right to accuse him.

Zecharaih 3:2 The angel of Yahweh said to Satan, 'May Yahweh rebuke you, Satan! May Yahweh rebuke you, since he has made Jerusalem his choice. Is not this man a brand snatched from the fire?'

Zecharaih 3:3 Now Joshua was dressed in dirty clothes as he stood before the angel.

Zecharaih 3:4 The latter then spoke as follows to those who were standing before him, 'Take off his dirty clothesand dress him in splendid robes

Zecharaih 3:5 and put a clean turban on his head.' So they put a clean turban on his head and dressed him in clean clothes, while the angel of Yahweh stood byand said, 'You see, I have taken your guilt away.'

Zecharaih 3:6 The angel of Yahweh then made this declaration to Joshua,

Zecharaih 3:7 'Yahweh Sabaoth says this, "If you walk in my ways and keep my ordinances, you shall govern my house, you shall watch over my courts, and I will give you free access among those in attendance here.

Zecharaih 3:8 'So listen, High Priest Joshua, you and the colleagues over whom you preside—for they are an omen of things to come—for now I shall bring in my servant the Branch, and I shall remove this country's guilt in a single day.

Zecharaih 3:9 For this is the stone which I have put before Joshua, a stone on which are seven eyes; and I myself shall cut the inscription on it—Yahweh Sabaoth declares."

Zecharaih 3:10 On that day—Yahweh Sabaoth declares—invite each other to come under your vine and your fig tree." '

Zecharaih 4:1 The angel who was talking to me came back and roused me as though rousing someone who was asleep.

Zecharaih 4:2 And he asked me, 'What do you see?' I replied, 'As I look, there is a lamp-stand entirely of gold with a bowl at the top of it; it holds seven lamps, with seven openings for the lamps on it.

Zecharaih 4:3 By it are two olive trees, one to the right and the other to the left.'

Zecharaih 4:4 I then said to the angel who was talking to me, 'What are those things, my lord?'

Zecharaih 4:5 The angel who was talking to me replied, 'Do you not know what they are?' I said, 'No, my lord.'

Zecharaih 4:6 He then gave me this answer,'These seven are the eyes of Yahweh, which range over the whole world.'

Zecharaih 4:7 'What are you, great mountain? Beside Zerubbabel you shall become a plain! He will bring out the keystone while it is cheered with Hurrah! Hurrah!'

Zecharaih 4:8 The word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Zecharaih 4:9 'The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this Temple; his hands will finish it. (Then you will know that Yahweh Sabaoth has sent me to you.)

Zecharaih 4:10 A day of little things, no doubt, but who would dare despise it? How they will rejoice when they see the chosen stone in the hands of Zerubbabel!'

Zecharaih 4:11 Then I went on to ask him, 'What is the meaning of these two olive trees, to right and left of the lamp-stand?'

Zecharaih 4:12 (And I went on to ask him further, 'What is the meaning of the two olive branches discharging oil through the two golden openings?')

Zecharaih 4:13 He replied, 'Do you not know what they are?' I said, 'No, my lord.'

Zecharaih 4:14 He said, 'These are the two anointed ones in attendance on the Lord of the whole world. This is the word of Yahweh with regard to Zerubbabel, 'Not by might and not by power, but by my spirit'—says Yahweh Sabaoth.

Zecharaih 5:1 Again raising my eyes, I had a vision. There was a flying scroll.

Zecharaih 5:2 The angel who was talking to me said, 'What do you see?' I replied, 'I see a flying scroll; it is twenty cubits long and ten cubits wide.'

Zecharaih 5:3 He then said to me, 'This is God's curse sweeping across the face of the whole country; for, according to what it says on one side, every thief will be banished and, according to what it says on the other, everyone who commits perjury in my name will be banished from it.

Zecharaih 5:4 I am going to release it—Yahweh Sabaoth declares—for it to enter the house of the thief and of anyone who commits perjury in my name, for it to settle deep within his house and consume it, timber, stone and all.'

Zecharaih 5:5 The angel who was talking to me appeared and said to me, 'Raise your eyes, and see what this is, going along.'

Zecharaih 5:6 I said, 'What is it?' He said, 'It is a bushel measure going along.' He went on, 'This is their guilt throughout the country.'

Zecharaih 5:7 At this, a disc of lead was raised, and I saw a woman sitting inside the barrel.

Zecharaih 5:8 He said, 'This is Wickedness.' And he rammed her back into the barrel and jammed its mouth shut with the mass of lead.

Zecharaih 5:9 I raised my eyes, and there were two women appearing. The wind caught their wings—they had wings like a stork's; they raised the barrel midway between earth and heaven.

Zecharaih 5:10 I then said to the angel who was talking to me, 'Where are they taking the barrel?'

Zecharaih 5:11 He replied, 'To build a temple for it in the land of Shinar and make a pedestal on which to put it.'

Zecharaih 6:1 Again I raised my eyes, and this is what I saw: four chariots coming out between two mountains, and the mountains were mountains of bronze.

Zecharaih 6:2 The first chariot had red horses, the second chariot had black horses,

Zecharaih 6:3 the third chariot had white horses and the fourth chariot had vigorous, piebald horses.

Zecharaih 6:4 I asked the angel who was talking to me, 'What are these, my lord?'

Zecharaih 6:5 The angel replied, 'They are the four winds of heaven now leaving, after attending the Lord of the whole world.

Zecharaih 6:6 The black horses are leaving for the land of the north; the white are following them, and the piebald are leaving for the land of the south.'

Zecharaih 6:7 They came out vigorously, eager to patrol the world. He said to them, 'Go and patrol the world.' And they patrolled the world.

Zecharaih 6:8 He called to me and said, 'Look, the ones going to the land of the north brought my spirit to rest on the land of the north.'

Zecharaih 6:9 Then the word of Yahweh was addressed to me as follows,

Zecharaih 6:10 'Collect silver and gold from the exiles, from Heldai, Tobijah and Jedaiah, then (you yourself go the same day) go to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah, who has arrived from Babylon.

Zecharaih 6:11 Then, taking the silver and gold, make a crown and place it on the head of the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak.

Zecharaih 6:12 And say this to him, “Yahweh Sabaoth says this: Here is a man whose name is Branch; where he is, there will be a branching out (and he will rebuild Yahweh’s sanctuary).

Zecharaih 6:13 Yes, he is the one who will rebuild Yahweh’s sanctuary; he will wear the royal insignia and sit on his throne and govern, with a priest on his right. Perfect peace will reign between these two.

Zecharaih 6:14 And the crown will serve Heldai, Tobijah, Jedaiah and the son of Zephaniah as a memorial of favour in Yahweh’s sanctuary.

Zecharaih 6:15 And those now far away will come and work on the building of Yahweh’s sanctuary.” ‘Then you will know that Yahweh Sabaoth has sent me to you. It will happen if you diligently obey the voice of Yahweh your God.’

Zecharaih 7:1 In the fourth year of King Darius, the word of Yahweh was addressed to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, the month of Chislev.

Zecharaih 7:2 Bethel sent Sharezer with a deputation to entreat Yahweh’s favour

Zecharaih 7:3 and to ask the priests in the Temple of Yahweh Sabaoth and the prophets, ‘Ought I to go on mourning and fasting in the fifth month as I have been doing for so many years past?’

Zecharaih 7:4 Then the word of Yahweh Sabaoth was addressed to me as follows,

Zecharaih 7:5 ‘Say to all the people of the country and to the priests, “While you have been fasting and mourning in the fifth and seventh months for the past seventy years, have you really been fasting for my sake?

Zecharaih 7:6 And when you were eating and drinking, were you not eating and drinking for your own sake?

Zecharaih 7:7 Do you not know the words which Yahweh proclaimed through the prophets in the past, when Jerusalem was inhabited and secure, as were her surrounding towns, and when the Negeb and the lowlands were inhabited?” ‘ (

Zecharaih 7:8 The word of Yahweh was addressed to Zechariah as follows,

Zecharaih 7:9 ‘Yahweh Sabaoth says this.) He said, “Apply the law fairly, and show faithful love and compassion towards one another.

Zecharaih 7:10 Do not oppress the widow and the orphan, the foreigner and the poor, and do not secretly plan evil against one another.”

Zecharaih 7:11 But they would not listen; they turned a rebellious shoulder; they stopped their ears rather than hear;

Zecharaih 7:12 they made their hearts adamant rather than listen to the teaching and the words that Yahweh Sabaoth had sent—by his spirit—through the prophets in the past; and consequently the fury of Yahweh Sabaoth overtook them.

Zecharaih 7:13 And so, since when he called they would not listen, “I would not listen when they called”, says Yahweh Sabaoth,

Zecharaih 7:14 “but scattered them among all the nations unknown to them. Hence, after they had gone, the country was deserted, and no one came or went. They had turned a land of delights into a desert.” ‘

Zecharaih 8:1 The word of Yahweh Sabaoth came as follows:

Zecharaih 8:2 Yahweh Sabaoth says this: I have been burning with jealousy for Zion, with furious jealousy for her sake.

Zecharaih 8:3 Yahweh says this: I am coming back to Zion and shall live in the heart of Jerusalem. Jerusalem will be called Faithful City and the mountain of Yahweh Sabaoth, the Holy Mountain.

Zecharaih 8:4 Yahweh Sabaoth says this: Aged men and women once again will sit in the squares of Jerusalem, each with a stick to lean on because of their great age.

Zecharaih 8:5 And the squares of the city will be full of boys and girls playing there.

Zecharaih 8:6 Yahweh Sabaoth says this: If this seems a miracle to the remnant of this people (in those days), will it seem one to me? declares Yahweh.

Zecharaih 8:7 Yahweh Sabaoth says this: Look, I shall rescue my people from the countries of the east and from the countries of the west.

Zecharaih 8:8 I shall bring them back to live in the heart of Jerusalem, and they will be my people and I shall be their God, faithful and just.

Zecharaih 8:9 ‘Yahweh Sabaoth says this, “Take heart, you who today hear these promises uttered by the prophets since the day when the foundations of the Temple of Yahweh Sabaoth were laid, that the sanctuary would indeed be rebuilt.

Zecharaih 8:10 For up to now, men were not paid their wages and nothing was paid for the animals either; and it has not been safe for anyone to come and go, because of the enemy, since I had set each one against everyone else.

Zecharaih 8:11 But from now on, I shall not treat the remnant of this people as I have treated them in time past—declares Yahweh Sabaoth.

Zecharaih 8:12 Now they will sow in peace; the vine will give its fruit, the soil will give its produce and heaven will give its dew. I shall bestow all these on the remnant of this people.

Zecharaih 8:13 Just as once you were a curse among the nations, House of Judah and House of Israel, so now I shall save you, and you will be a blessing. Do not be afraid. Take heart!”

Zecharaih 8:14 ‘For Yahweh Sabaoth says this, “Just as I resolved to ill-treat you when your ancestors provoked me to anger and did not relent—says Yahweh Sabaoth-

Zecharaih 8:15 so now I have changed my mind and intend to treat Jerusalem and the House of Judah well. Do not be afraid!

Zecharaih 8:16 “These are the things that you must do. Speak the truth to one another; at your gates, administer fair judgement conducive to peace;

Zecharaih 8:17 do not secretly plot evil against one another; do not love perjury; since I hate all this—Yahweh declares.” ‘

Zecharaih 8:18 The word of Yahweh Sabaoth was addressed to me as follows:

Zecharaih 8:19 ‘Yahweh Sabaoth says this, “The fast of the fourth month, the fast of the fifth, the fast of the seventh and the fast of the tenth are to become glad, joyful, happy festivals for the House of Judah. So love truth and peace!” ‘

Zecharaih 8:20 ‘Yahweh Sabaoth says this, “In the future, peoples and citizens of many cities will come;

Zecharaih 8:21 and citizens of one city will go to the next and say: We must certainly go to entreat Yahweh’s favour and seek out Yahweh Sabaoth; I am going myself.

Zecharaih 8:22 Yes, many peoples and great nations will seek out Yahweh Sabaoth in Jerusalem and entreat Yahweh’s favour.”

Zecharaih 8:23 ‘Yahweh Sabaoth says this, “In those days, ten men from nations of every language will take a Jew by the sleeve and say: We want to go with you, since we have learnt that God is with you.” ‘

Zecharaih 9:1 A proclamation. The word of Yahweh is against Hadrach, it has come to rest on Damascus, for the source of Aram belongs to Yahweh no less than all the tribes of Israel;

Zecharaih 9:2 on Hamath too, which borders on it, and on (Tyre and) Sidon, despite her acumen.

Zecharaih 9:3 Tyre has built herself a fortress, has heaped up silver like dust and gold like the dirt of the streets.

Zecharaih 9:4 And now the Lord is going to dispossess her; at sea he will break her power, and she herself will go up in flames.

Zecharaih 9:5 Seeing this, Ashkelon will be terrified, Gaza too, and writhe with grief, Ekron too, at the ruin of her prospects; the king will vanish from Gaza and Ashkelon be unpeopled,

Zecharaih 9:6 while a half-breed will live in Ashdod! Yes, I shall destroy the pride of the Philistine;

Zecharaih 9:7 I shall snatch his blood from his mouth, his abominations from between his teeth. But his remnant too will belong to our God, becoming like a clan in Judah, and Ekron will become like a Jebusite.

Zecharaih 9:8 I shall stand guard before my home to defend it against all comers, and no oppressor will overrun them ever again, for now I am on the alert.

Zecharaih 9:9 Rejoice heart and soul, daughter of Zion! Shout for joy, daughter of Jerusalem! Look, your king is approaching, he is vindicated and victorious, humble and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

Zecharaih 9:10 He will banish chariots from Ephraim and horses from Jerusalem; the bow of war will be banished. He will proclaim peace to the nations, his empire will stretch from sea to sea, from the River to the limits of the earth.

Zecharaih 9:11 As for you, because of the blood of your covenant I have released your prisoners from the pit in which there is no water.

Zecharaih 9:12 Come back to the fortress, you prisoners waiting in hope. This very day, I vow, I shall make it up to you twice over.

Zecharaih 9:13 For I have strung Judah as a bow for myself, laid Ephraim on the string as an arrow, have roused your sons, Zion, against your sons, Javan, and have made you like a warrior’s sword.

Zecharaih 9:14 Then Yahweh will appear above them and his arrow will flash out like lightning. (The Lord) Yahweh will sound the trumpet and advance in the storm-winds of the south.

Zecharaih 9:15 Yahweh Sabaoth will protect them! They will devour, will trample on the sling-stones, they will drink blood like wine, awash like bowls, like the corners of the altar.

Zecharaih 9:16 Yahweh their God will give them victory when that day comes, like the sheep who are his people; yes, the stones of a diadem will sparkle over his country.

Zecharaih 9:17 How fine, how splendid that will be, with wheat to make the young men flourish, and new wine the maidens!

Zecharaih 10:1 Ask Yahweh for rain in autumn and at the time of the spring rains. Yahweh is the one to make the storm-clouds. He will give them showers of rain; to each, grass in his field.

Zecharaih 10:2 Since the domestic idols have talked nonsense, and the diviners have seen false signs, and dreams have purveyed delusions, affording empty comfort, that is why they have strayed like sheep, in distress for want of a shepherd.

Zecharaih 10:3 My anger has been roused by the shepherds, and I shall vent it on the he-goats. When Yahweh Sabaoth comes to visit his flock, the House of Judah, he will make it his royal war-horse.

Zecharaih 10:4 From it will emerge Cornerstone and Tent-peg, from it, Bow-ready-for-Battle, from it, every type of leader. Together

Zecharaih 10:5 they will be like warriors trampling the dirt of the streets in battle; when they fight, because Yahweh is with them, they will put mounted men to rout.

Zecharaih 10:6 Then I shall make the House of Judah mighty and the House of Joseph victorious. I shall restore them, because I have taken pity on them, and they will be as though I had never cast them off, for I am Yahweh their God and shall answer their prayer.

Zecharaih 10:7 Ephraim will be like a warrior. Their hearts will be cheered as though by wine. Their children will see this and rejoice, their hearts will exult in Yahweh.

Zecharaih 10:8 I shall whistle to them and gather them in, for I have redeemed them; they will be as numerous as they used to be.

Zecharaih 10:9 I shall scatter them among the peoples but in distant countries they will remember me, they will instruct their children and then return.

Zecharaih 10:10 I shall bring them home from Egypt and gather them back from Assyria; I shall lead them into Gilead and the Lebanon, and even that will not be large enough for them.

Zecharaih 10:11 They will cross the sea of Egypt (and the waves of the sea will be struck); all the depths of the River will be dried up. The arrogance of Assyria will be cast down and the sceptre of Egypt taken away.

Zecharaih 10:12 I shall make them mighty in Yahweh, and they will march in my name—Yahweh declares.

Zecharaih 11:1 Open your gateways, Lebanon, and the fire shall burn down your cedar trees!

Zecharaih 11:2 Wail, juniper, for the cedar tree has fallen, the majestic ones have been ravaged! Wail, oaks of Bashan, for the impenetrable forest has been felled!

Zecharaih 11:3 The sound of the wailing of shepherds! Their majesty has been ravaged. The sound of the roaring of young lions! The pride of the Jordan has been ravaged.

Zecharaih 11:4 Yahweh my God says this, 'Pasture the sheep for slaughter,

Zecharaih 11:5 whose buyers kill them and go unpunished, whose sellers say of them, "Blessed be Yahweh; now I am rich!" and whose own shepherds show them no pity.

Zecharaih 11:6 For I shall show no further pity for the inhabitants of the country—Yahweh declares! Instead, I shall put everyone into the clutches of a neighbour, into the clutches of the king. They will crush the country and I shall not rescue anyone from their clutches.’

Zecharaih 11:7 Then I pastured for slaughter the sheep belonging to the sheep-dealers. I took two staves: the one I called ‘Goodwill’, the other ‘Couplers’; and I pastured the sheep myself, Zecharaih 11:8 getting rid of three shepherds in one month. But I lost patience with them, and they equally detested me.

Zecharaih 11:9 I then said, ‘I am not going to pasture you any more; the one doomed to die can die; the one doomed to perish can perish; and the rest can devour one another.’

Zecharaih 11:10 I then took my staff, ‘Goodwill’, and broke it in half, to break my covenant, which I had made with all the peoples.

Zecharaih 11:11 When it was broken, that day the sheep-dealers, who were watching me, realised that this had been a word of Yahweh.

Zecharaih 11:12 I then said to them, ‘If you see fit, give me my wages; if not, never mind.’ So they weighed out my wages: thirty shekels of silver.

Zecharaih 11:13 Yahweh said to me, ‘Throw it to the smelter, this princely sum at which they have valued me!’ Taking the thirty shekels of silver, I threw them into the Temple of Yahweh, for the smelter.

Zecharaih 11:14 I then broke my second staff, ‘Couplers,’ in half, to rupture the brotherly relationship between Judah and Israel.

Zecharaih 11:15 Next, Yahweh said to me, ‘This time, take the gear of a good-for-nothing shepherd.

Zecharaih 11:16 For I am now going to raise a shepherd in this country, who will not bother about the lost, who will not go in search of the stray, who will not heal the injured, who will not support the swollen, but who will eat the meat of the fat ones, tearing off their very hoofs.

Zecharaih 11:17 Disaster to the shepherd who deserts his flock! May the sword attack his arm and his right eye! May his arm shrivel completely and his right eye be totally blinded!’

Zecharaih 12:1 A proclamation. The word of Yahweh about Israel (and also about Judah). Yahweh, who spread out the heaven and founded the earth and formed the human spirit within, declares:

Zecharaih 12:2 ‘Look, I shall make Jerusalem a cup to set all the surrounding peoples reeling. (That will be at the time of the siege of Jerusalem.)

Zecharaih 12:3 ‘When that day comes, I shall make Jerusalem a stone too heavy for all the peoples to lift; all those who try to lift it will hurt themselves severely, although all the nations of the world will be massed against her.

Zecharaih 12:4 When that day comes—declares Yahweh—I shall strike all the horses with panic and their riders with madness. And I shall strike all the peoples with blindness. (But I shall keep watch over Judah.)

Zecharaih 12:5 Then the rulers of Judah will say to themselves, “The strength of the inhabitants of Jerusalem lies in Yahweh Sabaoth their God.”

Zecharaih 12:6 When that day comes, I shall make the rulers of Judah like a brazier burning in a pile of wood, like a torch flaming in a sheaf; and they will devour all the peoples round them to right and left. And Jerusalem will be full of people as before, where she stands (in Jerusalem).

Zecharaih 12:7 Yahweh will first save the tents of Judah, so that the glory of the House of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem do not increase at Judah’s expense.

Zecharaih 12:8 When that day comes, Yahweh will protect the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and the frailest of them will be like David when that day comes, and the House of David will be like God, like the angel of Yahweh, at their head.

Zecharaih 12:9 ‘When that day comes, I shall set about destroying all the nations who advance against Jerusalem.

Zecharaih 12:10 But over the House of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem I shall pour out a spirit of grace and prayer, and they will look to me. They will mourn for the one whom they have pierced as though for an only child, and weep for him as people weep for a first-born child.

Zecharaih 12:11 When that day comes, the mourning in Jerusalem will be as great as the mourning for Hadad Rimmon in the Plain of Megiddo.

Zecharaih 12:12 And the country will mourn clan by clan: The clan of the House of David by itself, and their women by themselves; the clan of the House of Nathan by itself, and their women by themselves;

Zecharaih 12:13 the clan of the House of Levi by itself, and their women by themselves; the clan of the House of Shimei by itself, and their women by themselves;

Zecharaih 12:14 all the rest of the clans, every clan by itself, and their women by themselves.’

Zecharaih 13:1 ‘When that day comes, a fountain will be opened for the House of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, to wash sin and impurity away.

Zecharaih 13:2 ‘When that day comes—Yahweh declares—I shall cut off the names of the idols from the country, and they will never be remembered again; I shall also rid the country of the prophets, and of the spirit of impurity.

Zecharaih 13:3 Then, if anyone still goes on prophesying, his parents, his own father and mother will say to him, “You shall not live, since you utter lies in Yahweh’s name.” And even while he is prophesying, his parents, his own father and mother will pierce him through.

Zecharaih 13:4 When that day comes, the prophets will all be ashamed to relate their visions when they prophesy and no longer put on their hair cloaks with intent to deceive.

Zecharaih 13:5 Instead, they will say, “I am no prophet. I am a man who tills the soil, for the land has been my living since I was a boy.”

Zecharaih 13:6 And if anyone asks him, “What are those gashes on your chest?” he will reply, “I got them when I was with my friends.” ‘

Zecharaih 13:7 Awake, sword, against my shepherd, against the man who is close to me- declares Yahweh Sabaoth! Strike the shepherd, scatter the sheep! And I shall turn my hand against the young!

Zecharaih 13:8 So it will be, throughout the country- declares Yahweh Sabaoth- two-thirds in it will be cut off (be killed) and the other third will be left.

Zecharaih 13:9 I shall pass this third through the fire, refine them as silver is refined, test them as gold is tested. He will call on my name and I shall answer him; I shall say, ‘He is my people,’ and he will say, ‘Yahweh is my God!’

Zecharaih 14:1 Look, the Day of Yahweh is coming, when the spoils taken from you will be shared out among you.

Zecharaih 14:2 For I shall gather all the nations to Jerusalem for battle. The city will be taken, the houses plundered, the women ravished. Half the city will go into exile, but the rest of the people will not be ejected from the city.

Zecharaih 14:3 Then Yahweh will sally out and fight those nations as once he fought on the day of battle.

Zecharaih 14:4 When that day comes, his feet will rest on the Mount of Olives, which faces Jerusalem on the east, and the Mount of Olives will be split in half from east to west, forming a huge valley; half the Mount will recede northwards, the other half southwards.

Zecharaih 14:5 The valley between the hills will be filled in, yes, it will be blocked as far as Jasol, it will be filled in as it was by the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. And Yahweh my God will come, and all the holy ones with him.

Zecharaih 14:6 That Day, there will be no light, but only cold and frost.

Zecharaih 14:7 And it will be one continuous day—Yahweh knows—there will be no more day and night, and it will remain light right into the time of evening.

Zecharaih 14:8 When that Day comes, living waters will issue from Jerusalem, half towards the eastern sea, half towards the western sea; they will flow summer and winter.

Zecharaih 14:9 Then Yahweh will become king of the whole world. When that Day comes, Yahweh will be the one and only and his name the one name.

Zecharaih 14:10 The entire country will be transformed into plain, from Geba to Rimmon in the Negeb, but Jerusalem will stand high in her place and be full of people from the Benjamin Gate to the site of the earlier gate, to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's wine-presses.

Zecharaih 14:11 People will make their homes there. The curse of destruction will be lifted; Jerusalem will be safe to live in.

Zecharaih 14:12 And this is the plague with which Yahweh will strike all the nations who have fought against Jerusalem; their flesh will rot while they are still standing on their feet; their eyes will rot in their sockets; their tongues will rot in their mouths.

Zecharaih 14:13 When that Day comes, a great terror will fall on them from Yahweh; each man will grab his neighbour's hand and they will fall to fighting among themselves.

Zecharaih 14:14 Even Judah will fight against Jerusalem. The wealth of all the surrounding nations will be heaped together: gold, silver, clothing, in vast quantity.

Zecharaih 14:15 And the plague afflicting the horses, mules, camels, donkeys and all the other animals in those armies will be the same.

Zecharaih 14:16 After this, all the survivors of all the nations which have attacked Jerusalem will come up year after year to worship the King, Yahweh Sabaoth, and to keep the feast of Shelters.

Zecharaih 14:17 Should one of the races of the world fail to come up to Jerusalem to worship the King, Yahweh Sabaoth, there will be no rain for that one.

Zecharaih 14:18 Should the race of Egypt fail to come up and pay its visit, on it will fall the plague which Yahweh will inflict on each of those nations which fail to come up to keep the feast of Shelters.

Zecharaih 14:19 Such will be the punishment for Egypt and the punishment for all the nations which fail to come up to keep the feast of Shelters.

Zecharaih 14:20 When that Day comes, the very bells on the horses will be inscribed with the words, 'Sacred to Yahweh', and the cooking pots of the house of Yahweh will be as holy as the sprinkling bowls before the altar.

Zecharaih 14:21 Yes, every cooking pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be sacred to Yahweh Sabaoth, and all who come to offer sacrifice will help themselves and do their cooking in them, and there will be no more traders in the Temple of Yahweh Sabaoth, when that Day comes.

Malachi

1:1 A message. The word of Yahweh to Israel through Malachi.

Malachi 1:2 'I have loved you, says Yahweh. But you ask, "How have you shown your love?" Was not Esau Jacob's brother? declares Yahweh; even so, I loved Jacob Malachi 1:3 but I hated Esau. I turned his mountains into a desert and his heritage into dwellings in the wastelands.

Malachi 1:4 If Edom says, "We have been struck down but we shall rebuild our ruins," Yahweh Sabaoth says this, "Let them build, but I shall pull down! They will be known as Land of Wickedness and Nation-with-which-Yahweh-is-angry-for-ever.

Malachi 1:5 You will see this yourselves and you will say: Yahweh is mighty beyond the borders of Israel."

Malachi 1:6 'The son honours his father, the slave stands in awe of his master. But if I am indeed father, where is the honour due to me? And if I am indeed master, where is the awe due to me? says Yahweh Sabaoth to you priests who despise my name. You ask, "How have we despised your name?"

Malachi 1:7 By putting polluted food on my altar. You ask, "How have we polluted you?" By saying, "The table of Yahweh deserves no respect."

Malachi 1:8 When you bring blind animals for sacrifice, is this not wrong? When you bring the lame and the diseased, is this not wrong? If you offer them to your governor, see if he is pleased with them or receives you graciously, says Yahweh Sabaoth.

Malachi 1:9 In that case, try pleading with God to take pity on us (that is what you have done), and will he take any notice? says Yahweh Sabaoth.

Malachi 1:10 Why does one of you not close the doors and so stop the pointless lighting of fires on my altar? I am not pleased with you, says Yahweh Sabaoth; from your hands I find no offerings acceptable.

Malachi 1:11 But from farthest east to farthest west my name is great among the nations, and everywhere incense and a pure gift are offered to my name, since my name is great among the nations, says Yahweh Sabaoth.

Malachi 1:12 'But you have profaned it by saying, "The table of the Lord is polluted, hence the food offered on it deserves no respect."

Malachi 1:13 You say, "How tiresome it all is!" and sniff disdainfully at me, says Yahweh Sabaoth. You bring a stolen, lame or diseased animal, you bring that as an offering! Am I to accept this from you? says Yahweh Sabaoth.

Malachi 1:14 Cursed be the rogue who has a male in his flock but pays his vow by sacrificing a blemished animal to me! For I am a great king, says Yahweh Sabaoth, and among the nations my name inspires awe.'

Malachi 2:1 'And now, priests, this commandment is for you.

Malachi 2:2 If you will not listen, if you will not sincerely resolve to glorify my name, says Yahweh Sabaoth, I shall certainly lay a curse on you and I shall curse your blessing. Indeed I will lay a curse, for none of you makes this resolve.

Malachi 2:3 Now, I am going to break your arm and throw offal in your faces—the offal of your solemn feasts—and sweep you away with it.

Malachi 2:4 Then you will know that I sent this commandment to you, to affirm my intention to maintain my covenant with Levi, says Yahweh Sabaoth.

Malachi 2:5 My covenant was with him—a covenant of life and peace, and these were what I gave him—a covenant of respect, and he respected me and held my name in awe.

Malachi 2:6 The law of truth was in his mouth and guilt was not found on his lips; he walked in peace and justice with me and he converted many from sinning.

Malachi 2:7 The priest's lips ought to safeguard knowledge; his mouth is where the law should be sought, since he is Yahweh Sabaoth's messenger.

Malachi 2:8 But you yourselves have turned aside from the way; you have caused many to lapse by your teaching. Since you have destroyed the covenant of Levi, says Yahweh Sabaoth,

Malachi 2:9 so I in my turn have made you contemptible and vile to the whole people, for not having kept my ways and for being partial in applying the law.

Malachi 2:10 'Is there not one Father of us all? Did not one God create us? Why, then, do we break faith with one another, profaning the covenant of our ancestors?

Malachi 2:11 Judah has broken faith; a detestable thing has been done in Israel and in Jerusalem. For Judah has profaned Yahweh's beloved sanctuary; he has married the daughter of an alien god.

Malachi 2:12 May Yahweh deprive such an offender of witness and advocate in the tents of Jacob among those who present offerings to Yahweh Sabaoth!

Malachi 2:13 'And here is something else you do: you cover the altar of Yahweh with tears, with weeping and wailing, because he now refuses to consider the offering or to accept it from you.

Malachi 2:14 And you ask, "Why?" Because Yahweh stands as witness between you and the wife of your youth, with whom you have broken faith, even though she was your partner and your wife by covenant.

Malachi 2:15 Did he not create a single being, having flesh and the breath of life? And what does this single being seek? God—given offspring! Have respect for your own life then, and do not break faith with the wife of your youth.

Malachi 2:16 For I hate divorce, says Yahweh, God of Israel, and people concealing their cruelty under a cloak, says Yahweh Sabaoth. Have respect for your own life then, and do not break faith.

Malachi 2:17 'You have wearied Yahweh with your talk. You ask, "How have we wearied him?" When you say, "Any evil-doer is good as far as Yahweh is concerned; indeed he is delighted with them"; or when you say, "Where is the God of fair judgement now?"

Malachi 3:1 'Look, I shall send my messenger to clear a way before me. And suddenly the Lord whom you seek will come to his Temple; yes, the angel of the covenant, for whom you long, is on his way, says Yahweh Sabaoth.

Malachi 3:2 Who will be able to resist the day of his coming? Who will remain standing when he appears? For he will be like a refiner's fire, like fullers' alkali.

Malachi 3:3 He will take his seat as refiner and purifier; he will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, so that they can make the offering to Yahweh with uprightness.

Malachi 3:4 The offering of Judah and Jerusalem will then be acceptable to Yahweh as in former days, as in the years of old.

Malachi 3:5 I am coming to put you on trial and I shall be a ready witness against sorcerers, adulterers, perjurers, and against those who oppress the wage-earner, the widow and the orphan, and who rob the foreigner of his rights and do not respect me, says Yahweh Sabaoth.

Malachi 3:6 'No; I, Yahweh, do not change; and you have not ceased to be children of Jacob!

Malachi 3:7 Ever since the days of your ancestors, you have evaded my statutes and not observed them. Return to me and I will return to you, says Yahweh Sabaoth. You ask, "How are we to return?

Malachi 3:8 Can a human being cheat God?" Yet you try to cheat me! You ask, "How do we try to cheat you?" Over tithes and contributions.

Malachi 3:9 A curse lies on you because you, this whole nation, try to cheat me.

Malachi 3:10 Bring the tithes in full to the treasury, so that there is food in my house; put me to the test now like this, says Yahweh Sabaoth, and see if I do not open the floodgates of heaven for you and pour out an abundant blessing for you.

Malachi 3:11 For your sakes, I shall forbid the locust to destroy the produce of your soil or prevent the vine from bearing fruit in your field, says Yahweh Sabaoth,

Malachi 3:12 and all the nations will call you blessed, for you will be a land of delights, says Yahweh Sabaoth.

Malachi 3:13 'You have said harsh things about me, says Yahweh. And yet you say, "What have we said against you?"

Malachi 3:14 You have said, "It is useless to serve God; what is the good of keeping his commands or of walking mournfully before Yahweh Sabaoth?

Malachi 3:15 In fact, we now call the proud the happy ones; the evil-doers are the ones who prosper; they put God to the test, yet come to no harm!" '

Malachi 3:16 Then those who feared Yahweh talked to one another about this, and Yahweh took note and listened; and a book of remembrance was written in his presence recording those who feared him and kept his name in mind.

Malachi 3:17 'On the day when I act, says Yahweh Sabaoth, they will be my most prized possession, and I shall spare them in the way a man spares the son who serves him.

Malachi 3:18 Then once again you will see the difference between the upright person and the wicked one, between the one who serves God and the one who does not serve him.

Malachi 3:19 'For look, the Day is coming, glowing like a furnace. All the proud and all the evil-doers will be the stubble, and the Day, when it comes, will set them ablaze, says Yahweh Sabaoth, leaving them neither root nor branch.

Malachi 3:20 But for you who fear my name, the Sun of justice will rise with healing in his rays, and you will come out leaping like calves from the stall,

Malachi 3:21 and trample on the wicked, who will be like ashes under the soles of your feet on the day when I act, says Yahweh Sabaoth.

Malachi 3:22 'Remember the Law of my servant Moses to whom at Horeb I prescribed decrees and rulings for all Israel.

Malachi 3:23 'Look, I shall send you the prophet Elijah before the great and awesome Day of Yahweh comes.

Malachi 3:24 He will reconcile parents to their children and children to their parents, to forestall my putting the country under the curse of destruction.'

Matthew

1:1 Roll of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, son of David, son of Abraham:

Matthew 1:2 Abraham fathered Isaac, Isaac fathered Jacob, Jacob fathered Judah and his brothers,

Matthew 1:3 Judah fathered Perez and Zerah, whose mother was Tamar, Perez fathered Hezron, Hezron fathered Ram,

Matthew 1:4 Ram fathered Amminadab, Amminadab fathered Nahshon, Nahshon fathered Salmon,

Matthew 1:5 Salmon fathered Boaz, whose mother was Rahab, Boaz fathered Obed, whose mother was Ruth, Obed fathered Jesse;

Matthew 1:6 and Jesse fathered King David. David fathered Solomon, whose mother had been Uriah's wife,

Matthew 1:7 Solomon fathered Rehoboam, Rehoboam fathered Abijah, Abijah fathered Asa,

Matthew 1:8 Asa fathered Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat fathered Joram, Joram fathered Uzziah,

Matthew 1:9 Uzziah fathered Jotham, Jotham fathered Ahaz, Ahaz fathered Hezekiah,

Matthew 1:10 Hezekiah fathered Manasseh, Manasseh fathered Amon, Amon fathered Josiah;

Matthew 1:11 and Josiah fathered Jechoniah and his brothers. Then the deportation to Babylon took place.

Matthew 1:12 After the deportation to Babylon: Jechoniah fathered Shealtiel, Shealtiel fathered Zerubbabel,

Matthew 1:13 Zerubbabel fathered Abiud, Abiud fathered Eliakim, Eliakim fathered Azor,

Matthew 1:14 Azor fathered Zadok, Zadok fathered Achim, Achim fathered Eliud,

Matthew 1:15 Eliud fathered Eleazar, Eleazar fathered Matthan, Matthan fathered Jacob;

Matthew 1:16 and Jacob fathered Joseph the husband of Mary; of her was born Jesus who is called Christ.

Matthew 1:17 The sum of generations is therefore: fourteen from Abraham to David; fourteen from David to the Babylonian deportation; and fourteen from the Babylonian deportation to Christ.

Matthew 1:18 This is how Jesus Christ came to be born. His mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph; but before they came to live together she was found to be with child through the Holy Spirit.

Matthew 1:19 Her husband Joseph, being an upright man and wanting to spare her disgrace, decided to divorce her informally.

Matthew 1:20 He had made up his mind to do this when suddenly the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, 'Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because she has conceived what is in her by the Holy Spirit.

Matthew 1:21 She will give birth to a son and you must name him Jesus, because he is the one who is to save his people from their sins.'

Matthew 1:22 Now all this took place to fulfil what the Lord had spoken through the prophet:

Matthew 1:23 Look! the virgin is with child and will give birth to a son whom they will call Immanuel, a name which means 'God-is-with-us'.

Matthew 1:24 When Joseph woke up he did what the angel of the Lord had told him to do: he took his wife to his home;

Matthew 1:25 he had not had intercourse with her when she gave birth to a son; and he named him Jesus.

Matthew 2:1 After Jesus had been born at Bethlehem in Judaea during the reign of King Herod, suddenly some wise men came to Jerusalem from the east

Matthew 2:2 asking, 'Where is the infant king of the Jews? We saw his star as it rose and have come to do him homage.'

Matthew 2:3 When King Herod heard this he was perturbed, and so was the whole of Jerusalem.

Matthew 2:4 He called together all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, and enquired of them where the Christ was to be born.

Matthew 2:5 They told him, 'At Bethlehem in Judaea, for this is what the prophet wrote:

Matthew 2:6 And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, you are by no means the least among the leaders of Judah, for from you will come a leader who will shepherd my people Israel.'

Matthew 2:7 Then Herod summoned the wise men to see him privately. He asked them the exact date on which the star had appeared

Matthew 2:8 and sent them on to Bethlehem with the words, 'Go and find out all about the child, and when you have found him, let me know, so that I too may go and do him homage.'

Matthew 2:9 Having listened to what the king had to say, they set out. And suddenly the star they had seen rising went forward and halted over the place where the child was.

Matthew 2:10 The sight of the star filled them with delight,

Matthew 2:11 and going into the house they saw the child with his mother Mary, and falling to their knees they did him homage. Then, opening their treasures, they offered him gifts of gold and frankincense and myrrh.

Matthew 2:12 But they were given a warning in a dream not to go back to Herod, and returned to their own country by a different way.

Matthew 2:13 After they had left, suddenly the angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, ‘Get up, take the child and his mother with you, and escape into Egypt, and stay there until I tell you, because Herod intends to search for the child and do away with him.’

Matthew 2:14 So Joseph got up and, taking the child and his mother with him, left that night for Egypt,

Matthew 2:15 where he stayed until Herod was dead. This was to fulfil what the Lord had spoken through the prophet: I called my son out of Egypt.

Matthew 2:16 Herod was furious on realising that he had been fooled by the wise men, and in Bethlehem and its surrounding district he had all the male children killed who were two years old or less, reckoning by the date he had been careful to ask the wise men.

Matthew 2:17 Then were fulfilled the words spoken through the prophet Jeremiah:

Matthew 2:18 A voice is heard in Ramah, lamenting and weeping bitterly: it is Rachel weeping for her children, refusing to be comforted because they are no more.

Matthew 2:19 After Herod’s death, suddenly the angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt

Matthew 2:20 and said, ‘Get up, take the child and his mother with you and go back to the land of Israel, for those who wanted to kill the child are dead.’

Matthew 2:21 So Joseph got up and, taking the child and his mother with him, went back to the land of Israel.

Matthew 2:22 But when he learnt that Archelaus had succeeded his father Herod as ruler of Judaea he was afraid to go there, and being warned in a dream he withdrew to the region of Galilee.

Matthew 2:23 There he settled in a town called Nazareth. In this way the words spoken through the prophets were to be fulfilled: He will be called a Nazarene.

Matthew 3:1 In due course John the Baptist appeared; he proclaimed this message in the desert of Judaea,

Matthew 3:2 ‘Repent, for the kingdom of Heaven is close at hand.’

Matthew 3:3 This was the man spoken of by the prophet Isaiah when he said: A voice of one that cries in the desert, ‘Prepare a way for the Lord, make his paths straight.’

Matthew 3:4 This man John wore a garment made of camel-hair with a leather loin-cloth round his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey.

Matthew 3:5 Then Jerusalem and all Judaea and the whole Jordan district made their way to him, Matthew 3:6 and as they were baptised by him in the river Jordan they confessed their sins.

Matthew 3:7 But when he saw a number of Pharisees and Sadducees coming for baptism he said to them, 'Brood of vipers, who warned you to flee from the coming retribution?

Matthew 3:8 Produce fruit in keeping with repentance,

Matthew 3:9 and do not presume to tell yourselves, "We have Abraham as our father," because, I tell you, God can raise children for Abraham from these stones.

Matthew 3:10 Even now the axe is being laid to the root of the trees, so that any tree failing to produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown on the fire.

Matthew 3:11 I baptise you in water for repentance, but the one who comes after me is more powerful than I, and I am not fit to carry his sandals; he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

Matthew 3:12 His winnowing-fan is in his hand; he will clear his threshing-floor and gather his wheat into his barn; but the chaff he will burn in a fire that will never go out.'

Matthew 3:13 Then Jesus appeared: he came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptised by John.

Matthew 3:14 John tried to dissuade him, with the words, 'It is I who need baptism from you, and yet you come to me!'

Matthew 3:15 But Jesus replied, 'Leave it like this for the time being; it is fitting that we should, in this way, do all that uprightness demands.' Then John gave in to him.

Matthew 3:16 And when Jesus had been baptised he at once came up from the water, and suddenly the heavens opened and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming down on him.

Matthew 3:17 And suddenly there was a voice from heaven, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; my favour rests on him.'

Matthew 4:1 Then Jesus was led by the Spirit out into the desert to be put to the test by the devil.

Matthew 4:2 He fasted for forty days and forty nights, after which he was hungry,

Matthew 4:3 and the tester came and said to him, 'If you are Son of God, tell these stones to turn into loaves.'

Matthew 4:4 But he replied, 'Scripture says: Human beings live not on bread alone but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.'

Matthew 4:5 The devil then took him to the holy city and set him on the parapet of the Temple.

Matthew 4:6 'If you are Son of God,' he said, 'throw yourself down; for scripture says: He has given his angels orders about you, and they will carry you in their arms in case you trip over a stone.'

Matthew 4:7 Jesus said to him, 'Scripture also says: Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'

Matthew 4:8 Next, taking him to a very high mountain, the devil showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendour.

Matthew 4:9 And he said to him, 'I will give you all these, if you fall at my feet and do me homage.'

Matthew 4:10 Then Jesus replied, 'Away with you, Satan! For scripture says: The Lord your God is the one to whom you must do homage, him alone you must serve.'

Matthew 4:11 Then the devil left him, and suddenly angels appeared and looked after him.

Matthew 4:12 Hearing that John had been arrested he withdrew to Galilee,

Matthew 4:13 and leaving Nazara he went and settled in Capernaum, beside the lake, on the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali.

Matthew 4:14 This was to fulfil what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah:

Matthew 4:15 Land of Zebulun! Land of Naphtali! Way of the sea beyond Jordan. Galilee of the nations!

Matthew 4:16 The people that lived in darkness have seen a great light; on those who lived in a country of shadow dark as death a light has dawned.

Matthew 4:17 From then onwards Jesus began his proclamation with the message, 'Repent, for the kingdom of Heaven is close at hand.'

Matthew 4:18 As he was walking by the Lake of Galilee he saw two brothers, Simon, who was called Peter, and his brother Andrew; they were making a cast into the lake with their net, for they were fishermen.

Matthew 4:19 And he said to them, 'Come after me and I will make you fishers of people.'

Matthew 4:20 And at once they left their nets and followed him.

Matthew 4:21 Going on from there he saw another pair of brothers,James son of Zebedee and his brother John; they were in their boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them.

Matthew 4:22 And at once, leaving the boat and their father, they followed him.

Matthew 4:23 He went round the whole of Galilee teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing all kinds of disease and illness among the people.

Matthew 4:24 His fame spread throughout Syria, and those who were suffering from diseases and painful complaints of one kind or another, the possessed, epileptics, the paralysed, were all brought to him, and he cured them.

Matthew 4:25 Large crowds followed him, coming from Galilee, the Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judaea and Transjordan.

Matthew 5:1 Seeing the crowds, he went onto the mountain. And when he was seated his disciples came to him.

Matthew 5:2 Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them:

Matthew 5:3 How blessed are the poor in spirit: the kingdom of Heaven is theirs.

Matthew 5:4 Blessed are the gentle: they shall have the earth as inheritance.

Matthew 5:5 Blessed are those who mourn: they shall be comforted.

Matthew 5:6 Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for uprightness: they shall have their fill.

Matthew 5:7 Blessed are the merciful: they shall have mercy shown them.

Matthew 5:8 Blessed are the pure in heart: they shall see God.

Matthew 5:9 Blessed are the peacemakers: they shall be recognised as children of God.

Matthew 5:10 Blessed are those who are persecuted in the cause of uprightness: the kingdom of Heaven is theirs.

Matthew 5:11 'Blessed are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you falsely on my account.

Matthew 5:12 Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven; this is how they persecuted the prophets before you.

Matthew 5:13 'You are salt for the earth. But if salt loses its taste, what can make it salty again? It is good for nothing, and can only be thrown out to be trampled under people's feet.

Matthew 5:14 'You are light for the world. A city built on a hill-top cannot be hidden.

Matthew 5:15 No one lights a lamp to put it under a tub; they put it on the lamp-stand where it shines for everyone in the house.

Matthew 5:16 In the same way your light must shine in people's sight, so that, seeing your good works, they may give praise to your Father in heaven.

Matthew 5:17 'Do not imagine that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets. I have come not to abolish but to complete them.

Matthew 5:18 In truth I tell you, till heaven and earth disappear, not one dot, not one little stroke, is to disappear from the Law until all its purpose is achieved.

Matthew 5:19 Therefore, anyone who infringes even one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be considered the least in the kingdom of Heaven; but the person who keeps them and teaches them will be considered great in the kingdom of Heaven.

Matthew 5:20 'For I tell you, if your uprightness does not surpass that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never get into the kingdom of Heaven.

Matthew 5:21 'You have heard how it was said to our ancestors, You shall not kill; and if anyone does kill he must answer for it before the court.

Matthew 5:22 But I say this to you, anyone who is angry with a brother will answer for it before the court; anyone who calls a brother "Fool" will answer for it before the Sanhedrin; and anyone who calls him "Traitor" will answer for it in hell fire.

Matthew 5:23 So then, if you are bringing your offering to the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you,

Matthew 5:24 leave your offering there before the altar, go and be reconciled with your brother first, and then come back and present your offering.

Matthew 5:25 Come to terms with your opponent in good time while you are still on the way to the court with him, or he may hand you over to the judge and the judge to the officer, and you will be thrown into prison.

Matthew 5:26 In truth I tell you, you will not get out till you have paid the last penny.

Matthew 5:27 'You have heard how it was said, You shall not commit adultery.

Matthew 5:28 But I say this to you, if a man looks at a woman lustfully, he has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

Matthew 5:29 If your right eye should be your downfall, tear it out and throw it away; for it will do you less harm to lose one part of yourself than to have your whole body thrown into hell.

Matthew 5:30 And if your right hand should be your downfall, cut it off and throw it away; for it will do you less harm to lose one part of yourself than to have your whole body go to hell.

Matthew 5:31 'It has also been said, Anyone who divorces his wife must give her a writ of dismissal.

Matthew 5:32 But I say this to you, everyone who divorces his wife, except for the case of an illicit marriage, makes her an adulteress; and anyone who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

Matthew 5:33 'Again, you have heard how it was said to our ancestors, You must not break your oath, but must fulfil your oaths to the Lord.

Matthew 5:34 But I say this to you, do not swear at all, either by heaven, since that is God's throne;

Matthew 5:35 or by earth, since that is his footstool; or by Jerusalem, since that is the city of the great King.

Matthew 5:36 Do not swear by your own head either, since you cannot turn a single hair white or black.

Matthew 5:37 All you need say is "Yes" if you mean yes, "No" if you mean no; anything more than this comes from the Evil One.

Matthew 5:38 'You have heard how it was said: Eye for eye and tooth for tooth.

Matthew 5:39 But I say this to you: offer no resistance to the wicked. On the contrary, if anyone hits you on the right cheek, offer him the other as well;

Matthew 5:40 if someone wishes to go to law with you to get your tunic, let him have your cloak as well.

Matthew 5:41 And if anyone requires you to go one mile, go two miles with him.

Matthew 5:42 Give to anyone who asks you, and if anyone wants to borrow, do not turn away.

Matthew 5:43 'You have heard how it was said, You will love your neighbour and hate your enemy.

Matthew 5:44 But I say this to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you;

Matthew 5:45 so that you may be children of your Father in heaven, for he causes his sun to rise on the bad as well as the good, and sends down rain to fall on the upright and the wicked alike.

Matthew 5:46 For if you love those who love you, what reward will you get? Do not even the tax collectors do as much?

Matthew 5:47 And if you save your greetings for your brothers, are you doing anything exceptional?

Matthew 5:48 Do not even the gentiles do as much? You must therefore be perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect.'

Matthew 6:1 'Be careful not to parade your uprightness in public to attract attention; otherwise you will lose all reward from your Father in heaven.

Matthew 6:2 So when you give alms, do not have it trumpeted before you; this is what the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets to win human admiration. In truth I tell you, they have had their reward.

Matthew 6:3 But when you give alms, your left hand must not know what your right is doing;

Matthew 6:4 your almsgiving must be secret, and your Father who sees all that is done in secret will reward you.

Matthew 6:5 ‘And when you pray, do not imitate the hypocrites: they love to say their prayers standing up in the synagogues and at the street corners for people to see them. In truth I tell you, they have had their reward.

Matthew 6:6 But when you pray, go to your private room, shut yourself in, and so pray to your Father who is in that secret place, and your Father who sees all that is done in secret will reward you.

Matthew 6:7 ‘In your prayers do not babble as the gentiles do, for they think that by using many words they will make themselves heard.

Matthew 6:8 Do not be like them; your Father knows what you need before you ask him.

Matthew 6:9 So you should pray like this: Our Father in heaven, may your name be held holy,

Matthew 6:10 your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.

Matthew 6:11 Give us today our daily bread.

Matthew 6:12 And forgive us our debts, as we have forgiven those who are in debt to us.

Matthew 6:13 And do not put us to the test, but save us from the Evil One.

Matthew 6:14 ‘Yes, if you forgive others their failings, your heavenly Father will forgive you yours;

Matthew 6:15 but if you do not forgive others, your Father will not forgive your failings either.

Matthew 6:16 ‘When you are fasting, do not put on a gloomy look as the hypocrites do: they go about looking unsightly to let people know they are fasting. In truth I tell you, they have had their reward.

Matthew 6:17 But when you fast, put scent on your head and wash your face,

Matthew 6:18 so that no one will know you are fasting except your Father who sees all that is done in secret; and your Father who sees all that is done in secret will reward you.

Matthew 6:19 ‘Do not store up treasures for yourselves on earth, where moth and woodworm destroy them and thieves can break in and steal.

Matthew 6:20 But store up treasures for yourselves in heaven, where neither moth nor woodworm destroys them and thieves cannot break in and steal.

Matthew 6:21 For wherever your treasure is, there will your heart be too.

Matthew 6:22 ‘The lamp of the body is the eye. It follows that if your eye is clear, your whole body will be filled with light.

Matthew 6:23 But if your eye is diseased, your whole body will be darkness. If then, the light inside you is darkened, what darkness that will be!

Matthew 6:24 'No one can be the slave of two masters: he will either hate the first and love the second, or be attached to the first and despise the second. You cannot be the slave both of God and of money.

Matthew 6:25 'That is why I am telling you not to worry about your life and what you are to eat, nor about your body and what you are to wear. Surely life is more than food, and the body more than clothing!

Matthew 6:26 Look at the birds in the sky. They do not sow or reap or gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not worth much more than they are?

Matthew 6:27 Can any of you, however much you worry, add one single cubit to your span of life?

Matthew 6:28 And why worry about clothing? Think of the flowers growing in the fields; they never have to work or spin;

Matthew 6:29 yet I assure you that not even Solomon in all his royal robes was clothed like one of these.

Matthew 6:30 Now if that is how God clothes the wild flowers growing in the field which are there today and thrown into the furnace tomorrow, will he not much more look after you, you who have so little faith?

Matthew 6:31 So do not worry; do not say, "What are we to eat? What are we to drink? What are we to wear?"

Matthew 6:32 It is the gentiles who set their hearts on all these things. Your heavenly Father knows you need them all.

Matthew 6:33 Set your hearts on his kingdom first, and on God's saving justice, and all these other things will be given you as well.

Matthew 6:34 So do not worry about tomorrow: tomorrow will take care of itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.'

Matthew 7:1 'Do not judge, and you will not be judged;

Matthew 7:2 because the judgements you give are the judgements you will get, and the standard you use will be the standard used for you.

Matthew 7:3 Why do you observe the splinter in your brother's eye and never notice the great log in your own?

Matthew 7:4 And how dare you say to your brother, "Let me take that splinter out of your eye," when, look, there is a great log in your own?

Matthew 7:5 Hypocrite! Take the log out of your own eye first, and then you will see clearly enough to take the splinter out of your brother's eye.

Matthew 7:6 'Do not give dogs what is holy; and do not throw your pearls in front of pigs, or they may trample them and then turn on you and tear you to pieces.

Matthew 7:7 ‘Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you.

Matthew 7:8 Everyone who asks receives; everyone who searches finds; everyone who knocks will have the door opened.

Matthew 7:9 Is there anyone among you who would hand his son a stone when he asked for bread?

Matthew 7:10 Or would hand him a snake when he asked for a fish?

Matthew 7:11 If you, then, evil as you are, know how to give your children what is good, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask him!

Matthew 7:12 ‘So always treat others as you would like them to treat you; that is the Law and the Prophets.

Matthew 7:13 ‘Enter by the narrow gate, since the road that leads to destruction is wide and spacious, and many take it;

Matthew 7:14 but it is a narrow gate and a hard road that leads to life, and only a few find it.

Matthew 7:15 ‘Beware of false prophets who come to you disguised as sheep but underneath are ravenous wolves.

Matthew 7:16 You will be able to tell them by their fruits. Can people pick grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles?

Matthew 7:17 In the same way, a sound tree produces good fruit but a rotten tree bad fruit.

Matthew 7:18 A sound tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor a rotten tree bear good fruit.

Matthew 7:19 Any tree that does not produce good fruit is cut down and thrown on the fire.

Matthew 7:20 I repeat, you will be able to tell them by their fruits.

Matthew 7:21 ‘It is not anyone who says to me, “Lord, Lord,” who will enter the kingdom of Heaven, but the person who does the will of my Father in heaven.

Matthew 7:22 When the day comes many will say to me, “Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, drive out demons in your name, work many miracles in your name?”

Matthew 7:23 Then I shall tell them to their faces: I have never known you; away from me, all evil doers!

Matthew 7:24 ‘Therefore, everyone who listens to these words of mine and acts on them will be like a sensible man who built his house on rock.

Matthew 7:25 Rain came down, floods rose, gales blew and hurled themselves against that house, and it did not fall: it was founded on rock.

Matthew 7:26 But everyone who listens to these words of mine and does not act on them will be like a stupid man who built his house on sand.

Matthew 7:27 Rain came down, floods rose, gales blew and struck that house, and it fell; and what a fall it had!'

Matthew 7:28 Jesus had now finished what he wanted to say, and his teaching made a deep impression on the people

Matthew 7:29 because he taught them with authority, unlike their own scribes.

Matthew 8:1 After he had come down from the mountain large crowds followed him.

Matthew 8:2 Suddenly a man with a virulent skin-disease came up and bowed low in front of him, saying, 'Lord, if you are willing, you can cleanse me.'

Matthew 8:3 Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him saying, 'I am willing. Be cleansed.' And his skin-disease was cleansed at once.

Matthew 8:4 Then Jesus said to him, 'Mind you tell no one, but go and show yourself to the priest and make the offering prescribed by Moses, as evidence to them.'

Matthew 8:5 When he went into Capernaum a centurion came up and pleaded with him.

Matthew 8:6 'Sir,' he said, 'my servant is lying at home paralysed and in great pain.'

Matthew 8:7 Jesus said to him, 'I will come myself and cure him.'

Matthew 8:8 The centurion replied, 'Sir, I am not worthy to have you under my roof; just give the word and my servant will be cured.

Matthew 8:9 For I am under authority myself and have soldiers under me; and I say to one man, "Go," and he goes; to another, "Come here," and he comes; to my servant, "Do this," and he does it.'

Matthew 8:10 When Jesus heard this he was astonished and said to those following him, 'In truth I tell you, in no one in Israel have I found faith as great as this.

Matthew 8:11 And I tell you that many will come from east and west and sit down with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob at the feast in the kingdom of Heaven;

Matthew 8:12 but the children of the kingdom will be thrown out into the darkness outside, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.'

Matthew 8:13 And to the centurion Jesus said, 'Go back, then; let this be done for you, as your faith demands.' And the servant was cured at that moment.

Matthew 8:14 And going into Peter’s house Jesus found Peter’s mother-in-law in bed and feverish.

Matthew 8:15 He touched her hand and the fever left her, and she got up and began to serve him.

Matthew 8:16 That evening they brought him many who were possessed by devils. He drove out the spirits with a command and cured all who were sick.

Matthew 8:17 This was to fulfil what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah: He himself bore our sicknesses away and carried our diseases.

Matthew 8:18 When Jesus saw the crowd all about him he gave orders to leave for the other side.

Matthew 8:19 One of the scribes then came up and said to him, ‘Master, I will follow you wherever you go.’

Matthew 8:20 Jesus said, ‘Foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of man has nowhere to lay his head.’

Matthew 8:21 Another man, one of the disciples, said to him, ‘Lord, let me go and bury my father first.’

Matthew 8:22 But Jesus said, ‘Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their dead.’

Matthew 8:23 Then he got into the boat followed by his disciples.

Matthew 8:24 Suddenly a storm broke over the lake, so violent that the boat was being swamped by the waves. But he was asleep.

Matthew 8:25 So they went to him and woke him saying, ‘Save us, Lord, we are lost!’

Matthew 8:26 And he said to them, ‘Why are you so frightened, you who have so little faith?’ And then he stood up and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

Matthew 8:27 They were astounded and said, ‘Whatever kind of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?’

Matthew 8:28 When he reached the territory of the Gadarenes on the other side, two demoniacs came towards him out of the tombs—they were so dangerously violent that nobody could use that path.

Matthew 8:29 Suddenly they shouted, ‘What do you want with us, Son of God? Have you come here to torture us before the time?’

Matthew 8:30 Now some distance away there was a large herd of pigs feeding,

Matthew 8:31 and the devils pleaded with Jesus, ‘If you drive us out, send us into the herd of pigs.’

Matthew 8:32 And he said to them, ‘Go then,’ and they came out and made for the pigs; and at that the whole herd charged down the cliff into the lake and perished in the water.

Matthew 8:33 The herdsmen ran off and made for the city, where they told the whole story, including what had happened to the demoniacs.

Matthew 8:34 Suddenly the whole city set out to meet Jesus; and as soon as they saw him they implored him to leave their neighbourhood.

Matthew 9:1 He got back in the boat, crossed the water and came to his home town.

Matthew 9:2 And suddenly some people brought him a paralytic stretched out on a bed. Seeing their faith, Jesus said to the paralytic, 'Take comfort, my child, your sins are forgiven.'

Matthew 9:3 And now some scribes said to themselves, 'This man is being blasphemous.'

Matthew 9:4 Knowing what was in their minds Jesus said, 'Why do you have such wicked thoughts in your hearts?

Matthew 9:5 Now, which of these is easier: to say, "Your sins are forgiven," or to say, "Get up and walk"?

Matthew 9:6 But to prove to you that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins,'—then he said to the paralytic-'get up, pick up your bed and go off home.'

Matthew 9:7 And the man got up and went home.

Matthew 9:8 A feeling of awe came over the crowd when they saw this, and they praised God for having given such authority to human beings.

Matthew 9:9 As Jesus was walking on from there he saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax office, and he said to him, 'Follow me.' And he got up and followed him.

Matthew 9:10 Now while he was at table in the house it happened that a number of tax collectors and sinners came to sit at the table with Jesus and his disciples.

Matthew 9:11 When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, 'Why does your master eat with tax collectors and sinners?'

Matthew 9:12 When he heard this he replied, 'It is not the healthy who need the doctor, but the sick.

Matthew 9:13 Go and learn the meaning of the words: Mercy is what pleases me, not sacrifice. And indeed I came to call not the upright, but sinners.'

Matthew 9:14 Then John's disciples came to him and said, 'Why is it that we and the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not?'

Matthew 9:15 Jesus replied, 'Surely the bridegroom's attendants cannot mourn as long as the bridegroom is still with them? But the time will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast.

Matthew 9:16 No one puts a piece of unshrunken cloth onto an old cloak, because the patch pulls away from the cloak and the tear gets worse.

Matthew 9:17 Nor do people put new wine into old wineskins; otherwise, the skins burst, the wine runs out, and the skins are lost. No; they put new wine in fresh skins and both are preserved.'

Matthew 9:18 While he was speaking to them, suddenly one of the officials came up, who bowed low in front of him and said, 'My daughter has just died, but come and lay your hand on her and her life will be saved.'

Matthew 9:19 Jesus rose and, with his disciples, followed him.

Matthew 9:20 Then suddenly from behind him came a woman, who had been suffering from a haemorrhage for twelve years, and she touched the fringe of his cloak,

Matthew 9:21 for she was thinking, 'If only I can touch his cloak I shall be saved.'

Matthew 9:22 Jesus turned round and saw her; and he said to her, 'Courage, my daughter, your faith has saved you.' And from that moment the woman was saved.

Matthew 9:23 When Jesus reached the official's house and saw the flute-players, with the crowd making a commotion, he said,

Matthew 9:24 'Get out of here; the little girl is not dead; she is asleep.' And they ridiculed him.

Matthew 9:25 But when the people had been turned out he went inside and took her by the hand; and she stood up.

Matthew 9:26 And the news of this spread all round the countryside.

Matthew 9:27 As Jesus went on his way two blind men followed him shouting, 'Take pity on us, son of David.'

Matthew 9:28 And when Jesus reached the house the blind men came up to him and he said to them, 'Do you believe I can do this?' They said, 'Lord, we do.'

Matthew 9:29 Then he touched their eyes saying, 'According to your faith, let it be done to you.'

Matthew 9:30 And their sight returned. Then Jesus sternly warned them, 'Take care that no one learns about this.'

Matthew 9:31 But when they had gone away, they talked about him all over the countryside.

Matthew 9:32 They had only just left when suddenly a man was brought to him, a dumb demoniac.

Matthew 9:33 And when the devil was driven out, the dumb man spoke and the people were amazed and said, 'Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel.’

Matthew 9:34 But the Pharisees said, ‘It is through the prince of devils that he drives out devils.’

Matthew 9:35 Jesus made a tour through all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing all kinds of disease and all kinds of illness.

Matthew 9:36 And when he saw the crowds he felt sorry for them because they were harassed and dejected, like sheep without a shepherd.

Matthew 9:37 Then he said to his disciples, ‘The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers to his harvest.’

Matthew 10:1 He summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits with power to drive them out and to cure all kinds of disease and all kinds of illness.

Matthew 10:2 These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon who is known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John;

Matthew 10:3 Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus;

Matthew 10:4 Simon the Zealot and Judas Iscariot, who was also his betrayer.

Matthew 10:5 These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them as follows: ‘Do not make your way to gentile territory, and do not enter any Samaritan town;

Matthew 10:6 go instead to the lost sheep of the House of Israel.

Matthew 10:7 And as you go, proclaim that the kingdom of Heaven is close at hand.

Matthew 10:8 Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse those suffering from virulent skin-diseases, drive out devils. You received without charge, give without charge.

Matthew 10:9 Provide yourselves with no gold or silver, not even with coppers for your purses,

Matthew 10:10 with no haversack for the journey or spare tunic or footwear or a staff, for the labourer deserves his keep.

Matthew 10:11 ‘Whatever town or village you go into, seek out someone worthy and stay with him until you leave.

Matthew 10:12 As you enter his house, salute it,

Matthew 10:13 and if the house deserves it, may your peace come upon it; if it does not, may your peace come back to you.

Matthew 10:14 And if anyone does not welcome you or listen to what you have to say, as you walk out of the house or town shake the dust from your feet.

Matthew 10:15 In truth I tell you, on the Day of Judgement it will be more bearable for Sodom and Gomorrah than for that town.

Matthew 10:16 Look, I am sending you out like sheep among wolves; so be cunning as snakes and yet innocent as doves.

Matthew 10:17 'Be prepared for people to hand you over to sanhedrins and scourge you in their synagogues.

Matthew 10:18 You will be brought before governors and kings for my sake, as evidence to them and to the gentiles.

Matthew 10:19 But when you are handed over, do not worry about how to speak or what to say; what you are to say will be given to you when the time comes,

Matthew 10:20 because it is not you who will be speaking; the Spirit of your Father will be speaking in you.

Matthew 10:21 'Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child; children will come forward against their parents and have them put to death.

Matthew 10:22 You will be universally hated on account of my name; but anyone who stands firm to the end will be saved.

Matthew 10:23 If they persecute you in one town, take refuge in the next; and if they persecute you in that, take refuge in another. In truth I tell you, you will not have gone the round of the towns of Israel before the Son of man comes.

Matthew 10:24 'Disciple is not superior to teacher, nor slave to master.

Matthew 10:25 It is enough for disciple to grow to be like teacher, and slave like master. If they have called the master of the house "Beelzebul", how much more the members of his household?

Matthew 10:26 'So do not be afraid of them. Everything now covered up will be uncovered, and everything now hidden will be made clear.

Matthew 10:27 What I say to you in the dark, tell in the daylight; what you hear in whispers, proclaim from the housetops.

Matthew 10:28 'Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; fear him rather who can destroy both body and soul in hell.

Matthew 10:29 Can you not buy two sparrows for a penny? And yet not one falls to the ground without your Father knowing.

Matthew 10:30 Why, every hair on your head has been counted.

Matthew 10:31 So there is no need to be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.

Matthew 10:32 'So if anyone declares himself for me in the presence of human beings, I will declare myself for him in the presence of my Father in heaven.

Matthew 10:33 But the one who disowns me in the presence of human beings, I will disown in the presence of my Father in heaven.

Matthew 10:34 ‘Do not suppose that I have come to bring peace to the earth: it is not peace I have come to bring, but a sword.

Matthew 10:35 For I have come to set son against father, daughter against mother, daughter-in-law against mother-in-law;

Matthew 10:36 a person’s enemies will be the members of his own household.

Matthew 10:37 ‘No one who prefers father or mother to me is worthy of me. No one who prefers son or daughter to me is worthy of me.

Matthew 10:38 Anyone who does not take his cross and follow in my footsteps is not worthy of me.

Matthew 10:39 Anyone who finds his life will lose it; anyone who loses his life for my sake will find it.

Matthew 10:40 ‘Anyone who welcomes you welcomes me; and anyone who welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me.

Matthew 10:41 ‘Anyone who welcomes a prophet because he is a prophet will have a prophet’s reward; and anyone who welcomes an upright person because he is upright will have the reward of an upright person.

Matthew 10:42 ‘If anyone gives so much as a cup of cold water to one of these little ones because he is a disciple, then in truth I tell you, he will most certainly not go without his reward.’

Matthew 11:1 When Jesus had finished instructing his twelve disciples he moved on from there to teach and preach in their towns.

Matthew 11:2 Now John had heard in prison what Christ was doing and he sent his disciples to ask him,

Matthew 11:3 ‘Are you the one who is to come, or are we to expect someone else?’

Matthew 11:4 Jesus answered, ‘Go back and tell John what you hear and see;

Matthew 11:5 the blind see again, and the lame walk, those suffering from virulent skin-diseases are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised to life and the good news is proclaimed to the poor;

Matthew 11:6 and blessed is anyone who does not find me a cause of falling.’

Matthew 11:7 As the men were leaving, Jesus began to talk to the people about John, ‘What did you go out into the desert to see? A reed swaying in the breeze? No?

Matthew 11:8 Then what did you go out to see? A man wearing fine clothes? Look, those who wear fine clothes are to be found in palaces.

Matthew 11:9 Then what did you go out for? To see a prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet:

Matthew 11:10 he is the one of whom scripture says: Look, I am going to send my messenger in front of you to prepare your way before you.

Matthew 11:11 'In truth I tell you, of all the children born to women, there has never been anyone greater than John the Baptist; yet the least in the kingdom of Heaven is greater than he.

Matthew 11:12 Since John the Baptist came, up to this present time, the kingdom of Heaven has been subjected to violence and the violent are taking it by storm.

Matthew 11:13 Because it was towards John that all the prophecies of the prophets and of the Law were leading;

Matthew 11:14 and he, if you will believe me, is the Elijah who was to return.

Matthew 11:15 Anyone who has ears should listen!

Matthew 11:16 'What comparison can I find for this generation? It is like children shouting to each other as they sit in the market place:

Matthew 11:17 We played the pipes for you, and you wouldn't dance; we sang dirges, and you wouldn't be mourners.

Matthew 11:18 'For John came, neither eating nor drinking, and they say, "He is possessed."

Matthew 11:19 The Son of man came, eating and drinking, and they say, "Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners." Yet wisdom is justified by her deeds.'

Matthew 11:20 Then he began to reproach the towns in which most of his miracles had been worked, because they refused to repent.

Matthew 11:21 'Alas for you, Chorazin! Alas for you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

Matthew 11:22 Still, I tell you that it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon on Judgement Day than for you.

Matthew 11:23 And as for you, Capernaum, did you want to be raised as high as heaven? You shall be flung down to hell. For if the miracles done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have been standing yet.

Matthew 11:24 Still, I tell you that it will be more bearable for Sodom on Judgement Day than for you.'

Matthew 11:25 At that time Jesus exclaimed, 'I bless you, Father, Lord of heaven and of earth, for hiding these things from the learned and the clever and revealing them to little children.

Matthew 11:26 Yes, Father, for that is what it pleased you to do.

Matthew 11:27 Everything has been entrusted to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, just as no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

Matthew 11:28 ‘Come to me, all you who labour and are overburdened, and I will give you rest.

Matthew 11:29 Shoulder my yoke and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

Matthew 11:30 Yes, my yoke is easy and my burden light.’

Matthew 12:1 At that time Jesus went through the cornfields one Sabbath day. His disciples were hungry and began to pick ears of corn and eat them.

Matthew 12:2 The Pharisees noticed it and said to him, ‘Look, your disciples are doing something that is forbidden on the Sabbath.’

Matthew 12:3 But he said to them, ‘Have you not read what David did when he and his followers were hungry-

Matthew 12:4 how he went into the house of God and they ate the loaves of the offering although neither he nor his followers were permitted to eat them, but only the priests?

Matthew 12:5 Or again, have you not read in the Law that on the Sabbath day the Temple priests break the Sabbath without committing any fault?

Matthew 12:6 Now here, I tell you, is something greater than the Temple.

Matthew 12:7 And if you had understood the meaning of the words: Mercy is what pleases me, not sacrifice, you would not have condemned the blameless.

Matthew 12:8 For the Son of man is master of the Sabbath.’

Matthew 12:9 He moved on from there and went to their synagogue;

Matthew 12:10 now a man was there with a withered hand. They asked him, ‘Is it permitted to cure somebody on the Sabbath day?’ hoping for something to charge him with.

Matthew 12:11 But he said to them, ‘If any one of you here had only one sheep and it fell down a hole on the Sabbath day, would he not get hold of it and lift it out?

Matthew 12:12 Now a man is far more important than a sheep, so it follows that it is permitted on the Sabbath day to do good.’

Matthew 12:13 Then he said to the man, ‘Stretch out your hand.’ He stretched it out and his hand was restored, as sound as the other one.

Matthew 12:14 At this the Pharisees went out and began to plot against him, discussing how to destroy him.

Matthew 12:15 Jesus knew this and withdrew from the district. Many followed him and he cured them all

Matthew 12:16 but warned them not to make him known.

Matthew 12:17 This was to fulfil what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah:

Matthew 12:18 Look! My servant whom I have chosen, my beloved, in whom my soul delights, I will send my Spirit upon him, and he will present judgement to the nations;

Matthew 12:19 he will not brawl or cry out, his voice is not heard in the streets,

Matthew 12:20 he will not break the crushed reed, or snuff the faltering wick,

Matthew 12:21 until he has made judgement victorious; in him the nations will put their hope.

Matthew 12:22 Then they brought to him a blind and dumb demoniac; and he cured him, so that the dumb man could speak and see.

Matthew 12:23 All the people were astounded and said, 'Can this be the son of David?'

Matthew 12:24 But when the Pharisees heard this they said, 'The man drives out devils only through Beelzebul, the chief of the devils.'

Matthew 12:25 Knowing what was in their minds he said to them, 'Every kingdom divided against itself is heading for ruin; and no town, no household divided against itself can last.

Matthew 12:26 Now if Satan drives out Satan, he is divided against himself; so how can his kingdom last?

Matthew 12:27 And if it is through Beelzebul that I drive devils out, through whom do your own experts drive them out? They shall be your judges, then.

Matthew 12:28 But if it is through the Spirit of God that I drive out devils, then be sure that the kingdom of God has caught you unawares.

Matthew 12:29 'Or again, how can anyone make his way into a strong man's house and plunder his property unless he has first tied up the strong man? Only then can he plunder his house.

Matthew 12:30 'Anyone who is not with me is against me, and anyone who does not gather in with me throws away.

Matthew 12:31 And so I tell you, every human sin and blasphemy will be forgiven, but blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven.

Matthew 12:32 And anyone who says a word against the Son of man will be forgiven; but no one who speaks against the Holy Spirit will be forgiven either in this world or in the next.

Matthew 12:33 'Make a tree sound and its fruit will be sound; make a tree rotten and its fruit will be rotten. For the tree can be told by its fruit.

Matthew 12:34 You brood of vipers, how can your speech be good when you are evil? For words flow out of what fills the heart.

Matthew 12:35 Good people draw good things from their store of goodness; bad people draw bad things from their store of badness.

Matthew 12:36 So I tell you this, that for every unfounded word people utter they will answer on Judgement Day,

Matthew 12:37 since it is by your words you will be justified, and by your words condemned.'

Matthew 12:38 Then some of the scribes and Pharisees spoke up. 'Master,' they said, 'we should like to see a sign from you.'

Matthew 12:39 He replied, 'It is an evil and unfaithful generation that asks for a sign! The only sign it will be given is the sign of the prophet Jonah.

Matthew 12:40 For as Jonah remained in the belly of the sea-monster for three days and three nights, so will the Son of man be in the heart of the earth for three days and three nights.

Matthew 12:41 On Judgement Day the men of Nineveh will appear against this generation and they will be its condemnation, because when Jonah preached they repented; and look, there is something greater than Jonah here.

Matthew 12:42 On Judgement Day the Queen of the South will appear against this generation and be its condemnation, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and look, there is something greater than Solomon here.

Matthew 12:43 'When an unclean spirit goes out of someone it wanders through waterless country looking for a place to rest, and cannot find one.

Matthew 12:44 Then it says, "I will return to the home I came from." But on arrival, finding it unoccupied, swept and tidied,

Matthew 12:45 it then goes off and collects seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and set up house there, and so that person ends up worse off than before. That is what will happen to this wicked generation.'

Matthew 12:46 He was still speaking to the crowds when suddenly his mother and his brothers were standing outside and were anxious to have a word with him.

Matthew 12:47 still speaking to the crowds when suddenly his mother and his brothers were standing outside and were anxious to have a word with him.

Matthew 12:48 But to the man who told him this Jesus replied, 'Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?'

Matthew 12:49 And stretching out his hand towards his disciples he said, ‘Here are my mother and my brothers.

Matthew 12:50 Anyone who does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother.’

Matthew 13:1 That same day, Jesus left the house and sat by the lakeside,

Matthew 13:2 but such large crowds gathered round him that he got into a boat and sat there. The people all stood on the shore,

Matthew 13:3 and he told them many things in parables. He said, ‘Listen, a sower went out to sow.

Matthew 13:4 As he sowed, some seeds fell on the edge of the path, and the birds came and ate them up.

Matthew 13:5 Others fell on patches of rock where they found little soil and sprang up at once, because there was no depth of earth;

Matthew 13:6 but as soon as the sun came up they were scorched and, not having any roots, they withered away.

Matthew 13:7 Others fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them.

Matthew 13:8 Others fell on rich soil and produced their crop, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

Matthew 13:9 Anyone who has ears should listen!’

Matthew 13:10 Then the disciples went up to him and asked, ‘Why do you talk to them in parables?’

Matthew 13:11 In answer, he said, ‘Because to you is granted to understand the mysteries of the kingdom of Heaven, but to them it is not granted.

Matthew 13:12 Anyone who has will be given more and will have more than enough; but anyone who has not will be deprived even of what he has.

Matthew 13:13 The reason I talk to them in parables is that they look without seeing and listen without hearing or understanding.

Matthew 13:14 So in their case what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah is being fulfilled: Listen and listen, but never understand! Look and look, but never perceive!

Matthew 13:15 This people’s heart has grown coarse, their ears dulled, they have shut their eyes tight to avoid using their eyes to see, their ears to hear, their heart to understand, changing their ways and being healed by me.

Matthew 13:16 ‘But blessed are your eyes because they see, your ears because they hear!

Matthew 13:17 In truth I tell you, many prophets and upright people longed to see what you see, and never saw it; to hear what you hear, and never heard it.

Matthew 13:18 ‘So pay attention to the parable of the sower.

Matthew 13:19 When anyone hears the word of the kingdom without understanding, the Evil One comes and carries off what was sown in his heart: this is the seed sown on the edge of the path.

Matthew 13:20 The seed sown on patches of rock is someone who hears the word and welcomes it at once with joy.

Matthew 13:21 But such a person has no root deep down and does not last; should some trial come, or some persecution on account of the word, at once he falls away.

Matthew 13:22 The seed sown in thorns is someone who hears the word, but the worry of the world and the lure of riches choke the word and so it produces nothing.

Matthew 13:23 And the seed sown in rich soil is someone who hears the word and understands it; this is the one who yields a harvest and produces now a hundredfold, now sixty, now thirty.’

Matthew 13:24 He put another parable before them, ‘The kingdom of Heaven may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field.

Matthew 13:25 While everybody was asleep his enemy came, sowed darnel all among the wheat, and made off.

Matthew 13:26 When the new wheat sprouted and ripened, then the darnel appeared as well.

Matthew 13:27 The owner’s labourers went to him and said, “Sir, was it not good seed that you sowed in your field? If so, where does the darnel come from?”

Matthew 13:28 He said to them, “Some enemy has done this.” And the labourers said, “Do you want us to go and weed it out?”

Matthew 13:29 But he said, “No, because when you weed out the darnel you might pull up the wheat with it.

Matthew 13:30 Let them both grow till the harvest; and at harvest time I shall say to the reapers: First collect the darnel and tie it in bundles to be burnt, then gather the wheat into my barn.” ‘

Matthew 13:31 He put another parable before them, ‘The kingdom of Heaven is like a mustard seed which a man took and sowed in his field.

Matthew 13:32 It is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the biggest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air can come and shelter in its branches.’

Matthew 13:33 He told them another parable, ‘The kingdom of Heaven is like the yeast a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour till it was leavened all through.’

Matthew 13:34 In all this Jesus spoke to the crowds in parables; indeed, he would never speak to them except in parables.

Matthew 13:35 This was to fulfil what was spoken by the prophet: I will speak to you in parables, unfold what has been hidden since the foundation of the world.

Matthew 13:36 Then, leaving the crowds, he went to the house; and his disciples came to him and said, 'Explain to us the parable about the darnel in the field.'

Matthew 13:37 He said in reply, 'The sower of the good seed is the Son of man.

Matthew 13:38 The field is the world; the good seed is the subjects of the kingdom; the darnel, the subjects of the Evil One;

Matthew 13:39 the enemy who sowed it, the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; the reapers are the angels.

Matthew 13:40 Well then, just as the darnel is gathered up and burnt in the fire, so it will be at the end of time.

Matthew 13:41 The Son of man will send his angels and they will gather out of his kingdom all causes of falling and all who do evil,

Matthew 13:42 and throw them into the blazing furnace, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.

Matthew 13:43 Then the upright will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Anyone who has ears should listen!

Matthew 13:44 'The kingdom of Heaven is like treasure hidden in a field which someone has found; he hides it again, goes off in his joy, sells everything he owns and buys the field.

Matthew 13:45 'Again, the kingdom of Heaven is like a merchant looking for fine pearls;

Matthew 13:46 when he finds one of great value he goes and sells everything he owns and buys it.

Matthew 13:47 'Again, the kingdom of Heaven is like a dragnet that is cast in the sea and brings in a haul of all kinds of fish.

Matthew 13:48 When it is full, the fishermen bring it ashore; then, sitting down, they collect the good ones in baskets and throw away those that are no use.

Matthew 13:49 This is how it will be at the end of time: the angels will appear and separate the wicked from the upright,

Matthew 13:50 to throw them into the blazing furnace, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.

Matthew 13:51 'Have you understood all these?' They said, 'Yes.'

Matthew 13:52 And he said to them, 'Well then, every scribe who becomes a disciple of the kingdom of Heaven is like a householder who brings out from his storeroom new things as well as old.'

Matthew 13:53 When Jesus had finished these parables he left the district;

Matthew 13:54 and, coming to his home town, he taught the people in their synagogue in such a way that they were astonished and said, 'Where did the man get this wisdom and these miraculous powers?

Matthew 13:55 This is the carpenter's son, surely? Is not his mother the woman called Mary, and his brothers James and Joseph and Simon and Jude?

Matthew 13:56 His sisters, too, are they not all here with us? So where did the man get it all?'

Matthew 13:57 And they would not accept him. But Jesus said to them, 'A prophet is despised only in his own country and in his own house,'

Matthew 13:58 and he did not work many miracles there because of their lack of faith.

Matthew 14:1 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard about the reputation of Jesus

Matthew 14:2 and said to his court, 'This is John the Baptist himself; he has risen from the dead, and that is why miraculous powers are at work in him.'

Matthew 14:3 Now it was Herod who had arrested John, chained him up and put him in prison because of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife.

Matthew 14:4 For John had told him, 'It is against the Law for you to have her.'

Matthew 14:5 He had wanted to kill him but was afraid of the people, who regarded John as a prophet.

Matthew 14:6 Then, during the celebrations for Herod's birthday, the daughter of Herodias danced before the company and so delighted Herod

Matthew 14:7 that he promised on oath to give her anything she asked.

Matthew 14:8 Prompted by her mother she said, 'Give me John the Baptist's head, here, on a dish.'

Matthew 14:9 The king was distressed but, thinking of the oaths he had sworn and of his guests, he ordered it to be given her,

Matthew 14:10 and sent and had John beheaded in the prison.

Matthew 14:11 The head was brought in on a dish and given to the girl, who took it to her mother.

Matthew 14:12 John's disciples came and took the body and buried it; then they went off to tell Jesus.

Matthew 14:13 When Jesus received this news he withdrew by boat to a lonely place where they could be by themselves. But the crowds heard of this and, leaving the towns, went after him on foot.

Matthew 14:14 So as he stepped ashore he saw a large crowd; and he took pity on them and healed their sick.

Matthew 14:15 When evening came, the disciples went to him and said, 'This is a lonely place, and time has slipped by; so send the people away, and they can go to the villages to buy themselves some food.'

Matthew 14:16 Jesus replied, 'There is no need for them to go: give them something to eat yourselves.'

Matthew 14:17 But they answered, 'All we have with us is five loaves and two fish.'

Matthew 14:18 So he said, 'Bring them here to me.'

Matthew 14:19 He gave orders that the people were to sit down on the grass; then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven and said the blessing. And breaking the loaves he handed them to his disciples, who gave them to the crowds.

Matthew 14:20 They all ate as much as they wanted, and they collected the scraps left over, twelve baskets full.

Matthew 14:21 Now about five thousand men had eaten, to say nothing of women and children.

Matthew 14:22 And at once he made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side while he sent the crowds away.

Matthew 14:23 After sending the crowds away he went up into the hills by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone,

Matthew 14:24 while the boat, by now some furlongs from land, was hard pressed by rough waves, for there was a head-wind.

Matthew 14:25 In the fourth watch of the night he came towards them, walking on the sea,

Matthew 14:26 and when the disciples saw him walking on the sea they were terrified. 'It is a ghost,' they said, and cried out in fear.

Matthew 14:27 But at once Jesus called out to them, saying, 'Courage! It's me! Don't be afraid.'

Matthew 14:28 It was Peter who answered. 'Lord,' he said, 'if it is you, tell me to come to you across the water.'

Matthew 14:29 Jesus said, 'Come.' Then Peter got out of the boat and started walking towards Jesus across the water,

Matthew 14:30 but then noticing the wind, he took fright and began to sink. 'Lord,' he cried, 'save me!'

Matthew 14:31 Jesus put out his hand at once and held him. 'You have so little faith,' he said, 'why did you doubt?'

Matthew 14:32 And as they got into the boat the wind dropped.

Matthew 14:33 The men in the boat bowed down before him and said, 'Truly, you are the Son of God.'

Matthew 14:34 Having made the crossing, they came to land at Gennesaret.

Matthew 14:35 When the local people recognised him they spread the news through the whole neighbourhood and took all that were sick to him,

Matthew 14:36 begging him just to let them touch the fringe of his cloak. And all those who touched it were saved.

Matthew 15:1 Then Pharisees and scribes from Jerusalem came to Jesus and said,

Matthew 15:2 'Why do your disciples break away from the tradition of the elders? They eat without washing their hands.'

Matthew 15:3 He answered, 'And why do you break away from the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition?

Matthew 15:4 For God said, "Honour your father and your mother" and "Anyone who curses his father or mother will be put to death."

Matthew 15:5 But you say, "If anyone says to his father or mother: Anything I might have used to help you is dedicated to God, Matthew 15:6 he is rid of his duty to father or mother." In this way you have made God's word ineffective by means of your tradition.

Matthew 15:7 Hypocrites! How rightly Isaiah prophesied about you when he said:

Matthew 15:8 This people honours me only with lip-service, while their hearts are far from me.

Matthew 15:9 Their reverence of me is worthless; the lessons they teach are nothing but human commandments.'

Matthew 15:10 He called the people to him and said, 'Listen, and understand.

Matthew 15:11 What goes into the mouth does not make anyone unclean; it is what comes out of the mouth that makes someone unclean.'

Matthew 15:12 Then the disciples came to him and said, 'Do you know that the Pharisees were shocked when they heard what you said?'

Matthew 15:13 He replied, 'Any plant my heavenly Father has not planted will be pulled up by the roots.

Matthew 15:14 Leave them alone. They are blind leaders of the blind; and if one blind person leads another, both will fall into a pit.'

Matthew 15:15 At this, Peter said to him, 'Explain the parable for us.'

Matthew 15:16 Jesus replied, 'Even you—don't you yet understand?

Matthew 15:17 Can't you see that whatever goes into the mouth passes through the stomach and is discharged into the sewer?

Matthew 15:18 But whatever comes out of the mouth comes from the heart, and it is this that makes someone unclean.

Matthew 15:19 For from the heart come evil intentions: murder, adultery, fornication, theft, perjury, slander.

Matthew 15:20 These are the things that make a person unclean. But eating with unwashed hands does not make anyone unclean.'

Matthew 15:21 Jesus left that place and withdrew to the region of Tyre and Sidon.

Matthew 15:22 And suddenly out came a Canaanite woman from that district and started shouting, 'Lord, Son of David, take pity on me. My daughter is tormented by a devil.'

Matthew 15:23 But he said not a word in answer to her. And his disciples went and pleaded with him, saying, 'Give her what she wants, because she keeps shouting after us.'

Matthew 15:24 He said in reply, 'I was sent only to the lost sheep of the House of Israel.'

Matthew 15:25 But the woman had come up and was bowing low before him. 'Lord,' she said, 'help me.'

Matthew 15:26 He replied, 'It is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to little dogs.'

Matthew 15:27 She retorted, 'Ah yes, Lord; but even little dogs eat the scraps that fall from their masters' table.'

Matthew 15:28 Then Jesus answered her, 'Woman, you have great faith. Let your desire be granted.' And from that moment her daughter was well again.

Matthew 15:29 Jesus went on from there and reached the shores of the Lake of Galilee, and he went up onto the mountain. He took his seat,

Matthew 15:30 and large crowds came to him bringing the lame, the crippled, the blind, the dumb and many others; these they put down at his feet, and he cured them.

Matthew 15:31 The crowds were astonished to see the dumb speaking, the cripples whole again, the lame walking and the blind with their sight, and they praised the God of Israel.

Matthew 15:32 But Jesus called his disciples to him and said, 'I feel sorry for all these people; they have been with me for three days now and have nothing to eat. I do not want to send them off hungry, or they might collapse on the way.'

Matthew 15:33 The disciples said to him, 'Where in a deserted place could we get sufficient bread for such a large crowd to have enough to eat?'

Matthew 15:34 Jesus said to them, 'How many loaves have you?' They said, 'Seven, and a few small fish.'

Matthew 15:35 Then he instructed the crowd to sit down on the ground,

Matthew 15:36 and he took the seven loaves and the fish, and after giving thanks he broke them and began handing them to the disciples, who gave them to the crowds.

Matthew 15:37 They all ate as much as they wanted, and they collected what was left of the scraps, seven baskets full.

Matthew 15:38 Now four thousand men had eaten, to say nothing of women and children.

Matthew 15:39 And when he had sent the crowds away he got into the boat and went to the territory of Magadan.

Matthew 16:1 The Pharisees and Sadducees came, and to put him to the test they asked if he would show them a sign from heaven.

Matthew 16:2 He replied, 'In the evening you say, "It will be fine; there's a red sky,"

Matthew 16:3 and in the morning, "Stormy weather today; the sky is red and overcast." You know how to read the face of the sky, but you cannot read the signs of the times.

Matthew 16:4 It is an evil and unfaithful generation asking for a sign, and the only sign it will be given is the sign of Jonah.' And he left them and went off.

Matthew 16:5 The disciples, having crossed to the other side, had forgotten to take any food.

Matthew 16:6 Jesus said to them, 'Keep your eyes open, and be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.'

Matthew 16:7 And they said among themselves, 'It is because we have not brought any bread.'

Matthew 16:8 Jesus knew it, and he said, 'You have so little faith, why are you talking among yourselves about having no bread?

Matthew 16:9 Do you still not understand? Do you not remember the five loaves for the five thousand and the number of baskets you collected?

Matthew 16:10 Or the seven loaves for the four thousand and the number of baskets you collected?

Matthew 16:11 How could you fail to understand that I was not talking about bread? What I said was: Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.'

Matthew 16:12 Then they understood that he was telling them to be on their guard, not against yeast for making bread, but against the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Matthew 16:13 When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi he put this question to his disciples, 'Who do people say the Son of man is?'

Matthew 16:14 And they said, ‘Some say John the Baptist, some Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.’

Matthew 16:15 ‘But you,’ he said, ‘who do you say I am?’

Matthew 16:16 Then Simon Peter spoke up and said, ‘You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.’

Matthew 16:17 Jesus replied, ‘Simon son of Jonah, you are a blessed man! Because it was no human agency that revealed this to you but my Father in heaven.

Matthew 16:18 So I now say to you: You are Peter and on this rock I will build my community. And the gates of the underworld can never overpower it.

Matthew 16:19 I will give you the keys of the kingdom of Heaven: whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven; whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.’

Matthew 16:20 Then he gave the disciples strict orders not to say to anyone that he was the Christ.

Matthew 16:21 From then onwards Jesus began to make it clear to his disciples that he was destined to go to Jerusalem and suffer grievously at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes and to be put to death and to be raised up on the third day.

Matthew 16:22 Then, taking him aside, Peter started to rebuke him. ‘Heaven preserve you, Lord,’ he said, ‘this must not happen to you.’

Matthew 16:23 But he turned and said to Peter, ‘Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle in my path, because you are thinking not as God thinks but as human beings do.’

Matthew 16:24 Then Jesus said to his disciples, ‘If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, let him renounce himself and take up his cross and follow me.

Matthew 16:25 Anyone who wants to save his life will lose it; but anyone who loses his life for my sake will find it.

Matthew 16:26 What, then, will anyone gain by winning the whole world and forfeiting his life? Or what can anyone offer in exchange for his life?

Matthew 16:27 ‘For the Son of man is going to come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and then he will reward each one according to his behaviour.

Matthew 16:28 In truth I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of man coming with his kingdom.’

Matthew 17:1 Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain by themselves.

Matthew 17:2 There in their presence he was transfigured: his face shone like the sun and his clothes became as dazzling as light.

Matthew 17:3 And suddenly Moses and Elijah appeared to them; they were talking with him.

Matthew 17:4 Then Peter spoke to Jesus. 'Lord,' he said, 'it is wonderful for us to be here; if you want me to, I will make three shelters here, one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.'

Matthew 17:5 He was still speaking when suddenly a bright cloud covered them with shadow, and suddenly from the cloud there came a voice which said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; he enjoys my favour. Listen to him.'

Matthew 17:6 When they heard this, the disciples fell on their faces, overcome with fear.

Matthew 17:7 But Jesus came up and touched them, saying, 'Stand up, do not be afraid.'

Matthew 17:8 And when they raised their eyes they saw no one but Jesus.

Matthew 17:9 As they came down from the mountain Jesus gave them this order, 'Tell no one about this vision until the Son of man has risen from the dead.'

Matthew 17:10 And the disciples put this question to him, 'Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?'

Matthew 17:11 He replied, 'Elijah is indeed coming, and he will set everything right again;

Matthew 17:12 however, I tell you that Elijah has come already and they did not recognise him but treated him as they pleased; and the Son of man will suffer similarly at their hands.'

Matthew 17:13 Then the disciples understood that he was speaking of John the Baptist.

Matthew 17:14 As they were rejoining the crowd a man came up to him and went down on his knees before him.

Matthew 17:15 'Lord,' he said, 'take pity on my son: he is demented and in a wretched state; he is always falling into fire and into water.

Matthew 17:16 I took him to your disciples and they were unable to cure him.'

Matthew 17:17 In reply, Jesus said, 'Faithless and perverse generation! How much longer must I be with you? How much longer must I put up with you? Bring him here to me.'

Matthew 17:18 And when Jesus rebuked it the devil came out of the boy, who was cured from that moment.

Matthew 17:19 Then the disciples came privately to Jesus. 'Why were we unable to drive it out?' they asked.

Matthew 17:20 He answered, 'Because you have so little faith. In truth I tell you, if your faith is the size of a mustard seed you will say to this mountain, “Move from here to there,” and it will move; nothing will be impossible for you.’

Matthew 17:21

Matthew 17:22 When they were together in Galilee, Jesus said to them, ‘The Son of man is going to be delivered into the power of men;

Matthew 17:23 they will put him to death, and on the third day he will be raised up again.’ And a great sadness came over them.

Matthew 17:24 When they reached Capernaum, the collectors of the half-shekel came to Peter and said, ‘Does your master not pay the half-shekel?’

Matthew 17:25 ‘Yes,’ he replied, and went into the house. But before he could speak, Jesus said, ‘Simon, what is your opinion? From whom do earthly kings take toll or tribute? From their sons or from foreigners?’

Matthew 17:26 And when he replied, ‘From foreigners,’ Jesus said, ‘Well then, the sons are exempt.

Matthew 17:27 However, so that we shall not be the downfall of others, go to the lake and cast a hook; take the first fish that rises, open its mouth and there you will find a shekel; take it and give it to them for me and for yourself.’

Matthew 18:1 At this time the disciples came to Jesus and said, ‘Who is the greatest in the kingdom of Heaven?’

Matthew 18:2 So he called a little child to him whom he set among them.

Matthew 18:3 Then he said, ‘In truth I tell you, unless you change and become like little children you will never enter the kingdom of Heaven.

Matthew 18:4 And so, the one who makes himself as little as this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of Heaven.

Matthew 18:5 ‘Anyone who welcomes one little child like this in my name welcomes me.

Matthew 18:6 But anyone who is the downfall of one of these little ones who have faith in me would be better drowned in the depths of the sea with a great millstone round his neck.

Matthew 18:7 Alas for the world that there should be such causes of falling! Causes of falling indeed there must be, but alas for anyone who provides them!

Matthew 18:8 ‘If your hand or your foot should be your downfall, cut it off and throw it away: it is better for you to enter into life crippled or lame, than to have two hands or two feet and be thrown into eternal fire.

Matthew 18:9 And if your eye should be your downfall, tear it out and throw it away: it is better for you to enter into life with one eye, than to have two eyes and be thrown into the hell of fire.

Matthew 18:10 ‘See that you never despise any of these little ones, for I tell you that their angels in heaven are continually in the presence of my Father in heaven.

Matthew 18:11

Matthew 18:12 ‘Tell me. Suppose a man has a hundred sheep and one of them strays; will he not leave the ninety-nine on the hillside and go in search of the stray?

Matthew 18:13 In truth I tell you, if he finds it, it gives him more joy than do the ninety-nine that did not stray at all.

Matthew 18:14 Similarly, it is never the will of your Father in heaven that one of these little ones should be lost.

Matthew 18:15 ‘If your brother does something wrong, go and have it out with him alone, between your two selves. If he listens to you, you have won back your brother.

Matthew 18:16 If he does not listen, take one or two others along with you: whatever the misdemeanour, the evidence of two or three witnesses is required to sustain the charge.

Matthew 18:17 But if he refuses to listen to these, report it to the community; and if he refuses to listen to the community, treat him like a gentile or a tax collector.

Matthew 18:18 ‘In truth I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven; whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

Matthew 18:19 ‘In truth I tell you once again, if two of you on earth agree to ask anything at all, it will be granted to you by my Father in heaven.

Matthew 18:20 For where two or three meet in my name, I am there among them.’

Matthew 18:21 Then Peter went up to him and said, ‘Lord, how often must I forgive my brother if he wrongs me? As often as seven times?’

Matthew 18:22 Jesus answered, ‘Not seven, I tell you, but seventy-seven times.

Matthew 18:23 ‘And so the kingdom of Heaven may be compared to a king who decided to settle his accounts with his servants.

Matthew 18:24 When the reckoning began, they brought him a man who owed ten thousand talents;

Matthew 18:25 he had no means of paying, so his master gave orders that he should be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, to meet the debt.

Matthew 18:26 At this, the servant threw himself down at his master’s feet, with the words, “Be patient with me and I will pay the whole sum.”

Matthew 18:27 And the servant’s master felt so sorry for him that he let him go and cancelled the debt.

Matthew 18:28 Now as this servant went out, he happened to meet a fellow-servant who owed him one hundred denarii; and he seized him by the throat and began to throttle him, saying, “Pay what you owe me.”

Matthew 18:29 His fellow-servant fell at his feet and appealed to him, saying, “Be patient with me and I will pay you.”

Matthew 18:30 But the other would not agree; on the contrary, he had him thrown into prison till he should pay the debt.

Matthew 18:31 His fellow-servants were deeply distressed when they saw what had happened, and they went to their master and reported the whole affair to him.

Matthew 18:32 Then the master sent for the man and said to him, “You wicked servant, I cancelled all that debt of yours when you appealed to me.

Matthew 18:33 Were you not bound, then, to have pity on your fellow-servant just as I had pity on you?”

Matthew 18:34 And in his anger the master handed him over to the torturers till he should pay all his debt.

Matthew 18:35 And that is how my heavenly Father will deal with you unless you each forgive your brother from your heart.’

Matthew 19:1 Jesus had now finished what he wanted to say, and he left Galilee and came into the territory of Judaea on the far side of the Jordan.

Matthew 19:2 Large crowds followed him and he healed them there.

Matthew 19:3 Some Pharisees approached him, and to put him to the test they said, ‘Is it against the Law for a man to divorce his wife on any pretext whatever?’

Matthew 19:4 He answered, ‘Have you not read that the Creator from the beginning made them male and female

Matthew 19:5 and that he said: This is why a man leaves his father and mother and becomes attached to his wife, and the two become one flesh?

Matthew 19:6 They are no longer two, therefore, but one flesh. So then, what God has united, human beings must not divide.’

Matthew 19:7 They said to him, ‘Then why did Moses command that a writ of dismissal should be given in cases of divorce?’

Matthew 19:8 He said to them, ‘It was because you were so hard-hearted, that Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but it was not like this from the beginning.

Matthew 19:9 Now I say this to you: anyone who divorces his wife—I am not speaking of an illicit marriage—and marries another, is guilty of adultery.’

Matthew 19:10 The disciples said to him, ‘If that is how things are between husband and wife, it is advisable not to marry.’

Matthew 19:11 But he replied, ‘It is not everyone who can accept what I have said, but only those to whom it is granted.

Matthew 19:12 There are eunuchs born so from their mother’s womb, there are eunuchs made so by human agency and there are eunuchs who have made themselves so for the sake of the kingdom of Heaven. Let anyone accept this who can.’

Matthew 19:13 Then people brought little children to him, for him to lay his hands on them and pray. The disciples scolded them,

Matthew 19:14 but Jesus said, ‘Let the little children alone, and do not stop them from coming to me; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of Heaven belongs.’

Matthew 19:15 Then he laid his hands on them and went on his way.

Matthew 19:16 And now a man came to him and asked, ‘Master, what good deed must I do to possess eternal life?’

Matthew 19:17 Jesus said to him, ‘Why do you ask me about what is good? There is one alone who is good. But if you wish to enter into life, keep the commandments.’

Matthew 19:18 He said, ‘Which ones?’ Jesus replied, ‘These: You shall not kill. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal. You shall not give false witness.

Matthew 19:19 Honour your father and your mother. You shall love your neighbour as yourself.’

Matthew 19:20 The young man said to him, ‘I have kept all these. What more do I need to do?’

Matthew 19:21 Jesus said, ‘If you wish to be perfect, go and sell your possessions and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.’

Matthew 19:22 But when the young man heard these words he went away sad, for he was a man of great wealth.

Matthew 19:23 Then Jesus said to his disciples, ‘In truth I tell you, it is hard for someone rich to enter the kingdom of Heaven.

Matthew 19:24 Yes, I tell you again, it is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for someone rich to enter the kingdom of Heaven.’

Matthew 19:25 When the disciples heard this they were astonished. ‘Who can be saved, then?’ they said.

Matthew 19:26 Jesus gazed at them. ‘By human resources’, he told them, ‘this is impossible; for God everything is possible.’

Matthew 19:27 Then Peter answered and said, ‘Look, we have left everything and followed you. What are we to have, then?’

Matthew 19:28 Jesus said to them, ‘In truth I tell you, when everything is made new again and the Son of man is seated on his throne of glory, you yourselves will sit on twelve thrones to judge the twelve tribes of Israel.

Matthew 19:29 And everyone who has left houses, brothers, sisters, father, mother, children or land for the sake of my name will receive a hundred times as much, and also inherit eternal life.

Matthew 19:30 ‘Many who are first will be last, and the last, first.’

Matthew 20:1 ‘Now the kingdom of Heaven is like a landowner going out at daybreak to hire workers for his vineyard.

Matthew 20:2 He made an agreement with the workers for one denarius a day and sent them to his vineyard.

Matthew 20:3 Going out at about the third hour he saw others standing idle in the market place

Matthew 20:4 and said to them, “You go to my vineyard too and I will give you a fair wage.”

Matthew 20:5 So they went. At about the sixth hour and again at about the ninth hour, he went out and did the same.

Matthew 20:6 Then at about the eleventh hour he went out and found more men standing around, and he said to them, “Why have you been standing here idle all day?”

Matthew 20:7 “Because no one has hired us,” they answered. He said to them, “You go into my vineyard too.”

Matthew 20:8 In the evening, the owner of the vineyard said to his bailiff, “Call the workers and pay them their wages, starting with the last arrivals and ending with the first.”

Matthew 20:9 So those who were hired at about the eleventh hour came forward and received one denarius each.

Matthew 20:10 When the first came, they expected to get more, but they too received one denarius each.

Matthew 20:11 They took it, but grumbled at the landowner saying,

Matthew 20:12 “The men who came last have done only one hour, and you have treated them the same as us, though we have done a heavy day’s work in all the heat.”

Matthew 20:13 He answered one of them and said, “My friend, I am not being unjust to you; did we not agree on one denarius?

Matthew 20:14 Take your earnings and go. I choose to pay the lastcomer as much as I pay you.

Matthew 20:15 Have I no right to do what I like with my own? Why should you be envious because I am generous?”

Matthew 20:16 Thus the last will be first, and the first, last.’

Matthew 20:17 Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, and on the road he took the Twelve aside by themselves and said to them,

Matthew 20:18 ‘Look, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man is about to be handed over to the chief priests and scribes. They will condemn him to death

Matthew 20:19 and will hand him over to the gentiles to be mocked and scourged and crucified; and on the third day he will be raised up again.’

Matthew 20:20 Then the mother of Zebedee’s sons came with her sons to make a request of him, and bowed low;

Matthew 20:21 and he said to her, ‘What is it you want?’ She said to him, ‘Promise that these two sons of mine may sit one at your right hand and the other at your left in your kingdom.’

Matthew 20:22 Jesus answered, ‘You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I am going to drink?’ They replied, ‘We can.’

Matthew 20:23 He said to them, ‘Very well; you shall drink my cup, but as for seats at my right hand and my left, these are not mine to grant; they belong to those to whom they have been allotted by my Father.’

Matthew 20:24 When the other ten heard this they were indignant with the two brothers.

Matthew 20:25 But Jesus called them to him and said, ‘You know that among the gentiles the rulers lord it over them, and great men make their authority felt.

Matthew 20:26 Among you this is not to happen. No; anyone who wants to become great among you must be your servant,

Matthew 20:27 and anyone who wants to be first among you must be your slave,

Matthew 20:28 just as the Son of man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.’

Matthew 20:29 As they left Jericho a large crowd followed him.

Matthew 20:30 And now there were two blind men sitting at the side of the road. When they heard that it was Jesus who was passing by, they shouted, ‘Lord! Have pity on us, son of David.’

Matthew 20:31 And the crowd scolded them and told them to keep quiet, but they only shouted the louder, ‘Lord! Have pity on us, son of David.’

Matthew 20:32 Jesus stopped, called them over and said, ‘What do you want me to do for you?’

Matthew 20:33 They said to him, ‘Lord, let us have our sight back.’

Matthew 20:34 Jesus felt pity for them and touched their eyes, and at once their sight returned and they followed him.

Matthew 21:1 When they were near Jerusalem and had come to Bethphage on the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples,

Matthew 21:2 saying to them, ‘Go to the village facing you, and you will at once find a tethered donkey and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them to me.

Matthew 21:3 If anyone says anything to you, you are to say, “The Master needs them and will send them back at once.” ‘

Matthew 21:4 This was to fulfil what was spoken by the prophet:

Matthew 21:5 Say to the daughter of Zion: Look, your king is approaching, humble and riding on a donkey and on a colt, the foal of a beast of burden.

Matthew 21:6 So the disciples went and did as Jesus had told them.

Matthew 21:7 They brought the donkey and the colt, then they laid their cloaks on their backs and he took his seat on them.

Matthew 21:8 Great crowds of people spread their cloaks on the road, while others were cutting branches from the trees and spreading them in his path.

Matthew 21:9 The crowds who went in front of him and those who followed were all shouting: Hosanna to the son of David! Blessed is he who is coming in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest heavens!

Matthew 21:10 And when he entered Jerusalem, the whole city was in turmoil as people asked, ‘Who is this?’

Matthew 21:11 and the crowds answered, ‘This is the prophet Jesus from Nazareth in Galilee.’

Matthew 21:12 Jesus then went into the Temple and drove out all those who were selling and buying there; he upset the tables of the money-changers and the seats of the dove-sellers.

Matthew 21:13 He said to them, ‘According to scripture, my house will be called a house of prayer; but you are turning it into a bandits’ den.’

Matthew 21:14 There were also blind and lame people who came to him in the Temple, and he cured them.

Matthew 21:15 At the sight of the wonderful things he did and of the children shouting, ‘Hosanna to the son of David’ in the Temple, the chief priests and the scribes were indignant and said to him,

Matthew 21:16 ‘Do you hear what they are saying?’ Jesus answered, ‘Yes. Have you never read this: By the mouths of children, babes in arms, you have made sure of praise?’

Matthew 21:17 With that he left them and went out of the city to Bethany, where he spent the night.

Matthew 21:18 As he was returning to the city in the early morning, he felt hungry.

Matthew 21:19 Seeing a fig tree by the road, he went up to it and found nothing on it but leaves. And he said to it, ‘May you never bear fruit again,’ and instantly the fig tree withered.

Matthew 21:20 The disciples were amazed when they saw it and said, ‘How is it that the fig tree withered instantly?’

Matthew 21:21 Jesus answered, ‘In truth I tell you, if you have faith and do not doubt at all, not only will you do what I have done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, “Be pulled up and thrown into the sea,” it will be done.

Matthew 21:22 And if you have faith, everything you ask for in prayer, you will receive.’

Matthew 21:23 He had gone into the Temple and was teaching, when the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him and said, ‘What authority have you for acting like this? And who gave you this authority?’

Matthew 21:24 In reply Jesus said to them, ‘And I will ask you a question, just one; if you tell me the answer to it, then I will tell you my authority for acting like this.

Matthew 21:25 John’s baptism: what was its origin, heavenly or human?’ And they argued this way among themselves, ‘If we say heavenly, he will retort to us, “Then why did you refuse to believe him?”;

Matthew 21:26 but if we say human, we have the people to fear, for they all hold that John was a prophet.’

Matthew 21:27 So their reply to Jesus was, ‘We do not know.’ And he retorted to them, ‘Nor will I tell you my authority for acting like this.’

Matthew 21:28 ‘What is your opinion? A man had two sons. He went and said to the first, “My boy, go and work in the vineyard today.”

Matthew 21:29 He answered, “I will not go,” but afterwards thought better of it and went.

Matthew 21:30 The man then went and said the same thing to the second who answered, “Certainly, sir,” but did not go.

Matthew 21:31 Which of the two did the father’s will?’ They said, ‘The first.’ Jesus said to them, ‘In truth I tell you, tax collectors and prostitutes are making their way into the kingdom of God before you.

Matthew 21:32 For John came to you, showing the way of uprightness, but you did not believe him, and yet the tax collectors and prostitutes did. Even after seeing that, you refused to think better of it and believe in him.

Matthew 21:33 ‘Listen to another parable. There was a man, a landowner, who planted a vineyard; he fenced it round, dug a winepress in it and built a tower; then he leased it to tenants and went abroad.

Matthew 21:34 When vintage time drew near he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his produce.

Matthew 21:35 But the tenants seized his servants, thrashed one, killed another and stoned a third.

Matthew 21:36 Next he sent some more servants, this time a larger number, and they dealt with them in the same way.

Matthew 21:37 Finally he sent his son to them thinking, “They will respect my son.”

Matthew 21:38 But when the tenants saw the son, they said to each other, “This is the heir. Come on, let us kill him and take over his inheritance.”

Matthew 21:39 So they seized him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

Matthew 21:40 Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?’

Matthew 21:41 They answered, ‘He will bring those wretches to a wretched end and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will deliver the produce to him at the proper time.’

Matthew 21:42 Jesus said to them, ‘Have you never read in the scriptures: The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; this is the Lord’s doing and we marvel at it?

Matthew 21:43 ‘I tell you, then, that the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit.’

Matthew 21:44

Matthew 21:45 When they heard his parables, the chief priests and the scribes realised he was speaking about them,

Matthew 21:46 but though they would have liked to arrest him they were afraid of the crowds, who looked on him as a prophet.

Matthew 22:1 Jesus began to speak to them in parables once again,

Matthew 22:2 ‘The kingdom of Heaven may be compared to a king who gave a feast for his son’s wedding.

Matthew 22:3 He sent his servants to call those who had been invited, but they would not come.

Matthew 22:4 Next he sent some more servants with the words, “Tell those who have been invited: Look, my banquet is all prepared, my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, everything is ready. Come to the wedding.”

Matthew 22:5 But they were not interested: one went off to his farm, another to his business,

Matthew 22:6 and the rest seized his servants, maltreated them and killed them.

Matthew 22:7 The king was furious. He despatched his troops, destroyed those murderers and burnt their town.

Matthew 22:8 Then he said to his servants, “The wedding is ready; but as those who were invited proved to be unworthy,

Matthew 22:9 go to the main crossroads and invite everyone you can find to come to the wedding.”

Matthew 22:10 So these servants went out onto the roads and collected together everyone they could find, bad and good alike; and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

Matthew 22:11 When the king came in to look at the guests he noticed one man who was not wearing a wedding garment,

Matthew 22:12 and said to him, “How did you get in here, my friend, without a wedding garment?” And the man was silent.

Matthew 22:13 Then the king said to the attendants, “Bind him hand and foot and throw him into the darkness outside, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.”

Matthew 22:14 For many are invited but not all are chosen.’

Matthew 22:15 Then the Pharisees went away to work out between them how to trap him in what he said.

Matthew 22:16 And they sent their disciples to him, together with some Herodians, to say, ‘Master, we know that you are an honest man and teach the way of God in all honesty, and that you are not afraid of anyone, because human rank means nothing to you.

Matthew 22:17 Give us your opinion, then. Is it permissible to pay taxes to Caesar or not?’

Matthew 22:18 But Jesus was aware of their malice and replied, ‘You hypocrites! Why are you putting me to the test?

Matthew 22:19 Show me the money you pay the tax with.’ They handed him a denarius,

Matthew 22:20 and he said, ‘Whose portrait is this? Whose title?’

Matthew 22:21 They replied, ‘Caesar’s.’ Then he said to them, ‘Very well, pay Caesar what belongs to Caesar—and God what belongs to God.’

Matthew 22:22 When they heard this they were amazed; they left him alone and went away.

Matthew 22:23 That day some Sadducees—who deny that there is a resurrection—approached him and they put this question to him,

Matthew 22:24 ‘Master, Moses said that if a man dies childless, his brother is to marry the widow, his sister-in-law, to raise children for his brother.

Matthew 22:25 Now we had a case involving seven brothers; the first married and then died without children, leaving his wife to his brother;

Matthew 22:26 the same thing happened with the second and third and so on to the seventh,

Matthew 22:27 and then last of all the woman herself died.

Matthew 22:28 Now at the resurrection, whose wife among the seven will she be, since she had been married to them all?'

Matthew 22:29 Jesus answered them, 'You are wrong, because you understand neither the scriptures nor the power of God.

Matthew 22:30 For at the resurrection men and women do not marry; no, they are like the angels in heaven.

Matthew 22:31 And as for the resurrection of the dead, have you never read what God himself said to you:

Matthew 22:32 I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob? He is God, not of the dead, but of the living.'

Matthew 22:33 And his teaching made a deep impression on the people who heard it.

Matthew 22:34 But when the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees they got together

Matthew 22:35 and, to put him to the test, one of them put a further question,

Matthew 22:36 'Master, which is the greatest commandment of the Law?'

Matthew 22:37 Jesus said to him, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.

Matthew 22:38 This is the greatest and the first commandment.

Matthew 22:39 The second resembles it: You must love your neighbour as yourself.

Matthew 22:40 On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets too.'

Matthew 22:41 While the Pharisees were gathered round, Jesus put to them this question,

Matthew 22:42 'What is your opinion about the Christ? Whose son is he?' They told him, 'David's.'

Matthew 22:43 He said to them, 'Then how is it that David, moved by the Spirit, calls him Lord, where he says:

Matthew 22:44 The Lord declared to my Lord, take your seat at my right hand, till I have made your enemies your footstool?

Matthew 22:45 'If David calls him Lord, how then can he be his son?'

Matthew 22:46 No one could think of anything to say in reply, and from that day no one dared to ask him any further questions.

Matthew 23:1 Then addressing the crowds and his disciples Jesus said, Matthew 23:2 'The scribes and the Pharisees occupy the chair of Moses.

Matthew 23:3 You must therefore do and observe what they tell you; but do not be guided by what they do, since they do not practise what they preach.

Matthew 23:4 They tie up heavy burdens and lay them on people's shoulders, but will they lift a finger to move them? Not they!

Matthew 23:5 Everything they do is done to attract attention, like wearing broader headbands and longer tassels,

Matthew 23:6 like wanting to take the place of honour at banquets and the front seats in the synagogues,

Matthew 23:7 being greeted respectfully in the market squares and having people call them Rabbi.

Matthew 23:8 'You, however, must not allow yourselves to be called Rabbi, since you have only one Master, and you are all brothers.

Matthew 23:9 You must call no one on earth your father, since you have only one Father, and he is in heaven.

Matthew 23:10 Nor must you allow yourselves to be called teachers, for you have only one Teacher, the Christ.

Matthew 23:11 The greatest among you must be your servant.

Matthew 23:12 Anyone who raises himself up will be humbled, and anyone who humbles himself will be raised up.

Matthew 23:13 'Alas for you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You shut up the kingdom of Heaven in people's faces, neither going in yourselves nor allowing others to go who want to.

Matthew 23:14

Matthew 23:15 'Alas for you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You travel over sea and land to make a single proselyte, and anyone who becomes one you make twice as fit for hell as you are.

Matthew 23:16 'Alas for you, blind guides! You say, "If anyone swears by the Temple, it has no force; but anyone who swears by the gold of the Temple is bound."

Matthew 23:17 Fools and blind! For which is of greater value, the gold or the Temple that makes the gold sacred?

Matthew 23:18 Again, "If anyone swears by the altar it has no force; but anyone who swears by the offering on the altar, is bound."

Matthew 23:19 You blind men! For which is of greater worth, the offering or the altar that makes the offering sacred?

Matthew 23:20 Therefore, someone who swears by the altar is swearing by that and by everything on it.

Matthew 23:21 And someone who swears by the Temple is swearing by that and by the One who dwells in it.

Matthew 23:22 And someone who swears by heaven is swearing by the throne of God and by the One who is seated there.

Matthew 23:23 'Alas for you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You pay your tithe of mint and dill and cummin and have neglected the weightier matters of the Law-justice, mercy, good faith! These you should have practised, those not neglected.

Matthew 23:24 You blind guides, straining out gnats and swallowing camels!

Matthew 23:25 'Alas for you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You clean the outside of cup and dish and leave the inside full of extortion and intemperance.

Matthew 23:26 Blind Pharisee! Clean the inside of cup and dish first so that it and the outside are both clean.

Matthew 23:27 'Alas for you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You are like whitewashed tombs that look handsome on the outside, but inside are full of the bones of the dead and every kind of corruption.

Matthew 23:28 In just the same way, from the outside you look upright, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

Matthew 23:29 'Alas for you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You build the sepulchres of the prophets and decorate the tombs of the upright,

Matthew 23:30 saying, "We would never have joined in shedding the blood of the prophets, had we lived in our ancestors' day."

Matthew 23:31 So! Your own evidence tells against you! You are the children of those who murdered the prophets!

Matthew 23:32 Very well then, finish off the work that your ancestors began.

Matthew 23:33 'You serpents, brood of vipers, how can you escape being condemned to hell?

Matthew 23:34 This is why—look—I am sending you prophets and wise men and scribes; some you will slaughter and crucify, some you will scourge in your synagogues and hunt from town to town;

Matthew 23:35 and so you will draw down on yourselves the blood of every upright person that has been shed on earth, from the blood of Abel the holy to the blood of Zechariah son of Barachiah whom you murdered between the sanctuary and the altar.

Matthew 23:36 In truth I tell you, it will all recoil on this generation.

Matthew 23:37 'Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you that kill the prophets and stone those who are sent to you! How often have I longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you refused!

Matthew 23:38 Look! Your house will be deserted,

Matthew 23:39 for, I promise, you shall not see me any more until you are saying: Blessed is he who is coming in the name of the Lord!'

Matthew 24:1 Jesus left the Temple, and as he was going away his disciples came up to draw his attention to the Temple buildings.

Matthew 24:2 He said to them in reply, 'You see all these? In truth I tell you, not a single stone here will be left on another: everything will be pulled down.'

Matthew 24:3 And while he was sitting on the Mount of Olives the disciples came and asked him when they were by themselves, 'Tell us, when is this going to happen, and what sign will there be of your coming and of the end of the world?'

Matthew 24:4 And Jesus answered them, 'Take care that no one deceives you,

Matthew 24:5 because many will come using my name and saying, "I am the Christ," and they will deceive many.

Matthew 24:6 You will hear of wars and rumours of wars; see that you are not alarmed, for this is something that must happen, but the end will not be yet.

Matthew 24:7 For nation will fight against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places.

Matthew 24:8 All this is only the beginning of the birthpangs.

Matthew 24:9 'Then you will be handed over to be tortured and put to death; and you will be hated by all nations on account of my name.

Matthew 24:10 And then many will fall away; people will betray one another and hate one another.

Matthew 24:11 Many false prophets will arise; they will deceive many,

Matthew 24:12 and with the increase of lawlessness, love in most people will grow cold;

Matthew 24:13 but anyone who stands firm to the end will be saved.

Matthew 24:14 'This good news of the kingdom will be proclaimed to the whole world as evidence to the nations. And then the end will come.

Matthew 24:15 'So when you see the appalling abomination, of which the prophet Daniel spoke, set up in the holy place (let the reader understand),

Matthew 24:16 then those in Judaea must escape to the mountains;

Matthew 24:17 if anyone is on the housetop, he must not come down to collect his belongings from the house;

Matthew 24:18 if anyone is in the fields, he must not turn back to fetch his cloak.

Matthew 24:19 Alas for those with child, or with babies at the breast, when those days come!

Matthew 24:20 Pray that you will not have to make your escape in winter or on a Sabbath.

Matthew 24:21 For then there will be great distress, unparalleled since the world began, and such as will never be again.

Matthew 24:22 And if that time had not been shortened, no human being would have survived; but shortened that time shall be, for the sake of those who are chosen.

Matthew 24:23 'If anyone says to you then, "Look, here is the Christ," or "Over here," do not believe it;

Matthew 24:24 for false Christs and false prophets will arise and provide great signs and portents, enough to deceive even the elect, if that were possible.

Matthew 24:25 Look! I have given you warning.

Matthew 24:26 'If, then, they say to you, "Look, he is in the desert," do not go there; "Look, he is in some hiding place," do not believe it;

Matthew 24:27 because the coming of the Son of man will be like lightning striking in the east and flashing far into the west.

Matthew 24:28 Wherever the corpse is, that is where the vultures will gather.

Matthew 24:29 'Immediately after the distress of those days the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light, the stars will fall from the sky and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

Matthew 24:30 And then the sign of the Son of man will appear in heaven; then, too, all the peoples of the earth will beat their breasts; and they will see the Son of man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

Matthew 24:31 And he will send his angels with a loud trumpet to gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

Matthew 24:32 'Take the fig tree as a parable: as soon as its twigs grow supple and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near.

Matthew 24:33 So with you when you see all these things: know that he is near, right at the gates.

Matthew 24:34 In truth I tell you, before this generation has passed away, all these things will have taken place.

Matthew 24:35 Sky and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

Matthew 24:36 But as for that day and hour, nobody knows it, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son, no one but the Father alone.

Matthew 24:37 ‘As it was in Noah’s day, so will it be when the Son of man comes.

Matthew 24:38 For in those days before the Flood people were eating, drinking, taking wives, taking husbands, right up to the day Noah went into the ark,

Matthew 24:39 and they suspected nothing till the Flood came and swept them all away. This is what it will be like when the Son of man comes.

Matthew 24:40 Then of two men in the fields, one is taken, one left;

Matthew 24:41 of two women grinding at the mill, one is taken, one left.

Matthew 24:42 ‘So stay awake, because you do not know the day when your master is coming.

Matthew 24:43 You may be quite sure of this, that if the householder had known at what time of the night the burglar would come, he would have stayed awake and would not have allowed anyone to break through the wall of his house.

Matthew 24:44 Therefore, you too must stand ready because the Son of man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

Matthew 24:45 ‘Who, then, is the wise and trustworthy servant whom the master placed over his household to give them their food at the proper time?

Matthew 24:46 Blessed that servant if his master’s arrival finds him doing exactly that.

Matthew 24:47 In truth I tell you, he will put him in charge of everything he owns.

Matthew 24:48 But if the servant is dishonest and says to himself, “My master is taking his time,”

Matthew 24:49 and sets about beating his fellow-servants and eating and drinking with drunkards,

Matthew 24:50 his master will come on a day he does not expect and at an hour he does not know.

Matthew 24:51 The master will cut him off and send him to the same fate as the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.’

Matthew 25:1 ‘Then the kingdom of Heaven will be like this: Ten wedding attendants took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom.

Matthew 25:2 Five of them were foolish and five were sensible:

Matthew 25:3 the foolish ones, though they took their lamps, took no oil with them,

Matthew 25:4 whereas the sensible ones took flasks of oil as well as their lamps.

Matthew 25:5 The bridegroom was late, and they all grew drowsy and fell asleep.

Matthew 25:6 But at midnight there was a cry, “Look! The bridegroom! Go out and meet him.”

Matthew 25:7 Then all those wedding attendants woke up and trimmed their lamps,

Matthew 25:8 and the foolish ones said to the sensible ones, “Give us some of your oil: our lamps are going out.”

Matthew 25:9 But they replied, “There may not be enough for us and for you; you had better go to those who sell it and buy some for yourselves.”

Matthew 25:10 They had gone off to buy it when the bridegroom arrived. Those who were ready went in with him to the wedding hall and the door was closed.

Matthew 25:11 The other attendants arrived later. “Lord, Lord,” they said, “open the door for us.”

Matthew 25:12 But he replied, “In truth I tell you, I do not know you.”

Matthew 25:13 So stay awake, because you do not know either the day or the hour.

Matthew 25:14 ‘It is like a man about to go abroad who summoned his servants and entrusted his property to them.

Matthew 25:15 To one he gave five talents, to another two, to a third one, each in proportion to his ability. Then he set out on his journey.

Matthew 25:16 The man who had received the five talents promptly went and traded with them and made five more.

Matthew 25:17 The man who had received two made two more in the same way.

Matthew 25:18 But the man who had received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master’s money.

Matthew 25:19 Now a long time afterwards, the master of those servants came back and went through his accounts with them.

Matthew 25:20 The man who had received the five talents came forward bringing five more. “Sir,” he said, “you entrusted me with five talents; here are five more that I have made.”

Matthew 25:21 His master said to him, “Well done, good and trustworthy servant; you have shown you are trustworthy in small things; I will trust you with greater; come and join in your master’s happiness.”

Matthew 25:22 Next the man with the two talents came forward. “Sir,” he said, “you entrusted me with two talents; here are two more that I have made.”

Matthew 25:23 His master said to him, “Well done, good and trustworthy servant; you have shown you are trustworthy in small things; I will trust you with greater; come and join in your master’s happiness.”

Matthew 25:24 Last came forward the man who had the single talent. “Sir,” said he, “I had heard you were a hard man, reaping where you had not sown and gathering where you had not scattered;

Matthew 25:25 so I was afraid, and I went off and hid your talent in the ground. Here it is; it was yours, you have it back.”

Matthew 25:26 But his master answered him, “You wicked and lazy servant! So you knew that I reap where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered?

Matthew 25:27 Well then, you should have deposited my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have got my money back with interest.

Matthew 25:28 So now, take the talent from him and give it to the man who has the ten talents.

Matthew 25:29 For to everyone who has will be given more, and he will have more than enough; but anyone who has not, will be deprived even of what he has.

Matthew 25:30 As for this good-for-nothing servant, throw him into the darkness outside, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.”

Matthew 25:31 ‘When the Son of man comes in his glory, escorted by all the angels, then he will take his seat on his throne of glory.

Matthew 25:32 All nations will be assembled before him and he will separate people one from another as the shepherd separates sheep from goats.

Matthew 25:33 He will place the sheep on his right hand and the goats on his left.

Matthew 25:34 Then the King will say to those on his right hand, “Come, you whom my Father has blessed, take as your heritage the kingdom prepared for you since the foundation of the world.

Matthew 25:35 For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you made me welcome,

Matthew 25:36 lacking clothes and you clothed me, sick and you visited me, in prison and you came to see me.”

Matthew 25:37 Then the upright will say to him in reply, “Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink?

Matthew 25:38 When did we see you a stranger and make you welcome, lacking clothes and clothe you?

Matthew 25:39 When did we find you sick or in prison and go to see you?”

Matthew 25:40 And the King will answer, “In truth I tell you, in so far as you did this to one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did it to me.”

Matthew 25:41 Then he will say to those on his left hand, “Go away from me, with your curse upon you, to the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels.

Matthew 25:42 For I was hungry and you never gave me food, I was thirsty and you never gave me anything to drink,

Matthew 25:43 I was a stranger and you never made me welcome, lacking clothes and you never clothed me, sick and in prison and you never visited me.”

Matthew 25:44 Then it will be their turn to ask, “Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty, a stranger or lacking clothes, sick or in prison, and did not come to your help?”

Matthew 25:45 Then he will answer, “In truth I tell you, in so far as you neglected to do this to one of the least of these, you neglected to do it to me.”

Matthew 25:46 And they will go away to eternal punishment, and the upright to eternal life.’

Matthew 26:1 Jesus had now finished all he wanted to say, and he told his disciples,

Matthew 26:2 ‘It will be Passover, as you know, in two days’ time, and the Son of man will be handed over to be crucified.’

Matthew 26:3 Then the chief priests and the elders of the people assembled in the palace of the high priest, whose name was Caiaphas,

Matthew 26:4 and made plans to arrest Jesus by some trick and have him put to death.

Matthew 26:5 They said, however, ‘It must not be during the festivities; there must be no disturbance among the people.’

Matthew 26:6 Jesus was at Bethany in the house of Simon, a man who had suffered from a virulent skin-disease, when

Matthew 26:7 a woman came to him with an alabaster jar of very expensive ointment, and poured it on his head as he was at table.

Matthew 26:8 When they saw this, the disciples said indignantly, ‘Why this waste?

Matthew 26:9 This could have been sold for a high price and the money given the poor.’

Matthew 26:10 But Jesus noticed this and said, ‘Why are you upsetting the woman? What she has done for me is indeed a good work!

Matthew 26:11 You have the poor with you always, but you will not always have me.

Matthew 26:12 When she poured this ointment on my body, she did it to prepare me for burial.

Matthew 26:13 In truth I tell you, wherever in all the world this gospel is proclaimed, what she has done will be told as well, in remembrance of her.'

Matthew 26:14 Then one of the Twelve, the man called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests

Matthew 26:15 and said, 'What are you prepared to give me if I hand him over to you?' They paid him thirty silver pieces,

Matthew 26:16 and from then onwards he began to look for an opportunity to betray him.

Matthew 26:17 Now on the first day of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus to say, 'Where do you want us to make the preparations for you to eat the Passover?'

Matthew 26:18 He said, 'Go to a certain man in the city and say to him, "The Master says: My time is near. It is at your house that I am keeping Passover with my disciples." '

Matthew 26:19 The disciples did what Jesus told them and prepared the Passover.

Matthew 26:20 When evening came he was at table with the Twelve.

Matthew 26:21 And while they were eating he said, 'In truth I tell you, one of you is about to betray me.'

Matthew 26:22 They were greatly distressed and started asking him in turn, 'Not me, Lord, surely?'

Matthew 26:23 He answered, 'Someone who has dipped his hand into the dish with me will betray me.

Matthew 26:24 The Son of man is going to his fate, as the scriptures say he will, but alas for that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! Better for that man if he had never been born!'

Matthew 26:25 Judas, who was to betray him, asked in his turn, 'Not me, Rabbi, surely?' Jesus answered, 'It is you who say it.'

Matthew 26:26 Now as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when he had said the blessing he broke it and gave it to the disciples. 'Take it and eat,' he said, 'this is my body.'

Matthew 26:27 Then he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he handed it to them saying, 'Drink from this, all of you,

Matthew 26:28 for this is my blood, the blood of the covenant, poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.

Matthew 26:29 From now on, I tell you, I shall never again drink wine until the day I drink the new wine with you in the kingdom of my Father.'

Matthew 26:30 After the psalms had been sung they left for the Mount of Olives.

Matthew 26:31 Then Jesus said to them, 'You will all fall away from me tonight, for the scripture says: I shall strike the shepherd and the sheep of the flock will be scattered,

Matthew 26:32 but after my resurrection I shall go ahead of you to Galilee.'

Matthew 26:33 At this, Peter said to him, 'Even if all fall away from you, I will never fall away.'

Matthew 26:34 Jesus answered him, 'In truth I tell you, this very night, before the cock crows, you will have disowned me three times.'

Matthew 26:35 Peter said to him, 'Even if I have to die with you, I will never disown you.' And all the disciples said the same.

Matthew 26:36 Then Jesus came with them to a plot of land called Gethsemane; and he said to his disciples, 'Stay here while I go over there to pray.'

Matthew 26:37 He took Peter and the two sons of Zebedee with him. And he began to feel sadness and anguish.

Matthew 26:38 Then he said to them, 'My soul is sorrowful to the point of death. Wait here and stay awake with me.'

Matthew 26:39 And going on a little further he fell on his face and prayed. 'My Father,' he said, 'if it is possible, let this cup pass me by. Nevertheless, let it be as you, not I, would have it.'

Matthew 26:40 He came back to the disciples and found them sleeping, and he said to Peter, 'So you had not the strength to stay awake with me for one hour?

Matthew 26:41 Stay awake, and pray not to be put to the test. The spirit is willing enough, but human nature is weak.'

Matthew 26:42 Again, a second time, he went away and prayed: 'My Father,' he said, 'if this cup cannot pass by, but I must drink it, your will be done!'

Matthew 26:43 And he came back again and found them sleeping, their eyes were so heavy.

Matthew 26:44 Leaving them there, he went away again and prayed for the third time, repeating the same words.

Matthew 26:45 Then he came back to the disciples and said to them, 'You can sleep on now and have your rest. Look, the hour has come when the Son of man is to be betrayed into the hands of sinners.

Matthew 26:46 Get up! Let us go! Look, my betrayer is not far away.'

Matthew 26:47 And suddenly while he was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, appeared, and with him a large number of men armed with swords and clubs, sent by the chief priests and elders of the people.

Matthew 26:48 Now the traitor had arranged a sign with them saying, 'The one I kiss, he is the man. Arrest him.'

Matthew 26:49 So he went up to Jesus at once and said, ‘Greetings, Rabbi,’ and kissed him.

Matthew 26:50 Jesus said to him, ‘My friend, do what you are here for.’ Then they came forward, seized Jesus and arrested him.

Matthew 26:51 And suddenly, one of the followers of Jesus grasped his sword and drew it; he struck the high priest’s servant and cut off his ear.

Matthew 26:52 Jesus then said, ‘Put your sword back, for all who draw the sword will die by the sword.

Matthew 26:53 Or do you think that I cannot appeal to my Father, who would promptly send more than twelve legions of angels to my defence?

Matthew 26:54 But then, how would the scriptures be fulfilled that say this is the way it must be?’

Matthew 26:55 It was at this time that Jesus said to the crowds, ‘Am I a bandit, that you had to set out to capture me with swords and clubs? I sat teaching in the Temple day after day and you never laid a hand on me.’

Matthew 26:56 Now all this happened to fulfil the prophecies in scripture. Then all the disciples deserted him and ran away.

Matthew 26:57 The men who had arrested Jesus led him off to the house of Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

Matthew 26:58 Peter followed him at a distance right to the high priest’s palace, and he went in and sat down with the attendants to see what the end would be.

Matthew 26:59 The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for evidence against Jesus, however false, on which they might have him executed.

Matthew 26:60 But they could not find any, though several lying witnesses came forward. Eventually two came forward

Matthew 26:61 and made a statement, ‘This man said, “I have power to destroy the Temple of God and in three days build it up.” ‘

Matthew 26:62 The high priest then rose and said to him, ‘Have you no answer to that? What is this evidence these men are bringing against you?’

Matthew 26:63 But Jesus was silent. And the high priest said to him, ‘I put you on oath by the living God to tell us if you are the Christ, the Son of God.’

Matthew 26:64 Jesus answered him, ‘It is you who say it. But, I tell you that from this time onward you will see the Son of man seated at the right hand of the Power and coming on the clouds of heaven.’

Matthew 26:65 Then the high priest tore his clothes and said, ‘He has blasphemed. What need of witnesses have we now? There! You have just heard the blasphemy.

Matthew 26:66 What is your opinion?’ They answered, ‘He deserves to die.’

Matthew 26:67 Then they spat in his face and hit him with their fists; others said as they struck him,

Matthew 26:68 ‘Prophesy to us, Christ! Who hit you then?’

Matthew 26:69 Meanwhile Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard, and a servant-girl came up to him saying, ‘You, too, were with Jesus the Galilean.’

Matthew 26:70 But he denied it in front of them all. ‘I do not know what you are talking about,’ he said.

Matthew 26:71 When he went out to the gateway another servant-girl saw him and said to the people there, ‘This man was with Jesus the Nazarene.’

Matthew 26:72 And again, with an oath, he denied it, ‘I do not know the man.’

Matthew 26:73 A little later the bystanders came up and said to Peter, ‘You are certainly one of them too! Why, your accent gives you away.’

Matthew 26:74 Then he started cursing and swearing, ‘I do not know the man.’ And at once the cock crowed,

Matthew 26:75 and Peter remembered what Jesus had said, ‘Before the cock crows you will have disowned me three times.’ And he went outside and wept bitterly.

Matthew 27:1 When morning came, all the chief priests and the elders of the people met in council to bring about the death of Jesus.

Matthew 27:2 They had him bound and led him away to hand him over to Pilate, the governor.

Matthew 27:3 When he found that Jesus had been condemned, then Judas, his betrayer, was filled with remorse and took the thirty silver pieces back to the chief priests and elders

Matthew 27:4 saying, ‘I have sinned. I have betrayed innocent blood.’ They replied, ‘What is that to us? That is your concern.’

Matthew 27:5 And flinging down the silver pieces in the sanctuary he made off, and went and hanged himself.

Matthew 27:6 The chief priests picked up the silver pieces and said, ‘It is against the Law to put this into the treasury; it is blood-money.’

Matthew 27:7 So they discussed the matter and with it bought the potter’s field as a graveyard for foreigners,

Matthew 27:8 and this is why the field is still called the Field of Blood.

Matthew 27:9 The word spoken through the prophet Jeremiah was then fulfilled: And they took the thirty silver pieces, the sum at which the precious One was priced by the children of Israel,

Matthew 27:10 and they gave them for the potter's field, just as the Lord directed me.

Matthew 27:11 Jesus, then, was brought before the governor, and the governor put to him this question, 'Are you the king of the Jews?' Jesus replied, 'It is you who say it.'

Matthew 27:12 But when he was accused by the chief priests and the elders he refused to answer at all.

Matthew 27:13 Pilate then said to him, 'Do you not hear how many charges they have made against you?'

Matthew 27:14 But to the governor's amazement, he offered not a word in answer to any of the charges.

Matthew 27:15 At festival time it was the governor's practice to release a prisoner for the people, anyone they chose.

Matthew 27:16 Now there was then a notorious prisoner whose name was Barabbas.

Matthew 27:17 So when the crowd gathered, Pilate said to them, 'Which do you want me to release for you: Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?'

Matthew 27:18 For Pilate knew it was out of jealousy that they had handed him over.

Matthew 27:19 Now as he was seated in the chair of judgement, his wife sent him a message, 'Have nothing to do with that upright man; I have been extremely upset today by a dream that I had about him.'

Matthew 27:20 The chief priests and the elders, however, had persuaded the crowd to demand the release of Barabbas and the execution of Jesus.

Matthew 27:21 So when the governor spoke and asked them, 'Which of the two do you want me to release for you?' they said, 'Barabbas.'

Matthew 27:22 Pilate said to them, 'But in that case, what am I to do with Jesus who is called Christ?' They all said, 'Let him be crucified!'

Matthew 27:23 He asked, 'But what harm has he done?' But they shouted all the louder, 'Let him be crucified!'

Matthew 27:24 Then Pilate saw that he was making no impression, that in fact a riot was imminent. So he took some water, washed his hands in front of the crowd and said, 'I am innocent of this man's blood. It is your concern.'

Matthew 27:25 And the people, every one of them, shouted back, 'Let his blood be on us and on our children!'

Matthew 27:26 Then he released Barabbas for them. After having Jesus scourged he handed him over to be crucified.

Matthew 27:27 Then the governor’s soldiers took Jesus with them into the Praetorium and collected the whole cohort round him.

Matthew 27:28 And they stripped him and put a scarlet cloak round him,

Matthew 27:29 and having twisted some thorns into a crown they put this on his head and placed a reed in his right hand. To make fun of him they knelt to him saying, ‘Hail, king of the Jews!’

Matthew 27:30 And they spat on him and took the reed and struck him on the head with it.

Matthew 27:31 And when they had finished making fun of him, they took off the cloak and dressed him in his own clothes and led him away to crucifixion.

Matthew 27:32 On their way out, they came across a man from Cyrene, called Simon, and enlisted him to carry his cross.

Matthew 27:33 When they had reached a place called Golgotha, that is, the place of the skull,

Matthew 27:34 they gave him wine to drink mixed with gall, which he tasted but refused to drink.

Matthew 27:35 When they had finished crucifying him they shared out his clothing by casting lots,

Matthew 27:36 and then sat down and stayed there keeping guard over him.

Matthew 27:37 Above his head was placed the charge against him; it read: ‘This is Jesus, the King of the Jews.’

Matthew 27:38 Then two bandits were crucified with him, one on the right and one on the left.

Matthew 27:39 The passers-by jeered at him; they shook their heads

Matthew 27:40 and said, ‘So you would destroy the Temple and in three days rebuild it! Then save yourself if you are God’s son and come down from the cross!’

Matthew 27:41 The chief priests with the scribes and elders mocked him in the same way,

Matthew 27:42 with the words, ‘He saved others; he cannot save himself. He is the king of Israel; let him come down from the cross now, and we will believe in him.

Matthew 27:43 He has put his trust in God; now let God rescue him if he wants him. For he did say, “I am God’s son.” ‘

Matthew 27:44 Even the bandits who were crucified with him taunted him in the same way.

Matthew 27:45 From the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour.

Matthew 27:46 And about the ninth hour, Jesus cried out in a loud voice, 'Eli, eli, lama sabachthani?' that is, 'My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?'

Matthew 27:47 When some of those who stood there heard this, they said, 'The man is calling on Elijah,'

Matthew 27:48 and one of them quickly ran to get a sponge which he filled with vinegar and, putting it on a reed, gave it him to drink.

Matthew 27:49 But the rest of them said, 'Wait! And see if Elijah will come to save him.'

Matthew 27:50 But Jesus, again crying out in a loud voice, yielded up his spirit.

Matthew 27:51 And suddenly, the veil of the Sanctuary was torn in two from top to bottom, the earth quaked, the rocks were split,

Matthew 27:52 the tombs opened and the bodies of many holy people rose from the dead,

Matthew 27:53 and these, after his resurrection, came out of the tombs, entered the holy city and appeared to a number of people.

Matthew 27:54 The centurion, together with the others guarding Jesus, had seen the earthquake and all that was taking place, and they were terrified and said, 'In truth this man was son of God.'

Matthew 27:55 And many women were there, watching from a distance, the same women who had followed Jesus from Galilee and looked after him.

Matthew 27:56 Among them were Mary of Magdala, Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of Zebedee's sons.

Matthew 27:57 When it was evening, there came a rich man of Arimathaea, called Joseph, who had himself become a disciple of Jesus.

Matthew 27:58 This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate ordered it to be handed over.

Matthew 27:59 So Joseph took the body, wrapped it in a clean shroud

Matthew 27:60 and put it in his own new tomb which he had hewn out of the rock. He then rolled a large stone across the entrance of the tomb and went away.

Matthew 27:61 Now Mary of Magdala and the other Mary were there, sitting opposite the sepulchre.

Matthew 27:62 Next day, that is, when Preparation Day was over, the chief priests and the Pharisees went in a body to Pilate

Matthew 27:63 and said to him, 'Your Excellency, we recall that this impostor said, while he was still alive, "After three days I shall rise again.”

Matthew 27:64 Therefore give the order to have the sepulchre kept secure until the third day, for fear his disciples come and steal him away and tell the people, “He has risen from the dead.” This last piece of fraud would be worse than what went before.’

Matthew 27:65 Pilate said to them, ‘You may have your guard; go and make all as secure as you know how.’

Matthew 27:66 So they went and made the sepulchre secure, putting seals on the stone and mounting a guard.

Matthew 28:1 After the Sabbath, and towards dawn on the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala and the other Mary went to visit the sepulchre.

Matthew 28:2 And suddenly there was a violent earthquake, for an angel of the Lord, descending from heaven, came and rolled away the stone and sat on it.

Matthew 28:3 His face was like lightning, his robe white as snow.

Matthew 28:4 The guards were so shaken by fear of him that they were like dead men.

Matthew 28:5 But the angel spoke; and he said to the women, ‘There is no need for you to be afraid. I know you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified.

Matthew 28:6 He is not here, for he has risen, as he said he would. Come and see the place where he lay,

Matthew 28:7 then go quickly and tell his disciples, “He has risen from the dead and now he is going ahead of you to Galilee; that is where you will see him.” Look! I have told you.’

Matthew 28:8 Filled with awe and great joy the women came quickly away from the tomb and ran to tell his disciples.

Matthew 28:9 And suddenly, coming to meet them, was Jesus. ‘Greetings,’ he said. And the women came up to him and, clasping his feet, they did him homage.

Matthew 28:10 Then Jesus said to them, ‘Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers that they must leave for Galilee; there they will see me.’

Matthew 28:11 Now while they were on their way, some of the guards went off into the city to tell the chief priests all that had happened.

Matthew 28:12 These held a meeting with the elders and, after some discussion, handed a considerable sum of money to the soldiers

Matthew 28:13 with these instructions, ‘This is what you must say, “His disciples came during the night and stole him away while we were asleep.”

Matthew 28:14 And should the governor come to hear of this, we undertake to put things right with him ourselves and to see that you do not get into trouble.’

Matthew 28:15 So they took the money and carried out their instructions, and to this day that is the story among the Jews.

Matthew 28:16 Meanwhile the eleven disciples set out for Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged to meet them.

Matthew 28:17 When they saw him they fell down before him, though some hesitated.

Matthew 28:18 Jesus came up and spoke to them. He said, ‘All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.

Matthew 28:19 Go, therefore, make disciples of all nations; baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,

Matthew 28:20 and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you. And look, I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.’

Mark

1:1 The beginning of the gospel about Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

Mark 1:2 It is written in the prophet Isaiah: Look, I am going to send my messenger in front of you to prepare your way before you.

Mark 1:3 A voice of one that cries in the desert: Prepare a way for the Lord, make his paths straight.

Mark 1:4 John the Baptist was in the desert, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

Mark 1:5 All Judaea and all the people of Jerusalem made their way to him, and as they were baptised by him in the river Jordan they confessed their sins.

Mark 1:6 John wore a garment of camel-skin, and he lived on locusts and wild honey.

Mark 1:7 In the course of his preaching he said, ‘After me is coming someone who is more powerful than me, and I am not fit to kneel down and undo the strap of his sandals.

Mark 1:8 I have baptised you with water, but he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit.’

Mark 1:9 It was at this time that Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptised in the Jordan by John.

Mark 1:10 And at once, as he was coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens torn apart and the Spirit, like a dove, descending on him.

Mark 1:11 And a voice came from heaven, ‘You are my Son, the Beloved; my favour rests on you.’

Mark 1:12 And at once the Spirit drove him into the desert

Mark 1:13 and he remained there for forty days, and was put to the test by Satan. He was with the wild animals, and the angels looked after him.

Mark 1:14 After John had been arrested, Jesus went into Galilee. There he proclaimed the gospel from God saying,

Mark 1:15 'The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is close at hand. Repent, and believe the gospel.'

Mark 1:16 As he was walking along by the Lake of Galilee he saw Simon and Simon's brother Andrew casting a net in the lake—for they were fishermen.

Mark 1:17 And Jesus said to them, 'Come after me and I will make you into fishers of people.'

Mark 1:18 And at once they left their nets and followed him.

Mark 1:19 Going on a little further, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John; they too were in their boat, mending the nets.

Mark 1:20 At once he called them and, leaving their father Zebedee in the boat with the men he employed, they went after him.

Mark 1:21 They went as far as Capernaum, and at once on the Sabbath he went into the synagogue and began to teach.

Mark 1:22 And his teaching made a deep impression on them because, unlike the scribes, he taught them with authority.

Mark 1:23 And at once in their synagogue there was a man with an unclean spirit, and he shouted,

Mark 1:24 'What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are: the Holy One of God.'

Mark 1:25 But Jesus rebuked it saying, 'Be quiet! Come out of him!'

Mark 1:26 And the unclean spirit threw the man into convulsions and with a loud cry went out of him.

Mark 1:27 The people were so astonished that they started asking one another what it all meant, saying, 'Here is a teaching that is new, and with authority behind it: he gives orders even to unclean spirits and they obey him.'

Mark 1:28 And his reputation at once spread everywhere, through all the surrounding Galilean countryside.

Mark 1:29 And at once on leaving the synagogue, he went with James and John straight to the house of Simon and Andrew.

Mark 1:30 Now Simon's mother-in-law was in bed and feverish, and at once they told him about her.

Mark 1:31 He went in to her, took her by the hand and helped her up. And the fever left her and she began to serve them.

Mark 1:32 That evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were sick and those who were possessed by devils.

Mark 1:33 The whole town came crowding round the door,

Mark 1:34 and he cured many who were sick with diseases of one kind or another; he also drove out many devils, but he would not allow them to speak, because they knew who he was.

Mark 1:35 In the morning, long before dawn, he got up and left the house and went off to a lonely place and prayed there.

Mark 1:36 Simon and his companions set out in search of him,

Mark 1:37 and when they found him they said, ‘Everybody is looking for you.’

Mark 1:38 He answered, ‘Let us go elsewhere, to the neighbouring country towns, so that I can proclaim the message there too, because that is why I came.’

Mark 1:39 And he went all through Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and driving out devils.

Mark 1:40 A man suffering from a virulent skin-disease came to him and pleaded on his knees saying, ‘If you are willing, you can cleanse me.’

Mark 1:41 Feeling sorry for him, Jesus stretched out his hand, touched him and said to him, ‘I am willing. Be cleansed.’

Mark 1:42 And at once the skin-disease left him and he was cleansed.

Mark 1:43 And at once Jesus sternly sent him away and said to him,

Mark 1:44 ‘Mind you tell no one anything, but go and show yourself to the priest, and make the offering for your cleansing prescribed by Moses as evidence to them.’

Mark 1:45 The man went away, but then started freely proclaiming and telling the story everywhere, so that Jesus could no longer go openly into any town, but stayed outside in deserted places. Even so, people from all around kept coming to him.

Mark 2:1 When he returned to Capernaum, some time later word went round that he was in the house;

Mark 2:2 and so many people collected that there was no room left, even in front of the door. He was preaching the word to them

Mark 2:3 when some people came bringing him a paralytic carried by four men,

Mark 2:4 but as they could not get the man to him through the crowd, they stripped the roof over the place where Jesus was; and when they had made an opening, they lowered the stretcher on which the paralytic lay.

Mark 2:5 Seeing their faith, Jesus said to the paralytic, ‘My child, your sins are forgiven.’

Mark 2:6 Now some scribes were sitting there, and they thought to themselves,

Mark 2:7 'How can this man talk like that? He is being blasphemous. Who but God can forgive sins?'

Mark 2:8 And at once, Jesus, inwardly aware that this is what they were thinking, said to them, 'Why do you have these thoughts in your hearts?

Mark 2:9 Which of these is easier: to say to the paralytic, "Your sins are forgiven" or to say, "Get up, pick up your stretcher and walk"?

Mark 2:10 But to prove to you that the Son of man has authority to forgive sins on earth'—

Mark 2:11 he said to the paralytic-'I order you: get up, pick up your stretcher, and go off home.'

Mark 2:12 And the man got up, and at once picked up his stretcher and walked out in front of everyone, so that they were all astonished and praised God saying, 'We have never seen anything like this.'

Mark 2:13 He went out again to the shore of the lake; and all the people came to him, and he taught them.

Mark 2:14 As he was walking along he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax office, and he said to him, 'Follow me.' And he got up and followed him.

Mark 2:15 When Jesus was at dinner in his house, a number of tax collectors and sinners were also sitting at table with Jesus and his disciples; for there were many of them among his followers.

Mark 2:16 When the scribes of the Pharisee party saw him eating with sinners and tax collectors, they said to his disciples, 'Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?'

Mark 2:17 When Jesus heard this he said to them, 'It is not the healthy who need the doctor, but the sick. I came to call not the upright, but sinners.'

Mark 2:18 John's disciples and the Pharisees were keeping a fast, when some people came to him and said to him, 'Why is it that John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not?'

Mark 2:19 Jesus replied, 'Surely the bridegroom's attendants cannot fast while the bridegroom is still with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

Mark 2:20 But the time will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then, on that day, they will fast.

Mark 2:21 No one sews a piece of unshrunken cloth on an old cloak; otherwise, the patch pulls away from it, the new from the old, and the tear gets worse.

Mark 2:22 And nobody puts new wine into old wineskins; otherwise, the wine will burst the skins, and the wine is lost and the skins too. No! New wine into fresh skins!'

Mark 2:23 It happened that one Sabbath day he was taking a walk through the cornfields, and his disciples began to make a path by plucking ears of corn.

Mark 2:24 And the Pharisees said to him, 'Look, why are they doing something on the Sabbath day that is forbidden?'

Mark 2:25 And he replied, 'Have you never read what David did in his time of need when he and his followers were hungry-

Mark 2:26 how he went into the house of God when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the loaves of the offering which only the priests are allowed to eat, and how he also gave some to the men with him?'

Mark 2:27 And he said to them, 'The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath;

Mark 2:28 so the Son of man is master even of the Sabbath.'

Mark 3:1 Another time he went into the synagogue, and there was a man present whose hand was withered.

Mark 3:2 And they were watching him to see if he would cure him on the Sabbath day, hoping for something to charge him with.

Mark 3:3 He said to the man with the withered hand, 'Get up and stand in the middle!'

Mark 3:4 Then he said to them, 'Is it permitted on the Sabbath day to do good, or to do evil; to save life, or to kill?' But they said nothing.

Mark 3:5 Then he looked angrily round at them, grieved to find them so obstinate, and said to the man, 'Stretch out your hand.' He stretched it out and his hand was restored.

Mark 3:6 The Pharisees went out and began at once to plot with the Herodians against him, discussing how to destroy him.

Mark 3:7 Jesus withdrew with his disciples to the lakeside, and great crowds from Galilee followed him. From Judaea,

Mark 3:8 and from Jerusalem, and from Idumaea and Transjordan and the region of Tyre and Sidon, great numbers who had heard of all he was doing came to him.

Mark 3:9 And he asked his disciples to have a boat ready for him because of the crowd, to keep him from being crushed.

Mark 3:10 For he had cured so many that all who were afflicted in any way were crowding forward to touch him.

Mark 3:11 And the unclean spirits, whenever they saw him, would fall down before him and shout, 'You are the Son of God!'

Mark 3:12 But he warned them strongly not to make him known.

Mark 3:13 He now went up onto the mountain and summoned those he wanted. So they came to him

Mark 3:14 and he appointed twelve; they were to be his companions and to be sent out to proclaim the message,

Mark 3:15 with power to drive out devils.

Mark 3:16 And so he appointed the Twelve, Simon to whom he gave the name Peter,

Mark 3:17 James the son of Zebedee and John the brother of James, to whom he gave the name Boanerges or 'Sons of Thunder';

Mark 3:18 Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Zealot

Mark 3:19 and Judas Iscariot, the man who was to betray him.

Mark 3:20 He went home again, and once more such a crowd collected that they could not even have a meal.

Mark 3:21 When his relations heard of this, they set out to take charge of him; they said, 'He is out of his mind.'

Mark 3:22 The scribes who had come down from Jerusalem were saying, 'Beelzebul is in him,' and, 'It is through the prince of devils that he drives devils out.'

Mark 3:23 So he called them to him and spoke to them in parables,

Mark 3:24 'How can Satan drive out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot last.

Mark 3:25 And if a household is divided against itself, that household can never last.

Mark 3:26 Now if Satan has rebelled against himself and is divided, he cannot last either—it is the end of him.

Mark 3:27 But no one can make his way into a strong man's house and plunder his property unless he has first tied up the strong man. Only then can he plunder his house.

Mark 3:28 'In truth I tell you, all human sins will be forgiven, and all the blasphemies ever uttered;

Mark 3:29 but anyone who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven, but is guilty of an eternal sin.'

Mark 3:30 This was because they were saying, 'There is an unclean spirit in him.'

Mark 3:31 Now his mother and his brothers arrived and, standing outside, sent in a message asking for him.

Mark 3:32 A crowd was sitting round him at the time the message was passed to him, 'Look, your mother and brothers and sisters are outside asking for you.'

Mark 3:33 He replied, 'Who are my mother and my brothers?'

Mark 3:34 And looking at those sitting in a circle round him, he said, ‘Here are my mother and my brothers.

Mark 3:35 Anyone who does the will of God, that person is my brother and sister and mother.’

Mark 4:1 Again he began to teach them by the lakeside, but such a huge crowd gathered round him that he got into a boat on the water and sat there. The whole crowd were at the lakeside on land.

Mark 4:2 He taught them many things in parables, and in the course of his teaching he said to them,

Mark 4:3 ‘Listen! Imagine a sower going out to sow.

Mark 4:4 Now it happened that, as he sowed, some of the seed fell on the edge of the path, and the birds came and ate it up.

Mark 4:5 Some seed fell on rocky ground where it found little soil and at once sprang up, because there was no depth of earth;

Mark 4:6 and when the sun came up it was scorched and, not having any roots, it withered away.

Mark 4:7 Some seed fell into thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it produced no crop.

Mark 4:8 And some seeds fell into rich soil, grew tall and strong, and produced a good crop; the yield was thirty, sixty, even a hundredfold.’

Mark 4:9 And he said, ‘Anyone who has ears for listening should listen!’

Mark 4:10 When he was alone, the Twelve, together with the others who formed his company, asked what the parables meant.

Mark 4:11 He told them, ‘To you is granted the secret of the kingdom of God, but to those who are outside everything comes in parables,

Mark 4:12 so that they may look and look, but never perceive; listen and listen, but never understand; to avoid changing their ways and being healed.’

Mark 4:13 He said to them, ‘Do you not understand this parable? Then how will you understand any of the parables?

Mark 4:14 What the sower is sowing is the word.

Mark 4:15 Those on the edge of the path where the word is sown are people who have no sooner heard it than Satan at once comes and carries away the word that was sown in them.

Mark 4:16 Similarly, those who are sown on patches of rock are people who, when first they hear the word, welcome it at once with joy.

Mark 4:17 But they have no root deep down and do not last; should some trial come, or some persecution on account of the word, at once they fall away.

Mark 4:18 Then there are others who are sown in thorns. These have heard the word,

Mark 4:19 but the worries of the world, the lure of riches and all the other passions come in to choke the word, and so it produces nothing.

Mark 4:20 And there are those who have been sown in rich soil; they hear the word and accept it and yield a harvest, thirty and sixty and a hundredfold.'

Mark 4:21 He also said to them, 'Is a lamp brought in to be put under a tub or under the bed? Surely to be put on the lamp-stand?

Mark 4:22 For there is nothing hidden, but it must be disclosed, nothing kept secret except to be brought to light.

Mark 4:23 Anyone who has ears for listening should listen!'

Mark 4:24 He also said to them, 'Take notice of what you are hearing. The standard you use will be used for you—and you will receive more besides;

Mark 4:25 anyone who has, will be given more; anyone who has not, will be deprived even of what he has.'

Mark 4:26 He also said, 'This is what the kingdom of God is like. A man scatters seed on the land.

Mark 4:27 Night and day, while he sleeps, when he is awake, the seed is sprouting and growing; how, he does not know.

Mark 4:28 Of its own accord the land produces first the shoot, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear.

Mark 4:29 And when the crop is ready, at once he starts to reap because the harvest has come.'

Mark 4:30 He also said, 'What can we say that the kingdom is like? What parable can we find for it?

Mark 4:31 It is like a mustard seed which, at the time of its sowing, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth.

Mark 4:32 Yet once it is sown it grows into the biggest shrub of them all and puts out big branches so that the birds of the air can shelter in its shade.'

Mark 4:33 Using many parables like these, he spoke the word to them, so far as they were capable of understanding it.

Mark 4:34 He would not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything to his disciples when they were by themselves.

Mark 4:35 With the coming of evening that same day, he said to them, 'Let us cross over to the other side.'

Mark 4:36 And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him.

Mark 4:37 Then it began to blow a great gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped.

Mark 4:38 But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep.

Mark 4:39 They woke him and said to him, ‘Master, do you not care? We are lost!’ And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, ‘Quiet now! Be calm!’ And the wind dropped, and there followed a great calm.

Mark 4:40 Then he said to them, ‘Why are you so frightened? Have you still no faith?’

Mark 4:41 They were overcome with awe and said to one another, ‘Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.’

Mark 5:1 They reached the territory of the Gerasenes on the other side of the lake,

Mark 5:2 and when he disembarked, a man with an unclean spirit at once came out from the tombs towards him.

Mark 5:3 The man lived in the tombs and no one could secure him any more, even with a chain,

Mark 5:4 because he had often been secured with fetters and chains but had snapped the chains and broken the fetters, and no one had the strength to control him.

Mark 5:5 All night and all day, among the tombs and in the mountains, he would howl and gash himself with stones.

Mark 5:6 Catching sight of Jesus from a distance, he ran up and fell at his feet

Mark 5:7 and shouted at the top of his voice, ‘What do you want with me, Jesus, son of the Most High God? In God’s name do not torture me!’

Mark 5:8 For Jesus had been saying to him, ‘Come out of the man, unclean spirit.’

Mark 5:9 Then he asked, ‘What is your name?’ He answered, ‘My name is Legion, for there are many of us.’

Mark 5:10 And he begged him earnestly not to send them out of the district.

Mark 5:11 Now on the mountainside there was a great herd of pigs feeding,

Mark 5:12 and the unclean spirits begged him, ‘Send us to the pigs, let us go into them.’

Mark 5:13 So he gave them leave. With that, the unclean spirits came out and went into the pigs, and the herd of about two thousand pigs charged down the cliff into the lake, and there they were drowned.

Mark 5:14 The men looking after them ran off and told their story in the city and in the country round about; and the people came to see what had really happened.

Mark 5:15 They came to Jesus and saw the demoniac sitting there—the man who had had the legion in him—properly dressed and in his full senses, and they were afraid.

Mark 5:16 And those who had witnessed it reported what had happened to the demoniac and what had become of the pigs.

Mark 5:17 Then they began to implore Jesus to leave their neighbourhood.

Mark 5:18 As he was getting into the boat, the man who had been possessed begged to be allowed to stay with him.

Mark 5:19 Jesus would not let him but said to him, 'Go home to your people and tell them all that the Lord in his mercy has done for you.'

Mark 5:20 So the man went off and proceeded to proclaim in the Decapolis all that Jesus had done for him. And everyone was amazed.

Mark 5:21 When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered round him and he stayed by the lake.

Mark 5:22 Then the president of the synagogue came up, named Jairus, and seeing him, fell at his feet

Mark 5:23 and begged him earnestly, saying, 'My little daughter is desperately sick. Do come and lay your hands on her that she may be saved and may live.'

Mark 5:24 Jesus went with him and a large crowd followed him; they were pressing all round him.

Mark 5:25 Now there was a woman who had suffered from a haemorrhage for twelve years;

Mark 5:26 after long and painful treatment under various doctors, she had spent all she had without being any the better for it; in fact, she was getting worse.

Mark 5:27 She had heard about Jesus, and she came up through the crowd and touched his cloak from behind, thinking,

Mark 5:28 'If I can just touch his clothes, I shall be saved.'

Mark 5:29 And at once the source of the bleeding dried up, and she felt in herself that she was cured of her complaint.

Mark 5:30 And at once aware of the power that had gone out from him, Jesus turned round in the crowd and said, 'Who touched my clothes?'

Mark 5:31 His disciples said to him, 'You see how the crowd is pressing round you; how can you ask, "Who touched me?" '

Mark 5:32 But he continued to look all round to see who had done it.

Mark 5:33 Then the woman came forward, frightened and trembling because she knew what had happened to her, and she fell at his feet and told him the whole truth.

Mark 5:34 ‘My daughter,’ he said, ‘your faith has restored you to health; go in peace and be free of your complaint.’

Mark 5:35 While he was still speaking some people arrived from the house of the president of the synagogue to say, ‘Your daughter is dead; why put the Master to any further trouble?’

Mark 5:36 But Jesus overheard what they said and he said to the president of the synagogue, ‘Do not be afraid; only have faith.’

Mark 5:37 And he allowed no one to go with him except Peter and James and John the brother of James.

Mark 5:38 So they came to the house of the president of the synagogue, and Jesus noticed all the commotion, with people weeping and wailing unrestrainedly.

Mark 5:39 He went in and said to them, ‘Why all this commotion and crying? The child is not dead, but asleep.’

Mark 5:40 But they ridiculed him. So he turned them all out and, taking with him the child’s father and mother and his own companions, he went into the place where the child lay.

Mark 5:41 And taking the child by the hand he said to her, ‘Talitha kum!’ which means, ‘Little girl, I tell you to get up.’

Mark 5:42 The little girl got up at once and began to walk about, for she was twelve years old. At once they were overcome with astonishment,

Mark 5:43 and he gave them strict orders not to let anyone know about it, and told them to give her something to eat.

Mark 6:1 Leaving that district, he went to his home town, and his disciples accompanied him.

Mark 6:2 With the coming of the Sabbath he began teaching in the synagogue, and most of them were astonished when they heard him. They said, ‘Where did the man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been granted him, and these miracles that are worked through him?

Mark 6:3 This is the carpenter, surely, the son of Mary, the brother of James and Joset and Jude and Simon? His sisters, too, are they not here with us?’ And they would not accept him.

Mark 6:4 And Jesus said to them, ‘A prophet is despised only in his own country, among his own relations and in his own house’;

Mark 6:5 and he could work no miracle there, except that he cured a few sick people by laying his hands on them.

Mark 6:6 He was amazed at their lack of faith. He made a tour round the villages, teaching.

Mark 6:7 Then he summoned the Twelve and began to send them out in pairs, giving them authority over unclean spirits.

Mark 6:8 And he instructed them to take nothing for the journey except a staff—no bread, no haversack, no coppers for their purses.

Mark 6:9 They were to wear sandals but, he added, 'Don't take a spare tunic.'

Mark 6:10 And he said to them, 'If you enter a house anywhere, stay there until you leave the district.

Mark 6:11 And if any place does not welcome you and people refuse to listen to you, as you walk away shake off the dust under your feet as evidence to them.'

Mark 6:12 So they set off to proclaim repentance;

Mark 6:13 and they cast out many devils, and anointed many sick people with oil and cured them.

Mark 6:14 King Herod had heard about him, since by now his name was well known. Some were saying, 'John the Baptist has risen from the dead, and that is why miraculous powers are at work in him.'

Mark 6:15 Others said, 'He is Elijah,' others again, 'He is a prophet, like the prophets we used to have.'

Mark 6:16 But when Herod heard this he said, 'It is John whose head I cut off; he has risen from the dead.'

Mark 6:17 Now it was this same Herod who had sent to have John arrested, and had had him chained up in prison because of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife whom he had married.

Mark 6:18 For John had told Herod, 'It is against the law for you to have your brother's wife.'

Mark 6:19 As for Herodias, she was furious with him and wanted to kill him, but she was not able to do so,

Mark 6:20 because Herod was in awe of John, knowing him to be a good and upright man, and gave him his protection. When he had heard him speak he was greatly perplexed, and yet he liked to listen to him.

Mark 6:21 An opportunity came on Herod's birthday when he gave a banquet for the nobles of his court, for his army officers and for the leading figures in Galilee.

Mark 6:22 When the daughter of this same Herodias came in and danced, she delighted Herod and his guests; so the king said to the girl, 'Ask me anything you like and I will give it you.'

Mark 6:23 And he swore her an oath, 'I will give you anything you ask, even half my kingdom.'

Mark 6:24 She went out and said to her mother, 'What shall I ask for?' She replied, 'The head of John the Baptist.'

Mark 6:25 The girl at once rushed back to the king and made her request, 'I want you to give me John the Baptist's head, immediately, on a dish.'

Mark 6:26 The king was deeply distressed but, thinking of the oaths he had sworn and of his guests, he was reluctant to break his word to her.

Mark 6:27 At once the king sent one of the bodyguard with orders to bring John’s head.

Mark 6:28 The man went off and beheaded him in the prison; then he brought the head on a dish and gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother.

Mark 6:29 When John’s disciples heard about this, they came and took his body and laid it in a tomb.

Mark 6:30 The apostles rejoined Jesus and told him all they had done and taught.

Mark 6:31 And he said to them, ‘Come away to some lonely place all by yourselves and rest for a while’; for there were so many coming and going that there was no time for them even to eat.

Mark 6:32 So they went off in the boat to a lonely place where they could be by themselves.

Mark 6:33 But people saw them going, and many recognised them; and from every town they all hurried to the place on foot and reached it before them.

Mark 6:34 So as he stepped ashore he saw a large crowd; and he took pity on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he set himself to teach them at some length.

Mark 6:35 By now it was getting very late, and his disciples came up to him and said, ‘This is a lonely place and it is getting very late,

Mark 6:36 so send them away, and they can go to the farms and villages round about, to buy themselves something to eat.’

Mark 6:37 He replied, ‘Give them something to eat yourselves.’ They answered, ‘Are we to go and spend two hundred denarii on bread for them to eat?’

Mark 6:38 He asked, ‘How many loaves have you? Go and see.’ And when they had found out they said, ‘Five, and two fish.’

Mark 6:39 Then he ordered them to get all the people to sit down in groups on the green grass,

Mark 6:40 and they sat down on the ground in squares of hundreds and fifties.

Mark 6:41 Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven and said the blessing; then he broke the loaves and began handing them to his disciples to distribute among the people. He also shared out the two fish among them all.

Mark 6:42 They all ate as much as they wanted.

Mark 6:43 They collected twelve basketfuls of scraps of bread and pieces of fish.

Mark 6:44 Those who had eaten the loaves numbered five thousand men.

Mark 6:45 And at once he made his disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side near Bethsaida, while he himself sent the crowd away.

Mark 6:46 After saying goodbye to them he went off into the hills to pray.

Mark 6:47 When evening came, the boat was far out on the sea, and he was alone on the land.

Mark 6:48 He could see that they were hard pressed in their rowing, for the wind was against them; and about the fourth watch of the night he came towards them, walking on the sea. He was going to pass them by,

Mark 6:49 but when they saw him walking on the sea they thought it was a ghost and cried out;

Mark 6:50 for they had all seen him and were terrified. But at once he spoke to them and said, ‘Courage! It’s me! Don’t be afraid.’

Mark 6:51 Then he got into the boat with them and the wind dropped. They were utterly and completely dumbfounded,

Mark 6:52 because they had not seen what the miracle of the loaves meant; their minds were closed.

Mark 6:53 Having made the crossing, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored there.

Mark 6:54 When they disembarked people at once recognised him,

Mark 6:55 and started hurrying all through the countryside and brought the sick on stretchers to wherever they heard he was.

Mark 6:56 And wherever he went, to village or town or farm, they laid down the sick in the open spaces, begging him to let them touch even the fringe of his cloak. And all those who touched him were saved.

Mark 7:1 The Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered round him,

Mark 7:2 and they noticed that some of his disciples were eating with unclean hands, that is, without washing them.

Mark 7:3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, keep the tradition of the elders and never eat without washing their arms as far as the elbow;

Mark 7:4 and on returning from the market place they never eat without first sprinkling themselves. There are also many other observances which have been handed down to them to keep, concerning the washing of cups and pots and bronze dishes.

Mark 7:5 So the Pharisees and scribes asked him, ‘Why do your disciples not respect the tradition of the elders but eat their food with unclean hands?’

Mark 7:6 He answered, ‘How rightly Isaiah prophesied about you hypocrites in the passage of scripture: This people honours me only with lip-service, while their hearts are far from me.

Mark 7:7 Their reverence of me is worthless; the lessons they teach are nothing but human commandments.

Mark 7:8 You put aside the commandment of God to observe human traditions.'

Mark 7:9 And he said to them, 'How ingeniously you get round the commandment of God in order to preserve your own tradition!

Mark 7:10 For Moses said: Honour your father and your mother, and, Anyone who curses father or mother must be put to death.

Mark 7:11 But you say, "If a man says to his father or mother: Anything I have that I might have used to help you is Korban (that is, dedicated to God),"

Mark 7:12 then he is forbidden from that moment to do anything for his father or mother.

Mark 7:13 In this way you make God's word ineffective for the sake of your tradition which you have handed down. And you do many other things like this.'

Mark 7:14 He called the people to him again and said, 'Listen to me, all of you, and understand.

Mark 7:15 Nothing that goes into someone from outside can make that person unclean; it is the things that come out of someone that make that person unclean.

Mark 7:16 Anyone who has ears for listening should listen!'

Mark 7:17 When he had gone into the house, away from the crowd, his disciples questioned him about the parable.

Mark 7:18 He said to them, 'Even you—don't you understand? Can't you see that nothing that goes into someone from outside can make that person unclean,

Mark 7:19 because it goes not into the heart but into the stomach and passes into the sewer?' (Thus he pronounced all foods clean.)

Mark 7:20 And he went on, 'It is what comes out of someone that makes that person unclean.

Mark 7:21 For it is from within, from the heart, that evil intentions emerge: fornication, theft, murder,

Mark 7:22 adultery, avarice, malice, deceit, indecency, envy, slander, pride, folly.

Mark 7:23 All these evil things come from within and make a person unclean.'

Mark 7:24 He left that place and set out for the territory of Tyre. There he went into a house and did not want anyone to know he was there; but he could not pass unrecognised.

Mark 7:25 At once a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit heard about him and came and fell at his feet.

Mark 7:26 Now this woman was a gentile, by birth a Syro-Phoenician, and she begged him to drive the devil out of her daughter.

Mark 7:27 And he said to her, 'The children should be fed first, because it is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to little dogs.'

Mark 7:28 But she spoke up, 'Ah yes, sir,' she replied, 'but little dogs under the table eat the scraps from the children.'

Mark 7:29 And he said to her, 'For saying this you may go home happy; the devil has gone out of your daughter.'

Mark 7:30 So she went off home and found the child lying on the bed and the devil gone.

Mark 7:31 Returning from the territory of Tyre, he went by way of Sidon towards the Lake of Galilee, right through the Decapolis territory.

Mark 7:32 And they brought him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they asked him to lay his hand on him.

Mark 7:33 He took him aside to be by themselves, away from the crowd, put his fingers into the man's ears and touched his tongue with spittle.

Mark 7:34 Then looking up to heaven he sighed; and he said to him, 'Ephphatha,' that is, 'Be opened.'

Mark 7:35 And his ears were opened, and at once the impediment of his tongue was loosened and he spoke clearly.

Mark 7:36 And Jesus ordered them to tell no one about it, but the more he insisted, the more widely they proclaimed it.

Mark 7:37 Their admiration was unbounded, and they said, 'Everything he does is good, he makes the deaf hear and the dumb speak.'

Mark 8:1 And now once again a great crowd had gathered, and they had nothing to eat. So he called his disciples to him and said to them,

Mark 8:2 'I feel sorry for all these people; they have been with me for three days now and have nothing to eat.

Mark 8:3 If I send them off home hungry they will collapse on the way; some have come a great distance.'

Mark 8:4 His disciples replied, 'Where could anyone get these people enough bread to eat in a deserted place?'

Mark 8:5 He asked them, 'How many loaves have you?' And they said to him, 'Seven.'

Mark 8:6 Then he instructed the crowd to sit down on the ground, and he took the seven loaves, and after giving thanks he broke them and began handing them to his disciples to distribute; and they distributed them among the crowd.

Mark 8:7 They had a few small fishes as well, and over these he said a blessing and ordered them to be distributed too.

Mark 8:8 They ate as much as they wanted, and they collected seven basketfuls of the scraps left over.

Mark 8:9 Now there had been about four thousand people. He sent them away

Mark 8:10 and at once, getting into the boat with his disciples, went to the region of Dalmanutha.

Mark 8:11 The Pharisees came up and started a discussion with him; they demanded of him a sign from heaven, to put him to the test.

Mark 8:12 And with a profound sigh he said, 'Why does this generation demand a sign? In truth I tell you, no sign shall be given to this generation.'

Mark 8:13 And, leaving them again, he re-embarked and went away to the other side.

Mark 8:14 The disciples had forgotten to take any bread and they had only one loaf with them in the boat.

Mark 8:15 Then he gave them this warning, 'Keep your eyes open; look out for the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod.'

Mark 8:16 And they said to one another, 'It is because we have no bread.'

Mark 8:17 And Jesus knew it, and he said to them, 'Why are you talking about having no bread? Do you still not understand, still not realise? Are your minds closed?

Mark 8:18 Have you eyes and do not see, ears and do not hear? Or do you not remember?

Mark 8:19 When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of scraps did you collect?' They answered, 'Twelve.'

Mark 8:20 'And when I broke the seven loaves for the four thousand, how many baskets full of scraps did you collect?' And they answered, 'Seven.'

Mark 8:21 Then he said to them, 'Do you still not realise?'

Mark 8:22 They came to Bethsaida, and some people brought to him a blind man whom they begged him to touch.

Mark 8:23 He took the blind man by the hand and led him outside the village. Then, putting spittle on his eyes and laying his hands on him, he asked, 'Can you see anything?'

Mark 8:24 The man, who was beginning to see, replied, 'I can see people; they look like trees as they walk around.'

Mark 8:25 Then he laid his hands on the man's eyes again and he saw clearly; he was cured, and he could see everything plainly and distinctly.

Mark 8:26 And Jesus sent him home, saying, ‘Do not even go into the village.’

Mark 8:27 Jesus and his disciples left for the villages round Caesarea Philippi. On the way he put this question to his disciples, ‘Who do people say I am?’

Mark 8:28 And they told him, ‘John the Baptist, others Elijah, others again, one of the prophets.’

Mark 8:29 ‘But you,’ he asked them, ‘who do you say I am?’ Peter spoke up and said to him, ‘You are the Christ.’

Mark 8:30 And he gave them strict orders not to tell anyone about him.

Mark 8:31 Then he began to teach them that the Son of man was destined to suffer grievously, and to be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes, and to be put to death, and after three days to rise again;

Mark 8:32 and he said all this quite openly. Then, taking him aside, Peter tried to rebuke him.

Mark 8:33 But, turning and seeing his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said to him, ‘Get behind me, Satan! You are thinking not as God thinks, but as human beings do.’

Mark 8:34 He called the people and his disciples to him and said, ‘If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, let him renounce himself and take up his cross and follow me.

Mark 8:35 Anyone who wants to save his life will lose it; but anyone who loses his life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it.

Mark 8:36 What gain, then, is it for anyone to win the whole world and forfeit his life?

Mark 8:37 And indeed what can anyone offer in exchange for his life?

Mark 8:38 For if anyone in this sinful and adulterous generation is ashamed of me and of my words, the Son of man will also be ashamed of him when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.’

Mark 9:1 And he said to them, ‘In truth I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God come with power.’

Mark 9:2 Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and John and led them up a high mountain on their own by themselves. There in their presence he was transfigured:

Mark 9:3 his clothes became brilliantly white, whiter than any earthly bleacher could make them.

Mark 9:4 Elijah appeared to them with Moses; and they were talking to Jesus.

Mark 9:5 Then Peter spoke to Jesus, ‘Rabbi,’ he said, ‘it is wonderful for us to be here; so let us make three shelters, one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.’

Mark 9:6 He did not know what to say; they were so frightened.

Mark 9:7 And a cloud came, covering them in shadow; and from the cloud there came a voice, ‘This is my Son, the Beloved. Listen to him.’

Mark 9:8 Then suddenly, when they looked round, they saw no one with them any more but only Jesus.

Mark 9:9 As they were coming down from the mountain he warned them to tell no one what they had seen, until after the Son of man had risen from the dead.

Mark 9:10 They observed the warning faithfully, though among themselves they discussed what ‘rising from the dead’ could mean.

Mark 9:11 And they put this question to him, ‘Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?’

Mark 9:12 He said to them, ‘Elijah is indeed first coming to set everything right again; yet how is it that the scriptures say about the Son of man that he must suffer grievously and be treated with contempt?

Mark 9:13 But I tell you that Elijah has come and they have treated him as they pleased, just as the scriptures say about him.’

Mark 9:14 As they were rejoining the disciples they saw a large crowd round them and some scribes arguing with them.

Mark 9:15 At once, when they saw him, the whole crowd were struck with amazement and ran to greet him.

Mark 9:16 And he asked them, ‘What are you arguing about with them?’

Mark 9:17 A man answered him from the crowd, ‘Master, I have brought my son to you; there is a spirit of dumbness in him,

Mark 9:18 and when it takes hold of him it throws him to the ground, and he foams at the mouth and grinds his teeth and goes rigid. And I asked your disciples to drive it out and they were unable to.’

Mark 9:19 In reply he said to them, ‘Faithless generation, how much longer must I be among you? How much longer must I put up with you? Bring him to me.’

Mark 9:20 They brought the boy to him, and at once the spirit of dumbness threw the boy into convulsions, and he fell to the ground and lay writhing there, foaming at the mouth.

Mark 9:21 Jesus asked the father, ‘How long has this been happening to him?’ ‘From childhood,’ he said,

Mark 9:22 ‘and it has often thrown him into fire and into water, in order to destroy him.

Mark 9:23 But if you can do anything, have pity on us and help us.'

Mark 9:24 'If you can?' retorted Jesus. 'Everything is possible for one who has faith.' At once the father of the boy cried out, 'I have faith. Help my lack of faith!'

Mark 9:25 And when Jesus saw that a crowd was gathering, he rebuked the unclean spirit. 'Deaf and dumb spirit,' he said, 'I command you: come out of him and never enter him again.'

Mark 9:26 Then it threw the boy into violent convulsions and came out shouting, and the boy lay there so like a corpse that most of them said, 'He is dead.'

Mark 9:27 But Jesus took him by the hand and helped him up, and he was able to stand.

Mark 9:28 When he had gone indoors, his disciples asked him when they were by themselves, 'Why were we unable to drive it out?'

Mark 9:29 He answered, 'This is the kind that can be driven out only by prayer.'

Mark 9:30 After leaving that place they made their way through Galilee; and he did not want anyone to know,

Mark 9:31 because he was instructing his disciples; he was telling them, 'The Son of man will be delivered into the power of men; they will put him to death; and three days after he has been put to death he will rise again.'

Mark 9:32 But they did not understand what he said and were afraid to ask him.

Mark 9:33 They came to Capernaum, and when he got into the house he asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the road?'

Mark 9:34 They said nothing, because on the road they had been arguing which of them was the greatest.

Mark 9:35 So he sat down, called the Twelve to him and said, 'If anyone wants to be first, he must make himself last of all and servant of all.'

Mark 9:36 He then took a little child whom he set among them and embraced, and he said to them,

Mark 9:37 'Anyone who welcomes a little child such as this in my name, welcomes me; and anyone who welcomes me, welcomes not me but the one who sent me.'

Mark 9:38 John said to him, 'Master, we saw someone who is not one of us driving out devils in your name, and because he was not one of us we tried to stop him.'

Mark 9:39 But Jesus said, 'You must not stop him; no one who works a miracle in my name could soon afterwards speak evil of me.

Mark 9:40 Anyone who is not against us is for us.

Mark 9:41 'If anyone gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ, then in truth I tell you, he will most certainly not lose his reward.

Mark 9:42 'But anyone who is the downfall of one of these little ones who have faith, would be better thrown into the sea with a great millstone hung round his neck.

Mark 9:43 And if your hand should be your downfall, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life crippled, than to have two hands and go to hell, into the fire that can never be put out.

Mark 9:44

Mark 9:45 And if your foot should be your downfall, cut it off; it is better for you enter into life lame, than to have two feet and be thrown into hell.

Mark 9:46

Mark 9:47 And if your eye should be your downfall, tear it out; it is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell

Mark 9:48 where their worm will never die nor their fire be put out.

Mark 9:49 For everyone will be salted with fire.

Mark 9:50 Salt is a good thing, but if salt has become insipid, how can you make it salty again? Have salt in yourselves and be at peace with one another.'

Mark 10:1 After leaving there, he came into the territory of Judaea and Transjordan. And again crowds gathered round him, and again he taught them, as his custom was.

Mark 10:2 Some Pharisees approached him and asked, 'Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?' They were putting him to the test.

Mark 10:3 He answered them, 'What did Moses command you?'

Mark 10:4 They replied, 'Moses allowed us to draw up a writ of dismissal in cases of divorce.'

Mark 10:5 Then Jesus said to them, 'It was because you were so hard hearted that he wrote this commandment for you.

Mark 10:6 But from the beginning of creation he made them male and female.

Mark 10:7 This is why a man leaves his father and mother,

Mark 10:8 and the two become one flesh. They are no longer two, therefore, but one flesh.

Mark 10:9 So then, what God has united, human beings must not divide.'

Mark 10:10 Back in the house the disciples questioned him again about this,

Mark 10:11 and he said to them, 'Whoever divorces his wife and marries another is guilty of adultery against her.

Mark 10:12 And if a woman divorces her husband and marries another she is guilty of adultery too.'

Mark 10:13 People were bringing little children to him, for him to touch them. The disciples scolded them,

Mark 10:14 but when Jesus saw this he was indignant and said to them, 'Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs.

Mark 10:15 In truth I tell you, anyone who does not welcome the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.'

Mark 10:16 Then he embraced them, laid his hands on them and gave them his blessing.

Mark 10:17 He was setting out on a journey when a man ran up, knelt before him and put this question to him, 'Good master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?'

Mark 10:18 Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone.

Mark 10:19 You know the commandments: You shall not kill; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not give false witness; You shall not defraud; Honour your father and mother.'

Mark 10:20 And he said to him, 'Master, I have kept all these since my earliest days.'

Mark 10:21 Jesus looked steadily at him and he was filled with love for him, and he said, 'You need to do one thing more. Go and sell what you own and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.'

Mark 10:22 But his face fell at these words and he went away sad, for he was a man of great wealth.

Mark 10:23 Jesus looked round and said to his disciples, 'How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!'

Mark 10:24 The disciples were astounded by these words, but Jesus insisted, 'My children,' he said to them, 'how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God!

Mark 10:25 It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for someone rich to enter the kingdom of God.'

Mark 10:26 They were more astonished than ever, saying to one another, 'In that case, who can be saved?'

Mark 10:27 Jesus gazed at them and said, 'By human resources it is impossible, but not for God: because for God everything is possible.'

Mark 10:28 Peter took this up. 'Look,' he said to him, 'we have left everything and followed you.'

Mark 10:29 Jesus said, 'In truth I tell you, there is no one who has left house, brothers, sisters, mother, father, children or land for my sake and for the sake of the gospel

Mark 10:30 who will not receive a hundred times as much, houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and land—and persecutions too—now in this present time and, in the world to come, eternal life.

Mark 10:31 Many who are first will be last, and the last, first.'

Mark 10:32 They were on the road, going up to Jerusalem; Jesus was walking on ahead of them; they were in a daze, and those who followed were apprehensive. Once more taking the Twelve aside he began to tell them what was going to happen to him,

Mark 10:33 'Now we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man is about to be handed over to the chief priests and the scribes. They will condemn him to death and will hand him over to the gentiles,

Mark 10:34 who will mock him and spit at him and scourge him and put him to death; and after three days he will rise again.'

Mark 10:35 James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached him. 'Master,' they said to him, 'We want you to do us a favour.'

Mark 10:36 He said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?'

Mark 10:37 They said to him, 'Allow us to sit one at your right hand and the other at your left in your glory.'

Mark 10:38 But Jesus said to them, 'You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I shall drink, or be baptised with the baptism with which I shall be baptised?'

Mark 10:39 They replied, 'We can.' Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I shall drink you shall drink, and with the baptism with which I shall be baptised you shall be baptised,

Mark 10:40 but as for seats at my right hand or my left, these are not mine to grant; they belong to those to whom they have been allotted.'

Mark 10:41 When the other ten heard this they began to feel indignant with James and John,

Mark 10:42 so Jesus called them to him and said to them, 'You know that among the gentiles those they call their rulers lord it over them, and their great men make their authority felt.

Mark 10:43 Among you this is not to happen. No; anyone who wants to become great among you must be your servant,

Mark 10:44 and anyone who wants to be first among you must be slave to all.

Mark 10:45 For the Son of man himself came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.'

Mark 10:46 They reached Jericho; and as he left Jericho with his disciples and a great crowd, Bartimaeus—that is, the son of Timaeus—a blind beggar, was sitting at the side of the road.

Mark 10:47 When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout and cry out, ‘Son of David, Jesus, have pity on me.’

Mark 10:48 And many of them scolded him and told him to keep quiet, but he only shouted all the louder, ‘Son of David, have pity on me.’

Mark 10:49 Jesus stopped and said, ‘Call him here.’ So they called the blind man over. ‘Courage,’ they said, ‘get up; he is calling you.’

Mark 10:50 So throwing off his cloak, he jumped up and went to Jesus.

Mark 10:51 Then Jesus spoke, ‘What do you want me to do for you?’ The blind man said to him, ‘Rabbuni, let me see again.’

Mark 10:52 Jesus said to him, ‘Go; your faith has saved you.’ And at once his sight returned and he followed him along the road.

Mark 11:1 When they were approaching Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany, close by the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples

Mark 11:2 and said to them, ‘Go to the village facing you, and as you enter it you will at once find a tethered colt that no one has yet ridden. Untie it and bring it here.

Mark 11:3 If anyone says to you, “What are you doing?” say, “The Master needs it and will send it back here at once.” ‘

Mark 11:4 They went off and found a colt tethered near a door in the open street. As they untied it,

Mark 11:5 some men standing there said, ‘What are you doing, untying that colt?’

Mark 11:6 They gave the answer Jesus had told them, and the men let them go.

Mark 11:7 Then they took the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on its back, and he mounted it.

Mark 11:8 Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others greenery which they had cut in the fields.

Mark 11:9 And those who went in front and those who followed were all shouting, ‘Hosanna! Blessed is he who is coming in the name of the Lord!

Mark 11:10 Blessed is the coming kingdom of David our father! Hosanna in the highest heavens!’

Mark 11:11 He entered Jerusalem and went into the Temple; and when he had surveyed it all, as it was late by now, he went out to Bethany with the Twelve.

Mark 11:12 Next day as they were leaving Bethany, he felt hungry.

Mark 11:13 Seeing a fig tree in leaf some distance away, he went to see if he could find any fruit on it, but when he came up to it he found nothing but leaves; for it was not the season for figs.

Mark 11:14 And he addressed the fig tree, ‘May no one ever eat fruit from you again.’ And his disciples heard him say this.

Mark 11:15 So they reached Jerusalem and he went into the Temple and began driving out the men selling and buying there; he upset the tables of the money changers and the seats of the dove sellers.

Mark 11:16 Nor would he allow anyone to carry anything through the Temple.

Mark 11:17 And he taught them and said, ‘Does not scripture say: My house will be called a house of prayer for all peoples? But you have turned it into a bandits’ den.’

Mark 11:18 This came to the ears of the chief priests and the scribes, and they tried to find some way of doing away with him; they were afraid of him because the people were carried away by his teaching.

Mark 11:19 And when evening came he went out of the city.

Mark 11:20 Next morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree withered to the roots.

Mark 11:21 Peter remembered. ‘Look, Rabbi,’ he said to Jesus, ‘the fig tree that you cursed has withered away.’

Mark 11:22 Jesus answered, ‘Have faith in God.

Mark 11:23 In truth I tell you, if anyone says to this mountain, “Be pulled up and thrown into the sea,” with no doubt in his heart, but believing that what he says will happen, it will be done for him.

Mark 11:24 I tell you, therefore, everything you ask and pray for, believe that you have it already, and it will be yours.

Mark 11:25 And when you stand in prayer, forgive whatever you have against anybody, soyour Father in heaven may forgive your failings too.’

Mark 11:26

Mark 11:27 They came to Jerusalem again, and as Jesus was walking in the Temple, the chief priests and the scribes and the elders came to him,

Mark 11:28 and they said to him, ‘What authority have you for acting like this? Or who gave you authority to act like this?’

Mark 11:29 Jesus said to them, ‘And I will ask you a question, just one; answer me and I will tell you my authority for acting like this.

Mark 11:30 John’s baptism, what was its origin, heavenly or human? Answer me that.’

Mark 11:31 And they argued this way among themselves, ‘If we say heavenly, he will say, “Then why did you refuse to believe him?”

Mark 11:32 But dare we say human?'—they had the people to fear, for everyone held that John had been a real prophet.

Mark 11:33 So their reply to Jesus was, 'We do not know.' And Jesus said to them, 'Nor will I tell you my authority for acting like this.'

Mark 12:1 He went on to speak to them in parables, 'A man planted a vineyard; he fenced it round, dug out a trough for the winepress and built a tower; then he leased it to tenants and went abroad.

Mark 12:2 When the time came, he sent a servant to the tenants to collect from them his share of the produce of the vineyard.

Mark 12:3 But they seized the man, thrashed him and sent him away empty handed.

Mark 12:4 Next he sent another servant to them; him they beat about the head and treated shamefully.

Mark 12:5 And he sent another and him they killed; then a number of others, and they thrashed some and killed the rest.

Mark 12:6 He had still someone left: his beloved son. He sent him to them last of all, thinking, "They will respect my son."

Mark 12:7 But those tenants said to each other, "This is the heir. Come on, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours."

Mark 12:8 So they seized him and killed him and threw him out of the vineyard.

Mark 12:9 Now what will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and make an end of the tenants and give the vineyard to others.

Mark 12:10 Have you not read this text of scripture: The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone;

Mark 12:11 this is the Lord's doing, and we marvel at it ?'

Mark 12:12 And they would have liked to arrest him, because they realised that the parable was aimed at them, but they were afraid of the crowds. So they left him alone and went away.

Mark 12:13 Next they sent to him some Pharisees and some Herodians to catch him out in what he said.

Mark 12:14 These came and said to him, 'Master, we know that you are an honest man, that you are not afraid of anyone, because human rank means nothing to you, and that you teach the way of God in all honesty. Is it permissible to pay taxes to Caesar or not? Should we pay or not?'

Mark 12:15 Recognising their hypocrisy he said to them, 'Why are you putting me to the test? Hand me a denarius and let me see it.'

Mark 12:16 They handed him one and he said to them, 'Whose portrait is this? Whose title?' They said to him, 'Caesar's.'

Mark 12:17 Jesus said to them, 'Pay Caesar what belongs to Caesar—and God what belongs to God.' And they were amazed at him.

Mark 12:18 Then some Sadducees—who deny that there is a resurrection—came to him and they put this question to him,

Mark 12:19 'Master, Moses prescribed for us that if a man's brother dies leaving a wife but no child, the man must marry the widow to raise up children for his brother.

Mark 12:20 Now there were seven brothers; the first married a wife and then died leaving no children.

Mark 12:21 The second married the widow, and he too died leaving no children; with the third it was the same,

Mark 12:22 and none of the seven left any children. Last of all the woman herself died.

Mark 12:23 Now at the resurrection, when they rise again, whose wife will she be, since she had been married to all seven?'

Mark 12:24 Jesus said to them, 'Surely the reason why you are wrong is that you understand neither the scriptures nor the power of God.

Mark 12:25 For when they rise from the dead, men and women do not marry; no, they are like the angels in heaven.

Mark 12:26 Now about the dead rising again, have you never read in the Book of Moses, in the passage about the bush, how God spoke to him and said: I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob?

Mark 12:27 He is God, not of the dead, but of the living. You are very much mistaken.'

Mark 12:28 One of the scribes who had listened to them debating appreciated that Jesus had given a good answer and put a further question to him, 'Which is the first of all the commandments?'

Mark 12:29 Jesus replied, 'This is the first: Listen, Israel, the Lord our God is the one, only Lord,

Mark 12:30 and you must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind and with all your strength.

Mark 12:31 The second is this: You must love your neighbour as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these.'

Mark 12:32 The scribe said to him, 'Well spoken, Master; what you have said is true, that he is one and there is no other.

Mark 12:33 To love him with all your heart, with all your understanding and strength, and to love your neighbour as yourself, this is far more important than any burnt offering or sacrifice.'

Mark 12:34 Jesus, seeing how wisely he had spoken, said, 'You are not far from the kingdom of God.' And after that no one dared to question him any more.

Mark 12:35 While teaching in the Temple, Jesus said, 'How can the scribes maintain that the Christ is the son of David?

Mark 12:36 David himself, moved by the Holy Spirit, said: The Lord declared to my Lord, take your seat at my right hand till I have made your enemies your footstool.

Mark 12:37 David himself calls him Lord; in what way then can he be his son?' And the great crowd listened to him with delight.

Mark 12:38 In his teaching he said, 'Beware of the scribes who like to walk about in long robes, to be greeted respectfully in the market squares,

Mark 12:39 to take the front seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets;

Mark 12:40 these are the men who devour the property of widows and for show offer long prayers. The more severe will be the sentence they receive.'

Mark 12:41 He sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the treasury, and many of the rich put in a great deal.

Mark 12:42 A poor widow came and put in two small coins, the equivalent of a penny.

Mark 12:43 Then he called his disciples and said to them, 'In truth I tell you, this poor widow has put more in than all who have contributed to the treasury;

Mark 12:44 for they have all put in money they could spare, but she in her poverty has put in everything she possessed, all she had to live on.'

Mark 13:1 As he was leaving the Temple one of his disciples said to him, 'Master, look at the size of those stones! Look at the size of those buildings!'

Mark 13:2 And Jesus said to him, 'You see these great buildings? Not a single stone will be left on another; everything will be pulled down.'

Mark 13:3 And while he was sitting on the Mount of Olives, facing the Temple, Peter, James, John and Andrew questioned him when they were by themselves,

Mark 13:4 'Tell us, when is this going to happen, and what sign will there be that it is all about to take place?'

Mark 13:5 Then Jesus began to tell them, 'Take care that no one deceives you.

Mark 13:6 Many will come using my name and saying, "I am he," and they will deceive many.

Mark 13:7 When you hear of wars and rumours of wars, do not be alarmed; this is something that must happen, but the end will not be yet.

Mark 13:8 For nation will fight against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is the beginning of the birth-pangs.

Mark 13:9 ‘Be on your guard: you will be handed over to sanhedrins; you will be beaten in synagogues; and you will be brought before governors and kings for my sake, as evidence to them,

Mark 13:10 since the gospel must first be proclaimed to all nations.

Mark 13:11 ‘And when you are taken to be handed over, do not worry beforehand about what to say; no, say whatever is given to you when the time comes, because it is not you who will be speaking; it is the Holy Spirit.

Mark 13:12 Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child; children will come forward against their parents and have them put to death.

Mark 13:13 You will be universally hated on account of my name; but anyone who stands firm to the end will be saved.

Mark 13:14 ‘When you see the appalling abomination set up where it ought not to be (let the reader understand), then those in Judaea must escape to the mountains;

Mark 13:15 if a man is on the housetop, he must not come down or go inside to collect anything from his house;

Mark 13:16 if a man is in the fields, he must not turn back to fetch his cloak.

Mark 13:17 Alas for those with child, or with babies at the breast, when those days come!

Mark 13:18 Pray that this may not be in winter.

Mark 13:19 For in those days there will be great distress, unparalleled since God created the world, and such as will never be again.

Mark 13:20 And if the Lord had not shortened that time, no human being would have survived; but he did shorten the time, for the sake of the elect whom he chose.

Mark 13:21 ‘And if anyone says to you then, “Look, here is the Christ” or, “Look, he is there,” do not believe it;

Mark 13:22 for false Christs and false prophets will arise and produce signs and portents to deceive the elect, if that were possible.

Mark 13:23 You, therefore, must be on your guard. I have given you full warning.

Mark 13:24 ‘But in those days, after that time of distress, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light,

Mark 13:25 the stars will come falling out of the sky and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.

Mark 13:26 And then they will see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

Mark 13:27 And then he will send the angels to gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the world to the ends of the sky.

Mark 13:28 'Take the fig tree as a parable: as soon as its twigs grow supple and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near.

Mark 13:29 So with you when you see these things happening: know that he is near, right at the gates.

Mark 13:30 In truth I tell you, before this generation has passed away all these things will have taken place.

Mark 13:31 Sky and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

Mark 13:32 'But as for that day or hour, nobody knows it, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son; no one but the Father.

Mark 13:33 'Be on your guard, stay awake, because you never know when the time will come.

Mark 13:34 It is like a man travelling abroad: he has gone from his home, and left his servants in charge, each with his own work to do; and he has told the doorkeeper to stay awake.

Mark 13:35 So stay awake, because you do not know when the master of the house is coming, evening, midnight, cockcrow or dawn;

Mark 13:36 if he comes unexpectedly, he must not find you asleep.

Mark 13:37 And what I am saying to you I say to all: Stay awake!'

Mark 14:1 It was two days before the Passover and the feast of Unleavened Bread, and the chief priests and the scribes were looking for a way to arrest Jesus by some trick and have him put to death.

Mark 14:2 For they said, 'It must not be during the festivities, or there will be a disturbance among the people.'

Mark 14:3 He was at Bethany in the house of Simon, a man who had suffered from a virulent skin-disease; he was at table when a woman came in with an alabaster jar of very costly ointment, pure nard. She broke the jar and poured the ointment on his head.

Mark 14:4 Some who were there said to one another indignantly, 'Why this waste of ointment?

Mark 14:5 Ointment like this could have been sold for over three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor'; and they were angry with her.

Mark 14:6 But Jesus said, 'Leave her alone. Why are you upsetting her? What she has done for me is a good work.

Mark 14:7 You have the poor with you always, and you can be kind to them whenever you wish, but you will not always have me.

Mark 14:8 She has done what she could: she has anointed my body beforehand for its burial.

Mark 14:9 In truth I tell you, wherever throughout all the world the gospel is proclaimed, what she has done will be told as well, in remembrance of her.’

Mark 14:10 Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve, approached the chief priests with an offer to hand Jesus over to them.

Mark 14:11 They were delighted to hear it, and promised to give him money; and he began to look for a way of betraying him when the opportunity should occur.

Mark 14:12 On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was sacrificed, his disciples said to him, ‘Where do you want us to go and make the preparations for you to eat the Passover?’

Mark 14:13 So he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, ‘Go into the city and you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him,

Mark 14:14 and say to the owner of the house which he enters, “The Master says: Where is the room for me to eat the Passover with my disciples?”

Mark 14:15 He will show you a large upper room furnished with couches, all prepared. Make the preparations for us there.’

Mark 14:16 The disciples set out and went to the city and found everything as he had told them, and prepared the Passover.

Mark 14:17 When evening came he arrived with the Twelve.

Mark 14:18 And while they were at table eating, Jesus said, ‘In truth I tell you, one of you is about to betray me, one of you eating with me.’

Mark 14:19 They were distressed and said to him, one after another, ‘Not me, surely?’

Mark 14:20 He said to them, ‘It is one of the Twelve, one who is dipping into the same dish with me.

Mark 14:21 Yes, the Son of man is going to his fate, as the scriptures say he will, but alas for that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! Better for that man if he had never been born.’

Mark 14:22 And as they were eating he took bread, and when he had said the blessing he broke it and gave it to them. ‘Take it,’ he said, ‘this is my body.’

Mark 14:23 Then he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he handed it to them, and all drank from it,

Mark 14:24 and he said to them, ‘This is my blood, the blood of the covenant, poured out for many.

Mark 14:25 In truth I tell you, I shall never drink wine any more until the day I drink the new wine in the kingdom of God.’

Mark 14:26 After the psalms had been sung they left for the Mount of Olives.

Mark 14:27 And Jesus said to them, 'You will all fall away, for the scripture says: I shall strike the shepherd and the sheep will be scattered;

Mark 14:28 however, after my resurrection I shall go before you into Galilee.'

Mark 14:29 Peter said, 'Even if all fall away, I will not.'

Mark 14:30 And Jesus said to him, 'In truth I tell you, this day, this very night, before the cock crows twice, you will have disowned me three times.'

Mark 14:31 But he repeated still more earnestly, 'If I have to die with you, I will never disown you.' And they all said the same.

Mark 14:32 They came to a plot of land called Gethsemane, and he said to his disciples, 'Stay here while I pray.'

Mark 14:33 Then he took Peter and James and John with him.

Mark 14:34 And he began to feel terror and anguish. And he said to them, 'My soul is sorrowful to the point of death. Wait here, and stay awake.'

Mark 14:35 And going on a little further he threw himself on the ground and prayed that, if it were possible, this hour might pass him by.

Mark 14:36 'Abba, Father!' he said, 'For you everything is possible. Take this cup away from me. But let it be as you, not I, would have it.'

Mark 14:37 He came back and found them sleeping, and he said to Peter, 'Simon, are you asleep? Had you not the strength to stay awake one hour?

Mark 14:38 Stay awake and pray not to be put to the test. The spirit is willing enough, but human nature is weak.'

Mark 14:39 Again he went away and prayed, saying the same words.

Mark 14:40 And once more he came back and found them sleeping, their eyes were so heavy; and they could find no answer for him.

Mark 14:41 He came back a third time and said to them, 'You can sleep on now and have your rest. It is all over. The hour has come. Now the Son of man is to be betrayed into the hands of sinners.

Mark 14:42 Get up! Let us go! My betrayer is not far away.'

Mark 14:43 And at once, while he was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, came up and with him a number of men armed with swords and clubs, sent by the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

Mark 14:44 Now the traitor had arranged a signal with them saying, 'The one I kiss, he is the man. Arrest him, and see he is well guarded when you lead him away.'

Mark 14:45 So when the traitor came, he went up to Jesus at once and said, 'Rabbi!' and kissed him.

Mark 14:46 The others seized him and arrested him.

Mark 14:47 Then one of the bystanders drew his sword and struck out at the high priest’s servant and cut off his ear.

Mark 14:48 Then Jesus spoke. ‘Am I a bandit,’ he said, ‘that you had to set out to capture me with swords and clubs?

Mark 14:49 I was among you teaching in the Temple day after day and you never laid a hand on me. But this is to fulfil the scriptures.’

Mark 14:50 And they all deserted him and ran away.

Mark 14:51 A young man followed with nothing on but a linen cloth. They caught hold of him,

Mark 14:52 but he left the cloth in their hands and ran away naked.

Mark 14:53 They led Jesus off to the high priest; and all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes assembled there.

Mark 14:54 Peter had followed him at a distance, right into the high priest’s palace, and was sitting with the attendants warming himself at the fire.

Mark 14:55 The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for evidence against Jesus in order to have him executed. But they could not find any.

Mark 14:56 Several, indeed, brought false witness against him, but their evidence was conflicting.

Mark 14:57 Some stood up and submitted this false evidence against him,

Mark 14:58 ‘We heard him say, “I am going to destroy this Temple made by human hands, and in three days build another, not made by human hands.” ‘

Mark 14:59 But even on this point their evidence was conflicting.

Mark 14:60 The high priest then rose before the whole assembly and put this question to Jesus, ‘Have you no answer to that? What is this evidence these men are bringing against you?’

Mark 14:61 But he was silent and made no answer at all. The high priest put a second question to him saying, ‘Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?’

Mark 14:62 ‘I am,’ said Jesus, ‘and you will see the Son of man seated at the right hand of the Power and coming with the clouds of heaven.’

Mark 14:63 The high priest tore his robes and said, ‘What need of witnesses have we now?

Mark 14:64 You heard the blasphemy. What is your finding?’ Their verdict was unanimous: he deserved to die.

Mark 14:65 Some of them started spitting at his face, hitting him and saying, ‘Play the prophet!’ And the attendants struck him too.

Mark 14:66 While Peter was down below in the courtyard, one of the high priest’s servant-girls came up.

Mark 14:67 She saw Peter warming himself there, looked closely at him and said, ‘You too were with Jesus, the man from Nazareth.’

Mark 14:68 But he denied it. ‘I do not know, I do not understand what you are talking about,’ he said. And he went out into the forecourt, and a cock crowed.

Mark 14:69 The servant-girl saw him and again started telling the bystanders, ‘This man is one of them.’

Mark 14:70 But again he denied it. A little later the bystanders themselves said to Peter, ‘You are certainly one of them! Why, you are a Galilean.’

Mark 14:71 But he started cursing and swearing, ‘I do not know the man you speak of.’

Mark 14:72 And at once the cock crowed for the second time, and Peter recalled what Jesus had said to him, ‘Before the cock crows twice, you will have disowned me three times.’ And he burst into tears.

Mark 15:1 First thing in the morning, the chief priests, together with the elders and scribes and the rest of the Sanhedrin, had their plan ready. They had Jesus bound and took him away and handed him over to Pilate.

Mark 15:2 Pilate put to him this question, ‘Are you the king of the Jews?’ He replied, ‘It is you who say it.’

Mark 15:3 And the chief priests brought many accusations against him.

Mark 15:4 Pilate questioned him again, ‘Have you no reply at all? See how many accusations they are bringing against you!’

Mark 15:5 But, to Pilate’s surprise, Jesus made no further reply.

Mark 15:6 At festival time Pilate used to release a prisoner for them, any one they asked for.

Mark 15:7 Now a man called Barabbas was then in prison with the rebels who had committed murder during the uprising.

Mark 15:8 When the crowd went up and began to ask Pilate the customary favour,

Mark 15:9 Pilate answered them, ‘Do you want me to release for you the king of the Jews?’

Mark 15:10 For he realised it was out of jealousy that the chief priests had handed Jesus over.

Mark 15:11 The chief priests, however, had incited the crowd to demand that he should release Barabbas for them instead.

Mark 15:12 Then Pilate spoke again, 'But in that case, what am I to do with the man you call king of the Jews?'

Mark 15:13 They shouted back, 'Crucify him!'

Mark 15:14 Pilate asked them, 'What harm has he done?' But they shouted all the louder, 'Crucify him!'

Mark 15:15 So Pilate, anxious to placate the crowd, released Barabbas for them and, after having Jesus scourged, he handed him over to be crucified.

Mark 15:16 The soldiers led him away to the inner part of the palace, that is, the Praetorium, and called the whole cohort together.

Mark 15:17 They dressed him up in purple, twisted some thorns into a crown and put it on him.

Mark 15:18 And they began saluting him, 'Hail, king of the Jews!'

Mark 15:19 They struck his head with a reed and spat on him; and they went down on their knees to do him homage.

Mark 15:20 And when they had finished making fun of him, they took off the purple and dressed him in his own clothes. They led him out to crucify him.

Mark 15:21 They enlisted a passer-by, Simon of Cyrene, father of Alexander and Rufus, who was coming in from the country, to carry his cross.

Mark 15:22 They brought Jesus to the place called Golgotha, which means the place of the skull.

Mark 15:23 They offered him wine mixed with myrrh, but he refused it.

Mark 15:24 Then they crucified him, and shared out his clothing, casting lots to decide what each should get.

Mark 15:25 It was the third hour when they crucified him.

Mark 15:26 The inscription giving the charge against him read, 'The King of the Jews'.

Mark 15:27 And they crucified two bandits with him, one on his right and one on his left.

Mark 15:28

Mark 15:29 The passers-by jeered at him; they shook their heads and said, 'Aha! So you would destroy the Temple and rebuild it in three days!

Mark 15:30 Then save yourself; come down from the cross!'

Mark 15:31 The chief priests and the scribes mocked him among themselves in the same way with the words, 'He saved others, he cannot save himself.

Mark 15:32 Let the Christ, the king of Israel, come down from the cross now, for us to see it and believe.' Even those who were crucified with him taunted him.

Mark 15:33 When the sixth hour came there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

Mark 15:34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried out in a loud voice, 'Eloi, eloi, lama sabachthani?' which means, 'My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?'

Mark 15:35 When some of those who stood by heard this, they said, 'Listen, he is calling on Elijah.'

Mark 15:36 Someone ran and soaked a sponge in vinegar and, putting it on a reed, gave it to him to drink saying, 'Wait! And see if Elijah will come to take him down.'

Mark 15:37 But Jesus gave a loud cry and breathed his last.

Mark 15:38 And the veil of the Sanctuary was torn in two from top to bottom.

Mark 15:39 The centurion, who was standing in front of him, had seen how he had died, and he said, 'In truth this man was Son of God.'

Mark 15:40 There were some women watching from a distance. Among them were Mary of Magdala, Mary who was the mother of James the younger and Joset, and Salome.

Mark 15:41 These used to follow him and look after him when he was in Galilee. And many other women were there who had come up to Jerusalem with him.

Mark 15:42 It was now evening, and since it was Preparation Day—that is, the day before the Sabbath-

Mark 15:43 there came Joseph of Arimathaea, a prominent member of the Council, who himself lived in the hope of seeing the kingdom of God, and he boldly went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

Mark 15:44 Pilate, astonished that he should have died so soon, summoned the centurion and enquired if he had been dead for some time.

Mark 15:45 Having been assured of this by the centurion, he granted the corpse to Joseph

Mark 15:46 who bought a shroud, took Jesus down from the cross, wrapped him in the shroud and laid him in a tomb which had been hewn out of the rock. He then rolled a stone against the entrance to the tomb.

Mark 15:47 Mary of Magdala and Mary the mother of Joset took note of where he was laid.

Mark 16:1 When the Sabbath was over, Mary of Magdala, Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices with which to go and anoint him.

Mark 16:2 And very early in the morning on the first day of the week they went to the tomb when the sun had risen.

Mark 16:3 They had been saying to one another, 'Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?'

Mark 16:4 But when they looked they saw that the stone—which was very big—had already been rolled back.

Mark 16:5 On entering the tomb they saw a young man in a white robe seated on the right-hand side, and they were struck with amazement.

Mark 16:6 But he said to them, 'There is no need to be so amazed. You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified: he has risen, he is not here. See, here is the place where they laid him.

Mark 16:7 But you must go and tell his disciples and Peter, "He is going ahead of you to Galilee; that is where you will see him, just as he told you." '

Mark 16:8 And the women came out and ran away from the tomb because they were frightened out of their wits; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

Mark 16:9 Having risen in the morning on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary of Magdala from whom he had cast out seven devils.

Mark 16:10 She then went to those who had been his companions, and who were mourning and in tears, and told them.

Mark 16:11 But they did not believe her when they heard her say that he was alive and that she had seen him.

Mark 16:12 After this, he showed himself under another form to two of them as they were on their way into the country.

Mark 16:13 These went back and told the others, who did not believe them either.

Mark 16:14 Lastly, he showed himself to the Eleven themselves while they were at table. He reproached them for their incredulity and obstinacy, because they had refused to believe those who had seen him after he had risen.

Mark 16:15 And he said to them, 'Go out to the whole world; proclaim the gospel to all creation.

Mark 16:16 Whoever believes and is baptised will be saved; whoever does not believe will be condemned.

Mark 16:17 These are the signs that will be associated with believers: in my name they will cast out devils; they will have the gift of tongues;

Mark 16:18 they will pick up snakes in their hands and be unharmed should they drink deadly poison; they will lay their hands on the sick, who will recover.'

Mark 16:19 And so the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven; there at the right hand of God he took his place,

Mark 16:20 while they, going out, preached everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the word by the signs that accompanied it.

Luke

1:1 Seeing that many others have undertaken to draw up accounts of the events that have reached their fulfilment among us,

Luke 1:2 as these were handed down to us by those who from the outset were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word,

Luke 1:3 I in my turn, after carefully going over the whole story from the beginning, have decided to write an ordered account for you, Theophilus,

Luke 1:4 so that your Excellency may learn how well founded the teaching is that you have received.

Luke 1:5 In the days of King Herod of Judaea there lived a priest called Zechariah who belonged to the Abijah section of the priesthood, and he had a wife, Elizabeth by name, who was a descendant of Aaron.

Luke 1:6 Both were upright in the sight of God and impeccably carried out all the commandments and observances of the Lord.

Luke 1:7 But they were childless: Elizabeth was barren and they were both advanced in years.

Luke 1:8 Now it happened that it was the turn of his section to serve, and he was exercising his priestly office before God

Luke 1:9 when it fell to him by lot, as the priestly custom was, to enter the Lord’s sanctuary and burn incense there.

Luke 1:10 And at the hour of incense all the people were outside, praying.

Luke 1:11 Then there appeared to him the angel of the Lord, standing on the right of the altar of incense.

Luke 1:12 The sight disturbed Zechariah and he was overcome with fear.

Luke 1:13 But the angel said to him, ‘Zechariah, do not be afraid, for your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth is to bear you a son and you shall name him John.

Luke 1:14 He will be your joy and delight and many will rejoice at his birth,

Luke 1:15 for he will be great in the sight of the Lord; he must drink no wine, no strong drink; even from his mother’s womb he will be filled with the Holy Spirit, Luke 1:16 and he will bring back many of the Israelites to the Lord their God.

Luke 1:17 With the spirit and power of Elijah, he will go before him to reconcile fathers to their children and the disobedient to the good sense of the upright, preparing for the Lord a people fit for him.'

Luke 1:18 Zechariah said to the angel, 'How can I know this? I am an old man and my wife is getting on in years.'

Luke 1:19 The angel replied, 'I am Gabriel, who stand in God's presence, and I have been sent to speak to you and bring you this good news.

Luke 1:20 Look! Since you did not believe my words, which will come true at their appointed time, you will be silenced and have no power of speech until this has happened.'

Luke 1:21 Meanwhile the people were waiting for Zechariah and were surprised that he stayed in the sanctuary so long.

Luke 1:22 When he came out he could not speak to them, and they realised that he had seen a vision in the sanctuary. But he could only make signs to them and remained dumb.

Luke 1:23 When his time of service came to an end he returned home.

Luke 1:24 Some time later his wife Elizabeth conceived and for five months she kept to herself, saying,

Luke 1:25 'The Lord has done this for me, now that it has pleased him to take away the humiliation I suffered in public.'

Luke 1:26 In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth,

Luke 1:27 to a virgin betrothed to a man named Joseph, of the House of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

Luke 1:28 He went in and said to her, 'Rejoice, you who enjoy God's favour! The Lord is with you.'

Luke 1:29 She was deeply disturbed by these words and asked herself what this greeting could mean,

Luke 1:30 but the angel said to her, 'Mary, do not be afraid; you have won God's favour.

Luke 1:31 Look! You are to conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you must name him Jesus.

Luke 1:32 He will be great and will be called Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his ancestor David;

Luke 1:33 he will rule over the House of Jacob for ever and his reign will have no end.'

Luke 1:34 Mary said to the angel, 'But how can this come about, since I have no knowledge of man?'

Luke 1:35 The angel answered, 'The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will cover you with its shadow. And so the child will be holy and will be called Son of God.

Luke 1:36 And I tell you this too: your cousin Elizabeth also, in her old age, has conceived a son, and she whom people called barren is now in her sixth month,

Luke 1:37 for nothing is impossible to God.'

Luke 1:38 Mary said, 'You see before you the Lord's servant, let it happen to me as you have said.' And the angel left her.

Luke 1:39 Mary set out at that time and went as quickly as she could into the hill country to a town in Judah.

Luke 1:40 She went into Zechariah's house and greeted Elizabeth.

Luke 1:41 Now it happened that as soon as Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the child leapt in her womb and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.

Luke 1:42 She gave a loud cry and said, 'Of all women you are the most blessed, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.

Luke 1:43 Why should I be honoured with a visit from the mother of my Lord?

Luke 1:44 Look, the moment your greeting reached my ears, the child in my womb leapt for joy.

Luke 1:45 Yes, blessed is she who believed that the promise made her by the Lord would be fulfilled.'

Luke 1:46 And Mary said: My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord

Luke 1:47 and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour;

Luke 1:48 because he has looked upon the humiliation of his servant. Yes, from now onwards all generations will call me blessed,

Luke 1:49 for the Almighty has done great things for me. Holy is his name,

Luke 1:50 and his faithful love extends age after age to those who fear him.

Luke 1:51 He has used the power of his arm, he has routed the arrogant of heart.

Luke 1:52 He has pulled down princes from their thrones and raised high the lowly.

Luke 1:53 He has filled the starving with good things, sent the rich away empty.

Luke 1:54 He has come to the help of Israel his servant, mindful of his faithful love

Luke 1:55 -according to the promise he made to our ancestors—of his mercy to Abraham and to his descendants for ever.

Luke 1:56 Mary stayed with her some three months and then went home.

Luke 1:57 The time came for Elizabeth to have her child, and she gave birth to a son;

Luke 1:58 and when her neighbours and relations heard that the Lord had lavished on her his faithful love, they shared her joy.

Luke 1:59 Now it happened that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; they were going to call him Zechariah after his father,

Luke 1:60 but his mother spoke up. 'No,' she said, 'he is to be called John.'

Luke 1:61 They said to her, 'But no one in your family has that name,'

Luke 1:62 and made signs to his father to find out what he wanted him called.

Luke 1:63 The father asked for a writing-tablet and wrote, 'His name is John.' And they were all astonished.

Luke 1:64 At that instant his power of speech returned and he spoke and praised God.

Luke 1:65 All their neighbours were filled with awe and the whole affair was talked about throughout the hill country of Judaea.

Luke 1:66 All those who heard of it treasured it in their hearts. 'What will this child turn out to be?' they wondered. And indeed the hand of the Lord was with him.

Luke 1:67 His father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke this prophecy:

Luke 1:68 Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, for he has visited his people, he has set them free,

Luke 1:69 and he has established for us a saving power in the House of his servant David,

Luke 1:70 just as he proclaimed, by the mouth of his holy prophets from ancient times,

Luke 1:71 that he would save us from our enemies and from the hands of all those who hate us,

Luke 1:72 and show faithful love to our ancestors, and so keep in mind his holy covenant.

Luke 1:73 This was the oath he swore to our father Abraham,

Luke 1:74 that he would grant us, free from fear, to be delivered from the hands of our enemies,

Luke 1:75 to serve him in holiness and uprightness in his presence, all our days.

Luke 1:76 And you, little child, you shall be called Prophet of the Most High, for you will go before the Lord to prepare a way for him,

Luke 1:77 to give his people knowledge of salvation through the forgiveness of their sins,

Luke 1:78 because of the faithful love of our God in which the rising Sun has come from on high to visit us,

Luke 1:79 to give light to those who live in darkness and the shadow dark as death, and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Luke 1:80 Meanwhile the child grew up and his spirit grew strong. And he lived in the desert until the day he appeared openly to Israel.

Luke 2:1 Now it happened that at this time Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be made of the whole inhabited world.

Luke 2:2 This census—the first—took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria,

Luke 2:3 and everyone went to be registered, each to his own town.

Luke 2:4 So Joseph set out from the town of Nazareth in Galilee for Judaea, to David's town called Bethlehem, since he was of David's House and line,

Luke 2:5 in order to be registered together with Mary, his betrothed, who was with child.

Luke 2:6 Now it happened that, while they were there, the time came for her to have her child,

Luke 2:7 and she gave birth to a son, her first-born. She wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger because there was no room for them in the living-space.

Luke 2:8 In the countryside close by there were shepherds out in the fields keeping guard over their sheep during the watches of the night.

Luke 2:9 An angel of the Lord stood over them and the glory of the Lord shone round them. They were terrified,

Luke 2:10 but the angel said, 'Do not be afraid. Look, I bring you news of great joy, a joy to be shared by the whole people.

Luke 2:11 Today in the town of David a Saviour has been born to you; he is Christ the Lord.

Luke 2:12 And here is a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger.'

Luke 2:13 And all at once with the angel there was a great throng of the hosts of heaven, praising God with the words:

Luke 2:14 Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace for those he favours.

Luke 2:15 Now it happened that when the angels had gone from them into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, 'Let us go to Bethlehem and see this event which the Lord has made known to us.'

Luke 2:16 So they hurried away and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby lying in the manger.

Luke 2:17 When they saw the child they repeated what they had been told about him,

Luke 2:18 and everyone who heard it was astonished at what the shepherds said to them.

Luke 2:19 As for Mary, she treasured all these things and pondered them in her heart.

Luke 2:20 And the shepherds went back glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, just as they had been told.

Luke 2:21 When the eighth day came and the child was to be circumcised, they gave him the name Jesus, the name the angel had given him before his conception.

Luke 2:22 And when the day came for them to be purified in keeping with the Law of Moses, they took him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord-

Luke 2:23 observing what is written in the Law of the Lord: Every first-born male must be consecrated to the Lord-

Luke 2:24 and also to offer in sacrifice, in accordance with what is prescribed in the Law of the Lord, a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons.

Luke 2:25 Now in Jerusalem there was a man named Simeon. He was an upright and devout man; he looked forward to the restoration of Israel and the Holy Spirit rested on him.

Luke 2:26 It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death until he had set eyes on the Christ of the Lord.

Luke 2:27 Prompted by the Spirit he came to the Temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus to do for him what the Law required,

Luke 2:28 he took him into his arms and blessed God; and he said:

Luke 2:29 Now, Master, you are letting your servant go in peace as you promised;

Luke 2:30 for my eyes have seen the salvation

Luke 2:31 which you have made ready in the sight of the nations;

Luke 2:32 a light of revelation for the gentiles and glory for your people Israel.

Luke 2:33 As the child's father and mother were wondering at the things that were being said about him,

Luke 2:34 Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother, 'Look, he is destined for the fall and for the rise of many in Israel, destined to be a sign that is opposed-

Luke 2:35 and a sword will pierce your soul too—so that the secret thoughts of many may be laid bare.’

Luke 2:36 There was a prophetess, too, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was well on in years. Her days of girlhood over, she had been married for seven years

Luke 2:37 before becoming a widow. She was now eighty-four years old and never left the Temple, serving God night and day with fasting and prayer.

Luke 2:38 She came up just at that moment and began to praise God; and she spoke of the child to all who looked forward to the deliverance of Jerusalem.

Luke 2:39 When they had done everything the Law of the Lord required, they went back to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth.

Luke 2:40 And as the child grew to maturity, he was filled with wisdom; and God’s favour was with him.

Luke 2:41 Every year his parents used to go to Jerusalem for the feast of the Passover.

Luke 2:42 When he was twelve years old, they went up for the feast as usual.

Luke 2:43 When the days of the feast were over and they set off home, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem without his parents knowing it.

Luke 2:44 They assumed he was somewhere in the party, and it was only after a day’s journey that they went to look for him among their relations and acquaintances.

Luke 2:45 When they failed to find him they went back to Jerusalem looking for him everywhere.

Luke 2:46 It happened that, three days later, they found him in the Temple, sitting among the teachers, listening to them, and asking them questions;

Luke 2:47 and all those who heard him were astounded at his intelligence and his replies.

Luke 2:48 They were overcome when they saw him, and his mother said to him, ‘My child, why have you done this to us? See how worried your father and I have been, looking for you.’

Luke 2:49 He replied, ‘Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father’s house?’

Luke 2:50 But they did not understand what he meant.

Luke 2:51 He went down with them then and came to Nazareth and lived under their authority. His mother stored up all these things in her heart.

Luke 2:52 And Jesus increased in wisdom, in stature, and in favour with God and with people.

Luke 3:1 In the fifteenth year of Tiberius Caesar's reign, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judaea, Herod tetrarch of Galilee, his brother Philip tetrarch of the territories of Ituraea and Trachonitis, Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene,

Luke 3:2 and while the high-priesthood was held by Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came toJohn the son of Zechariah, in the desert.

Luke 3:3 He went through the whole Jordan area proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins,

Luke 3:4 as it is written in the book of the sayings of Isaiah the prophet: A voice of one that cries in the desert: Prepare a way for the Lord, make his paths straight!

Luke 3:5 Let every valley be filled in, every mountain and hill be levelled, winding ways be straightened and rough roads made smooth,

Luke 3:6 and all humanity will see the salvation of God.

Luke 3:7 He said, therefore, to the crowds who came to be baptised by him, 'Brood of vipers, who warned you to flee from the coming retribution?

Luke 3:8 Produce fruit in keeping with repentance, and do not start telling yourselves, "We have Abraham as our father," because, I tell you, God can raise children for Abraham from these stones.

Luke 3:9 Yes, even now the axe is being laid to the root of the trees, so that any tree failing to produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown on the fire.'

Luke 3:10 When all the people asked him, 'What must we do, then?'

Luke 3:11 he answered, 'Anyone who has two tunics must share with the one who has none, and anyone with something to eat must do the same.'

Luke 3:12 There were tax collectors, too, who came for baptism, and these said to him, 'Master, what must we do?'

Luke 3:13 He said to them, 'Exact no more than the appointed rate.'

Luke 3:14 Some soldiers asked him in their turn, 'What about us? What must we do?' He said to them, 'No intimidation! No extortion! Be content with your pay!'

Luke 3:15 A feeling of expectancy had grown among the people, who were beginning to wonder whether John might be the Christ,

Luke 3:16 so John declared before them all, 'I baptise you with water, but someone is coming, who is more powerful than me, and I am not fit to undo the strap of his sandals; he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

Luke 3:17 His winnowing-fan is in his hand, to clear his threshing-floor and to gather the wheat into his barn; but the chaff he will burn in a fire that will never go out.’

Luke 3:18 And he proclaimed the good news to the people with many other exhortations too.

Luke 3:19 But Herod the tetrarch, censured by John for his relations with his brother’s wife Herodias and for all the other crimes he had committed,

Luke 3:20 added a further crime to all the rest by shutting John up in prison.

Luke 3:21 Now it happened that when all the people had been baptised and while Jesus after his own baptism was at prayer, heaven opened

Luke 3:22 and the Holy Spirit descended on him in a physical form, like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, ‘You are my Son; today have I fathered you.’

Luke 3:23 When he began, Jesus was about thirty years old, being the son, as it was thought, of Joseph son of Heli,

Luke 3:24 son of Matthat, son of Levi, son of Melchi, son of Jannai, son of Joseph,

Luke 3:25 son of Mattathias, son of Amos, son of Nahum, son of Esli, son of Naggai,

Luke 3:26 son of Maath, son of Mattathias, son of Semein, son of Josech, son of Joda,

Luke 3:27 son of Joanan, son of Rhesa, son of Zerubbabel, son of Shealtiel, son of Neri,

Luke 3:28 son of Melchi, son of Addi, son of Cosam, son of Elmadam, son of Er,

Luke 3:29 son of Jesus, son of Eliezer, son of Jorim, son of Matthat, son of Levi,

Luke 3:30 son of Symeon, son of Judah, son of Joseph, son of Jonam, son of Eliakim,

Luke 3:31 son of Melea, son of Menna, son of Mattatha, son of Nathan, son of David,

Luke 3:32 son of Jesse, son of Obed, son of Boaz, son of Sala, son of Nahshon,

Luke 3:33 son of Amminadab, son of Admin, son of Arni, son of Hezron, son of Perez, son of Judah,

Luke 3:34 son of Jacob, son of Isaac, son of Abraham, son of Terah, son of Nahor, Luke 3:35 son of Serug, son of Reu, son of Peleg, son of Eber, son of Shelah,

Luke 3:36 son of Cainan, son of Arphaxad, son of Shem, son of Noah, son of Lamech,

Luke 3:37 son of Methuselah, son of Enoch, son of Jared, son of Mahalaleel, son of Cainan,

Luke 3:38 son of Enos, son of Seth, son of Adam, son of God.

Luke 4:1 Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus left the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the desert,

Luke 4:2 for forty days being put to the test by the devil. During that time he ate nothing and at the end he was hungry.

Luke 4:3 Then the devil said to him, 'If you are Son of God, tell this stone to turn into a loaf.'

Luke 4:4 But Jesus replied, 'Scripture says: Human beings live not on bread alone.'

Luke 4:5 Then leading him to a height, the devil showed him in a moment of time all the kingdoms of the world

Luke 4:6 and said to him, 'I will give you all this power and their splendour, for it has been handed over to me, for me to give it to anyone I choose.

Luke 4:7 Do homage, then, to me, and it shall all be yours.'

Luke 4:8 But Jesus answered him, 'Scripture says: You must do homage to the Lord your God, him alone you must serve.'

Luke 4:9 Then he led him to Jerusalem and set him on the parapet of the Temple. 'If you are Son of God,' he said to him, 'throw yourself down from here,

Luke 4:10 for scripture says: He has given his angels orders about you, to guard you, and again:

Luke 4:11 They will carry you in their arms in case you trip over a stone.'

Luke 4:12 But Jesus answered him, 'Scripture says: Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'

Luke 4:13 Having exhausted every way of putting him to the test, the devil left him, until the opportune moment.

Luke 4:14 Jesus, with the power of the Spirit in him, returned to Galilee; and his reputation spread throughout the countryside.

Luke 4:15 He taught in their synagogues and everyone glorified him.

Luke 4:16 He came to Nazara, where he had been brought up, and went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day as he usually did. He stood up to read,

Luke 4:17 and they handed him the scroll of the prophet Isaiah.

Unrolling the scroll he found the place where it is written:

Luke 4:18 The spirit of the Lord is on me, for he has anointed me to bring the good news to the afflicted. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives, sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free,

Luke 4:19 to proclaim a year of favour from the Lord.

Luke 4:20 He then rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the assistant and sat down. And all eyes in the synagogue were fixed on him.

Luke 4:21 Then he began to speak to them, 'This text is being fulfilled today even while you are listening.'

Luke 4:22 And he won the approval of all, and they were astonished by the gracious words that came from his lips. They said, 'This is Joseph's son, surely?'

Luke 4:23 But he replied, 'No doubt you will quote me the saying, "Physician, heal yourself," and tell me, "We have heard all that happened in Capernaum, do the same here in your own country." '

Luke 4:24 And he went on, 'In truth I tell you, no prophet is ever accepted in his own country.

Luke 4:25 'There were many widows in Israel, I can assure you, in Elijah's day, when heaven remained shut for three years and six months and a great famine raged throughout the land,

Luke 4:26 but Elijah was not sent to any one of these: he was sent to a widow at Zarephath, a town in Sidonia.

Luke 4:27 And in the prophet Elisha's time there were many suffering from virulent skin-diseases in Israel, but none of these was cured—only Naaman the Syrian.'

Luke 4:28 When they heard this everyone in the synagogue was enraged.

Luke 4:29 They sprang to their feet and hustled him out of the town; and they took him up to the brow of the hill their town was built on, intending to throw him off the cliff,

Luke 4:30 but he passed straight through the crowd and walked away.

Luke 4:31 He went down to Capernaum, a town in Galilee, and taught them on the Sabbath.

Luke 4:32 And his teaching made a deep impression on them because his word carried authority.

Luke 4:33 In the synagogue there was a man possessed by the spirit of an unclean devil, and he shouted at the top of his voice,

Luke 4:34 'Ha! What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are: the Holy One of God.'

Luke 4:35 But Jesus rebuked it, saying, 'Be quiet! Come out of him!' And the devil, throwing the man into the middle, went out of him without hurting him at all.

Luke 4:36 Astonishment seized them and they were all saying to one another, ‘What is it in his words? He gives orders to unclean spirits with authority and power and they come out.’

Luke 4:37 And the news of him travelled all through the surrounding countryside.

Luke 4:38 Leaving the synagogue he went to Simon’s house. Now Simon’s mother-in-law was in the grip of a high fever and they asked him to do something for her.

Luke 4:39 Standing over her he rebuked the fever and it left her. And she immediately got up and began to serve them.

Luke 4:40 At sunset all those who had friends suffering from diseases of one kind or another brought them to him, and laying his hands on each he cured them.

Luke 4:41 Devils too came out of many people, shouting, ‘You are the Son of God.’ But he warned them and would not allow them to speak because they knew that he was the Christ.

Luke 4:42 When daylight came he left the house and made his way to a lonely place. The crowds went to look for him, and when they had caught up with him they wanted to prevent him leaving them,

Luke 4:43 but he answered, ‘I must proclaim the good news of the kingdom of God to the other towns too, because that is what I was sent to do.’

Luke 4:44 And he continued his proclamation in the synagogues of Judaea.

Luke 5:1 Now it happened that he was standing one day by the Lake of Gennesaret, with the crowd pressing round him listening to the word of God,

Luke 5:2 when he caught sight of two boats at the water’s edge. The fishermen had got out of them and were washing their nets.

Luke 5:3 He got into one of the boats—it was Simon’s—and asked him to put out a little from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat.

Luke 5:4 When he had finished speaking he said to Simon, ‘Put out into deep water and pay out your nets for a catch.’

Luke 5:5 Simon replied, ‘Master, we worked hard all night long and caught nothing, but if you say so, I will pay out the nets.’

Luke 5:6 And when they had done this they netted such a huge number of fish that their nets began to tear,

Luke 5:7 so they signalled to their companions in the other boat to come and help them; when these came, they filled both boats to sinking point.

Luke 5:8 When Simon Peter saw this he fell at the knees of Jesus saying, ‘Leave me, Lord; I am a sinful man.’

Luke 5:9 For he and all his companions were completely awestruck at the catch they had made;

Luke 5:10 so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were Simon’s partners. But Jesus said to Simon, ‘Do not be afraid; from now on it is people you will be catching.’

Luke 5:11 Then, bringing their boats back to land they left everything and followed him.

Luke 5:12 Now it happened that Jesus was in one of the towns when suddenly a man appeared, covered with a skin-disease. Seeing Jesus he fell on his face and implored him saying, ‘Sir, if you are willing you can cleanse me.’

Luke 5:13 He stretched out his hand, and touched him saying, ‘I am willing. Be cleansed.’ At once the skin-disease left him.

Luke 5:14 He ordered him to tell no one, ‘But go and show yourself to the priest and make the offering for your cleansing just as Moses prescribed, as evidence to them.’

Luke 5:15 But the news of him kept spreading, and large crowds would gather to hear him and to have their illnesses cured,

Luke 5:16 but he would go off to some deserted place and pray.

Luke 5:17 Now it happened that he was teaching one day, and Pharisees and teachers of the Law, who had come from every village in Galilee, from Judaea and from Jerusalem, were sitting there. And the power of the Lord was there so that he should heal.

Luke 5:18 And now some men appeared, bringing on a bed a paralysed man whom they were trying to bring in and lay down in front of him.

Luke 5:19 But as they could find no way of getting the man through the crowd, they went up onto the top of the house and lowered him and his stretcher down through the tiles into the middle of the gathering, in front of Jesus.

Luke 5:20 Seeing their faith he said, ‘My friend, your sins are forgiven you.’

Luke 5:21 The scribes and the Pharisees began to think this over. ‘Who is this man, talking blasphemy? Who but God alone can forgive sins?’

Luke 5:22 But Jesus, aware of their thoughts, made them this reply, ‘What are these thoughts you have in your hearts?

Luke 5:23 Which of these is easier: to say, “Your sins are forgiven you,” or to say, “Get up and walk”?

Luke 5:24 But to prove to you that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins,'—he said to the paralysed man-'I order you: get up, and pick up your stretcher and go home.'

Luke 5:25 And immediately before their very eyes he got up, picked up what he had been lying on and went home praising God.

Luke 5:26 They were all astounded and praised God and were filled with awe, saying, 'We have seen strange things today.'

Luke 5:27 When he went out after this, he noticed a tax collector, Levi by name, sitting at the tax office, and said to him, 'Follow me.'

Luke 5:28 And leaving everything Levi got up and followed him.

Luke 5:29 In his honour Levi held a great reception in his house, and with them at table was a large gathering of tax collectors and others.

Luke 5:30 The Pharisees and their scribes complained to his disciples and said, 'Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?'

Luke 5:31 Jesus said to them in reply, 'It is not those that are well who need the doctor, but the sick.

Luke 5:32 I have come to call not the upright but sinners to repentance.'

Luke 5:33 They then said to him, 'John's disciples are always fasting and saying prayers, and the disciples of the Pharisees, too, but yours go on eating and drinking.'

Luke 5:34 Jesus replied, 'Surely you cannot make the bridegroom's attendants fast while the bridegroom is still with them?

Luke 5:35 But the time will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them; then, in those days, they will fast.'

Luke 5:36 He also told them a parable, 'No one tears a piece from a new cloak to put it on an old cloak; otherwise, not only will the new one be torn, but the piece taken from the new will not match the old.

Luke 5:37 'And nobody puts new wine in old wineskins; otherwise, the new wine will burst the skins and run to waste, and the skins will be ruined.

Luke 5:38 No; new wine must be put in fresh skins.

Luke 5:39 And nobody who has been drinking old wine wants new. "The old is good," he says.'

Luke 6:1 It happened that one Sabbath he was walking through the cornfields, and his disciples were picking ears of corn, rubbing them in their hands and eating them.

Luke 6:2 Some of the Pharisees said, 'Why are you doing something that is forbidden on the Sabbath day?'

Luke 6:3 Jesus answered them, 'So you have not read what David did when he and his followers were hungry-

Luke 6:4 how he went into the house of God and took the loaves of the offering and ate them and gave them to his followers, loaves which the priests alone are allowed to eat?’

Luke 6:5 And he said to them, ‘The Son of man is master of the Sabbath.’

Luke 6:6 Now on another Sabbath he went into the synagogue and began to teach, and a man was present, and his right hand was withered.

Luke 6:7 The scribes and the Pharisees were watching him to see if he would cure somebody on the Sabbath, hoping to find something to charge him with.

Luke 6:8 But he knew their thoughts; and he said to the man with the withered hand, ‘Get up and stand out in the middle!’ And he came forward and stood there.

Luke 6:9 Then Jesus said to them, ‘I put it to you: is it permitted on the Sabbath to do good, or to do evil; to save life, or to destroy it?’

Luke 6:10 Then he looked round at them all and said to the man, ‘Stretch out your hand.’ He did so, and his hand was restored.

Luke 6:11 But they were furious and began to discuss the best way of dealing with Jesus.

Luke 6:12 Now it happened in those days that he went onto the mountain to pray; and he spent the whole night in prayer to God.

Luke 6:13 When day came he summoned his disciples and picked out twelve of them; he called them ‘apostles’:

Luke 6:14 Simon whom he called Peter, and his brother Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew,

Luke 6:15 Matthew, Thomas, James son of Alphaeus, Simon called the Zealot,

Luke 6:16 Judas son of James, and Judas Iscariot who became a traitor.

Luke 6:17 He then came down with them and stopped at a piece of level ground where there was a large gathering of his disciples, with a great crowd of people from all parts of Judaea and Jerusalem and the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon

Luke 6:18 who had come to hear him and to be cured of their diseases. People tormented by unclean spirits were also cured,

Luke 6:19 and everyone in the crowd was trying to touch him because power came out of him that cured them all.

Luke 6:20 Then fixing his eyes on his disciples he said: How blessed are you who are poor: the kingdom of God is yours.

Luke 6:21 Blessed are you who are hungry now: you shall have your fill. Blessed are you who are weeping now: you shall laugh.

Luke 6:22 ‘Blessed are you when people hate you, drive you out, abuse you, denounce your name as criminal, on account of the Son of man.

Luke 6:23 Rejoice when that day comes and dance for joy, look!-your reward will be great in heaven. This was the way their ancestors treated the prophets.

Luke 6:24 But alas for you who are rich: you are having your consolation now.

Luke 6:25 Alas for you who have plenty to eat now: you shall go hungry. Alas for you who are laughing now: you shall mourn and weep.

Luke 6:26 ‘Alas for you when everyone speaks well of you! This was the way their ancestors treated the false prophets.

Luke 6:27 ‘But I say this to you who are listening: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you,

Luke 6:28 bless those who curse you, pray for those who treat you badly.

Luke 6:29 To anyone who slaps you on one cheek, present the other cheek as well; to anyone who takes your cloak from you, do not refuse your tunic.

Luke 6:30 Give to everyone who asks you, and do not ask for your property back from someone who takes it.

Luke 6:31 Treat others as you would like people to treat you.

Luke 6:32 If you love those who love you, what credit can you expect? Even sinners love those who love them.

Luke 6:33 And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit can you expect? For even sinners do that much.

Luke 6:34 And if you lend to those from whom you hope to get money back, what credit can you expect? Even sinners lend to sinners to get back the same amount.

Luke 6:35 Instead, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend without any hope of return. You will have a great reward, and you will be children of the Most High, for he himself is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked.

Luke 6:36 ‘Be compassionate just as your Father is compassionate.

Luke 6:37 Do not judge, and you will not be judged; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned; forgive, and you will be forgiven.

Luke 6:38 Give, and there will be gifts for you: a full measure, pressed down, shaken together, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap; because the standard you use will be the standard used for you.’

Luke 6:39 He also told them a parable, ‘Can one blind person guide another? Surely both will fall into a pit?

Luke 6:40 Disciple is not superior to teacher; but fully trained disciple will be like teacher.

Luke 6:41 Why do you observe the splinter in your brother’s eye and never notice the great log in your own?

Luke 6:42 How can you say to your brother, “Brother, let me take out that splinter in your eye,” when you cannot see the great log in your own? Hypocrite! Take the log out of your own eye first, and then you will see clearly enough to take out the splinter in your brother’s eye.

Luke 6:43 ‘There is no sound tree that produces rotten fruit, nor again a rotten tree that produces sound fruit.

Luke 6:44 Every tree can be told by its own fruit: people do not pick figs from thorns, nor gather grapes from brambles.

Luke 6:45 Good people draw what is good from the store of goodness in their hearts; bad people draw what is bad from the store of badness. For the words of the mouth flow out of what fills the heart.

Luke 6:46 ‘Why do you call me, “Lord, Lord” and not do what I say?

Luke 6:47 ‘Everyone who comes to me and listens to my words and acts on them—I will show you what such a person is like.

Luke 6:48 Such a person is like the man who, when he built a house, dug, and dug deep, and laid the foundations on rock; when the river was in flood it bore down on that house but could not shake it, it was so well built.

Luke 6:49 But someone who listens and does nothing is like the man who built a house on soil, with no foundations; as soon as the river bore down on it, it collapsed; and what a ruin that house became!’

Luke 7:1 When he had come to the end of all he wanted the people to hear, he went into Capernaum.

Luke 7:2 A centurion there had a servant, a favourite of his, who was sick and near death.

Luke 7:3 Having heard about Jesus he sent some Jewish elders to him to ask him to come and heal his servant.

Luke 7:4 When they came to Jesus they pleaded earnestly with him saying, ‘He deserves this of you,

Luke 7:5 because he is well disposed towards our people; he built us our synagogue himself.’

Luke 7:6 So Jesus went with them, and was not very far from the house when the centurion sent word to him by some friends to say to him, ‘Sir, do not put yourself to any trouble because I am not worthy to have you under my roof;

Luke 7:7 and that is why I did not presume to come to you myself; let my boy be cured by your giving the word.

Luke 7:8 For I am under authority myself, and have soldiers under me; and I say to one man, “Go,” and he goes; to another, “Come here,” and he comes; to my servant, “Do this,” and he does it.’

Luke 7:9 When Jesus heard these words he was astonished at him and, turning round, said to the crowd following him, ‘I tell you, not even in Israel have I found faith as great as this.’

Luke 7:10 And when the messengers got back to the house they found the servant in perfect health.

Luke 7:11 It happened that soon afterwards he went to a town called Nain, accompanied by his disciples and a great number of people.

Luke 7:12 Now when he was near the gate of the town there was a dead man being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And a considerable number of the townspeople was with her.

Luke 7:13 When the Lord saw her he felt sorry for her and said to her, ‘Don’t cry.’

Luke 7:14 Then he went up and touched the bier and the bearers stood still, and he said, ‘Young man, I tell you: get up.’

Luke 7:15 And the dead man sat up and began to talk, and Jesus gave him to his mother.

Luke 7:16 Everyone was filled with awe and glorified God saying, ‘A great prophet has risen up among us; God has visited his people.’

Luke 7:17 And this view of him spread throughout Judaea and all over the countryside.

Luke 7:18 The disciples of John gave him all this news, and John, summoning two of his disciples,

Luke 7:19 sent them to the Lord to ask, ‘Are you the one who is to come, or are we to expect someone else?’

Luke 7:20 When the men reached Jesus they said, ‘John the Baptist has sent us to you to ask, “Are you the one who is to come or are we to expect someone else?” ‘

Luke 7:21 At that very time he cured many people of diseases and afflictions and of evil spirits, and gave the gift of sight to many who were blind.

Luke 7:22 Then he gave the messengers their answer, ‘Go back and tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind see again, the lame walk, those suffering from virulent skin-diseases are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised to life, the good news is proclaimed to the poor;

Luke 7:23 and blessed is anyone who does not find me a cause of falling.’

Luke 7:24 When John’s messengers had gone he began to talk to the people about John,

Luke 7:25 ‘What did you go out into the desert to see? A reed swaying in the breeze? No! Then what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? Look, those who go in magnificent clothes and live luxuriously are to be found at royal courts!

Luke 7:26 Then what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet:

Luke 7:27 he is the one of whom scripture says: Look, I am going to send my messenger in front of you to prepare your way before you.

Luke 7:28 'I tell you, of all the children born to women, there is no one greater than John; yet the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.'

Luke 7:29 All the people who heard him, and the tax collectors too, acknowledged God's saving justice by accepting baptism from John;

Luke 7:30 but by refusing baptism from him the Pharisees and the lawyers thwarted God's plan for them.

Luke 7:31 'What comparison, then, can I find for the people of this generation? What are they like?

Luke 7:32 They are like children shouting to one another while they sit in the market place: We played the pipes for you, and you wouldn't dance; we sang dirges, and you wouldn't cry.

Luke 7:33 'For John the Baptist has come, not eating bread, not drinking wine, and you say, "He is possessed."

Luke 7:34 The Son of man has come, eating and drinking, and you say, "Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners."

Luke 7:35 Yet wisdom is justified by all her children.'

Luke 7:36 One of the Pharisees invited him to a meal. When he arrived at the Pharisee's house and took his place at table,

Luke 7:37 suddenly a woman came in, who had a bad name in the town. She had heard he was dining with the Pharisee and had brought with her an alabaster jar of ointment.

Luke 7:38 She waited behind him at his feet, weeping, and her tears fell on his feet, and she wiped them away with her hair; then she covered his feet with kisses and anointed them with the ointment.

Luke 7:39 When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, 'If this man were a prophet, he would know who this woman is and what sort of person it is who is touching him and what a bad name she has.'

Luke 7:40 Then Jesus took him up and said, 'Simon, I have something to say to you.' He replied, 'Say on, Master.'

Luke 7:41 'There was once a creditor who had two men in his debt; one owed him five hundred denarii, the other fifty.

Luke 7:42 They were unable to pay, so he let them both off. Which of them will love him more?’

Luke 7:43 Simon answered, ‘The one who was let off more, I suppose.’ Jesus said, ‘You are right.’

Luke 7:44 Then he turned to the woman and said to Simon, ‘You see this woman? I came into your house, and you poured no water over my feet, but she has poured out her tears over my feet and wiped them away with her hair.

Luke 7:45 You gave me no kiss, but she has been covering my feet with kisses ever since I came in.

Luke 7:46 You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment.

Luke 7:47 For this reason I tell you that her sins, many as they are, have been forgiven her, because she has shown such great love. It is someone who is forgiven little who shows little love.’

Luke 7:48 Then he said to her, ‘Your sins are forgiven.’

Luke 7:49 Those who were with him at table began to say to themselves, ‘Who is this man, that even forgives sins?’

Luke 7:50 But he said to the woman, ‘Your faith has saved you; go in peace.’

Luke 8:1 Now it happened that after this he made his way through towns and villages preaching and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. With him went the Twelve,

Luke 8:2 as well as certain women who had been cured of evil spirits and ailments: Mary surnamed the Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out,

Luke 8:3 Joanna the wife of Herod’s steward Chuza, Susanna, and many others who provided for them out of their own resources.

Luke 8:4 With a large crowd gathering and people from every town finding their way to him, he told this parable:

Luke 8:5 ‘A sower went out to sow his seed. Now as he sowed, some fell on the edge of the path and was trampled on; and the birds of the air ate it up.

Luke 8:6 Some seed fell on rock, and when it came up it withered away, having no moisture.

Luke 8:7 Some seed fell in the middle of thorns and the thorns grew with it and choked it.

Luke 8:8 And some seed fell into good soil and grew and produced its crop a hundredfold.’ Saying this he cried, ‘Anyone who has ears for listening should listen!’

Luke 8:9 His disciples asked him what this parable might mean,

Luke 8:10 and he said, ‘To you is granted to understand the secrets of the kingdom of God; for the rest it remains in parables, so that they may look but not perceive, listen but not understand.

Luke 8:11 'This, then, is what the parable means: the seed is the word of God.

Luke 8:12 Those on the edge of the path are people who have heard it, and then the devil comes and carries away the word from their hearts in case they should believe and be saved.

Luke 8:13 Those on the rock are people who, when they first hear it, welcome the word with joy. But these have no root; they believe for a while, and in time of trial they give up.

Luke 8:14 As for the part that fell into thorns, this is people who have heard, but as they go on their way they are choked by the worries and riches and pleasures of life and never produce any crops.

Luke 8:15 As for the part in the rich soil, this is people with a noble and generous heart who have heard the word and take it to themselves and yield a harvest through their perseverance.

Luke 8:16 'No one lights a lamp to cover it with a bowl or to put it under a bed. No, it is put on a lamp-stand so that people may see the light when they come in.

Luke 8:17 For nothing is hidden but it will be made clear, nothing secret but it will be made known and brought to light.

Luke 8:18 So take care how you listen; anyone who has, will be given more; anyone who has not, will be deprived even of what he thinks he has.'

Luke 8:19 His mother and his brothers came looking for him, but they could not get to him because of the crowd.

Luke 8:20 He was told, 'Your mother and brothers are standing outside and want to see you.'

Luke 8:21 But he said in answer, 'My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and put it into practice.'

Luke 8:22 It happened that one day he got into a boat with his disciples and said to them, 'Let us cross over to the other side of the lake.' So they set out,

Luke 8:23 and as they sailed he fell asleep. When a squall of wind came down on the lake the boat started shipping water and they found themselves in danger.

Luke 8:24 So they went to rouse him saying, 'Master! Master! We are lost!' Then he woke up and rebuked the wind and the rough water; and they subsided and it was calm again.

Luke 8:25 He said to them, 'Where is your faith?' They were awestruck and astounded and said to one another, 'Who can this be, that gives orders even to winds and waves and they obey him?'

Luke 8:26 They came to land in the territory of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee.

Luke 8:27 He was stepping ashore when a man from the city who was possessed by devils came towards him; for a long time the man had been living with no clothes on, not in a house, but in the tombs.

Luke 8:28 Catching sight of Jesus he gave a shout, fell at his feet and cried out at the top of his voice, 'What do you want with me, Jesus, son of the Most High God? I implore you, do not torture me.'

Luke 8:29 For Jesus had been telling the unclean spirit to come out of the man. It had seized on him a great many times, and then they used to secure him with chains and fetters to restrain him, but he would always break the fastenings, and the devil would drive him out into the wilds.

Luke 8:30 Jesus asked him, 'What is your name?' He said, 'Legion'—because many devils had gone into him.

Luke 8:31 And these begged him not to order them to depart into the Abyss.

Luke 8:32 Now there was a large herd of pigs feeding there on the mountain, and the devils begged him to let them go into these. So he gave them leave.

Luke 8:33 The devils came out of the man and went into the pigs, and the herd charged down the cliff into the lake and was drowned.

Luke 8:34 When the swineherds saw what had happened they ran off and told their story in the city and in the country round about;

Luke 8:35 and the people went out to see what had happened. When they came to Jesus they found the man from whom the devils had gone out sitting at the feet of Jesus, wearing clothes and in his right mind; and they were afraid.

Luke 8:36 Those who had witnessed it told them how the man who had been possessed came to be saved.

Luke 8:37 The entire population of the Gerasene territory was in great fear and asked Jesus to leave them. So he got into the boat and went back.

Luke 8:38 The man from whom the devils had gone out asked to be allowed to stay with him, but he sent him away saying,

Luke 8:39 'Go back home and report all that God has done for you.' So the man went off and proclaimed throughout the city all that Jesus had done for him.

Luke 8:40 On his return Jesus was welcomed by the crowd, for they were all there waiting for him.

Luke 8:41 And suddenly there came a man named Jairus, who was president of the synagogue. He fell at Jesus' feet and pleaded with him to come to his house, Luke 8:42 because he had an only daughter about twelve years old, who was dying. And the crowds were almost stifling Jesus as he went.

Luke 8:43 Now there was a woman suffering from a haemorrhage for the past twelve years, whom no one had been able to cure.

Luke 8:44 She came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak; and the haemorrhage stopped at that very moment.

Luke 8:45 Jesus said, 'Who was it that touched me?' When they all denied it, Peter said, 'Master, it is the crowds round you, pushing.'

Luke 8:46 But Jesus said, 'Somebody touched me. I felt that power had gone out from me.'

Luke 8:47 Seeing herself discovered, the woman came forward trembling, and falling at his feet explained in front of all the people why she had touched him and how she had been cured at that very moment.

Luke 8:48 'My daughter,' he said, 'your faith has saved you; go in peace.'

Luke 8:49 While he was still speaking, someone arrived from the house of the president of the synagogue to say, 'Your daughter has died. Do not trouble the Master any further.'

Luke 8:50 But Jesus heard this, and he spoke to the man, 'Do not be afraid, only have faith and she will be saved.'

Luke 8:51 When he came to the house he allowed no one to go in with him except Peter and John and James, and the child's father and mother.

Luke 8:52 They were all crying and mourning for her, but Jesus said, 'Stop crying; she is not dead, but asleep.'

Luke 8:53 But they ridiculed him, knowing she was dead.

Luke 8:54 But taking her by the hand himself he spoke to her, 'Child, get up.'

Luke 8:55 And her spirit returned and she got up at that very moment. Then he told them to give her something to eat.

Luke 8:56 Her parents were astonished, but he ordered them not to tell anyone what had happened.

Luke 9:1 He called the Twelve together and gave them power and authority over all devils and to cure diseases,

Luke 9:2 and he sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal.

Luke 9:3 He said to them, 'Take nothing for the journey: neither staff, nor haversack, nor bread, nor money; and do not have a spare tunic.

Luke 9:4 Whatever house you enter, stay there; and when you leave let your departure be from there.

Luke 9:5 As for those who do not welcome you, when you leave their town shake the dust from your feet as evidence against them.'

Luke 9:6 So they set out and went from village to village proclaiming the good news and healing everywhere.

Luke 9:7 Meanwhile Herod the tetrarch had heard about all that was going on; and he was puzzled, because some people were saying that John had risen from the dead,

Luke 9:8 others that Elijah had reappeared, still others that one of the ancient prophets had come back to life.

Luke 9:9 But Herod said, 'John? I beheaded him. So who is this I hear such reports about?' And he was anxious to see him.

Luke 9:10 On their return the apostles gave him an account of all they had done. Then he took them with him and withdrew towards a town called Bethsaida where they could be by themselves.

Luke 9:11 But the crowds got to know and they went after him. He made them welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing.

Luke 9:12 It was late afternoon when the Twelve came up to him and said, 'Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here.'

Luke 9:13 He replied, 'Give them something to eat yourselves.' But they said, 'We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.'

Luke 9:14 For there were about five thousand men. But he said to his disciples, 'Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.'

Luke 9:15 They did so and made them all sit down.

Luke 9:16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd.

Luke 9:17 They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps left over were collected they filled twelve baskets.

Luke 9:18 Now it happened that he was praying alone, and his disciples came to him and he put this question to them, 'Who do the crowds say I am?'

Luke 9:19 And they answered, 'Some say John the Baptist; others Elijah; others again one of the ancient prophets come back to life.'

Luke 9:20 'But you,' he said to them, 'who do you say I am?' It was Peter who spoke up. 'The Christ of God,' he said.

Luke 9:21 But he gave them strict orders and charged them not to say this to anyone.

Luke 9:22 He said, 'The Son of man is destined to suffer grievously, to be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes and to be put to death, and to be raised up on the third day.'

Luke 9:23 Then, speaking to all, he said, 'If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, let him renounce himself and take up his cross every day and follow me.

Luke 9:24 Anyone who wants to save his life will lose it; but anyone who loses his life for my sake, will save it.

Luke 9:25 What benefit is it to anyone to win the whole world and forfeit or lose his very self?

Luke 9:26 For if anyone is ashamed of me and of my words, of him the Son of man will be ashamed when he comes in his own glory and in the glory of the Father and the holy angels.

Luke 9:27 'I tell you truly, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God.'

Luke 9:28 Now about eight days after this had been said, he took with him Peter, John and James and went up the mountain to pray.

Luke 9:29 And it happened that, as he was praying, the aspect of his face was changed and his clothing became sparkling white.

Luke 9:30 And suddenly there were two men talking to him; they were Moses and Elijah

Luke 9:31 appearing in glory, and they were speaking of his passing which he was to accomplish in Jerusalem.

Luke 9:32 Peter and his companions were heavy with sleep, but they woke up and saw his glory and the two men standing with him.

Luke 9:33 As these were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, 'Master, it is wonderful for us to be here; so let us make three shelters, one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.' He did not know what he was saying.

Luke 9:34 As he was saying this, a cloud came and covered them with shadow; and when they went into the cloud the disciples were afraid.

Luke 9:35 And a voice came from the cloud saying, 'This is my Son, the Chosen One. Listen to him.'

Luke 9:36 And after the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. The disciples kept silence and, at that time, told no one what they had seen.

Luke 9:37 Now it happened that on the following day when they were coming down from the mountain a large crowd came to meet him.

Luke 9:38 And suddenly a man in the crowd cried out. 'Master,' he said, 'I implore you to look at my son: he is my only child.

Luke 9:39 A spirit will suddenly take hold of him, and all at once it gives a sudden cry and throws the boy into convulsions with foaming at the mouth; it is slow to leave him, but when it does, it leaves the boy worn out.

Luke 9:40 I begged your disciples to drive it out, and they could not.’

Luke 9:41 In reply Jesus said, ‘Faithless and perverse generation! How much longer must I be among you and put up with you? Bring your son here.’

Luke 9:42 Even while the boy was coming, the devil threw him to the ground in convulsions. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit and cured the boy and gave him back to his father,

Luke 9:43 and everyone was awestruck by the greatness of God. But while everyone was full of admiration for all he did, he said to his disciples,

Luke 9:44 ‘For your part, you must have these words constantly in mind: The Son of man is going to be delivered into the power of men.’

Luke 9:45 But they did not understand what he said; it was hidden from them so that they should not see the meaning of it, and they were afraid to ask him about it.

Luke 9:46 An argument started between them about which of them was the greatest.

Luke 9:47 Jesus knew what thoughts were going through their minds, and he took a little child whom he set by his side

Luke 9:48 and then he said to them, ‘Anyone who welcomes this little child in my name welcomes me; and anyone who welcomes me, welcomes the one who sent me. The least among you all is the one who is the greatest.’

Luke 9:49 John spoke up. ‘Master,’ he said, ‘we saw someone driving out devils in your name, and because he is not with us we tried to stop him.’

Luke 9:50 But Jesus said to him, ‘You must not stop him: anyone who is not against you is for you.’

Luke 9:51 Now it happened that as the time drew near for him to be taken up, he resolutely turned his face towards Jerusalem

Luke 9:52 and sent messengers ahead of him. These set out, and they went into a Samaritan village to make preparations for him,

Luke 9:53 but the people would not receive him because he was making for Jerusalem.

Luke 9:54 Seeing this, the disciples James and John said, ‘Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to burn them up?’

Luke 9:55 But he turned and rebuked them,

Luke 9:56 and they went on to another village.

Luke 9:57 As they travelled along they met a man on the road who said to him, ‘I will follow you wherever you go.’

Luke 9:58 Jesus answered, ‘Foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of man has nowhere to lay his head.’

Luke 9:59 Another to whom he said, 'Follow me,' replied, 'Let me go and bury my father first.'

Luke 9:60 But he answered, 'Leave the dead to bury their dead; your duty is to go and spread the news of the kingdom of God.'

Luke 9:61 Another said, 'I will follow you, sir, but first let me go and say good—bye to my people at home.'

Luke 9:62 Jesus said to him, 'Once the hand is laid on the plough, no one who looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.'

Luke 10:1 After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them out ahead of him in pairs, to all the towns and places he himself would be visiting.

Luke 10:2 And he said to them, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to do his harvesting.

Luke 10:3 Start off now, but look, I am sending you out like lambs among wolves.

Luke 10:4 Take no purse with you, no haversack, no sandals. Salute no one on the road.

Luke 10:5 Whatever house you enter, let your first words be, "Peace to this house!"

Luke 10:6 And if a man of peace lives there, your peace will go and rest on him; if not, it will come back to you.

Luke 10:7 Stay in the same house, taking what food and drink they have to offer, for the labourer deserves his wages; do not move from house to house.

Luke 10:8 Whenever you go into a town where they make you welcome, eat what is put before you.

Luke 10:9 Cure those in it who are sick, and say, "The kingdom of God is very near to you."

Luke 10:10 But whenever you enter a town and they do not make you welcome, go out into its streets and say,

Luke 10:11 "We wipe off the very dust of your town that clings to our feet, and leave it with you. Yet be sure of this: the kingdom of God is very near."

Luke 10:12 I tell you, on the great Day it will be more bearable for Sodom than for that town.

Luke 10:13 'Alas for you, Chorazin! Alas for you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

Luke 10:14 And still, it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon at the Judgement than for you.

Luke 10:15 And as for you, Capernaum, did you want to be raised high as heaven? You shall be flung down to hell.

Luke 10:16 ‘Anyone who listens to you listens to me; anyone who rejects you rejects me, and those who reject me reject the one who sent me.’

Luke 10:17 The seventy-two came back rejoicing. ‘Lord,’ they said, ‘even the devils submit to us when we use your name.’

Luke 10:18 He said to them, ‘I watched Satan fall like lightning from heaven.

Luke 10:19 Look, I have given you power to tread down serpents and scorpions and the whole strength of the enemy; nothing shall ever hurt you.

Luke 10:20 Yet do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you; rejoice instead that your names are written in heaven.’

Luke 10:21 Just at this time, filled with joy by the Holy Spirit, he said, ‘I bless you, Father, Lord of heaven and of earth, for hiding these things from the learned and the clever and revealing them to little children. Yes, Father, for that is what it has pleased you to do.

Luke 10:22 Everything has been entrusted to me by my Father; and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.’

Luke 10:23 Then turning to his disciples he spoke to them by themselves, ‘Blessed are the eyes that see what you see,

Luke 10:24 for I tell you that many prophets and kings wanted to see what you see, and never saw it; to hear what you hear, and never heard it.’

Luke 10:25 And now a lawyer stood up and, to test him, asked, ‘Master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?’

Luke 10:26 He said to him, ‘What is written in the Law? What is your reading of it?’

Luke 10:27 He replied, ‘You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbour as yourself.’

Luke 10:28 Jesus said to him, ‘You have answered right, do this and life is yours.’

Luke 10:29 But the man was anxious to justify himself and said to Jesus, ‘And who is my neighbour?’

Luke 10:30 In answer Jesus said, ‘A man was once on his way down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell into the hands of bandits; they stripped him, beat him and then made off, leaving him half dead.

Luke 10:31 Now a priest happened to be travelling down the same road, but when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side.

Luke 10:32 In the same way a Levite who came to the place saw him, and passed by on the other side.

Luke 10:33 But a Samaritan traveller who came on him was moved with compassion when he saw him.

Luke 10:34 He went up to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them. He then lifted him onto his own mount and took him to an inn and looked after him.

Luke 10:35 Next day, he took out two denarii and handed them to the innkeeper and said, “Look after him, and on my way back I will make good any extra expense you have.”

Luke 10:36 Which of these three, do you think, proved himself a neighbour to the man who fell into the bandits’ hands?’

Luke 10:37 He replied, ‘The one who showed pity towards him.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Go, and do the same yourself.’

Luke 10:38 In the course of their journey he came to a village, and a woman named Martha welcomed him into her house.

Luke 10:39 She had a sister called Mary, who sat down at the Lord’s feet and listened to him speaking.

Luke 10:40 Now Martha, who was distracted with all the serving, came to him and said, ‘Lord, do you not care that my sister is leaving me to do the serving all by myself? Please tell her to help me.’

Luke 10:41 But the Lord answered, ‘Martha, Martha,’ he said, ‘you worry and fret about so many things,

Luke 10:42 and yet few are needed, indeed only one. It is Mary who has chosen the better part, and it is not to be taken from her.’

Luke 11:1 Now it happened that he was in a certain place praying, and when he had finished, one of his disciples said, ‘Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples.’

Luke 11:2 He said to them, ‘When you pray, this is what to say: Father, may your name be held holy, your kingdom come;

Luke 11:3 give us each day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins,

Luke 11:4 for we ourselves forgive each one who is in debt to us. And do not put us to the test.’

Luke 11:5 He also said to them, ‘Suppose one of you has a friend and goes to him in the middle of the night to say, “My friend, lend me three loaves,

Luke 11:6 because a friend of mine on his travels has just arrived at my house and I have nothing to offer him;”

Luke 11:7 and the man answers from inside the house, “Do not bother me. The door is bolted now, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up to give it to you.”

Luke 11:8 I tell you, if the man does not get up and give it to him for friendship’s sake, persistence will make him get up and give his friend all he wants.

Luke 11:9 ‘So I say to you: Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you.

Luke 11:10 For everyone who asks receives; everyone who searches finds; everyone who knocks will have the door opened.

Luke 11:11 What father among you, if his son asked for a fish, would hand him a snake?

Luke 11:12 Or if he asked for an egg, hand him a scorpion?

Luke 11:13 If you then, evil as you are, know how to give your children what is good, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!’

Luke 11:14 He was driving out a devil and it was dumb; and it happened that when the devil had gone out the dumb man spoke, and the people were amazed.

Luke 11:15 But some of them said, ‘It is through Beelzebul, the prince of devils, that he drives devils out.’

Luke 11:16 Others asked him, as a test, for a sign from heaven;

Luke 11:17 but, knowing what they were thinking, he said to them, ‘Any kingdom which is divided against itself is heading for ruin, and house collapses against house.

Luke 11:18 So, too, with Satan: if he is divided against himself, how can his kingdom last? - since you claim that it is through Beelzebul that I drive devils out.

Luke 11:19 Now if it is through Beelzebul that I drive devils out, through whom do your own sons drive them out? They shall be your judges, then.

Luke 11:20 But if it is through the finger of God that I drive devils out, then the kingdom of God has indeed caught you unawares.

Luke 11:21 So long as a strong man fully armed guards his own home, his goods are undisturbed;

Luke 11:22 but when someone stronger than himself attacks and defeats him, the stronger man takes away all the weapons he relied on and shares out his spoil.

Luke 11:23 ‘Anyone who is not with me is against me; and anyone who does not gather in with me throws away.

Luke 11:24 ‘When an unclean spirit goes out of someone it wanders through waterless country looking for a place to rest, and not finding one it says, “I will go back to the home I came from.”

Luke 11:25 But on arrival, finding it swept and tidied,

Luke 11:26 it then goes off and brings seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and set up house there, and so that person ends up worse off than before.’

Luke 11:27 It happened that as he was speaking, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said, ‘Blessed the womb that bore you and the breasts that fed you!’

Luke 11:28 But he replied, ‘More blessed still are those who hear the word of God and keep it!’

Luke 11:29 The crowds got even bigger and he addressed them, ‘This is an evil generation; it is asking for a sign. The only sign it will be given is the sign of Jonah.

Luke 11:30 For just as Jonah became a sign to the people of Nineveh, so will the Son of man be a sign to this generation.

Luke 11:31 On Judgement Day the Queen of the South will stand up against the people of this generation and be their condemnation, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, look, there is something greater than Solomon here.

Luke 11:32 On Judgement Day the men of Nineveh will appear against this generation and be its condemnation, because when Jonah preached they repented; and, look, there is something greater than Jonah here.

Luke 11:33 ‘No one lights a lamp and puts it in some hidden place or under a tub; they put it on the lamp-stand so that people may see the light when they come in.

Luke 11:34 The lamp of the body is your eye. When your eye is clear, your whole body, too, is filled with light; but when it is diseased your body, too, will be darkened.

Luke 11:35 See to it then that the light inside you is not darkness.

Luke 11:36 If, therefore, your whole body is filled with light, and not darkened at all, it will be light entirely, as when the lamp shines on you with its rays.’

Luke 11:37 He had just finished speaking when a Pharisee invited him to dine at his house. He went in and sat down at table.

Luke 11:38 The Pharisee saw this and was surprised that he had not first washed before the meal.

Luke 11:39 But the Lord said to him, ‘You Pharisees! You clean the outside of cup and plate, while inside yourselves you are filled with extortion and wickedness.

Luke 11:40 Fools! Did not he who made the outside make the inside too?

Luke 11:41 Instead, give alms from what you have and, look, everything will be clean for you.

Luke 11:42 But alas for you Pharisees, because you pay your tithe of mint and rue and all sorts of garden herbs and neglect justice and the love of God! These you should have practised, without neglecting the others.

Luke 11:43 Alas for you Pharisees, because you like to take the seats of honour in the synagogues and to be greeted respectfully in the market squares!

Luke 11:44 Alas for you, because you are like the unmarked tombs that people walk on without knowing it!’

Luke 11:45 A lawyer then spoke up. ‘Master,’ he said, ‘when you speak like this you insult us too.’

Luke 11:46 But he said, ‘Alas for you lawyers as well, because you load on people burdens that are unendurable, burdens that you yourselves do not touch with your fingertips.

Luke 11:47 ‘Alas for you because you build tombs for the prophets, the people your ancestors killed!

Luke 11:48 In this way you both witness to what your ancestors did and approve it; they did the killing, you do the building.

Luke 11:49 ‘And that is why the Wisdom of God said, “I will send them prophets and apostles; some they will slaughter and persecute,

Luke 11:50 so that this generation will have to answer for every prophet’s blood that has been shed since the foundation of the world,

Luke 11:51 from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the Temple.” Yes, I tell you, this generation will have to answer for it all.

Luke 11:52 ‘Alas for you lawyers who have taken away the key of knowledge! You have not gone in yourselves and have prevented others from going in who wanted to.’

Luke 11:53 When he left there, the scribes and the Pharisees began a furious attack on him and tried to force answers from him on innumerable questions,

Luke 11:54 lying in wait to catch him out in something he might say.

Luke 12:1 Meanwhile the people had gathered in their thousands so that they were treading on one another. And he began to speak, first of all to his disciples. ‘Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees—their hypocrisy.

Luke 12:2 Everything now covered up will be uncovered, and everything now hidden will be made clear.

Luke 12:3 For this reason, whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the daylight, and what you have whispered in hidden places will be proclaimed from the housetops.

Luke 12:4 ‘To you my friends I say: Do not be afraid of those who kill the body and after that can do no more.

Luke 12:5 I will tell you whom to fear: fear him who, after he has killed, has the power to cast into hell. Yes, I tell you, he is the one to fear.

Luke 12:6 Can you not buy five sparrows for two pennies? And yet not one is forgotten in God's sight.

Luke 12:7 Why, every hair on your head has been counted. There is no need to be afraid: you are worth more than many sparrows.

Luke 12:8 'I tell you, if anyone openly declares himself for me in the presence of human beings, the Son of man will declare himself for him in the presence of God's angels.

Luke 12:9 But anyone who disowns me in the presence of human beings will be disowned in the presence of God's angels.

Luke 12:10 'Everyone who says a word against the Son of man will be forgiven, but no one who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will be forgiven.

Luke 12:11 'When they take you before synagogues and magistrates and authorities, do not worry about how to defend yourselves or what to say,

Luke 12:12 because when the time comes, the Holy Spirit will teach you what you should say.'

Luke 12:13 A man in the crowd said to him, 'Master, tell my brother to give me a share of our inheritance.'

Luke 12:14 He said to him, 'My friend, who appointed me your judge, or the arbitrator of your claims?'

Luke 12:15 Then he said to them, 'Watch, and be on your guard against avarice of any kind, for life does not consist in possessions, even when someone has more than he needs.'

Luke 12:16 Then he told them a parable, 'There was once a rich man who, having had a good harvest from his land,

Luke 12:17 thought to himself, "What am I to do? I have not enough room to store my crops."

Luke 12:18 Then he said, "This is what I will do: I will pull down my barns and build bigger ones, and store all my grain and my goods in them,

Luke 12:19 and I will say to my soul: My soul, you have plenty of good things laid by for many years to come; take things easy, eat, drink, have a good time."

Luke 12:20 But God said to him, "Fool! This very night the demand will be made for your soul; and this hoard of yours, whose will it be then?"

Luke 12:21 So it is when someone stores up treasure for himself instead of becoming rich in the sight of God.'

Luke 12:22 Then he said to his disciples, 'That is why I am telling you not to worry about your life and what you are to eat, nor about your body and how you are to clothe it.

Luke 12:23 For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing.

Luke 12:24 Think of the ravens. They do not sow or reap; they have no storehouses and no barns; yet God feeds them. And how much more you are worth than the birds!

Luke 12:25 Can any of you, however much you worry, add a single cubit to your span of life?

Luke 12:26 If a very small thing is beyond your powers, why worry about the rest?

Luke 12:27 Think how the flowers grow; they never have to spin or weave; yet, I assure you, not even Solomon in all his royal robes was clothed like one of them.

Luke 12:28 Now if that is how God clothes a flower which is growing wild today and is thrown into the furnace tomorrow, how much more will he look after you, who have so little faith!

Luke 12:29 But you must not set your hearts on things to eat and things to drink; nor must you worry.

Luke 12:30 It is the gentiles of this world who set their hearts on all these things. Your Father well knows you need them.

Luke 12:31 No; set your hearts on his kingdom, and these other things will be given you as well.

Luke 12:32 ‘There is no need to be afraid, little flock, for it has pleased your Father to give you the kingdom.

Luke 12:33 ‘Sell your possessions and give to those in need. Get yourselves purses that do not wear out, treasure that will not fail you, in heaven where no thief can reach it and no moth destroy it.

Luke 12:34 For wherever your treasure is, that is where your heart will be too.

Luke 12:35 ‘See that you have your belts done up and your lamps lit.

Luke 12:36 Be like people waiting for their master to return from the wedding feast, ready to open the door as soon as he comes and knocks.

Luke 12:37 Blessed those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes. In truth I tell you, he will do up his belt, sit them down at table and wait on them.

Luke 12:38 It may be in the second watch that he comes, or in the third, but blessed are those servants if he finds them ready.

Luke 12:39 You may be quite sure of this, that if the householder had known at what time the burglar would come, he would not have let anyone break through the wall of his house.

Luke 12:40 You too must stand ready, because the Son of man is coming at an hour you do not expect.’

Luke 12:41 Peter said, 'Lord, do you mean this parable for us, or for everyone?'

Luke 12:42 The Lord replied, 'Who, then, is the wise and trustworthy steward whom the master will place over his household to give them at the proper time their allowance of food?

Luke 12:43 Blessed that servant if his master's arrival finds him doing exactly that.

Luke 12:44 I tell you truly, he will put him in charge of everything that he owns.

Luke 12:45 But if the servant says to himself, "My master is taking his time coming," and sets about beating the menservants and the servant-girls, and eating and drinking and getting drunk,

Luke 12:46 his master will come on a day he does not expect and at an hour he does not know. The master will cut him off and send him to the same fate as the unfaithful.

Luke 12:47 'The servant who knows what his master wants, but has got nothing ready and done nothing in accord with those wishes, will be given a great many strokes of the lash.

Luke 12:48 The one who did not know, but has acted in such a way that he deserves a beating, will be given fewer strokes. When someone is given a great deal, a great deal will be demanded of that person; when someone is entrusted with a great deal, of that person even more will be expected.

Luke 12:49 'I have come to bring fire to the earth, and how I wish it were blazing already!

Luke 12:50 There is a baptism I must still receive, and what constraint I am under until it is completed!

Luke 12:51 'Do you suppose that I am here to bring peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division.

Luke 12:52 For from now on, a household of five will be divided: three against two and two against three;

Luke 12:53 father opposed to son, son to father, mother to daughter, daughter to mother, mother-in-law to daughter-in-law, daughter-in-law to mother-in-law.'

Luke 12:54 He said again to the crowds, 'When you see a cloud looming up in the west you say at once that rain is coming, and so it does.

Luke 12:55 And when the wind is from the south you say it's going to be hot, and it is.

Luke 12:56 Hypocrites! You know how to interpret the face of the earth and the sky. How is it you do not know how to interpret these times?

Luke 12:57 'Why not judge for yourselves what is upright?

Luke 12:58 For example: when you are going to court with your opponent, make an effort to settle with him on the way, or he may drag you before the judge and the judge hand you over to the officer and the officer have you thrown into prison.

Luke 12:59 I tell you, you will not get out till you have paid the very last penny.'

Luke 13:1 It was just about this time that some people arrived and told him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with that of their sacrifices. At this he said to them,

Luke 13:2 'Do you suppose that these Galileans were worse sinners than any others, that this should have happened to them?

Luke 13:3 They were not, I tell you. No; but unless you repent you will all perish as they did.

Luke 13:4 Or those eighteen on whom the tower at Siloam fell, killing them all? Do you suppose that they were more guilty than all the other people living in Jerusalem?

Luke 13:5 They were not, I tell you. No; but unless you repent you will all perish as they did.'

Luke 13:6 He told this parable, 'A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came looking for fruit on it but found none.

Luke 13:7 He said to his vinedresser, "For three years now I have been coming to look for fruit on this fig tree and finding none. Cut it down: why should it be taking up the ground?"

Luke 13:8 "Sir," the man replied, "leave it one more year and give me time to dig round it and manure it:

Luke 13:9 it may bear fruit next year; if not, then you can cut it down." '

Luke 13:10 One Sabbath day he was teaching in one of the synagogues,

Luke 13:11 and there before him was a woman who for eighteen years had been possessed by a spirit that crippled her; she was bent double and quite unable to stand upright.

Luke 13:12 When Jesus saw her he called her over and said, 'Woman, you are freed from your disability,'

Luke 13:13 and he laid his hands on her. And at once she straightened up, and she glorified God.

Luke 13:14 But the president of the synagogue was indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, and he addressed all those present saying, 'There are six days when work is to be done. Come and be healed on one of those days and not on the Sabbath.'

Luke 13:15 But the Lord answered him and said, 'Hypocrites! Is there one of you who does not untie his ox or his donkey from the manger on the Sabbath and take it out for watering?

Luke 13:16 And this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan has held bound these eighteen years—was it not right to untie this bond on the Sabbath day?'

Luke 13:17 When he said this, all his adversaries were covered with confusion, and all the people were overjoyed at all the wonders he worked.

Luke 13:18 He went on to say, 'What is the kingdom of God like? What shall I compare it with?

Luke 13:19 It is like a mustard seed which a man took and threw into his garden: it grew and became a tree, and the birds of the air sheltered in its branches.'

Luke 13:20 Again he said, 'What shall I compare the kingdom of God with?

Luke 13:21 It is like the yeast a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour till it was leavened all through.'

Luke 13:22 Through towns and villages he went teaching, making his way to Jerusalem.

Luke 13:23 Someone said to him, 'Sir, will there be only a few saved?' He said to them,

Luke 13:24 'Try your hardest to enter by the narrow door, because, I tell you, many will try to enter and will not succeed.

Luke 13:25 'Once the master of the house has got up and locked the door, you may find yourself standing outside knocking on the door, saying, "Lord, open to us," but he will answer, "I do not know where you come from."

Luke 13:26 Then you will start saying, "We once ate and drank in your company; you taught in our streets,"

Luke 13:27 but he will reply, "I do not know where you come from; away from me, all evil doers!"

Luke 13:28 'Then there will be weeping and grinding of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and yourselves thrown out.

Luke 13:29 And people from east and west, from north and south, will come and sit down at the feast in the kingdom of God.

Luke 13:30 'Look, there are those now last who will be first, and those now first who will be last.'

Luke 13:31 Just at this time some Pharisees came up. 'Go away,' they said. 'Leave this place, because Herod means to kill you.'

Luke 13:32 He replied, 'You may go and give that fox this message: Look! Today and tomorrow I drive out devils and heal, and on the third day I attain my end.

Luke 13:33 But for today and tomorrow and the next day I must go on, since it would not be right for a prophet to die outside Jerusalem.

Luke 13:34 'Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you that kill the prophets and stone those who are sent to you! How often have I longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you refused!

Luke 13:35 Look! Your house will be left to you. Yes, I promise you, you shall not see me till the time comes when you are saying: Blessed is he who is coming in the name of the Lord!'

Luke 14:1 Now it happened that on a Sabbath day he had gone to share a meal in the house of one of the leading Pharisees; and they watched him closely.

Luke 14:2 Now there in front of him was a man with dropsy,

Luke 14:3 and Jesus addressed the lawyers and Pharisees with the words, 'Is it against the law to cure someone on the Sabbath, or not?'

Luke 14:4 But they remained silent, so he took the man and cured him and sent him away.

Luke 14:5 Then he said to them, 'Which of you here, if his son falls into a well, or his ox, will not pull him out on a Sabbath day without any hesitation?'

Luke 14:6 And to this they could find no answer.

Luke 14:7 He then told the guests a parable, because he had noticed how they picked the places of honour. He said this,

Luke 14:8 'When someone invites you to a wedding feast, do not take your seat in the place of honour. A more distinguished person than you may have been invited,

Luke 14:9 and the person who invited you both may come and say, "Give up your place to this man." And then, to your embarrassment, you will have to go and take the lowest place.

Luke 14:10 No; when you are a guest, make your way to the lowest place and sit there, so that, when your host comes, he may say, "My friend, move up higher." Then, everyone with you at the table will see you honoured.

Luke 14:11 For everyone who raises himself up will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be raised up.'

Luke 14:12 Then he said to his host, 'When you give a lunch or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relations or rich neighbours, in case they invite you back and so repay you.

Luke 14:13 No; when you have a party, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind;

Luke 14:14 then you will be blessed, for they have no means to repay you and so you will be repaid when the upright rise again.'

Luke 14:15 On hearing this, one of those gathered round the table said to him, 'Blessed is anyone who will share the meal in the kingdom of God!'

Luke 14:16 But he said to him, 'There was a man who gave a great banquet, and he invited a large number of people.

Luke 14:17 When the time for the banquet came, he sent his servant to say to those who had been invited, "Come along: everything is ready now."

Luke 14:18 But all alike started to make excuses. The first said, "I have bought a piece of land and must go and see it. Please accept my apologies."

Luke 14:19 Another said, "I have bought five yoke of oxen and am on my way to try them out. Please accept my apologies."

Luke 14:20 Yet another said, "I have just got married and so am unable to come."

Luke 14:21 'The servant returned and reported this to his master. Then the householder, in a rage, said to his servant, "Go out quickly into the streets and alleys of the town and bring in here the poor, the crippled, the blind and the lame."

Luke 14:22 "Sir," said the servant, "your orders have been carried out and there is still room."

Luke 14:23 Then the master said to his servant, "Go to the open roads and the hedgerows and press people to come in, to make sure my house is full;

Luke 14:24 because, I tell you, not one of those who were invited shall have a taste of my banquet." '

Luke 14:25 Great crowds accompanied him on his way and he turned and spoke to them.

Luke 14:26 'Anyone who comes to me without hating father, mother, wife, children, brothers, sisters, yes and his own life too, cannot be my disciple.

Luke 14:27 No one who does not carry his cross and come after me can be my disciple.

Luke 14:28 'And indeed, which of you here, intending to build a tower, would not first sit down and work out the cost to see if he had enough to complete it?

Luke 14:29 Otherwise, if he laid the foundation and then found himself unable to finish the work, anyone who saw it would start making fun of him and saying,

Luke 14:30 "Here is someone who started to build and was unable to finish."

Luke 14:31 Or again, what king marching to war against another king would not first sit down and consider whether with ten thousand men he could stand up to the other who was advancing against him with twenty thousand?

Luke 14:32 If not, then while the other king was still a long way off, he would send envoys to sue for peace.

Luke 14:33 So in the same way, none of you can be my disciple without giving up all that he owns.

Luke 14:34 'Salt is a good thing. But if salt itself loses its taste, what can make it salty again?

Luke 14:35 It is good for neither soil nor manure heap. People throw it away. Anyone who has ears for listening should listen!'

Luke 15:1 The tax collectors and sinners, however, were all crowding round to listen to him,

Luke 15:2 and the Pharisees and scribes complained saying, 'This man welcomes sinners and eats with them.'

Luke 15:3 So he told them this parable:

Luke 15:4 'Which one of you with a hundred sheep, if he lost one, would fail to leave the ninety-nine in the desert and go after the missing one till he found it?

Luke 15:5 And when he found it, would he not joyfully take it on his shoulders

Luke 15:6 and then, when he got home, call together his friends and neighbours, saying to them, “Rejoice with me, I have found my sheep that was lost.”

Luke 15:7 In the same way, I tell you, there will be more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner repenting than over ninety-nine upright people who have no need of repentance.

Luke 15:8 'Or again, what woman with ten drachmas would not, if she lost one, light a lamp and sweep out the house and search thoroughly till she found it?

Luke 15:9 And then, when she had found it, call together her friends and neighbours, saying to them, “Rejoice with me, I have found the drachma I lost.”

Luke 15:10 In the same way, I tell you, there is rejoicing among the angels of God over one repentant sinner.'

Luke 15:11 Then he said, 'There was a man who had two sons.

Luke 15:12 The younger one said to his father, “Father, let me have the share of the estate that will come to me.” So the father divided the property between them.

Luke 15:13 A few days later, the younger son got together everything he had and left for a distant country where he squandered his money on a life of debauchery.

Luke 15:14 'When he had spent it all, that country experienced a severe famine, and now he began to feel the pinch;

Luke 15:15 so he hired himself out to one of the local inhabitants who put him on his farm to feed the pigs.

Luke 15:16 And he would willingly have filled himself with the husks the pigs were eating but no one would let him have them.

Luke 15:17 Then he came to his senses and said, "How many of my father's hired men have all the food they want and more, and here am I dying of hunger!

Luke 15:18 I will leave this place and go to my father and say: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you;

Luke 15:19 I no longer deserve to be called your son; treat me as one of your hired men."

Luke 15:20 So he left the place and went back to his father. 'While he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was moved with pity. He ran to the boy, clasped him in his arms and kissed him.

Luke 15:21 Then his son said, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I no longer deserve to be called your son."

Luke 15:22 But the father said to his servants, "Quick! Bring out the best robe and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet.

Luke 15:23 Bring the calf we have been fattening, and kill it; we will celebrate by having a feast,

Luke 15:24 because this son of mine was dead and has come back to life; he was lost and is found." And they began to celebrate.

Luke 15:25 'Now the elder son was out in the fields, and on his way back, as he drew near the house, he could hear music and dancing.

Luke 15:26 Calling one of the servants he asked what it was all about.

Luke 15:27 The servant told him, "Your brother has come, and your father has killed the calf we had been fattening because he has got him back safe and sound."

Luke 15:28 He was angry then and refused to go in, and his father came out and began to urge him to come in;

Luke 15:29 but he retorted to his father, "All these years I have slaved for you and never once disobeyed any orders of yours, yet you never offered me so much as a kid for me to celebrate with my friends.

Luke 15:30 But, for this son of yours, when he comes back after swallowing up your property—he and his loose women—you kill the calf we had been fattening."

Luke 15:31 'The father said, "My son, you are with me always and all

I have is yours.

Luke 15:32 But it was only right we should celebrate and rejoice, because your brother here was dead and has come to life; he was lost and is found.” ‘

Luke 16:1 He also said to his disciples, ‘There was a rich man and he had a steward who was denounced to him for being wasteful with his property.

Luke 16:2 He called for the man and said, “What is this I hear about you? Draw me up an account of your stewardship because you are not to be my steward any longer.”

Luke 16:3 Then the steward said to himself, “Now that my master is taking the stewardship from me, what am I to do? Dig? I am not strong enough. Go begging? I should be too ashamed.

Luke 16:4 Ah, I know what I will do to make sure that when I am dismissed from office there will be some to welcome me into their homes.”

Luke 16:5 ‘Then he called his master’s debtors one by one. To the first he said, “How much do you owe my master?”

Luke 16:6 “One hundred measures of oil,” he said. The steward said, “Here, take your bond; sit down and quickly write fifty.”

Luke 16:7 To another he said, “And you, sir, how much do you owe?” “One hundred measures of wheat,” he said. The steward said, “Here, take your bond and write eighty.”

Luke 16:8 ‘The master praised the dishonest steward for his astuteness. For the children of this world are more astute in dealing with their own kind than are the children of light.’

Luke 16:9 ‘And so I tell you this: use money, tainted as it is, to win you friends, and thus make sure that when it fails you, they will welcome you into eternal dwellings.

Luke 16:10 Anyone who is trustworthy in little things is trustworthy in great; anyone who is dishonest in little things is dishonest in great.

Luke 16:11 If then you are not trustworthy with money, that tainted thing, who will trust you with genuine riches?

Luke 16:12 And if you are not trustworthy with what is not yours, who will give you what is your very own?

Luke 16:13 ‘No servant can be the slave of two masters: he will either hate the first and love the second, or be attached to the first and despise the second. You cannot be the slave both of God and of money.’

Luke 16:14 The Pharisees, who loved money, heard all this and jeered at him.

Luke 16:15 He said to them, ‘You are the very ones who pass yourselves off as upright in people’s sight, but God knows your hearts.

For what is highly esteemed in human eyes is loathsome in the sight of God.

Luke 16:16 ‘Up to the time of John it was the Law and the Prophets; from then onwards, the kingdom of God has been preached, and everyone is forcing their way into it.

Luke 16:17 ‘It is easier for heaven and earth to disappear than for one little stroke to drop out of the Law.

Luke 16:18 ‘Everyone who divorces his wife and marries another is guilty of adultery, and the man who marries a woman divorced by her husband commits adultery.

Luke 16:19 ‘There was a rich man who used to dress in purple and fine linen and feast magnificently every day.

Luke 16:20 And at his gate there used to lie a poor man called Lazarus, covered with sores,

Luke 16:21 who longed to fill himself with what fell from the rich man’s table. Even dogs came and licked his sores.

Luke 16:22 Now it happened that the poor man died and was carried away by the angels into Abraham’s embrace. The rich man also died and was buried.

Luke 16:23 ‘In his torment in Hades he looked up and saw Abraham a long way off with Lazarus in his embrace.

Luke 16:24 So he cried out, “Father Abraham, pity me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am in agony in these flames.”

Luke 16:25 Abraham said, “My son, remember that during your life you had your fill of good things, just as Lazarus his fill of bad. Now he is being comforted here while you are in agony.

Luke 16:26 But that is not all: between us and you a great gulf has been fixed, to prevent those who want to cross from our side to yours or from your side to ours.”

Luke 16:27 ‘So he said, “Father, I beg you then to send Lazarus to my father’s house,

Luke 16:28 since I have five brothers, to give them warning so that they do not come to this place of torment too.”

Luke 16:29 Abraham said, “They have Moses and the prophets, let them listen to them.”

Luke 16:30 The rich man replied, “Ah no, father Abraham, but if someone comes to them from the dead, they will repent.”

Luke 16:31 Then Abraham said to him, “If they will not listen either to Moses or to the prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone should rise from the dead.”

Luke 17:1 He said to his disciples, ‘Causes of falling are sure to come, but alas for the one through whom they occur!

Luke 17:2 It would be better for such a person to be thrown into the sea with a millstone round the neck than to be the downfall of a single one of these little ones.

Luke 17:3 Keep watch on yourselves! 'If your brother does something wrong, rebuke him and, if he is sorry, forgive him.

Luke 17:4 And if he wrongs you seven times a day and seven times comes back to you and says, "I am sorry," you must forgive him.'

Luke 17:5 The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith.'

Luke 17:6 The Lord replied, 'If you had faith like a mustard seed you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted and planted in the sea," and it would obey you.

Luke 17:7 'Which of you, with a servant ploughing or minding sheep, would say to him when he returned from the fields, "Come and have your meal at once"?

Luke 17:8 Would he not be more likely to say, "Get my supper ready; fasten your belt and wait on me while I eat and drink. You yourself can eat and drink afterwards"?

Luke 17:9 Must he be grateful to the servant for doing what he was told?

Luke 17:10 So with you: when you have done all you have been told to do, say, "We are useless servants: we have done no more than our duty." '

Luke 17:11 Now it happened that on the way to Jerusalem he was travelling in the borderlands of Samaria and Galilee.

Luke 17:12 As he entered one of the villages, ten men suffering from a virulent skin-disease came to meet him. They stood some way off

Luke 17:13 and called to him, 'Jesus! Master! Take pity on us.'

Luke 17:14 When he saw them he said, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' Now as they were going away they were cleansed.

Luke 17:15 Finding himself cured, one of them turned back praising God at the top of his voice

Luke 17:16 and threw himself prostrate at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. The man was a Samaritan.

Luke 17:17 This led Jesus to say, 'Were not all ten made clean? The other nine, where are they?

Luke 17:18 It seems that no one has come back to give praise to God, except this foreigner.'

Luke 17:19 And he said to the man, 'Stand up and go on your way. Your faith has saved you.'

Luke 17:20 Asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God was to come, he gave them this answer, ‘The coming of the kingdom of God does not admit of observation

Luke 17:21 and there will be no one to say, “Look, it is here! Look, it is there!” For look, the kingdom of God is among you.’

Luke 17:22 He said to the disciples, ‘A time will come when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of man and will not see it.

Luke 17:23 They will say to you, “Look, it is there!” or, “Look, it is here!” Make no move; do not set off in pursuit;

Luke 17:24 for as the lightning flashing from one part of heaven lights up the other, so will be the Son of man when his Day comes.

Luke 17:25 But first he is destined to suffer grievously and be rejected by this generation.

Luke 17:26 ‘As it was in Noah’s day, so will it also be in the days of the Son of man.

Luke 17:27 People were eating and drinking, marrying wives and husbands, right up to the day Noah went into the ark, and the Flood came and destroyed them all.

Luke 17:28 It will be the same as it was in Lot’s day: people were eating and drinking, buying and selling, planting and building,

Luke 17:29 but the day Lot left Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and it destroyed them all.

Luke 17:30 It will be the same when the day comes for the Son of man to be revealed.

Luke 17:31 ‘When that Day comes, no one on the housetop, with his possessions in the house, must come down to collect them, nor must anyone in the fields turn back.

Luke 17:32 Remember Lot’s wife.

Luke 17:33 Anyone who tries to preserve his life will lose it; and anyone who loses it will keep it safe.

Luke 17:34 I tell you, on that night, when two are in one bed, one will be taken, the other left;

Luke 17:35 when two women are grinding corn together, one will be taken, the other left.’

Luke 17:36

Luke 17:37 The disciples spoke up and asked, ‘Where, Lord?’ He said, ‘Where the body is, there too will the vultures gather.’

Luke 18:1 Then he told them a parable about the need to pray continually and never lose heart.

Luke 18:2 ‘There was a judge in a certain town,’ he said, ‘who had neither fear of God nor respect for anyone.

Luke 18:3 In the same town there was also a widow who kept on coming to him and saying, “I want justice from you against my enemy!”

Luke 18:4 For a long time he refused, but at last he said to himself, “Even though I have neither fear of God nor respect for any human person,

Luke 18:5 I must give this widow her just rights since she keeps pestering me, or she will come and slap me in the face.” ‘

Luke 18:6 And the Lord said, ‘You notice what the unjust judge has to say?

Luke 18:7 Now, will not God see justice done to his elect if they keep calling to him day and night even though he still delays to help them?

Luke 18:8 I promise you, he will see justice done to them, and done speedily. But when the Son of man comes, will he find any faith on earth?’

Luke 18:9 He spoke the following parable to some people who prided themselves on being upright and despised everyone else,

Luke 18:10 ‘Two men went up to the Temple to pray, one a Pharisee, the other a tax collector.

Luke 18:11 The Pharisee stood there and said this prayer to himself, “I thank you, God, that I am not grasping, unjust, adulterous like everyone else, and particularly that I am not like this tax collector here.

Luke 18:12 I fast twice a week; I pay tithes on all I get.”

Luke 18:13 The tax collector stood some distance away, not daring even to raise his eyes to heaven; but he beat his breast and said, “God, be merciful to me, a sinner.”

Luke 18:14 This man, I tell you, went home again justified; the other did not. For everyone who raises himself up will be humbled, but anyone who humbles himself will be raised up.’

Luke 18:15 People even brought babies to him, for him to touch them; but when the disciples saw this they scolded them.

Luke 18:16 But Jesus called the children to him and said, ‘Let the little children come to me, and do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs.

Luke 18:17 In truth I tell you, anyone who does not welcome the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.’

Luke 18:18 One of the rulers put this question to him, ‘Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?’

Luke 18:19 Jesus said to him, ‘Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone.

Luke 18:20 You know the commandments: You shall not commit adultery; You shall not kill; You shall not steal; You shall not give false witness; Honour your father and your mother.’

Luke 18:21 He replied, ‘I have kept all these since my earliest days.’

Luke 18:22 And when Jesus heard this he said, 'There is still one thing you lack. Sell everything you own and distribute the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.'

Luke 18:23 But when he heard this he was overcome with sadness, for he was very rich.

Luke 18:24 Jesus looked at him and said, 'How hard it is for those who have riches to make their way into the kingdom of God!

Luke 18:25 Yes, it is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for someone rich to enter the kingdom of God.'

Luke 18:26 Those who were listening said, 'In that case, who can be saved?'

Luke 18:27 He replied, 'Things that are impossible by human resources, are possible for God.'

Luke 18:28 But Peter said, 'Look, we left all we had to follow you.'

Luke 18:29 He said to them, 'In truth I tell you, there is no one who has left house, wife, brothers, parents or children for the sake of the kingdom of God

Luke 18:30 who will not receive many times as much in this present age and, in the world to come, eternal life.'

Luke 18:31 Then taking the Twelve aside he said to them, 'Look, we are going up to Jerusalem, and everything that is written by the prophets about the Son of man is to come true.

Luke 18:32 For he will be handed over to the gentiles and will be mocked, maltreated and spat on,

Luke 18:33 and when they have scourged him they will put him to death; and on the third day he will rise again.'

Luke 18:34 But they could make nothing of this; what he said was quite obscure to them, they did not understand what he was telling them.

Luke 18:35 Now it happened that as he drew near to Jericho there was a blind man sitting at the side of the road begging.

Luke 18:36 When he heard the crowd going past he asked what it was all about,

Luke 18:37 and they told him that Jesus the Nazarene was passing by.

Luke 18:38 So he called out, 'Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me.'

Luke 18:39 The people in front scolded him and told him to keep quiet, but he only shouted all the louder, 'Son of David, have pity on me.'

Luke 18:40 Jesus stopped and ordered them to bring the man to him, and when he came up, asked him,

Luke 18:41 'What do you want me to do for you?' 'Sir,' he replied, 'let me see again.'

Luke 18:42 Jesus said to him, 'Receive your sight. Your faith has saved you.'

Luke 18:43 And instantly his sight returned and he followed him praising God, and all the people who saw it gave praise to God.

Luke 19:1 He entered Jericho and was going through the town

Luke 19:2 and suddenly a man whose name was Zacchaeus made his appearance; he was one of the senior tax collectors and a wealthy man.

Luke 19:3 He kept trying to see which Jesus was, but he was too short and could not see him for the crowd;

Luke 19:4 so he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to catch a glimpse of Jesus who was to pass that way.

Luke 19:5 When Jesus reached the spot he looked up and spoke to him, 'Zacchaeus, come down. Hurry, because I am to stay at your house today.'

Luke 19:6 And he hurried down and welcomed him joyfully.

Luke 19:7 They all complained when they saw what was happening. 'He has gone to stay at a sinner's house,' they said.

Luke 19:8 But Zacchaeus stood his ground and said to the Lord, 'Look, sir, I am going to give half my property to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody I will pay him back four times the amount.'

Luke 19:9 And Jesus said to him, 'Today salvation has come to this house, because this man too is a son of Abraham;

Luke 19:10 for the Son of man has come to seek out and save what was lost.'

Luke 19:11 While the people were listening to this he went on to tell a parable, because he was near Jerusalem and they thought that the kingdom of God was going to show itself then and there.

Luke 19:12 Accordingly he said, 'A man of noble birth went to a distant country to be appointed king and then return.

Luke 19:13 He summoned ten of his servants and gave them ten pounds, telling them, "Trade with these, until I get back."

Luke 19:14 But his compatriots detested him and sent a delegation to follow him with this message, "We do not want this man to be our king."

Luke 19:15 'Now it happened that on his return, having received his appointment as king, he sent for those servants to whom he had given the money, to find out what profit each had made by trading.

Luke 19:16 The first came in, "Sir," he said, "your one pound has brought in ten."

Luke 19:17 He replied, “Well done, my good servant! Since you have proved yourself trustworthy in a very small thing, you shall have the government of ten cities.”

Luke 19:18 Then came the second, “Sir,” he said, “your one pound has made five.”

Luke 19:19 To this one also he said, “And you shall be in charge of five cities.”

Luke 19:20 Next came the other, “Sir,” he said, “here is your pound. I put it away safely wrapped up in a cloth

Luke 19:21 because I was afraid of you; for you are an exacting man: you gather in what you have not laid out and reap what you have not sown.”

Luke 19:22 He said to him, “You wicked servant! Out of your own mouth I condemn you. So you knew that I was an exacting man, gathering in what I have not laid out and reaping what I have not sown?

Luke 19:23 Then why did you not put my money in the bank? On my return I could have drawn it out with interest.”

Luke 19:24 And he said to those standing by, “Take the pound from him and give it to the man who has ten pounds.”

Luke 19:25 And they said to him, “But, sir, he has ten pounds . . .”

Luke 19:26 “I tell you, to everyone who has will be given more; but anyone who has not will be deprived even of what he has.

Luke 19:27 “As for my enemies who did not want me for their king, bring them here and execute them in my presence.” ‘

Luke 19:28 When he had said this he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

Luke 19:29 Now it happened that when he was near Bethphage and Bethany, close by the Mount of Olives as it is called, he sent two of the disciples, saying,

Luke 19:30 ‘Go to the village opposite, and as you enter it you will find a tethered colt that no one has ever yet ridden. Untie it and bring it here.

Luke 19:31 If anyone asks you, “Why are you untying it?” you are to say this, “The Master needs it.” ‘

Luke 19:32 The messengers went off and found everything just as he had told them.

Luke 19:33 As they were untying the colt, its owners said, ‘Why are you untying it?’

Luke 19:34 and they answered, ‘The Master needs it.’

Luke 19:35 So they took the colt to Jesus and, throwing their cloaks on its back, they lifted Jesus on to it.

Luke 19:36 As he moved off, they spread their cloaks in the road,

Luke 19:37 and now, as he was approaching the downward slope of the Mount of Olives, the whole group of disciples joyfully began to praise God at the top of their voices for all the miracles they had seen.

Luke 19:38 They cried out: Blessed is he who is coming as King in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory in the highest heavens!

Luke 19:39 Some Pharisees in the crowd said to him, 'Master, reprove your disciples,'

Luke 19:40 but he answered, 'I tell you, if these keep silence, the stones will cry out.'

Luke 19:41 As he drew near and came in sight of the city he shed tears over it

Luke 19:42 and said, 'If you too had only recognised on this day the way to peace! But in fact it is hidden from your eyes!

Luke 19:43 Yes, a time is coming when your enemies will raise fortifications all round you, when they will encircle you and hem you in on every side;

Luke 19:44 they will dash you and the children inside your walls to the ground; they will leave not one stone standing on another within you, because you did not recognise the moment of your visitation.'

Luke 19:45 Then he went into the Temple and began driving out those who were busy trading, saying to them,

Luke 19:46 'According to scripture, my house shall be a house of prayer but you have turned it into a bandits' den.'

Luke 19:47 He taught in the Temple every day. The chief priests and the scribes, in company with the leading citizens, tried to do away with him,

Luke 19:48 but they could not find a way to carry this out because the whole people hung on his words.

Luke 20:1 Now it happened that one day while he was teaching the people in the Temple and proclaiming the good news, the chief priests and the scribes came up, together with the elders,

Luke 20:2 and spoke to him. 'Tell us,' they said, 'what authority have you for acting like this? Or who gives you this authority?'

Luke 20:3 In reply he said to them, 'And I will ask you a question, just one. Tell me:

Luke 20:4 John's baptism: what was its origin, heavenly or human?'

Luke 20:5 And they debated this way among themselves, 'If we say heavenly, he will retort, "Why did you refuse to believe him?";

Luke 20:6 and if we say human, the whole people will stone us, for they are convinced that John was a prophet.'

Luke 20:7 So their reply was that they did not know where it came from.

Luke 20:8 And Jesus said to them, 'Nor will I tell you my authority for acting like this.'

Luke 20:9 And he went on to tell the people this parable, 'A man planted a vineyard and leased it to tenants, and went abroad for a long while.

Luke 20:10 When the right time came, he sent a servant to the tenants to get his share of the produce of the vineyard. But the tenants thrashed him, and sent him away empty-handed.

Luke 20:11 But he went on to send a second servant; they thrashed him too and treated him shamefully and sent him away empty-handed.

Luke 20:12 He still went on to send a third; they wounded this one too, and threw him out.

Luke 20:13 Then the owner of the vineyard thought, "What am I to do? I will send them my own beloved son. Perhaps they will respect him."

Luke 20:14 But when the tenants saw him they put their heads together saying, "This is the heir, let us kill him so that the inheritance will be ours."

Luke 20:15 So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. 'Now what will the owner of the vineyard do to them?

Luke 20:16 He will come and make an end of these tenants and give the vineyard to others.' Hearing this they said, 'God forbid!'

Luke 20:17 But he looked hard at them and said, 'Then what does this text in the scriptures mean: The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone?

Luke 20:18 Anyone who falls on that stone will be dashed to pieces; anyone it falls on will be crushed.'

Luke 20:19 And the scribes and the chief priests would have liked to lay hands on him that very moment, because they realised that this parable was aimed at them, but they were afraid of the people.

Luke 20:20 So they awaited their opportunity and sent agents to pose as upright men, and to catch him out in something he might say and so enable them to hand him over to the jurisdiction and authority of the governor.

Luke 20:21 They put to him this question, 'Master, we know that you say and teach what is right; you favour no one, but teach the way of God in all honesty.

Luke 20:22 Is it permissible for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?'

Luke 20:23 But he was aware of their cunning and said,

Luke 20:24 'Show me a denarius. Whose portrait and title are on it?' They said, 'Caesar's.'

Luke 20:25 He said to them, 'Well then, pay Caesar what belongs to Caesar—and God what belongs to God.'

Luke 20:26 They were unable to catch him out in anything he had to say in public; they were amazed at his answer and were silenced.

Luke 20:27 Some Sadducees—those who argue that there is no resurrection—approached him and they put this question to him,

Luke 20:28 'Master, Moses prescribed for us, if a man's married brother dies childless, the man must marry the widow to raise up children for his brother.

Luke 20:29 Well then, there were seven brothers; the first, having married a wife, died childless.

Luke 20:30 The second

Luke 20:31 and then the third married the widow. And the same with all seven, they died leaving no children.

Luke 20:32 Finally the woman herself died.

Luke 20:33 Now, at the resurrection, whose wife will she be, since she had been married to all seven?'

Luke 20:34 Jesus replied, 'The children of this world take wives and husbands,

Luke 20:35 but those who are judged worthy of a place in the other world and in the resurrection from the dead do not marry

Luke 20:36 because they can no longer die, for they are the same as the angels, and being children of the resurrection they are children of God.

Luke 20:37 And Moses himself implies that the dead rise again, in the passage about the bush where he calls the Lord the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.

Luke 20:38 Now he is God, not of the dead, but of the living; for to him everyone is alive.'

Luke 20:39 Some scribes then spoke up. They said, 'Well put, Master.'

Luke 20:40 They did not dare to ask him any more questions.

Luke 20:41 He then said to them, 'How can people maintain that the Christ is son of David?

Luke 20:42 Why, David himself says in the Book of Psalms: The Lord declared to my Lord, take your seat at my right hand,

Luke 20:43 till I have made your enemies your footstool.

Luke 20:44 David here calls him Lord; how then can he be his son?'

Luke 20:45 While all the people were listening he said to the disciples,

Luke 20:46 'Beware of the scribes who like to walk about in long robes and love to be greeted respectfully in the market squares, to take the front seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets,

Luke 20:47 who devour the property of widows, and for show offer long prayers. The more severe will be the sentence they receive.'

Luke 21:1 Looking up, he saw rich people putting their offerings into the treasury;

Luke 21:2 and he noticed a poverty-stricken widow putting in two small coins,

Luke 21:3 and he said, 'I tell you truly, this poor widow has put in more than any of them;

Luke 21:4 for these have all put in money they could spare, but she in her poverty has put in all she had to live on.'

Luke 21:5 When some were talking about the Temple, remarking how it was adorned with fine stonework and votive offerings, he said,

Luke 21:6 'All these things you are staring at now—the time will come when not a single stone will be left on another; everything will be destroyed.'

Luke 21:7 And they put to him this question, 'Master,' they said, 'when will this happen, then, and what sign will there be that it is about to take place?'

Luke 21:8 But he said, 'Take care not to be deceived, because many will come using my name and saying, "I am the one" and "The time is near at hand." Refuse to join them.

Luke 21:9 And when you hear of wars and revolutions, do not be terrified, for this is something that must happen first, but the end will not come at once.'

Luke 21:10 Then he said to them, 'Nation will fight against nation, and kingdom against kingdom.

Luke 21:11 There will be great earthquakes and plagues and famines in various places; there will be terrifying events and great signs from heaven.

Luke 21:12 'But before all this happens, you will be seized and persecuted; you will be handed over to the synagogues and to imprisonment, and brought before kings and governors for the sake of my name

Luke 21:13 -and that will be your opportunity to bear witness.

Luke 21:14 Make up your minds not to prepare your defence,

Luke 21:15 because I myself shall give you an eloquence and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to resist or contradict.

Luke 21:16 You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, relations and friends; and some of you will be put to death.

Luke 21:17 You will be hated universally on account of my name, Luke 21:18 but not a hair of your head will be lost.

Luke 21:19 Your perseverance will win you your lives.

Luke 21:20 'When you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then you must realise that it will soon be laid desolate.

Luke 21:21 Then those in Judaea must escape to the mountains, those inside the city must leave it, and those in country districts must not take refuge in it.

Luke 21:22 For this is the time of retribution when all that scripture says must be fulfilled.

Luke 21:23 Alas for those with child, or with babies at the breast, when those days come!

Luke 21:24 'For great misery will descend on the land and retribution on this people. They will fall by the edge of the sword and be led captive to every gentile country; and Jerusalem will be trampled down by the gentiles until their time is complete.

Luke 21:25 'There will be signs in the sun and moon and stars; on earth nations in agony, bewildered by the turmoil of the ocean and its waves;

Luke 21:26 men fainting away with terror and fear at what menaces the world, for the powers of heaven will be shaken.

Luke 21:27 And then they will see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

Luke 21:28 When these things begin to take place, stand erect, hold your heads high, because your liberation is near at hand.'

Luke 21:29 And he told them a parable, 'Look at the fig tree and indeed every tree.

Luke 21:30 As soon as you see them bud, you can see for yourselves that summer is now near.

Luke 21:31 So with you when you see these things happening: know that the kingdom of God is near.

Luke 21:32 In truth I tell you, before this generation has passed away all will have taken place.

Luke 21:33 Sky and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

Luke 21:34 'Watch yourselves, or your hearts will be coarsened by debauchery and drunkenness and the cares of life, and that day will come upon you unexpectedly,

Luke 21:35 like a trap. For it will come down on all those living on the face of the earth.

Luke 21:36 Stay awake, praying at all times for the strength to survive all that is going to happen, and to hold your ground before the Son of man.'

Luke 21:37 All day long he would be in the Temple teaching, but would spend the night in the open on the hill called the Mount of Olives.

Luke 21:38 And from early morning the people thronged to him in the Temple to listen to him.

Luke 22:1 The feast of Unleavened Bread, called the Passover, was now drawing near,

Luke 22:2 and the chief priests and the scribes were looking for some way of doing away with him, because they were afraid of the people.

Luke 22:3 Then Satan entered into Judas, surnamed Iscariot, who was one of the Twelve.

Luke 22:4 He approached the chief priests and the officers of the guard to discuss some way of handing Jesus over to them.

Luke 22:5 They were delighted and agreed to give him money.

Luke 22:6 He accepted and began to look for an opportunity to betray him to them without people knowing about it.

Luke 22:7 The day of Unleavened Bread came round, on which the Passover had to be sacrificed,

Luke 22:8 and he sent Peter and John, saying, 'Go and make the preparations for us to eat the Passover.'

Luke 22:9 They asked him, 'Where do you want us to prepare it?'

Luke 22:10 He said to them, 'Look, as you go into the city you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him into the house he enters

Luke 22:11 and tell the owner of the house, "The Master says this to you: Where is the room for me to eat the Passover with my disciples?"

Luke 22:12 The man will show you a large upper room furnished with couches. Make the preparations there.'

Luke 22:13 They set off and found everything as he had told them and prepared the Passover.

Luke 22:14 When the time came he took his place at table, and the apostles with him.

Luke 22:15 And he said to them, 'I have ardently longed to eat this Passover with you before I suffer;

Luke 22:16 because, I tell you, I shall not eat it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.'

Luke 22:17 Then, taking a cup, he gave thanks and said, 'Take this and share it among you,

Luke 22:18 because from now on, I tell you, I shall never again drink wine until the kingdom of God comes.'

Luke 22:19 Then he took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, 'This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me.'

Luke 22:20 He did the same with the cup after supper, and said, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood poured out for you.

Luke 22:21 'But look, here with me on the table is the hand of the man who is betraying me.

Luke 22:22 The Son of man is indeed on the path which was decreed, but alas for that man by whom he is betrayed!'

Luke 22:23 And they began to ask one another which of them it could be who was to do this.

Luke 22:24 An argument also began between them about who should be reckoned the greatest;

Luke 22:25 but he said to them, 'Among the gentiles it is the kings who lord it over them, and those who have authority over them are given the title Benefactor.

Luke 22:26 With you this must not happen. No; the greatest among you must behave as if he were the youngest, the leader as if he were the one who serves.

Luke 22:27 For who is the greater: the one at table or the one who serves? The one at table, surely? Yet here am I among you as one who serves!

Luke 22:28 'You are the men who have stood by me faithfully in my trials;

Luke 22:29 and now I confer a kingdom on you, just as my Father conferred one on me:

Luke 22:30 you will eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and you will sit on thrones to judge the twelve tribes of Israel.

Luke 22:31 'Simon, Simon! Look, Satan has got his wish to sift you all like wheat;

Luke 22:32 but I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith may not fail, and once you have recovered, you in your turn must strengthen your brothers.'

Luke 22:33 'Lord,' he answered, 'I would be ready to go to prison with you, and to death.'

Luke 22:34 Jesus replied, 'I tell you, Peter, by the time the cock crows today you will have denied three times that you know me.'

Luke 22:35 He said to them, 'When I sent you out without purse or haversack or sandals, were you short of anything?'

Luke 22:36 'No, nothing,' they said. He said to them, 'But now if you have a purse, take it, and the same with a haversack; if you have no sword, sell your cloak and buy one,

Luke 22:37 because I tell you these words of scripture are destined to be fulfilled in me: He was counted as one of the rebellious. Yes, what it says about me is even now reaching its fulfilment.’

Luke 22:38 They said, ‘Lord, here are two swords.’ He said to them, ‘That is enough!’

Luke 22:39 He then left to make his way as usual to the Mount of Olives, with the disciples following.

Luke 22:40 When he reached the place he said to them, ‘Pray not to be put to the test.’

Luke 22:41 Then he withdrew from them, about a stone’s throw away, and knelt down and prayed.

Luke 22:42 ‘Father,’ he said, ‘if you are willing, take this cup away from me. Nevertheless, let your will be done, not mine.’

Luke 22:43 Then an angel appeared to him, coming from heaven to give him strength.

Luke 22:44 In his anguish he prayed even more earnestly, and his sweat fell to the ground like great drops of blood.

Luke 22:45 When he rose from prayer he went to the disciples and found them sleeping for sheer grief.

Luke 22:46 And he said to them, ‘Why are you asleep? Get up and pray not to be put to the test.’

Luke 22:47 Suddenly, while he was still speaking, a number of men appeared, and at the head of them the man called Judas, one of the Twelve, who went up to Jesus to kiss him.

Luke 22:48 Jesus said, ‘Judas, are you betraying the Son of man with a kiss?’

Luke 22:49 His followers, seeing what was about to happen, said, ‘Lord, shall we use our swords?’

Luke 22:50 And one of them struck the high priest’s servant and cut off his right ear.

Luke 22:51 But at this Jesus said, ‘That is enough.’ And touching the man’s ear he healed him.

Luke 22:52 Then Jesus said to the chief priests and captains of the Temple guard and elders who had come for him, ‘Am I a bandit, that you had to set out with swords and clubs?

Luke 22:53 When I was among you in the Temple day after day you never made a move to lay hands on me. But this is your hour; this is the reign of darkness.’

Luke 22:54 They seized him then and led him away, and they took him to the high priest’s house. Peter followed at a distance.

Luke 22:55 They had lit a fire in the middle of the courtyard and Peter sat down among them, Luke 22:56 and as he was sitting there by the blaze a servant-girl saw him, peered at him, and said, 'This man was with him too.'

Luke 22:57 But he denied it. 'Woman, I do not know him,' he said.

Luke 22:58 Shortly afterwards someone else saw him and said, 'You are one of them too.' But Peter replied, 'I am not, my friend.'

Luke 22:59 About an hour later another man insisted, saying, 'This fellow was certainly with him. Why, he is a Galilean.'

Luke 22:60 Peter said, 'My friend, I do not know what you are talking about.' At that instant, while he was still speaking, the cock crowed,

Luke 22:61 and the Lord turned and looked straight at Peter, and Peter remembered the Lord's words when he had said to him, 'Before the cock crows today, you will have disowned me three times.'

Luke 22:62 And he went outside and wept bitterly.

Luke 22:63 Meanwhile the men who guarded Jesus were mocking and beating him.

Luke 22:64 They blindfolded him and questioned him, saying, 'Prophesy! Who hit you then?'

Luke 22:65 And they heaped many other insults on him.

Luke 22:66 When day broke there was a meeting of the elders of the people, the chief priests and scribes. He was brought before their council,

Luke 22:67 and they said to him, 'If you are the Christ, tell us.' He replied, 'If I tell you, you will not believe,

Luke 22:68 and if I question you, you will not answer.

Luke 22:69 But from now on, the Son of man will be seated at the right hand of the Power of God.'

Luke 22:70 They all said, 'So you are the Son of God then?' He answered, 'It is you who say I am.'

Luke 22:71 Then they said, 'Why do we need any evidence? We have heard it for ourselves from his own lips.'

Luke 23:1 The whole assembly then rose, and they brought him before Pilate.

Luke 23:2 They began their accusation by saying, 'We found this man inciting our people to revolt, opposing payment of the tribute to Caesar, and claiming to be Christ, a king.'

Luke 23:3 Pilate put to him this question, 'Are you the king of the Jews?' He replied, 'It is you who say it.'

Luke 23:4 Pilate then said to the chief priests and the crowd, 'I find no case against this man.'

Luke 23:5 But they persisted, 'He is inflaming the people with his teaching all over Judaea and all the way from Galilee, where he started, down to here.’

Luke 23:6 When Pilate heard this, he asked if the man were a Galilean;

Luke 23:7 and finding that he came under Herod’s jurisdiction, he passed him over to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time.

Luke 23:8 Herod was delighted to see Jesus; he had heard about him and had been wanting for a long time to set eyes on him; moreover, he was hoping to see some miracle worked by him.

Luke 23:9 So he questioned him at some length, but without getting any reply.

Luke 23:10 Meanwhile the chief priests and the scribes were there, vigorously pressing their accusations.

Luke 23:11 Then Herod, together with his guards, treated him with contempt and made fun of him; he put a rich cloak on him and sent him back to Pilate.

Luke 23:12 And though Herod and Pilate had been enemies before, they were reconciled that same day.

Luke 23:13 Pilate then summoned the chief priests and the leading men and the people.

Luke 23:14 He said to them, ‘You brought this man before me as a popular agitator. Now I have gone into the matter myself in your presence and found no grounds in the man for any of the charges you bring against him.

Luke 23:15 Nor has Herod either, since he has sent him back to us. As you can see, the man has done nothing that deserves death,

Luke 23:16 so I shall have him flogged and then let him go.’

Luke 23:17

Luke 23:18 But as one man they howled, ‘Away with him! Give us Barabbas!’

Luke 23:19 (This man had been thrown into prison because of a riot in the city and murder.)

Luke 23:20 In his desire to set Jesus free, Pilate addressed them again,

Luke 23:21 but they shouted back, ‘Crucify him! Crucify him!’

Luke 23:22 And for the third time he spoke to them, ‘But what harm has this man done? I have found no case against him that deserves death, so I shall have him flogged and then let him go.’

Luke 23:23 But they kept on shouting at the top of their voices, demanding that he should be crucified. And their shouts kept growing louder.

Luke 23:24 Pilate then gave his verdict: their demand was to be granted.

Luke 23:25 He released the man they asked for, who had been imprisoned because of rioting and murder, and handed Jesus over to them to deal with as they pleased.

Luke 23:26 As they were leading him away they seized on a man, Simon from Cyrene, who was coming in from the country, and made him shoulder the cross and carry it behind Jesus.

Luke 23:27 Large numbers of people followed him, and women too, who mourned and lamented for him.

Luke 23:28 But Jesus turned to them and said, 'Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me; weep rather for yourselves and for your children.

Luke 23:29 For look, the days are surely coming when people will say, "Blessed are those who are barren, the wombs that have never borne children, the breasts that have never suckled!"

Luke 23:30 Then they will begin to say to the mountains, "Fall on us!"; to the hills, "Cover us!"

Luke 23:31 For if this is what is done to green wood, what will be done when the wood is dry?'

Luke 23:32 Now they were also leading out two others, criminals, to be executed with him.

Luke 23:33 When they reached the place called The Skull, there they crucified him and the two criminals, one on his right, the other on his left.

Luke 23:34 Jesus said, 'Father, forgive them; they do not know what they are doing.' Then they cast lots to share out his clothing.

Luke 23:35 The people stayed there watching. As for the leaders, they jeered at him with the words, 'He saved others, let him save himself if he is the Christ of God, the Chosen One.'

Luke 23:36 The soldiers mocked him too, coming up to him, offering him vinegar,

Luke 23:37 and saying, 'If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself.'

Luke 23:38 Above him there was an inscription: 'This is the King of the Jews'.

Luke 23:39 One of the criminals hanging there abused him: 'Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us as well.'

Luke 23:40 But the other spoke up and rebuked him. 'Have you no fear of God at all?' he said. 'You got the same sentence as he did,

Luke 23:41 but in our case we deserved it: we are paying for what we did. But this man has done nothing wrong.'

Luke 23:42 Then he said, 'Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.’

Luke 23:43 He answered him, ‘In truth I tell you, today you will be with me in paradise.’

Luke 23:44 It was now about the sixth hour and the sun’s light failed, so that darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour.

Luke 23:45 The veil of the Sanctuary was torn right down the middle.

Luke 23:46 Jesus cried out in a loud voice saying, ‘Father, into your hands I commit my spirit.’ With these words he breathed his last.

Luke 23:47 When the centurion saw what had taken place, he gave praise to God and said, ‘Truly, this was an upright man.’

Luke 23:48 And when all the crowds who had gathered for the spectacle saw what had happened, they went home beating their breasts.

Luke 23:49 All his friends stood at a distance; so also did the women who had accompanied him from Galilee and saw all this happen.

Luke 23:50 And now a member of the Council arrived, a good and upright man named Joseph.

Luke 23:51 He had not consented to what the others had planned and carried out. He came from Arimathaea, a Jewish town, and he lived in the hope of seeing the kingdom of God.

Luke 23:52 This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

Luke 23:53 He then took it down, wrapped it in a shroud and put it in a tomb which was hewn in stone and which had never held a body.

Luke 23:54 It was Preparation day and the Sabbath was beginning to grow light.

Luke 23:55 Meanwhile the women who had come from Galilee with Jesus were following behind. They took note of the tomb and how the body had been laid.

Luke 23:56 Then they returned and prepared spices and ointments. And on the Sabbath day they rested, as the Law required.

Luke 24:1 On the first day of the week, at the first sign of dawn, they went to the tomb with the spices they had prepared.

Luke 24:2 They found that the stone had been rolled away from the tomb,

Luke 24:3 but on entering they could not find the body of the Lord Jesus.

Luke 24:4 As they stood there puzzled about this, two men in brilliant clothes suddenly appeared at their side.

Luke 24:5 Terrified, the women bowed their heads to the ground. But the two said to them, ‘Why look among the dead for someone who is alive?

Luke 24:6 He is not here; he has risen. Remember what he told you when he was still in Galilee:

Luke 24:7 that the Son of man was destined to be handed over into the power of sinful men and be crucified, and rise again on the third day.’

Luke 24:8 And they remembered his words.

Luke 24:9 And they returned from the tomb and told all this to the Eleven and to all the others.

Luke 24:10 The women were Mary of Magdala, Joanna, and Mary the mother of James. And the other women with them also told the apostles,

Luke 24:11 but this story of theirs seemed pure nonsense, and they did not believe them.

Luke 24:12 Peter, however, went off to the tomb, running. He bent down and looked in and saw the linen cloths but nothing else; he then went back home, amazed at what had happened.

Luke 24:13 Now that very same day, two of them were on their way to a village called Emmaus, seven miles from Jerusalem,

Luke 24:14 and they were talking together about all that had happened.

Luke 24:15 And it happened that as they were talking together and discussing it, Jesus himself came up and walked by their side;

Luke 24:16 but their eyes were prevented from recognising him.

Luke 24:17 He said to them, ‘What are all these things that you are discussing as you walk along?’ They stopped, their faces downcast.

Luke 24:18 Then one of them, called Cleopas, answered him, ‘You must be the only person staying in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have been happening there these last few days.’

Luke 24:19 He asked, ‘What things?’ They answered, ‘All about Jesus of Nazareth, who showed himself a prophet powerful in action and speech before God and the whole people;

Luke 24:20 and how our chief priests and our leaders handed him over to be sentenced to death, and had him crucified.

Luke 24:21 Our own hope had been that he would be the one to set Israel free. And this is not all: two whole days have now gone by since it all happened;

Luke 24:22 and some women from our group have astounded us: they went to the tomb in the early morning,

Luke 24:23 and when they could not find the body, they came back to tell us they had seen a vision of angels who declared he was alive.

Luke 24:24 Some of our friends went to the tomb and found everything exactly as the women had reported, but of him they saw nothing.’

Luke 24:25 Then he said to them, ‘You foolish men! So slow to believe all that the prophets have said!

Luke 24:26 Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer before entering into his glory?’

Luke 24:27 Then, starting with Moses and going through all the prophets, he explained to them the passages throughout the scriptures that were about himself.

Luke 24:28 When they drew near to the village to which they were going, he made as if to go on;

Luke 24:29 but they pressed him to stay with them saying, ‘It is nearly evening, and the day is almost over.’ So he went in to stay with them.

Luke 24:30 Now while he was with them at table, he took the bread and said the blessing; then he broke it and handed it to them.

Luke 24:31 And their eyes were opened and they recognised him; but he had vanished from their sight.

Luke 24:32 Then they said to each other, ‘Did not our hearts burn within us as he talked to us on the road and explained the scriptures to us?’

Luke 24:33 They set out that instant and returned to Jerusalem. There they found the Eleven assembled together with their companions,

Luke 24:34 who said to them, ‘The Lord has indeed risen and has appeared to Simon.’

Luke 24:35 Then they told their story of what had happened on the road and how they had recognised him at the breaking of bread.

Luke 24:36 They were still talking about all this when he himself stood among them and said to them, ‘Peace be with you!’

Luke 24:37 In a state of alarm and fright, they thought they were seeing a ghost.

Luke 24:38 But he said, ‘Why are you so agitated, and why are these doubts stirring in your hearts?

Luke 24:39 See by my hands and my feet that it is I myself. Touch me and see for yourselves; a ghost has no flesh and bones as you can see I have.’

Luke 24:40 And as he said this he showed them his hands and his feet.

Luke 24:41 Their joy was so great that they still could not believe it, as they were dumbfounded; so he said to them, ‘Have you anything here to eat?’

Luke 24:42 And they offered him a piece of grilled fish, Luke 24:43 which he took and ate before their eyes.

Luke 24:44 Then he told them, 'This is what I meant when I said, while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the Law of Moses, in the Prophets and in the Psalms, was destined to be fulfilled.'

Luke 24:45 He then opened their minds to understand the scriptures,

Luke 24:46 and he said to them, 'So it is written that the Christ would suffer and on the third day rise from the dead,

Luke 24:47 and that, in his name, repentance for the forgiveness of sins would be preached to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

Luke 24:48 You are witnesses to this.

Luke 24:49 'And now I am sending upon you what the Father has promised. Stay in the city, then, until you are clothed with the power from on high.'

Luke 24:50 Then he took them out as far as the outskirts of Bethany, and raising his hands he blessed them.

Luke 24:51 Now as he blessed them, he withdrew from them and was carried up to heaven.

Luke 24:52 They worshipped him and then went back to Jerusalem full of joy;

Luke 24:53 and they were continually in the Temple praising God.

John

1:1 In the beginning was the Word: the Word was with God and the Word was God.

John 1:2 He was with God in the beginning.

John 1:3 Through him all things came into being, not one thing came into being except through him.

John 1:4 What has come into being in him was life, life that was the light of men;

John 1:5 and light shines in darkness, and darkness could not overpower it.

John 1:6 A man came, sent by God. His name was John.

John 1:7 He came as a witness, to bear witness to the light, so that everyone might believe through him.

John 1:8 He was not the light, he was to bear witness to the light.

John 1:9 The Word was the real light that gives light to everyone; he was coming into the world.

John 1:10 He was in the world that had come into being through him, and the world did not recognise him.

John 1:11 He came to his own and his own people did not accept him.

John 1:12 But to those who did accept him he gave power to become children of God, to those who believed in his name

John 1:13 who were born not from human stock or human desire or human will but from God himself.

John 1:14 The Word became flesh, he lived among us, and we saw his glory, the glory that he has from the Father as only Son of the Father, full of grace and truth.

John 1:15 John witnesses to him. He proclaims: 'This is the one of whom I said: He who comes after me has passed ahead of me because he existed before me.'

John 1:16 Indeed, from his fullness we have, all of us, received—one gift replacing another,

John 1:17 for the Law was given through Moses, grace and truth have come through Jesus Christ.

John 1:18 No one has ever seen God; it is the only Son, who is close to the Father's heart, who has made him known.

John 1:19 This was the witness of John, when the Jews sent to him priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, 'Who are you?'

John 1:20 He declared, he did not deny but declared, 'I am not the Christ.'

John 1:21 So they asked, 'Then are you Elijah?' He replied, 'I am not.' 'Are you the Prophet?' He answered, 'No.'

John 1:22 So they said to him, 'Who are you? We must take back an answer to those who sent us. What have you to say about yourself?'

John 1:23 So he said, 'I am, as Isaiah prophesied: A voice of one that cries in the desert: Prepare a way for the Lord. Make his paths straight!'

John 1:24 Now those who had been sent were Pharisees,

John 1:25 and they put this question to him, 'Why are you baptising if you are not the Christ, and not Elijah, and not the Prophet?'

John 1:26 John answered them, 'I baptise with water; but standing among you—unknown to you-

John 1:27 is the one who is coming after me; and I am not fit to undo the strap of his sandal.'

John 1:28 This happened at Bethany, on the far side of the Jordan, where John was baptising.

John 1:29 The next day, he saw Jesus coming towards him and said, 'Look, there is the lamb of God that takes away the sin of the world.

John 1:30 It was of him that I said, "Behind me comes one who has passed ahead of me because he existed before me."

John 1:31 I did not know him myself, and yet my purpose in coming to baptise with water was so that he might be revealed to Israel.'

John 1:32 And John declared, 'I saw the Spirit come down on him like a dove from heaven and rest on him.

John 1:33 I did not know him myself, but he who sent me to baptise with water had said to me, "The man on whom you see the Spirit come down and rest is the one who is to baptise with the Holy Spirit."

John 1:34 I have seen and I testify that he is the Chosen One of God.'

John 1:35 The next day as John stood there again with two of his disciples, Jesus went past,

John 1:36 and John looked towards him and said, 'Look, there is the lamb of God.'

John 1:37 And the two disciples heard what he said and followed Jesus.

John 1:38 Jesus turned round, saw them following and said, 'What do you want?' They answered, 'Rabbi'—which means Teacher—'where do you live?'

John 1:39 He replied, 'Come and see'; so they went and saw where he lived, and stayed with him that day. It was about the tenth hour.

John 1:40 One of these two who became followers of Jesus after hearing what John had said was Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter.

John 1:41 The first thing Andrew did was to find his brother and say to him, 'We have found the Messiah'—which means the Christ-

John 1:42 and he took Simon to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said, 'You are Simon son of John; you are to be called Cephas'—which means Rock.

John 1:43 The next day, after Jesus had decided to leave for Galilee, he met Philip and said, 'Follow me.'

John 1:44 Philip came from the same town, Bethsaida, as Andrew and Peter.

John 1:45 Philip found Nathanael and said to him, 'We have found him of whom Moses in the Law and the prophets wrote, Jesus son of Joseph, from Nazareth.'

John 1:46 Nathanael said to him, 'From Nazareth? Can anything good come from that place?' Philip replied, 'Come and see.'

John 1:47 When Jesus saw Nathanael coming he said of him, 'There, truly, is an Israelite in whom there is no deception.'

John 1:48 Nathanael asked, 'How do you know me?' Jesus replied, 'Before Philip came to call you, I saw you under the fig tree.'

John 1:49 Nathanael answered, 'Rabbi, you are the Son of God, you are the king of Israel.'

John 1:50 Jesus replied, 'You believe that just because I said: I saw you under the fig tree. You are going to see greater things than that.'

John 1:51 And then he added, 'In all truth I tell you, you will see heaven open and the angels of God ascending and descending over the Son of man.'

John 2:1 On the third day there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee. The mother of Jesus was there,

John 2:2 and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited.

John 2:3 And they ran out of wine, since the wine provided for the feast had all been used, and the mother of Jesus said to him, 'They have no wine.'

John 2:4 Jesus said, 'Woman, what do you want from me? My hour has not come yet.'

John 2:5 His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.'

John 2:6 There were six stone water jars standing there, meant for the ablutions that are customary among the Jews: each could hold twenty or thirty gallons.

John 2:7 Jesus said to the servants, 'Fill the jars with water,' and they filled them to the brim.

John 2:8 Then he said to them, 'Draw some out now and take it to the president of the feast.'

John 2:9 They did this; the president tasted the water, and it had turned into wine. Having no idea where it came from—though the servants who had drawn the water knew—the president of the feast called the bridegroom

John 2:10 and said, 'Everyone serves good wine first and the worse wine when the guests are well wined; but you have kept the best wine till now.'

John 2:11 This was the first of Jesus' signs: it was at Cana in Galilee. He revealed his glory, and his disciples believed in him.

John 2:12 After this he went down to Capernaum with his mother and his brothers and his disciples, but they stayed there only a few days.

John 2:13 When the time of the Jewish Passover was near Jesus went up to Jerusalem,

John 2:14 and in the Temple he found people selling cattle and sheep and doves, and the money changers sitting there.

John 2:15 Making a whip out of cord, he drove them all out of the Temple, sheep and cattle as well, scattered the money changers' coins, knocked their tables over

John 2:16 and said to the dove sellers, 'Take all this out of here and stop using my Father's house as a market.'

John 2:17 Then his disciples remembered the words of scripture: I am eaten up with zeal for your house.

John 2:18 The Jews intervened and said, 'What sign can you show us that you should act like this?'

John 2:19 Jesus answered, 'Destroy this Temple, and in three days I will raise it up.'

John 2:20 The Jews replied, 'It has taken forty-six years to build this Temple: are you going to raise it up again in three days?'

John 2:21 But he was speaking of the Temple that was his body,

John 2:22 and when Jesus rose from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the scripture and what he had said.

John 2:23 During his stay in Jerusalem for the feast of the Passover many believed in his name when they saw the signs that he did,

John 2:24 but Jesus knew all people and did not trust himself to them;

John 2:25 he never needed evidence about anyone; he could tell what someone had within.

John 3:1 There was one of the Pharisees called Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews,

John 3:2 who came to Jesus by night and said, 'Rabbi, we know that you have come from God as a teacher; for no one could perform the signs that you do unless God were with him.'

John 3:3 Jesus answered: In all truth I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above.

John 3:4 Nicodemus said, 'How can anyone who is already old be born? Is it possible to go back into the womb again and be born?'

John 3:5 Jesus replied: In all truth I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born through water and the Spirit;

John 3:6 what is born of human nature is human; what is born of the Spirit is spirit.

John 3:7 Do not be surprised when I say: You must be born from above.

John 3:8 The wind blows where it pleases; you can hear its sound, but you cannot tell where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit.

John 3:9 'How is that possible?' asked Nicodemus.

John 3:10 Jesus replied, 'You are the Teacher of Israel, and you do not know these things!

John 3:11 'In all truth I tell you, we speak only about what we know and witness only to what we have seen and yet you people reject our evidence.

John 3:12 If you do not believe me when I speak to you about earthly things, how will you believe me when I speak to you about heavenly things?

John 3:13 No one has gone up to heaven except the one who came down from heaven, the Son of man;

John 3:14 as Moses lifted up the snake in the desert, so must the Son of man be lifted up

John 3:15 so that everyone who believes may have eternal life in him.

John 3:16 For this is how God loved the world: he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

John 3:17 For God sent his Son into the world not to judge the world, but so that through him the world might be saved.

John 3:18 No one who believes in him will be judged; but whoever does not believe is judged already, because that person does not believe in the Name of God's only Son.

John 3:19 And the judgement is this: though the light has come into the world people have preferred darkness to the light because their deeds were evil.

John 3:20 And indeed, everybody who does wrong hates the light and avoids it, to prevent his actions from being shown up;

John 3:21 but whoever does the truth comes out into the light, so that what he is doing may plainly appear as done in God.'

John 3:22 After this, Jesus went with his disciples into the Judaean countryside and stayed with them there and baptised.

John 3:23 John also was baptising at Aenon near Salim, where there was plenty of water, and people were going there and were being baptised.

John 3:24 For John had not yet been put in prison.

John 3:25 Now a discussion arose between some of John's disciples and a Jew about purification,

John 3:26 so they went to John and said, 'Rabbi, the man who was with you on the far side of the Jordan, the man to whom you bore witness, is baptising now, and everyone is going to him.'

John 3:27 John replied: 'No one can have anything except what is given him from heaven.

John 3:28 'You yourselves can bear me out. I said, "I am not the Christ; I am the one who has been sent to go in front of him."

John 3:29 'It is the bridegroom who has the bride; and yet the bridegroom's friend, who stands there and listens to him, is filled with joy at the bridegroom's voice. This is the joy I feel, and it is complete.

John 3:30 He must grow greater, I must grow less.

John 3:31 He who comes from above is above all others; he who is of the earth is earthly himself and speaks in an earthly way. He who comes from heaven

John 3:32 bears witness to the things he has seen and heard, but his testimony is not accepted by anybody;

John 3:33 though anyone who does accept his testimony is attesting that God is true,

John 3:34 since he whom God has sent speaks God's own words, for God gives him the Spirit without reserve.

John 3:35 The Father loves the Son and has entrusted everything to his hands.

John 3:36 Anyone who believes in the Son has eternal life, but anyone who refuses to believe in the Son will never see life: God's retribution hangs over him.'

John 4:1 When Jesus heard that the Pharisees had found out that he was making and baptising more disciples than John-

John 4:2 though in fact it was his disciples who baptised, not Jesus himself-

John 4:3 he left Judaea and went back to Galilee.

John 4:4 He had to pass through Samaria.

John 4:5 On the way he came to the Samaritan town called Sychar near the land that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.

John 4:6 Jacob's well was there and Jesus, tired by the journey, sat down by the well. It was about the sixth hour.

John 4:7 When a Samaritan woman came to draw water, Jesus said to her, 'Give me something to drink.'

John 4:8 His disciples had gone into the town to buy food.

John 4:9 The Samaritan woman said to him, 'You are a Jew. How is it that you ask me, a Samaritan, for something to drink?'—Jews, of course, do not associate with Samaritans.

John 4:10 Jesus replied to her: If you only knew what God is offering and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me something to drink,' you would have been the one to ask, and he would have given you living water.

John 4:11 'You have no bucket, sir,' she answered, 'and the well is deep: how do you get this living water?

John 4:12 Are you a greater man than our father Jacob, who gave us this well and drank from it himself with his sons and his cattle?'

John 4:13 Jesus replied: Whoever drinks this water will be thirsty again;

John 4:14 but no one who drinks the water that I shall give will ever be thirsty again: the water that I shall give will become a spring of water within, welling up for eternal life.

John 4:15 ‘Sir,’ said the woman, ‘give me some of that water, so that I may never be thirsty or come here again to draw water.’

John 4:16 ‘Go and call your husband,’ said Jesus to her, ‘and come back here.’

John 4:17 The woman answered, ‘I have no husband.’ Jesus said to her, ‘You are right to say, “I have no husband”;

John 4:18 for although you have had five, the one you now have is not your husband. You spoke the truth there.’

John 4:19 ‘I see you are a prophet, sir,’ said the woman.

John 4:20 ‘Our fathers worshipped on this mountain, though you say that Jerusalem is the place where one ought to worship.’

John 4:21 Jesus said: Believe me, woman, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.

John 4:22 You worship what you do not know; we worship what we do know; for salvation comes from the Jews.

John 4:23 But the hour is coming—indeed is already here—when true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and truth: that is the kind of worshipper the Father seeks.

John 4:24 God is spirit, and those who worship must worship in spirit and truth.

John 4:25 The woman said to him, ‘I know that Messiah—that is, Christ—is coming; and when he comes he will explain everything.’

John 4:26 Jesus said, ‘That is who I am, I who speak to you.’

John 4:27 At this point his disciples returned and were surprised to find him speaking to a woman, though none of them asked, ‘What do you want from her?’ or, ‘What are you talking to her about?’

John 4:28 The woman put down her water jar and hurried back to the town to tell the people,

John 4:29 ‘Come and see a man who has told me everything I have done; could this be the Christ?’

John 4:30 This brought people out of the town and they made their way towards him.

John 4:31 Meanwhile, the disciples were urging him, ‘Rabbi, do have something to eat’;

John 4:32 but he said, ‘I have food to eat that you do not know about.’

John 4:33 So the disciples said to one another, ‘Has someone brought him food?’

John 4:34 But Jesus said: My food is to do the will of the one who sent me, and to complete his work.

John 4:35 Do you not have a saying: Four months and then the harvest? Well, I tell you, look around you, look at the fields; already they are white, ready for harvest!

John 4:36 Already the reaper is being paid his wages, already he is bringing in the grain for eternal life, so that sower and reaper can rejoice together.

John 4:37 For here the proverb holds true: one sows, another reaps;

John 4:38 I sent you to reap a harvest you have not laboured for. Others have laboured for it; and you have come into the rewards of their labour.

John 4:39 Many Samaritans of that town believed in him on the strength of the woman's words of testimony, 'He told me everything I have done.'

John 4:40 So, when the Samaritans came up to him, they begged him to stay with them. He stayed for two days, and

John 4:41 many more came to believe on the strength of the words he spoke to them;

John 4:42 and they said to the woman, 'Now we believe no longer because of what you told us; we have heard him ourselves and we know that he is indeed the Saviour of the world.'

John 4:43 When the two days were over Jesus left for Galilee.

John 4:44 He himself had declared that a prophet is not honoured in his own home town.

John 4:45 On his arrival the Galileans received him well, having seen all that he had done at Jerusalem during the festival which they too had attended.

John 4:46 He went again to Cana in Galilee, where he had changed the water into wine. And there was a royal official whose son was ill at Capernaum;

John 4:47 hearing that Jesus had arrived in Galilee from Judaea, he went and asked him to come and cure his son, as he was at the point of death.

John 4:48 Jesus said to him, 'Unless you see signs and portents you will not believe!'

John 4:49 'Sir,' answered the official, 'come down before my child dies.'

John 4:50 'Go home,' said Jesus, 'your son will live.' The man believed what Jesus had said and went on his way home;

John 4:51 and while he was still on the way his servants met him with the news that his boy was alive.

John 4:52 He asked them when the boy had begun to recover. They replied, 'The fever left him yesterday at the seventh hour.'

John 4:53 The father realised that this was exactly the time when Jesus had said, 'Your son will live'; and he and all his household believed.

John 4:54 This new sign, the second, Jesus performed on his return from Judaea to Galilee.

John 5:1 After this there was a Jewish festival, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

John 5:2 Now in Jerusalem next to the Sheep Pool there is a pool called Bethesda in Hebrew, which has five porticos;

John 5:3 and under these were crowds of sick people, blind, lame, paralysed.

John 5:4

John 5:5 One man there had an illness which had lasted thirty-eight years,

John 5:6 and when Jesus saw him lying there and knew he had been in that condition for a long time, he said, 'Do you want to be well again?'

John 5:7 'Sir,' replied the sick man, 'I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is disturbed; and while I am still on the way, someone else gets down there before me.'

John 5:8 Jesus said, 'Get up, pick up your sleeping-mat and walk around.'

John 5:9 The man was cured at once, and he picked up his mat and started to walk around. Now that day happened to be the Sabbath,

John 5:10 so the Jews said to the man who had been cured, 'It is the Sabbath; you are not allowed to carry your sleeping-mat.'

John 5:11 He replied, 'But the man who cured me told me, "Pick up your sleeping-mat and walk around." '

John 5:12 They asked, 'Who is the man who said to you, "Pick up your sleeping-mat and walk around"? '

John 5:13 The man had no idea who it was, since Jesus had disappeared, as the place was crowded.

John 5:14 After a while Jesus met him in the Temple and said, 'Now you are well again, do not sin any more, or something worse may happen to you.'

John 5:15 The man went back and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had cured him.

John 5:16 It was because he did things like this on the Sabbath that the Jews began to harass Jesus.

John 5:17 His answer to them was, ‘My Father still goes on working, and I am at work, too.’

John 5:18 But that only made the Jews even more intent on killing him, because not only was he breaking the Sabbath, but he spoke of God as his own Father and so made himself God’s equal.

John 5:19 To this Jesus replied: In all truth I tell you, by himself the Son can do nothing; he can do only what he sees the Father doing: and whatever the Father does the Son does too.

John 5:20 For the Father loves the Son and shows him everything he himself does, and he will show him even greater things than these, works that will astonish you.

John 5:21 Thus, as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so the Son gives life to anyone he chooses;

John 5:22 for the Father judges no one; he has entrusted all judgement to the Son,

John 5:23 so that all may honour the Son as they honour the Father. Whoever refuses honour to the Son refuses honour to the Father who sent him.

John 5:24 In all truth I tell you, whoever listens to my words, and believes in the one who sent me, has eternal life; without being brought to judgement such a person has passed from death to life.

John 5:25 In all truth I tell you, the hour is coming—indeed it is already here—when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and all who hear it will live.

John 5:26 For as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself;

John 5:27 and, because he is the Son of man, has granted him power to give judgement.

John 5:28 Do not be surprised at this, for the hour is coming when the dead will leave their graves at the sound of his voice:

John 5:29 those who did good will come forth to life; and those who did evil will come forth to judgement.

John 5:30 By myself I can do nothing; I can judge only as I am told to judge, and my judging is just, because I seek to do not my own will but the will of him who sent me.

John 5:31 Were I to testify on my own behalf, my testimony would not be true;

John 5:32 but there is another witness who speaks on my behalf, and I know that his testimony is true.

John 5:33 You sent messengers to John, and he gave his testimony to the truth-

John 5:34 not that I depend on human testimony; no, it is for your salvation that I mention it.

John 5:35 John was a lamp lit and shining and for a time you were content to enjoy the light that he gave.

John 5:36 But my testimony is greater than John's: the deeds my Father has given me to perform, these same deeds of mine testify that the Father has sent me.

John 5:37 Besides, the Father who sent me bears witness to me himself. You have never heard his voice, you have never seen his shape,

John 5:38 and his word finds no home in you because you do not believe in the one whom he has sent.

John 5:39 You pore over the scriptures, believing that in them you can find eternal life; it is these scriptures that testify to me,

John 5:40 and yet you refuse to come to me to receive life!

John 5:41 Human glory means nothing to me.

John 5:42 Besides, I know you too well: you have no love of God in you.

John 5:43 I have come in the name of my Father and you refuse to accept me; if someone else should come in his own name you would accept him.

John 5:44 How can you believe, since you look to each other for glory and are not concerned with the glory that comes from the one God?

John 5:45 Do not imagine that I am going to accuse you before the Father: you have placed your hopes on Moses, and Moses will be the one who accuses you.

John 5:46 If you really believed him you would believe me too, since it was about me that he was writing;

John 5:47 but if you will not believe what he wrote, how can you believe what I say?

John 6:1 After this, Jesus crossed the Sea of Galilee—or of Tiberias-

John 6:2 and a large crowd followed him, impressed by the signs he had done in curing the sick.

John 6:3 Jesus climbed the hillside and sat down there with his disciples.

John 6:4 The time of the Jewish Passover was near.

John 6:5 Looking up, Jesus saw the crowds approaching and said to Philip, 'Where can we buy some bread for these people to eat?'

John 6:6 He said this only to put Philip to the test; he himself knew exactly what he was going to do.

John 6:7 Philip answered, 'Two hundred denarii would not buy enough to give them a little piece each.'

John 6:8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said, John 6:9 'Here is a small boy with five barley loaves and two fish; but what is that among so many?'

John 6:10 Jesus said to them, 'Make the people sit down.' There was plenty of grass there, and as many as five thousand men sat down.

John 6:11 Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were sitting there; he then did the same with the fish, distributing as much as they wanted.

John 6:12 When they had eaten enough he said to the disciples, 'Pick up the pieces left over, so that nothing is wasted.'

John 6:13 So they picked them up and filled twelve large baskets with scraps left over from the meal of five barley loaves.

John 6:14 Seeing the sign that he had done, the people said, 'This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world.'

John 6:15 Jesus, as he realised they were about to come and take him by force and make him king, fled back to the hills alone.

John 6:16 That evening the disciples went down to the shore of the sea

John 6:17 and got into a boat to make for Capernaum on the other side of the sea. It was getting dark by now and Jesus had still not rejoined them.

John 6:18 The wind was strong, and the sea was getting rough.

John 6:19 They had rowed three or four miles when they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming towards the boat. They were afraid,

John 6:20 but he said, 'It's me. Don't be afraid.'

John 6:21 They were ready to take him into the boat, and immediately it reached the shore at the place they were making for.

John 6:22 Next day, the crowd that had stayed on the other side saw that only one boat had been there, and that Jesus had not got into the boat with his disciples, but that the disciples had set off by themselves.

John 6:23 Other boats, however, had put in from Tiberias, near the place where the bread had been eaten.

John 6:24 When the people saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into those boats and crossed to Capernaum to look for Jesus.

John 6:25 When they found him on the other side, they said to him, 'Rabbi, when did you come here?'

John 6:26 Jesus answered: In all truth I tell you, you are looking for me not because you have seen the signs but because you had all the bread you wanted to eat.

John 6:27 Do not work for food that goes bad, but work for food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of man will give you, for on him the Father, God himself, has set his seal.

John 6:28 Then they said to him, 'What must we do if we are to carry out God's work?'

John 6:29 Jesus gave them this answer, 'This is carrying out God's work: you must believe in the one he has sent.'

John 6:30 So they said, 'What sign will you yourself do, the sight of which will make us believe in you? What work will you do?

John 6:31 Our fathers ate manna in the desert; as scripture says: He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'

John 6:32 Jesus answered them: In all truth I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, it is my Father who gives you the bread from heaven, the true bread;

John 6:33 for the bread of God is the bread which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.

John 6:34 'Sir,' they said, 'give us that bread always.'

John 6:35 Jesus answered them: I am the bread of life. No one who comes to me will ever hunger; no one who believes in me will ever thirst.

John 6:36 But, as I have told you, you can see me and still you do not believe.

John 6:37 Everyone whom the Father gives me will come to me; I will certainly not reject anyone who comes to me,

John 6:38 because I have come from heaven, not to do my own will, but to do the will of him who sent me.

John 6:39 Now the will of him who sent me is that I should lose nothing of all that he has given to me, but that I should raise it up on the last day.

John 6:40 It is my Father's will that whoever sees the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and that I should raise that person up on the last day.

John 6:41 Meanwhile the Jews were complaining to each other about him, because he had said, 'I am the bread that has come down from heaven.'

John 6:42 They were saying, 'Surely this is Jesus son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know. How can he now say, "I have come down from heaven?" '

John 6:43 Jesus said in reply to them, 'Stop complaining to each other.

John 6:44 'No one can come to me unless drawn by the Father who sent me, and I will raise that person up on the last day.

John 6:45 It is written in the prophets: They will all be taught by God; everyone who has listened to the Father, and learnt from him, comes to me.

John 6:46 Not that anybody has seen the Father, except him who has his being from God: he has seen the Father.

John 6:47 In all truth I tell you, everyone who believes has eternal life.

John 6:48 I am the bread of life.

John 6:49 Your fathers ate manna in the desert and they are dead;

John 6:50 but this is the bread which comes down from heaven, so that a person may eat it and not die.

John 6:51 I am the living bread which has come down from heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.’

John 6:52 Then the Jews started arguing among themselves, ‘How can this man give us his flesh to eat?’

John 6:53 Jesus replied to them: In all truth I tell you, if you do not eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, you have no life in you.

John 6:54 Anyone who does eat my flesh and drink my blood has eternal life, and I shall raise that person up on the last day.

John 6:55 For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink.

John 6:56 Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me and I live in that person.

John 6:57 As the living Father sent me and I draw life from the Father, so whoever eats me will also draw life from me.

John 6:58 This is the bread which has come down from heaven; it is not like the bread our ancestors ate: they are dead, but anyone who eats this bread will live for ever.

John 6:59 This is what he taught at Capernaum in the synagogue.

John 6:60 After hearing it, many of his followers said, ‘This is intolerable language. How could anyone accept it?’

John 6:61 Jesus was aware that his followers were complaining about it and said, ‘Does this disturb you?

John 6:62 What if you should see the Son of man ascend to where he was before?

John 6:63 ‘It is the spirit that gives life, the flesh has nothing to offer. The words I have spoken to you are spirit and they are life.

John 6:64 ‘But there are some of you who do not believe.’ For Jesus knew from the outset who did not believe and who was to betray him.

John 6:65 He went on, ‘This is why I told you that no one could come to me except by the gift of the Father.’

John 6:66 After this, many of his disciples went away and accompanied him no more.

John 6:67 Then Jesus said to the Twelve, ‘What about you, do you want to go away too?’

John 6:68 Simon Peter answered, ‘Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the message of eternal life,

John 6:69 and we believe; we have come to know that you are the Holy One of God.’

John 6:70 Jesus replied to them, ‘Did I not choose the Twelve of you? Yet one of you is a devil.’

John 6:71 He meant Judas son of Simon Iscariot, since this was the man, one of the Twelve, who was to betray him.

John 7:1 After this Jesus travelled round Galilee; he could not travel round Judaea, because the Jews were seeking to kill him.

John 7:2 As the Jewish feast of Shelters drew near,

John 7:3 his brothers said to him, ‘Leave this place and go to Judaea, so that your disciples, too, can see the works you are doing;

John 7:4 no one who wants to be publicly known acts in secret; if this is what you are doing, you should reveal yourself to the world.’

John 7:5 Not even his brothers had faith in him.

John 7:6 Jesus answered, ‘For me the right time has not come yet, but for you any time is the right time.

John 7:7 The world cannot hate you, but it does hate me, because I give evidence that its ways are evil.

John 7:8 Go up to the festival yourselves: I am not going to this festival, because for me the time is not ripe yet.’

John 7:9 Having said that, he stayed behind in Galilee.

John 7:10 However, after his brothers had left for the festival, he went up as well, not publicly but secretly.

John 7:11 At the festival the Jews were on the look-out for him: ‘Where is he?’ they said.

John 7:12 There was a great deal of talk about him in the crowds. Some said, ‘He is a good man’; others, ‘No, he is leading the people astray.’

John 7:13 Yet no one spoke about him openly, for fear of the Jews.

John 7:14 When the festival was half over, Jesus went to the Temple and began to teach.

John 7:15 The Jews were astonished and said, ‘How did he learn to read? He has not been educated.’

John 7:16 Jesus answered them: ‘My teaching is not from myself: it comes from the one who sent me;

John 7:17 anyone who is prepared to do his will, will know whether my teaching is from God or whether I speak on my own account.

John 7:18 When someone speaks on his own account, he is seeking honour for himself; but when he is seeking the honour of the person who sent him, then he is true and altogether without dishonesty.

John 7:19 Did not Moses give you the Law? And yet not one of you keeps the Law! 'Why do you want to kill me?'

John 7:20 The crowd replied, 'You are mad! Who wants to kill you?'

John 7:21 Jesus answered, 'One work I did, and you are all amazed at it.

John 7:22 Moses ordered you to practise circumcision—not that it began with him, it goes back to the patriarchs—and you circumcise on the Sabbath.

John 7:23 Now if someone can be circumcised on the Sabbath so that the Law of Moses is not broken, why are you angry with me for making someone completely healthy on a Sabbath?

John 7:24 Do not keep judging according to appearances; let your judgement be according to what is right.'

John 7:25 Meanwhile some of the people of Jerusalem were saying, 'Isn't this the man they want to kill?

John 7:26 And here he is, speaking openly, and they have nothing to say to him! Can it be true the authorities have recognised that he is the Christ?

John 7:27 Yet we all know where he comes from, but when the Christ appears no one will know where he comes from.'

John 7:28 Then, as Jesus was teaching in the Temple, he cried out: You know me and you know where I came from. Yet I have not come of my own accord: but he who sent me is true; You do not know him,

John 7:29 but I know him because I have my being from him and it was he who sent me.

John 7:30 They wanted to arrest him then, but because his hour had not yet come no one laid a hand on him.

John 7:31 There were many people in the crowds, however, who believed in him; they were saying, 'When the Christ comes, will he give more signs than this man has?'

John 7:32 Hearing that talk like this about him was spreading among the people, the Pharisees sent the Temple guards to arrest him.

John 7:33 Then Jesus said: For a short time I am with you still; then I shall go back to the one who sent me.

John 7:34 You will look for me and will not find me; where I am you cannot come.

John 7:35 So the Jews said to one another, 'Where is he intending to go that we shall not be able to find him? Is he intending to go abroad to the people who are dispersed among the Greeks and to teach the Greeks?

John 7:36 What does he mean when he says: "You will look for me and will not find me; where I am, you cannot come?” ‘

John 7:37 On the last day, the great day of the festival, Jesus stood and cried out: ‘Let anyone who is thirsty come to me!

John 7:38 Let anyone who believes in me come and drink! As scripture says, “From his heart shall flow streams of living water.” ‘

John 7:39 He was speaking of the Spirit which those who believed in him were to receive; for there was no Spirit as yet because Jesus had not yet been glorified.

John 7:40 Some of the crowd who had been listening said, ‘He is indeed the prophet,’

John 7:41 and some said, ‘He is the Christ,’ but others said, ‘Would the Christ come from Galilee?

John 7:42 Does not scripture say that the Christ must be descended from David and come from Bethlehem, the village where David was?’

John 7:43 So the people could not agree about him.

John 7:44 Some wanted to arrest him, but no one actually laid a hand on him.

John 7:45 The guards went back to the chief priests and Pharisees who said to them, ‘Why haven’t you brought him?’

John 7:46 The guards replied, ‘No one has ever spoken like this man.’

John 7:47 ‘So,’ the Pharisees answered, ‘you, too, have been led astray?

John 7:48 Have any of the authorities come to believe in him? Any of the Pharisees?

John 7:49 This rabble knows nothing about the Law—they are damned.’

John 7:50 One of them, Nicodemus—the same man who had come to Jesus earlier—said to them,

John 7:51 ‘But surely our Law does not allow us to pass judgement on anyone without first giving him a hearing and discovering what he is doing?’

John 7:52 To this they answered, ‘Are you a Galilean too? Go into the matter, and see for yourself: prophets do not arise in Galilee.’

John 7:53 They all went home,

John 8:1 and Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.

John 8:2 At daybreak he appeared in the Temple again; and as all the people came to him, he sat down and began to teach them.

John 8:3 The scribes and Pharisees brought a woman along who had been caught committing adultery; and making her stand there in the middle

John 8:4 they said to Jesus, ‘Master, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery,

John 8:5 and in the Law Moses has ordered us to stone women of this kind. What have you got to say?’

John 8:6 They asked him this as a test, looking for an accusation to use against him. But Jesus bent down and started writing on the ground with his finger.

John 8:7 As they persisted with their question, he straightened up and said, ‘Let the one among you who is guiltless be the first to throw a stone at her.’

John 8:8 Then he bent down and continued writing on the ground.

John 8:9 When they heard this they went away one by one, beginning with the eldest, until the last one had gone and Jesus was left alone with the woman, who remained in the middle.

John 8:10 Jesus again straightened up and said, ‘Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?’

John 8:11 ‘No one, sir,’ she replied. ‘Neither do I condemn you,’ said Jesus. ‘Go away, and from this moment sin no more.’

John 8:12 When Jesus spoke to the people again, he said: I am the light of the world; anyone who follows me will not be walking in the dark, but will have the light of life.

John 8:13 At this the Pharisees said to him, ‘You are testifying on your own behalf; your testimony is not true.’

John 8:14 Jesus replied: Even though I am testifying on my own behalf, my testimony is still true, because I know where I have come from and where I am going; but you do not know where I come from or where I am going.

John 8:15 You judge by human standards; I judge no one,

John 8:16 but if I judge, my judgement will be true, because I am not alone: the one who sent me is with me;

John 8:17 and in your Law it is written that the testimony of two witnesses is true.

John 8:18 I testify on my own behalf, but the Father who sent me testifies on my behalf, too.

John 8:19 They asked him, ‘Where is your Father then?’ Jesus answered: You do not know me, nor do you know my Father; if you did know me, you would know my Father as well.

John 8:20 He spoke these words in the Treasury, while teaching in the Temple. No one arrested him, because his hour had not yet come.

John 8:21 Again he said to them: I am going away; you will look for me and you will die in your sin. Where I am going, you cannot come.

John 8:22 So the Jews said to one another, ‘Is he going to kill himself, that he says, “Where I am going, you cannot come?” ‘

John 8:23 Jesus went on: You are from below; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world.

John 8:24 I have told you already: You will die in your sins. Yes, if you do not believe that I am He, you will die in your sins.

John 8:25 So they said to him, ‘Who are you?’ Jesus answered: What I have told you from the outset.

John 8:26 About you I have much to say and much to judge; but the one who sent me is true, and what I declare to the world I have learnt from him.

John 8:27 They did not recognise that he was talking to them about the Father.

John 8:28 So Jesus said: When you have lifted up the Son of man, then you will know that I am He and that I do nothing of my own accord. What I say is what the Father has taught me;

John 8:29 he who sent me is with me, and has not left me to myself, for I always do what pleases him.

John 8:30 As he was saying this, many came to believe in him.

John 8:31 To the Jews who believed in him Jesus said: If you make my word your home you will indeed be my disciples;

John 8:32 you will come to know the truth, and the truth will set you free.

John 8:33 They answered, ‘We are descended from Abraham and we have never been the slaves of anyone; what do you mean, “You will be set free?” ‘

John 8:34 Jesus replied: In all truth I tell you, everyone who commits sin is a slave.

John 8:35 Now a slave has no permanent standing in the household, but a son belongs to it for ever.

John 8:36 So if the Son sets you free, you will indeed be free.

John 8:37 I know that you are descended from Abraham; but you want to kill me because my word finds no place in you.

John 8:38 What I speak of is what I have seen at my Father’s side, and you too put into action the lessons you have learnt from your father.

John 8:39 They repeated, ‘Our father is Abraham.’ Jesus said to them: If you are Abraham’s children, do as Abraham did.

John 8:40 As it is, you want to kill me, a man who has told you the truth as I have learnt it from God; that is not what Abraham did.

John 8:41 You are doing your father’s work. They replied, ‘We were not born illegitimate, the only father we have is God.’

John 8:42 Jesus answered: If God were your father, you would love me, since I have my origin in God and have come from him; I did not come of my own accord, but he sent me.

John 8:43 Why do you not understand what I say? Because you cannot bear to listen to my words.

John 8:44 You are from your father, the devil, and you prefer to do what your father wants. He was a murderer from the start; he was never grounded in the truth; there is no truth in him at all. When he lies he is speaking true to his nature, because he is a liar, and the father of lies.

John 8:45 But it is because I speak the truth that you do not believe me.

John 8:46 Can any of you convict me of sin? If I speak the truth, why do you not believe me?

John 8:47 Whoever comes from God listens to the words of God; the reason why you do not listen is that you are not from God.

John 8:48 The Jews replied, 'Are we not right in saying that you are a Samaritan and possessed by a devil?' Jesus answered:

John 8:49 I am not possessed; but I honour my Father, and you deny me honour.

John 8:50 I do not seek my own glory; there is someone who does seek it and is the judge of it.

John 8:51 In all truth I tell you, whoever keeps my word will never see death.

John 8:52 The Jews said, 'Now we know that you are possessed. Abraham is dead, and the prophets are dead, and yet you say, "Whoever keeps my word will never know the taste of death."

John 8:53 Are you greater than our father Abraham, who is dead? The prophets are dead too. Who are you claiming to be?'

John 8:54 Jesus answered: If I were to seek my own glory my glory would be worth nothing; in fact, my glory is conferred by the Father, by the one of whom you say, 'He is our God,'

John 8:55 although you do not know him. But I know him, and if I were to say, 'I do not know him,' I should be a liar, as you yourselves are. But I do know him, and I keep his word.

John 8:56 Your father Abraham rejoiced to think that he would see my Day; he saw it and was glad.

John 8:57 The Jews then said, 'You are not fifty yet, and you have seen Abraham!'

John 8:58 Jesus replied: In all truth I tell you, before Abraham ever was, I am.

John 8:59 At this they picked up stones to throw at him; but Jesus hid himself and left the Temple.

John 9:1 As he went along, he saw a man who had been blind from birth.

John 9:2 His disciples asked him, ‘Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he should have been born blind?’

John 9:3 ‘Neither he nor his parents sinned,’ Jesus answered, ‘he was born blind so that the works of God might be revealed in him.

John 9:4 ‘As long as day lasts we must carry out the work of the one who sent me; the night will soon be here when no one can work.

John 9:5 As long as I am in the world I am the light of the world.’

John 9:6 Having said this, he spat on the ground, made a paste with the spittle, put this over the eyes of the blind man,

John 9:7 and said to him, ‘Go and wash in the Pool of Siloam’ (the name means ‘one who has been sent’). So he went off and washed and came back able to see.

John 9:8 His neighbours and the people who used to see him before (for he was a beggar) said, ‘Isn’t this the man who used to sit and beg?’

John 9:9 Some said, ‘Yes, it is the same one.’ Others said, ‘No, but he looks just like him.’ The man himself said, ‘Yes, I am the one.’

John 9:10 So they said to him, ‘Then how is it that your eyes were opened?’

John 9:11 He answered, ‘The man called Jesus made a paste, daubed my eyes with it and said to me, “Go off and wash at Siloam”; so I went, and when I washed I gained my sight.’

John 9:12 They asked, ‘Where is he?’ He answered, ‘I don’t know.’

John 9:13 They brought to the Pharisees the man who had been blind.

John 9:14 It had been a Sabbath day when Jesus made the paste and opened the man’s eyes,

John 9:15 so when the Pharisees asked him how he had gained his sight, he said, ‘He put a paste on my eyes, and I washed, and I can see.’

John 9:16 Then some of the Pharisees said, ‘That man cannot be from God: he does not keep the Sabbath.’ Others said, ‘How can a sinner produce signs like this?’ And there was division among them.
